A Watch Chain

of some description is a necessity to everyone who carries a watch. No watch is safe without one. A chain to be practical should be first of all a strong jewell made. Because of the prominent way which it is worn—it should also be of good design and in good taste. Our stock of chains meets all of these requirements and more. The assortment is large, the quality the very best and the prices reasonable.

Religion in Politics

It is a mediaeval mind that, in the light of present day civilization, can bring into any political controversy in America, any question of religion or any religious equation. It was many years ago that religious battles were waged in old world arenas and American history begins with the beginning of the history of religious freedom. To go back to the struggles of the early settlers in New England; to go back to the tolerance of Lord Baltimore in the Maryland colony; to go back to that guarantee of religious equality expressed in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution of the United States, is enough to convince any man that the mingling of religious faith and political creed is distinctly un-American.

It is a basic principle of American government that manhood and good citizenship shall determine American political success. The battle was never intended to settle any religious controversy or to be used as a weapon against any religious sect. A glance at a few of the names that made bright the pages of our national history will reveal to those who make common cause of politics and religion the fact that Thomas Jefferson, two times president of the United States, was not a Christian nor a believer in any revealed religion. But Thomas Jefferson's name will be remembered as the writer of the declaration of independence as long as that declaration remains inviolate. Benjamin Franklin, one of the greatest of our early diplomats, inventor and genius, was not a Christian. Thomas A. Edison is not a believing Christian and we are unable to prove that the great, immortal Lincoln ever adopted the teachings of any revealed religion.

Buddhism, Mohamedanism and Christianity are largely a matter of birth. Christianity is more violently rent by dissension within its own ranks than any other religion.

GAZETTE COMMENTS ON KLEIS SHOOTING AFFAIR

The Allegan Gazette in summing up the Kleis shooting affair at Douglas makes the following comments after giving the details:

The Holland papers declare that Gearing or McCarty as he was called assaulted Kleis and that he bore the marks of two blows on the face. His friends also declare that the first two bullets were fired into the ground in an effort to make Gearing stop. They claim also that the bullets that entered the body bounded up from the ground, and they pointed out as corroborative of this that the bullet-hole in the leg slanted upward. This is explained by the fact that Gearing was running and the bullet hit his leg when it was in such a position that it took an apparently upward course. The idea that the bullet bounded up is silly. The road is deep with sand.

Mr. Stone looked up the law carefully before making the charge of manslaughter, and has felt, since learning the facts, that Kleis acted without reason and should be punished. "The people are entitled to some protection from such officers" is what he remarked about the case.

There has been a great deal of comment upon the affair, as might be expected, Douglas and Saugatuck people are "as mad as they can be" as someone expressed it, and they want to see the Ottawa officer punished. Holland people all believe that Kleis must have had provocation, for he has been a model officer many years and bears a good reputation as a citizen. Outsiders having no interest in the matter certainly must feel that the officer pursued the extreme means in his official action and that he might better have lost McCarty for the time than kill him. When one stops to consider that he fired six shots two after he might have seen Gearing limping, the conclusion is forced upon one that the officer must have been bereft of reason and coolness for the moment. There were plenty of men about who would have assisted in the arrest of Gearing had Kleis asked for help. Furthermore, there were those same

No man has a right to say absolutely that the millions upon millions of people who disagree with his religious views are wrong and even if any of us were without error we would have no business allowing our religious views to prejudice our judgment of human qualities in our fellow men. Yet that is precisely what is done when one man wages a political battle with another upon the foolish and senseless issue of religious faith.

In our own county we have had an instance of this. One of the candidates for a county office has been maligned for his religious views and declared by other of his fellow men to be unfit for the office he holds because of his religion. That man has been and is one of our very best public officials, a man who, in our opinion, if the good of the public were considered, would not even have opposition for his reelection. He should be continued in the employ of the people for he has been a painstaking, hard working faithful public servant. And yet there are some who would have the equation of manhood cast aside and determine the worth of this public servant by employing the equation of religion.

The men we crown in public life in America are not measured by such a false standard. The call is for men, manly and able, with records of achievement in the public service. We are after square men, not Protestants; we are looking for loyal men, not Catholics; we are looking for men who are always the friends of the underdog, and the man who is down, not Jews; and it would be far more pleasant in this world if we could surround ourselves with men of these qualifications, men whose actions are never tainted with suspicion, who know no gossip and reveal none, who judge not save in kindness and who stand square toed for the same manliness and integrity that they ask from others.

men who would have stopped him and held him for the officer if they had been urged, after the first two or three shots had been fired. Why did not Kleis try to catch McCarty after failing to stop him with the first two or three shots? He must either have been afraid of Gearing or angered because of his impudence in running away. Kleis knew that Sheriff Ferris and Deputy Rhoda were in Saugatuck. He had been with them there during the afternoon. Why did he not ask them to go with him if he feared trouble? Had Gearing been an outlaw or a desperate character, or had he been fighting the officer and overpowered him, the shooting and killing might be excused.

It was reported during the week that Gearing was an escaped convict and had killed a man some time or other. A story started from Grand Haven to that effect and said Gearing had admitted the fact to a cellmate while in jail in Grand Haven. It appeared later that there was no foundation to the report.

Common Council.

Last evening the council met in regular session and the city fathers were obliged to miss most of the band concert. A number of bills were allowed and the regular routine waded through.

A resolution introduced by the committee on streets and crosswalks to abolish Lake street between Third and Seventh streets and Fourth west of River was adopted by the council. A special meeting will be held Wednesday evening, August 21 at 7:30 for the purpose of hearing any objections to the plan. The committee also reported that the oiling of north River street appeared to be entirely satisfactory so far and this committee was given power to purchase sufficient oil to oil Sixteenth street.

Alderman Hansen as chairman of the license committee reported that he considered the $40 annual license which cookie peddlers had to pay the city to sell their wares, excessive especially in view of the fact that there are hucksters and peddlars selling from door to door who do not pay the city. A number of suggestions were made as to how the fees should be regulated, some proposing to leave it to the judgment of the committee but as there is a city ordinance which specifically fixes the fee it would place the committee in a very awkward position. It was finally decided to refer the matter back to the committee to make a report and recommendations at the next regular meeting.

Thirty-three gas tests were made the highest being 642 and the lowest 548, average 599.18 out of 33 tests 18 were below 500.

A special committee of three including the mayor will investigate the matter of street signs, costs, etc. and report to the council at the next regular meeting.

Do Not Belong To The Bull Moose

There has been a nasty rifle on the political mill pond in Holland this week.

In the account of out of town papers of the Bull Moose district convention held in Grand Rapids last Saturday the following names appeared as delegates from Holland selected to attend the Under the Oaks round up at Jackson: Frank Congleton, Nicodemus Bosch, M. A. Sooy, John A. Vander Veen, Simon Kleyn, A. Postma, George Lage, Nick Kameraad, John Y. Huizenga and Rokus Cook.

Most of them seen have repudiated their appointments and say that Attorney Sooy is the only simon-pure bolter among them. There may be one or two others; but if there is, the News does not know and would be glad to be set right. But those on the inside say that Mr. Sooy was the only one who attended the district gathering, and that the Bull Moose party label has been put on them without their permission. In fact they are disgusted with the linking of their names with bolters and are emphatic in their declarations to stand by the G. O. P.

Young People Marry

Miss Eleanor Seery and Edward Stephan, well known and popular young people of this city were united in marriage by the Rev. Fr. Du Quoy last evening.

After a short wedding tour the young people will make their home in this city. Mr. Stephan is a son of Ex mayor Stephan and is employed in the offices of the P. M. R. Co.

Coucert Big Success

The band concert given by the Evening Press Newsboy band of Grand Rapids in Centennial Park last evening was a treat greatly appreciated by the people of this city.

People have gone hungry for these concerts for a long time as was evidenced by the large crowd which turned out to listen to the music. The park and streets were even more crowded than on a Saturday night.

The concert last evening was the result of Charles Floyd's, general manager of the G. R. H. & C. Ry. Co., hustling. When things looked darkest Mr. Floyd came to the rescue and secured the services of the band for weekly concerts during the summer. After the concert last evening William Orr, manager of the Citizens Telephone company took the band boys to their camping grounds at Jenison Park in his large roomy launch Idella. The band boys deeply appreciate the kind treatment accorded them in this city last evening.

BUSINESS MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT AND DIRECTORS ARE APPOINTED.

The annual meeting of the Ottawa County Building & Loan Association was held last evening and R. H. Habermann, I. Marsilje, A. D. Goodrich and Herman Damson were re-elected as directors. Louis Vanden Berg was elected director to fill the vacancy caused by the death of G. J. Van Duren. Next month the officers will be appointed.

