Adrian Defeats Legion All-Stars In Zone Finals, 4-1

BATTLE CREEK (Special)—Holland's American Legion All-Stars came to the end of the road here this morning as they lost in the zone championship baseball finals to Adrian, 4-1.

The Stars, who won the district championship for the first time in history last week, took the favorite's role in zone competition after two straight victories Tuesday, one over Kalamazoo, which had won the zone title 19 out of the past 20 years.

Adrian, on the other hand, had a disappointing start with a 1-0 loss to Kalamazoo. But Adrian came back with a 7-6 edge over South Haven Tuesday afternoon and a 7-2 victory over Holland Wednesday morning.

Then they blanked Kalamazoo, 4-0, Wednesday afternoon, for the right to meet Holland in the finals.

Trailing in the ninth, Holland had a rally going that was choked by Adrian pitcher Jerry Masteller.

John Stryker ripped out a single to open the ninth and Tom Ragains took first when he was hit by a pitched ball. But the alert Masteller picked Stryker off second base to nip any Holland ideas of tying the game.

Manager Clare Van Lierie started Leroy Fogarty who went all the way and might have fared better if it hadn't been for an unfortunate eighth inning.

Then the score was tied at 1-1 when a fielding error put one Battle Creek man on base. A single placed two on.

An Adrian triple cleared the baserunners and made it 3-1. A nice squeeze play produced the final run for the winners as the man on third scored.

Adrian scored in the first inning on two singles and a stolen base but Holland came back to tie it in the fifth when Jim Mok-ma walked, Ragains entered the basepaths on an error, Dave Klav-er singled and Jack Faber hit a fielder's choice.

But that was about all Holland could muster off Jerry Pate, who hurled the first six innings for Adrian.

Adrian will thus participate in the state championship at Ypsilanti next week.

Holland's team is returning home this afternoon.

The line score:

Adrian 100 000 030—4-7-1

Holland 000 010 000—1-7-2

Outfielders Get Real Workout in League Softball

There were almost more hits than spectators at Van Tongeren field Wednesday night as the Vets blasted out 10 hits in whipping Raphael, Inc., 10-3, and Moose got 11 safeties in stopping Vandenberg Buick, 5-0.

The spectators were scared off by the mosquitoes, but the outfielders were too busy chasing fly balls to notice.

After Vern Boersen led off with a single for Raphael, VFW came back with a three run hitting attack. Case Velderman and Jim Slagh singled before Rog Beckman boomed out a double, scoring Velderman.

Slagh and Beckman scored on Denny Kimber's single.

VFW started right out again in the third frame on singles by Jay Hoffman, Velderman and Beckman, a few wild pitches and a walk to Lum Veldman, good for a total of three more runs.

Raphael came back with a single run in the fourth and seventh, but was swamped again with a Vet scoring parade that brought home four runs.

Velderman was tagged for four hits to notch the win. Jason Ebels gave up the 10 hits to lose.

The night's opener also started out with promises of a hitter's paradise.

Don Hylst led off with a triple. Stu Baker scored him with a double. Bill Zych scored him with a home run.

Ed Stille got a double in the second, but couldn't score. In the third Bill Zych tripled, and scored on Jason De Vries' single.

Moose got three more singles in the fourth frame, and another pair in the sixth that accounted for the final run.

Meanwhile, Matt Numinkoski stopped the Vandenberg outfit, allowing only three singles. Bob Fortney was charged with the loss.

The win gave VFW an 11-5 record in league standings, pushing Raphael nearer the bottom with five wins and 10 losses. It was the eighth win for Moose against seven losses, and the 13th loss for Vandenberg against 3 wins.

Registration Still Open For Swimming Instruction

Registration for the second period which runs from July 25 through Aug. 12 may be made at Lincoln School at the corner of 10th and Columbia.

As during the first period, a free section will be run late in the afternoon for those who furnish their own transportation. Time will be 4:15 p.m.

Explorer Scouts Hunt, Fish in Western Wilds

A 14-day camping trip in the western mountains—a visit to Kit Carson's old home—fishing for trout in the mountainous Raydo River—prospecting for gold—exploring little known areas.....

These are only some of the adventures six explorer scouts from Holland currently are enjoying in a 16-day expedition at the Philmont National Scout ranch, Cimarron, N.M.

The group left Holland July 13, accompanied by district scout executive Richard Wilson of Holland and Wilbur Husted and Louis Ryenga of Grand Haven.

Included are Ted Van Zanden, Garry Vandenberg, Jr., troop 12, Trinity Reformed Church; Robert Bonnette, James Van Putten, troop 42, Lakeview school; Calvin Lamoreaux, troop 22, Beechwood Reformed church; James Cook, Post 2007 Third Reformed Church.

The local scouts joined 30 Grand Valley Council scouts that left aboard the "El Capitan" streamliner from Chicago.

At the Philmont ranch the scouts started an 81-mile pack trip along a rugged trail. One of the overnight stops will be at the top of Clear Creek mountain, the "top of Philmont."

The explorers will cook all meals along the trail and stay each night in tents located at base camps spotted along the trail. The group receives special training in Dutch Oven cooking, back packing, fishing, burro packing, horsemanship, nature, geology, field sports, conservation and camping.

Several pack burros accompany the contingent to carry heavy equipment.

Philmont is a 27,000 acre ranch operated by the Boy Scouts of America as a national camping area for Explorer scouts. The ranch is the biggest boys camp on earth, and was donated to the scout organization by Waite Phillips of Oklahoma.

Willard G. Leenhouts Unit, American Legion Auxiliary, will sponsor a party for scouts at Veterans Facility in Grand Rapids on Wednesday, July 27, at 2 p.m. All members wishing to attend are asked to call Mrs. Martin Japiga, telephone 3528, as soon as possible for transportation.

General and Mrs. L. H. Miller of Athens and Venice, Fla., visited relatives in Holland earlier this week. They left Wednesday from New York for a two months trip to Europe.

It was not by accident that Mrs. James Boyce, 76, of Laketown township, Allegan county, turned to oil painting as a hobby for her later years.

She was heeding the advice of her mother who, many years ago, urged her to plan for the day when her responsibilities as a wife and mother would be ended and she would find the hours empty and fruitless without a new interest in life.

And, inspired by the dune country south of Holland which has been her home for more than 40 years, this great-grandmother rekindled a girlhood interest in art and, in all seriousness, launched a new career as an oil painter.

No Sunday dabbler, Mrs. Boyce has devoted regular hours to her paintings since, at the age of 70, her nine children all with families and interests of their own, she realized that the time her mother had warned her about arrived.

Since then she has produced 32 oils, most of which now occupy places of honor on walls in the homes and offices of her sons and daughters, grandchildren and great grandchildren. The bulk of her work was done in the first year or so after she took up painting. Lately she has settled down to an average of about four paintings a year. This is not due to a slackening of interest, however. Mrs. Boyce has catarracts in both eyes, and one eye is virtually sightless.

With one eye gone, judging depth and perspective becomes difficult and Mrs. Boyce was forced to develop new techniques and rely on her memory in order to continue her work.

Although she was self-taught as far as her oil painting methods are concerned, there is nothing of the Grandma Moses primitive in her work. Her drawing and perspective are excellent and she has an accurate grasp of the colors that go into her favorite scenes, the dune country with which she is so familiar and the lake scenes which she also favors.

Although Mrs. Boyce has shown her pictures—mostly at the insistence of her family—in various amateur shows both here and in the west, it is doubtful that any of her work will find its way into a public gallery. Her five children still living, plus 16 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren provide a demanding "market" for her work.

Her children include James, Allegan county treasurer, whose home is located down the road from hers; Mrs. Willard G. Meene, whose husband is pastor of Trinity Reformed Church in El Monte, Calif.; Mrs. Robert Pratt of Los Altos, Calif.; Mrs. Ben Quinn, of Reno, Nev.; John, of San Francisco and Mrs. Robert Vanderluis, of Casper, Wyo. Two other sons, Fred and Richard, died in recent years.

Last Wednesday, 21 members of her family were on hand to help her celebrate her 76th birthday.

Housing Agency Okays $1 Million Hope College Loan

The Housing and Home Finance Agency in Washington has announced approval of a one-million-dollar loan to Hope College to erect a new men's dormitory on the southwest corner of Columbia Ave. and 12th St.

