YOU may be constantly asking yourself this question: Will I feel humiliated if I open a small bank account.

In this bank you will not.

We would rather have you open a small account and see it grow than have you start with a large one and see it diminish.

As usual the entire shore line from Jenison Park through Macatawa Park and Ottawa Beach will be brilliantly illuminated. on the water is one of the prettiest features of the evening.

On the three hills around the bay will be erected large forts from which there will be a constant display of colored fire, bombs and rockets during the evening.

In the center of the bay on a large specially arranged scow will be given a Thousand Dollar Fire Works Display which will be the most elaborate exhibition ever given at that place.

Specially erected benches will be placed along the shore at Jenison Park for the accommodation of the people. Bands will be playing in the Park and on the water and the evening's program as arranged will make this Venetian Night the biggest event of this or any previous year.

With the increased facilities of the Interurban Company the people are assured of the best of service going and returning. Passengers are advised to take the cars when returning home at the Interurban Pier and the Jenison Park terminal tracks from which point the cars will start.

STATE MONEY WILL BOOM HOLLAND FAIR

HOLLAND FAIR ASSOCIATION MAY GET $500 FROM STATE

Grand Rapids Gets $9,000; Detroit State Fair, $16,000

The state board to determine how much money shall be given fairs this year as addition to premiums and of which board Joseph H. Brewer and E. D. Graham are members, decided at its meeting in Lansing that $9,000 should go to the West Michigan State Fair and $16,000 to the state fair held in Detroit. The state fair pays in premiums about twice the amount paid by the West Michigan State fair and has in the past received about twice as much from the legislature.

It is understood that all fairs are awarded to the amount of one-half of their premiums on exhibits grown, bred or made in Michigan. The money is intended to help develop strictly Michigan products and as the exhibits on exhibition at the Holland fair are practically all Michigan and the amount of premiums paid is in the neighborhood of $1,000, then $500 should be the sum realized from the state fund.

JACKSON AND CONNELLY GO TO GRAND HAVEN OVER PIKE IN ONE HOUR IN A FORD

Grand Haven Tribune:—

Holland to Grand Haven over the West Michigan Pike in just one hour is the time made by Fred Jackson of Holland and Wm. M. Connelly of Spring Lake last evening in a Ford Coupe. This run was made without any difficulty and proves that when the roads under construction are completed, the two cities of the county will be connected up so that the trip will be made easily in less than one hour.

With the completion of the West Michigan Pike and the Eastmanville bridge our county will be tied together with good roads transportation that will mean much toward a perfect unity of interest.

MR. DEAN, FATHER OF THE LATE MRS. REV. J. T. BERGEN DIES AT 95 YEARS

For the Holland City News:—

Died at Shelter Island on July 18th. Samuel Dean, father of the late Mrs. J. T. Bergen, who for 14 years was a resident of our city. Mr. Dean was born in Birkenhead, England in 1820, came to America at about thirty years of age and engaged in the stone business in Brooklyn, N. Y., for 55 years.

Mr. Dean was a frequent visitor to Holland and was a familiar figure at many social gatherings in years past. He preserved his boyhood spirits and abundant health into his extreme old age. He took great interest in the growth of our city and was very fond of our resorts; he especially enjoyed the fishing on the bay. He was the life of social gatherings with his fund of stories and information. He spoke the rich dialect of the West Country English people and his recitations in that tongue were exceedingly funny and entertaining. Some of our people will never forget his account of the "Country Game" who went to London, and his own account of how he, as a boy, saw Tom Sawyer fight Yankee Sullivan, and of how he saw five American ships wrecked at one time on the sands off the Mersey.

Mr. Dean was an ardent supporter of the Reformed church, having been an elder in the old Middle Church of Brooklyn and in late years a member and constant attendant of the First Reformed church of Brooklyn.

For the last few years he has spent his summers at Shelter Island, N. Y., with the family of his younger daughter, Mrs. Forrest M. Towl, at whose cottage he passed away on Sabbath evening.

He was a man of pure life, the highest integrity, the utmost industry; and his career was crowned with blessing and success.

He leaves a host of sorrowing friends in our city.

His wife, who was equally beloved among us, died in 1898; and his elder daughter Mrs. J. T. Bergen, who died in our city in 1904 was idolized by this entire community.

Mr. Dean leaves eight grand children, five boys, sons of Mrs. Bergen, and two sons and a daughter of Mrs. Towl.

RIOT IN FENNVILLE

Sheriff Short and Prosecutor Fouch Are Called to Fruit Town in a Hurry

A call for help came to Sheriff Short and Prosecutor Fouch from Fennville last Thursday night. "Nate" McCormick, the Fennville marshal, was having a battle with a lot of drunken men and they got the best of him. They went back to Holland and got liquor, went back to Fennville, and started in "tearing up" the town. When the sheriff got there they had scattered somewhat but he brought three of them to jail, got another the next day and arrested and arraigned two there before Justice Stedman. They were Thomas Percy, William Cooper, William Parker, John Smith, Frank Nelson and Thomas Fegarty.

WALTER LANE TO ENTERTAIN CITY FATHERS

COUNCIL MEETING LASTED JUST FOURTEEN MINUTES

City Clerk Goes to Kalamazoo—Don't Worry, He's Alright

The city aldermen were as a group of warriors resting on their laurels after a hard fight last night and no one seemed especially anxious to bring up any questions that would delay adjournment. The reports from the various committees were heard quickly and the council adjourned. The entire meeting took just 14 minutes and each one including the mayor took a deep breath of the cool summer air and rolled languidly out of their chairs when the meeting was over.

The only matter of any importance that was brought up was the report of the light committee recommending the installation of some twenty arc lights in different parts of the city. The council decided to install lights in the following places:

Corner of Cleveland Avenue and 22nd street; Michigan Avenue and 26th St.; Maple Avenue and 21st street; College Avenue and 23rd street; Van Ralite Avenue and 9th street; State and 25th street; On 7th street between Central and College avenues; on 12th street between Pine and Maple Avenues; on 12th street between Central and College Avenues; on 24th street between Central and College avenues; West First St., at Briev's Bakery; Corner of Central Avenue and Cherry street; on the corners of 10th, 12th, 13th, 15 and 16th streets at the intersection of the Pere Marquette tracks.

On motion of Ald. Prins Mayor Bosch will appoint a committee of three to confer with the Board of Public Works on the kind of cornerstone or plate to be put in the new Power plant building.

On motion of Ald. Prins the council decided to purchase the typewriter now in the City Engineer's office, owned by C. E. Lincoln, for $45. The typewriter was formerly rented from Mr. Lincoln.

The sum of $93.50 was spent for temporary aid during the past two weeks by the City Poor Department.

Alderman Lawrence said that City Clerk Overweg had received an invitation to attend the meeting of the City Clerks of the State at Kalamazoo and he proposed that the city send the clerk there as their delegate. Mayor Bosch expressed himself as being heartily in accord with this and the council voted unanimously to "send Mr. Overweg to Kalamazoo."

Walter Lane has a proposition to talk over with the common council and he has chosen a very pleasant, social way of arranging the meeting. Mr. Lane has invited the members of the council to come to his home next Wednesday evening. The aldermen accepted and they will meet at 7:30 in front of the city hall where automobiles will wait and convey them to Mr. Lane's home.

The residents of West 18th street petitioned the council to have that street graded and graveled. This petition was referred to the committee on streets and crosswalks.

MAY WE PLEASE HAVE THAT FIRE TRUCK?

MOTOR TRUCK DEMONSTRATIONS PART OF HOLLAND'S EXCITEMENT.

No Doubt That Motor Trucks Are The Only Things To Add to Our Equipment.

Two Firetruck Co's have been demonstrating within the past few weeks and no doubt there will be more to follow. The arguments against a fire truck have been exploded by these demonstrations. The one main argument was that a motor truck cannot go where a horse can go. This has been proven by both truck demonstrations going thru every sandy and incomplete street in the city and if this is expected from horses it would be high time to call the attention of the humane society to it. Another fact is very self evident, and that is that should any of the Holland teams have to negotiate one of the sandy hills it is very doubtful in the first place if they could go through with a heavy apparatus and should this be accomplished the horses would be unfit for further duty for some hours to come, possibly for the day.

