SAUGATUCK REGATTA DRAWS MANY VISITORS

The annual regatta of the Chicago Yacht club was held at Saugatuck Tuesday on Lake Kalamazoo, more than 40 boats being entered in the various contests. Winners in each class were awarded prizes. Hundreds of spectators from all over western Michigan watched the various competitions from the shores or from boats anchored along the beach.

THERE WAS NO RAIN IN 37 DAYS REPORT

LAST NIGHT'S DOWNPOUR
MEANS MILLIONS TO FARMERS
IN MICHIGAN

The Temperature on the Official
Thermometer Was 92 Degrees
Wednesday

Wednesday was the warmest day thus far this year, the official thermometer at the waterworks registering 92 degrees in the shade.

Tuesday ran a close second when the indicator showed 90 degrees. It is still cooler however in Holland than in Grand Rapids where the temperature rose to 95 degrees and in Detroit 96 degrees and Chicago also 96 degrees. Grand Haven makes an official record of 92 degrees the same as Holland.

Mr. Heyer, head of the Ottawa County weather bureau, states that this county hasn't had rain in 37 days. The last perceptible shower was on June 13 and 14 when ten hundredths of an inch fell. So far during the month of July there has been just 29 hundredths of an inch in about 37 days, which in reality means no rain.

The result has been that there was a light crop of strawberries, and raspberries were also drying up. Backward weather has also stunted the corn and this is two weeks behind.

Dame nature came to the aid of Michigan however, last night, and for more than four hours there was a steady downpour of rain which let up at 6 o'clock, but the glorious rain began again shortly after 7 o'clock and continued throughout the morning.

Farmers are jubilant because it will mean millions to the tillers of the soil. The backward season followed by the drought of more than a month was very discouraging indeed. The long dry spell and the heat waves have been broken and as a rule abundant rains follow. In spite of the dry weather Holland water users have not been advised by Mr. Champion, superintendent of the board of public works that there was a water shortage.

Now with plenty of rain there is little likelihood that this city will face a shortage in its water supply.

SPORT COMMITTEE GIVEN 3 JOBS BY THE COUNCIL

ALDERMAN PETERSON WILL LOOK AFTER THIS WORK FOR THE ALDERMEN

Alderman Oscar Peterson, who is the council's unofficial sports representative and to whom is usually referred a committee of one all questions that have to do with sports, was asked Wednesday night by the common council to have the backdrop on the 19th street grounds repaired, neighbors having complained that stray balls were ruining their property and gardens. He was also asked to get the fence on the sixth street grounds repaired. Complaint was also made that no drinking water is to be had on the sixth street grounds and was asked to secure the installation of a fountain there.

SCOUT WORK IS ENDORSED BY THE CITY

COUNCIL SHOWS IN TANGIBLE WAY ITS APPROVES OF THIS MOVEMENT

The city administration Wednesday night officially put its stamp of approval on the boy scout movement in Holland. The scouts have been using a little room on the second floor as headquarters since the organization was formed here. However, they paid six dollars a month for light and heat. Ald. Hyma suggested that the city show its appreciation of the work of the scouts by freeing them of this charge.

Mayor Kammeraad warmly endorsed the scout work and several aldermen spoke to the same effect. The suggestion was adopted by a unanimous vote.

TAXI CAB COMPANY CHANGES HANDS

The Holland Cab company owned by Mrs. Lage Kole and managed by her husband Mr. Peter Kole has changed hands. The company was purchased by Mr. John Rooks and Mr. John Zwiers, who will conduct the business in the future. The firms name will remain the same, namely The Holland Cab Company. Rooks and Zwiers proprietors. Their headquarters will be 250 west 14th street and there will be no change in the telephone number which is 5177. The downtown stands will also remain the same. Taxis can be secured at the Warm Friend Tavern, the depot and the boat dock.

The young men are from Holland and promise to give the best of service to patrons.

An alarm of fire was turned in from box 21, hotel corner. A call for help came from Montello Park and Chief Blom sent one truck to put out a large grass fire that threatened dwellings in the neighborhood.

PERSHING TO HEAD THE AMERICAN LEGION

CONVENTION TO STAND
GENERAL

Without doubt the delegates sent by the Willard G. Leenhouts Post, American Legion will stand by Gen. John Pershing as the next national commander of the American Legion when they meet at Philadelphia in October.

Gen. Pershing according to a dispatch, who was the leader of the American Expeditionary force to France in 1917, will become the next national commander of the American Legion, it was assured today.

A number of important caucuses are to be held between now and next October when the legion will hold its annual convention in Philadelphia, which are expected to lead the American doughboys to France, on the occasion of the legion pilgrimage to the battlefields next year.

Practically all candidates have agreed to withdraw in favor of General Pershing, his friends in the national capitol announced. General Pershing, too, has agreed to accept the command, providing there is to be no political contest within the Legion over his leadership, he has informed his friends here.

His home post, George Washington No. 1, already has completed an organization to further his unanimous choice at the Philadelphia convention. The post originally bore the name, General Pershing post.

Michigan legionnaires are among those backing Pershing for the command. A delegation of members from that state, some months ago, visited Pershing here, and learned, it is said, that he is willing to become the leader of the Legion.

In addition to the propriety of the American soldiers being led back to France by their commander of the stormy war days, Gen. Pershing is needed by the Legion as the final boost in its recent growth. Last year and this have been the first when the membership of the legion showed an increase over previous years except for the growing period immediately after it was organized. With General Pershing at the helm, its leaders feel they will be able to keep up the growth of the legion, and to make more complete its representation of the A. E. F.

Legionnaires see also in Pershing a commander who will lead them through France without the friction which was occasioned by a previous visit of the legion abroad. Pershing is every inch a soldier, and none of the petty feelings and squabbles of recent years could possibly germinate under his leadership.

LONG DELAYED SIDEWALK IS NOW ASKED FOR

PROPERTY OWNERS DEMAND
THAT LEATHER COMPANY
BUILD WALK

It is likely that the Cappon-Bertch Leather company will have to build a sidewalk along the north side of Ninth street between Pine and Maple avenues. R. H. Haberman appeared before the common council Wednesday night and asked why the sidewalk should not be built. He pointed out that for years and years the company has been made to get the company to build a walk there but that the plea had always been, "Wait till the paving is in." Now he said the paving is in. Now he said the paving is in. Now he said the paving is in.

It appeared in the discussion that the walk had been ordered in some years ago "as soon as the paving was in," and it was contended that all that was needed now was to enforce that order. On motion of Ald. Drinkwater, supported by Ald. Laepple, the matter was referred to the sidewalk committee. Quick action is expected as a result of this move.

HOLLAND INDEPENDENTS SIGN UP STRONG PITCHER

WOODHOUSE OF KALAMAZOO
TO BE ON THE MOUND
FRIDAY

The Holland Independents have signed up a real pitcher in Woodhouse of Kalamazoo called "Woody" by the fans.

Woodhouse is the boy who pitched for Osego early in the season and it will be remembered the locals were badly beaten all because of "Woody" who did the pitching for the visitors. This young man is a wonder as our Holland players found out.

The Osego team was considered only a fill-in but the nine proved to be a headliner and will draw well on a return date.

An alarm of fire was turned in from box 21, hotel corner. A call for help came from Montello Park and Chief Blom sent one truck to put out a large grass fire that threatened dwellings in the neighborhood.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

The trustees of the $50,000 factory bonus fund, have purchased of the Hope college council a strip of land east of C. L. King & Co's. factory. It has a frontage of 600 ft. on Macatawa Bay and is from 50 to 90 feet deep. The trustees made the purchase in order that they might have good factory sites for companies desiring to locate here.

C. Vander Heuvel, representing the Michigan Toy & Novelty Works, left Tuesday night on a business trip to Chicago, Green Bay and Sheboygan.

Prof. A. J. Ladd, instructor in psychology and pedagogy in Hope college, has been appointed one of the instructors for the one week session of the teachers' and patrons' institute to be held in Grand Rapids beginning August 19.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

The great question of the evening at last night's council meeting came up when the council went into a committee of the whole and the liquor question took the center of the stage. The sum and substance of the request was a recommendation by the police department, and the ordinance committee bringing up for discussion first, that beer be sold in quantities of one pint and whiskey to remain the same as heretofore being one pint. The second consideration is that the hours be

BOYS CONFERENCE AT PINE LODGE BEGINS TODAY

WILL CONTINUE FOR TEN DAYS; IS THE FIRST ANNUAL

This evening at 8:30 p. m., the first annual boys' conference will be opened at Pine Lodge by Rev. J. M. Martin of Holland, who will give a camp fire talk on "Why We Are Here." Registration will be received during the entire day. The morning sessions will be devoted to pursuing a well-planned course of study, recreation and discussion. The entire afternoon will be devoted to wide variety of athletics and hikes. The daily Bible hour will be in charge of Mr. John Van Brook of the Grand Rapids Y. M. C. A., who will call attention to the athletes of the Bible.

Among the speakers are Dr. A. Leenhouts, G. J. Diekema, Dick Boter and Wynand Wichers, all of Holland, Charles Mayne and Chas. S. Cornelius and Dr. P. J. Kriekard of Grand Rapids. Mr. Mayne will speak on "Decisions for Life," on July 27th, and on "Friendship," on the evening of the 28th. On Saturday evening, the 24th, there will be a very interesting number by Mr. Chas. Cornelius when he rehearses his trip around the world.

The evening of the 28th will be "stunt night," thus rounding out a ten day period of well-balanced activities, combining a real outing with a program of varied training adapted to red blooded boys.

VAN DREZER OF GRAND HAVEN SEE A BADGER

In spite of the fact that the woods and wild places have practically disappeared in the vicinity of Grand Haven occasionally an animal survivor of the old forest days is seen around in the neighborhood. Wm. Van Drezer, who spends his summers at his pretty home at the head of Pottowattomie bayou reports encountering a badger on the shores of the bayou one morning last week. It has been years since a badger has been reported in this section. This species of wild animal never was numerous here and where this particular specimen came from is a mystery.

GIGANTIC MUSIC SALE TO CLOSE

Of the past two weeks a gigantic music sale has been going on, put on by Van Vyren's Music House, 19 East 8th street. Sales during this period have been large, although the manager says that Saturday positively marks the close of this sale.

There are many things given away free such as a course in music, sets of aluminum ware, sets of silverware, and sets of gold trimmed dishes.

It would be well to look over their final announcement on page 4 of this issue.

ROASTING AN OX IS AN INTERESTING OPERATION

SPORTS AT LAKEWOOD FARM
SATURDAY HAVE ALL BEEN ARRANGED

There will be plenty of music at Lakewood Farm Saturday when the American Legion band and the Ionia band will give a program of music.

The roasting of the ox together with the tons of other meat in itself is an interesting operation. The ox is put over a pit fire and is constantly turned until the whole animal is a chestnut brown.

Mr. Getz has also arranged for a tug of war between the Lakewood employees and a team from Holland. There will be the grease pole climbing and the catching of a greased pig. The pillow fight always is an interesting affair.

There will be three eating contests, bananas, crackers and doughnuts. There will be a crackerjack race for boys and girls and several other features along these lines.

Two very interesting events will be the shoe races. The shoes of the participants in the race are taken off and thrown into a large barrel. The barrel is placed at the furthest end of the course, contestants must race to the barrel, pick up his shoes from the mixup, put them on, lace them and then race back to the goal. The judge looks over the laces to see whether this is properly done, and the bows neatly tied, and prizes are given accordingly. There will be two races, one for girls and one for boys.

Another unique event is the obstacle race. The participants must go over and thru all sorts of obstacles, such as crawling under carpets, going thru automobile tires, jumping hurdles, climb thru a tree, etc. The participant who overcomes all these obstacles first naturally is the winner.

PLAN TO JOIN HOL- LAND'S STATE PARK AND HIGHWAY

HOLLAND TO HAVE TRIANGLE
LAKE SHORE NEXT

P. K. Hoffmaster, superintendent of State Parks, and State Engineer A. Skene of Lansing, were in Grand Haven yesterday, conferring with road commissioner Wm. M. Connelly, on the plans and specifications for the state parking space that is to be built at Ottawa Beach, in Holland.

The plans for this parking space are not completed as yet and the conference had to do with the placing of it in reference to the proposed new road, which will connect this park with M-11. There is at present several miles of road laid west from M-11 and so there remains only a short distance to connect up with the proposed new parking space.

The geography of the country which includes this new state park is such that the parking space will have to be in the shape of a triangle. It is suggested "The Holland Triangle" will be a nice differentiation from "The Grand Haven Oval" and will keep the two parks separate and distinct in the minds of the traveling public.

