Funeral Services Held for Second Drowning Victim

Funeral services for Jack Lee Brookhouse, 10, were held from Dykstra's funeral home today at 2 p.m., with the Rev. John O. Hagans of the First Methodist church officiating.

Brookhouse was drowned Monday afternoon while swimming in Black river. His death was the second in this area in three days. Saturday morning, William Zarembo, Grand Rapids, was drowned in Lake Macatawa.

Brookhouse's body was recovered at 3:27 p. m. Monday, one hour and 45 minutes after he stepped into a hole in the bed of Black river. Sheriff's officers and Holland police participated in the search for the boy.

Brookhouse had been swimming Monday afternoon with his friend Lyle Mulder, 10, when the tragedy occurred. Mulder tried to reach his friend with a long stick, but failed.

He called to another youth swimming nearby to help, but the other swimmer thought he was joking. Mulder then went to get help and returned with his brother Glen and with Clarence Pluimers. Pluimers phoned police, who dispatched a boat, and dragging operations started.

Surviving Brookhouse are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin C. Brookhouse, 635 East Eighth St., two brothers, Ralph Cecil and Donald James; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brookhouse, 129 East 20th St. and Mrs. Florence Sprague, Coruna. He was born April 18, 1941. He had been a fourth grade pupil at Federal school.

Injured Boy's Condition Good

Four-year-old Dale DeWaard, 233 Lincoln Ave., received a broken leg, multiple bruises, and concussion when he was struck by a car on Lincoln Ave. Wednesday afternoon. His condition was reported as "good" by hospital attendants at noon today.

He was sitting on the west side of the street about 4:30 when his father, Arthur, called him over to his car. Dale ran out from behind a parked truck and was struck by a car driven by David Moore, 458 1/2 West 18th St.

Moore had just turned off 10th onto Lincoln. The car ran up on the east curb before he could stop it. The boy was picked up 27 feet from where the car stopped. Tire marks on the pavement measured 56 feet. No charges were filed against Moore pending outcome of the boy's injuries.

Draft Quotas Revised Upward for Next Month

Lansing—Ottawa county's draft quota for August was set at 17 Friday by Col. Glenn B. Arnold, state draft director. Allegan county must send 10 men for induction.

State selective service headquarters announced that 2,298 Michigan men will be drafted next month instead of 1,439 as originally announced June 20.

Arnold said the upward revision resulted from an increase in requirements of the Army and Marine corps for more inductees.

Muskegon Man Seeking $40,000 in Court Case

Grand Haven (Special)—Robert Lewis of Muskegon is seeking $40,000 damages in two suits of $20,000 each in Ottawa circuit court for injuries received June 30, 1950, one against Margaret Ruth Decker, executrix of the estate of Frank P. Decker, deceased, Grand Haven, and the other against the estate of Decker and the London and Lancashire Indemnity Co., a New York Insurance Corp.

The suits are the result of an alleged assault and battery at the tavern operated by plaintiff known as "The Ringside" in Muskegon, when Ira Mills, employed at the tavern as a bartender, struck and beat Lewis, causing fractures of bones in his right leg and other injuries, of a permanent nature.

Sums Awarded In Libel Case

Grand Haven (Special)—After deliberating for two and a half hours Wednesday afternoon, a Circuit court jury awarded five-year-old Peggy Bauman $1,500, and her mother, Mrs. Patricia Bauman, $6,250, against Gerrit M. Van Kampen, all of Holland township.

The cases, which were consolidated for trial and began Tuesday afternoon, arose out of an automobile accident Nov. 18, 1949, when Mrs. Bauman and her daughter, passengers in a car driven by Mrs. Nellie Kammeraad, were injured when the Kammeraad car and the Van Kampen car collided on US-31 in Holland township. The child received a torn left eyelid and carries two noticeable scars, and Mrs. Bauman has eight scars on her face and several on her knees.

Van Kampen admitted liability and the only question for the jury to decide was the amount of damages.

In the case of the child, brought by her next friend, her mother, $5,000 was sought, and Mrs. Bauman sought $20,000 damages.

Rattlesnakes Killed North of Holland

A rattlesnake was killed Wednesday on the Allen De Vries farm, five and a half miles north of Holland. The snake had seven rattles. De Vries and his son, Gordon Allen, 7, were chopping down a cherry tree, when they spied the snake at the base of the tree. De Vries killed the snake.

Supervisor Henry De Ridder reported that his son killed two rattlesnakes this year, near the De Ridder home. Al De Ridder, his father living a half mile away, killed a rattlesnake some time ago.

De Ridder said that rattlesnakes haven't been seen too much in recent years, but last year, the De Ridder dog killed one on the road.

The territory is sandy soil, with a lot of pine trees and blueberry farms. Rattlesnakes live in this kind of habitat.

Seeks Damages

Grand Haven (Special)—The case of William Ponstein of Hudsonville against Elizabeth Lowing of the same place in which plaintiff is seeking $20,000 damages for permanent injuries allegedly received in an accident May 31, 1947, was commenced in circuit court this morning without the defendant being present in court.

Chicago Resident Killed Instantly In Allegan County

Allegan (Special)—A Chicago man was killed instantly in a rural intersection collision with another Chicago car Friday night near Pullman.

The victim was Carl Sannes, 63, en route to visit his wife vacationing at Pullman. Prosecutor Dwight Cheever said he would issue a warrant today charging James Shelby, 64, Chicago, driver of the other car, with negligent homicide.

Shelby, a railroad pullman porter, suffered a minor knee injury and remained in South Haven hospital overnight. He was to be brought to Allegan this morning.

The accident occurred two miles east of US-31 on county road 406. Two troopers, Hugh Carpenter and Harold Simmons, of the South Haven state police post and Allegan Deputy Roy Priest who investigated said Shelby apparently did not stop as he approached the highway from the crossroad. Skid marks showed he applied his brakes about 15 feet.

Both men were traveling alone. It was Allegan county's 14th traffic fatality in four months and Sannes is the second Chicago man to be killed in the lakeshore district.

The accident occurred near the home of Charles Ridley who was involved in a non-injury traffic accident two hours earlier near Fennville.

E. R. Walker is going to have a whopper of a fish story to tell the folks back in Oak Park, Ill., when he returns there from his vacation. Walker, fishing in Pigeon lake at Port Sheldon Tuesday morning, landed a 48 1/2 pound catfish. The big catch was 39 inches long, had a 25-inch girth and measured 9 1/2 inches across its head. Walker was fishing with a cane pole, using a 16 pound test line and a No. 4 hook. He was using chubs for bait. The big fish hit his line at 9 a.m. and was finally landed after a two and one-half hour struggle. His brother Percy Walker, and R. C. Hermann of Chicago, assisted. The men took two nets, one on the head and one on the tail, to land the fish. Walker's cane pole broke just as the men got their nets on the fish. The Walkers and Hermanns are vacationing at Tuford's Cabins at Port Sheldon. (Penna-Sas photo)

Night Sailboat Race Turns Into Paddlefest

Dead air turned the first night sailboat races of the summer into a paddlefest on Lake Michigan Wednesday night, but a few die-hard sailors refused the temptation and "schnitzeled" their boats to the finish line.

