JURY DISAGREES IN J. RYAN CASE TUESDAY NIGHT

A case that created considerable interest in court Tuesday was one from Holland, involving John Ryan of Muskegon. Ryan is a candy maker in that city, who went to Chicago, became intoxicated at the club, boarded the Holland boat, and landed in the boarding house of Mrs. J. Van Dort on West 7th street.

It is alleged that Ryan took indecent liberties with Miss Catherine Van Dort, a daughter of 22, who is mentally subnormal and is in constant charge of her mother. The mother stated on the witness stand that she found Ryan in the girl's room and she gave other very damaging evidence.

Officer R. Cramer was called to the house and he stated on the witness stand that he found Ryan under conditions that seemed to corroborate the mother's testimony.

Ryan, when taken on the stand, simply repeated the statement made to Chief Van Ry that the whole matter was a joke to him, that he did not know that he was in the boarding house until he woke up in the morning. He admitted that he was intoxicated and also remembers that he placed $70.00 in the dresser in his room, but that he was minus the money in the morning when the police arrived.

When questioned by the prosecutor, why he did not make his loss known, he stated that he thought the police had taken it as they often do and would return it when he put in his appearance at headquarters. Prosecutor Lokker brought out the fact that Ryan's mind seemed to be blank on the subject of any harm coming to the girl in question, but was rather keen on the loss of the money.

Witnesses from Holland were the mother, who told of the finding of the girl with Ryan, and Catherine Van Dort, the girl in question, who repeated the story of his taking liberties with her against her will. Officer Rufus Cramer was also called to the stand to tell what he saw when he arrested Ryan.

The defense had as witnesses John Ryan, Mrs. Halk, Mrs. Borchers, neighbors, and Mrs. John Ryan, the wife, who stood strongly by her husband. These were the character witnesses who stated that Mr. Ryan had never been involved before and held an excellent reputation in the neighborhood where he lived.

The jury was charged by Judge Cross and went to the jury rooms at 8:10 Tuesday night. They reported at 10:30 that they were hopelessly disagreed.

Ryan has been in jail for more than a month awaiting trial and during that time he tried to commit suicide by cutting his wrists in the county jail.

Without doubt the case will again be tried at the November term of court and Ryan was remanded to jail until that time.

TWO MUSKEGON GIRLS BEGIN JAUNT TO COAST

Two Muskegon girls, Misses Mary Glace and Virginia Oosting and Miss Helen Buzzell, of Twin Lakes, left Monday on a hike which has the Pacific coast as its goal. They applied for letters of introduction from City Manager I. R. Ellison and Chief Peter Hansen, of the police department, before starting.

ZEELAND MAN CONVICTED ON A LIQUOR CHARGE

The first case to be tried in the August term of court Monday before Judge Cross and the jury was that of John Raak of Zeeland charged with selling liquor. The testimony was reviewed, the jury taking 11:30 p. m. They were in session until 7:40 and then were released for supper. They again convened until 9:00 p. m. when they returned with a verdict of guilty.

Tuesday morning the case of Klass Katt of Ferrysburg, also for liquor violation was taken up by the court. Katt was found guilty after the jury had deliberated an hour.

The Kenneth Campbell case was called on Wednesday at 9:00 a. m.

CHIEF CARROLL WARNS OF PICKPOCKETS FRIDAY

A warning to those who plan to take part in the Lindbergh ceremonies at Grand Rapids Friday to lock their homes and to guard their pocketbooks while in crowds was issued Tuesday by Police Supt. A. A. Carroll of Grand Rapids. The warning was issued after he was informed by Dayton, O., police that a band of pickpockets has been following the itinerary of Col. Lindbergh on his nationwide flight.

FAMILY QUARRELS LEADS TO FINDING KEG OF MOONSHINE

The Holland city police Tuesday night searched the home and premises of Henry Serier, 84 W. 7th St., and found five gallons of moonshine in a keg in his garage and two pint bottles. This liquor was confiscated and is now at police headquarters. Serier was placed under arrest and when he appeared before Justice Charles K. Van Duren Wednesday morning he was bound over to circuit court. His bond was placed at $1,000. Serier's arrest was the result of trouble with his wife. She charges that he beat her. She took refuge with her parents and together with a brother called for help at police headquarters. Chief Van Ry sent Officers Dornbos and Van Hof and they took advantage of the opportunity to secure permission of Mrs. Serier to search the premises. Without this they could not have made the search and the liquor would not have been discovered.

Serier had gone to the home of a brother on the north side and he was not arrested until Wednesday morning. Officer O'Connor made the arrest and brought him into court.

MOTORCYCLE FIRE CALLS OUT FIRE DEPARTMENT

At 10 o'clock Tuesday night an alarm was sent in from Box 12 caused by a fire in a motorcycle being stored at the S. B. B. station at Columbus Ave. and 8th street.

Some of the gasoline from the filling hose fell on some hot cylinders of the cycle and soon flames were shooting out.

The motorcycle was being ridden by Herman Terpestra and Albert Coster.

The service station put its fire extinguisher into action and the fire department used its chemicals. The motorcycle, although badly scorched, can be repaired.