The reports for the past six months business were made last night and were very favorable. A dividend of two and a half per cent was declared for the last half year.

SAUGATUCK

While walking on the Saugatuck pier, Charles Burlingham of Saugatuck discovered an old mattress floating on the water. Upon pulling the mattress out of the water and unrolling it he found the dead body of a two months old baby wrapped inside of it.

There was nothing to identify the corpse.

The baby was very well dressed and appeared to have been in the water only a short time.

It is thought that it had been thrown from one of the passing boats and had floated to shore. The corpse was taken to Allegan.

NEW HOLLAND

A story went the rounds the other day in the state papers to the effect that a certain farmer in another part of the county had cleared about five hundred dollars from an acre of straw berries. A Holland man has broken this record and cleared $281.40 cents from nine-sixteenth of an acre. This is not an idle boast that cannot be verified, but is taken from the records of the Holland Canning factory.

The strawberries were grown on the farm of James Bareman, of North Holland. From his patch of berries he delivered at the local canning factory 402 crates and for these he was paid the sum of $281.40. So far as known this is the best record made anywhere in the state. It is the best record made at the local factory this year.

The strawberry season has closed at the Holland Canning factory, and the local firm put up 6,600 crates of the berries for which they paid to the farmer in the vicinity of Holland $4,576. The strawberry season was an exceptionally good one and many loads of the berries had to be turned away because the farmers had made no contract with the firm and naturally the berries of those who did have contracts were taken care of first.

The raspberry season is now on and many crates of these berries are being delivered at the canning factory here. They are however not nearly so plentiful as the strawberries and the crop can more easily be taken care of. Cherries are also being put up at the factory although that crop is also comparatively light.

The canning factory will remain open until the latter part of November. They will put up tomatoes and later on in the fall apples and other fruits.

ZEELAND

Wilson Aleszkiewicz aged 50, 938 Muskegon avenue, Grand Rapids, was run down by an automobile while riding on his motorcycle at Monroe avenue and Walbridge street Wednesday noon. He is at U. B. A. hospital in a critical condition.

Aleszkiewicz was going south on Monroe avenue and an auto driven by B. Hoffman of Zeeland, was headed north. Hoffman, according to persons who saw the accident, was on the wrong side of the street and the motorcyclist attempted to avoid him by turning to the left, not having enough space to pass him by turning to the right. Hoffman held to the left side of the road until the motorcyclist turned, and he then turned to the right, and the two machines came together, traveling at a high rate of speed.

Thrown heavily to the pavement, Aleszkiewicz suffered several severe scalp wounds, internal injuries and several bad bruises about the face. He was picked up unconscious and taken to his home in the police ambulance. Dr. L. P. Parkhurst was called to attend him and after an examination ordered him removed to the hospital.

Hoffman stopped his machine and gave all aid in his power to the injured man. He accompanied him to his home and later to the hospital.

A special meeting of the classis of Zeeland of the Christian Reformed church was held Wednesday at the North Street Christian Reformed church of that city for the purpose of examining Candidate R. B. Kuiper of Princeton seminary, who recently accepted a call to the Christian Reformed church at Overisel. Candidate Kuiper delivered a short sermon from John 3, verse 36 after which the examination took place. The examiners were the Rev. A. Keizer of Beaverdam, the Rev. J. Smitter and the Rev. D. R. Drukker of Zeeland, the Rev. Wm. Vander Werp of Zutphen, the Rev. T. Vander Ark of Drenthe, the Rev. Mr. Walkoten of Hudsonville, the Rev. H. Bakker of Jamestown and the Rev. Wm. Kole of Rusk.

Besides the delegates from the classis of Holland and Grand Rapids asked several questions. After a vote by the members of the classis it was decided to accept Candidate Kuiper. The Rev. Wm. Kole of Rusk delivered a very fine address to the accepted candidate, after the examination a business meeting was held in which the Rev. J. Smitter was appointed to act as consul to the Christian Reformed church at Borculo and the Rev. Wm. Kole appointed to act as consul to the Christian Reformed church at North Blendon. The Rev. Wm. Kole of Rusk, presided at the meeting, the Rev. H. Bakker acted as secretary and the Rev. H. Vander Werp, as Stated clerk. Refreshments were served in the morning and afternoon. The guests of the classis were the Rev. K. Kuiper of Nelkerk, father of the candidate the Rev. De Bear of Grand Rapids and the Rev. Mr. Haan of Holland.

In this city and Zeeland at present there are only a few Old Settlers left, who founded this community. They have decided to hold a meeting of the old settlers of Zeeland, Holland, and vicinity, in Zeeland, for the purpose of electing officers and for setting a date for holding their annual picnic. This meeting will take place some time this month.

A pretty wedding took place in Zeeland last Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Pieper of Zeeland, when their daughter Katie was married to Ludwig Wolff. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. P. Cheff, in the presence of a company of relatives and intimate friends. Immediately after the wedding the couple left for a short trip. The young couple are well known in Zeeland and will make their home there.

Mrs. John De Koster, aged 44, died at her home in Zeeland Tuesday morning after an illness of 2 years. Deceased is survived by a husband and two sons, Cornelius and John. She was born in Vriesland, the Neih-erlands, and came to this country when 12 years old. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 from the home, West Main street, and at 2 o'clock from the First Christian Reformed church, the Rev. D. R. Drukker, officiating.

The young Peoples society of the First Christian Reformed church are making preparations to hold their annual picnic on August 1 at Alpena Beach.

Zeeland has a mystery in the disappearance of Peter Gringhuis. Gringhuis had been working at the Zeeland Water and Light Station and five days ago he went to Blendon to join his wife who was making an extended visit with relatives there. He expected to be away only a short time but did not arrive in Blendon. On his failing to appear an investigation was started but hitherto no trace of the missing man had been found.

Those who are acquainted with the family are at a loss how to account for the mystery. They say there was no family trouble of any kind as far as known and they cannot assign a reason for the man's action.

At the Teachers' meeting held at the chapel of the First Reformed church of Zeeland, the Rev. P. P. Cheff was appointed to act as superintendent of the Sabbath school to succeed Prof. Wynad Wichers of Holland, who is now making a honeymoon trip.

Low Hendricks of Zeeland has raised some prize peas which he believes would take the prize at any fair in the state. The peas are five inches in length and two inches thick. The name is American Wonders and samples of the crop have been sent to the Western Michigan Development Bureau at Traverse City. It is expected that they will figure in the annual exhibit of the Bureau next fall.

The third annual Missionary feast of the Classis of Zeeland and Holland of the Christian Reformed churches will be held on Labor day at the beautiful Zeeland Park. Several missionaries have been asked to deliver addresses. Two years ago when they held their first mission feast they collected the sum of $100 for missions. Last year they collected nearly $500 and now they expect to raise a sum of $1000 for missions. There will be a choir of young people who will furnish music for the occasion.

De Weerd has been knocking members of his family around and abusing neighbors generally and daring any one to interfere, when one of the neighbors called up the big deputy sheriff, and Bert was on the scene in less time than it takes to tell it. De Weerd is something of a desperate character and has been in trouble before. When Van Dyke approached him his boast of what he would do to the man who attempted to arrest him knew no bounds, however, Big Bert quietly went about his business and landed De Weerd behind the bars before he knew what happened to him. The following day he appeared before Justice Meyerling and as a result he is serving thirty days in the county jail at Grand Haven.—Zeeland Record.

Crops in this vicinity are looking fine. The hay crop is the heaviest in years and oats and beans are way about the average. ## Met Death in Strange Fashion.

A curious fatal accident occurred the other day in northern France, at Douai. An engineer was trying a new motor on the biplane in the shed belonging to M. Moineaux, the aviator. His muffler caught in the propeller and wound around the shaft, dragging the unfortunate man within reach of the blades. He was scalped and his skull fractured.

N. J. Gorham, Cashier Bank of Woodville, Woodville, Ga., had a very severe attack of kidney trouble and the pains in his kidneys and back were terrible. "I got a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills from our druggist and they entirely relieved me. I have more benefit from them than from any other medicine." For sale by all druggists.

In these days of high cost of living a medicine that gets a man up out of bed and able to work in a few days is a valuable and welcome remedy. John Heath, Michigan Bar, Cal., had kidney and bladder trouble was confined to his bed, unable to turn without help. "I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and can truly say I was relieved at once." His example is worth following. For sale by all dealers.

ALLEGAN ATTORNEY APPEARS IN JUSTICE COURT IN GRAND HAVEN.

The examination in the case of Clare E. Hoffman began in Justice Wachs' court in Grand Haven. The session of the justice court was held in the circuit court room, but there were few spectators when the examination opened. Those subpoenaed as witnesses were not permitted in the court room and prohibited from hearing the testimony.

