Geo. Getz Host To Governors And Senators

LAKEWOOD FARM HAS BEEN THE MECCA WHERE PROMI-NENT MEN REST

Dignitaries Will Arrive by Warship and Leave by Yacht

Holland's resort district is becoming more and more prominent each year as a place where men of note visit, many of them for a rest. Not a few of these come because of the genial host who made Lakewood farm possible.

Holland folks were privileged a few years ago to meet Al Smith and family from New York, Democratic candidate for the presidency in the last election. Mayor Thompson of Chicago and others from the city staff have spent several days at Lakewood. Governor Fred Green has been coming and going for some years now and he and Mrs. Green were guests until a few days ago. Former Senator William Alden Smith, Senator Vandenberg and Minister Diekema have been season's fixtures at Lakewood—George likes to have them around.

This year however has been an exception since the Diekemas are "side pals" of Queen Wilhelmina and Prince Henry and "Art" Vandenberg is sweltering in Washington, fighting traffic legislation and orating on peace treaties, halting between spasms to form a mind picture of Lakewood and its peaceful surroundings. If only that "damn" Senate would adjourn.

However George is not lacking for prominent guests. Next week Sunday morning early the training ship Wilmette with some 200 "jacksies" will drop anchor in Macatawa bay and on board will be Hon. Louis Emerson, Governor of Illinois, and Lieutenant-Governor of Illinois, Fred E. Sterling. In the party it is expected that Governor Lesley of Indiana will also be present with Governor Fred Green. Accompanying these men there will be 20 state senators from Illinois, mostly from down state districts outside of Cook County. Many of them have never been as far north as Holland in Michigan. The party is sponsored by Mr. Lowell Mason of Oak Park, Chicago, Ill., and it is very interesting to know that he is the son of the late Senator "Bill" Mason, who has often appeared in Holland as a speaker at a Chamber of Commerce banquet or kindred functions. During presidential campaigns he never failed to come to Holland as a "spellbinder." Holland surely liked Mr. Mason in the old campaign days. The training ship Wilmette is in charge of Captains Evans, who is also well known here.

Mr. Getz has no set program for Sunday since he wants it to be a restful day for his many guests. Luncheon and dinner will be served in the large sun parlor in the Getz home. However Mr. Getz will have served 30 rooms at Warm Friend Tavern to which the guests will retire after breakfast Monday morning the private yacht Mizpah, commanded by Eugene McDonald, the well known Arctic explorer, will weigh anchor in this harbor and take the guests back to Chicago. The yacht Mizpah is now cruising in Georgian Bay but will arrive here some time Sunday.

It will be remembered that the Mizpah with commander and crew did a brilliant work when the Andaste with its crew of 25 went down somewhere off this port. Many bodies were picked up by the crew of the yacht. Last week Mr. Getz entertained the big coal barge of Illinois, this being their tenth annual at Lakewood farm and before adjournment they voted to come again if George consented to have them. It goes without saying—George did consent and that quickly.

George, Jr., is also at home this summer and between father and son the Getz guests of Sunday will be well taken care of.

When Mr. Getz was asked whether he had a set program he said that he never does that, only on very special occasions. Guests prefer a quiet rest and no social functions of which they always get a great kick out of watching the thousands passing through the zoological gardens and surely for one who has not seen this, it is a most interesting sight and affords a great opportunity to study human nature. Yes the latch string at Lakewood farm still hangs out as it has for the past 20 years.

NEW YORK TIMES PICTURES
GEORGE GETZ ZOO

A quarter of a page of the rotogravure section of last Sunday's New York Times was devoted to three pictures of George Getz's zoo. The photographs, which were taken by the Chicago bureau of the Times Wide World Photos, pictured the trophy room at the farm, the rhinoceros, and the tiger in action. Holland receives wide advertising through Lakewood farm.

They motored north and intend to visit various points in northern Michigan, and Ontario, Canada, and will also visit the Niagara Falls. During the absence of the pastor, pulpits supplies have been engaged as follows: Sunday, July 20, Dr. Henry Hospers of Western Theological Seminary at Holland; Sunday, July 27, Dr. Wm. J. Van Kersen, of Holland, Western field secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Church in America, shortly returned from a year's absence in various mission fields. He will preach at both the morning and evening services.

To Fly From London, England to Netherlands

ZEELAND BOY LEAVES FOR EUROPE. WILL CALL ON
G. J. DIEKEMA

Lee H. Janssen, one of Zeeland's well known young hatcherymen, director of the Zeeland Poultry Association, left on July 7 for the International Baby Chick Association convention in Detroit. From there he toured to Montreal, Canada, and then sailed to Liverpool, from where he goes to London to attend the World's Poultry Congress held in Crystal Palace during the month of July.

Besides attending this Congress, he will make an extended tour of Europe, first traveling the British Isles, including a visit to Shakespeare's birthplace. From there he will go to Scotland.

After he has done the Islands he will fly by plane from London to the Netherlands where he will visit with relatives and friends, the latter will include a call on Minister and Mrs. G. J. Diekema of Holland, Mich. U. S. Minister to The Netherlands. He will also go to Germany and visit Nelson Vande Luyt of Zeeland, who is studying at Heidelberg University.

Leaving Germany, Mr. Janssen will tour Switzerland and the scenic route through the Alps mountains taking him into France. While there he will visit Flanders' Fields. Of course, he will not forget to visit that naughty Paris.

On August 28 he expects to return to the United States, sailing from Cherbourg, France, on the S. S. Leviathan.

MUST PAY PENALTY IF LIGHT
BILLS ARE NOT PAID

The new Grand Haven Board of Public Works is forcing payment of delinquent light bills by cutting off the current and taxing $1.00 to those settling the bill and renewing connection. This rule is now being rigidly enforced. The ordinance rules that bills delinquent after the fifth of the month following their presentation shall carry a penalty of having the lights turned off by city employees.

BATTLE CREEK GIRL IS AWARDED $5,000 FROM FIRE CHIEF OF ALLEGAN

Miss Helen Nelson of Battle Creek Tuesday was awarded $5,000 damages by an Allegan circuit court jury in her $10,000 damage suit against Fire Chief Henry O. Maentz of Allegan, as the result of an accident Feb. 3, 1929, on the Battle Creek-Kalamazoo road. An automobile driven by Maentz is said to have struck one driven by Chester Fermin of Battle Creek, in which Miss Nelson was riding.

Maentz announced his intention of appealing the verdict.

A damage suit for a similar amount, brought by Fermin, will get under way in circuit court tomorrow. These are the second trials of each complaint, the others resulting in jury disagreements.

SOCIALS INSTEAD OF RECITALS

Miss Kitty Doesburg, 33 East Tenth street, who has two large music classes in piano, one for the little folks and one for advanced pupils, this year planned a rather unique way of entertaining them at the close of the season. Instead of a public recital she first entertained the little folks with a social event that included games interspersed with a musical program while the advanced pupils were invited to a similar event later. Both functions were real enjoyable affairs.

HOLLAND MAN DRINKS FLY POISON AND DIES

An unusual tragedy occurred Thursday morning when Henry Kievit, living at 286 East Thirteenth street, in an insane moment took up a bottle of "fly poison," cried out that he would "end it all," drained the contents of the flask while his family, too surprised to prevent it, saw the head of the family end his life by this effective poison.

Physicians were hurriedly called in but the unfortunate man was beyond all human help when doctors arrived.

It is said that Kievit appeared to regret his act the minute he had swallowed the "Black Flag," for he attempted to spit it out and cried for water to wash it away. Everything in that way was done to save him but to no avail.

Financial difficulties seem to have preyed upon his mind and it is believed that temporary derangement followed. Kievit-always was a home-loving man and up to that time had shown no tendencies toward suicide. Coroner Vande Water and Prosecutor deemed an inquest unnecessary.

He is survived by a widow and the children are Marie Albertha, Irene Cornelia, Helene Elizabeth, William James and Elva Mae, also three brothers: Peter, Jacob and John of Holland, two sisters, also living in Holland, namely Mrs. Peter De Hamer and Mrs. John De Witt.

The parents of the unfortunate man also live in Holland on East Ninth street. They are Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kievit.

Funeral services will be held at the Dykstra Funeral Home at 2:00 o'clock Saturday. Rev. N. J. Monisma, pastor of Ninth Street Church officiating. Interment will be in Holland Township cemetery.

Kievit, who is 34 years old, was employed as a molder at the Holland Furnace Co. and was not out of work, it is said.

The Holland Rotary Club held its mid-summer luncheon today at Waukazoo Inn. It was a real enjoyable affair including the spread.

Holland's three banks have posted $45 in premiums for farmers' club exhibits at the next Holland-Zeeland community fair in August. Each club will be provided with a 20-foot space in agricultural hall. The exhibits will be judged on quality, artistic arrangement, and educational merits, and will be in charge of County Agent C. P. Milham.

Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Flipse of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mooi and family and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Arendshorst of Holland and Dr. and Mrs. H. Yntema are among those resorting at Eagle Crest on Lake Michigan.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

A new teaching staff engaged by the Board of Education consists of: Prof. I. F. Bangs, superintendent; Misses Nellie Wakker, E. M. Campbell, Mrs. S. J. Higgins, Miss E. C. Allen, Miss E. C. The saloons in Holland were all open on the 4th of July, did a big business and still there was nobody drunk nor were there any arrests made by our town marshal. Note—The 4th of July that year was celebrated on the 3rd, Independence Day falling on Sunday.

Mr. John Steketee of Grand Rapids and Bastian Steketee of Holland caught a string of black bass in Black Lake which collectively weighed 60 pounds.

