Echoes of yesteryear are being heard in Zeeland, where that Ottawa county community is observing its Centennial. This fine pair of horses draw an old coach in the parade. Children get a lot of amusement out of the coachmen, but older people smile gently, remembering when such sights were common.

Industry of Colonists

Zeeland, July 17 (Special) — Close to 3,000 persons crowded the school grounds Wednesday night for the first performance of the historical pageant "Lest We Forget," portraying the courage and industry of the Dutch colonists who settled Zeeland 100 years ago.

The pageant, a highlight of Zeeland's Centennial celebration, will be repeated tonight at 8:30 p.m.

The home of Janne Van der Luyster, wealthy farmer in Borsele, the Netherlands, was the setting of the first episode in which a group of men gathered to discuss religious freedom and

Charles H. McBride

Local Attorney Dies Suddenly In City Hospital

Charles H. McBride, 73, an attorney here since he was graduated from the University of Michigan law school, died unexpectedly at 9 a.m. today in Holland hospital where he had been taken Sunday morning. He became seriously ill Saturday noon.

He had become ill about a week ago but was able to visit his office Friday afternoon and note progress in the McBride building now being remodeled.

He was born in Lansing and moved to Holland while very young, possibly under five years. His father, Patrick Hamilton McBride, started law practice here and was joined by his son when the latter received his law degree. The younger McBride attended Holland schools, Hope Preparatory school, Olivet college and took pre-law training at the University of Michigan before entering law school. He received an A. B. degree from Olivet in 1894.

The firm started the McBride Insurance agency 69 years ago. This agency helped in a large measure to rebuild Holland following the big fire of 1871.

Always interested in civic and political projects, McBride gave unstintingly of his time in public service. He served as city attorney for 21 years. McBride also served two terms as a member of the state legislature in 1911-13 and was speaker pro tem of the House. He also was a member of the Republican State Central committee for 20 years.

He joined Hope church in 1890. He was a member of the Rotary club, the Century club of which he was at one time president; Sons of the Revolution of which he was former regent; the Knights of Pythias, the Ottawa County Bar association and the American Bar association. He became a member of Unity lodge 191, F. and A. M. in 1911.

He received an emeritus button in 1946 from the University of Michigan on the 50th year after his graduation.

Surviving are the wife, the former Emily Lovings of Grand Haven; three daughters, Maxine and Mrs. Donald J. Crawford of Holland and Mrs. Ray Davis of Pensacola, Fla.; a grandson, Chester McBride of Ann Arbor, and two granddaughters, Jill and Sharon Crawford of Holland; and a sister, Mrs. Leila Caldwell of Owasco. Another daughter, Mrs. Chester Boltwood of Grand Rapids, died in October, 1945. Mrs. McBride has been in ill health since 1945.

"A sturdy oak has fallen and left a lonesome place against the sky," the Rev. Marion de Velder said in a brief eulogy at simple but impressive funeral services in Hope church Wednesday afternoon for Charles H. McBride, 73-year-old lawyer who died Monday.

In likening McBride to a sturdy oak, Rev. de Velder chose for his text the third verse of Psalm 1: "And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water which bringeth forth fruit in due season; his leaf shall not wither and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

The minister called attention to Centennial year, and pointed out that the people who make up the community are more important than the Centennial. He referred to the Sentinel editorial Tuesday which called attention to McBride's honorable role as a good citizen.

"As a citizen, Mr. McBride watched the community grow and was one of the true builders of the community, serving as city attorney and state legislator. We cannot forget his distinguished appearance and his human friendly characteristics, that fact that he was always himself, helpful and loyal, humorous and refreshing, his impatience with pretense and sham, and his respect for truth," Rev. de Velder concluded.

Members of the Holland Chamber of Commerce are invited to the Grand Rapids Chamber's annual "Salute to West Michigan" which will be held Wednesday, Aug. 6, at Green Ridge Country club. The invitation came in a letter today to Secretary-Manager William H. Van der Water from Alex T. McFadyen, executive secretary of the Grand Rapids Chamber.

Petition Charges Wastes Polluting Lake Macatawa

Council Refers Matter
To City Inspector and County Authorities

Common Council at its regular meeting last night referred to City Inspector Ben Wiersma a communication signed by several dozen local persons and resorters complaining of impurities and industrial wastes in Lake Macatawa.

Wiersma was instructed to investigate and consult County Sanitarian John Wyma. The matter might involve calling in the State Stream Control commission, according to Wiersma, who said tests show the east end of the lake to be less polluted than the west end.

Wiersma said that wastes from the Doughnut Corp. and the Heinz Co. are harmless. He added that wastes from other factories are disposed of through the sewer system.

The petition cited that many tourists by-pass the lake because of poor fishing, which was blamed on pollution.

On condition that the $2,410 estimate become a bid, Council awarded a contract to Elzinga and Volkers to remodel Fire Engine house No. 2 on East 8th St. The brick pier in the center will be removed and a new brick veneer front plus new doors will be installed. Work will start as soon as possible.

Following a communication from the Chamber of Commerce, Council referred to the Ways and Means and Civic Improvements committees the question of replacing or repairing the Tower clock. The subject was discussed June 4.

City Clerk Clarence Greengard presented a copy from the Michigan State Tax commission addressed to County Clerk, William Wilds, acknowledging receipt of the appeal from the county equalization. City Attorney Peter S. Boer said he and two members of the county equalization committee went to Lansing July 8 and were assured of a complete state equalization report by Sept. 1.

Building Inspector George Zuverink's report covering construction for May and June listed 129 permits covering 39 remodelings, 22 new houses, six commercial improvements, 11 roofs, 10 new garages and one house moved.

Zuverink's fire inspection report listed 342 inspections for the two month period. The state fire marshal was called in to inspect some rooming houses. The repairs were made and the report was filed with the Safety commission.

The Civic Improvements committee reported that work is progressing in landscaping at the temporary housing project at Hope college. The subject was discussed two weeks ago.

A petition for storm sewers between 18th and 19th Sts. was referred to the City Engineer to be considered with other applications. It will be up to the City Engineer to decide which applications are most important. Application for water mains on Visser's Orchard division fronting on 28th St. was referred to the City Engineer and Board of Public Works for plans and estimates.

Complaints of a gaseous substance coming from sewers in the east part of the city will be investigated by the city engineer and the Sewer committee.

An application for license to sell soft drinks by Fendt Auto service at 344 West 16th St. was approved. Council also approved application by Mrs. John Antras to operate a restaurant at 196 River Ave., known as Mary Jane restaurant.

Council also approved application from L. J. Mannes to construct and repair sidewalks and a request from the Board of Public Works for $10,000 to cover estimated costs of a forced draft fan at the clerking station.

The clerk called the Council's attention to booklets listing city officers and boards prepared by his office at the request of the Ways and Means committee.