A fire truck would make the hills and keep on going to a dozen other fires if necessary, in fact if Holland had a big fire and needed outside assistance an up-to-date fire truck could go up to Zeeland and back in 20 minutes bringing home with it any surplus hose and apparatus that were available from our neighboring town. It could go to Fennville and back in three-quarters of an hour—in fact it could be doing and giving all kinds of assistance, going from place to place about our city without intermission, covering the ground in half the time that horses can and when the horses would have been fagged out, which would be a matter of only 15 or 20 minutes, a motor truck would be purring along indefinitely, as of course there is no tiring out of an inanimate thing such as a motorized fire truck naturally is. In fact the longer it runs the better it goes, being warmed up to the occasion.

In speaking of receiving assistance from the outside this would be nothing new as it would not be the first time Holland has asked for or has given assistance to our neighbors. With the West Michigan fire, Zeeland was called on for extra hose. With the fire of '71 all our neighbors gave assistance. When the city of Allegan burned some 25 years ago, one of our reel carts was loaded on a flat car and was taken to Allegan in record-breaking time. Zeeland called on Holland for help when the De Pree-Elenbaas Mills burned down. This was true also of Grand Haven some years ago. The best argument that a motorized fire truck is the coming fire apparatus is shown by looking at the records of the factories who make fire apparatus. Five years ago 95 per cent of the apparatus made by fire apparatus manufacturers were horse-drawn and today 98 per cent is motorized. In fact every city of any importance when making any changes or adding to their equipment want nothing else but motorized fire apparatus. On page seven of this issue you will find the opinion of the fire fighters of the state of Michigan, who were in convention at Saginaw. Their first and last word is fire truck and they ought to know.

SCOUTS WILL HIKE TO OTTAWA BEACH TO HELP THE GOLF TOURNAMENT SATURDAY

Next Monday evening all boy scouts interested in challenges received from South Haven Scouts. Troop 24, of Chicago and the Grand Rapids camp will meet at Scout Headquarters at seven o'clock sharp. This will also be the last meeting before Camp Dan Beard is opened. Friday the scouts will hike to Ottawa Beach returning Saturday evening.

The South Haven Scouts wish to meet Holland Scouts in scouting competition in the big woods near Saugatuck. Troop 24 of Chicago in camp Keeshik near Pigeon Lake desire to meet the boys somewhere along the Lake Shore. Numerous other challenges have been received for the winter games from various other cities in Michigan and the Holland boys are very busy getting in shape so as to make a good showing. There are now eight first class scouts and over eighty more who are well along with their first class work. Several merit badges have been won. Herbert Van Duren has won the merit badge for swimming and personal health. Roelof Pieters personal health, horsemanship, bugling, first aid to animals, Marvin Stegader, personal health and athletics. Another scout has qualified for a number of merit badges but as he has not passed his first class examination being unable to swim he cannot secure his merit badges. He will know how to swim in a day or two after camp Dan Beard is opened as swimming is taught there in a hurry. Three new scoutmaster are in sight, Mr. Johnson, Grand Rapids News representative here, formerly scoutmaster of the Crack Troop of Grand Rapids No. 1, Dixie Hyma of the De Pree Chemical Co., and A. L. Cappon. All three are especially well fitted for the work and the boys are anxious to have them take charge. Dan Den Uly, Buck Oudemulen, Jim Van Ark and Albert Zuidema have taken out their assistant scoutmaster papers. There are now six scoutmaster and five assistants. Another assistant will be chosen from the ranks soon.

BOOZERS OR TIPLERS STAND NO SHOW

Sobriety the Watch Word at The City Power Plant.

The Board of Public Works gave the total abstainers a good boost at their last meeting by passing a resolution that all promotions in the future would be given only to men who do not use liquor. This action is in uniformity with many big corporations throughout the country as it is realized that men need a clear, unclouded brain to do the best work.

The superintendent presented the following resolution which was adopted on motion of Mr. Pifer, seconded by Mr. Bolhuis:

"Believing that the nature of the work in the power plant and pumping station requires the attendance of men wholly alive to their responsibilities and that it requires a clear brain unclouded by the effects of alcoholic drink, I herewith recommend that all promotions and increases of salary be made in favor only of men who practice total abstinence. I would further recommend that the order apply to all employees of the board."

PROF. TAYLOR IS SOME TEACHER, HE SAYS IN THE SAUGATUCK PAPER THAT HE TAUGHT 19,000 PEOPLE HOW TO SWIM.

Prof. Taylor will have his swimming class Sunday and Wednesday forenoons at Wilson's bathing beach. For further information call at the bath house. Prof. Taylor is an instructor of wide experience having taught some 19,000 people the art. He has classes at the various Black Lake resorts and in the winter he teaches at Palm Beach, Florida.—Saugatuck Commercial.

Dr. Wm. Brady says it takes more than one summer to become a swimmer. If it does and Taylor took two seasons for it with 50 lessons a season for each pupil, Professor will have furnished 1,900,000 lessons and those who never finished the course as there generally are a certain per cent who do not, Taylor could easily have rounded out this stupendous sum to an even two million lessons. We are wondering how many strokes that would make.

HOLLAND BOYS BUY STORE BUILDING IN ZEELAND.

Nykamp Bros., who several years ago purchased the harness and vehicle business of John Van Gelderen, the latter now of Miami, Fla., last week purchased the business block which they occupy and also the vacant space adjoining the same to the east, from Mr. Van Gelderen. The deal was closed by Jacob Poest, real estate agent. Mr. Wm. Nykamp one of the brothers is a resident of this city and was formerly a partner in the Citizens Transfer Co. with Al Baker now of Muskegon.

OVER 3,000 ATTEND GREAT MISSION FESTIVAL AT FRUITPORT

Several Holland Men Appear In The Program

More than 3,000 people attended the great Mission Festival at Fruitport yesterday and the weather proved to be ideal for a gathering of that kind in the open air. Several Holland men, and graduates from our local institutions, from other cities were on the program.

The program was the strongest ever presented at a mission festival of the denomination in Michigan, it is believed. The Fruitport festival is henceforth to be for the Reformed church people of Grand Rapids, Grand Haven, Muskegon and contiguous territory what the annual Jamestown festival is to the people of Holland, Zeeland and Allegan county.

GOSSIP & OUR CORRESPONDENTS

HOLLAND TOWN

Mrs. Harm Plaggenman of Holland township is in feeble health as a result of old age and her recovery is expected. She is a pioneer of the Van Raalte pasty which came here in '47. Mr. Plaggenman, who some time ago was seriously ill from dropsy has recovered. Mr. and Mrs. Plaggenman celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary last spring.

Ault Riksen, a Pine Creek farmer, lost 17 head of cattle out of a herd of 32, which failed to stand the tuberculin test. The herd was inspected by Veterinary surgeon, N. K. Prime, and the afflicted cows were promptly condemned and slaughtered. Mr. Riksen valued the slaughtered stock at nearly $1,000.

When on the morning of the fifth of July the house occupied by William Van Oort caught fire the Holland fire departments immediately went to the rescue in spite of the fact that house was not within the city limits, but was located in Holland township, just east of the limits. To show their appreciation 30 of the residents of that neighborhood got up a purse which Thursday night they gave to the Holland firemen. The members of the two departments hereby wish to express their thanks to the residents of that section for this token of courtesy on their part.

A family reunion of the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Mrs. G. Tubbergen was held Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Tubbergen a few miles south of Holland. Mrs. Tubbergen was 88 years old Thursday and there was a large company present to help her celebrate the event. Mrs. Tubbergen has six children, fifteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild. A photograph was taken of members of four generations, including Mrs. Tubbergen, her daughter, Mrs. C. P. Zwemmer, of this city, her granddaughter, Mrs. H. Bartels, and the latter's little daughter, Marie, the great grandchild of Mrs. Tubbergen.

