Holland Takes Part In 1934 Venetian Night

SAUGATUCK HAS COMPLETE PROGRAM TO BE STAGED ON KALAMAZOO LAKE

Saugatuck is all agog over the coming Venetian evening on beautiful Kalamazoo lake where scores of yachts and cruisers will be ablaze with electric display, Japanese lanterns, red and green fire and illuminations that make an evening of that kind a thriller to say the least.

Saugatuck is putting in an entire week in outstanding resort activities in which water features will be especially prominent. Saturday evening will be the fifteenth annual Saugatuck yacht race. On Monday evening the celebrated pirates ball is to be staged in the big Saugatuck dance pavilion, and there will be plenty of yachting and regatta. They will be friendly pirates, however, with no John Dillingers present, and Captain Kidd is dead.

Tuesday will be devoted to aquatic sports and racing of small boats, sailing, speed and outboard. There will be many water sports, games and other diversions. The great day will be Wednesday, winding up with "Night in Venice" when all the boats on the placid lake will be on parade, sailing with light. A more beautiful sight would be difficult to picture.

Here, too, the Holland City Sea Scouts of Holland are being backed by the local Rotary club, and the boys are to take their large craft to Saugatuck fully decorated. Conspicuously mounted on the craft will be found the Rotarian emblem, a large cog wheel with the word "International," and then the words "Holland Sea Scouts." The whole will be electrically lighted, and the boys will row the Sea Scout craft over the bosom of Kalamazoo lake.

Hendrik Noble of the Scouts and "Vandier" Vandenberg, together with the scouts are making all the preparations for a fine turnout and a worthwhile exhibit in the parade.

Here is a chance to show our neighbors that we also take an interest in their efforts and activities. Our entering shows that we are willing to help make their celebration a success. We can go still further by motoring over and be a part of the activities, as Saugatuck and Douglas have so repeatedly done when Holland had a public program to offer.

Boundaries today are imaginary lines. The communities extend far beyond the city limits and the welfare of one is also the welfare of the other. Today we are so interrelated that our problems and our progress are a mutual proposition.

Anyway, go to Saugatuck for you are going to receive a hearty welcome.

BOUWS GETS QUITE A BARLEY CROP

The Zeeland thresherman, John R. Bouws, opened the threshing season on June 29, the earliest date within anyone's memory. He threshed a crop of fall barley, an entirely new variety in this section. It ripens before the heat and drought of summer can affect it adversely. The three and a half acre field yielded 143 bushels, about 40 and 4-5 bushels to the acre.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY GIL-BOAT CO.

Capt. M. L. Gilbert has been elected president of the newly organized Gil-Boat company, recently located in Holland for the manufacture of all-metal boats. Other officers are: A. Geistert, George Steketee of Holland, treasurer; Arthur Geistert of Grand Rapids, secretary. John Raven of this city was named chairman of the board of directors.

FUTURE PINE LODGE PROGRAM

Pine Lodge school of theology and the school of missions will open simultaneously July 18 for a two-weeks session as part of the summer conference season. Speakers on the program will include Rev. John J. Mulder, Rev. Albertus Pieters, Rev. Jacob Van der Meulen, Rev. E. J. Blekkink, all of Holland; Rev. W. G. Hoekje, on furlough as Reformed missionary from Japan, and Rev. John A. Dykstra, pastor of Central Reformed church, Grand Rapids.

The school of missions will be in charge of Mrs. Garrett Honderink of Rochester, New York, formerly a missionary with her husband in Japan and recognized as one of the outstanding missionary leaders in the Reformed church. She will teach a foreign study work, "Japanese Women Speak," a domestic study work, "Orientals in American Life," and a course in program building and methods for women societies.—Grand Rapids Press.

CORONERS MEET AT GULL LAKE

"Gil" Vande Water, local coroner, left for Gull lake where the coroners of Michigan are meeting in convention. Mr. Vande Water is on the state board of directors, having been honored with that position some time ago. Last week he was appointed on the "law committee," a very important position as this relates to cases with which a coroner has to deal. Mr. Vande Water has kept posted not only in the law but in the new govern-

BOAT LOAD OF DUTCH MAIDS AT SAUGATUCK

Henry Vander Schel, better known as "Dutch," always has a finger in the pie somewhere, but that must be because he is a baker. Henry always has something constructive, however, including cruiser docks, Dutch windmills, etc.

This time he is to trim up his boat like a Dutch fishing sloop and five couples will be authentic Dutch costumes will be the passengers. They will be colorfully dressed as will the boat. The craft will clear Holland harbor Wednesday afternoon, will turn its nose southward toward Saugatuck, and will be a part of the Venetian evening celebration that night. With tourists, Dutch outfits and objects with a Dutch complex never tire, and this surely is going to make a hit with the Saugatuck resorters. All will wear wooden shoes and if there is a sea on and something happens to the boat, Heine says they can float to shore on their "klompen."

BANKERS MEET AT SPRING LAKE COUNTRY CLUB

The Ottawa County Bankers' association met at the Country club yesterday for a golf tournament and supper followed by a business meeting and social time. Leo C. Lillie addressed the group on the coming centennial.

Representatives from the Holland banks, Zeeland bank, Coopersville bank and representatives from the two Grand Haven banks and Spring Lake attended.

Among those who attended from Holland were Otto F. Kramer, A. C. Joldersma, Gerald Kramer, C. Tiesenga and C. Van Dyke of the Holland City State Bank; C. Van der Meulen, Albert Nienhuis, W. J. Westveer and Henry Geerlings of the First State, and George Tindholt, John De Vries, E. G. Landwehr, H. S. Covell, Clarence Kluken, L. C. Dalman and Jay H. Den Herder of the Peoples State.

CONNELLY GAS TAX PLAN PARLEY TOPIC

A plan for municipal participation in weight and gas tax, submitted by William M. Connelly, manager of the chamber of commerce, to the Michigan Engineering society, will be discussed today at a meeting of city engineers and public works officials of state municipalities at Lansing and a program mapped to carry out its theme.

HOLLAND MAN CHARGED WITH SERIOUS OFFENSE

B. Franks, former railroad man living on East Eighth street, Holland township, is charged with a terrible offense made by three of his daughters, aged 14, 15 and 17, respectively. The daughters have sworn to affidavits now in the hands of Prosecutor Dethmers.

Franks, who was not represented by an attorney, appeared for examination before Judge John Galien. Holland yesterday, where evidence was brought, according to the judge, to bind the defendant over to circuit court for trial.

Sheriff Ben Rosema brought Franks from the county jail to Holland for his appearance at the hearing and returned with him since the prisoner could not furnish a $5,000 bond.

Prosecutor John Dethmers appeared in the Frank case for the people.

Franks waived examination and was bound over to circuit court when arrested last week, but he demanded an examination after spending several days in the county jail.

MISS KUIZENGA FETED AT SURPRISE SHOWER

Mrs. Marius Mulder was hostess Tuesday afternoon at a surprise shower complimenting Miss Marian Kuizenga, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Kuizenga, who is to be a July bride.

On her arrival the guest of honor was presented with a corsage which was attached to an umbrella hiding the shower gifts. A social afternoon was completed with a supper served by the hostess.

The guest list included Mrs. J. E. Kuizenga of Princeton, N. J.; Mrs. L. Mulder, Mrs. B. A. Mulder, Mrs. Peter Dalman, Mrs. S. Steketee, Mrs. A. E. Rothfus, Mrs. Neil Mulder of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Miss Janet Mulder, Mrs. C. H. Geerlings of Port Jefferson, L. I.; Mrs. A. Steketee, Mrs. L. Steketee, Mrs. Henry Geerlings, Miss Dorothy M. Mulder, Miss Lucile Mulder, Miss Ruth M. Geerlings, and Miss Mary Jo Geerlings of Port Jefferson.

HOTEL BURNS AT SOUTH HAVEN

Flames of undetermined origin starting about 7 o'clock last night destroyed the old boat dock owned by the South Haven Terminal company and the old Colonial hotel, which for several years has been used for storage. Both are at Dykman and William streets on the waterfront.

Starting on the boat dock, the flames, fanned by a high wind, swept quickly over the old frame structure, destroying the docks and a large consignment of pulpwood which had been unloaded a few days ago for reshipment to Kalamazoo.

The flames then leaped to the Colonial hotel and, despite efforts of the South Haven fire department, razed the old brick structure, built 30 years ago to replace a frame building which had also been destroyed by fire.

Albert Vander Hulst, 21, of 254 Colonial avenue, Zeeland, is in a critical condition in Holland hospital with a fractured skull as the result of an accident in which the car in which he and two others were riding overturned at "dead man's curve," two miles west of Holland on US-31, near the Con De Pre residence. Amos Dalman, 21, 236 Michigan avenue, driver of the car, and Richard Olsen, 23, 235 West McKinley avenue, both of Zeeland, other occupants of the car, were not injured, although not

Back From China Is Honored With Class Dinner

"DAUGHTERS OF THE KING" CLASS ORGANIZED 18 YEARS AGO; STILL MEETS REGULAR EACH MONTH

Miss Tena Holkeboer, missionary to China since 1920, was the guest of honor at a dinner given at Pine Lodge Wednesday evening. The dinner was sponsored by a group of young women, known as the "Daughters of the King" class of Ninth Street Christian Reformed church.

Quite unique is the fact that Miss Holkeboer became the teacher of the class of girls of the above named church in 1914, the class becoming organized under the name "Daughters of the King" under the guidance of Miss Holkeboer on March 6, 1916.

Although several of the members have been married since the organization took place in 1916, and many are members of other churches, the group continues to meet each month. Five of the original members are still with the class, and it is quite a coincidence that these five have been Sunday school classmates since first beginning Sunday school in the "infant" class. The young women have been keeping in constant touch with Miss Holkeboer as she continued her work in far-away China over a period of 14 years.

The program last evening included a class history which proved most interesting, telling how the class had striven to "Do Ye the Next Thing" in accordance with their motto.

The dinner at Pine Lodge Wednesday evening proved to be a success in every way. Mrs. Edith Walvoord, charming and capable hostess of Pine Lodge tending every want of the guests. Table decorations were a unique feature, a large lighted ship being used as the centerpiece, and red candles and white flowers neatly arranged, completing the center decorations. Flips attached to the individual nut cups and programs of red and white with a photo of Miss Holkeboer smilingly peeping through the "port hole" that embellished the program put a finishing touch to this unusual but timely festivity.

The program included a short welcome talk by Mrs. Raymond J. Nykamp, prayer by Miss Anne Holkeboer; reading by Mrs. Rhine Vander Meulen; budget by Miss Anne Dogger; and reading by Miss Ann Straatsma.

Miss Tena Holkeboer responded with a talk at the end of the program, telling those present how much the close contact kept up between the members and herself had meant to her. She also presented each of the class members with a beautiful Chinese cork plaque showing that China has not lost its place in the world of art.

During the evening the group gathered about the piano in the living room at Pine Lodge singing many old favorite hymns and talking of days gone by. Miss Holkeboer also relating many interesting incidents of her work in China.

Those present besides Miss Holkeboer were the Misses Martha Bos, Anne Holkeboer, Anne Straatsma, Wilma Beukema, Harriet Slenk and Angie Dorgie; and Mesdames Cornelia Vander Meulen, Jean Jipping, Anne Rosendahl, Ruth Topp, Grace Meidema, Margie Topp, Deane Nykamp, Florence Kaasheek, and Anne Brandhorst. Mrs. Cora Van Nul, also a member of the class, was unable to be present because of illness.

PLEADS GUILTY TO RECKLESS DRIVING

Carl Hoffman of Allegan was fined $50 in Justice Galien's court when charged with reckless driving, following an automobile accident when the Hoffman car struck a cargo of geeseberries on a truck driven by William Williams of Benton Harbor. There were plenty of geeseberries on the pavement to make a thousand pies. Fifty crates, it is said.

The complaint was made by Chief Van Ry. The accident took place at Maple avenue and Seventeenth street.

Henry Vander Schel with his yacht took his 83-year-old mother for a ride on Black lake. She had not been on the water front for 44 years, and the ride was a delightful one and the changes all along the way were a revelation.

STRAWBERRIES SHIPPED TO CHICAGO

Graham & Morton boat from this port are bringing a return of $150 per crate of 16 quarts. Many berries are teamed in from Fennville. Note: It seems that those boat-shipping days were money-making days.

Work on the big pavilion at Saugatuck is going on rapidly with 75 men at work—with a pay roll of more than $10,000 a week. It will be a beautiful palace of music and dancing for tourists and folks from western Michigan, as well. Electrical features, it is said, will be outstanding.

Miss Jeanetta Vande Luyter of Zeeland was married to Ed Van Zoeren, Rev. G. R. De Jonge of Vriesland officiating. The groom is employed as bookkeeper in the William De Pre general store at Zeeland.

DOUBLE PARKING AT HOLLAND OVAL FORBIDDEN

The contention that increased accommodations should be provided at the Holland State park at Ottawa Beach is corroborated by figures announced Wednesday, marking the attendance for the season to date at 159,000. Permits issued to campers have reached a total of 525.

A new order has become effective whereby the park will be closed from midnight until 5 a. m. Double parking on the oval has been forbidden.

A man by the name of Van Done, an illegal fisherman, caught a 73-pound catfish with a "night line" at Point Superior, on Black Lake.

George Fixter, a son of Joe Fixter, owner of the stove factory on North River St., was stabbed in Chicago. The would-be assassin, who intended to rob, got away. The wound is not fatal.

A pony mail route will be established between Graafschap, Gibson and Saugatuck from the Holland post office with mail every two days.

Holland had a big 4th of July celebration and in the floats it is noticeable that a firm then existing is in business today—Kramers & Bangs, druggists; Fessink Bros., confectioners and ice cream; Holland Manufacturing Co., R. Kanters & Sons, hardware; Visser & Kok, blacksmiths; Benj. Van Raalte, farm implements; A. F. Slooter, confectionery; Walsh-De Roo Milling Co., Phoenix Planing Mill; Holland Butter Tub Factory; Peter Wilma's Pump Mfg. Note: Not one of these leading firms are in business today. Kramers & Bangs, druggists, were located near where Wade's drug store is now. Dr. H. Kramers and William Z. Bangs owned it. As a "kid" we remember a small, beautiful gold horse always occupying the place of honor in the parade.

The News devotes at least a column to the marriage of Miss Gertrude E. Dosker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry E. Dosker, of Louisville, Ky., and Mr. Harris Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Meyer of Holland. The marriage took place at "The Elms," home of Mrs. Dan Steketee on Black Lake, who is an aunt to the bride. The father performed the ceremony, assisted by Dr. John M. Vander Meulen and judging from the article, it was an outstanding social occasion and flowers showed that the event in which Brussels lace and real orange blossoms featured, was one long to be remembered.

The News chronicles the marriage of C. James McLean, better known to his friends as "Jim," to Miss Jean Jameson of Wilmette, Ill. Master Charles McLean, nephew of the groom, and Master James Croft, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearers. Rev. Stephen Lloyd of the First Congregational Church of Wilmette, officiated. The happy pair will make their future home at 134 West 14th St., Holland. Only the immediate families of the young couple were present at the marriage ceremony.

Mrs. Winifred H. Durfee, A.B., of Belleville, N. Y., has been appointed dean of the woman's department of Hope College to succeed Mrs. C. V. R. Gilmore. Mrs. Durfee is a graduate of Keuka College, New York, an allied institution of the University of New York, and has had nine years' experience in this work and has also held professorships in English and French.

In addition to her work as dean, Mrs. Durfee will assist in the English and modern language department. She is a widow, 41 years old, with no family and is said by those who have met her, to be a woman of rare ability and of cultured and charming presence. She will arrive on Sept. 1st and will occupy the matron's department at Voorhees Hall. Note: That was twenty-five years ago and we are exceedingly pleased to state that Mrs. Durfee is still with us, imbued with the same charm and culture mentioned above. Today college and city folks alike love Mrs. Durfee. She has exerted a tremendous influence for good among the young women of our local institution and under her religious and moral influence there is not a remote suggestion such as is so often pictured (and we hope over-stated), as existing in some other institutions of learning. May Mrs. Durfee be with Hope and Holland for some time longer, is our earnest wish for we need such outstanding women as she has conclusively proved to be.

Enforcement Of Truck Codes Stop Road Work

TRUCK OWNERS MUST GET $1.50 PER HOUR FROM CITY AND COUNTY

A walk-out of truck owners employed by the Ottawa county road commission and Grand Haven city occurred Tuesday resulting from the enforcement of the new code under the Michigan state code authority with headquarters at Lansing.

The truck owners have been notified that they must make application for a code plate which licenses them to work. They pay $3 for the application and will receive a plate showing they are operating under the code at $1.50 per hour. The operation of the code was to have gone into effect June 28, but time was extended to July 9.

Carl Bowen, county engineer, was notified of the demand as well as Peter Kammeraad, Grand Haven city manager. Neither officer had the authority to grant the raise and in consequence 24 trucks were taken off the M-50 extension project and about 10 trucks employed by the city.