Claims and accounts amounted to $11,145.89. Other claims were: hospital board, $14,210.15; library, $365; park and cemetery, $2,927.39; BPW payroll $6,732.88; claims, $563,454.27. The huge amount represents sale and reinvestment of bonds. BPW collections for the two week period were listed at $435,643.96.

The City Treasurer reported miscellaneous collections of $14,853.22; school taxes, $37,183.03; city taxes, $32,379.39.

Ald. Anthony Nienhuis gave the invocation.

Peter H. Van Ark left today for Salt Lake City, Utah, as a delegate to the National Association of County Officials. He will attend the convention July 21-23 at the Newhouse hotel as a director of the state association of supervisors in Michigan. Before returning home he will visit his sisters and a brother in California and Oregon.

Mrs. Oscar Holkeboer, 93, Zeeland's oldest resident, cut the first piece of birthday cake at ceremonies following the historical parade which opened Zeeland's Centennial celebration Tuesday afternoon. Centennial Chairman, Cornelius Karsten led the huge crowd in singing "Happy Birthday."

Kuizenga Urges True Imitation of Early Dutch Habits

Zeeland, July 17 (Special) — "If you would imitate your ancestors, imitate their limitless enterprise, their industry, their sobriety and their piety, and apply these characteristics to present-day living," Dr. John E. Kuizenga of Princeton, N. J., and Central Park told more than 1,500 persons gathered in Lawrence St. park bowl Tuesday for an inspirational service in keeping with the city's Centennial celebration.

Dr. Kuizenga shared platform honors with Cornelius vander Meulen of Holland, a grandson of one of Zeeland's founders, who reviewed the past century and bade his audience to look forward to the next 100 years bearing in mind the characteristics of the forefathers which made Zeeland what it is today.

A brief shower midway in vander Meulen's address caused a switch in the program and Zeeland's Civic chorus, sitting in an unprotected area, assembled in the bowl and sang two anthems ending with Handel's mighty "Hallelujah Chorus." At the conclusion of the singing, the rain condensed and vander Meulen resumed his talk.

Speaking of Dutch enterprise, Dr. Kuizenga said the Dutch are conservative only in the sense that a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. He spoke of early Dutch history in which the Hollanders conquered the North Sea and the Zuider Zee and for many years had the freest country in all Europe, a refuge for the oppressed.

"Our forefathers who came here conquered the wilderness in one generation, and this great spirit of enterprise extends into the second and third generations," he said.

"The Dutch were industrious. They loved productive toil. They gave an honest day's work and left the world somewhat richer when they passed. They asked no old age pension or government stipend. They worked hard to own their own homes and farms.

"No nation ever spent itself in laziness and made itself rich, and unless we return to the industry of our fathers we can expect only collectivism and unless our land becomes productive again, America will lose her place in the world."

Dr. Kuizenga said sobriety did not mean undue solemnity which he stamped as only a caricature of the early leaders' virtues.

"They believed life is a trust of God and not to be frittered and thrown away. They knew the difference between right and wrong. While they made mistakes, these mistakes were not the vices usually associated with pioneering, such as drunkenness, gambling, lewd sexual habits or homicide. They built a community on moral grounds, were clean physically and thrifty."

The Ottawa blueberry tour postponed from July 17 to July 31 is attracting much attention, according to L. R. Arnold, county agricultural agent. Specialists from Michigan State college and experiment stations will be present to discuss problems.

The tour starts at the Paul Brower farm, south of West Olive. The tour will extend into Port Sheldon and Park townships.

According to Arnold, Ottawa county is to become a very important blueberry growing section. Interest in development of plantings is still high. Many growers are propagating plants again in 1947.

Those attending the tour will see cuttings in frames, one year plants in nurseries, small plants under cultivation and mature plants bearing fruit.

Citizens' Group Submits Report In Bohn Walkout

Mayor's Committee
Files Findings With
Union and Corporation

The citizens' committee, which early last week entered in the 103-day strike at Bohn Aluminum plant 11, today rested its case after submitting a three-point "minimum" report to leaders of management and union at a meeting at 10 a.m. today in the Warm Friend Tavern.

The report, signed by the Rev. Marion de Velder, Dr. Irwin J. Lubbers and Ald. John D. Bontekoe, read as follows:

1. Wages. We believe that the offer of wage increase and paid holidays made by the company and now in effect, represents a fair wage adjustment and that therefore this is not a justifiable cause for prolonging the strike.

2. Inequalities. We believe that inequalities and differences which exist can be negotiated between the company and the union.

3. Contract. We believe that contract terms can be negotiated and agreed to by collective bargaining between the company and the union.

In introducing the report, Rev. de Velder pointed out that the purpose of the citizens' committee was fact-finding rather than of actual mediation, although the committee did what could be done on the latter situation.

He said the investigation centered on five areas, three of which are listed in the report. The fourth area, he said, concerned back-to-work problems and the committee was unsuccessful in having the union agree to the company's offer of having employees return to work and then proceeding with collective bargaining "in good faith."

The fifth area, he said, was a method of settlement with the committee trying hard to get the two groups to agree, without results.

Dr. Lubbers, in amplifying the remarks, said the committee had been approached by many citizens of the area with varying information bordering on fact, exaggeration, rumor and authentic material. He said it is the urgent earnest request of the community that steps be taken immediately to settle the strike. "Furthermore, the community expects this earnest effort," he said in addressing both management and union.

Rev. de Velder indicated that the citizens' committee may reconsider the picture if the strike is not settled within a reasonable time and issue a detailed report on results of the fact-finding program.

Simon Den Uyl of Detroit secretary-treasurer of the Bohn Corp., indicated that management was willing to continue collective bargaining and state or federal conciliators would be welcome at the sessions, but the management would not favor turning settlement over to an arbitration committee.

Ora Fox of Muskegon, business agent for local 284, CIO-UAW, which takes in the Bohn unit, said the bargaining committee is "ready, willing, in fact anxious" for collective bargaining with the "sole intent of a speedy settlement for all issues in dispute which would be fair to the company, union and the employees."

Den Uyl pointed out further difficulties since Plant Manager C. C. Moffatt who was stricken at negotiations Monday, is in serious condition in Holland hospital, and will not be able to return to work for at least two months.

Union and management were attempting to arrange a date for new negotiations when the meeting adjourned after 45 minutes.

Swimming Banned At Allegan Camp

Allegan, July 17 — Swimming was banned as a result of further pollution tests on the west end of Lake Allegan for boys attending the five-week camp sponsored by Michigan United Conservation clubs.

The beach was reopened last week after being closed. Fresh samples taken then were approved by Harry R. Gaines, secretary of Michigan United Conservation clubs. Gaines said yesterday that all six samples taken by John M. Hepler, of the State Health department showed too much pollution to allow swimming.

Plans are under way to transport the boys to a lake seven miles away for swimming.

"Allegan lake is polluted by the Kalamazoo river which enters the east end four miles from the camp, according to Gaines.