The most conspicuous illustration of the interest in good roads of the farmers along the route from Holland to Muskegon is manifested in the work that has been accomplished this season thus far. Outside of Holland, north for a distance of two miles the road built two years ago is in splendid condition and an illustration of what the entire highway is to be when completed. The remainder of the distance to Grand Haven 20 miles is now in process of building and much of this distance is in good shape and passable for traffic that could not have been accommodated last year when the second annual pike tour took place. At that time a considerable distance of the road was practically impassible except for light hauling by farmers and as an automobile road it was practically impossible. The change has been remarkable.

One thing noticeable is the spirit shown by the farmers along the road. A year and more ago it would have been impossible to get farmers to participate in a systematic plan. This year it is worthy of note that a large percentage of the grading of the entire 22 miles between Holland and Grand Haven has been contributed and the farmers haul the gravel free. Along the road from Holland the pike tourists saw about 40 miles of gravel being unloaded and this work the farmers mostly contribute in the interests of good roads.

The barn of Klam Baker at Buchanan beach burned Thursday afternoon and two horses lost their lives in the fire. A large quantity of hay and other farm produce was destroyed. Efforts were made to put out the fire, employees at the Lakewood Farm going to the scene, but it had made such headway that very little could be done. The fire is supposed to have started from spontaneous combustion in new hay.

Traveling Man's Experience

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from four a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to the directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

"LUTE" HOFFMAN OF NEW HOLLAND WAS BEATEN AND ROBBED SATURDAY NIGHT

Dick Riemersma, an employee at Jackson's garage, and Chris VerPlanke were arrested Monday by Deputy Sheriff Dornbos, charged with breaking and entering the home of Lewis Hoffman at North Holland with intent to rob and that they did rob and commit actual assault upon Mr. Hoffman. The complaint against Riemersma was made by Mr. Hoffman, and the arrest of VerPlanke followed evidence given by Riemersma. Both men demanded an examination when arraigned before Justice Miles Monday. The examination was set for Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the court room of the city hall. Bail was set at $1,000 each by Justice Miles as the crime is a serious one and is punishable by not exceeding 20 years in the State's prison. The men were both lodged in the city jail Monday noon and they made an attempt to secure bondsmen Monday afternoon.

According to "Lute" Hoffman's story he was awakened late Saturday night, probably between 11 and 12 o'clock by loud pounding on his door. The noise continued for some little time and when he did not open the door the two men broke it open. Rushing in they demanded Hoffman's money.

The intruders had the greater part of their faces covered with handkerchiefs, but Mr. Hoffman declares that he recognized one of them almost immediately in spite of the disguise. They told him to give up all the money he had in the house and when he refused they hit him over the head with something. Later a broken lantern was found and it is supposed that they used this as a weapon.

They went through Hoffman's pockets and found $3.70 in change which they pocketed. Apparently disappointed at not finding more they charged Hoffman with having money hidden in the cellar. Ordering him to descend in to the basement and produce the cash they kept guard over the cellar door awaiting his return.

Hoffman took advantage of the opportunity to crawl through a basement window. He hastened to the home of John Smith, a neighbor, and the two hastened back to the Hoffman home.

But the robbers meanwhile had made their escape. According to Hoffman's story they had come to the house in a rig and they drove away in that while Hoffman was calling for help.

Hoffman suffered several gashes on his head where the robbers struck him when he failed to produce the money they wanted. His face was covered with blood when he arrived at the Smith home.

The people of North Holland were aroused over the brutal attack on Hoffman.

Acting on Mr. Hoffman's statement that he recognized one of the men that entered his home, a complaint was made out against Riemersma. When brought into court and informed of the charge against him Riemersma did not make any attempt to deny that he had been at Hoffman's house but instead he put up a very clever story to prove that he was innocent of all wrong-doing. Riemersma said that he met a man at the circus ground Saturday night whom he did not know. The man wanted to go for a ride so he, Riemersma, hired a rig and they drove through the country. When they came to Mr. Hoffman's house, Riemersma said, he wanted to stop to see Mr. Hoffman, who is a friend of his. They went in and, according to Riemersma, his newly-made friend turned on Mr. Hoffman and on himself also. He said his friend struck Mr. Hoffman and took money from him and that he also knocked him, Riemersma, down, and forced him to do his bidding. Riemersma said he was compelled to do everything his friends asked of him and he was also robbed of 40 cents. When they had returned to Holland he said his friend paid for the rig.

In answer to questions Riemersma declared vehemently he did not know the other man, but after he had been quietly informed by Justice Miles, that he, Riemersma, would have to suffer alone for the whole affair Riemersma said he knew where the man lived who was with him.

When VerPlanke was arraigned before Justice Miles, he did not admit the crime nor did he deny it. Instead he said that he was so drunk Saturday night that he does not remember going in the country and that if he did attack Mr. Hoffman he did not mean to but that it was because he was drunk.

Henry Smith said that he met Mr. Riemersma and Mr. VerPlanke on the road near Mr. Hoffman's home Saturday night and that when he hailed Mr.

Riemersma the latter did not answer his greeting. Mr. Smith called out "Isn't that you Dick?" and Mr. Riemersma answered him and said that they were going to the home of John Smith.

Chris VerPlanke, charged with burglary of the home of Lewis Hoffman at New Holland and assault on Mr. Hoffman, secured bonds of $1,000 and was released pending his examination Friday afternoon before Justice Miles. Dick Riemersma, held on a similar charge, was unable to secure bonds, and he was taken to the county jail to await his examination tomorrow.

Plans are being made by relatives and friends of Mr. VerPlanke, who is interested in Zeeland Ornamental Co. in this city and is holding the position of shipping clerk with that firm, to prove him innocent of the charge against him, and interesting developments are looked for at the examination.

Our prices are not like a balloon, first blown up and then busted back to its original size. We can sell you as good a suit as anyone wants to wear for $15.00 right off the reel, without juggling the prices first. Our goods have the stamp of merit on them backed up by the O. WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH LUCAS "MCKINLEY" DE WEERT?

Hired Luke to Wheel the Postmaster's Ideal to City Hall Daily

Lucas De Weert, better known as "McKinley," had at last landed a job and Tuesday morning he commenced work.

But alas, the same night he was fired. However here is the whole story:

Sometime ago a local man asked Lucas why he did not go to work instead of spending part of his time in the county infirmary and trying to live off the city. Lucas answered he could not get work. The local man told him he would give him a job. Lucas inquired as to what it was and he was told to push a wheelbarrow from in front of Alderman Prins' store—incidentally Alderman Prins is chairman of the poor committee and he has had several unpleasant dealings with Mr. DeWeert in an effort to get that individual to go to work—to the City Hall and return twice daily was the job mapped out, supposedly with a wheelbarrow full of progressive ideas from the Father of the First. The trips were to be made at ten o'clock when a fresh new load of ideas would be ready in the morning and at three o'clock in the afternoon, he was to bring them back after the city clerk, assessor, treasurer, surveyor, librarian and the rest of the city hall household, including a few stray aldermen were given a chance to pick one. Another one of the provisions was that Lucas must keep in the middle of the street all the time. For these services he was to receive the sum of 25 cents a trip. Lucas turned the offer down at the time; but later he said he got to thinking it over and had decided that it would be a fine job for him. He said he had figured it out that he could live on one dollar and a half a week and by pushing the wheelbarrow over the streets twice daily he would be earning twice that sum in a week.

Monday morning he began pushing an iron wheelbarrow along the middle of the car track on 8th St. He said that he had borrowed the wheelbarrow from Alderman Prins on the plea that he was going to work with it and needed a strong one so it would hold the weighty problems that would be conveyed forth and back.

But on his very first trip he came in contact with an alderman—or nearly did. As it was, Ald. Slagh missed him very narrowly with his automobile. It is hard to determine whether the alderman had it in for "McKinley" or the wheelbarrow or what was in the wheelbarrow. In the afternoon he repeated his trip and drew his fifty cents.

Lucas declared that he would continue this work until next Christmas, but fate was against him. On his return trip from the city hall Monday afternoon he stopped to rest and he left his wheelbarrow standing near the curb on the corner of River Avenue and 9th street while he took a walk. When he was gone and returned his wheelbarrow that caused his employer to fire him. However Lucas had 50c in his pocket, enough to live on for 2½ days, and so he was happy. He said Ald. Prins could look up the wheelbarrow if he wanted it, and went on his way smiling.