The M-50 is a county project paid for by county funds. Truck owners have been receiving $1 per hour. The new rate increases the rate 50 per cent, which the county is not prepared to meet. Grand Haven has been paying $1 per hour and the new demand is $1.25, which also increases the cost considerably.

Under the new demand it will cost the county $108 more per week for one truck. Multiply this by 24 and the county might better purchase its own trucks, it was pointed out. The same applies to Grand Haven.

The truck owners are between two fires. They cannot work unless they come under the new code and they must enforce the new rates if they wish to work. Recently about 17,000 inspectors were put on in this state to enforce the code.

Mr. Bowen stated that he was compelled to stop work on the M-50 project when there was but a day's work to gravel the section graded, and but a quarter of a mile to be graded which would complete the job. He pointed out that the project was a strictly county work. The road commission established the price for trucks by approval of the board of supervisors. Under the funds curtailed by the cut in gas and weight tax and the fact that a large portion of this money goes for debt service it appears impossible to comply with the new code without an entire readjustment of budget for various projects, said Mr. Bowen.

Mr. Kammeraad said he would have to take the matter up with the city council before he could make any adjustment. He stated that the rate paid was established by the F.E.R.A. and could not understand the new state demand which raised the price to such an extent.

HOLLAND BANKS SHOW UNUSUAL STRENGTH

STATEMENTS INDICATE

The quarterly reports of the three Holland banks, namely the Peoples State, the Holland City State and the First State bank, show that there has been a substantial increase, not alone in deposits, but in solidity of every phase of banking.

It has been evident since January 1, and since the guarantee insurance has been given by the United States government to the local banking institutions, that there has been a marked increase in the volume of money that has been brought into banks here, and this has been even more apparent

SHERIFF ROSEMA TO SEEK OFFICE AGAIN

Ben Rosema, sheriff of Ottawa county, today announced his candidacy for a second term on the Republican ticket. Mr. Rosema, who is now serving his first term in office, said he would not seek a third term if re-elected.

"Two terms for a sheriff are sufficient," he asserted, "and if re-elected I promise I will not enter the race again in 1936."

ABANDONED CATS ARE A MENACE TO ALL GAME

Look to your cat. Once more the American Game Association is urging summer vacationists not to abandon cats along roadways or in summer camps to shift for themselves. The cats may not fare badly, at least during the warm weather,
but the toll of desirable wildlife for which a single stray cat can be held accountable in a summer season is enormous. There are plenty of these cats at the Holland resorts over the winter.

CENTRAL PARK

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Stronks of Kewanee, Illinois, will furnish the special music at the Sunday evening service.

Mrs. Joe St. John is convalescing at her home here after an operation at St. Mary's hospital in Grand Rapids some time ago.

The Boosters Sunday school class held a beach party at Castle Park Wednesday evening. Twenty-two young women were in attendance and enjoyed the entertainment provided by the committee in charge.

The "Midway Circle" of the Ladies' Aid society met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James De Pree. Mrs. Clyde Sandy assisted the hostess.

The Ladies' Adult class held its quarterly meeting in the form of a picnic at Tunnel Park Tuesday afternoon. There were twenty-six in attendance and after the business session a social hour was enjoyed by all.

The "Wide-Awake" circle of the aid society held its monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clifford Onthank and Mrs. William Gunster assisted the hostess.

The Willing Workers' Aid society met at the church Thursday afternoon with Mrs. John Kuipers and Mrs. B. J. Rosendahl acting as the hostesses.

A baked goods sale was held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert Bremer under the auspices of the "Optimists" circle of the aid society.

VIRGINIA PARK

John Nyland was elected school trustee at the annual meeting held at the Virginia Park school Monday evening. Fred Brummer was the trustee whose term of office expired.

There will be a joint picnic of the Virginia Park Community club and the Women's club next Wednesday, July 18, at Frederick's Beach. This will be a basket picnic and each family is to bring its own supper. Directions to reach the picnic grounds may be obtained by inquiring at the Windmill station.

Edna Berkompas of Niles, Michigan, is the guest of Augusta Heneveld at her home here.

Mrs. George Ziel went to the University hospital at Ann Arbor Wednesday for treatment of an injured limb.

Mrs. Judd Kronmeyer is confined to her home on account of illness.

The Zeeland fire department was called out shortly after 10 o'clock Tuesday night to extinguish a smudge that had started in the People's Market. Little damage resulted from the fire, but the several store rooms in the building were well smoked. The fire probably started from the slippage of a belt from the motor driving the cooling apparatus, since the belt was badly burned and the fire was already attacking the combustible material when the firemen arrived.

LOCAL NEWS

Supervisor Albert Hyma and family of Holland township are taking a trip through Wisconsin and northern Michigan for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dalen-berg and sons, John, Jr., and Robert Van Raalte, returned to their home in Chicago after a ten-day visit at the home of Mrs. A. C.
Van Raalte.

Mrs. A. Van Westenburg and daughter, Helea Christine, of Scottish, New York, are also guests at the Van Raalte home.

Rev. C. A. Stoppels, pastor of Bethel Reformed church, and Mr.
Stoppels and family have left for Pella, Iowa, where they will spend about two weeks visiting friends.
Rev. Stoppels formerly had a charge at Pella.

The opening of the new stretch of road on US-31 through Glenn village in Allegan county will be celebrated Saturday evening.
There will be a free pavement dance and movie show and the P. T. A. will serve supper on the school lawn.

The West End indoor boys ball team defeated the Zutphen team at the west end grounds by the score of 7 to 3. They will play the Martin Store team of Holland next Thursday, July 12, and the North Holland team next Friday, July 13. Both games will be played at the Colonial grounds—Zeeland Record.

An illustrated travel talk by Miss Sarah Thomas and reading of a play by Mrs. Viola Partridge will be features of a joint meeting of the Allegan Library association and the Saugatuck Woman's club in the Saugatuck library Thursday,
July 19.

An amateur tennis tournament will be conducted on the village courts at Saugatuck July 12 to 15. Merchandise from local stores will be awarded the winners.

Payment will be made today by the Allegan State Savings bank on series C certificates due July 5, 1936.

A riot of color and summer garden flowers made the Holland Country club festive for the opening luncheon of the season an outstanding feature. Thirty-two club members and guests were served at luncheon and played bridge in the afternoon. High honors in bridge went to Mrs. H.
S. Covell. Mrs. Sidney Hooper was awarded second prize. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs.

L. T. Jones of Ilion, New York,
the guest of Mrs. R. D. Esten; Mrs. J. R. Vonnell of Grand Rapids, the guest of Mrs. Hooper; Mr.
L. Zwiler of Kalamazoo, the guest of Mrs. H. C. Henshaw, and Mrs.
Jay P. Garlough of Cleveland, the guest of Mrs. Ransom W. Everett.
Mrs. Henshaw and Mrs. Otto VanderVelde were hostesses yesterday. Next Tuesday Mrs. Esten and Mrs. M. L. Hinga will have charge of a tea to be given at 2 o'clock.

Caroline Desy was guest of honor at a party Tuesday afternoon when her mother, Mrs. Carl Desy, 391 West Nineteenth street, entertained in celebration of her seventh birthday. Following games played at Kollen park the little guests returned to the home where refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Miss Florence Hilbert. Those honoring Caroline were Joan Mass, Rose
McCormick, Phyllis Boersma, Geraldine Gums, Adelaide Kui-per, Edna Hossink, Betty Jean Harris and Ila Boersma.

Miss Alyce Vande Riet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Vande Riet, left early this week for New York, and on Saturday she will sail for a tour of Europe. Among the countries she will visit will be England, where she plans to stay with friends, and France. She will visit with relatives in Paris for a while and return to this country September 8.

Applications for marriage licenses have been issued to Harold Fulk, 25, of Grand Haven, and Florence Buerle, 20, of Detroit; and to Harold C. Steketee, 25, Holland, and Marion Ruth Kuizenga, 26, of Princeton, N. J.

Those who are resorting at their respective cottages at Maple Beach are Mr. and Mrs. John Koelker and family; City Assessor and Mrs.
Peter Van Ark and Mr. and Mrs.
John Vaupeil and daughters, Marjorie and Jane.

ROAD IMPROVEMENTS IN 2 COUNTIES ASKED

Petitions for the improvement of roads in this vicinity were in circulation in Holland and in Ottawa and Allegan counties today as part of a campaign sponsored by the local chamber of commerce.
The petition, addressed to Murray
D. Van Wagoner, state highway commissioner, requests action on the unimproved road between Holland and Allegan through Hamilton.
The other is an endeavor to gain improvement of the stretch between Zeeland and Hudsonville or M-21 on the two-mile stretch dips, commonly known as the "derby racer."

Our next meeting will be Wednesday, August 8.

The date for the Legion family picnic has been set for August 3.
It will be on the "controlled pot-luck" method; the auxiliary will suggest what to bring. Everyone is urged to be at Tunnel park by 5 o'clock so that the supper can be served by 6. We will then have plenty of time for a ball game and sports. The Legion is to furnish the coffee and lemonade.

Our legion band has made its name known far and wide. They have been invited to open the Lion's convention in Grand Rapids next week by playing the national anthem at the Civic auditorium.
The boys are also putting in plenty of practice this week to get in shape for the band contest. The Lions are offering $1,500 for six prizes and our band is not going to let first place slip away without a fight.

Another high light of the Lions meeting is next Thursday when National Commander Hayes (also a Lion), will be present at a breakfast given by the Legionnaires.
About ten or fifteen are going up from Holland. If you would like to go call Marinus De Fouw and be ready to leave by 7:15 a. m. on the 19th.

A catastrophe and holocaust threatened our meeting last night.
Nearly everyone present had forgotten to wear his legion button.
Fines collected amounted to $2, which together with donations of $2.50 was voted to be spent for the picnic.

Charlie Miller and family are spending the month at Doc Weststrate's cottage. Can't we get the whole gang to go out for supper and a swim some night?

Mike Schoon's family is beginning to cramp his style. He is remodeling his home and enlarging it.

Nominations for post officers were made last night as follows:
Commander and vice commanders,
Chet Van Tongeren, H. Cook, G. D.
Bos and H. Kramer; for chaplain,
H. Kramer, E. Bedell and E. Hartman; for adjutant, E. Slooter; for finance officer, A. Rutgers; for sergeant-at-arms, H. Overweg, F.
Fortney and R. Eyles; for historian, S. Bosch and Doc Leenhouts.

Elections and additional nominations will be held at the August meeting.

HOLLAND BAND TO PLAY AT LIONS' MEET

The American Legion band of Holland accepted an invitation to appear on the program of the opening session of the Lions International convention next week, on Tuesday, at the Civic auditorium in Grand Rapids. The invitation is regarded as a singular compliment to the local band, as a large number of musical organizations were in the field for the honor.
Holland's band also plans to enter the Lions band contest and is being sponsored by local Lions. A bit to the Chicago fair could not be accepted by the Legion band.

35 GIRLS OPEN ANNUAL RALLY AT PINE LODGE

The annual girls' conference of the Reformed church opened Saturday at Pine Lodge with 35 young women attending the session that will continue through July 15.

The conference had a vesper service today at 4 p. m., at which Miss Lena Gillian of Jackson county, Kentucky, was speaker. A program for this week includes campfire gatherings, conference banquet and consecration service.

Mrs. A. DeYoung of Kalamazoo is in charge of the conference.
Others serving are Miss Laura Boyd, Bible study; Rev. Willis G.
Hoeke, mission study; Mrs. Hoeke, jeu, vesper talk; Jack Schouten, recreation; Mrs. C. Spaan of Grand Rapids, music.

The school of theology and school of missions will follow the girls' conference on the Pine Lodge program.

ALLEGAN

Twenty-one pounds of nickels and 11 pounds of pennies, totaling $113.02, was taken from 40 slot machines at the Allegan jail. The machines were "cracked" by Sheriff Fred W. Miller and deputies.
The money will be turned over to County Treasurer J. Roy Tanner.
The board of supervisors at 1 p.
m. January session promised Sheriff Miller he could use the contents of all slot machines seized to equip his car with a radio set.

Allegan officers arrested a 15-year-old Allegan county boy who is charged with stealing a bicycle in Holland recently. He was turned over to Holland police. His case will be disposed of in probate court.

Miss Flora Burgdorf has been promoted to the position of superintendent of nurses for the Allegan county health unit. She formerly was teacher-nurse of the Kellogg foundation for the city of Charlotte and townships of Chester, Carmel and Eaton.

Allegan county ranks second in the state in the number of forest fires during the first part of 1934, according to a report of the state conservation bureau. Allegan had 74 fires and Newaygo reported 90.

SUBSTANTIAL GAINS IN FOOD SALES

An increase of $1,440,099 in sales of the Kroger Grocery and Baking company, Cincinnati, O., is reported for the sixth four-week period of 1934 ending June 16, over the same period a year ago.

Sales for the sixth period of 1934 totaled $17,466,588, compared to $16,026,489 for the same period of 1933, a jump of nine per cent. The increases from the company's 21 branches ranged from two per cent to as high as twenty-three per cent.

Cumulative sales for the first six periods of 1934 compared to the first six periods of 1933 show an increase of $9,441,850, representing a gain of ten per cent.

The consecutive increases registered by the company since January 1 reflect the steady progress which has been made in retailing throughout the year.

Location of the branches showing the highest percentage gain are in different parts of the country, indicating the increases are not in "spots" where seasonal industrial activity may have influenced sales.
"Business has been encouraging, but the mounting tax burden being placed on retailers by local, state and federal taxing agencies creates uncertainties which cannot be overlooked," Mr. A. H. Morrill, president of the Kroger company, asserted today.

Mr. Morrill issued a statement just recently showing that 44 different taxes to be paid by the company during 1934 would be 120 per cent greater than the amount paid two years ago.

The company now has 4,344 stores in operation, compared to 4,603 at this time last year, a decrease of 259, or six per cent.

EMPLOYMENT OFFICE OPENED IN HOLLAND
In accordance with the decision of the county board of supervisors, a national re-employment service office has been reopened in Holland, with headquarters in the Vischer-Brooks building. The office will be open daily from 8:30 to 4:30 and until noon on Saturdays. Anyone not in the files and desiring to register can do so, the local office having been placed here for the convenience of Holland, Zeeland and surrounding townships. There will be no general registration at this time, it was announced.

Ray Lighthart and family of Holland spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lighthart. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kurz also of Holland, who spent the day in the home of Mr. Kurz's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Kurz at Douglas.

DRENTHE
Miss Henrietta De Witte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lambert De Witte of Drenthe, and Mr. Marvin Berens of Benthien were married Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hamberg, 35 East Twenty-fourth street, uncle and aunt of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Hamberg School, cousin of the bride.

GRAAFSCHAP
Graafschap defeated the Drenthe baseball team this week, 6 to 4, behind an 11-hit batting attack. Geurink and S. Rutgers formed the winning battery, while De Weerd and Ter Haar worked for the losers. F. Rutgers and Wiersma, Ties, Elders and Geurink smacked out a pair of safe hits each for the winners, while Dosema and F. Brower hit safely three times each for Drenthe. Graafschap would like to book games with Holland teams. See or write Jim Wiersma, rural route 1, Holland.

OLIVE CENTER
Several people from here attended the camp meeting held at Allendale Sunday.
Little Miss Geneva Rozema is visiting relatives in Muskegon a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Knoll and family from Holland are again staying at the home of their father, Peter Brandens, for the summer months.
Seminary Student Raymond Schaap conducted services in the Ottawa church Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Levi Bartels and family from Muskegon and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bartels from Indiana and Mrs. F. Hibma and family from Holland visited at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bartels last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kraai announce the birth of a baby boy, born July 5. Mr. Kraai was formerly from this vicinity.

The Pere Marquette is sponsoring a special coach excursion to Detroit for Sunday, July 15, for folks who desire to see the New York Yankees and the Detroit Tigers battle for the American League leadership, or for those who wish to visit Michigan's metropolis for various other reasons. Trains will leave Holland at 5:45 a. m. Round trip fare is advertised at $3.50.

