CHEAPNESS AND VALUE OF MARL DEMONSTRATED

A tentative date for Ottawa county marl day has been set for August 18.

The location of the demonstration will be in Tallmadge township because that township has shown the greatest interest in marl excavation. The M. A. C. will set up a marl excavation outfit with which they develop and dig marl for one day to show how cheaply and easily it can be done.

Every landowner who has a marl bed on his farm; every farmer owning acid soil should attend at some time during the day and see how much marl can be taken from under water and swamp land and to learn of the cheapness and importance of this natural resource.

HOLLAND NATIONAL GUARDS BEST IN STATE

COMPANY NOW COMPOSED OF 80 MEN; MOST OF THEM TO GO TO GRAYLING

Next month the time will again arrive for Holland's company of National Guards to leave for Camp Grayling to go into training for at least two weeks. The entire guard force of the state will soon be encamped at this beautiful grounds, said to be about the best in the United States.

Company D has prospered exceedingly under Captain Geerds and staff, when a review is made of the three years of its existence. When the company was federally recognized it had a strength of 52 men. By July of the same year Company D had 78 men which is a full quota allowed by law.

This strength was practically maintained during the entire three years, the life of the company.

During that time the Holland company became known throughout the state as the best machine company Michigan had. This was in part due to the fact that the old men remained the entire three years of their enlistment and team work was possible when new men did not have to be recruited because of gaps left by those who moved away.

The policy of the national guards is not to get recruits from men whose enlistment expires for these men have had their army training up to a certain point and the government prefers new men, so they too can become experienced in warfare fitting in the government's preparedness policy. However this is not compulsory and in March and April of this year the enlistment of many men expired and so pleased were the soldiers with the work and camp life that a large percentage re-enlisted making the strength of the company 72, representing a comeback of twenty-five men in three months time.

The excellent showing made by the company in staging this comeback incited much favorable comment in military circles throughout the state.

Colonel Schouten commander of the 26th infantry of Grand Rapids, who by the way is an old Holland resident, expressed his appreciation in person to the officers and men of the company.

The records show that Holland has maintained a higher average for attendance in drill and enlistment strength than any other company in Colonel Schouten's regiment.

It is expected that company D will leave Holland for camp Grayling on Monday, August 4, although a definite date has not been announced up to this time.

Up to July 1st there were still six vacancies less than the quota but these vacancies have been filled and there are a number of men who would gladly join at this time but will not be able to do so until vacancies occur.

WEATHER HAS BEEN IDEAL FOR CANNING FACTORIES

NOT ALL BUSINESS SUFFERS BECAUSE OF THE COLD WEATHER

Cold weather in the summer is as much a death blow to resorts as rain is to a fair, and there is no doubt that resorts everywhere in Michigan have found this out long before now, the unseasonable cool weather having hung on through May, June and July thus far. The end may come at any time and the torrid blistering seasonable July and August may make it seem like an old time summer.

But in any event, the season is going to be mighty short, for it takes a hot spell of a week or more to get resorting under the skin of those who can afford to go to the resorts. With living still comfortable in the cities they apparently are in no big hurry.

But cool weather is not detrimental to everyone. Canning factories in the vicinity of Holland like it. The Holland Canning Co. has had a wonderful strawberry season, in fact the best in its history and cool weather extended it by keeping the fruit in better shape. The local factory is now busy with cherries, and are paying the highest market price for them.

Cool weather, canners say has brought fruit of higher quality and the tendency of prolonging the ripening season.

The cherry market it is stated has become more stable during the past ten days as a result of the survey showing that the crop is not quite so large as in other seasons. On the show of the blossoms in the spring there seemed to be prospects of an extraordinary crop; but then, all blossoms are not cherries, and a glutted market did not materialize.

Nevertheless the cool weather pleases the canners, however they are about the only one who seem to be pleased.

Holland business men thrive in scorching weather, for then the resorters flock in, but up to this time the flocks have been rather sparse.

BULLETS GO THROUGH TARGET INTO HOUSE

Don Tuttle, 14, is in custody at Grand Rapids because of his over diligent practice with a rifle. He failed to notice the bullets he was shooting at a target he had rigged up in his home during the absence of his parents were going through the wall into the residence of neighbors. One of the missiles shattered a bathroom window down a second after Mrs. Charles M. Chambers had closed it, missing her head but a few inches.

OTTAWA COUNTY MAN MADE GENERAL GRANT OBEY

A PRIVATE COMPELS CIVIL WAR GENERALS TO UNHORSE

The death of Thomas Gillespie of Wright township, Ottawa Co., brings to mind that the old Civil war veteran had quite a record as a soldier. Born in England in 1833 he came to Ottawa county in 1862 and many a story is told of this old soldier, that makes interesting reading.

One in particular has to do with General Grant, General Hooker and other generals in the Civil war who Private Tom Gillespie in muddy uniform commanded to dismount as they were about to pass over a pontoon bridge near the Cumberland river.

Gillespie who had enlisted in this county with Co. E, the 21st Michigan Infantry, was assigned to guard a bridge just before the battle of Lookout Mountain.

The bridge was of the pontoon variety located at Brown's Ferry which the Army of the Cumberland had to build to permit reinforcements to reach them.

For a fortnight Gillespie stood guard at the further end of the fragile structure and as he had been instructed to do, ordered every mounted man from orderly to general to dismount before going on the bridge. To this order made necessary by the character of the bridge, Gen. Grant, Gen. Howard and numerous other officers or lesser rank readily acceded. When the young man repeated his order and the six-foot Hooker obeyed.

His companion, a small man in tight buckskin trousers, whom Gillespie assumed to be an orderly, offered violent objection and after some preliminary threats announced himself "d--d if he'd cross the bridge."

"Then I'll throw you in the river," said Pvt. Gillespie.

After a moment in which the pudgy gentleman in buckskins measured the proportions of the young guard, the horseman dismounted and with a bad grace walked across the bridge. To Gillespie's mingled horror and delight he later discovered that the obdurate rider had been no less a personage than Gen. Dan Butterfield, Gen. Hooker's chief of staff.

At this time, as later in the war, Mr. Gillespie's commanding officer was Capt. Charles E. Belknap, former congressman and well known in Holland, who at the time of the Brown's Ferry incident was on special duty in command of the bridge.

In November, 1864, when Gen. Sherman began his famous march to the sea, Gillespie was one of the men chosen by Capt. Belknap for services in his company of the scouts of the 14th army corps, a unit which earned for itself the familiarly respectful title of Sherman's "bummers."

"It was the hardest kind of duty," said Capt. Belknap, in describing Mr. Gillespie's service. "A man had to be ready to fight for his life at all times. Most of the responsibility of foraging for the army fell on the scouts and a never knew when he would be ambushed and shot from behind a fence. Through it all Gillespie had spunk and grit and brains for whatever work he was assigned."

County Clerk Orrie J. Sluiter was in Zeeland Tuesday and made this office a pleasant call. He was out building political fences as he is a candidate to succeed himself as the county clerk's office, which office he has very creditably filled for several years. He believes that there should be more business methods and less politics in the administration of county affairs and he evidently has tried to apply his ideas. -Zeeland Record.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT AT P. M. DEPOT CROSSING

ZEELAND CAR STRIKES STANDING PASSENGER; GIRL GETS THROAT CUT

A terrible accident occurred at 10:50 last night on East 8th street at the Pere Marquette depot crossing. Herman De Witt of Zeeland was driving his Ford Sedan East on 8th street. The rear seat contained John De Witt, a nephew and Miss Betty Struik, age 16, of Marne, Ottawa county.

De Witt according to officers and witnesses was going toward Zeeland at a terrific rate of speed, officer Cramer states 40 miles an hour, and head on train from Chicago that stood partly over the crossing while passengers were being taken on at the depot.

When the impact came, Miss Struik was thrown through the windshield and when picked up by officer O'Connor who was present, was hurried to Holland hospital where it was found that her throat had been badly cut by glass and she died within ten minutes through loss of blood. John De Witt who was riding with the young lady was cut about the face and is also in Holland hospital.

Officers Cramer and O'Connor then took charge of Herman De Witt, the driver, and he was taken to the office of Dr. Kools where fourteen stitches were necessary to close up the terrible lacerations on head and face.

According to Chief Van Ry and the report of the officers, De Witt was then taken to the city jail on the charge of driving a car while intoxicated, he admitted to the officers and Dr. Kools that he had been drinking.

The police department immediately notified Corner Bureau which inpaneled a jury reviewing the remains of Miss Struik at Dykstra undertaking parlors at 9 o'clock this morning.

The jury then adjourned and will gather again at 9 o'clock Thursday morning to examine witnesses and go over the evidence.

Besides the train crew on the parlor car, who were standing on the platform waiting for the train to move and were eye witnesses of the collision, officer O'Connor and officer Cramer listed several other Holland people who were present at the time, as witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Struik of Zeeland, parents of the girl were immediately notified, Miss Struik had for some time been staying with friends in Marne.

The coroners jury are composed of William Visser, John Vander Sluis, Bernard Keefer, Bastien Steketee, Arle Vander Hill, and Charles Drew.

HOLLAND VISITED BY FARMER MOB YESTERDAY

DEFY SHERIFF TO SEIZE PROPERTY ON STIPULATED JUDGMENT

A regular mob of farmers from West Olive went in Holland yesterday to protest against the execution of a judgment levying upon the property of three farmers, namely W. Kooiers, G. Smeyers, and S. Harkema.

Sheriff Portney and deputies Riesenga, Bonner, Holt and Vander West motored over to levy on the farmers' chattels in order to cover a stipulated judgment of $6,000.00 that for some reason or other the farmers did not take care of, and when the sheriff and his force attempted to levy, the whole neighborhood was called to arms, endeavoring to stay the hand of the law. Some of the irate farmers had taken shotguns and clubs and their action looked rather threatening, but Sheriff Portney invited them to come to Holland where a meeting was held in Prosecuting Attorney Fred T. Miles' office and later in the office of Attorney G. J. Diekema where the farmers were told that whatever grievance there might be, it could not be remedied by resisting an officer or preventing him from doing his duty.

Anyway the whole thing seems to be a legal tangle having a great many angles and legal points.

It seems that the whole thing is an outgrowth of the George Weurding Grain company, a bankrupt concern, and the Holland Grain company, another concern launched later. It seems that the three men signed a bond for six or eight thousand dollars as the case may be, making good a loan for the latter grain company. When the bond came due, it had to be taken care of by the three men who volunteered to back the bond for the Holland Grain company.

It is stated that it was a stipulated or confessed judgment as legally termed, showing that the parties involved through their attorney must have acknowledged their debt, and when the bond came due and was not taken care of, through due process of law the sheriff was compelled to levy on the farm chattels stipulated in the judgment.

After the meeting at Mr. Diekema's office the whole situation was explained to the farmers and an endeavor is being made to settle the matter amicably.

The farmers on the bond have fine reputations and it is hoped that with more sober judgment the whole matter may be ironed out soon.

HERE'S WHY P. M. RUNS SO SLOW IN MUSKOGON

If passengers on the Pere Marquette railway have chafed at the slow speed of trains of that company within the city limits of Muskegon they should not be too harsh on the company in view of a request made of the city today. According to an old ordinance all trains are required to operate at a speed not in excess of 4 miles per hour. The city commission is reminded that trains in Grand Rapids may legally speed up to 20 miles an hour and in Holland 15 miles. The old ordinance dates back to 1871.