Ottawa county reports 100 cases since Jan. 1. The number is not alarmingly high but above normal considering that the disease can be controlled, said Dr. Barrett.

The Van Dam family reunion which was to be held Tuesday has been indefinitely postponed because of illness and death in the family.

Torrid Temperatures Stay Even After Rain

Yesterday's deluge left only a hot, humid 83 degrees this morning and the Weather bureau official stopped mopping his brow only long enough to predict more rain for tonight or Friday. The downpour didn't even cool the water, as Lake Michigan temperature, according to park officials, remained at the same 68 it's been for several days.

The predicted thundershowers, says the weatherman, will probably leave different results tomorrow when the mercury will sink at least a little. Old Sol has been shy so far this week, and would-be sunbathers remain bitter.

Ah-choo victims are still amazed at the zero pollen count all over Michigan. Some of them are catching colds—just to feel at home in Michigan's unusual summer situation. Seems the only people unhappy about the affair are the hanky salesmen.

Holland Living Beats Standards Of Other Towns

New York, July 17 (Special) — A higher standard of living and a stronger consumers market prevail in Holland than in most communities in the United States, according to Sales Management's 1947 survey of buying power, covering all cities of 10,000 population and over.

With retail sales of $17,568,000 in 1946, a large increase from the $13,335,000 of the previous year, the city did .018 per cent of the nation's business with but .011 per cent of the population of the nation. It also was ahead on a statewide basis, accounting for 40 per cent of Michigan's retail business with only .26 per cent of the state population.

How well the average Holland family fared is shown by its effective buying power, which amounted after tax deductions, to $3,817 in spendable money, compared with the national average of $3,640.

The survey stamps the city a richer market by assigning it a "quality of market index" of 118, meaning that its purchasing power is 18 per cent above that of the average community, regardless of size.

Generally speaking, 1946 income in the United States remained at about the 1945 level. Sales rose considerably but much of the money came from previously accumulated savings. Last year's savings, $15.8 billions, were the lowest since 1941.

Moody except for softball, baseball and tennis which will continue for about four weeks longer. The season this year was somewhat shortened, Mr. Moody said, because of daily vacation Bible schools in several churches which delayed opening of play centers. The recreation commission plans to increase the winter program.

Church of England Authorizes New Bible Translation

Revision to Be First Official Change Since King James' Version

London, July 17.—A new translation of the Bible into modern, idiomatic English has been authorized by the upper house convocation of the Church of England, consisting of 21 bishops under the archbishop of Canterbury. Six translators, three for the Old Testament, two for the New, and one for those books regarded by the Church of England as apocryphal, will prepare the new version. They will have a master of English prose to assist them.

This will be the first translation to be officially prepared by the established Church of England since the famous King James II's "authorized" version of 1611. The "revised" version of 1885 was produced by a Convocation of Canterbury, but this was not an entirely fresh translation from source to vernacular.

Predecessors of the authorized version were: John Wycliffe's Bible of 1380, translated from the Latin. This was the first complete Bible in the English tongue, there being nothing before it but the metrical translations of parts of the book by King Alfred in Anglo-Saxon. Tyndale's New Testament was published in 1526. But the first complete Bible to be printed in English was that of Miles Coverdale of 1535.

The Roman Catholics of Britain have had in their hands for 18 months a new translation of the New Testament from the Vulgate by Msgr. R. A. Knox. No such work has appeared since the Rheims version of 1582, although there have been revisions of this, notably that of Bishop Challoner. The Knox version has received the official recognition of the Roman Catholic hierarchy of England and Wales, although it does not displace the Rheims version.

Nutrition Survey Studied by Group

Grand Haven, July 17 (Special).—A distinguished group met with Dr. H. Dale Barrett last week to discuss public health service in relation to the survey being made by the Nutritional unit which was started in Grand Haven last year.

These representatives will follow through with results found in the study to help the people toward better standards of health. They came from the Michigan Department of Health at the invitation of Dr. Barrett. The group is interested in foods and feeding more than in vitamins and proteins.

Dr. E. F. Chou, one of the representatives, comes from the plains district of Northern China and says that in that part of China they use most of the soybean products which are the main source of protein. He said nutrition deficiency in practically all parts of China is due to lack of education. He will return to China and introduce the matter of health education in respect to foods and maternal health in general.

The delegation includes Mrs. Alice Smith, supervisor of the division of nutrition, Michigan Department of Health, Lansing; Miss Helen Walsh, nutrition consultant of the U.S. Public Health service; Dr. James Beesley, state consultant of pediatrics; Dr. Chou of Nanking, China, director of the maternity center there, who came to this country 10 months ago and took a post-graduate course in public health at Harvard university. He is now visiting health programs in operation in Michigan.

Dr. Margaret Ohlson, head of the department of foods and nutrition at Michigan State college; Lucille Corcoran, with the U.S. Public Health service; Bernice Anderson, nutritionist with the U.S. Public Health service; Marjorie Abel, chief of the division of nutrition, department of health from the territory of Hawaii, where she was born.

The old De Krul Wagon factory in Zeeland (top) stood where the Sligh-Lowry factory now stands.

The South Bend Pump building at the right was also part of the wagon factory and occupied a site where the Ver Hage mill is now located. Bottom picture shows a clothing store once operated by Peter Brusse and a shoe store next door operated by John Bouwens and his son, Henry. This location is now the site of Zeeland State bank.

Zeeland's Hundred Years Reveal Interesting Data

Zeeland, July 11 (Special).—With Zeeland celebrating its Centennial this week, a glance into the historical past reveals many interesting facts.

Old photographs brought to mind the Wichers and De Krul wagon factory which stood where the Sligh-Lowry factory and the Ver Hage mill are now located; also the old clothing store once operated by Peter Brusse and the shoe store operated by John Bouwens and his son, Henry, which occupied the site of the present Zeeland State bank building. It was recalled Henry Bouwens later started a shoe store where the Nies shoe store now stands and William De Pree whose store was next to the old shoe store is now directly across from the bank.

Historical research also reveals that when Zeeland was founded in 1847, the nearest post office was in Manlius in Allegan county. This also was a new settlement located a mile southeast of what is now New Richmond.

Manlius was practically the only point that was accessible by an Indian trail through dense forest and this trail was later cut out wide enough for the passing of a wagon.

William Notting, who lived in a settlement near the Allegan county line, traveled 12 miles and carried the mail pouch on his back from Manlius to his home. This was done once a week. Brave Vrouw Jenneke Notting's job was to complete the trip by bringing the mail to Holland village, three miles farther.

J. Vanden Hoek, who became postmaster of Zeeland in 1848, carried the mail through the narrow trail from Holland to Zeeland. He also organized a general store that year in connection with the post office. This was located on the corner of Central Ave. and Elm St., where the Boonstra residence is now located.