The plans for this parking space call for several units that can be added to from time to time. The ultimate size to be about that of the Grand Haven Oval, and when finished will greatly relieve the strain at that park on holidays and special days.

The tentative plan is to start this work sometime in the coming spring, getting the first unit ready for the summer of 1927.

MANY ARRESTS REPORTED FOR VIOLATIONS

LIQUOR TRIAL CANCELED AS OFFENDER PAYS FINE AND COSTS

Grand Haven Tribune—Mike Skwark, who was arrested on Saturday for driving a car while intoxicated, demanded a trial, which was set for Thursday of this week. Thinking better of the proposition Skwark decided to plead guilty and trust to the mercies of the Judge.

He accordingly appeared before Justice Dickinson this morning, and was fined $50 and costs of $2.75.

Mrs. John Regelin arrested for reckless driving appeared in the city court station and paid a cash fine of $10.

Howard Edgett of Conklin was arrested by the State Police, trooper Peck, for the misuse of license plates. He was arraigned before Justice Howard Erwin of Coopersville and paid a $5 fine and costs of $4.50.

Charles Batson also of Conklin was arrested for the same offense. He paid costs of $4.50.

Justice Charles N. Dickinson announced this morning that he has turned over three hundred dollars into the treasurer's department, for fines taken last week. This is a pretty goodly sum and shows there are plenty of arrests that are taking the violators of the law off our highways and which in time will have its general effect on accidents and other troubles in the roads.

Almost all the fines are for automobile and liquor transgressions.

BIG QUESTION IS FINALLY ALL SETTLED

VACANT LOT TO BE FREE PARKING SPACE FOR THE ALL

The vacant lot next to the armory is now to be "free parking space for all who wish to use it." That was finally definitely settled Wednesday night at the meeting of the common council after a liberal share of two council meetings had been given to this grave question.

The space had been rented to D. B. Thompson for selling used cars. Last meeting it was decided not to renew the contract, with him when the month was over. But during the past two weeks he tendered the city clerk $20 for another month. The clerk accepted the check tentatively but gave no receipt, holding it till the council could act. The council decided not to accept the check but to use the space for free parking.

Signs will be put up informing the public that they can use this space. The idea of some of the aldermen is that it shall be a place particularly for farmers and others who come to town. Van Zanten pointed out that it would be a worthwhile thing to provide parking space for all such visitors as well as for tourists and other visitors. Ald. Laepple repeated this conviction expressed two weeks ago that he saw no reason why the city should provide free parking space for anybody. But the original resolution prevailed and the space will be for parking until such time as it may be sold by the city.

AUTO SPOONING ORDINANCE IS BEFORE CITY

INTRODUCED WEDNESDAY EVENING TO BE UP FOR PASSAGE NEXT MEETING

The "automobile spooning ordinance," which is arousing considerable interest, was introduced in the council session Wednesday night by Ald. Peterson, chairman of the ordinance committee. The passing of the ordinance was reserved for the next meeting. What the ordinance proposed to do is given in the first three sections, which read as follows:

"Sec. 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to drive an automobile on the streets in the city of Holland while being subjected to the embraces of any other person; and it shall be unlawful for any person to embrace the driver while driving an automobile on the streets in the city of Holland."

"Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to embrace any other person while driving an automobile on the streets in the city of Holland."

"Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for any person to drive an automobile on the streets in the city of Holland while the seat occupied by such driver is so crowded with persons or other objects as to hinder or impede such driver in controlling such automobile. And at no time shall there be more than three persons over twelve (12) years of age in the seat occupied by the driver of such automobile."

ANOTHER HAY DAY IN ALLEGAN COUNTY

A second Allegan county hay day this season has been arranged for August 7, 1:30 P. M. fast time. This will be at the farm of George Newell, 1/2 mile south of Burnetts, and west 1/4 mile. The land is rolling and should give a good opportunity to show how the hay machinery works under various conditions. It will also show how alfalfa surpasses other hay crops as it will be but slightly over one month since the first crop was harvested.

A representative from the Farm Crop Department will be present to give a lecture on alfalfa and hay making. We hope to have three tons of hay making machinery on the job. 145 attended the first hay day and this gives a chance for all farmers to attend in north half of county.

OFFICERS ARE NOTIFIED TO HUNT COUPLE

SEVERAL TOWELS ALSO MISSING FROM ROOM ALLEGEDLY NOT PAID FOR

The police were called Tuesday night to investigate the disappearance of Mr. and Mrs. M. Mylie, registered from Illinois, who, the management of the Hotel Gildner of Grand Haven alleges left the hotel without paying their night's lodging, the sum amounting to $4.50. Also a number of large bath towels were reported to be missing from their room.

The couple claimed to have had car trouble and it was thought they might be stalled in some Grand Haven garage. An inspection of the garages failed to disclose the whereabouts of the couple. It is just possible they forgot to pay their obligation of the hotel because confused in their accounts.

At the session of the common council Wednesday night the committee on claims and accounts reported $7,125.59 in claims against the city for the past two weeks. The committee on road reported $10 for temporary aid.

EXAMPLE IS MADE OF A "FIRE SPEEDER"; MORE ARRESTS TO FOLLOW

John De Witt was the first example in the drive to teach the people of Holland that in case of fire the road must be left open to the firemen. De Witt was arrested on Columbia avenue Thursday night for going to a fire on 15th street at the rate of 30 miles an hour. He was arraigned before Justice Brusse Friday morning and paid a fine of $8.70.

The numbers of several cars within a block of the fire were taken and the intimations are that action will follow in every case, making it a kind of compulsion. In every case where it is warranted the owner of the car will be arrested. It was stated today, and he will have to answer in court for driving his car within a block of the fire.

Fair warning has been given several times through the newspapers that in case of a fire the parking of cars within the same block will not be tolerated but that arrests will be made. At the fire Thursday night it was almost impossible for the firemen to get to the blaze because motorists who had not the slightest business there were speeding to the fire and were cluttering up the road. The fire was not an important blaze but it might just as well have been and the warnings that have been given are now being put into practical effect. People who let their curiosity get the better of them so that they must crowd their cars in the block where there is a fire will have to pay for it after this in court.

Firemen complained today that they were seriously interfered with in getting to the fire in the quickest possible time and in doing their work properly and effectively when they did arrive. They have long asked for protection against the auto pests who hurry to fires where they have no business and that protection is being given them now in a practical way. It is hoped that from now on wholesale arrests will be made.

Allagan Gazette—"Lakewood Farm," the home near Holland city, known by everybody as "the Gets Farm," will be the place of gathering of supporters of Fred W. Green for governor. Mr. Getz wishes all sorts of people to attend. There are no special invitations. Besides the pleasures of strolling over the spacious lawns and gardens (which are always open to the public) there will be a bar-becue (roasted and other good things for everybody to eat), athletic contests, good speeches. It is expected that Mayor Smith of Detroit, besides Mayor Green, will be heard. "Bring your family," says the Gets invitation to everybody. "Want everybody to have a good holiday at Lakewood. Everybody will be welcome."

Get the river in order, fill it with family and friends, and join in one more big boost for Fred W. Green.

Coroner Gilbert Vandewater was called to Perryburg Saturday afternoon in a drowning case. Edward Hannas, of Perryburg, aged 35, was drowned about one o'clock and the body was recovered by the Grand Haven coast guard two hours later. Mr. Vandewater declared an inquest was not necessary. The drowning was purely an accident.

Hannas went to work for the Construction Materials company of Chicago on the tug "Liberty" at Perryburg. On Saturday noon while he was standing on the tug and was throwing a line to a scow he lost his balance and fell overboard, striking his head against the scow. This stunned him and he did not come up. Hannas was an expert swimmer.

He is survived by his wife and three children. The body was taken to Kiel's undertaking parlors in Grand Haven.

Those interested in the Hutton hospital, at Grand Haven are going to stage a real circus, not as large as Barnum & Bailey perhaps, but a real live circus, with wild animals, side shows, with the fat lady and the skinny man, the fortune teller, the slight of hand performer, the film flammer, the fake picture taker, pop corn boys, and pink lemonade. In fact every detail of a real circus and vaudeville show staged by many of the people, you know, will be in evidence.

This circus is to be held on the ground and in the buildings of Akley Hall, Grand Haven, and the proceeds are to go to Hutton hospital.

Rev. Albert Ottmans, Hope graduate, has retired from active missionary service for the Reformed Church in America after an interrupted connection with the mission in Japan for nearly 40 years.

His place in the theological school now is filled by Rev. H. V. E. Stegeman, also a graduate of Hope college and Western Seminary.

Although Mr. Ottmans has reached the retirement age, he has accepted an appointment as secretary for the American Mission to open in Japan and plans to devote his time to the work as long as he lives in that country.

Mr. Ottmans last month celebrated the 40th anniversary of his ordination as missionary in the Reformed church, Grand Rapids, which some years ago merged with the Central Reformed church, Grand Rapids, under the name of the Reformed church.

REFORMED CHURCH MISSION RECEIVES MIL. LION IN LEGACIES

The board of domestic missions in the Reformed Church in America reports $963,974.14 in legacies since its organization 100 years ago. A large amount of the money has been used in support of home missionaries and in erection of church buildings, but many of the legacies established trust funds of which only the income can be used. Such income last year amounted to $24,355.14.

The first legacy was received in 1826 and since that time about 400 persons have remembered the board in their wills.

PUBLIC IS WEL- COME TO LAKE- WOOD SATURDAY

Mayor John W. Smith of Detroit has accepted an invitation to be the principal speaker Saturday, July 24, at the big "Fred W. Green barbecue" which George F. Getz is planning for "Lakewood farm" on Lake Michigan.

Plans for the celebration are moving along and it promises to be one of the biggest political days of the year. No person's invitations are being issued, but everybody in western Michigan has been invited to be on hand for the big show. "Come and bring your family," says Getz to all.

"Lakewood Farm" ordinarily is the weekly mecca for from 2,000 to 4,000 visitors. Plans to accommodate 10,000 at the barbecue one week from Saturday are being made. There will be the old-fashioned "ox roast," a program of athletic events, a greased pole, a greased pig, bands, speeches, and a general good-will holiday.

Mr. Getz is planning the event in honor of Mayor Fred W. Green of Detroit. Mayor Green was on hand to make one of the important addresses as will also ex-U. S. Sen. Wm. Alden Smith, ex-congr. G. J. Diekmann of this city will be master of ceremonies.

Five freight cars and an oil tanker in an extra freight approaching the city on the Pere Marquette railroad were derailed and thrown crosswise on the right-of-way at Grandville at 7 o'clock Sunday night, but no members of the crew were injured.

The wreck occurred when the front end of the tanker struck a corner of the Grandville depot, apparently due to the swaying of the car as it passed the building. Timbers composing one corner of the depot were splintered and the building shaken, the impact throwing the car from the rails, and causing the other cars to leave the tracks.

The tanker, filled with crude oil, rolled on one side and some of the oil flowed from it, but the fluid fortunately did not catch fire. The tracks were cleared up during the evening and there was no interruption of passenger service.

Holland's big paving program for this summer gives every indication that it will be completed before winter. In spite of the fact that it was begun several weeks later than usual, the city's force is working on eleventh street putting in curb and gutter and this will probably be finished this week. The work of grading that street and putting in the stone will be begun soon.

The work of putting in the stone at the Pere Marquette depot has been completed and all that is left to do there is to put on the covering of asphalt. The laying of curb and gutter on Lawndale court has also been completed and the grading is also finished.

The program is moving along in a satisfactory way and at this time the whole job can be finished in good time before cold weather comes along.

Enrollment figures, issued by Registrar John C. Hoeke, for the summer session of the Western State Normal at Kalamazoo, show a marked increase in the courses leading to degrees. This year 516 students are enrolled as compared with 484 last year.

While the increase may be traced, to a certain extent, to the effect of the 1925 certification law, the chief reason for this expansion is believed to be in the number of courses offered to those interested in a 3-year course. Among the 3-year courses are listed manual arts, home economics, art, music, commerce, physical education for men and women. The only 2-year courses offered are the early and later elementary and the junior and senior high school. The A. B. and B. S. courses require four years.

Circuit Judge John Vandewerf, of Muskegon, who has been on vacation for three days last week, was back Saturday and issued a divorce decree to Araminta Schmitt, her case against Chris Schmitt. Mrs. Schmitt urged cruelty and claimed that her husband beat her. The plaintiff was awarded custody of their two children, Marie, 4, and Beverly, 2, and was given $10 a week as alimony.

Miss Bertha Ten Brink and Mr. John Bouwman were very quietly united in marriage Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the home of Rev. L. Veltkamp, pastor of the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church. The couple left immediately on an automobile trip through the eastern states. They will visit Niagara Falls and various other places of interest. The bride is in charge of the pay roll department at the Holland Furnace company.