DUMPING GARBAGE IN KOLLEN PARK IS NOW PROHIBITED

An absolute taboo is to be placed on the dumping of garbage in Kollen park. The city inspection department has been greatly bothered by this practice. Dumping garbage on the embankment in the park has made life almost unbearable for those living near the park and many complaints have come to the city inspector. When the night is warm and the wind is from the lake the stench of the decaying garbage is almost too great to be endured.

Dumping garbage in the park is against the ordinance but the law is repeatedly being disregarded. People are allowed and even invited to dump any kind of dry rubbish there and it has become a regular habit of people to take their rubbish to that place. But nothing may be dumped that decays or creates a stench.

City Inspector Henry S. Bosch has appointed a number of deputies who help him put an end to this practice. The place will be watched from now on and the first one caught dumping garbage will be arrested, the city inspector said.

THIRD ANNUAL REUNION HELD

The third annual family reunion of the Warnels descendants was held Saturday at the Jamestown grove. A ball game and sports were enjoyed in the afternoon and many prizes were won by various members. Supper was served in the evening, after which a business meeting was held. The following officers were re-elected for the coming year: president, Mr. Ben Warnels of Grand Rapids; secretary, Miss Gertrude Mow of Holland; treasurer, Mrs. Harold Kragt, also of Holland; sport committee, Mr. John Wolfering, Mr. Harold Kragt of Holland and Miss Beate Warnels of Grand Rapids; refreshment committee, Mrs. Ben Warnels and Mrs. John Warnels, both of Grand Rapids.

It was decided to hold the next reunion at Pine Lodge.

STATE TO CUT OUT FLASHERS AT CROSSINGS

All but official warning signs along trunk line highways must go. That is the order of Frank F. Rogers, State Highway Commissioner. Notices have been sent to all cities and villages in the state asking that they take action to see that all but official warning signs are removed.

Mr. Rogers points out that complaints have been received regarding the installation of warning signs on trunk line highways, especially in the cities and villages. In many instances the warning signs of a flash nature have been erected for advertising purposes.

The State Highway Department learned that motorists stopped when they came to a flash sign at a railroad crossing. The sign flashed at all times and the result is that soon motorists come to disregard all danger signs.

"We are making an effort to eliminate all signboards and advertising signs along highways," writes Mr. Rogers. "We ask the co-operation of the cities and villages in this regard and also to see that all warning signs of an advertising nature are removed."

THE COUNCIL FOR ONCE UNANIMOUS ON EVERY POINT

The common council held a meeting Tuesday night at which all votes were unanimous, at which there were only majority reports, and at which there was not even the shadow of any difference of opinion.

The meeting was in the form of a dinner-picnic held at the cottage of Alderman and Mrs. S. R. McLean at Castle Park. Mr. and Mrs. McLean, at the last regular meeting of the council, extended an invitation to the city officials to meet at their summer home recently built and the city was unanimously accepted. It was a most delightful affair, attended by about twenty. After a bounteous picnic dinner, served cafeteria style, the company of grave city fathers forgot their dignity and enjoyed themselves like boys. Horse shoe pitching was the most popular game. Some of the aldermen were practiced hands at it and threw rings at nearly every try. In other cases city fathers were getting their first introduction to the game. One of them threw the horse shoe so far of the mark that nearly 15 minutes time out had to be taken to find it.

A tug of war, with three men on each side, was a feature of the program. The teams were so evenly matched that there was no decision, the battle ending in mutual exhaustion. After the tug, the rope was used to tie up Ald. Brive, arms and legs, and using the Cookie King for a foot ball. The scene made a demonstration on Lake Michigan for the benefit of the aldermen and came to a close to take off one of them, Ald. Hyma, who is commander of the troop.

Regular business talk was tabu in the session in the cottage after darkness had put an end to the sports and the aldermen spent their time saying the things they would often like to say at council meetings but which they were supposed to say in the privacy of their office. At the conclusion of the meeting Ald. Laeppe expressed the sentiments of all when he made a brief speech of appreciation.

CHAMPIONS ARE TAKEN ON A TRIP TO GRAND RAPIDS

"Gee, it pays to be a champion." That was the phrase the champions of the Lincoln Lions used after they had returned home from a real outing to Grand Rapids with the playground director, L. N. Moody, and Bill Van de Water, supervisor of the Lincoln playground.

With two cars loaded to capacity, Director Moody led the way to Grand Rapids. At the furniture city the boys were shown the sights. They then traveled to Ramona park. It was here that they got the time of their lives. Dan Koop rode the roller coaster so many times, he will never forget the thrill. Micky De Ridder drove a Scooter around until his money gave out. Each one of the boys had a great time riding the shoots and taking in most of the events at the park.

The boys were then taken to the Y. M. C. A., where they were given a real treat by the management, which allowed the champions the use of the Y pool. Here the boys proved they were also water champions as they swam and dove to their hearts' content. A light supper was eaten downtown, after which the boys were ready to call it a day and get ready to win the championship next year.

