HOLLAND CITY NEWS

S. L. MORRIS, Editor.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 2, 1873.

A NEW PARTY.

A great deal of anxiety is being manifested by leading old line Democrats, regarding the best method of saving the country. The poor country has been in danger so many years, since they began saving it, that we began to despair of their ever succeeding; until a few days since W. S. Groesbeck very condescendingly permitted the platform to go forth. He appears very honest in his concessions, and admits that the Democratic organization is spoiled, and says that after ten years of blundering it finally surrendered at the last Presidential election, and has no longer strength enough for victory, and proposes to lay aside the old organization and enter a new one.

He is willing to accept all that has been done by the Republican party while in power, and "let by-gones be by-gones," all for the sake of saving the country. We do not recollect of seeing so much disinterestedness manifested by the patriots of our country since the Cincinnati Convention. We heartily agree with him that what has been done should be "accepted in good faith," and the principles of Republicanism be extended to future generations.

He is asked what shall be the name of the new party? He blunderingly proposes "Liberal Democracy," the same old name with an adjective added. The same old hat only in different colors; simply another proposition to inveigle the honest men to repudiate the party whose acts he would not recall.

He says Liberal Democracy means the "free, unselfish government of the people." It has always had the same meaning, and yet their blundering has forced them to capitulate. How fallacious to attempt to reorganize with the old material as leaders; the object is too glaring. He does not bring any new ideas to the surface, that the Republican party have not already acted upon acceptable to him, or are at present agitating.

There is nothing which the country needs that cannot be done by the Republican party as well as by a new party with the old head on. The new party, to amount to much, must be demanded by the people, upon national issues. And when that time occurs, the old leaders who have blundered so long will be set aside to give place to men whose acts indicate what the public require. "Old political dodgers" will never succeed in gaining the confidence of the people, to any considerable extent; and all efforts to reorganize the old party only tend to unite and strengthen the Republican party.

Mr. Groesbeck has been one of the foremost Democrats of the country, and his letter is a manly acknowledgment of Democratic follies, evincing clearly what we have heretofore claimed, that his party has been sailing without chart or rudder, without any objective point to arrive at.

He proposes a new party, but he does not propose any new principles. The new party would "oppose all forms of monopoly," so does the Republican party. Whether he would have it done differently, he neglects to state. It should "oppose centralization," but fails to define the term, so we presume it to be a rhetorical phrase, appertaining to "glittering generalities."

The only real issue he would have between his new party and the Republican party would be upon the question of free trade. The new organization he says should make it one of its cardinal doctrines, "without any equivocation or double meaning." Should this question become an issue in national politics, then Mr. Groesbeck and his new party may make another blunder, and find themselves in such a minority as that their efforts to save the country will prove as abortive as it did with Mr. Greeley at the helm.

On the whole, we think such spontaneous bursts of patriotism from old line leaders are but efforts to induce the dear people "to make a change in the administration of the country for the purpose of abolishing what does not exist."

That a new party must be organized we have no doubt. That many Republicans are dissatisfied with the salary grabbing administration we are aware; but an organization like the one proposed by Mr. Groesbeck, headed by doubtful Democrats and dissatisfied Republicans will receive but little sympathy from an enlightened people.

INCREASE OF SALARIES.

There was a strike for higher wages in Congress before the close of the session. They wanted to get their wages up to $10,000 a year. They commenced by concluding that the President should have $50,000 a year instead of $35,000 which had been the standard pay for the executive of the nation—so many years. They finally passed the bill doubling the President's salary and giving themselves $7,500 a year, counting backward for the two years of their term. So they obtained what they struck for. This was a peculiar strike. The men who held the purse and ordered the pay of the hands, struck to take more pay for themselves. It did not look very well. It looked much like a cashier opening a till and helping himself to what pay he wanted to increase his salary; but it was Congress, and there was no help.

Seriously, this example of Congress is one fraught with mischief of far greater magnitude than is generally recognized. The government can pay these high salaries without much trouble, and the consciences of the members of Congress certainly are not much troubled about taking all they can get; but the example is a bad one, and extends through our whole society. Extravagance in governmental circles creates a desire to be extravagant throughout the country.

