Holland Man Hangs Self In City Hall

HAS BEEN IN LIMELIGHT FOR SEVERAL YEARS HERE AND ELSEWHERE

Was Wanted In St. Joe and Was Apprehended For Berrien
County Authorities.

Albert Ver Hoef, a man who has been in the limelight for a number of years and when in Holland lived at 118 East Fourteenth street, hanged himself from the bars of the detention room at police headquarters in the city hall.

Chief Peter Lieveens received a wire from the Sheriff of Berrien County at St. Joseph, asking them to hold Ver Hoef as he was wanted on an embezzlement charge. Ver Hoef had just finished a 90-day sentence at the county jail at Grand Haven and returned home Monday.

It seems according to the local police, that Ver Hoef represented himself as authority to sell delinquent tax lands, showing nice pieces of property to prospective buyers but with small payment down the land could be made and when full payment was made the deeds would be forthcoming. It is stated that Ver Hoef got the first payments, never coming back with the deeds or for more money.

It is a case where people should again know better, for delinquent tax lands are not sold that way but by order of the circuit judge of the county and handled by the county treasurer.

Anyway, Peter Bontekoe was detailed on the case by Chief Lieveens and arrested Ver Hoef at his home, brought him to the detention cell, searched him thoroughly but found nothing on his person with the exception of a little change.

This was at 4:45 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. At 5:45 Jim Spruit entered the cell to ask Ver Hoef what he wanted for supper and to his amazement found Ver Hoef hanging from a thin rope, fastened to the grating of a cell window. Ver Hoef had climbed on the cell cot, standing on the steel rods at the head of the bed. He then fastened one end of the rope to the bars of his cell, placed the noose around his neck, then jumped. When cut down his feet were about three inches above the bed.

It is evident that Ver Hoef wanted to do a thorough job for he had stepped on the rod again and saved himself. When the body was cut down it was found that his throat and neck were badly cut by the thin rope.

Officer Spruit quickly called Chief of Police Lieveens, Coroner Van der Water and Dr. A. J. Brown. They worked over the body for nearly an hour with a resuscitator but there was no sign of life and the doctor pronounced the man dead.

It is stated that the family noticed during the day that Ver Hoef acted queerly and took down a shotgun, fusing with it but the members of the family had hidden the ammunition.

Officers are at a loss to know where the cord came from with which the man hanged himself. Chief of Police believe that it must have been hidden in his shoe, although there was plenty hanging material in the cell in the way of bed sheets, ropes holding the mattress to the cot, etc.

Ver Hoef has pulled many "fast ones" in Holland selling coal at tremendously low prices. He would solicit orders for coal and ask for payment in advance since, he stated, he had to have the money first in order to buy the coal at the price it was sold for. But then the coal was never delivered.

He served two sentences on these coal charges, but Chief Lieveens states that there are at least a score of similar charges that have been filed but upon which cases Ver Hoef has not been prosecuted.

The body of the dead man was taken to the Nibbelink-Notier morgue.

Ver Hoef was held in the detention cell awaiting the arrival of the Berrien County officers.

Ver Hoef was 52 years old and was born in Holland and was a teamster by trade.

Surviving are his wife; his father, John Ver Hoef; three sons, John, Harold and Marvin, all of Holland; and three brothers, Martin and George of this city and Andrew of Kentucky.

The funeral is to be held this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home with Rev. H. Bouma, pastor of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed Church officiating. Interment will take place in Pilgrim Home Cemetery.

HORSE KICKS DRENTHE MAN

Harry Van Dam, a young man of Drenthe, son of Henry G. Van Dam, was quite severely injured Saturday when he was kicked in the face by a horse. He was harnessing the animal for threshing operations which were in progress on the farm and the horse, in a playful mood, kicked up its heels and struck the young man on the right side of his face, inflicting bad injuries near the temple. Van Dam, not realizing how severely he had been hurt and finding he could still walk, went to the house to have the wound dressed but collapsed immediately upon reaching the house. A physician was summoned at once and Van Dam was pronounced in too serious a condition to be taken to the hospital.

COMPANY D LOSES TROPHY

Company D of Holland national guards, which returned Wednesday from Camp Graveling, lost possession of its trophy won the last three years for maintaining the best kitchen in camp. Company C of Kalamazoo noted out Holland by one point this year. There are other years coming and the defeat surely was not bad.

RETIRED MAIL CARRIER HAS TRAVELED SOME

George B. Williams, Allegan county rural mail carrier on Route 3, who retired Saturday, had been in the postal service at Allegan for 30 years and four months. He began in the service April 1, 1902, when Editor Reid of the Gazette was postmaster. He was the oldest of the eight carriers. He was named carrier when Allegan only had two routes. He drove a horse on his route until 1915. Then he bought a car. In his more than 30 years of service he has traveled 238,329 miles, which amounts to a trip of more than nine times around the world.

PULLETS LAY EGGS

If a hen lays an egg it's not news, but how about a pullet? William Rosin of Grand Haven township reports that pullets hatched March 1 are already contributing to the products of the farmyard. The eggs are of fair size, he says.

PICNICKERS HAVE RIGHTS AT STATE PARKS

Picnickers will now have exclusive rights to parts of Michigan State Parks. The plea of picnickers in the past that most of the choice grass plots were taken over by the campers has resulted in the establishment of marked-off picnic grounds in many of the popular Lake Michigan parks.

MOST BELOVED HOLLAND WOMAN PASSES AWAY

Many friends from Holland and abroad were shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Con De Pree, who passed away early Monday afternoon at her home on the Park road, west of Holland, at the age of 59 years.

Although she had been ill for some time and her recovery was not expected her passing brought sadness to her many friends and associates in this city.

Mrs. De Pree was of a kindly nature. She was thoughtful of others and although cloaked with a quiet reserve intimates of the family knew the wonderful qualities of Mrs. De Pree and her thoughtful consideration of all those with whom she came in contact.

Mrs. De Pree was a member of the Woman's Literary club, Century club and many civic organizations promoting Holland's welfare.

For many years she has been a devout member of Hope church and was an active leader and worker of the Ladies' Aid society of that congregation.

Because of the absence of Dr. Thomas W. Davidson, who is on his vacation in the East, Rev. J. Talmadge Bergen, a former pastor of Hope church, now pastor of Homewood Presbyterian church of Minneapolis, officiated, assisted by Rev. S. C. Nettings, president of Western Theological seminary.

Dr. Bergen was pastor of Hope church when Mrs. De Pree, as a young woman, was one of the parishioners and a pupil of Dr. Bergen. The former Holland minister in his discourse dwelled upon that fact at the funeral services held Wednesday afternoon from the home.

Mrs. De Pree was formerly Miss Cornelia Meeuwse, daughter of one of the old pioneer families of this city.

Interment took place in the family plot in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

The deceased is survived by her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Nathaniel Robbins, Miss Marian De Pree living at home, and a son, Harold De Pree also at home. A sister, Mrs. Percy Osborn, of Holland.

The pallbearers were John Bosman, William J. Olive, Abraham Cappon, A. L. Combe, Charles H. McBride and Dr. George Van Verst.

The floral tributes from home and abroad were many and beautiful, indicative of the high esteem in which Mrs. De Pree was held by a large circle of friends.

SHOWER IS GIVEN BY TELEPHONE GIRLS AT BEACH

Miss Sadie Lampen was successfully surprised Tuesday evening when the Zeeland telephone office employees invited her to spend the evening at Ottawa Beach with them. Miss Lampen, who is to be married soon, was presented with fine gifts.

Those present were the Misses Elizabeth Karsten, Matilda Lamer, Kate Shoemaker, Mae De Jongh, Mrs. Hattie Meyer, Mrs. Corneille Johnson, Mrs. Elsie Kiant and Mrs. Mammie Van Wingeren. Delicious refreshments were served and all enjoyed the evening immensely.

Miss Lampen has been employed at the telephone office for several years.

BEDDING MAKERS SEE INCREASE IN BUSINESS

Adoption of an aggressive sales program coupled with business increases featured the semiannual convention of the Master Bedding Makers of America, which closed here Thursday. Charles D. Karr, president of the Karr Co. of this city, also is head of the association. Close to fifty delegates attended. Mr. Karr anticipates more business and additions to the present working force.

Miss Fredricka Pantlind, daughter of Mrs. Fred Pantlind, entertained on her birthday Friday for a group of Ottawa Beach resorters at the cottage of her grandmother, Mrs. J. Boyd Pantlind.

Same Home Occupied By Generations

REUNION BRINGS OUT FIRST
HOLLAND SETTLERS—
DESTITUTE; WERE GIVEN GOLD

Yesterday a family reunion took place at Jensen Park that was of more than passing interest. It was a gathering of the Schroteboer family and their descendants who came out 300 strong. Mr. L. Tin with a few timely remarks and this gathering of Schroteboers, called the guests to order at noon and with a few timely remarks, opened the festivities with prayer. It was one of those old-fashioned cozy basket picnics enjoyed by old and young alike.