The Lincoln Lions, playground champions of the city, are the only team to go through the entire season with only one defeat. The game that they lost was to the Van Raalte All Stars, by the score of 4 to 2. It is a record of which any team may well be proud. A fifteen game schedule was called for at the opening of the playground activities this season. The boys played all their games and are thus entitled to their name of champions.

The following boys will receive rewards from the playground commission for their season's work: Fred Beckman, captain, Peenie Vande Water, John Vande Water, Jim Barzel, Harold Vilkers, Albert Oork, Russ Wolfering, Ralph Wolfering, Charles and Gerrit Looman, "Doc" Vande Water, Alvin Brandt, Dan Koop, Miky De Ridder.

INGERSOL FREED OF ASSAULT COUNT

It required only one ballot by a jury in Justice Roman's court Friday afternoon to acquit Harold H. Ingersol, keeper at the Muskegon county home, on a charge of assault and battery on John Hoff, an inmate of the institution. The evidence bore out the statement made by Mr. Ingersol that he did not treat the inmate unduly roughly, but with the hired man led him to the road and told him to leave the place, after he had failed to obey rules. Mr. Hoff indicated to Justice Roman that he would return to the home.

Mr. Hoff, Mr. Ingersol, Mrs. Ingersol, Henry Gravengood, the hired man, and E. H. Miller, superintendent of poor, were the witnesses. Mr. Hoff was the only witness called by the prosecution.

Several days ago, Mr. Hoff appeared at the prosecutor's office with J. Bennink, chairman of the government committee of the Lincoln club, and asked for a warrant. Harold H. Smedley, assistant prosecutor, said he would make an investigation. He did so and refused a warrant. Later, Mr. Bennink and Mr. Hoff appeared before Justice Roman and Mr. Hoff put up $125.00 security for costs and obtained a warrant. Mr. Ingersol was for a trial before a jury.

The defense endeavored to show that Mr. Hoff had caused trouble and that he had been at two other homes and left because he was disagreeable.

Mr. Smedley, although he refused a warrant, prosecuted the case and Mr. Hoff, told him that he was satisfied with the way it was handled.

Mabel Hicks Fraser and daughter Erane of Lincoln, Neb., are visiting their parents on north side drive.

Mr. Matt Neils, living on the Alpena road, is confined to his home with typhoid fever.

The Junior Red Cross, of which Mrs. N. Hofstee is chairman, contributed $25 to the Children's Bilet.

BODY OF UNIDENTIFIED TRAIN VICTIM BURIED

Convinced by failure of relatives to identify the remains, that the aged man killed early last week on the Pere Marquette railroad right-of-way between Godfrey and Market aves., Grand Rapids, was a transient who met death while either boarding or getting off a moving train, E. J. Conkery Tuesday morning buried the body in the county poor farm cemetery after holding it at his undertaking establishment last week.

Clothing which the man wore was kept should anyone appear who might be able to identify it.

HOLDS HIS BREATH FOR 14 MINUTES, BREAKING RECORD

E. L. Gaylor, Jr., of Cliffside, Mass., a member of the senior class in the recreation of his splendid world's record for breath-holding by establishing a time of 14 minutes 2 seconds.

The previous mark was made at the University of California in 1916, when 10 minutes 20 seconds was recorded.

QUICK TO WELCOME OAKLAND ALL- AMERICAN SIX

Pontiac, Mich., Aug. 6.—The Oakland Motor Car Company's success in creating an automobile which satisfies the highest American conception of what car should be is reflected in hundreds of telegrams from dealers all over the country this week. Tens of thousands have viewed the new Oakland All-American Six, and hundreds have driven it, since its presentation a week. They are enthusiastic in their praise of its splendid appearance, its surprising power, its roomy restfulness, and its generally sparkling performance.

Just as with the Pontiac Six, Oakland engineers sought to create a car adapted to the needs of the most exacting user—the American Six. These same engineers have carried that policy to its logical conclusion. The new Oakland is sturdy and powerful, with a man's size six cylinder engine. Roominess is assured by its 10-inch wheelbase, and its 175-inch over-all length.

Like the Pontiac Six, it is peculiarly adapted to the requirements of Americans whether their need be transportation in congested city traffic or sport and comfortable negotiation of great distances such as only America offers. In neither Pontiac nor Oakland is there the slightest stunting of power, room or riding ease, nor any trace of foreign influence.

The Oakland All-American Six, line which the public is welcoming so cordially is bigger, more beautiful, and more powerful than ever. Its 212-cubic inch displacement engine achieves new heights of smoothness, partly through a new non-detaching cylinder head and partly through improvements in the famous Oakland harmonic balancer. A notable refinement in which Oakland is pioneering is the mechanical fuel pump, which replaces the vacuum tank and insures fuel supply under all conditions.

Continuation of the trouble-free service for which Oakland has been famous is assured by a new oiling system, the features of which are a self-priming pump, an extra large strainer screen, and an ingenious provision for circulation of oil the instant the engine starts.

There is new beauty appeal about the Oakland All-American Six, comparable with its performance appeal. Rich new colors in Duco make the exterior resplendent, while luxuriously tailored upholstery insures both beauty and comfort within.

