CITY AND VICINITY.

Sheriff Woodbury has appointed C. J. Doornbos as deputy.

Albert Keppel is agent for the Buck automobile. It is a 2 cylinder touring car and very popular.

One of our local physicians lost $75 which was picked from his pocket by a "slick" thief on the Fourth.

Zeeland has no more booze for sale not even in the drug stores. By mutual agreement the druggists have refused to handle any more liquor. A few have refused to handle it even for medicinal purposes and have not even taken out a license.

Rev. Wm. Wolvius, pastor of the Fourth Reformed church, preached his farewell sermon Sunday afternoon to a large congregation. Rev. and Mrs. Wolvius left Monday night for Fulton, Ill., where the former will be installed Thursday afternoon.

Two boys of this city, Timothy Seizema, aged 16, and Delbert Strowenars, aged 15, became tired of life in this city July fourth and made a tour on their own account visiting St. Joseph, Benton Harbor and Indianapolis. The boys traveled in the "Jack London" style on freight cars. But the enchantments of distance soon tired them and Monday they came back to the home circle.

Congressman G. J. Diekema will go to Grand Rapids Friday night to attend the public reception to be tendered Ambassador T. J. O'Brien by the residents of that city. Mr. O'Brien has just returned from Denmark where he represented this country as its ambassador, and is about to go to Japan to occupy a similar high post. Mr. Diekema, Senators Wm. Alden Smith and J. C. Burrows will be the speakers.

At the school election in Zeeland Monday there was a rather lively time. A new addition to the school house is to be built and the opposition to this proposition put up for a candidate C. Roosenraad. This faction tried to block every move toward building the new school. However Representative Lahuis defeated Mr. Roosenraad by a vote of 126 to 58. The board is now composed of C. J. DenHerder, A. Lahuis, F. Boonstra, James Cook and John Schipper.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Van der Hill Sunday—a son.

J. B. Mulder and Art VanDuren caught 28 white bass in three hours Friday evening.

The $3,000 board walk at Macatawa park which is a mile long will be completed the latter part of July. This walk will be the promenade at this resort.

A new art iron fence that will surround the pool in Centennial Park arrived Tuesday. It will be put in place on the mason work.

The attempt to establish another daily in Grand Haven has failed. J. W. Graves tried it beginning about two weeks ago. He has already abandoned the project and has turned it into a weekly called the "Advocate."

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Golds, living at 55 West Thirteenth street, lost their little six months old son Saturday morning of spinal meningitis. The remains were taken to Grand Rapids for burial Monday. Golds is motorman on the Holland interurban.

A new boiler is being placed in the dredge belonging to the Smith Dredge & Tug Line of Manistee. The boiler gave out while at work on the Saugatuck harbor and it was towed to Harrington's dock where it is being put in shape.

Rudolph Groenewoud, 7 years old, fell off the Graham & Morton dock Tuesday afternoon and would have drowned had not Charles Bird jumped into the bay and rescued him. Rudolph and his companions were in bathing and while engaged in a friendly scuffle on the dock, fell.

The humane society should get after the abusers of dumb animals. Nearly every week we hear of abuses being perpetrated. This week it happens to be a horse belonging to the livery of Fred Stratton, where a careless driver drove a horse in such reckless fashion that the horse died afterwards. The horse cost Fred $150.

S. Huntley has a number of traps in the neighboring lakes and has had good success in catching turtles. Recently he made two shipments to Philadelphia, the first one weighing 403 pounds and the second 350 pounds. Fancy prices are paid in the east for the turtles which are there sold, after dressing, as sea-turtles, for soup chiefly.

Allegan will have a team of horses for its fire department. The Allegan News says as follows: The harness was received this week by Malloy & Hayward. It is just like that which is in general use in the cities. The combination wagon is not expected for about two weeks, so the people of Allegan will not be able to see our new equipment in action for that long at least. The horses—well wait till you see them go.

While adjusting a belt to a pulley in the Bush & Lane piano factory Saturday, A. Shepel, living at 29 East Nineteenth street, was wound around the revolving shaft and was seriously injured before aid came to him. The accident happened in the veneering department. On examination by Drs. Fisher and Kremers it was found that he was internally injured and the abdomen was terribly mutilated. Shepel is married and has a family. At the present writing he is resting easy and on a fair way to recovery.

Grand Rapids Maccabees are planning on a great time the first week in August. One thousand of them expect to decamp, bag and baggage, and move on peaceful little Allegan, the occasion being the annual field day and picnic of the West Michigan association. This West Michigan association, which acts as host for the big picnic, is a social combination of all the Maccabees in five counties—Kent, Ottawa, Muskegon, Allegan and Kalamazoo. It is a comparatively new association. The first two years the picnics were held in Grand Rapids, but since the other counties have joined, it has been deemed proper to pass the honor around. Jenison park is talked of however, as a good place for the 1908 round up, despite the fact that the picnic was held here once before. The annual election will occur August 3. The candidate generally spoken of to succeed Dr. Veenboer is Charles Floyd of Holland and Grand Rapids. Mr. Floyd was president two years ago.

Over 1000 visitors were reported brought in by the Graham & Morton boats on the 4th.

During July Captain Austin Harrington will receive a big shipment of coal by boat, the second time in the history of his fuel business that he has received his coal via water route. One of the big freighters, the Topeka, will bring here in one load between twelve and fifteen hundred tons of coal, or nearly fifty carloads.

Norman Pearl, a resident of this city years ago, has returned, after serving a sentence in Jackson prison for incest. He was sent from this county in 1893, his sentence being 20 years, but he was given nearly seven years credit for good behavior. He said that he was very lonely for the first few days after he was released, not knowing anyone outside of prison walls. He still has relatives here.

It has been discovered that all the county corrections and charitable agents in the state were legislated out of office because of a clause in the juvenile court bill, now a law providing that when the law goes into effect the governor shall appoint a complete corps of officers. However, it is expected that Gov. Warner will merely reappoint the county agent now on the job.

Under the law establishing juvenile courts in Michigan and giving judges of probate power in juvenile cases, those officials will receive additional salaries based on the population of the respective counties, the rate being $100 for every 15,000 inhabitants or fraction thereof. County agents will also receive better compensation for juvenile cases and will not be compelled, as in the past, to do a good lot of work for nothing.

August Tribe is wanted for assaulting Dell Cook at Willard Pierce's barber shop Wednesday. Tribe asked for a quick shave—once over. When Mr. Cook had shaved over once he raised the chair to finish and let the customer out. Tribe asked Cook if that was all he was going to do, and when told that it was, as he had asked for a shave once over, he left the chair and struck Cook in the face, cutting his lip badly. A warrant is out for him.—Allegan Gazette. Cook ran a barber shop in Holland some years ago.

Attorney George Kollen of Holland was in Allegan last Tuesday looking over the files in the case of the township of Zeeland vs. the Holland Interurban railway which is to be appealed to the supreme court. Recently, at Grand Haven, Judge Padgham ruled that the company had the right to charge five cents fare in the township of Zeeland and another five cents in the city of Zeeland. The complainants wish the company to carry passengers through the township and village on one fare, which they refuse to do. Mr. Kollen has asked the higher court for a ruling.

Jakie Ver Hey, the five year old son of Wm. Ver Hey, East Fifteenth street, was injured Friday by running into a gravel wagon driven by Jerry Slotman. The accident occurred at Columbia avenue and Eighth street. Slotman was driving along when the child ran into the street and without looking where he was going ran between the horses and the front wheel. He was knocked down, but the wagon was stopped just as the rear wheel touched the child. His arm was crushed, but no other injury was apparent. He was taken into the office of Dr. Mabbis and cared for. No fault is attached to the driver, as the child rushed from the walk into the road without a moments' hesitation, running blindly into the wagon.

The G. & M. company has declared war on pickpockets operating on its boats. A force of plain clothes men, all experienced crook catchers, have been placed on duty for service when traffic is heavy and Saturday afternoon the first results of this protection were given when Detective George Ford caught Jack Stanton, a bell boy on the City of Chicago, at work lifting purses and jewelry. Stanton was placed under arrest and is now at the county jail. Stanton was suspected of working at the slippery hand game on the Fourth. He was shadowed and Saturday afternoon on the trip across the lake was caught red handed and captured.

It was $14.24 that R. E. Heili of Grand Rapids paid Justice Van Duren for surpassing the speed limit with his auty Saturday.

During the month of June Poundmaster VerWey killed fifteen dogs that had been allowed to roam the streets untaged. During the same month 206 tags were issued, 10 more than were issued last June. There are now four homeless and unclaimed dogs in the pound. The poundmaster again warns dog owners to take out licenses for their pets and thus save their lives.

The sports committee contrived a program of sports on the fourth in which a number of persons participated. C. Kolkman caught the greased pig, after it had slipped through many other hands. Several prominent Holland ladies tried to catch the porker. Mrs. Reuben Tasker of Laketown won $1 in the nail driving contest by her ability to drive four spikes into a piece of of wood.

The Fourth Reformed church has extended a call to the Rev. James Wayer, for the last three years pastor of the Reformed church at East Holland, to succeed the Rev. William Wolvius, who will soon leave for his new charge at Fulton, Ill. The other two composing the trio were the Rev. A. Vander Werf, of Randolph Center, Wis., and the Rev. G. Donwstra of Gano, Ill.

Mrs. Lambertus Hoeksema died Sunday evening at 11 o'clock at her home in East Holland. The deceased was 70 years of age and is survived by six children. They are Mrs. Lane Brandt, Peter and Albert Hoeksema of this city, Jacob Hoeksema of Hamilton, Mrs. Henry Poels, New Holland and John Hoeksema of East Holland. The funeral was held Wednesday at 1 o'clock from the home and at 2 o'clock from the East Holland church, Rev. J. Homan officiating.

Deputy Sheriff Doornbos arrested Joseph Williams Friday for assault and battery. He struck Habenga because he could not understand the english language having just come over from the old country. Both men work at the north side tannery and Williams who was superintending the work there was not satisfied with the work of the Hollander and after admonishing him several times he became so unreasonable as to strike the poor fellow in the eye. Van Duren's court gave William's a well deserved fine of $10.

Two boats of the Illinois Motor Boat club, the Pioneer and Rough Rider, came into port Thursday night, on their way from Michigan City, where they participated in a race, to Mackinac. The two boats carry about twenty men, and the crews spent the fourth at the resorts. The Pioneer was under Captain Hanson, and Commodore Theodore Weise commanded the Rough Rider. They wanted to arrange a race here, but motor boating is not a common sport here. The men are pleased with the Macatawa Bay resorts.