Naturally all the picnic sports were featured during the day; however the real interesting part transpiring at this gathering was the reminiscence stories as these relate to the Schroteboer family, the forerunners having come in a sailing ship in 1847 after Dr. Van Raalte and the first settlers had been here about six months.

The first Schroteboers who arrived were John and Schroteboer and his wife, Zwanette Doezema Schroteboer. When they reached Holland they traveled on further south from the colony in what is now Graafschap and the Peter Schroteboer farm of today is the same farm that was cleared out of the wilderness of large forest trees and tangle underbrush, where wild animals and foraging Indians still existed in large numbers. The homestead on that farm although much improved, has been occupied by five generations of Schroteboers and here their families were reared into fine American citizens.

It is the Schroteboer family who was among those who first fostered the establishment of a church in the little settlement of Graafschap on the hill top to the south of Holland. It is the same church that Mr. Ralph Schepers wrote about some time ago. It appears that this little edifice was located on what is now the fork of Michigan avenue and Washington boulevard, at that time much beyond the city limits and far out into the country. This building was moved to Graafschap with much difficulty, and by the use of several ox teams over practically impossible roads. Many years later the building was turned into a blacksmith shop, owned by George Hoekstra, after a more suitable church building had been erected.

The old Schroteboers remember when they had to walk from Graafschap to East Saugatuck or Holland for supplies when there were no roads, and the way through the woods was followed by chopping markers on trees.

They remember the time when the stretch from Seventeenth street south to the hospital hill was a huge swamp, and the pathway was a dangerous log road stretched across this marshy spot.

When the Schroteboers came over on a sailing vessel they brought all their earthly money possessions with them in the form of gold. Each member in the party had the gold secreted in belts around his person. When they reached Holland, they found many destitute in our own colony and following the spirit of their religious teachings of sharing with those less fortunate, they gave of their gold to help sustain not a few of the colonists who were sorely in need of help at that time.

Bather an interesting sidelight is told relative to Mrs. Johannes Schroteboer, who single handedly dispatched a large rattlesnake which reared its head to strike as she and her children wandered along a wooded pathway.

Coming back to the picnic proper the reunion carried with it the election of officers and these were as follows:

President, Mr. L. Tinholt; secretary, George Schroteboer; assistant secretary, Mrs. Raymond J. Nykamp; treasurer, Mr. Henry H. Schroteboer; executive committee, John H. Schroteboer, Herman Garvelink, Mrs. George Tinholt and Mrs. Herman Fredericks.

The sport program, together with the winners is found below:

Penny scramble—Children of 7 years and under, won by Jerold Vollink.

Shoe contest—For boys 7 to 12 years, won by Benjamin Hulst.

Wiener eating contest—Boys 7 to 12 years, won by Donald Vander Hill.

Marshmallow eating contest—Girls 7 to 12, won by Gladys Schroteboer.

Baby bottle drinking contest—Girls 16 and over, won by Johanna De Jongh.

Smoking contest—Married men, Henry G. Schroteboer.

Thread winding contest—Married women, won by Mrs. Ed Scholten.

Balloon breaking contest—For men, won by John Siebelink.

The reunion is to be held again next year if plans materialize and no doubt even more will attend at that time.

Among the older folks present were Mr. W. Alofs, aged 81; Mrs. E. Schroteboer Schreier, aged 76, and Mrs. G. Schroteboer, aged 80.

According to the family tree the following are those constituting Schroteboer descendants are found among the following:

Schroteboers, Garvelinks, Lokkers, Den Uyl, Lubbers, Siebelinks, Alofs, Tinholts, Beltmans, Hofstees, Meungs, Boumans, Frankens, Hulsta, Vander Hills, De Freyts, Koops, Ellenbas and Grisens.

Evidences of a building revival are in prospect on the park road. Edward Kiemel of Chicago is erecting a beautiful brick homestead at Central Park. B. H. Williams, Holland jeweler, has purchased a part of the E. A. Fisher estate, known as the former Conkey place, and is building a home on the Black lake shore.

Ottawa's First Highway Built 100 Years Ago

EVENT WILL BE CELEBRATED ON THE HALF-WAY LINE AT PORT SHELTON

Old Bee Line Has Done Service
For a Century.

On Wednesday, Aug. 10, there is to be an unusual celebration in Ottawa county commemorating the fact that the old Bee Line road between Holland and Grand Haven was built, most of it corduroy in the earlier days, passing over marshes, spanning streams and winding its way over sandy hill tops.

It is rather appropriate and indeed thoughtful that the Port Sheldon folks to stage this timely celebration at this beautiful, natural resort on Pigeon lake, and undoubtedly other communities in Ottawa county, together with Holland and Grand Haven, will help the Port Sheldoners bring success to a celebration which should embrace the entire county.

Roads 100 years ago in Michigan meant a great deal, and between the log roads of yesterday and the ribbons of concrete today there is evidence of tremendous evolution in road building.

At a meeting held Monday evening tentative plans were made and there will be a speaker from Holland and two speakers from Grand Haven. Judge Fred T. Miles was chosen because of Port Sheldon was his old "stamping grounds" when a boy. He went to school there and taught school there and the Miles family lived there for more than a half century.

At the time of the meeting a very timely choice for he has all the historic data as this relates to Ottawa county and especially Port Sheldon, and his discourse will be interesting indeed.

William Connelly was the third choice and his appearance on the platform is altogether fitting since he is well acquainted with the later developments in road building and from the beginning he favored roads built from concrete, a material which was tabooed by the old-fashioned road builders and citizens as well. Because of his continual fight for concrete roads this man was appropriately dubbed "Concrete Connelly."

The Port Sheldon committee named for its chairman Austin Harrington of Holland, chairman of the Ottawa county road commission, who has been a road builder for a score of years. It can be readily seen that Port Sheldon has picked out an unusually fitting personnel for their platform program. But then the entire day will not be taken up with a speech making. There is to be a real jubilee with a large program of sports on land and on water. Prizes are to be offered by some of the enterprising merchants of Holland, Grand Haven, Zeeland and Grand Rapids.

A special program of aquatic sports on Pigeon lake and river are being planned. An old fashioned basket picnic with all the fraternal spirit that goes with it is to be one of the departures, and piping hot coffee from plenty of percolating urns is to be furnished complimentary from the Port Sheldon Beach association, the organization sponsoring this celebration.

It is still too early to give the complete program. However, the executive committee named was Austin Harrington, general chairman; Abe Any of Port Sheldon, secretary, and the members are Leo Lillie of Grand Haven, Bert Gebber and Ben Mulder of The News of Holland; Judge Harry D. Jewel, John Vander Biell, William Brumeler, Fred Holbert, Dr. P. T. Grant, Rudolph Kutache, all of Grand Rapids, and Herman Hugenholz of East Grand Rapids. Mr. Hugenholz is president of the Port Sheldon Beach association.

This committee met at Port Sheldon Monday night and appointed Abe Any as head of the sports committee, assisted by Rudolph Kutache, Bob Baxter and Dr. Grant. Committee on grounds, Fred Holbert; committee on refreshments, Mr. William Brumeler and aids.

These preliminary preparations give evidence that there is going to be a real gala day at Port Sheldon Wednesday, Aug. 10, about half way between Holland and Grand Haven on the old Bee Line road. For many years Port Sheldon has been rather isolated and out-of-the-way watering place, even though it was the first real summer resort in western Michigan long before Dr. Van Raalte planted his banner on the shores of Black lake.

Port Sheldon invites Holland, Zeeland and all the other communities in southern Ottawa to join them in this celebration. They have a real close-to-nature resort there with a very unique history, and undoubtedly Holland and the rest of the communities north and south are going to be neighborly and spend the afternoon and evening with these fine and hospitable folks.

From a column write-up in the Grand Haven Tribune these two paragraphs are of interest:

"Port Sheldon was one of the first resort districts in the great northwest. The famous old Ottawa House was built in 1834 and for a time enjoyed a popularity to lead the promoters to believe it would become a second Atlantic City or Saratoga Springs.

There are some historic trails leading to the lake, and some relics left of the old days. The committee is planning to make this an event which will draw many people to the section. Judge Jewel has annually served a large clam bake to the prominent men of Kent and Ottawa counties and is an enthusiastic booster for the place. It is located about half way between here and Holland on Lake Michigan."

MICHIGAN FISH DEPARTMENT WILL NOW USE TANK TRUCKS

A third tank truck unit is now being constructed and will be ready for use in August, the Fish Division of the Conservation Department said today.

Two units were put in operation last year and proved to be highly practicable in the transportation of fish from the hatcheries and feeding stations to places where they were to be planted. The new unit, embodying many improvements, will greatly increase the Department's ability to carry small fish long distances and with a minimum of loss and expense.

The tank trucks employ a system of constant aeration of the water through a separate motor pump.

