There was nothing insignificant in the part played by the Ottawa county delegation at the Grand Rapids state convention. The speech of Geo. A. Farr, nominating Gov. Rich, was the theme of universal commendation, while the defense of the report of the committee by Mr. Diekema is said to have been masterly and convincing.

Footings of the state census show a total population for the state of 2,241,000. This is a gain of 147,000 over 1890 and of 387,000 over 1884. Mr. Cutchings will not yield to the senate increases and the senate will not agree to the bill without them.

Fennville Herald: In conversation with several prominent Chicago commission men, we were informed that Chicago will this year have to depend even more than ever on the Michigan crop and, though all complain of hard times, a firm market and good prices are predicted. The steamer City of Holland was about five hours late from Chicago this (Friday) morning, owing to the storm. But for the prompt and heroic action of Ira Flansberg, at Planstiel's dock, on Wednesday evening, another victim would have been added to the number drowned in Macatawa Bay this year. The six-year-old daughter of Henry Bruss, an employee of the Holland Furniture Co., in company with a younger girl, were playing in a boat near the wharf, when it became detached and floated out into the lake. The Bruss girl became so frightened that she sprang into the water and was struggling there when her screams attracted the attention of young Flansberg, a sailor on the schr. Mishcott. He hurriedly threw off his outer clothing, plunged into the lake, and succeeded in reaching the child just as she was sinking for the last time. The first step taken by the drowning child was to grasp the swimmer's arms, but he succeeded in throwing her across his breast, swimming on his back to shore. Young Flansberg is only twenty years of age; he is a brother of Captain Flansberg of the schooner Mishcott. Mr. Bruss visited the schooner in the evening and thanked the young man for the noble self-sacrificing rescue of his child.

People's Party Convention.

The People's party held their county convention in the court house Saturday.

John B. Greenway of Holland called the convention to order. Walter W. Phillips was elected temporary chairman and D. C. Wachs temporary secretary. The temporary officers were afterwards made permanent.

The report of the committee on resolutions reaffirmed the principles of the party as affirmed by the Omaha platform and it was resolved that the cardinal principles of this platform be the battle cry of the party in Ottawa county.

A county ticket was then nominated as follows:

Sheriff—G. W. Nichols, of Holland town.

County clerk—Harvey L. White, of Polkton.

Treasurer—Benona A. Blakeney, of Grand Haven.

Register of Deeds—G. W. Sevey, of Wright.

Prosecuting Attorney—H. T. Root, of Coopersville.

Circuit Court Commissioners—D. C. Wachs, of Grand Haven and S. Mountford, of West Olive.

Surveyor—G. J. Hesselink, of Holland town.

Coroners—Dr. O. Baert, of Zeeland, and Simon Stuveling, of Grand Haven.

The convention then divided into districts and nominated Walter Phillips as a candidate for the legislature from the first district and John Everhart from the second.

Delegates to the Senatorial convention were elected as follows: D. C. Wachs, O. W. Murry, J. B. Greenway, B. A. Blakeney, H. Reynolds, D. Bertsch, J. W. King, Jud Harris.

To the congressional convention: J. W. Knight, C. W. Ingraham, Wm. Baumgartel, John Everhart, C. H. Phillips, H. Reynolds, Rev. J. Poppen, J. A. Brown, B. F. Thurston, E. Gale, S. Mountford.

D. Bertsch of Holland was declared to be the first choice of the convention for state senator.

A resolution was also adopted declaring faith and confidence in Adolphus A. Ellis, designating him as the most able and faithful attorney-general the state ever had. The charges brought against him were denounced as "trumped up." A copy of the resolution is to be sent to Mr. Ellis.

The party will make a fight this fall and endeavor to bring its banner to the front as it did four years ago.

Eleven dollars were subscribed at the convention for the campaign.—G. H. Tribune.

Our Interest in the Great Railroad Strike.

It is an accepted doctrine in political economy that the loss of one person's property is the loss of all. When a building burns in a large city, in some form or other the entire community has to bear the loss. Property is never destroyed without all suffering in some way.

In the science of government a very general opinion is expressed in the saying that the best governed people are the least governed. Likewise other sayings this cut both ways; there is no doubt that a community of individuals, so orderly and well-behaved as to require but little government, would live very happily, and from their very nature would, in being self-governed, be little governed and well-governed.

But unfortunately the law has to deal with all classes of men. America especially has been receiving the outpourings of Europe for many years, and there is a strong feeling that the class of immigrants of the last ten or twenty years does not compare favorably with those of the preceding epoch.

The object of government being the preservation of order and peace and the prevention of crime, the law should secure these ends by the simplest and most efficacious means possible. Thus in a large city, if a given proportion of innocently disposed people would be the occasion of a riot, no complaint could be made if the police took the practical though illogical step of prohibiting the parade and preventing the riot.

The great strike which has occupied so much of the attention of the country during the last few weeks illustrates the above points. The Federal troops have gone into action and seem to have done good work at the expense of a few lives. A vast amount of property has been destroyed, striking workmen have lost an immense sum of wages, and Cook county, Illinois, together with other railroad centres where rioting has taken place, will probably be burdened with a very heavy tax bill for the payment of damages to property, incidental to the rioting. Incalculable harm has been done and the entire United States will have to foot the bill.

It is easy enough to criticise the use of the Federal troops in the matter; it is natural for local militia to object to fight their own neighbors and friends; it is well for the upholders of the strong arm of the law to exult in the thought of the suppression of mob violence by military force; but a question of the utmost difficulty of practical politics lies back of it all. How are strikes with incidental riots and destruction of property and idleness of thousands of workmen to be prevented in future?

The evils of a strong government for the repression of riots and outbreaks on the one side are confronted with the evils of a weak government unable to cope with the evil-disposed classes. In the United States, by general consensus, the Federal power is recognized as the strong element, one to be called on as seldom as possible, and whose direct intervention is looked on with disfavor and as an unfortunate necessity. The individual States are less powerful and less arbitrary in their governmental actions. Both have united in coping with the rioters. But until strikes of the magnitude and evil effects of the present one are made impossible, until the paralysis of a country's business by enforced idleness of workmen supplemented by rioting becomes a matter of history never to be repeated the laws of this country will not be perfect.

We may object to being too much governed, but a comparative despotism is preferable to a condition of things involving the calling out of soldiery to cope directly with what should be a peaceful populace. War with a foreign power is held to be a not unmixed evil; civil war, and fighting with mobs, are bad in every sense—in cause, in prosecution and results.

To-day millions of people are suffering from the strike. Its consequences may last for many months to come. Pittsburg is still paying for the damages done during the riots of 1877. Expediency calls for the prevention of such occurrences, and an evasion of the strict laws of logic may be excused if such prevention can be brought about by a law, even if it be one of expediency only.—Scientific American.

HAIL FORMED BY TORNADOES.

The Result of Whirlwinds in the Atmosphere Far Above the Earth.