"Schnitzeling" is what small boat sailors do in light air, and Wednesday night called for great quantities of this sailing art.

Caryl Curtis, Dale Van Liere, and Herb Pollock were the only skippers in a fleet of eight boats to come in without use of auxiliary power, they said.

Van Liere finished first, with Miss Curtis second and Pollock third. All others were disqualified when they started paddling. The race does not count toward season standings.

Groups expected to testify before the committee include the National Association of Boat and Engine Manufacturers, Michigan Outboard Motor association, and Oakland County Sportsmen's group.

Clements said the committee will study proposals for annual safety inspections of rented rowboats as part of its program.

Council Okays Closing Alley in Crampton Block

Vacating Said Alley Not Associated With Proposed Expansion

Decision to vacate an alley in the Crampton block highlighted action of Common Council at its regular meeting Wednesday night. The meeting lasted an hour, the shortest session in several weeks.

About a dozen property owners of the neighborhood were present at the public hearing on the alley closing. A few protests were registered and a few persons upheld closing the alley, but it was generally agreed most people involved were in favor of vacating the alley.

The action finally approved by council vacates the alley with the exception of 86 feet on the east end to allow Mrs. Ed De Feyter to use her garage which fronts on the alley. The city reserves public utility right of ingress and egress in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bekken, of 315 West 13th St., protested the closing, fearing that the north-south arm of the alley which borders their property might eventually be used for expansion by the Crampton Co. They were assured by Clarence Lokker, attorney for Crampton, that the company has no intention of expanding in that direction. Lokker also brought out that vacating the alley was not instituted by the Crampton Co. Possibility of plant expansion to the west happened to be introduced at the same council meeting a month ago, but expansion and alley closing are completely irrelevant, Lokker said.

Other property owners brought out that most of the alley is overrun by weeds and used but little. Deeding said property to abutting property owners would result in better kept yards and aim toward civic improvement. It was indicated.

Lavern Rudolph, second ward alderman, said he had canvassed people in the block and found most of them in favor of closing the alley. He also said he asked H. E. Pleasant, president of the Crampton firm, about possibilities of deeding a part of the north-south Crampton alley to the Bekkens to afford some measure of property protection, but Pleasant declined.

In other Crampton business, City Manager Harold C. McClinck reported several improvements in prospect in Crampton Co. operations. He said he had written and had consulted with President Pleasant who has promised that the tumbling machine operation will be discontinued at 8 p.m. Pleasant also agreed to have window openings of the compressor room permanently closed and to change the air intake location. It also is anticipated that proper handling of material will result in improved appearance of the premises.

Attorney Lokker mentioned the "housekeeping" angle later in the meeting and promised Common Council and neighbors in the plant area that the company would do its job of housekeeping to the best of its ability.

Fishermen Find Body in Lake

Two fishermen spotted the floating body of William Zarembo about 600 feet west of middle ground light at 5:30 Wednesday afternoon. Zarembo, 21, of Grand Rapids drowned Saturday while swimming in Lake Macatawa. Attempts by the Coast Guard, sheriff's officers, and others to find the body by dragging failed.

The two fishermen, John Lindemeijer and William Blauw, both of route 4, were the first to see the body. They hailed Elvin Wassink, of Grand Rapids, as he was passing by on a yacht. Wassink docked and called the Coast Guard station.

Coast Guard officers, E. O. Feddick and Richard Rossiter picked up the body and took it to the Campbell boat dock. Coroner Gilbert Vande Water, ruled death was due to accidental drowning. The body was taken to the Alt funeral home in Grand Rapids.

Small Girl Cuts Foot On Glass While Swimming

Virginia Tellman, 14-year-old daughter of Fillmore Deputy and Mrs. Earle Tellman, cut her right foot badly on a broken bottle in Lake Michigan while swimming Wednesday night at Holland State park. She was taken to Holland hospital for treatment and was discharged. She will undergo treatment at home for the next week.

In the melee, she lost her glasses and her parents are anxious to have them returned.

Recent storms have uncovered a lot of glass on the beach and have washed up considerable refuse in the lake, it was said.

Park officials warned bathers to be on the lookout for broken glass wherever possible.

Damage Suit Filed Against Local Doctors

Grand Rapids (UP)—Herbert Dyke, Muncie, Ind., today filed a $31,000 federal court damage suit against Dr. John K. Winter and Dr. William Winter, his brother, Holland physicians and surgeons. Dyke claims the two brothers failed to diagnose and to treat correctly fractures of an arm that he incurred in a fall from a ladder July 16, 1949 and that as a result he lost use of the arm.

All Other Local Finalists Knocked From Competition

Kalamazoo (Special) — Friday afternoon on the courts of Stowe tennis stadium at Kalamazoo college, 12-year-old Paul Dykema of Holland secured one-half of a state tennis championship for himself and the city he represents.

Dykema and John Senkowski of Hamtramck teamed up to take the doubles title in midge division play from Rudy Hernandez and Gerald Dubie of Detroit and Hamtramck, respectively. Scores were 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Dykema, participating in the doubles victory, brought a state championship to Holland for the first time in the city's history.

All other Holland finalists were eliminated from competition in the semi-final and final rounds Friday.

In singles, Dykema also was a finalist and played a grueling two-hour match with one of his doubles foes, Rudy Hernandez, before going down, 6-2, 6-4.

Hernandez's mother was city champion of Detroit for nine consecutive years, and some of this tennis wisdom must have rubbed off on her son.

Dykema tried everything in the book to break down the diminutive Hernandez play, but to no avail.

In the girls' doubles finals, Joyce Alverson and Mary Sanger of Holland lost to Jean Florez and Suzanne Trythall of Orchard Lake country club, 2-6, 6-4, 7-5.

In both of the last sets, the Holland team held 4-1 leads at different times. But the winners used a lobbying game to crack the Holland team's defense.

It was a heartbreaking loss for the two Holland girls, who had hammered their way into the finals by defeating the top-seeded team on Thursday and then advancing through the semi-finals in another tough match.

Next tourney for local net competitors will be the Western junior and boys tournament slated for July 23-27.

He Gets Comeuppance After Passing on Hill

Allegan (Special) — Lawrence Barnes, 2325 Tremont street, Kalamazoo, took a chance on passing two cars on a hill and narrowly escaped a collision. But he didn't escape getting a ticket for improper passing — Deputy Roy Priest happened to be driving right behind him.

Priest said Barnes forced the car of Roy Pence, Allegan, off the road as he maneuvered to his own side of the road, just missing an oncoming car. The incident occurred at the scene of an accident that killed three persons this spring.

Justice Otto Schmitz assessed the fine.

Vets Slam Moose; Fords Topple Tulip Merchants

The VFW softball team, which finished near the bottom in the first half of city play, displayed its new look Friday night when they dumped the Moose, 7-2. Second game went to the Fords, 10-1, over the Tulip Merchants.