BANKERS POSTPONE REWARD DECISION UN- TIL HOLLAND MEETING

Executive committee of group No. 4, Michigan Bankers' association, which met in the Grand Rapids National bank Tuesday afternoon, deferred action on claims for reward in connection with the Grand Rapids Savings bank robbery until the annual meeting at Holland early in September. This postponement gives time to get more complete evidence and for possible capture and conviction of other suspects. It was decided in connection with the annual meeting and banquet to charge a registration fee of $2.50 a person. The funds will be used for the expenses.

O. P. Kramer, president of the Holland City State bank, presided at the meeting. James V. Stuart of the Grand Rapids National bank is secretary.

CON. MAPES RETURNS ALL FAGGED OUT

Congressman Carl E. Mapes returned to Grand Rapids Monday from Washington, tired after the prolonged congressional session of congress which closed Saturday night. He went at once to his home, 239 Morris avenue, S. E., Grand Rapids, and said he intended to take a complete rest for a week before going in the fall campaign for re-nomination.

"I am personally taking my nominating petitions to Lansing today to qualify as a candidate for the nomination for congress on the Republican ticket," Carl E. Mapes, for many years representative of the Fifth district, stated Thursday.

"I have no special announcement to make. I have been in congress long enough so that people know something of my work and of me. My record must necessarily be my platform."

"I hope, of course, that my work will be endorsed by the people of the Fifth district. If it is and I am re-elected I shall continue in the future, as in the past, to serve them faithfully and to the best of my ability."

YOUNG HOLLAND MINISTER ORDAINED IN AMSTERDAM

The Evening Recorder of Amsterdam, New York, in a recent issue not only prints the picture, but also gives a two-column write-up of the ordination of Rev. Russell D. Damstra, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Damstra, of Holland.

Mrs. Damstra was installed as pastor of Florida Reformed church of Minnassie, a suburb of Amsterdam.

The article gives the installation sermon by Rev. Donald Boyce of Westerloo, who spoke from John 12:32, "And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto Me."

by Rev. Harry E. Christians, vice president of the Classis of Montgomery, while Rev. S. J. Liberty, pastor of the Minnassie M.E. church, gave as the scripture reading II Timothy 4:1-18, and prayer was offered by the Rev. Franklin J. Hinkamp, former pastor of the Minnassie Reformed church.

The services were most impressive and largely attended by members of the parish and friends from Amsterdam and other nearby places.

It is apparent from other write-ups that Mr. Damstra is proving popular as a pastor and as a speaker. His services are in great demand, and he is to deliver a discourse at a series of "Sunset" meetings, so-called, that will continue through the month of August.

Mr. Damstra is well known here, being a graduate of Holland High School and Hope College, was star in athletics as well as an outstanding student.

He is also a graduate of the White Biblical Seminary at New York City.

The Temptation to Idle

The ocean steamship lines, largely owned by British and German capital, have cut their rates and are bidding for Americans to spend their money this summer in foreign travel. A bargain is always attractive, even to those who cannot afford the bargain price. But this year even bargain prices for travel are a delusion and a snare. The place for Michigan people who could even afford the money price of foreign travel is on their jobs, and not away from them. One of the reasons that a good many enterprises in this state which are not paying dividends and whose stock is selling below its value are in that condition is because their managers in the past spent too much time in Florida in the winter and at the sea-shore in the summer, and not enough at their desks and in their factories. When even as solid a manufacturer as Henry Ford sticks to his job in the business circles, there isn't much reason for lesser lights neglecting their business for either travel or pleasure. Mr. Ford sets an example of stick-to-it-iveness which might well be imitated whether it costs much or little to go abroad.

It ought to be a badge of dishonor for executives to be away from their jobs this year. — Michigan Manufacturer.

BEEES FIND CANDY STORE ON CORNER; TIE UP TRAFFIC

There's one thing about it — honey bees don't make good traffic officers. A swarm of them took possession of one of Omaha's busiest corners yesterday. Pedestrians fled to cover. Motorists halted their cars. Soon all traffic was hopelessly blocked.

There's a candy store on the corner, which may have been what interested the bees. They kept flying back and forth between the traffic light and the store's door, and matters went from bad to worse until Bill Robinson, who knows his bees, appeared and corralled them.

WILL STOP RECKLESS PICKING OF WILD BERRIES

In an effort to conserve the wild blue berry crop growing on state owned lands in Chippewa county, the Conservation Commission has issued an order preventing the use of all mechanical devices for picking berries. The blue berry crop there has become an important source of income for local residents and a large part of the crop is taken from state owned land. Mechanical devices such as rakes, cradles and automatic pickers tend to lower the quality of the fruit, and to decrease production since green berries are destroyed at the first picking, complaints reaching the department have said. Under the commission's order the use of mechanical devices will mean arrest with a fine or jail sentence.

SOME PLANTED HERE YEARS AND YEARS AGO ARE CAUGHT OCCASIONALLY

Here is an interesting item about eels your editor never knew. Here it is as coming from the Conservation Department:

"Eels, planted in Michigan waters a half century ago, have not entirely disappeared and some 50 year old specimens still live in the waters of a lake in Otsego county, according to Dr. Carl L. Hubbs, Director of the Michigan Institute for Fisheries Research.

"Specimens of eels taken from Sherman Lake, Kalamazoo county, in October, 1926, were generally believed to have been the last surviving in Michigan waters, until Dr. Hubbs received a specimen taken from the Otsego Lake.

"The specimen obtained from Otsego Lake was submitted by W. H. Green, Elmira township, who planted the eels in his lake 44 years ago.

"A half century ago eels were planted in many of the lakes of Michigan. They were brought from the Atlantic Coast as 'elvers,' the young stage of eels reached when they ascend the streams from the ocean. The eels were not native to the Great Lakes, because they cannot pass by Niagara Falls on their upward migration from the sea.

"Since eels do not spawn in fresh water, any eels now remaining in Michigan are approaching the half century mark in age, according to Dr. Hubbs. The rather small eels occasionally seen were not young, but were the males which do not reach a large size, and which do not migrate far up streams from the ocean.

"The occurrence of males in the Michigan lakes is itself evidence that the eels remaining alive today are of the old plantings."

Your editor remembers when eels were planted in Black Lake and the planting caused quite a stir. Most Holland folks thought they were snakes. The files of the Holland City News, covering a period of years, report many eels caught, the last instance was about four years ago. Undoubtedly there are a few of the first planting still left.

ANGLEWORM TURNS AT LAST ON THE ROBIN

Health authorities of Beaver Flats, Neb., have been much perturbed because a number of the robins in this vicinity appear to be afflicted with sore eyes. It was feared the disease would spread and an epidemic might be started among domestic fowl and game birds.

But Doc Wilkerson, a scientist from there, says there need be no further fear of such an epidemic being started by the robins. After careful examination of a number of the afflicted birds he has announced that their sore eyes were rather of bruises. These, he believes, were suffered during the not the result of infection but birds' tussles with unusually elastic angleworms which snapped in to the robins' eyes when the latter finally succeeded in pulling them from the ground.

Information obtained from fishermen would seem to substantiate Doc Wilkerson's explanation. It has long been known, they say, that the angleworms in a field just below the Beaver Flats rubber cement factory are possessed of elasticity almost equal to that of a rubber band. The birds examined by Doc Wilkerson are believed to have been feeding in this field. Next!

The Coast and Geodetic survey have been erecting steel towers 115 feet high, along US31 southwest of Holland from which to make surveys of the shores of the Great Lakes. One such tower was erected just north of the junction with M89. The expense of this survey is paid for by the war department. No doubt such work has its value, but ordinary folk fail to comprehend the desirability of thus spending our money at this time.

Holland is included in the United States geological survey under direction of Lieut. H. C. Warwick for making a complete map of western Michigan, designating all lakes, rivers and streams and plotting the entire area. The project covers territory between Traverse City and Benton Harbor.

ZEELAND FIRE CHIEF GIVEN HONOR BY STATE ASSOCIATION

Chief of the Zeeland fire department, Jarrett N. Clark, was again honored last week by being made first vice-president of the State Firemen's association at the convention held at Monroe during the first part of last week. As first vice president he will be in line for the presidency of the organization next year when the convention will be held at Lansing since the promotions graduate from year to year. Mr. Clark was the only delegate from the Zeeland fire department since it was deemed unnecessary to go to the expense of more than one representative to the Monroe convention as was customary in former years. He left during the early part of the week and returned last Thursday evening.

Troubles Not Lasting

Quick is the succession of human events; the cares of today are seldom the cares of tomorrow; and when we lie down at night we may safely say to most of our troubles, "Ye have done your worst and we shall meet no more." — Cowper.

Lens Found in Nineveh

The oldest magnifying glass known in the world was discovered in the ruins of Nineveh. Its magnifying power must have been noticed, but it was probably used not as a microscope, but as a burning glass. The lens was an aid to vision dates only from the Middle ages.