The fact that hail is formed at an indefinite but, in most cases, a great height above the surface of the earth, and that it is commonly precipitated when storms are raging, has prevented any direct observation of the process of freezing the vapor of the atmosphere into ice pellets or large masses, and what has been decided regarding the phenomena of hailstorms is almost wholly the work of theory and logic. Nevertheless some points are pretty clearly established.

In the first place, hail is the result, as a rule, of whirling or tornado-like storms. There may be no whirling on the surface of the earth but, according to the Cleveland Leader, it seems certain that in the higher regions of the air, where hail is formed, there is always an atmospheric disturbance resembling what is commonly called a cyclone when it sweeps the ground. A curious indication of the soundness of this conclusion was to be noted the other afternoon, when the storm which wrought such havoc with skylights had passed by. Out over the lake there was a great mass of cloud, very high and dark, which had the form of an oval race track of enormous proportions. It might easily have been fifty miles in length and two-thirds that distance in width. The formation of the cloud mass was noticeably such, as might have resulted from the violent whirling around a moving center of the whole bulk of cloud vapor. The appearance of the sky was thoroughly in harmony with the accepted theory of the formation of hail. It is believed that the nucleus of a large hailstone is usually a bit of snow or snow-like ice, which falls from the snow strata, or level, above the rain level, into the latter, and is caught up with a cloud of raindrops and mists into the higher freezing regions of the atmosphere by the force of a whirlwind. The rain and water in the form of mist, which clings to the snow nucleus, or touches it as it is whirled swiftly up into the intense cold, freezes around it as clear and solid ice.

HOOKED A BEE MARTEN.

He Was Fishing for Trout, But Got a Bite of Another Sort.

"A strange thing happened to me when I was trout fishing last year up in northern New York," said Andrew Bishop, of Bridgeport, Conn., to a Washington Star man. "The fish were very wary, the stream was narrow, and the pools were but lightly bordered with bushes or cover of any kind, consequently when I would reach a promising looking spot I would get as far from the bank as possible, and at the same time be able to drop my fly over in the water. I had followed this plan with poor success, getting only one or two strikes in as many hours, when suddenly my line began to run out with a whirr. No trout had ever carried off a fly for me in such a way before, and I was nonplussed, but in a moment I saw that it was not a fish that was making my reel sing. Rising from the surface of the stream and flying above it was a bee marten which had gobbled my fly as I cast it over the bank, and he was making away with it. The bird soon had nearly all my line out, and not caring to lose it, I began to play him as I would play a fish. He struggled gamely, I tell you, but the hook had caught in his beak and held him firmly. At last, after a full hour of fighting, the bird fluttered helplessly to the ground, and I released him. You may think that's a fish story, but it's true."

HE TAUGHT HER A LESSON.

One Wife Will Not Again Trouble Anybody for a Spool of Silk.

One summer the wife of a Chicago man went to one of the resorts. At the end of a week she found that her black silk had given out, so she wrote her husband to "find a spool of it in the lower drawer of the bureau" and send it on. The dutiful husband spent three solid hours one hot day before he found the missing spool. Of course, it was not where his wife had said it was. After he had changed his saturated linen the man went down and sent the spool by registered mail to his wife. That night it struck him as absurd that she should have put him to all that trouble, and he resolved to teach her a lesson. He thought that with a little effort she might have found some silk at the summer resort that would have answered her purpose. Well, he bought a gross of spool silk and put it in a drawer of his desk. The next time she left town she found a spool of black silk under her plate at the place where she took her first meal, and ever since then she has been followed by a spool of silk, even to Europe. Wherever she may stop she finds the spool at her plate or on her dresser. She has learned the lesson.

Irish Bulls.

A recent number of London Truth has compiled the following specimens of Irish bulls: Irish Professor in Chemistry—"The substance you see in this vial is the most deadly of all poisons. A single drop placed upon the tongue of a cat is enough to kill the strongest man." A lady, invited to a very recherche musical party, had met with an accident to her front teeth which there was no time to repair. She said: "I will come, and as I dare not open my mouth, you must tell your friends I am deaf and dumb, but appreciate music." A young lieutenant going out to India with his regiment, writing home about the country, says: "The climate is magnificent, but a lot of young fellows come out here and drink and eat and eat and drink, and die, and then write home and say it was the climate that did it."

Montezuma's Watch.

This curious basaltic stone, now in the cathedral of Mexico, is cut into figures that are supposed to represent the Mexican calendar or division of time. It weighs about twenty-four tons, and its age is conjectured to be a considerable period anterior to the Spanish occupation of that portion of America.

RICH GETS IT.

The Governor Renominated by the Republican Convention.

Proceedings of the State Convention at Grand Rapids—Make-Up of the Ticket—The Platform—The Pingree Faction Not Satisfied.

FOR A SECOND TERM.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 1.—The republican state convention was called to order by W. R. Bates, secretary of the state central committee, at 10:25 a. m. yesterday. After the call of the convention had been read Mayor Fisher made an address of welcome. Secretary Bates introduced Phillip T. Colgrove, of Hastings, as temporary chairman. In accepting the honor Mr. Colgrove made a lengthy address, reviewing the political situation and arraigning the efforts of a democratic congress to change the McKinley tariff law. A. W. Smith, of Adrian, was elected temporary secretary. At 11:30 a recess was taken till 2 o'clock.

GOV. JOHN T. RICH.

When the convention reassembled the temporary officers were made permanent. As the committee on resolutions was not ready to report, nominations for the state ticket were proceeded with. George A. Farr, of Grand Haven, placed the name of Gov. John T. Rich in nomination. Several others seconded the nomination. C. L. Benjamin, of Saginaw, then took the platform and presented the name of Col. Aaron T. Bliss.

Gov. Rich was nominated on the first ballot, the vote standing: Rich, 710; Bliss, 98; blank, 121. The blank votes were all cast by the followers of Mayor Pingree, of Detroit.

The lieutenant governorship came next. George H. Turner, of Coldwater, named Alfred Milnes, of Branch, and Senator Hubbell nominated Thomas B. Dunston, of Hancock. Milnes was nominated, receiving 654 votes and Dunstan 272. Washington Gardner, of Albion, was declared the unanimous choice of the convention for secretary of state. The candidates for treasurer of state were James M. Wilkinson, of Marquette, and George A. Steele, of St. Johns. Wilkinson had 574 votes, against 355 for Steele, and Wilkinson's nomination was made unanimous. Roscoe D. Dix, of Berrien, William S. Turck, of Alma, John H. D. Stevens, of Ironwood, Stanley W. Turner, of Rosecommon, were the candidates for auditor general. Turner received more votes on the first call of the roll than all the other candidates combined, and his nomination was made unanimous. Fred A. Maynard, of Grand Rapids, was nominated for attorney general by acclamation. This was followed by the nomination of William A. French, of Presque Isle, for commissioner of the general land office, H. R. Pattergill, of Lansing, as superintendent of public instruction, and Perry F. Powers, of Cadillac, for member of the board of education. Hon. James McMillen was reelected chairman of the state central committee.