Provisions for the colonists were brought from Grand Rapids by ox teams or from flat boats which came up Black river. In August, 1847, a committee, headed by C. De Putter, went to Grand Rapids to purchase provisions for the Zeeland community. They made the journey on foot and after losing their way in the dense forest, safely reached the city.

The supplies included a cow for $18; coffee and butter for nine cents a pound; flour for $4 a barrel and 50 papers of fine cut tobacco at two cents a paper. The bill was paid in gold, a very rare article in Michigan, for the country was still feeling the effects of the financial panic of 1837.

The supplies were loaded on a flat boat for the journey from Grand Rapids to Zeeland, via Grand River. The supplies were delayed at Grand Haven eight days when a storm hit Lake Michigan. The boat was drawn by horses along the shore to Port Sheldon and on to Black Lake where another storm slowed the trip. The supplies were finally landed at the "watermill" in New Gronigen and brought to Zeeland by oxen. It had taken three weeks to get necessary supplies from a distance of 20 miles.

Furniture Leaders Salute Pioneer At Press Dinner

The furniture industry honored two of its most prominent leaders following the press day dinner at the Grand Rapids Furniture market last week.

Charles R. Sligh, Jr., son of one of Grand Rapids' furniture pioneers and president of companies in Grand Rapids, Holland, and Zeeland was named "Outstanding serviceman of the year" by the American Furniture Mart.

Sligh was cited for his "practical and spirited acceptance of his obligations to society through civic, religious and social activities as well as in business affairs." He heads the Grand Rapids Chair Co., the Charles R. Sligh Co. in Holland, and the Sligh-Lowry Furniture Co. of Zeeland.

J. Frederick Mueller, 87-year-old founder of the Mueller Furniture Co. and "dean" of Grand Rapids furniture makers, was presented with a silver salver as a testimonial from his associates. Hollis S. Baker, president of Baker Furniture, Inc., of Holland, made the presentation.

Mueller's ascent to a leading furniture manufacturer began with his first job at Berkeley and Gay where he completed the famous bedroom suite exhibited at the Philadelphia Centennial Exposition of 1876 which established Grand Rapids' reputation as a furniture center.

Fifty-five newspaper, magazine, and trade publication representatives attended the dinner.

Music Festival Plans Completed At Grand Haven

Grand Haven, July 17 (Special).—Plans for the Vacation Land Music festival to be held in Grand Haven Aug. 4 include guest artists. Preliminary contests for the Chicagoland Music Festival are rapidly taking shape.

Hugo Kolberg, violinist, now concert master of the Pittsburgh Symphony orchestra, and Jimmy James, musical comedian, have already signed contracts.

Russell L. Baltz, owner of Hyland Gardens, has donated his building for this contest. Baltz spent two summers at Interlochen and is interested in bringing summer music to this area.

Applications and information for contestants can be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce. These applications must be returned by July 30.

Musicians in voice and instrument are being sought from Western Michigan. Grand Haven has been designated by the Chicagoland Festival officially as the clearing house for all those who wish to enter the finals in Chicago.

Phillip Maxwell, director of the Chicagoland Festival, will be master of ceremonies.

P. H. Murdock, director of the local festival, has had applications from several groups. He is also in contact with accordin players of Grand Rapids. A number of local entries are expected in both voice and instruments and it is hoped to entertain groups from Holland, Muskegon, Grand Rapids and other places in this area at the first concert.

Check Artist's Record Grows

George Lawrence King, 50 Toledo, O., the check artist, has an ever mounting record as "fan mail" continues to pour into Ionia where he was apprehended on a forged check charge last week and sentenced to 7 to 12 years in Southern Michigan prison.

King, who was arrested in Portland before he had a chance to visit Holland and other Western Michigan cities listed on his itinerary, has confessed passing $250,000 in forged checks the past four years in every state of the union.

Ionia Sheriff Richard Dodes is kept busy answering communications from enforcement officials all over the country. Among the latest letters was one from the superintendent of criminal identification for Illinois state police reporting 16 known warrants out for King. Earlier, Dodes had listed 12 other warrants for King, including three from Michigan.

WOULD A WHIPPING
POST DO IT?

The other night two cars were parked on East Twelfth street.
The owners were making a social visit. When they were ready to go home they discovered that smears of aluminum paint had been splashed over the cars, and the brainless fools responsible for the job had not been artistic in applying the paint.

Unfortunately it is seldom possible for the police to capture criminals of this type; for they are sneaks and cowards as well as brainless mental vacuums.
There seems to be no protection against persons of this type. On the whole they are the most frightening type of criminal we have, for unmotivated crime is truly disturbing.

Youngsters breaking into a house or car to steal something can at least be understood; there is a human reason for what they do, mistaken though the reason may be. The type of crime represented in this incident is so disturbance because persons capable of this kind of thing are capable of any other kind of unmotivated atrocities. The nature of out which such a crime comes must be fundamentally vicious.

What to do with persons of that type when actually caught constitutes an unanswered question.
The general public of course usually becomes sentimental about them; such youngsters (it is hardly conceivable that they could be grownups) have mothers, and they have feelings that should not be permanently hurt—and all that sort of rot. Imposing fines does not do much good; the fines have to be paid by others. Sending the culprits to a reform school seldom appears to reach them.

If somehow they could be shamed in public, it might have some effect. This of course is not a real solution, because public opinion in the twentieth century would not countenance it. But the baffled mind plays with the idea of stripping down their trousers on a platform in a public square and applying a paddle the way our grandfathers are supposed to have done to their boys.
Nothing physically brutal, of course; just enough to make the blows smart so that even vacant minds would remember it and that other vacant minds contemplating unmotivated crimes would be impressed by it. There is just a chance that something of that type, carefully prescribed by law and carried out by public officials in public, would reach some of those cases.

But it is only a dream, after all.
Minds capable of such unmotivated crime are probably congenitally unreachable. Besides, we the public are too sentimental.

Job Faces the Problem of Suffering
Job 1:1-8; 19:7-10; 42:1-5
By Henry Gerlings

One of the peculiarities of the Bible is the large extent to which the problem of suffering is discussed in its pages. Treatment of the subject is under five main categories.

The robbers crucified along with Jesus are perhaps the best example of the agonizing close of a wicked life. The men knew that they had brought themselves to a well-deserved doom. There was not a ray of hope. In the case of one of them the terror of crucifixion seems to have been the incentive that drove him into the arms of the loving Savior.

A second instance of suffering

more common by far in the Bible story and in present-day life is illustrated by the people of Samaria and Jerusalem in the final overthrow of the two capitals.

The most interesting fact relating to both events is that God used them to chasten and purify His people. Even if the Bible had not mentioned that the punishment was corrective in purpose, the reader would see that it was. We have little information about the fate of the people of Samaria who were taken to Nineveh. There is no record of their having come back to their homeland. But a remnant of the Jerusalem captives did come back. The period of chastening bore good fruit in the almost total disappearance of the practice of heathen worship

among the returned Jews. In fact, their revolt against it was so complete that within a few centuries they were willing to fight

a desperate war of independence rather than allow their temple to be desecrated with heathen worship.