Prevent Plant Blight

Do not keep your house plants where it is too warm, 60 to 65 degrees is a lot better than 75. They need sunlight and fresh air, but should not be exposed to drafts. Watch out for disease and pests, spray or syringe them before it is too late. Prevention is much easier than cure.

Patience Lacking

ALLEGAN COUNTY PEACHES

Allegan peach growers are quite alarmed over the spread of a disease which has already caused the loss of many trees in western Allegan county. While it is somewhat different from "yellow" and "little peach" it is equally fatal to the life of the tree and, were left to remain, is sure to wipe out the whole orchard. Prompt removal is still the only remedy. The colleges are unable to give any better advice and, unless care is given by some careless growers, it may be necessary to revive the "yellow" commissioners' who used to visit orchards and mark diseased trees for destruction, to prevent spread of the disease.

Most things can be taxed too.

THERE IS A REASON FOR AUTO CASUALTY RATES BEING RAISED

The following is by Frank P. Loomis, special writer for the Chicago Examiner:

Owners of automobiles carrying automobile casualty insurance are entitled to know why the cost of this form of insurance is higher today than it has been during the past few years.

The insured public makes its own automobile public liability and property damage insurance rates, and the companies writing this form of insurance. The rates are actually made by the policyholders. The insurance companies from the experience of their policyholders determine what rates are necessary to obtain sufficient premium to cover the losses of the policyholders, provide the service which is essential to safeguard the policyholder's interest, and to provide a reasonable profit to the insurance company.

Explain Increases

Several of the companies writing this coverage have issued booklets in explanation of the reasons for the increased rates. Some of the reasons are:

The number of cars on the highways has increased more than twelve times from 1914 to 1931.

Automobile accident deaths in the United States by five-year periods are: Five years ended in 1921, 58,562 deaths; five years ended in 1926, 98,551 deaths; five years ended in 1931, 152,782 deaths.

In the last ten years, the horsepower and consequently the possible speed of automobiles has practically doubled, resulting in more violent collisions and more serious injury.

The hours of use (exposure to hazards) of average private passenger cars have greatly increased in recent years.

From 1926 to 1930, inclusive, accident frequency increased 25 per cent.

More frequent court actions made necessary by exorbitant demands and unlawful claims and the average cost of automobile public liability claims have increased 26.7 per cent during the period from 1924 to 1929, inclusive.

Carelessness Factor

And, most important of all, too many accidents because of the failure of many motorists to realize and exercise the responsibility which attaches to them when in the driver's seat.

HAGENBECK-WALLACE CIRCUS AT MUSKOGON FRIDAY, JULY 29

Cantankerous tigers, lions gifted with marvelous bass voices, perambulating polar bears, and herds of ponderous pachyderms, clowns and stars bespangled—all these, together with bands and callopes, sideshows and hundreds of blooded track and ring steers, are coming to Muskegon for the great Hagenbeck-Wallace circus, one of the largest in the world, is scheduled for afternoon and night performances on Friday, July 29.

This celebrated show, always to the fore with new and thrilling features, has this season outdone itself in the line-up of its 1932 program. It isn't merely the same old round of the same old acts and displays, but all new, novel, extremely thrilling and colorful. It abounds with names that are war and woof of spangeland—the greatest array of circus stars ever presented under the famed Hagenbeck-Wallace banners.

In offering this season, "Cleopatra, Queen of Egypt," for the opening lyrics spectacle, the great Hagenbeck-Wallace show, dwarfs all previous inaugural programs with its beauty of music, chorus, ballet, number of animals, and in costly wardrobe and trappings.

Clowns? Yes, half a hundred of 'em, and a whole truck full of animal and grotesque comics thrown in for good measure.

"Messiah's" Popularity

The first performance of Handel's "Messiah" was given in 1740. Since that time it has been a custom in London to perform that work with greatly augmented chorus and orchestra each year at Christmas.

Overreach Themselves

"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "seems to get so much fun out o' tellin' hard luck stories dat it don't seem like it was dolt 'em any favor to help 'em along in life." — Washington Star.

A RESPONSIBLE PEOPLE

It is amazing how little wild talk there has been during the depression on the part of labor and the political parties of dissent.

There have been no strikes, no threats of reprisals. Labor, speaking generally, has shown a disposition to bear its share of the burdens that have fallen on all alike. Widespread unemployment and an unavoidable drop in the average wage scale—a drop which has largely been compensated by lower commodity prices—have not shaken the faith of an overwhelming percentage of workers in the stability of the government and the ability of industry to work its way out of its troubles.

Patience Lacking

Rev. Thomas W. Davidson, pastor of Hope Reformed church, and Mrs. Davidson have left on a six weeks' vacation. They will spend a few days in New York, after which they will spend the remainder of their vacation at Kennebunkport, Me., where their daughter, son and daughter-in-law will join them.

Cannot Blame Wart On Toad

"The popular belief that the toad can give one warts and that it is poisonous are erroneous," says Alexander Ruthven in "The Herpetology of Michigan." On the contrary, Ruthven asserts, the toad is very beneficial to man, since a large percentage of its food consists of garden pests. Its value to the farmer has been estimated at from $5 to $19.88 a year.

It is true, Ruthven says, that there is an excretion from the parotid gland region that is slightly poisonous when taken internally, and which affects the mucous membrane of the mouth and protects the toad when it is seized by dogs and other enemies. A recent account appearing in a Smithsonian Institution monograph of a Mexican toad whose poison was fatal to a terrier that pounced on it and shook it to death would seem to indicate that the strength of this defensive poison is exaggerated in certain species.

The unfortunate terrier whose experience was described in this instance was the property of M. E. Musgrave of the U. S. Biological Survey. Musgrave himself, it was said, was made dizzy and ill while examining his dog, though he himself had not touched the toad. The toad was also said to have a narcotizing effect on a police dog that barely touched the toad with the tip of its nose.

Recent rains have given all kinds of vegetation a much needed help and crops are looking fine. Peppermint on the much in Allegan county, not injured by frost, is making a fine growth, as is corn. Tree fruits have also been greatly benefited.

North Allegan County News Items

Randall Claver of Zeeland is spending this week with his cousin, Jack and Henry Brady at Saugatuck.

During the absence of E. N. Hulley and family in California for a number of weeks, it now is reported their home at Allegan was ransacked. A collection of coins and a number of old-fashioned watches, relics and curios were taken. Valuable silver and other valuable articles were untouched.

The second exhibition at the Art Gallery at the Saugatuck village hall has opened for two weeks, including marines by Paul L. Gill and portraits and still life compositions by Sue May Gill, both of whom are artists of note. A reception was scheduled for Saturday afternoon but the gallery is open each afternoon and the public is invited.

Oddfellows of Allegan county will have a reunion and picnic on the fairgrounds at Allegan Sunday, July 24. Two past grand masters of the state organization and the president of the state Rebekah assembly will be among the speakers. All families are invited.

Allegan County Home Economics are holding their annual picnic today at Barber's bathing beach at Base Line lake, south from Allegan on M-40. The picnic is potluck. Miss Edna V. Smith, state home demonstration leader from the Michigan State college, is one of the principal speakers.

The sour cherry crop is now being canned at the Fennville factory. Recent wind storms had wiped the fruit in the tops of trees and on exposed locations, causing considerable damage, and this bruised fruit is not being harvested. To make up for the shortage, the Michigan Canneries are getting about 720 tons of cherries from Oceana county district delivered by trucks to their three factories in Fennville, South Haven and Benton Harbor. While some thought that one and a half cents per pound was a low price for sour cherries, their returns from city sales often run even less, when packages and shipping expenses are deducted. A small but very fine crop of sweet cherries, mostly Windors, is now being harvested and find a ready market among the roadside stands on US-31 at about $1.75 per sixteen-quart crate.

The benefits of the rearing ponds for game fish on Mark Ritchie's land near Gun lake are now being realized by fishermen. It is conceded by those who fished on Gun lake on the opening day this year that it was better than it had been for many a year. Several parties caught their limit. Each year several thousand bass, perch and blue gills are raised to fingerling size, then put into the waters of Gun lake. The state co-operates by fishing the fish fry for this purpose. The state also co-operates in arranging for the spearing of noxious fish by its own representatives in the waters of that lake. We have mentioned several times that number of carp, dogfish and bluegills speared by the deputy game warden in Gun lake this year. If this good work shall continue in a few years Gun lake will be plentifully supplied with game fish. — Hastings Banner.

State Highway Commissioner Grover C. Dillman sent a representative here to confer with Mrs. Frank Comstock, president of Columbine Garden club, Saugatuck, concerning the project started by this club to plant flowers along US-31 between here and South Haven. The state has pledged co-operation. The state representative will meet with the garden club Monday with suggestions as to the best flowers to plant. Ganges and South Haven clubs will be co-workers.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Heuer have moved into the Nellie Naughtin house on Holland street.