The American Eagle, emblem of the Oakland All-American Six, is associated with the same traditions as dictated the choice of Pontiac's name and Indian emblem. Conformity to all that is fine and strong in American tradition not only suggests these emblems but was built by the Oakland Motor Car Co. into the products for which they stand. The record-breaking rapidly with which Pontiac was swept to the crest of public favor has already attested the degree to which Pontiac performance fulfilled its creators' promises, and the response from the public today suggests that history is about to repeat itself, with Oakland.

CENTRAL PARK TO STAGE BIG FIELD DAY ON THURSDAY

Central Park is to hold its annual field day at the Central Park playground on Thursday afternoon and evening of this week. This is an annual event and it always draws a large crowd. The annual outing, to which all the residents of Central Park and the surrounding community are invited, is under the auspices of the Central Park Improvement association, an organization that acts as a chamber of commerce for the little resort community.

This year's outing is to be a "free picnic." That is, refreshments will be furnished by the association. To be furnished by the association. To Saturday held an auction sale. All members of the organization and all others who are interested in Central Park were asked to make donations of articles to be put up for sale. The proceeds amounted to about $100, which sum will be used to stage the outing Thursday.

There will be plenty of sports in the afternoon. A committee is hard at work making this a particularly interesting program, with plenty of entertainment for young and old. It is hoped that all will join in the community affair and that it will thus prove to be the biggest event of its kind ever staged there.

This year the outing will not be merely a picnic but it will be an evening event as well. Arrangements have been made for a big entertainment in the evening. In the chapel. The committee is extending a special invitation to people in Holland as well as in Central Park to attend this gathering. They have secured as the headline on the program the Wolverine Four of Grand Rapids, a quartet that is widely known throughout Western Michigan. This group of entertainers has frequently performed in Holland and has a fine reputation here. The Wolverine Four will be supported by a number of other singers and entertainers.

The annual union picnic of all the Sunday schools of Allegan county will be held at the county park on Friday. Arrangements have been made for a large attendance.

ALLEGAN COUNTY PIONEERS TALK OF OLDEN TIMES

The 17th annual meeting of the Western Allegan County Pioneer society, held at the county park, was attended by about 50 people. Tho the speakers for the coming year were elected: Dr. E. E. Brunson, Pres.; Mrs. Albert Nye, Treasurer, and H. H. Hutchins, Sec'y.

Mr. Colburn of Allegan, past secretary of the Kent, Allegan and Ottawa Insurance Co., who came to Michigan 81 years ago, gave an interesting talk on early times here. Mr. Sheffer of South Haven spoke of the fire of 1871, the "Chicago fire", and told how they, with the aid of neighbors, saved the new octagon house, then nearly completed, while their surroundings were being consumed. He said his father bought a tract of land in 1837 just north of where South Haven now is and he told how the wolves inhabited that section at the time and that their howling at night was a common occurrence.

Miss Nina LaDuck Dougherty told of Levi Loomis' experience with the cashier of the Singapore bank. It seems that gentleman was in the habit of taking the good money home with him and housed it under his pillow at night. Mr. Loomis had sent his money for the mill and wood hands but would not accept local money in payment without a special guarantee that it would be redeemed, which was given by the cashier.

When the time was nearing that Mr. Loomis was to remit he presented his bank money for redemption but the cashier put off until he lost all patience. He waited at the house until the boarders were off at their work but the cashier of the bank had not yet sallied forth. Then he went to the bedroom and demanded his specie. The cashier said he would have to go to the bank first but Mr. Loomis said he would never go down stairs alive until the amount was paid. Finally the fire in Mr. Loomis' eyes and the look of the muzzle of an old fashioned pistol convinced him that it was for his wellbeing to pay. So he reached under his pillow and counted out the specie, thus redeeming the bills of his local bank. But in doing so he handed out nearly all the specie on hand.

Mrs. Ida Loomis Brunson exhibited a three dollar bill of the Singapore bank.

Edward Hutchins read a poem entitled, "The Pioneer Preacher," written by his mother years ago.

Mr. Scott W. Eddy told of "coming to Pier Cyve 63 years ago, 1864, when that place boasted of a large hotel, three stores, a sawmill and grist mill"; also there was a repair shop and saloon, and a pier out in the lake for traffic.

Mr. J. K. Hardin, now 78 years old, told of coming into what is now Casco township 73 years ago, 1854, with his parents who settled on 440 acres of wildland, built and moved into a log house and had their frontier experiences. He has had his home on the same site to the present time.

MAN, NINETY TWO, RIDES IN AIRPLANE

Abijah Brown, 92 years old, living at Marshall, Mich., took an airplane ride there Wednesday. His son, Henry, took the aged man on a trip, lasting 20 minutes.

"It was very enjoyable," Brown commented after the trip, "and I would not mind going again any time."

The aged "flier" complained after the ride that he had not gone high enough. Brown came to Marshall three years ago from Storm Lake, Ia.

BREAKDOWN HOLDS UP FERRYSBURG CROSSING

A partial breakdown in the gravel equipment at the Ferrysburg grade separation approaches has halted the work there somewhat, although half of the pavement is already laid. It will be fully two weeks longer before the other side of the highway leading to the crossing can be completed. Then a three weeks period in which the pavement is allowed to harden will pass before it will be opened for travel.