Holland had a big time and a great crowd on July 4 and no one was seriously hurt or killed. Quite a number of Grand Haven people went down to the county metropolis to help them celebrate the day. About the only objection they had to offer was the fact that Holland had the lid on and drinks were few and far between. Lieutenant Governor Patrick H. Kelley, strengthened his already strong hold on the people of Ottawa county by making a patriotic address. All in all Holland had considerable of a time. Grand Haven Tribune.

The success of Holland's Fourth of July celebration was duly and properly celebrated in its turn Monday night by the members of the Holland Merchants' association. The secondary celebration was in its way as great a success as the big show. Charles Floyd was the host. The affair began with a dinner at Olympia pavilion, Jenison park. President E. B. Standart of the Merchants' association acted as toastmaster. Responses were made by Congressman Diekema, Representative N. J. Whelan, Mr. Floyd, Mayor McCarthy of Bird Center, and Jacob Lokker, chairman of the Fourth of July committee, J. B. Mulder, chairman of the Fourth of July finance committee, John Vander Sluis, John Kelley, B. P. Donnelly and Ben Mulder. After the dinner there was a ride on Lake Michigan and the bay.

People We Know

They are Holland People, and What They Say is of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home, it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many stranger occurrences go the rounds of the press; are published as facts, people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens, and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

J. W. Flieman, wagon maker and painter, 83 River street, Holland, Mich., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and can give them the highest praise. I suffered for a long time from severe backache. There were dull pains in the small of my back and at times, sharp, shooting twinges would dart through my loins and limbs and I could hardly bend, stoop or lift any thing. If I sat down in a chair, it was only with great difficulty that I was able to arise. My muscles and joints were very stiff. I consulted physicians and they told me I had lumbago, but after using their remedies and finding that they were not helping me, decided to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. I procured a box at H. R. Doesburg's drug store and after using them some time felt that they were giving me relief. I continued taking them carefully and all the troubles were soon eradicated and I was positively cured. This occurred over four years ago and I can conscientiously say that I have not suffered the slightest symptom of kidney trouble since that time. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a great many people and will continue to do so."

An addition has also been made to the office force, and every facility is now presented to give prompt and efficient service to either buyer or seller. New lists are being prepared for the Spring demand, which promises to be greater than ever before, and owners desiring to dispose of their property should list at once.

WOMAN BETRAYS RUNYAN

DEFAULTING TELLER ARRESTED IN A NEW YORK FLAT.

Police Recover $54,410 of the Money He Stole from the Windsor Trust Company.

New York, July 6.—Chester B. Runyan, the defaulting teller of the Windsor Trust company, was arrested in New York Friday and $54,410 of the money stolen from the bank was recovered.

Runyan was found in the apartment of Mrs. Laura Carter, of 619 West One Hundred and Forty-fourth street, where he had been since he walked out of the bank on Saturday with all the money in the teller's vault packed in his suit case.

Mrs. Carter reported at the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street police station Friday afternoon that Runyan was in her flat. Five detectives at once accompanied her to the house. She furnished them with a key to the apartment and two of the detectives entered the room while the others remained outside.

As the detectives entered Runyan was standing in front of a chiffonier. He turned suddenly on the officers with a revolver in his hand. The detectives rushed at him, telling him to throw up his hands. He thereupon dropped the revolver and calmly submitted to being handcuffed, saying "the jig is up."

When asked where the money was, he said that part of it was in the suit case and the rest was in a drawer of the chiffonier.

RATES RAISED IN REVENGE.

Shippers of Southwest File Complaint Against Railroads.

Washington, July 6.—A serious charge was made in a complaint filed with the interstate commerce commission Friday against the Missouri Pacific and a number of other western railroads by corporations, partnerships and individuals engaged in the flour milling trade of Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri.

It is alleged that an advance in rates on flour was made by the defendant companies in revenge against the complainants because of a petition which was filed with the interstate commerce commission less than a month ago alleging that the railroads charged unjust and unreasonable rates to the Atlantic markets as compared with the rates on flour and wheat products from Minneapolis and other northwestern points.

TWO DIE IN TROLLEY ACCIDENT.

Car Plunges Over Embankment Near Clarksburg, W. Va.—Ten Hurt.

Clarksburg, W. Va., July 8.—Heavily laden with passengers who were enjoying an outing, an open trolley car on the Fairmont & Clarksburg Traction company's system jumped the track just outside the city limits Sunday night and crashed over an embankment, instantly killing two persons, fatally injuring one and seriously injuring nine others.

The dead are: Miss Grace Markler, Clarksburg, and W. T. Gray, engineer of the Washington Carbon works, Clarksburg. Miss Maggie M. Robinson, of Fairmont, is dying at St. Mary's hospital.

June Fire Losses $14,765,000.

New York, July 6.—The losses by fire in the United States and Canada during June, as compiled from the records of the Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin, aggregate $14,765,000. This brings the total fire waste for the first half of 1907 up to $117,477,500, as compared with $377,665,550 for a like portion of the year 1906, but these figures include $280,000,000 chargeable to the San Francisco conflagration.

Decision in Phonograph War.

New York, July 6.—Supreme Court Justice Martin J. Keogh rendered a decision Friday barring all dealers in this state from selling or handling the Thomas A. Edison records or supplies without the permission of the New York Phonograph company. The dealers, of whom there are some 940, are ordered to give an accounting of all records sold for the last ten years. It is estimated that about $32,000,000 is involved in the suit.

J. G. McMahon Dies Suddenly.

Martinsville, Ind., July 6.—J. G. McMahon, a prominent politician of Ohio, died suddenly Friday evening at a sanitarium while conversing with his wife. He was 61 years old, and had served in the Ohio state senate, the lower branch of the state legislature and an unexpired term as United States senator. His remains were taken to Hamilton, O., for burial.

Large Playground for Jersey City.

New York, July 8.—Jersey City is to have the largest playground in the world. It will be about six times as large as the great Stadium at Athens, and more than half as large again as the famous parade ground adjoining Prospect park, Brooklyn, which has 20 baseball diamonds, 11 cricket fields, and scores of tennis courts and lawns for various other games.

To Preside at Hargis Trial.

Frankfort, Ky., July 6.—Attorney W. B. Moody, of the Henry county bar, was Friday appointed by Gov. Beckham and commissioned to preside in the trial of Judge James Hargis and others, charged with complicity in the assassination of Dr. B. D. Cox at Jackson, Breathitt county, several years ago.

BACK TO FRANKLIN THEORY.

Modern Scientists May Be Forced to Rehabilitate It.

More than a hundred years have elapsed since Benjamin Franklin, employing a phraseology now superseded, put forth a theory of matter, says a writer in Current Literature. It was pronounced "a delusion" by the physicists of the nineteenth century, but the scientists of the twentieth century, according to Sir Oliver Lodge, may be forced to rehabilitate it as the only means of issue from the labyrinth in which all physical study is now involved. Stripped of technical verbiage and put briefly, the Franklin theory is that electricity and matter in combination form a neutral substance, which is the atom of matter as we know it. The most interesting part of the problem for ourselves, says Sir Oliver, is the explanation of matter in terms of electricity, the view that electricity, as Franklin seems to have supposed, the fundamental "substance." What we men of to-day have been accustomed to regard as an indivisible atom of matter is thus built up out of electricity. All atoms—atoms of all sorts of "substances"—are built up of the same thing. In our day, to put it more clearly, the theoretical and proximate achievement of what philosophers from Franklin's day to ours have always sought—a unification of matter—is offering itself to physical inquiry.

SERVANT PROBLEM IN CUBA.

Cook is in Sole Charge of the Domestic Cuisine.

The Cuban matron has little to say in the management of her own household, as the family literally board with their cook, who has sole control of the cuisine. When a cook is engaged she is paid so much per month—$10, $15 or $20, as the case may be—for her work. She at once inquires how much is allowed for the marketing, which she is to do each morning. On being told, she figures out how much she can save from the amount, and if the graft amount to say 15 or 20 cents per day, she is likely to accept the position. She rarely sleeps at the house, and usually has a family of her own who are fed from the larder of her employer. Early breakfast is light—fruit, rolls and coffee—and at noon there is a meal known as late breakfast, which resembles the American luncheon. When this is finished the cook spends a few hours at her home and returns at five o'clock in time to prepare dinner. A half-grown girl is employed to wait on the table, answer the door bell, etc. In some families male cooks are employed. If the meals do not suit the master of the house he adds more money to the marketing allowance.—Mrs. C. R. Miller, in Leslie's Weekly.

Hard to Answer.

One day Robert Herrick, the novelist, was impressing upon his class in English literature, in the University of Chicago, the importance of reading what had been written with a purpose and had character and power. He contrasted forcefully such literature with the light, rapid, frivolous sort that seemed to appeal to such a large percentage of readers. He then asked each student to tell him frankly which kind he was reading. After nearly all had confessed to something light, he came to a tall westerner, who showed a tendency to evade the question. "It can't be possible, I hope," said Herrick, "that you are not reading anything?" "No, it is not that," replied the westerner. "The fact is, I am reading your latest novel, and I can't decide to which class it belongs."—Lippincott's Magazine.

His High Estimation of Steam.

Carlyle once startled the English-speaking people into recognition of the value of their great dramatist by suddenly asking the British public which it would rather lose, Shakespeare or India? I thought of that the other day, musing the editor of the Ruder, when I was reading an article on steam navigation. What would the world rather lose than steam? What? Why, almost everything; our literature, our art, our religions. Nothing we have is so valuable as steam. It is the greatest civilization the world has ever possessed.

JUST SNIFFED THE WHISKY.

New Yorker Claims Act Gives Him Pleasant Memories.

A man entered a downtown restaurant the other day and ordered a whisky, says the New York Times. The waiter brought a bottle of it. The man uncorked it, raised it to his nose, and took a long sniff. Then he took another. Then he took a third—a long, contemplative sniff. Finally he wound up the performance with a fervent king-sniff, one that he seemed loth to end. But he did end it at last, with a sigh. Then he replaced the bottle on the table, and called the waiter.

"Take it away," he said. The waiter removed the bottle. "Well, upon my word," said some one at another table, "I certainly thought that old fellow liked that whisky from the way he sniffed at it, but there he is sending it back. I wonder what other kind the waiter will bring him instead."

But the waiter brought him no more whisky. The man ate his lunch in silence, smoked his cigar, paid his check, and went his way. "He swore off long ago," explained the waiter to a curious somebody at another table. "But he always takes six sniffs of whisky at every meal. Gives him pleasant memories, he says."

JILTED BOYS JOIN ARMY.