The most common type of suffering portrayed in the Bible is illustrated by Jeremiah, who suffered in line of duty. His ministry was a succession of trials that would have broken the spirit of the average man. And there is no record of any misfortune that he could not have avoided, had he been less direct and uncompromising in his "thus saith the Lord."

Similarly, the life of Paul as portrayed in the Acts and in his own epistles might have been quite pleasant and peaceful had he not insisted upon doing dangerous things in the name of Christ.

One hesitates to list the sufferings of Jesus in one of the five categories. He entered fully and eagerly into the experience of sacrifice so frequently illustrated by the heroes of the Bible. But beyond them He holds the unique place as Savior. Hundreds of passages in the New Testament refer to His vicarious suffering and death. The New Testament

writers understood that sin interposed a barrier between man and

God, and that Jesus through His death removed that barrier. They believed that the moral order, expressive of God's holy purpose, requires that a penalty be imposed for sin, a penalty that man cannot pay in his own strength and that by His death on the cross

Jesus paid the penalty for all men who would accept pardon as a free gift. Although the term vicarious suffering is generally and properly used in reference to the death of Christ on the cross for the sins of the world, nevertheless

all who would be ambassadors for Him will find abundant opportunity to live vicariously in His service. One of the early lessons any Christian leader must learn is to bear burdens that do not properly belong to him.

The book of Job deals with yet another kind of suffering. The rich man who lost money, family and health simultaneously, gave the Bible's answer to the question what to do when trouble comes. We are dealing here not with the trouble that comes as a result of sin, nor with that which

God sends to correct his erring children, nor with that which encounters in the course of doing

God's work, nor yet with vicarious suffering, but with trouble

which appears to come by chance, and for which there seems to be no reason. The writer of the book was careful to explain that Job's misfortune resulted from an attempt on the part of Satan to prove that the great man would not keep his faith under pressure.

Most people are not so careful to explain where their misfortunes come from, and they would have thought of such a situation as an unlucky turn of fortune. The explanation of the origin of the suffering, however, is not so important as one's preparedness to meet it.

Job did not try to laugh off his troubles or to minimize them. He frankly admitted that the clouds had settled thickly upon him, and that the situation was greater than he was able to cope with.

He declared that his hope was gone and his glory vanished. The measure of his character cannot be understood until first one notes that he knew he was in the grip of overwhelming distress that had come upon him despite his innocence.

Yet through it all he would pray. The trouble had not shut him off from a sense of the wonder of God's presence. Instead of raving against God, the whole experience served to give him a feeling of his own limitations.

New York City forbids the planting of poplar trees because their roots go so deep that they often disrupt the city's water and sewage systems.

Holland
In 1915

The thaw and rain this week was welcomed by those interested in a good skating pond as it was hoped that a good freeze would make some nice smooth ice, began a story in the Saturday, Feb.
6, issue of the Holland Daily Sentinel published in 1915. However as the weather changed and became colder it snowed and now the lake is covered with rough slush ice.

A number of young people from this city enjoyed a sleigh ride party last night to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kleinman near the lake. The following were present: Hattie Laman, Cora Vander Werf, Lena Altena, Jennie Schippers, Fannie Schippers,
Nellie Westrate, Jennie Vander
Elst, Jennie Vander West, Ella
Vande Bunte, Mr. Esting, Herman Raterink, Tony Van Duin, John De Haan, William Topp,
Hilbert Van Der Werf, Benjamin
Vander Aarde, Cornelius Mulder, Carrie Raak and Albert Biele-veld.

There were 14 births in Holland during the month of December and eight deaths, according to the State Bulletin of Vital Statistics, issued today.

Mr. and Mrs. John Witt of Rugby, S. D., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Witt of this city.
From here they will go to Kalamazoo. They will visit relatives at Des Plaines, Ill., on their return trip.

A very close game was played between the B class of Hope and the Holland High school seniors yesterday afternoon. The seniors winning by the close score of 17 to 16.

Charles Stopples of Hope college is laid up with a sprained ankle received in the senior-junior basketball game.

That the Republican party of Ottawa county will stand by Hon.
G. J. Diekema if he consents to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of the state of Michigan two years hence was shown this afternoon in Grand Haven when the delegates assembled in the court house in county convention unanimously and enthusiastically endorsed him for that position, according to a story appearing in the Monday, Feb. 8, issue.

An address on the subject "Our Lincoln" will be a feature of the program of the Woman's Literary club tomorrow. The address will be delivered by Hon. G. J. Diekema.

The local Boy Scouts of this city acting under official instructions from the head of the state organization at Lansing will today celebrate the seventh anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scout organization.

The Holland Rod Manufacturing company of St. Joseph has, through its officials, filed articles of association with the Berrien county clerk. The concern manufactures fishing tackle and novelties and the capital stock is fixed at $10,000, divided into 1,000 shares at $10 each.

Word was received here today from Newberry, Pa., announcing the birth of a nine-pound girl to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Eldridge. Mrs.
Eldridge was formerly Miss Minnie Rooks of this city.

The Rev. E. J. Tanis of Grand Rapids to whom a call was recently extended by the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church has declined the call according to announcement made yesterday.

ter of this city Saturday, a boy.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harm

The following news items appeared under the high school news: Tomorrow night on the corner of 15th and River, there will take place a great snowball battle between the forces under General von Brink and those of command of Baron Du Mezski.
General von Brink will command the forces of the sophomore-junior classes, while Baron Du Mez-ski will take charge of the senior freshman army.

Friday night the Dnalloh High team will play Howard City there.
The seniors will entertain the juniors next Saturday evening at the Ladies' Literary club rooms.

Hon. C. Van Loo of Zeeland made the keynote speech at the Ottawa County Republican convention in the court house in Grand Haven yesterday noon, the convention at which the probable candidate of G. J. Diekema for the Republican nomination for governorship was unanimously endorsed, according to a story in the Tuesday, Feb. 9, issue. Mr.
Van Loo, veteran Republican and a man who has been prominent in the party in Ottawa county since its organization in civil war times, was chosen temporary chairman by a unanimous vote of the convention.

There are now five candidates for the Republican nomination of road commissioner of Ottawa county. The candidates are A. J.
Nyland of Grand Haven, Hoyt
Tylor of Coopersville, Richard Dykema of Grand Haven, William M. Connelly of Spring Lake and Thomas Hammond of Spring Lake.

The Ladies School society
"Monica" will hold its first annual social gathering this evening in the basement of Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church.
Preston Manting and Edward Hansen left today for Crystal River, Fla., where they have secured positions with the Baum and Van Roy Crate Co.