Assistant Attorney General Thom-
ing Attorney Hoffman, which led directly up to the present case. On the stand Mr. Frank Salisbury was subjected to a thorough examination
by Prosecuting Attorney Osterhaus and Asst. Atty. General Lawler and Mr. Diekema. The witness stated that on the day on which Mr. Hoffman accused him with attempting to tamper with witnesses, he walked into the prosecuting attorney's office with the idea of seeing that official and did not know that witnesses for the grand jury were being kept there. He said that he did not know the grand jury witnesses were being kept in the prosecuting attorney's office.

Hub Harrington of this city was also one of the witnesses called
Mr. Harrington stated that he came to Grand Haven on the day
in question arriving in the afternoon.
As Lawler of Lansing came to Grand Haven to appear in the case, and he acted with Prosecuting Attorney Osterhaus in the examination of witnesses. Mr. Lawler was at the examination to represent the attorney general's department, but took no active part further than to put a question or two to the witnesses. Mr.
Osterhaus was in charge of the case
for the people.

Mr. Hoffman appeared in court with his attorney G. J. Diekema and was active in his own defense. Apparently little interest was shown in the case by the people of the city,
although the matter has attracted the attention of the governor and the attorney general's office.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Salisbury was the first witness called and he was required to tell the story of his encounter with Special Prosecut-He stated that he went directly to the court house where he met Deputy Sheriff Salisbury and told the officer
he wanted to see Prosecuting Attorney Osterhaus. Thereup Mr. Salisbury told Hub to come up-stairs with him. He followed Mr. Salisbury up the stairs and waited in the hall

while the officer went into the prosecutor's office. According to Hub's testimony, the deputy sheriff came out of the room directly and then the row with Mr. Hoffman started. Immediately afterwards Hub left the building and went directly to the Interurban car.

The incident in question was one of the most sensational of the grand jury investigation and in an affidavit
asking for a change of venue from Ottawa county, Mr. Hoffman is alleged to have charged that Walter H. Clark special guard for the grand jury permitted Deputy Sheriff Salisbury to enter the room where witnesses who were to testify against him were kept.

Among those present at the court house under subpoena were Mr.
J. J. Gleason, foreman of the recent grand jury, and Mrs. T. Ven Hulzen who was present in the prosecuting
Attorney's outer office when Deputy Salisbury entered. Mrs. Ven Hulzen
did much of the clerical work connected with the grand jury investigation.

TELLS INDIAN TRIBE HOW THEY MAY GET BACK THEIR PROPERTY.

Members of the Pokagon band of Pottawatomie Indians, who are followers of Chief Rapp, of Hartford,
gathered at the Hartford town hall
today to give Attorney W. R. Gardner of Fennville a second opportunity to place before the band plans for recovering the alleged tribal moneys
from Thomas Topash of Silver Creek
the deposed chairman of the business committee, and for establishing the Indian title to the Chicago lake front property to which the red men make claim.

The tense rivalry between Hartford and Dowagiac factions to establish their tribal supremacy, is the chief topic of discussion among the Indians. Adherents of Rapp contend that his election to the head of the tribe was a legal action, while the Dowagiac Indians who have headed the band for years, insist that they have not been deposed and refer to the Hartford organization as a
"romp" government.

In the meantime both factions have been calling "special general cour-cils" of the tribe, at which their internal dissension is discussed at greater length than is the most important claim to the Chicago property,

upon which the band has been hopefully at work for the past 15 years.

QUARTERLY MEETING OF MEN'S BIBLE CLASS OF M. E. CHURCH

The sound of music and many voices in the vicinity of the M. E. church last Monday revealed to inquirers that the Men's Bible class of that church was holding its quarterly reception and social on the church
lawn, and those who were present report a most delightful time.

The grounds were specially prepared for the occasion by the stringing
of electric lights, Chinese Lanterns and flags, while tables were set with over a hundred plates for the entertainment of the class and their guests.

After the reception and social, the business meeting took place consisting of reports from the various class officers concerning the work of the quarter and places for the future.
The president, Mr. A. H. Boylan, spoke of the remarkable interest and growth of the class in the past few months, and how its work was extending in numerous directions thru
its various committees and the leadership of Dr. Edwin N. Brown, their teacher. The secretary, John De Groot, reported that the membership of the class had increased from about 50 to over 80, and that new accessions were constantly being made.

After refreshments were served,
Atty. Fred T. Miles, acting as Toast master proceeded to call upon various ones for responses in which the following persons took part: C. St. Clair Prof and Mrs. Carnapas, from Jerusalem, the Rev. Mr. Gumber and the Rev. Mr. Sherman, guests of the class
Mrs. Race, H. C. Maris, Dr. Brown,
and the Rev. P. E. Whitman.

BUSINESS SESSION HELD ON LAWN OF BERT SLAGH HOME

The Men's Adult Bible Class of the 1st Ref'd church Monday evening spent a most enjoyable time on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Bert Slagh, College Avenue. It was on the occasion of the quarterly meeting of the class and the men had invited the members of the Ladies'
Adult Bible class of the same church

as their guests of the evening. More than a hundred men and women were present and from the beginning of the meeting to the end there was not a dull moment.

The lawn had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with Chinese lanterns and strings of electric lights.
Dainty refreshments were served and good cheer and hilarity marked the evening.

The quarterly business meeting
was held and consisted in reports of the various committees. One of the reports showed that the average attendance during the past three months had been sixty. The class was shown to be in a most prosperous condition both in point of membership and in many other ways. A great interest is being shown in the work.

An address was delivered by Prof.
Carnapas of Jerusalem. His talk was about Jerusalem, the conditions
there and he brought out many interesting points about the ancient Jewish city that were of special interest to all Bible students. Mrs. Carnapas gave a reading and later also gave a talk on her home city, Jerusalem.
Missionary D. Dykstra of Arabia gave a talk on Adult Bible Classes in Arabia. He said they had been organized there before they had been begun here and there was much interest in them there as well as here.
Mr. and Mrs. Dykstra sang a duet in the Arabic language.

Albert Raak, teacher of the Ladies' Bible Class spoke on the work of that organization and the Rev. Mr.
Veltman spoke on the work of the Men's Class of which he is the teacher. Herman Van Tongeren, who is president of the Men's Class, also gave a short talk.

HOPE CHURCH ASK ALMA PRESI- DENT TO BECOME THEIR PASTOR.

At the congregational meeting of Hope church Monday evening it was decided by the members of that church to extend a call to the Rev.
August F. Bruske of Alma College.
There was a large attendance at the meeting and the call to Dr. Bruske was almost unanimous. Dr. Bruske has occupied the pulpit in Hope church a number of Sundays and is the driver, who sustained a fracture of appeared he has drawn a good sized audience, showing his popularity with the local people. Dr. Bruske is an orator of marked power.

While he was a student the Civil war began and he enlisted and passed through the four years of war
as a member of the Twenty-fourth Michigan Infantry. At the end of the war he resumed his studies at a Wesleyan College and was graduated as a minister. His first charge was the Congregational church at Charlotte and later he was pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Saginaw.
Then he was tendered the position
of President of Alma College which he accepted. This he has held for twenty years or more and he laid down this work at the last commencement. During his administration Alma College has grown into an institution of marked influence in the state. On tendering his resignation he was asked to reconsider it and stay there but he decided to spend the balance of his life in the active ministry.

Dr. Bruske is at present making a visit to the Pacific coast and on his return he is expected to give an answer to Hope church. Some time ago a committee of the consistory paid him a visit at his home in Alma to learn his sentiment in regard to such an action as was taken by the church last night, and the people of Hope Church are quite confident that he will accept the call.

atic rheumatism due he says to uric

moved numerous black specks that were continually before my eyes."

ious forms of rheumatism. For sale

Cow Wrought Much Mischief.

A series of accidents all on account of a cow occurred one day not long ago at Neerim, South Victoria. A man who was driving a gig was upset by running over a cow. The pony then bolted with the upturned gig, which frightened a team of horses attached to a wagon, and the latter capsized
over a log, pinning underneath it the driver, who sustained a fracture of the skull.

HOW TO COOK RHUBARB

HEALTHFUL AND TASTY DISHES
EASILY PREPARED.