After the adoption of the following platform the convention adjourned. The resolutions approve the administration of Gov. Rich, declare in favor of a protective tariff and reciprocity and say:

"We recognize that the employment of both capital and labor is necessary for the peace and prosperity of our people, and that the enactment of such laws as will properly and wisely avoid and settle labor difficulties is one of the duties of the republican party which has always been and still is the friend of the humblest toiler. We believe it is the duty of the state to regulate all corporations and combinations so as to protect every right and liberty of the laborer and insist that law and order must be maintained, and that the ballot-box and courts of justice, and not the sword and torch, must settle economic differences. We believe in arbitration as one of the means to solve labor disputes and favor the enactment by the legislature of laws to carry out the provisions of section 23, article 6 of the constitution of the state of Michigan, which provides for establishing courts of conciliation with such powers and duties as shall be prescribed by law.

"While we recognize the value and worth of the great body of naturalized citizens and people who have sought with a patriotic heart and adopted this as their home and country, we believe in protecting American wage-workers and the peace and prosperity of this nation against the evil effects of indiscriminate immigration from the pauper and criminal classes of Europe by wise laws that shall properly restrict and regulate immigration.

"We believe in the use of gold and silver as money metals to be maintained in circulation on a perfect equality and interconvertibility. We recognize the so-called silver question as one of the paramount issues of the day, and believe that the people of this state and country can and do look to the republican party, the party of ability and progress, as the only party that can give a wise and adequate solution to the problem. We therefore pledge the republican party of Michigan to use every effort in its power to restore silver to its historic position in the United States as a money metal. We pledge this in the belief that permanent prosperity will not be assured or justice done until silver takes its place side by side with gold as one of the two great money metals of the world."

A resolution tendering a hearty greeting and welcome to Hawaii as a republic, and assuring her of earnest sympathy and best wishes for a glorious future, was unanimously adopted, as well as one complimenting the republican press of Michigan on its great work in the interests of the party.

A minority report was presented on resolutions favoring the free coinage of American gold and silver at a ratio of 16 to 1 and it was warmly debated, out the more conservative majority report was adopted.

Upon the vote for governor the Pingree men declined to vote. There was no considerable contest over the remainder of the ticket. The Pingree men voted, in some instances, in opposition to the Rich slate, but their influence did not govern the result in any case.

The Pingree forces are in consultation, and in all probability an independent ticket will be named, with Pingree at its head. A new convention to be held here or in Lansing is proposed, but the movement has not yet come to a head.

The Republican Convention for the Fifth Congressional district will be held in Grand Rapids, Wednesday, August 29.

The Republican Convention for the Twenty-third Senatorial District of Michigan, composed of the counties of Muskegon and Ottawa, will be held at the court house in the city hall at Muskegon, on Wednesday, August 28, 1894, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for state senator, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The counties comprising the said district will be entitled to representation as follows:
Muskegon county, 15.
Ottawa county, 14.

Dr. J. E. Post,
J. B. PERHAM,
E. D. PRESOTT,
Committee.

Dated July 25, 1894.

The Republican State Ticket.

In point of attendance and interest, devotion to principle and work, and general results, the state convention held in Grand Rapids Tuesday, will take high rank in the history of the Republican party of Michigan.

While the re-nomination of Gov. Rich was a foregone conclusion, still the perseverance and hostility of Mayor Pingree tended to prevent the agitation and canvass from growing languid.

Grand Rapids did itself proud in arranging for the convention, and the local committees deserve, as they received, the highest commendations for their successful labors.

Chairman McMillan, being detained at Washington by democratic dissensions on the tariff bill, the convention was called to order by Secretary Bates. Ex-senator Colgrove, of Barry, was designated as temporary presiding officer, and subsequently retained in that position. He made an able address. After the appointment of the usual committees a recess was taken until after dinner.

The Fifth district caucus was held in the forenoon in the Lincoln Club rooms, and organized with G. J. Diekema, of Holland, as chairman, and Col. Kidel, of Ionia, as secretary. The following committee assignments were agreed upon:

Vice President—Cornelius Van Lo, of Zeeland.

Credentials—E. D. Conger, of Grand Rapids.

Permanent Order—John B. Chadock, of Ionia.

Resolutions—G. J. Diekema, of Holland.

Members State Central Committee—Will Savage of Grand Haven, O. S. Tower of Ionia.

Upon the re-assembling of the convention Geo. A. Farr presented the name of Gov. Rich for re-nomination. During the delivery of his address the Pingree men in the Wayne delegation tried to make a demonstration, but the "Rich" crowd soon drowned them out. Mr. Farr spoke well and eloquently, and with force, and at his close the convention went wild with excitement.

The name of Col. A. T. Bliss was presented by C. S. Benjamin, of Saginaw.

It required but one ballot to settle the gubernatorial contest. Rich 710, Bliss 98, blank 121. The blanks represented the Pingree strength, and were largely from Wayne.

Later on both these gentlemen were brought before the convention and received amidst great applause. Mr. Rich gracefully returned his thanks for the reception and said he was appreciative of the high compliment paid him.

Col. Bliss was received with cheers. He made an exceedingly happy speech, congratulating the convention on its work and expressing no doubt of Mr. Rich's election. The nomination of Rich would not cost the party a single vote from his friends. The Bliss people were Republicans and would go home determined to increase the Republican majority this fall. In conclusion he asked the convention to join with him in three cheers for Rich and Republicanism.

It is generally conceded that Col. Bliss made a good beginning for his campaign of 1896.

For lieutenant governor, state treasurer and auditor general it needed only one ballot to arrive at a choice, while the nominations for secretary of state, attorney general, commissioner of land office, superintendent of public instruction and member of the state board of education were made by acclamation.

As a mark of confidence and appreciation the convention re-elected by acclamation Senator McMillan to the responsible position of chairman of the State Central Committee.

In an off-year campaign, when there is no promulgation of party principles by a national convention, the platform adopted by a state convention becomes the more important.

The resolutions here following were presented to the convention by Mr. Diekema of this city, chairman of the committee, and are worthy of the past, present and future of the Republican party:

I. We, the representatives of the Republican party of Michigan in convention assembled, hereby affirm and renew our faith and hope of the cardinal principles and purposes in the Republican party—the principles which have made our country great and prosperous, and the purposes which will lead it from the present most unhappy and demoralized era of Democratic misrule out again through night to light into an era of hope, and happiness, and prosperity for our country and our State.

II. We heartily approve of the administration of the duties of his office by Gov. J. T. Rich, and unreservedly commend his attention to public interests and his prompt and fearless performance of every duty devolving upon him.

III. We affirm our adherence and increased devotion to the American doctrine of protection. We believe that the present unhappy industrial condition of our country is in great part due to the threat and purpose of the Democratic party to destroy the American system of protection. We believe that all articles which cannot be produced in the United States except luxuries should be admitted free of duty, and that on all imports coming in competition with the products of American labor there should be duties levied equal to the difference between wages abroad and wages at home. We believe that the doctrine of reciprocity as advocated by that matchless statesman, James G. Blaine, should under our protective system be the policy of our government and applied in our trade relations with other nations.