Word was received in Ganges and community last week of the recent death of John A. Hoy, Sr., 80, who died in Tampa, Fla. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Alvina Hoy, two sons, George L. and John A. of Douglas, a daughter, Mrs. C. E. Golding of Tampa, and seven grandchildren. Mr. Hoy was born in Douglas and lived there most of his life.

Some of the county papers intimate costs are being piled up against taxpayers of the county in the dam case suits. This is an entirely erroneous intimation, as all court costs including the jurors as well as the witnesses are paid by the city. So far as the judge and court stenographer are concerned they receive their salaries regardless of whether these cases were heard, although the city pays the per diem to the stenographer same as is done in all cases. — Allegan Gazette.

J. Glen Black, who broke his leg last week at the Summer School of Painting grounds, left Saugatuck hospital Monday and is back at Big Oak cottage and with the aid of crutches and wheel chair has been able to begin direction on the next series of plays at Idler's Rest. The crowds are increasing and Mr. Black thinks before the season is over they will be playing to capacity houses.

Paul Newnam of Saugatuck won the second prize in the Holland area of the recent I. G. A. label contest and thus received $50 in gold. Robert Naughtin, Robert Olsen and Donald Bryan also were winners and each received $5 in gold.

Many clumps of old-fashioned hollyhocks are being greatly admired in the village of Fennville just now. The ease and small expense of getting these flowers started and their stately beauty ought to cause more to grow them as a background to their gardens or to hide unsightly buildings. If our people would adopt the hollyhock as our local flower, Fennville would soon be known for an annual display of great glory. Others can have their tulips and irises, but give us this old-fashioned but ever stately flower.

A special feature to be staged at the eightieth annual Allegan County Agricultural society fair Aug. 30 to Sept. 2 will be a beauty contest, in charge of Mrs. R. H. Pitcher. The contest will be open to all girls in the county between the ages of 15 and 25. There will be cash prizes of $50, $25, $15 and $10. A silver loving cup will go to the winner of the $50 prize. All contestants must be single.

The girls and boys who were selected as champions in 4-H Club work for Allegan county, were taken to East Lansing on Monday by Mr. Moreland; they will return Friday afternoon.

John Henry, 50, Kalamazoo, arrested at Plainwell Thursday by Undersheriff Charles Hitchcock on the charge of driving his car while drunk was arraigned before Justice Fiske E. Fish. Allegan, pleaded guilty and was fined $99.35. He didn't pay and was remanded to jail.

Nominating petitions have appeared in Fennville and other places in this vicinity for John C. Ketcham for congressman. Mr. Ketcham is serving his sixth term in the house of representatives from the fourth district.

Wants Welfare To Get Benefit Of Salary Cuts

JUDGE OF PROBATE SUGGESTS THAT IN COMMUNICATION TO BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

At their session last January the Ottawa county board of supervisors made the suggestion that county officers take a cut in their salaries, in an effort to reduce expenses of the county government. The first suggested cut amounted to 10 per cent. At their meeting in June a further cut was suggested bringing the reduction in salary to 20 per cent.

Because the salaries of county officers cannot be raised or reduced during their terms of office the reduction of salary had to be something of a voluntary act on the part of the officers. Ottawa officers agreed, however, and refunded the amount of the cut to the county treasurer.

James J. Danhof, judge of probate, has directed a communication to the board of supervisors to be presented at the October session, in which he suggests that the money refunded from their salaries by the county officers be not placed in the fund used for general expenses, but be devoted strictly to the purpose of welfare and assistance to the needy.

His communication which follows, is self-explanatory: To the Hon. Board of Supervisors for Ottawa county, Mich. Gentlemen:

On account of the general depression and men out of work you recommended last January that the county officials of Ottawa county take a cut of 10 per cent of their salaries. I among them agreed to take the cut. Thus far I have paid into the county treasurer's office $30.00 per month from January 1, 1932, to June 30, 1932, a total of $180. Last June again you asked the county officials to take a 20 per cent cut beginning July 1, 1932. To this I agreed and will pay for the ensuing six months at the rate of $60 per month or a total of $360. Last February it became necessary to make a change in our clerical force, thereby saving the taxpayers the sum of $600 per year.

Personally I should like to see what money we refund, as far as the probate court is concerned, used for welfare work exclusively for those in need, and not for general purposes. I believe that the public would heartily approve such action by your honorable body and I therefore, recommend that such action be taken by you at your next session.

Respectfully, JAMES J. DANHOF, Judge of Probate.

WOMAN SAYS ALLEGAN SHERIFF DEFIED COURT IN RELEASING RELATIVE

A petition asking that Sheriff Guy Teed, sheriff of Allegan county, be required to show why he should not be cited for contempt has been filed in circuit court. Judge Fred T. Miles has it under advisement.

Mrs. Rose Ridgley, complainant, claims Teed has unlawfully allowed her late husband's brother, Walter Ridgley, to leave the jail. Judge Miles is petitioned to order Teed to explain why he released Ridgley in defiance of the court order that Ridgley be imprisoned until he paid a judgment of $7,140 awarded her in court, the judgment being affirmed by the supreme court. The money being held in a joint bank account of Mrs. Ridgley and her husband, disappeared after his death. The brother was ordered to return the money.

Recently a petition signed by many Cheshire township residents asking Ridgley's release, was submitted. The petition stated Ridgley's imprisonment was a burden on the taxpayers. No action came from the petition.

She is survived by two sons, Henry Beaverdam and John Ohlman of Grand Rapids; three daughters, Mrs. G. J. Veldman, Mrs. M. Dalman, and Mrs. William Rief, all of Holland.

BIG CONCRETE SHIPMENT BY GRAND HAVEN BOATS

Heavy shipments of cement are being sent from the Robbins docks warehouses, which are rapidly depleting the stock brought several weeks ago by boat from the eastern part of the state. Quantities of cement are being hauled by motor to Grand Rapids for use in the construction of the big auditorium there. Other big loads are being taken to the south end of the county where there is road construction near Holland.

It is expected another load of cement has arrived this week, which affords employment for Grand Haven men for several days.

Cement at the government piers is not purchased at Grand Haven, but comes through government orders from Oklahoma via the railroad and is hauled by motor scow to Grand Haven. Piers are now being re-constructed.

The construction of about 600 feet of new cement pier work on the north pier was completed early this week. The last piling was driven in last week and the forms rapidly filled with cement.

The new steel tower for the Coast Guard lookout has been put up and is now in readiness. Most of the steel for the tower has been held at the station at Grand Haven for about three years, awaiting the rebuilding of the pier. Gradually the old wooden piers are being replaced by concrete and there are only a few hundred feet remaining on the north pier and a small percentage at the south pier.

The Erutha Rebekah lodge will hold their regular meeting tonight Friday at 8 o'clock in the hall on Central avenue.

DRUNKEN DRIVING COSTLY FOR PAIR

Joe Manbeck, 25, of Rockford, allegedly drunk and disorderly, and Charles Embury, 26, Grand Rapids, charged with drunken driving, were arrested by Sheriff Guy Teed of Allegan, after their car had tipped over on U.S. 131 near Martin. The car was wrecked and Embury's left arm injured. Arraigned before Justice F. J. E. Fish Thursday both pleaded not guilty, but in the afternoon they changed their pleas to guilty. Manbeck was given a fine and costs of $17.80 or 20 days in jail and Embury a fine and costs of $54.80 or 40 days in jail. Bonds were placed at $200 and $400 each, but not given. The car was owned by Manbeck.

Of special interest to the children will be the baby animals born in captivity. There are baby elephants, baby lions, tigers, leopards, camels and zebras. There will also be plenty of monkeys.

Among the circus performers are some of the most celebrated riders, aerialists and acrobats and stunt performers in the show business.

Remember, Thursday, July 28, is circus day at Grand Rapids.

TWO OTHER YOUTHS FINED IN RESORT GAS RACKET

Two more youths of Grand Haven involved in the gasoline racket recently uncovered have paid fines and costs. Investigation is being continued, several Grand Haven boys being questioned. They were released, but Chief De Witt said they were still under suspicion and would be held if any discrepancies were found in their stories.

Vernon King, 19, admitted taking between 30 and 40 gallons of gasoline and was fined $10.13. This is his second offense. He has just completed his probation period for the first offense. Robert O. Gallagher, 19, was fined $3 and costs, confessing to syphoning gas out of cars.

NATIONAL GUARDS RETURN FROM CAMP GRAYLING

Members of company D, Michigan national guards, returned to Holland Wednesday morning after two weeks of field training at Camp Grayling.

Company D lost the kitchen trophy it won last year. The award went to company C of Kalamazoo, which scored only one point above the rating for the Holland unit.

Private John Kolan, who underwent an operation for removal of appendix at the camp July 9, was unable to return with his company. It is expected he will be brought here Saturday.