8kln Gives Sauce Pinkish Tinge That is Very Attractive—Boiling Water
Removes Sharp, Acid Taste
—Rhubarb Pudding

In stewing rhubarb do not peel, for the skin cooks tender and gives the sauce a pinkish tinge that is very attractive. Scrub the stalks well, then cut in inch lengths. Put in a colander and pour actually boiling water
over them, allowing it to drain off immediately. This removes the sharp, acid taste of the rhubarb without impairing its flavor. Now put the drained rhubarb into a saucepan, with layers of sugar in weight about equal to fruit. Add the least little water, from a quart to half a cup, cover closely and set on the back of the range or in the oven, where a gentle heat will melt the sugar and cook the rhubarb.
By the time a good rich syrup is made
the fruit will be tender, not broken,
and full of sweet, pleasant juice—a great contrast to the insipid or over-acid compound which sometimes masquerades as "stewed rhubarb."

Rhubarb Pudding.—To make a pudding cut into inch lengths four unpeeled stalks of rhubarb. Stew very gently with two tablespoons of sugar
and a little grated ginger; cut a thick
slice of bread into strips, put a layer
in the bottom of a dish and another layer crosswise on top; pour in some of the fruit and the juice, then put in another layer of bread and more fruit
until the dish is nearly full; set aside to soak. Prepare a custard of half a pint of milk, a tablespoon of cornstarch, sugar and lemon rind to taste
and when thick pour over the pudding.
Serve cold.

Rhubarb Sherbet.—Wash the stalks
well and cut into inch pieces. To a dozen stalks add a quart of cold water and simmer until tender. Sweeten to taste, flavor with a little grated orange peel and stand in a cool place, then strain and freeze. As with all frozen dainties, a good allowance of sugar is necessary, as it loses sweetness in the freezing.

Rhubarb Cream Pie.—Pint stewed
rhubarb, four ounces sugar, pint
cream, two ounces powdered cracker,
three eggs. Rub the stewed rhubarb
through a sieve, heat the other ingredients well together and just as the pie is ready for the oven stir in the rhubarb. Pour the whole into a plate lined with pastry, cover with strips
and bake.

Expert Road Builder

We note that the board of Supervisors has secured the services of an expert road builder for the new roads to be built in the country. While this is foreign to the plan made at first it is something that should prove popular with the people throughout the country.

The News advocated this proposition several weeks ago as the building of $600,000 worth of new roads seemed like a pretty big project for inexperienced hands. Mayor Bosch of this city brought the matter before the last supervisors meeting and the board decided to engage Mr. Gen. Norton who has had much experience in this line. The board of supervisors should be commended for this action.

Band

A band is an expensive luxury but it is something that a growing city like Holland can not very well do without. We were impressed forcibly by the statements contained in William Vander Hart's communication a few days ago. It is indeed foolish to expect a band in a city like Holland to be self sustaining. Such a band must be liberally supported by the progressive element.

The idea of a band composed of boys in their teens is a very good one. They would take pride in having the best and would welcome opportunities to display their talents. Let's have such a band for Holland. We need it on many occasions. And when we get it let's support it. Let's treat our band a little better than the bands from neighboring places. We know bands and we know what sacrifices it requires to be a member of a good band. Let's get a band and not be stingy or niggardly in our support of it for the idea that amateur bands are self supporting is ridiculous.

In T. R.'s case let us keep the commandment: "Thou shalt not spiel."

Gov. Wilson will be notified of his nomination on August 7. In meantime he will keep right on campaigning.

Mexico's silver dollar is quoted at 48. More than 95,000,000 Americans are glad that every one of their dollars is worth more than double that amount.

THEY WILL HOLD PUBLIC MEETING ABOUT PURCHASE OF BUILDING.

Next Monday evening a public meeting will be held in Zeeland for the purpose of reconsidering action taken at the regular annual school election last week. At that time it was decided to purchase the old building of the Second Reformed church for the sum of $2000 for the purpose of converting it into a place where kindergarten classes could be conducted. The attendance at the annual meeting was extremely small however, and as soon as the action taken there became public there was a good deal of protest. This finally crystallized in a petition which was liberally signed asking that the matter be re-opened. It is predicted that most of the voters who did not take the trouble to attend the regular school election will be at the meeting next Monday night.

UNITED STATES MARSHAL TIES UP CRAFT AT MANISTEE PENDING SUIT.

The steam tug J. E. Mann was tied up at Manistee last night by United States Marshal Nicholas Whelan as the result of a libel suit instigated by the Grieling Bros. company of Chicago.

Grieling Bros. allege that the tug ran into one of the dredges owned by them and that the tug at the time was improperly handled because of incompetent seamen.

The captain of the tug was appointed custodian and a bond was given.

Judge Kirby Sues Soule For Ten Thousand Dollars.

A sensation was sprung in Grand Haven Saturday when Judge of Probate Edward P. Kirby of that city started suit to the amount of $10,000 against Ex-Judge of Probate Charles E. Soule on a libel charge. A writ of capias was filed Saturday with county clerk Glerum, with the affidavit attached in which the circumstances of the case are set forth at length. An order to bail was attached, the sum being placed at $10,000. The attorneys for Mr. Kirby are Diekema, Kollen & Ten Cate of this city, with Walter I. Lillie and George A. Farr of Grand Haven for counsel.

PROBATE JUDGE E. P. KIRBY Who Started Suit This Afternoon Against Charles E. Soule for $10,000.

The suit grew out of certain letters alleged in the affidavit to have been written to Fred McEachron of Hudsonville, formerly county clerk of Ottawa county, to Hon. Isaac Marsilje, of this city; to Hon. C. Van Loo of Zeeland and to Hon. Millard Durham of Coopersville.

Following is a paragraph from the letter quoted in the affidavit as having been written to Mr. McEachron:

"My dear Fred:—I am writing to you to talk and use your influence to turn Kirby down for Judge of Probate and nominate James J. Danhof."

"There are many good reasons for this. You know that he sets his church above his official duties and will not perform marriage ceremonies. I suppose the priest forbids him. You know that he refuses to advise people as to matters in the probate office in which they are interested, telling them he may have to pass on the matter judicially and can't advise, when 49 out of 50 cases there are merely routine matters in which proper records have to be made to transfer property from the dead to the living heirs. He sets himself up for a high and mighty judge, and sends people to his lawyer the man who made him, to get a fee from the people who should not pay it. All the men who have been candidates with Kirby have much to say of his using their money paid for campaign funds for his own use and not for theirs. I suppose you have had the same experience."

In the letter quoted in the affidavit as written to Mr. Marsilje occur the following sentences among others:—

"Again, the law makes it the duty of the judge of probate to perform marriage services, but the clerks have told me, that he refuses to do it. His church teaches that marriage is a sacrament, etc., and doubtless the priest tells him he must not do it. It seems to me if one of our American officials finds that his church conflicts with his performing his official duties, it is well to retire him and let him live on his church. I really think you and I don't differ much on the Roman church. I regard it the enemy of our country and its institutions. When I was in politics it was sold against our party because the democrats promised to exempt Catholics from paying school taxes, but they gave it up finally and have come into our party and got on to ride and direct. That is what brought Lillie and Kirby and Nick Whelan and all that sort of cattle into our party and I don't like it. Our party was much more healthy when we had them solidly against us. I have never voted for one of those fellows and never will and caucus can't make me do it."

The letters quoted in the affidavit as having been written to Mr. Van Loo of Zeeland and Mr. Durham of Coopersville are about of the same substance as the two from which the quotations have been made. Each letter is described in the affidavits as a "false, malicious and defamatory slander and libelous letter."

The affidavit covers some nineteen pages of typewritten copy, and in it the whole case is set forth at length and the law covering the charges made in the letters is quoted.

Former Probate Judge Charles E. Soule of Grand Haven had no difficulty Saturday afternoon in securing bonds to the amount of $10,000 demanded by Circuit Judge Cross when suit for $10,000 alleged damages was started against Soule by Probate Judge Edward P. Kirby. Friends of the former judge immediately came to the rescue and he was immediately released on bail. The trial of the case will be held at the August term of circuit court and promises to be a lively affair when the matter comes up.

In regard to the charge which Mr. Kirby's affidavit states was made in certain letters alleged to have been written by Soule, to the effect that Judge Kirby had refused to perform marriage services, and accounting for it by saying, "His church teaches that marriage is a sacrament, etc., and doubtless the priest tells him he must not do it," Mr. Kirby, in his affidavit states that there is absolutely nothing in his religion that conflicts with his duties as a Judge of Probate. He calls attention to the fact that he has been a respected citizen in the county for many years and that his religion has never been kept a secret but that it was all open and above board. In regard to the performing of marriage ceremonies, he says the facts in the matter are as follows:

Up to the year 1903 the Judge of Probate in Michigan never had the power to perform marriage ceremonies, except in cases where a woman was with child or had co-habited with a man. In these cases, the Judge of Probate could perform what is commonly called a secret marriage. The fact of the marriage must be kept secret by the judge of probate, and the ceremony is performed in order to save the good name of the parties and protect them from slanderers.