Was In Hospital Thirteen Weeks

Little eight-year old Elmer Asink who was seriously injured in the automobile tragedy on M-11 some months ago when his parents were killed, has been discharged from the Blodgett hospital and is visiting his uncle, Gerrit Ver Hoef, 140 West 18th street. The little boy was still in the hospital for 13 weeks. He still has to report at the clinic once a week for examination.

HOLLAND INTER- URBAN TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION

The Grand Rapids, Holland & Chicago railway, one of the pioneer interurban lines of western Michigan and operated by the Michigan Railway company for the receiver, Stuart Hanley, of Detroit, is to be sold at public auction on Thursday, Aug. 19, by federal court order. According to Kirk E. Wicks, master in chancery, the company on July 7, 1926, owed $1,816,942.50, including $1,500,000 bonds outstanding. A mortgage on the property was given Aug. 1, 1900, to the American Trust & Savings bank, trustee and plaintiff in the present foreclosure proceedings.

The Holland Interurban railroad was built twenty-eight years ago and was first called the Grand Rapids, Holland and Lake Michigan. Today the real name is Grand Rapids, Holland and Chicago owing to its boat connection with the latter city.

Thieves broke into the East End drug store some time between Sunday evening and Monday morning. It was discovered Monday morning that the store had been entered during the night. The robber had entered the building by breaking a window in the back door. The safe had been opened and the strong box in the safe had been taken. There was about five dollars in cash in the safe and that was taken. So far as could be ascertained Monday nothing else had been taken from the store, according to the police.

In anticipation of the completion of Holland's $195,000 sewage disposal plant, a movement has been set on foot for the cleaning up and beautification of Holland's shore line along Black Lake from about First street to Pine avenue. Nothing has yet been done about it officially but it is likely the matter will be put up soon for the consideration of the city officials and also of property owners along that shore.

It is pointed out that the sewage disposal plant will be finished before the end of this year. The outlet of the residue of the sewage after it has gone through the plant and has been rendered harmless will be at the foot of 3rd street. That will then be the only spot where anything will be discharged into the lake from Holland's sewage system, and that discharge will be a fluid as harmless as pure water.

The shore of the lake at all other points will be as free from sewage as it was in the days when this was still a virgin forest. For the first time in the city's history Holland's lake will be a pure body of water and it will no longer be necessary during the warm months of the summer to hold a handkerchief to one's nose on approaching the shore of the lake here.

And so it is considered a good time for the people of Holland to make the shore line look clean and neat, some city officials think. There is much rubbish along the shore, accumulations of many years. It is planned to remove all that the present summer, as well as remove forgotten piles and other things of that nature. The plan is eventually to make the shore line along the lake a place of beauty instead of an eyesore such as it has been for many years.

The resorters are looking forward to the completion of the sewage plant. Most of those living along Black Lake no longer dare to use that lake for swimming and most motor to Lake Michigan. After this summer they hope they will again be able to use Black Lake for bathing purposes.

Ye Beauty Shoppe, located over the Yonker Heating & Plumbing Co., has installed a Puritan water softener sold by the Yonker Co. The new machine is designed to beautify parlor use and adds materially to the equipment of that concern. Its results are said to be very satisfactory.

The programs are out for the Reformed church mission fest that is to be held in Zeeland on the afternoon and evening of July 28. The following program is to be given: band music, Zeeland band; community singing under the direction of John Vandervulst; devotionals, Rev. J. F. Heemstra; remarks by the president of the day, George Schulling; address, "Domestic Missions," Rev. J. Leighton Read of Lawton, Okla.; special music; address, "Education," Dr. E. D. Dimmett; address, "Foreign Missions," Rev. H. Beltman of Amoy, China.

The evening program will be community singing under the direction of Mr. Vandervulst; devotionals, Rev. R. Roseboom; address, "Domestic Missions," Rev. M. Filipe of Los Angeles, Calif.; special music; address, "Foreign Missions," Rev. L. P. Dume, of Bahrain, Arabia; closing, prayer and benediction. The officers are: president, George Schulling; vice president, A. Lahuis; treasurer, Henry Baros; music director, J. Vandervulst; canteen, C. De Coster; grounds, I. Van Dyke.

Dr. E. J. Blekkink left today for Columbia on Lake George, New York, for a conference of college, university and theological professors. The conference opens on Wednesday and will continue for ten days.

2ND ANNUAL CONFERENCE OPENS SOON

The second annual summer conference is to be held at Pine Lodge from August 15 to 29 and schedules of speakers have been issued. There will be three Sunday services in connection with the conference, to be conducted as follows: August 15, Rev. J. E. Kulzenga, D. D., Aug. 22, Rev. Benjie Mulder of Pella, Ia., Aug. 29, Rev. C. H. Spann, of Grand Rapids. The speakers at the conference are described as follows in the leaflet issued in regard to the meetings: Dr. George L. Robinson is professor of New Testament Literature in the McCormick Theological seminary of Chicago, Ill. He is a renowned scholar, a very spiritual man and an interesting preacher and lecturer.

Dr. Simon Peter Long is one of the foremost pastors and preachers of Chicago. He is a very practical and thorough student and a humorist. Pastor of the Wicker Park Lutheran Church of Chicago, Ill.

Prof. Henry E. Dosker, D.D., LL.D., L. H. D., Professor of Church History at the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Louisville, Kentucky.

Dr. John E. Kulzenga, president of the Western Theological Seminary of Holland and professor in Practical Theology. Former president of General Synod of the R. C. A.

Dr. E. J. Blekkink, professor of Systematic Theology of the Western Theological Seminary, Holland. Former president of General Synod of the R. C. A.

Dr. Albertus Pieters, for many years missionary to Japan, for the past two years professor in Biblical literature and under past and now professor elect of Bible and Missions in the Western Theological Seminary of Holland.

Dr. A. R. Johns is pastor of the Central Methodist church of Muskegon, Mich.

Prof. W. A. Wichers, former professor of history at Hope College, Holland.

HAY DAY IS TO BE HELD AUGUST 7TH

A second Allegan county hay day this season has been arranged for Aug. 7, 1:30 P. M., fast time. This will be at the farm of Geo. Newell, 1/2 mile south of Burnetts, and west 1/4 mile. The land is rolling and should give a good opportunity to show how the hay machinery works under these conditions. It will also show how alfalfa surpasses other hay crops as it will be but slightly over one month since the first crop was harvested.

A representative from the farm crop department will be present to give a lecture on alfalfa and hay making. It is hoped to have three sets of hay making machinery on the job. 185 attended the first hay day and this gives a chance for all farmers to attend in north half of county.

Scouts Have Big Job
The 243 scouts now registered in this council are classified as follows:

20 merit badge.
11 First Class.
70 Second Class.
147 Tenderfoot.

Of the twenty merit badge scouts three are Eagle scouts, two Life scouts and two Star scouts. There are four Veteran scouts. This Section to Discontinue for the Summer

Due to the discontinuation of the regular headquarters routine during the camping season, it will be necessary to discontinue this section during that period. News of the camp and other scout activities will appear quite frequently, however, in the regular columns of the paper. All scouts are urged to look carefully each day.

With the resuming of regular activities upon the opening of school, it is hoped to re-establish this section which has proven such a value to the scout program. The entire scout field joins in thanking the newspapers for their splendid assistance.

This and That
Skipper Ed Wilds of the Grand Haven sea scout ship No. 13 was a caller at the headquarters office last Thursday evening.

The camp pow-wow in Coopersville last Friday evening was very well attended and it proved a very enthusiastic affair.

On a field trip last Friday the scout executive visited Grand Haven, Spring Lake and Coopersville. Both sea scout ships registered last week. Ship 13 of Grand Haven registered and ship 18 of Holland registered for the first time. Only one troop in the Ottawa county council now remains unregistered.

CONTINENTAL CO. GETS NEW ROAD TO AIRPORT

The Continent Motors corporation, Muskegon, has purchased a six-foot right-of-way leading to its new airport, it was said Saturday by A. R. Kelso, works manager of the Muskegon plant.

The new highway follows the path of the old road, leading from Jackson St., but is twice as wide as the old one. Pieces of property have been bought by the concern from John Berghuis and Ebel Rieks.

The old Muskegon river road is now used in gaining entrance to the field, but Continental officials believe that the new road and Jackson St. will prove more adaptable than Ottawa st. and the old road, Ottawa St. being M-11.

TOURISTS ARE TREKKING INTO RESORT LAND

A look at the streets of the city and one is convinced that summer is here, if the thermometers are just a bit below the usual registers for this season.

Strange cars, from Winnipeg to Florida, appear daily, strange faces in and about the mercantile establishments, hotels with increasing regularity, and numbers of motorists taking the bathing facilities at the resorts are some of the good signs that "the good-old summer time is here."

Despite the cool weather the winds have been in such a direction as to make lake bathing very enjoyable and hundreds are in every day at the lake.

MICHIGAN TO HAVE A BUMPER FRUIT CROP

The following statement dealing with fruit prospects was issued Friday from Lansing by Verne M. Church, federal agricultural statistician for Michigan, and L. Whitney Watkins, state agricultural commissioner.

There is a large increase in comparison with last year in the prospective production of apples in most of the central and far western states.

Michigan, Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Maine and Idaho are the only states reporting a smaller crop than in 1925. The total crop is approximately 40,000,000 bushels larger than last year. Michigan is seventh, with 1,382,000.

The July 1 estimate of peach production in the United States was $1,600,000 bushels as compared with 45,565,000, the final estimate for 1925. Unless there is a decline in condition after July 1 it will be the largest crop on record except that of 1925. Michigan is tenth, with 1,414,000.

The preliminary estimate is for a total crop of 24,512,000 bushels, a larger crop than last year in all states except New York and the largest crop on record. Michigan is fifth, with 822,000.

Printing wedding invitations in July for a wedding that is to take place in December is rather an unusual occurrence but the Steketee-Van Huis company has received such an order and the announcement cards are already on their way to the bride. The order came from Kaltungo, Nigeria, West Africa. The wedding is to take place there on December 10.

Friends and relatives of the bride are already sending off their wedding presents so they will arrive in time for the wedding.

The wedding invitation states that Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mulder, West 18th street, Holland, announce the marriage of their daughter Frances to Dr. Harry J. Harling, on Friday, Dec. 10, 1926. The couple will be at home after January 1, 1927, at Kaltungo, Nigeria, via Gombé via Jos, West Africa.

Miss Mulder left Holland about two years ago to engage in mission work in Africa. She was formerly employed in the DuMux store. Later she took a course at the Moody Institute to prepare herself for mission work. The couple are working in a section where white men have never worked before. The groom-to-be also studied at the Moody Institute and he went to Africa as a medical missionary.

The ordering of the wedding invitations six months in advance was made necessary by the fact that the place where the bride is stationed is far in the interior and the mails have to go a considerable distance beyond the place where the railroad ends.

The members of the Third Church Reformed church of Zeeland held a congregational meeting to hear the report of the committee of five men who have been entrusted with the selection of a pipe organ for the church auditorium. This committee, composed of Messrs. Wm. Bareman, Benj. Van Lee, John Staal, Fred Goodyke and Adrian Vanden Bosch, visited at least ten large churches in Grand Rapids and elsewhere, in order to hear and inspect the different makes of pipe organs. Later they went to Chicago and conferred with the manufacturers' representatives, as well as visiting the manufacturing organs in Illinois.

After hearing the report of the committee members, a preference for the Wicks organ was evident and it was decided to purchase one for $8,000 immediately to be installed by November 1st. It will have the most modern direct electric action and comes with an echo organ for the farther end of the auditorium.

Not a few Holland motorists saw the wreck and the taking away of Steven Braham, aged 41, of Muskegon Heights, who was instantly killed on M-11 near Whitehall. The man was attempting to pass another car, his car turned turtle and he was taken from under the wreck dead.

EIGHT BELLS FOR AN OLD LIFE SAVER

Friday night at twelve o'clock Mr. Herman Castle, a veteran coast guard, now stationed at Grand Haven, terminated his 28th years of service with the United States Coast Guard service, and retired at the official age of 64 years.

Mr. Castle, as seen in the lookout seemed more like a man of forty, clear of eye and hard of muscle. The life of an outdoor man has made him a man to look at twice and with a stride as firm as it ever was, he leaves the service, able to engage in many an occupation due to his excellent physical condition. He feels he is not quite so spry perhaps, but to the observer he has no marks that would indicate it is time to retire.

Mr. Castle entered the service in 1899, when the pay was $65 a month with rations. This was a pretty fine job and many mature men sought the position, as there were not many that called for this sort of work that paid as well.