In the early days of the Republic extravagance was not encouraged, and the whole people lived on their income, without overreaching and stealing. Salaries were regulated according to the expense of living. The Treasury Department in 1799 instituted inquiries as to the cost of supporting a genteel family in Washington, and the estimate returned placed the amount at $3,549.97 for the years 1799, 1790 and 1791, raising to $4,168.66 in 1793 and 1798. Among the items included, showing the style of living on which the estimate was based, were the keeping of two horses and the wages of four servants. Hence Congressmen in 1873 must needs have $7,500 per annum, with pickings and stealings besides, as they all, of course, keep two horses and four servants, to say nothing of other conveniences.

Of course, living is not so cheap as in the old-fashioned days, but there is no necessity for this alarming increase of extravagance. Luxury and extravagant living have been the forerunners of the downfall of former Republics, and we have no doubt that our departure from the simplicity of former days is hurrying us into the same road that brought other nations to ruin. Like causes produce like effects at all times. Why should a Congressman need $31 a day where a few years ago he was glad to get $8? His necessary expenses have not increased in that ratio by any means. It is the impatient desire to get rich out of the public treasury, and to be able to make an extravagant appearance. The example becomes contagious, and the business man seems to imitate the fast living of his Congressmen. He rushes into business recklessly and ends in crime or in the most questionable kind of business gambling. Thus is society corrupted by the baleful example of departing from Republican simplicity, on the part of those whom the people have placed in power. This view of the case shows a worse feature and shows how far-reaching the influence of so pernicious an example is likely to be.—American Working People.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS.

It does not seem that any effort is to be made by our city fathers toward any improvements of a public character. Every motion thus far advanced has been characterized by but a single idea, and that of secondary importance, excepting, perhaps, the one voting themselves compensation for services. How long our city can live under such a system of legislation we have no means of ascertaining; but of this we are thoroughly convinced, that without a well defined system of public improvements, no young city can prosper; and we think it a mistaken policy that our aldermen are pursuing, in ignoring the improvement of our streets and public grounds. A large number of accounts have been presented and audited, reminding the tax-payer that he will, in due time be called upon to pay—for what? For official services rendered for carrying the city through a year without any improvements, receiving as a whole no equivalent for money expended. Have we not a right to look to our able bodied aldermen for something new each year, the result of which will be to beautify and improve our growing city? The more money we expend in public works, the less we shall have to expend in wrangling. Give us the improvements.

THE WATERS ARE TROUBLED.

Correspondence of the Holland City News.

The bugle has sounded a truce to the fight, and the place is quiet. The old School Board is resting from its labors, and the new is organized—all quiet along the lines. We have seen a portion of the community in arms against the other; men of good judgment, education, and moral reformers on the rampage, inciting rebellion and creating sedition. What has it accomplished? Only to show the folly of giving way to our prejudices, by culminating in a general fizzle. Now, all these things teach us a lesson; the lesson has this moral, that reason and sense reaches where brag and bullying cannot come. By the opposition which the old School Board has offered to the Council and the new School Board, we as a city, have become the laughing stock for all Western Michigan, and the butt of other towns on this shore. It has helped roll up a debt which must be paid by the tax-payers. It has kept the Council nearly half a year on the old question of School Inspectors. They have had no time to push public improvements, so fairly begun under the old charter by the old Council. It has embittered and soured the whole community, and what is gained by it? Nothing but shame to those warlike heroes of the old School Board. Behold your own shame, which public opinion is to-day consigning you to; you, who stand up claiming to be the guardians of a sacred trust. Look at the poor man, preparing himself for the extra taxes which he has got to pay caused by your zeal in a cause which you did not believe a pure one. Indeed, we have a strange town—plenty of discord and creeds; but we lack the requisites of a great people. Where we have jealousies, we want united efforts to improve the place; where we have the Council at war with the people, we want the people helping along the Council in the work, which must be done to shake off the dead scales from our eyes. In the place of coldness, we want warmth; cold is death; warmth is life. Above all things, we want united, earnest, active men. We must rise above our scruples and our crotchets, if we are to succeed; learn to prize your neighbor for his worth rather than despise him for what others may say. And on the grave of this dead issue, let us, as a people, seek to better our condition by living truer to our interests, and for our place as a whole. Roll away these stones and let us have a clear field; rise up in our majesty and strike for a disenfranchisement from these whilms, and be as we are, a people of truth. CITIZEN.

ANOTHER NEW PARTY.