The Woman's Relief corps gathered in the G.A.R. room of the city hall Wednesday afternoon for the regular meeting. A report of the convention held June 13, 14 and 15 in Grand Rapids was given by Delegate Mrs. Minnie Van Beme-

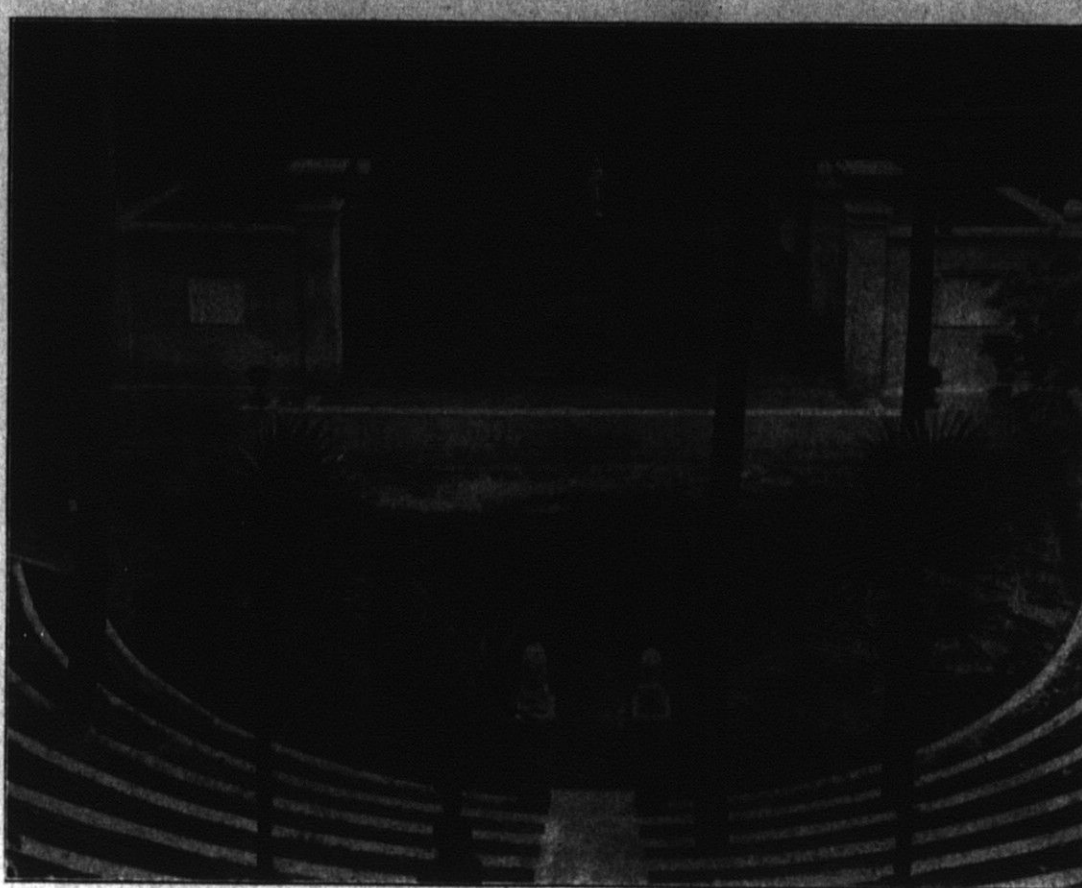

The Ladies' Aid society of Ninth Street Christian Reformed church held a picnic at Tunnel park on Thursday. The ladies motored to the county park before noon, enjoying a pot-luck dinner together. An interesting program of sports was also carried out, all members taking part. Mrs. J. Breen is the president of the society. Mrs. G. Artz and Mrs. B. Homkes were in charge of the sport program.

Applications for marriage licenses have been received by the county clerk from the following: Clarence Overbeek, 23, Holland; and Hermine Jansen, 20, Holland; Oscar Hoek, 36, Holland; and Edith Slighter, 23, Holland; Daniel Dekker, 26, Holland; and Gertrude Brouwer, 21, Holland.

Thieves entered the home of Joseph Karel, 208 East Eighth street, Wednesday evening, taking a gold watch, a pearl necklace and about $2 in small change, according to reports. Police and Deputy Tony Groeneveld went through "hobo jungles" at Waverly but were unsuccessful in finding any clues. The thieves entered through the rear door of the Karel dwelling. Acting Chief Van Ry states that folks should not leave their homes unprotected or locked only by a hooked screen door during the evening.

The Zeeland Garden club met at the home of Mrs. N. Pieper on Friday evening, when Mrs. John De Pree presented a paper on "Beginner's List of Perennials." A committee was appointed to work out a flower show to be given in September in connection with the Homecoming festivities.

Beautiful Amphitheatre at Castle Park

In Castle Park's beautiful natural theatre, vespers services will be as follows:
July 15: Twilight musicale. Josephine Altman Case of Evanston, Ill., adopted daughter of the Sioux tribe, interpreter of Indian songs and customs. She will appear in native costume and accompany herself on the tom-tom. Charles K. North, flutist, and teacher of flute, Chicago, formerly first flutist Boston Opera Co., soloist for Madame Melba.

July 22: Negro Little Theatre of Evanston, presenting a play called "Numbers." "Incomparable," "Similar to Green Pastures" were the comments heard in Evanston, where the play was recently given. It depicts the vicissitudes which a negro church passes through and music is woven into it in a subtle manner. Its effect is as good as any sermon ever written. Miss Alpha Conway of the University of Wisconsin dramatic faculty and Robert Dunmore of the Northwestern School of Speech, are directing this talented group. Assisting the dramatic production are the Harmony Four, a splendid negro quartet, offering spirituals and folk songs. Miss Margaret Bonds, colored pianist and composer, graduate of Northwestern School of Music, will play selections from Chopin and Bach.

This program is too good to miss. The children will appreciate it also. The time is 7:30 each Sunday.

Edwin D. Koop of Holland paid $10 in Justice Gallen's court for speeding. Robert School of Grand Rapids paid $15 in the same court also for exceeding the speed limit.

The American Legion post No. 33 of Zeeland and ladies' auxiliary will hold their annual picnic at Tunnel park next Thursday, July 18, at 4:30 o'clock. Free coffee will be available, and all are asked to bring their own sandwiches and drinks for the children. At this picnic, a combined meeting of the Legion and auxiliary home-coming committees will be held also.—Zeeland Record.

The Holland evangelist, Jan Sevensma, will hold a week of Gospel meetings in the new Hudsonville High school auditorium, beginning Sunday night, July 15, at 7:45 o'clock until Saturday night, July 21. All are cordially are cordially invited.

Wisconsin tercentenary commemorative stamps have been placed on sale at the local post office, according to Postmaster A. J. Westveer. The first of a 50,000 order went on sale from the general window yesterday. The stamps of purple hue and of special delivery size, are of a special issue in honor of the 300th anniversary of Nicolet's landing on the shores of Green Bay.

The steamer Sumatra entered Holland harbor Tuesday with a cargo of 5,000 tons of coal for local dealers. It cleared Tuesday night for Toledo. Another steamer is expected here Monday with a cargo of cement. With navigation business started, several freighters are expected here during the coming months.

It's Easy to Break the Law
It is just as much a violation of the laws of this State to take the eggs of any birds protected by the laws of this State as it is to harm the birds themselves. It is likewise unlawful to destroy, disturb or molest at any time any beaver, hole, burrow or den which may be used or occupied by such game or protected fur-bearing animals.

LIONS CLUB NAMES CONVENTION DELEGATES

The Holland Lion's club, at the meeting in Warm Friend Tavern Wednesday, decided to send a full quota of delegates to the international convention to be held in Grand Rapids July 15. Delegates to the meet at Grand Rapids will be Russell S. Haight, Russell Vandepoel, Henry Ter Haar and Russell Rutgers.

Delegates to the district convention will be George Damsen, president of the club; Mr. Haight, Carl Harrington, William Nies and Russell Rutgers.

ERROR IN BUILDING & LOAN MEETING

A circular letter sent to stockholders of the Building and Loan association has an error as to date. The annual gathering is on Tuesday, July 17, at 7:30 p. m., at the Ottawa County Building and Loan association offices over the First State bank.

At the time four directors for the ensuing year will be named. The present officers are Louis Vandenberg, president; Charles Van Zyl, vice president; Otto P. Kramer, treasurer, and John Post, secretary.

RETURNED CHINA MISSIONARIES HONORED

Four local missionaries, three of whom have just returned and one of whom is about to sail for China, were honored at a gathering held at First Reformed church Monday evening when members of the Woman's Missionary society and the League for Service of the local church met in the church parlors. The three returning missionaries thus honored were Miss Tena Holkeboer, Miss Jean Nienhuis and Miss Jean Walvoord. Miss Walvoord, however, could not be present because of illness which also was the cause of her return to America at this time. A beautiful bouquet of roses was sent her.

Miss Holkeboer, principal of the girls' high school in Amoy for several years, told of the rapid growth of the school, telling of the great interest which the Chinese themselves are taking in the work.

Miss Nettie De Jong, who is to return to China on August 24, was presented with an overnight traveling bag. Miss DeJonge first went out as a missionary on August 24, 1914.

Mrs. James Weyer presided over the meeting. Refreshments were served by Mrs. S. Vander Werf and committee, assisted by members of the League for Service.

Rev. H. E. Oostendorp, pastor of North Street Christian Reformed church, exchanged pulpits with Rev. P. Jonker, pastor of Sixteenth street Christian Reformed church, Holland, last Sunday.

MRS. TAFT OF THE ROSE CLOAK NOT SUPERSTITIOUS

Mrs. Thad Taft, who is responsible for the artistic show windows in the Rose Cloak store from season to season, is a lady devoid of superstition. Today the Rose Cloak is launching a three-weeks mid-summer sale. It so happens that the opening of the sale starts Friday.

When she was advised that it was also the 13th she said: "Well, we can't help that. We'll call it an omen of good luck and the sale goes on just the same." Undoubtedly these superstitious beliefs are more a matter of mind, for too often weather prophets, bad omens and the number 13 have failed utterly.

PAINT SHOP OPENS

John Kampen & Son of this city have opened a paint store in Washington Square, Holland. There are all sorts of paints, oils, brushes and painters' accessories on sale.

ZEELAND

The fifth weekly open air band concert will be given at Church street city park this Friday evening by the American Legion band, directed by Fred Rabba. All lovers of good music are invited to attend these weekly open air concerts.

The pioneer Brummel family reunion will be held at the Lawrence street city park in Zeeland next Thursday, July 19, all day. Mr. Martin Van Loe of Zeeland is the president of the organization; Levi Meeuwse is chairman of the program committee, and Hilbert De Kleine is chairman of sports. A happy time is anticipated and everyone related to this family is urged to attend.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Lemmen of Holland, a son, Mrs. Lemmen, before her marriage was Miss Margaret Hop of North Holland; to Mr. and Mrs. John Essenburg, Holland, formerly of Zeeland, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. John Kuyers, Greenfield avenue, Grand Rapids, formerly of Zeeland, a son, Dale G.; to Mr. and Mrs. Arend Vereeke, Beaverdam, a son, Junior Dale, July 4; to Mr. and Mrs. John D. Machiela, Beaverdam, a son, on Sunday, July 8.

The ministers of the classis of Zeeland of the Christian Reformed church and their families enjoyed an outing at Kardux Beach, on Tuesday. Elaine Prince, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prince of Holland, is spending a few days here with her grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Languis, on East Cherry street, Zeeland.

The De Bruyn family enjoyed a reunion at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Robert De Bruyn at Eagle Crest on the Fourth of July. Those present were Mrs. R. De Bruyn, Sr., Miss Sue De Bruyn, Miss Doris De Bruyn, Mr. and Mrs. David De Bruyn, Miss Evelyn De Bruyn, Donald De Bruyn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert De Bruyn, Mr. and Mrs. J. Donia and children, Mrs. W. Deedema, Miss Winifred Boone, all of Zeeland; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schaap and children of New Groningen, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank De Bruyn and daughter, Frances Ruth of Flint.

The annual Yonkman family reunion was held at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit De Witt near Borelio last Wednesday, July 4, when about 75 members of the family gathered there for the happy occasion. A picnic dinner was enjoyed by the group and a short program was rendered by members of the family. President Simon Dogger of Holland, opened the gathering with a few remarks and Pauline Nagelkirk made the welcoming address. Following the program the business session was held which resulted in the election of the following officers: Peter Oosting, Holland, president; C. Marcuse, Holland, vice president; Clarence Lucas of Grand Rapids, secretary and treasurer, and Gerrit De Vries and Gerrit Petroelje, program committee. The group included relatives from Flint, Lansing, Grand Rapids, Holland and Zeeland. It was decided to hold the next annual reunion on July 4, 1936, at the De Witt homestead again.

Judge Miles "Talks Turkey" to Woman Nudist

EXPOSED BODY INDECENTLY TO CHILDREN AND OPPO-SITE SEX

(Article Held Over)

Unheralded by the newspapers and unknown in advance to but perhaps a half dozen people, Ophelia Ring of Kalamazoo, joint owner and operator with her husband of Allegan county's much-advertised nudist camp, appeared in Allegan circuit court, recently, and changed her plea of not guilty to a charge of indecent exposure of the person to a plea of guilty. Her attorney, Bess M. Garner, Detroit, stated that while Mrs. Ring did not feel she had violated the spirit of the law, she was bowing

THE NUDISTS ARE SPANKED

The moral standards of the state of Michigan were reaffirmed recently by the state supreme court and "nudism" was dealt a second legal rebuff when the court upheld the conviction of the Kalamazoo nudist camp, which had been found guilty by a lower court of operating a nudist camp in Allegan county. The specific charge was "indecent exposure." The unanimous opinion of the supreme court that "there is no room in Michigan for nudism" certainly will stand out as a warning to all that Michigan will not tolerate fads and ultra-modern ideas of culture which are offensive to public morals and to the decent citizens of communities in which they attempt to operate.—Michigan Manufacturer.

to the superior wisdom of the supreme court of Michigan in its interpretation of the statute in her husband's case. Mr. Ring is languishing in the county jail serving a sixty-day sentence or longer, and this plea of guilty on Mrs. Ring's part doubtless means that no appeal is contemplated in her husband's case.

Mrs. Ring said as little as possible, but was a bit "superior" in her attitude when she appeared in court and rather attractive, to say the least. When asked by the judge whether she intended to obey the terms of her probation, she tossed her head slightly and answered, "Why certainly."

Judge Miles, in sentencing her, said: "In pleading guilty you have adopted an intelligent course. The statute is plain; our supreme court, in the case of your husband, where the exact circumstances of your case was before them, unanimously agreed not only that he was accorded a fair trial but that the law applies clearly and directly to what you people were doing. Under the law you could, of course, have made this county additional exhibit and could have continued the childish attitude of attracting attention. Your counsel is to be commended for advising you to follow the course you have now adopted."

"It is impossible to make the people of this community believe that you are victims of a desire to get the full value of air and sunshine. For one, I certainly do not believe it. That effect is easily attained without making an indecent exposure of the person to anyone; certainly without exposing the body indecently and openly to children and persons of the opposite sex."

"The experience of mankind over the many years of the past is that such exposures inevitably lead to immorality. No decent community is likely to tolerate a situation destructive of the morals of its youth."

"It seems to me you simply followed where your husband led you, and the responsibility for the situation that developed is largely his; however, you joined the plan and permitted your little girls' bodies to be exposed shamelessly, and your attitude cannot be condoned."

"What the people want is an act of this silliness. Considering your plea, and the likelihood that we shall have no further attempt at similar conduct, you are placed on probation by this court for a period of two years. The usual conditions of probation must be observed; also you must avoid all attempt to violate the spirit of the law of which you stand convicted. You are placed on probation for two years and you are required to pay a probation fee of $1 each month, and report to the probation officer each month in the manner that he shall require; also pay costs of fifty dollars at two dollars or more per month."

"Any violation of the terms of your probation will subject you to being brought before the court for sentence. And if, upon a hearing, it is found that you have violated the terms of your probation, the same will be revoked and you will be punished in the manner provided by law."