He was born near Eastmanville and was always an outdoor man, spending his youth on the river, running logs and working about the saw mills. He drifted to Grand Haven where he continued his outdoor life on the boats and in and about freight houses.

In the 28 years of service he has seen three keepers, Capt. Lyngst, captain Walker and Captain Preston and with every change of keeper, it was always expected that No. 1 would go after the first place. "The rule of this institution," said Mr. Castle, "is a man's record if service is worthy he will be promoted accordingly. So I waited for Uncle Sam to tell me I had won the position, but I guess things do not work that way."

Now after some of the young men have been in service three years they are after the position, and for every vacancy there are 75 to 100 applicants.

The daily routine of coast guard life includes patrols on the beach, watches in the lookout and drills and work about the station. The miles that Mr. Castle has covered on patrol in his 28 years of service would well high encircle the globe.

While there have been no very dreadful wrecks at the piers during his time, there have been many rescues from small boats, such as sailing craft, small gasoline boats and pleasure craft. The days of the old lumber sailing vessels were the days when there was plenty to watch out for but with the modern floating hotel and mammoth steel freighters there is not much danger from storm near enough for the coast guard men to be of service.

The Pere Marquette ferry, stranded on the beach some years ago, was about the nearest to any very dangerous wreck that he has seen. This huge ferry it will be remembered went on the beach and for a time it looked as if she might go to pieces. The lines were shot from the beach to her and things watched constantly to take off the men but it proved not to be necessary and she was finally released and brought into port.

One of the important things to learn in the coast guard service is the resuscitation of the drowned. Mr. Castle stated that he had worked on over 50 drowned persons and had never seen one brot back with resuscitation methods. This is not a particularly cheering thought but shows that when a person goes down and does not come up it is pretty nearly always fatal. Last summer a young man off one of the boats, who was a powerful, strong young swimmer, jumped off the end of the pier starting out for Highland Park. In 15 minutes from the time they saw him go down at the lookout, the lifesavers had him on the piers and were working on him. It was however, fruitless and goes to show he died from heart failure rather than from water.

Mr. Castle believes that over 75 per cent of the drownings are cases of heart failure and they are never brought back.

Teaching of swimming has been one of the biggest things at the Grand Haven station and the post is one of the few in any part of the country that has allowed men to perform this act of service.

Hundreds and hundreds of reporters have been made swimmers under Mr. Castle's tutelage and among the possibly prominent people to be taught were Admiral Dewey's nephews, who spent their summers there for a time. One of the youngsters was lame and practically had only the use of one leg but he could swim the river as easily as his stronger brother, Walter Palmer of Grand Rapids, the Michigan champion swimmer at one time, learned the trick from this man.

From coast to coast of this country one may find people who remember Mr. Castle for his gentle, kind and valuable instruction, and whose very nature seemed to spell safety and suggests the ideal "Life Saver."

Life savers used to be the name applied to these men who were that very thing, but through some government regulation the name was changed to Coast Guard.

Mr. Castle, who lives in Spring Lake and who has two children, one in business and the other a teacher in the schools, has not decided what he will do to occupy himself.

He may take a trip to the far West before settling down to some occupation for he is too well preserved and too active to ring the curtain down on work.

QUESTION MARK TO BE PLACED ON THE HEADSTONE OVER ANDERSON'S GRAVE

"George Anderson? Died Oct. 31, 1925."

This epitaph alone, to be inscribed on a modest sized headstone, will mark the final resting place of "Dutch" Anderson, super-crook, as ordered Friday by Wm. J. Baker, of Rochester, N. Y., who acted as attorney for the bandit during several of his trials, especially that one following the $2,000,000 New York mail robbery.

Anderson's body, which was buried on June 24, in Potter's field behind the Muskegon County home, will be disinterred today and placed in a single grave in Oakwood cemetery, according to directions of Mr. Baker, whose arrival in Muskegon Friday was coincident to the later and secret developments regarding the disposal of the body as learned yesterday.

Mr. Baker reviewed Friday with Coroner Tiede Clock and R. Ferris, of the police identification bureau, the means of identification of Anderson at the time of his death and also queried the officials regarding the identification made by George Tate, secret service operator out of Toledo, who came to Muskegon following the tragedy there.

This interest, coupled with the request by Mr. Baker for the inscription of a question mark following Anderson's name on the grave marker, has led to the belief that Mr. Baker may doubt that the body held in Muskegon for 33 weeks is really that of Dutch Anderson. No statement to bear out this belief, however, was obtained from the attorney.

"Dutch was a strange enigma," stated Mr. Baker, commenting on the life and actions of the bandit.

"He was truly a modern Robin Hood, pulling off some of the biggest jobs in the country but never turning down anyone who needed help. He made Rochester his sanctuary and never, after his career turned into big proportions, pulled any jobs in that city."

"In one instance Dutch learned through his underworld sources that a robbery of the Rochester branch of the State Bank was being planned by other crooks as well as pickings. Without seeing the police Dutch traced the plans thru his world to their source, found the leader and informed him that the place was not to be robbed. He told the crooks that Rochester was his sanctuary and he was protecting it. The robbery was called off, and the $100,000 saved."

One incident in particular, related by Mr. Baker shows the humane side of a bandit's heart.

"Dutch was sitting in my office one day when a widow, whose husband had been killed accidentally, entered and asked me if I could arrange a loan of $100 for her to pay her interest on a mortgage pending the compensation arrangement. I informed her I thought I could and she said after she had gone and talked with the woman who was her husband's employer."

"Here's the hundred," Dutch said to me. "I don't need it right away and I'll never pay it back until I hear from you where that 'come from' for months after this woman would get $25 or $50 a week from some source unknown to her. It proved to be Anderson who was sending it."

At 7 o'clock Saturday morning death came to Mrs. C. Blom, wife of Holland's fire-chief. Mrs. Blom had been ill for a number of years, and two years ago spent nearly three months at Mayo hospital, in Rochester, Minn., and was relieved to some extent.

Mrs. Blom was 63 years old and is survived by her husband, one son, Neal Blom, three sisters, Mrs. Louis Schoon, W. 7th St., Holland, Mrs. William Van Duzen and Miss Anna Van Dyke of Chicago, one brother, William Van Dyke, of Madison, Wis.

The funeral was held at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the home on West 8th St., Rev. T. W. Davidson, pastor of the Hope church, where Mrs. Blom was a member officiated. Interment took place in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

A. J. Pieters from the Bureau of Plant Industry of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture and Prof. Kroodema of the Forestry department will inspect the Harlem sand blow and the Dewey Hill plantings and reforestation projects on sand land in company with Agricultural Agent, Milham Monday, July 13.

There is a rapidly growing interest in West Michigan in planting waste and poor sand lands and dunes with forest trees to beautify the territory and add to its commercial value.

This inspection tour will have for its purpose the study of past and present methods and the results and to lay plans for a continuation of a larger scale of sand blow control and reforestation.

A meeting of sand land farmers of north Ottawa will be held at the farm of J. Wierenga, east of the Spring Lake cemetery, at 1 P. M. Monday, July 26th, to witness the opening of a mail box.

Mr. Wierenga has had the agricultural agent analyze samples of the soil and it tests 90 per cent lime. Mr. Wierenga is advising farmers to come to the meeting with wagons and to take home a load free to prove the value of soil on acid and to help soil samples brought to this meeting. Acid soils in Ottawa county need lime to correct the acid condition and sand lands once sweetened will grow alfalfa and other crops better than are now grown.

Garlo, July 17—The Michigan State Firemen's association closed its fifty-second annual convention here Thursday with the election of officers: President, Chief W. G. Heasley of Zeeland; vice, George of Saginaw and Chief Fred Higgins of Grand Rapids; secretary, treasurer, H. L. Williams of Ludington.

DRAGGED ON HAY RAKE IN RUNAWAY, OTTAWA COUNTY MAN DIES

Jack Plusha of Grand Haven township, 55 years old, was badly injured late Monday when his team ran away with a hay rake. He fell underneath the tines and was dragged several rods.

Dr. E. J. Presley said Plusha sustained a fractured skull, two broken ribs and a punctured lung. He was taken to Hattson hospital Grand Haven, where he died late Monday night.

Plusha's wife and father-in-law witnessed the accident and succeeded in catching the horses.

DETROIT MAYOR TO COME HERE BY AEROPLANE

Mayor John W. Smith of Detroit, a personal friend of George Getz and a great admirer of Gen. Fred Green, candidate for governor, will come to Holland next Saturday by aeroplane.

Arrangements have been made with the General Motors company for one of their large 12 passenger carrying planes and Mayor Smith will be whisked from Detroit high into the air to Holland and Lakewood Farm, in a little over an hour.

Mr. Smith is to be one of the speakers at Lakewood Saturday together with former senator William Alden Smith and Arthur H. Vandenberg, editor of the Grand Rapids Herald. Naturally Gen. Fred Green, the candidate for governor, is to be a speaker also. Hon. C. J. Dickema of Holland is to be master of ceremonies on this day.

However, there is one understanding that Mr. Getz has, the speeches must be short and snappy in order not to interfere with the other festivities.

The largest crowd ever seen at Lakewood will be present Saturday in a forenoon conclusion. Holland will be there in force and Zeeland is preparing to go. The Saugatuck paper says the citizens in that vicinity are beginning to make preparations for Saturday.

The regulars from Grand Haven are bound to be here and editor Reid of the Allegan Gazette states that the "divers" are being oiled in time to be loaded for the trip to Lakewood Farm.

Camp Custer, July 20—Every citizen in Michigan is invited to visit Camp Custer, either on Wayne County day, July 19, or Michigan day, July 30. There will be a special program for the benefit of the camp guests, and everyone, whether they have relatives in camp or not, is urged to visit camp one of these two days, as they will be welcome. They can see first-hand what is being taught the young men of Michigan.

Colonel Raymond Sheldon, camp commander, and Lt. Col. Wade C. B. Smith, who is in charge of the 85th Division staff, will deliver short addresses.

Gov. Alex J. Groesbeck, and a number of other prominent citizens of Michigan have been invited to visit camp on Michigan day, including Congressman John W. Soule and Congressman Clarence J. McLeod, who have been invited to visit camp on Detroit day.

General Fred W. Green, mayor of Ionia, who was the chairman of the C. M. T. C. for Ionia county, and who brought his students from Ionia to camp and turned them over to Col. Sheldon, will visit camp again for several days during the latter part of July.

Former United States Senator William Alden Smith, of Grand Rapids, and former Congressman Joseph B. Fordney, Saginaw, have also been invited to attend the camp during the last of the month.

Warmer weather and the approach of August, the most popular summer vacation month, increased the number of tourists entering Michigan over the past week-end.

Reports from resort districts indicate that in spite of the lingering of cool weather this summer is to be one of the greatest if not the greatest tourist season ever experienced by the state of Michigan. An increase in building activity in cottages, hotel and other resort developments is being reported from all along through Western Michigan to the Straits.

Receipts and the number of vehicles traveling over the state automobile ferry across the Straits of Mackinac City and St. Ignace, for the months of May and June, recently issued by State Highway Commissioner Frank Rogers show an increase over the same period last year.

During the greater part of May but one steamer was in operation but it was necessary to put on the second in June. During May, the total number of passenger automobiles was 2,561, trucks, 45; trailers, 15; horses and wagons, 18; and 956-foot passengers.

The month of June shows approximately $10,000 more in receipts than the month of May. As compared with June, 1925, 1,132 more vehicles were carried this year than last, and the gross receipts this year were $1,500 more than for the month of June last year, notwithstanding the reduced fares.

Last year the average receipts per car was $2.87, while this year it is $2.66.

The above figures show that the business has increased by a little over 17 per cent, while the receipts have increased a little less than 9 per cent.

The Sixth Reformed church is planning to hold a church picnic on Thursday August 12th, at Pine Lodge.

ESTABLISHES A DOG AND CAT HOSPITAL IN OTTAWA COUNTY

Dr. Getman, veterinary surgeon who has opened an office in Spring Lake, has established a complete and well equipped cat and dog hospital in his place on Savidge street. Although the hospital has been established but a short time there have already been a number of patients of sick and injured pets.

COUNTY POLICE HAVE UNEVENTFUL WEEK-END

The past week-end was one of the most quiet in the way of motor accidents that this vicinity has seen this summer. The brake campaign, the State Police and the traffic officers from the sheriff's department, are evidently making it very plain to the members of this community that the safe and sane manner of driving has its results.

The only accident of any kind reported during the week-end was that of Louis De Boer of Ferrysburg, who was riding a motorcycle on Sunday afternoon in the village. He was going fast and in his endeavor to negotiate a corner skidded and ran into an Overland sedan driven by Rev. E. J. Holtop of Muskegon.

