River Claims Child Of Five; Also Mother

PATHEIC STORY OF HOW PARENT RUSHED FROM HOME AT GRAND HAVEN
INTO RIVER. DOUBLE
FUNERAL HELD

Mrs. Edgar Slater, 20 years old, gave her life in a futile attempt to save her daughter, Vivian, five years old, from drowning in Grand river at Grand Haven. The tragedy nearly claimed the life of a son, Jimmie, three years old, who waded into the water up to his neck in an effort to save his sister. He was rescued by the timely arrival of Henry Ringelberg, Sr., former city alderman, who was working in a garden nearby.

The mother, frantic to get to her loved one, made a desperate attempt to reach the sinking child but found a watery grave instead. The family lived on an island in Grand river, called St. Mary's. It is located east of the old Interurban bridge crossing the river at that point.

The mother was Mrs. Edgar Slater, 20 years old, and the child Vivian Slater, five years old. Little Jimmie was rescued by Henry Ringelberg, Sr., former Grand Haven alderman, who was working on the island when he obtained the boat and arrived in time to save the little boy.

Cries for help from five little children ranging in age from three to six years old brought Mr. Ringelberg and his son Henry, Jr., to the spot. The children were the only eye witnesses to the tragedy. Young Ringelberg found another boat and with a young man on the mainland, who had heard the cries, got a boat on that side and together they pulled the little girl's body out of the water within a few minutes after she had gone down. Mr. Ringelberg tried to resuscitate the child and Edward Boesgaard, chief of police, reached the scene as quickly as possible with the pulmotor but the child was dead.

Coast Guards and the city police began dragging immediately for the mother's body which was recovered by the guardsmen about 8:00 p.m. Dr. W. B. Bloemendaal was at the scene and declared accidental drowning and both bodies were turned over to Govt. Van Zantwick.

According to the children, Carl Graham, 6, ran to the Slater home where Mrs. Slater was ironing, screaming, "Vivian's in the water!" The mother ran from the house into the deep waters of the river to rescue her child. The other children on the bank were Martha Ann Graham, 4, Kay Lou Graham, 3, and Carl Graham. They are children of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Graham who were living with the Slaters in the one small house on the island.

Mrs. Graham had gone into this city to get Mr. Slater, employed as a WPA worker on the police and fire station, and Mr. Graham who was working on a paint job. They were to have returned to the Slater home as early as possible in order that the two families might go to some cherry orchards to pick cherries, an outing they had been looking forward to with great pleasure. Supper had been prepared by Mrs. Slater and she was ironing when she was called by the frantic cries of little Carl Graham. The place where the children were playing has a short beach of about three or four feet and then the bank drops quickly to a depth of 10 or 12 feet.

The Slater family has lived on the island since March, 1935. It is known to many here as Ringelberg's island as it is owned jointly by Henry and Adrian Ringelberg of Grand Haven. The Slater family was forced to move out last spring when high water was feared following the ice breakup of the river.

Mrs. Slater leaves, besides her son Jimmie, a baby, Arthur Lee, 17 months old, who at the time of the tragedy was in the house. She has lived here for the past four years coming from Newwaygo four years ago, where she was married to Edgar Slater and where Vivian was born. She was born in Newwaygo county May 8, 1912. She was a member of the Church of God in Grand Haven.

She is also survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Underhill, two sisters, Hazel and Doris, and six brothers, Charles, George, Bart, Carlton, Richard and Vernon, all of Grand Haven.

Double funeral services for the mother and child were held this Thursday at 2:30 p.m. from the Van Zantwick Funeral Home and Rev. Roy Halstead officiated. Burial in Lake Forest cemetery at Grand Haven.

ONE OF LAKE MACATAWA RACERS WAS BUILT IN SWEDEN

One of the many racing yachts sailing on the boom of Lake Macatawa is the Heintz, a fine sailing yacht that is attracting much attention from the racers. This yacht was built in Sweden and was imported to this country. The craft is beautifully made, has fine lines, and is swift and graceful. It crossed the finish line first in the Sunday Macatawa Yacht Club racing program.

By virtue of the win, the owner of the yacht was awarded the Kims trophy. The yacht is owned by William Hardy of Grand Rapids. He is the son of the late Mrs. Anna Hardy of that city. Mr. Hardy is very prominent in water sports and was the manager of the rowing crew of Pennsylvania University. He is a great lover of the water and fosters sailing, aquatic and other sports whenever there is an occasion to do so.

CITY ATTORNEY ELBERN PARSONS FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

City Attorney Elbern Parsons wishes to announce that he is a candidate on the Republican ticket for the state legislature. He has practiced law in Holland for the past 15 years and was at one time associated with the law firm of Robinson and Parsons. He was appointed city attorney three years ago. Two years ago this office became elective and he was elected by a comfortable majority the first time and had no opposition last spring. He is a graduate from the Michigan Law School at Ann Arbor and is a member of the Willard G. Leenhouts, American Legion.