Approval of the loans means work will go ahead on the building which will be similar in design to Durfee Hall. College officials said they have been working on the loan for the last seven or eight months.

The Emersonian fraternity house—the former Beach residence—will be razed to make way for the new building. It also will be necessary to move the Hope College clinic from the site.

When completed the dorm will house 300 men students. It will be strictly a residential building and students will eat at other dorms. There will be approximately 150 rooms in the three-story building. Architect is Ralph Calder, who also served in that capacity for Durfee Hall. Calder has served as architect for buildings at many state colleges both in Michigan and elsewhere.

The building also will contain study rooms and an apartment for a faculty resident director.

While Stuits was considering the Ann Arbor job, Bill Hinga was moved to from the reserves and Ernie Post was hired as Coach Dale Shearer's assistant.

Stuits retained his old job of head baseball coach. A new duty for him will be coaching eighth grade basketball this winter.

In the summer, Stuits serves as director of Red Cross swimming instruction.

Serving under Stuits as reserve football assistant will be William Noyd, a graduate of Western Michigan, who coached at Pentwater last year. Noyd graduated from Western in 1949 and received his masters' there in 1954.

Post, who will be one of Shearer's two assistants, is a native of Holland who played football for Hope before graduation in 1948. He graduated from Holland High in 1943. Last year, he taught in West Junior High in Lansing.

Continuing as ninth grade football coaches will be Ed Damson and Ted Boeve.

Following the hearing today a petition will be filed in either Circuit Court or Probate Court for a hearing on "money." At that time three commissioners will be appointed by either court.

Those whose property is affected are Mrs. Emilie Jeske, Mink Dykhouse, Harold Rice, Mrs. Myrtle Kamhout, Joseph Bazany, Adolph C. Schmidt, Dick Gringhuis, William Satter, Richard Schoenbeck, Frank Karowski, Charles Salisbury, James H. and Peter Van Zyl, Gerrit Veurink and Peter J. Ryenga.

The Grand Haven State Bank and Peoples' Life Insurance Co. of Franklin, Ind., also are interested in mortgages on some of the property.

Two Holland residents today were notified that their cousin, a Chicago police officer, died Tuesday night from bullet wounds he received July 5.

Albert H. Brown, 57, was shot when 16-year-old Ronald Charles Dean escaped from the Shakespear police station lockup. Brown was apparently shot with his own gun.

Mrs. Casey Tubergen, Waukegan, and Alfred Brown, cousins of the officer, said the patrolman spent his vacation here for a number of years.

Brown's daughter-in-law is the former Joyce Vanden Berg, daughter of Henry Vanden Berg.

Ned Stuits Decides To Stay Here, Will Coach Reserves

With the announcement that Ned Stuits will not go to Ann Arbor, Holland High's 1955 football coaching staff was complete today.

Superintendent of Schools Walter W. Scott said that Stuits had asked for and received a telegram releasing him from his 1955-56 contract with Ann Arbor High School after finding a "terrific housing shortage" in the university city.

Stuits, who asked to be released from a Holland High contract early in June for a line-coaching job under Henry Fonde, said he was unable to find a place to live in Ann Arbor and that the cost of living there forced him to reconsider.

He has been named head reserve coach for 1955, however, in stead of his varsity assistant post of last year.

While Stuits was considering the Ann Arbor job, Bill Hinga was moved to from the reserves and Ernie Post was hired as Coach Dale Shearer's assistant.

Stuits retained his old job of head baseball coach. A new duty for him will be coaching eighth grade basketball this winter.

Castle Home Owner Puzzled—to Say Least

A crudely penciled note accompanied by two quarters to repair a damaged screen has Roger Bouwman befuddled and bewildered these days.

Roger returned to his Castle Park home Monday afternoon and found a large hole cut in a screen on the west side of the house. Inside on a table was a note and two quarters: "Sorry wrong house, —for screen."

There was money in the house and other valuables which were not disturbed. And the door on the east side of the house was open at the time.

Roger's wondering. It'll cost more than two quarters to fix the screen.

Group Honors E. V. Hartman

At the annual business meeting of the Ottawa Savings and Loan Association Tuesday, retiring director and former secretary-treasurer Ernest V. Hartman was presented a scroll for his outstanding leadership and devotion to duty in the savings and loan field.

Hartman was connected with the company from July of 1936 until his retirement from active service in October last year. Vernon D. Ten Cate made the presentation.

The following directors will serve on the board for the next year: Oscar Peterson, Clarence J. Becker, Gilbert Vande Water, Vernon D. Ten Cate, Ray Kolk, John Post, William C. De Roo, Jacob Zuidema, I. H. Marsille and Herman Mool.

Workman confined the fire with domestic extinguishers until firemen from the Graafschap department arrived. The fire was localized to the top of the elevator, in the motor mechanism.

No feed was damaged, although the roof was almost burned through. Damage was estimated at less than $500.

Firemen, meeting for a 6:30 picnic in Graafschap community park, only had to run a few hundred yards to the truck when the alarm came in and were on the scene in record time. They were on the scene about two hours.

US-31, M-21 Crash Injures Two Men

Two motorists were injured at 12:20 p.m. today in a collision at US-31 and M-21.

Jay Bruijschot, 32, of 125 East 16th St., received possible fractures of the right ankle, left hip and ribs. X-rays were being taken this afternoon to determine the extent of injuries.

Robert L. Hickman, 81, route 1, Baldwin, suffered severe multiple scalp lacerations. His condition at Holland Hospital was described as "good."

Ottawa County deputies said Hickman was southbound on US-31 and apparently ran the red light and collided with the side of Bruijschot's eastbound vehicle.

Both men were driving pickup trucks. The impact knocked Bruijschot's vehicle into the boulevard. Four Bell Telephone workmen were a short distance away and ran over to direct traffic until the injured were removed.

Public Hearing On 20th St. Reset For September 7

The public hearing on vacating 20th St. between State and Michigan was rescheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 7, by City Council in its regular meeting Wednesday night.

Originally scheduled for last night before Council, the hearing had to be postponed because the third notice advertising the meeting was not run in last Thursday's Sentinel as requested.

Since the City Charter requires that this notice "be published not less than once in each of the three weeks preceding the hearing..." Council decided on the regular meeting of Sept. 7 for the hearing and ordered notices published in the Sentinel on Aug. 20 and 27 and Sept. 3.

When the mistake was reported Wednesday, Sentinel Publisher W. A. Butler said the notices would be re-run, free of charge.

Also postponed because a notice was not published was the opening of bids for the $500,000 hospital bond issue. Council decided to open these bids at its next meeting on Aug. 3.

Regular Council business started at 8 p. m. as Mayor Robert Visscher called for a suspension of rules at 7:35 to hear protests from the audience on recent Council action making 22nd St. a through street. This took about 30 minutes.

Council approved the recommendation of the Hospital Board and awarded the mechanical construction contract for the new hospital addition to Holland Plumbing and Heating Co. for $174,456.

It also decided to hold a referendum among city employees requested by the Municipal Employees' Retirement System on the question of social security. Holland employees will be polled on Oct. 24 and 25.

No protests were filed on Council action providing for new sanitary sewers in the following three areas:

1. 28th between Harrison and Cleveland.
2. Cleveland between Wildwood Dr. and 32nd; 31st and 32nd east from Cleveland.
3. 32nd from Harrison to the west line of Becker's addition.

Council agreed to purchase 50 to 100 tons of calcium chloride in 25-ton lots as needed from Solvay Sales Division of Solvay, N. Y., which offered the lowest bid of $27 a ton.

It was also decided to purchase a lot from Mrs. Gerlie DeFouw for expansion of off-street parking for $6,000. The lot is located west of Dykstra Funeral Home on East Ninth St., directly behind the De Fouw Electric Store and Williams Jewelry Store.

In other action Council:

- Granted rubbish collector licenses to Gerald Meusen of Zeeland and George Bruschart of route 1.
- Approved the transfer of a pool room license to Vyn Von Ins at his new location at 102 River Ave.
- Granted permission to Michigan Bell Telephone Co. to place a new public telephone booth on the River Ave. side of Model Drug Store.
- Approved an application by Sam McCoy to move a house from 132 East 12th to 250 East 11th.
- Accepted the regular reports of the

Early Entries Indicate Big Junior Horse Show

ert Clark of Allegon. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jesiek and family of Holland enjoyed a picnic dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nye. Miss Marilyn Hutchins of Fennville was also a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mc Vea and two sons of Waukegan, Ill., were weekend guests here in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mc Vea.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Plummer of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, spent the past week with relatives here.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Whitmer of Medicine Lodge, Kans., were recent over night guests in the home of their aunt, Mrs. Reisel Knox.