Fred J. Souter will please accept our thanks for a fine box of clover honey. The news invites you again Fred. Keep up the bee raising.

Here are Holland's and Grand Haven's population figures according to the U. S. census report just filed: Grand Haven City, 4,862; ten years ago (1870) the population was 3,147, thus an increase for the county seat of 1,715. Holland City has a population of 2,631, ten years ago (1870) the population was 2,319, an increase of 312. Considering that Holland was burned within these last ten years we consider the gain rather gratifying. Note—The News was optimistic even then and is still filled with it.

Diekema Smokes "Pipe of Peace" With Big Chief

WHITE HORSE EAGLE FROM AMERICA, AGED 108 VISITS
THE NETHERLANDS

Minister G. J. Diekema sends the Holland City News a letter and pictures of unusual interest as these relate to visitors from America. The photograph on this page pictures Minister and Mrs. Diekema at their home receiving Great Chief White Horse Eagle, now 108 years old. Accompanying him is the Chief's white wife, who is touring Europe with him. Dr. Diekema states that this "first American" was unusually pleased with his visit and The Netherlands papers made much of the "Red Man," printing large cuts of Mr. Diekema and the Chief smoking the "pipe of peace" together. The Holland man sent several clippings to this paper as printed in the Amsterdam and The Hague papers. He also sent a photograph of the meeting of the two couples in the Diekema home, to his son Willis Diekema of Holland, which is here reproduced. Mr. Diekema said in his letter: "The chief, with great formality made me an Indian Chief 'Orange-ra' which necessitated the passing of the 'pipe of peace' as you will notice in the clippings."

Mr. Diekema said further: "There was a large number assembled at this function and after I was made chief, Leona was made Princess 'Angelica'."

Mr. Diekema also relates that he delivered a speech at a banquet for the Chamber of Commerce at Amsterdam on June 23 and that he and Mrs. Diekema were entertained officially in Groningen last week and while on this trip he said: "I found the old church in which my father was baptized and his baptismal record still in good shape. It is needless to say that I was very much impressed."

County Agricultural Agent A. D. Morley has returned from the American Institute of Co-operation at Ohio State university. Members of the federal farm board, he reported, gave interesting discussions on the organization of several national co-operative sales agencies. Morley said the federal farm board plans to assist any co-operative unit that conforms to the marketing law and is linked in a state organization.

PROSECUTOR LOKKER CON-
VICTS IN 244 OUT OF 253
CASES

In a report submitted to the Attorney General of the state of Michigan, embracing cases covering a period of the last six months, from January 1 to July 1, 1930, Prosecutor Clarence Lokker has made a remarkable showing. Out of the 253 cases in which he was called to prosecute, there were convictions in 244. There were but two acquittals and seven cases were dismissed with the parties paying the cost and where evidence was meager.

The Prosecutor has been very careful in his prosecutions, collecting real evidence that had considerable bearing in their respective cases. In other words it was prosecution and not persecution.

The motor vehicle law was violated the most often with 164 cases; most of them being driving while under the influence of liquor. None of these offenders got away, all of them being convicted.

The next violation in number of cases was disorderly conduct. There were 30 of these, many of these emanating through booze parties.

Larceny with 11 cases and assault with 10 cases were next in line.

The list of cases prosecuted by Attorney Clarence Lokker and his Assistant Jay Den Herder are found tabulated below.

Abandonment	3	1

BASS VS. BULLHEAD

When Dr. Peter J. DePree, formerly of Holland, now of Grand Rapids, pulled a 5-pound, 10-ounce black bass into his boat at Tannack lake the other day, he was a thrilled and perspiring fisherman. It was the big fish of the season in the DePree family; and, although Dr. DePree is a nerve specialist, his own nerves were none too steady when finally he set his knee in the center of that bass' abdominal outer wall.

But, more unusual than the size of the DePree bass, in the extinction of which brother Chet D. DePree played a big part, is the reported content of its stomach. A bullhead, 7 inches long, was found in first stages of digestion. Because of the nasty horns or spines which protect the bullhead, it is very seldom preyed upon even by the glutinous black bass.

Large Vote Out In Monday's School Election

TWO OF OLD MEMBERS ARE RETURNED—VANDER HILL
STAGES A COME-BACK

There was a real live school election in Holland Monday when three out of six candidates on the ballot were elected to serve for the next three years. The ballot contained the names of six able men, namely Jake Fris, James A. Brouwer, William Arendshorst, Gerrit Vander Hill, William C. Vandenberg and Benjamin Harris. Altogether 965 votes were cast which is an unusually large vote considering a school election. Gerrit Vander Hill, who last year was defeated by Mrs. Martha Kollen, staged a come-back, receiving the largest vote of any other candidate on the ticket. James A. Brouwer, the local furniture man, and William Arendshorst, the baker of Holland Rusks, were re-elected. Mr. Vander Hill is employed in one of Holland's furniture enterprises and it is gratifying to find representation from the shops and factories on this board where so many children from the factory workers receive their fundamental education. That is as it should be in a representative government.

The voting was done by machines and the results were known a few minutes after 8 o'clock when the polls closed.

The results were as follows:

Gerrit Vander Hill	731
William Arendshorst	624
James A. Brouwer	444
Benjamin Harris	359
William C. Vandenberg	337
Jake Fris	233

GRAND HAVEN COLORED MAN
PULLS UP 10-LB. STEELHEAD

A negro angler from Grand Haven, fishing from the piers in Lake Michigan for perch, rested his cane pole on the edge while he walked a few feet distant to his lunch basket. Fishermen nearby called to him as the pole was jerked from its resting place into the lake.

At this point the dusky angler hurried for help. A boat was obtained. He pursued the pole, which bobbed up occasionally and then disappeared, beyond the end of the piers into the lake. When finally he caught up and salvaged the fishing outfit a 10-pound steelhead trout was brought aboard along with the pole.

That's the story.

ONLY 42 VOTE FOR SCHOOL
TRUSTEES IN ZEELAND

Only 42 voters came out to a meeting and helped to elect a school board—surely a poor showing considering that children's future education is involved and more money is spent by these men than in any other city department. But Zeeland is no different than other cities in these school elections.

Despite the small vote, good men were named to take up these duties. The election of school officers resulted in the reelection of Wm. Van Eenennaam to succeed himself, while Fred P. Kieft was chosen to succeed D. J. De Pree.

The colonial mission fest, annually staged by Reformed churches, will be held Aug. 5 in the city park at Zeeland. The afternoon meeting, with Rev. J. Wolterink of Forest Grove as chairman, will be devoted to home missions. Speakers will include Rev. C. Kuyper of Cedar Grove, Wis., Rev. Martin Filips of Los Angeles, Calif., and a representative of the board of domestic missions.

Prof. A. E. Lampen of Hope college will preside over the evening session, which will be devoted to foreign missions. Speakers will be Rev. Cornelius R. Railroad Must Have Crossing Man on River Av.

FIFTH STREET WILL BE STARTED THIS FALL

Sidetrack Privileges Given National Biscuit Co.—Building Program
Contemplated

There was considerable business done at the Common Council meeting held Wednesday night. One matter was to keep a crossing man at the railroad tracks on River Ave. near the Ottawa Furniture Co. Mr. Kvanck, representative of the Pere Marquette Railroad Co., asked that the haggan be discontinued since the train crew could do the flagging at this street intersection. For safety the request was denied.

The rebuilding of the old dock at the foot of Fifth street was deferred until fall since the resort season is already half over but everything will be in shape in time for next season.

The National Biscuit Co. has asked for sidetrack privileges near their plant on 9th, 8th, and Lincoln Ave. This was delayed until more ground was purchased in order that greater development and a building program might be inaugurated. The Biscuit property bounded by these streets has been acquired and sidetrack privileges have been granted.

These and a great many other matters of interest can be found below in the official council proceedings as compared by City Clerk Peterson.

PLANTING BY THE MOON

Sowing, reaping, breeding, butchering, shearing and other farm activities are regulated by many according to the "light" or "dark" of the moon. Such practices are foolish and only relics of the Dark Ages, according to the Department of Agriculture.

Farming according to the moon has no support from any scientific point of view, as the moon has no influence on animals, the weather or the soil, though many old sayings have led people into superstitious beliefs regarding it. In France, before the revolution there was a law forbidding the cutting of trees between the new moon and full moon.

Like many other fallacies which have gained wide currency among various people, these fanciful ideas are giving way before the investigations of science, but ages must yet elapse, before superstition shall be entirely eradicated from the minds of men.

MORE CARS, MORE SHOES

The American Leather Producers, Inc., of New York, points with pardonable pride to the fact that 4,000,000 more pairs of men's shoes were sold in 1929 than the year previously. They see an even bigger year ahead.

Contrary to popular impression, the automobile has not hurt the shoe trade but has stimulated it. Men ride much, thereby saving leather, but wear out more than they save by tramping around the golf links or engaging in other outdoor sports. Shoes are in greater demand than ever.

An interesting glimpse of the mysterious workings of economics. Some years ago, shoe manufacturers might well be alarmed at the automobile. Now they welcome it. It helps their business.—Chicago American.

Henry Wassing, son of Mrs. Wassing of Holland route two, and Miss Roseboom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Roseboom of Lacy, Iowa, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. J. D. Pikaart of Oskaloosa, Iowa. The newlyweds plan to make their home on a farm northwest of Holland.

Mussolini and Kemal
What Is Education?
Affection, Then Science
Women in Business

Mussolini interests Europe and causes excitement in France, proposing an alliance with Germany. France understands that the suggestion calls for a military alliance, or, at least, an agreement that Germany will remain neutral in case of an Italian-French war.