MILES WANTS TO BE LEGISLATOR

Attorney Nelson Miles today made known that he is a candidate for the nomination of state representative on the Republican ticket from Ottawa County. Mr. Miles has been a practicing attorney here for a number of years and has been closely allied with attorney and prosecutor, Fred T. Miles and today the Circuit Judge of Ottawa and Allegan counties.

Nelson Miles gained considerable of his practical experience in this office. He has never entered the political arena before and this is his first aspiration.

HAMILTON AUTOMOBILE DAM- AGE SUIT AGAIN GETS A VERDICT

A circuit court jury, hearing an automobile accident damage suit retrial ordered by the state supreme court, Wednesday returned a verdict of $4,127 in favor of Miss Sophie Tanis of Hamilton against Harry Browner and Jacob Edging of Hamilton.

Miss Tanis was injured in an accident in December, 1931, that involved a car operated by Browner but the title of which never had been turned over by Edging, who sold it to the former. At the original trial in November, 1934, a circuit court jury gave Miss Tanis a verdict of $6,147. The supreme court ordered the retrial after throwing out some of the evidence presented in court here.

KLEINE NEDERLAND SITE TURNED INTO GARDENS INSTEAD

(Grand Rapids Press)

The swamp area around Holland which in recent years has undergone a complete transformation into a fertile garden plots for vegetable cultivation, now presents a scene of activity with scores of men and women at work in the fields. Many families raise their own vegetables and the family has been as fall and winter months.

Roads have been opened through the area. The soil is unusually well adapted for cultivation of vegetables. Each family has been assigned a section and the Dutch thrift in keeping gardens clean is very noticeable.

The swamp area at one time was marked for "Klein Nederland," with its dikes, canals and picturesque Dutch village, but the project did not materialize.

DYKE FAMILY CELEBRATES SEVERAL BIRTHDAYS

Contractor and Mrs. Frank Dyke celebrated an unusual group of anniversaries and birthdays on the Fourth of July.

The birth of our nation on "Independence Day" surely was most apropos for a family reunion of this nature. It was a home affair held in the beautiful Dyke residence on State street.

The outstanding anniversary was the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Dyke. They have been married forty years. At the same time Herbert Dyke, the youngest son was married for five years and this event was included in the commemoration. Mr. and Mrs. George Hill were happy and not at all suspicious even tho' the 15th wedding anniversary is associated with the otherwise unlucky figure. Mrs. Dyke also celebrated her birthday but did not give her age so we will put it down as "sweet sixteen."

It is quite a coincidence that a grandson, Loren Marsh of Munising, Ind., celebrated his 15th birthday and Mrs. Eberth Dyke Hill and Mrs. James Dyke also were privileged to remember their respective birthday anniversaries.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Dyke are James of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Columbus, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. George Hill of Grand Rapids with three daughters, Rose, Maryanne and Virginia May, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marsh of Munising, Ind. with two sons, Loran and Roger, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dyke of Holland with twins, Charlotte and Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. James Dyke were unable to be at the holiday reunion. The affair turned out to be a pleasing garden party closing with a buffet supper.

Work on the construction of the new garage building on West Main St., Fenville, is proceeding nicely. It is being built by Guy Teed. Don Schamehorn will run the garage and sales agency.

Johnson Park Meeting Sets Pot oiling

FLOCK OF CANDIDATES FOR COUNTY AND STATE
OFFICES ANNOUNCE THEMSELVES

City Attorney Parsons, Attorney Nelson Miles, Rep. Browner, Mr. Dethmers and Mr. Smith in the races

Kent and Ottawa counties held a tremendous Republican rally on the Fourth of July which was attended by 25,000 people, in fact automobiles were parked on both sides of the highway clear into Grandville, a mile from the park site, after the regular parking spaces that this open air spot affords had already been overloaded.

Congressman Mapes was the chairman on the speakers stand and he introduced Senator Vandenberg and Mr. Adams, two of the leading speakers of the nation.

It seems that the big meeting held in Johnson Park started the political pot boiling and announcements of candidates for office came thick and fast.

Representative Ed Browner is a candidate not for State Representative at Lansing but rather is a candidate for the State Senate, his district being Ottawa and Muskegon counties.

Here too, is quite a coincidence. All four associates in two law offices are opposing candidates for different offices. City Attorney Elbern Parsons who practices law in the same offices where Prosecuting Attorney John Dethmers has his headquarters, has announced himself a candidate for the state legislature and will be pitted against Attorney Nelson Miles of the law firm of Miles and Smith. Mr. Miles is a nephew of Judge Fred T. Miles.