The project has been on long and the opening will be greatly welcomed by the traveling public as the dangerous sharp curves on U. S-31 are difficult to negotiate in heavy summer traffic.

BYRON TWP. PIONEER DIES IN G. R. HOSPITAL

William Fleetwood, of Byron Center, one of the true pioneers of this locality, died early today in St. Mary's hospital, Grand Rapids, following a heart attack suffered Tuesday. He was born in England in 1846 but was a pioneer of Salem and Jamestown and also lived in Byron a number of years.

His wife and three of eight children survive. Two sons, Herbert and Perry, and a daughter, Mrs. Faye Brown who lives on a farm east of Byron Center. Funeral arrangements will not be made until the wishes of his sons living in Santa Barbara, Cal., and in Salem, Ore., can be learned.

J. J. Riemersma is in Lansing for a few days this week.

Tommy Van Zanen spent Tuesday in Lansing, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Poyer have returned from a three weeks' vacation tour of the eastern states.

Miss Martha Prakken left Monday for a ten days' visit with relatives in Boston, Mass.

Carl W. Trautman, 24, 222 Hampton avenue, S.E., Grand Rapids, of the Bowman-Trautman company, motor car distributors, suffered a sprained ankle Monday afternoon when he jumped from a boat to the dock at Spring lake and turned the member. He was brought to Butterworth hospital.

What is the favorite name in the Holland city directory, a new edition of which was published Wednesday? Perhaps not any one particular name can be fixed on but there is one kind of name that is easily in the lead. It is the name with a prefix of "Van" or "Ver" or "Vander." This type of name so far outdistances any other kind in Holland that there is no comparison.

In the new directory there are a little over twenty full pages devoted to the V's and all but two of those pages are made up of names that have a "Van" or a "Ver" or a "Vander" hitched in front, making a total of over 800 names in that general class.

The same thing is true, proportionately, of the Zeeland directory. In the Zeeland directory there are nearly seven pages in the V's, by far the leader in the alphabet. Over five pages of the seven are made up of names beginning with a "Van," "Ver" or "Vander." The rural directory runs true to form, showing in itself that it is in Dutch territory. It has a dozen pages devoted to the V's, most of which are names with one or another of the typical Dutch prefixes.

The next most numerous name in the directory is the type of name that begins with a "De" or a "Den," both of them also well known Dutch prefixes. Fourteen pages in the new directory are given over to the D's and the "De's" and "Den's" in the list are very numerous. The same thing is true of the directories of Zeeland and of the rural section.

As might be expected, the word "Holland" is the most popular in the business names of the city's institutions. There are 43 concerns of one kind or another that use the city's name in its firm name.

Most city directories in exclusively American communities have many "Smiths" and the name "Jones" is also very numerous. Of the latter Holland has only seven and of the former only 41.

PEACH CROP TO BE LIGHT THIS SEASON

The prospective small crop of Michigan peaches this season serves to emphasize the comparatively heavy production of 1926, of which the detail reports on distribution have just been made public in a government bulletin issued from Washington and compiled by R. H. Shoenaker, federal and state market reporter. The 1926 Michigan crop was placed at 1,564,000 bushels, and car shipments were 675 compared to 64 in 1925 and only 105 in 1924. A large part of the Michigan crop is marketed by trucks or taken by commercial canneries. The 1926 Michigan peach pack is estimated at 400,000 dozen cans on a No. 2 basis. It is estimated that the equivalent of 350 cars of Michigan fresh peaches were utilized for commercial canning.

Kent, Leelanau, Manistee, Mason, Oceana, Ottawa, Shiawassee and Van Buren counties had car shipments. One car was shipped from Traverse city, no others having been listed from Grand Traverse county in the past three years. Eleven cars originated at Ludington, six at Shelby and three at Manistee. The equivalent of 40 cars was shipped by boat, the points of origin not being given. Michigan peaches last year, taking 439 cars. ## GIVES EPISODE ABOUT WORK AMONG LEPERS

Mrs. J. C. De Vinney of Grand Rapids, formerly of Holland, has sent Mrs. C. V. R. Gilmore, as president of the federation of the women's societies of the churches of Holland, a clipping about the work of Dr. Charles T. Stauffacher, at Inhambane, Portuguese East Africa. The women's societies of the churches of Holland help to support the mission among the lepers there and some time ago contributed the money for the Mrs. C. V. R. Gilmore hospital there. "Surely Dr. Stauffacher is doing good work," writes Mrs. De Vinney, "and is worthy of all the good women of Holland and doing for him."

The article by Dr. Stauffacher, which was printed in the "Christian Advocate," will be of interest to hundreds of women here who are supporting his mission and hence it is herewith reprinted:

When The Royal Blood Flowed Chas. T. Stauffacher, M. D. Inhambane, Portuguese East Africa. I have had a privilege that comes to few physicians. I have been called to operate upon a king in the presence of several thousand people.

One Sunday afternoon a group of runners came all out of breath saying "come quick, our king is dying, the thing he thinks with is coming out."