COUNTY SEAT SHOEMAKER TAKEN IN FOR $800

Two strangers went into the little shoe repair shop run by Matt Haartman at Grand Haven and fled him out of his savings, amounting to $800.

The men went to Haartman representing a scheme whereby cash could be lent at high rates of interest. They induced him to get his savings and put them in a strong box they were carrying, telling him they had an equal amount in it. They left the box with him as evidence of good faith and took the key with them, promising to return and start in the money lending business.

This morning Haartman, becoming suspicious of the men, pried open the box and found only a roll of newspapers in place of the money he had put in.

Police were notified. The only clues are detailed descriptions of the men.

JUDGE MILES SENTENCES BOOTLEGGER KING TO PRISON QUICKLY

Lou Morgan, self-styled "King of the Bootleggers," whose wife, Lucille, is a candidate for sheriff of Allegan county, pleaded his own case before a jury in circuit court here today—and lost.

The jury went out a little after 5:30 o'clock and returned a verdict of guilty on a liquor law violation charge shortly before 6 o'clock, being out not more than 20 minutes.

Sentence was pronounced at once by Circuit Judge Fred T. Miles—two to six years in Jackson prison. Conducting his own defense, "King" Morgan declared that his arrest on a liquor law violation charge was a trumped-up affair to discredit his wife's campaign for sheriff. On the stand he said he told his wife when she started to circulate petitions that his home would be raided within a week. And on the seventh day officers raided his home and placed him under arrest, just as he had prophesied.

Morgan denied having written a series of threatening letters to Sheriff Ted and Prosecutor Harry Pell. The letters, he said, were brought out to shoot the sheriff.

DEMOCRATS FILING PETITIONS IN THIS COUNTY

Marvin W. Turner of this city filed his petition for state representative on the Democratic ticket at the county clerk's office at noon today.

John Hanrahan, candidate for register of deeds on the Democratic ticket, also filed at the clerk's office. This is the first time he has ever sought public office. He was formerly with the Lorraine Manufacturing company of this city. He is being opposed for the nomination by Anton Seif of Holland who has filed.

Mr. Turner has recently come into local politics. He was a delegate to the state convention this spring. For many years he lived in Colorado, but for the past several years has been living with his father, George D. Turner, a lifelong Republican—Grand Haven Tribune.

HENRY J. LOCKE FILES PETITION FOR DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR CLERK

Henry J. Locke has filed his petition as a candidate for county clerk on the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Locke announced his candidacy last March. He is a local man, a son of the late Chris Locke, well known milk dealer. He is an ex-service man, having served with the 261st aero squadron and still holds a lieutenant's commission in the reserve corps. He has also held several offices in the local post of the American Legion and is now a member of the Ottawa county council.

Neal Jacobson, 27, Holland, and Edna DeWerd, 19, Holland, have applied for a marriage license at the county clerk's office.

BANTAM ROOSTER PLUS A RING-NECK PHEASANT

A cross between a bantam rooster and a ring-neck pheasant recently achieved at the Game Conservation Institute, Clinton, N. J. is said to have resulted in a bird larger than a normal pheasant, with colorations and feathering resembling both species, but possessing all other natural characteristics of the pheasant. Scientists of the University of Pennsylvania have expressed a desire to make a study of this hybrid game bird.

Blasting the Grand Haven Pier

The heavy sound of blasting in the vicinity of the south Grand Haven pier comes from blasting out the concrete block at the end of the pier, which was damaged several years ago when struck by a boat coming into the harbor in a severe storm.

Divers are being employed by the government to locate the explosive.

MAN PUTS PEPPERS IN HIS WIFE'S BED

Strange Chicago incidents: When the thermometer reached its peak during the present hot wave Joseph Wierschowski put red peppers in his wife's bed, she testified in court. Joseph hopes for cooler weather while he works out a $25 fine.

William Southland, perspiring and staggering, was officially escorted to the nearest police station where officers reasoned with him about wearing three suits and an overcoat.

Joseph Cuttano stopped at a busy intersection, leisurely doffed his clothing, turned on a hydrant and reclined in the rush of water. Police arrested him—traffic went on.

DOG MOTHERS A LION CUBS, CAT ADDS PUPS TO BROOD AT GETZ ZOO

A dog is mothering four lion cubs and a cat is caring for several puppies and her own kittens at Getz zoo as the result of the refusal of a lioness to nurse her offspring, born Sunday night.

The lioness is the same which gave birth to the much discussed El-Ri. At that time the cub was taken to the Chicago hospital for attention. This time park attendants decided to start a complicated chain of exchanges and still try to satisfy everyone. A dog, which a few days before had given birth to seven puppies, was obtained from a Coopersville kennel, and the cubs were given to the dog. The problem of what to do with the pups was finally solved by an obliging mother cat who consented to add the young dogs to her own family.

DIARRHEA AND ENTERITIS CAUSE MORE DEATHS

Dr. R. Ten Have, Ottawa county health commissioner, writes that diarrhea and enteritis in children under two years of age causes more deaths in this group than any other single factor. In Michigan these summer complaints have for the years 1928, 1929, 1930 caused more than four times the deaths of measles, tuberculosis, whooping cough, scarlet fever, or diphtheria. The most effective means of prevention is by use of pure food, fresh air, cleanliness and proper care. There has been a marked reduction through better care of foods, especially milk. Heat as in summer is one of the most important factors causing summer complaints. It favors growth of germs in foods. It lowers the resistance to infection in the child, causing him to be less able to digest his food. This being the case, being careful not to overfeed, feeding a well-balanced diet of foods properly kept away from flies and as cool as possible, assisting the child by bathing, proper clothing and by any other means to combat excessive heat, will assist greatly in causing a decrease in the diarrhea and enteritis death rate.

During the past six months there has been one of the most severe epidemics of measles on record. The number of cases is now rapidly declining. Up to the present there have been 37,440 cases reported in the state and 1,039 in our own county. Because of the extreme contagion in the early stages of measles before the eruption appears it is very difficult to prevent its spread. It cannot be predicted that infantile paralysis will be less prevalent than last year. It is not expected that there will be such a large number of cases. The season is here when it may be expected to recur. Serum for treatment of infantile paralysis is available should cases occur.

DEADLINE EXTENDED BY LIGHT, POWER DEPTS.

Grand Haven Tribune: Due to the new rates which are being put into effect by the light and power departments of Grand Haven the monthly bills have been more difficult to get out and will be received a little later. Due to this fact the board of public works will extend the date from July 20 to 25 as the deadline for the discount.

Mr. Badon could give no figures as to what the reduction in light rates would mean to the local consumers during this first month. The rates went into effect June 1.

BOBOLINK BECOMES DIS- LIKED IN SOUTH

Although the bobolink is considered one of Michigan's most beautiful and beneficial birds during its summer residence here, its reputation suffers when it travels southward early in September. In South Carolina, Georgia and along the Gulf coast it is known as the rice bird because it joins with several species of blackbirds to plunder the rice fields in those areas. The damage done to the ripening grain by these birds is said to be considerable.

STATE SPENDS $1,000 IN RE- MOVING SAND FROM HOL- LAND AND GRAND HAVEN

The winds that blew across Lake Michigan last winter cost the parks division of the department of conservation a thousand dollars.

Five thousand cubic yards of sand have been removed from the concrete parking places at the Grand Haven and the Holland state parks, all of the sand having been blown over the concrete since the parks closed last fall. In places ten feet of sand had accumulated during the winter months and it was necessary to employ steam shovels to remove it.

Both the parks are located among some of Michigan's best known wandering sand dunes.

TWO MORE CANDIDATES

Announcements are made of two more candidates for positions on the Republican county ticket in Allegan County. They are Charles Hitchcock for sheriff and Harry Pell for prosecuting attorney. Mr. Hitchcock is now serving as undersheriff and Mr. Pell is serving his third term as prosecuting attorney.

The "Older Generation"

Zeeland Record: One begins to wonder sometimes whether the young people were ever anything but more or less bad. We are often told that the young folks of today are worse than any who have preceded them, but here is something that was said about the very people who now accuse the young folks, by one of Zeeland's mayors, away back in 1896.

He was addressing the city council at the time of his retirement from office, and after mentioning the things which had been accomplished during his term of office, gave this thrust to the younger generation: "That we should have so many rowdies who make night hideous and violate law, every one of whom is a member of some church, is a shame for the village and for their Christian parentage, but can reasonably be expected in a community where about one-half of the electorate will vote for an open saloon."

Nelson Nye paid a fine of $50 and Jay Crow was sentenced to 60 days in the Branch county jail when the two men were convicted of using nets illegally in Coldwater lake. The men were convicted after appealing their cases to the circuit court. A gill net was confiscated by conservation officers.

JOTS OF SPORTS— PAST AND FUTURE

The Grand Haven All Stars downed Phillips "66" of this city Saturday afternoon at Riverview park, 7 to 5, in 11 innings. Wynand Vandenberg, who came up from the junior league this season, pitched all the way for the Oils. A freak play in which Bill Vandenberg was knocked unconscious while running the bases robbed the locals of victory.