In turn, Attorney Ray Smith of the latter firm will try conclusions for Prosecuting Attorney in Ottawa County with the present prosecutor, John Dethmers who has also announced himself as a candidate for re-nomination.

There are half a dozen Sheriff candidates, many of them having already announced through the News, and today Chief Deputy William H. Boeve of the county jail, throws his hat in the ring. The other Holland candidates are Frank Van Etta, and Peter A. Lievense. Sheriff Rosema up to this time has not told the News whether he is to be a candidate but we understand that he is.

Candidates for other offices have been named repeatedly by this newspaper. Sometime ago Prof. Garret Hyma of the Holland Christian School announced that he was a candidate for Congress on the Democratic ticket. Undoubtedly he will be pitted against McCallister of Grand Rapids who was the nominee two years ago but was defeated by Republican Carl Mapes who is also a candidate again on the Republican ticket. Up to this time Mr. Mapes has no real avowed candidate against him from the Republican party.

In the state, from all appearances, Frank D. Fitzgerald, present governor who has just completed his first term, will have no opposition at the primaries. The Democrats are doing their best to have Murphy of Detroit run on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Murphy is the United States commissioner in the Philippines and was a delegate to the National Democratic convention. Now that he is in this country on a vacation, there are some who wish to draft him as the gubernatorial candidate of that party in Michigan.

Undoubtedly there will be some change in the lineup and new developments before July 28, the final date set to file petitions for office.

Coming back to the meeting at Johnson Park over which Congressman Mapes presided, he said in part in his opening remarks:

"They wanted the Republicans to adopt a platform and to nominate candidates that they could find flaws in—that they could criticize and make their criticisms stick, and they were confounded when they found that they could not do that either with the platform or with the candidates."

"They have always charged that the Republican party was dominated too much by the industrial east, by Wall street, but when it selected both its candidates from the middle west—the candidate for president from a 'typical prairie state'—all they have been able to do is to complain that we did not select a big interest candidate so they could find fault with him and indulge in their usual tactics of trying to stir up class and sectional prejudice."

Senator Vandenberg when he arose, was given an ovation and his speech was not only given over a national hook-up on the radio but was published in the entire metropolitan press of the nation.

Mr. Vandenberg spoke on questions of the day for at least three

THIRTEEN BARS MORE BEER SELLERS

Following a recommendation to issue a beer license to Herbert Bunce, who is establishing a restaurant in the building formerly occupied by the Black Cat in Grand Haven, the city council passed a resolution that no more licenses would be issued with the exception of one to Mrs. Ada Fash if she desires it. Mrs. Fash was burned out last winter at her place of business and she has not yet re-established her restaurant.

There are now 13 beer licenses in the city, which is four less than last year. The common council has put their foot down after the 13th license.

The Royal Neighbors held a public "fun party" Wednesday evening and last night a birthday party was held instead of a regular meeting.

They say sliced cucumbers will kill cockroaches. We have never eaten them for that purpose, says Editor Bill Rogers.

The grocery firm of Dirk and Pete DeVries has been dissolved and the business will be conducted by Dirk. Note: The old DeVries store building is still in existence. It is where the bicycle shop of the Raffenauks is on the southwest corner of River and 9th St. The grocery has been out of existence at least 35 years. One of the features of the store was to go out in the rural district daily with a large peddle wagon, selling dry goods and groceries, kerosene oil and candy right from the wagon along the countryside.

Wednesday morning last, Simon Kleyn, who works in his father's Keystone Planning mill on 5th St., met with an accident while running a moulding machine, which resulted in the amputation of the big toe of his right foot. He was running lumber through the moulder when a piece got caught and to release it he braced himself by putting his foot against the frame; he slipped and fell and his foot was brought in contact with the sharp knives and this meant to lose part of his "understanding." Note: We always thought that Simon was all there. Even his supervisor friends and members of the Board of Public Works may be surprised to hear the dark secret of 50 years standing. Well, what is left of Simon is still able and efficient. He can still give his friends "words of wisdom" and prognosticate election results with accuracy despite a missing toe.

The annual review of our fire department occurred Monday and was witnessed by a large crowd. The Eagles Hose Co. No. 1 battled West and East ends, respectively. The results in the hose-laying contest were: 1st, a run of 300 ft., lay 150 ft. of hose, connect up and turn on the water. No. 1 performed this feat in 35 1/2 seconds and No. 2 in 31 seconds. The team contest consisted of a run of 50 ft., breaking coupling and attaching pipe to hose. The winner was No. 1 in 7 seconds. No. 2 in 7 1/2 seconds. The total time of five trials in this contest was as follows: No. 1, 38 seconds; No. 2, 38 1/2 seconds. We desire especially to mention the time of Cornelius Nyland of No. 1 who single-handed made the run, broke the coupling and attached pipe in 7 seconds. We doubt if there are amateur firemen in the state who can beat that record. Note: The firemen's reviews were always watched with a great deal of interest in the early days and large crowds gathered. These reviews were generally put on as one of the features on our customary "Independence Day" celebration, together with the "horribles," a teraced lot of girls, representing the different states, and kindred old time attractions, which began after the cannon shooting in "Public Square." Bill Ten Hagen, Veteran Finch and "Dad" Mulder manned the cannon in those days.