The alderman is still looking for the wheelbarrow and if he finds it, may convert it into a chemical and hose cart to be stationed in the Fifth ward. Then if he can keep Lucas "McKinley" De Weert hitched, it will save the city the price of a fire truck or an extra span of horses as is advocated by Brother Alderman Wiersma.

LATER—Prins has found his wheelbarrow, but then it was empty.

SCHOOL COMMISSIONER TELLS EMPLOYERS ABOUT NEW AGE LIMIT OF FIFTEEN.

No Lads Under That Age May Work. County School Commissioner Stanton is informing employers of labor in the city and county that the new law in regard to the labor of school children, a law passed by the last Michigan legislature, is in effect now. This law makes it unlawful for any person to employ any child under the age of fifteen either during the period of the school year or during the summer months, except such children may be employed in picking fruit and similar occupations that involve a perishable article.

The old law placed the age limit at 14 years, but the last legislature added a year.

DIEKEMA STRONG MAN; SAYS GRAND HAVEN PAPER IN COMMENTING ON THE TRIP

The Ottawa county men who made the West Michigan pike trip this year are most enthusiastic over the enthusiasm shown along the whole route. Especially in the northern section of the state was the booster spirit prevalent and whole committees turned out to welcome the tourists.

One of the strong men on the tour this year was Gerrit J. Diekema of Holland. Mr. Diekema made dozens of speeches, speaking at nearly every stop. He was always willing to preach the gospel of good roads, and never failed the officers. One of the remarkable things about the Diekema talks were that no two of them were alike. He made an impression wherever he spoke.

"PUBLIC HEALTH" GIVES ESTIMATE OF "BRAM"

Magazine Issued Today Prints Editorial About That Book.

In the June number of "Public Health," a magazine published by the Michigan State Board of Health, issued today appears an editorial entitled "Old Facts and New Fiction." It is of interest to local people because it gives some idea of the estimate that the editors of that magazine, men who are well posted on all movements that have a relation to public health, place upon Arnold Mulder's novel, "Bram of the Five Corners." The editorial reads as follows:—

"Old Facts and New Fiction"

"Eugenics and feeble-mindedness are subjects that are more and more claiming the attention of the medical world. Physicians, as a rule, have at least a keen academic interest in these subjects, and most of them are more and more turning this interest to practical account in their work."

"But to the mere average layman the word 'eugenics' and 'moron' and similar words have very little meaning. Especially is this true of the word 'eugenics.' It is safe to say that on an average not one in ten has any clear conception of the real meaning of the word. Smart newspaper writers have for a long time been in the habit of making fun of what the word stands for, calling it faddish, foolish, and impractical. To the average mind the science of eugenics means nothing more than the artificial mating of men and women in the same way that cattle are mated, to produce blooded stock. In fact, the word has a humorous connotation for the average man. It is something to be made fun of. That it is really a serious movement in the modern conception of race betterment is something that never enters the mind of such a person."

"Physicians and scientists and thinkers have done a great deal to correct this view. The articles of Dr. Vaughan, Mr. McClure, and others, which have appeared in Public Health, we believe have done considerable along this line. These little concrete stories of cases of real life, with only names and places disguised, give pictures that cannot but help have a great effect in creating a better understanding of these subjects. And, after all, that is the most effective method of disseminating information among the readers of average education and development, about this most important subject. The more technical and scientific discussions, while of great value to the student and the scientist, are not read by the average man. It is the story that 'carries' the more solid material, as the newspaper boy describes it. The millions read the story or the novel while only a few read the works of science."

"It is for that reason that the entrance of the 'moron' and of the race betterment idea into American fiction seems significant. Some weeks ago a new novel appeared, one of the characters of which is a 'moron,' and the general theme of which is the duty of the individual towards the race. This book is entitled 'Bram of the Five Corners,' written by Arnold Mulder, a newspaper man of Holland, Michigan, and published by A. C. McClurg & Co., Chicago."

It is the story of the fight a young man makes against tradition. Bram, the central character of the book, embodies the new ideas of race betterment and his troubles result from early courtship and entanglements with a girl who "never grows up," and who, though physically attractive, remains mentally a child. The young man comes to see in time that he would be untrue to his newer ideals of race betterment by marrying her, and a dramatic story follows of his troubles and his struggles against the hide-bound tradition of a very conservative Dutch community in Western Michigan."

COMMITTEE CHOOSES MISS KANTERS AS JUNIOR CHAUTAUQUA ASSISTANT

Will Be Opportunity to Learn Newest Methods in Interesting Children.

The evolution of the chautauqua system has advanced so far that now the chautauqua companies aim to leave some permanent benefit in the cities that they visit each year. At least that is the new plan of the Lincoln Chautauqua system that shows in Holland. This year they will attempt to attain this end in connection with the Junior Chautauqua.

To make this feature of lasting value the company has requested that a local person be appointed to co-operate with the child expert furnished by the company. The claim is made by the Lincoln people that such a person will receive valuable training in the kind of work that is being done in cities more and more, namely the work of interesting the children in one way or another and developing their latent capabilities. The Lincoln people claim that such training will be an asset to the city and will be of great value.

In looking about for a person to take up this work the committee kept in mind that some one should be chosen whose training in this line would result in the greatest possible good for the city itself. They have finally appointed Miss Jennie Kanters, city librarian. Miss Kanters for a year or two past has been developing a story hour and other children features in connection with the public library. This work has been a regular branch of library activities and has been remarkably successful. The committee believe that by choosing Miss Kanters for this chautauqua work the children of the whole city will receive a permanent benefit because the work will give her valuable training along this important line which will later be reflected in new features for interesting the children in connection with the library activities.

STATE RURAL LETTER CARRIERS HAVE COME AND GONE AFTER A SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION

Long In Their Praises of Holland As a Convention Town

For the first time in the history of the Holland postoffice all the rural routes were covered by substitutes Tuesday and Wednesday when the 13th Annual convention of the Michigan Rural Letter Carriers association convened in this city. There was 98 visiting delegates registered at Hotel Holland where the visitors were received and every one expressed themselves as highly pleased with the way they were entertained in Holland, and Mr. C. E. Eaton of Bay City, Michigan, an expresident of the association and a pioneer went so far as to say that the convention in Holland was the best ever held within his remembrance. The work of entertaining fell mostly on Anthony Rosbach, president of the Ottawa County Carriers' association, and he was greatly aided in his work by the other local carriers and by the members of the Chamber of Commerce and by Geo. Getz who opened the gates of Lakewood farm to the visitors.

Charlevoix was decided upon as the place of holding the next annual convention of the association. Owosso was a close competitor for this honor. The following officers for next year and delegates to the national convention to be held in Detroit, August 10, 11, 12, and 13 were named. They are as follows:

President—W. F. Jensen, Rodney, Michigan.

Vice-President—Rex Anthony, Ada, Michigan.

Secretary—John R. Smith, Marshall, Michigan.

Treasurer—T. E. Abbs, Aoe Claire, Michigan.

Members Executive Committee—B. C. Forman, Plainwell; Delegates at Large to the National Convention—E. C. Eaton, Bay City and M. C. Weber, Saranac; Delegates to the National Convention—Hazen Randall, Coldwater; Robert Cowan, Pulaski; J. O. Weaver, Hesperia; G. Rutgers, Holland; H. C. Randall, Colwater; B. R. Fisher, Niles; Mrs. S. L. McMillen, Greenville; Charles Ihler, of Hopkins.

The convention had its formal opening in this city Tuesday morning with a meeting in the city hall. The following committees were appointed:

Credentials—C. C. Eaton, Saginaw, M. C. Weber, Saranac, T. E. Abbs, of Eau Claire; By-laws and Constitution—G. W. Cannon of Pontiac, W. T. Jensen of Rodney and D. G. Smith of Marshall; Resolutions—Frank White of Sanolay, J. C. Hoyt of Bellview, and F. M. Doty of White Cloud; Location of next State Convention; George H. Berry, of Watervliet, George Morton of St. Johns and R. C. Cowan of Pulaski.