DUTCH AND SCOTCH COMBINE TO MAKE LIMBERT LINE GO

G. R. Herald—How many of you know Dick Van Raalte, the big, smiling, blonde, Dutchman who presides over the destinies of the Limbert line of the Blodgett building? Well every mother's son who doesn't know him, misses something. But the story isn't as much Dick as about the reasons for the real success of the line.

A great many manufacturers who have failed to make a lot of money have been charged with being too prodigal—that is they lack thrift. It may be so although few have discovered any furniture manufacturer showing any pennies to the birds. Perhaps it's because they haven't thrown it. But in the Limbert outfit you can't charge any prodigality. Thrift is written all over the place and this is the why of it.

Dick Van Raalte is the big noise on the outside and Dick is a Dutchman. Now everybody knows that a Dutchman is thrifty and wastes nothing. On the inside is still another big factor and that one is a Scotchman. Nobody ever heard of a Scotchman letting anything go to waste, so between the Dutch and the Scotch the Limbert line there can be nothing but thrift in connection with the Limbert outfit. Indeed it is said among the salesmen that there is a constant controversy between the Scotchman and the Dutchman as to which can save the most for the company. Dick ought to be in the lead in this sort of contest for he borrowed a lead pencil from Jud Spencer and never did return it and Jud has been yelling about it ever since. But then that's the way to get rich and the Limbert line is headed in that direction.

ORCHESTRA LEADER WEDS PIANIST

Herbert Van Duren and Imogene Dykema drove to Grand Haven on Saturday afternoon and were united in marriage by the Rev. H. D. Skinner, pastor of the First Methodist church of that city. The marriage was the culmination of a romance that went back to high school days in Holland.

Mr. Van Duren is conducting a five-piece orchestra at Hotel Macatawa this summer of which Miss Dykema has been the pianist. Reporters declare that it is the best orchestra the hotel has ever had. Besides Mr. Van Duren and the pianist, the other three members are Wm. Grosvener of Kalamazoo, Wm. Wolfinger of Holland and Merle McEddy of Grand Rapids.

On Saturday night the newly married couple received the best wishes of the resorters who came to the hotel to dance. They will make their home at Hotel Macatawa during the summer.

HOLLAND MAN TO TURN SOD FOR CUTLIVERVILLE NURSES' HOME THURSDAY

Turning of the sod for the new nurses' home of the Christian Psychopathic hospital at Cutlerville to be erected at a cost of $25,000 will be accompanied by an elaborate program Thursday afternoon. More than half the estimated cost of the new nurses' home has been furnished during the past two years by the Ladies' circle of the Christian Psychopathic association, which will hold another benefit sale in Cutlerville Thursday for the home.

Elder A. Peters of Holland, president of the hospital board, will give the chief address, and the Rev. N. B. of Third Reformed church and Rev. W. Green of Creston Christian Reformed church, also will speak. Burton Heights band, Cutlerville male quartet and Sherman ladies' quartet will provide special music.

MINISTER DIES AT SIXTY-FIVE ON SATURDAY

One of the prominent ministers of the Reformed church passed away on Saturday afternoon at about 5:30 o'clock when death came to Rev. A. Vanden Berg, formerly of Overisel, Vriesland and Zeeland, at the home of his son, Rev. Richard Vanden Berg, in Chicago. In April, 1920, Mr. Vanden Berg suffered a stroke which incapacitated him for pursuing his work as pastor and he retired from the ministry, living in retirement at Zeeland for a time, later with his son in Chicago. He had been in poor health for the past few years, and the death of his wife six months ago was also a heavy blow to him.

Rev. Mr. Vanden Berg was born in South Holland, Ill. He would have been 65 years old on Friday of this week. As a young boy he came to Hope College to receive his education here and later he entered the Western theological seminary, from which institution he also graduated.

His first charge was in a Reformed church at Nykerk, Iowa. Later he accepted a call to the Reformed church of Overisel, in which charge he served for many years. Then he became pastor of the Third Reformed church of Grand Rapids, and his fourth and last charge was the Reformed church of Vriesland, where he was pastor until ill health forced him to retire.

He is survived by three children, Rev. Richard Vanden Berg of Chicago, Mrs. Clarence Holleman, a missionary in China, and Willis Vanden Berg of Grand Rapids; also by one adopted daughter, Mrs. Albert Krone-meyer of Central Park.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kronmeyer at Central Park and at 2 o'clock at the second Reformed church in Zeeland. Rev. H. J. Hekhuis of Grandville, Rev. Benjamin Hoffman of Ohio, and Dr. Henry E. Dosker of Louisville, Ky., officiated.

Miss Helen Caldwell was in this city today following a successful anti-rat campaign in Holland and there was some sentiment for turning her loose on the Grand Haven rat colony with her unique campaign method, barium carbonate, a poison harmful to humans and animals other than rodents only if taken in large quantities, is used by Miss Caldwell in her work.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bontekoe, 258 West 11th St., a nine pound girl.

The Woman's Relief Corps meeting which was to have been held on Friday of this week has been postponed.

LOCAL PEOPLE HEAR ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. D. Ten Cate and son, Vernon and daughter Myra have returned from a two weeks' automobile trip through the East. They made the 3,000 mile journey in their Buick sedan, going from Holland to St. Joseph over the Pike, to South Bend, Ft. Wayne, Columbus, Wheeling, W. Va., National Highway. They spent two days in Washington and saw all the notable sights, such as Arlington cemetery, Lee's Home, Mount Vernon, and also the government buildings in Washington itself. The National Educational Association happened to be holding a convention and President Coolidge addressed them in the Central High school stadium. The local party had an opportunity to get in and so had the privilege of hearing the president speak.

From Washington they went to Philadelphia, New York City, along the Hudson to Albany where they visited the $30,000,000 capitol building, then west to Rochester, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Erie, Cleveland, Toledo, and home again. On their way through Ohio they stopped at Marion and visited the tomb and the home of former President Harding.

TROUT ANGLERS MOURN LOSS OF RAIL STATION

The depot at Little Manistee, the landmark for many trout fishermen of Western Michigan, where the sportsmen have waited, often with full creel, for the train that would bring them back home, has been burned to the ground. It was a homely little structure, made of an old box car set up on short stilts, but it was a beacon of hope for the sportsmen seeking the sporty brook trout and while the monetary loss is not great, there is a distinct loss in the destruction of the historic place. The building was set up, it is said, largely through the efforts of Circuit Judge Willis B. Perkins of Kent county and Charles H. Strawhecker, circuit court stenographer of that county.

FORMER HOLLAND MAN WRITES BOOK

Rev. Henry K. Pasma, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Charleston, Miss., formerly of Holland, is the author of a new book entitled, "Things a Nation Lives By." This book has just been issued by the Presbyterian Committee of Publications of Richmond, Va. The four heads under which Rev. Pasma classifies the things a nation lives by are the home, the school, the church and the law.

Rev. Mr. Pasma is a graduate of Hope College and of the Western Theological Seminary. Since entering the ministry he has appeared from time to time in various periodicals. He married a local girl, Miss Olive Barnaby.

PATRIOTIC SPEECHES MARK FLAG RAISING AT HOLLAND U. S. A. HOME

Raising of a large American flag on the lawn of Holland U. S. A. Home at 1450 E. Fulton St., Grand Rapids was the occasion for a special program given Saturday afternoon. J. Kloote, president of the Holland Union Benevolent association, acting as chairman of the day.

Prosecuting Atty. Cornelius Heffius gave an address in English on the advantages enjoyed by those of foreign birth under the American flag, and Rev. Nicholas Boer, pastor of Third Reformed church, spoke in Holland. Special music of a patriotic nature was furnished by the Elks' band.

C. Dosker of Grand Rapids, donated the flag, which is of fine quality bunting and measures eight by twelve feet. Fifty-three feet of steel flag-staff were also given by several friends of the home, so that the equipment is now complete.

FARMER AT NEW HOLLAND HAS NARROW ESCAPE WHEN BULL ATTACKS HIM

R. B. Knooihuizen, a farmer living near North Holland, narrowly escaped death at his home when he was attacked by a bull which he was leading to the pasture. In a way that he could not explain the chain upon which the bull was tied became entangled around his feet and tripped him in the path of the furious animal. Mr. Knooihuizen was rescued by a neighbor before the bull succeeded in injuring him. Some of his clothes had been torn by the animal.

TAYLOR FAMILY HOLD REUNION AT WEST OLIVE

One of the pleasantest meetings held at West Olive for a long time was the first family reunion at the home of William Taylor on Saturday, July 12th. The reunion was brought about through the earnest efforts of Mr. Taylor and he acted as the first host of the united family.

After a sumptuous dinner had been enjoyed by all a permanent organization was formed. Egon, John B. Taylor of Peoria, Ill., was named as president, William Taylor of West Olive, vice president, Boyd C. Taylor of Cincinnati secretary and treasurer.

It is the hope of the Taylors to meet annually and in this way to keep in closer touch with their family history. Those present were: William Taylor, Boyd C. Taylor and his wife May Ransom Taylor, Caroline Elizabeth, Dorothy Harriet, Margery May, and Boyd C. Jr., all of Cincinnati, Harriet E. Taylor Hughes and her husband, Dr. C. Wilson Hughes of Wilmington, Del. Other members of the family are: Samuel G. Taylor of Paisley, Scotland; Thos. E. Taylor of Lisbellaw, Ireland; Hon. John B. Taylor of Peoria, Ill.; Mrs. J. Frank Allison and Irwin Taylor of Cincinnati. It is planned to meet at the home of John B. Taylor next year or at some other suitable place to be decided on later.

Donald Husing, age 7, living at 213 West 11th street was quite seriously injured when he was run down by the Van Putten delivery truck at the intersection of 11th and Maple ave. The lad was riding on another vehicle, jumped in front of the grocery rig and was struck by the fender of the machine, and thrown clear of the wheels. The boy was removed to his home after receiving first aid at Holland hospital.

FANS THREATEN IONIA UMPIRE ON SATURDAY

Umpire Is Spirited Away Into The Light Plant and Escapes Trouble

That the rank decisions made by base umpire Chulski of Ionia gave the prison city the game Saturday is beyond possible doubt. When Holland visited Ionia the local team was satisfied with one umpire. Not so with Ionia however, and while at Saturday's game Ross, the regular umpire, called the balls and strikes Ionia imported Chulski, a sub-member of their team, who umpired the bases. Call it nervousness or ignorance of the game but the Ionia base umpire made such rank decisions that the crowd went wild with anger and the Holland players because of these decisions were riled all over, which could not help but detract from their efficiency as ball players. Five decisions at least should not have been chalked up against Holland. Three of them were not even close. On one occasion the decision was so bald that Chulski changed it in favor of Holland after he had ruled in favor of Ionia. The umpire at no time seemed to be sure of any decision. Anyway, the crowd felt after the game was over that the rank decisions more than counterbalanced the one score that Ionia had to spare in the 9th.

To show how poor some of the decisions were, and how it angered even a cool headed player, one runner was forced from first to second. Benny Batema with the ball touched the sack before the man arrived, and the umpire called the Ionia man safe, giving as his reason that Batema should have touched the base runner. When he made it stick, otherwise cool-headed Benny flew at the umpire and but for the players in the neighborhood might have injured the Ionia man.

Immediately afterward a Holland runner slid in to second at least three seconds before the ball arrived, in fact he was lying on the base, favoring the runner seemed to cost no figure with Chulski and he declared the man out. The Ionia umpire made several reverse decisions and the more the crowd jeered him the more nervous he became.