East Saugatuck farmers will be given an unusual experience of attending a double funeral of two neighbor farmers, John Wiggering, age 86 years, and Gerrit Zoerhof, age 88 years, two of the most prominent tillers of the soil in this area, died on the same day and almost at the same hour. One service for the two old friends was deemed appropriate.

Oven Canning for modern mothers

Remember the wonderful jams, jellies, and canned fruits that your mother used to make? Just think how your family would "whoop it up" over a jar of...let's say crabapple jelly. But we'll bet you can't make it, having forgotten her recipe. Don't let that discourage you. There's an easier, cooler, more modern way to preserve anything from marmalade to tomatoes and still retain that old-fashioned flavor.

A Canning Chart and a Modern Gas Range with Oven Heat Control...hundreds of thousands of women have found these the key to successful canning! Of course, the Modern Range has an insulated oven to keep the kitchen fresh and cool as outdoors. Why not economize on food costs by storing away shelf after shelf of preserved foods for your family? There's still time to install a Modern Gas Range...stop in! Get the facts and figures...Modern Ranges cost less than ever before.

HAMILTON

Hamilton folks celebrated the Fourth in the usual way. A ball game was staged in the morning with the team's greatest rivals, Virginia Park. In spite of a heavy rain a large crowd was on hand. The grounds were wet making fast playing impossible and several of the boys went down in the mud while trying to make quick plays. The game was full of excitement for the fans and the score resulted in a 7 to 6 victory for the locals. The visitors threatened to take the lead, until the last man was called out. Both teams were so anxious for the victory that close decisions were challenged frequently. The two teams have played many games together and the spirit of the Virginia Park boys has always been the very finest.

The game started with a bang. In a very short time the Parks had sent three runs across the play. Lugten on mound for the locals then tightened to hold the opponent scoreless until the seventh when his teammates had given him a safe lead. The visitors, however, again stirred things up in the eighth by scoring three times, but Lugten stopped the rally by striking out four men in the last two innings. The locals, on their part, also wasted no time in crossing the plate, but bunched nine hits in the 4th and 5th innings to score six times and driving Van Huis from the box. R. Vanden Berg who took his place was effective and held the locals while his teammates were whittling away the lead from the locals. Every one of the local boys shared in the batting honors with J. Kempher and Hookma leading. In the afternoon and evening Hamilton was in Overisel and enjoyed the program there.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Monroe and family of Chicago spent last week at the home of Walter Monroe Sr. and other relatives. Iva Rablyer accompanied them on their return to their home in Chicago to spend the week end in the big city.

A heavy rain fell early Saturday morning and late crops were greatly benefited.

Wheat fields are ripe and are being harvested, other crops show promise a good yield. Corn in this vicinity is well advanced. Early potatoes, however, will have a light yield. Altogether with a little more rain in the next few weeks the crops will come out above the average.

HENRY GEERLINGS

The powers that were made a big fuss about the healing of a lame man. Usually people are glad and thankful that one of their unfortunate number is made physically whole. We should rejoice today and we think we do the most part when people are cured. But these objectors to what Peter and John had done were simply full of prejudice and bigotry. They were more concerned about the dominance of what they thought than the dominance of what the apostles taught. They would rather have had the apostles fail in the healing of the lame man than they should have been shown to be wrong about the reality and power of Jesus. It is easily possible for men to be so blinded to the truth that they will reject all evidence, or if they are compelled to accept the evidence, they will still refuse to make use of it in helping them to see the truth. Prejudice is a despicable thing. It rules with a rod of iron. It puts up shutters on souls windows when the light is beginning to shine through. It robs minds of their freedom. It ignores facts. It clips wings. It locks doors and throws away the key. It retards progress for a hundred years. It persecutes brave souls. It says things cannot be when things are.