IV. We recognize that the employment of both capital and labor is necessary for the peace and prosperity of our people and that the enactment of such laws as will properly and wisely avoid and settle labor difficulties is one of the duties of the Republican party, which has always been and still is the friend of the humblest toiler. While we believe that government was instituted to protect the weak against the strong and to substitute right for might, that it is therefore the duty of the State to regulate all corporations and combinations so as to protect every right and liberty of the laborer and insist that law and order must be maintained, and that the ballot-box and courts of justice, and not the sword and torch must settle economic differences. We believe in arbitration as one of the means to solve labor disputes and favor the enactment by the Legislature of laws to carry out the provisions of Sec. 23, Art. 6 of the Constitution of the State of Michigan, which provides for establishing courts of conciliation with such power and duties as shall be prescribed by law.

V. While we recognize the value and worth of the great body of naturalized citizens and people who have sought with a patriotic heart and adopted this as their home and country, we believe in protecting American wage-earners and the peace and prosperity of this Nation against the evil effects of indiscriminate immigration from the pauper and criminal classes of Europe by wise laws that shall properly restrict and regulate immigration.

VI. We believe in the protection and elevation of the standard of American citizenship, and that the safety of this Republic depends upon the intelligence and loyalty of its supporters; that it should be sustained for the welfare and happiness of its people, and that for the preservation thereof the right of suffrage should be limited to those who have fully acquired American citizenship.

VII. We believe that the security of life, the free exercise of personal rights, and the enjoyment of equal opportunities before the law are the essence of liberty, and should be the first care of all governments. That, as there can be no liberty without free speech and the free exercise of the personal and political rights of the citizen, we denounce the action of the Democratic party in the repeal of the election laws, and such action as an invitation to fraud and violence to the will of the people. And we demand the enactment and enforcement of laws that shall protect the citizen of the republic at home as well as abroad.

VIII. We believe in the use of gold and silver as money metals, to be maintained in circulation on a perfect equality and interconvertibility. We recognize the so-called silver question as one of the paramount issues of the day and believe that the people of the State and country can and do look to the Republican party as the only party that can give a wise and adequate solution of this problem. We therefore pledge the Republican party of Michigan to use every effort in its power to restore silver to its historic position in the United States as a money metal. We pledge this in the belief that permanent prosperity will not be assured or justice be done until silver takes its time honored place side by side with gold as one of the two great money metals of the world.

A minority resolution was offered as a substitute for the last plank, insisting upon the free coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, which was advocated by Judge Kelley of Alpena, and P. F. Powers, of Cadillac. The majority report was defended by ex-congressman Brewer and Chairman Diekema, and was adopted on a rising vote.

Independent resolutions were also adopted congratulating the people of the Hawaiian Islands upon the success of their peaceful revolution, and recognizing the merits of the Republican press in the state.

In the afternoon session Chairman Colgrove was overcome by the heat and had to retire, and Capt. E. P. Allen was called to the chair, who urged all to remember a constitutional amendment giving the inmates of the Soldiers' Home the right of suffrage, and that this should be carried in justice to the old soldiers.

The Coming Fair.

The premium list of the annual fair will be issued next week, and all desiring a copy can then be accommodated by calling on Secretary Kerkhof. The several schedules have been revised and will no doubt meet with general approval.

On the grounds a force of mechanics has been at work overhauling the buildings. Agricultural hall has been remodeled and will be devoted entirely to manufacturing. Arrangements have already been completed for exhibits from the following parties: West Michigan, Ottawa, Holland, and Lakeside Furniture Companies, C. L. King & Co., J. A. Van Putten, Cappon and Bertsch Leather Co., Walsh-DeRoo Milling Co., the Etna, Phoenix, and Novelty planing mills, all of this city, with others to follow. From Zeeland a like exhibit, creditable to its several branches of industry, is also being arranged, mention of which will be made later.

In Art hall the shelving and counters have all been re-arranged, the better to display the exhibits in the Woman's and Miscellaneous departments.

West of Art hall a new building will be erected, exclusively devoted to poultry. The pens for sheep and swine will all be rebuilt and located west of the poultry house.

Pomological hall has been re-fitted with a view of accommodating the large exhibits of fruit, which it is confidently expected will be entered this fall. The display of agricultural products will also be arranged in this hall or, if deemed necessary, special accommodations will be fitted up for this department.

Saturday morning President Van Hees, Director H. J. Boone and Secretary Kerkhof met a number of our leading manufacturers and exhibitors on the grounds, and assigned them space for their several exhibits.

The success of our coming fair, as far as pertains to exhibits, is being gradually assured. Let all those having antiquities or curiosities make it an object to enter the same.

The Amateur Ball Game.

A game of ball that caused much amusement and attracted the largest crowd of the season was played at the ball park on Wednesday afternoon, between "nines" composed of the business men on one side and the professional men on the other. The game from beginning to end was exciting and closely contested, and considering that the majority of the players had not grasped the sphere or swung the willow for many a year the score was kept down quite low.

The professional contingent was first to bat, with Will Lamereaux in the box and Will Brusse backing the plate. Before the first half of the inning was fairly under way the professional batters began to find Lamereaux's balls very freely and at the end the scorer reported 8 tallies for the legal lights and the pill men.

This scared the grocers, druggists, and job printers, and when they faced Dr. Huizinga as pitcher they had blood in their eyes. They found him an easy man to hit and at the conclusion of the first inning the score stood 8 to 7 in favor of the "profs." Everything so far worked smoothly and there was lots of lung power furnished by spectators and players on both sides. From this time on there

Voorwaarts, Immer Voorwaarts.

Twelve years ago we built the finest mill in Western Michigan and the first one constructed, in the section named, on the then new ROLLER PROCESS system. Competitors predicted the speedy downfall of this innovation but the flour produced by us was of such manifest superiority that they were speedily compelled either to imitate us or fall hopelessly back and out of the ranks.

The steady growth of our trade has incited us to make additions from time to time and now compels us to enlarge our milling capacity and our buildings.

We will tell you more about this later and want to assure you now that we can take care of all our trade till we resume grinding, from stock on hand.

Watch this column for an invitation to witness the starting of our new machinery.

was more careful playing. Dr. McCracken was substituted for Dr. Huizinga and he demonstrated that he had been in the box before, while he was well supported by Dr. Knooihuizen. George Williams, Jr., who had previously umpired the game, did not give satisfaction to the poor players when it came to ruling on strikes and balls, and Tony Van der Hill took his place for the remainder of the game.

When the game was called at the end of the seventh inning the score stood as follows:

Lamereaux	3	Huizinga	2
Brusse	3	Knooihuizen	1
Delyea	2	McCracken	2
Van Dyk	2	Lambert	2
Van der Veen	1	Kollen	2
Doesburg	0	Curtis	1
C. Mulder	2	McLean	2
Stekette	2	Cook	2
B. Mulder	3	Scott	1

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Total
Business men 7 3 0 0 3 5 18
Professional men 9 3 1 1 0 3 18

The game was conspicuous for fumbles, muff, passed balls, fall outs, etc., but that was expected and made it all the more funny.