The July handicap tournament is in progress at the Holland Country club. In the opening rounds the club champion, Edgar Landwehr, and Joe Kramer, a finalist in the June event, were both eliminated.

The Woldring Plumbers have taken a secure hold on first place in the junior league with a record of six victories and one defeat. The North End Giants and Washington Square have been giving the Plumbers a hard run for honors.

The Len Transfer team of the indoor league has won nine straight ball games after losing the first two, and are in the lead in the playground ball league. The Washington Square Merchants and Kerr Spring Air follow closely.

Will Protect Michigan Song Birds Better

Small Boys Seem to Be Nest Robbers and Killers

An attempt to halt an apparent increase in the killing of song birds will be made by the Michigan Conservation Department, according to instructions given all conservation officers.

Officers, including our own Maurice Kuite, are being asked to give as much attention as possible to stopping the destruction of song birds, and the public is being urged by the Department to assist in the campaign by reporting to the nearest officer all violations.

Most of the depredations against song birds, the destruction of nests and eggs and the killing of the birds, are done by small boys and better results can probably be obtained by the parents than by the officers, according to the Department. However, officers are being instructed that when necessary, to take the boys into juvenile court and to confiscate the weapons used.

Numerous complaints of violations of the law protecting song birds have been received recently by the Department and in each instance the Department has requested that the information be given to the local conservation officer.

Michigan law protects song birds at all times of the year and imposes a minimum penalty of a $100 fine and 90 days in jail. The only birds which may be killed at any time of the year are sparrows, starlings, blackbirds, crows, hawks and owls. All game birds are protected except during the open seasons and song birds are protected the twelve months of the year.

It can be truthfully said of Holland that the killing of song birds is not a habit with small boys here. Not in years have we heard of any man or boy willfully destroying birds' nests or bird life.

Noted at the City League Games at Riverview Park:

BASEBALL DURING PAST WEEK IN A NUTSHELL

League Standings

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Holland Boosters.....	2	0	1.000
Mosser Leathers.....	1	1	.500
Phillips "66".....	1	1	.500
Pure Oils.....	1	1	.500
Dutch Boy.....	0	2	.000
Gulf Gas.....	0	2	.000

Close games have featured the City league fight, which is being shown in the early stages of the second half of the split season. In the most brilliant encounter of the entire season at Riverview park, the Mosser Leathers downed the Phillips team Monday evening, 1 to 0.

In the Mosser-Phillips battle, Larry Hyma and Marinar Brandt were locked in a great pitchers' battle. Hyma allowed 3 hits and fanned 14, while Brandt of the Oils gave up 4 hits and struck out 10. The Mossers scored the lone tally of the game in the sixth inning as the result of the lone Phillips error and a hit by Dick Japings.

The Boosters have advanced to the top position in the standings. The Boosters downed their nemesis, the Pure Oils, Saturday by a 7-to-2 count.

Schedule of the Coming Week

Friday—Boosters vs. Gulf Gas.
Saturday—Phillips vs. Pure Oils; Boosters vs. Grand Rapids Fox Jewellers.

Monday—Pure Oils vs. Mossers.
Tuesday—Phillips vs. Boosters.
Wednesday—Dutch Boys vs. Gulf Gas.

Thursday—Boosters vs. Mossers.

A team of veteran ball players, under the banner of the Fox Jewellers of Grand Rapids, will oppose the Holland Boosters Saturday at Riverview park in the feature game of a doubleheader. The game will be played at 3 o'clock and the preliminary battle between the Phillips and Pure Oils will begin at 1 o'clock.

The Fox Jewellers have made a great record in baseball this season. The Jewellers lost a close 2-to-0 decision to the Fines Oils a week ago, and have taken a reprieve from the Blitz Barbeques and Kiordan Drugs.

Along with the veterans will be Frank Cook, former all-state football star from Union High school, who is under contract with the Cleveland Indians. Butch Dideon, another well known pitcher, will also be here.

The visiting line-up will include such players as Orloski, the best catcher in the Red Triangle league; Lux, formerly a pitcher in the Piedmont league; Gray, who won the championship for New York university, and others.

The infield will be composed of Van Linden at first; Machree at second, Van Portfield at short and Westveld at third. Bozek, Schipper and Kelly will be in the outfield.

The Boosters will have full strength in the field and will attempt to maintain their strong record against outside opposition. Lefty Sakkers or Ed Walters will do the pitching. Carl Van Lente will probably play first base in the absence of Waddy Spaulster.

Both games will be offered for 25c admission.

Fishing Laws Queer Tangle In Some States

A strange assortment of state fishing laws have been revealed through a national survey of fish and game laws made by the Federal Bureau of Fisheries. For instance, in Maryland, the residents of the state can fish on Sundays but outsiders must not, while West Virginia does not allow aliens to cast a line in state waters at any time, and Pennsylvania does not allow Sunday fishing at all. In Oklahoma the use of artificial bait with more than 15 hooks is prohibited.

Perhaps Idaho has one of the most unique fishing laws of all. In that state it is unlawful for an angler to fish while sitting astride a horse, cow or other animal.

ple and his houses. Now the question arises: Did the King put one over on Hiram, or should the latter have investigated the real estate, rather than find he got perhaps Florida Everglades or something similar? Kings I, chapter 9, verse 13: "And he said, what cities are these that thou hast given me, my brother?"

Like at that time conditions are often now. History repeats itself. What is now was before. Nothing new under the sun.

A Greek church was pointed out to us, built over the tomb of Dorcas, a Christian woman who did much for the poor. Acts 9, verse 36: "Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas." This woman was full of good works and alms, deeds which she did. Here Dorcas died and was brought to life again by Peter. Many sewing circles and similar societies for the poor today are named after her. Acts 9, verse 39: "Showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made."

Jonah embarked here in a ship to go to Tarshish. The story of the big fish that God prepared for to swallow Jonah, had it's setting here. We did not see any whales, however, we were on the lookout. I did see a school of them later, about two days from Boston. There were perhaps fifty of them all around us. It was amusing to note how everybody was thinking about Jonah and the big fish at the time, and then hear them discussing pro and con as to the possibility of such an incident. Some believed it not, others said if the Bible stated that Jonah swallowed the whale they would believe that, too.

Ecclesiastes 11, verse 5: "As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all."

The fact that we cannot understand this is no argument against it. Are there not many truths of the Bible that no man learned or dumb can comprehend? Who can explain the mystery of creation, divine Providence, the miracles of Jesus, the Resurrection and the Ascension? What great truths are there in the Bible that are as clear to us as crystal?

Of all the miraculous things that God has done why could He not prepare a big fish for Jonah for three days? Maybe Jonah should have given us some light on this subject, but maybe it's best as it is. We do not have to know everything. Ask yourself, how does your eye see, your nose smell, ears hear? You wind your clock at night, but who winds your heart? We know it works, but how we shall never understand, so why quibble about Jonah and the fish? The Bible tells us so and that Book does not lie. It is the best Book in all the world to follow.

The League of Service of the First Reformed church, at the weekly meeting last week, Tuesday evening held at Tennessee beach, heard Miss Marie VanVuren and Miss Berdine Vinkmuller, missionaries among the Indians at Dulce, N. Mex. The two missionaries told of their work and entertained the group with singing several Indian songs.

A pot-luck supper in charge of Miss Anna Luldens was served to the twenty-five in attendance. Miss Jeanette Hoffman, vice president of the society, was in charge of the meeting.

Tyre. 11 Chronicles 16: "And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need; and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to Joppa, and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem." Verse 11: "Now, Hiram, the king of Tyre, had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees and with gold, according to all his desire and then King Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee."

By the way, if the lay of the land in that Galilean region was then as it is today, I can justify Hiram in his grievance.

I Kings 9, verse 12: "And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they pleased him not."

Now this was part of the pay Hiram received for the fulfilling of the big 20-year contract he had with Solomon for building the tem-

WEST OLIVE

Henry Knuth, West Olive, aged 18 years, died at Hutton hospital at Grand Haven Thursday at 3:45 p. m. following an emergency operation for appendicitis several days ago. His condition was considered critical from the first. He had been employed as a chef at the Hotel William Ferry since last September. He was born in West Olive and was well known in this vicinity having recently organized the Young People's association. He was born there Oct. 8, 1913, a son of Mr. and Mrs. August Knuth, who survive. He leaves also two sisters, Marie Knuth, Mrs. Owen Engler; two brothers, August, Jr., and Albert, all of West Olive. Funeral services were held on Sunday at 1:30 p. m. from the home and at 2 p. m. at the church of West Olive. Rev. Grant L. Jordan officiated and burial was in Grand Haven township cemetery. The body was held at Van Zantwick Funeral home and was brought to West Olive on Saturday.