DeBoer was thrown from the cycle and rather badly bruised, but no injuries that incapacitated him for any length of time. The motorcycle was however badly damaged with wheels, steering gear and generally banged up.

The sedan escaped with the front tires cut and torn. No one in the sedan was hurt except from the nervous shock, as it looked as though DeBoer might be seriously hurt as he was thrown from the machine.

During the state-wide brake test week conducted by the Michigan Department of Public Safety and the Detroit Automobile Club, that ended Saturday morning, it is estimated that more than 120,000 motorist's brakes were tested and 24,000 sets of lights were also investigated.

According to L. J. Van Schoick, safety director of the Detroit Automobile Club, the state troopers and municipal officers, in charge of the 52 stations on the main trunk lines, found that more than 25 per cent of the brakes tested were deficient and 34 per cent of the lighting equipment investigated were out of adjustment.

This is the first time in the history of safety work that a state wide brake test has been held, according to Mr. Van Schoick, who says that this test convinced Commissioner of Safety, C. G. Straight and himself that drastic means were needed to stop drivers using poor lights and bad brakes.

Many amusing incidents occurred during the week, he says. In one case a motorist refused to stop at the officer's signal and a state policeman chased him for miles, and when he had brought the car to a stop it was found that the drivers of cars on the highways were operating without a license.

In nearly every case, Mr. Van Schoick says, the motorists were exceedingly polite and the program will be repeated at a later date this fall, it is said.

Henry Kraker, local Frigidaire dealer, has been invited to attend a one day conference with representatives of the Delco-Light company to be held July 23 at Grand Rapids.

Thousands of Frigidaire dealers all over the country are being called together during the next two weeks to discuss plans for selling the 600,000 Frigidaire units to be produced in 1927. A $20,000,000 production expansion program is now being carried through which will make possible this tremendous output next year.

The demand for Frigidaire is growing month by month. Mr. Kraker, June shipments from the factory had a retail sales value of $12,000,000, three quarters of a million more than in May. Still larger shipments are expected for July.

"Frigidaires appeals to the housewife, because it relieves her of many household duties and worries. It gives her a chance to provide her family with many frozen desserts—to keep vegetables crisp and fresh and to have sparkling ice cubes for use at all times."

The cutting room of the Holland Shoe Co. held their seventh annual picnic at Buchanan Beach Saturday. The ball game between the married and single men was a real thrill. The married men, coming from behind in the ninth inning with the bases full by a home run by Stephens, put the game on.

The sensation of the evening was the married men making any hits the first five innings, but the weakening of the single men's team in the ninth gave the married men a chance to win. The prizes were donated by the Holland Shoe company as follows: Ball game, married men vs. single men, won by married men, score 13-12, prize 3 lb box candy; Crab race, 1 pair stock shoes, Louis Brondyke; Cheating contest, 1 lb box candy, Russell Nuismer; Pie eating contest, 3 cups coffee, Gerald Zochhoff; Hop, skip and jump, one-half doz collars, Peter Dalman; Pillow fight, Thermos Bottle, William Markulover; Cook light, Flash light, Louis Vander Vliet; Indian wrestling, silk shirt, John Beltman; Hand fight, silk tie, Frank Burt; Smoking contest, 2 lbs. coffee, John Stephens; Handicap race, 1 pair of socks, Jim Burt; Drawing contest, 1 ham, C. West-enbrook.

Sheriff Kamferbeck states that Deputy Beckman of Holland notified him that there was an attempt holdup on the highway near Holland, supposedly staged by two men on motorcycles.

Up to this time no clue to the holdup men has been found, neither have any reports been made by individuals who were supposed to have been robbed.

CO. AGENT GIVES ADVICE ON PEST FIGHT

Agricultural County Agent P. C. Milham reports that a number of calls have come to him recently from different parts of the county on the tamarack trees being attacked by a green worm known as the tamarack saw fly.

This worm has a voracious appetite and in a short time completely defoliate any tree upon which it is working. Many stands of tamarack in Northern Michigan have been killed by this pest and unless efforts are made by land owners, the pest will kill the tamarack in all sections.

This pest, so says the R. H. Pett, professor of entomology, of M. S. C., was introduced into this country about one hundred years ago. It started in the Adirondacks working west as far as Montana. It has been very serious in Canada.

It is seemingly so new to this country that its natural enemy, a parasite, has not found its way and consequently there is no natural cause to check its development.

Some stands in the southern part of the state have been attacked and then suddenly the worm disappears. It is thought that a fungus growth is the poison that gets the bug there. There is, however, no certainty of this. The only sure way to kill this pest is to get at it with sprays of which arsenate of lead, four pounds to 100 gallons of water, is the very best.

This should be sprayed where the worms are working and on surrounding trees, this will kill the worms which are feeding and lessen the damage of another attack.

A tree attacked is said to appear fairly alive with these little green worms about an inch long and when they once get a start, nothing but this poison seems to have any effect.

Another link in the Michigan Grand boulevard—planned highway which will be the world's most unique traffic way—is assured through the action of the Iosco county board of supervisors at its June meeting, when the county road commission was instructed to immediately secure the right-of-way between East Tawas and the Alcona county line.

The Michigan Grand boulevard will start at Toledo and girdle the shore of the lower peninsula of Michigan, ending at Chicago. The boulevard, when completed, will be built of solid concrete and will be 40 feet in width.

The eastern half of the proposed boulevard is being sponsored by the East Michigan Tourist association. Portions of the boulevard have been built and many surveys have been made. One stretch, between Port Austin and Caseville, near the tip of the "Thumb" which will be a federal and state highway, will be built in 1927.

The boulevard, according to the East Michigan Tourist association will follow the shore of Lake Erie from Toledo through Monroe to Detroit. It will skirt the Detroit River and Lake St. Clair, passing through Mt. Clemens to Port Huron. From Port Huron, it will follow the present route of M31 to Harbor each and M27 to Port Austin. The Detroit to Port Austin highway is acknowledged to be one of the most beautiful drives in the world. One stretch, between Port Huron and Detroit, will be completed in a few weeks and the prisoners at the Monroe camp will be distributed to other camps.

About 700 prisoners are employed on construction work at the prison at Jackson and 40 in grading and other labor at the State Fair grounds, Detroit.

From Port Austin, the state highway will follow the shoreline of Saginaw bay to Bay City. From Bay City on north, it will hug the Lake Huron shore to Mackinac City.

The Michigan Grand boulevard, when completed will offer a drive of nearly 150 miles to visitors and residents of the state, virtually all of which will be in sight of waters of the Great Lake—Erie, Huron and Michigan. The boulevard will traverse areas connected with which are some of the most colorful incidents in the history of Michigan and the nation.

Mrs. Aalt Van Putten, aged 70, died Friday morning at her home on West 17th street. She is survived by her husband, two sons and five daughters: Mrs. John Streu of Los Angeles, Mrs. Fred Looman of Fremont, Cornell of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Albert Brandeman, Henry, Mrs. Gerrit Alderink, and Mrs. Henry De Boe of Holland.

Judson A. Cook, aged 76 years, died Tuesday forenoon at his home on East 6th street. He is survived by two children, Mrs. George Kehrewecker of Holland and Mrs. Clara Hart of Orion, Mich. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been announced.

The Holland Tile and Gravel company, whose plant is located north of Holland near Waverly, is making a new departure in the manufacture of concrete blocks. The firm was organized about four years ago and manufactured during that time but now it has installed new machinery for the manufacture of concrete steam-cured blocks also. The manufacture has already begun and the blocks are on the market. They are 8 x 16 in size.

Dr. S. C. Netting, member of the faculty of the Western Theological Seminary and president of the general synod of the Reformed church, has left for Dubuque, Ia., where he will give lectures for six weeks in the University of Dubuque, theological department.

Mrs. E. J. Hanes and son Robert are visiting friends in Evanston, Ill.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Marjorie J. Kole, an eight and a half pound boy.

FORECASTS ATTENDANCE BOOM AT RADER GROUNDS

Indications are that the Paul Rader conference grounds at Lake Harbor will be crowded during the remainder of the summer, as the result of special transportation arrangements which were announced Monday night, when the Exchange club attended the Rader service in the open air tabernacle.

Special day boats, leaving Chicago at 9 a. m. on Monday and Fridays, are to be run during the rest of the summer, starting June 26th.

Mr. Rader will have charge of a special service at the Grand Rapids City Mission Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

IONIA BAND TO BE IN HOLLAND ON SATURDAY

There will be plenty of music in Holland Saturday afternoon and especially Lakewood Farm during the barbecue. Gen. Fred Green is not to come alone but is to take his big Ionia band with him. It is said that Mr. Green has had a great deal to do with the organization of this wonderful band, and has aided it liberally in a financial way as well. The band will arrive in Holland, give a short street concert, will vie with the Holland American Legion band in giving a musical program, and both bands will be taken to Lakewood farm where George Getz has provided suitable band stands for the music.

The bands will play alternately and in a few instances will play jointly, making a tremendous band of 70 pieces.

Miss Dora Schermer, city librarian, has prepared a brief history of Holland's city library, to be sent to the state library association and to be incorporated in a history of libraries of Michigan. Miss Schermer makes the suggestion that the time will soon be here when Holland will need a library building.

The enterprising Dutch settlers that moved into this section of Michigan in 1847 held the same high ideals in regard to education and culture that the New England Colonists did. So we find not only a Hope College very early in the history of Holland, but in the early '50s, before Holland was incorporated as a city, there was also begun a township public library.

The first selection of books was made by the late Henry D. Post. This library was continued until 1887 when Holland was incorporated as a city. Thereupon the following division was made: for every 13 books retained by the township, ten were given to the city. This became the nucleus for the present Holland Public Library.

For several years after Holland was incorporated as a city, the library was still supervised by the District School Board. Some years afterward, the supervision of the library was transferred to the common council of the city of Holland, whose annually appointed committee did well in managing the new institution for several years. But the committee proved insufficient for the management of the rapidly growing enterprise. So through further charter legislation the common council in turn created and established a library board. On May 17, 1893, a regular librarian was appointed by this board, Mr. George H. Sipp having the honor to be chosen the first librarian.

Under the supervision of Mrs. George Sipp perform the duties since Mr. Sipp was also city clerk at that time. Mrs. Sipp resigned on Oct. 28, 1897, and Miss Jennie Kanters, who had been assisting Mrs. Sipp, was appointed to the office. It was under the able direction of Miss Kanters that the library began to assume larger proportions.

Mr. B. Steketee, Prof. H. Boes and Mr. Harry Donsburg were members of the first library board. It was thru the combined efforts of this board and librarian that the library today is in possession of such a splendid selection of books. Miss Kanters served the library most faithfully for about 21 years. Having had such a vital influence over the city for a score of years through her extensive knowledge of books together with her attractive personality, was it any wonder that the whole city mourned her demise on October 8, 1918?

The library was at first housed in the city clerk's office, which was on the second floor of the Fire Engine house on East 8th street. Later it found accommodations on the second floor of the building then known as the Y. M. C. A. building in the Post block. Finally in 1911 the library reached its present location on the second floor of the city hall. These new quarters proved to be very commodious and attractive; well lighted and ventilated and there was sufficient room for expansion.

Under the present library board, of which Mr. Henry Geerlings, Mr. Arnold Muder and Mrs. Katherine Vanduren are members, together with Miss Dora Schermer, the library has made great strides toward meeting the increasing demands of the rapidly growing public institution. The staff has been increased, and new volumes are constantly being added, until today the library has 13,951 volumes, a circulation of 51,016, and is serving a population of about 14,000. More than six thousand people hold cards in the library, that is, nearly half of the entire population of the city patronize the library and enjoy its benefits.

With the general expansion of the usefulness of the library and the increasing demands made upon it, the present quarters are beginning to be decidedly cramped. The time must come, and probably quite soon, when the Holland City Public Library will be moved into a building of its own. When that time comes, we shall have proved ourselves true sons and daughters of the sturdy settlers who gave it its first impetus.

HOLLAND FAIR TO SHOW A BIG EXHIBIT FREE

The community fair on August 24-27 is going to be larger than ever, with race horses, fireworks, special attractions and agricultural displays, but there is one display that was not figured on that is going to add considerably to the attractiveness of the local exposition. The exhibition comes direct from Philadelphia and is sent by the sesqui-centennial association.

The exhibits are real shows consisting of beautiful colored views of the sesqui-centennial and other exhibits of interest. The exhibit is housed in a beautiful 14 ft. new khaki tent with a depth of 28 ft. and with three beautiful liberty bell and other patriotic banners. The exhibition is in charge of competent managers direct from the sesqui-centennial at Philadelphia and the purpose of the exhibition is to bring the great sesqui-centennial before the people here. No admission is charged to this attraction nor are any donations accepted.