A family birthday supper in honor of the 12th birthday of Miss Sharon Ensfield was held Thursday, July 7, at the Ensfield home.

Butch and Penney Cameron of Jackson are spending this week in the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Halseh.

Many entries are already in from junior horsemen all over Michigan and the Midwest for the 16th annual Castle Park Junior Horse Show. The show is scheduled Saturday, July 30, at Maplebrook Farm near the Castle.

General Chairman Mary Bosch announced today that the committee has selected Mrs. Austin Brown of Castle Park and Tryon, N.C., as English judge and Mr. and Mrs. Preston Parish of Hickory Corners as judges for the western division of the show.

Miss Bosch and members of her committee are pictured above at an outdoor meeting when they polished the many silver trophies to be awarded to winners of the various classes. The trophies will be displayed in the lobby of the Castle several days before the show.

Seated left to right, are Miss Bosch, Lynn Winter, Judy Hekman and Gail Butler, and standing, Jane Hansen and Charlotte Butler. One new game has been included in the 14 classes of this year's show. The Obstacle Race, a new innovation several years ago, will again be included by popular request. The riders "come prepared for anything" as details of the race are still secret.

In the English division of the championship class, the young equestrians will be competing for the Carter P. Brown Challenge Trophy. Nan Barrett, last year's champion, will not be competing this year so the field will be open for a new winner. In the Western division of the championship class, Jean Pekelder will be trying for her second win on the three times necessary to keep the trophy.

In the race for the Black Sally Memorial Trophy, Lynn Cartier will be trying for her second win of the three required for permanent possession.

Committee members are expecting a record number of entrants this year. Early entries indicate there will be close to 100 riders participating.

The show will begin at 9 a.m. with children's leadline for the youngest riders (under seven years) and will continue throughout the day with a noon recess for lunch. Afternoon events will begin at 2 p.m.

Committee members have been working hard on pre-show plans to make it one of the best in the show's 16-year history.

Members of the committee assisting Miss Bosch are Rosemarie Brink, recording secretary; Lynn Winter, post entry secretary; Charlotte Butler, treasurer; Gail Butler, assistant treasurer; and Jane Hansen, Alfie Curtenius and Judy Hekman.

Dog Notes

By Peter Boggs

Dogs in the Laundry

A couple of weeks ago the police of Providence, R.I., received a call from a Mrs. Clarence Booth reporting that her five-week-old fox terrier was missing. The police promised to do what they could to find the dog. In spite of this Mrs. Booth decided to enlist as much help as possible herself.

First she phoned all her neighbors and advised them the puppy was missing. Then when the postman called she asked him to look for her pet on his route. The laundryman stopped by and she asked his help. These two men both agreed to be on the watch for the missing animal.

An hour or so later the laundryman called Mrs. Booth on the phone to report he had found her missing dog. After returning to his plant he discovered the pup tied inside Mrs. Booth's laundry bundle.

Then there was a Mrs. Quinn of Cleveland, Ohio, who was surprised when she looked in the window of her automatic washer to see the face of her cocker spaniel pup going round and round. Hurriedly she stopped the machine and opened the door. Out jumped her pet, soapy and wet, but nevertheless unharmed from his washing. Somehow her dog, like Mrs. Booth's, had become mixed up with the laundry — only this one received a bath.

Feeding Your Dog

In Summer Months
The amount of food a dog requires depends upon the amount of exercise he receives. On these hot summer days dogs lie about more and consequently don't need quite as much food as during cooler weather when they get more exercise.

Many dog owners believe that dogs shouldn't be fed meat during the summer months. This is wrong. Meat can and should be the basis of any dog's diet either in hot or cold weather. Feed your dog less food in summer: avoid sloppy and hot foods. The most important thing to remember is to make sure plenty of fresh water is available to your pet. Water is very important to a dog, especially in hot weather.

It Was The Wrong Kind of Dog

In Camden, New Jersey, Mrs. Clara H. Spencer appeared before Advisory Master in Chancery William J. Kraft and asked that her alimony of $7 per week be raised.

She explained that at the time of her divorce the court had given her custody of the family dog, allowing her an extra dollar for its care. The dog then had a litter of four puppies and she needed the extra money for their support.

Judge Kraft denied the petition when Mr. Spencer's lawyer produced proof that at the time of the separation the family owned a male dog.

The Question Box

Question: My wife bathes her dog every day in our bathtub. I don't think this is good for the animal. What do you think?

Answer: I won't enter into your dispute about the use of the bathtub but I will say that a dog shouldn't be bathed every day. A dog shouldn't be bathed more often than once a month. A good brushing daily will keep the animal clean.

Complicated Case Getting Untangled

GRAND HAVEN (Special)—Robert Francis Spalding, 48, of Muskegon, formerly of Grand Haven, is finally getting a few of his court troubles untangled.

In Circuit Court Friday, he pleaded guilty to a charge of drunk driving, second offense, and was placed on probation for two years. Conditions are that he serve 30 days in county jail with credit off for time already served since his arrest July 6; pay $100 costs within 90 days; pay $5 a month over-riding fees, refrain from drinking or frequenting places where intoxicants are sold or consumed; surrender his operator's license and agree not to drive a car for at least one year.

Disposition of Friday's case involves an offense July 6 when Spalding was arrested by Deputy Keith Averill on a charge of drunk driving, second offense.

Friday's disposition does not clear another case of drunk driving, second offense, which has been pending in Circuit Court since Spalding pleaded not guilty on June 2. In that case, he provided bond for trial and demanded his operator's license. He previously was convicted of drunk driving in Traverse City Sept. 26, 1949, at which time he paid $50 fine, $5.58 costs and had his license suspended for 90 days.

Spalding appeared for examination on the July 6 case in Municipal Court Thursday afternoon and took the stand in his own defense. He said he wanted to get the matters of his chest and make a new start. The case was bound over to Circuit Court.

Two Year's Probation Given in Assault Case

GRAND HAVEN (Special)—Ronald Grand Long, 27, of 205 Pine Ave., Holland, who pleaded guilty June 28 to a charge of aggravated assault, was placed on probation for two years when he appeared in Circuit Court Friday.

Conditions are that he pay $100 costs at the rate of $10 a month, $5 a month oversight fees, leave intoxicating liquors alone, and make restitution of doctor and hospital bills incurred by his victim, the amount of which has not been determined by Probation Officer George Damsen.

The alleged offense occurred June 14 upon Cecil Long, 21, same address but no relation, at a Grand Haven factory where both are employed. Ronald insisted Cecil pay up his room rent, also $5 back rent, and then assaulted the younger man who was hospitalized until July 5. The assault has been at liberty under $500 bond.

In giving disposition, Judge Raymond L. Smith said whatever consideration is given Ronald Long is on behalf of his wife and family.

Library Adventures

—By Arnold Mulder

A new kind of book has come into being. The reading public has accepted the type almost without realizing that it is new. But until quite recently the type was unknown to book shelves of America.

The forthcoming memoirs of former President Harry S. Truman is a good example. Although it has not yet been published, it has been described in great enough detail in the advance notices so that there can be no mistake about its general character.

The new type of book is invariably in several volumes. It is just as invariably compiled rather than written in the usual sense of that word. Its authorship is never individual, always multiple. In short, it is synthetic; more or less official documents are spliced together with explanatory wordage.

While it would be unsafe to assert that this new type of book can never by any chance be literature, up until now not one of those so far published has been within shouting distance of such literature as can be thought of as "belonging to the ages." The Truman memoirs may establish a precedent, but it seems doubtful.

The advance notices inform the reading public that the Truman memoir, which he has now completed after working on it for two years, will contain 500,000 words. That ought to be good for about five volumes, although the titles of only two have so far been announced: "Year of Decision," scheduled for book publication Oct. 20, and "Years of Trial and Hope," to be issued next February.

The advance notices make it clear that the Truman memoir will be made up of all sorts of state papers and letters and directives and other documents of that kind, together with a running comment on their background. They will doubtless be valuable raw material for future writers; as literature they are not likely to be of even the slightest significance.