Well, these religious leaders who had all truth in their vest pockets, or to be true to the times, who had all truth folded up in their flowing garments, had Peter and John arrested for the harmless deeds of healing a lame man in the name of Jesus and preaching that he had arisen from the dead. They tucked them snugly away in prison for the night. It is an easy way to dispose of people who believe and teach what you do not. Force is a very weak argument. It never makes any converts. It never disproves anything. Arresting truth lovers never arrests the truth. It did not in this case. The number of believers in Jesus jumped up to about five thousand. It was a splendid growth. That was the trouble. It was too splendid. The ecclesiastical overlords were alarmed. This thing had to be stopped and stopped at any price. If severe measures were not resorted to at once everybody would become a heretic. It made no difference how lovely Jesus was and what beautiful lives he inspired, he was the prince of impostors and heretics and the mad rush toward him must be stopped. It made no difference how harmless his followers and preachers were and how much good his preachers were doing, they must be arrested.

Surely these representatives of constituted authority did not know what kind of men they were arresting and putting in prison. They quarters of an hour, but bringing one item close to home and his own city, he gave as an example the unprecedented spending by this administration. He said, "Those who think that Grand Rapids won't have to pay have another guess coming."

The example he used was the project for beautification of Grand river from North Park to Grandville, approved by WPA authorities last week at a cost of more than $120,000.

"I noticed the newspapers stated that the city of Grand Rapids will have to pay only $10,000 of this cost," he remarked.

"Don't be deceived, my friends. Grand Rapids and the people of this area will have to pay all of this cost. The money must come from somewhere in the long run, and goodness knows, there is no Santa Claus."

He pointed out that Michigan is called upon to pay a huge share of the nation's relief bill.

Claris Adams of Detroit, president of the Michigan League of Republican Clubs, speaking on the same program, asserted that the United States "lags behind" in recovering from a world-wide depression because of President Roosevelt's new deal.

Adams said the nation needs "the constructive spirit, the sound common sense, the stalwart Americanism" of Gov. Alf. M. Landon of Kansas, Republican candidate for president.

Adams termed the presidential campaign a "contest between Landon, the liberal, and Roosevelt, the reactionary."

"Landon will not withdraw relief from the thousands now honestly in need so long as they remain in honest need," Adams said. "He will take politics out of relief and relief out of politics. He will take unnumbered thousands off the relief rolls, but he will take them off by putting them back into permanent jobs in private employment."

"He can do it, because American business has confidence in Landon and confidence in America with Landon at the helm of the nation."

Local Man Asks Promotion At State Capital

and pass a bill that the appropriation for old age pension in Michigan be raised to five million dollars. This could be done without any added tax burden Mr. Brouwer stated. That would mean in reality that the amount would be $10,000,000 since the United States government matches state appropriations dollar for dollar.

He also stated that he would draft a resolution to present to the Michigan legislature inducing Congress to amend the naturalization laws. It would be his plan to forward a copy of this resolution to other legislative bodies in other states asking them to do likewise. Under the present law many old people are finding out that they are really not citizens, they understanding that since they were permitted to vote, they were citizens. Years later they find that this is not the case. In most cases it requires three years for aliens to become Americanized, that is to say, it takes that period of time to gather data relating to his or her case, showing conclusively that they are entitled to citizenship. First papers do not mean that the citizenship was completed.

The amendment that Mr. Brouwer proposes deals with cases as described above. There are many staid and loyal citizens who have voted for many years but in reality have not their full citizenship papers. This condition exists simply because they were ignorant at the time of application as to all the requirements necessary to receive full citizenship. Mr. Brouwer feels that these voters should not be barred from the ballot box when it is found that in reality they are not full citizens. They are deserving, loyal and patriotic people.

"I know folk," Mr. Brouwer said, "who have daughters who were nurses at the front and sons who have paid the supreme sacrifice for the country they love and now the parents find that they are in reality not citizens."

Mr. Brouwer gave special attention to the school of naturalization held in Ottawa County. He together with John Galien and County Clerk William Wilds were in charge. Mr. Brouwer stated that this school was primarily to assist prospective citizens in getting their naturalization papers. He said this was a tremendous job and often necessitated the driving of miles and the sending of many letters for information that would enable these aliens to become full citizens. It was also for the purpose of straightening out such matters as chronicled above.

In other words, Mr. Brouwer says, "The government is only satisfied with the documentary proof and that is absolutely correct for this bars an undesirable citizen. Many of our neighbors who we know are tried and true and have voted for many years should be given the privilege of using their prerogative without question. Their intent and their loyalty to the community is as a rule, publicly known. Mr. Brouwer states that this school in which he took a deep interest has seen 70 prospective citizens become real citizens."

Mr. Brouwer has always been intensely interested in game conservation which is well-known in Holland and all over the state. He was directly responsible for the repeal of the special privileges in the private shooting preserve law, in other words, the game laws were made to apply to everyone alike, whether he be rich or poor. Those who could afford it were not given special privileges while hunting.

Anyway, Mr. Brouwer hereby announces that he is a candidate on the Republican ticket for the Michigan State Senate.