Mussolini ought to know what such an alliance really means when war really starts. In 1914 Italy had an alliance with Germany, and the Kaiser was foolish enough to think it would stand up. It did not.

When Kemal Pasha, boss of Turkey, makes war, he makes war. You remember that Mussolini threatened him, and Kemal replied: "If you send Italian soldiers against me, the difficulty will be to find room to bury the number that I shall kill."

A dispatch from Turkey tells how Kemal trapped 1,000 rebellious Kurds in the Zeylan river valley, and killed every one, granting no quarter.

That sounds like old days when Mohammed himself was leader, and later when western Europe whined in awe the name of "The Great Turk."

Educators, between the closing and opening of schools, discuss "What Is Education? What Should It Be? How Can We Form the Young?" etc.

Educators should start with the meaning of the word "educate" and stick to that. It means "to lead out," to bring out of the youthful mind and capacity that which is in it. It does not mean to force the opinions of teachers on that youthful mind.

Dealing with raw materials, science and industry "educate" those materials by bringing out the best that is in them.

They seek for hardness in steel, for resiliency and wear in rubber. They don't try to make rubber of steel, or steel of rubber. But that is exactly the process applied to many young minds.

And for that reason, in reading the biographies of many successful men, you find that their first proof of real ability was ability to evade the process of education.

And their greatest good fortune was an irregular education, or none.

Doctor Frankel, famous Philadelphia child expert, says that the child best between the ages of three and fifteen, according to Doctor Frankel, each child goes through all the various stages through which the human race as a whole has passed. From the Stone Age to the present day.

"The philosophic mind," knowing that a young child is a young barbarian, and cannot be anything else, does not foolishly expect too much and force the child to be a hypocrite.

However, one thing is more important in the bringing up of children than the philosophic mind, or anything else, and that is affection, and especially the love of a mother.

No science can take the place of that.

It is to the mind's expansion and healthy growth what food is to the body. There is no substitute.

Mrs. Edison wants women to go back to the home because they "lose prestige in business."

"Deep down in her heart every woman wants a home," the distinguished lady told her hearers. That is true, but every home needs a man to support it and protect it.

Between "losing prestige" and washing dishes and clothes for an incompetent male, the intelligent woman decides to relinquish a little prestige.

If every one could find a husband like Thomas A. Edison the problem would be easy.

Suppose you suddenly learned that your grandmother used to walk a tight rope on one foot, her other foot held high in the air. You'd be shocked.

But you would not be as seriously shocked as ten million British and ladies, male and female, who are informed that Queen Mary actually smokes cigarettes.

She smokes only two, one after luncheon, one after tea. But she does smoke.

Her marvelously complicated Victorian hats, skirts below her ankles, stately carriage, dignified expression, cannot make the horrid millions forget the three dreadful words: Queen Mary smokes.

Lindbergh gives the League of Nations transit section detailed suggestions for aviation. Standardization of airways, uniform markings and signals, a comprehensive meteorological and radio reporting system, uniform regulations for clearing, are suggested.

The recommendations are sound, but the people are too busy to pay attention to recommendations, for no matter how high a source.

A big city is New York, amazing in growth. Losing hundreds of thousands of population migrating to outlying suburbs, New York City, in the last ten years, has gained in population 1,385,315, more than 23 per cent.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brouwer and daughter Lilith have returned from a trip to Detroit and other parts of Michigan. Mr. Brouwer was one of the Michigan demonstrators for an incubator company, of Sturgis, exhibiting at the International Baby Chick Association Convention recently held at Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fris and children George and Dale and Miss Marjorie De Vries have left on an eastern trip. They plan to be gone for about ten days during which they will visit Niagara Falls, Washington, D. C., and other places of interest.

HOLLAND BANK IN LARGE ANNOUNCEMENTS POINT OUT THEIR FINANCIAL STRENGTH

Two weeks ago the First State Bank of Holland gave a flattering statement of their financial growth covering a period of 10 years as compiled by Cashier Wichers. Cashier Henry Winter of the Peoples State Bank followed shortly with a compilation covering a period of years showing the unusual growth of that institution. Otto P. Kramer, president and cashier of the Holland City State Bank, in convincing figures shows the resources of that bank to be nearly four million dollars. The announcement elsewhere indicates that the bank was founded in 1871 having survived and prospered for nearly 60 years.

The Holland City State Bank holds an enviable reputation in the community as being a strong, well-established, and a well managed banking institution. The officers of the bank are Otto P. Kramer, president; A. H. Landwehr, vice-president; H. A. Geerts, assistant cashier. The directors are James A. Brouwer, Dick Boter, Frank Dyke, D. B. K. Van Raalte, John P. Kolla, Charles Kirehen, B. P. Donnelly, John Kollen, Otto P. Kramer, A. H. Landwehr, and Charles H. McBride.

ZEELAND

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zuwerink, at their home on North Elm street, Zeeland, on Wednesday, July 9, a daughter, Esther Lois.

The following are the themes to be considered by Rev. J. Van Peursem next Sunday. "Like a Tree" for the morning service, and "May a Christian Try to Get Even for Wrong Doing?" The Christian is often severely wronged. What to do about it, is the question.

Mrs. Charles Telenhoff, State street, submitted to an operation at the Huizinga Memorial Hospital.

Garrett F. Huizinga is enjoying his vacation by taking an auto trip through the Ozark Mountains; also visiting Rev. and Mrs. Fred Olert at Poduka, Kentucky.

Mrs. Gertrude Alsom returned home here Friday from a six weeks visit with relatives in Hammond and Highlands, Indiana, and other places of interest. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wagner and son, and Mrs. G. Wagner and daughter, Susie, accompanied her on her return and are spending a few days here and in Muskegon.

George De Jonge moved from the Boonstra farm two miles south of this city into his new residence on West Central Ave., Zeeland, last Wednesday. John Saal, who resides on North State street, had the misfortune of cutting his hand badly while operating a machine at the Dutch Woodcraft Shops last Wednesday. It was found necessary to amputate the third finger of his left hand above the second joint.

John W. Labertha and Bernard, the children of Mr. and Mrs. L. Sharp of South Maple street, together with Miss Elizabeth Karsten left here Monday night for an extended trip East. They expect to devote about one month to the trip and will visit relatives at various points of interest including New York state, New Jersey, Washington, D. C., and the Niagara Falls. Mrs. Ralph De Haan entertained with a party at her home on So. Elm street, Zeeland, Monday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Rosabel, who celebrated her tenth birthday anniversary that day. The tables and dining room were beautifully decorated in white and pink and a delicious supper was served by Mrs. De Haan, which was greatly appreciated by the young guests. Those present were the guests of honor, Miss Rosabel, and Misses Rosabel, and Misses Marjorie Arens, Jean Doris Van Dyke, Agnes Walters, Bertha Mae Westenbroek, Esther Kraai, Antoinette Van Koeveering, Doris Jean Van Hoven, Alma Middlebeck, Theresa De Haan and Master Jay Martin De Haan. The afternoon was spent in the playing of games, and prizes were won by Marjorie Arens, Bertha Mae Westenbroek, and Theresa De Haan. Miss Rosabel was presented with some very fine gifts.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Gil Van Hoven of East Main street, Zeeland, enjoyed an outing at Poppen's Grove, two miles south of this city, last Thursday afternoon, the occasion being in honor of the senior Mrs. Van Hoven's birthday anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Van Ark and children, Mr. and Mrs. John J. De Jonge and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ripperda, Mr. and Mrs. Casper LaHuis and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hearne and daughter, all of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Webber of Detroit; Mrs. Ed Gloor and children of Jackson; Mr. Abe Van Hoven and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. Komeijn and son Gilbert, and Mr. and Mrs. Gil Van Hoven, all of Zeeland.

Mrs. Fred Kieft of Wall street, Zeeland, invited a few friends in

A Six Weeks' Tour Over Land and Sea

DR. BROWER TELLS OF HIS TRIP IN THE WEST INDIES AND CARRIBBEAN SEA ON TO NEW YORK

When we finally returned to New York we were just in time and on our boat, to see the North German Lloyd liner Muenchen blazing at the pier in New York harbor. The Muenchen had just discharged its passengers. They were undergoing inspection in the custom house when an explosion set the big ship on fire. We saw many sea fireboats and firemen, hard at work squirting tons of water from all angles, yet the boat burned over twenty-four hours before the fire was finally extinguished. Boat was a total loss, and sank resting on a tunnel under the river. Tunnel traffic was immediately suspended for fear of it collapsing.

Oh! if this would have happened at sea undoubtedly many persons on board would have been lost. Smoke, gases, confusion in general would make a catastrophe so practically none could get off alive. The condition of the sea would also have to be considered. At La Guayra, South America, while our boat was at anchor, we noticed that it took 10 men from 10 to 20 minutes to lower lifeboat. Think of it what would it be at sea in a storm or when boat was listing or swaying about. Believe me it is too dreadful to even think about it. It's hard enough to lower boats under perfectly normal conditions, as much as I have seen of it. That is one of the reasons many of us are so afraid of water. If we only could swim like a fish or fly like a bird our troubles would not be so great at nick of time. Personally if I had to be something else than a human being I would want to be a seagull. As much as I have observed thousands of them, I would like to know what other animal in nature has so much freedom, pleasure, skill and ability than this bird? He can live on land and water, can swim and fly, sleep anywhere, even on water, stand heat or cold, a pretty bird, always lots of company, never disturbed, harmless, and protected from the gunman, scavenger, meals always taste good, never can blame his mate of improper coking, eats almost anything, generally always plentiful. Never spleens (or Feis) and does much traveling; roaming all over.