The beautiful exhibition comes to the fair without charge, and Mr. Arendshorst has made arrangements that in that event no charge is to be made to the patrons of the fair to see the exhibit, which was agreeable to Chas. T. Buell & Co., distributors of this free attraction.

Mr. Arendshorst has received acknowledgment in which the exhibitors say in part as follows: "The sesqui-centennial appreciates the way you fair secretaries have responded to this appeal. Within four days after two hundred fairs were written, over one hundred replies have been received granting free space and urging that we do not pass them up. Many have requested advertising material for their newspapers. We will mail this soon."

"Every man, woman and child will be thrilled with this beautiful educational attraction. Please locate us where the people are."

An interesting case was before Judge Olen S. Cross Wednesday which concerned a road claimed by Mrs. Cassie M. Soule and her heirs against the claims of the township of Spring Lake. She claims that the property now being used by traffic connecting the Fruitport road with the Villa park and Coles park sections, and just north of the Spring Lake cemetery has never been dedicated by the township as a public road and that she is entitled to this property.

Charles E. Mincer is representing the plaintiff Louis H. Osterhaus offering for the township. Several prominent business men of Spring Lake were called to the stand Wednesday, among them Chauncey Blakeslee, Sam Falls, David M. Cline and Frank Fox, to tell what they knew about the road. They agreed that the road had been in use for at least twenty-one years as a sandy dirt road leading to this section and used a great deal when the big ice house was put in at Strawberry Point years ago. They also admitted there had been "No Trespass" signs on the trees about, and other signs of attempts to keep people off the road. These had not been taken seriously and travel still continued.

After this section became valuable and many resorters built cottages there, travel increased and the automobile also added to the number of vehicles using the road way.

The township wishes to improve this stretch of road now, as it is of great convenience to a public and also almost necessary, to reach a certain section of this resort property. The township, however, want to have perfect rights to the road and are now trying to settle the difficulties. The attorneys have filed briefs on the case and after a review of them the judge will hand down his decision.

Mrs. D. Nies died Thursday noon at the Holland home, Grand Rapids, at the age of 75 years. She leaves five children, also one sister, Mrs. Albert Bloemers, and two brothers, Mrs. Jake Schaap of Hamilton, and Otto Schaap of E. 2nd street. The funeral was held at the Ebenezer church on Tuesday, July 20, at 2 o'clock. She has been a member of that church for many years. Rev. De Haan from Calvary church, Grand Rapids, and James Wayer of Holland, officiated.

James Latta, vice president of one of the largest banks in Minneapolis, Minnesota, died suddenly in New Mexico of heart failure while visiting with his family and friends. He is the only brother of Mrs. Walter C. Walsh. The late father of Mr. Latta was the superintendent of schools of Allegan county and later became connected with Hope college. Mr. Latta was prominent in the vestry of the Episcopal church in St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh left for Minneapolis to attend the funeral.

The prize being a $5.00 beauty treatment from Greene's Beauty Shoppe, a silk negligee from Brandon-Durrells, and an all-wool bathing suit from Benjamin's Sport Goods Store.

The men's adult Bible class of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church has invited the ladies' adult class and all those interested directly in Sunday School work to a picnic on Wednesday, July 21, at Tennessee Beach, with the Seven cottage as headquarters. The men are to provide for everything and the ladies are to enjoy themselves without picnic worries. Automobiles will leave the church at 7:30 sharp.

Many Holland race horse fans will go to Kalamazoo this week for the American Pacing Derby, worth $5,000. The most valuable event of the season for aged horses will be staged on Tuesday at the Recreation Park track. The candidates for this event, which have been racing on the Grand Circuit for two weeks, but there are still a few which have not shown in the Big Ring and which also may be counted on to make trouble. In particular the Canadian named Jean Grand, which raced in the East on the half-mile track, where she won a $10,000 stake last week.

R. W. Wankanson was gathered in or speeding 33 miles on 19th st.; Henry Strunberg for going 30 on West 17th street. Both paid the usual fines in Justice Van Duren's court. Speed Cop Spruit did the stopping.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. C. Blom took place today afternoon with Dr. T. W. Wankanson officiating, and most of the brethren of Holland voluntarily attending in a body in full uniform. They came in march formation and opened ranks as the casket was taken from the home and placed in the funeral car. They followed in the services at Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Lierens left for the east Tuesday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Van Dyke of Washington state who are here on an extended visit. They will visit Niagara falls, the sequel-centennial and will also spend a few days with the Rev. J. Van Kampen in New York state. Mrs. Brook and Mrs. Wankanson will join them in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Henry Vanderlinde entertained Monday evening with a 6 o'clock dinner in honor of Mr. Vanderlinde's birthday and also the birthday of their daughter Helene, both occurring on the same day.

SPORTING

C. L. Beach, who has served as vice president of the Ottawa county council of Boy Scouts since its organization last fall, has been appointed county scout commissioner. He will for the time being continue to serve as vice president in addition to his duties as scout commissioner. Mr. Beach has been one of the most active men in this county's scout activities. He is especially largely responsible for Holland's recently organized sea scout unit. He is vice commodore of the county sea scout committee, chairman of the ship 18 committee, chairman of the troop committee, a member of the reading committee and a member of the executive board. He is a graduate of the scout leaders' training course.

As scout commissioner he will be the ranking scout official in this county, and with the scout executive as his executive officer will administrate the field organization of scouting in the county. The Spring Lake Country club was a busy place over the weekend. Many Holland golfers were guests of Grand Haven folks and the chief form of entertainment was golf in the beautiful new golf links at Spring Lake.

At this time a match was staged between a Holland and a Grand Haven-Spring Lake team in which the Holland country club team came out victorious 7-3.

The event was played according to Nassau rules, better known as a Scotch Foursome. One point was given for the first nine holes, one point for the second nine holes and one point for the entire 18 holes. The aggregate of the points gained determined the score.

There were five foursomes, two players from each club forming each one. Holland sent her best men from the Holland country club and the result, after the teams had gone over the course, would indicate that the men participating were well chosen.

The Holland country club team was composed of E. Tansey, T. Frank Whelan, A. H. Landwehr, E. G. Landwehr, W. L. Wisniewski, Herbert Ingham, A. L. Cappon, and Willis A. Diekema.

The interchange of these plays will be a fine way of acquainting the club members with one another and stimulating each club to develop players that can uphold the honors of the club. It is expected that other clubs from Muskegon and Grand Rapids will exchange in similar events.

A return match is to be played at the Holland country club the latter part of the week, when Grand Haven and Spring Lake golfers will come here in large numbers together with their team.

Although Holland Independents were defeated in Friday's twilight game by a score of 16 to 5, Saturday's game was a different story and the tables were turned, the locals winning by a score of 7 to 5.

Lefty Anderson, who has pitched for Holland for several years, was too much for the dusky visitors. "They were eating out of his hand almost the entire game," as manager Te Roller puts it. The game was a one-sided affair up to the 9th inning when the score stood 7 to 1 in favor of the locals, and in the last frame Giants got wise to Lefty's curves and found him for 5 hits, resulting in four runs. All told, the black boys only got 12 hits and most of these were scattered.

The Holland Independents motored to Greenville Thursday morning to be there in time for the afternoon game with the fast team at that inland city. The Independents were crippled somewhat as several of the team, for different reasons, were unable to go. The game was in favor of the Holland boys up to the seventh inning, when score stood 3 to 5, but the Greenville crowd turned the tables with a swift and scored 4 runs.

At the end of the game the score stood 9 to 5 in favor of Greenville. Holland was minus Albers, Riemersma and Jappinga, three of its best men, and substituted Russell Jappinga, Kleis, De Groot and Elenz.

Hyman and Spriggs constituted the battery for the locals and Kimball and Bassett for Greenville.

Score by innings:
Greenville 300 000 42x—9 10 1
Holland 210 200 000—5 11 2

The Cubs lost to the Zeeland Tigers in a 9 inning rally by a score of 5 to 4. Ten innings had to be played and darkness was coming on rapidly. Although the Tigers were older, the Cubs had them scared until the 9th inning. Sakkers pitched the first 8 innings for the Cubs and held them down for two runs. McCarty started the 9th and the Cubs made 3 costly errors and the Tigers tied the game 4 all.

Korstanje pitched for the Tigers in the ninth and tenth innings, holding the Cubs scoreless. The Tigers made but one error and played fast. Korstanje hit a 3 bagger for the Tigers and J. McCarty hit a homer for the Cubs. The Cubs made 3 runs in the 4th and 1 in the 5th. The Tigers scored 1 in the 4th and 6th, 2 in the 9th and their winning run in the tenth. The Cubs play the Tigers again on Friday night.

Batteries—Tigers: Stupka, Korstanje and Crow; Cubs: Sakkers, J. McCarty and Boerman.

At the end of the game the score stood 9 to 5 in favor of Greenville. Holland was minus Albers, Riemersma and Jappinga, three of its best men, and substituted Russell Jappinga, Kleis, De Groot and Elenz.

Hyman and Spriggs constituted the battery for the locals and Kimball and Bassett for Greenville.

Score by innings:

ONE ARM DRIVING AND FRONT SEAT CROWDING MADE THE SUBJECT OF ORDINANCE

Boys and girls who are in the habit of doing their love making in front seats of automobiles on the streets of Holland will have to work fast from now because it is likely that the days are numbered when this practice will be tolerated. The common council is going to take a hand and is going to make the practice the subject of municipal legislation. Since however an ordinance does not go into effect until 20 days after its passage, it is likely that the youths and maidens of the town will have that period of grace even if the ordinance is successfully passed at the meeting of the common council.

It is also a matter of common observation that so far as the needs of boys and girls go the front seats of automobiles are far too wide, only about five or six inches of space being needed beside the driver of the car, said space being all that girls require. The rest of the space on the seat is sheer waste. The ordinance committee, however, has been unable to figure out a way to stop this waste of good automobile seat.

All the ordinance committee has been able to do is to specify that an automobile driver may not run the car with one arm while the other arm is embracing a girl—at least not on the streets of Holland. The girl may sit as close to the boy as she has always been doing but she will have to use a summer fur around her shoulders after this in lieu of the youth's arm.

There is still another breed of young people who think the front seat in a car is the only one worth traveling in, especially if the passengers are of both sexes. There often is a vacant back seat while two boys and two girls crowd into the front seat. This, after the usual 20 days' grace, will also be prohibited. The proposed ordinance makes it unlawful for more than two to use the front at one time.

There was a game scheduled for Saturday afternoon between the Independents and the Kelly Ice Creams of Grand Rapids, but this game has been called off by Manager Spriggs of the Kellys for the reason that the baseball boys also want to be in on the barbecue at Lakewood Farm.

The players have received a special invitation from Mr. Getz and they are eagerly accepting it. Mr. Getz has been one of the mainstays of the local team, and not only does he personally attend many games but he constantly aids the Independents in a financial way.

The game scheduled for Saturday night will be played at 6 o'clock Friday night instead.

On Sunday, July 18th, the sales organization of the Indiana division, the Holland Malt company, staged a party in honor of Mr. Herman L. Dollahan, Indiana division manager at one of the lake-side parks near Benton Harbor, Michigan.

The occasion was the first anniversary of Mr. Dollahan's coming with the Holland Malt company as manager of the Indiana division sales force and very appropriately marked the success of Mr. Dollahan in having just put across a record-breaking volume of sales on his June business. The Indiana division for the first time beat out the Michigan division and incidentally doubled their record for last June.

Mr. Dollahan was presented with a handsome Gladstone bag as a memento of the occasion and Mrs. Dollahan with a purse.

Mr. Dollahan and his boys are hard workers and have been just whooping it up to the credit of the Holland Malt in the Hoosier state.

Samuel Falls, live Spring Lake realtor, reports the sale of the James Harrison property on Spring Lake to Robert D. Baker of Detroit. The Bakers have already arrived and are occupying their newly acquired property.

The Harrison place has for years been one of the best known on Spring Lake and the Harrison themselves were among the earliest of Spring Lake summer resorters, coming here from Chicago over thirty years ago to spend their summers in this region.

The property is located at the north end of Lovell Park, not far from the Beaubien place and comprises about seven hundred feet of water front.

Registrar John C. Hoekje of Western State Normal school has released for publication the high scholarship list for the spring quarter. The list includes the names of 59 students with Walter P. Ewalt of Baroda leading with a total credit of 22 hours of A.