I grabbed my emergency kit, jumped on my mule, and followed them on a gallop. When I came to the big place it was like a funeral, all was quiet. At once I was taken to the wounded man, who was bleeding like a stabbed hog, lying in a semi-conscious condition. The man who did the work was being slowly choked to death.

First of all I cut the rope that bound the prisoner, saying he would not run away for a while, and when he regained consciousness they could bind his legs and arms, but not his head down on his chest. They looked daggers, but said nothing. Then I turned my attention to their wounds of blood and was nearly all in. I sterilized his wound, which was his entire scalp, and began to sew up and tie off blood vessels all under a local anesthetic. Then I stimulated him and consciousness returned. He was drunk and at once tried to get his man.

I called his son, a witch-doctor, who had charge of the ceremonies, and said, "I want you to see that your father is kept quiet."

"I can't," he replied, "I have other work to do." For as soon as the king had come to the dance began.

Then the medical doctor turned preacher. He called a halt to the dance until he told them the "Way." A great hush came over them as they listened. One never can tell where the seed will fall and produce results. At least it does one good to tell the story to those who have never heard.

At midnight they took away the fellow who injured the king. No one will tell where. We suspect foul play. But we cannot get at anything definite. They say he ran away. His friends are silent for fear of what would happen to them. And all this trouble began over a yellow dog.

The old king has been for three successive Sundays at our services, and we are praying that this accident may be the means of leading him to Christ.

SHOES LIFT SELVES ONE NOTCH HIGHER

The Shoes lifted themselves a notch higher in the race for second place when they defeated the Baking Co. team 3 to 2. The Baking Co. and Heinz are now tied in seventh place but the Heinz are bound to break the tie when they play the Vac-A-Taps on Thursday night.

HAMILTON DEFEATS HOLLEMAN DE WEERDS 4 TO 3

One of the largest crowds of the season gathered to see the fast Hamilton nine defeat the H. & D's by the score of 4 and 3. The game was exciting from start to finish, with the H. & D's holding the lead to the 8th inning when Callahan, Hamilton's pitcher, won his own game by giving in the winning run. Holleman-De Weerd's got 7 well scattered hits off Callahan, while Hamilton got 9 hits off Becken. Callahan scored 6 strike-outs and Becken scored 13 strike-outs. Batteries were Hamilton: Callahan & Dangrewards; H. & D's: Becken, Fagerty.

The H. & D's will give Hamilton a return battle August 22nd on the Hamilton diamond.

SPRING LAKE ALL SET FOR THE GOLF TOURNEY

The tenth annual resorters' tournament started in Spring Lake this morning at 7:30 o'clock. Entries Wednesday night at closing showed a list of 172. While this is not as large as in former years, the management appears well satisfied with the show-list of entries pairings and starting time made.

Strange to say, in the published program, the name of not a Holland golfer appears.

The pairings have been made by the committee for the qualifying rounds and these will be started every three minutes from 7:30 a. m. all through the morning until 11:45. In the afternoon the championship flight will start the first round. Thirty six holes a day will have to be played to get all the matches disposed of for the finals on Sunday.

The following are expected to make the championship flight. Curtiss Wolfolk, of Chicago; Harry Allen, winner of the cup last year; Lockery, Grinnell; H. S. Robbins; Brenton Van Cleave, of St. Louis; Clarence Sessions and Charles Gibson, of Muskegon; James A. Roberts, of Chicago and Samuel Gilbert of Chicago. Louis Becker, a new 'comer to the club, a boy of 17 who has been shooting some excellent golf, is a new face likely to make it.

SHOES LEAD IN INDOOR LEAGUE

Results of the games played in the indoor league this week show the North Ends are continuing their winning streak and now challenge the Shoes for the leadership in a game to be played Monday night.

The Walkovers still repose in the cellar and the West Michigan has also dropped the last two games.

Monday night in a close contest the Shoes defeated the West Michigan 10 to 7. Batteries for the winners: Steffens and Beltman; for the West Michigan, Gunther and Kolan.

In a one-sided game the North Ends beat the Walkovers 33 to 11 Monday night. Batteries for the winners: Mulder and Meyers; Walkovers, Cook and Van Huis.

Friday night the North Ends sluggered their way to a 22 to 4 victory over the West Michigans. The winners collected 5 home runs and the pitcher of Mulder was a feature of this game. Batteries Mulder and Meyers; West Michigan, Gunther, Van Dyke and Kolan.

Following are the standings:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct
Shoes	5	1	.833
North Ends	5	2	.711
West Michigan	3	4	.429
Commercial	3	4	.429
Walkovers	0	5	.000

BASE STEALING IS EXCITING

The W. and D's chance for securing second place fell considerably when they lost to the Vac-a-Taps 10 to 6. The game as a whole was rather loosely played but several daring attempts at base stealing by Brad of the H. and D's and several snappy plays helped to hold the crowd's interest.

One fan, who has seen fully 90% of the games this season said that the base stealing on the part of Brad was the best he had seen this year. The Vac-a-Taps maintain that as spectacular plays were more lucky than anything else.