The upshot was that at least four fans were so angered after the game was over they threatened to clean up on the indicator man from Ionia. More level-headed judgment prevailed however and a vast majority of the fans called out, "Let's not quarrel over a baseball game." All the same the Ionia team feeling that something might happen, hustled Chulski into the electric light station as a precautionary measure. After the Holland crowd had dispersed from the ball grounds, they hurried him in to a waiting automobile, but a crowd of young boys still remained to give the Ionia man a jeering farewell.

Just before the 9th inning a particularly bad decision created such a mixup that the players as well as the fans demanded that Ionia take Chulski out. The crowd in the bleachers overflowed out on the diamonds and was evident immediately that something had to be done quickly. The Ionia manager withdrew Chulski and Ross umpired the balance of the game alone.

Even with these disadvantages Holland was within hailing distance of winning in the 9th with three men on bases and one man out, but the players were so thoroughly angered and so overly anxious to win after all that they lost their heads and a little single which would have brought in two runs did not materialize. The three died on bases.

The Ionia team is coming here again the first part of August to play two games, but the manager promises that Chulski will not be present as umpire, although possibly as a player. The fans can bank on one thing and that is that those two games will be well attended.

Two local men from the blacksmith were given the two prizes offered by business firms during the 5th inning of the game with Ionia. The $5.00 gold piece offered by the Holland City State Bank went to Peter Hastings, and the large box of cigars donated by the Van Tongeren Cigar Co., to Earl McCormick.

Other business men have come forward with six prizes for the three games to be played with the Colored Giants of Illinois, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The prizes Thursday are a $5.00 Ukelele outfit from Meyers Music House and a box of cigars from Jake Japenga of the Union Bar. At Friday's game a fine straw hat is offered by the John Rutgers Clothing Company and a box of cigars by Peter Frings, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

In Saturday's game a two-pound box of candy is offered by Jack Blue, and a $5.00 gold piece by the Holland City News.

Remember, these prizes go to patrons who pay admission to the ball game and receive a numbered rain check as they enter. The games Thursday, and Friday will be called at 5:45, in order not to interfere with the chautauqua in the evening. The admission to the ball game is 35 cents, and not 40 cents as was advertised by mistake on some hand bills.

Possibly one of the most exciting ball games ever played in the Water Works park occurred Saturday afternoon when the Ionia team won over Holland by a score of 9 to 8. To say that they won would be far from the truth, for while the Ionia team played fine ball, the rank decisions of Umpire Chulski of Ionia no doubt more than overbalanced the lone score that the Ionia team had to the good.

HOLLAND MAN IS WEDDED AT BATTLE CREEK

The following is from the Battle Creek Enquirer of Saturday:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Crane, 72 Calhoun, was the scene of a small but exceptionally lovely mid-summer wedding at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when their only daughter, Helen, became the bride of Rudolph Habermann, son of R. H. Habermann of Holland, Mich. A company of 36 relatives and intimate friends was present to witness the ring ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Carleton Brooks Miller, pastor of the First Congregational church. A profusion of pink rambler roses and daisies intermingled with palms and ferns adorned the room and in a corner of the living room, a trellised bower, covered with pink rambler roses was arranged for the bride's party. On either side of the bower were tall baskets of the roses, daisies and greenery. Previous to the ceremony Mrs. C. W. Duncan of Central street sang "At Dawning" by Cadman, and "O Promise Me" by DeKoven, with Miss Hazel King of Peoria, Ill., at the piano; the pianist following the song with the wedding march from Lohengrin as the bride's party took its place in the wedding bower. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Guy E. Crane, wore a lovely gown of blue georgette, fashioned in the long straight line with a soft, perfect and trimmed with lace and ruffles of the georgette. She carried a shower bouquet of butterfly roses, swansons and baby's breath. Miss Pauline McKenzie served as maid-of-honor, wearing a pretty gown of light blue tulle made with tight bodice and bouffant skirt and carrying a bouquet of pink roses and light blue larkspur. The groom was attended by Harold Golds of Detroit who was his classmate at the University of Michigan, fraternity brother and came from his home town of Holland. Mrs. Guy E. Crane, the bride's mother, was groomed in black and white, wearing a black and white dress, a black silk, chiffon trimmed, and wore a corsage of roses. Following the ceremony and reception, the wedding collation was served. The bride's table, which was larger than the rest, was placed in front of the bridal bower, and adorned with butterfly roses, swansons and baby's breath. Rose nut cups and ice cream, frozen in the form of pink roses, harmonized with the general color motif of the wedding. The bride's cake was white with pink floral decorations. The groom's cake, in small boxes served as favors. Small (tissues) adorned with roses and daisies were placed throughout the room and on the porch for the wedding guests. Many beautiful and lovely gifts were presented to the young couple. The bride, who has been given many personal parties, is a graduate of the Battle Creek high school and from the University of Michigan in 1923. The past year she has been teaching mathematics in the Jasper high school. The groom is a graduate of the University of Michigan with the class of 1921 and is at present secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Batavia, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Habermann left later in the afternoon for Chicago and will spend their two months' honeymoon at various points on the Great Lakes. The bride's going-away costume was black crepe, trimmed with white, with a black hat. They will make their home in Batavia, N. Y., where their home is furnished for their occupancy at 112 Bank street.

Holland, Mich., July 10.—Martin Franzberg was away from the United States just 200 days, and he maintains that never again will he leave.

Mr. Franzberg paid a visit to his old home in the Netherlands, but he says that no American could ever endure life in the Netherlands, owing to the class distinctions there. "I was so tired of the high and false class actions that no one was ever more glad to see the Statue of Liberty than I was, on my return to New York," he asserted. "I enjoyed my visit with my sister and other relatives, but I could never live in the Netherlands again."

Mr. Franzberg met an old school mate on the street. He greeted the former friend in true American style, but it was several minutes before the Hollander would remove his plug hat and extend a welcome to Mr. Franzberg. He made known his objections to the American greeting.

"Some people live in luxury and others live on almost nothing but butter and rye bread," said Mr. Franzberg. "In many sections people buy meat by the ounce. When I ordered some meat by the pound the butcher almost dropped over from the shock. I found sections of Holland where folks still go to church wearing wooden shoes."

ARE YOU SAVING FUEL TOO?
An investigation made for the Fuel Administration in 1917 lent itself very conveniently to the proof that HOLLAND Furnaces use less fuel than other types of heating systems.
The investigation was made to determine the exact amount of fuel used in the City of Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, in one year. A house to house canvas was made and the records showed conclusively what our customers have always said:
The HOLLAND Furnace average much more efficiently than any other system in the City.
This news is so particularly interesting because Mt. Pleasant has hot water, steam, vapor, stove heat and all types of warm air.
The City was chosen as truly representative, which it proved to be.
We are pleased to be in a position to offer these additional and vital reasons why

JOIN HANDS IN BUSINESS COLLEGE PLAN

After several years spent in work as business executive, C. J. Dregman is again connected with the Holland Business College which was founded by him in 1914. He has formed a partnership with Albert Hoeksema, the former owner. Mr. Hoeksema is one of the earlier graduates of the school and one of a large group of successful Holland business men who received their first business training under Mr. Dregman. Under the new management Albert Hoeksema will be principal of the school and C. J. Dregman becomes the secretary and business manager.

The two owners are eminently qualified to prepare young people for business, as Mr. Hoeksema has had many years of experience in the employ of the First State Bank and has been an accountant and commercial teacher. Mr. Dregman has been a commercial teacher for 28 years and has had a varied experience as accountant, auditor and business manager.

Holland Business College has graduated several hundred students in the thirty years of its existence. Many of these are today occupying responsible positions in the banks and other business institutions of Holland, or are in business themselves, while others are located in various Michigan cities and throughout the middle west and one the Pacific coast.

Holland is fortunate in having a commercial school conducted by men of the character and ability possessed by the owners of Holland Business College.

The local college will remain in the Pieters Building where it has been located for a number of years.

During the next few weeks Rev. J. C. De Vries, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, is planning quite a variety in the program of the Sunday services, varying the evening services especially. Perhaps the most striking item will be a number of "Sunday Evening Funeral Sermons," preached at intervals during the summer and early fall. The first one, entitled "The Funeral of a Moralist," came Sunday night. This is an opportunity for some to see themselves as others see them.

Next Sunday night a sermon symposium was given, in which ten young people deliver the sermon. For the following Sunday evening a "Song Sermon" on the "Life of Christ" is announced in which a ladies' quartette, a male quartette, a young peoples' chorus and individual voices will take part.

The first Sunday night of August will be the time of the second funeral without a corpse, the sermon entitled "The Funeral of an Agnostic." Last Sunday morning the sermon subject was "I Believe in the Communion of Saints," one of the series on the apostles' creed. On the morning of July 20, Rev. J. C. Floyd, D. D. of Grand Rapids, will preach. The next two morning services will see the conclusion of the apostles' creed sermons, under the titles, "I Believe in the Forgiveness of Sins," and "I believe in the Resurrection of the Body and Life Everlasting."

A real variety is presented in the musical program also. The Sunday school orchestra, which played last Sunday will have entire charge in both services on July 20. The song sermon on the 27th draws a still larger group of singers.

A full program is planned for all summer, as the pastor considers that only in this way can Methodism serve the city as it should. In Grand Rapids a few years ago some of the largest evening services in the city were the varied open air services held on the lawn of the church which he served. No doubt good congregations will respond here to this varied and interesting program.

The controversy between the village of Grandville and Interurban interests will soon be a closed chapter. All necessary details are worked out, the ordinance is acceptable to the council and the receiver for the road is ready to finish the job.

Actual construction of the pavement is expected to start any day. Numerous small delays have occurred to obstruct the commencement of the work, but it is expected that it will go through with a rush when it is started.

The specifications are on file with F. N. Blake, the village clerk. They carry out in detail the tentative plans outlined by the village board, which called for a single track the length of State street, paved between the rails with brick and on either side to the present pavement with concrete. The brick pavement will have a six-inch concrete foundation with a two-inch cushion of sand below the brick. Cement filler will be used to fill the cracks between the brick. The concrete will be in accordance with the standard specifications adopted by the Michigan Highway commission in March of this year.

As a temporary means for railway traffic, the northerly track of the two now on the street will be laid on the north strip of concrete one block ahead of the excavating. The south side of the street will be kept open so far as possible for traffic.

As soon as the block of paving is completed it will be open for traffic and the next block taken up. The southerly track will be removed entirely.

Considerable discussion took place at the special session of the Grandville council before the resolution was adopted and the plans of the village in view of the difficulties the council has encountered in its dealings with the railway it was expected that the board would be careful of any action which it might take and it would make sure of leaving no loopholes.

A serious accident occurred at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon when Albert Gerritsen, 12 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Gerritsen, 315 West 15th street, fell in front of an automobile on the Graafschap road. The young chap was riding his bicycle with the intention of picking berries. He endeavored to turn out for a coming automobile but failed to manage his bicycle in the loose gravel. The result was that he fell and was struck by the machine, being badly cut about the head.

He was quickly taken to a home near by where first aid was given and later to the home of his parents and is under the care of physicians, who state that they do not think the accident will prove serious.

INSURES BALL TEAM AGAINST RAIN

Next week Holland will be privileged to see three fine baseball games. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday the Illinois colored giants will be here and play three games. The first two games will be twilight games, starting at 4 o'clock, while Saturday's game will be called at 3:15.

The local team has been put to considerable expense to get this drawing card to Holland. These colored boys are wonders, but besides seeing a good game, the patrons will be entertained by the clownish and acrobatic stunts performed on the sidelines by these "smokes."