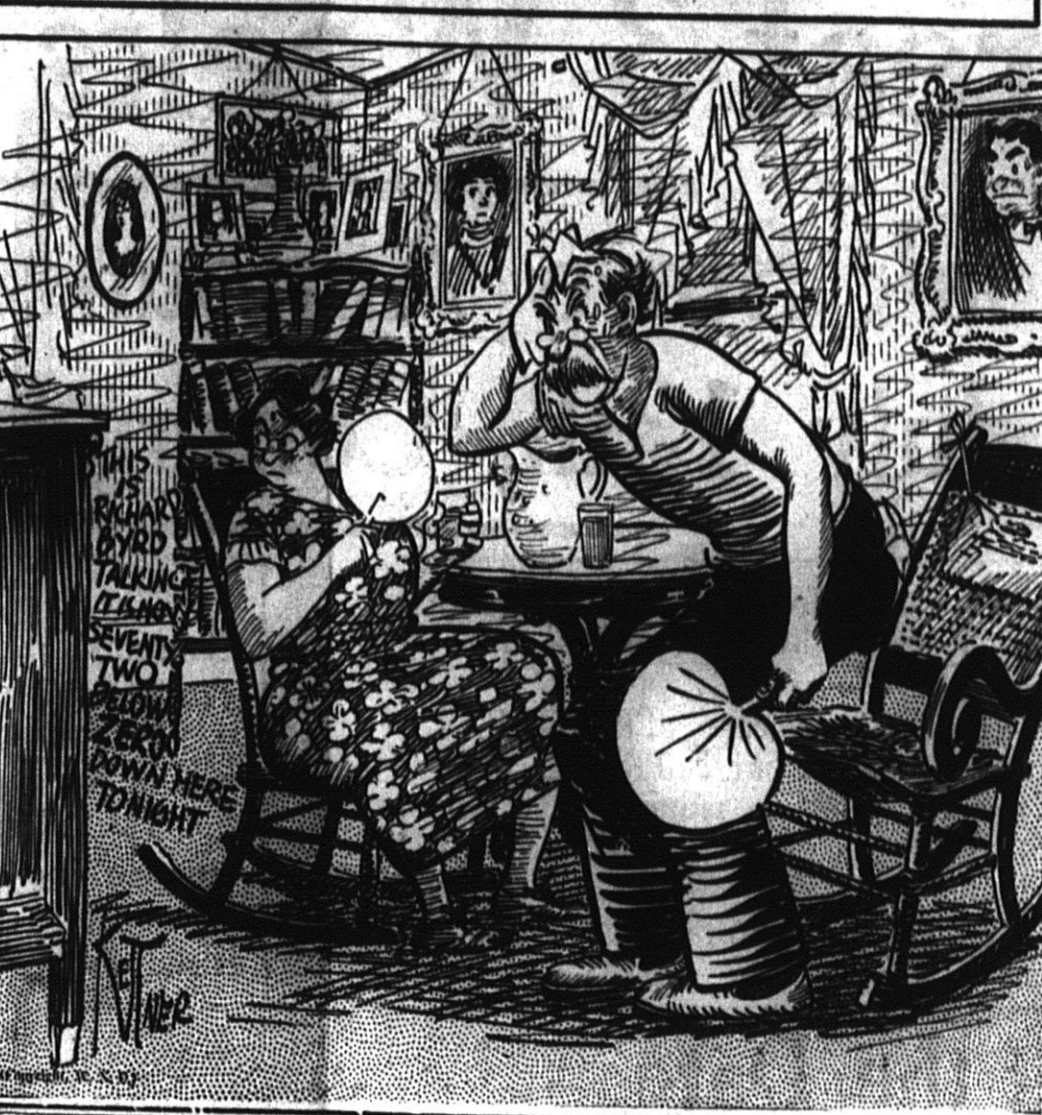

HOLLAND FURNACE CO. OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Officers and the board of directors of the Holland Furnace company were re-elected at meetings of the stockholders and the board today.

Officers re-elected are Edward H. Meulenbroek, president; P. T. Cheff, vice president and general manager; P. W. Bruns, vice president in charge of sales; George B. Tinkhof, treasurer, and A. W. Tahaney, secretary. Members of the board of directors are Mr. Meulenbroek, C. J. McLean, Mr. Cheff, Mrs. Kathryn Nystrom Cheff, Mrs. Louise Landwehr, Mr. Bruns, Tom H. Marisje and D. B. K. Van Raalte. Extension of the redemption date on preferred stock and corporation charter was assented by stockholders at the meeting.

Gerrit Vos of R. F. D. No. 1 was assessed fine and costs of $56.95 in Justice John Gallen's court and his driver's license was revoked for one year, when he was arraigned Thursday on a drunk driving charge.

A Hundred in the Shade

40,000 AT OVAL

There were 40,000 people on the Grand Haven Oval Sunday, according to the count maintained by George Morse, superintendent of the state park. This is an average crowd nowadays, he says. Many pitched their tents over the weekend and parked the house cars, which are more numerous this year than any time since the park has been opened.

AVOID RUSH

Automobile plates for those who purchased stickers on Mar. 1 will be on sale at the county clerk's office on July 25. The limit of time for the stickers is Aug. 1 and those who must purchase plates are urged to do so before the last day to avoid an undue rush. For information phone Henry Prins of the Holland license bureau.

MUCH-STABBED MAN IS OUT OF HOSPITAL; ATTACKER IN JAIL YET

Edward Grimesley, 26, who was stabbed more than 50 times by Elmer Anderson, 24, in a drunken fight in Allegan county the night of June 23, has been discharged from a South Haven hospital and taken to the home of a relative in Flint. He is said to have lost the sight of one eye in the stabbing fray.

Anderson is held here in the county jail and Prosecutor W. S. Luna says, will be charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm. Grimesley and Anderson, both from the south, had been picking berries on a farm in Casco township, Allegan county.

PROSECUTOR REPORTS 115 PROSECUTIONS; 104 CONVICTIONS FOR 6 MONTHS

The semiannual report from the county prosecutor's office issued by the prosecutor, John R. Dethmers, shows that during the past six months there were a total of 115 prosecutions out of which 104 were convicted; 3 were acquitted; 4 were dismissed on payment of costs and 4 were dismissed on examination.

There were five arrests for assault out of which 4 were convicted; 6 arrests for breaking and entering out of which 4 were convicted; 3 children contributing to delinquency were arrested and convicted; 9 violators of the conservation laws were arrested and convicted; 23 per sons were arrested for being disorderly and were convicted; 2 were arrested for disturbing a public meeting and were convicted.

There were 3 arrests and convictions for violation of the state highway law; 3 were arrested for indecency and immorality out of which 2 were convicted and 1 was acquitted. There were 37 arrests for violation of the motor vehicle law and 36 were convicted; 4 arrests for prohibition law and 4 convictions; 1 arrest and conviction for rape and 1 arrest and conviction for threat to kill.

ZEELAND BANK OPENING WILL FREE $300,000

A total of $300,000 in cash is now made available to depositors of the Zeeland State Commercial and Savings bank, which was opened for normal banking business Tuesday.

The bank opens under the 50-50 plan, and has been operating under a conservator for the past six months. Fifty per cent of deposits will be available in cash and the remainder in time certificates.

Officers of the bank are John Wichers, president; L. G. Stallkamp, vice president, and Fred P. Keiff, cashier.

This is the last Ottawa county bank to open and the payoff is indeed gratifying to lower Ottawa county and especially Zeeland.

Nicholas E. Lanning of Drenthe, who has received his M. D. degree at Chicago, Rush Medical College, is serving as interne at a hospital in Detroit.

Misses Abrahama Agatha Ton and niece Mary Elizabeth Aldrich of Chicago have arrived and will spend the summer at their cottage at Central Park.

Zeeland Now Has Its School House in Order

ONE OF SCHOOL TEACHERS IS TO MOVE TO HOLLAND
TO TEACH

At a recent meeting of the Zeeland Board of Education the Zeeland public school and their needs were fully discussed, plans made and teachers hired. Miss Amanda Zwemer, instructor of English in the high school, was granted a year's leave of absence, during which time she intends to take up additional studies at the University of Michigan.

In her place the board has offered a contract to fill the position, made vacant by Miss Zwemer, to Miss Sady Grace Masselink of Zeeland, who will begin her work at the opening of the next school year in September, subject to her acceptance of the contract offered by the board.

Two other positions were filled by the board, due to refusal of two new teachers to accept contracts offered by the Zeeland board. Miss Ruth Glerum, who had been offered a contract to teach in the high and junior high schools, did not accept the contract offered. This position has been offered to Miss Mildred J. Nelson of Crystal Falls, who will teach domestic science to seventh and eighth grade pupils besides teaching other subjects.

Miss Elizabeth Smith goes to Holland grade schools and as a result did not accept the contract offered by the Zeeland school board, filling the position left vacant by the illness of Miss Lena Visser. To fill this position the board has decided to place Miss Gaw, first intended for first grade, as the teacher of the kindergarten class, and to offer a contract for first grade teacher to Miss Nella Derks of Zeeland. This will fill all positions offered by the Zeeland public schools in the next school year unless there should be more resignations among the present contracts offered.

The board has also decided to extend the present service in education by reinstating domestic science and manual arts in Zeeland high school course of study. These two subjects were dropped two years ago when the school finances dropped to low ebb, but the demand for these subjects have been quite strong and insistent, which has resulted in placing them back in the curriculum, and the securing of Miss Nelson to teach domestic science was the result.

HOLLAND STATION DOES ITS SHARE

A total of 714 calls were answered by the various stations in the 10th district, U. S. Coast Guard, during the fiscal year ending July 1 with Michigan City topping the list with 61 calls. Grand Haven station had 36 calls; Muskegon, 51; Holland, 38; South Haven, 26; St. Joseph, 58; Pentwater, 20; and Ludington, 29. The remaining stations in the district are credited with calls as follows: White River, 6; Manistee, 15; Frankfort, 46; South Manitou, 31; Sleeping Bear, 31; Charlevoix, 13; Mackinac Island, 27; Bois Blanc, 23; Hammond, 27; Middle Island, 15; Thunder Bay, 24; Tawas, 24; Point Aux Barques, 22; Harbor Beach, 43; and Sleeping Point, 10. There were also 28 cases attended by crews from inactive stations.

Bert Franks of Holland waived examination on a statutory charge preferred by his three daughters, when arraigned before Justice Gallen. Franks was bound over to circuit court and committed to the county jail in default of $5,000 bail. The charge made by his daughters, if true, are indeed serious and unthinkable.

Henry P. Fletcher, chairman of the Republican national committee, and Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Grand Rapids, accompanied by Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Vandenberg, were Sunday guests of George F. Getz at his Lakewood farm home, Sherman. Rogers joined the party during the afternoon.

RACCOON FOR PET

A raccoon, about a month old, is the playmate of Betty Rosema, daughter of Sheriff Ben Rosema of Grand Haven. The little animal looks something like a kitten and appears as docile as any young cat. The raccoon was given to her by a friend of the Sheriff who is attempting to raise raccoons for the fur market.

FAST MOVING BEER

A big truckload of beer consigned to a local dealer went into the ditch near Grand Haven on the Fourth of July. The news quickly spread and it is reported that before the beer disappeared like dew before the sun, and there was little, if anything, to salvage.

A WOMAN DRUNK

Allegan County has made its first arrest of a drunken woman driver for the present year. Ella Larson of Douglas was picked up driving a car while intoxicated, June 27. She spent the rest of the night in jail and the next morning on her plea of guilty was given a $50 fine and $4.50 costs or sixty-five days in the county jail. She paid.

COUNTY CLERK OF OTTAWA ORDERED TO CAMP FOR 2 WEEKS

County Clerk William Wilds, commissioned a major in the regular army reserve corps in 1930, has been ordered to Camp Graying for reserve duty effective July 8, for a 14 day period. Maj. Wilds last year was ordered to Camp Custer. Enlisting in Co. F, Michigan National Guard immediately following the Spanish American war, at the age of 18, Mr. Wilds began a long career in the army featured by regular promotions to his present rank. He left the national guard in 1909 a second lieutenant, and was commissioned a first lieutenant at the time of the entrance of the United States in the World War. He served in the air service at many posts, and was mustered out of service in October, 1919. His commission as captain came the following year, and that of major in April, 1930.

At present, Major Wilds is assigned to the 338th R. A. Infantry regiment. At Graying he will serve on the brigade staff. The Ottawa County Clerk has a brilliant war record and is liked by soldier and civilian alike.

Thomas De Vries, owner of the De Vries grocery store at Jensen Park, Saturday morning landed a four and one-half pounds bass, 21 inches long, while fishing off the dock in front of his home. "This is the largest bass I've ever caught," said Mr. De Vries, who has been a fishing enthusiast for 40 years.

Bald Eagles Not Bald At All

A bald eagle of exceptionally large size, recovered from a violator in northwestern Michigan, has been mounted and turned over to the Field Administration Division, Department of Conservation, for exhibition purposes. It is a superb specimen of the species, possessing the pure white crest and tail of the adult, but it is not "bald" as the name implies. The name "bald eagle" is a misnomer. The name was given it because of the white head and neck feathers acquired by the adult bird in its third-year plumage. The bald eagle is protected by law in Michigan. A fine of $100 with costs and imprisonment of not to exceed 90 days or both may be imposed, for killing a bald eagle.

Black Lake Claims Two More Victims

DOUBLE FUNERAL ATTENDED
BY LARGE NUMBER

The funeral services of two victims took place Tuesday at the Sixteenth Street Christian Reformed church and the church edifice was packed to the doors when the two caskets, one containing the body of the father and the other of the son were mournfully carried in. It was a pathetic moment and a hush fell over the large audience as the bearers with measured tread passed up the aisle to deposit the caskets of father and son, who met an untimely death in the waters of Black Lake.

Mr. Henry Van Unen, aged 67, and his son, Edward, aged 11, had gone fishing at about 6 a. m. Friday, together with Gerrit Hoffman, brother-in-law of Van Unen. They fished for some hours when Van Unen decided to go home for a time to do some work about the house. This he did, returning at about 9:30 a. m., when Hoffman and the boy, who had continued fishing during his absence, rowed to shore in order that Van Unen might again come into the boat with them. The three had gone out about 100 feet, when the boat capsized, throwing all three into the water. Just how the accident occurred is not known. However, it is believed that Van Unen suffered a heart attack which caused the boat to capsize. Since no water was found in his lungs, physicians believe that heart failure was the original cause of his death.

The accident was witnessed by Rev. Jonker, Van Unen's pastor, and Herman Jansen of rural route No. 8, who were in a boat fishing just a short distance away. They immediately went to the rescue of the three. Hoffman made a heroic attempt to keep both Van Unen and the boy above water, sinking twice before he was rescued by Rev. Jonker and Mr. Jansen. The accident was also witnessed by Anthony Schermer of 64 West Fifteenth street and Nick Pown of 179 East Sixteenth street, who were unable to go to the assistance of the three since no boat was available.

After Hoffman had been taken to shore, sheriff's officers as well as the coast guard were notified. Coroner Gilbert H. Vande Water was called from an inquest which he was conducting.

The bodies were recovered in less than five minutes after coast guards and officers began work with the aid of grappling hooks, Eugene Wiersma and Sidney Jarvis assisting them.

Artificial respiration was employed by the coast guards and the police pulmonator was also put into use, but to no avail, and Mr. Van Unen and son were pronounced dead by Dr. O. Vande Velde and Dr. A. J. Brower.

Mr. Van Unen had celebrated his birthday on the Fourth of July, and the son, Edward, had his eleventh anniversary Thursday, July 5.

Surviving Mr. Van Unen and son, Edward, are the widow and mother. Mr. Van Unen also leaves several brothers who live in the northern part of the state, and a sister, Mrs. Hoffman of Grand Rapids.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the home, 191 West Twentieth street, where the family, relatives and friends gathered at 2 o'clock. Funeral services, attended by the general public, were held in Seventeenth Street Christian Reformed church, in charge of the pastor, Rev. P. Jonker, assisted by Rev. H. Oostendorp of Zeeland.

The pallbearers for the father were Adrian Van Zwaarden, Henry Brenker, Joseph De Boer, Claus Valkema, Benjamin Mulder, James Slager.

Those for the son were Peter Van Zwaarden, Nicholas Vogelzang, Fred Lemmen and Donald Slager. Interment took place in Pilgrim Home cemetery. Those from out of town who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Riemersma of Ellsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Hoffman of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoffman of Atwood, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman and Bert De Young, all of Atwood; Mrs. C. Cox of East Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hummel of Fremont and Mr. and Mrs. A. Sneller of Reman.

Attorney Daniel Ten Cate and son, Vernon, and daughter, Miss Myra Ten Cate, spent the Fourth at Benton Harbor, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Dean. The Ten Cates are summering at their Buchanan Beach cottage.

The Ottawa Beachcombers had their initial game of the season July 4, when they played the Waukegan Indians. The team has the same line-up as last year, with the exception of Louis and Edward Heath, who have not yet arrived at the resort. Lloyd Johnson replaces Tom Thibault, as

Violation of Game Laws on the Increase

MOST OF THEM FISH LAW VIOLATIONS—THE TOTAL OF ALL LAWS 431—FISH LAWS 385

Game law violations in Michigan have almost doubled in May over April. There were a total number of arrests of 431. Of these 385 were for fishing infractions. The remaining number was made up as follows: Fire law violations, 16; hunting, 15; trapping, 10; failure to make fur reports, 3; destroying beaver dam and hindering an officer, 1 each. Fines and costs amounting to $4,383.36 were assessed violators. Jail sentences totaled 1,108 days. Three men were acquitted in justice court; seven cases were dismissed; 58 offenders were placed on probation; and the fines of 146 were suspended.

The record for the month reveals a continued tendency on the part of anglers to evade the 50-cent resident fishing license and to wield the spear contrary to provisions of the law. One hundred forty-one individuals were caught fishing without the required license and 79 were taken into custody for unlawful use of the spear on inland lakes or trout streams. Fifty-three were charged with possession of game fish in closed season, 38 with illegal possession of fish and 23 with fishing in a closed inland lake. Other arrests for fishing law offenses are as follows: Illegal possession of spear and jacklight, 10; non-resident fishing without license, 8; illegal use of dipnet, 5; illegal sale of fish, 5; illegal netting, 3; fishing in closed season, 2; possession of undersized fish, 4; attempting to snag fish, 2; exceeding pike limit, fishing commercially without a license, possession of spear and pike, setting nets in closed waters, failure to mark nets, dynamiting trout stream, attempting to take fish with artificial light, illegal possession of frogs and spearing frogs with artificial light, 1 each.