Everybody does not go to the West Indies, the Spanish Main, to Europe, or to the Holy Land, but many can visit New York, or San Francisco in our own country, and no one should miss the opportunity to visit the Metropolitan Museum of New York or the Suro Museum of the Golden Gate City of the West. These museums with vast collections from all parts of the globe, many of them the very best obtainable can be seen here right at our door. Many neglect this opportunity and travel far and wide to see something not one-half as good.

Traveling from one country to another meeting people of all colors and tongues certainly can never do anyone any harm. Patriotism and national pride must exist; but we must never get the idea that we are the only nation. I believe I could live on some of these islands and be real happy. National prejudice is a bad thing. We must learn and realize that other nations than our own make contributions to what we consider the best nation. All nations are more or less copying from one another. We can see much good in the worst of them, and likewise much bad in the best of us. Patriotism we must be, but think internationally.

Very little have I seen of these Caribbean Islands. Just a mere glance. God has created such a stupendous. The more one sees the more he realizes he wants to see and though he spends much time he can merely make a beginning to see, so to speak, because creation is so vast. What makes nature so beautiful, and wonderful is that; go where we will we cannot find two faces exactly alike. There never have been two leaves of any tree exactly alike. Everything in creation has an individuality and just because there are no two things exactly alike, that is the reason there is so much to see. This reminds me of an old story which will bear repeating, of three Americans who visited a former Pope. "His Holiness asked each how long he was staying in Rome. The first replied "Three years." "Oh," said the Pope, "You will see something of Rome." The second replied, "Three weeks." "You will see a great deal of Rome," commented the Pope. The third said he was staying three days. "Ah!"

ROAD COMMISSION IS DOING GOOD JOB OF ROAD BUILDING AT BRICK YARD

A good piece of work in road building is being done at the old brickyard fill, and then completed will make a great improvement in highway facilities between Zeeland and Holland. The new concrete culvert, in one two-chamber section, has been completed and is now ready to carry the fill-in of dirt, which is rapidly being done.

It will require a great many hundreds of yards of dirt to complete the job, but once finished it will carry a regulation roadway that will correspond with that on either side.

The creek at the bottom of the gully that wound from side to side is being straightened so that it is on a straight line where it emerges from the Pere Marquette railway culvert to the bridge now crossing it on the present M-21 route, a distance of several hundred feet. This gully, which has no other practical value, should be converted into a beauty spot, thus inviting the tourist, rather than being converted into a dumping spot as it is now, which can only be disgusting to every passer-by. Let's make a sunken garden out of it.

ANOTHER WORRY If these vest-pocket-size golf links keep on spreading and taking up corners, this country is going to be confronted one of these days with the serious problem of where to put its filling stations.

The lighthouse tender Sumac was in port landing supplies for the local light house.

cried the Pope enthusiastically, "you will see everything." The trouble with a lot of tourists is that they are bent solely on having a vacation or a good time. They, in many instances, go unprepared to see what they should have much knowledge of before it is actually seen and then one should read up on such, after it has been seen, in order to bring out details and establish a lasting memory.

The best place for information, is to always stick very, very close to the guide, whether in buildings or while touring in automobiles. Whether the guide or driver is black or white, whether his breath smells of garlic or Hungarian goulash, get all the information you can out of him for surely, for surely in the end you must tip him. So get your money's worth, is my slogan. Captain John Smith of 1607 of the first settlers of Jamestown, Virginia, said, "The rest might dig for gold dust and hunt for the Pacific; he would see the country and make maps."

In conclusion will state that the inscription which is chiseled in the stone in the face of the Union station at Washington, D. C., which I copied, is so very, very true: "He that would bring home the wealth of the Indies, must carry the wealth of the Indies. So it is in traveling, a man must carry knowledge with him if he would bring home knowledge." (The End)

THE RIGHT OF WAY

Motorists who are finicky about the right of way at intersections and are inclined to "bawl out" the other driver are invited by the National Safety Council to read the latest decision of the supreme court in Washington on the case involving this point.

The court decided that the right of preference at a crossing does not arise except when drivers are approaching at the same time and approximately at the same speed. Then the one on the right has the right of way. It is no excuse to say that trees obscured the way, for this should only increase the vigilance.

When a driver approaches a street intersection and sees another approaching from the right, and near enough so that their is reasonable danger of collision if he proceeds, then it is the duty to yield the right of way.

DOG SHOW AT THE FAIR

Under the direction of George Caball the Holland Community Fair will put on a kennel show which will be sanctioned by the American Kennel Club of New York City. The local fair officials have been fortunate to secure their permission to hold this sanction show, and assure patrons that this is one of the things they must not fail to see at our fair. Mail your entries to the secretary, M. J. Vande Bunte, Holland.

SINK HOLE AT VRIESLAND WILL AT LAST BE FILLED

A contract for filling a bad sink hole at Vriesland on M-21 in Ottawa county three miles northeast of Zeeland was let by the highway committee of the state administration board Monday.

The committee placed the following improvements on the program to include paving M-42, Montcalm county, 6 1/2 miles between Sheridan and Stanton, only 1 mile through Sheridan to be finished this year, and a fill-in where car tracks were removed on US-16, east of Basile bridge in Spring Lake, Ottawa county.

THE HOLLAND FAIR RABBIT CLUB EXHIBIT

Rabbit Club exhibit will consist of a litter of rabbits raised during the club year from one doe. Each club member making a display will receive 36 cents, and in addition, ribbons will be awarded winners in each standard breed exhibited.

The rabbit club making the best display judged on a point system will receive a premium of $2.00.

Virginia VanWie, one of the country's leading feminine golfers shattered the women's course record for the Spring Lake Country club a few days ago by shooting a 70. Playing in a foursome with Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Robbins and Nathaniel Robbins the young wizard was "on her game." Miss VanWie went out in 34 and in 36. Her 70 was two strokes under men's par and only two strokes better than the men's course record of 68.

Tells How and Where the "Big Fire" Started

INCIDENTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE BURNING OF THIS CITY IN 1871

(By Albert Kamferbeek)

At about 2:30 on the afternoon of Sunday, Oct. 8th, 1871, while services were being conducted in the six churches of this city, reports were brought in to the respective pastors that a threatening forest fire was raging in the swamp back of the Third Reformed Church.

Immediately the congregations were dismissed and a large number of people flocked to that part of the city to do what they could to bring the fire under subjection. After cutting down a number of trees, which were burning in the tops, killing the fires in the brush along the ground and plowing up a large territory to prevent spreading of the fire, the people returned home convinced that all was safe. And it was safe at that time as far as any human being was able to fore-see.

Shortly after midnight however, on Oct. 9th, it began to blow out of the southwest, and in very short time a genuine storm developed. Add to this, that we had no rain to speak of for several weeks previous to this, and we were surrounded by a number of large forest fires, and we need not state that the outlook was at once truly alarming.

The first building that caught fire was the Third Ref. Church, and from there it spread to surrounding dwelling houses. In a comparatively short time the fire had reached Cappon's tannery and the large bark piles on those premises, containing about 2000 cords of bark. After the tannery and the bark piles caught fire it spread from building to building sweeping in a northeasterly direction. In a comparatively short time the whole of the business part along Eighth street was a mass of flames.

We had a fire department at that time, known as Eagle Fire Company No. 1, but, a hand firing that they had only a hand fire engine to work with and had to pump the water from open wells, which generally gave out after from 20 to 30 minutes pumping, one can readily see the handicap in that way. The fire department with the best will in the world could accomplish very little and especially on an occasion like this when they were all surrounded by fire.

At Cappon's tannery they made their last stand. After this establishment caught fire they gave it up, and the firemen scattered to their respective homes to save as much as they could of their own goods, as was just possible, as everybody could plainly see that a large part of the city was doomed.

At about one o'clock that night, we—and everybody else living in the direction whence the fire was spreading—began packing our beds and other clothes, getting ready to vacate the houses. After this was done, my mother and three children, the youngest of which was only one month old, and the other two 6 and 12 years, left the house and departed for the home of a relative living on the southeast corner of Ninth street and Lincoln avenue.

When they had left, my father, my grandfather and myself—I being a kid of only 14 years old—began lugging the goods out of the house located one door east from the northeast corner of Seventh street and Central avenue, and placing them temporarily on the street. We had just begun with this work when an old gentleman, living on West Eighth street, driven out of his home by the fire, approached our house carrying a large feather bed on his back. He asked my father if he could leave this bed in our care. My father told him he had no objection to this, but considered it useless since we were vacating ourselves and the fire would also reach us in a very short time.

Thinking a moment, he said: "You are right," grabbed up his bed again and walked with it to the house on Lincoln ave., where my mother and the children were staying, threw it down on the floor, and said: "There it lays; I cannot carry it any farther."

During the trip they visited Chicago, Mackinac Island, Parry Sound, Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

John A. Swets has been granted a building permit to erect a dwelling at 161 West Twentieth street. James Westrate of the Mead & Westrate dry goods and ready-to-wear store on West Eighth street has purchased the interest of B. H. Mead, his former. The two have been in business together for nearly four years.

John S. Kress, former local agent of the Graham and Morton steamship lines in Holland, died last week Tuesday morning at his home in Ocean Grove, California, at the age of 70 years. Funeral services were held Friday at his home and interment took place in California.

Charles Moore from Nunica won honorable mention in first year handicraft club work at the State College during club week. The articles made by him and the following will be exhibited at the State Fair in Detroit August 31 to September 6. Arthur Moore, Nunica, Joy Brust, and Wilfred Merz, Spring Lake, W. Douglas Barnes, Coopersville, Phillip Bronkema, Marne.