Cupid Said to Make Effective Recruiting Officer.

amination, and all from boys under "The love affairs of the very young men of Kansas City must be in a deuce of a state," said Lieut. Roger O. Mason, recruiting officer. "To-day we have had 12 applications for enlistment, eight passing the physical exam who could not get the consent of their parents to join the army. That indicates that 12 young men who had tiffs with their sweethearts now are looking for lives of adventure and danger to make them forget their troubles, and incidentally to make the young women feel sorry when they see the brave heroes they have scorned marching jauntily, clad in blue uniforms and brass buttons, while all the girls look on lost in admiration.

"Experience has shown that the main reason young men of good families find for wishing to enlist in the army is because of affairs of the heart which have turned out badly. Occasionally a wish for what he believes will be a career full of excitement or a boy's natural wish to be a soldier makes the young men who are under age enlist, but usually it is the heartache."—Kansas City Journal.

IN THE NATURE OF PICKUP.

Woman Wanted the Express Charges Saved to Store.

A young woman entered a store in Washington and bought a smoking jacket. "Of course you will pay the express charges on this for me?" she said, with a winning smile.

"Certainly, madam," replied the clerk. "We will pay express anywhere within 100 miles."

"What will the express charge be to Blankville, W. Va.?" she asked.

"Never mind how much it will be," said the clerk. "Whatever it may be, the amount will be paid."

"But I want to know the cost," she persisted.

"I would have to 'phone the express company to get it. Why are you so anxious?"

"Because I am going to Blankville, and I will carry the package out there myself and deliver it. I want you to deduct from the price of it the amount you would have to pay the express company." And then with the sweetest of smiles she added, "Remember the saying of the good old woman, 'Let nothing go to waste.'"

King Alfonso's Full Title.

King Alfonso XIII. is said to be the only man who was ever born a king! A posthumous son of Alfonso XII, who died in November, 1885, was born in May of the following year and was immediately proclaimed king under the regency of his mother, who was an imperial princess of the house of Austria. He was the third child of his parents, the two Infantas, Mercedes and Marie-Therese, having been born in 1880 and 1882, respectively. The full title of Alfonso XIII. is Leon-Ferdinand-Marie-Jacques-Isidore-Pascal-Antoine, king of Spain, of Castile, of Leon d'Aragon, of the two Sicilies, of Jerusalem, Minorca and Majorca, of Seville, Valencia, Galicia, of Cordova, Gibraltar, of the Canary Islands, and of the East and West Indies, besides which he bears numerous ducal and archducal titles.—Harper's Bazar.

End of Pullman as a Feudal City.

George M. Pullman's dream of a model city has at last vanished in thin air. His vision of a Utopia for laboring men is shattered. It is a thing of the past. It was the supreme court of Illinois that punctured the bubble, and the town of Pullman, famous the world over as an ideal manufacturing town, takes its place along with the numerous other suburbs of Chicago, and its Utopian existence comes to an end. To be sure, the red brick city remains, with its 12,000 inhabitants, but the great Pullman company does not own it from center to circumference, as it once did. One by one the tenants are buying the cottages and dwellings in the town, and it will not be long before the 2,000 houses will be sold.

Some Hood Puns.

The punning preeminence of Hood was appreciated in high quarters. In Chatsworth's splendid libraries, on the dummy backs which veil the imitation doors, one may see specimens of Hood's little jokes. Here are a few: Beverage on the Beer Act; Wren's Voyage to the Canaries; Minto's Coins; Horn Took on Catching Cows; Macadam's Rhodes; Bramah's Rape of the Lock; Inigo Jones on Secret Entrances; Estherazy on Spring Fogs; Dyspepsia and Heartburn, by the Bishop of Sodor; Skye, by McCloud; Diddin's Cream of Tar. Such pleasures seem just a trifle odd when you remember the priceless volumes on the Chatsworth shelves.—London Chronicle.

The Great Heron Must Go.

The great heron is not the only one of that family to subsist on a fish diet, but out of over a dozen species it is the largest and most gluttonous of its kind, and without a single redeeming quality, except, perhaps, the laughable and grotesque manner it swallows a fish. Louis Rea, the artist-sportsman, suggests in Recreation that steps should be taken by followers of Isaac Walton to see that the lawmakers of our various states should pass laws that will give the needed protection from these destroyers of our game fish.

JOHN SMITH'S YEAR

"I read a paragraph a few days ago to the effect that this would be a great year for John Smith," said the traveling man who was fixing up the cards in a game in the smoker. "It didn't appeal to me.

"As most of you know, that's my name. I am not ashamed of it, but I don't mind saying that I would like to trade it off until that Jamestown affair is over.

"If we could have a set of expert humorists to get up the jokes conditions might be more tolerable; but for everybody you meet to take a shy at the family patronymic is tiresome.

"My house thought it would be a good card to have me on the ground the day the show opened at Norfolk. I arrived the night before and put up at a convenient hotel. When I wrote my name on the register the torture began.

"You're the first on the ground!" exclaimed the clerk, who was evidently a raw one. I confess, however, that I didn't take his meaning of the bat.

"Of course you want the best in the house," continued the mushroom, with a smirk on his face. Then he hammered it in. "The Smith family has the right of way here," he continued, "and specially John."

"Ordinarily I'm pretty quick on the trigger, but the wretch kept ahead of me. Before I could unlumber he handed out another.

"We'll give you the Pocahontas chamber, John—pardon—Mr. Smith. Front!"

"Before the bellhop made the plate I was at the bat. I won't delay the game, gentlemen, by quoting my own words, but when I was through the excrement behind the counter was sneaking away as if he had squatted on the hot end of an evicted hornet. In spite of apologies by the landlord I walked out of that tavern and put up at a boarding house where they don't keep books.

"The next day I dropped in at the telegraph office and asked if there was anything for John Smith. The man looked at me as a fellow looks at a bug on the sidewalk on April 1. Quicker than you get your cards I showed him my watch containing my picture and name, and then threw down a bundle of old letters to clinch the identification.

"I am John Smith," I said, with the words underscored, "and I don't want any funny business."

"The man at the window handed out four wires to my address and said in a quiet way that was rather soothing: "I reckon you are John Smith all right, but don't go round here with the idea that you're the only one. The twelfth went out just ahead of you."

"I thought it was time for me to do the funny stunt. Seeing that I had anticipated trouble, I said:

"Then I'm No. 13."

"As I was going out I heard the man at the window say, 'You're liable to be 23 before you're much older.'

"I'll owe that fellow one until I meet him again. I am not the only one of the name that is dodging it, either.

"The last night I was in the town I went to the office of a hotel. It was crowded. While I was sitting and smoking an office boy with a telegram pushed his way through the jam, calling out, 'Smith, John Smith! Smith, John Smith!'

"Nobody responded. The boy took the telegram back to the clerk, who looked over at the line of occupied chairs along the wall, and called out:

"What's the matter with you Smiths over there? I know at least a half dozen of you are of that name, and here's a telegram for one of you. What are you afraid of?"

"Not a man in the line moved. Later on in the evening after the mob had scattered I sneaked up to the clerk and asked him if anybody had claimed the message.

"Yes," he snorted. "The message has been read by six different Smiths. Maybe you're the right one. I hope so."

"I took it. It was for me. I apologized for my part of the trouble. I said in a meek sort of way that I wasn't to blame for my name.

"Course not," snapped the tired clerk, "but if you Smiths would only get together and mark yourselves in some way it would save a whole lot of trouble in this hotel."

"I left that town the next morning, and I shall be traveling away from it as long as the exposition lasts. And I've burnt up all my cards."

How It Happened.

Unaccounted ages ago, while the Egyptian sphinx was young and tender, there came a season much like this one.

The day being unusually warm, with a promise of warmer days to come, the sphinx changed her garments and put on lighter ones.

Within a few minutes the weather became 40 degrees colder.

The sphinx sneezed with great violence, and her nose dropped off.

Petrified with astonishment, she remained rooted to the spot.

And has remained there ever since.—Chicago Tribune.

Not a Trouble.

"The trouble," said the reformer, "is that people cannot be persuaded to think for themselves."

"That's not a trouble," answered Senator Sorghum, "that's lucky for people like you and me who hire out to do their thinking for them."—Washington Star.

QUALITIES OF THE OYSTER.

One Particularly Good Point Which Bore Might Emulate.

A San Franciscan has discovered a new method of cutting short recitals that promise to become too long-winded. An acquaintance of his, who has a local reputation as a bore, was one day holding forth at some length when the Californian interrupted him with: "By the way, did I ever tell you the story of the oyster?" On receiving a negative reply, he continued: "It seems that when oysters are taken from the sea they often open their shells so that the juice or liquid runs out. As this is undesirable, the experienced oyster gatherer has a tub of water close at hand into which the oyster is plunged as soon as it begins to open its shell." "Well, and what then?" asked the other as the narrator paused. The San Franciscan smiled. "Oh, after a while the oyster learns to keep its mouth shut," he remarked quietly.

Great Slaughter of Salmon.

In the Sea of Okotsk the salmon are suicidal and one of the most startling examples of the spendthrift side of nature may be found in the rivers that run into this sea. When six years old the salmon begin a voyage of death. Ascending the river of their infancy they race in countless thousands upstream until lack of food and lack of elbow room kill them off. A recent traveler declares that, however many millions of salmon may run up the river, not one ever reaches the sea again alive. What becomes of the rivers of dead salmon? The seagulls wheel down upon the scene and feast upon their eyes, scornful anything less dainty. Bears, wolves, foxes and sledge dogs are made comfortable for the year.

To Tell Horse's Character.

It is easy to tell a horse's character by his nose, according to an army officer. If the profile has a gentle curve and at the same time the ears are pointed and sensitive, the animal may be depended on as being gentle and at the same time high-spirited. On the other hand, if the horse has a dent in the middle of his nose it is safe to set him down as treacherous and vicious. A horse with a slight concavity in the profile will be easily scared and needs coaxing, while one that droops his ears is apt to be both lazy and vicious.

Lye Ruins Eyeglasses.

A Ludlow woman learned by experience what any chemist could have told her, that lye will ruin eyeglasses, says the Kansas City Star. The woman was making soap and splashed a drop or two of the mixture on her glasses. She took a cloth and endeavored to clean them, but was amazed to find that all the colors of the rainbow were reflected in the lenses. No amount of washing would remove the colors, and it was necessary to get new lenses.

THE TALE OF A FISH.

As Related to His Friends by the Voracious Jenkins.