New political parties are becoming quite fashionable of late. A few days ago a number of gentlemen met in Columbus, Ohio, and organized what is to be known as the "Peoples' Party." They are out and out free traders, and remonstrate strongly against land grants and monopolies; they snub all present political organizations, and ask no favors. Although this movement is claimed as a spontaneous outgrowth of public opinion, we see a striking resemblance to the views of Mr. Groesbeck; and we observe further, that all the prime movers in these new efforts were once shining lights in the old Democratic party. It is a strange coincidence that such disinterestedness should always be found among "the outs," while "the ins" are quietly enjoying the results of their labors in the full confidence of an intelligent people.

THE KANSAS BRIBERY.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 28.—John Q. Page, who began action in the District Court of this county to recover $7,000 paid into the Kansas Legislature by A. M. York, dismissed the case to-day, paying all the costs. The suit was to recover money now in the hands of the State Treasurer, on the ground set forth by ex-Senator Pomeroy in his defense that the money was given by Pomeroy to York to be given to Page, to aid in the establishment of a bank at Independence. It was set for the 11th of August. It was thought a continuance would be asked, as all the testimony involved in the criminal action against Pomeroy would naturally be adduced. It is now very uncertain who the money belongs to, as it is positively understood that Pomeroy will set up no claim to it on his own account.

Dubuque, Iowa, July 28.—A Sioux City dispatch, just received, says during the last two days the grasshoppers have been visible in the air, but not in large enough numbers to excite alarm. At this hour countless millions may be seen. Their general tendency seems south-west. Grave apprehensions are expressed by those familiar with their ravages in other parts of the country. The result cannot be other than disastrous should the clouds of grasshoppers now hovering over this vicinity settle here.

State Items.

Flint has forty-four licensed dogs. Bay City is inclined to the opinion that drug stores ought to be closed on Sundays.

Young ahead to the number of 300,000 have been placed in Michigan waters since last spring.

Thomas Bubb, of Williamsburgh, kindled a fire with kerosene. He leaves a wife and five children.

The tracklayers on the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railway have reached a point thirty-six miles north of Fife Lake.

Four Jackson firms have bought in the aggregate 230,000 pounds of wool this season. The clip in that county is nearly marketed.

William Buzzel, of Ann Arbor, has received the appointment of Professor of French in Norwich University, Northfield, Vt.

A Bay City druggist was fined six cents for keeping his store open on Sunday. He was suspected of selling whisky and cigars.

An attempt was made to burn the Trenton House, at Bay City, early Saturday morning, but the fire was discovered before it had made much headway.

Some boys were playing with a pistol near Flint, a few days ago, when it was discharged, killing Fred Ingalls, and slightly wounding young Downing.

J. E. Chamberlain, for four years editor of the St. Joseph Herald, left that place recently for a visit to the Sandwich Islands, his old home.

An old man named Comman, living near the head of Pine Lake, Charlevoix county, was lost in the woods in that vicinity, week before last, and is undoubtedly dead.

Henry Weir, a lad about 14 years of age, was drowned while in bathing at the mouth of the river at Traverse City, the other day, making the sixth person drowned near the same spot within a few years.

Delos Warner, of Manistee, had a handspike slip from his hand into the river a few days ago. To recover it he plunged into a stream, forgetting $109 in bills in his vest pocket. He got the handspike, but lost the bills.

The Post Office Department have decided to place Grand Rapids in the first class city list. Mail matter will be delivered by carriers in that city, free of expense. Five carriers will be employed by the department, at a salary of $600 per year each.

Common Council.

CITY OF HOLLAND July 30.

The Common Council met pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the Mayor. The roll was called by the Clerk. Present—Alda, Schaddelee, Ailing, Kamperman, Dykema, Duursma, Hoogesteger and Sipp.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Bills of J. Kuite and J. D. Everhard, for special police service July 4th, and 9th, including night service, were presented for payment. Also bill of J. D. Everhard for balance of pay for services as fire warden in 1872, $3.50.

The foregoing bills of account were allowed, and the City Clerk was instructed to issue warrants on the treasury for $3 in favor of J. Kuite; $9 in favor of J. D. Everhard for special police service, and $3.50 for balance of pay as fire warden.

The Council adjourned to August 6, 1873, at 7½ o'clock p. m.