In the first game, Larry Tibbitts allowed the Moose eight hits scattered some of them, and didn't allow Moosemen to capitalize on others.

The Vets were held to eight hits also but kept their sights trained on home plate in three innings. The Vets scored one in the second, three in the third and added three more in the sixth to whip the Moose. Single Moosemen got home in the first and fourth innings.

Don Van Duren, Dick Millman, and Guite Daining each swatted two safeties for the winners, one of Millman's being a double. John Van Hoven and Con Boeve each got single hits but Boeve's was a two-on-base homer in the sixth frame.

The second game went to Fords in an easy 10-1 victory over the Merchants. It was the second win in this half for the first half victors, and they were right up to their old winning form Friday night.

Ford batters turned the trick with a battering ram attack of nine singles, four doubles, and two homers.

The Merchants collected a scant three hits off Harv Vander Veen, Ford pitcher, one of these being a double by Emil Vander Vate in the fourth inning that eventually turned into the lone Merchant run.

Only other hit off Vander Veen went to Al Glupker and Ben Bouwman, both of whom hit singles.

Tony Bouwman, Gil Bos, and Jud Vander Zwaag each hit three safeties for Fords, two of Bos' and one of Bouwman's being doubles. Norm Boeve and Hank Prince each got two hits, Boeve hitting a double and a homer, and Prince getting a homer and a single.

Walt Wlodarczyk and Vander Veen each got singles to complete the Ford hitting.

South Haven Sailboat Cops LMYA Win; Macatawa Crew Places Fifth

Engagement Told

South Haven (Special) — A lightning class boat and crew from the South Haven Yacht club took first place early this week in the annual sailboat races of the Lake Michigan Yachting association.

The races, held on Lake Michigan Monday and Tuesday, were for the junior championships of the association.

The Macatawa Bay entry, with boat and crew sponsored by Herb Pollock, Jr. and Pete Sears as crew.

The victory for the South Haven entry entitles that boat and crew to participate in the national races to be held on Long Island sound next month.

Order of finish for the 10 yacht club entries in the South Haven races was as follows: South Haven, first; South Shore Yacht club of Milwaukee, second; St. Joe Lightning fleet, third; Milwaukee Yacht club, fourth; Macatawa Bay Yacht Club, fifth; Sheridan Shore Yacht club, sixth; Gary Boat club, seventh; Racine Yacht club, eighth; Jackson Park Yacht club, ninth; and Waukegan Yacht club, tenth.

The Macatawa Bay entry ran into difficulty on the first race, when a sail shackle came loose during the first race. The boat placed ninth in that race.

But from there on, it improved its position, taking seventh in the second race, sixth in the third, and in the last race took second.

Each of the four races was six miles long, twice around a three-mile triangular course. The winds Monday were strong and southerly, and on Tuesday were quite light.

Tannery Ravine Considered for M-40 in Allegan

State Highway Survey Team Does Preliminary Work on Relocation

Allegan (Special) — Tannery ravine, a wilderness in the middle of Allegan, will resound to the rumble and chatter of road building machines if present plans are adopted.

A state highway department survey team is doing the preliminary work on the proposed route of re-located M-40 where it enters Allegan from the south.

The survey calls for the highway to depart from its present location, and enters Tannery ravine near the newly-built Wayne Road home.

A 40-foot grade into the ravine is specified there, with the route following the natural gully to join M-89. According to John Corbit, survey chief, in charge of the project, the road would go about 3,000 feet through the ravine. Tannery creek would be diverted to the north slightly.

While this survey is subject to change and the actual job isn't slated for early bidding, the plan presents several advantages to the present M-40. Its junction with M-89 would be moved 200 feet south, eliminating one spoke of a dangerous six-way intersection. Several sharp curves would be eliminated and Allegan Health Center would then be located on a quiet residential street instead of a main highway.

The plan is an alternative to an earlier one which routed M-40 through the western part of town to a junction at Western Ave. Traffic studies revealed most of the M-40 traffic stopped in the city instead of passing through.

Another change would occur about a mile and a half south of Allegan where an S-curve over a deep gully would be straightened. Corbit said. A new fill would be required about 150 feet east of the present location.

Contractors began grading the re-located portion of M-40 Monday in Trowbridge township. It will be opened to travel early in August.

Central Avenue, Barber Fords Win At Third Street

A parade of runners in the third inning that didn't stop until nine tallies had been chalked up by Central Avenue, ruined any hopes Baker Furniture had of winning at Third street Monday night. Central won, 13-1.

In the second game, Barber Ford, top team in the city league, had its hands full with the visiting Castle Park Resorters before finally winning, 2-0.

In the first game, five singles and a home run in the big third inning shattered Glen Wiersma's pitching effort for Central Avenue, and he was replaced by Ted Engel on the Baker Furniture mound. Engel allowed five hits in the next four innings, but only three runs.

Meanwhile, Pres Bos, pitching for Central, allowed a scant three hits, struck out seven, and let one home because of a wild pitch. The only three hits accorded Baker, all singles, went to George Moes, Eddie Pigeon and Jim Van Harn.

Lou Altena paced the winning Central team, getting three singles in four trips to the plate. Vern Beelen and Butts Kool each got two hits one of Kool's being the big homer in the third frame. Others hitting for Central were Ted Schreur, Rog Zuidema, Paul Vanden Brink, and Pres Bos, all of them hit singles, and George Knoll who rapped a double.

The second game a pitchers' duel saw only five batters hit safely during the game. Austin Brown, first man up for Castle Park, ruined what could have been a no-hitter by rapping a neat single. But after that, not a reporter hit safely.

For Fords, Ron Appeldorn singled and Walt Woldarczyk doubled in the third inning to get one home. Then in the fifth, Gil Bos walked on and after getting to third by theft on two occasions, came home when Jud Vander Zwaag singled. The only other hit went to Hank Prince in the sixth, but he died on base.

Triangle Keeps Recreation Lead

Triangle scored four runs in the sixth inning to overtake Sixth Reformed church in the recreation softball league Tuesday night. Triangle then went on to win its fourth straight victory in loop play, 7-5.

In another game Tuesday, Wierda beat Lith-I-Bar, 7-3, to strengthen its hold on second place in the league.

Final game of the evening saw the Collegians down Holland Hilt, 13-12 by scoring three runs in the last half of the final inning. Holland Hilt has yet to win a game.

Circuit Court Busy This Week

Grand Haven (Special) — An Ottawa county circuit court jury Tuesday awarded Perry Giles of Muskegon a judgment of $952.50 against Adrian Komejan of Zeeland for work done on resurfacing the latter's skating rink floor.

A judgment of "no cause for action" was entered on defendant's counter claim against plaintiff for $2,100 in which Komejan alleged Giles failed to provide a perfect skating floor. Komejan said he was damaged in the above amount which included cleaning skates, wear on skate wheels, closing of the rink for two days, cleaning and sanding the floors, loss of future business and permanent damage to the floor of $1,000.

Another jury was immediately called to hear the case brought by Peggy Bauman by her mother seeking $5,000 damages, which has been consolidated with another case brought by the mother seeking $20,000 from 30-year-old Gerrit M. Van Kampen of Holland.