The high scholarship list includes: Nellie E. Anderson, Meares; Lois Fern Bennett, Saugatuck; Anne Christine Bergkint, Muskegon Heights; Mary Bottje, Grand Haven; Hester A. Busman, Coopersville; May Frost, Grand Rapids; Viola Harris, Marlon; Nellie Hutchins, Eastland; Anna Frances Kieft, Grand Haven; Gordon Ward Lamphier, Grand Ledge; Mahala Martin, Fruitport; Erella May Merrick, Ravenna; Norma Campbell Murray, Coopersville; Hugh St. Clair Myers, Oshtemo; Eleanor Osborn, Delton; Gerald Lester Poor, Traverse City; Enid H. ## FAREWELL PARTY

Given Visitors

A farewell party was given in honor of Mrs. Henrietta Brower and her daughter Jessie at the home of Mrs. Cornelia Groenewoud. Those present were: Henrietta Brower, Jessie Kahre, Mrs. Mary Lieveense and family, Mrs. Gerrit Lieveense and family, Miss Gertrude Lieveense, Mrs. Henry Boes and family, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Loom and Mrs. Cornelia Groenewoud and family. A good time was reported by all. Mrs. Brower and Mrs. Kahre expect to leave Thursday for the Dakotas where they will visit relatives before returning to their home in Ripon, Calif.

Every Holstein breeder in the county will profit by attending any one meeting because there will be a short program at each meeting place.

The weekly bridge parties and luncheons at the Holland country club are proving increasingly popular with the ladies of Holland and the surrounding summer colonies. Tuesday forty-eight places were reserved for the 1 o'clock luncheon and sixty-four women sat down to the bridge tables at 2:30. Thirty-two guests from out of town were included in this number.

Mrs. Edward Rich of Waukegan was the first prize winner, with Mrs. W. J. Olive of Holland following as a close second.

The hostesses for the day were Mrs. Charles B. Van Duren and Mrs. E. Everett. On next Tuesday Mrs. W. J. Westveer and Miss Anne Vischer will serve in this capacity. All members and their guests are invited to enjoy the pleasant hospitality of the club and a friendly game on the cool verandas on ladies day.

Mr. Truogner is meeting those ladies who signed up for golf lessons in twosomes and foursomes and is anticipating running a handicap tournament in August by which this activity may find a goal and a champion among its enthusiasts.

Next Saturday, July 24th, there will be a dinner dance at the Holland Country club. A four-course dinner will be served at 7:00 o'clock for members and their guests, and it will be "Mia's Very Best Victrola" plus the guidance and help of that snappy new entertainment committee who are in charge of the event.

The club has never had a dinner dance before. It is a new stunt for the club, but it seems as though it ought to be a big success.

The music will continue throughout the evening, and those members and their guests who can't be there for the dinner for whose honor the party is being given will be welcome at the dance later. Dinner guests will not be charged for dancing, nor will members who come for the dancing only.

Recall July 1916 do you? Remember the torrid July of ten years ago when heat records were created here that will probably stand for many, many years? Only ten years ago and yet a lot of us forget the unprecedented heat marks established then.

Hot days were followed by hot nights during that memorable month and this east shore of Lake Michigan sweltered as it never did before and perhaps never will again. One day was like another and the heat seemed to increase as the month advanced.

On nine days of that July the government thermometer at the Ottawa county weather bureau indicated a mark of 90 or better. And ninety degrees in Holland is some mark. Through many summers the 90 mark has not even been approached. But during that record-breaking July there were nine days of 90 and over.

For twenty-six days that month the weather man's figures show that the mercury touched 80 or more. Some mark that to shoot up. We have been talking hot weather the last few days. But the weather of the present month isn't a circumstance to the marks established that July—a decade back.

And still another mark. Mr. Heyers, head of the Ottawa county weather bureau, says that the office records show that from 6 A. M. of July 24, 1916 to 10 P. M. July 31, that year, the thermometer at that station never indicated a mark below 70 degrees.

The mean average temperature of July 1916 was 75.5 degrees and the mean high temperature for the month was 85.4 degrees.

The month of record breaking heat wore away to a close finally and the new month brought relief to folks in this region where the summers are generally a delight.

WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO ALL PEOPLE

If fine weather prevails Saturday, the Alpena road to Lakewood will surely be a congested highway and Lakewood farm will harbor more people than it ever has at anyone time before. Provisions have been made, however, for parking places and there will be plenty of officers on hand to see that automobiles are parked systematically and in such a way that no mixup will result.

There seems to be a misunderstanding as to how far reaching Mr. Getz's invitation is. He invites everyone. The invitation is not confined to Holland alone but includes the adjoining counties as well.

Mr. Getz in a communication again extends his invitation and briefly gives some of the highlights of the coming barbecue at the farm this week Saturday.

In reference to the barbecue which I am giving in honor of Fred W. Green on July 24th at Lakewood Farm, many questions have been asked of me personally as well as over the telephone as to our plans, etc., and in order to reach the people and that they may know my plans, I am addressing this letter to you which you can use in your paper if you so wish.

In the first place, it is not only my desire to have the Ottawa County people attend the barbecue, but adjoining counties as well, including any others who may desire to avail themselves of my invitation to be at Lakewood Farm to meet Gen. Green on the afternoon of July 24th.

We will hold the barbecue between the hours of one and six P. M. rain or shine, so should the weather be threatening, bring your umbrellas or slickers. We will have a number of prominent speakers and the speeches will start promptly at three P. M., and they will be short and snappy. I have asked the Honorable G. J. Diekema to act as master of ceremonies for me.

The barbecue meat, as well as other refreshments, will be served during the afternoon. There will also be various athletic sports held before and after the speeches. Some of these sports will start soon after one P. M., so that those who come early will be entertained.

The Holland Legion band, as well as the Ionia band, will be present, so that there will be plenty of music and I hope plenty of action all afternoon.

It is my earnest desire that everybody that can come, avail themselves of this invitation. Come and bring your families.

Very sincerely yours,
George F. Getz.

N. Y. World Gives Front Page Space To Getz and His Animals

What the Lakewood Farm means to Holland as an advertising asset was illustrated last Friday when the New York World, under a double column head on its front page, printed the greater part of a column about Mr. Getz and his animals, stating that Lakewood Farm is "near Holland, Michigan."

The article contains some information that has already appeared in The Sentinel, but since it has much that is new it is printed herewith in full.

When he leaves New York for Chicago this evening Geo. F. Getz will take with him besides his hand-bag, an elephant, two tigers, two leopards, a panther, an ocelot and a python snake thirty feet long.

He sent a telegram last night to his housekeeper on the farm near Holland, Michigan, so everything will be ready when he arrives.

Mr. Getz was once a small boy. Now he is sixty years old, a self-made millionaire and he has retired. Having a zoo all his own is Mr. Getz's hobby.

One afternoon back in 1919, Mr. Getz was sitting on the porch of a hotel in Egypt, fanning himself. His servant, out of a blue sky and for no reason at all, inquired if his master would like a parrot. Mr. Getz, who had never thought seriously about parrots before, thought he would.

The servant went to the shops, and not finding a parrot, bought a monkey.

And this started Mr. Getz's hobby—a hobby which now amounts to a menagerie of some 500 animals, including monkeys, bears, leopards, camels, panthers, ant eaters, alligators, snakes, baboons—and parrots. He keeps them on what he calls his "farm" out in Michigan.

The "farm" is really one of the most magnificent country places in the Middle West.

A reporter for The World found Mr. Getz playing cards with a friend from Cleveland in his room at the Waldorf-Astoria last evening. He finished the game—"rummy" losing $1 to his adversary, and then consented to talk about himself.

He had come to New York Tuesday to see about the shipment of animals he had picked up the last time he was in Singapore. The elephant was the main thing—he didn't have an elephant, and the elephants you get over here are not as good as the ones caught and bought fresh in Singapore. And then the snake—oh, he was a beauty.

Mr. Getz, a kindly, healthy man, with iron grey hair, a red face and a broad smile, removed his silver-rimmed spectacles and tried to tell about his hobby.

"Well," he said, "first of all, I love animals. And I love to entertain people. My zoo isn't just for myself. Of course I play around with the animals all the time, but anybody can come to see them if they want to. Last July 5 I had 8000 people on the grounds. Every Sunday I have from 1500 to 3000. They don't have to pay anything, of course. Besides the zoo, I've got lots of greenhouses and tennis courts, and I have eight guest houses on the farm for special friends. I'm having a 100 over for a week-end next week.

Mr. Getz, at 12, went west from his parents' Pennsylvania farm and got his first job in Chicago, as a messenger boy. At night he picked up telegraphy, and soon was graduated to the position of operator. At seventeen he entered a coal firm as clerk. Five years later he was a member of the firm. He made his millions in this business, and now controls, although he "doesn't bother with them much," some six or eight other coal firms, besides the United States Distributing Corporation.

As president of the latter, Mr. Getz has Alfred E. Smith as his president of the board of directors. Although a Republican, Mr. Getz is "strong for Al" and was one of those who made the Governor's welcome so warm on his recent visit to Chicago.

In 1918 Mr. Getz was commissioned as major in U. S. A. and put in charge of the general relief work in cooperation with the American Red Cross in Belgium, France and Germany. When the war came, he had already a fine private zoo on his "farm," but he felt it was unpatriotic to feed good food to his animals, so he sold them.

Economy the Basis of Prosperity

Economy has been preached as a cardinal virtue to every succeeding generation. Back in the Stone Age a hoary ancestor walked miles to a cave dweller who bartered some coveted article for one skin instead of the two demanded by the neighbor tradesman.

Economy is a principle held in common by the people of all nations.

Economy is the paramount principle of our merchandising throughout our chain of hundreds of Stores, and has been during the many years of our service to the public.

Every purchase in our Stores involves a saving to the purchaser.

BABY ELEPHANT SO FOND OF RIDING STEAM CARS HE WOULDN'T GET OFF

There was a large crowd at the Pere Marquette freight house Monday evening, and the going on had all the earmarks of a circus day with a big show unloading, preparatory to going to the show grounds. The crowd was there, however, to see freight handlers and trucking companies unload the new Lakewood Farm manager's car that has just arrived from the jungles of Africa and India.

It was rather interesting when the elephant, which is supposed to be a baby, was unloaded. It was difficult to coax "Jumbo" out and even the entreaties of local agent, Rich, were unavailing. When at last the animal was dragged out of the box car by a colored attendant and aides, it was found that the baby was at least seven feet high and will easily hold Gen. Fred Green at the barbecue Saturday.

After the elephant had been unloaded a pair of leopards followed and also an Ocelot (a South American wild cat). Then came the python, thirty feet long and weighing 250 pounds, and it took a half a dozen men to hold him. This snake, Mr. Getz says, is non-poisonous, is quite tame and folks can pet him if they desire. A special building of glass and heavy wire screen has been built and the reptile has been placed therein.

There are several other animals added to the collection. The large cage of monkeys did not arrive. This will not detract from the zoological display at Lakewood, however, since Mr. Getz already has a number of monkeys of different varieties at the farm; also bears and a tiger or two. The animals will be in place by this week Saturday, the day of the big barbecue.

Michigan is right in line with the trend among the resorting of the country in contemplating the expenditure of $200,000 for such of two years for advertising her advantages as a tourist and resort center, announcements from other states received here this morning indicate that a bill is now being prepared to be presented at the next session of the Michigan legislature providing for such an appropriation of state money along with support from the three tourist and resort associations, the Beaver Peninsula Development bureau, the Michigan Tourist and Resort association and the East Michigan Tourist association.

Three northern New England states, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, have launched a campaign to tell the world all about themselves and their natural and commercial advantages. The legislative bodies of these states have appropriated approximately $120,000 for a two-year program of publicity to be augmented by private contributions to a total of about $225,000.

Publication and free issuance of a series of booklets graphically picturing the splendors of the Green Mountain state in all four seasons was an important part of the publicity work carried on by Vermont. The pamphlets said Vermont is inviting all to vacation near Lake Champlain or perhaps Lake Bomoseen, see rugged Mt. Mansfield and visit the Connecticut Valley and Montpelier, "the maple sugar capital of the world."

New Hampshire, with a fund of $100,000 has gone farther by establishing information bureaus and contracting for newspaper advertising space in daily and Sunday newspapers from Boston to St. Louis. Thousands of inquiries have resulted and each is answered with information about New Hampshire's commerce and industries, its White Mountains, lakes and summer and winter resorts.

In Maine, the propaganda project has been pushed intensively under the aegis of Governor Brewster. Newspaper space, circulars, radio, moving pictures, lectures and articles and magazine stories by prominent writers, have been used for publicity purposes.

First suggestions that Michigan state undertake a similar campaign were made by the state Lake Frontage and Tourist conference held in Muskegon, May 20 and 21, at which time Governor Alex J. Groesbeck indicated that the state might well afford to spend a reasonable amount of money in general advertising of resort advantages.