In 1903 a law was passed permitting the Judge of Probate to perform marriage ceremony in cases where license was issued by the county clerk. The marriage issued to the bride under license issued by the county clerk are identically alike. After the act of 1903 took effect, Judge Kirby married about seven couples under license issued by the county clerk, when it occurred to him that he might get some innocent couple into bad repute as some evil-minded person who knew of the provision for a secret marriage might see the marriage certificate of a couple married by the Judge of Probate under license from the county clerk and might intimate that they had been married secretly.

In short Judge Kirby is still marrying people who marry under a cloud. But refuses to marry couples who come with a clean moral record, so that "busy bodies" who might happen to find out would cast a reflection on this union that would stick to them and possibly, future generations.

Judge Kirby therefore decided that it was better for him to give up the fee which he could make by performing the marriage ceremony, and which would mean quite a little extra compensation each year, rather than that innocent parties should suffer, and so Judge Kirby went to the county clerk and explained his reason for not wanting to marry couples and told the clerk not to send any more couples to him.

In his affidavit Judge Kirby absolutely denies that he refused to advise people as to matters in the probate office in which they are interested. He says he has often advised people and has settled all cases with out assistance of any attorney, so far as was possible, but that in some cases in which matters are contested it would be improper for him to give advice since it would later come before him and must be passed on by him in his capacity as judge. He further declares that he has never made litigants large costs, or any unnecessary costs.

The charge said to have been made by Soule to the effect that "all men who have been candidates with Kirby have much to say of his using their money paid for campaign funds for his own use and not for theirs," is also flatly denied in the affidavit of Mr. Kirby.

Mr. Soule was a judge of probate from January 1st, 1885 to December 31st, 1892, and in the affidavit a comparison is made of the work done during the eight years of Soule's occupancy of the office and eight years of Mr. Kirby's administration. It is found that during eight years of Kirby's office, 28,800 was the number of papers filed, orders entered, letters issued and discharges made, while during the same number of years of Mr. Soule's term of office, the number was 11,142, showing that Kirby has handled during the same number of years 17,658 more than Soule. Over and above this Mr. Kirby says he has determined inheritance tax to the amount of $19,197.19 and that there was no such thing as an inheritance tax when Soule was Judge of Probate; Moreover that he, Kirby, has handled 56 juvenile cases while during Soule's term of office

the Probate Judge had no juvenile cases to attend to.

Another light is thrown on the amount of work done by the probate office and the importance of that office in the following sentence: "From January 1st, 1911 to January 1st, 1912 there were 2,511 people in the probate office on probate business, of some kind, and from January 1st, 1912 to July 1st, 1912, there were 1,295 people in the probate office on some probate business, or 3,806 people in the probate office on some kind of probate business during the last eighteen months."

STIRRING SCENES AT NORTH HOLLAND FRIDAY

When a Standard Oil driver accidentally mixed fifty gallons of kerosene with eighty gallons of gasoline at the store of K. Weener at North Holland Friday and poured it out on the ground to prevent danger he did not realize that he was preparing a danger of another kind. The driver noticed his mistake almost as soon as the oils had been mixed and he immediately turned open the faucet of the tank and sacrificed the oil.

Yesterday Isaac Weener lit his pipe near the store and threw the match on the ground little realizing what the result of this simple action would be. Instantly the ground was literally a sea of flames and the large oil soaked area was covered. It was so near the store that there was grave danger for some time and the flames could not be extinguished. The men working on the new school building came to the rescue and it was largely due to their efforts that no buildings were burned. The only loss was a pair of rubber boots of the North Holland Fire chief.

CORONER'S JURY BRINGS IN VERDICT AND MAKES RECOMMENDATIONS.

The coroner's jury that was called to pass on the death of John Merritt, the ten-year-old boy, who was killed by a Pere Marquette freight last week, held a session this forenoon and brought in a verdict to the effect that Merritt came to his death through accident and that no blame attaches to the Pere Marquette railroad. The jury further recommended that a sign be placed on the right of way warning all boys that any one found jumping trains will be arrested and dealt with to the extent of the law. The jury was composed of Albert Meyer, John DuMez, John Van Putten, Austin Harrington, John Hoffman and John Vanderschul.

KICKED ON BOARD ISSUE IN GRAND HAVEN AT MEETING

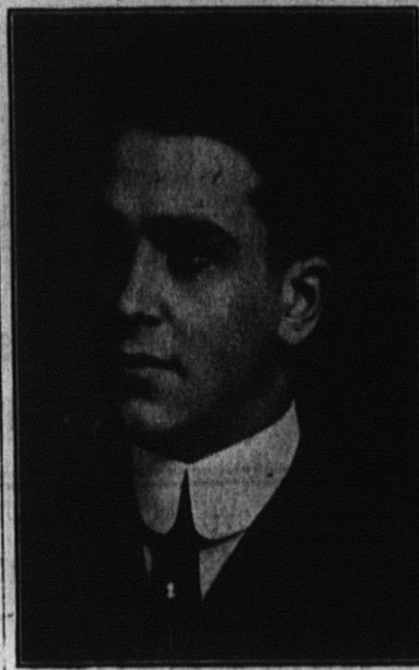

According to some of Mayor Nicodemus Bosch's fellow members on the Board of Supervisors, who attended the meeting of the board in Grand Haven the mayor made things pretty lively at the session in the court house. Although Mr. Bosch is a new man on the board and although new men as a rule let the old heads do the talking, the Holland mayor was not content to sit still and say nothing. Mr. Bosch has something of a head for figures and when the letting of the bids for the hundred thousand dollars road bonds came up he fought strenuously against the proposition that the supervisors finally passed.

The bonds were sold to J. Nuveen company of Chicago as reported in the News. When disposed of the first time the bonds were sold as serial bonds to the Grand Haven bank at four and a fourth per cent together with a premium of about $11,000. To the Chicago firm they were sold as twenty year straight bonds, because the ballot reads that way, and the interest is four and a half, or half a percent more than the Grand Haven bank had offered. Moreover this is a straight deal with no premium attached to it.

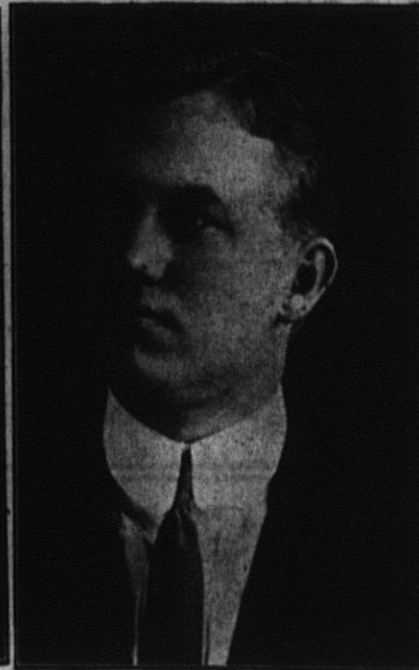

Mr. Bosch who spoke at length on the proposition protested against the sale of the bonds on this basis. His idea was to resubmit the bonds and make the ballot read that they should be serial bonds instead of 20 year straight. If they were serial bonds, he argued, they could be paid at the rate of one twentieth of the each year, so reducing the interest each year. It was figured that from twenty to thirty thousand dollars could in this way be saved in interest on the hundred thousand dollars. It is figured by some of the supervisors who have taken the trouble to figure it out that during the twenty years Ottawa county will pay out nearly $90,000 interest on the hundred thousand dollar bond issue. Supervisor Roosenraad of Zeeland also protested against this course, but the majority of the supervisors were unwilling to submit the proposition to another election and the protests were without avail.

Members of the county road commission met in Grand Haven Thursday. With the sale of the road bonds the commissions actual construction work will begin. The members want

Young Attorneys Start Law Firm

Raymond Visscher

Thomas N. Robinson

Two promising young attorneys of this city have formed a co-partnership and organized a new firm. They go under the name of Visscher & Robinson and their offices are located at 44 East Eighth street where they are now prepared to do active business.

Both Thomas N. Robinson and Raymond Visscher have done good work during their short stay in Holland as professional men. Each of them has appeared in the local courts a number of times, and they have several cases now pending in circuit court and one in the Supreme court. They have both been successful attorneys and by joining forces they expect to build up a law business that will be a credit to themselves and to the city.

Mr. Visscher, whose name appears first on the new shingle, has practiced in this city for about two years. He graduated from the Law Department of the University of Michigan in 1910 receiving the degree of J. D. While a student at Ann Arbor he was for a number of years on the staff of the Michigan Daily, the newspaper published by the students of the university and he did good work in that capacity. In June 1907 he graduated from the literary department of the university after doing a year's work there after receiving the A. B. degree from Hope College in 1906.