Conservation officers confiscated more than 3,195 pounds of fish illegally taken, including 995 pounds of perch, 837 pounds of whitefish, 710 pounds of black bass, 475 pounds of wall-eyed pike and pickerel, 23 pounds of lake trout, 65 pounds of suckers and approximately 1,800 sunfish and bluegills caught in closed lakes. The fish were turned over to welfare agencies.

More than 100 spears and 31 jacklights were taken from violators. Other property confiscated included five rowboats, a 1,280-foot seine, three gill nets, a pound net, five dipnets, eight fishing rods, six reels and lines and two tackle boxes.

Carrying firearms in closed game areas without a permit accounted for the arrest of nine charged with hunting law violations. Other offenses included training dogs in closed season and shooting wild waterfowl. Officers confiscated six rifles.

Sixteen violators were arrested on charges of setting a fire without permit or allowing a fire to get beyond control. Of the ten taken on charges of violating trapping laws, six were accused of trapping or attempting to trap beaver, three for illegal possession of muskrat and beaver skins and one for selling a mink hide without permit. Officers confiscated fifteen beaver pelts, sixteen muskrat pelts, a weasel pelt and eleven traps.

Since March, fishing law violations have shown a steady increase in the reports of arrests. In March there were 64 and in April 205 and in May 385. Most of these violations were because of the 50-cent rod license tax which our poor home fishermen should never have been compelled to pay. The News has done much for conservation during its career of 63 years. It stopped netting in these waters when convictions were almost impossible, but this 50-cent rod tax "on the barefoot boy" or the family man who fishes in his own home lake from dock or crude craft, after his day's work is done, has always seemed unjust and has been obnoxious to your editor.

NEW YORKER OLDEST GRAD OF THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Records of alumni in Western Theological Seminary show that six of the older classes in the institution have one survivor. They are: Rev. Josias Meulendyke of Rochester, N. Y., 1876; Rev. Gerrit J. Heekhuis of Grandville, '87; Rev. Albert H. Strabbing of Holland, '89; Rev. P. A. J. Brouwer of Holland, '90; Rev. Albertus Pieter van Duine of Pasiatic, N. J., '92.

Meulendyke, oldest living alumnus of the institution recently attended the Hope College commencement. Heekhuis is the oldest active pastor of the alumni but expects soon to retire.

The class of '87 has two survivors, Rev. Simon Hugenboom and Rev. Gerrit H. Hospers, both of New York state, and both retired.

SON OF MAYOR HEAP WRITES OF CUSTOMS IN HITLER GERMANY

Gasoline prices of 90 cents a gallon in Italy, 50 cents in Germany, and 85 cents in France were reported in a letter to Mayor Lionel Heap of Grand Haven from his son, Robison Heap, who is spending a year studying Europe on a scholarship from Harvard university.

Writing from Dresden, Germany, Mr. Heap reported inability to understand how brown-shirted storm troopers are paid, since they apparently do no work, and no official state figures have been made available on remuneration to the Nazi troops. "Heil Hitler," is the greeting of more than half the people of Germany, and the inevitable greeting of shopkeepers to customers, Mr. Heap reported. He spoke of the registration of men youth in the Sacrificing a Big Stock of Ladies Fine Garments!

A Great 3 Weeks July Sale

The Rose Cloak Store Announces, Beginning Friday Morning, July 13th, Continuing for 3 Weeks

A great SACRIFICE SALE of our entire collection of Fine Wearing Apparel; included are all our late Spring Purchases—Ladies and Misses' Coats, Dresses, Waists, House Dresses, Hosiery—UNDERWEAR.

Our small Store space for carrying large Stocks, is the cause of this GREAT JULY SACRIFICE SALE—We must have the room for our Fall Stocks, to arrive next month—hence, this big stock of garments must be reduced to half its size within the three weeks' period of this sale, by almost cutting the prices in half. We know we can accomplish this desired result.

We expect big crowds and will get big crowds if the power of low prices has not lost its magnet.

Not often you've had the opportunity of buying from a High Grade Stock of Garments, such as this, at prices of the ordinary kind. We know you will avail yourselves of the chance and that promptly.

This will be by great odds the biggest and best Cloak and Suit Sale ever held in Holland.

The largest part of the offerings have only reached our Store within the past month—some of them the past week. Don't hesitate or long delay in making up your mind to attend this sale. Once there you will come again and want your friends to accompany you.

7-UP is not a Medicine

It is a very refreshing soft drink and it SATISFIES THE THIRST of grown-ups and children.

Because of its alkaline reaction it tends to correct acidity—helps put you back on your stride when you are tired or worn out from any cause. At the health spas it is the drinking of CO-2 charged water that does the work. In one drink of 7-UP there is more CO-2 than in several glasses at the spas.

7-UP is a blending mixer, as well as a thirst drink.

LOCAL NEWS

The Brummel family reunion will be held at the Zeeland on Thursday, July 19, with Mr. Martin Van Loo presiding, and Lee Meeuwse in charge of the program. Mr. H. DeKline is taking care of the sport program.

Many of the cottages at Saugatuck and the lake and river resort sections are taken and are going fast. There is an industrial girls' conference of about 200 at Camp Gray. From now on each week will see a new group at the camp. On July 15, at Castle park a twilight musicale will be given. Josephine Altman Case, an adopted daughter of the Sioux tribe, will give interpretations of Indian songs and customs.

William Swier, pastor of the Berean Reformed church at Grand Haven, has resigned as pastor of the local church and his resignation has been accepted by the consistory of the church with an honorable discharge. Mr. Swier has accepted a position as branch manager in this district with the International Creditors Association, Inc., with the main office at Chicago. Swiers is well known among the Berean denomination in Holland.

Holland's three banks are showing substantial increases in deposits, according to reports issued for June 30. Total resources have reached $3,756,644.83. Total commercial deposits are $849,700.71, total savings deposits are $1,089,762.34, and total mortgage deposits are $1,228,009.54. Total capital stock is $450,000.—Grand Rapids Press.

Edward Brouwer of this city will seek a second term in the Michigan legislature on the Republican ticket as representative from Ottawa county. Although a native of Grand Rapids, he has been a resident of Holland for 27 years. Brouwer succeeded Fred F. McEachron of Hudsonville, who first was elected to the legislature in 1922, when Ottawa had two representatives.

Wm. Harper, age 92 years, and a poet at Grand Haven, died at Hatton hospital. He was born in England in 1842 and came to Grand Haven with a group of English, Scotch and Welsh shipbuilders in '68 when "windjammers" were still being built. Of late years he was the gardener at the Ottawa Eagle Tannery.

Three hundred seven home loans were closed in Ottawa county in the period April 1-July 1, according to a report by C. E. Miner and Gerrit Van Coevering of the Grand Haven office, given out yesterday. The final week in June saw the greatest number of loans closed in the period covered by the report, 54. The present average is about 20 a week.

Two of Holland's newer concerns have been incorporated under state provisions and received their charters, said "Bill" Connelly. The Riggi Candy company has been re-incorporated and is known as The Hollander, Inc., manufacturers of "chocolate suikergoed" (chocolate sugar-goods). The Gil-boat company has incorporated and is ready for manufacture of steel boats in one of the buildings formerly occupied by the Ottawa Furniture company. Numerous improvements have been made at the plant.

Applications for marriage licenses have been issued to Henry Streur, 22, of Holland, and Imogene Helen Johnson, 20, of Chicago; and Fred Schuurman, 33, and Margaret Wiegink, 23, both of Holland.

Dr. and Mrs. Garrett E. Winter of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting at the home of the Misses De Young at 333 Columbus street, Grand Haven. Dr. Winter for the past year has been serving as interne at Long Island College hospital. Mr. Winter formerly lived in Holland.

Mrs. C. Van Zanden, 36 East Nineteenth street, underwent a major operation at the University hospital in Ann Arbor. She is reported doing nicely.

Members of the Highland Park association, Grand Haven, meeting at the Highland Park hotel Saturday night, unanimously agreed not to release a section of Highland Park on the beach to the state conservation department for an extension of the Oval. Mayor Heap was present and stated that upon further investigation of the situation he agreed with the property holders that the beach at that point was too narrow. The association indicated that the majority were in favor of renewing the lease which expires in 1938 for another 20 years. Mr. Heap stated that the privilege of purchasing private lots would probably be given those desiring to do so. It is hoped that this matter will be completed some time during the summer before the end of the season to the satisfaction of all leases of park property.

Benson V. Beneker, son of Gerrit A. Beneker, the artist of Truro, Mass., grandson of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Beneker and a student at Bowdoin college, has been awarded the Horace Lord Piper prize for the best essay by a sophomore on the promotion and maintenance of world peace. These folks are all well known in Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Garret Vander Hill of Holland were guests of Mrs. Mary J. Ashley of Dunningville, Allegan county, Sunday afternoon.

The adjustment administrator announced June 30 further modification of wheat, corn-hog and tobacco contracts to permit planting of fodder corn for forage purposes, on rented or contracted acres in all states. This modification is for forage production only to offset drought shortages of live stock feed, and does not mean any relaxation of fundamental purposes of contracts to adjust production of basic surplus commodities, according to L. R. Arnold, Ottawa county agricultural agent. Mr. Arnold also stated that inspection of fields by field supervisors was finished on July 7 in Ottawa county. As soon as compliance sheets are checked by the wheat section final payments on the 1933 crop will be sent out from the Washington office.

Mr. and Mrs. John Arendshorst spent Monday at their cottage enjoying the fishing.

Aldermen Neal De Cook and Art Drinkwater of the common council, John Jellema, city chemist, and Lane Kammerling, who have returned from Donnerstag, Illinois, where they inspected the municipal sewer disposal plant, are now going into the data of collecting gases which bring about the odoriferous condition at the local plant. Experiments have been conducted by the board of public works whereby a great deal of money can be saved if their method can do the trick. Undoubtedly at the next meeting of the common council all those taking part in this work will give their respective reports.

Kenneth Harkema, rural route 1, Holland, suffered bruises and scratches through a collision with a truck on US-31 at Virginia Park. He was treated at Holland hospital and discharged.

Mrs. James Lyons celebrated her sixty-eighth birthday at Reeds lake, Grand Rapids, when about fifty relatives and friends gathered in honor of the occasion. An enjoyable time was had by those present.

Raymond Schaap will preach at Benthien church on Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Dutch language, and in the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the English language.

A one-man fire department succeeded in extinguishing a fire Monday. Sam Pigenhoef, driver of engine house No. 2, responded alone to a call to a blazing awning at Jean's Shoppe of College avenue, with one of the fire trucks. The awning was completely demolished, but Pigenhoef was able to prevent the building from igniting with a chemical extinguisher.

Approximately 50 members of the Graphic Arts association of western Michigan met in Holland Monday. A dinner served to the delegates at the Holland Country club in the evening concluded the one-day meet.

Two hundred descendants of the VanderBie family of Holland joined in a reunion in the grove at Jamestown. Officers elected were President, Henry VanderBie; vice president, M. Snyder; secretary-treasurer, Alma Heemstra.

Vanden Brink-Arendshorst Marriage Takes Place

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Vanden Brink Friday evening when their daughter, Miss Geneva, became the bride of Mr. Bernard Arendshorst, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Arendshorst. Rev. H. D. Ter Keurst, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, performing the ceremony. Miss Angelina Vanden Brink, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and Miss Elizabeth Arendshorst as bridesmaid, attended the bride, while Rev. Maurice Marcus of Readington, New Jersey, attended Mr. Arendshorst.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white satin, fashioned with long sleeves and short court train, with fine lace trimmings. Her veil of tulle was also banded with lace of rose pattern, matching the dress trimmings, as was the tiny cap to which the veil was caught. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, and swainssona, which like the other floral decorations about the home, were the gift of Mr. E. Freyling of Grand Rapids, a relative of the bridegroom. The bride's attendants were dressed in white swiss dotted with green with decollete neck line and flounced ankle length skirt, and sashes of gold color, with matching footwear.

White and yellow snapdragons, combined with tea roses and baby's breath made up the bouquets each carried.

Music before the ceremony consisted of a violin solo, "O Promise Me," by William Arendshorst, Jr., and vocal solo, "Because," by Miss Gladys Huizenga. Mrs. Theodore Vanden Brink of Fairview, Illinois, sister-in-law of the bride, accompanied both. Mr. Arendshorst rendered "Lohengrin" wedding march as the bridal party took places before an altar improvised of banded palms, lighted tapers in tall candelabra, and tall baskets of Madonna lilies, gladioli and baby's breath.

The bride's mother wore a printed gown of chiffon. Mrs. Arendshorst wore black and white chiffon. Both wore shoulder bouquets of variegated flowers.

Miss Vanden Brink as well as Mr. Arendshorst is a graduate of Holland High school. She has been teaching in Holland public schools for the past year. Mr. Arendshorst attended Harvard university for a time, taking up a course in business administration there.

After a wedding trip the couple will make their home in this city, the groom being employed by the National Discount company here.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's sister, Mrs. H. M. Reynolds, her husband and daughters, Alma and Dorothy of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. F. Krekel of Grand Rapids; Miss Jennie Steketee of Chicago; Rev. and Mrs. Marcus of Readington; Mr. and Mrs. Vanden Brink of Fairview; G. Vanden Berg of Grand Rapids; J. Boongaard of Spring Lake, and Miss Mildred De Pree and Miss Marion Katte of Zeeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cherven and children, Anita, Selma and Donna Joy, and Miss Irene Kary of Holland will visit Mr. and Mrs. Cherven's son, Victor, Jr., at Camp Interlochen. At Interlochen they will visit her son at the CCC camp at Platt lake. Mr. and Mrs. Eschberger will accompany the Chervens. The group has been resorting at Buchanan Beach.

Holland to Choose Pageant of Tulips
(Detroit Free Press)
HOLLAND, July 7.—A contest for the best manuscript depicting the romance of the tulip has been announced as plans for the 1935 Tulip Time festival have been initiated. Mrs. J. E. Telling again has accepted the chairmanship of the Tulip Time committee. It marks the third consecutive time Mrs. Telling has been in charge of the annual affair, which draws thousands of visitors to this city each spring.

The Tulip Time pageant contest is open to adults only who must be residents of Holland or vicinity. The contestants presenting the best manuscript in the opinion of the Tulip Time committee will be rewarded by a cash prize. Contest closes Oct. 1. The presentation will be in pantomime, while the action and progress of the story are to be announced to the audience through amplifiers.

Members of the 1933 Tulip Time committee as announced by Mrs. Telling include: Mayor Nicodemus Bosch, John Van Brant, Alderman Albert Van Lente, William M. Connelly, Eugene F. Hester, Supt. E. M. Fell, Mrs. Gertrude Steketee, R. A. Hoek, Mrs. A. Visser, William C. Vandenbergh, Arthur W. Wrieden, Mrs. C. J. McLean, Vaudie Vandenbergh, John Eaton and John Arendshorst.

BEACH-HOWLETT WEDDING TOOK PLACE WEDNESDAY

Miss Margaret Edna Beach, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Beach, and R. A. Howlett, Jr., son of R. A. Howlett, were married last week, Wednesday, at high noon at the home of Miss Myrtle Beach, aunt of the bride, Rev. T. W. Davidson performing the ceremony.

The wedding took place on the lawn of the Beach home on East Twelfth street, only relatives being present.

The bride, wearing an afternoon gown of navy blue georgette, with white cape collar, and corsage of roses, snapdragons, larkspur and baby's breath, was attended by Mrs. Phillip Vinkemulder of Grand Rapids, sister of the bridegroom, who wore cerise silk crepe, with corsage of sweet peas, daisies and other dainty flowers.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was served to guests in the dining room of Miss Beach's residence. White roses, sweet peas and carnations were used to decorate the table.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Howlett are graduates of Holland High school. Mrs. Howlett also being a graduate of Hope college and having done graduate work at Northwestern university. Mr. Howlett received his degree in chemical engineering from Michigan State college.

The newlyweds will make their home in Holland. Mr. Howlett being employed by the H. J. Heinz company.

THREE RAVENNA BOYS FINISH 12 YEARS SCHOOL TOGETHER

In the Ravenna, Muskegon County, high school graduating there were three boys who have spent their entire school life together from the kindergarten through high school.

The three boys are William Schultz, 18 years old; Raymond Wagner, 16, and Lyle Anderson, 17. All began their school careers in the kindergarten of the Zoll School, Ravenna Township, Sept. 8, 1922, with Miss Blanch Irwin, now Mrs. William White, as their teacher. They took part in the eighth grade graduation exercises at Central Campus auditorium, Muskegon, June 19, 1930.

That summer Raymond moved to Harrisburg but entered Ravenna High School the same September and the three boys went through high school together.

Lyle and Raymond have been active in athletics, being members of Ravenna High School football, basketball and baseball teams. Lyle also has been a member of the track team during his four years in high school and is president of the athletic association.

The fathers of the boys, Elec Schultz, Everett Anderson and the late Rudolph Wagner and Raymond's mother, Mrs. Matthew Diendorf, all received their education at the Zoll School also. Ravenna is located on the Ottawa-Muskegon County boundary line.