The game between the Federals and Holland Baking Co., which was to have been played Thursday night, was called off on account of rain.

The teams now stand:

Team	W	L	P
Federals	11	0	1.000
Hudson Essex	8	3	.727
H. and D.	6	5	.555
Saoces	5	6	.454
Vac-a-Taps	4	6	.370
Holland Bk. Co.	3	7	.300
Heinz	3	8	.272
Vans Ins.	2	7	.222

BOXING CARD BIGGEST EVENT OF THE SEASON

MUSKEGON, Aug. 9.—Muskegon's greatest boxing card, according to opinions of sport writers and close followers of the game, will be held Thursday night at Marsh Field with Emmett Curtice, the biggest flat at the state today as headliner. Billy Peterson, a rugged, hard-hitting youngster from Detroit will be the Fremont boy's opponent.

Since Curtice knocked out Soldier King at Grand Rapids last month he has blossomed almost over night into the most sought after ringster in the state. He is possessed of a wonderful physique, youth, gameness and other attributes but his unquestioned punch is what the cash customers come to see.

Other boxers well known to western Michigan fans will appear on the sporting card. Eddie Connors, Sam Caruso, Freddie Beals, Harold "Big" Lett of Grand Haven, Jake Brookhouse of Muskegon and two colored boys who open the show, are all known to fandom in this part of Michigan.

Al Bengie, manager of the Standard Auto Parts company has reserved seats for the show. The first bout goes on at 8:30 Thursday night.

BECKMAN HORSE SHOE CHAMPION

The city playground horseshoe champion was decided Friday. In the thirty foot court throw Fred Beckman, Lincoln school, had a perfect score, making him city champion. Second place was awarded to Harold Rohman of the Frobel playground. Charles Looman, midget hurler of Lincoln, placed third.

In the 40 foot doubles, Longfellow's team, Seekamp and Schuurman, walked off with the honors in straight heat. In the 40 feet singles Lloyd Schuurman of Longfellow took the first honors, and Lee Koppman of Froebel took the second place.

This week's events on all the playgrounds will be under the direction of each supervisor. They can all present the program that they would like to put on.

LEAGUE LEADERSHIP AGAIN CHANGES HANDS

League leadership in the Holland indoor league again changed hands Monday night when the North Ends defeated the Holland Shoes by a 14 to 11 score. The greater part of the game was a pitchers' battle between Mulder and Steffens. Mulder proved to be a little steadier and also received better support. Witvliet of the North Ends featured with a steal home. Batteries North Ends, Mulder and Meyers; Shoes, Steffens and Beltman.

The Commercial Printers handed the Walk-Overs a 13 to 7 licking, which was the 6th straight for the Walk-Overs. Jacobusse, of the winners pitched a great game and his support also was good. Prins and Schreur of the Commercialists did some heavy hitting thruout the game. Batteries: Commercialists, Jacobusse and Bowman; Walk-Overs, Cook and Van Huis.

A GOOD FIGHT IS EXPECTED AT MUSKEGON

All roads will lead to Marsh Field, Muskegon, next Thursday, when Emmett Curtice, the Fremont cyclone, will meet Billy Peterson of Detroit in a flat encounter. The fight is to be staged under the auspices of the Greater Muskegon Athletic club, Joe Gudelsky, being the promoter.

Billy Peterson is a real fighter. He has scored five knockouts in his last seven encounters. Peterson is a pro-ge of Silent Mike McNulty, who has sponsored the champion, Mike O'Dowd. Dopsters are figuring already that he has Peterson headed towards a championship, if he can put Curtice out of the way.

Peterson held the state championship in amateur boxing 22, 23 and 24. He is but 24 years old and a beautiful type of physical manhood. He went, as the Fremont lad did, to the amateur national tournament in Boston. Here he was defeated in the finals by a young lad from New York. A story is being told around that in the seventy odd fights the young men has entered into he lost only two contests.

Curtice, while not having such a long record, has one which is just as good. The young Fremonter was able to defend himself in great style, according to the dope of his trainer, Charlie Anderson. Charlie is the burly big negro from the Wall Miller stables in New York. He has helped Dempsey round into shape for more than one contest. He is also making a boxer out of the Fremont lad. Curtice has developed the left hand to such an extent that it is as dangerous as his right.

The contest is called for Thursday night. If rain should postpone the fight it will be held on Friday, Aug. 12.

HOLLAND BEATS RANGER GIRLS

In a very one-sided game the Holland Independents defeated the Ranger Girls 15-2 Saturday afternoon at Riverview Park. For the first two innings Miss Tumman pitched the local team got two runs in each inning. Then Mr. Coles went in and for three innings had the local boys standing on their heads, trying to hit his offerings, but in the 6th they got to him for eight hits and ten runs and it looked very much as if they had to get the local fire department to put out the side. In all justice to Mr. Coles, however, we will say that had he been fortunate enough to have some fielders behind him the number of runs would have been a great deal less. But anyone who expected girls to play ball like boys was sadly disappointed in Saturday's ball game. The last inning saw Holland's line-up shifted with Manager Spriggs doing the twirling.