Mr. Visscher has been active in municipal affairs as well as in professional lines since opening an office here two years ago. At the last annual meeting of the Holland board of Trade that body recognized his services along this line by electing him as secretary of that board, which office he has ably filled since that time.

Mr. Robinson is also a graduate of the law department of the University of Michigan, receiving his degree in June, 1911. Before entering the university he had graduated from Holland High school, where he made a name for himself as an orator. He holds a gold medal for winning the state oratorical contest and since locating here he has more than once been asked to speak in other towns. Soon after graduating from the university he opened an office at 32 West Eighth street. When his business grew to such an extent that he needed more room he abandoned that place, and opened an office in the offices formerly occupied by the John Weersing agency. At the last municipal election he was elected justice of the peace. Mr. Robinson has a wide acquaintance and he has been remarkably successful during his year's practice in Holland. While still at school he acquired considerable experience in newspaper work.

Both of the attorneys of the firm have been admitted to practice in all the courts of the state, including the supreme court and Mr. Robinson has been admitted to practice in the United States courts. Mr. Visscher has lived in Holland all his life with the exception of the few years he spent at the university and Mr. Robinson, whose native city is South Haven, has lived here for the past ten years. Both are consequently well acquainted here and have an intimate knowledge of the traditions of the people and the history of the city. Moreover Mr. Visscher acquired considerable experience in business methods when he acted as clerk in his father's law office while still at college.

Both young men are very favorably known socially and the new firm starts out under the most favorable auspices.

to get the road building started as soon as possible and thus have a completed road built in many sections of the county during the first year. It is likely that certain members of the commission will be assigned to certain parts of the county in order that the work will be carried on simultaneously at a number of points.

One of the first steps to be taken by the commissioners will be the advertisement for gravel and other material and they have inspected a bridge which will have to be put in at once near Nunica. R. A. Cook of Holland is the bridge builder of the board, and he has recently completed the erection of several new concrete structures in the vicinity of Zeeland.

HOLLAND OLDEST SETTLER

John Grootenhuis, the oldest settler in the Holland colony and a member of the party who occupied the first log house erected for the shelter of the early pilgrims to western Michigan, was 70 years old Friday.

Mr. Grootenhuis was only five years old when his parents crossed the Atlantic with Rev. A. C. Van Raalte's party and his emigration to America was in a measure providential. His mother had been Mrs. Van Raalte's maid prior to her marriage in the Netherlands and she insisted on her family joining the party.

Mr. Grootenhuis has lived here for 50 years and has witnessed the transformation of a wilderness into the present beautiful city of 12,000. His father was a surveyor and he laid out a great portion of what is now the city of Holland.

When two years ago the corner stone of the new city hall was laid John Grootenhuis was elected to the principal role as wielder of the official trowel in recognition of the fact that he was the oldest settler.

"CORNFIELD OF ILLINOIS"

For the Holland City News:

Would the friends of mine who are readers of The Holland City News be pleased to get a bit of news from me while I am spending my vacation days near the beautiful city of St. Elmo, Illinois. We are having quite an abundance of rain which is a great help to the grand fields of waving corn, in and around St. Elmo. I am spending most of my time doing as little of work as possible mostly visiting old friends and acquaintance for the readers must remember here was the days of my childhood and youths. I am certainly glad to say that the country is prospering fastly and can be compared for advancement as any spot east of it.

The only objection can be found in this portion of Ill., is the climate, which is now extremely warm, at present, and is most nearly always followed by a severe wind or rain storm, but this only cools the air and makes things more beautiful and life worth living.

I also wish to extend my thanks to the editor of the paper, for sending the paper so regular, it certainly was gladly received each week by me and thoroughly read, which keeps me in touch with the news of Holland and its people. If this does not find its way to the waste basket, I may send some more news later.

Very truly,

Thousands who suffer from backache and kidney complaint have tried one remedy after another, finding only temporary benefit. This is discouraging, but there is one special kidney medicine that cures permanently, and there is plenty of proof right here in Holland.

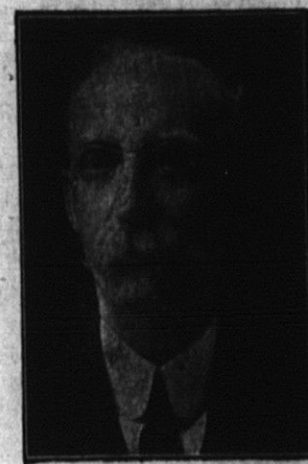

Here is the testimony of one who used Doan's Kidney Pills years ago, and now states that the cure was lasting.
Mrs. L. Gage, 91 W. Eighth St., Holland, Mich., says: "I am pleased to verify the public statement I gave in Praise of Doan's Kidney Pills in 1909, as I have enjoyed almost complete freedom from kidney complaint since this remedy cured me. My first experience with Doan's Kidney Pills took place in 1908 when I was suffering from pains in my kidneys. There was lameness across my loins that made it difficult for me to straighten after stooping and I also had trouble from the kidney secretion. The contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me."

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER

WHAT YOU SAW 35 YEARS AGO

J. O. Bosman's store was broken into on Thursday night last by a pair of small thieves who did not want to take more than a new suit of clothing. The entrance was made by breaking a back window of the shop, and from there entered the door leading into the store, by boring a hole through the door and turning the key which was on the inside. It seems evident that they wanted only a new suit of clothing and having got it, departed.

WHAT YOU SAW 25 YEARS AGO

Ed J. Harrington, Jr., having sold his houses on Market street will immediately commence the erection of five new ones which will be ready for tenants in a few weeks.

Banker J. Van Putten last Saturday afternoon purchased the four residences on Market street, which have just been completed, by Ed J. Harrington, Jr. The consideration was, so we are informed, $2,500.

Mr. C. Blom has purchased twenty-five feet of ground next to Jonkman & Dykema's building, on Eighth street, and will commence the erection of a neat two-story brick building at once. It will cost in the neighborhood of $3,000.

WHAT YOU SAW 30 YEARS AGO

If nothing occurs to prevent, the frame of the new flouring mill will be raised to day.

Fishermen are busy, off our harbor, catching white fish. One fish boat sets one hundred nets every day. It seems to us as though the people of this city ought to be able to buy white fish without going to the harbor after them.

De Hope has changed its publication day. The paper is now issued on Tuesdays instead of Wednesdays.

WHAT YOU SAW 20 YEARS AGO

Married in this city Wednesday, Rev. Peter De Bruyn of Grand Haven and Miss Helen Cappon of this city, Rev. H. E. Dosker officiating.

Married in Grand Haven Thursday, July 7, Henry Westveer of this city and Miss Maud Evans of Holland township.

The hill at Macatawa Park has been leveled off into a plateau several acres in extent, and the lumber is already on the ground for the great auditorium. The building will be completed by the last week in July and will seat 2000 persons.

WHAT YOU SAW 15 YEARS AGO

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hansen on Tuesday—a daughter.

The old steamer Macatawa while running an excursion from Chicago to Manhattan Beach last Sunday evening was nearly wrecked. A Chicago tug went to the rescue and thus a panic was averted.

The contract for the proposed enlargement and alteration in the M. E. church has been awarded to Rottschaefer Bros.

E. M. Roberts of the Heinz Pickling Co. is in the city this week in the interest of their new plant. Work on putting in the vats was commenced on Wednesday and forty-six will be the total. The company will soon be ready for the season's business. Mr. Roberts states that the prospect for the erection of a vinegar plant this season is considered bright.

WHAT YOU SAW 10 YEARS AGO

Ben DuMez has bought of Prof. J. H. Klienhekel the house and lot at 81 East Thirteenth.

The Grand Rapids, Holland and Lake Michigan Railway company has sold its electric lighting plant at the power house at Virginia Park to the Macatawa Park Company. The machinery will be moved to the resort and the lighting facilities there will be increased.

Ideal Gruel.

To make gruel successfully, great care must be exercised.

To make patent groats gruel, the required quantity should be mixed very smoothly and carefully with cold water; milk is apt to make it lumpy. When mixed, it should be added to equal quantities of boiling milk and water; boil all gently for fifteen or twenty minutes. When done, three parts fill a cup, and serve with cold milk or cream and castor sugar.

Milk Lemonade.

Dissolve four ounces of loaf sugar in one-half gill of boiling water, then add a gill of sherry and juice of two lemons. Stir well together, then add three-quarters of a pint of new milk. Stir all well, strain through a jelly bag till clear. The cost is small, and the drink really delicious.

Egg Cordial.

Beat the white of an egg to froth, add a tablespoon of cream and a tablespoonful of good old brandy, and, if liked, a little sugar.