Dr. McCracken knows how to play ball, but he says he will not attempt another game without toe weights and a mask. The veterinarians have agreed to supply the former.

Squire Kollen was tall enough to capture most anything that came within reaching distance of second base, but he did not like the idea of having strikes called on him by the umpire.

Prof. McLean managed to keep out of the way of the ball and never once got close enough to home plate to hit it.

The feature of the game was the heavy batting by Lamereaux. He succeeded in sending four balls over the fence and making two home runs.

Charley Mulder, who pitched the last three innings for the business men, was a hard man to hit. Some of the heaviest batters could not touch his graceful down shoots.

About the only way that Scott distinguished himself in the game was by jumping the fence in left field in search of Lamereaux's balls.

Considering that he was out of practice, and his hands tender, Will Brusse did some remarkably good work as catcher for the business men's nine.

Dr. Knooihuizen was not, in his usual batting trim, otherwise the game might have been different. He was however a good back stop for McCracken's speedily thrown balls.

The small and silent things count up:
For its men really feel.
The peal of thunder can't compare
With the banana peel.

Growth of the Tramp Nuisance.

It is notable that the tramp has grown with the speculator and enormously rich manipulator of other people's wealth. The man who lives gorgeously off other people's money by the methods of the trusts is balanced at the other end of the scale by the grizzly and unclean fellows who live off other people's money by professional mendicancy. It must also be recognized, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch, that the growth of this undesirable class has been permitted simply because public opinion has not demanded the enforcement of laws well established in the Anglo-Saxon system. Laws against vagrancy and mendicancy are as long established as laws against monopoly and diversion of trusts. But society has left such laws to enforce themselves until people with a talent for that direction have discovered either that immense fortunes can be made with impunity in the latter line, or an idle living secured from the other, by virtue of the credulity or patience of people at large. It certainly seems as if an active civilization ought to dispose of the tramp by taking him and setting him at work under duress if he will not do so of free will. Of course, such an active administration of the mendicancy laws implies the provision of honest labor for men out of work. Both are duties of society, and we are not very far away from the point when society will be forced to discharge both duties as an act of self-preservation.

A CAMEL IN GRANITE.

One to Be Found in Arizona That Is a Perfect Likeness.

One of the most curious rock formations in the world is to be seen in Arizona. It is a short distance east of the stage road between Tucson and Oracle, and stands on a knoll several feet above the surrounding sandhills. When first seen the effect is startling, and the mind has to get over a shock before the peculiar object can be comprehended. It is a most perfect representation of a camel, and is formed of one piece of granite.

This curiosity, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch, is of colossal size, but perfectly proportioned. It is about sixty feet high and very wide and smooth. There are very few fissures on the surface, and they, strangely, are in the proper places to form features. The only real projection from the surface is exactly placed for an eyebrow. The two humps are plainly to be seen, and the neck is curved beautifully. The rock is really a solid piece rising from the ground, but the effect of legs is produced by a clump of dark-colored brush that grows beside the stone. The white stone shows plainly on both sides of the brush, and the effect of the legs is unmistakably produced. The strangest part of it is that it looks like a camel from all sides and at all times of the day or night. There is no disguising the resemblance.

Bayard Taylor's Home.

Kennett Square, Chester county, Pa., where Bayard Taylor was bred, where his home, Cedarcroft, was and where a library is to be established as a monument to his memory, is a village of about thirteen hundred inhabitants. The region has a strong Quaker element, and the pride of Mr. Taylor's neighbors in his literary distinction was tempered by what they esteemed his worldliness. It was known that he lived much as other men of the world lived and that he drank wine and smoked cigars. The good people of Kennett Square decided once, however, to forgive all this and welcome Mr. Taylor home in triumph, but many of those present at the reception were shocked by the address of a speaker from another state, who praised the honored guest of the occasion for having freed himself from narrowing trammels and lived the larger life of the great world.

The picked-up nine of this city, which was to have played the Athletic club at Grand Haven Thursday, had to cancel the engagement by reason of the disability of their pitcher. The disappointment hereof to the Athletics may be inferred from the following in Thursday's Evening Tribune: "The game to-day was well advertised and a big crowd of local cranks were disappointed at the postponement and vented their displeasure by cursing Holland high and low. If they even should come here, they can only blame themselves for the awful roasting they will surely get from the bleachers. Rotten eggs will also figure undoubtedly.

Resort Notes.

Miss Carrie S. Rudolph, the pleasing character impersonator, gave one of her charming entertainments at the Ottawa Beach hotel Tuesday night, which was attended by guests from all the resorts. The program was a varied one and gave unusual satisfaction.

Prof. Arens, one of Chicago's best known musical conductors, and Prof. Schliwer, former leading violinist in Thomas' orchestra, spent Sunday at the Macatawa Park Hotel.

Commodore R. F. Pettibone, of Chicago, invited quite a number of the Chicago guests at the Macatawa Park hotel to take a sail to Holland on his yacht "Bon Ami" on Monday. She is one of the crack sloops of the Chicago Yacht Club.

The Grant quartette, of Chicago, and the St. Joseph band furnished the music at Ottawa Beach and on the Lake Michigan excursions on Sunday.

The steam yacht Bolna, which carried off the prize at the World's Fair for being the speediest craft in her class, visited the Macatawa retreats on Tuesday. A prominent party of Chicago business men were on board.

Rev. H. H. Johnson, of Grand Rapids, is giving Masters Henry Tibbs, Thomas Ward and Orin Ward, three of the favorite boys in his congregation, an outing at Ottawa Beach.

Over two hundred people participated in the lawn fete and dance given by Manager E. D. Billings at Jenison Park on Saturday night. The music was furnished by Symonds' orchestra of Allegan.

MACATAWA PARK ASSEMBLY.

SEASON OF 1894, AUGUST 5-12.

The success which has attained the assemblies at this beautiful resort in the past seasons has created a demand for the very best talent procurable.

The committee has secured a series of lecturers for the evenings, which they feel will give in a very popular manner the strongest and best statements of all themes treated.

The assembly will consist of a devotional meeting daily from 10:00 to 10:30 o'clock A. M., selected from the many well qualified for that work, who will be present.

This will be followed by a Bible study under the conduct of Prof. R. R. Lloyd. In the evenings, lectures at 8:00 o'clock.

The music will be under the direction of Prof. Chas. T. Wycoff, who is a thorough master of his art, and who is at present engaged in the Armour Mission and Institute, Chicago.

The Bible study department we fearlessly proclaim to be under the direction of the best man in the country engaged in this work.

Prof. Lloyd is the teacher of the New Testament in the Pacific Theological Seminary, at Oakland, Cal. He has a genius for clear, simple interpretation by methods so scholarly and so easily grasped that not only do those who listen to him receive a fund of information as to facts, but they easily grasp such principles as to be able to pursue their own studies with a new enthusiasm and power.

NUMBER NINE IN MYTHOLOGY.

What a German Professor Has to Say on Three Times Three.