At least that has proved to be true of other books of this type. The most famous of them are the memoirs of Winston Churchill, in five ponderous volumes. Churchill, himself has produced literature in other books. His memoirs are exceedingly valuable as the raw stuff of history. As literature they are negligible.

Almost as famous as the Churchill volumes are the memoirs of Herbert Hoover, also in several volumes. Hoover has never produced literature, to my knowledge, but, again, we would be appreciably poorer if he had not gone to the trouble of producing the books that tell the story of his life.

There are other examples of the type. All of them, at least all those that I have read, were produced synthetically. That is, the producers (it would be inaccurate to call them writers) employed a corps of secretaries to help them to gather, edit, correlate, and weave into a narrative pattern the thousands of documents that had been sifting into their files through the years.

That is quite different from writing of memoirs of men of similar standing of an older day. The book known as "Grant's Memoirs" is a good contrasting example. Grant was not a professional writer, but when Mark Twain persuaded him to write the story of his life, the general sat down to the task himself. And because he could express himself simply and clearly and directly—all three of them Grant character traits—he achieved literature. Not all the old-time memoirs were literature, but they had at least a chance. This is unlikely for the new type.

Local Concerns Reflect National Increase in Savings Bond Sales

Holland factories are pitching in energetically to help push savings bonds sales to a new high, according to Ottawa county chairman Clarence Jalving.

"Although the latest figures aren't available yet, we're getting good cooperation from local concerns," Jalving said.

Six corporations are carrying the ball for the city in the nation-wide drive to increase bonds sales to $5½ billion this year. Michigan's share of this total is $321,800,000.

Participating in Holland are Crampton Manufacturing Co., Baker Furniture Co., H. J. Heinz, Chris-Craft Corporation, Hart and Cooley Co. and General Electric.

Sale of savings bonds has been increasing yearly, according to Jalving. "Sales of series E and H bonds in 1954 were 12 percent above 1953 and 37 percent higher than in 1952," according to Jalving.

Over eight million employees in business and industry throughout the nation are currently participating in the payroll savings plan where they work and invest an average of $165,000,000 per month in savings bonds. Approximately 400,000 employees in the state are under the plan.

One example of the success of the plan in Holland is Crampton Manufacturing Co. where 60 employees have signed up for the plan—some of them as much as 10 percent of their income.

Officials of the Treasury Department urge, however, that individuals interested in signing up for the program can do so any time, not just during the special promotion currently in progress here.

Heidema Property Case Adjourned

GRAND HAVEN (Special)—Following a morning of testimony and extensive negotiations in the early afternoon, a suit brought by Heidema Brothers of Holland in Circuit Court against John and Anna Pawdzik of Spring Lake to secure possession of property on Spring Lake was adjourned Thursday until Dec. 31.

This period will give defendants, the opportunity to pay all indebtedness which the Heidemas incurred in securing the property in which event plaintiffs will reconvey the property to the defendants. If the indebtedness is not paid by the adjourned date, plaintiffs will be entitled to take the judgment against defendants which will give them the right to repossess the premises.

The Heidemas purchased the property last Feb. 1 from Pratt Food Co. of Pennsylvania which foreclosed on the property in 1954 for $40,269 due on a promissory note. In the suit, the Heidemas also claim $10,000 damages. The Pawdziks remained in possession of the property which they formerly operated as a duck farm.

Earlier this year, the Heidemas announced plans to subdivide the lake frontage of the 69-acre farm.

Police on Lookout For Chicken Peddler

GRAND HAVEN (Special)—City police are searching for a woman between 55 and 60 years old, ordinarily dressed but driving a shiny blue and white Buick, with Indiana license plates, who has been soliciting the sale of frozen chickens in the better neighborhood in Grand Haven and Spring Lake.

She claims she is poor, her husband is deceased and she is selling the chickens to make a living. Some housewives bought as many as 1 to 12 at a cost ranging up to $33. In some places, the woman offered to deposit them in the deep freeze herself. In other places where the purchaser thawed the fowl for immediate use they found the greatest part of the weight was water and the chicken itself weighed only a couple of pounds.

She made the rounds on Thursday but it was not until Friday that customers realized that they had been taken and more than a dozen have reported to city police.

READY, SET, GOOOO—Chuck Rubin, instructor at the Red Cross sponsored free swimming program at Chippewa Point on Lake Macatawa gives the word to this group of life saving candidates. About 375 Holland persons—including a number of adults—are taking advantage of the daily program. (Sentinel photo)

All Ages Participate In Swimming Program

"Almost 7,000 persons drowned in the United States last year, and the principal reason was that only about 10 percent of our citizens are good swimmers," explained Ned Stuitts, director of the Red Cross swimming program as he instructed a group in a life-saving crawl.

"Under the program more than 375 Holland youngsters get a chance for free instruction in water safety and swimming.

Stuitts, and his staff that includes Mary Sanger, Joyce Alverson, Nancy Lindgren and Chuck Rubin, conduct daily classes for all ages and grades of swimming ability. Operating at the new Chippewa Point location near Ottawa Beach on Lake Macatawa, the instructors think the new area may develop into a first class instruction site.

"There are a lot of difficulties connected with setting up a new area," Stuitts said. "We've got to clear the lake bottom, set up roped off areas and had to have new docks built."

Biggest headache, however, is transportation to the area. This has been solved by again using buses—but they've had to charge $1.50 for the six week session.

There's still room in the second session scheduled to run from July 25 to Aug. 12, and there are even some openings in the late afternoon adult groups in the current session which lasts until July 22.

The instruction staff agrees that adult groups are the hardest to teach. "The older folks are scared stiff of the water," they explain. The program is jointly sponsored by the Red Cross and the City Recreation Department.

Volleyballs

Enjoying the summer weather? People who think it's too warm to stay home all seem to flock to Holland State Park where the campers and trailer-ites are having a fine time.

But the other day the water turned cold. Any way you look at it, 55 is just too cold for comfortable swimming or bathing. Not that that kept everybody out of the lake. The park has its share of do-or-die types.

But whenever the water temperature drops 15 to 20 degrees, the old question always arises of WHY?

A five-year-old camper came up with a brand new answer. He said, "Every time that Coast Guard helicopter flies over here the lake turns cold. It's those big fans on top!"

The radio in the officers' room at the police station was giving forth on "Traviata" over WHTC the other day, and the officers who moved about were making some rather unkind remarks about that type of singing. In fact, it got to be something of a game.

One officer, however, was not contributing to the conversation. And then during a lull, he was humming an aria along with the singer.

Then Ed Kampen admitted he had attended operas a lot while he was in Germany. There a GI could get the best seat in the opera house for the equivalent of $1.25, and a lot of GIs attended.

Ed drew the line at sopranos, however. "When they came on, we would have a break," he said.

The headline of this column somehow has become shortened to plain "Volleyballs" instead of "Volleyballs From Ambush."

The other day, we came across a similar column in an Iowa newspaper titled "Over the Coffee." Would a title like that be more appropriate for Holland, Mich.? We readily confess most of these items are picked up over the coffee cups.

If you have any good ideas, send 'em in.

Tulip Time came in for another nice plug a little while ago. The Eck Tours and Travel Service of Chicago which routed five busloads of visitors to Holland on the Saturday of Tulip Time, has issued a souvenir booklet containing pictures of Tulip Time, and names and bus group pictures of all the 195 persons who made the tour.

Another Tulip Time plug came in the May-June issue of Nabisco National Biscuit Co.'s official organ. Under a picture of the costumed couple ran these words: "Among loyal Dutch who don native costumes during famed Tulip Time in Holland, Mich., are Salesman and Mrs. Frank Brive."

Remember the story of the disappearing hose that attracted nationwide attention a week or so ago?

We understand Jack Beverwyk, 352 College Ave., had a similar experience. His hose went eight feet into the ground, but he rescued it.

A lot more newcomers moved into Holland during June, according to the city hostess.

Four more General Electric families moved in during the month. Mr. and Mrs. Dean W. Thompson of Fort Wayne, Ind., have purchased a home at 574 Lawndale Court. They have a daughter, 11, and a son, 9. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Creeluis of Fort Wayne are living at 116 East 34th St. They have two young sons. Mr. Creeluis is an auditor with General Electric.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Mossburg and three daughters have purchased a home at 107 East 35th St. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Willis of Fort Wayne are building a home at 1157 Harvard Dr. They have a daughter, 13, and a son, 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Lancy of New Orleans, La., are living at 593 Bay Ave. Mr. Lancy is with Morse Co. Their children are grown.