They had been discussing fish and fishing, when Jenkins suddenly added: "Did I ever tell you about Pitti Sing, my pet Japanese fan-tailed goldfish? Bought her from Jake Hope for $45 and she is no longer than your finger. But about her intelligence. Of course, she comes when called and eats out of your hand and all that childish nonsense; but here's a thing she did which indicates thought, reasoning, brainwork. One day a candlestick fell from the mantel on to the thick glass bowl in which Pitti Sing was dreaming. The candlestick cracked the bowl and knocked a small hole in it. Pitti Sing, all alone in the drawing room, saw the water that was essential to her existence flowing through the hole, and what do you think she did? She plugged up the leak with her tail, and in that position I found her on my return an hour or so later. She had saved her life, but the end of her tail, from exposure to the air, was all shriveled and cracked. I had to massage it with cold cream before the poor little thing could swim again." There was painful silence for a few minutes; then when Dumphy said it looked like rain everybody but Jenkins followed him out.

Smoked in Church.

Although the present universal habit of smoking is of comparatively recent date, the use of tobacco was carried to a great excess when it was first introduced. Our ancestors smoked even in church. All such offenders were solemnly excommunicated by Urban VIII in 1624, and again by Innocence XII. in 1690, when the practice seems to have extended to Rome itself. There was William Bredon, too, vicar of Thornton, "a profound divine, and absolutely the most polite person for nauties in that age," of whom the astrologer Lilly says that "when he had no tobacco he would cut the bell ropes and smoke them."

New Style of Paper.

"Right in the middle of a story, my paper gave out," said a newspaper woman, "and I sent in haste to the local stationer's around the corner. I wrote a note as follows: 'Please send a pad of yellow paper, 8x10, unlined preferable.'"

The maid brought back the pad, on the wrapping of which the proprietor had written: "Hope this will do. It is yellow and unlined, but we are all out of preferable."

SCHMITZ SENTENCED TO PENITENTIARY

FRISCO MAYOR CONVICTED OF EXTORTION, GIVEN FIVE YEARS IN SAN QUENTIN.

Cheers and Applause from Big Crowd Greet the Announcement—Prisoners Protests Against Being "Lectured" by Judge—Attorney Rebuked.

San Francisco, July 9.—Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz, convicted of extortion, was Monday sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. When the sentence was pronounced there was a remarkable outburst of applause from the hundreds of persons who crowded Judge Dunne's courtroom. Judge Dunne sentenced Mayor Schmitz to imprisonment in San Quentin penitentiary. Sentence followed the recent conviction of Schmitz for extorting $1,175 from French restaurant keepers of San Francisco.

Sentence Greeted with Cheers.

As the last words of the sentence fell from the judge's lips the great crowd that had stood throughout the dramatic scene, sent up a thunderous cheer. "Good for you!" shouted a man in the back of the room. His ejaculation was echoed and reechoed by one after another of the spectators. Several threw their hats into the air; others scrambled upon chairs to look over the shoulders of the crowd and the greatest confusion prevailed.

Attorney Fairall of the defense, raising his voice above the din, called out to Judge Dunne:

"Your honor, this cheering is a very unseemly occurrence."

"Well," retorted Judge Dunne, with spirit, "if we had a sheriff worthy of the name it would have been stopped instantly."

Sheriff Thomas O'Neill was standing inside the rail. He turned to the court and protested. "Nobody could have stopped that, your honor."

Scene Without a Parallel.

The sentence of the convicted mayor was in one respect without a parallel in the criminal annals of San Francisco. Half a dozen times Judge Dunne was interrupted by Schmitz, who protested in strong words against the "delivery of a lecture" instead of the announcement of judgment. He accused the court of unnecessarily humiliating him, and giving opportunity for further humiliation by the reporting of his remarks in the press. Once, replying to the prisoner, Judge Dunne said:

"Such brazen effrontery was probably no more than should be expected, and it is the duty of the court to bear it in patience."

At another time Attorney Metson, of the defense, interposed a vigorous objection in support of his client, "to the court's lecture." Judge Dunne's reply was that Mr. Metson, instead of interrupting the proceedings, ought to be given a day in court to answer the charge that he had attempted to tamper with the jury which convicted Schmitz.

Metson, restraining himself, calmly answered in the same spirit, saying that he was ready to answer any charge that was made against him.

CATHOLICS ARE TO MEET.

American Federation of Societies Will Gather at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 9.—Prominent Catholics of the United States will meet here July 14 to 17 for the sixth national convention of the American Federation of Catholic societies at St. Peter and Paul cathedral.

Besides the regular representative there will be in attendance two Indian chiefs from South Dakota—Chief Horn Cloud and Chief No Water—who will represent 10,000 Catholic Indians, Juquin Fernan, president of the federation of Porto Rico, also is expected.

Subjects such as divorce, socialism, libraries, schools, Indian affairs and the crusade against immoral theatricals and advertisements will be discussed. Two mass meetings will be held at Tomlinson hall.

WIRE COMPANIES ACCUSED.

Postal and Western Union Are to Be Investigated.

New York, July 9.—Acting on a petition filed by Attorney General William S. Jackson, Justice M. W. Platzek in the supreme court Monday appointed R. Burnham Moffat, an attorney, to take evidence based on the attorney general's allegations that the Postal Telegraph & Cable company and the Western Union Telegraph company have formed an illegal combination to increase rates in New York and other states. Mr. Moffat announced that the first hearing in the matter will be held at his office in Wall street July 16.

Longworths on Way to Hawaii.

San Francisco, Cal., July 9.—According to a private telegram received here, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth will arrive in San Francisco in a day or two, en route to Hawaii. They are planning, it is said, to come into the city quietly and avoid publicity, and the arrangements in connection with their coming have been made so privately that even their personal friends do not know of their plans. The Longworths left Cincinnati two weeks ago to travel westward, and passed several days in Yellowstone park.

Holland's Fourth.

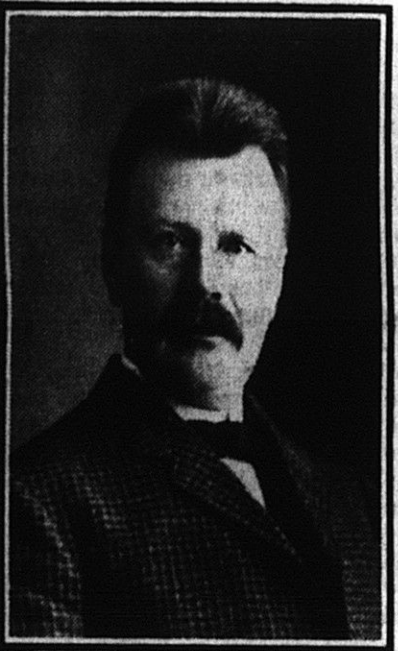

"The Fourth came to town" this year as the old children's rhyme goes, and it came to town as it never did before. It has been several years since Holland has done justice to herself on Independence Day but this year the celebration more than made up for all those years.

PATRICK H. KELLEY
Orator of the Day.

Some 20,000 people gathered on the streets of Holland so that it was about as easy to walk through a stone wall as through the crowd. The Interurban company put every available car into service and still many a one was compelled to exercise patience before he could be carried from one place to another. The weather was ideal and the fact that the rain the previous evening spoiled the bunting did not take very much enjoyment from the celebration. The different business men got busy and renewed many of the decorations early in the morning.

The Merchants' association can be justly proud of the success of celebration. Organized as they were but a short time ago this was practically their first venture as an organization, and they did it all in spite of the refusal of the council to help. They raised $1500 for the purpose, rolled up their sleeves figuratively and literally and went at the work like men.

The parade was of course the feature of the forenoon. It began at about 10 o'clock and took about 30 minutes to pass any given point. No expense had been spared to make the floats as attractive as possible and the whole effect was most beautiful. The automobiles headed the procession. They were handsomely decorated in gorgeous bunting and flags and came in the following order: Misses Grace Browning and Hazel Wing, Mrs. E. C. Bowman and Mrs. G. W. Browning, Mrs. A. Visscher and Mrs. J. J. Mersen, A. C. Keppel, G. W. Browning, Prof. H. R. Brush, Con DePree, Dr. E. D. Kremers, J. J. Cappin, C. M. McLean, F. W. Jackson, A. Postma and Henry Sterenburg.

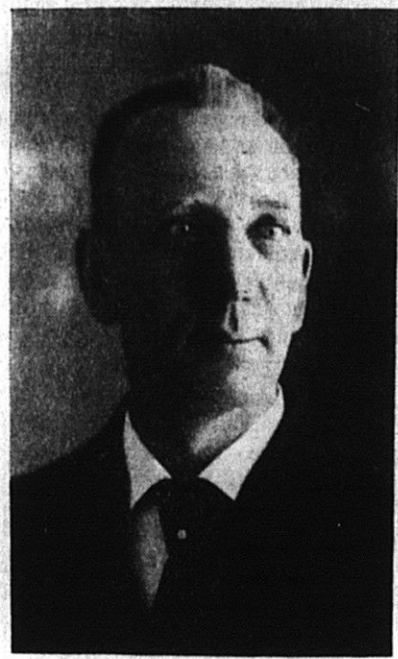

J. B. MULDER
Who was on Committee on Finance which secured money enough to make the celebration a success.

Three girls on horseback, Misses Lulu DeKruif of Zeeland and Marguerite Diekema and Pessink of this city headed the second division of the parade. In this division also were the Grand Rapids Military band and the Grand Rapids Battalion.

But the Colonial band made the hit of the day in the musical line. The members of the drum corps were dressed in old colonial costume of satin waist coat and powdered periwig. Their music was of a lively nature and the dress was original and unique in that it was the embodiment of the day that was being celebrated. This band was followed by the members of the G. A. R. Post and the Sons of the Veterans.

The Citizens' band, the city officials, the members of the two fire departments, and the members of the masons' union formed the next division. These were followed by the "Jolly Tars" and the Fraternal Neighbors of Grand Rapids. After that came the Polish band of Grand Rapids and the different floats.

The floats were most beautiful and quite a little originality was shown in the makeup. The following companies were represent-

At 11:30 the crowd surged to Centennial park where a temporary stage had been erected for the orators of the day. Mayor J. G. VanPutten, Congressman G. J. Diekema, Lieutenant Patrick H. Kelley were the speakers, while Speaker N. J. Whelan acted as chairman.

Mr. Kelley was the principal speaker and he delivered a stirring address full of sound patriotic sentiment. This is what the Detroit News says about his speech:

JACOB LOKKER
Who with Mr. Mulder secured the money required to hold the great demonstration

Lieut. Gov. Kelley, in his speech at Holland on Independence Day, dropped the Patrick Henry and bird of freedom kind of oratory long enough to talk to the people for a minute about the government of the state. He invited their attention to the fact that the state senate on the last day of the recent session refused by a tie vote to allow the people of the state to express their opinion about how candidates for state offices and for the United States senate ought to be nominated, although that expression of opinion was of no binding effect and could be taken at the next election without added expense. He inquired how it was possible that senators and representatives who appreciate the most elementary principles of representative government could refuse to hear the advice of those they represent, and pointed out that an agent in any private business who declined even to consult with his principle would not hold his job very long.