Anyway, the boys can't afford to lose at the gate on account of rain and have therefore insured the games in the Etna Insurance Company handled by Frank Lieveense in order that their expenses at least may be guaranteed.

Insuring entertainments against rain is quite common in other cities but has never been tried out in the city of Holland. Fairs everywhere are insured against rain from year to year rain being the biggest handicap in the success of the fair.

TO JOIN CAMP FIRE GIRLS AT MONTAGUE

Owing to the fact that the Camp Fire Girls of Holland have been unable to make plans for a camp of their own this summer, as many as can will attend Camp Kewana Wobelo at Montague, Mich. This is the camp of the Grand Rapids Camp Fire Girls organization. The girls will go to camp the last two weeks in August 11th to 18th, 18th to 25th, either for both weeks. The rate will be ten dollars a week. One dollar of that ten will be sent in advance as a registration fee. That dollar will be paid out of the general Camp Fire treasury. Will all the girls who desire to go to camp please let Miss Dykstra know by next Monday?

ABOUT THAT PARKING RULE AT MACATAWA

Over at Macatawa Beach the association has adopted a rule charging 25c for cars parked more than two hours. That probably is a pretty good plan and no doubt will be adopted in other places where they want folks to make their welcome brief. It is like inviting guests over to your home and then making a rule if they stay more than one day that a charge will be made for bed and board, as they say in the advertisements when they are advertising their domestic troubles to the world.—Muskegon Chronicle.

ARE MARRIED AT HOME OF BRIDE

Miss Christine Wolfert and Peter Tuusma were united in marriage Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wolfert, Central Avenue. The couple were attended by Marian Wolfert, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and William Tuusma, brother of the groom, as best man. Ruthade Limberg and Katherine Rinck acted as flower girls.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Wolfert of Pittsburgh, William Tuusma of Indianapolis, Florence Grey of Lima, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. De Vries and Mrs. J. Kort of Grand Rapids.

TWO INJURED WHEN MOTOR CYCLES HIT

Two motorcycle riders were injured and one of them seriously, near Grand Haven Thursday night when the cycle crashed into a Ford touring car at the intersection of the Beech Tree and Waverly roads. The motorcycles driven by Vernon Ver Planke, and Fred Nienhouse were being driven toward Grand Haven and the Ford, operated by Louis Vorlick of Grand Haven township was just making the turn outbound on the Waverly road.

The accident took place just at dusk the two cycles striking the touring car as it turned off the trunk line. Young Ver Planke, aged 17 and son of Tony Ver Planke, prominent Spring Lake business man, struck the front of the Ford as it was turning and smashed a wheel on the vehicle. He was thrown under the car, suffering a broken arm and severe cuts about the head. Nienhouse is said to have struck the Ford amidship, spraining an ankle and suffering head wounds.

The authorities were immediately notified and Officer Klumple, who answered the call, took Ver Planke to the Hattson hospital. His wounds gave him much pain but medical men in attendance predicted recovery. Nienhouse, who resides at Black Lake near Muskegon, returned on his machine which was capable of being operated in spite of the crash. Ver Planke's new motorcycle was put in a garage and is in a smashed condition. The Ford car which was insured, was also removed to a garage and Mr. Vorlick, who was unhurt returned home. No eye-witnesses of the accident, except the principals themselves, have been found as yet and conflicting stories concerning the crash have been broadcasted.

In making turns off trunk line routes or through streets, the law is exceedingly plain. Vehicles turning off are responsible for any crash until they have completed such a turn, trunk line traffic having the right of way in all cases as is the case in approaching a trunk line. Traffic experts hold that if a car is coming in the opposite direction and a car wishes to turn off a trunk line, the motorist making the turn must wait until through traffic has passed, even though he has to stop.

Up to noon Saturday there were 1020 names on the re-registration list at the city clerk's office. More than 3,500 must still register in Holland in order to vote at the fall primaries or to vote for president of the United States. Every voter must register by the evening of August 23rd in order to vote at all. No excuses for not having registered will go for there have been over two months given for voters to call at the city clerk's office and have their names placed on the register line. This fact has been published repeatedly in the local papers and also in the state press but you can wager that the vast majority will rush in the last day all heated up.

Mrs. E. Vanden Bosch and baby of Princeton, N. J., are spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Mills.

MICHIGAN EGG PRICE IS MADE IN CHICAGO

F. S. Jacoby, who through the efforts of Mr. Edward Brouwer of the Holland Poultry Association was secured to lecture at the city hall to members of every poultry association of Ottawa county, gave the members some excellent advice that will aid them materially in handling their product and put money in their pockets besides.

At least 75 poultry men gathered to listen to the expert government man who, besides lecturing, carried an outfit with which to demonstrate the proper way to candle eggs.

Mr. Jacoby stated that the reason why the federal government was interested in the proper production of eggs was because it is one of the biggest things in agriculture. Mr. Jacoby stated that while better attention was given the hen today than in former years, the least attention was being paid to the marketing end of the business which is deplorable; statistics show that there are ten per cent more fowls today than ever before, yet there are no more eggs or poultry products on the market now than there were some years ago. Figures from the four large storage houses from New York, Boston and Chicago show that there are over a million cases of eggs less in the storage houses than there were last year, which means that the price of eggs during the fall and winter months will be higher. He stated that eggs now would be higher, were it not for the rainy weather which dirties the eggs, compelling the producers to put them on the market immediately in order to make them saleable at all.

Eggs start to incubate in a 68 degree temperature. The development (Continued on Last Page) of the embryo starts, shows blood spots, the germ dies, and bacteria appear and you have your rotten egg. This can be prevented by the proper temperature and proper grading and candling before shipment is made. The federal law allows only a certain percentage of bad eggs in a shipment, and should a shipper transport eggs having a higher percentage he is subject to arrest and a fine of $1,000.

Mr. Jacoby stated that 15 per cent of the eggs going to market are bad and unfit for food. This percentage can be lowered considerably if the eggs are handled properly. The question is often asked, "Who sets the price of eggs?" The price of eggs for Michigan is made in Chicago, and the quality of Michigan eggs determines the price of eggs sent from this state. If eggs sent in from Michigan are uniformly good commission men are not after the Wolverine egg, and the price will be strong, but a run of bad eggs gives the Michigan egg a black eye and the market becomes correspondingly weak.

Mr. Jacoby also took this occasion to "rap" the country stores for their ancient way of handling eggs. He stated that within ten years not a country store would be handling eggs that didn't install the proper cold storage system. He stated that there was just about as much sense in keeping meat, milk and other perishable products off of the ice as eggs. During his demonstration in candling eggs in a darkened room at the city hall he pointed out the wrong and right way and stated that if the farmer does not candle eggs and grade them accordingly, it will be reflected in his marketing price. If he does not do it at all the dealer will do it for him, and because the eggs are separated and graded, the dealer who buys the eggs will make a handsome profit, because the same eggs that the farmer did not grade, he did separate, and graded eggs bring a much better price than ungraded ones. The difference is so great that the poultry men would be foolish not to grade them before placing them on the market and thus make the profit himself instead of having the dealer make it.

Secretary Brouwer announced at the close of the meeting that within ten days he would receive a consignment of grading charts from the government, giving full information and he would agree to distribute these among the poultry men of Holland and Zeeland.

Mr. Olds was also to have been one of the speakers but he was sent to New York by the government on an important mission that involved the egg terminal there.

A well driven at the foot of a sand dune at Port Sherman near Muskegon, driven years ago to provide water for the fishermen whose shanties were at the outlet of Muskegon lake, is now attracting resorters and campers from both sides of the channel. And it's not uncommon to see people walk from Lake Michigan park to the channel to get a drink. Its popularity is not being commercialized, however, as is the case with the Nebb well at Northville, for the owner has hung a welcome sign on the pump. "It's just good, cold water, so help yourself," is his statement to those wanting a drink.

G. R. BUSINESS COLLEGE BUYS MUSKEGON INSTITUTION

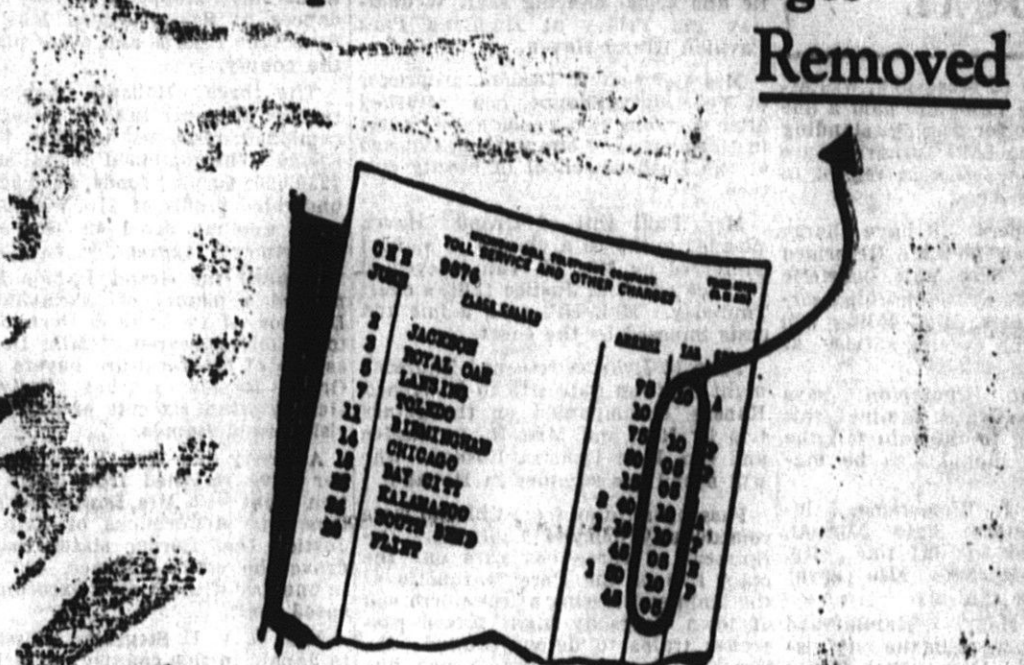

Sale of the Muskegon Commercial college by E. C. Bisson to the Davenport-MacLachlan Institute of Grand Rapids was announced today. The school, located at Webster ave. and Jefferson street, Muskegon, will be taken over at once by the new management and changes in the curriculum will be made at once to make the institution conform to the other schools conducted by the purchasers. The Muskegon Commercial college was founded in 1885 by Woodbridge N. Ferris of Big Rapids, as the Ferris Business College. The old Mason block, where the new Union National bank now stands, was the school house.

One year later Mr. Ferris sold the school to H. W. Rathbun. In 1889 the latter sold it to Mr. Bisson, who has managed it since that time without a vacation.

The school was moved from the Mason Block to the Hovey block in 1898. In 1909 the name it has borne until the present was adopted and the school was moved into its permanent home. Mr. Bisson plans to take his first vacation now.

J. R. Morrill of Grand Rapids will go to Muskegon to take charge of the school. F. L. Barnaby former field representative of the Lansing Business university, will represent the Grand Rapids and Muskegon schools.

Federal Tax on Telephone Toll Messages Removed

UNDER the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1924, all telephone messages became free from tax at midnight, July 2, 1924. The taxes imposed under the previous law were as follows:

On a telephone toll message for which the charge was more than fourteen cents and not more than fifty cents 5 cents
On a message for which the charge was more than fifty cents 10 cents

These taxes were highest, in proportion to the charge for service, for toll messages over moderate distances, the tax in some cases amounting to one-third of the toll charge.