Fetters and four children of Spring Lake have purchased a home at 1210 Floral Ave. Mr. Fetters is chief engineer with Camfield Fiber Glass Co. in Zeeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald De Marois and four-year-old twin daughters and two-year-old son of Detroit have moved to 475 Central Ave. Mr. De Marois is district manager for Chrysler Corp. Mr. and Mrs. Justin Harkema and two sons of Muskegon have purchased a home at 95 West 19th St. Mr. Harkema is with Reimink Plumbing.

Methodist Chapel Scene of Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ward Perry

Miss Marilyn Gail Greenwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Greenwood, 470 Howard Ave., and Howard Ward Perry, U. S. Marine Corps, were married last week Friday, July 8, in the chapel of First Methodist Church. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude J. Perry, 154 Lakewood Blvd.

The Rev. John O. Hagans performed the double ring rites. Mrs. Rudy Mattson was organist and accompanied Mrs. John O. Hagans, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." Decorations, arranged by Mrs. Claude Lamereaux, featured background of palms, ferns and candelabra with lilies. Garden flowers and ferns decorated the rooms.

A gown of white embroidered nylon over ice blue taffeta was worn by the bride. Tiny covered buttons fastened in front of the basque bodice with standup wing collar and three-quarter pushup sleeves. She carried a pink bouquet of lilies. A matching half hat of nylon with lace daisies held her fingertip veil and she carried a white Bible with a shower of satin ribbons and baby's breath with an orchid. Her pearl necklace was a gift from the groom.

Mrs. Walter Grover, the groom's sister, as matron of honor wore a ballerina gown of ice pink embroidered nylon over pink taffeta, with Peter Pan collar and short sleeves. She carried a pink bouquet of carnations, roses and sweetpeas with ivy. He bride's sister, Melodie Sue Greenwood, as flower girl wore a rose pink dress with three-tiered bouffant skirt and carried a white basket of roses. She wore flowers in her hair.

Mrs. Harvey Grover fashioned

both the bride's gown and her attendant's. Walter Grover attended the groom as best man. Ushers were brothers of the bride, Terry Greenwood and A-le Robert D. Greenwood, home on 20-day leave from Wright Patterson Air Force Base, where he is a member of the band. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Greenwood wore a dark beige and pink silk dress, pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations and white rose buds. Mrs. Perry wore an aqua dress, white accessories and pink corsage of roses and carnations.

Assisting at the reception for 75 guests in the church parlors were Mrs. William Aldrich as mistress of ceremonies; Kay Lynn Perry, in charge of the guest book; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Beukema who served punch; Mrs. Robert D. Greenwood and Mrs. Preston Shaffer, who arranged the gifts; Mrs. Hagans, who served the wedding cake; Mrs. Neil Van Leeuwen, Mrs. Arthur Keane, Mrs. Ford Weeks, Mrs. Sue Adams of Rockford, Miss Barbara White of Muskegon and Miss Phyllis Keane of Holland, who assisted about the rooms.

For their northern wedding trip, the bride wore an aqua and white print sheath dress, matching aqua linen duster, white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride, a Holland High graduate, is a member of Dance Masters of America and is a dance instructor at Osterhouse Dance Studio in Grand Rapids, Greenville and Ionia. The groom, a graduate of Lowell High, attended Davenport Institute in Grand Rapids. Mrs. Perry will remain with her parents while her husband completes eight more months in the Marine Corps.

Chix Win in 11th On Single, 14-13

ZEELAND (Special) — Catcher Ken Wiersma's bases-loaded single in the bottom of the 11th inning gave the Zeeland Chix a 14-13 decision over the South Haven Merchants here Friday night.

The Chix, who top the second-half standings in the Southwestern Michigan Baseball League with a 2-0 record, gained revenge for two close first-half defeats by South Haven only after a long, uphill struggle.

They scored seven runs in the fifth to take an 11-8 lead but lost it to a four-run burst by South Haven in the sixth. Two sixth-inning runs by the Chix put them back in the lead but South Haven tied it up with a single tally in the eighth.

Shortstop Howie De Jonge's third single started the 11th for the Chix. He was sacrificed to second by Tony Diekema before an error sent De Jonge to third and put pitcher George Pierson on second. Then Raterink was intentionally passed to fill the runways.

That free pass was pitcher saep Wally Wildt's big mistake as Wiersma pounded his single to win the game.

Marv Goorhouse started for the Chix, and was relieved by Marv Warner in the fifth. Pierson came on in the sixth and did a fine relief job the rest of the way. He got the win for his efforts.

Ace John Lamanita started for South Haven and left for Wildt in the fifth.

The loss shoved South Haven to a third-place tie with Holland.

HHS Literary Magazine Out

Newest member of the publications department at Holland High this year was the introduction of a new literary-humor magazine. The Red and White, as the magazine is called, is a collection of student written poems and short stories.

The magazine has a two-fold purpose. The first is to stimulate interest in writing, reading and enjoying poetry and creative writing. The second purpose is to give a bonus to subscribers of the school paper, the Holland High Herald.

The Red and White was printed in limited edition and distributed as a bonus to Herald subscribers. Seniors received their copies at the close of school in June. Underclassmen will receive their copies in the fall with a special campaign to boost subscription sales of the Herald.

The magazine has a wide range of selection. Girls seem to write a lot of good poetry but when the boys try their hand at writing, the results are surprisingly good.

The staff of this year's publication included the following: editor-in-chief, Bill Butler; poetry editor, Faith Rusties; feature editor, Shirley Meiste; continuity editor, Barbara Roeser; typist, Janet Larson; circulation editor, Ruth Ann Breuker; business manager, Liz Ver Hey; business assistant, Myrna Cook; Make-up men were Larry Brower, Herman Koning, Roland Tien, and Russell Hopkins. Robert D. Chard was faculty advisor. Printing advisor was Dallas Ruch.

INTERPRETING THE LIBRARY

At a recent meeting of Friends
of the Library, a state speaker declared that it is important to "interpret the library to the community."

That statement is truer than many people realize. Regardless of whether the library remains an independent unit or is incorporated in the public school system, as advocated by the city planning commission, it equally needs to be interpreted to the community.

The representative of the Michigan Library Association who made the statement was thinking largely of the library as an institution — as a building and a service and a community center.
It is also true in regard to what is in the books that make up the library.

It is doubtful if more than a small fraction of the people of Holland have even the faintest conception of what is in the publications their tax dollars have paid
for. Not merely what is in them in a general way; that type of information is too general to win their interest. Rather what's in the books for them. A well chosen collection of books such as Holland has contains enough interest for nearly anybody who has the slightest intellectual curiosity to send him to the circulation desk forthwith.

The only trouble is that the average citizen doesn't know what he is missing. Simply because he does not know what there is there. Many people unconsciously think of the library as being for highbrows. It is for them also but by no means exclusively. A good public library has something for all types and levels of intelligence and interest.

The Sentinel is trying in a small way to inform the people of the community at various times about what some of the books contain.
Such a weekly feature as "Library Adventure" is for the purpose of informing the local public about the insides of some of the books.
There is not enough room, of course, to report on more than a sample here and there, but those samples can at least serve as suggestions.

Best of all is to go to the library personally and take out a card. Once started, the reading habit grows. The books are there waiting for you. Many of them have something for you, personally.
By neglecting them you are failing to collect the cultural dividends that may be yours. For library dividends are not preceded by a dollar sign; they are represented by the institution's circulation figures.

Friends of the Library should keep on with their campaign and research. They may find a way.
Dollars seem to be our concern
right now.

Southern Kingdom Overthrown

2 Kings 24:20-25:12

By Henry Goerlings

The kingdom of Judah came to an end. Calamity after calamity fell upon the people until, completely broken, they were carried away captive to Babylon. The historian records the solemn fact that these evils came at the commandment of the Lord as a result of forsaking God by the rulers and the people as a whole.

It was a difficult and thankless task which fell to the last king of Judah. The better elements of the nation had been transferred to Babylon. An inferior class of people, politically inexperienced and religiously without any convictions, was left. Jeremiah distinguished them sharply from the spiritual remnant taken away.
Ezekiel in the eighth chapter of his book gives a vivid picture of their religious disposition. The king, weak and without consistent principles, was dominated by headstrong officials. Though strongly advised by Jeremiah to remain loyal to the king of Babylon, he broke his oath. Swayed
by his upstart court, by false prophets and by intrigues with Egypt, he foolishly rebelled.