The lieutenant governor is entirely right in his fact and his conclusion, and The News is pleased to find so high an official, speaking as a republican, and practically advising the voters of this state to rebuke a certain element in his own party by giving its candidates a beating. This is the only inference to be drawn from his comparison of politics with business, and that line of conduct upon the part of the voters is the only one which will give them representatives who represent.

Mayor VanPutten spoke only a few introductory words in his usual characteristic terse style and then Mr. Diekema took the stand and congratulated Holland on the success of the celebration. Incidentally he made a fine address that should make Holland proud of possessing such a citizen. His general theme was the triumph of the Republic. In spite of everything pessimists had said and done this country has gone on in its triumphal march and is still going on. It is true we have our difficulties and problems and one of these is the immigration problem. We must take care of our citizenship to keep it pure and unsullied, and to guard it against the encroachments of the immigrants from southern Europe who are for the most part undesirable citizens until they have learned to love and respect our institutions.

In the afternoon there was a program of sports and contests. Large crowds also visited Jenison park in the afternoon. Everything was in full swing at the park and the Interurban company transported the crowds as quickly as could be expected under the circumstances.

In the evening there was a fine display of fireworks. An immense crowd watched them. They were not as elaborate as the committee planned to make them owing to the fact that some of them were delayed at the express office until the morning after the Fourth.

Shimmel Bound Over.

William Shimmel, charged with the murder of Martin Golden, the Dennison storekeeper and postmaster, has been bound over to the August term of the circuit court without bail, by Justice Wachs. This action was taken Friday afternoon at a session in Justice Wachs' court.

Attorney L. L. Park made an impassioned appeal for his client. He stated that the people had positively no case against Shimmel, that they were simply trying to make good with the people and had to jump on poor Shimmel to make a bluff at least. Park said that the People could, if they were a mind to, make a much stronger case against the McCarthy boys, Tom and "Sport."

Investigate Old Crime.

Under Sheriff Frank Salisbury and Deputy Sheriff Johns of Kent county were in Sparta last Wednesday investigating into the mysterious disappearance of one Reynolds who disappeared from that town in a peculiar way eight years ago and has never been heard of since. Mrs. Reynolds shortly after the disappearance of her husband married "Bill" Shimmel now in the Ottawa county jail charged with the murder of Martin Golden. It was hoped that the investigation would lead to the discovery of the cause of the disappearance of Reynolds as the Ottawa county officers contend and will always contend that Shimmel knows a great deal about that case.

Reynolds, his wife, a son aged 7 and a little daughter aged 5, resided in a little house in Sparta. Neighbors say that Shimmel used to come there often and they often spoke about it. One cold winter's night eight years ago Reynolds disappeared and he has never been heard from. Neighbors that night heard a disturbance in the Reynolds house and late at night Mrs. Reynolds and her two children went to one of the neighbors. The woman told them that her husband was insane and that he had run out of the house with scarcely any clothes and in his bare feet, despite the fact that it was midwinter and that she was afraid to stay in the house. She and her children remained at this neighbor's that night. Those people noticed that the woman's skirt was wet and in the morning when they returned with her to her house they noticed that the floor had been freshly scrubbed. Their supposition was then and is still that violence was done Reynolds that night and that the house had been scrubbed to rid it of tell tale evidence.

The neighbors say that Shimmel was in the Reynolds house that night and that he was around the next day Mrs. Reynolds continued to live alone several weeks and then went to Slocum and married Shimmel they say. Shimmel has since been divorced from the woman.

The Reynolds children have always declared and the little girl does still that her father was struck down by a strange man that night of his disappearance and that this man and her mother carried him out doors and he had never returned. The officers believe that the children are telling the truth and they believe that Reynolds was murdered.

Acting upon this belief the Ottawa and the Kent county officials last Wednesday looked over the ground on the property where the Reynolds' used to live thinking that they might find the burial place of the missing man, but they failed. They are still of the belief however that the body is somewhere near by.

We wondered why all the patrolmen smiled so funny on the Fourth. But the smile has come off. The self consciousness has disappeared. They have got used to their new suits.

The New Constitution.

Men who will pledge themselves in advance to burden the new state constitution with fantastic reforms and socialist requirements should not be made members of the constitutional convention. Candidates for membership in that body need not have the slightest hesitation in making prompt and decisive replies to questions that come to them as to their attitude in such directions. The question as to whether or not the moon is made of green cheese can be submitted to the people as an independent proposition if anybody desires it submitted. And so can some other propositions in which there is more or less interest. But the candidacy of men should not be favored who will endeavor to engraft them in the main body of the revised constitution.

What is a True Democrat?

What a true democrat should be, as brought out through the New York World's insistent question, what is a democrat? has been described by one who is either very much of an idealist or has a memory that goes far back of present conditions. Here is one quality referred to: A true democrat, who is a democrat from principle, deplores every appeal to class hatred and class prejudice as a menace to republican institutions. Sympathizes with labor, but as firmly set against socialism and predatory poverty as against predatory wealth. To array masses against classes, employed against employer, poor against rich, labor against capital, is a denial of the whole theory of democracy upon which Jefferson founded the democratic party. With the foregoing in mind as to what the democratic party was in the days of its pride and its prime, and then recalling what it is today, the reason for its demoralization and weakness can well be understood.

Common Council.

It will cost the city $1325 to stop the noise at the Nineteenth street pumping station. But the council thinks that it is worth that and a plan has been adopted toward erecting an additional building with shaftings and pulleys that will reduce the noise to a minimum. The people living in that part of the city will hail the change with joy as the noise is such a nuisance that real estate in that part of town has decreased in value considerably.

The Kinsella Glass company replied to council's order to abate the smoke nuisance asking that body for a method of abating the smoke. Alderman Van Oort said that it was not the council's business to suggest a means, and the matter was referred to the second ward aldermen.

City Engineer Naberhuis made a report on the Eighth street paving defects. Many defects were noted and Mr. Naberhuis was instructed to make a blue print showing the settlement and to have it ready at the next meeting of the council. The council also took steps toward paving East Eighth street which is in very poor condition. The pavement will extend from Land street to Fairbanks avenue.

On account of the defects that are showing in the brick pavement of Eighth street, the main thoroughfare of the city, the common council has decided to go after the scalp of Contractor Prange of Grand Rapids or his bondsmen unless he shows an inclination to make the necessary repairs. The pavement was constructed less than four years ago and all along the line depressions and elevations are apparent, most of which are found along the tracks of the Holland Interurban railway, and at the different street intersections, while the gutters for a distance of over 1,000 feet have settled on an average of three eighths of an inch. The pavement has been guaranteed to wear for a number of years and Mr. Prange will likely face a law suit unless he submits to the action of the city authorities.

Three plats of sub divisions of the city were before the council for approval, and all of them were referred to the committee on streets. One of the plats included the old Fredericks property, another was designated as the TeRoller addition, covering the property between Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets, and Maple street and First avenue; the third was a plat of South Prospect park addition.

The council ordered the construction of lateral sewers on West Fourteenth and West Fifteenth streets, between Harrison and Maple streets.

The clerk was instructed to serve notice on B. Riksen to remove within 30 days the old wooden building on Eighth street formerly occupied by M. Witvliet with a stock of hardware, the building being considered unsafe and a menace to the public.

T. Keppel's sons were awarded the contract for the material necessary in the construction of a sewer on Sixth street between Columbia and College avenues, on Columbia to Seventh street, east on Seventh to the viaduct and west on Seventh to College avenue.

Upon recommendation of the sidewalk committee sidewalks were ordered constructed on the south side of Sixth street, between College and Columbia avenues, and on the west side of College between Sixth and Seventh streets.

Justice Van Duren reported the collection of $208 in fines, for which sum the Justice holds the receipt of the treasurer.

The sum of $100, expended by the Citizens band in the construction of a band stand in Centennial park and certified by the park board to the council for payment, was ordered paid.

The committee on public buildings and property was authorized to have the roofs of the two engine houses repaired.

Upon recommendation of the committee on public lighting the erection of an arc light in Lincoln park was deferred until the city has more current.

The clerk reported that no objection to the Sixth street sewer had been filed and the improvement was ordered constructed.

The committee on poor reported the expenditure of $78.15 for the support of the poor for the two weeks ending July 8.

Mayor Van Putten used his veto power for the second time this week. Tuesday night he filed his veto in the clerk's office in the case of the construction of a side walk on the south side of Sixth street between Columbia and College avenues. The work was ordered built by the council Monday night. There is only one residence along the proposed walk, that of J. R. Kleyn and the estate of T. Keppel's sons' and the mayor thought it unjust that they should bear the burden of building a walk that is of little benefit to them.

New Juvenile Court

The new juvenile court law went into effect on July 1 and the justices of the peace of this city and of every other city in the state no longer have jurisdiction in juvenile cases. Under the new law the probate courts are made the juvenile courts and all unruly children in Ottawa county under 17 years of age will be taken before Probate Judge Kirby of Grand Haven. Such children are to be treated as juvenile delinquent persons. In the trial any person interested or the judge on his own motion may order a jury of six persons. Proceedings are not deemed criminal proceedings; children brought into the court are delinquent, not criminals and are not arrested but detained. Court may appoint counsel, to defend. The prosecuting attorney shall appear for the people when ordered by the court. The governor shall appoint a county agent who shall receive three dollars a day every day he is actually engaged. Children found delinquent will be committed to the industrial school for boys at Lansing or for girls at Coldwater. If a girl is committed to the school the court shall appoint a woman to accompany her. No children under 17 years of age may be committed to jail but may be in care of the county agent or some other suitable person who shall keep the child in suitable place provided for by the county for that purpose.

This attraction was secured only after considerable effort on the part of the management of the theater and it is but seldom that the public of Holland gets an opportunity to hear talent as great as Prof. Neheruy so near at home.

Chink Gone.

