Hope College
"Dad" Elliott Concludes Big Week of Prayer

SPOOKING ATTENDING WESTON HOUSE A BIG ENTHUSIASTIC TIP---"DAD" RECOGNIZED PERSONALITY. OTHER SPEAKERS GIVE TIME ADDRESSES

With the coming of "Dad" Elliott to conclude the annual Week of Prayer this week, the students of Hope College and even people of Holland were given a sure opportunity of hearing one of the biggest men in the Kingdom of God today. We thus know he bore us, by his pictures, and the enthusiastic visit from Luke George. Put somehow report is unable to present the figure of the entire volume in which "Dad" made his appearance on the scene last Sunday morning our able man. It did help but help that something vital and entered into this campaign we are gladly to sing his praises.

It was as the he carried with him some atmosphere of the realities of life, some of his deepest and closest things, et al. entered into this campaign we are gladly to sing his praises.

The students of Hope are this week enjoying a rare spiritual privilege. Although a large percentage of the staff is away, the coming of "Dad" made the need of a refreshing period—an experience that cannot but work to rouse themselves to the calms of Jesus when He has welcomed.

Wednesday morning Dr. Willette of Grand Rapids spoke on the theme, "The Secret of Jesus," and he added in that on the calms of Jesus when He has welcomed.

The three men are definitely not of the same height, but the man in the middle is much taller than the man on the left. The man on the right is wearing a suit and tie, while the man in the middle is wearing casual clothes. The man on the left is wearing a hat and a scarf. The background shows a snow-covered landscape with trees and mountains. The overall mood of the image is calm and serene, with a touch of melancholy. The lighting is soft and natural, highlighting the outlines of the figures and the beauty of the scenery.
Lee last Monday evening, the new church of the Trinity Reformed conference at Grand Haven was dedicated. Rev. John Van Zomeren, ’94, the pastor of the church, made an address. Rev. W. W. McManus, ’94, of Kalamasso who was the first pastor of the and Rev. John E. Vandenbosch, D. D., ’90, also took part in the service.

Rev. Herman F. Peake, ’93, of Bagu, Japan, has again written one of his well-known articles in the Dutch world. He writes among other things, "I have not yet decided when we will start for home, but it will be sometime during February. I hope to reach Pampana, about March 1, and spend the next four months with a united family.
After that, Mr. Peake and I, with some or no children, will make headquar ters in Chicago, and device place for running up vigor and enthusiasm for the next seven years in Japan.

Rev. Peter Morely, ’94, and wife, left this city last Wednesday evening for North Java, i.e., where they will visit their daughter Mrs. King, until De-

June. They will then proceed to Fran-du, Calif., where they will make their home at 1925 South Madison Avenue until June, when their hope to return to Holland.

Prof. John C. Hoekje, ’94, of Kala-laughs, speak at the annual banquet of

the Western Normal School at Grand

Haven recently.

Rev. Harry Best, ’96, and family, left for Amery, Wisconsin, November 9.
This marks the end of their second tour.

Rev. A. J. Packs, ’87, of Pella, lowa, has been extended by the Reformed Church of Grand Rapids. He is also wanted as an clerical auxiliary in Seattle, Washington, by the classics of Canada.

Rev. H. Schipper, ’97, has received a call to the Reformed church at Bax-

The Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Polgrim, ’96 and ’98, have recently moved into the new house of the Presbyterian church of Franklin, Kentucky, where Mr. Polgrim has been located since last May. At the installation of the Rev.

E. J. Shal, ’96, as pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Lexington, Kentucky, two weeks ago, Mr. Pat-took the charge and the pastor.

Invitations are out for the marriage December 6, of Miss Helen Dethens of Boyds, In a, and the Rev. Richard Vanders Berg, ’11, of First Street Reformed church of Kalamazoo. They will be in town in their way from the first of January, at 31 West Pat-

Practical Economy.

If the power generated by the jans in manipulating guns could be collected by every girl in this Hall who is a master of the rubber item, most of these repairs could be done by the girl herself, and is wouldn’t be convenient to keep the building lighted for some time.

What Do You Know About This?

It is said that a certain man who has seen his first child to church for a containment of fanatically known and designated Miss Jeanette Runkle. Now that grand old document, I declare, is in the hands of the United States, says, "Every person shall be a representative who shall not be an inhabitant of that state in which he shall be chosen."

The constitution is very clear on this point, but it is also undeniably true that the congress "can" elect from Montana is a "Nin." Now the ques tion arises, "Shall she be a Congress-

This is a question well worth the consideration of Dr. McCready’s studies in logic. As a matter of grass mat, the maxim peculiar cannot be fallacious. But as a matter of law—well you prescriptive law ste-dards, how do you get around that?

Some girls marry for protection, a lot of them marry for revenge only.

People who appear before the court should refrain from likeness.

The Student Council at Hilandale has designated December 8 as a College

"Pop-up Day." The Hope Text Book agency and the Subscription Manager of the ANCHOR ardly endorse such a plan.

But the lighting of the country’s flag on movie screens.

Lawrence College at Appleton, Wis-

sconsin, established, if we are correctly informed, in 1846, has a student body of 855, representing eight states and two foreign countries. It issues, accountable, to its new claim, and we believe justly, “America’s Greatest College” by a great deal for Lawrence, and wonering a great deal about areas other colleges we happen to know them.

I haven't stopped admiring my wonderful showing of new suits
overcoats and shoes for Fall and Winter since they came out.

I don't remember when I have been so enthusiastic over my styles and values as I am this season.

There's one thing certain. If every man around here knew what I am offering I would have a monopoly of the Fall clothing
and shoe business of this city.

My store wouldn't be big enough to hold all the men that would crowd in here to buy

It won't take much talking to sell such merchandise—they'll sell themselves!