Expectations.

The man who is looking for trouble generally finds it and the one who expects defeat usually gets a whipping.

GEORGE P. HUMMER WILL ENTER THE RACE AGAINST SMITH.

Thursday morning G. P. Hummer threw his hat into the ring as candidate for United States Senator on the Democratic ticket. The circulation of primary petitions in favor of Mr. Hummer's candidacy were begun Thursday and it is expected by local democrats that in a very short time a sufficiently large number of signatures will be secured to place the name of the Holland manufacturer on the ballot.

This action of Thursday came as a surprise to many people in this city. Ever since Woodrow Wilson was nominated at Baltimore rumors have been going the rounds in democratic circles in regard to what Mr. Hummer would do. It was most frequently stated that he would head the democratic ticket in this state and would make a try for the governorship. In fact, the other day a Detroit paper printed a rumor to that effect. But that he was after the toga of Wm. Alden Smith was not known to most people.

Mr. Hummer was in Grand Rapids today to attend the furniture exposition there and no statement was made by him. But when seen by the Sentinel at the Pere Marquette this noon he did not deny that he was in the fight for good. He merely smiled a confident smile but made no comment on his plans or on anything in connection with the coming campaign.

Friends of Mr. Hummer and local democrats however were not at all backward Thursday in expressing their belief that he would make a strong run. Local Democrats say they believe the state of Michigan is this year going democratic and that the senatorship will go to that party as well as most of the other offices.

Mr. Hummer is a personal friend of Mr. Bryan. Although his home is in Grand Rapids he has been identified with business interests in Holland many years and is looked upon as a citizen of this city.

Onke Van Til Tried Wednesday On Charge of Breaking a Window.

The trial of Onke Van Til, charged with throwing a stone through a window in a building on the North Side, was held in the court room in the city hall Wednesday. The warrant was sworn out on the complaint of a North Side resident named Hiddenga, who claimed that he had been annoyed a great deal by the depredations of boys there. A large number of witnesses were examined and the case lasted till nearly six o'clock. Prosecuting Attorney Osterhouse appeared for the people and Att. Daniel Ten Cate for the defendant. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. Two other boys are charged with the same offense and they may be tried later.

HOLLAND MAN ALLEGED TO HAVE LEFT WITH BRIDE'S SHOES AND $4 IN CASH

The following dispatch appeared in the morning paper Thursday investigation fails to reveal any such man in Holland as is named in the dispatch and it may be a case of an assumed name:

St. Louis, Mo., July 10.—Minus her fiancé, a pair of new shoes and $4 in cash, Mrs. Charlotte Page, a St. Louis divorcee has asked for the arrest of Edward Wagner, jr., who claims Holland, Michigan as his home.

Wagner and Mrs. Page met a short time ago, and according to the woman, fell in love at first sight. He represented himself as being a government employe, and said that his parents at Holland were wealthy. Incidentally he mentioned that his salary was $150 per month.

They parted temporarily, he going to Holland. They corresponded with each other telling of their undying devotion. He returned Monday, and at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning they were to get the license and wed immediately.

He intimated that he was a little shy of cash and displayed several checks. She loaned him $4, all the money she had. He left with the money and a pair of shoes, which he was to take to a cobbler and have stretched. He did not return, but the check which he gave her on a Holland bank, marked "No account."

BERT BRUIDSCHAT IS ACQUITTED OF CHARGE OF STEALING WHEEL.

Friday afternoon after having been out only a few minutes the jury in the case of the people against Bert Bruidschat brought in a verdict of not guilty. Bruidschat was charged with stealing a bicycle from Lambert Van Wielen. The case has been up before and two weeks ago it resulted in a disagreement. There were six witnesses for the people yesterday at the trial in the court room and four for the defendant. Prosecutor L. H. Osterhouse appeared for the people and Att. Daniel Ten Cate for Bruidschat. The jury was composed of Frank Van Etta, George Buchanan, Frank Mastenbroek, Simon Wiebenga, Adrian Van Putten and G. Klassen. The case was tried before Justice Miles.

BODIES FOUND AT BENTON HARBOR HAD BEEN IN WATER TWO YEARS.

Benton Harbor, July 12.—The body of a negro and his Newfoundland dog, drowned in the St. Joseph river two years ago are the source of the typhoid epidemic that has been raging here. The state board of health made the discovery during an investigation undertaken after 1200 people had been afflicted with the disease.

The bodies were found according to report beneath the mouth of the intake pipe near the middle of the stream. They are believed to have been drawn there by the suction of the water, probably shortly after the drowning. Several scores have died from typhoid fever since the epidemic started.

The negro and his dog came here with Ringling Bros.' circus. The negro went to the river for a swim between performances and fell from the diving board into the water, being taken with cramps. The faithful dog went to the rescue, but the negro grasped it so tightly that both went to the bottom.

So far as the circus people were concerned, no effort was made to recover the bodies. The city authorities made some effort, but failing the negro and dog were soon forgotten. It was reasoned that the pair had been caught in an undercurrent and carried down the stream.

Then came the typhoid epidemic, and despite all efforts it would not recede. Authorities insisted that the water was pure, but encouraged the people to boil it, which finally aroused some suspicion and the situation was brought to the attention of the state board of health.

THREE GANGS OF MEN BEGIN WORK ON TWELFTH STREET

Monday morning the laying of the concrete bottom on the 12th street paving job was begun and before evening a very appreciable start on the work will have been made. The work was begun at the Van Raalte avenue corner and the laborers are working eastward toward Columbia avenue. A large force of men was put on the job this morning and the enterprise is going on with a celerity that is gratifying.

Three different gangs of workmen have been put on the job, one of them grading the street, the other doing the curb and gutter work and the other engaged in mixing the cement. Since Twelfth street is a long street a large number of men must be employed to finish the work at the appointed time.

The city is now the provisional owner of two large mixers and they are working to full capacity. These mixers will either become the property of the city in the fall or the city can pay rent on them for the use of them during the summer.

By about September it is expected that the paving between Van Raalte avenue and Columbia avenue will have been completed. That is all the paving that can be done on Twelfth until the next appropriation shall have been made, since funds have to be provided for paying the balance of the street. The plan is however to pave the entire street from Lincoln avenue to the lake, and the two ends can be completed before winter comes.

Twelfth street is being paved by day labor, unlike the other paving jobs so far done in Holland which were done by contract labor. One advantage of the present system is that it does away with all inspection work. Under the contract system the city had to keep inspectors on the job to see that the work was done according to agreement. By the present system all inspection is changed into direction work and City Engineer Naberhuis takes the place of the contractor. He naturally sees to it that the work is up to the standard, and it is believed that the day labor system will prove very satisfactory.

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified. FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE. It is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

The Harder Way.

The way of the transgressor is hard, but the way of one against whom he transgresses is harder.

A LUCKY MAN.

"Have you any last message to leave—any final word to say?" his wife asked as she knelt beside his bed. "There is one, Mary, but I think I had better say it to some one else." "No, William, speak it to me. I can't bear to think of any one else hearing your last words." "No, no, dear. Let me whisper my message to the doctor or to the minister if he is here. It would only make you sad." "I insist on knowing what you wish to say. You must tell me—only me." "Well, then, if you must have it, I merely wish to say that I die happy—that I am glad to go." "Oh, William, why—why are you glad to go?" "I'll miss housecleaning this year."

He Got the Name.

A snob was once put up for a prominent club, where men met nightly to discuss political or billiard questions of the hour. Unfortunately for him, he was not elected, and his wrath was terrible.

Forgetful of English manners and customs, he wrote an indignant letter to the secretary of the club, demanding the name of the member who had blackballed him.

The secretary's reply was brief: "Dear Sir—His name is Legion."—London Tit-Bits.

THE PACE THAT DAZZLES.

Mrs. De Wealth—Mercy, John! Is it necessary that we go fifty miles an hour?

Mr. De Wealth—But, Marie, if we go slower, people will say that our automobile cost only $2,000 or so.

Quite So.

"Dear me! I'll go at once. What kind of car ran over him?"

"The Whiffers' new $7,000 limousine."

"Thank heaven, it wasn't one of those common little runabouts."

Retort Spiteful.

Nell—I think women take up entirely too much time at the looking glass. I very seldom spend idle moments at my mirror.

Belle—But, my dear, that may be because it takes some reflection to face the truth.

Baptized in Irrigation Ditch.
Probably for the first time in the history of irrigation a new member of the church was immersed in an irrigation ditch in a baptismal ceremony,
just west of Irrican, in the Canadian Pacific railway's irrigation block, Alberta. J. S. Culp, a farmer, and also pastor of the Church of the Brethren, officiated at the ceremony, and Mrs.
E. Studebaker was the member who embraced the faith and was immersed
in the irrigation ditch.