P. G. Lundin from the State College will conduct a grain judging demonstration and contest at the County Infirmary on Monday, July 21. The purpose of the contest is to select four boys to represent Ottawa County at the contest in East Lansing. Winners at East Lansing will compete in the state contest at the State Fair. Ottawa County teams placed first two years ago and second last year.

Miss Gertrude Homfeld of Holland and Miss Marjory Jager of Montague are enjoying a two weeks' camping trip to Sault Sainte Marie.

Mrs. M. L. Irving and two sons, Frederick James and Marshall Junior of Waterbury, Connecticut, are spending the summer in Holland.

George Caball of the Grandview Poultry farm sailed for England Saturday to attend the World Poultry Congress being held at the Crystal Palace, London. Following the convention he plans to take a European tour, returning to the United States in two or three months.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Ritter returned last week Thursday from an Eastern trip. On Friday morning they left for Bay View, Michigan, where Mr. Ritter will teach in the Bay View Summer School.

John Oonk was arrested Friday on charges of reckless driving and was fined $31.05, including costs. Oonk has been riding about the city on his motorcycle, doing stunts which, it is charged, endangered the safety of other drivers.

A motion before the Allegan board of supervisors last week providing for closing of the county offices each Saturday afternoon until September 1 was defeated by the close vote of 14 to 12. Similar action was taken one year ago, previous to which time the privilege was granted several years. This sort of vacation is said to be granted in nearly all Michigan counties.

The Pe tMilk Company of Allegan has started a new line of its business, the making of what they call "ice-cream mix." It is all of ice-cream except the flavoring and freezing. It is sold to dealers who wish to finish it. This the Allegan Dairy is doing and it is a first class article. State restrictions in the making of ice-cream are continually increased, pains being taken to keep up to requirements as to contents of butterfat and minerals.

All through the spring the news was that the cherry crop of northwestern Michigan had been all but ruined by frost; but it turns out that the yield this season will be the greatest ever, reaching twenty-five million pounds, exceeding the former record year 1928. It is estimated that cash receipts will reach $1,800,000. The harvesting period will cover about six weeks. This is for sour cherries only, the kind principally grown there. Early reports of general destruction of the peach crop southward from Allegan county in Michigan and throughout the peach-producing states seems to have been correct.

The peach crop in Allegan County is likely to be larger than anticipated. The "June drop" was not sufficient, at least in the lake shore region, to remove so much of the fruit as to make thinning unnecessary, so the orchardists have of late been busy picking off more. It is reported that sales have been made already at $2 per bushel at the orchard.

"Main Street" is in the lead as a farm trading center, in the opinion of Dr. C. J. Galpin, of the U.S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. "Although the general trend," says Dr. Galpin, "has been for farmers to shift their buying stores at country crossroads, in hamlets, and in small villages, to larger retail trading centers, the shift in farm buying to towns ranging from 1,000 to 10,000 in population is increasing the trade area of these towns and is also increasing their trade."

The Woman's club of Fennville has announced the summer library schedule for the months of July and August. Instead of the library being open every Saturday, it will be open only two Saturday afternoons in these months, and then for the purpose of receiving and returning books.

Fennville, July 8. — Wheat, rye and oats in this section of Allegan county look very good. Wheat is turning and soon will be ready for the binder. Many wheat fields promise exceptional crops. Corn is fair in most cases. Rain late last week helped all crops considerably.

Biggest speckled bass of the season to date is reported by Mike Dawson, who made his catch in Green lake, Allegan county. The fish weighed 19 ounces and measured 14½ inches long, 14 inches in girth. It was caught on a fly rod with worms for bait.

Edward Oudemool of Los Angeles, California, was the week-end guest of Dr. H. J. Masselink. Mr. Oudemool formerly was a resident of Holland.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vander Hill, Jr., at the Holland hospital, a son, H. Ronald, on July 9.

George Brandt brought suit in Allegan county against Stanley Subject for balance claimed to be due in a sale of apples to Subject. The latter made a partial payment but claimed the fruit was not as represented. The verdict was no.

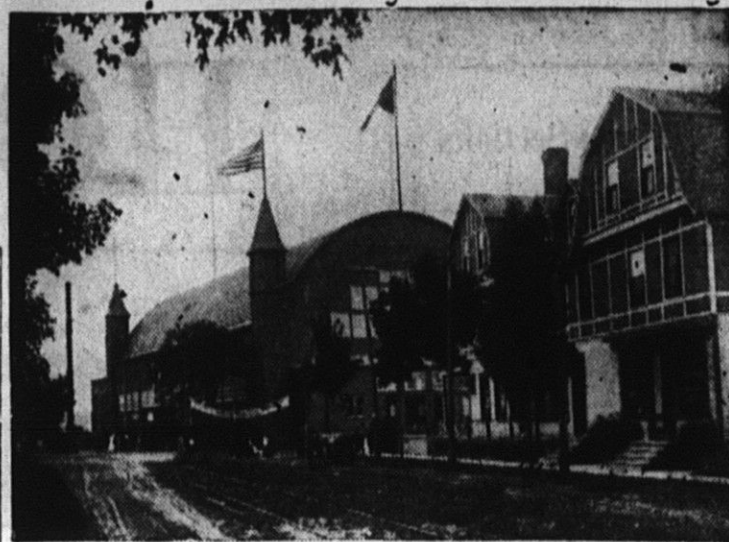

The Eureka Rebekah lodge held a meeting Friday evening at the Odd Fellows' Hall at which time the following officers for the ensuing term were installed: Miss Gertrude Homfeld, Noble Grand; Mrs. Sarah Van Slooter, vice grand; Mrs. Josephine Bender, warden; Mrs. Bessie Brandt, conductor; Miss Ella Drinkwater, chaplain; Mrs. Ethel Van Ins, musician; Mrs. Ada Johnson, left supporter of the Noble Grand; Mrs. Pearl Hamelink, right supporter of the Noble Grand; Mrs. Rena Slocum, inside guide; Mrs. Grace Urlick, right supporter of the vice grand; Mrs. Blanche Vande Vuuse, left supporter of the vice grand. Mrs. Nellie Haight, past Noble Grand, was presented a Rebekah emblem for her services rendered during the past six months. She also received a beautiful bouquet of flowers as a token of appreciation. Miss Gertrude Homfeld, upon entering the chair, received a basket of flowers from her sister, Mrs. L. Norlin and Mrs. Mac Hiler were presented with bouquets for their services for the installation. Delicious refreshments were served by the retiring officers.

The following girls are enjoying a four weeks' houseparty at the "Juss-Ruff-Nuff" cottage at Ottawa beach, Miss June Brown, Miss Margie Brown, Miss Margaret Verburg, Miss Margaret Van Braght, Miss Wilma Nelis, Miss Hilda Hansen, Miss Sadie Zone, Miss Henrietta Hoff, Miss Joan Knoll, Miss Rita Nelis and Mrs. Alton Hansen. The King's Daughters' Sunday School class of First Reformed church, which is taught by Miss Marion Luidens, enjoyed a beach party at Ottawa last week Thursday evening. The group of girls enjoyed swimming after which a picnic supper was served. Those present were Miss Marion Luidens, Miss Beatrice Kline, Miss Clara Brower, Miss Esther Bade, Miss Ruth De Witt, Miss Jean Dorris Van Dyke, Miss Bowina Kuisenga, Miss Florence Essenburgh, and Miss Lois Jane Kronemeyer.

A boy, 13 years old, giving his name as Lytle Stark, was picked up by the state police near Grand Haven on Friday night and is being held until word is received from his parents. He said he had been living with his father at Hesperia but was trying to get to Chicago, where his mother keeps a rooming house. The lad had a bicycle but was tired and hungry when he was picked up. He told the officers his father, who has recently been confined in a hospital, mistreated him, and he was endeavoring to find his mother. Officers have wired for money to send the boy on the bus.

THREE OAKS GIRL IS NAMED LEADER

The girls' conference at Pine Lodge closed Saturday with the annual business meeting, at which officers were elected as follows:

President, Julia Van Gelderen, Three Oaks, vice-presidents, Lois Marsile of Holland, Bernice Hesselink of Oostburg, Wis., and Margaret TenHopen of Grand Rapids; secretary, Ada Ellerbroek, Grand Rapids; treasurer, Donna Henderson, Grand Rapids.

The daily program was featured with three one-hour periods—Bible study, in charge of Miss Laura Boyd of Hope college; home missions, Mrs. John A. Dykstra of Grand Rapids; foreign missions, Mrs. James Weyer of Holland.

Seventy-two delegates, representing three states, were enrolled. Grand Rapids was credited with the largest delegation.

Dick DeBoer was assessed a fine of $50 and costs in Justice Cornelius DeKeyser's court Friday following his plea of guilty to the charge of reckless driving. He also was placed on probation for one year. DeBoer's machine collided with a car driven by Police Judge Frank A. Hess of Grand Rapids here several days ago and he faced charges of driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident. These, however, were withdrawn and a charge of reckless driving substituted. John Oonk pleaded guilty to the charge of reckless driving on his motor cycle in Justice DeKeyser's court Friday and was assessed $25 and costs. Conservation Officer Fred Dykhouse arrested Marinus Vandam and Francis Roelofs of Kalamazoo on the charge of appearing at the bathing beach clad only in their undershirts. They were taken before Justice Cornelius DeKeyser Friday and each paid $5

SWEDEN MAY MARRY HOLLAND'S PRINCESS

Reports were circulated in Amsterdam Friday that Princess Juliana, only daughter of Queen Wilhelmina, is to be betrothed to Prince Sigvard, 23-year-old son of the Swedish crown prince and grandson of the duke of Connaught.