A complete blockade of the city
was established and soon the inhabitants began to suffer famine.
As so often happens, it was not long until famine was followed by pestilence. Bread was no longer to be had and mothers devoured
their children. The people's skin grew black from the fever of hunger. Water was scarce and was sold at a price. A third of the people died of famine and disease. A breach was made in the wall. As the Chaldeans entered about midnight, the king and his soldiers fled eastward toward the Jordan valley. They must have slipped through the lines since
the town was guarded on all sides.
Soon Zedekiah's soldiers were scattered, probably among the farmhouses in search of food.

The work of destruction was thorough. In those days no god was worshipped apart from some state: Osiris in Egypt, Baal in Tyre, Marduk in Babylon. It seemed a work of pride to destroy the temples and shrines of other religions. It seemed to prove their own claims for their own gods.
The sacred vessels of the temple
were carried away. The torch was set to the temple, to the king's house and other of the best houses.
How much of the finest art and the richest achievements of men
have been destroyed by war!

The fall of Jerusalem is a warning to all nations for all time.
Her fall was not due to decline in her military strength. Israel did not become great because of her great armies, but because of her spirit and the help of God.
Time after time the Lord delivered
His people. The nation's calamity was not due to any internal treachery, nor to destruction on the part of allies. Judah's natural allies against the strong eastern power were Phoenicia and Egypt, and these lent their aid.
Judah and Jerusalem fell because the favor of God had been withdrawn. The sins of the people stood between them and their God.
These sins made it impossible
for the Lord to deliver them, since that would have given the lie to all His declared covenant purposes. Judah came to an end because she had not been true to her God given destiny.

Sin can ruin anything and anybody. In the tragic downfall of Jerusalem, nothing escaped. The palace of the king, the temple,
the homes of the princes, the holy city—all were destroyed. Nothing remained but ruins. All kinds and classes of people died or were taken away captive. The king, the royal family, servants, princes,
and priests fell under the stroke
of divine judgment.

Sin is still destructive and shows
no respect of persons. The things
we hold dear, the people we love,
the institutions we are devoted to
—all are damaged by our sins.
The nation, too, suffers morally
and spiritually from the accumulated effects of the sins of its citizens.

A just and merciful God must punish or redeem. When impenitent men refuse redemption, they require of God that he condemn and punish them. When sinful men, however, repent and turn
from their evil ways, and look trustingly unto God, they find Him eager to save.

No more patriotic soul ever lived than Jeremiah, for no one has shown deeper love of country
nor a greater devotion to his fellow countrymen. And yet he was condemned, rejected and persecuted by the political leaders in Judah because they thought that he was a traitor. His ideals for the nation were God centered;
theirs were self-centered.

To Tell the Truth, 'Twas Plain Nice

It was just a nice summer weekend.

People sunned themselves on the beaches. They went swimming and boating.

And even if they stayed home,
it wasn't too uncomfortable.

Temperatures remained in the middle 80's all weekend to keep
most people fairly comfortable.
Saturday and Sunday nights were nice and cool.

There's more good weather in the making as the forecasters say it's going to be a little cooler tonight at 60 to 65 degrees with a high Tuesday of from 78 to 82.
Almost 40,000 persons found Holland State Park an extremely pleasant place over the weekend
to bring total attendance for the year to 705,568, about on a par
with last summer at the same time.

Weekend attendance breakdown:
Friday, 10,658; Saturday, 13,153;
Sunday, 15,245.

The park issued 315 camping permits last week for a season's total of 1,762, a figure which is 330 ahead of last year.

Both tent and trailer spaces
are still available, however.

A lot of boats were out on both Lake Michigan and Macatawa for fishing or just plain enjoyment.
Fishermen reported good catches
of perch from boats and the piers.

John Donnelly's Stage Open House for Friends

Mr. and Mrs. John Donnelly entertained at an open house at their home, 131 East 26th St. Wednesday evening.

About 75 friends and relatives
from Holland greeted the Donnellys
from 5 to 7 p.m.

Bouquets of gladioli on a white covered table created a cooling atmosphere for the annual open house.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee De Pree of Holland and Mr. and Mrs. C.M.
Cooper of Grand Rapids were visitors at the Music Industry and Trade show at the Palmer House
in Chicago this week.

BRUCE SIMONSON (left) and his brother Brian, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Simonson of Saugatuck, operated a lemonade stand during the hot days last week to earn money to donate to the Memorial Fund for the late Dr. Corkill for a sterilizer for the Community Hospital. To date their net proceeds are $1.13. Officer Henry Hungerford, who also is organist at All Saints Church in Saugatuck and St. Marks Episcopal Cathedral in Grand Rapids, is shown buying a drink. At present Hungerford is training a group for a choir festival which will be presented as part of the 125th year celebration, July 29, at Saugatuck Womens Club.

Legion All-Stars Romp to Win Over South Haven, 10-3

Van Dyke and Fogerty
Pace 13-Hit Assault;
Kant Faces Kalamazoo

BATTLE CREEK (Special)

Leroy Fogerty and Ron Van Dyke
led a 13-hit attack Tuesday
as the Holland American Legion
All-Stars romped to a 10-3 zone
championship victory over South Haven at beautiful Bailey Field.

Fogerty slammed two triples and a double while Van Dyke blasted
a home run and two singles to speed Holland past its first opponent.

Meanwhile, Fogerty and three other Holland pitchers were combining to hold South Haven to three hits.

Holland's 14-man team, accompanied by Clare Van Liere, Ben Bowmaster, Clarence Maatman
and Bill La Barge left the city
at 7 this morning and returned
following the afternoon contest.

Fogerty put Holland ahead in the first with a triple after one man had walked. He scored on Van Dyke's single and Van Dyke
made it 3-0 after two walks and an error.

Both teams scored one run in the second with Holland's coming on Jack Faber's single and Fogerty's double.

The Stars jumped their lead to 8-1 in the third with three runs
on two walks and singles by Jim Kant, John Stryker and Ron Komejan.

Fogerty's triple and Stryker's
double made it 9-1 in the sixth,
but South Haven came back with two runs on only one hit as Holland fielders made two errors.

Van Dyke's eighth-inning home
run was the final tally for Holland.
Fogerty pitched one-hit ball for the first three innings, as did Van Dyke for the second three as he held South Haven scoreless.

Harv Westenbroek hurled the seventh and eighth and was the victim of the two errors. Jim Mokma pitched hitless ball in the ninth.

There are many ways to practice safety on the farm especially with all the machinery we have today.

As 4-H members, let us all try to make this safety week last all year, not only with tractors, but with automobiles, wagons, ani-

Allegan Council Okays Expansion Of Power Plant

City Will Negotiate
For Lumber Company
Warehouse for Site

ALLEGAN (Special) — City
council members Monday night
authorized immediate action on recommendations of engineers for expanding municipal power producing facilities and transmission lines.

City Manager P. H. Beauvais
and Rex Orton, city attorney, were empowered to proceed with negotiations for the purchase of the Allegan Lumber Company warehouse which joins the present diese, plant on the east. This property has been termed the most desirable location for expanding the diesel plant. Beauvais was also authorized to contract with engineers for plans and specifications for a plant large enough to house three diesel generators.

Immediate action on installing automatic controls at the hydroelectric plant and installation of a new 25,000-volt transmission line,
direct from the hydro plant to a new sub-station in the rear of the diesel plant, was also authorized by the council.

Beauvais said the new controls,
transmission line and the property
for expansion could be financed out of electric department funds. A bond issue for the plant and additional generators will be necessary.
Six out of 22 property owners
involved in the proposed off-street parking project have not yet approved deeding the necessary land to the city, according to Orton. The city attorney indicated that two of the cases probably would have to be taken through condemnation proceedings. One more effort will be made to get the deeds before suits are filed in circuit court
here. Despite the delay, Beauvais said the project could still be started this year, however.

Beauvais also reported that he had prepared a scale map to aid
in planning a new street lighting
program in the business district.
Work is also underway on underground repairs to gas and water
mains in preparation for resurfacing streets in the downtown area.

The council approved a resolution establishing the need for resurfacing Bond street and set Aug.
1 as the date for a public hearing
on the project.