SUNDAY DINNER SUGGESTIONS
By ANN PAGE

THERE has been little change either in the selection or price of fruits and vegetables during the past week. Several vegetables which are suitable for stuffing and baking are available, among them squash, cucumbers, tomatoes, egg plant and green peppers. The stuffings may be of seasoned vegetable pulp and bread crumbs, or a combination of these with chopped meat or bacon. Other vegetables such as green and wax beans, carrots, beets and potatoes—may be cooked in the cool of the morning and reheated for dinner service or be served as salads. Green peas and lima beans also help to make attractive and substantial salads. Eggs are moderately priced and, when hard-cooked, turn the vegetable salad into a main dish. Here are three Sunday dinner menus:

Low Cost Dinner
Pressed Beef Potato Salad
Whole Pickled Beets
Bread and Butter
Chocolate Pudding
Tea or Coffee Milk

Medium Cost Dinner
Veal Cutlet Creamed Potatoes
Green Peas Bread and Butter
Green Apple Pie
Coffee (hot or iced) Milk

Very Special Dinner
Stuffed Celery
Roast Beef
New Potatoes Green Beans
Tomato and Lettuce Salad
Peanut Butter Muffins Butter

OIL-FURNACE OWNERS ARE WARNED TO PROVIDE NOW
FOR NEXT WINTER'S SUPPLY

"If you had a hard time getting your furnace oil last winter, watch out!" is the warning being issued today by the Gulf Refining Company. Letters, telegrams, and telephone calls are being delivered to last year's customers with the statement that there will be no difficulty in supplying all homeowners who sign up now, but that it may prove difficult to provide for those who wait until late fall.

Local Gulf representatives admit that they have received numerous letters from customers expressing appreciation that Gulf Furnace Oil trucks got through on time in spite of sub-zero temperatures and blizzards. Extra efforts are being made to take care not only of these veteran customers but also those who have expressed an intention of changing to the Orange trucks that "always get through."

More than a million dollars have already been spent by Gulf in increasing its already huge fleet of trucks. In addition, special training is being given to the men who man the trucks and deliver the oil. Particular emphasis is being made in the letters, telegrams, and telephone calls to customers about Gulf's price protection. If the market price of furnace oil drops, the Gulf contract gives the customer the benefit of the difference. It is also being pointed out that the quality grade of furnace oil is made by the same company which manufactures That Good Gulf Gasoline.

TOOK CRAB 29 YEARS
TRAVELLING CANAL

Despite adverse currents that impede their progress, certain species of crabs occasionally travel from the Mediterranean Sea to the Red Sea, scientists have found, although migration of these crustaceans in the other direction is much more common. When they do make the harder trip, however, their progress is not very rapid. Prof. Gravel of the Paris Museum, who has recently been engaged in a study of the fish of the Suez Canal region, relates one instance in which a crab took 29 years to travel from Port Said through the Suez Canal.

Chief Lievensse Matter Warms Up Council Again

MAYOR BOSCH WANTS BOARD TO MAKE CHARGES PUBLIC
TO STOP RUMORS

The common council meeting last evening ran smoothly despite the intense heat until nearly the conclusion, when a message of Mayor Bosch relating to the discharge of Peter Lievensse as chief of police agitated the aldermen and many of the spectators to such an extent that the heat on the outside and the pent-up emotions on the inside brought rather an intense finish to the otherwise calm deliberations that preceded.

The mayor contends that it is the duty of the police board to express to the public specifically the reasons why the discharge of the chief was for "the good of the service" for by so doing, if the charges were untrue, would allay the nasty rumors that are being circulated maligning the ex-chief and his family. On the other hand if the rumors were true, then it was up to the police board to punish any wrongdoing or irregularities that might have occurred. The message in full is found in connection with this article.

After City Clerk Peterson had read the message, the aldermen were very thoughtful and wanted an explanation. The mayor stated that the message was intended, not only for the chief, but for the police board as well as he felt that they were almost as much involved as was Lievensse, and that these rumors which were still unsubstantiated, were harmful to the city. The mayor called on City Attorney Parsons to give his interpretation of the message, and he stated that he was not making any comment on the message, but that his ruling to the police board and to the council had been sustained by the Circuit Court and if the common council set up a commission of investigation, a sort of a small grand jury one might say, he held that the members of the police board would have to be subjected to questioning if they did not choose to be questioned. He also contended that the questioning of citizens could only be done as to facts, not as to rumor or hearsay. He pointed out that if the common council should appoint such an investigation board, that it would be an expensive undertaking, since a commission would have to be paid, as well as would witnesses, stenographers and other expenses incidental to investigations of that kind.

Mr. Parsons stated that he had not been giving rulings as a matter of preference—he was not taking sides—he was only interpreting the charter as he saw it.

John Van Tatenhove, who was present, made a demand whether a taxpayer was justified in asking for the reasons that brought about the discharge of the chief. Mr. Parsons replied that it wasn't a matter of the taxpayer—that the taxpayer had voted a charter—and from his knowledge of law the charter provided that the chief or any other officer of the police board can be discharged without explanation to the public or to the men the same as in any other enterprise in the city.

"Cubby" Drew, Attorney Tom Mahon and others in the audience were called upon to give their version. There, too, was a difference of opinion.

Relative to the police matter, Alderman Van Lente stated "it seems that we are getting ourselves in deeper and deeper and I am wondering if these investigations are doing any good. Alderman Kalkman says we ought to be able to throw this matter out at a joint meeting of the board of police and fire commissioners and the common council. Alderman De Cook says that we should have access to the police records as an official body of the city, and those records should show the charges if there are any."

Alderman Huyser stated: "I believe we should have a private meeting with the police board to see whether there is any foundation for any charges. I would like to know something about this matter in order that I may put in an intelligent vote when we approve another chief of police."

Through it all the aldermen appeared very uncertain, and while they unanimously adopted the mayor's message, when it came to executing it, as far as the committee of investigation was concerned, they seemed to wish more light, more time, and more definite information as to just what would be involved.

Some of the aldermen, after the message had been passed, wanted to go right ahead and clean the matter up. But before this could be done, Alderman Van Zoeren called for an adjournment which was supported by his colleague, Neal De Cook. This brought some heated argument and a protest from Mayor Bosch, who couldn't understand why the message should be passed and not followed. A yes-and-no vote was called for adjournment, Aldermen Prins, Kleis, Drinkwater and Thompson voting no; Aldermen Kalkman, Van Zoeren, De Cook, Steffens, Damsen, Huyser, Bultman and Van Lente voting for adjournment. The mayor then declared the council adjourned, after which there were many more warm arguments between spectators and city officials.

Mayor Bosch maintains that in case the police commissioners do not see fit to produce such a statement as he asked for in his message, he will have to take the matter to the courts.

The complete message of the mayor follows:

MAYOR'S MESSAGE
July 18, 1934.

TO THE HONORABLE
The Common Council of the City of Holland:

Gentlemen:

For the past eight months or so your Honorable Body as well as

ZEELAND WANTS INDUSTRIES

Upon request of Angus De Kruif, representing the Zeeland Business Men's association, it was unanimously voted that the mayor of Zeeland appoint a council committee to work with a committee of the business men in an endeavor to induce new industries to locate in that city. Mayor De Pree appointed such a committee Aldermen Hall and Brill.

COUNCIL NOTES

Alderman Huyser led the aldermen in prayer.

The cleaning of the Padnos junk yards between Fifth and Sixth streets on Central avenue will be left to the civic improvement committee. The matter was again brought up by Alderman Drinkwater and sustained by Mayor Bosch, who wanted action soon.

Alderman Huyser, chairman of the ordinance committee, gave notice that there would soon be some important changes in the milk ordinance and also that progress was slowly but surely being made on the traffic ordinance, which was a big job. What the milk ordinance changes would be was not made clear at this time.

Bids for steel shelving for the new vault in the city hall were accepted and filed. The cost will be $53.70.

The police department reports that 371 scales in the city have been inspected; 2 were condemned and 3 ordered repaired. This seems a fine record when it comes to honest weights and measures.

Holland has been asked to pay to the Ottawa county welfare department $1,000 a month or $12,000 a year and besides approximately $3,000 for hospitalization of patients. It is considered that Holland is being averaged up with other communities in Ottawa county. All welfare work is being done today through the county unit and Holland does not take care of its own welfare work as heretofore. The ways and means committee will investigate the amount, the method and the hospital fees necessary, and undoubtedly will report favorably. This system is saving the city considerable money over the amounts formerly paid when we assumed the burdens alone.

Sheriffs Ben Rozema of Ottawa county and Miller of Allegan county sent in long communications extolling the fine qualities and abilities of former Chief Peter Lievensse, conveying the excellent co-operation they had received at the hands of the police department and urged the council to make it possible to have Mr. Lievensse retained. No comments were made by the aldermen, but the documents were filed.

During tax time when the city treasurer has considerable money, he will be accompanied by policemen. The ways and means committee have been authorized to investigate insurance through banks and otherwise as an added protection. Aldermen Prins, Kleis and De Cook constitute this committee.

Alderman Prins, chairman of the ways and means committee, brought in a well-written report of their trip to Donner's Grove, Illinois, where the committee inspected the sewer plant which is much the same as the one in Holland. The report was very complete and gave the aldermen considerable intelligent information that is helping to solve the odorous condition in the Second ward.

MAYOR BOSCH HONORARY MEMBER IN OTTAWA BEEKEEPERS' ASSOCIATION

Beekeepers of Ottawa county met at C. H. Barnard's farm on Lake drive near Holland July 11. Mr. Jay Cowing of Jenison put on a demonstration on requeening of bees and supering of colonies. Professor Kelly of U. S. C. discussed factors which determine prices; also value of beekeepers' organizations. In his discussion Mr. Kelly pointed out factors which tend to hold down the price of honey. He stated that after a study of conditions in Michigan and other states in the honey sections honey production in 1934 will be far below normal. Fowl brood and unusual cold weather last winter have cut down the number of colonies.

As a result of Mr. Kelly's discussion an Ottawa county beekeepers' association was formed. Mr. N. J. Smith of Coopersville was elected president and Mr. Barnard of Holland, vice president, with Ed Blink, secretary and treasurer.

Mayor Bosch of Holland, who was present, was voted in as an honorary member of the association. Mayor Bosch has always taken a live interest in bee keeping, having had much to do with bees in his youth while on the farm near Vriesland, and later he also had a small colony of honey bees.

A drive is now being put on to increase membership in the state association. Jay Cowing of Jenison is president of the association in which Ottawa county is listed. Plans are being made to have a series of meetings throughout the county.

SCHROTENBOER REUNION TO BE TUESDAY, JULY 24

The annual reunion of the Schrotenboer family will take place on Tuesday, July 24. The place selected this year is that known as Dozeman's Woods located one-half mile west of Drenthe on the road leading out east from Holland on Sixteenth street.

The picnic as usual will be of the old-fashioned family basket variety so much enjoyed by all, folks coming before noon and staying until noon and evening.

Holland Boat Wins Venetian Evening Prize

"DUTCH" VANDER SCHEL AND
DUTCH SHIP CARRY HOME
$25.00 IN CASH

It was a gala night in Saugatuck Wednesday evening when the community staged its annual Venetian pageant on the waters of Kalamazoo lake. It was a water carnival of unusual merit in which a score of craft, scintillating with light, were again reflected in the smooth waters of the bay.

A feature was the centerpiece of three floats anchored in mid stream around which passed the parade of gaily decorated and illuminated yachts, cruisers, Sea Scout craft, canoes and other vessels.

The center float was an immense heart nearly 25 feet high on which appeared the inscription, "Saugatuck and Douglas, Heart of the Michigan Playground." In the center of the heart stood Miss Eleanor Koning dressed in a flowing white robe.

To the right was a huge red apple, representing Fennville, home of the red apple, with Miss Hutchinson of Fennville in the center and to the left was an immense wooden shoe, representing Holland.

First prize for the best decorated ship, decorated by "Dutch" Vander Schel, was awarded to Holland; second award was divided three ways, between the Arapahoe and Badger of the Chicago Yacht club and the Saugatuck Sea Scouts, and third prize went to the canoe entered by Miss Jessie Veits of Saugatuck.

Relative to the Holland fishing "sloop" which won the first prize of $25, the judges had little difficulty in making their selection, and the constant applause of the audience indicated from the first that the Holland craft stood in great favor. "Dutch" Vander Schel had arranged his boat, "The Holland" with a large window on the prow and the entire craft was decorated with Dutch lanterns and other embellishments with a Dutch aspect. What was more, there were five couples, namely Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ash, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vos, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hyma, Mr. and Mrs. Don Zwemer, and "Dutch" and "Grietje" Vander Schel, all of whom were arrayed in authentic Dutch costumes typical of Volendam.

Augmenting this Dutch picture were two young folks, namely Bud Van Lier and Miss Betty Chapman, the one playing a $500 accordion, "and could he play?" and Miss Betty Chapman who sang appropriate songs, "and could she sing?" Anyway, the augmenting of these two young artists added considerable to the charm of this Venetian exhibit.

Rather unusual was the fact that four of the men who were passengers were former Sea Scout skippers of ship No. 18 of Holland. It is about five years ago that they left "skipping" of Scouts and during their career, they were instrumental in pulling down prizes repeatedly, and apparently they haven't forgotten how to be instrumental in having history repeat itself.

Another feature from Holland that brought much praise was the Sea Scout boat containing a large Rotary emblem, electrically lighted. Sea Scouting is being fostered by the Holland Rotary club and the craft at Saugatuck, manned by oarsmen in Sea Scout regalia presented a pretty sight skimming over the waters of the Kalamazoo.

A large rowboat from Holland contained a unique feature in the form of a wooden shoe in white with "Holland" in gold lettering.

The Holland delegation, when they arrived in Saugatuck, were taken in charge by Captain Walker, manager of Camp Gray, who had a bus in waiting to take the Dutch couples to camp where a nice spread was prepared for the Hollanders. The entire party regaled with Dutch songs with accordion accompaniment.

Undoubtedly Saugatuck entertained the largest crowd since the Centennial celebration in 1930. The "jam" was tremendous with the big pavilion as the pivotal point. Holland had a large representation, in fact the city streets here were rather dull last evening since a motorcycle of cars simply lined up along to accept the hospitality of our next-door neighbor.

GRADE HERD LEADS IN ALLEGAN COUNTY

The 13-cow grade Holstein herd on the farm of Joseph Weber & Sons near Byron Center was the high herd in the Allegan Herd Improvement association in June. Its average production for the month was 1,106 pounds of milk and 38.7 pounds of butterfat per cow.

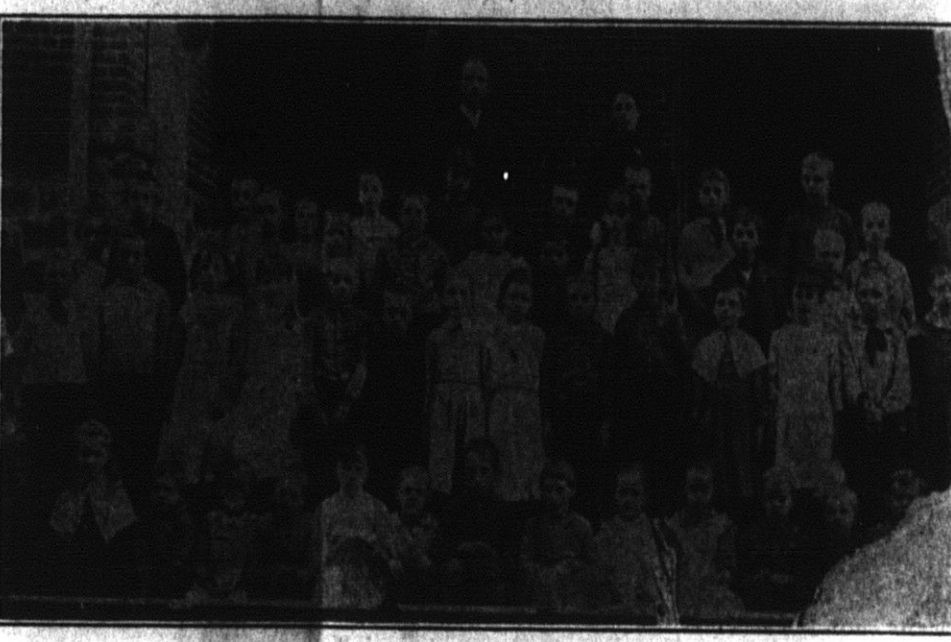

Second high herd was owned by Gottlieb Brenner of Shelbyville. His nine grade Shorthorn and Guernsey cows averaged 846 lbs. of milk and 38.8 lbs. of fat.

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The steamer Macatwa has carried on the average of 200 passengers daily to and from the park at the harbor's mouth during the last month. At 25 cents each this would be $50.00 per day and Capt. Hopkins is happy.

Lake perch are being caught by the thousands at the resorts.

George H. Souter is the agent to deliver to Holland fine fresh Kalamazoo celery and his downtown headquarters will be in the meat market of DeKraker & Dok, River St. Note: That was when celery first became a table delicacy.