The cases arise out of an auto accident Nov. 18, 1949, on US-31 in Holland township in which Mrs. Bauman and her daughter were passengers in a car driven by Mrs. Nellie Kammeraad which collided with the Van Kampen car.

The child received head and body injuries as well as having her upper left eyelid torn off requiring plastic surgery which left her with a permanent scar. Mrs. Bauman received face and mouth injuries necessitating considerable repair work. She alleges because of shock it was necessary to remove a goiter five months later.

Van Kampen, first witness called, admitted he failed to stop for the through highway although he said there was no stop sign. He said he was coming home at 5 p.m. and had been thinking about the turkey business where he was employed.

The case of Simon Pauwe, administrator of the estate of David Lee Pauwe, deceased, seeking $25,000 damages from George Jansen of Holland, has been postponed until Friday. Jansen was the driver of a car in an accident Aug. 1, 1950, in which David was fatally injured.

Olive Center (From Wednesday's Sentinel) Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lugten and children, Beverly and Larry and Mr. and Mrs. George Boeriger of Hamilton were recent visitors at the home of Albert Redder.

The parents of the community are invited to come to the North Holland church Friday evening as the climax to the vacation Bible school which is in session there this week. John De Vries will deliver the message and also tell of the activities of the week.

Visitors at the Nieboer home the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Niel Dirke of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kalkman of Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ten Brink of Allendale, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hancock of Grand Haven and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Voss of West Olive.

The chase began at 10th St. from there it continued to College Ave., to Ninth St., to Lincoln Ave., up Lincoln to 24th St. and west on Columbia before the fellows' caught him.

BREAKWATER
CONVERSATION

Anyone gifted with a reasonable amount of sympathy and imagination can have a good time mingling with the hundreds upon hundreds of amateur fishermen (and women and children) who daily
line the piers and the break-waters at Holland State Park. You don't have to be a fisherman yourself to have a good time. Just take a fishpole, string an angle-worm on the hook, or a minnow
seat yourself on the concrete ledge that Uncle Sam has obligingly provided for you and be ready to talk when you are speaking to.

They are there of course to catch fish, those hundreds who line the piers and breakwaters so closely that it is sometimes hard to find a place to sit down. But they are there also for other reasons than to catch fish. Perhaps hundreds are there because other hundreds are there. Crowds attract recruits; people want to be doing what others are doing.
One trait they have in common
is that they are ready to talk.
With nothing to do but wait for the fish to bite, they are glad to while away the time with conversation. They are from all over the middle west—people who do not know the local geography or the place names that are familiar to the citizens of this section. Mention, for instance, Waukegon or Central Park or Virginia Park,
and as likely as not they'll say,
"Where's that?" But they are interested, and of course all of them know Holland, partly because of their town's reputation, partly because the state park in which they are spending their vacation bears the city's name.

They are surprisingly interesting people, for the most part, a cross-section of America, or at least of the middle west. Occasionally there is a silent one among them, but for the most part those people lining the piers and break-
waters are surprisingly gregarious.
They are on vacation, and they have their hair down as it were.
They talk about their home community in Illinois or Indiana or Missouri or Ohio, and they open up to complete strangers in ways
that they probably never do at home.

And among them there is a sprinkling of truly important people. They do not look it; they may be wearing blue jeans and a battered hat, but their conversation
unconsciously gives them away.
Mingling with anonymous crowds
is always amusing and enlightening, and there can hardly be a more representative American crowd than is daily to be seen
along the piers and breakwaters.
The last few days the fish have been biting so fast there is hardly time to talk. We want to offer a word of caution about the lower part of the piers. They are slippery where the water covers them. We also want to put in a plug for more room and modern facilities at Ottawa oval. The time is now.

Luncheon, Shower Given
For Mrs. Van Tongeren

Mrs. Jay H. Petter and Mrs.
Harold Van Tongeren, assisted by Mrs. Jay C. Petter, entertained in honor of Mrs. Delwyn Van Tong-eren Thursday afternoon. Thirty-four guests were invited to a luncheon and miscellaneous shower at Macatawa Bay Yacht club.
Decorations, in red and white,
followed an airplane motif. Airplanes on each table bore the service number of Mrs. Van Tonge-ren's husband, who is with the Air Force in England. A center arrangement of white gladioli and baby's breath and two planes decorated the honored guest's table.
Gifts for the recent bride were placed in a large airplane.

Another decorative feature was a television set placed in a setting of red and white flowers. On the TV screen was a picture of Mrs.
Van Tongeren, who is a television star in Chicago. Each table place setting was marked with a tiny television set with the names,
"Elsie and Del," on the screen.

Of 500,000 American women enrolled in home beauty courses, 87
per cent reported themselves overweight.

Living Together in the Neighborhood
Romans 12:9-21
By Henry Gearings
The individual may discharge
his every responsibility relating to family life and yet be in a large sense a failure. This is due to the fact that the citizen has responsibilities that relate to the neighborhood as well as to his family. Again and again, Jesus reminded his disciples of their obligations to the communities in which they lived and to their government. In every community
there are responsibilities which the Christian must face as a citizen.

The Christian must relate his life properly to God. That comes first. If we do not consecrate our lives to God first of all, none of our relationships can be right. We must start there, or we will not start at all. It should not be necessary for any one to appeal to us to make that dedication. We ought to be willing to do it on the basis of our common judgement. When an individual gives his life to God it will follow that his relationship to his family, to his neighbors, to the world, to business, to politics, to pleasure,
and to everything else will begin
to be right.

The Christian will relate himself properly to the world. And what can that be except nonconformity. He is in the world but not of it. His life and his conduct protest against the world.
When I say the world I do not mean its mountains, or its rivers, or its cities or its business. What I mean is the ways of world-minded people. There is nothing evil in the world unless men have made it evil. To do as the world does, we all understand to mean to fall in with its schemes and to accept its suggestions. If we have chosen to think and to talk and to act as the world does, we have not separated from its company.

The Christian will become transformed in thought and heart. The Greek word for transformed is the same one that is translated transfigured in describing what happened to Jesus on the mount.
At another place it is translated changed, meaning to be changed
from one state of glory or grace to another. It is a rich word, and is descriptive of a transformation of the inner life instead of being conformed to the world, that is,
brought into agreement with it,
we will be transformed, made something entirely different from
it, so that it can be said we have come out from it and are separate.

The Christian will relate himself properly to himself. He will in a very realistic sense stand off
from himself and evaluate himself. We are not to think more highly of ourselves than we ought to think. A proper self apprais-ment of ourselves is one of the most valuable helps in the world.
For every person who suffers
from an inferiority complex there are ten at least who are suffering from a superiority complex. They are proud, self important, haughty, and disposed to despise others.
That is nothing less than an awful spiritual state to be in. Let us be assured that if we have overestimated our appearance and ability, and take occasion to display it, we have gone far toward destroying our influence with others.