The council also:
Referred a request for lighting
parking lots at the north and west ward schools to Beauvais; renewed
the City Sanitation Service's license for another year; approved a request from the Women's Hospital Service League to use city parking meters for Allegan Health Center
contributions Aug. 4-18; approved
funds for a city float for Mayor's and Village Presidents day at the Allegan county fair; withheld action on two bids on a two-way
radio system for all city departments pending word from the Civil Defense department, and authorized Beauvais to advertise
for bids on a new heavy truck,
cab and chassis for the street department to replace a nine-year-old vehicle.

Warm Weather Means Fun-Time at Resorts

Ringed around by tree-covered sand dunes, Holland's Lake Macatawa makes a placid mooring
place for the many yachts and schooners traveling Lake Michigan
during the summer months. Local people keep their boats on the lake, too, and yachtmen from many states come to tie up for the season.

The big races on Lake Michigan,
good harbor and dock facilities,
and easy access to all of the great lakes through Lake Michigan, all combine to make Holland's Macatawa a popular basin.

Warm weather in the past few weeks has brought many of the summer boat dwellers to their top decks. Favorite occupation for most of these enthusiasts is keeping
their floating homes shipshape.

The famed Chicago to Mackinac
race run this week will also bring a lot of the larger boats into Holland for stopovers on the more leisurely return to home ports.

Hotel Macatawa

Close to the biggest boating center on the lake is Hotel Macatawa,
where many a weary crew member stays when docking in Holland.
Guests always have something to do at the hotel, as evidenced by this week's schedule of events.

The coming weekend is headlined by a Variety Show to be held Friday evening at 9 in the ballroom. The show will feature
"Amos and Andy" and all players are employees of the hotel. Preceding this entertainment, Chet Kramer, owner of the sailboat
"Ghost" will speak on the history
of Macatawa and the area.

Saturday evening's cabaret dance and a 9 p.m. concert Sunday, with trumpeter Chester Cwiernia as guest artist, just about fills the weekend bill. Pianist Genevieve Aleksunas and violinist Dave Martin complete the Sunday musical program.

Red Working and his crew was on deck for Tuesday's square dance and fun program. Entertainment was provided Wednesday, starting at 8 p.m. by the children of guests and cottage owners in a special children's program. Dancing, singing and playing of instruments will be featured.

The rest of the week at Mac-
atawa is filled with organized play
for the children; bingo, tennis,
volley ball and movies, as well
as the ever-wonderful water sports
for grown-ups.

Castle Park

"The play's the thing" this week
at Castle Park as the resort's players prepare for their Friday night
reading of "Time Out For Fingering." Castle guests, cottagers and employees will make up the cast for this comic tale of a young girl who finds that her interests, and abilities, lie in what is usually purely male territory — football.
The performance is scheduled for 8:15 in the Castle Park amphitheatre.

The rest of the week is filled with activities, too, as Castle guests really get swinging along on their summer fun schedule. Tuesday and Saturday evenings mean dances on the Dune Top, where breeze-cooled dancers can enjoy the music played high above Lake Michigan. And Sunday always brings the vesper service, held in the natural amphitheatre.

A special attraction for music
lovers will be a concert held Thursday evening on Dune Top. High-fidelity recordings of symphonic favorites will be included on the program.

New names on the register this week are Mr. and Mrs. Stephen W.
Jones, arriving at the Castle for their tenth season.

Lake Shore Cabins

Birthday parties, potlucks, bar-B-Q's and especially fishing were
the past week's entertainments at Lake Shore Cabins.

Tuesday evening the guests had a fish fry with all the fish they have caught the easy way—while sitting in chairs along the dock or the new breakwater. Fish were running so heavily, this week that Lake Shore guests could not eat
them all.

New arrivals, who will be at
the cabins for a week or longer,
include Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rice
of Louisville, Ky.; A. Floren and family of Wilmette, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kearney and daughter
Linda, of Oak Park, Ill.; Mr. and

Mrs. L. Devitto and family, Richard and Carol Sue, and Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hunt of Chicago, who are spending their 11th consecutive summer vacation at Lake Shore.

Waukazoo Inn

The 15th century play "Paoli
and Francesca" was presented Saturday evening for the enjoyment of guests at Waukazoo Inn. The play was done in the manner of the drama quartet by the Gilbert
Fergusen Players.

Sunday night entertainment was provided for some 50 guests by Dr. Beryl Orris, a Chicago psychiatrist, who spoke to the group
on some of the aspects of his field.

Among new guests at the Inn
are E. H. Lonnos of Chicago, and from St. Louis, Rosalie Solomon and her mother, the E. M. Haze-dorns, the Elmer Rettigs, and Miss Harriet Ahrens.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Blase of Cincinnati have taken Oriole cottage, and Mrs. Winifred King, of Kings Mills, Ohio, is a guest at the Inn for her 13th summer.

Several parties brought extra gaiety to the Inn this week, among them a birthday party Monday evening in honor of Susan Nicholson. Host and hostess for the event were her parents, Mr.
and Mrs. Paul Biggs.

In the very popular Waukazoo
baseball league, the Fausl Phonies defeated the Hack Hackers in a softball game played Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bland Button, Sr., left the Inn Monday morning after spending their 21st vacation here.
They have been at the Inn for the first two weeks of that many seasons.

Community Ambassador Eager to Start Life With Her Adopted English Family

By Nell Salm
AT SEA, July 11 — At the present moment the TSS Columbia is slowly gliding over a smooth sea somewhere off the coast of Ireland. Tomorrow morning we will drop some passengers at an Irish port called Cobh and the next day we will disembark at Southampton. From there our group will take a boat train to London. Another day will find us in Norwich (pronounced Nor'ich) where our crew of adventurous Experimenters will join the families they are to be a part of for the next month.

Perhaps at this point I should explain briefly what the organization called the Experiment in International Living has to do with you, community ambassador. The Experiment is a non-profit organization which makes it possible for young people of various nationalities to live for a little while as members of families in different countries other than their own. This plan provides a concrete way for young people to promote international understanding and good will. Most Experimenters pay their own way but sometimes communities will send a young person as their particular representative to a foreign land. In this case the Experimenters become a community ambassador. This year out of 600 American Experimenters, only 70 are community ambassadors.

I am a member of a group of 10 girls who, with our group leader and his wife, will be living in the Norwich Area. After recovering from the disappointment that was ours on finding that no boys were in the group we have been getting along beautifully. We have met several times aboard ship to discuss English history, English government, English customs, English money, English this and English that. Perhaps we will be better able to discuss these things at the end of the summer. Anyway it has been fun — and interesting. The most difficult part of it has been trying to understand the English money system, or a girl who has always found it difficult to subtract a dime from a dollar correctly, it is next to impossible to attempt to subtract pence from shillings from pounds. Luckily I don't have enough money with me to warrant worrying about it.

The ship's radio has informed us that most of Northeastern United States has been suffering under a heat wave. I find this hard to imagine as temperatures on the North Atlantic have been exceedingly cool. Passengers brave the cold, wet winds on deck only if they are well fortified with long wool socks, slacks, sweaters and deck blankets. Are you jealous?

I have found shipboard life to be exciting. We have been kept busy with lectures, forums, movies, talk-dancing, talent shows, language classes, etc. The problem is not to find enough to do to keep from being bored, it is, instead, the difficulty of finding enough time to do everything one would like to do. The people are tremendously interesting. They are from all over the United States and many foreign countries.

Some of them are real characters. For instance, there is the elderly, mild-mannered, rosy little gentleman who is in the habit of bursting into an ear-splitting yodel at odd moments — in the dining room, perhaps, or on the deck amid people quietly napping or reading. It's rather disconcerting until one gets used to it. Another man does bird calls. Ah, yes — an interesting lot.

Next time I write I will be able to introduce you to my English family. I hope you like them. I hope I like them. I hope they like me. I hope — but we'll have to wait and see.

Corner was treated by a Saugatuck doctor, then taken by ambulance to a Gary hospital.

Cheever said the warrant had been sent to Chicago police and that Basketfield will be returned to Allegan for trial in circuit court. Basketfield must waive extradition before he can be returned, however.

St. Francis Plans Fund Campaign

John F. Donnelly, 131 East 26th St., has been named general campaign chairman of a major drive to raise funds for construction of a convent for sisters and the addition of four classrooms to St. Francis de Sales school. The announcement was made Sunday at services by the Very Rev. John M. Westdorp, parish pastor and honorary chairman and treasurer of the campaign.