ACETYLENE FOG-HORN SIGNAL

Automatically Controlled Buoy or Beacon Used for Year Without Being Given Attention.

An automatic acetylene fog-horn is being worked out by Gustav Dalsen,
the Swedish inventor of the automatically lighted buoy or beacon. The light-controlling device is a sun valve,
by which the light of day shuts off the acetylene from the burner and the appearance of darkness turns it on and relights it. A buoy equipped with this valve has been regularly lighted for more than a year without attention or renewal of its supply of calcium carbide. An acetylene fog-horn already patented by the inventor in Canada consists of a rotating disk,
carrying on its periphery small pockets containing gas, and a horn in front of which an electric spark explodes the gas. Each pocket passes an acetylene jet before reaching the spark, the acetylene thus taken up forming an explosive mixture with the air. By changing the rate of the disk's rotation, the rapidity of the explosions
can be varied to any number up to 500 or more per second, and the tone produced by the horn as a result of the explosions can be adjusted as desired by a suitable regulation of the speed. To cause the horn to operate when needed, and only then, has been the serious problem. One plan is to have it set in action by a tuning fork responding to the vibrations of a steamer's whistle, and with this arrangement an approaching steamer in
a fog would, on sounding its whistle,
get the fog-horn signal indicating the locality.

MEANS OF SUBDUING WAVES

Automatic Apparatus Being Manufactured for Discharging Oil on Sea
During Stormy Weather.

A special automatic apparatus for discharging oil on the sea in stormy weather is being manufactured by a British concern. The apparatus consists of a cast-iron oil reservoir above
a vertical cylinder. A heavy piston, working in the cylinder, attached to a tubular rod and provided with a spring, ejects the oil onto the water.

Oil on Troubled Waters.

A handwheel on the spindle rod is used to raise the piston when the cylinder is being filled with oil from the reservoir.

The apparatus is mounted in the bow as shown in the illustration, says
the Popular Mechanics. Two small delivery pipes protrude through the bow,
one on each side of the stem. The discharge of each pipe is about half a gallon per hour, but this may be varied according to requirements, density of oil, etc.

Oil has been utilized for many years
as a means of subduing the waves,
and in many instances has saved vessels from disaster.

MUFFLED KNOCKS.

"I am glad to hear you eating your soup with so much enjoyment, Uncle Richard."

"Yes, that's a very amusing story,
old chap, but here's the way my grandfather says they used to tell it
when he was a boy."

"I always come to your restaurant
for my noon lunch, Kilpeon, because there's no danger of ever finding it crowded."

"I beg your pardon, sir, for letting the train of my dress get under your feet. I'll remove it as soon as I can."

"Borus, come and let's have a square meal. I won $5 from Nagus by reading your last story through without stopping."

"Dearie, I wouldn't mind what anybody says; I know you could have married long ago if the right man had come along."

Explaining the Matter.

"I want some hose for my husband."

"What kind, madam?"

"Garden hose."

"I beg pardon. Did I understand you to say that you wanted garden
hose for your husband?"

"Yes, young man. That's what I said. I want some cheap, thick socks, size eleven. My husband has already spoiled several pairs of his best silk hose while working on his onion bed."

HIS IDEA.

Hegson—Is Jones putting on any airs since he came into his fortune?
Digson—I should say so. Why, he's been operated on three times for appendicitis.

the players are signed."

So Thoughtful of Him.

Bridegroom (two days after wedding)—I haven't seen anything yet of that $5,000 check from your father.

Bride—Well, you see, dear papa heard that your father had already given us one, and he knew we shouldn't care to have duplicate presents.

Equally Undesirable.

"What would you think of a young man who declared you were the first girl he ever kissed?"

"I would have to know him to decide whether to class him as a candidate for the Ananias club or as a mollycoddle."

Accounted For.

"My wife was so busy at her suffrage work that she sent me to buy a bonnet for her, and, of course, I got stung on it."

"That was because she had a bee
in it."

A GENTLE TOUCH.

The congregation of Trinity Reformed church expects to worship in its new church for the first time on Sunday August 5. The time for its dedication has been deferred until the entire structure is completed. The property represents a valuation of nearly $20,000.

Rev. J. J. Vander Schaaf of Litchville, N. D., has accepted a call to the Reformed church at Spring Lake. Rev. James J. De Kraker of Grand Rapids has selected as his first pastorate the Reformed church at Rochester, N. Y. Both are graduates of Hope College.

Frank Haight who was struck by a Pere Marquette switch engine about a week ago is more seriously injured than was thought at the time of the accident. Besides a couple of broken ribs and cuts about the head he was hurt internally. The physicians however feel confident that he will recover although his age makes the case more critical.

John Redder, whose general store at Olive Center was burned to the ground not long ago, is not out of business by any means. While the smoke was clearing from his former stand, he cast about for another place and decided upon the town hall. He is planning to erect a cement building and until it is finished he will remain in the town hall.

A small launch belonging to Ray Booth of the Citizens Telephone Co. was run down by a larger gasoline boat in which there were seven men passengers. Booth's launch had broken down and while he was working on the engine in an effort to start it again he was run down. It is said that all the required lights were displayed and there seems to be little excuse for the accident.

Twenty-six automobiles passed through the streets of Holland last night in one procession and they attracted a great deal of attention. The automobiles comprised most of the machines owned in the city of Zeeland. They were headed by the auto of J. C. Den Herder and they passed along the principal streets of this city. Before leaving home they paraded the streets of Zeeland.

Henry Verhoeks, the well known Grand Haven wholesale meat dealer and string butcher, has a pet crow that can talk like a parrot. Mr. Verhoeks has had the bird two years and it is a barnyard pet, playing with the chickens and is a particular companion of the cat and the dog. The bird is given its entire freedom, never being confined in a cage and seldom if ever going over a block away. Mr. Verhoeks has taught the bird to speak a good many words and thinks a great deal of his feathered pet.

HOW NICK FINK SPENDS HIS TIME DURING HIS JAIL SENTENCE

Nick Fink well known in Holland and formerly a resident of this city "chief of police" of Mill Creek and proprietor of the Riversite hotel at that Washington Irving-esque municipality, at the urgent invitation of Judge McDonald has begun a 60 days' stay at Sheriff Hurley's Palacio de Rio.

When seen by a news reporter Nick was enjoying his matutinal cigar in his little den finished in Looney-Some-thing-style and with furniture of old Doric simplicity, but withal substantial. There was, in fact, the color of substantiality to it all. Even the doors and the windows were held in frame and firm by peculiar iron bars which are indigenous to all times and all styles of building of the certain style of hotel which Sheriff Hurley conducts.

No Chance to Sleep in Daytime
The reporter dropped a nickel in the electric piano, Nick started to yell "Three up and two down" checked himself and said:

"It ain't so bad. There is points about this hotel which is got a lot of 'em beat. In the first place you don't have to leave a call and you don't have to pack an alarm clock."

"They've got a street dredge out here which works 24 hours a day. Most of the time it sounds like a railway train going over a trestle, and the rest of the time as though 20 boys were kicking 40 cans down a brick alley. Now and then it stops, whereupon a locomotive from the Union depot draws up to the door of the hotel and whistles a few times to see if the sheriff is in."

Guest Look for Pink Elephant.

"We don't stand upon ceremony here, either. Last night one of the guests poked his head in my door and asked if I had seen his pink elephant any place. He couldn't find it anywhere. He said he had his red, white and blue turkey and his four-cared dog, but he wasn't going to sleep until he found that pink elephant."

"But I can't kick."

"The reporter agreed with Nicholas that the dimensions of his room precluded a very good sized kick."

Nick scattered excreta, Nick scratched a match on the Louis de Quinz furniture.

Bell Boy Service is Awful

"The bell boy service here is awful," he continued. "I have answered the electric buzzer at my hotel, the Riversite, until a my tongue hung out and felt like a cotton comforter. But here, if you have to tap with a tin spoon on the bar—a perpendicular bar—until someone comes. Then, like as not, you'll order a porterhouse steak, and when it reaches you it's a sausage."

Nick is sharing his compartment with a co-laborer in the field of annihilating the thirsts. The co-laborer is from the old Kentucky Home—not the song—and when they both get out, they declare, there will be very little that they won't know about pinocchio.

"I ain't got nothin' against nobody," concluded Nick, as he swung one leg over the other and lit a fresh perfecto.

Nick was sent up by Judge McDonald for 60 days was sentenced to pay a fine of $200, and his saloon at Mill Creek was ordered closed for good. This was for a continuous violation of the liquor law, and a harboring place for young girls.