A Christian will relate himself properly to the church. This is necessary to the completion of the Christian's relationships. The first is toward God, the second to the world, the third to oneself, and the fourth to the church. The members of the human body are helpfully related one to the other;
and so are the members of the church to be. The church members have different gifts and offices, and on one is able to do everything. The necessity of each doing his own work, and of all working together in the church is vividly set forth.

The Christian must be sincere.
The word means without wax. In the olden days when a piece of marble had a flaw in it, the sculptor would often fill in those flaws
with wax; when it was without wax, it could be said to be sincere. Genuine is another word meaning the same thing. In our love and in our giving and in our sympathy we are to be whole and sound, to be what we pretend to be.

The Christian is to be earnest and zealous. Here is the defect of many of our churches. They are not enthusiastic. There is so little fire in them. They are without that passion which indicates real earnestness for the salvation of souls and the edification of believers. We rarely go about our work as though we had hearty interest in it. There is nothing that dies as quickly as religion
when the fires burn low. If the church in the next twenty five years does not recover something of the lost radiance, and something of its abandoned spiritual purpose and passion, there will be a sad story to tell.

In the sermon on the Mount we find the marks of the ideal Christian. We wish we had all those marks. Only one person who walked the earth had them. But we can reach up toward them. We can wish to have them. When we see an individual we can usually tell whether or not they are a part of his life. We frankly and humbly confess we have not reached the ideal. But it does not so much matter where we are, as it does which way we are going.

"Welcome to Holland," says an old school superintendent to a new one. This greeting came from
E. E. Fell (right) at an informal public reception Monday evening in Hope church parish hall for
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wood Scott. Left to right are
E. V. Hartman, new president of the board; Supt.
and Mrs. Scott; Mrs. George E. Kollen, a former president of the board, and Fell who served as superintendent here some 35 years before retiring six years ago. About 235 persons representing a cross section of educational, civic and business circles attended. Wives of school board members presided at the punch bowls and school principals served as hostesses. Arrangements were in charge of the schools committee consisting of Mrs. Kenneth De Pree, Mrs. John K. Winter and Vernon D. Tan

Veteran Correspondent
Visiting Junius B. Woods

It's not hard to imagine a conversation between two veteran World War I newspaper correspondents when they get together.
Especially when the same two have covered many of the biggest news stories in Europe and Washington, D. C., in the more than three decades since the Armistice in 1919.

It's happening these days at Waukegon summer home of Mr.
and Mrs. Junius B. Woods. Guests
of the Woods are Mr. and Mrs.
John T. Parkerson of Washington,
D. C.

Wood and Parkerson were correspondents together during the first world war, both worked extensively in Europe after the war,
and the same two are close friends in Washington, D. C.

Parkerson, who left the newspaper field for the real estate
business a couple of years ago,
has an intimate knowledge of Europe, it's people and customs.

He was an Associated Press correspondent with the American forces during the first war, most of the time with the First Infantry division. However, he was assigned to the British front toward the end of the war and was
with the first troops to enter Brussels, he was the first American correspondent to interview
the Kaiser and German Crown Prince after the war. At the time he was employed by Hearst Publications.

Parkerson returned to London
for a short time to write feature stories and returned to the continent to cover the peace conference
in Paris.

Miss Harriet McCall Wed
To John W. Matthews, II

In a lovely ceremony Saturday afternoon at Grand Haven, wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Harriet Louise McCall and John William Matthews, II. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Watson McCall of Grand Haven and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews of 827 South Shore Dr., Holland.

The double ring wedding took place at 4:30 p.m. in First Presbyterian church with Dr. H. Grant Mason officiating. The bridal party assembled before the altar
decorated with four baskets of white gladioli and red roses and lighted candelabra against a background of palms and ropes of green. The pews were marked with white fans centered with red gladiolias and white streamers.

Prelude music and traditional wedding marches were played by Miss Lee McCracken, organist. S.
Earle Trudgeon, the bride's cousin,
sang "Ich Liebe Dich," "Bless
These Two" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Before approaching the altar
with her father, the bride sang "I Love You Truly." She wore a traditional white gown of Chantilly
lace and heavy bridal satin over a bridal satin slip. The fitted bodice of lace was styled with scallops on the sheer nylon illusion yoke with round satin neckline. The long sleeves tapered to points at the wrists and the full skirt of Chantilly lace was scalloped on satin,
which spread to form a cathedral
train. She wore a cloche of Chantilly lace which held in place her fingertip veil of French illusion.
She carried a white orchid and white Bible.

Miss Barbara McCall, the bride's sister, attended as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Muriel Jacobson and Miss Janet Johnson, sorority sisters of the bride. They wore white nylon marquise gowns over silk taffeta
with off-the-shoulder stoles ending in wide fitted bodices fastened by self-covered buttons. They carried white net lace fans, centered
with clusters of happiness roses.
Each had roses in her hair and at the nape of her neck. Little Janet McCall of Spring Lake, as flower girl, wore a gown of white nylon marquise over taffeta featuring a narrow lace yoke trimmed with lace. She carried a fan-shaped arrangement of roses and had a white rose tiara as her headpiece.

Assisting the groom as best man
was Melvin Witt of Muskegon.
Ushers were Donn A. Kieft of

Grand Haven, Howard Kole of Holland, James Lamb of Ganges
and Hugh Hughes of Flint. Mr.
and Mrs. Wilford E. Kieft of Grand Haven were master and mistress of ceremonies.

Two hundred guests were invited to the wedding and to the reception which followed in Presbyterian church house. White gladioli and red roses decorated the rooms and the coffee and punch
tables were centered with silver candelabra, white fans and red gladiolias.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Eugene O. Harbeck and Miss Harbeck, who presided at the coffee table, Misses Julia Ellis and Barbara Wipperfurth at the punch
table, Mesdames A. R. Van Tol, John Van Schelven, W. B. Bloem-endal, Kelly Trapp, A. W. McCall, John Van Stratt, Irwin Stoner,
Gordon Boelens, Misses Arlene Swart, Mildred Ringelberg and Nancy Dornbos.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews left on their wedding trip after the reception. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue and white silk print dress, white linen coat, navy and green accessories and a gardenia
corsage. They planned to travel through northern Michigan and east to Montclair, N.J., where they will be at home at 98 Elm
St. after Aug. 1.

The groom, who attended Hope college and Michigan State college, is stationed with the U. S.
Coast Guard at Staten Island, N.Y.
The bride was graduated in June
from Michigan State college,
where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Next year she will teach third grade in the Montclair public schools.

2 to 5-Year Sentence
Given in Larceny Case

Grand Haven (Special)—Irwin
Slack, 22, Grand Haven, who was found guilty by a jury last Thursday of larceny of a radio from an automobile, was sentenced Monday by Judge Raymond L. Smith to serve two to five years in the Southern Michigan prison at Jackson.

Slack is alleged to have taken a radio from a car which was parked in the lot of the Grand Haven Motor Co. May 16.