A meeting of Ottawa county early potato growers will be held at the farm of Fred Graham in Robinson township, north of Barab, corner, Thursday, July 22, at 10 A. M. Mr. Graham purchased and certified seed three years ago and each year since that time has removed all weak or diseased hills and selected the best hills for seed. The field in which the meeting will be held is one of the best looking early potato fields in the county and well worth a visit on the part of all early potato growers. Mr. Graham is conducting a fertilizer experiment on these potatoes and the result of that experiment will also be witnessed.

More than 300 persons attended the open-air meeting of the Coopersville Isak Walton league chapter in the village park Monday night. Henry Schull of Grand Rapids, state president, told of the league's objects, and Fred K. George, chairman of the committee on legislation, talked on conservation. "Ike" Balzer, also of Grand Rapids, was present.

Two reels of Isak Walton movies completed the program. Evidence of their representations at the meeting, the women are taking a great interest in the newly-formed Coopersville chapter.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. H. A. Muzzal; vice president, Charles A. Vandegrift; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Fred Phillips.

Accepts Job At Lakewood Farm

A. J. Koning, of Fennville has accepted a position as foreman of the fruit portion of the Lakewood farm, owned by George Getz.

Mr. Koning is an experienced fruit grower himself and for several years past has been extensively engaged in buying and shipping of fruit from this and other West Michigan points. He has made a special study of apples and the problems incident to growing them and he is well fitted for the job he has accepted.

The Getz farm has about 100 acres of fruit, all of which comes under the direct management of Mr. Koning.

TWO ARE FINED ON CHARGES IN JUSTICE COURTS

Two men were arraigned on disorderly charges before Justice C. N. Dickinson, Grand Haven, Friday morning and both were assessed fines and costs.

Clarence Bell was taken at Highland Park. He is married, and 29 years of age and lives in Grand Haven. He paid a fine and costs of $15.45.

William Gustafson whose wife appeared with a complaint to the officers, for disorderly conduct, was arraigned Friday afternoon. He pleaded not guilty and demanded a trial for Monday. This was granted and he spent the night in the county jail. After a night of reflection, he evidently made up his mind to plead guilty and the case was ended the following day.

Gustafson is alleged to have been in an angry mood and took it out on the furniture. A stove whacked a piece gave evidence that his mood must have been a bad one.

More than 2,000 people gathered in the Prospect Park grove on Thursday evening to attend the mission feast of the Christian Reformed church. At the afternoon session there was an audience of nearly a thousand. The weather both afternoon and evening was ideal and the mission feast was a complete success in every way.

The various ways of raising money for missions were also a success, the total collections being $1,109. Over $700 was taken in the collection plate, the rest being obtained from the profits of the canteen and the sale of tags. The entire sum will be added to the mission fund.

Rev. L. Heeres of Graafschap was president of the day and presided over both meetings. Addresses were delivered in the forenoon by Rev. Pekelder, Rev. Mr. Dolfin, and Miss Veenstra. In the evening the speakers were Dr. Beets, Dr. Wynand, Miss Veenstra, Miss Holkeboer and Miss Joldersma.

Only two things are necessary for genuine success in life, asserted Paul Rader in an address before the Rotary club on Thursday noon. These two essentials, he said, are attention and courage. By attention, he explained, he did not mean mere concentration of the mind on a given point but an awareness of the whole situation.

The business man must know not only about the financial part of his business but he must be acquainted with the human element of all his employees from the lowest to the highest. He must give his attention to seeing his problem as a whole.

And courage is needed to live and to succeed, said Rader. Real life takes courage and success is to be attained only when courage is displayed all the time, when a man has the courage to decide on a course of action for better or for worse.

And Mr. Rader made the application that religion is needed in business, that the spirit of service taught by Christ is a fundamental element in true success in business. He made a strong plea for a return to the standards of the faith and he said the world can only be saved from its present state of confusion by a return, he said, to the Christian faith.

Before Mr. Rader began his address, Mr. Latham performed on the piano. Mrs. Johnson sang, the Jones brothers gave instrumental selections, and Mr. Rader also joined in the singing of his own composition, "I Like Holland."

George W. Deur, who has been conducting a shoe store at 70 East 8th street and who had announced that he would go out of business there, has decided to remain in his present location. Mr. Deur had an opportunity to open a store in the Hollanders live and he decided to do that. But because of the fact that his sale in Holland lasted longer than he had expected the Grand Rapids opportunity was lost and so he has decided to remain in Holland.

The local store has been put in shape for its new career and Mr. Deur will put in a brand new stock. What is left of the old stock will be sold at cut prices.

Amos Hoover, 34, and Frank Moore, 30, both of Lansing, were arrested at Water and Washington streets, Grand Haven Thursday night about midnight, by a car driven by Joe Millman. The men had just driven two autos from Lansing for delivery to the Chicago boat and were going to the Glen Hotel to spend the night when they were struck.

They were rushed to Hattin hospital, where it was found Hoover had crushed ribs and other injuries. Moore had a leg injury, but went back to Lansing this morning. Millman claimed he did not see the men. No arrests were made.

ROAD STANDS AND SIGNS ARE ORDERED OFF

The State Highway Department has notified the Ottawa County Road Commission that it is authorized to go out on the trunk lines and tear the right of way of the trunkline roads of all fruit stands, barbecue stands, gas stations, sign boards or advertising mediums.

It does not occur to many who wish to sell merchandise to the traveling public, that they have no right whatever on the property owned by the highway commission. They can erect buildings on their own property, rent or lease from individual owners but as far as lining them up near the roadways, the state says, "Keep Off."

A commission has come from outside of Spring Lake that there was an infringement and the state police are authorized to go after the individual and impress upon him the fact that he is not within his own rights.

The old roads usually occupy about a foot and a half, and some of the newer trunk lines as much as one hundred or one hundred and fifty feet are used for the road way.

Every so often it seems to be necessary for the road commission to time to time on the highway. If nothing is said for a time, it seems to be taken for granted that the department has forgotten the law and they will not be disturbed.

The state police are now after the infringers and removal of the expense goes to the owner, if they are on state property they will have to move the building and fix up the site if it has been disturbed.

The Michigan State Digest, published in Lansing, today devoted an article to Fred McEachron, of Holland, candidate for the Republican nomination for state representative of Ottawa county. The article gives McEachron's record as follows:

"Daddy of the capital punishment measure, the bill that created more human interest in the 1925 session of the legislature than any other. Rep. Fred McEachron of the Second Ottawa district, fought his bill through to within a handful of votes of passage. It was one of the six bills the Ottawa man introduced. Three of his measures became law, the effect of a fourth was incorporated in the general highway bill that was passed in that session, while two died in committee."

"So far as administration legislation which might find opposition in his district was concerned, Rep. McEachron was a strong anti-administration man. However, on some of the administration bills, notably the Ming highway bill, the weight and gas tax and the tax commission measure, he voted in the affirmative. On the advanced conservation measures he voted aye. He was against sending the famous Smiley pollution bill to committee where it was killed. He voted against the Darrin-Quinn five day marriage law and was also recorded as voting against the Richardson gun law. He voted against reappointment."

"Rep. McEachron's work in the last session was as conscientious as it was constructive. He voted in support of the low water mark on all appropriations and fought for this principle constantly. He started the ball rolling on poultry inspection work, which is a mighty big factor in the life of hundreds of Ottawa county poultry breeders, and had this effort been started earlier than it was, Michigan today undoubtedly would have very suitable poultry legislation."

"Rep. McEachron strongly supported the state police appropriation on the grounds that the state police, the highway department, the outcropping of crime, especially the moonshine evil."

"One of the bills Mr. McEachron introduced was that which would have prohibited intermarriage between whites and blacks. This died in committee. The other bill that remained in committee asked designation of a state reward trunk line road from Grand Rapids to Lake Michigan. The effect of this bill will undoubtedly be substantial in the near future in the interpretation of the general highway bill that takes over trunk line construction."

"One of the bills he had passed provided for appointment of dog wardens in cities of 5,000 population or more. Another bill introduced and passed which provided for a slight increase in pay for certain township officers on the basis of a ten hour day, was originally sponsored by the State Association of Supervisors. While Mr. McEachron welcomed the bill, he was not in favor of the increase in pay for township officers. He opposed every effort to relieve the counties of receiving their highway funds."

"As a member of the powerful ways and means committee, Rep. McEachron occupied a strong position in the personnel of the firm. The change of name was decided upon because it is shorter and the store was popularly known by that name anyway."

Mrs. Harm Mevring of Stockton, Calif., arrived this week visiting friends in Zeeland and Holland. Wm. Blom of Muskegon was in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. C. Blom, north River ave. Friday.

Young Man Is Nearly Electrocuted

Kenneth Gustafson, 455 College avenue, was nearly electrocuted Saturday at the Interurban freight house on W. 8th street. He was aiding to unload a car of feed for a local firm, just for the fun of it, he said.

He got on top of the box car and in some way lost his balance, grabbed the live wire for support and the heavy current passed thru his body, severely burning him. In the fall which followed, he was injured about the ankles. The young man, who is 16 years old, was not employed by the Holland Interurban.

FOUND DEAD ON TOP OF FREIGHT CAR

David O. Donaldson, a brakeman on a Pere Marquette freight train passing thru Holland almost daily, was found dead atop a box car when the regular freight pulled into Benton Harbor. It seems the trainman did not "duck" low enough when the train passed under a new bridge just built over the truck on the West Michigan Pike. When the train stopped Donaldson was missing and after searching they found him at his post dead with his chest crushed. Conductor H. Brady notified his relatives in Grand Rapids where Donaldson resides. He is 35 years old.

The indications are that Holland will not take part officially in the anti-narcotic campaign that is being put on in Michigan July 13 to 23. W. Norman Greenway, a representative of the Narcotic Educational Association of Michigan, Inc., was in Holland Wednesday to meet a committee appointed by Mayor Kammeraad to hear his explanations of what the association is trying to do.

The committee listened with entire sympathy for the purpose of the organization but it decided not to put on a drive in Holland at this time to raise the quota of $1,827 that had been assigned to Holland by the Michigan headquarters. If individuals wish to help this cause along, which is endorsed by the state department of health and other organizations, contributions may be sent to the Narcotic Educational Association of Michigan, Inc., 20 Adams Ave., West, Detroit, Michigan. The money will be used in a campaign to rehabilitate the Michigan narcotics victims on a $250,000 farm and institute.

The decision made by the committee not to put on a drive here was not a reflection on the organization, on which the members expressed no opinion. The cause seems to be a worthy one, but it was pointed out that Holland is just getting ready to launch its own community chest movement and it is of vital importance that that movement shall be a success this year. The committee did not wish to be placed in a position of putting on any drive, no matter how worthy the cause, at a time when it might militate against the cordial reception by the people of the community of the general plan to put the city's charities on a scientific basis.

The Love Construction & Engineering company of Muskegon, builders of a number of bridges in western Michigan, submitted a low bid of $37,344 Thursday on construction of the bridge over Cedar Creek the bridge to be the first link in the causeway project between Muskegon and North Muskegon.

Other bidders were Peter Brill of Holland, who submitted a figure of $41,993.40; Nelson Brothers and Holthe of Muskegon, $49,948.64; Price Brothers Lansing, $51,522.87; and the Love Construction Co., of Grand Rapids, $66,046.67.

The contract will probably be let by the state administrative board next Tuesday. The job is big, the plans calling for a bridge of 260 ft. long and 22 feet wide. It will be placed 500 feet east of the present bridge across Cedar Creek, being the route of the highway which is to parallel the present road.

Gov. Groesbeck favors a bridge 40 feet wide and it is possible that a revision of the plans and new bids may be called for.

Ray Conklin, of Ferrysburg, had an accident at the entrance to the small bridge just north of the Challenge Refrigerator factory of Grand Haven Thursday night about nine o'clock that looked for a while like a spill.

His Ford touring car suddenly came to a stop and broke down causing the occupants to be jarred and shaken up considerably. The rear axle snapped and one of the wheels came off. Fortunately for the driver in the car it was not being driven very rapidly, but as this is a rather narrow part of the road traffic became jammed up and the State Police were called to keep things moving.

The Botbyl wrecker was called and soon had the obstruction removed from the road. With the jam of cars and people about, it looked as though there had been an accident of some proportions.

Mrs. Gerrit Mouw, aged 81, died Friday at her home at 126 Columbia avenue. She is survived by six children: Dick, Richard, Mrs. S. Vander Ploeg, Thomas, Evart, and Harry. The funeral was held on Monday at two o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mouw, 122 Columbia avenue, Rev. J. De Haan officiating. Interment was in Pelgrim Home cemetery.