Grand Haven has lost its lone celestial. L. G. Lee, the Chinese laundryman has left town enroute for Seattle and San Francisco to sail for China in about three weeks. His destination is Canton and he makes the journey to marry a little almond eyed damsel with whom he has been corresponding for some time. He expects to remain in Canton if he likes the country, but if he doesn't it will be Lee back to the states. One of the Chinaman's last acts was to have his picture taken with his landlord, Ed. C. Smith. Lee was an American born Chinaman. He first saw the light of day in Frisco's famous Chinatown. Lee was one of the bloods of the town in his early days and became an expert fantan and poker player. In fact since he has been here in Grand Haven Lee at times would indulge in his favorite pastime. He went through a fortune in San Francisco and then came east to make another. Lee told some of his "Melican" friends last week that his estate would foot close to $20,000. He owned several laundries and several chop suey restaurants. Lee had one failing, he liked American whiskey. When the Vaudette fire occurred last winter Lee was noticed emerging from his underground home with a big bottle of fire water clasped to his breast. Lee didn't care if everything else went up in smoke, he was bound to save that bottle of drink. Now that he is gone Grand Haven is not as cosmopolitan as it was.—Grand Haven Tribune.

JAPANESE SAID TO BE UNDULY ACTIVE

MIKADO'S GOVERNMENT IS BELIEVED TO BE PLANNING A COUP.

SECRET AGENTS KEEP OUR OFFICIALS POSTED

Preparations in Island for Trouble May Explain Warship Cruise to the Pacific—Metcalf Says Trip Is Merely for Practice.

Washington, July 10.—A new and startling explanation of the reason for sending the great Atlantic battleship fleet to the Pacific ocean has trickled out from high official circles. According to this story the order for the transfer of the fleet was issued because of surprising information received by this government from secret agents in Japan.

This information, according to the report, is that Japan is unduly active in certain directions.

From the trend of recent events it is believed that, despite all smooth and polite assurances of Tokyo officials to the contrary, the mikado's government is planning a coup.

Says Cruise Is for "Practice."

Oakland, Cal., July 10.—Secretary of the Navy Metcalf deprecates the warlike aspect that has been given the order for the cruise of the great battleship squadron from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast.

The secretary said today that the proposed movement was that of a practice cruise, and that the fleet would not be kept in the Pacific permanently. He declared that the length of time that the fleet would remain on the western side of the continent had not yet been decided.

With considerable emphasis the secretary voiced his opinion that the warlike interpretation that had been made in connection with the fleet's movement was not justified by the facts. In fact, the widely published reports suggesting hostile preparations seem to be a source of irritation for the head of the navy.

"Merely Practice Cruise."

"The fleet which will be moved from the Atlantic to the Pacific this winter," said Secretary Metcalf, "is coming to this side merely on a practice cruise. The fleet will consist of 16 or more vessels, not more than 20, and its stay on this side will not be permanent. Of course, the fleet will not come here, turn around and go right back again. How long it will remain in the Pacific will be determined at the proper time.

"There is no sound reason or excuse for all this talk by the public and through the press of an attempt to overawe the Japanese by a warlike naval display. I do not believe that the newspapers are justified or right in so construing and coloring the cruise of the warships to the Pacific.

"Every year the Atlantic fleet has been sent on a cruise. Last year it was sent to Guantanamo. This year it will be sent to the Pacific. The long cruise will give the men and the vessels a thorough test and improve the efficiency of both."

"We Don't Talk," Says Evans.

New York, July 10.—Rear Admiral Evans, who is at the Brooklyn navy yard, has declined to comment on the remarks imputed to Admiral Sakamoto of the Japanese navy, to the effect that American naval officers were dandies with no technical training, and that the enlisted men had no patriotism and would desert in case of war.

Admiral Evans smiled when Sakamoto's remarks were shown him. He said it would be the height of impropriety for him to reply to a foreign officer, especially when he had no means of knowing if he really said the things attributed to him.

"We here, in this country," he said, significantly, "don't talk."

Aoki Awaits Admiral Yamamoto.

Washington, July 10.—Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassador, has been deferring his departure from this city for his summer vacation in anticipation of the arrival of Admiral Yamamoto, who is expected to reach New York soon from Europe.

The admiral, who is one of the four officers of the Japanese navy holding that rank, is on his way home to Japan, but will spend some time in the United States before sailing from San Francisco or Seattle.

His visit to this country, however, is an entirely unofficial one, although it is expected he will be shown some courtesies by the government authorities, and will visit the president at Oyster Bay. He is expected also to get to Washington for a brief period.

The admiral is accompanied by several Japanese officers. He was one of the suite of Prince Fushimi on his visit to King Edward.

FRISCO MAYOR TO SUBMIT QUESTION OF GUILT TO PEOPLE.

Dictates Statement Declaring Judge Was Prejudiced Against Him and Trial Was Unfair.

San Francisco, July 10.—Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz, after he was sentenced to five years in prison for extortion, dictated the following statement:

"The court wherein I received my sentence for the charge of extortion again demonstrates, and more clearly than anything else it has heretofore done, a charge I made upon my immediate return from the east, that Judge Dunne was prejudiced against me, and that it was impossible to secure in his court a fair trial. The animus that he has treasured in his heart for some time came clearly and positively to the surface this morning.

"I have never asked for leniency, but I have expected, as every American citizen has the right to expect, justice. I ask the people to withhold their final judgment in this matter until the iniquitous proceedings which have been held in Judge Dunne's court since the beginning of my trial shall be brought before the highest court.

"I have never asked for mercy, and before a court where I did not receive a fair trial I certainly did not expect it. I intend not only to fight this case step by step, but all the charges that have been brought against me, and with the knowledge in my own conscience of my entire innocence, I expect to be successful in the contest.

"I now repeat what I have stated already, that I will be a candidate for mayor of the city of San Francisco this fall, when the people of San Francisco will have an opportunity by their votes to demonstrate whether they believe me guilty or innocent. The people are always right. I am satisfied to leave my case with them."

EDDY CONFEREES IN SESION.

Subject of Discussion Said to Be Appointment of Alienists.

Boston, July 10.—Counsel for the defense in the complex litigation surrounding the affairs of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the head of the Christian Science church, continued Tuesday a conference which they began Monday night in this city. It was intimated Monday that the principal subject under discussion is the recent appointment of alienists as comasters with Judge Edgar Aldrich to report on the competency of Mrs. Eddy.

The conference is participated in by Gen. Frank S. Streeter and his law partner, Allen Hollis of Concord, N. H., who are the personal counsel of Mrs. Eddy, and Attorney General Edwin Eastman and William A. Morse of Boston, counsel for defendants mentioned in the bill of equity brought by the "next friends."

Concord, N. H., July 10.—A. J. Shurtluff, clerk of the Superior court, has received from Dr. Jelly of Boston, a letter accepting his appointment by Judge Robert N. Chamberlin as co-master to determine the competency of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy.

WILL CALL NEW HARGIS TRIAL.

Kentucky Judge Travels Part of Way on Foot to Open Court.

Sandy Hook, Ky., July 10.—After traveling part of the journey on foot, Special Judge W. B. Moody, of Eminence, arrived here to call the cases of Judge James Hargis and others, charged with procuring the assassination of Dr. B. D. Cox at Jackson four years ago.

It is almost certain that one or more of the cases will be tried at this term. Although it has been known for several weeks that the cases would be called at this time, no witnesses for either side have been summoned, but Judge Moody will give both defense and prosecution ample time to summon witnesses and it is likely that when the cases are called court will adjourn until witnesses are summoned. The case of Judge Hargis will be the first to be tried. All of the Hargis faction are in the city. They preceded Judge Moody, who came with Attorney Floyd Byrd and T. P. Carnwell, brother-in-law of Dr. Cox.

OIL KING KNOWS ALMOST NOTHING

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, AS A WITNESS, GIVES VERY FEW FACTS.

Sorry for Ignorance—Judge Landis, However, Obtains From Others Figures on Which to Base Fine of Indiana Concern.

Chicago, July 8.—John D. Rockefeller, in the witness chair before Judge K. M. Landis, of the United States district court Saturday, told all he could remember or knew, or all he said he could remember or knew, of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey.

It wasn't a great deal. Mr. Rockefeller said he really was sorry it was not more.

Mr. Pratt—Charles M. Pratt, secretary of the company—could tell more—he said. Mr. Pratt did, giving necessary details.

Mr. Rockefeller was deferential to the court, friendly with the curious public that crossed his path or tagged his footsteps, affable with the reporters, genial to all comers, and at peace with the world. In the evening he departed for Cleveland.

Landis Gets Information.

With the information furnished by Mr. Rockefeller in court and amplified by details furnished by Mr. Pratt, Judge Landis secured the knowledge which he sought to obtain, which required the bringing of Mr. Rockefeller from Pittsfield, Mass., to Chicago.

He knows now how much of a fine the Standard Oil company of Indiana can stand. He knows from the officials of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey that the stock of the Indiana company is controlled by the New Jersey company.

The parentage was admitted. The earnings of the New Jersey company were given. Judge Landis knows that the concern found guilty in his court on the charge of rebating can stand the maximum fine permitted by the law—$29,000,000.

Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Pratt were the only two officials of the New Jersey company called on to testify. John D. Archbold, William Rockefeller and the other vice presidents, secretaries, treasurers and officials of the company sat in readiness and apparent willingness to testify. They were not needed.

Facts Obtained in Court.

What Judge Landis secured from Mr. Rockefeller was:

The fact that the outstanding capitalization of the New Jersey company is about $100,000,000.

The fact that it pays approximately 40 per cent. dividends.

What he secured from Mr. Pratt was:

The fact that the outstanding capital stock of the New Jersey company is $98,300,000.

That it made $1,300,000 net profits in 1903.

That it made $61,500,000 net profits in 1904.

That it made $57,000,000 net profits in 1905.

That the Standard Oil company of New Jersey controls the Standard Oil company of Indiana, which is the company found guilty in the rebating trial.

Will Fix Fine on August 3.

Chicago, July 9.—Judge Kenesaw M. Landis announced Monday morning that he would give his decision regarding the punishment of the Standard Oil company on Saturday, August 3.

This decision will cover the assessment of fines for 1,462 violations of the interstate commerce act, aggregating in their maximum $29,240,000—the most gigantic penalty ever held over a corporation or group of corporations in the world.

Leach for Director of the Mint.

Washington, July 9.—Secretary Cortelyou has recommended to the president the appointment of Frank A. Leach, the present superintendent of the mint at San Francisco, as director of the mint to succeed George E. Roberts, resigned.

HOLIDAY FISHING IN MASSACHUSETTS.

TORNADO TEARS UP A TOWN

LONG PINE, NEB., NEARLY RUINED BY FURIOUS STORM.

Buildings Are Demolished, Trees Blown Down and Three Persons Are Injured.

Long Pine, Neb., July 8.—Long Pine was visited by a tornado Saturday night and heavy damage was done. With but few exceptions all the fronts of store buildings were blown in.