ZEELAND AND LOWELL HENS BATTLING FOR CONTEST LEADERSHIP

Egging along at the rate of 257 to 260 eggs a month, two pens of Michigan White Leghorns are racing neck-and-neck for first place in the fourteenth international egg laying contest at Michigan State college.

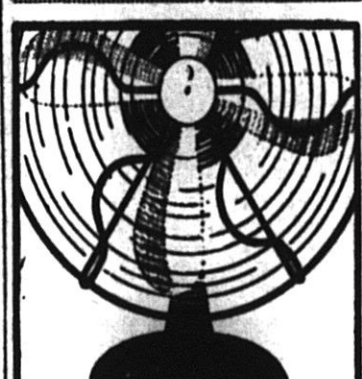

Ten white birds in the entry from the Foreman Poultry farm of Lowell gained three eggs on the contest leaders during the past month, cutting the first place margin of the Royal Poultry farm's Leghorns from Zeeland to five eggs.

The Foreman hens lost first place about a month ago after leading the contest all winter. They went into a slight spring production slump while the Zeeland birds continued to shell out the eggs at the same old rate. Now the Lowell hens are on the rally, laying 260 eggs in the past month, against 257 by the Zeeland contestants. Positions of other leading pens remained virtually unchanged.

The three day joint session this week of the Michigan Gas association and the Michigan Electric Light association at Mackinac Island was attended by six members of the Holland office of the Michigan Gas and Electric company. They are W. C. Blanchard, C. F. Cook, W. L. Campbell, S. F. Massie, Pierre Vinet and W. M. Berg. Among the speakers were Herman Russell of Rochester, N. Y., A. S. Morean of Detroit, C. B. Boulet of Milwaukee, R. P. Douglas of Detroit and Mrs. Celia Hudson and Robert Butler of Jackson.

Mrs. William Sikkil, 54 E. 15th St., had as her guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. John De Korte Jr., and Peter De Korte of Patterson, N. J. Mrs. Sikkil is a sister of Mr. De Korte.

Woman, 96 Years,

WHEN GIRL, WILD LIFE KEPT THEM FROM BERRY PICK-
ING. STILL WILL NOT USE SEWING MACHINE

Mrs. F. Youngs and Mrs. Alton Youngs entertained at their home in Martin, Allegan county, their grandmother, Mrs. Emma Youngs. Old friends and neighbors had a pleasant time relating experiences of by-gone days.

Mrs. Youngs was 96 years old February 12 and has a good start on her 97th milestone. She is unusually active for a person of her age, getting around easily with the help of a cane. Her eyesight is very keen. She reads without glasses and does beautiful tatting. She also makes quilts and does other sewing, even making her own clothes entirely by hand, scorning the use of a "new fangled" sewing machine. If she keeps up this stamina in health and strength, she in all likelihood will become the age of Mrs. Arends, 10th st., Holland, who will be 102 soon.

Mrs. Youngs was born in Martin, Allegan county, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mumford Eldred, who were the first white settlers in the community. Her brother was the first white child born in the township, not so far southeast of Holland.

Many interesting facts concerning early history may be recalled by this pioneer. Her father was a surveyor, who liked the country so well he took up land here. That first spring, in the year 1836, the only neighbors were Indians. Wolves and other wild animals were so numerous her father wouldn't allow the children to pick wild berries which were growing where the village of Martin now stands. After a few years Mrs. Youngs' father was able to obtain some seed wheat. From this they threshed out with a flail two bushels of the grain. Two of her brothers rode a pony and took the wheat to Pine Creek, near Otego, to have it ground into flour. The bread Mrs. Eldred made was considered a great treat. Mrs. Youngs recalls that many a time she waited in the hotel at Pine Creek when as a child she went with her father to have the grist ground. In those early days it was difficult to get money to buy food and necessary supplies. Often her father would send the eldest son with a yoke of oxen loaded with shingles. Mr. Eldred himself had made, to farmers, all over the countryside. They often carried the shingles as far as Galesburg where the load was sold or exchanged for articles the family could use. There was plenty of wood, of course, furnishing material for hand-made shingles.

Mrs. Youngs married at the age of 17. She and her husband, Jacob Youngs, spent their entire married life in Martin. They had three sons.

HOLLAND COUPLE TO LIVE

Mulder, Route No. 5, became the bride last Tuesday afternoon of Cornelius Theodore Oonk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Oonk, at a pretty wedding solemnized at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Schortinghuis officiated using the double ring ceremony. Vows were exchanged before an arch of ferns and yellow daisies. The bride was attired in hat to match and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses, baby breath and swansons. Following the ceremony a reception was held and a three-course dinner was served to approximately 25 guests. The following day Mr. and Mrs. Oonk left for Philadelphia, where Mr. Oonk is employed in an oil burner business.