"Billy, the Frog Man"

Michigan shuckers, down on their luck and with nothing to do in summer but fish for food, may be interested in the activities of William Huttler, of Amery, Wis., who is known as the "frog man." He supplies nearby fishermen with bait and metropolitan eating houses with frog legs, and his equipment consists merely of a butterfly net. With this odd weapon he takes a train some nine miles up the line from Amery and walks the tracks back, snaring frogs right and left by the marshy right of way. An expert trapper, Huttler nets a good number of gophers, rattlesnakes and other pests, often being commissioned by farmers to rid their places of these vermin. The state also pays a bounty on certain of these creatures.

McKinley and "Sound Money"

It was the martyr President William McKinley, who made the term "sound money" famous.

The late McKinley was a firm believer in banks and even while president of this nation advised his friends and especially young folks to bank their savings—preparing for opportunity or safe-guarding against adversity.

Savings means independence. Savings means thrift. Thrift means something laid up for a "rainy day."

Nature Always Fair

How just is Nature in distributing her gifts. As a tribute to the true blondes and the Titian blondes, she is greedy in the coloring plants, for eyelashes and eyebrows. With the stirring, vivacious beauty of the Black-eyed-Susan type, she mingled a nice brownish skin, none too delicate perhaps, but which is far more resistant to sun and wind than that of the fairlike blondes. To the face that is not perfect in any sense, she adds the body silhouette of a beautiful dandy. In each case, there is sure to be one feature, fact or figure that is nearly beautiful—the Dance Magazine.

"Fishing" With Stones

What was the very first missile employed by primitive man? It is stated that the Eskimos, Egyptians and the Chinese were the first placers, and they used spears centuries before the introduction of the net; but the mention of spears does not suggest an ancient date, whereas "stoning," which does not seem to be mentioned anywhere, would appear to be the handiest and most natural implement that primitive man would seize and use for his immediate purpose.

This method, strangely enough, is in common use today in some parts of India, particularly in the North-west province, where the busy Pathan awaits by a river's brink, with stone in uplifted hand, to squash the heads of passing fish!

Insect Hunters

Giant hunting grasshoppers nearly five inches long, that prey on small animals such as mice and young of ground-sucking birds, are found in the Congo.

They rival the kangaroo as jumpers and can leap a considerable distance on to their prey. The hunting grasshopper is not so great a leaper in proportion to its size as the king grasshopper, the young of which, even before its wings are developed, can jump a hundred times its own length. Very few men can cover more than twice their own length in a jump.

The hunting grasshopper is the largest of all grasshoppers. Its great front lip-bites for jaws as effective as a hay-chopper, and its appetite makes it a plague to mankind.

Contempt of Court

Motorists cannot be too careful in dealing with country magistrates when they get into trouble, as young Mr. Newall of Cambridge, Mass., discovered up in New Hampshire.

"The way of the transgressor is hard," opined the judge, as he extracted a fine of $15 from the youth for oversteering.

"Well, anyway, you have the rotten roads around here that I have ever seen," returned Newall. "Ten dollars extra for contempt of court," demanded the justice.

"But I haven't said anything about you, judge," protested the culprit.

"Oh, yes, ye hev! I'm road commissioner here as well as justice of the peace."

First Maple Syrup

Maple sugar making is an ancient art entirely confined to the North American continent. Before the advent of the white man, the Indian had learned to extract and concentrate the sap of the maple tree. On the approach of spring the trees were gashed with the tomahawk, and a wooden chip or tap inserted to direct the fluid drop from tap to receptacle on the ground. The sap was caught in a birch bark dish and boiled in earthen kettles. The small quantity of dark, thick syrup thus made was the only sugar available to the Indians and is stated by early writers to have been highly prized.

OTTAWA COUNTY FARM PROBLEMS

GRASSHOPPERS FIRST

C. P. Milham, Ottawa county agricultural agent, writes the farmer, telling them to look out for grasshoppers in sandy soil area where waste land is abundant. To kill grasshoppers the following formula is effective. Mix thoroughly:

- 1 bushel of bran.
- 1-2 gallon cheap molasses.
- 1 gallon of water.
- 1 pound of Paris Green or white arsenic (not arsenate of lead or arsenate calcium).
- 1 pound of common salt.

When thoroughly mixed add 2 ounces of any acetate or banana oil. Spread in the middle of the day in strips so one bushel of material covers an acre.

Fire blight causes apple and pear leaves, especially on tender new shoots, to turn brown and cling to the limb. Remove and burn infected water sprouts and limbs far below infected area to be safe.

All corn growers, including pop, sweet and field corn, should field select seed this year from healthy stalks in order to reduce loss next year from the fungus diseases that have ruined many sweet and pop corn fields this year. The particular fungus troubling Ottawa's sweet corn growers causes roots to rot showing reddish purpling of the roots. The crown rots off leaving a rotting brown mass in the crown and central part of the stock and a discoloration of the nodes up to and sometimes including the tassels. Maggots enter this rotting stalk which wills and dies. Ears showing discolored butts should be discarded.

GEORGE WANTS TO DO IT

George W. Welsh, city manager of Grand Rapids, addressing delegation who asked him to make the run for Republican nomination for Governor

The old saying, "Let George do it," can be inculcated in the next Michigan gubernatorial campaign, for, according to an announcement just made, "George" wants to do it.

George Welsh, city manager of Grand Rapids, has thrown his hat in the ring for the governorship of Michigan and in a three column article setting forth his platform gives his reasons for wanting to be at the head of state affairs. The high light in his announcement follows:

"With an alarmingly large percentage of our citizens unable to earn for themselves and their dependents the bare necessities of life forced to seek public or private charity; with the funds of private charitable agencies exhausted; with the treasuries of our municipalities being drained and their financial structures cracking, we cannot longer tolerate the indifferent attitude assumed by our present state government. We cannot accept the timid trimming of governmental waste and expenditure for the drastic reduction and elimination that our plight requires. We cannot consider the personal political fortunes of individuals at the expense of the public good.

"Prohibition is both a governmental and an economic blunder that must be corrected by Repeal at the earliest possible moment.

"The major problem today, in my opinion, is the problem of maintaining and continuing the institution of orderly government. The power to tax is the power to destroy. The bankruptcy of the taxpayer means the inevitable bankruptcy of the commonwealth. If Michigan is to avert a total collapse of its financial structure in state, county, township, city and village; if the keystone of the arch—the taxpayer—is to be saved from loss of home or farm, there must be ruthless reduction in the tax load. Every non-essential service in every branch of government must be abolished; not altered or curtailed. Political expediency has no place in this economic war. Government must follow the same course that the private citizen and private business has been forced to follow—the course of liquidation. There can be no healthy start toward normalcy until this has been done.

"The tax load on the citizens of Michigan must be and can be reduced at least one-half. I am confident I can do this."

OUTLYING OIL STATION VISITED BY BURGLARS

The oil station belonging to Edward Engel at the junction of M-50 and US-31 near Grand Haven was broken into some time during the night and a quantity of cigarettes, candy and cigars was stolen. Entrance was made through a window. Footprints around the building are the only identification marks that were found. The owners found the stock rifled when they returned to work today and notified the sheriff's office.

12-YEAR-OLD GIRL IS SELECTED AS ONE OF BEST STYLE CHAMPIONS

Barbara Seibert, 12-year-old Allendale 4-H clothing club girl, was selected as one of the eight style champions from forty-one southern Michigan counties at the 4-H dress revue held in East Lansing during state club week. The types of dresses were grouped according to cotton school dresses, woolen outfits, sports and afternoon dresses. Barbara, wearing a two-piece cotton school dress and costing less than $1, was a first-year member of the Allendale clothing club under the leadership of Miss Julia Ten Brink, a former 4-H club girl.

Ottawa county 4-H clothing club judging contest will be held July 27 at the Allendale Town hall as arranged by Esther C. Lott, home demonstration agent. Miss Sylvia Wixson, state club leader, will be present to supervise the judging work. Club members will be required to judge several classes of fruits and vegetables in the contest and give the reasons for placing. Four girls will be selected to represent the county in the state canning judging contest to be held at East Lansing August 19 and 20.

At 4-H club week held at Michigan State college the announcement was made that W. Douglas Barnes of Coopersville was one of six boys in the state in handicraft work who had won an honorary scholarship worth $95 at the above institution. He has completed three years of 4-H handicraft work under the leadership of William Van Alsburg and Jerry Wierda. His work in the three years has been exceptionally good, according to C. P. Milham, agricultural agent, who stated he had won honors previously in the county and on his exhibits in the state fair. Leonard Weststrate from Coopersville was elected president of the state 4-H service club, an honorary group of leading 4-H club members. William Weststrate, his brother, was also honored with membership in this organization. Donald Burch, from Marne, was selected as toastmaster at the annual banquet of over 600 club members. Ottawa county boys took an active part in the athletic, social and business activities at the club camp.