The Methodist church was demolished, the roof of the Northwestern roundhouse was blown off and trees in the streets were blown to shreds. The Diamond livery barn was demolished. The roof of Berger's department store was torn off and much damage done to his stock of goods. All the board fences in town are down. Great damage was done to Kyrner's mill. Several runaways occurred at the beginning of the storm.

Three persons were hurt, but in only one case are the injuries of a serious character. Thomas Wright was standing in the City meat market when the front was blown in and Mr. Wright was cut badly by the glass.

Telephone lines are all down and streets are a mass of trees, fences, barns, etc. The city fire station was blown over and the jail demolished. The railroad coal chute was partly destroyed. The wind was followed by a terrific hail storm which demolished nearly all the windows that the tornado had left whole.

Heavy damage is reported done by this hailstorm to the crops. Small grain is practically destroyed. The damage done to Long Pine by the wind and hail will be in excess of $100,000.

Polk, Neb., July 8.—This little town, founded only last September, was badly wrecked by a combined wind and hailstorm which descended shortly after midnight Saturday. The best business buildings in the town were demolished or damaged and crops over a considerable distance ruined.

ENGINE STRIKES AUTOMOBILE.

Wealthy Silk Manufacturer of Paterson, N. J., Is Killed.

Keyport, N. J., July 8.—Christopher Horandt, a wealthy silk manufacturer of Paterson, was killed and other members of his family injured when a locomotive struck and demolished an automobile in which the party was returning home from Asbury Park late Sunday. The accident happened at the Stone road crossing of the New Jersey Central railroad.

With Mr. Horandt were his wife, his daughter Ruth and his nephew, Reinhardt Binder. All but Mrs. Horandt were thrown from the machine. Binder's skull was fractured, and his condition is serious. Ruth Horandt escaped with a sprained wrist and bruises, while her mother suffered from shock.

DUBLIN CASTLE ROBBED.

Portions of the State Regalia Stolen from Safe.

Dublin, July 8.—A portion of the state regalia, valued at $250,000, has been stolen from Dublin castle. The safe in which the regalia was kept was forced. The jewels stolen were those used in the ceremony of investiture in the order of St. Patrick, the processional cross studded with diamonds and the jeweled sword which is borne in procession at the investiture of the knights.

Lord Castledown, knight of St. Patrick, was to have been chief of the state ceremony on the visit of King Edward to Dublin, but it is officially announced that the ceremony will be postponed. Sensational developments are expected.

Fatal Fire in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 8.—One man was killed, another seriously injured and damage to the extent of $15,000 was done early Sunday by fire which originated in a barber shop on Carson street and spread to four adjoining buildings. Wm. Reynolds, 51 years old, a night watchman, inhaled the flames and died on the way to the hospital, and Michael Scorsinder was badly hurt by falling glass.

DEPOSITIONS ARE READ TO THE JURY

EVIDENCE AS TO THE BRADLEY EXPLOSION IS GIVEN IN BOISE TRIAL.

Both Sides Seem to Be Satisfied—Each Finds Favorable Points in the Documents—Haywood May Not Testify Before Thursday.

Boise, Idaho, July 9.—Part of the San Francisco depositions dealing with the Bradley explosion were read Monday to the jury that is trying William D. Haywood for his life on the charge that he murdered Frank Steunenberg, and the rest of them will be presented Tuesday. The reading began directly after the court sat, with Clarence Darrow and Senator Borah alternating for their respective sides, and although they pressed ahead as fast as they could, a folio calculation made at adjournment showed that much of Tuesday would be consumed by the unread affidavits.

The depositions have an important bearing upon the case, but they contained no interest for the crowd and the attendance was the lightest since the trial began.

Both Sides Satisfied.

Both sides seemed to be satisfied with the showing made by depositions and their contents will probably furnish much material for directly opposed contention when the trial reaches the argument stage. One objection from the state constituted the sole interruption for the day and during all the rest of the time counsel for both sides seemed united in getting all the matter in the sworn statements before the jury.

The state counted a victory that Bradley had receded from his first and positive statement that it was a gas explosion and was prepared to believe that a bomb might have been used. Bradley's first statement was made before he knew of Harry Orchard's confession or any of the evidence locating Orchard in the vicinity of the house. The prosecution was also pleased to have it shown that Wye Bradley was still inside the door when the explosion occurred and particles of glass from the door, hairs from the rug outside the door, and pieces of stone and cement from the mosaic floor of the vestibule were blown into his body. It will be contended that this shows conclusively that the explosion was from the outside and could not have been caused by gas inside the house.

Where the Defense Scores.

The defense, on the other hand, is satisfied that the depositions show that it would have been impossible for Orchard to have reached the vestibule and placed the bomb in the manner and time described by him; that the evidence, particularly as to the effect of the explosion, shows that a gas leak was the cause; and that there were not two explosions, and that Orchard's testimony as to his movements in the rear of the building when he claims he poisoned the milk is shown by physical conditions to be false.

The delay caused by the length of the Bradley depositions may possibly defer the appearance of Haywood as a witness in his own behalf until Thursday morning.

OLYMPIC CUP GOES EAST.

Golf Trophy Won by Metropolitan Association Team.

Cleveland, O., July 9.—The Olympic cup, open to teams of four from any golf association in the world, and held for the last two years by the Western Golf association, was won Monday by the team of the Metropolitan Golf association with a total of 641 strokes.

The Western Golf association team finished second with a total of 648 strokes, the Western Pennsylvania team third with 651, and the Royal Canadian fourth with 654. Ten teams contested for the trophy.

Chamberlain Is Now 71.

Birmingham, Eng., July 9.—Joseph Chamberlain Monday celebrated his 71st birthday with his family at Highbury, his estate near Birmingham. A stream of congratulations poured in from all parts of the country by telegraph and mail. The health of the veteran statesman is improving slowly. He has been well enough lately to receive some of his political friends.

Two Minnesota Girls Drowned.

Redwood Falls, Minn., July 9.—Sible Hughes, daughter of Editor George Hughes, of the Echo, and Margaret Yackel, of this city, were drowned in Lake Redwood Monday evening. The girls were about 13 years old. They, with another girl, were in bathing and were playing on a raft. To tease them a boy pushed the raft into deep water where it upset.

Poisoned by Pressed Chicken.

Steubenville, O., July 9.—Twenty residents of New Alexandria, near here, were made violently ill Monday by eating pressed chicken at a picnic of the M. E. church Ladies' Missionary society. All are under medical treatment. Several of the cases are serious.

Beckham Names City Judge.

Frankfort, Ky., July 9.—Governor Beckham Monday named R. H. Blain, of Louisville, to be city judge of that city, in place of the judge who was removed by a decision of the Kentucky court of appeals.

LOCAL

Yesterday Mel Trotter's rescue mission came through town on their annual outing at Macatawa park.

Fire started Tuesday night on the small steamer Mary, near the smoke stack. A crowd gathered on the dock to see the fire but Wm. Weihe soon extinguished the small flame with a fire extinguisher. The damage was small.

The Prospect Park Christian Reformed church has named the following trio from which to select a pastor: Rev. P. Ekster of Midland Park, N. J.; Rev. J. Bolt of Cleveland, Ohio, and Rev. Y. P. DeYoung of East Paris.

Prof. J. M. Van der Meulen will preach the sermon and Prof. J. E. Kuizinga and the Revs. E. J. Blekink and P. Brookes will take part in the services at the installation today of Rev. J. Alexander Brown as pastor at the First Reformed church at Grand Rapids.

Monday morning a man went to Fred Boone's livery stable in Holland and hired a rig, has and not returned. Officers all over the state have been notified and are on the lookout for the rig. The man was about five feet six inches tall, wore a black slouch hat and dark clothes. The horse was a bay mare, weight about 1050 pounds, holds head high, light top buggy with red running gear.

Mrs. Edward Nedervelt was taken suddenly ill on a Pere Marquette train while on her way to Holland to spend the Fourth and is still very weak. The train was crowded and it was necessary to put some of the passengers in the baggage car and here they had to stand. The ventilation was very poor and before the train had reached Agnew Mrs. Nedervelt had fainted. She was still unconscious when she arrived in Holland and had to be carried from the train. A doctor was called and it was some time before she regained consciousness.

A young lad by the name of De Kraker while erecting a fence on the farm of John Jones in Allendale found 500 pennies in an old post hole which he was re-digging. It is supposed that these coins were thrown in the hole by the party or parties who robbed the post office at Allendale some years ago. The conjecture is that the burglar in haste wishing to get rid of the lot of small cash of heavy weight but little value, without leaving any possible clue, dumped them into the first handy place he came to.

An express car of strawberries have left this station every evening of this week for Chicago and shipments from other points have been quite heavy, so that the market has been rather low, the Chicago market running from $1 to $1.50 for the average run of stock. Really fancy stock has commanded as high as $2.25 per 16 quart case. Gooseberries are a light crop and sell not far from $2 a case for good sized berries. Sours cherries are now commencing to ripen, but the crop is exceedingly light everywhere and the price must range high. There are very few sweet cherries in sight. Fennville Herald.

The enforced two cent per mile passenger rate will not take effect on the Pere Marquette road for several weeks, but it remained for an eleven years old Fennville lad to discover how to get a 180 mile ride for 40 cents, with a square meal thrown in. Clark Raymond went to Holland Thursday with other boys to celebrate and it proved to be a strenuous day. No wonder some of the lads went to sleep on the midnight train coming home. Charlie Sheffer was carried by as far as Pearle, whence he walked home. Clark Raymond slept and dreamed that the earth was one big firecracker, when boom! the brakeman shouting "New Buffalo" caused him to sit up and hastily unload. The station agent furnished a good breakfast and Friday's noon train landed him here safe and sound.—Fennville Herald.

Ottawa county has been well represented in the three constitutional conventions that have been held in Michigan since it was made a state. In 1851 a constitutional convention was held that had as members from this county that old pioneer Rix Robinson and Timothy Eastman, after whom Eastmanville was named. The constitutional commission of 1873 was composed of two members from each of the nine congressional districts the state was then divided into. One of the members selected was Lyman G. Mason of Muskegon but he, after a few months service resigned and was succeeded by Col. Wm. Montague Ferry, the democratic member of that great pioneer family. Now it will be Ottawa's privilege to name at least one delegate to the coming constitutional convention.

Nine of the fine maple trees in Central avenue school yard have been cut down because of the ravages of the "big maple-bores."

Weather Observer Cox of Chicago came to Macatawa Park this week to find a suitable place to locate storm signal lights in the harbor. The new break water is nearing completion and a new beacon gas light is being constructed that will burn for three months.