It is not often that a single figure has enjoyed the distinction of being the subject of long study and investigation on the part of a German university professor. But "The Number Nine" is the title of a long and learned article in a recent edition of "Am Urquell," by Prof. Reinhold, at present rector of the University of Berlin. "In early times," writes the professor, "the first uneven number (3) and its multiple (9) were considered of especial importance, likewise all numbers which contained 9. Heathen philosophers, or Christian mystic writers, the legends of nations, the religions of modern peoples, all go to prove the holiness or sanctity of the number 9. In ancient Germanic life, in poetry, in religion and law, the number 9 is met everywhere. It still has its influence in German customs and German belief. In the Scandinavian mythology we find groups of nine, walkyries, nine dices, nine giant mermaids or women of the sea, nine mothers of the god Heimdall, nine virgins of the Meglodi-Freyja and nine dwarfs. In the middle ages nine heroes were usually grouped together, as is to be seen on the beautiful fountain at Nuremberg and the Hansa salon of the Cologne city hall. In the poetry of the fifteenth century groups of nine are favored. Frosts of nine are to be found in the festival plays, Nos. 38 and 47 of the Keller collection, and in the poem: 'The Nine Poor Wanderers' of Hans Sachs. There were nine judges in Icelandic and German law, known as 'the nines.' In Lucerne there existed until 1795 the nine men who sat in judgment on ordinary police cases. Nine children were formerly looked on as the ideal number for a family. * * * Even animals are named in old tales in groups of nine. In a German fairy tale nine birds quarrel over the wishing clock. They say in Tysol: 'When nine parents meet there is a witch among them.' We also find nine a favored number for those people who make a sacrifice of human beings and animals."

SACRIFICES TO THE SEA.

Mystic Rites of Indians in Propitiation of the Great Spirit of the Waters.

To the adventurous globe trotter who has climbed the rock path to the sailor's church of Notre Dame de la Garde, dominating the Phœnician port of Marseilles, the potent influence of sacrifices and offerings for perils passed and to come must be no old story, says Lieut. J. D. Jerrold Kelley, in describing "The Superstitions of the Sea," in the Century.

There is a pathos, even for the worldly, in the quaint ships and galleons, in the rusting marlin-pikes and shattered tiller heads, swinging to the mistral in reverential offering before the shrines. These graces after danger, these insurances against evil to come, circle the world. No people have escaped the influence of such hopes and thanks. Our Indians were fettered by them, and no ceremonious offerings were more common than those which went to appease the angry Spirit of the Waters. On the upper tributaries of the Mississippi, the Indians, with occult rites, gave tribute of tobacco from a beesting cliff to the Great Spirit of the River, and to the winds that smote the waters with blasts from the caverns of the jealous gods. Algonquins in the north, Aztecs, sons of Atahualpa and Marco Capac, in the south—all blew incense out of their pipes, and strewed upon the currents and tide-ways just such offerings of tobacco as, in our more subjective days, we give with lost meanings to the minor gods who rule the man's hour in our feasts.

A DOLLAR IN THE WALLET.

It Is an Influence That Lends a Charm to Life.

The stars they shine serenely and with greater luminosity when a fellow isn't struggling with his impecuniosity. The lofty sky is bluer and the meadow grass is greener, and the ills of life are fewer, and our life itself serene, and we feel a glorious courage and the fates cannot appall it when we feel the solid backing of a dollar in our wallet.

Oh, the quiet air of twilight is more brightly luminiferous, and the incense from the flowers is more sweet and odoriferous; and the zephyrs blow more sweetly and our food is more nutritious, and we're conscious more completely that our breakfast is delicious; and we feel that life's no fizzle, as the pessimists miscall it, when we have the satisfaction of a dollar in our wallet.

All our woes are less appalling and our joys are less ambiguous, and all life's happy meadows are so lush-like and irriguous; for a glass of pure, cold phosphorus tastes as sweet as balm of Gilead, and brown bread is like ambrosia Homer tells of in the "Iliad"; and we feel that life's a poem madder what the cynics call it and we feel supremely blessed with a dollar in our wallet.

STRONG MEN OF OLD.

In the Good Old Days There Were Lots of Brawn and Muscle to Be Found.

Philip, count of Kirchberg, was so strong that he could drive a nail into the wall with one of his fingers, says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. A Spaniard named Pedro, who emigrated to Naples in 1555, drove nails into the wall with his forehead. Potowka, a Polish colonel, mashed horseshoes with his hand. Valentine Einsiedel, count of Schwarzenburg, and Curtio Leutswitz, a Mecklenburg nobleman, did the same thing with ease. The latter could carry a tun of wine and throw silver coins with such force against an oak tree that the edge imbedded itself in the bark. Frederick of Hamstein, who lived at Limburg in 1363, could lift an arm (forty English gallons) of wine and drink from the bung-hole. Johann, count of Ziegenhain of Hessia (1455), pushed aside six axms of wine, wagon and all, which obstructed the road over which he was riding. Count Siegmund of Burgstall, carried seven adults on his shoulders and walked about with them for several minutes.

The Doctor's Choice.

DR. J. A. ROBINSON.

The component parts of Horsford's Baking Powder are known to me, and as they are essential constituents of the human body, as also of the wheat grain, but unfortunately not present in the beautiful white flour obtained from it by the recent method of milling, it commends itself to me as being a most admirable baking powder, greatly to be preferred to cream of tartar or any compounds which can merely leaven the flour, but cannot, like this, also impart to those valuable nutritive elements the miller has robbed it of.

When moving into our present home I found a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm left by a former tenant. On the label I found the statement that it was good for cuts and burns. I can testify to the truth of this. Nothing in all my experience has found in equal for treating blisters or burns. F. E. BARRETT, manager Le Sueur sentinal, Le Sueur, Minn. Pain Balm is also a cure for rheumatism. For sale by Heber Walsh.

Kenneth Bazemore had the good fortune to receive a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when three members of his family were sick with dysentery. This one small bottle cured them all and he had some left which he gave to Geo. W. Baker, a prominent merchant of the place, Lewiston, N. C., and it cured him of the same complaint. When troubled with dysentery, diarrhoea, colic or cholera morbus, give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result. The praise that usually follows its introduction and use has made it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottle for sale by Heber Walsh.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

A Quarter Century Test.

For a quarter of a century Dr. King's New Discovery has been tested and the millions who have received benefit from it testify to its wonderful curative powers in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs. A remedy that has stood the test so long and that has given so universal satisfaction is no experiment. Each bottle is positively guaranteed to give relief, or the money will be refunded. It is admitted to be the most reliable for Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles free at Heber Walsh, Holland, and A. De Krul, Zeeland, Mich.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good results. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver trouble and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottle. At Heber Walsh, Holland, and H. De Krul, Zeeland, Mich.

The Schooner Glad Tidings Sunk in the Detroit River.

Run Down by a Big Steamer and Her Crew of Four Men Lost—The Sunkten Craft Was Formerly a Gospel Ship.

A SCHOONER RUN DOWN.