Mayor Bosch welcomed the visitors to the city and lauded the rural letter carriers and their work. Responses for the association were made by A. F. Korte of Bay City, State President. W. H. Oliver, Superintendent of Construction of Federal Buildings, Washington D. C., was unable to be here Tuesday morning to take part in the program. Mr. Oliver was scheduled for an address. B. Vander Heide, Rural Carrier of Zeeland, read a paper on the subject, "Efficiency in the Service." After Mr. Vander Heide's address followed a general discussion and then the noon recess.

The meeting was resumed Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the city hall. The committee on credentials made its report and the program was postponed.

The entertainment part of the convention came Tuesday afternoon after the meeting when the visitors were treated with an automobile ride to the resorts around Black lake and to Lakewood farm. At Lakewood farm they were royally entertained by George Getz and were shown the beauties of the wonderland farm of Western Michigan. This trip was conceded by all the visitors to be the best part of the convention and one that will leave a bright memory of Holland.

At the meeting in Carnegie hall Tuesday night there was a good sized audience. In addition to addresses by G. Van Schelven and Congressman Carl E. Mapes, addresses were given by A. H. Landwehr, president of the chamber of commerce, Att. W. O. VanEyck, Hon. G. J. Diekema and Congressman S. W. Beakes of Ann Arbor. Mr. Diekema gave a fine address in which he extolled the rural carriers and said they represented some of the finest manhood in the state. Mr. Beakes touched on the changes made in rural routes showing how in some cases it is necessary because there was considerable overlapping in some parts of the country, he said.

Postmaster G. Van Schelven gave some interesting statistics in his talk. He showed that Holland is in the second division in the state in the number of routes going out from this postoffice. There are seven cities in the state that have ten or more routes, to wit: Grand Rapids, 14; Kalamazoo Holland and Caro each 12; Charlotte and St. Johns, 11; Battle Creek, 10.

All the 84 counties in the state of Michigan have rural service with the exception of five: Alger, Crawford, Gogebie, Keweenaw and Ontonagon.

Four counties have only one rural route each, namely, Baraga, Houghton, Iron and Rosecommon.

Five counties have only two rural routes each, namely, Dickinson, Luce, Mackinac, Marquette and Oscoda.

There are 699 postoffices in the state from which routes emanate with a total of 1929 routes or carriers.

Congressman Carl E. Mapes in his address said "We, in this section of the state," in referring to this subject, "have been more fortunate than you who come from Saginaw, Eaton, Lenawee, Shiawassee, and other counties have been. Our routes have not yet been molested and turned upside down as your have, been and for the sake of the service I hope that they will not be. It is hard to believe that the Department thoroughly understands the conditions in this section of the country. If it does, it does not seem as though it would have made some of the changes that it has."

"It may be possible for the carriers to cover the lengthened routes and give fair service to the patrons in good weather with good roads, but it is going to be very difficult, if not impossible, to do so in the winter time when the roads are poor."

Mr. Mapes has made an effort to persuade the department to let the routes here alone. In answer to a letter from the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Blakeslee, asking for his opinion on conditions in his districts, namely, Ot tawa and Kent counties, he replied that "the patrons throughout the district are very well satisfied with the present service, and I trust that no radical changes such as have been made in other sections of this state, will be made in this district."

Mr. Mapes in his letter further called attention to the fact that roads in this district are nearly all dirt roads and in very bad condition during parts of the year. He expressed the opinion that a standard route of 24 miles is as much as a carrier can do on an average.

While the department gave no definite promise that the routes in this district will not be molested there was a hint in the reply to Mr. Mapes's letter that appeared hopeful to the carriers who listened to him last evening. At least they applauded it heartily when the congressman read it to them. It reads as follows: "I beg to assure you that the statements contained in your letter will be given careful consideration in the event the revision of the rural service in your district is taken up."

An Allegan attorney has written to the secretary of state to learn who has that number. Allega Gazette. It is not likely that the rural mail routes of Allegan county will be much disturbed by the postoffice department's scheme for re-organization of such routes in general. Congressman Beakes of Ann Arbor went to Washington to protest against changes announced for Washtenaw county. Returning he says that the scheme contemplates laying of routes by counties as a whole, a plan which secures better adjustments than were given by the way of forming the routes by petition which obtained in the beginning. Allegan county was reorganized on the county plan within two years after the first routes were established, so there is not likely to be any disturbance of present arrangements.

HOLLAND AT LAST HAS SURE ENOUGH JITNEY BUS

At last Holland has a real, sure-enough jitney bus. Some months ago a local man converted his Ford into a bus and commenced a business of carrying people to any part of the city for five cents. He has since raised his price to ten cents. There are several local cars for hire and one makes runs from Holland to the Parks. They all are labeled with signs but the newest bus added to the force is the only one that so far has dared to bear the sign "Jitney Bus."

ENTERS THE SWAMP EXPECTING CRIME AND FINDS GANG OF INNOCENT WORKMEN

Aged Lady Thought She Heard Dull, Mournful Sounds in Swamps. An elderly lady was sitting at the P. M. Depot Tuesday afternoon waiting for a train when from the dense swampy jungle near-by came a dull, mournful sound, very much like a human being in mortal agony. At the first cry she became very much alarmed, and after a few more cries she could stand the nervous strain no longer.

Patrolman Sam Meeuwse was fortunate enough to get the call to come to the Pere Marquette depot in a hurry. Sam went, ready for any emergency. The lady "quietly" explained the cause of the hurry-up. Mr. Meeuwse threw back his shoulders, took a deep breath of pure air, looked longingly at the grass, the flowers and the trees, realizing how sweet life is; and then he entered the swamp.

No terrible crime had been committed. The scene that met his gaze was very peaceful and serene. A gang of workmen were moving heavy rails on the interurban tracks on the other side of the swamp and it was their innocent grunts of "Heave-ho" that had caused all the trouble.

"Babe" Woldring, the Holland favorite, will pitch the entire game Saturday and other old-timers will be seen in the Holland line-up, besides some new men that are developing rapidly. Jack Schouten will umpire the game.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER
THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Compared with other cities and towns further inland we have escaped considerable of the hot wave, and no bad results are to be chronicled. Altho the weather has been hot the thermometer could not be coaxed higher than 96 in the shade in the hottest corners. On the top of the hills, in the shade, near the harbor, it was fully ten degrees lower. On Thursday evening a nor'wester began to blow, which cooled things off lively, and today (Friday) we are having fine, cool weather.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Lightning struck the barn of Gerrit Jeurink on last Wednesday evening shattering the roof and timbers in a bad way and stunning horses. The barn is insured in the Farmers' Mutual Ins. Co., of Ottawa and Allegan counties.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Hans Thompson has accepted the position as janitor at the Central High School building upon the terms offered him by the board of education.

Fishing at the resorts continues to be good. It is much better now than for last two years.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

There was a happy wedding at half past three o'clock Tuesday afternoon in which many in Holland will be interested. It took place at the home of Mr. James Cooper, North Michigan avenue, Saginaw Michigan, the contracting parties being Miss Minnie H. Cook and Mr. Henry P. Streng, both well known here. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Bruske, president of Alma College assisted by Rev. C. E. Bronson.

The house was profusely decorated with flowers. There were many friends of Miss Cook and Mr. Streng present, and the presents displayed were numerous and handsome as well as valuable. Immediately following the wedding there was a reception after which the bride and groom left for Detroit; thence by boat to Milwaukee where they visited Mr. Streng's brother, John C. Streng.

They expect to return to Holland about July 24th and will make their temporary home at the residence of George P. Hummer, until their new home, now in the course of construction on Tenth street near Columbia is completed, which will be about Sept. 15th.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

One of the most delightful afternoon receptions of the season was held yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. Van Schelven, Twelfth street, where Mrs. Van Schelven entertained in honor of her sister, Mrs. George Conway of Waupun, Wisconsin. Over eighty guests were present and the afternoon was pleasantly spent. The house was very beautifully decorated with carnations, nasturtiums and sweet peas and the lawn was trimmed with the National colors and ferns. Those who assisted at the reception were the Misses Tillie Van Schelven, Anna Conway, and Clara Conway, and elaborate refreshments were served by the Misses Grace and Amy Yates, Nell Ver Schure, Martha and Jeanette Blom, Anna Riemers, Audrey Riemers and Sadie Conway.