Word has been received at East-manville from the Standard Oil Co. that it will donate $100 toward building a bridge across Grand River at Eastmanville.
This with the $100 promised by the H. J. Heinz Co. and the local contributions brings the bridge fund up to $600. The proposition to raise $12,000 for this purpose by the townships of Polkton and Allendale will be submitted to the voters of these townships at the primary election March 3. If ratified by them it will be submitted to the voters of the county at the April election to raise the balance.

Two Accidents Occur
In Grand Haven Area

Zuverink Pitches Holland to Win Over Black Sox

Allows Six Safeties To Notch 3-1 Victory; Play Senators Next

Flashy fielding and timely hitting combined with six-hit pitching brought the Holland Flying Dutchmen their 14th win of the season Monday night at River-view park. They whipped the Grand Rapids Black Sox in a 3-1 thriller. A fifth inning uprising which netted the locals three runs enabled George Zuverink to gain his seventh triumph of the season. The Hollanders have now downed everything Grand Rapids has to offer. The colored aggregation tallied their only run on an error in the fourth inning when George Zuverink fumbled an easy ground-er to the mound.

After the Black Sox scored their run in the fourth, the Dutch wasted no time in bettering the mark by scoring three times in the same inning. Van Lente led off and fled out to center fielder. Wenzel blasted the first hit off Purcell, Negro hurler, a double to right-center field. Russ Woldring drew a base on balls and Harry De Neff came through with a ringing double inside the third base line to score Wenzel and put Woldring on third. After Driscoll fanned, Juke Van Huis duplicated De Neff's drive, as he doubled to left field scoring Woldring and De Neff with the second and third runs.

During the remainder of the ball game, Purcell and Zuverink locked in a pitchers duel with Zuverink allowing four more hits and Purcell only three. In the fifth the locals threatened but failed to score. The bases were loaded with only one out but a pop fly and a fielder's choice killed the rally.

Loren Wenzel sparked the Dutch hitting attack with a double and a single in three trips to the plate. All the Black Sox hits were singles while three of the local six hits were extra base blows.

Thursday the Hollanders will attempt to even the count with the leading colored team on the road today, the Detroit Senators. In an encounter earlier this year, the Senators whipped the locals 9-3 and the locals are hoping to get even and notch their 15th win of the season.

Vet Nine Bows To North Shore

The league leading North Shore Cubs continued their winning pace Monday night as they humbled the Vets aggregation 4-1 in a tight well played contest. J. Witteveen on the mound for the winners allowed but four safeties. The Cubs garnered 12 base hits from the slants of William Ver Hey, ace flinger of the Vets nine.

Neither team scored for the first four innings with the two pitchers hurling superb ball. The Vets organization opened the scoring in the fifth when they scored their lone tally on two singles and a hit batsman. Ver Hey hit in the run after Crumers had singled and Hudzik was Steven and Walter Wiersma own and operate the Holland Welding service located at 32nd St. and Michigan Ave. The Wiersmas are capable of handling all your welding needs and will gladly give you any information concerning your particular job regardless of how large or small it is.

The above photo shows a few of the welding processes used by the Holland Welding service including the butt and T welding and wrinkle-bending. Wrinkle-bending pipe quickly produces smooth-sweep bends to fit the system as work progresses without need for fittings.

Welded pipe systems are strong, compact, leak-proof and practically maintenance-free. The smooth interior and exterior walls provide high flow efficiency and make insulation easier where this is required.

hit by a pitched ball. North Shore came back in their fifth, combining three hits and an error for three tallies. The long blows of the rally were a triple by B. Waterway and a double by Looman. The winners added another to their total in the sixth with three solid singles. Kool opened with a single and scored on F. Witteveen's one baser. North Shore plays Virginia Park Saturday, while the Vets meet DCA.

June Conformed To Summer Plan, Report Shows

Rainy Days Prevail During Last Month; Temperature Normal

After a slow start, it seems as though the weather in 1947 is finally going to conform to tradition and give us a brief taste of "Old Man Summer." When comparing June of this year with those of other years we find that it at least bears a resemblance—this was not the case with the other months of this year. In comparison with past charts we then found more rainfall more sunless days and—more everything than in other years.

The local Weather bureau's report for June shows that the total precipitation was 3.59 inches which compares favorably with the last five years. The maximum temperature was 90 degrees, compared with 90 in 1946 and 87 in 1945. The minimum temperature was 41 degrees which seems warm when experiencing 37 degrees in 1946 and 32 degrees in 1945. The average maximum temperature was 76.3 while the average minimum was 54.4 which didn't set any records either.

Of course June of 1947 did set a new five year high in total days of precipitation with 14 inches. 1944 was next with 13 and 1943 had 12. There were nine clear days in June which may surprise a few—especially when they couldn't find a bright day for the family picnic. Those who tremble at the distant roar of thunder or the slightest flash of lightning were also gladdened as there were but two thunderstorms in June. There were no such phenomena in June of 1945 and 1946, but six occurred in 1944.

So all in all June wasn't such a bad month—despite the fact that the ever present "weather pessimists" got in their daily cracks.

HC, Lumberjacks Maintain Lead in Legion League

Northern Wood and Hart Cooley remained tied today in the American Legion league play by virtue of wins in Friday's contests. Northern Wood whipped the Ford-Phillips 3-2 behind the six-hit pitching of Bob Aitena. HC crushed the Duffy aggregation 14-8. Czerkies was the winning HC hurler while Westenbroek was the Shamrock flinger.

The Northern Wood-Ford contest was a well played affair with each team getting six hits and committing few errors. The Lumberjacks opened the scoring in the third inning when they combined two hits for the initial tally. The losers retaliated in their half of the third to knot the count on three successive hits, including a double by Baker.

The Woodsmen "iced the fray" with a two-run outburst in the fifth inning. Six men went to bat as the 1943 champs collected two doubles and a single to notch the game winning tallies. Van Dorpe and Van Wieren each hit doubles in the rally. Ford had taken a momentary 2-1 lead in the fourth when they combined a double and a walk for their final tally.

Kehrwecker struck out five Northern Wood batters while Aitena retired eight in a similar manner.

The nightcap was anything but a pitcher's duel with both teams finding their "batting eyes." Duffy's collected 10 safeties while the winning HC outfit garnered 11 hits.

Neither nine scored in the first inning, but the league leaders managed to "push across" three big runs in the second. They followed with two in the third as did the Duffy squad. Duffy's tied the score in the fourth when they scored three times on three hits, an error and a stolen base. The victory hungry Shamrocks took their only lead of the contest in the fifth when they matched a single HC tally with three of their own. This made the score 8-6 as the tilt moved into the sixth inning.

Then with lightning-like swiftness in the sixth inning, the entire complex of the game changed with HC unleashing a terrific burst of power to score eight times. Three hits combined with some wild pitching on the part of the Shamrock flinger accounted for the big uprising. The big blows of the innings were doubles by Van Wieren and Czerkies. This ended the scoring in a game which saw the HC aggregation snatch a victory from the fighting Shamrocks after trailing by two runs until the final stages of a thrilling contest.