DETROIT, July 1.—The whale-back steamer, Pathfinder, ran down a schooner, which proves to be the Glad Tidings, on Detroit river between Mammy Judy and Grassy Island lights about 8 o'clock Sunday morning. It is believed that the crew of four on the sunken boat were drowned, as not a vestige of the wreck can be seen. When the Pathfinder struck the schooner, a quantity of rigging and canvas fell across the steamer's bow, but nothing was seen whatever of the schooner after the disaster and it is supposed that she went down instantly.

Monday evening Mrs. Westphal, wife of Capt. Westphal, owner of the schooner Glad Tidings of this port, identified the rigging as that of the Glad Tidings. The crew consisted of Capt. Michael Westphal, his brother Anton, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Westphal, and an unknown sailor who shipped on the last trip. There is no doubt that all were drowned.

Although careful search has been made, neither the wreck nor the bodies of the four men who were lost on the Glad Tidings have been found.

The Glad Tidings was built at Manitowish in 1888 and was owned by M. Westphal, of Detroit. She only measured eighty-one tons. Originally the boat was a gospel-ship.

OUR SIZE.

Statistics of Michigan's Population Shown by the Late Census.

LANSING, July 27.—Secretary of State Gardner has submitted to Gov. Rich the result of the first count of the recent census. The total population of the state June 1 was 2,389,974, as compared with 2,093,890 in 1890 and 1,858,668 in 1884. The increase in four years has been 145,485, or 6.95 per cent. Since 1884 it has been 885,716, or 50.61 per cent.

There are seventy incorporated cities with a total population of 821,038, or 37 per cent. of the total population of the state. Of the increase since 1890, 81,959 is in Detroit and 19,156 in Grand Rapids. This is more than 35 per cent. of the increase of the state. Since 1884 the rate of increase in population in forty-nine cities then incorporated has been about four times that of the rest of the state.

In bulletins Nos. 5 and 6 the following figures are given for 1894, with comparisons with the canvass of 1890 and the state canvass of 1884:

Jonkman & Dykema, of Holland, contemplate opening a clothing store in Saugatuck.

Basket making at the Saugatuck factories has ended for this season.

Catholic missions will soon be established in Saugatuck, Fennville, and other places in the vicinity of those villages, by order of Bishop Foley. Rev. Peter H. Espey, assistant priest of the Catholic church at North Dorr, will have charge of the work.

Muskegon County.

Harry Parker of Battle Creek made a Muskegon girl believe, a few days ago, that he was deeply in love with her, and after a short courtship borrowed her $50 watch to wear. The lover disappeared that night leaving the young lady a rude shock. She had a big brother who vowed vengeance. A warrant was issued and Parker was arrested and landed in Muskegon jail.

R. I. Vanvalkenbergh brought word in Muskegon Tuesday night that a natural gas had been found in the neighboring village of Moorehead by a well digger at the depth of 115 feet and in rock. A steady current flows at high pressure and when ignited blazes to a great height. The town is wild with excitement. Property for acres around has been grabbed up with in twenty-four hours at prices doubly and trebly advanced since the discovery.

Marines who arrived in Muskegon harbor at a late hour Tuesday night reported that a band of Indians had sallied between Lake Harbor and Grand Haven and were holding a savage war dance around a great bonfire on the shore. The editor of the News explained the affair the next morning when he told his friends about a muskemon feast and the dance a party, of which he is one, enjoyed on the Lake Harbor beach last night.

Grand Haven.

A favorable report has been returned to Congress by the House committee on Public Buildings and Grounds in regard to the bill appropriating $50,000 for the construction of a new public building in this city. In their report the committee says: "The government is now occupying rented buildings for offices which in addition to being of wood are of limited capacity. Among the government offices, here is the custom house for the district of Michigan, which embraces the entire eastern shore of Lake Michigan from Indian to the straits, a distance of 30 miles with its supports and deputies. In this office are kept voluminous files, papers, titles, and transfers of all steam vessels in the district. During the last year there were 79 foreign vessels entered and 76 cleared at this port while the coastwise vessels comprised 6,871 entries and 7,842 clearances."

James Douglass, 37 years old, residing in Chicago, came here Saturday morning on the Chicago boat, had breakfast and dinner at the Cutler house and then visited Highland park. In the afternoon he hired a bath house and a few moments later appeared in his bathing suit, walked out on the end of the pier where he dived off, against the advice of landlord Walker, there being a high sea running at the time. He was at once noticed to be in trouble, but drowned before aid could reach him. The life saving crew recovered the body near the south pier.

In a recent issue of the G. R. Tradesman Thos. D. Gilbert says: "There were only two present at the dedication of the Court House at Grand Haven—Miss White and myself. Miss White came to Grand Haven in 1885. She started the first school in that town, having about a dozen scholars. She is now an old lady of about 80 years and still resides in Grand Haven. I reached Grand Haven on the same boat that brought six brothers of Rix Robinson. These with their families comprised a party of about forty persons."

Fire started in the sawdust on the old Cutler & Savidge dock in Spring Lake the other morning and for a time again threatened the village with destruction. Timely work by the Spring Lake department, assisted by Grand Haven's firemen is all that saved the town. The fire started in nearly the same place it did last year, when the place was ravished by the worst fire in its history. The entire dock was a fire and the dry sawdust and edgings burned like tinder. One small frame dwelling occupied by a Holland family was burned.

Allegan County.

Plainfield has 75 widows.

The mint harvest has begun in Clyde township, and the crop is quite good, although the drought hurt it in places. Judge Severans has in the neighborhood of 700 acres and his new still is at work, turning out about 300 pounds of peppermint oil a day. This means a large income from the farm, but at the same time the expenses of the plantation are somewhat enormous. Some months the pay roll for help amounts to $2,000, and the miles and miles of ditches represent an outlay of many thousand dollars. But Judge Severans can claim one of the largest peppermint farms in the world—all of it reclaimed from a swamp.

Miss Bell, a teacher in the Holland city schools, will spend the rest of her vacation with Miss Lillian Boru, Allegan.

Mrs. W. J. Garrod, Miss Louise Griswold, and Mr. Bernath Sherwood of Allegan went to Macatawa park, to remain a couple of weeks, to be joined soon by others of the family.

The county board of school examiners will meet at the following time and places: Allegan, August 2 and 3; Plainwell, August 24; Saugatuck, Sept. 28; Martin, October 28.

The forty-second annual fair of the Allegan county agricultural society will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 25-28.

Zeeland.

Miss Jennie Everhard, after spending a few weeks with Mrs. Dr. Leenhardt at Chicago, returned Thursday morning.

We have a rod and gun club now. Zeeland bricks being shipped to Oceana counts to quite a considerable extent, in fact nearly all the brick used in that county is said to be from Zeeland yards.

Dr. Poppen and Earl Avery were some of the Forest Grove people who were in town Tuesday.

Miss Alice Barward and Miss Hattie Schaap, two graduates of our High School, have been engaged at teachers in our public schools for the coming year.

Ben Kamps made a business trip to Chicago this week. He was in the city for the Republican convention at Grand Rapids. Tuesday attracted many of our business men. Among them were A. Lahuis, L. Verlee, B. Boone, and Wm. Ossewards, besides C. A. Loo and H. Keppel, who attended as delegates.