We have anticipated the increased use of toll facilities that will follow the removal of these taxes and are prepared to care for it.

PATROL OF ROADS IN ALLEGAN COUNTY SUCCESS

The first week of the patrol of the main highways in Allegan co. is in and the reports received show that it has been a financial success as well as reducing the speed of the tourists, for the greater part of the offenders are tourists. As was expected, the motorcycle officer, Walter Jackson did not have as many arrests as Sheriff Hare, who is using a car. Drivers suspect all motorcycle riders to be officers and watch their speedometers more carefully. Mr. Jackson made 19 arrests and netted $79 in fines. His pay and expense for meals amounted to $94.30. Sheriff Hare landed 44 offenders, netting $263, and his salary and expense were $109.50. The net return for both was $138.20.

The charges against the offenders ran from parking in the highway up to speeding and reckless driving.

WILL WRITE UP WEST MICHIGAN

That the readers of the Chicago Daily News may get an accurate description of the scenic beauties of West Michigan, Rockwell Stephens, automobile editor of that paper, is making an extended tour through the territory to gather first hand information.

Mr. Stephens will wire back a daily story to his paper, detailing his impressions day by day of the country, he travels through, with special eye for the attractions that interest motorists.

These letters will be excellent publicity for West Michigan, and will draw public attention to the unique advantages of spending a summer holiday here.

Mr. Stephens will come south on M-11, the West Michigan Pike. Continuing down the shore, writing as he goes, he will then transfer to M-13, the Mackinaw Trail, and go north again, thus thoroughly covering the most attractive sections of West Michigan.

OLD MEMBERS RE-ELECTED TO SCHOOL BOARD

Although not nearly all the voters in Holland came out to do their duty casting their ballot for candidates for the most important office in the city, at least 318 out of the 5,500 voters took the trouble to go to the city hall Monday to cast their ballots for members of the school board. More than 5,000 stayed at home forgetting all about this most important duty.

The polls at the city hall were open from 2 o'clock until 8 in the evening, giving everyone who so desired and was eligible the privilege to cast his vote for three out of six good citizens who had been named at a caucus on July 9.

It is rather interesting that among the 118 ballots there was not a blank. This is unusual and the first time this has ever happened in Holland so far anyone remembers.

While the caucus last week was better attended than usual, 60 less voters came out on election day to cast their ballots than last year. Last year the number cast was 378, and this year the total vote was 318.

The returns show that the three old members of the schoolboard were returned, Fred T. Miles receiving the highest number of votes, 248 being cast for him. Mrs. Martha D. Kollen came second with 245; James A. Brouwer, 205. The other nominees who were not elected were C. J. Dregman who received 64; Roy B. Champion 108; and Frank Bolhuis, 84 votes.

The last three men made no effort in their own behalf, in fact their desire was to return the old trustees and some told their friends so. At the caucus an endeavor was made by two of them to have their names withdrawn from the ballot but as six names were required those at the caucus paid no heed to this request.

Any of the six persons whose names appeared upon the ballot would have been well qualified to serve on the board of education and our public schools would have been safe in their hands. This fact may have had something to do with the falling off of the vote.

Arthur Schultz, 17 years old Grand Haven youth who was injured at the Kinney Sand Pit near Rosy Mound Saturday morning, passed away at the Hatton Hospital Saturday night at ten o'clock. He suffered injury Saturday morning at ten o'clock when working on the steam shovel at the Kinney Sand company's plant.

Schultz is said to have swung onto the big crane when it swerved around crushing his body beneath the cab and the car on which the cab is mounted. The abdomen was badly lacerated and crushed and both thighs were injured. The accident occurred as the big cab swung around to discharge a hopper full of sand.

An unusual law case was argued Monday before Justice Cook when attorneys argued a point of law in the suit of Mrs. Nellie Wynne vs. Hoehn & Son of Allegan. The defendants, automobiles dealers, conducted a guessing contest in which an automobile was run continuously for eight hours, with prizes of $100, $75 and $50 offered to the person guessing the nearest mileage. Mrs. Wynne won first prize, but has been unable to collect the prize although the dealers were willing to allow her $100 on a new car. Their contention is the advertisement should have read "in trade" for the prize. The defense also contended that no contract was made between the parties because there was no consideration. The attorneys have been unable to find any similar case and the defense will appeal Justice Cook's decision favoring Mrs. Wynne.

Word has been received that Mrs. Wm. Hazekamp of De Motte, Ind., formerly a resident of Holland, died suddenly in Chicago at the home of friends. She had been spending the summer in Colorado for her health, but because of the high altitude she was forced to return. Busby, formerly of Holland, now of Detroit, and a sister Mrs. John Ver Schure and a brother Mr. Henry De Maat, both of Holland. Mrs. Ver Schure left for Chicago to attend the funeral. Mrs. Hazekamp will be remembered by the older residents as the first wife of Mr. Postma, a cigar manufacturer on 7th street, who died many years ago.

The annual mission feast of the Reformed churches in Western Michigan will not be held in Zeeland this year, as has been the custom for some years past, but on the campus of Hope College in case the weather will permit it. If the weather is unfavorable the meetings will be held in Carnegie Hall.

August 6th will be the date of the meetings. The program has not yet been completed but will be announced later.

The Strand Theatre is installing a "Robert Morton Organ" which is a whole orchestra in itself. This is a ten thousand dollar instrument and the local theatre managers hope to have it in place and ready to be operated either Wednesday night or at the latest Thursday night. The instrument is so large that it is necessary to break out a part of the building to install it and hence it will take some time to put it in place. Since the regular programs will also be given, the work may be interfered with somewhat, but it is hoped that the organ can be used by Thursday.

The new instrument was manufactured in Hollywood, California, and hence comes from "Movieland". It is of the same type and make as the "Robert Morton Organ" in the Regent Theatre in Grand Rapids, although it is a size smaller. The one in the Regent is built in but in other respects there is no difference.

The "Robert Morton Organ" is designed accurately and artistically to "voice" the picture with proper musical accompaniment. The instrument contains organ, piano, and orchestral effects. It may be played manually or by roll. The patented double-tracker device, whereby two rolls are in constant readiness, provides an instant change of music to interpret screen action accurately.

Among the instrumental effects produced by the instrument are the following: bass drum, pistol shot, cymbal, tom-tom, thunder or tymphant, snare drum, door bell or telephone bell, tambourine, castanets, Chinese crash cymbal, steamboat or locomotive whistle, wind siren, cathedral chimes. It also does service for organ, piano, violin, cello, flute, and so on. In short, it is a complete orchestra in one.

So popular was Johnny Hyma at the chautauqua Monday evening that many requests have come for a repeat entertainment by him. He was to have appeared only once but he has been prevailed upon by the committee to appear again. Mr. Hyma will be on the program on Wednesday night, his stunt forming the first part of the program.

Hyma will not repeat his part of Monday night but will be ready with something new. He prepares these programs specially for Holland and makes a hit with dragging local characters into his part. The city council members were the willing victims Monday night and many of the names of the surrounding towns were also included. On Wednesday night Hyma will concentrate on some other local characters.

The committee in charge of the chautauqua makes the announcement that Hyma is giving these entertainments free of charge, doing it for the success of the chautauqua. He has refused a contract to appear in a theatre in Indianapolis so that he might give this entertainment in Holland.

better than stealing admission or endeavoring to peep through knot holes.

Farmers residing along the West Michigan Pike say that once or twice a week they are awakened by some person seeking gas or some other help because of their motor cars. What is more farmers say that quite often there are motorists who borrow gas and then drive away with the can. The condition has reached such a condition that some farmers are requiring a deposit for the cans the same as gas stations.

A cat may have nine lives but according to three Holland motorists all kitties would live forever if the same precautions were taken as were taken by employees of the Holland Interurban. A small kitten blocked traffic on 8th st. the other day. The cat was slowly proceeding across the street when one of the big interurbans rounded the corner and sped towards the unsuspecting kitten. It leisurely sat down in the middle of the track when the motorman spied it. A blast of the whistle only made the kitty prick up its ears and the kind-hearted motorman stopped his car with a jerk with the intention of picking up the cat, when it jumped to the adjoining track directly in the path of an eastbound car. This motorman too stopped the big coach in time to save the cat. Alighting from the car he made for the kitten, but it scooted around the car in front of a trailer immediately following car number 2. Three times and out they say but in this case the saying miscarried, for when the third motorman wished to aid the cat it ran into a home near-by and traffic was resumed without casualties.

Hope's campus will be equipped with the best tennis courts in its history when the institution reopens in September. Under the supervision of Coach Schouten a fourth court is being constructed of clam-loam, regulation size, on the southwest section of the campus. The four courts are located near the entrance to the grounds and are protected by wire-netting. Seats will be placed on the side lines for the visitors. A cinder running track between the two rows of shade trees has been built along the south line of the campus for track purposes. The athletic field opposite Carnegie gymnasium has been completely rebuilt. The field has been laid out in the shape of a large bowl with a bank on the north side and is well equipped for diamond and gridiron events. Many other improvements have been made in cement walks and driveways.

G. & M. LINE IS FIFTY YEARS OLD

The Graham & Morton company is fifty years old and the boat line is celebrating its Golden Jubilee. Anyone who receives a piece of mail from the firm, whether letter or package, will find on the back of it these days a beautifully designed gilt seal with the words on it, "Fiftieth Anniversary, 1874 to 1924." These seals were suggested to the company's headquarters by J. A. Johnson and hundreds of thousands of them have been printed to be placed on all the mail sent out this summer by the company either from headquarters or from any of the ports where the firm's boats land.

The Graham & Morton Company started fifty years ago with one vessel called "The Messenger." Photographs are still in existence of this comparatively ancient boat and if the boat could be placed alongside of one of the large steel steamers of today it would look like a tub in comparison. Today the company has five large steamers, "City of St. Joseph," "City of Saugatuck," "City of Grand Rapids," "City of Holland," and "City of Benton Harbor." This is the largest fleet of combined passenger and freight boats on the Great Lakes and it is known as the "Steel Fleet of White Flyers." The boats touch at Holland, Saugatuck, St. Joseph, Benton Harbor, Michigan City and Chicago.

The Graham & Morton Line was organized fifty years ago by J. H. Graham and Andrew Crawford. Some time later Mr. Crawford withdrew from the company and J. S. Morton took his place as a member of the firm and his name became part of the firm name. Since then both Mr. Graham and Mr. Crawford have died. Graham Avenue in Holland is named after Mr. Graham and Morton Park is named after Mr. Morton.

The company has had its ups and downs during its 50 years of life and it has passed through both hard times and prosperous times. A few years ago it was reorganized and since then it has been growing in prestige and prosperity so that today it is one of the foremost boat lines on the Great Lakes.

TO HOLD CANNING DRIVE IN OTTAWA

A canning drive is being planned for the women of Ottawa County for the last week in August. The date has not been definitely decided. Each woman belonging to a home demonstration group will be notified as to where various demonstrations are to be given. It is hoped that these women will spread the news to other women in the county who may be interested.

OTTAWA CO. TO HAVE MARL DAY

A tentative date for Ottawa county marl day has been set for August 18. The location of the demonstration will be in Tallmadge township because that township has shown the greatest interest in marl excavation. The M. A. C. will set up a marl excavating outfit with which they develop and dig marl for one day to show how cheaply and easily it can be done.

Every landowner who has a marl bed on his farm; every farmer owning acid soil should attend at some time during the day and see how much marl can be taken from under water and swamp land and to learn of the cheapness and importance of this natural resource.