Today Holland and vicinity have the very finest celery fields, covering thousands of acres. North and east of this city, as well as Hudsonville, Hamilton, Fennville and other localities close in around with celery fields and special trucking arrangements bring the product to the Chicago and Detroit markets. Mr. Souter was one of the leading figures in Holland twenty-five years ago. He was supervisor for many years and was a well informed horticulturist and sold nursery stock. The DeKraker & Dok market was located on the same site as the new DeKraker and DeKoster building.

The water works contractors have been busy this week after the mains were laid to set fire hydrants on River St., Market St., Cedar St., and Main St. Note: Our water works system was just being built 50 years ago. The streets in question were River, Central, and Colleges Aves., and 8th St. All cross streets were changed to avenues some 25 years ago. Those going east and west remained streets. 8th St. was called Main because it was the main street and not after the state of Maine as a few uninformed often believe. Until some of the streets were renamed, these were often named after trees by the pioneers, undoubtedly because these were the most common trees here in the lumber days. While Cedar St. has become College Ave., because Hope is located on it, we still have Pine and Maple. It was at the suggestion of the News some 25 years ago that Land St., which was meaningless, was changed to Lincoln Ave. This was done on the 100th anniversary of the martyred president's birth.

Our wagon manufacturer, Jacob Flieman, on River St., reports the making and sale of 37 wagons since March 9. Note: Mr. Flieman was a fine old gentleman of pioneer stock. He established the Wesleyan Methodist church in Holland, was "dead against" the liquor traffic and was one of the best bee men, trappers and hunters in Ottawa county. He went deer hunting annually until he became a very old man.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Benjamin H. Kamferbeek, foreman at De Hope Publishing Co.'s printing office, on the college campus, was presented with $35.00 in gold by the firm. The gift was in commemoration of his 35 years of continuous service for the firm. Dr. J. H. Karsten made the presentation speech. The recipient of this handsome gift is the brother of Holland Chief of Police, Fred Kamferbeek. Note: Mr. Kamferbeek is still a printer 25 years later and is at present on the Holland City

News staff. Altogether he has been "clicking type" for 60 years and is the oldest printer in length of service and in age in this city today. He started as a "printer's devil" at 11 years.

The girl who lost two $50 bills through a hole in her stocking has learned that a stitch in time saves one hundred. Note: Not bad for 25 years ago. But then again when they don't wear a stitch, where will you save a stitch?

Here is another: The new Dutch baby is going to be very important as long as she has no little brother. Note: This joke conveys a great deal more at this time, first that Princess Julianna is now 25 years old and, second, that she has no little brother and is not likely to have any; third, that she may be the queen of the Netherlands some day.

The marriage of Miss Carrie Blunk, 18th and Pine Sts., to Rev. William Rottechaer is reported. The bride came from East Saugatuck last fall. The marriage was performed by Rev. Henry Veldman of First Reformed church. The groom has a charge in Oak Harbor, Wash.

A singing organization called the "Treble Clef" has been started in Holland with Prof. J. Jans Helder as director. Chorus music written for women's voices will be sung. The club will give concerts and there will be pleasant rivalry between the ladies and the Wagner chorus, a men's chorus, also directed by Mr. Helder. The officers of the "Treble Clef" are: President, Phila Ederle; secretary, Fannie Belt; treasurer, Jennie Brouwer; directors, Mrs. U. F. DeVries, Mrs. Charles B. Scott, Mrs. D. F. Snyder.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Adrian Arendsma, aged 50 years, was smothered in a cave-in while a sewer was being laid near the Bush & Lane Piano Co. The man was dead when uncovered from the earth. Coroner Thomas Robinson impounded the following jurors: John Du Mez, Percy Ray, Jacob Hoeker, J. M. Cramer, John Bosman and S. Verberg, who reported accidental death.

The News devotes a column to the building of the finest garage in western Michigan by Peter Dulyea and Martin Vander Bie at the corner of River Ave. and 9th St., to cost more than $40,000. The garage will be named "The Wolverine." Note: Just recently Dulyea-Vander Bie disposed of the building and on June 1st the Chevrolet Service Co., Mr. W. R. Pemberton, manager, remodeled the building and is now located there.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. John M. Rodger at the home of Hon. G. J. Diekema in Holland—a daughter, named Miss Mary Alcott Rodger. Mrs. Rodger was formerly Miss Marguerite Diekema, oldest daughter of the congressman.

Miss Marian De Pree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. De Pree, has returned from a trip to the Philippines, Japan and China. The young lady had as her traveling companion Miss Marie Kinkelin of California, who, on her return, became the bride of Mr. Hunter Robbins in San Francisco. Mr. Robbins is the son of Nathaniel Robbins, Sr., of Grand Haven.

HARLEM

Mrs. Arend Brouwer of Harlem was hostess at a shower Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Gertrude, who soon is to become a bride. The evening was spent in playing bunnos. Those present besides the guest of honor and the hostess were Mrs. Clarence Brouwer, Mrs. William Brouwer, Mrs. Dick Brouwer, Mrs. Martin Van Dyke, Mrs. Lawrence Dams, Misses Betty Nienhuis, Kathryn Brouwer, Gertrude De Vries, Marion Kruidhof, Marie Bazan, Lucille Kamphuis and Jessie Van Kampen. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Arend Brouwer and Mrs. Clarence Brouwer.

TWO FILLMORE MEN HAVE ACCIDENTS

Henry C. Ruescher of Fillmore while training a young horse sustained an injury to his leg Saturday, and now infection has set in which may prove serious. Albert Vander Wall also of Fillmore, sustained a broken arm when he fell after a dizzy spell. He will be laid up for some time with his arm in a splint.

Painters Leave City Happy; Had Fine Time

TWO HUNDRED PAINTERS
AND DECORATORS GATH-ER HERE IN ANNUAL

For the past three days a great many strangers and their wives were seen about the city, in our public parks, at our bathing beaches and in our stores. They represented the Michigan Council of Master Painters and Decorators. Badges fluttered from coat lapels, and these were augmented by the official badge of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, representing a small disc with real, tiny wooden shoes attached. More than 200 of these were doled out. The visitors may have been strangers 3 days ago, but today they are friends, loud in their praises of Holland, the wonderful hospitality, the many avenues of recreation, in city, at the resorts, and on the golf links. It is the universal cry, "We're coming to Holland again."

Headquarters for the week were at Warm Friend Tavern, and genial Bill Connelly, as usual, was the "greeter," and our mayor, Mr. Bosch, gave a hearty welcome at the opening session in the ball room of the Tavern, and by the way, this latter came in for a great deal of praise and many were surprised to find that Holland had such a wonderful hotel. It wasn't here when they were here before.

All week there were business sessions interspersed with recreational periods at the Country club, where the ladies were entertained, at Macatwa Yacht club and also a fish dinner at Saugatuck. There were also many side trips in and about the city and resorts, and the Holland committee surely did their best to make excellent arrangements which were followed out on time and as arranged.

On Monday the state executive board of which Mr. B. F. Kammeraad is a member, met in the evening. On Tuesday the convention was called to order in the morning when Mayor Bosch gave the address of welcome and reply was made by President of the organization, W. C. Conrad. Rev. Henry Ter Keurst of Trinity church spoke the invocation, after which "America" was sung by the audience.

Wednesday morning's session was the big event when seven speakers of state and national fame spoke on subjects of interest to painters and decorators. Thursday morning was the time set for different committees to report. There were seven of them, and it was a long session. Included was the election of officers, the election of delegates to the international convention and the selection of the city to have the next year's convention. The city selected is Pontiac.

The wives of the delegates attended a luncheon at the Macatwa Bay Yacht club Tuesday noon, following a boat ride to the resort. Tuesday evening the entire delegation went to Saugatuck for another outing and a fish dinner at Hotel Saugatuck. The evening at Saugatuck included dancing and motion pictures at the pavilion.

The final session was held this morning with the election of the following officers: L. S. Hazen of Saginaw, president, succeeding W. C. Conrad of Ypsilanti; George Elmont of Muskegon, vice president to succeed Mr. Hazen; E. C. Botzing of Detroit, secretary; Mr. Conrad, retiring president, was named as the state member to the international board, replacing Gerrit Bunk, and Charles Reintgen of Kalamazoo was appointed delegate (Continued on Page Four)

$13.17 FOR SQUIRRELS IN CENTRAL PARK GOES TO PARK BOARD FUNDS

A fund of $13.17 collected in 1923 by the late D. J. Cable for the support of squirrels in Central park at Grand Haven was turned over to the park board by Dr. Edward Hofma, who has been in charge of the fund for many years.

The money was collected when squirrels were very popular and numbers of them were brought into the park which formed a part of the natural interests of that section. It was later found the little animals were very destructive and their popularity waned.

At any rate the fund was never used and the park board funds to be used for public improvement.

SCOUT BOAT COMES TO HOLLAND

The Sea Scout cutter "Red Heron," built by Grand Haven ship in 1926, will be sent to Holland where it will be taken over by ship 18 of this city.

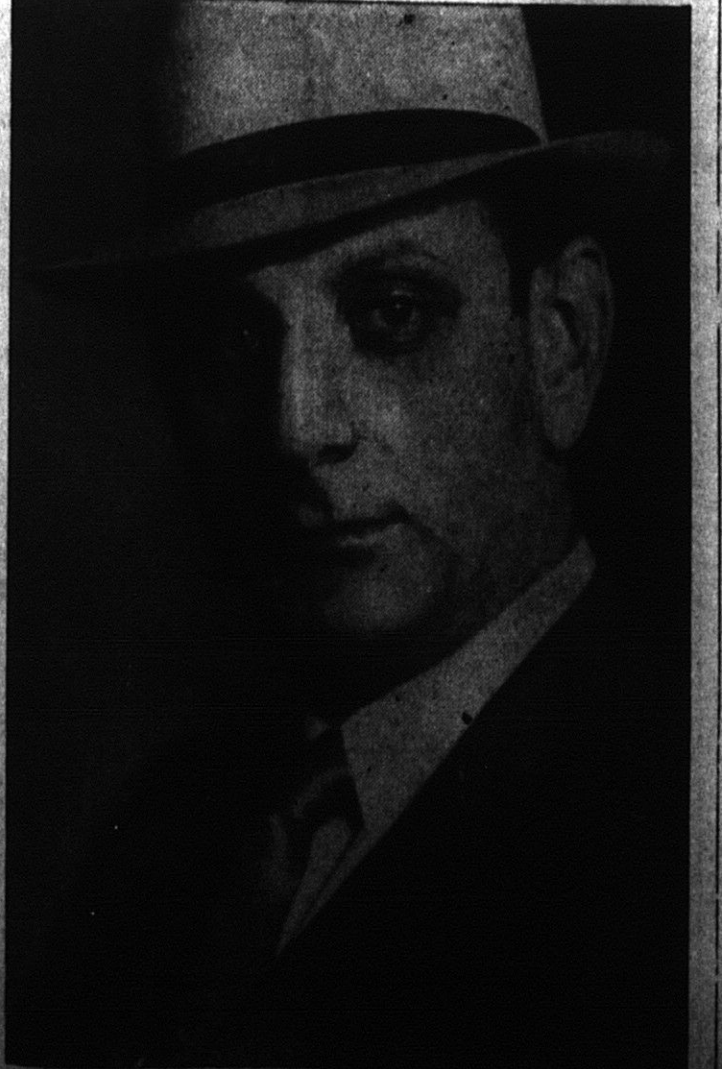

During the centennial at Grand Haven next month there will be a Sea Scout day when Sea Scouts from all over Michigan will come to help Grand Haven celebrate. The exact date has not been set. The Sea Scouts of Grand Haven will have charge of the swimming and boat events during the celebration.

TRUCK DRIVERS SIGN MINIMUM RATES, REPORT

Several truck owners who have been out of work since the walking-out several days ago on the M-50 project, have signed their minimum rates with the code authorities which correspond to the $1 per hour rate which has been paid by the Ottawa county road commission. The misunderstanding regarding the rates caused 24 truck owners to pull out of the county work and several on city jobs—Grand Haven Tribune.

A cat ordinance similar to the existing dog ordinance for Grand Haven will be drafted for future action, following a suggestion made by the city manager that residents here be given relief from a large number of cats that are annoying. Mr. Kammeraad stated within a short time about 60 complaints had come to him on the matter.

EXTENDED AREA

The death of Frank Salisbury, able officer, claimed a man who became known throughout Ottawa, Muskegon, Newaygo, Oceana counties and many other parts of Michigan as one of the pioneers in conservation activities, one who labored to educate people as to the great need of protecting fish and game and more officers were better and more courageous in this work. He entered the service when conservation laws were a new thing and difficult to enforce, especially among farmers and those accustomed to hunting and fishing when and where they would. That was in 1913. He remained with the department until July 15, 1931, when he retired at 62 years and since has lived in Grand Haven.

He became ill nine weeks ago and the end came Friday afternoon following a series of strokes which he suffered. Born on a farm in Jackson county, June 2, 1868, he came to Ottawa county when an infant with his parents, who settled in Georgetown. He attended the rural schools and continued to live on the farm until appointed under sheriff until 1909 and continued to serve until Cornelius Andre, his

Second Ward Stench To Be Eliminated

One pleasing change to come up to the council last evening was the vexing odor question concerning the sewer disposal plant in the Second ward. The committee headed by Alderman Prins who had gone to Donner's Grove, Illinois, gave an excellent report on a plan much similar to the one in Holland. This report was augmented by another report whereby the board of public works will take the first steps toward odor elimination arising from the sewer disposal plant. The cost to install gas burners which will do away with at least 95 per cent of the odor will be $15,000, and the biggest part of the nuisance will have been dealt with.

The Donners Grove committee, consisting of Aldermen Prins, De Cook, Drinkwater, and Mayor Bosch and City Chemist John Jellama, met with the board of public works last Monday, and the members of the board headed by James De Young, explained the entire plan, a subject to which they had given much thought for some time. In explaining the attitude of the board, Mayor Bosch stated:

"I want to tell you gentlemen that to me it has been a pleasure to meet with the board of public works as it always is. These painstaking men headed by their able chairman, James De Young, have gone into this vexing question thoroughly. I personally know very little of the technical knowledge as to what is required. I only know the odor is there and I know that members of the board of public works and staff are solving the problem that has been so trying. We must follow them with complete confidence. They have always given the mayor and common council the utmost consideration, and in this and other questions the outcome has always been pleasing and satisfactory."

Mr. Bosch then called upon Mr. John Jellama, city chemist, who has been doing considerable work in tracing the odor. He made a comparison between the Donners Grove plant and the Holland plant. He told how in Donners Grove the plant was covered, the odors were caught, the gases burned and the best used to heat buildings with. He stated that at that plant there is no complaint even within 300 feet of the plant. He said that the board of public works plan was the first and best step, and that it was a complete unit, helping and not interfering with any further improvements that might be made, and eventually would save the city money.

Alderman Bultman remarked that all the odors were not due to the city disposal plant, but much of it was from rotting vegetable matter in the swamps. Jellama stated that at the bridge the odors were swamp odors, but at Third street the sewer disposal plant was to blame. Here Mayor Bosch injected that not alone must the sewer disposal condition be cleaned up, but if we are to have a real clean city, the pit of stench at the head of the bay must also be cleaned out, and not until then will that part of the city be a wholesome place to live in and a pleasant place to pass through. Alderman Prins, supported by Alderman Prins, moved that the plan of the board of public works be accepted and approved and that the matter be financed by either the board or the city to be adjusted later.

Forest Homesteads?

Regional Forester E. W. Tinker, of Milwaukee, believes that the government's plans to establish subsistence homesteads for rural families on relief can be fitted into federal forestry programs in Michigan and Wisconsin with little trouble.

National forests in this state need 2,200 part-time workers to keep them in productive condition, he says, and 3,700 such workers in Wisconsin. In Michigan 5,275 families living within or adjacent to national forest areas received relief last year, and 1,815 families in Wisconsin were so situated.

If the money used for relief could be spent according to the homestead plan, families selected from these groups could be provided with a home, ground for garden, fruit, chickens, a cow and six months cash income from work in the forest. The revenue later to be derived from the forests would justify the investment, in Mr. Tinker's belief, and enable the persons taken into the scheme to pay back the cost of the homestead.

If the homestead project is practical at all, this variation of it would seem worth looking into. It might have the added advantage that in some cases the proposed subsistence communities could be located where it would not be necessary for all of the families to move from homes they now occupy.