Slack previously had been convicted of three other offenses, indecent liberties, unlawfully driving away of an automobile and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

When a big old turtle is found having a fine chicken dinner, it's real news and when these three young Huck Finns witnessed such a phenomenon they rushed to inform The Sentinel. It all happened when the 11-year-old Hamelink twins, Jerry and Jack, and their sidekick, Leland Garvillink, 10, were exploring their favorite creek bed near their home at 26th and Graafschap road. Whether the turtle actually killed the chicken is a source of speculation, but the turtle certainly was having itself a fine meal—under water too. The trio consulted encyclopedias but haven't been able to identify the turtle.
What's more, it has a clubfoot, something the twins rushed to tell their father, Dr. M. H. Hamelink. Left to right are Jerry, Leland
and Jack, with Leland holding the turtle. (Penna-Sas photo)

Roamer Boat Firm Awarded Contract For Half-Million

10 All Steel Tugs To Be Produced; Firm Will Expand

A war contract for nearly half a million dollars has been awarded the Roamer Boat Co., of Holland, by the Navy department.

The contract calls for 10 steel tugs, measuring 45 feet in length, of all steel construction and using diesel power. The boats will be delivered to Charleston, S. C., with completion dates staggered from Dec. 1, 1951, until June 1, 1952.

Robert R. Linn, owner of the Roamer company, said the contract will result in an increase in employees from the present 15 to 30. Re-tooling is expected to be completed in about one month, and the tugs will be built along with the company's regular line of production.

The contract probably will be renewed after the first 10 boats are built, Linn said. The Roamer contract is the largest boat contract awarded in Michigan since the Korean war began, and is one of three issued in the country for this type construction, Linn said. Linn made two trips to Washington in connection with the contract. He credits Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Grand Rapids and Clarence Javling, executive vice president of People's State Bank, with help in winning the contract.

Linn expressed surprise with the ease of his relations with the government.

"There is a lot of talk about all the red tape that a businessman runs into when he goes to Washington for government business," Linn said, "but I ran into none of it."

"When I arrived everything was ready for me and all the government employees treated me with respect. Everything ran as smoothly as could be. I also did not run into any 'five per centers' that you hear so much about. In fact, the whole deal was just like doing business with a large, well-run private company," the Holland man said.

The Navy tugs will be launched at Jesiek Brothers yards and will be tested by a Navy trial boat before they are accepted. Linn pointed out that Jesiek's will have to enlarge its facilities to handle the tugs.

In addition to increased personnel, the contract means construction of a building addition, with completion expected in six weeks. The cement block addition will add one-third more space to the factory and will include a 20-ton overhead conveyor.

Bond Revoked, Sentence Delayed in Ramsey Case

Grand Haven (Special)—Circuit Judge Raymond L. Smith Monday delayed sentence for Herman Ramsey, 32, of 14 East 18th St., Holland, after the probation officer reported he was unable to complete pre-sentence investigation because Ramsey left his given address a week ago.

Ramsey had pleaded guilty July 9 to a charge of unlawful disposition of personal property and appeared Monday for disposition of his case. His sentence was postponed until next Monday.

Meanwhile, both bondsmen indicated they no longer cared to continue his bond of $1,000 and Ramsey will be confined to county jail until new bondsmen are obtained. Ramsey is alleged to have turned over a 1941 sedan June 23, 1951, to Reliable Auto Sales as part of the purchase price of a 1949 car while the 1941 model had a chattel mortgage on it to First National Bank of Holland.

4-H Dairy Tour Well Attended, Says Campbell

Specialist Instructs Members in Judging, Showing of Dairy Cattle

Grand Haven (Special) — The Ottawa county 4-H Dairy Tour held Friday, July 6, was well attended by 4-H club members, leaders and parents.

According to R. A. Campbell, Ottawa county 4-H club agent, the tour started at the Cedar Crest dairy farm, Hudsonville, owned by Roy H. Lowing. Nevels Pearson, assistant state leader and dairy specialist, instructed the boys and girls in what to look for in judging dairy cows and gave a demonstration on how to fit a calf for showing and some pointers on how to show a calf.

All members of the tour were given free chocolate milk.

The second farm visited was the Henry Modderman Guernsey farm at Lamont. Modderman's entire herd of registered Guernseys has been built from one original 4-H calf.

The third farm visited was Elmo Heft's Holstein herd near Konklm. Heft has the highest herd in butterfat production in Ottawa county in 1950.

Campbell announces that there was a judging class held at Elmo Heft's farm near Konklm on Friday evening, July 13, and the eliminations to pick the members to represent Ottawa county at the district elimination will be held at Eugene Brower's farm at Vriesland on Friday evening, July 20.

All dairy members interested in trying to earn a place on the county 4-H dairy judging team should be present at these two events.

Van Dyke Autos Tip North Shore

The North Shore Cubs team of Wooden Shoe baseball league knocked over the Van Dyke Autos at Riverview Park Friday evening, 6-2.

North Shore took command of the game in the first inning, getting a run home after B. Waterway tripled. G. Kolean singled to bring the runner in.

In the second inning, Cubs got three runs home on two hits, a double by G. Stanford, and a single by M. Witteveen. A walk, a stolen base, and an error helped the Cubs runners along. One of the other Cub runs got home in the third inning on a triple and a double, and the other in the fifth on an error and a single.

Van Dyke still was scoreless during this activity, and remained so until the fourth inning, when Zeke Piersma got home after three consecutive errors marred the Cubs' play.

They tacked on another run in the fifth on a single, an error, and a walk.

C. Piersma led the Van Dyke hitting, with two singles. H. Wiersma, Fuzz Bauman, and P. Van Eck each got singles to help a losing cause.

Carl Reimink was the winning pitcher and Clyde Krehwecker the

Man Found Guilty After Jury Is Out 15 Minutes

Grand Haven (Special) — After deliberating for 15 minutes Thursday afternoon, a Circuit Court jury found Irwin Slack, 22, Grand Haven, guilty of larceny from an automobile. Slack's bond of $500 was continued until Monday morning, when he will appear for disposition of his case.

Slack is alleged to have stolen a radio from a car in a parking lot of the Grand Haven Motor co. on May 16.

Martin's main street was the scene of a meeting of two German women when Mrs. Marianne Muth (left) arrived to spend three days with an Allegan county family. She is introduced by Miss Mary E. Bullis, home demonstration agent, (center) to Margaret, a German war bride, and James Elferink.

Results Proved Good In Side-Dressing Corn

Grand Haven (Special) — Side-dressing of corn has proved to give results in those instances where corn seems to be stalled or when it is losing its color. If corn follows a legume, the legume generally supplies enough food so side-dressing may be of no value.

Side-dressing can be done as late as July 25.

L. R. Arnold, county agricultural agent advises the use of ammonium sulfate containing 20 percent nitrogen or ammonium nitrate which contains about 35 percent nitrogen. It is best to use about 40 pounds actual nitrogen to the acre. In some cases where soil is depleted, more could be used.

Hamilton Church Lays Cornerstone

Hamilton — Cornerstone laying ceremonies for a new Hamilton Christian Reformed church were staged here Thursday evening at the new church site at the southwest corner of the Townline and Overlook roads.