POULTRY MEN TO CO-OPERATE WITH THE FAIR

At the recent poultry meeting when representatives from the different associations of Ottawa county came to hear Mr. Jacoby give his lecture on egg marketing, the matter of co-operating with the community fair at Holland was also taken up. Secretary Brouwer introduced George Caball of Forest Grove who had heard of the elaborate preparations being made by the directors of the fair to erect a new poultry house that can accommodate 2,000 birds, and Mr. Caball brought out the fact that since the fair association had at last done its share to properly house the poultry, the different associations of the county should now come forward and stage a poultry show in the new fair building that would be really worth seeing.

He stated that since this is the poultry center, the exhibitions at the fair in the past were not representative of the industry, due mainly to the fact that the old building was not suited to exhibit in and poultrymen with fine birds did not want to send them there for that reason. But with a fine chicken house specially built for them these objections are overcome and there will be no reason why the poultrymen of Ottawa county should not take hold.

It was unanimously decided by the organization present to cooperate and get back of the fair exhibit early. That being the case, birds from Grand Haven, Coopersville, Forest Grove, Zeeland and Holland will be placed on exhibition as well as a large number from Allegan county.

CHOIR MEMBERS ENJOY FISH DINNER

The choir of the Sixth Reformed church and their friends, 42 in all, went by auto to Weed's place Friday night and enjoyed a real fish dinner.

After an elaborate meal the evening was spent in musical games, songs and various contests and all reported they had the time of their lives. The consistency of the church felt they wanted to show their appreciation of the choir's faithful work during the past year by giving them this outing.

The choir presented Mr. Vanderstul with a suitable gift in appreciation of his services with the choir during the past year. This choir, although only a year old is taking its place among the leading choirs of the city.

Misses Gertrude Vanden Berg and Ben Trinne were Grand Rapids visitors Saturday.

UNIQUE LINE OF FIRE WORKS AT COMMUNITY FAIR

Visitors to the 1924 S. Ottawa, W. Allegan Agr'l. fair will have the opportunity of witnessing the initial try-out of a new and revolutionary fireworks bombshell, according to word received today by Secretary Arendhorst, from the Theorio-Duffield Fireworks Division of the World Amusement Service Association, Inc. of Chicago.

This bombshell is a discovery of an Italian, who has been experimenting in the laboratories of the Theorio-Duffield Company at Roby, Ind. Theorio-Duffield wrote Secretary Arendhorst today they would ship several of these new devices here for a tryout and exhibition in connection with the gorgeous display listed for the 1924 fair.

The "Mystic Wheel Bombshell," which is 18 inches in circumference is fired several hundred feet in the sky and releases a cloud of Golden Star Dust, out of which floats a Golden Gyration. For a moment all is dark. Then the mystifying whirler again appears. Again there is darkness and again it appears, and so on until it is lost in the distance.

This device, is one of the most unique yet developed by modern pyrotechnics and they are awaiting the initial trial here with interest. Dates for the Holland Fair are: August 19 to the 22nd.

WASPS ARE KILLING THE ARMY WORM IN OTTAWA AND ALLEGAN COUNTY

Serious danger from army worms in Ottawa and Allegan counties is past. Large numbers are being killed by their natural enemies. The two doing the most good are wasps, which lay their eggs in the insect. The eggs mature in the worm, killing it, then form small cocoons about the dead worm. The other is a fly that is not so noticeable but really is doing more good. The army worms are becoming full sized, becoming contracted in length but large in girth, showing they are about ready to burrow in the ground and pupate, the moths appearing the latter part of July, according to Prof. Pettit.

EIGHT BROTHERS ALL GATHER FOR REUNION

Recently the Cornell Kammeraad family, 145 West 19th Street, held a reunion at the home of William Kammeraad in Grand Rapids and when noses were counted all eight sons of the family were present, including the twins and one sister from Kenosha, Wisconsin.

The only one not present was a sister, Mrs. Al Whitman of California who was not able to come so great a distance. An endeavor will be made, however, to have all of them present next 4th of July when preparations will be made far enough ahead so that none will be missing.

During the reunion the eight brothers formed a baseball team, everyone of them being great baseball fans. Lacking the ninth man, they substituted their sister to play one position. There were plenty of grandchildren to form an opposing nine and a battle royal was on that will be long remembered in the Kammeraad family.

The brothers in the order of their age are: Benjamin of Kenosha, Chris of Holland, William of Grand Rapids, Herman of Holland, John of Kenosha, Jack of Flint and Martin and Leonard, twins, of Holland. Mrs. Fred Knopf of Flint, a sister, was also present.

There were 36 children and grandchildren at the reunion.

HOPE GRADUATE HAS A VERY IM- PORTANT PULPIT

J. A. Adams, a resorter at Macontawa Park, whose home is in Washington, D. C., told friends here about a Hope College graduate who is making a name for himself at the national capital. This is Rev. Joseph Sizoo, who graduated from Hope College in 1907, and who has recently been installed as pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian church in Washington.

"This is the most famous church in Washington," said Mr. Adams. "It is called the church of the Presidents because of the number of occupants of the White House who have made it their church home. Lincoln's pew was here and is still marked by a silver plate. It is specially kept apart for the family of the pastor."

"Dr. Sizoo, who is quite a young man for so important a pulpit, was called from the Reformed church where he had been remarkably successful. He is a man of unusual ability, eloquent and a master in sermonizing. Some of those who have heard him in his new pulpit pronounce him the most eloquent preacher in Washington."

G. R. Herald.—Vance P. Mape who became sales manager of the West Michigan Furniture company only a couple of years ago has been making a tremendous success of the line. The company is not only making better furniture than it ever did before but it is making deliveries promptly and that is one of the things the dealers particularly appreciate.

The line which now occupies the entire second floor of the Furniture temple is in the present market more complete and more interesting than ever. For the last several seasons, the West Michigan has been bringing out some most advanced designs and this season it is making still another startling break.

A new suite which is given the name of Francois Premier is particularly interesting and altogether beautiful. It occupies the place of honor opposite the entrance to the show room and is attracting all sorts of attention.

To really get all the fine points of this particular suite one should talk with M. M. Lindenstien, the salesman for the Metropolitan district for "Lindy" claims this is his baby and he's altogether proud of it. Anyway it is good furniture and is being well received. It is not the only suite in the line, however. There are many new ones and each is worthy of inspection.

Miss Jennie Grimes left Friday night for Brainerd, Minn., where she will spend two weeks with her sister Mrs. W. H. Johnston.

WILL RAISE $1,500.00 FOR INDEPENDENTS

The usual bunch of Holland boosters gathered in one of the rooms of the city hall Thursday evening to talk ways and means of keeping Holland's baseball team going the balance of the season. Although fourteen games have been played up to this time, outside of the pitching staff, mostly imported, the baseball players have not drawn a penny, and while the loyal nine did not kick on this feature so much, they felt that they were not going to continue to play ball for the pleasure of the Holland fans without pay, and then go into their pockets besides to square up any deficit that might accrue.

Loyal baseball fans felt the same as was shown at the meeting at the city hall. Dick Boter, who acted as chairman of the meeting, told what the business men and fans had gathered, and the unanimous opinion was that the baseball team must continue to play and they should receive the financial support necessary to carry them through the season.

B. A. Mulder read a letter sent by George Getz of Lakewood to the local press, which has already been published, the letter containing a check for $100, as the initial subscription toward the maintenance of the team. Those at the gathering gave Mr. Getz a rising vote of thanks and many at the meeting were loud in their praises, enumerating the many instances when Mr. Getz had jumped into the breach, especially where Holland is concerned.

Many plans to raise money were suggested while Mr. Stephan who was present stated that since Mr. Getz has been so loyal and remembered the team so liberally surely Holland could do no less and it was unanimously decided that at least $1,500 be raised by subscription and that his money be placed in the hands of Dr. R. M. Waltz, a loyal member of the team, and Peter Prins, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and that the money be judiciously used by them at such times when the income is smaller than the outgo.

As soon as the money is raised a sort of an advisory board consisting of five members will be chosen to confer with the members of the team during the season and give such advice as may be helpful. These men will also supervise the financial end and no money will be unnecessarily spent.

John Koolker, Dr. Waltz, Wm. C. Vandenberg, Andrew Klomparsens, Abel Smeenge and others handed out some good advice and suggested certain changes that might be made to help matters along. However they all came with a message that no matter whom they had seen, no one wanted the Holland Independents to "close up shop" but wanted them to continue to play the season through.

It was then suggested that the live committee that could be chosen be appointed that this committee be made up of 25 of the strongest men in Holland, among them being manufacturers, merchants, professional men and men from the local factories. A committee of three was named to select this committee, and when everything is set a day will be chosen within the next week for this committee to go out and make a whirlwind canvass of the business and manufacturing district and there is no doubt as to the result.

Former mayor Stephan volunteered to take care of the manufacturers and intends to select one or more assistants from among their number, and he says, "Watch Our Smoke."

Dick Boter and other merchants spoke as enthusiastically for the business men of the town and if Holland can't raise more than $1,500.00 with a $100 George Getz to start them we miss our guess.

Let's get behind our Holland team. Let's co-operate with the committee that is to be chosen by the end of the week.

MADE FAST TIME ON AUTO TRIP

Charlie Wade, with his wife, son, and two daughters of Connorsville, Indiana, motored to Saugatuck, a distance of 300 miles, in ten hours, and were guests at Wade cottage with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Wade, over the 3rd, 4th and 5th of July. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wade and sons Ed and wife, Dudley and Frank Wade all of Grand Rapids, motored to Saugatuck the Fourth and spent the day in a most enjoyable family reunion, the first in over twenty years.

SMALL POX EPIDEMIC IN ALLEGAN OVER

The last family quarantined for smallpox at Allegan has been released and no new cases have been reported in several days. Out of some 100 cases none were fatal nor really serious. Other cities have not escaped so well, there having been some 200 deaths in Detroit, where the type was very virulent. One interesting feature of the Allegan situation was that smallpox and chickenpox occasionally attacked the same patient, some having one disease first, some the other. An attack of either does not give immunity from the other. So very mild were the cases of smallpox that it was often difficult to say at first what was the trouble. An amusing case of this was when one of the telephone employees developed a slight rash and orders were given for all to be vaccinated and gnashing of teeth. It wasn't small pox after all.

DOESBURG DRUG COMPANY and Other Leading Druggists

TAXES and rising costs haven't yet robbed the BEECH-NUT Chewing Tobacco of quality and quantity. Just as much and just as good in 1924 as in 1915.

Recent years of higher revenue, State and Federal taxes, mounting labor and raw material costs, we've kept BEECH-NUT tight sealed against a reduction in weight and a rise in price.

Still the best and the most best chewing tobacco 10c. ever bought.

That's why sales exceed 250 million packages annually. That's why every third tobacco chewer in America ten-centily protests against any substitute.

Make your 10c. do its duty too.

NEW INDUSTRY IN HOLLAND GETS LICENSE

The De Pree Laboratories, Incorporated, organized a year ago for the purpose of manufacturing arsenamine, neo-arsphenamine, and sulpharsphenamine, Friday was granted a government license for the manufacture of these chemicals and that permit marks the successful issue of a piece of work that is one of the most remarkable not only in Holland but in America. For two years and a half Edward De Pree and John Van Zoeren have been engaged in working out the new products, which are similar to the German salvarsan, and government experts declare that they are the only ones in America who have worked it out successfully without aid from European chemists. Other corporations that have worked out these products have imported chemicals but the two local young men have succeeded without help and the granting of the government license means the crown of their achievement. It was for them a gamble and if they had failed to secure the license all their years of work would have gone for nothing.