North Shore Nine Wallops Hamilton

North Shore broke out in a "hitting rash" at Hamilton Friday night sinking their hosts 9-3 with an 18-hit barrage. The locals tallied four runs off the pitching of Wenzel and five more from the slants of Johnson, Hamilton's ace Reimink, on the mound for the Dutch kept eight hits well scattered.

Looman opened the North Shore scoring in the second with a long circuit clout. A double and a single produced another tally in the same inning. They added two more in the third on a three base smash by Nykerk and two singles to take a 4-0 lead at the end of three innings.

Hamilton, however, determined to win before a partisan home town crowd, combined three hits for a single tally in the fourth inning, and two more in the fifth. Five North Shore hits including a triple by Bill Kool in the sixth netted five runs, virtually dashed all Hamilton hopes of winning. With the score now 9-3 in his favor, Reimink coasted the remaining innings for an easy win. II Waterway led the local hitters with four hits in four times at bat for a "perfect night" at the plate. Lugtighed also had four out of four, to lead the Hamilton batters.

Why Michigan Bell must ask for a Rate Increase

THERE has not been an increase in telephone rates in 21 years. From 1926 until 1937, our rates went down substantially. Except for even further reductions in local rates in a number of exchanges and decreases in toll rates, those 1937 rates are still in effect—despite the fact that the cost of almost everything... wages, taxes, supplies... has been going up.

For example, post-war wage adjustments alone have boosted our costs nearly $11,000,000 a year, including settlements reached during the recent strike.

Actually, all our costs put together have gone up much faster than our income.

In the ten years since 1937, income has gone up 141%, costs have gone up 193% and our return on investment has dropped more than a third.

It's just simple arithmetic that 1937 rates won't work in 1947.

We've tried to make both ends meet without increasing rates. We've held off as long as possible. But now, we've got to ask for an increase—because it is absolutely necessary to protect our customers' service.

It will take a lot of money from investors to give more service and better quality service from here on. Investors will put up the money only if they are assured a fair return, which we cannot provide under our present rates.

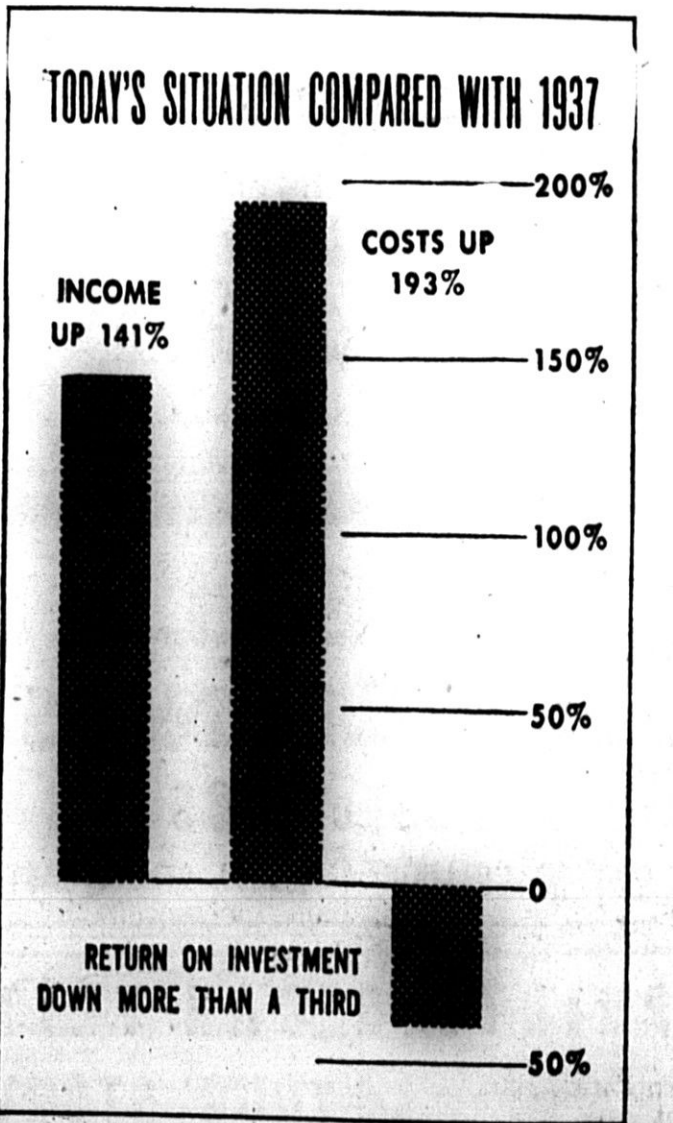

So the future quality of Michigan's telephone service depends on raising rates enough to assure the financial stability of your telephone company.

That's why we're going to ask the Michigan Public Service Commission* for a public hearing to review our proposed new schedule of rates. During the week of August 3, we'll publish details of the proposed rates throughout Michigan Bell territory. After that, we'll file the petition with the Public Service Commission.

*The body established by State law and appointed by the Governor to regulate utility rates.

Telephone service will still be a bargain at the proposed rates. We'd rather not be asking for an increase. But that's the only way we can assure our customers the kind of service they want. For 1937 rates won't work in 1947.

Where the term "Income" is used above, its meaning is the same as "Revenue" or "Gross Income." When the term "Investment" is used, it means the original cost of the telephone property less the depreciation reserve accrued against the ultimate retirement of the property.

Miles Reviews '33 Bank Robbery In Grand Haven

Circuit Judge Fred T. Miles today filled in some gaps in the story of Earl Doyle, 47, who was paroled last week after being sentenced to a life term in 1933 following conviction for the armed robbery of Peoples Savings bank in Grand Haven.

Judge Miles said Doyle and four others, including Theodore and Edward Bentz, robbed the Grand Haven bank in August, 1933, and Doyle received a broken leg and other injuries in a struggle with officers as the robbers were leaving the bank.

Doyle offered no defense since he was taken "on the spot" and on Sept. 9, 1933, he was sentenced to life imprisonment on the charge of armed robbery to which he pleaded guilty.

The judge recalls there was considerable talk at the time of a rumored "rescue" and every precaution was taken by the sheriff and state police to avoid such action.

A week ago on July 3, Doyle was paroled to San Antonio, Tex., for a term of four years under Michigan's amended "life law" which permits such parole of persons sentenced to "life" imprisonment excepting only murder in the first degree.

This law was enacted in 1941 and provides that such persons so sentenced to life imprisonment may after 10 calendar years be paroled. Quite a few such sentences have been acted upon by the state parole board and it is claimed that in no instance has a person so paroled violated the terms of his parole, Miles said.

He recalled that Theodore Bentz was apprehended in 1934 and tried and convicted of the same offense. Bentz also was sentenced to life imprisonment and is now serving the sentence in Northern Michigan prison at Marquette.