The queen is spending a holiday in Norway with the princess. An extraordinary cabinet council has been called for Friday at the queen's telegraphic request and it is believed that it will consider the betrothal.

Foreign Minister VanBlockland also is visiting in Scandinavia and Count VanLynden VanSandenburg, vice president of the privy council, has left The Hague suddenly for Norway.

MILK BOTTLE LOSSES $3,000,000 ANNUALLY

The annual loss in Michigan from broken or misplaced milk bottles approximates $3,000,000, statistics furnished by the state bureau of dairy industry show.

Weeds cost Michigan farmers more than $25,000,000 annually in loss of crops or reduced yields, Michigan State college specialists estimated.

Rats do $10,000,000 worth of damage in Michigan granaries. Grasshoppers eat up $15,000,000 in produce. Birds eat $4,000,000 in cherries and still there is an overproduction in spite of the potato bugs, the scale wheat smut, yellow peach and drought.

NO CURES KNOWN

Ten poultry diseases against which no known drug or mixture of drugs is effective are: typhoid, cholera, coccidiosis, fowl pest, roup, diphtheria, chicken pox, diarrhoea, and gapes, and blackhead of turkeys, says the veterinarian of the Food and Drug Administration. The use of nostrums claimed to cure these diseases merely gives the user a false sense of security while the disease may spread through the flock. Proper precautionary methods will prevent some of these diseases from getting into a flock. Once one of them appears, isolation of sick birds, sanitation, and careful feeding are the best known methods of control.

CAN VULCANIZE A TREMENDOUSLY LARGE TIRE

Charles Van Zyl, who for 17 years has been conducting the Holland Vulcanizing Co., can boast of being able to vulcanize the largest truck balloon tire that comes thru to the city. He has installed an electric vulcanizer that will take on a 10 1/2-inch tire. That is one of tremendous proportions and is as large as are made for practical use. The machine naturally is a large one and is electrically operated and does work as thoroughly and efficiently as if the tire were made new at the factory. It is rather interesting to see the workings of this new contrivance.—Educational Publicity.

CLARENCE A. LOKKER

ABRAHAM LINCOLN—1861-1865

LINCOLN, quite contrary to popular opinion, did not struggle from boyhood to death under a load of debt, leaving nothing behind. After numerous failures, he accumulated an estate which at his death amounted to over $110,000.

"Property", said Lincoln, "is the fruit of labor; property is desirable—a positive good in the world. Let not him who is homeless pull down the house of another, but let him work and save diligently and build one for himself."

The advisability of saving holds just as true 70 years later judging from the declaration of former President Coolidge, who has always made it a rule to save 10% of his income. Mr. Coolidge recently said:

"The combined savings of the people are the chief support of modern civilization. He who deposits his money in a savings institution, improves his own condition, benefits his community, and becomes truly a pillar of the State."

The advise of such men as Lincoln and Coolidge surely is worth following.

MANY INTERESTING FEAT-URES ABOUT LIGHT AND POWER PLANT WORTH
KNOWING

Net Income of Utility for 1929
Totals $160,139.99; 45
Are Employed

Mr. R. B. Champion, superintendent of the Board of Public Works, in his annual report issued recently shows a compilation of facts and figures that are indeed interesting as these relate to Holland's municipal light, water and sewer plants. There are a great many details in that report of unusual interest. It is shown that the net income from Holland's water and electric plant in 1929 totaled $160,139.99. Of this amount $130,775.82 is credited to the light plant.

Gross earnings of the light plant since 1924 are $3,365,223.44, on which a net profit of $1,558,075.36 was realized. Gross earnings of the water plant since 1882 are $1,177,971.76, of which $76,657.74 was realized in 1929. Total investments of the two plants are placed at $1,471,753.47.

Disbursements from the light plant in the past six years include $180,224.13 for the city's bonded indebtedness and $183,970.46 for the erection of Holland's municipal hospital.

Public utilities also include the sewer system, fire alarm telegraph service and administration of the plumbing code. Fire hydrants number 421.

The fire alarm service is equipped with 57 boxes and a fire alarm gong is installed in the residence of each fireman. During the year 107 alarms were turned in.

The board carries 45 full-time employees, with a payroll approximating $70,000. Amount disbursed for compensation totaled $3,888.35. There are some interesting sidelights in this report worth knowing, for instance this is the thirty-sixth annual report of our municipal light plant. Before that time Holland had a small private plant called the "Wolverine" located on West Seventh street where the I. G. L. Machine shop now does business.

Holland is known the country over as having the finest water for drinking purposes that can be obtained anywhere. The water is obtained from sand and gravel strata.

At the 8th Street station there are two 24" wells each housed in a separate brick structure and equipped with a deep well turbine pump. One of the wells is equipped to deliver 1300 gallons per minute and the other 1600 gallons per minute.

The 1600 gallons per minute well was built in 1929 but was not put into operation before the close of the year pending completion of a 16" main from the pump to the distribution system, a distance of 5,726 ft.

The 19th Street station delivers 1200 gallons per minute on peak loads, being equipped with two pumps of that capacity, so also is the 28th St. Station. The Water Department also has a 247,000 gallon standpipe and a 1,000,000 gallon covered concrete reservoir, both located on the Fifth Street Station grounds. In the Fifth Street Station, also, we have a so called steam fire pump which pumps water, when required, into the distribution system from the concrete reservoir. Whatever is pumped out during the day is replaced by night pumpage.

It is interesting to know that Holland has 44 miles of water mains connecting up with 421 fire hydrants. Of 421 hydrants in service, 196 have valves on the hydrant branch which permits the hydrant to be repaired without shutting down the main.

The maximum water pumped in one day in 1928 was 4,014,400 gallons. In 1929 the maximum was 2 1/2 less. Surely a river of water.

Holland is protected against a water famine, first by an abundant supply and this is supplemented by a large concrete reservoir and a tremendous standpipe always filled ready for emergencies. Water is also available from Black Lake in some of Holland's city parks, which helps to conserve the supply of fine drinking water. The way this is brought about was when the paving contract was let last year on 10th street. The old water main was replaced by a much larger one and the park board suggested that the old main be left in the street and be connected up with Black Lake so that the raw water from the lake could be used for sprinkling purposes in Lincoln, Centennial and Kollen parks. The advantages claimed are that the warm water is better for sprinkling purposes than the cold well water and to the extent that it is used will save the regular city supply during the summer periods of high consumption.

The Black Lake water supply is for sprinkling purposes only, it having no physical connection whatever with the regular city water system.

This Board agreed to finance the improvement which included an extension of the main to the lake in Geo. E. Kollen Memorial Park and a pump at that point. The Park Board will pay the Board of Public Works a sum to be agreed upon to cover the operation, maintenance and overhead cost of the new system. It is all completed at this writing including the installation of the pump which was done before the sprinkling season started. The cost, exclusive of the pump, was $5,017.66.

Holland's sewer system is also an interesting part handled by the Board of Public Works.

Domestic sewage is collected in a separate system of sewers, storm water being taken care of by a drainage system under the direct supervision of the Common Council through the City Engineer. The domestic sewage flows by gravity to the disposal plant on Third Street, except that there are four independent lifts or pumping stations handling small quantities of sewage.

The sewers are flushed periodically throughout the year. A two inch water service is laid to the manhole at the upper end of each lateral sewer. The sewer is flushed by opening the 2" valve which is operated by a long handled key from the street surface. The length of time the water is allowed to flow varies with the condition of the sewer, generally from twenty to thirty minutes.

The disposal plant was put into operation on March 2nd, 1927 and consists of three principal parts, namely, the pumping station, the Imhoff tanks and the sludge beds. In other words, it is what is known as a partial treatment plant. The sewage is lifted a vertical distance of 23 feet to empty into the Imhoff tanks from whence the effluent flows into Black Lake at the foot of Third Street.

The past year has seen marked improvement in conditions at the Holland Sewage Disposal Plant.

Nearness of the plant to residences and to U.S.-31 makes it very desirable to bring odors at the plant to a minimum. During 1928 there were some complaints concerning odors, especially during drawing of sludge. At that time tanks were in acid condition and sludge was not ripening properly. Only 400 cu. yds. of sludge were drawn and proved to be poorly digested. Last year's report called attention to the fact that the abnormally large amount of garbage present in the local sewage was probably the cause of foaming and of odors. This has all been remedied.

Relative to our Board of Public Works, the best commentary that possibly could be given was made recently by the Consumers Power Co. in a recent campaign in which it battled to buy the Grand Haven Municipal plant. Surely a fine recommendation in which the Consumers Power Co. endeavored to show the short comings and the unbusiness-like methods claimed to be practiced at Grand Haven. We are wondering if this praise of the Holland plant by a privately owned management to make a showing.

Anyway the News is reprinting statement not as a matter of comparison, but coming from the source it does it is very conclusive that this plant has become wonderful because it has been managed well for two score years and continues to remain under very able management backed by the encouragement and the co-operation of Holland's citizens.

have, like Grand Haven, what electric engineers call a "Silk Stocking" rate. By this we mean a rate that gives the owner of the big home all the best of the deal in buying electrical power and light. Holland has a scientific rate structure with an 'active load' basis of computing Rates which, while different from that of Consumers Power Company, serves the same end. It is almost exactly the same with Plant Operation."