Every reader of The Aldine for August is sure to be charmed with its beautiful and seasonable illustrations, as well as pleased with its fresh and piquant literary contents. A magnificent full-page marine view opens the number, from the pencil of M. F. H. de Haas, N. A., one of our great painters of water scenes. It is a truthful sketch of what may be seen almost any day on Long Island Sound. Mr. F. T. Vance, who has made the region a study contributes a series of original pictures of the grand Adirondack mountains and lakes, which are very timely, as that region is now full of pleasure seekers. There is a page-picture of "Lake Colden," remarkable for its lights and shadows, depth and feeling; one of "Avalanche Lake;" another of "Calamity Pond Brook;" and a charming one of "Flume Falls of the Opalescence;"—four as fine views from the proposed great National Park, as ever appeared in an Art Journal. A tender and eloquent full page picture illustrating a poem called "A Good Dog." The remaining illustrations, all fine works of art, are "Group of Deer, by Specht;" "The Explanation," after Herpfer; "Vot Doesch You Peddles?" a humorous sketch by W. M. Cary; "shoo Fly;" and "Picking Flowers." The literary contents of The Aldine keep pace with its gems of art and are this month unusually interesting.

SUNSTROKE.—At Grand Rapids a Hollander, by the name of Verburg, fell down on Bostwick street Wednesday afternoon. He was cared for by the neighbors and sent home in the evening nearly recovered.

Miss Clara Pennoyer, a former teacher in our Union School, has organized a class for private instruction, in the session room of the M. E. Church. She is a good teacher and should be well patronized during vacation.

A BEAUTIFUL SIGHT.—To see the posts of Henry D. Fence obstructing the street, so much as to prevent the building of a sidewalk to relieve pedestrians who are compelled to navigate River street. No improvement here!

Mr. N. T. McGeorge informs us that he has rented the store building formerly occupied by Labadie & Son, into which he will move his stock of groceries early next week. It will be known hereafter as the Star Grocery & Provision Store.

Such enterprise speaks well for the place and we hope to see more of the same sort.

The Second Street M. E. Church, of Grand Rapids, are to give an excursion on Wednesday next. The excursion will leave the Chicago & Mich. Lake Shore depot at 7:15 a. m., and will arrive in this city at 9 a. m. They will then take a boat for Converse's Grove, where recreation and refreshments will be the order of the day, until 2 o'clock p. m., when the company will take a boat for a ride on Lake Michigan, returning to this city in time to take the train and reach home about 8 o'clock, p. m.

The Inter-Ocean, of Chicago, is conceded to be the best representative of Republican principles in the Northwest; and at the same time acknowledged to be the most reliable commercial journal extant. We are glad to notice that arrangements have been made with H. D. Post, who will keep the Inter-Ocean on sale and supply it to regular subscribers.

The Kilkenny Cat.

(WRITTEN FOR THE HOLLAND CITY NEWS.)

The Kilkenny cats, so famous for fight, No doubt you've heard of before; In dead of night, to vent their spite, How yelling and howling, they'd scratch and bite, With their heads pretty well battered and sore.

But one big old tom, battle-scarred and pug-nacious, Whose old fate I'll try to describe, In late midnight carousal was far more audacious, And in real mortal combat would fight more tenacious Than anyone else of his tribe.

This rapacious vain fellow went in for position, And with an eye to further his claim, Took to mauling all cats into humble submission, And revel in a kind of cruel opposition, Till for fighting he established a name.

Then the whole local tribe, a conclusive composition, Deemed it wisdom with him to take side, To elect him their champion—if some were opposing, And at once with unanimous m-o-w he was chosen To save their own dear little hides.

To fight all their battles, as per clause or constitution, Was expected of him, without fail, And deep into he struggled to maintain his position, Till horribly mangled—thus ends tradition, He had nothing left but his tail.

Now to point to this tale with a sort of morality, For modesty's sake I forbear, But I've seen—when looking for mental fortitude, What was left—in the place of official ability, Of a Kilkenny cat playing Mayor.

The official report of the Fire Inspector at Baltimore places the number of buildings destroyed in that city by the fire of Friday, last week at 113, of which sixty-four were three-story brick houses, twenty-three two-story brick houses, eighteen four-story brick houses, two churches and three school houses. Four were restaurants, three boarding houses, and four stables. The official estimate of the loss is not yet made.

The inside staging in the Episcopal Church has been taken down, the plastering and painting finished, the building cleared of rubbish, preparatory to seating it. The windows are to be of stained glass, and are now being manufactured in Chicago. It will soon be completed and ready for use. The Second Reformed Church is also assuming shape, and is expected to be ready for occupancy the coming fall.