Doyle made no effort to be relieved from the sentence until this year. Unlike Doyle, however, Bentz has repeatedly attempted to secure a new trial, having made several applications to that end. He has also attempted to appeal his case to the State Supreme Court and to the U.S. Supreme Court, but all applications were denied.

Edward Bentz is confined in Federal prison at Alcatraz for bank robbery, according to the judge. It is claimed all other members of the gang are dead.

Miles said he was informed Doyle has been a model prisoner and during the last three or four years was employed in the accounting department of the Detroit House of Correction at Plymouth.

Home Run Decides Softball Tilt

It took a long home run by R. Higgs of the Holland Furnace squad in the eighth inning of an extra inning affair to edge a stubborn Dykema Tailor softball aggregation by the score of 2-1. The game was one of the best played this season with both pitchers turning in sterling performances. R. Morren hurled for the winners while Weener pitched for the Tailors. The Heaters garnered seven hits while the Dykema lads managed to get but four safe blows.

Dykema took a one run lead in the third inning on a walk and two infield outs. Jud Vryhof scored the only Dykema tally. Holland Furnace knotted the count in the fourth on a walk, a single and a double by D. Koop.

Neither aggregation threatened seriously for the next four innings, until Higgs' game winning smash. He was the first batter up in the last of the eighth, consequently ending the tilt with the circuit blow.

The tilt was exceptionally close contested with but few errors to mar the play.

The Steffens Market softball team will play host to the Fremont aggregation in a twin-bill at Riverview park Wednesday in an attempt to cop fourth place and move into the first division. Manager Len Steffens will pit either Vander Veen or Bos to twirl the night cap after using his ace Cameron Baxter in the opener, he said.

Baxter was in an automobile accident recently and was absent from Saturday night's double header with the Besteman Produce squad. He will hurl Wednesday however. The Fremont softballers edged the locals 5-4 earlier this season and the Hollanders are hoping for a double victory Wednesday.

In an exciting contest Saturday, the Fremont club edged a 1-0 win over second place Zeeland Suncoos in the ninth inning. Besteman Produce of Grand Rapids are probably the strongest team in the hurl largely due to their great hurler Veltman who twirled 34 scoreless innings before the Steffens outfit scored on him in the first inning last Saturday. Baxter of the locals is highly respected in the league for his pitching skills.

With Harry Vander Veen twirling a two-hitter against Douglas Monday night, the locals took a 8-2 win to hand Douglas their fourth loss in 17 starts. The Marketers pushed runs across the plate in the fourth, seventh and eighth innings. Douglas scored their only tallies in the sixth and seventh innings on errors.

While Mr. Bennet's profession is that of a lawyer, much of his time is spent in work for the Gideons, the Pocket Testament League, Christian Association for the Blind and as vice-president of the Independent Board for Presbyterian Foreign Missions. Lumberjacks Take Undisputed Lead In Legion Play Northern Wood took undisputed possession of first place in the American legion play Tuesday night by virtue of their thrilling 3-2 win over Hart and Cooley. The defeat sent HC into second place with five wins and three losses. In the other contest last night Ford humbled Duffy's Shamrocks 6-2. Ford now has a four win, four lost record while Duffy trails with one win in eight starts.

Duffy's failed to score for the first six innings of their contest with the Phillies, experiencing difficulty with the slants of Victor, Ford hurler. The winners, took their first two tallies in the third on two hits and two walks. They increased their margin in the sixth when they combined three hits, a walk and an error to run the count to 6-0 at the end of six innings.

Duffy's combined three solid hits in their seventh to stage a mild comeback, but it was a lost cause. Hopp, Birdsall, and Oosterbaan got the hits in the two run rally. Birdsall, on the mound for the losers, pitched a creditable game allowing eight hits. Victor permitted but five safeties.

The HC-Northern Wood battle developed into a good pitcher's battle with neither squad able to "dent the plate" until the sixth inning. Czarkies hurled for HC while Zoerhof handled the pitching for the 1946 champs.

Both pitchers breezed along in great style until the sixth inning when HC combined a double by Czarkies and a single by Wlodarczyk for the initial tally. Northern Wood retaliated in their sixth when Zoerhof walked, took second on a pass to Artz and romped home on a single by Van Wieren. The score was then tied 1-1 with the game moving into the final inning.

Piersma, lead off batter in the seventh for HC, greeted Zoerhof with a terrific double. Zoerhof settled down and retired the next two batters on strikes. His pitching, however, was to no avail as Piersma scored on the shortstop's bobble of Pigeon's grounder.

The Woodsman, determined to take the league lead, came back fighting in their half of the seventh to score two runs and take the decision. Sloothaak was safe on an error, but was forced at second by Bauman, after Bremer had popped to the third baseman. Then with two out, Schrotenboer "got life" on an error putting two on with two out and Zoerhof at the plate. Without much ado, the little finger stepped into a fast ball, and hit a long double, scoring both runners with the tying and winning runs to win his own game.

Dutchmen Edged By Kalamazoo In Third Defeat

Fail to Capitalize On Scoring Chances; Play Carvers Saturday

Ned Webster's pitching baffled the Flying Dutchmen for nine innings Thursday night and the Sutherland Paper team went on to win 4-1. It was Holland's third defeat of the season. Ernie Victor yielded six well scattered hits but with the loss.

The Kazoo nine broke into the scoring column in the third inning when three hits netted one run. Kribs led off with his second hit of the ball game, a double to center field. Burris lined a sharp single to right with Kribs attempting to score, but a perfect throw by Lloyd Driscoll caught him at home. After Ross fled out, Punk Smathers poked a single to right field with Burris scoring on the play. Driscoll again tossed perfectly to the plate but catcher, Loren Wenzel juggled the ball allowing the initial run to cross the plate. It was a hard throw to handle but the scorer's marked it an error on Wenzel.

In the fifth inning Webster led off with a single to right and took second when Kribs was safe on an error. Ross watched one of Victor's third strikes go past him. Smathers lined a smash deep into center field which got past "Mouse" Van Wieren for a two base error with both runs scoring.

The Dutchmen made an attempt to score in the sixth inning when both Van Lente and Woldring singled but failed to cross the plate. Finally in the seventh the locals tallied a run when Van Wieren cracked a triple to center field and scored on a first base error.

Victor was replaced by pinch hitter, Lefty Van Wieren, in the seventh and Mike Skaalen took over the mound chores for the remaining innings. Two walks and a single netted the Celery City nine their final run in the ninth inning to make the final count 4-1.

Don Van Lente hit safely twice for the locals while Kribs boomed out three hits for the Kazooks. Webster fanned 10 local batsmen, Victor six and Skaalen two.

Saturday Manager Benny Batema will pit ace left-hander, Lefty Van Wieren against the Grand Rapids Carvers in a twilight tilt at 5 p.m. The Dutch will make the trip to Grand Rapids in an attempt to win their 13th game in 16 starts.