Boonstra and wife made a call on Holland friends Thursday.

Mrs. R. De Haan, who has been ill for some time, is improving nicely.

Albert Vencklasen spent Sunday in Grand Haven.

Geo. Brandt, a prominent clothing man of Muskegon and his family, are visiting with relatives here for a few days.

Miss Rosa Rynbrandt of Forest Grove spent a few days with Mrs. C. Boone.

Miss Lena De Kruit left Monday for a few weeks' visit in different towns of the state.

J. Fox is suffering severely with his eyes. There are fears he may become totally blind.

P. Hirt will teach the Zeeland schools for the ensuing year.

Bert Eydenham has returned from a few weeks' visit at Forest Grove with the family of Gardner Avery.

Miss Monte Bush, formerly a teacher of our public schools, is visiting with her sister Mrs. C. J. Den Herder.

John Spitzbergen, for many years with E. Boone & Co., has severed his connection with the firm and expect to take a course at Hope College. Nicolas his brother will take his place in the store.

Ginseng in China.

Ginseng is an important article of export to China, and the trade is largely in the hands of the resident Chinese themselves. They buy the root of wholesale dealers, who get it of country folk at about two dollars and fifty cents a pound. Chinamen seldom buy directly from the countrymen, because the latter being unacquainted with the Celestials are unwilling to send the root C. O. D. The Chinese make a mystery of the trade, but they send abroad yearly many thousands of dollars' worth of ginseng.

HORTICULTURAL NOTES.

CLEAN up all the trash that will serve for breeding places for insects and burn it.

ATTENTION to ridding the stored vegetables and apples of decaying ones is time well spent.

In our extreme northern climate it is better to lay the grapevines on the ground for the winter.

POTATOES are better when boiled with their jackets on. They are not only more meaty as a rule, but they are better flavored.

CLEAN the cellar in which vegetables are to be stored of rats as far as possible. One or more good cats are useful for the purpose.

An Illinois subscriber, living near a city, this year devoted most of his time and considerable of his land to gardening. He says that he found he must do something besides regular farming. — Farmers' Voice.

Fertilizing Asparagus Beds.

Many years ago it was thought that the asparagus plot must be stuffed with manure before the plants were set. Then "the plot was good for twenty years." It was not considered that plants—the same as animals—need but a certain amount of food, and that a surplus could not be serviceable in any way. To use a large amount of manure in preparing the plot is equivalent to locking up an amount of money where it draws no interest. It is worse than that, for a part of the principal is lost. As the surplus manure decays and becomes soluble from season to season, a considerable portion leaches through the soil and is lost forever to the plants. — Burd

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly made its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osmond,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. Those who are not far distant from mothers will consider the relief of their children, and the Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby leading them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Knecht,

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

Dr. A. A. Anonim, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria. And although we only have a small stock of medical supplies, we are known as regular customers of Castoria. We are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

A LITERARY AGENT of California recently brought a charge against her husband, who is an artist, and who, as she charges, does not furnish his wife the means for literary leisure. "He being an idle-bodied man who could make more money by manual labor than by his talent. Some men don't follow their own talent."

CLOSE OF THE CRIMEAN WAR.

Deeds of the Treaty of Peace, and how they were accomplished.

The formerly ratified treaty of peace was brought to London by William Stuart and attached to the British embassy at Paris on April 18, 1856.

Sunday May 4, was observed as a day of general thanksgiving to Almighty God for the preservation of peace; and on Monday the 5th, it was formally proclaimed in London, with the usual solemnities. Addresses to the crown, approving of the peace, were carried in both houses of parliament on the evening of that day, and for the 8th both houses cordially voted "thanks to the army, navy and marines employed in the operations of the late war."

The feelings entertained toward the men who fought and bled in the Crimea by the queen, the government and the people of England are also placed on record in an excellent dispatch of Lord Panmure, which will be perpetuated as long as the language exists.

"Since the period," said the noble secretary of war, "when the army first quitted the shores of England, there has been no vicissitude of war which it has not been called upon to encounter."

It was assailed by cholera shortly after its arrival in Turkey. Then was proved that moral as well as physical courage pervaded its ranks. "Led to the field, it triumphed in engagements, in which heavy odds were on the enemy's side."

It carried on, under difficulties almost incredible, a siege of unprecedented duration, in the course of which the trying duties of the trenches, privations from straitened supplies, and the fearful diminution of its numbers from disease neither shook its courage nor impaired its discipline. Notwithstanding that many a gallant comrade fell in their ranks, and they were called to mourn the gallant commander who led them from England, and who closed in the field his noble career as a soldier, her majesty's troops never flinched from their duties, nor disappointed the sanguine hopes of their country."

BLEACHING DIAMONDS.

Trick by Which South African Dealers Deceive Patrons.

The discovery of diamonds in South Africa led indirectly to some clever deceit by the dealers, says the Pall Mall Gazette. Many of the South African diamonds have a straw tint, which has an unfavorable effect on their price, especially as experts believe it will become more decided the longer the stones are exposed to the air. Some of the more knowing dealers discovered that by subjecting the straw-tinted diamonds to a bath of certain acids the objectionable color was removed and the gems became pure white. A number of diamonds so treated were sold in Paris and Berlin, and brought higher prices than they would if they had retained their original color.

After exposure to the action of the air for a certain time the original color returns, but by that time they have passed out of the dealer's hands. The fraud was soon found out by the trade, and they now guard against impositions of such a character by means of various tests. Of these the most generally used are the hot water bath or friction. If a dyed stone be left in hot water a few minutes it resumes its original hue, or if the gem be rubbed sharply on a towel, or even on the coat sleeve, its normal color can be detected. These tests are simple and efficacious and are in daily use.

My boy was taken with a disease resembling bloody flux. The first thing I thought of was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Two doses of it settled the matter and cured him sound and well. I heartily recommend this remedy to all persons suffering from a like complaint. I will answer any inquiries regarding it when stamp is enclosed. I refer to any county official as to my reliability. WM. ROACH, J. P., Primmy, Campbell Co., Tenn. For sale by Heber Walsh.

AN EGYPTIAN CUSTOM.

It Mystified Herodotus, But Modern Investigation Fully Explains It.

More than one thousand years ago Herodotus observed a remarkable custom in Egypt, says Prof. Drummond. At a certain season of the year, says the Washington Post, the Egyptians went into the desert, cut off branches from the wild palm, and bringing them back to their gardens, waved them over the flowers of the date palm. Why they performed this ceremony they did not know, but they knew that if they neglected it the date crop would be poor or wholly lost.

Herodotus offers the quaint explanation that along with these branches there came from the desert certain flies possessed of a "wifive virtue," which somehow lent an exuberant fertility to the dates. But the true rationale to the incantation is now explained. Palm trees, like human beings, are male and female. The garden plants, the date bearers, were females, the winged plants were males, and the waving of the branches over the females meant the transference of the fertilizing pollen from one to the other.