Rev. Westdorp also announced the following appointments involving leadership: Louis J. Hohmann, vice chairman; William E. LaBarge, memorial gifts chairman; Philip G. Singleton, general gifts chairman.

"This appeal for funds, which will be conducted among the parishioners during the six weeks beginning Sunday, is a matter of grave importance," Rev. Westdorp said.

He cited the need for classroom space as a challenge that must be met.

"The growth of our parish has necessitated more classrooms and a new convent for the sisters if we are to continue to serve our people in the manner our parishioners heartily approve."

Rev. Westdorp pointed out that $61,000 for purchase of the land was provided from the regular income of the parish. "The land is ours to use, and now we are staging a drive to finance the cost of building," he explained.

Land for expansion has been acquired on 12th and 13th Sts. west of Maple.

General solicitation of the entire parish is planned to kick off Sunday, Aug. 5. The memorial gifts division kick off is scheduled for the preceding Sunday.

Michael J. O'Dowd fund raising firm has been retained to direct the organization of the campaign and has established headquarters at St. Francis school, 171 West 13th St. The Missouri firm currently is directing a fund raising program in St. Patrick's parish, Grand Haven.

Ban Open Fires During Dry Spell

Rules Road Must Remain Closed

GRAND HAVEN — Three property owners seeking to block the Ottawa County Road Commission from putting through Strawberry Point Rd. won another victory Friday when Judge Noel P. Foo, sitting in Ottawa Circuit Court, ruled the county had no legal right to the roadway.

The fight began two years ago when the Road Commission began construction of the road a block northeast of Lake Ave. bathing bench. The road was to run along the lake front in front of property owned by the plaintiffs.

An injunction halting work was obtained by the property owners, Dan Stone, Jack Rozelle and Jeanie Tuin, on July 21, 1933. Judge Foo ruled Friday that there had been no dedication of a public road, and if there had been, it had not been accepted for 52 years.

Supervisor Gerrit Bottema of Spring Lake repeated Saturday that a continued fight to get the road opened will be made. No indication of the legal action being considered was given.

PURPLE TRILLIUM

Trillium Seem To Lure Flies

There is a story of a love-sick swain who, desiring to please his nature-minded lady-love, called her little "wake-robin." Never having smelled this beautiful flower, he found it difficult to understand her total lack of enthusiasm for the name.

The name wake-robin, of course, refers to the fact that these plants supposedly bloom about the time the robins return in the spring. In fact, by the time we have the flowers the robins have in all probability already begun housekeeping for the year. The fact that two reference books give some 25 common names for the plant may be taken as evidence that it has attracted the attention of many. Incidentally, only a half dozen of these names call attention to the unpleasant odor.

There are about two dozen species of trillium to be found in North America and Asia and this species is the only one of the group that is listed in a government bulletin on American medicinal plants of commercial importance.

Toward the end of the summer the root system is sometimes collected for limited use as medicine. The flowers coming early in the season are attractive to early bees and one honey plant authority recognizes this trillium as being of importance in stimulating production of broods. Later in the season the young bees may serve an important function in pollinating plants.

The unpleasant odor and the flesh color of some of the flowers seems to be attractive to flesh flies that probably are the more important pollinators of this species of trillium.

This flower may be found in rich woodlands from Nova Scotia to Minnesota and south to Georgia and Missouri. In some parts of this range, the blossoms may be pink, yellowish or even greenish instead of the typical deep red. This probably makes the species the most variable of all the trilliums. When grown in flower gardens purple trilliums may be attacked by slugs and snails, but these may be kept under control by the use of poisonous baits.

Dutchmen Utilize Walks to Keep Fennville in Cellar

Still in the Southwestern Michigan Baseball League cellar today are Fennville Merchants.

Or perhaps it would be more accurate to lay the blame on the Fennville pitchers.

Four Dutchman batters scored after walking at Riverview Park Monday night as Holland pulled itself into a much stronger position in the second-half standings with a 6-4 victory.

Starter Roger Smith yielded 10 hits to the Merchants, but slammed the door when it counted. He held Fennville scoreless in three innings when they slammed two hits.

First run for Holland came in the first when Jim Wilyard and Dick De Fresse led off with singles and Wilyard came home on a pair of infield outs.

Ron Boeve walked in the second and scored after another walk, a sacrifice and an infield out.

AN OLD FRIEND who comes from the opposite side of the globe dropped in to see Miss Mary Ellen Pas recently. He is Dr. Alexander Hampton of Sydney, Australia. Miss Pas, better known as Polly, met Dr. Hampton at the International House in New York during her travels as a Ford Foundation Fellowship winner. She spent a year traveling in Europe and in the United States, studying citizenship education in secondary schools. Dr. Hampton is a biochemist and will work in chemical research for the Sloan-Kettering Institute for Cancer Research in New York starting in September. (Sentinel photo)

Local Ford Fellowship Winner Had Varied Experiences Abroad

Last year an attractive red-haired girl from the Holland area, Mary Elin (Polly) Pas, was awarded a Ford Foundation Fellowship. The general topic for her fellowship was "citizenship education in the social studies and English classes in the secondary school."

To Miss Pas, this meant the opportunity to study not only the schools in the United States, but in other countries as well. During the summer of 1954, she studied Norwegian literature, language and education at the University of Oslo, Norway. As it was a special summer session for American and other foreign students, various well-known Norwegians spoke to the classes every day.

Experiences were varied during her travel and studies, Miss Pas said. The first thing she discovered was that Viking hospitality is unusual. "When I arrived on the 'Stavangerford' last June, my cousins greeted me with lovely pink carnations and my little cousin, age 11, bowed very low and correctly."

Other evidences of family formality is shown at meals. "Velkommen til bordet!" is the fixed formula for the hostess to begin a meal, and "Takk for maten!" is said to the hostess at the conclusion of meals.

Aiso, the Norwegians shake hands more often and more vigorously than most nationalities whenever they meet a friend and on parting, Miss Pas said. This applies to women as well as men.

"Oslo does not have the rich history of London or Paris; but there is monumental Radhus, or City Hall, whose acres of murals were first unveiled on Oslo's 900th birthday in 1950; the tourist shrines on Bygd Peninsula (Greenfield Village is patterned after this); the Viking ships, Folk Museum, Fridtjof Nansen's polar ship 'Fram,' the ski jump on Holmenkollen, and the exquisite beauty of nature which is Norway's."

One confusing thing was telling time in Oslo, Miss Pas said. Half past five in "halvseks" (half six) and "formiddag" (forenoon) is until four o'clock, when the large meal of the day is served. "Kveld" or evening begins at about 8 p.m. after a light supper.

"Studying in Oslo on midsummer evenings was most difficult, as it was daylight until midnight. My Norwegian roommate was convinced of this difficulty. She became engaged during the summer to a very handsome Norwegian!"

Later in November, when Miss Pas visited many schools, she was particularly interested in the folk high schools; boarding schools offering six-month courses with the main emphasis on citizenship education, languages and special skills for students from about 18 to 24. They were founded by a Danish philosopher, Grundtvig, 100 years ago in Denmark and are now located in all the Scandinavian countries.

Miss Pas spent less time in Sweden but was impressed there by "the most modern and beautiful schools in all Europe."

In Denmark a highlight of the tour was a visit to a very famous folk high school, the International Peoples College in Hamlet's city of Elsinore. The lyceum, a combination of the gymnasium and the Hogere Curgerschool, was a point of interest in the Dutch school system. "They have school camping programs in a great many of the Dutch schools which are somewhat comparable to ours," Miss Pas said.

"Some of the highlights of my year were attending the International Music Festival in Edinburgh; renting a car in Paris and touring France, Spain and Portugal with a friend; Christmas in Austria where we skied and visited an Austrian family in Thiersee; the Nobel Fest; Dec. 11 (the beginning of Christmas) in Stockholm and the Santa Lucia Feast there, and of course seeing my relatives in Norway and Sweden."

The majority of Miss Pas' time was not spent in travel, however, but in learning about student government, student exchange programs, contemporary problems, classes and general education or co-oc programs.

She also followed such programs as the Columbia University Citizenship Education Project and the UNESCO "Living in a World Community" project.

After returning to the United States in January, 1955, she visited schools in New York, Washington Maryland, Virginia, California and Washington.

Miss Pas, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pas, Chicago Dr., is now attending the University of Michigan summer school session where she is working on her Masters degree in English. She already holds a similar degree in education.