TEN YEARS AGO

Born to Mr. and Mrs. P. Pelon, East Eighth street, last Friday—a son.

Henry Vanden Belt of Fillmore and Miss Jeanette Vlien were married last Monday afternoon by Justice McBride James Kopenka, living North of Holland on R. F. D. No. 7, delivered the first load of cucumbers for this year at the H. J. Heinz Co. plant Tuesday. The indications were never better for a large crop of cucumbers.

Mrs. C. M. McLean of 191 West Twelfth street gave a charming tea Friday from 3 to 5, for her sister, Miss Sears of Buffalo, who is her guest for the summer. The decorations were unusually pretty and attractive, a profusion of palms and asparagus fern being used with sweet peas in the parlor and elderberry blooms in the dining room. The refreshments were elaborate. Mesdames W. H. Wing, G. E. Kollen, B. A. Kanters and Miss Kittie Doesburg served in the dining room assisted by Misses Justina McCallum, Hazel Wing, Grace Browning and Gladys Williams. Miss Kanters presided at the punch bowl. Mesdames Browning, King, Boers and Diekema assisted in entertaining. About 150 ladies were present.

COMPASS GOES WRONG

AUTOMOBILISTS LAND IN WAYLAND
INSTEAD OF HOLLAND

That even a compass is sometimes unreliable as an indicator for finding the way was the unhappy experience of Dr. C. E. Boone of Olive Center, and Dick Rot, an East Holland farmer. Boone and Rot started out on automobile tour of strange country highways and took a compass along. On their way home the compass steered them east instead of north and before they were aware of it they were in Wayland, Allegan county, about 25 miles from home. Incidentally the supply of gasoline ran low and they were compelled to root out a storekeeper for a fresh supply.

DROWNING OF SON CAUSES THE DEATH OF MOTHERNever Recovered from the Shock of
Her Boy's Death by Falling Thru
The Ice Last Winter

A drowning tragedy that stirred the city last winter had an aftermath Monday night when Mrs. Arie Doctor died at her home on West 29th street after an illness that has lasted almost since her boy fell through the ice. It was in January that little 12-year-old Arie Doctor fell into a hole in Pine Creek Bay. The shock of that tragedy undermined the health of the boy's mother. Had his body been found immediately the result might not have been fatal for the mother. But the long drawn-out horror of dragging for the body day after day, the constant disappointment at not finding him, and the final giving up of the search until the warm weather of the spring should give up the body, all told on the mother. The suspense was more than she could stand and Monday night the end came.

The deceased was forty years old. She was born in the Netherlands. Four years ago she came to Holland with her husband and two children, the little boy who later lost his life in Black Lake and a little girl.

The funeral was held this forenoon at ten o'clock from the home and at 10:30 o'clock from the Prospect Park Christian Reformed church. The Rev. Mr. Einink, pastor of the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church, officiated. Interment took place in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

FENNIVILLE STORE BROKEN INTO TWICE IN ONE YEAR.

Fennville, July 19—The big double store of W. E. Siffert here was burglarized Sunday night for the 2nd time within a year. Two watches and some jewelry were taken and the cash register was rifled of some small change. Entry was gained through a rear window of the building from which a small pane of glass had been removed. Similar entrance was made to the store a year ago and through a small hole. The county sheriff's force is making an investigation.

DYKE & OOSTING OF THIS CITY
ARE SUCCESSFUL BIDDERS
FOR THE LAKEWOOD
JOB."Concrete" Connolly Expressed Opinion
That It Will Mean More Permanent Roads Here

The Ottawa County Road Commission at the court house, Grand Haven, Tuesday morning gave the contract for building the two miles of concrete highway on the Alpena road to Dyke & Oosting, contractors, of this city. The bidding for the job was brisk because the job attracted a good deal of attention but the Holland men landed the contract at 89¢ per square yard.

The work on the job will begin as soon as the grading of the road is far enough advanced so that a beginning can be made. Barney Riksen has the contract for grading the two miles and that work will be pushed with all possible speed.

Great things are hoped for from the two miles or more of concrete on the Alpena road because it is expected to prove that concrete is the material that should be used in road building. "Concrete" Connolly of Spring Lake was in here Tuesday to deliver an address before the Michigan Rural Letter Carriers' convention, and in commenting on the Alpena road plan he declared that he was confident it would prove conclusively that the county ought to look to that material more and more for real highways. He declared that on the Pike tour he had paid particular attention to stone roads that had been improved last year. On the tour a year ago, he said these roads were in beautiful shape while this year they were full of holes and much of the stone had become powdered and had been blown away. His conclusion was that a more permanent material like concrete should be used.

At the Letter Carriers' meeting Tuesday afternoon Mr. Connolly delivered an eloquent address on "Permanent Roads." He made a hit by quoting a song that is sung to the tune of "Tipperary," the refrain of which constantly recurs as follows:

"It's all wrong building Temp-or-ary,
When it will not last."

LOCAL MEN OBJECT TO GAME LAW

Say 25 Perch Is Not Enough; Other
Laws Go Into Effect Soon.

Probably the thing that most interests the people of Holland in the new game laws that go into effect August 24 is the provision that fisherman cannot catch more than 25 perch in one fishing. It is the opinion in this neighborhood where catches up to 200 are frequent and families are large, that 25 perch cannot begin to furnish a meal.

It has been learned from reliable authority that the local fishermen do not intend to submit to this law if they can help it and it is planned among a group of fishermen to have one of their number get arrested and then all bear the expense of carrying the case to the Supreme court for a final decision.

The same law that applies to perch applies to blue gills, sunfish and other small fish.

Another game law gets after the hunter. All hunters excepting those who hunt on their own premises must pay a license fee of $1 each, according to the latest hunting law which goes into effect August 24.

Another law which goes into effect this year is "the absent voters' act," providing that all legal voters absent from the county at the time of election can vote by mail.

After August 24 the county clerk will pay a bounty of five cents a head on all rats killed in the county.

HUDSONVILLE IS PROGRESSIVE.
PEOPLE OF VILLAGE TAKE STEPS TO SAFEGUARD THEIR PROPERTY

Hudsonville, Mich., July 19—The burning of the Drew barn, a few nights ago, and the nearness to complete destruction of a goodly portion of the town has stimulated local citizens to action in procuring a more effective system of protection.

It has been decided to purchase at least seven new hydrants and 400 more feet of 3-inch hose for our fire system. With this addition to the protection now at hand, it is thought that the village will be able to successfully subdue any conflagration that could possibly visit the thicker populated part of the town.

LOCAL MAN SOLVES BEAR STORY TOLD BY LOVERS.

It is thought that one bear mystery has been solved by a local man. Last Thursday evening two lovers sitting on a porch in West Sixteenth street when what they supposed to be two huge black bears stalked past. The couple held their breath until the bears were safely by and then the man became bold enough to attempt to follow the bears. He was so far behind that he soon lost track of them.

One local man after hearing the story had a good laugh and declared confidently that the two bears must be the two huge black dogs owned by L. Knoll, the West 14th street butcher. These dogs are as large as bears and might easily be taken for the ferocious animal of the wilds.

JOHN M. VAN ZOEREN IS LOOKED UP IN GRAND HAVEN FOR
SIXTY DAYSOther Charges May Be Brought Up Against Him When He Gets Out.

John M. Van Zoeren, local insurance agent who was brought here Thursday by Deputy Sheriff Hub Harrington on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses by giving Fred Klaasen a bogus check, was sentenced to spend 60 days in the county jail when arraigned before Justice Sooy Thursday night. VanZoeren was given a chance to pay a fine and $15 and costs of $51.35 but was unable to raise any money. He was taken to the county jail at Grand Haven this noon by Deputy Sheriff Mr. Harrington.