Seminarian Bernard Van Someren, who has charge of services this summer, presided at the ceremony. John Volkers led singing, accompanied by Mrs. Harold Zoerhof on the accordion. The Rev. John Beebe preached on I Peter 2:3-8 and the Rev. Peter De Jonge of East Saugatuck led devotions.

Assisting in laying the cornerstone were the Rev. Beebe, Lucas Meiste and Willis Lampen. The latter reported on the history of the congregation, a copy of which was placed in the cornerstone together with a list of charter members.

The Rev. Gareth Kok of Maple Avenue church, Holland, gave the closing prayer.

Lucas Meiste, chairman of the building committee, is supervising the carpenter work and Willis Lampen supervises mason work. Bricklaying will be completed in about two weeks.

The church has extended a call to Candidate Isaac Apol of Cutlerville.

Reckless Driver Pays Fine After Hitting Child

Grand Haven (Special) — Ten-year-old Jeron Leech, route 1, Spring Lake, was treated and later released from Municipal hospital for bruises received when struck by a car at 6:55 p.m. Thursday on the West Spring Lake Rd. at Smith's bridge. The car was driven by Tommie Hayes, 33, Grand Haven.

The child was walking in the same direction as the vehicle, when the driver, apparently driving too fast, struck the child.

Hayes was arraigned before Justice George V. Hoffer Thursday night for reckless driving, pleaded guilty and paid $35 fine and $4.50 costs.

Five Fined Wednesday

Five motorists paid fines in Municipal Court Wednesday. Robert V. Snyder, Otsego, paid $30 fine and costs for reckless driving. Bernard Zyder, of Grand Rapids, paid $12 fine and costs for improper passing. Alvin Jipping, route 1, paid $12 fine and costs for speeding. Walter Alverson, 124 East Seventh St., and Chester Kuiper, 195 West 20th St., paid $1 parking fines.

German Woman Visiting United States To Study How Women Do Housework

Allegan (Special) — To the ordinary American housewife, Mrs. Marianne Muth of Berlin, Germany, has come here to study a dull subject.

She wants to see how farm women do their housework.

During her six months' stay in the United States, she will watch many a woman toil over her automatic washing machine, cook on a push-button range, load vegetables into freezers and press their clothes on electric ironers.

Commonplace as it may be to those who will demonstrate these everyday chores, Mrs. Muth will find it fascinating. She comes from a place where housewives have few household appliances.

Her job in West Germany is equivalent to that of local home demonstration agents. She has set up 10 community centers—"dorf-gemeinschaftshaus"—where farm women may gather to do their laundry, preserve food, bake, and even take baths. The equipment, too costly to outfit each home as in America, is purchased on a half-and-half basis by the government and the users.

Mrs. Muth's local hostess, Mrs. James Elferink of Martin, surely will be one of her most enthusiastic helpers in her research. For Mrs. Elferink is a German war bride, who, in three years in this country, still marvels at the wonders of American housekeeping.

"I did not believe my husband when he told me about America," she exclaims. "Now I have these things myself!"

Her stay here was arranged by Mary E. Bullis, county home demonstration agent, who found in extension club member Margaret Elferink a happy volunteer.

Mrs. Muth's large, dark eyes reveal the fun she is getting out of seeing America. But she takes her mission seriously.

"I have three simple aims: To see how you women plan your work; see your equipment; and how you use it."

County Agent Informs Farmers on Balbo Rye

Grand Haven (Special) — L. R. Arnold, county agricultural agent, informs farmers that Balbo rye is now being produced by the Michigan Foundation Seed association.

Any grower who wishes to grow certified Balbo rye should place an order for seed at once.

Arnold states that Balbo rye has given good results in Ottawa county. He hopes one or more growers can be induced to grow certified seed for 1952. The only way this can be done is to secure foundation seed.

Bushels of Grain Lost Each Year

Grand Haven (Special) — Bushels of Michigan grain are lost each year because some farmers combine their wheat before it is ready, warns L. R. Arnold, county agricultural agent.

A golden yellow color doesn't indicate the wheat field is ready for harvest, he points out. But it does mean harvest time is approaching.

One of the best ways to find out whether the field is ready to be harvested is to rub several heads of wheat between the hands. If the wheat kernels shell out easily, it means that the crop is approaching the time it should be harvested. However, it still doesn't signify the crop is ready for harvest.

Another helpful method to use is the salt test, developed through Michigan State college farm crops research. Wheat growers not familiar with the simple salt test may contact the county agricultural agent's office for details. A final test can be run by an elevator operator to determine the moisture content. This is called the moisture test.

If the moisture test shows the wheat contains more than 14 percent moisture, the wheat is not ready for combining. Wheat combined before it is ready, or too soon after a rain, will not keep in storage either on the farm or in the grain elevator.

Storage bins should be properly prepared by thorough cleaning and disinfecting at least two weeks before harvest. Then always store new grain in a clean bin. Putting new grain on old grain invites weevil infestation.

Ottawa Orchard Owners Adopt Mulching Practice

Grand Haven (Special) — Many Ottawa orchardists have adopted mulching as an orchard practice. Mulching is a very good practice advises L. R. Arnold, county agricultural agent. It adds organic matter, improves the physical condition of the soil, prevents run-off and makes nutrients available.

Now is the time to obtain mulching. Due to bad weather there is possibility of securing some spoiled hay. The grain harvest may make some straw available.

Any orchardist who has not tried mulching should visit growers who have. He can get their opinions on this practice.

City Employees Call Halt to Talk Wage Increase

Employees of three city departments went to work at 9 a.m. Monday after 14 hours of wage talking with City Manager Harold C. McClintock.

It could have turned out to be a sit-down strike, but it didn't. Employees of the park and cemetery departments and the street department gathered at the storage garage on Fifth St. near Riverview park.

They said they were a bit fed up with not having any answers from the city after submitting requests for pay increases several weeks ago.

City Manager McClintock told the men he had already made some headway on studying the city's wage pattern and had discussed the subject with the heads of the departments. He promised to submit a report to Common Council at the Aug. 1 meeting.

He said he couldn't say whether there would be a retroactive date, but said if there were it would be July 1.

Requests from the three departments for pay increases and one from the police department, submitted to Common Council before the arrival of the new city manager, had been referred to the city manager's office for study and recommendation.

The street department at present has 21 employees, the park department eight and the cemetery department six employees, plus some extras. The police department also is seeking pay increases, but was not represented at today's meeting. Police have a no strike agreement.

The Board of Public Works operates its own program geared to the Consumers Power system. It was said Holland hospital employees also operates as a separate unit.

McClintock said the meeting was quite friendly that morning and there was no show of resentment. The men just wanted to know where they stood.

"And they won't get docked for an hour and a half either," he said.

Hijacked Truck, Trailer Found 30 Miles Apart

Allegan (Special)—Luck and an alert eye helped Sheriff Louis Johnson solve a missing truck case Friday.

While on separate trips on other business, Johnson found the trailer and then the tractor of a truck hijacked near Benton Harbor early Friday.