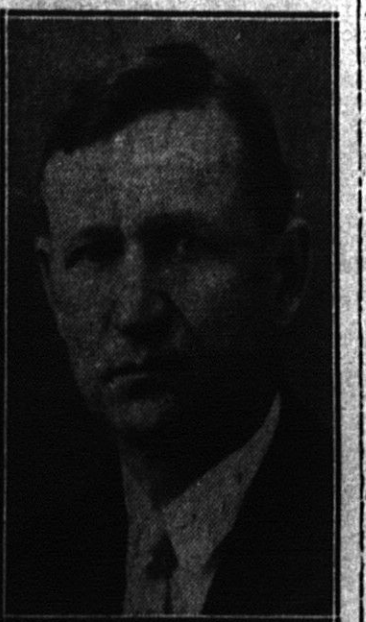

A HIRED MAN NEEDED

To the Voters of the Fourth Congressional District:

You need at Washington, not a politician nor the perpetual office seeker, but one who will be your employee, one who will endeavor to lower your taxes, assure to every one security under the law and work, not for the things he might desire, but for the things you want. In other words, you want a hired man, one who will carry out your wishes and serve your needs.

It is a lawyer's business to secure for his clients the rights and privileges to which they are entitled.

To do this successfully he must know some law, but, above all else, he must be willing to work unceasingly and that with but one object in mind—the interests of his client.

It is impossible to see every voter in the district. Ask your circuit or probate judge, any county official, any lawyer you may know who may happen to know me, whether I am honest, have the ability and faithfully serve those I represent, and, if you find that I am competent and faithful and you desire that kind of representation in Washington, let me have your vote at the Primary.

Respectfully,
CLARE E. HOFFMAN

DON'T PICK UP WILD BABIES—MANY DIE IN CAPTIVITY

Reports are reaching the American Game association that vacationists are picking up fawns, baby squirrels, rabbits, birds and other babies of the wild and taking them home with them.
In most states this practice is strictly against the law and one can be prosecuted for taking wild life in his possession without license, the association points out. Most of the people who capture these helpless babies believe they are doing a kindness, for they find them apparently abandoned. They are not! They have been left in hiding by parents out foraging for food for them, and like human babies, disloyal and begin wandering about. The parents will find them upon returning to the hiding places and take care of them far better than any human can, no matter how kind-hearted.
Many of these babies die because they cannot stand captivity or for the want of elements contained in wild foods. So, if one would really be kind to the babies, LEAVE THEM ALONE!

GUARANTEE OF DEPOSITS PER PERSON IN ANY ONE BANK IS NOW $5,000

Senator Arthur Vandenberg has many things to his credit. He has been a recognized factor in Washington from the day he arrived eight years ago. Had Mr. Vandenberg done nothing more than make possible the guarantee of bank deposits, so ardently fostered by him for more than four years, and which at last has become a fact, he has done this country a service which the citizens can never repay.

The Holland City News is in receipt of the Congressional Record in which several columns appear giving Senator Vandenberg's plea in his fight for guarantee of bank deposits, which now has been signed by President Roosevelt and has become a law.

In answering critics and strong opposition on the floor of the senate, Mr. Vandenberg said in part as follows:

"Mr. President, I desire briefly to analyze the charges in this editorial and dismiss them on the basis of the facts involved.
"In the first place, I submit that it is nothing short of ridiculous to base any criticism of the effectiveness of federal deposit insurance upon the assumption that two banks have closed in six months. Suppose they have? What of it? I should like to know when there has ever been another six months period in the history of the whole American republic when only two banks closed. If any emphasis is to be put upon the fact that two banks have closed between New Years and the present hour, the emphasis belongs upon the fact that it is an amazing record in a restoration of public confidence and in a renewal of dependable banking operations.
"Mr. President, six months ago, year-end throughout the period preceding the failure of two banks in the United States would have sent tremors of concern and anxiety, yea, almost hysteria, through the banking fraternity, and depositors in other banks throughout the areas involved would have begun to whisper among themselves as to whether they had not better proceed quietly to extract their savings from the bank.
"Here today we have two institutions closed. Not a tremor anywhere in the balance of the system, not an hour's uncertainty in the heart of any other banking institution, not a thought of a run upon another banking institution, not a moment's loss of sleep by any depositor in another institution.
"Why not? Because of federal deposit insurance, and nothing else.
"Mr. President, I am concerned about what seems to be a continuing willingness in some quarters to use, if possible, prejudicial excuses for the purpose of trying to tear down the federal deposit insurance system in the country. Since it is my profound conception that when we tear down that system upon which the steel beam upon which rests in this country, because that is my conviction I consider it to be desperately important that no improper inferences aimed against the federal deposit insurance corporation, and the dependability and the solvency of the system, should pass without challenge.
"In conclusion, let me say just this, and I linger on the subject only because of my belief that there is nothing more essential than the maintenance of banking confidence in the United States, that we cannot maintain banking confidence except as we maintain the integrity of the federal deposit insurance Corporation and the integrity of the system under which it operates.
"This is the 'meat' of Mr. Vandenberg's defense of the guarantee of deposit insurance upon the floor of the senate. There has been opposition among certain money holders in the East and among a few of the eastern newspapers who made much of two small bank failures in the entire United States in six months where thousands failed six months previous. The attack, however, did not avail, thanks to Mr. Vandenberg who has defended this safeguard for bank deposits most strenuously.

You all know what happened since, and instead of $2,500 guarantee per person, the government guarantee now is $5,000 per depositor in any one bank. It now means that any one depositor in the three Holland banks is today absolutely insured through guarantee up to $15,000. Depositors can also be assured that banks must be worthy of this guarantee or the government would not grant them this all-important safeguard. Banks in Holland and Ottawa county undoubtedly are on a stronger financial footing today than they have been in a decade, since the 'chaff' has been winnowed from the wheat."

Guarantee of bank deposits have brought a flood of money to banks throughout the country. Holland's banks have shared in this, which is conclusive evidence that confidence has returned which is a good omen that augurs better times ahead for this vicinity.

NINE SLOT MACHINES IN N. OTTAWA NABBED BY SHERIFF'S DEPT.

The sheriff's officers made a raid last night on slot machine owners and confiscated nine of them from the northern part of Ottawa county.

The sheriff has made several raids of the kind and has about eighteen of the "money teasers" stored in the basement. He expects to demolish them at one time after which they will be sold for junk. The machines are of many kinds, some of them of the expensive type. Some had money in at the time which all goes into the general confiscation pot.

Warnings issued last spring cleared out many of the machines, but they have been gradually increasing until Sheriff Rosema ordered his men to clean them out.

Yes! We protect our members and policy holders from financial loss against the times, which would otherwise cause severe hardship and a reasonable care be exercised to reduce fire hazards and prevent seasonal causes that result in fire, especially as in dry and drought periods.

Assets and resources total more than One-Quarter Million Dollars. Premiums and assessment payments are arranged to suit your convenience. Assessments are levied on the anniversary of each policy which brings in a current daily income from which to pay losses. This feature protects our surplus for use only in extreme emergency. Credits are allowed for lightning rods, approved fire extinguishers, and dwellings having fire resisting roofs. An effective system of inspection is maintained in the interest of members to reduce fire hazards, over-insurance and unwarranted risks. Full co-operation with members in prompt adjustments and settlements of legitimate losses. Our Policies accepted by Federal Land Bank, St. Paul, Home Owners' Loan Corporation, and other Loan Agencies.

Pioneer Game Warden Dies; Ill Long Time

father-in-law, from 1909 to 1913. He was appointed in 1913 as a game warden and he recalled that there were many raccoon along the creeks of Robinson township and wild turkey was even to be had. He used to say that the trapping laws were most consistently broken due to commercializing of furs, the most common violation being the setting of muskrat traps too close to the house which did not give game a chance.

He was enthusiastic over such organizations as the Izaak Walton League, the Holland Game Club and the various fish and game clubs where education in the preservation of wild life of Michigan was promoted and members cooperated with the wardens to keep the law.

For many years he was one of the state wardens to go to the upper peninsula during the deer hunting season. He was always emphatically against fur spearing, as it results, he believed, in too many of the game fish being taken. He entered the state employ as a field man and was assigned to many parts of the state not only to see that the conservation laws were enforced but to assist in forest fire control. In 1920 he became district deputy. During this time he was responsible for the erection of four fire towers, two in Newaygo county and two at Twin Lakes and Blue Lake, Muskegon county. When the districts became rearranged he was made the local conservation officer.

He was known for his efficiency and his work with the department has been repeatedly praised by those higher up. He was a slight man, rugged, and enjoyed perfect health due, he always said, to the outdoor life he led. His knowledge of woodcraft, wild life and Michigan hunting areas was extensive.

Mr. Salisbury was well known by all sportsmen in Holland and came to this city often as a game warden. He advised local men interested in conservation and always gave his full cooperation.

Surviving is the widow, two sons, Frank, Jr., and Warren, and three daughters, Mrs. Lawrence DeWitt, wife of the chief of police here; Mrs. Elmer Westerhof, and Mrs. Frank Wilberg, all of this city, and a brother, Charles Salisbury, who lives in this city, a former deputy sheriff of this county.

Memorial services for Frank Salisbury were held from the home on Monday at 2 p. m. The house was filled to capacity with friends of the deceased and many who knew him as an official of the state conservation department.

Rev. Leonard Greenway officiated at the home and the Masons were in charge at the grave in Allendale cemetery, where the deceased was buried.

PAINTERS LEAVE CITY HAPPY; HAD FINE TIME

to the international convention. Frank Kammeraad of Holland remains a member of the state executive board.

The banquet last evening at Warm Friend Tavern was the high light in the affair. Although Sherman Rogers was on the program to speak, this orator of national note found that it was impossible to be present, and DeLoss Walker of New York City, a speaker equally as able as his discourse proved, was substituted.

Mr. Connelly, manager of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, was the toastmaster of the evening and surely Bill made a hit with his dry wit and pointed take-off on the rest of the speakers and many well-known men in the audience. The menu was par excellence, as only the Tavern cooking staff can make it.

After Mr. Connelly had presented several delegates in which he was aided by Ben Tilma, national promoter of the Dutch Boy lead paint, he introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Mr. Walker.

Mr. Walker urged the resumption of public credit and an abiding faith in the backbone of business. He asserted the highest award is human intelligence. "All the essentials to prosperous living, the human desires for commodities, the national wealth it creates, it takes human intelligence to convert this wealth into what will satisfy our desires," said Mr. Walker.

"All these are as much in our hands and under our control at present as they ever were, and we can realize on them when personal responsibilities for conditions are recognized, and individual and not governmental strides are taken to restore business to its former level."

As a step towards this restoration of public confidence, Mr. Walker suggested reclaiming our honest bankers and public officials for their conscientious work—not applying to them the stigma of dishonesty in reality reflected in only a few of their number, and for which the large majority who are homeless have and are suffering. Finally, Mr. Walker urged the development of character and the consequent evolution of prosperity by immediate positive leadership, and not by policy or vacillation or procrastination.

"Let us have prosperity now by each doing our part," said Mr. Walker as he closed.

Short addresses were given by William Downie of Cleveland, Burdette of Flatbush, New York, and W. C. Conrad of Ypsilanti, president of the Michigan council of the international society of Master Painters and Decorators.

Mr. Conrad expressed her gratitude to the members of the committee who had had in charge the entertainment of the women.

In charge of Miss Ethelyn Metz, the musical entertainment consisted of several songs by William Vander Ven, soloist, and in duet with Vernon Roofloft, by another duet by Mrs. Charles V. Miller, and Mrs. Henry Weller, and by the four in a mixed quartet accompanied by Mrs. Martha Robbins.

The program follows: Invocation, Rev. H. D. Ter Keurst, pastor Trinity church, Holland; introduction of toastmaster, Bertel Slaght, president Holland Master Painters and Decorators' association; response of toastmaster, William M. Connelly, manager Holland Chamber of Commerce; remarks, W. C. Conrad, Michigan Council International Society of Master Painters and Decorators; mixed Dutch sextet, Robbins, Weller, Miller, Roofloft, Vandervien and Metz; address, Mr. DeLoss Walker of New York City; 15 minutes intermission; dancing, Bill Delloy's orchestra.

Chief Lieveuse Matter Warms Up Council Again

myself, have been confronted with the serious controversy existing between the police board and the chief of police, Mr. Peter Lieveuse. This difficulty was first called to my attention last fall at which time serious charges were made against the chief. At a hearing which was held before the police board on November 2, 1933, I took the position which I have followed consistently to the present moment, that if the board could show justifiable, verified reasons why Mr. Lieveuse should be removed as chief of police, that I would not oppose them, but instead would support them in their demands for his removal.

At this particular hearing every charge presented to the police board against the chief was proved to be in error, and Chief Lieveuse was fully exonerated.

I wish to make it very plain to you as I have argued consistently through this whole controversy, that I am not fighting this battle as a personal fight for Mr. Lieveuse as against the police board, but for the principle involved that no individual should be removed from office without reasons having been proven for such removal, and on the further basis that such controversies are not good for the best interests of the city. These are the principles which I shall always follow regardless of individual, color or creed, and are the principles upon which our government was founded.

I had hoped that as the complete vindication of Mr. Lieveuse at this hearing that the difficulty between the police board and the chief of police had been ended. However, as the result of the recent action of the police board in demanding the chief's resignation, giving the "good of the service" as their reason, I was again faced with an identical situation as before with the serious exception that the discharge of the chief in this manner not only left Mr. Lieveuse under a serious cloud of suspicion as a result of the previous controversy, but also threw the same cloud of suspicion upon the entire efficiency and workings of our police department.

I immediately took such steps as I believed were necessary to protect both Mr. Lieveuse and the City of Holland against unfair insinuations which rumor has created throughout the city. These rumors are hurting not only Mr. Lieveuse, but also the police board commissioners as a board and as individuals. At a special meeting of the common council held on the afternoon of June 30, 1934, you approved and confirmed my actions to date in this police situation.

I realized very well last fall when charges against the chief were first called to my attention that unless a hearing was held giving him every opportunity to prove the untruth of such charges, that he and his family would be victims of slanderous gossipers. To forestall this very thing happening, I as well as others interested in fair play, demanded a hearing for Mr. Lieveuse, which resulted in killing the rumors concerning both Mr. Lieveuse and the police board, and at that time satisfied the city at large that the police department was being properly conducted.

The situation as exists at this time is far more serious and has resulted in the very thing that I feared from the first—namely, reports are being circulated by word of mouth accusing Mr. Lieveuse of very serious charges reflecting against his honesty and character and charging certain members of the police board with personal bias and unfair tactics. This, gentlemen, is not only a reflection against those involved, but is also an embarrassment and detriment to the City of Holland as a whole. I know of no better way to hurt the individuals involved or to give our city a black eye than to allow such rumors to circulate about the city.

In your resolution passed by your honorable body at the special council meeting held on the afternoon of June 30, 1934, you authorized and empowered me to carry out the spirit and intent of the resolution by such actions as I should deem proper. I fully realized from the very first that the policy I was adopting throughout this controversy would cause severe criticism on the part of certain individuals, but in the spirit of sworn duty I believed that I was acting in the best interests of the City of Holland, and you have proven by your support that your sense of duty in this matter, the same as my own, has gone beyond the fear of criticism.

The question of whether or not the chief of police can be discharged by the board has been settled by the decision of the circuit court, but the slanderous rumors still continue, destroying the morale of our city. I believe that it is the duty of the police board commissioners to express to the public specific reasons why the discharge of Mr. Lieveuse was for the good of the police department. This will have either one of two results—namely, it will either prove that the rumors now circulating throughout the city are false, or it will bring any actual wrongdoings out into the open where it can be properly investigated.

In case the police board commissioners do not see fit to produce such a statement, the charter provides through title 6, sections 17 and 18, that the council has certain powers to investigate the unfortunate situation created by this controversy.

Respectfully submitted,
NICODEMUS BOSCH,
Mayor.

Our next post meeting will be held on August 8.

BUT
There is a number of other meetings—important ones—before that. First, we are invited to Zeeland on Tuesday, the 24th, to see the Zeeland American Legion Juniors play the Furniture City Post team on the Zeeland Legion park field. Our neighbor city has an unbeaten team and with some boosting will win the tournament and represent the Fifth district at the state meet. Let's all make plans to go and see this game. Tuesday, July 24.

And then on the 26th—wait, this is what the card reads:
FIFTH DISTRICT CONVENTION (Stag)
Caledonia, Thursday, July 26
Baseball Championship, American Legion Juniors, Zeeland, vs. Furniture City Post Team No. 6.
5:00 p. m.
ROAST OX BARBECUE, ENTERTAINMENT. COME!
Name your own bill.
Ain't that sumpin! We've planned that all who can should leave about 4 p. m.; those who cannot get away at that time can still make it in time for supper even though they don't get started until 5 o'clock, but remember, stag, roast ox and entertainment.

Mrs. H. J. Karsten has returned from a two weeks' stay in Chicago. That's the reason for Harold appearing somewhat forlorn the past fortnight. Quite a while to be without regular meals.

Speaking of meals, Andy Rutgers says he is so busy with his trucking that he doesn't stop for meals—just takes a bite at the wheel. Pretty tough biting, it would seem.

Grand Haven has asked for our band to help them celebrate their Centennial next month. If they decide to go we should get a crowd to go along.

If your wife leaves on a vacation don't take too much stock in the XXX that she signs to her letters. It may mean that she is double crossing you.