Throughout the whole proceedings Mr. Van Zoeren has maintained his usual air of bravado.

When arrested by Mr. Harrington Mr. VanZoeren had but two cents in his pocket; his hat and coat had been grabbed by a restaurant owner to whom he owed money and his ring had been taken for another debt. His hat was returned to him, but Thursday morn. he was wearing no stockings and a few inches of his person showed plainly from beneath his trousers as he walked along.

When being taken here and at the time of his arraignment, Mr. Van Zoeren spoke with the greatest of confidence of what his friends here would do for him. He said he could raise all kinds of money in the morning. On Friday morning none of Mr. Van Zoeren's "friends" came to offer the cash, and when Mr. Van Zoeren sent Mr. Harrington to a local merchant to see if the merchant would advance him some money the merchants informed the Deputy that Van Zoeren has passed a bogus check on him securing some money in cash and that if he would do anything he would have another warrant sworn out for him. It is charged that Mr. Van Zoeren passed several checks in Holland that were "no good," and it is not unlikely that another warrant will be sworn out for him as soon as he has completed his 60 days sentence.

While Mr. Van Zoeren was in the charge of Mr. Harrington Thursday a man stopped him and demanded that Van Zoeren pay back the dollar he had borrowed from his son, saying that there would be trouble. When Mr. Harrington informed the man that Van Zoeren was under arrest the man smiled happily and said "Dat is goed."

In the city jail Friday, Mr. Van Zoeren staid that he would never be taken to the county jail to serve out his sentence, but when the time came to go he did not offer any resistance.

A number of Holland men rejoiced in the arrest of Rae McHenry in Detroit. McHenry flim-flammed several Holland delegates to the Elks' convention and was finally nabbed in Detroit at his old game. In Grand Rapids during the convention McHenry took photographs of several of the Holland men in their full regalia. He then collected a considerable sum of money for the pictures. But the pictures never came.

Goodyear
Fortified Tires
Cost Users $5,000,000 Less

Our last price reduction—made February 1st—will save Goodyear users about five million dollars this year. And that was our third reduction in two years, totaling 45 per cent.

And we shall spend $100,000 on research this year to find more improvements still.

They Are Yours

These extras belong to you. They mean less rim-cuts, less blowouts, less loose treads. They mean more rubber, more fabric, more mileage, less trouble. Most tire users know that, so Goodyear tires far outsell any other.

Prove it yourself this summer. It will bring you tire contentment.

Any dealer, if you ask him, will supply you Goodyear tires.

Yet Note This

Yet Goodyear Fortified Tires embody many extras. Five are costly features found in no other tire. The rest are found in few.

If we omitted those extras, we could save on this year's probable output $1,635,000. We could add that to our profits, yet Goodyear tires would look as good as now.

This year's improvements alone will cost us $500,000 this year. All to give you ex-

Men are now adopting Goodyear tires faster than we can supply them. We have never seen anything like it.

YOUNG MAN AT SAUGATUCK MEETS DEATH IN THE WATER.

Feared Explosion and Tried to Save Self by Jumping Into the Water.

When his launch caught fire Thursday afternoon on the Kalamazoo river at Saugatuck while he was about mid-stream Richard Roda, 21 years old, had the alternative of staying with the boat and risking an explosion when the flames should reach the gasoline tank or jumping into the water and get clear of the launch. Realizing that the explosion of the gasoline tank would mean almost certain death, young Roda took his chances in that way. But it seems that he could not swim very well and he went down before help arrived from shore. His dead body was recovered some time later.

The young man's home is in Ludington. With his father, he came to Saugatuck this spring to engage in carp fishing there. But that did not prove a success and was given up for the time being by the son. The young man secured temporarily a job with a grocery store and was in the habit of delivering the groceries with a launch. He had been working at this only a very short time when he accident of Thursday afternoon occurred.

This is the second drowning in the Kalamazoo river at Saugatuck within a week. A few days ago a boy working on one of the vessels of the Indiana Transportation company was a victim of the river.

About six o'clock the coast guard station at Macatawa was called up to aid in finding the body. Two members of the crew Vander Bie and Van Oort was hurried to the scene in a launch and at about nine o'clock they recovered the body.

Paul Mastenbrook Finds Animal With Broken Leg.

Paul Mastenbrook, Grand Haven township farmer, lost a valuable work horse last Saturday. Mr. Mastenbrook was in Spoonville at the time working and left his horse in the barn with other horses. It is believed that his horse kicked at one of the other horses in an adjoining stall and kicked thru the wood work and broke one of its legs. When Mr. Mastenbrook returned he found his horse in agony and was obliged to kill the animal.

ADULT BIBLE CLASS OF TRINITY CHURCH COMBINES BUSINESS AND PLEASURE AND HELD PICNIC AT HOME OF ONE OF THE MEMBERS.

The Mens' Adult Bible Class of Trinity Reformed church enjoyed a hay-rack ride to the suburban home of Mr. Herman Cook on the Graafschap road Monday night for the purpose of holding their regular quarterly meeting.

A program of field sports and contests had been arranged for the occasion by the entertainment committee and several handsome and useful articles were offered as first and second prizes to successful contestants. John Luidens won first and Mr. John Ensing second prize in the sack race. Mr. John Sandy won first and Mr. Ed Barkel won second prize in a running race. Mr. Prins won first and Mr. George Dalman second in a running broad jump. Mr. Prins and Mr. Sandy were first and second in a standing broad jump. The barrel rolling contest was won by Mr. Bouwman and Mr. Barkel in the order named.

The "handsomest man" voting contest was won hands down by Mr. Strabbing with Mr. Cook a close contender for the honor.

Tables had been arranged in Mr. Cook's orchard where refreshments were served after which a short business session was held. The reports rendered by the treasurer, secretary and various committee chairmen were very encouraging. The class is slowly but surely reaching the century mark and during the next quarter special efforts will be made to realize this ambition. The class meets every Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock and visitors are assured at all times of a cordial reception. Prof. John E. Kuizenga will teach the lesson next Sunday. Every body welcome.

Holland Baby Among the Beauties.

Richard Cotton Robbins, aged 4, a Holland baby boy, is pictured in the Chicago Tribune of Sunday. It appears in a group of five which was selected by a committee out of 500 photos taken by a Chicago artist of children of this district for exhibition at the proposed Children's Temple to be erected in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco.

Master Richard Cotton Robbins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Robbins, 93 West 14th street and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Cotton of this city.

The Temple of Childhood was to have contained exhibits from all over the world of photographs of beautiful children, but because of the war they were not forthcoming, and the temple was not opened.

They were dead when found. There were two others in the machine but they were thrown out and escaped serious injury.

SOME ADDED POLICE REGULATIONS AS LAID DOWN BY CHIEF VAN RY.

Chief of Police VanRy Tuesday took another step that will do much toward protecting pedestrians on the streets and toward avoiding accidents. In fact when the work is completed Holland streets will assume a big city appearance to some extent.

Tuesday the work was commenced in appointing safety zones in the streets and marking the distances near the corners and near water hydrants in which automobiles are not allowed to stop. Circles representing safety zones will be painted in the center of the street on the principal corners of 8th street and River avenue, and safety zones will also be mapped out where people can stand while waiting for a street car and in which they can feel safe when getting off from a street car. Lines will be drawn on the corners in which automobiles cannot stop as it would be blocking the streets, and other lines will be drawn 15 feet from every water hydrant within which limits cars will not be allowed to stop.

ZEELAND FIRM WANTS WAR TO STOP.

Clock Company Depends On Importation From Germany

The Colonial Manufacturing company of Zeeland, manufacturers of Colonial clocks and high grade library furniture, has a stock of clock works on hand sufficient to carry the company along for several months, but what will happen after the supply runs out is a matter of conjecture. The works are imported from Germany. The German government has placed an embargo on the export of metals of any kind and especially of brass and this shuts off further shipments.