The two were 30 miles apart. Johnson was en route to Pullman when he heard the first radio broadcast describing the missing truck which three bandits were said to have taken from its driver, Charles Kwelose of Chicago.

The sheriff recalled he had just passed an abandoned trailer on the Swan Lake road. He returned and found it was the one described, the seal unbroken and the freight cargo still intact.

Later in the afternoon going to Saugatuck on another matter, Johnson noticed a truck parked in an orchard near M-69. It matched the trailer found earlier.

Kwelose told New Buffalo state police that three men blocked him with a car across the highway three miles north of Benton Harbor. He said he was forced to ride in the car with two of them for hours while the third man drove the truck away. He was finally released, he said, on US-31 about 5 a.m.

Johnson said the only damage to the truck was a smashed speedometer.

"The way that trailer was parked along the road indicates whoever put it there had driven a tractor trailer before," Johnson said. "It was parked expertly and three bandits were found there."

MBYC Buffets Feature Spreads by New Chef

Buffet suppers at Macatawa Bay Yacht club mean gatherings of families and friends in a vacation atmosphere on Lake Macatawa.

And the weekly suppers usually attract a good sprinkling of out-of-townners.

The man that supervises such affairs is Beach Gill, chairman of the yacht club house committee. He works hand-in-hand with chef Louis Schaller, who has cooked and served meals in some of the top eating places in the United States.

Schaller came to this country from Switzerland in 1929, after working in some of the top-notch restaurants in that country.

ACTH, Cortisone Lead To Cure for Arthritis

"These drugs—ACTH and cortisone—will lead to a cure for arthritis, rather than being a cure themselves. It may take 10 to 20 years, but their development is a tremendous step forward in the medical world."

That's the prediction of Dr. Theodore D. Bayles, a famous eastern researcher working with arthritis. Dr. Bayles is spending a two-weeks' vacation with his sister and family, Mrs. R. C. Bosch, at Castle Park.

"Even with proper use of these two drugs, arthritis is not cured," Dr. Bayles said. "The patient's condition is only improved while he is taking the drugs. Most persons are the same both before and after taking ACTH or cortisone, but their conditions are improved while using the drugs."

It's Good to Be Back, Even If Home Is Torn Up

Mrs. Miles Returns Early After 3½ Months With Family in France

"It was wonderful seeing everybody and everything in France again, but it was wonderful coming home too!"

And "home" to Mariette B. Miles in this case means Holland Mich.

Although a naturalized American citizen after living here 3½ years, it took a visit back to her family in Strasbourg, Alsace Lorraine, to realize she was more American than she thought possible.

She even cut short her visit, coming home after 3½ months instead of the five months she had planned.

And in Holland a surprise awaited her. The entire house was torn up, and instead of a cozy reception, she found rugs rolled up on the porch, draperies down, dishes moved and plaster dust everywhere. Her husband, Ottawa County Prosecutor Wendell A. Miles, was having the house remodeled.

The work would have been completed if she had returned on schedule but six weeks makes a lot of difference. And the Miles domain at 272 West 14th St., is still in a turmoil.

When the prosecutor met his wife and young daughter in New York earlier this month, he hinted she might find home "a bit different." It certainly was!

Four-year-old Lorraine was glad to be back home too. Having little knowledge of the French language, the child was at first unable to understand her grandparents and it was only after Mrs. Miles put her into a French kindergarten that she began to be conversant in French and understand others.

Now, Mrs. Miles plans regular French sessions at home to keep Lorraine remembering . . . and Wendell too. After all, the local man met her while serving as U.S. liaison officer at Strasbourg and later as claims commissioner for liberated countries after World War II. Besides, the family may all visit France again some day.

Mrs. Miles was happy to find Strasbourg a bustling busy place with its stores well stocked with supplies. It was evident the Marshall plan had done much for France, and there was an influx of such American products as vacuum sweepers, washing machines and other appliances on sale. There was plenty of food available, but it was just as expensive as in America and wages were much lower.

"A skilled workman earns about 40 cents an hour," Mrs. Miles said. That makes it easy to understand why most French people have their own gardens and raise nearly all their own vegetables.

The French excel as fine cooks, and Mrs. Miles spoke feelingly of the delicious soups, salads and pastries which make the French tops in fine cuisine.

It was a delightful surprise to find a New American influence abounding in France—pasteurized milk. Mrs. Miles had had qualms at having to boil all the milk for her daughter—and it wasn't necessary.

A highlight was attending a meeting of the Council of Europe. Mrs. Miles explained Strasbourg is the capital of Europe and the site of the meetings aimed to unify the democratic countries. She said considerable progress has been made.

Of course, a visit to Paris was a "must" on her list, and there she saw streams of American visitors—none of whom she knew. And at the performance of "La Traviata" in a big Paris opera house, she was surprised to hear English spoken by some natives of India sitting next to her. They turned out to be seminary students in Paris to attend UN sessions.

Vets Swamp Baker And Sunoco Clubs Green Hornets

The Re-vitalized Vets softball team clobbered Baker Furniture, 12-4, at Third street Tuesday night to take its second straight win in second-half softball play.

In the second game, Pelon Sunoco was held scoreless until the fourth inning, when five consecutive singles and a home run gave them a six-run lead over the Green Hornets that never was threatened. Final score was 10-1, for Pelon.

In the first game, Larry Tibbitts gave Baker batters a slim diet to nibble, allowing only five hits in leading his Vets to victory. Two of the hits were doubles, one going to Plaggemars, the other to M. Vande Water. Vande Water also got one of the three singles Tibbitts allowed, the others going to Bluekamp and Engel.

The Vets were allowed only six hits, but used wildness and walks by Plaggemars in the third inning to get eight runs home. He allowed four walks, hit one batter, and chucked four wild pitches during the inning.

Guile Daining led the Vet hitting with a double and a single. Don Van Duren, Johnny Van Hoven, and Tibbitts each got singles, and Chick Zych got a double.

In the second game, Sunoco finally solved Fortney's offerings, and after the big fourth inning had little cause for concern. To the six runs made that inning, they tacked two more in the sixth and two in the seventh, getting 11 hits over the route.

Meanwhile, Case Veldman was giving the Green Hornets four hits, two of them being singles in the fourth inning when the losers got their lone run. Morry Wierda led the Hornets, getting two singles, while Rich Wolters and Gerry Kok each got one single.

Van Dyke Autos Topple Visiting Ottawa Eagles

Sixth-inning wildness caused Marvin Busscher and his Van Dyke Auto teammates to lose a shutout at Riverview Park Tuesday night, but the locals still beat the Ottawa Eagles of Grand Haven, 6-3.

Busscher walked three batters in the sixth frame and gave up one hit that netted the visitors all their runs. However, he struck out two batters to lift his total for the game to 13 in seven innings of play. The hit he allowed in the sixth frame was the lone swat accorded the visitors. It went to Dick Mason and he was held to a single.

Such was not the case with the Automen, however. Zeke Pierasma and Fuzz Bauman led the hitting, each getting two safeties and Al Piersma, Spike Van Eck, and Vern Fuder all got singles.