The Holland board of public works is composed of five members, one elected directly by the electorate each year. They serve without pay. The personnel consists of James DeYoung, president; Simon Kleyn, C. J. McLean, Nick Kammeraad and Martin Vandewater. R. B. Champion is superintendent.

public service company did not have a great deal to do with the Consumers Power Co. losing their battle for it might have had a tendency to bring resentment in our neighboring city when Holland was paraded as a city where efficiency and ability, in this particular instance at least, far surpassed the management shown at Grand Haven, even though there might have been many reasons at Grand Haven because of an inferior plant—where it was impossible for the

Among other things the Consumers Power Co. said at that time in the Grand Haven Tribune:

"If you must go outside for Municipal or Political Ownership arguments, you don't have to go so far away. Holland is just as good an example of successful Municipal Ownership, as we know of. But Holland started right and has continued in a business-like way to maintain and develop and expand its Plant and System. It does not same system of rate making as is used by the big and successful Detroit Edison Company. And it gives the little home and the man of restricted income the opportunity to earn just as low a rate as the millionaire. Holland's accounting system is patterned after that of successful Utility Companies. The People in Holland know where they stand all the time in regard to the City's Light Plant. Political Expediency has nothing to do with Rates in Holland nor does it inter-

Says "Michigan Town Has Rare Exception to Rule of Municipal Ownership Plants"

In the July issue of "Public Service," a leading magazine devoted to public service companies generally—an article appears written by Arthur E. Laffsa an authority on municipal as well as privately owned electric establishments.

The article surely speaks a volume for the Holland plant considering that the contributors to this magazine are not keen on municipal plants for obvious reasons. Anyway the article by Mr. Laffsa found below is self explanatory and a fine recommendation as this relates to the local Light and Water plant:

By Arthur Laffsa

The city of Holland, Michigan, with its 15,000 population, about 90 per cent of which is sturdy old Dutch stock, has a municipally-owned and operated electric light and power plant which is run strictly on business principles and therefore is successful. Its service is excellent, rates fair and profits real. It is one of those rare exceptions to the rule of municipal ownership, the rule being, as is generally known, in the vast majority of cases, failure instead of success.

The chief reason for the general failure of municipal ownership is politics and the total exclusion of which from the management of the taxes. Succeeding steps come in Holland plant is the chief reason for its success, like the municipally owned plant of Jacksonville, Florida.

Holland's plant was built in 1894. It has from the first been operated under the direction of a board of public works, under which all city operations come. From the first it appears that this board has been made up of men whose conception of devotion to public service was of that high type which insures honest and capable management.

Politics Barred in Beginning

In looking about for the several reasons for this exceptional case of municipal ownership operation one finds, to begin with, far-sighted and economically-balanced minds of the men who made up the first board of public works. They laid down broad business principles for the management of the city property, with an embargo against political interference. They realized the temptation to play politics with municipal matters and set the example, which their successors have followed, of dealing with this enterprise strictly on the basis of business.

Another factor in the success of this plant has been continued and uninterrupted service of those in immediate charge of its operation. Roy B. Champion, general manager and purchasing agent, for example, has been on the job since September, 1910, except for a short period during which he was manager of a privately-owned water plant in Pennsylvania. Abe Nauta, assistant to Mr. Champion, has been in continuous service since 1902 and Bert Smith, chief engineer, has been in charge of the electric plant for the past two years, prior to which he was watch engineer for 23 years.

Incidentally, the Holland plant and its managers are not allied with the cause and combination of organized radicalism. General Manager Champion, for example, is little interested in municipal ownership as such, except as it applies to his own enterprise.

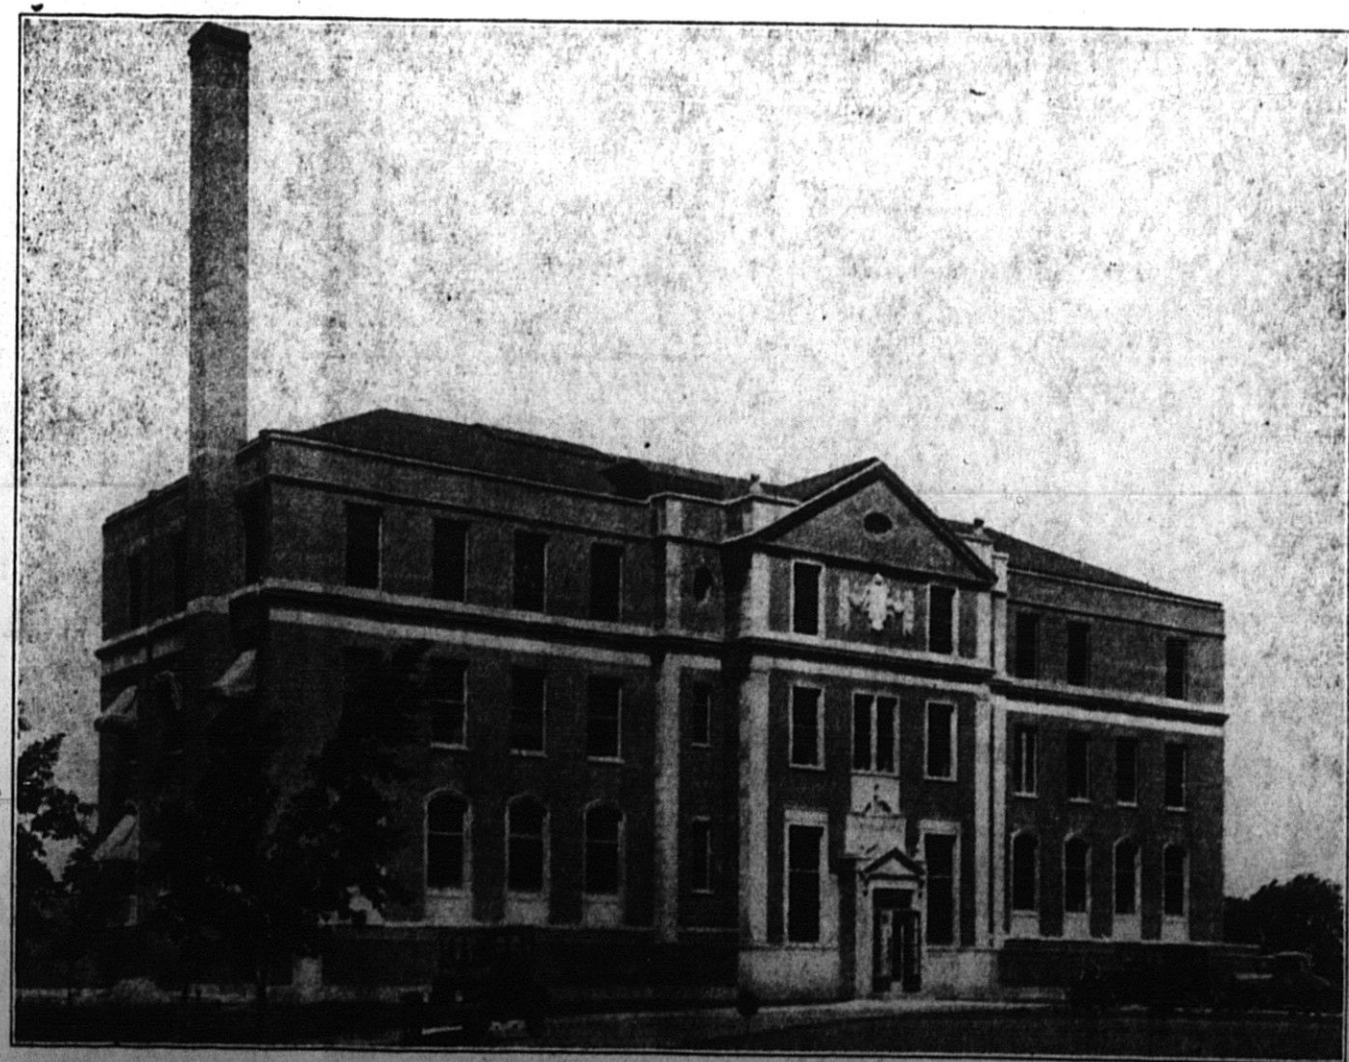

In its non-political character the Holland plant seems to bear a striking resemblance to the larger municipal ownership plant of Jacksonville, Florida. That plant, for so many years under the management of Frank H. Owens, has always been run as a business enterprise, free of political manipulation and therefore, as readers of this magazine know, highly successful. So when a couple of years ago, Mr. Owen decided to retire from his long career of twenty-eight years in the service of his city, leaders in the business life of Jacksonville and the Jacksonville Journal hailed his retirement as a great loss to the city.

One seldom sees the Holland and Jacksonville plants paraded in the propaganda literature of the public ownership leagues and associations. They are not that kind of plants.

A member of the staff of Public Service Magazine recently went to Holland and asked for the privilege of making his own investigation of the plant. Instead of being met with refusal or obstructed in his inquiry, he was cordially admitted to every source of information. There was nothing to hide, no trickery in bookkeeping, no devious methods of accounting, no sham book charges as pretenses for payments actually made in the matter of fixed charges. The accounting and statistical records from the inception of the plant in 1894 were found to be straight-forward in every detail, far in advance of the ordinary municipal ownership project and on a par with the best practices of private ownership. In striking contrast with the average municipal ownership enterprise, the Holland plant has complete annual reports for every year since 1895. In some of the smaller municipal ownership projects annual reports are unknown quantities.