To secure the coveted license the products must be approved by the Hygienic Laboratories of Washington. The license must be approved by the Chemical Foundation on the recommendation of the government laboratories. The most rigid tests are necessary and only products that are absolutely right are passed. The three products of the local firm won high praise from the government chemists and are described by them as remarkably low in toxicity and high grade in every respect.

There is an unlimited field for these products and the granting of the government license is in effect the same as adding a new industry to Holland's firms. The De Pree Company will market the product and it means an addition to the business of that firm that involves an annual increase of an at present incalculable amount. The product is sold to state health departments and to large sanitariums and the market for it is said to be almost unlimited. The products are now being tried out by clinics in New York, Philadelphia, and Detroit and prospects of large contracts as a result of these trials are bright.

JUMPS FROM BARN:

BREAKS BROTHER'S LEG
A peculiar accident occurred Friday at a home on North River avenue. Little six year old Stanley Mroek was playing in a sandbox back of his home. His brother was on top of the barn and amused himself by jumping off the roof into the box of sand. He landed on his little brother and broke the boy's leg in two places. The little boy was taken to Holland hospital where the fractures were reduced.

BOUQUET MEN THROW BOUQUETS AT LOCAL PRESS

Apparently the peony show of last week was a decided success, judging from the communication to the local press from the Weller Nurseries Company of Holland.

Incidentally the local flower men give a few posies to the Holland press for the publicity given this unique exhibition which was a new departure in this city.

Judging from the company's letter the publicity has been far reaching, and if Holland has been benefited directly or indirectly, the space given to this enterprise has been well paid for.

It is pleasing to know that the Weller company will repeat these exhibitions, for even a child loves flowers, and an exhibit of that kind cannot help but please as well as educate.

The communication of the local nursery follows below:

Holland, Mich., July 8, 1924.

The Holland Sentinel and Holland City News,

Gentlemen:

We therewith want to thank you for the co-operation you have extended us thru local newspapers in making our Peony show a great success. We also desire to thank the public for their co-operation and interest shown in our undertaking. We had every hope that a Peony show of some kind would be quite interesting and accepted by the public as "nice" or "lovely" but that it would meet with so much enthusiasm we could never have dreamt. Not only that. "We" citizens of Holland are satisfied with the results, but our tourists, visitors were more than satisfied. Among our thousands of visitors were people from Chicago, Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Ohio, California, Maryland and they were so impressed with the beauty of the show, the perfection of the flowers, and the splendored of the variety, that besides leaving their order for plants for fall delivery they could not help expressing that they had never seen anything like it before. Among our visitors were many Peony fans, who like Peonies so much that they make a specialty of growing them for fun. These people grow many varieties and know them when they see them. They were all impressed.

We are satisfied that we have done a wonderful thing for floriculture in general, and having the confidence of the public we will try to keep this up annually, and if possible hold some other shows during the season, especially for the benefit of those who do not know much about gardening, plants and flowers.

Sincerely yours,
Weller Nurseries Co. Inc.
P. Weller, Mgr.

The following clipping was taken from an exchange from Alton, Ill.:

"Mrs. Ralph Borgman, 52 years old, died Monday night at her home in Alton, Ill., after a short illness. Mrs. Borgman was known in Racine, having spent her girlhood days here. She was formerly Miss Sophia Peterson. Mrs. Borgman is survived by her mother, Mrs. Robert Peterson, one brother, James Peterson, all of Racine. The body arrived here this morning and was taken to Hanson's funeral home. Tonight it will be taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. Soren Hanson, 251 South LaFayette avenue, where the funeral services will be held Thursday at 2:30 p. m. Burial will take place in Mount cemetery."

The Borgmans were former residents of Holland, living on West 10th street. The husband Ralph Borgman was a son of the late John Borgman, captain of the schooner "Wallin."

SCHMIDT CATCHES BIG MUSKELLUNGE

A few days ago M. J. Schmidt of Chicago, who has a cottage at Waukazoo, caught a black bass in the bayou at Waukazoo that was the largest bass caught in local waters so far. He entered it for the Game and Fish Protective association prize and so far no bass has been caught that beat this record.

Last night Schmidt was out in the bayou trying to hook another black bass as large as that or larger when he suddenly felt a strike that took his breath away. It took him all of half an hour to land the fish that put up a hard fight for its life. It proved to be a muskellunge and Friday morning Schmidt brought it to Holland to weigh it and to show to his friends here. It weighed ten pounds and four ounces and it was 35 inches long.

A photograph of the big muskellunge may be seen at the Lacey studio.

STORE AND P. O. AT JENISON

ARE RANSACKED
The J. & L. Jenison store and post office at Jenison was broken into Wednesday night.

The robbers gained entrance to the postoffice through a back window, where they obtained $8 in stamps, envelopes and then they entered the Jenison store through an opening entrance to the office of the Jenison firm and from there to the store.

Among the things taken in the loot were such articles as bacon, dry goods, shoes, gents union suits, 2 bolts of cotton, cigars, cigarettes.

The total estimated value taken at the store is placed at $200. The robbers who are considered novices at the game left untouched the office safe, and took several packages of cartridges.

RETURNS FROM GLACIER PARK CONVENTION

Miss Katherine Post returned to Holland Thursday evening after attending a convention at Glacier Park. Miss Post was the representative of the Detroit alumnae of the Alpha Phi sorority of the University of Michigan. Members of that sorority from all over the United States met in Glacier Park for a week's convention. Miss Post and her party went from Chicago to Glacier Park in a special train and on the way back they had a special car as far as Denver. They also stopped over in Minneapolis for a day and were entertained by the Minneapolis chapter of the sorority.

BOUND OVER TODAY TO CIRCUIT COURT

Len Vermeer, who was arrested some time ago on the charge of selling liquor, had his examination before Justice William Brusse Saturday forenoon and was bound over to circuit court for trial. His case will come up at the August term of court at Grand Haven. Vermeer was released on $500 bonds.

BREAK RULE OF LATE PAYING OF TAXES

Two Holland manufacturing plants established a new precedent in tax paying in Holland by settling up with the city treasurer on the first two days of the campaign. They did not merely happen to pay their taxes early. They did it designedly, in the hope of that other concerns would do the same and that after this the manufacturers will come across early with their tax money instead of waiting until the last day, almost until the last hour.

The two firms that have smashed precedent in tax paying in Holland are Superior Pure Ice Co. and the Holland Ladder Co. The former paid its summer taxes on the first day of the campaign and the latter on the second day. Their managers said they had an interest in the prompt paying of taxes in Holland and that corporations might take a lesson from private citizens who settle up early. The custom has been in years past that corporations would keep their money until the very last day. As a result the bulk of the taxes was collected on the closing day. That makes for congestion in the city treasurer's office. Amounts paid by individuals are usually comparatively small and the fact is that as a rule small and the fact is that as a rule the smaller the amount the earlier it is paid in the tax season. The two corporations that settled up Monday and Tuesday wish to start a habit of the large tax payers settling up early also.

Monday was the best first day of a tax campaign experienced in Holland in many years. Usually the amount collected on the first day is in the neighborhood of $1,000 or at most $1,500. On Monday the total amount gathered in by the city treasurer was $4,278.25. The city hall officials cannot remember a time when so large an amount was collected the first day. Some of this was left before the campaign opened by persons who were leaving the city for their vacations but it could not be officially received until the first legal tax collecting day and was credited to Monday's account.

COME ON IN, THE WATER IS FINE

Art Visser, in charge of the bath house at Macatawa, announces that the water is now fine for bathing. The temperature is a little over 70° and a large number of bathers are taking advantage of the opportunity to enjoy the water. The recent heavy rain seem to have had the effect of raising the temperature of the lake and from now on it is expected that large crowds will go to the beach.

WOMEN PLAN FOR A DRIVE FOR MEMORIAL

The Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion is looking forward to completing the fund for a soldier's memorial in Holland. They plan to make a campaign some time in the fall to secure funds for this purpose and are gradually laying their lines for this drive.

The Auxiliary has been collecting funds for the memorial ever since the organization was formed. From time to time they have held poppy sales and benefit movies for this purpose, the proceeds being added to the fund. This has necessarily been slow work but the fund has been growing gradually so that now it has reached a sum that makes a final drive desirable.

Some time ago former mayor E. P. Stephan offered the Auxiliary his salary as mayor for the past two years to add to this fund. This donation will head the list or the Auxiliary when the members get ready to make the campaign. and in appreciation of the generosity of Mr. Stephan Mrs. Eva L. Pelgrim, president of the Auxiliary, has written Mr. Stephan the following letter of thanks, the publication of which she has requested so that the public may share in the Auxiliary's sense of appreciation:

July 5, 1924

My dear Mr. Stephan:—
I have just received your check for two hundred dollars which you are so graciously donating to the cause, which at present is being so earnestly promoted by the American Legion Auxiliary. The entire city is continually showing us that they desire to perpetuate the memory of our World War heroes and is in sympathy with our purpose to erect a suitable memorial.

Therefore we feel we should include all the people of Holland with the American Legion Auxiliary in our sincere thanks to you, for your generous, whole-hearted endorsement of the project and this your very effective support.

Very gratefully yours,
(Mrs. Geo.) Eva L. Pelgrim.

WHITE BASS ARE COMING FINE SAYS G. R. HERALD

Unlike other fish and just about everything else, the white bass are biting ahead of their usual schedule this year. Ordinarily July and August are the good months for these handsomely striped fellows. But right now they are coming fine, according to reports.

White bass are our only native fish except catfish that are consistently caught more frequently at night than in the day time. At certain seasons moonlight casting for black bass is profitable, and trout feed at night during hot weather; but white bass have a system all of their own, speckled bass coming nearest to an imitation of it.

These fish are caught on live minnows from two to three inches long. You won't catch many if your minnow is dead or if it is either too long or too short. They're finicky fish. Not to be compared with black bass as fighters, they still are without any question a game fish. And when caught at night added sport is provided by the difficulties which darkness loads upon the fishermen.

Most of the white bass come into our lakes and streams from Lake Michigan. They commonly swim up the rivers to feed over the sand bars across from Grand Haven through the harbor entrance in Muskegon lake and similarly into Black lake at Holland. If a sand bar's location is known, that is under ordinary circumstances the best spot in which to drop your line.—G. R. Press.

TELLS OF DUTCH SETTLEMENTS IN N. Y. BEFORE 1624

"New Netherlands' Founding," is the title of a timely pamphlet issued by the Holland Society of New York, which supplies some much needed information concerning the situation which in a mild and purely academic way has been interesting New Yorkers for some time past. The author of the tract is Dingman Versteeg, probably the best informed scholar on the subject of the New Netherlands settlement now active. He is able to give references for all his statements, and makes out a clear case for his contentions, which are, in effect, that there were settlements before 1624, although in that year there came settlers with the purpose of becoming agriculturists. The previous settlers who built themselves houses and forts (so-called) were traders, buying exchange European commodities.

Rev. James Gerrit Rutgers of Hamilton, well known in Holland, left for Hamilton, Minn., to take up his work as minister. Rev. Rutgers has been very successful since his graduation from the Evangelical Institute of Chicago and his transfer to Minnesota comes as a well deserved advance.

It is clear from Versteeg's account that there were, both at Albany and New Amsterdam prior to 1624, permanent settlements, probably composed largely of men, while in 1624 there came the agricultural emigration, composed of families, with the expectation of cultivating the soil.