Four hundred and fifty crates of strawberries were shipped here last night from Saugatuck, going to Chicago by boat. The steamer Crouse makes regular trips to connect with the Puritan. The peach crop, as well as other fruits, will probably be light this year, and it is doubtful if the Crouse can be busy plying between the two ports.

The Ottawa County Summer Normal will be opened next Monday in the high school in Grand Haven. It will be conducted by Supt. Lawrence J. Vandenberg, assisted by Miss Kilbourne of Big Rapids and County Commissioner Martin M. DeGraaf. A large number of teachers and prospective teachers are expected to take advantage of this course.

Holland has the right kind of teachers. A. E. Parkins, teacher in science in the high school declined an offer of a $1000 position as teacher in another school because he had already signed a contract with the Holland board of education. Miss Anna Haberman, teacher of the first grade in the Maple street school has received an offer of a position at $75 per month in Montana but she will remain here.

Chief of Police Kamferbeek has learned from the secretary of state the names of two more violators of the speed ordinance in Holland, complaints having been made of cars numbered 5008 and 5343. The owner of car is J. F. Raker and of the other W. C. Hopson, both of Grand Rapids. Two other autoists from the same city will also be served with warrants as soon as their names are learned.

The city fathers pricked up their ears at a session of the common council last Monday night when Mayor VanPutten exercised his veto power for the first time since he became the chief executive 15 months ago. The trouble centered in the question of allowing the city engineer a telephone in his office at the expense of the city. The aldermen considered it a necessity, but Mayor VanPutten regarded it as a luxury, as the engineer's duties were largely devoted to street work.

Deputy Sheriff J. H. Irving of Jenison Park yesterday took into custody five boys who were caught stealing the picnic lunches prepared for the poor children who came to the park today on the outing of Mel Trotter's Rescue Mission. The boys are Neil Payne, Raymond Rugg, John Van Dam, Wm. Davis and Eddie Dunton, all of Grand Rapids but not members of the Mission. Their ages range from 14 to 16. They are in the Holland city jail over night and were given an hour to get out of town by Justice Van Duren this morning.

Miss Theresa Hirschl, a popular society woman of Chicago, did the heroine act on Macatawa Bay last Saturday that has made her the talk at the resorts, and that has made her a sort of local Grace Darling. She was one of a party on her father's launch Charlotte when a heavy fog came on. The fog was so dense that but a very small distance could be seen ahead. Suddenly the huge form of the Puritan loomed up thru the fog rapidly approaching the tiny launch. Bob Hirschl was at the wheel and when the two vessels were so near together that a collision seemed inevitable Miss Hirschl shouted. "Port your helm, Bob, port! Here let me take it." She took the wheel and shouting to the party on board to remain quiet she swung the little craft out of danger. It was however a close escape as the foam of the Puritan's cut water splashed aboard the Charlotte.

August 3 will be a great day at Allegan. At that time the Macabees of western Michigan will go there for a grand rally. Hale C. Bartlett of Allegan is in charge of the day, and he has been busy during the past week making arrangements. He has estimated that there will be close to 10,000 strangers in Allegan for the day, if conditions are favorable. A special train will come from Grand Rapids, and the order there has pledged to bring 750 passengers. Another big load will come from Muskegon, Holland and other points. Kalamazoo and the southern portion of the state will also send a large delegation. Mr. Bartlett is very enthusiastic about the plans and is working hard to make the day a memorable one. What will Allegan do with all these people?

Venetian evening will occur this year on August second. Preparations for the great event are already in progress and the illuminations will be better than ever before.

F. Husted left for Colorado for his health. He will look over the ground out there for a good location. If he does not succeed in this he will go to California. He will be joined later by his wife.

The Interurban base ball team will be the guests at a banquet to be given by the fans at the Palace restaurant next Thursday or Friday evening, the date not having been definitely fixed. It is planned to have Congressman Diekema and Speaker Whelan to entertain the guests.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. T. Bishop, 303 College avenue. The meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Marsh of Chicago, who will speak on "The Philanthropic Work of Our Society in the City of Chicago."

A fall out of a tree a week ago proved fatal yesterday to Mildred, the 8 year old daughter of Thomas A. Hall of Chicago. The little girl died at her parents' home, Castle Park. Mr. Hall summoned surgeons from Chicago after the accident, but their skill was unavailing. The accident resulted when in a spirit of adventure, she climbed into a tall tree near the house and missed her footing when almost at the topmost branch.

Traveling Passenger and Freight Agent Fred J. Zwald of Grand Rapids, representing the Crosby Transportation company was in Grand Haven yesterday and announced an excursion on the steamer Nyack to Macatawa Park next Sunday. This is a new feature with the Crosby line and will undoubtedly meet with great favor. If the excursion proves successful the Crosby management will undoubtedly give one Sundays from Grand Haven and Muskegon. They are planning excursions to Saugatuck, South Haven, White Lake and other points.

The chief of police and patrolmen are appearing in citizens clothes today, the new uniform which they donned for the first time July 4 having proven unsatisfactory, so they were shipped back, only the helmets and chief's cap being retained. The uniforms were bought of a Kalamazoo firm, and according to the fit the officers have grown very portly since their measures were taken. Also the cloth showed signs of wear and they want the order made good. The officers want blue uniforms, the order being filled in black.

Justice McBride's court was the scene of a legal struggle between Henry Kamperman and John Risselada, Olive township farmers. Kamperman bringing suit to recover $5 he claimed was due him for him for labor performed for Risselada. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Miles and the defendant by Attorney M. A. Sooy. Seven witnesses were examined and the case ended in a judgment for the plaintiff of $1.90, the costs of $6.40 being assessed to the defendant.

According to the annual report of United States Engineer Adams nearly $300,000 was spent the past fiscal year in maintaining the fifteen river and harbor projects along the west side of the state. Holland harbor with $63,652 received the most attention. Grand River got $46,800, Ludington produced the greatest freight tonnage. Grand Haven comes fourth in the district with 1490 clearances and 414,718 tons of freight carried. The improvement of Grand River has now proceeded to a point where there is but a quarter of a mile out of 38 between here and Grand Rapids with less than a five foot stage. Holland harbor comes fifth in tonnage. Saugatuck shows some gain over 1905, when the port was practically cut off from the world by the closing of the old harbor and the beginning of operations on the Singapore cut. In 1906, the number of clearances was double that of 1905, the tonnage of the boats was five times greater while the freight in tons nearly tripled.

A Severe Storm.

They say heavy cannonading during war time brought on heavy electric storms. If that be true no doubt Holland's strenuous celebration might have caused Friday's storm. Be that as it may, one of the fiercest electrical storms ever known in the vicinity occurred Friday.

Lightning struck the telephone in the office at Hotel Ottawa and sent its box flying across the room.

Passengers on car No. 19 on the Holland interurban, which left Macatawa Park at 11:15, were startled by a flash, a report, and a sudden stop soon after reaching Holland. Lightning had struck the trolley.

Some of the passengers were badly frightened.

After a short delay the car was started again and the storm partly subsided. But it came up again. As the car neared the turn close by the Pere Marquette depot another report came and the car was stopped. This time it could not be started, and as the Chicago train was nearly due at the Pere Marquette station those whom business called came home by train.

The car was taken back to the interurban station in Holland by the wrecking train where the passengers were transferred to another car.

The cottage of Gerrit Dumez at Central Park was struck and it is regarded a miracle that the family escaped death. The bolt entered through the front of the house and sped in zig-zag way through the different rooms, striking the wall back of a couch upon which Mrs. Dumez and her children were seated. An umbrella upon the porch lay in the path of the bolt and the handle was evenly split. Fire was started in two places but was soon extinguished.

The residence of George Speet, about four miles south of the city, was struck and every room was damaged. The members of the family were stunned but escaped injury.

The farm houses of Klaas Prins and Harm Prins, one half mile apart and about three miles southeast of the city, were struck at about the same time. The former structure badly damaged by the fire and Mr. Prins was quite badly burned about his hands and face in his efforts to extinguish it.

The residence of John De Pooter on East Sixth street was struck, the bolt entering the chimney and filling the rooms with sulphur. Mrs. De Pooter fell into a swoon and was carried outside. The bolt entered the ground in the vicinity of the pump, which was badly damaged.

A bolt entered the residence of Henry Kamper on land street and passed from the rear through the front door and left no traces. The family was at the dinner table and Mrs. Kamper's arms were numbed and Klass DeWitt, her father, was blinded temporarily.

Numerous barns were struck in the surrounding country, but no fires resulted.

Mrs. David Jeffries living on West Fourteenth street was stunned by a bolt of lightning which struck the house.

In Filmore township the telephone line to May station was put out of business, four poles being splintered into toothpicks. The lightning caused considerable damage to houses which had telephone connections.

Accidents on the Fourth.

Numerous casualties were reported as the result of the Fourth of July celebration in this city and vicinity, in which revolvers, giant crackers and thunder canes figured prominently.

Simon Etterbeck, Seventeenth street and Columbia avenue, was the victim of a giant cracker that didn't explode when expected. He went to investigate and the cracker lacerated his hand badly.

Willie Bloemdaal, 5 years old, sustained an ugly flesh wound between the ankle and the knee of the left leg caused by the explosion of a torpedo cane.

Lee Banksday of Fruitport, while celebrating at Jenison park, shot himself through the hand by carelessly handling a revolver.

Darius Huff, the old fife player in the drum corps, had one of his fingers badly burned by the premature explosion of a firecracker, but he played the fife just the same.

A machinist on the U. S. S. Dorothea sustained a badly lacerated cheek as the result of the explosion of a giant cracker.

Mrs. Peter Vandentak of No. 185 East Ninth street, sustained a fracture of the knee caused by a sudden jolt in stepping on a wooden walk which was a few inches lower than the adjoining cement walk, upon returning from the fireworks display.

Hard Luck For the "Rough-Rider"

Mr. Theodore Weise of Chicago has a hard luck story to tell of a trip from Michigan City north in his racing boat the "Rough Rider." The "Rough Rider" is considered to be the fastest racing boat in these waters and is well known in Chicago, where all Mr. Weise's movements are watched with the greatest interest.

Mr. Weise started out a week ago to make a trip north but he was caught in a storm. When he got to South Haven the propeller wheel broke and he was towed in for repairs. But this was not the end of it. At Saugatuck the boat crashed into the sand of the channel and broke the crank shaft. The boat was taken to Holland where it was put up for repairs at the Holland Launch and Engine company.

Mr. Weise said that in all his career he had never met with such a string of hard luck as that. It looked like a sailor's hoodoo, but there was no cat on board and he could not account for it at all.

Lovers of good literature will do well to keep an eye on Vanderploeg's adv. Some great bargains in store for all.