STRANGE CEREMONY — COUPLE MARRIED BEFORE THE CIVIL WAR; PARTED AND MARRIED AGAIN IN ALLEGAN

A most unusual marriage was solemnized in Allegan county between Calvin E. Seamans, 71 years old, and Mrs. Malinda Lavers, aged seventy-one. They were originally married in Coldwater prior to the Civil war. The husband enlisted but the correspondence between the pair gradually ceased, each getting the impression that the other had become indifferent. Before the war closed, the wife and her daughter removed to Allegan county and on Mr. Seamans' return he could get no trace of them. After some years Mrs. Seamans got a divorce and married again, her second husband dying several years ago. Mr. Seamans did not remarry. Lately his daughter learned of his whereabouts through the pension department and asked him to come and live with her, which he consented to do. Explanations followed and the elderly people determined to resume their marital relations which had been so strangely interrupted.

DOMESTIC TROUBLES OF FORMER MISSION WORKER ARE RESURRECTED.

An Allegan paper a short time ago printed a long yarn about the domestic troubles of the Rev. William R. Van Slyke, who was well known throughout western Michigan. The article described the case of Van Slyke in the supreme court of Michigan and it gave the impression that that court have given the former mission collector a stiff calling down. One sentence for instance reads, "Last week the supreme court again rebuked the oily collector."

The story was widely copied by Michigan papers. The fact of the matter is however that Mr. Van Slyke has been dead for about two years. He died soon after his domestic troubles discredited him here and in other places where he had been collecting money for many years.

When the supreme court came to Mr. Van Slyke's case in its docket it dismissed the appeal by saying that the "principal in the case had died since the appeal was filed," as the court records will show.

KOOYERS SEES "WHITE BLACK-BIRDS" FREAKS ARE SEEN BY OTHER CITIZENS AS WELL

Park Superintendent Kooyers believes that Burbank has nothing on Holland in the line of producing freak animals. A short time ago Mr. Kooyers announced that there was a nest of young squirrels in Centennial park that had anything of its kind because the little animals were white from head to tail, a phenomenon that none of the old timers had ever come across.

But Thursday Mr. Kooyers reported a still greater wonder. A joke used to be current about white black-birds, but Mr. Kooyers claims that he actually saw white black-birds in Centennial park Thursday. The white birds were with a flock of ordinary black birds and except for their color they were in every respect exactly similar to the others. Their color was a drab white. Other citizens reported that they had also seen the freak birds.

RESCUE MISSION OUTING YESTERDAY WAS A GLORIOUS EVENT.

When Miss Nellie Churchford of the City Mission found last Wednesday morning that in spite of all the efforts that had been made to give all the children of the needy families in Holland a day's outing at Macatawa Park, there was still one little boy who had somehow been overlooked and who had no shoes in which to go, she got busy and borrowed the shoes for the lad; and he had as good a time as any of those present.

Miss Churchford and her helpers provided a large number of pairs of shoes for children who could otherwise not have gone to the Mission picnic, and they provided other articles of clothing as well. Miss Churchford believes that not a single child from a needy family was overlooked. Some two hundred attended the picnic and all had a glorious time.

A rising vote of thanks was extended to all those in Holland who helped by donations to make the picnic a success, especially to Swan A. Miller, J. S. Dykstra, Mrs. H. Boone, Wagner & Hamm, Jacob Kuitte, Standard Grocer & Milling Co., Van Putten Sisters, Michigan Tea Rusk Co., and a number of others.

THE MEN WHO OUGHT TO KNOW SAY THE TRUCK IS THE ONLY THING

DELEGATES AT FIREMEN'S CONVENTION DECLARE IT IS THE BEST SYSTEM FOR SMALL CITY.

State Official Says That Seventy-five Per Cent Of Fire Loss Can Be Prevented.

In connection with the plan on foot in Holland to purchase a motor fire truck, Chief Blom Thursday called the attention to statements made at the convention of the Michigan State Firemen's Association being held last week at Petoskey.

In discussing the practicality of the motor truck for small fire departments, Assistant Chief Rivet of Bay City said: "In small departments the motor truck and chemical outfit can be handled with two men or even with one man from the headquarters and by the time the volunteer men reach the scene the men can have the chemicals going and oftentimes have the fire out or under control."

Captain Spencer of Grand Rapids in his address Thursday said: "Trucks are so much quicker than horses that a large number of bad fires are prevented by getting to the scene quickly and getting the chemicals onto the fire before it gets a start."

Fire Chief of Allegan declared that last year their truck cost them less than $50 for total expenses, including gasoline, oil and everything, and 46 runs were made with it. "The motor truck with even two men to handle it is of less expense than the horse drawn truck."

Assistant state fire marshal Samuel Robinson said that more than 75 per cent of Michigan's annual fire loss is due to carelessness and could be prevented. He came out for monthly inspections by the fire chiefs in this campaign of prevention, declaring that the system would pay for itself in reduced fire losses.

Mr. Robinson gave the delegates to the convention an interesting problem to solve when he asked them to think of what might happen in the fire prevention business if all the insurance companies were to cancel their policies in the state for one year. "What would happen? The number of fires would be reduced from 75 per cent to 90 per cent. The greatest clean-up campaign in the history of the country would be under way within 24 hours. Property owners would remove all rubbish and inflammable material from their premises forthwith and put into condition as soon as electricians could be secured. Shingle roofs would be replaced by fire-proof material and hundreds of thousands of precautions would be taken at once that at the present time are not even thought of. Everything possible would be done to prevent the fires that we are now paying for at the rate of $2.34 per year for each inhabitant."

"Over insurance," Robinson said, "prompts many of the incendiary fires." Taste in drawing up and signing policies, which the local agents, he declared, are often guilty of, makes the going entirely too easy for the incendiary. "In many cases," he said, "the property on which insurance is secured, is not even inspected before the sale agents are given the policies."

DEMONSTRATES HOW TAXES THIS YEAR ARE NOT HIGHER BUT LOWER THAN BEFORE

Compares Prices Paid On Specific Pieces of Property With Prices of Other Years

Commenting on an article in yesterday's Sentinel in regard to the city and school taxes this year, City Ass. Nibbelink Thursday demonstrated the truth of the general statements made Wednesday by comparative figures of taxes of the past few years. The figures show that not only are the taxes no higher this year than in 1914, 1913 and 1912, as many people seem to believe, but they are actually lower in spite of the fact that the assessed valuation has been raised on practically every single piece of property in the city all the way from fifty per cent to seventy per cent. The following comparative table has been drawn up by the city assessor to illustrate these statements:

| For the Year 1915 | | | |
|-------------------|---------|--------|---------|
| Valuation | City | School | Total |
| $1500 | $ 9.50 | $5.99 | $15.49 |
| $1600 | $10.13 | $6.29 | $16.42 |
| $1700 | $10.76 | $6.68 | $17.44 |
| For the Year 1914 | | | |
| Valuation | City | School | Total |
| $1000 | $ 8.51 | $5.84 | $14.35 |
| For the Year 1913 | | | |
| Valuation | City | School | Total |
| $1000 | $13.00 | $4.86 | $17.86 |
| For the Year 1912 | | | |
| Valuation | City | School | Total |
| $1000 | $13.17 | $4.38 | $17.55 |

"Reference to this table will show by actual figures how taxes have been affected by the changes that have been made," said the city assessor. "Take the first figure in the 1915 section. That is on a piece of property assessed at $1,000 in any previous year and shows a fifty per cent increase in valuation. Yet the total amount of taxes paid on it this year is only $15.40, while the total paid on it in 1913, at the old valuation, was $17.86, and the total paid on it in 1912, also at the old valuation of $1,000, was $17.55, in each case higher than this year. The table for 1914 shows that the amount paid on the same piece of property in that year was lower, but that is not a fair comparison because last year was not a full year, caused by the change of system of tax collection."

"Even were the raise in valuation was 60 per cent, as in the second piece of property noted in the 1915 section, the total is only $16.42, while in 1913, the sum of $17.86 was paid for that same piece of property and in 1912 the sum of $17.55. Even in cases where the boost in valuation was 70 per cent, as shown in the third item, the total paid in taxes this year is only $17.44, while in 1914 it was $17.86 and in 1912, $17.55, in each case higher than this year."