Concerning these pamphlet states: "The earliest agricultural colonists were not at all a success. In fact few if any outside the 45 were real farmers. That the first agricultural colonists had been engaged by and for the West India Company for a limited time (six years) only is further emphasized by the Rev. Jonas Michaelius in his letter of August 11, 1623, to the Rev. Adrian Smouthius in which he said 'A portion of the Walloons are going back to Flanders, either because their years here are expired, or also because some are not very serviceable to the company.' The privileges and exemptions of 1630 and the throwing open of the New Netherlands trade in 1639 entirely changed the character of the agricultural, as well as other settlers, casting them entirely upon their own resources and initiative, though the company did not even then withdraw its support where needed."

Health is Welcome After Asthma's Agony

HEALTH TALK NO. 15 BY JOHN DE JONGE, D. C.

HEALTH is indeed most welcome to any one after having suffered the agonizing struggle for breath which is characteristic of the spasms peculiar to this trouble. Asthma, some have considered a climatic trouble. Those who change climate in the hope of relief are nearly always disappointed.

14 Years Experience

Graduate of the Michigan College of Chiropractic and the Palmer School of Chiropractic

Suffered for 20 Years—Then Relief

"I suffered from asthma for twenty years. I was told the California climate would cure me, but it didn't. Then I was advised to go to the mountains, and it had no effect. I consulted one physician after another and received no benefit. I tried a sanitarium treatment that was highly recommended and it failed. I am satisfied now that none of the things that I tried had a chance to succeed because none of them reached the cause of my particular trouble until I began taking chiropractic spinal adjustments. I had good results in twenty-five adjustments, but continued until I was entirely well. During the past winter I caught a hard cold and expected a return of the trouble, but it did not appear. I am sure now that I have a permanent cure."—Mrs. Mary S. Desjardin, Chir. Res. Bureau, Statement No. 1575E.

A neighborhood cat at Grand Rapids is said to have lost its reason from the effects of the racket on the 4th of July. Let us have more and louder racket.

An expenditure of approximately $2,000,000 by the P. M. R. on the complete reconstruction of the shops at Wyoming yards including the erection of several large buildings gives Grand Rapids one of the most modern and efficient railroad shop units in the country. The Arnold company of Chicago, builders of the shops started the work in February, 1923, only a few details now remaining to complete the job. When our neighbor is so well treated from time to time we sometimes wonder why that small but ornamental depot at Holland is not forthcoming. Surely this city has done everything in its power to get it and have received assurance enough to expect it.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Vander Hoop and family and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Van West of this city together with Mr. and Mrs. N. CONGRESSMAN MAPES A FAVORITE IN GRAND HAVEN

Grand Haven Tribune—Carl E. Mapes, member of congress from the Fifth Congressional district of Michigan, Kent and Ottawa counties, is in the city today. Mr. Mapes' candidacy for renomination is announced and his nominating petitions are already being freely signed. Mr. Mapes is a favorite in Grand Haven, where he has many friends who believe he is a most valuable man for this acquaintance with local affairs. His activities in behalf of local harbor requests, have resulted in Grand Haven's request for a survey being included in the rivers and harbors bill.

L. H. Vanden Berg, fifth district delegate to the Democratic national convention in New York City, returned to Holland Saturday night. Mr. Vanden Berg had the unusual distinction of having several of the New York papers get out an extra because of him. At one time during the balloting Mr. Vanden Berg cast a ballot for William Jennings Bryan. A few minutes later the New York papers came out on the street with big headlines smeared across their front pages announcing that "Bryan Enters As Dark Horse." Mr. Vanden Berg took home with him some copies of these extras.

The vote for Bryan by Vanden Berg attracted a good deal of attention to the Holland man. William Jennings Bryan came over to the Michigan delegation and personally thanked Mr. Vanden Berg for his good will and support. Vanden Berg voted for the Commoner twice.

"It was the only national convention I ever attended," said Mr. Vanden Berg on his return, "and it was a great experience. They almost worked us to death—caucuses in the morning, balloting in the afternoon, meetings and conferences in the evening and often throughout most of the night. Sometimes we were not able to get out of the convention hall until four o'clock in the morning."

Mr. Vanden Berg was a consistent opponent to Gov. Al Smith. Before leaving Holland for the convention he declared that under no condition would he vote for Smith and he kept that promise. He declared however today that it is almost impossible for people in this section of the country to appreciate the popularity of Smith in the East. He also gave Smith and his forces credit for playing the game on the square and for not doing anything in an underhanded way but making a clean and square fight.

Mr. Vanden Berg became acquainted with many of the notable national figures. "It was a great experience," he said, "and I wouldn't have missed it for a good deal."

DID CLAN STICK ITS NOSE IN THE SCHOOL ELECTION?

GRAND HAVEN IS WONDERING: UNEXPECTED STRENGTH NEARLY WINS FOR MEN NOT ON BALLOT

The regular calm school election policy was near upset in Grand Haven Monday when the candidates chosen were nearly defeated by men whose names did not even appear on the ballot. According to the Grand Haven Tribune: citizens are wondering if the K. K. Klan had participated suddenly in the contest, anyway the Tribune story follows below, use your own judgment:

A surprise vote which swarmed into the polls after six o'clock last evening came near overturning predictions in the annual school election last night. Only two names had been placed on the ballot in the regular manner. There were Arthur W. Elliott and Henry V. Bolt, present members of the Board of Education, whose terms expire. The time required by law for filing nominating petitions expired, and when the ballots were prepared as required by law, there were no nominees except Messrs. Bolt and Elliott.

At the election, which opened Monday morning there were no indications of opposition to the regular nominees. Few ballots were cast during the day and it looked as though the election would pass as has often been the case, with but little interest. At shortly after six o'clock last night the total vote cast was only sixty-eight.

Then came the sudden avalanche of votes. A stream of voters filed into the polling place and to all appearances the names of candidates were being written into the blank spaces. While there was no proof of the fact, of course, it was claimed that the Ku Klux Klan organization in this city was voting its strength suddenly and unexpectedly. Whether it was the K. K. or not the big surprise vote was evidently the result of organization and previously planned action of some kind as the same names were written into the two blank spaces on 147 ballots. A scrutiny of the ballots showed that the names were spelled correctly in each case.

However failure to observe that the time for the closing of the polls was set for eight o'clock Central time, rather than eight o'clock local time, served to upset the coup of the opposition to the regular candidates.

Friends and supporters of the regular candidates sensed the organized voting against the nominees, and they lost no time getting into action. Telephones summoned many voters to the polls and the opposing candidates would probably have been elected but for the prompt action of those who recovered from their surprise in time to get prompt action from the voting strength which usually dies dormant.

The total count was as follows: Arthur W. Elliott, 226; Henry V. Bolt, 212; Jacob Hietje, 147; Annis Van Doorne, 147; J. J. Bolt, 2; Lionel Heap, 3; William Van Horssen, 2; George Swart, 1; Mrs. Alma Misner, 1. The heaviest part of the opposition count of 147 was voted between 6:30 and eight o'clock, local time. While these voters did not appear in a body, the steady stream of voters going into the booths indicated that some sort of organization strength was being voted. The general impression today is that the K. K. K. was responsible for the coup. No definite statement was made as to the reason for the opposition at the polls.

ALLEGAN CHAINS PRISONERS TO LAWN MOWERS

Hereafter the compulsory lawn mowers of Allegan county will be chained to their machines like the galley slaves of old times, and P. C. Gallagher will chain his car to a telephone pole. The two young men arrested in Wayland for stealing oil while on a tour of the country, found the labor of keeping down the grass in wet weather too burdensome, and Wednesday of last week Louis Beckner (or whatever his real name is) disappeared. This was not made public because it was expected to capture him at once, but the following day his companion, Melvin Halterman, boarded F. C. Gallagher's car and disappeared. It was a case of "a day ahead—way ahead." Whether he picked up his partner is not known. Beckner was located in Anderson, Ind., and Deputy Robin went there this week for him. As Halterman has been seen in Anderson, Robin will make a search there. In the meantime one editor is losing much needed flesh walking.

NOW ITS THE OTTAWA EARLY POTATO TOUR

County Farm Agent C. P. Milham says now Holland is to have a potato growers' meeting. It is called "Early Potato Growers' Tour." Mr. Milham says that the acreage of early potatoes in Ottawa county has increased tremendously this year due to the shipping in of 600 bushels of certified seed. Four meetings are to be held on July 23rd at which time a study of cultural methods, insects, diseases and field selection of seed will be discussed by potato specialists from the college. The meetings will be held as follows: 9 A. M., Herman Boldt, Rfd. 2, Hudsonville. 10:30, A. M., Rinkema Bros., Forest Grove. 1:00 P. M., Wm. Meeuwse, south end of Zeeland. 2:30 P. M., J. Y. SEVENTEEN FIERY CROSSES BURNED AT GRAND HAVEN

Incomplete returns from three sources show that at least seventeen fiery crosses were burned in the vicinity of Grand Haven Saturday night between the hours of ten and eleven o'clock. Most of the crosses were burned right beside the traveled highways but so far there has been no one who has reported seeing them placed.

With some, the reports have not shown location but only the general fact that so many were recorded. A total with no back tracks on any show seventeen according to the story of three persons who counted. Five were reported burning in the village of Spring Lake proper where three or four were located right on Savidge avenue the main traveled through street. Another was located right at the Y where the Grand Haven, Spring Lake and Perryburg roads intersect.

At the oval in Highland Park on the highest mound of sand there, a larger cross than any that were seen in other parts of the city and Spring Lake, was burning. Another cross burned by the water works, another by the Challenge Refrigerator and others in different sections of the city. Just what activity on the part of the Klan this represents is unknown but it caused much conjecture at Grand Haven. Some activity or celebration must have occasioned the event, it is stated. Rumor has it that one prominent Grand Haven man kicked one of the crosses over and extinguished it. A crowd that was about it, fled when this was done, the report goes.

The total receipts of the high school entertainment course of the past year were $283.89. The disbursements were $244.44 leaving a balance of $39.45. Though the course contracted for next season is more expensive than the previous one, yet, with the sentiment of the community favorable as it is, good hard work on the part of the pupils of the high school should make the course a success again.

WILL SOLICIT B. BALL FUNDS ON FRIDAY

Holland is well wound up on baseball especially since the tilt with Ionia Saturday, and there is not a fan who does not want to support the Holland Independents both morally and financially. Business men as well as manufacturers and not a few boys in the shops are going to get back of the drive for funds for the team, the drive to be started this week Friday. The $100.00 of George Getz as an initial subscription makes Holland feel that if an outsider sees merit in our home team Holland folks surely should.

Dick Boter, who heads the committee to see the business men, is selecting his committee and you may be sure that it will be a live one, composed of the best solicitors that Holland can boast of. E. P. Stephan has promised to take care of the manufacturers and will select a committee from among them. At a recent meeting Mr. Stephan volunteered to take that end of the job and when Stephan sets out to do a thing you can be assured that the job is going to be done right.

Remember, the day when the committee is going to call will be Friday of this week and the heads of the committees ask that all join hands and co-operate with them in order that the thing may be put over in one day. All the solicitors are busy men, donating their time and money freely and a quick response will be very much appreciated.

Fire, accident, theft may cause you temporary inconvenience. But they cannot cause you financial loss if you carry enough of the right kind of insurance.

The local team has been consistently winning baseball games. The one lost Saturday was the first lost in six games played, and if the truth were known the game with Ionia in reality belonged to Holland.

Remember, Friday has been set aside as solicitation day. Let's get behind and help our home team.