The editor of the Lake Shore Commercial, in an article defining his position, says that he is "far from being a Democrat; may God help him never to become a Republican." As there are but two grand political divisions in this country, and he avers that he is not a Democrat, and prays God he may never become a Republican, the question naturally arises, what is he? We'll wager he is a true blue Democrat, ashamed to show his colors, or else he is an independent Presbyterian, belonging to the church south. Straws show which way the wind blows.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION.—The organization of the new School Board is at last perfected, and we learn that the first meeting of the new board was held on Monday evening last. We do not hear that any business was transacted further than to make an effort to procure a settlement with school district No. 1 through their legal representatives without success. We understand that it is the intention of the Board of Education for this city to make every reasonable effort to settle the difficulty between the conflicting parties amicably, and if unsuccessful they will proceed to hire teachers, and in all respects to place the Union school upon a basis which will insure its continued success.

MANHOOD; HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Silvestro's celebrated treatise on the radical cure (without medicine) of Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Emission, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Brainerd and Piles, induced by self-indulgence or sexual excess. Price in a sealed envelope only six cents. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Address under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Twelve Good Reasons Why I Should Trust.

1. The pleasure of purchasing and opening a set of books.
2. The employment of a book-keeper at a high salary.
3. The employment of one or two men to collect your accounts.
4. When called upon to pay some demand—it is so convenient to have a good number of accounts on your books.
5. The pleasure of sending in your bills through the post-office, and seeing nearly one-half you paid out for postage, returned to settle some account.
6. To hire persons to make collections, and have the greater part of the bills returned unpaid, bringing you in debt to the collector.
7. Trusting parties who have always been your customers, and have the pleasure of seeing you ground one or two blocks to shun the place of business, and take their cash to a rival establishment.
8. To wait a year or so, and send your account, and see the party put up and curse and swear—that if you don't pay, you will never get your pay, and you will be cursed if they ever patronize you again.
9. The pleasure of having parties who are getting to settle little and small accounts on your books.
10. Being compelled to take legal measures to collect your just dues, and thereby make friends with all the relations, friends and acquaintances of the party.
11. The knowledge that you must add all the bad debts in as expenses, and charge all your customers an additional price to cover, is very consoling.
12. The pleasure of making any number of enemies (if you ever ask for your own) will be sure to run down your store and all connected with it.

NOTICE.

For the above twelve good reasons, I hereby give notice, that on and after this date, all goods sold at the City Drug Store, will be for CASH! or its equivalent; and shall give my customers the advantage of an immense stock of goods, and a cash trade.

Now I Mean Business.

I have on my books, accounts ranging from twenty five cents to hundreds of dollars, and I want all who read this notice (if in my debt), to call at once and pay. I must have the money, and I will let you settle without costs, but if it is your wish that I shall add interest and costs I will do so. Remember this. I intend to have my pay and close my books, and have what is my just due.

At a session of said Court, held at the Court House, in the city of Grand Haven, in said County, on the 24th day of June, A. D. 1873. Present—Hon. John W. Stone, Circuit Judge. WHO has for the past twelve years been located in Opera Block, has now, since being burned out, removed his stock to 38 Canal Street, where he has a large and complete stock of all the most reliable and most effective remedies for all the most common diseases. He manufactures all his remedies from the raw material, hence he is able to give the most reliable and most effective remedies. He has been practicing for over eighteen years, and has a large number of patients within the past ten years, without losing one of them, where he was the only doctor called. He guarantees reasonable satisfaction in the treatment of every disease which afflicts humanity.
He keeps constantly on hand over 200 kinds of the most choice Roots, Bark and Herbs, and over 100 kinds of his own manufacture of medicines. He is to be found at his office at all hours—day or night.
Among the leading articles of medicine manufactured by him are: LIVER PILLS, COUGH SYRUPS, and PLEURALGIC MIXTURES; all of which give universal satisfaction. Call and consult with a doctor who will promise you nothing but what he will faithfully perform, and who will not leave you until you are cured, or until you are so well that you can ask for nothing more. Liver complaints treated for fifty cents per week, and other diseases, in proportion. Consult at the office near.

WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.
Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulder, Constipation, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has an equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.
For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.
For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.