GUARANTEED SALES OF FRUIT

An organized effort to advance the sale of Michigan fruit under a guaranty that contents conform to state grading requirements has been formed. All the officers there of except one are Berrien county men. A label to this effect is used and a bond for $50 is given the state to protect purchasers; that is, if contents are falsified the purchaser can recover damages. The idea is a good one and has been in practice to some extent through the state department of agriculture. It is believed it will enhance sales of Michigan products.

Drowned Youth's Funeral
Was Sunday

Funeral services for Benjamin Franklin Bird, age 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bird of Saugatuck, whose body was recovered from the Kalamazoo river Thursday night, were conducted Sunday at 2 o'clock at the First Congregational church. Rev. Mayroth officiating.

Young Bird was drowned while bathing probably about 4 o'clock. Since he was reputedly a good swimmer, it was believed that he was seized with cramps. When he failed to return home, Saugatuck officials started dragging and recovered the body at 6:30 o'clock. Justice S. Newnam acting coroner also held that opinion. Young Bird was clad in a bathing suit when he left home early in the afternoon. When he failed to return toward nightfall, dragging was started. Justice Newnam said.

The boy is survived by his parents, two brothers, Carl, Jr., and Lincoln, and a sister Mary Lee. He was the grandson of Charles E. Bird, Saugatuck pioneer and present village druggist.

Burial was in Riverside cemetery. The body was taken to the Dykstra Funeral home.

Holland C. of C.
Urges New M-21
Editor Says

ZEELAND RECORD POINTS
OUT IMPERATIVE NEED
AND METHODS NECES-SARY TO BUILD NEW HOLLAND-GRAND RAPIDS ROAD

(Zeeland Record)

After considerable effort on the part of residents of Zeeland, Holland, and other communities on this stretch of M-21 highway, in an attempt to get improvements or rebuilding work on this highway done, the situation remains exactly where it was one year ago.

Attempts have been made to secure a relocation of this highway by way of Jamestown over the old interurban right-of-way; to have it relocated over the road or section line intersecting Jamestown from the west, just one mile north of the Zeeland-Forest Grove Station road; and efforts have been made to get the present road rebuilt through the low lands; but every appeal seems to fall on deaf ears.

We are not so certain that the county road commission has been favorable to all these proposals, but there can be little question that it favors improvements along one of these lines. So why shouldn't a united and strenuous effort be made to get some action from the state highway department at this time, before it is again too late for this year? Another winter over the present route will well nigh smash it all to pieces.

The rehabilitation of this highway along its present route will involve a great deal of cost, but that should not deter the highway department from putting it into the best of condition. Just recently the state has received more than seven million dollars for road purposes, a large share of which has already been assigned to highway construction work this state.

At one previous instance the objection was made that federal moneys were not available for state trunk lines, but recent allocations include construction work on M-40 north of Allegan, which is a state highway and would seem to nullify that objection.

If the present M-21 between Zeeland and Grand Rapids is to be improved it will be found there is more than ten miles of low, swampy land underlying the roadbed. All of this will have to be built up with clay, gravel or sand before it can be depended upon to stand up under the heavy traffic that it must carry. Of course, all this material is handily available so that the cost will be at a minimum.

Rough estimates have placed the grading necessary at about five feet for a distance of about ten miles. Some places will need little grading while others will take a great deal. Those familiar with this work say it will have to be filled with dirt to some height above the required level after which the muck will have to be forced out from under the filling by means of light charges of dynamite, where it will not ooze out of its own accord. This would require the destruction of the present paving along this route from a point near the Beaverdam road intersection east to a point within a mile or two of Jenison, with the exception of a mile or so here and there between these two points. This would not so greatly inconvenience traffic, because the old M-51 route to Grand Rapids is in fairly good condition, and besides this there is the route by way of Boreau to M-50, and the Jenison-Boreau-Beaverdam road. Two of these routes are nearly all gravel, but they will fill the bill very well in consideration of a reconstructed M-21.

Although this reconstruction would mean considerable outlay, we believe that the route has more than ample traffic to warrant the investment. It is in direct line between the Thumb district of Michigan and parts north to Chicago, and is reconstructed this avenue would see increasing traffic for years to come.

We believe that stronger united efforts should be made to get some action on this matter. The Holland Chamber of Commerce has urged the improvement; Zeeland business interests have urged it; the county road commission has urged it; Hudsonville civic organizations have urged it; the Grandville Business Men's Association has urged it; and the Grand Rapids Association of Commerce has urged it; but the final result is nothing.

We believe it is time for Zeeland citizens to get busy on getting a complete organization of all these units to put united pressure in urging this improvement, at once. Let us get representatives from these various interested groups together and then do something about it. We believe that if we show a united front in this matter we are going to get somewhere.