It is well known that nearly all municipal ownership plants, in addition to evading displaced taxes, sloughing off all or part of their fixed charges onto the general tax fund, make no pretense of paying for the services of other city departments. It is refreshing to find that the Holland plant scrupulously pays from its own earnings for all services received from other city departments. Strange as it may seem, it has done this from the

Grand Haven

Complaints Made to Local U. S.
Customs Office of Damage

Grand Haven Tribune:

Complaints have come to the United States Customs Service office at the federal building of the undue speed of some of the modern speed boats as they pass through the local harbor causing damage to boat houses and boats moored along shore and a menace particularly to slow moving boats. In each instance they were informed that the penalty could not apply unless the War Department had notices posted along the harbor limiting the speed to eight miles an hour. It is also the privilege of each community along this shore to pass and enforce such ordinances and regulations as to speed of vessels, as it deems advisable. St. Joseph, South Haven, Manistee and Traverse City have such regulation in force.

The War department says Wm. Phillip, deputy collector, has no interest in the speed of vessels unless there is harbor construction. It has been suggested by letters to the Chamber of Commerce, Mayor Peter and City Attorney C. E. Misner, that local notices be posted and steps taken to make regulations fitting the needs of this port.

For these boating and speed boat days, attention is called to the regulation which cover bow number, lights, horn, whistle, life preservers, fire extinguisher and other equipment required by law.

For the small boat, while the law does not require it, an oar and an anchor are valuable pieces of equipment which few boats carry. Penalties for violation range $10 and up.

Col. Heinrich A. Pickert, with headquarters at Detroit, says that it is determined to make motor boating this year safer than heretofore and is urging upon boat owners to familiarize themselves with the law and adhere strictly to it.

Pamphlets on numbering and recording undocumented vessels may be obtained from the U. S. Customs Office here, which contains all regulations.

HOLLAND MAY PICK
QUEEN TO REIGN AT
NEXT TULIP FESTIVAL

After a successful week of festivities this spring, plans are being made for another tulip week next year that will surpass the initial effort in magnitude and beauty. More than a quarter of a million bulbs were imported from The Netherlands and distributed to the local enthusiasts at cost. An equal number was planted this year and was a bloom during the May festival. The committee has intimated that a tulip queen may be chosen in future events and other plans under consideration include a regatta on Black Lake and an historical pageant depicting various stages of the evolution of this city.

The Beld family reunion was held on last Friday, July Fourth, at Indian Creek Grove, when about eighty persons of that family gathered there for a good time. Those present came from various parts of Western Michigan, including Grand Rapids, Allegan, Beaverdam, Holland, Coopersville, Grandville and Zeeland. At the business session William Prins of Holland was elected president for the coming year; Henry Looker, Zeeland, secretary, and R. Knap, Beaverdam, as treasurer. A very enjoyable day was spent by all.

first. That was one of the things on which the original board of public works laid emphasis, that there could be no fair and honest accounting that did not hold the plant responsible for the payment from its own income for the services rendered to it by other city agencies or departments. The evasion of these obligations is so common in municipal ownership that the Holland case stands out in bold relief.

The city's record showing details of plant and property and the dates of installation or erection have been faithfully changed from year to year to eliminate retired and replaced equipment and to add new equipment installed.

The plant and property figures which appear in the balance sheet represent the investment of cost figures of the plant now in use. The depreciation reserve of $354,062 is consistent with the general over-all conditions of the plant. While there is also a "depreciation reserve fund," the depreciation liability is partly secured by "cash and investments" and the balance by reinvestment in plant. There is no bond indebtedness against the plant.

Operating expense includes charges for rent, overhead, depreciation and taxes, which the plant actually pays. Here is one of the most striking exceptions to the rule of municipal ownership. The plants of this kind which actually pay taxes are scarce as hen's teeth. One of the chief objections to municipal ownership is that it displaces taxes by wiping off the tax books private

A reunion of old classmates was held at the Shaw cottage, two miles north of Lakewood Farm. The time was happily spent in sports and bathing, after which a delicious picnic supper was served. Those present were Mrs. Pansy (Keefer) Meeboer of Flint, Michigan, Mrs. Gertrude (De Jongh) Zuidema from Detroit, Mrs. Janet (Knoolhuizen) Muisken from East Orange, New Jersey, Mrs. Sarah (Manning) Nordhouse from Grand Haven, Mrs. Sadie (Bursma) Miller from Benton Harbor, Mrs. Cora (Jakes) Hadden from Humboldt, Tennessee.

OTTAWA COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS DIVIDE HONORS

By Esther C. Lott

Ottawa County shared honors with other counties of the state at the Twelfth Annual Meeting of the Boys and Girls 4H clubs at the M.S.C. by securing two state championships and several other places. Miss Mina Han of Coopersville, 13 years old, won the state championship in second year clothing and thereby is entitled to a scholarship at M.S.C. She exhibited the dress and underwear corresponding to it that won fifth place in the National Butterick contest held in New York City this year. The workmanship is said to be very exceptional. Jerre Jean Little of Coopersville won first place in the music memory contest. She was also selected song leader by a group of several counties and showed outstanding ability in the directing of spirited group singing during the week.

Ottawa County won fourth place in ensemble singing competing with fourteen other counties in the R. E. Olds singing contest rendering "Sailing", the required selection, and "Massa Dear" from a selected list. Ottawa boys and girls also won fourth place on stunt night competing with twenty-three other counties staging "Real 4H Club spirit." Miss Ella Hahn, sister of the first winner, won favorable mention in the fourth year clothing.

There were twenty-four Ottawa County boys and girls and leaders who attended club week together with Esther C. Lott, home demonstration agent, and C. P. Milham, county agricultural agent. There were over six hundred and forty-seven registered for the State Club Week.

Fred Kokes enjoyed a vacation trip to Niagara Falls. Charles Jackson of Tunnel Park attended the baby chick convention at Detroit last week.

companies which are always among the heaviest local taxpayers, and thereby increases taxes because it makes no reimbursement to the tax fund for the loss thus sustained. That is but the first step in the process of municipal ownership as a producer instead of payer of failure to meet fixed charges from earnings and failure to pay for services of other city departments, and in the general substitution of political for business practices.

The record shows that during the life and on account of this Holland plant prior to 1921 the taxpayers were assessed a total of $37,046 to pay for improvements and operations but that on the other hand the plant has returned to the city a total of $364,194 for general and special purposes for the period of its existence.

So it appears that if the city did not own the plant and had invested its money otherwise there would be a reasonable return on the investment. It is therefore proper that in consideration of the light and power operations the item of "interest on investment" should be included.

SAFETY CAMPAIGN
PROGRESSING IN ZEELAND NICELY

Six Hundred Cars Registered One Week; Outside Towns Cooperating Nicely

Zeeland Record:
The safety campaign in Zeeland is meeting with unusual success, according to Police Chief Rycenga Monday morning, and auto owners and garage men in the surrounding community are also lending their support to the movement. Already, in about one week, there have been more than six hundred cars tested and put in order, which is making an exceptional record.

Thus far no serious accidents have occurred in Zeeland and Mr. Rycenga is hopeful of making a clean record for Zeeland during 1930. This safety campaign on traffic law observance will help greatly to attain this end.

The end of the second week of the campaign closes with this week, during which time automobile owners were supposed to voluntarily enter into this movement of having their cars made safe and secure the sticker that proclaims them one hundred percent safety boosters. This gives those who have so far neglected three more days in which to be counted among those believing in the "Safety First" motto.

Next Monday begins the probation period of two weeks, during which time all those who have no sticker on the windshield will be requested by the police to comply with the law, and any discovered having defective lights, brakes or horn will be warned to have repairs made.

Any party discovered not having repairs made after being warned will be arrested, and any person discovered having a defective light, horn or brakes after the probation period will be arrested.

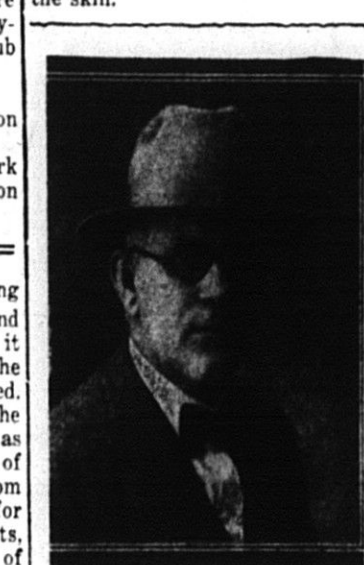

Mr. William Van De Water celebrated his eighty-first birthday anniversary Sunday.

Mrs. Daniel Zwier entertained her Sunday School class with a beach party at Ottawa Beach last week Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smidderks of Los Angeles, California, are visiting friends and relatives in Holland.

RESORTER 80 YEARS OLD
ADRIFF ON BIG BAYOU

Ed Middletown, eighty years of age, was rescued from Black Lake last week Tuesday night when the U. S. Coastguard brought him to shore after he was found drifting in the Big Bayou in his leaky rowboat without oars. He told the guards who brought him in that he left for Holland at noon in his boat and that he had lost his oars. He pulled a lath loose from the boat and was paddling with it when found by the guardsmen at about ten o'clock. The first report received by the coastguards at about nine o'clock was that he had drowned, but he was later found drifting in the open boat. A high wind had kicked up a rough sea and small boats were tossed about on the waves. Smaller craft were warned not to venture out into the big lake. Middletown's rowboat was partially filled with water that shipped in and he was soaked to the skin.

The Holland City State Bank Was Founded in 1871

IN 1871, one year before the Holland fire, this bank was founded. It was organized to satisfy a need for such a bank in the city of Holland.

Having survived and prospered for nearly 60 years, the Holland City State Bank has the enviable reputation of being a strong, well established, well managed banking institution.

Sixty years of independence, home owned, and home controlled.

The present officers, directors and employees are "carring on,"—guided by sound principles laid down by its founders in 1871.

Would you not like to bank with such an institution? If you have no permanent connection in Holland, we would appreciate meeting you personally to explain every interesting feature of this bank.