The movement to suppress rag weed in the state included a state meeting in Grand Rapids with a large attendance. The greatest action possible to this end would be to get the farmers to mow their stubble fields at the right time. There is scarcely a grain field in the state in which, after harvest, rag weed does not appear, literally covering the field. It would not be a very great job to mow the stuff at the right time so there would not be a second growth of it.

of counterfeit money being circulated in Holland. The bills are said to be good imitations. So far no arrests have been made by South Haven police. According to Chief Frank Van Ry, counterfeit $1 bills were found in circulation in Holland last fall.

According to a report submitted to the common council, last Wednesday night, one hundred and twenty three inspections were made and "clean up" orders were issued by City Inspector Ben Wiersema, during the month of July. One case of measles was the only quarantine case of the month. The report was placed on file. It was an excellent showing by the new Inspector.

A total of 6,500 pink summer tax bills totaling $339,897.79 went into Holland post office a few days earlier than previously announced by Treasurer Steggerda. They include school and city tax assessments for the current fiscal year and are payable Monday. The deadline is August 15. After that there is a 4 per cent collection charge until August 31, when a 4 per cent interest charge is added.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marsilje West 12th street are now in their summer cottage at Buchanan beach for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlie Bishop, 311 West 12th St., are now on a trip to the New England states, where they will visit relatives. Their daughters, Barbara and Marcia are with their grandparents in Hastings for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wood and family have moved to their summer cottage at Tennessee Beach. The construction of a fine new home is now under way on the Eaton estate at Waukokau which will be ready by fall. John Eaton's home is nearly complete. The wood home is to the south and the Eaton home to the north of the parental home stand in this beautiful natural forest.

Forty taxpayers paid bills three days before they were officially due. Henry Luidens of 307 College Ave., was the first of 6,500 Holland residents to pay his city and school tax bill. City Treasurer C. J. Steggerda looks for a busy time, and then a falling off of payments until the deadline, Aug. 15.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vander Werf of Holland, Route No. 1, at the Holland hospital, on Friday, July 3.

Fred Wiegert of Holland and his brother, John Wiegert, of Muskegon, attended the funeral services of their father, John Wiegert, Sr., at Warren, Minn., last week. They made the trip by automobile and were accompanied by Albertus Vander Veen of 208 Maple Ave., who is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Zwiers, Pease, Minn.

A grass fire Monday afternoon on the Ray Nies property, across from Holland hospital, was extinguished by firemen before it reached the barns on the rear of the yard. Outside of the grass no damage was done.

Paul Scholten of Holland paid fine and costs of $29.15 in Justice Nicholas Hoffman's court Saturday for reckless driving. He pleaded guilty.

It is regarded as encouraging that there was a decrease of eight per cent of deaths by motor accidents in the state in the first five months of this year; but that is so small a matter as to give no hope for continuance of the decrease through the summer. There were 111 deaths in May. During 1935 there were 1,660 deaths. This is the highest number in the record. Queerly enough, three times as many men were killed as women.

John Van Nuil, 123 W. 13th St., submitted to an operation Saturday evening at the Holland hospital.

Following an illness of a few weeks, Klaas Courtz, 82, died Sunday morning at his home, 94 W. 18th St. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. George Laman, Mrs. Charles Falconer, Mrs. Henry Helmholt, all of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Bert Westenbroek of Holland, 13 grandchildren and one great grandchild. Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday afternoon. The Rev. Paul Van Eerden conducted the services and burial was in Fairlawn cemetery in Grand Rapids.

Word was received of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Borr of West Washington Street, who left here two weeks ago with Mr. and Mrs. K. De Jonge to visit their children in the Dakotas, that they will spend the remainder of the summer there.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

NEW potatoes are now about half their high of a few weeks ago. Lamb, too, is cheaper so that a dinner of roast lamb, new potatoes and green peas is now a possible feast for modest pocketbooks. Other meats, poultry, fish and eggs are little changed. Butter prices seem to have steadied, at least temporarily.

Fruit is the big marketing item with most types of berries and melons available, a normal supply of bananas and oranges, apricots, cherries, peaches and plums abundant, fresh pineapples reasonable, apples and pears beginning to come into market and figs and seedless grapes arriving here.

Generally speaking, vegetables and salad greens are also cheap and abundant.

Here are three menus planned for different budget levels.

Low Cost Dinner
Beef Patties in Tomato Sauce
Potatoes Green Beans
Bread and Butter
Sliced Peaches
Tea or Coffee

Medium Cost Dinner
Twice Baked Potatoes
Tomato Salad
Bread and Butter
Fruit Cobbler
Tea or Coffee

Very Special Dinner
Cantaloupes
Broiled Beefsteak
Cauliflower au Gratin
Stuffed Tomato Salad
Rolls and Butter
Peach Shortcake