Everybody was ready for their basket of food after which an indoor baseball game was played between the men of the Adult Bible class and Ter Haar class in which the latter defeated the former with a score of 32 to 36. The weather was ideal and a good time was enjoyed by the youngsters and the adults.

ONLY TWO STATES MISSING HERE IN AUTO PLATE LIST

Cars from all but two of the United States, from five Canadian provinces, from the District of Columbia and from Hawaii have been seen by Western Michigan visitors during the 1927 resort season.

Idaho and Georgia are the only states whose automobile license plates have not been seen on one or more tourists' machines. Ontario, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Alberta and British Columbia are the Canadian provinces which have sent their touring emissaries to Western Michigan this summer.

It has been noted that, especially during the past two weeks, cars bearing Missouri license plates have all but outnumbered the rest of the cars from states much nearer to Michigan.

Illinois, with its Chicago of three million inhabitants or more, still leads the list. Close on its heels come Indiana and Ohio. Missouri is about fourth in the number of visitors which are coming to Western Michigan to spend their vacation this year. The many people from Missouri who live in St. Louis and Kansas City probably account for the great number of tourists from that state.

More common than ever before, also, are the cars bearing Tennessee and Kentucky license plates. These plates are easily distinguished as the Tennessee license has an outline map of the state upon it and the Kentucky license, bearing the county, state and date on the upper half and a comparatively small number on the lower, is one of the most unique.

Another unique license plate which has been seen in Western Michigan this summer, but very seldom, is that of New Mexico bearing a likeness of the rising sun. Kansas and Arkansas have been represented frequently here this summer.

Among the licenses very seldom seen are those of the two Carolinas, the New England states, West Virginia, Maryland, Wyoming and others among the western states. Florida and California have been among the licenses commonly observed.

With three more weeks of the resort season yet to come before Labor Day, it is expected that licensees from Idaho and Georgia will be seen to the comparative record of having had visitors from every state in the Union.

All the buildings at the Allegan county poor farm are being repainted this week.

PLANE PORTS FOR HIGHWAY BOARDS ROAD MEN'S PLAN

William M. Connelly and Carl Bowen, member of the Ottawa County Board of Commissioners and engineer, have returned from Petoskey where they attended the meeting of the Northern Michigan road men. It was one of the largest meetings of its kind ever held, and Gov. Fred W. Green and Frank McKay, state treasurer, were there.

The banquet given at the Cushman House, Petoskey, on the first night was attended by 250 men from all parts of the state. The principal speakers were Gov. Green, Mr. McKay and William M. Connelly.

Mr. Connelly razed the speakers' and officers' and then seriously presented the following resolution which was passed the following day:

"Whereas, the recent tests of Col. L. H. Lister and other engineers have given a great impetus to transportation by aircraft and many communities are already feeling the need of adequate airport facilities for the commercial intercourse with other communities, for the handling of emergencies, for emergency landing and succor in time of disaster, and

"Whereas, adequate airports require a large area of land and must for economic reasons be located outside of city and village limits, and such parts require more or less engineering skill for construction and maintenance of runways, markers, signals and building, and most counties of Michigan have well organized highway departments with competent engineers who could well and efficiently handle this class of work, therefore be it

"Resolved, that the Northern Michigan Road Commissioners Association, hereby favors a measure to be introduced in the next special or regular session of the Legislature, to the effect that it be the duty of the boards of county road commissioners of each county to construct and maintain airports under certain conditions; said conditions to be outlined in the proposed manner and the duties of constructing and maintaining of highways, and the Secretary is hereby directed to send copies of this resolution to highway committees of both houses of the next assembly of the Legislature."

Reports received by Carl Zech, secretary of the Michigan Game and Fish Protective association, regarding the 50 settings into which the first 1,000 ringneck pheasant eggs received from the state were divided, show that more than 75 per cent were hatched.

The state game farm at Mason sent the eggs to the association for distribution to sportsmen and farmers in that section and the percentage of hatching, according to Zech, is considered very fair. The ordinary percentage of young pheasants obtained from the eggs was reduced somewhat through transportation and distribution.

The association is awaiting reports regarding the hatching of the second consignment of 1,000 eggs, which was received somewhat later. The success of the project depends largely upon the promptness with which the eggs were set and the faithfulness of the Plymouth Rock hens which accepted the nest.

Of the first consignment, four settings hatched 100 per cent; 11 hatched 19 chicks from 29 eggs and the lowest record for a single setting was five chicks from 30 eggs.

Gives Historical Sketch of The Village of Hudsonville; Place is Largely Made Up of Hollanders

(W. Chas. Covey in The Hudsonville Home News)

The social conditions in our community differ but little from conditions existing in nearly all communities of like population.

Our people are very busy in their battle for existence and in getting that which will make old age a period of rest and contemplation rather than a period of fear that the wolf's howl around the door will mean much discomfort.

But let the alarm of suffering or extreme lack of luck be sounded by the fact that which will make old age a period of rest and contemplation rather than a period of fear that the wolf's howl around the door will mean much discomfort.

It is natural that people coming from the same foreign country be somewhat gregarious, and there are some instances of that kind in our community. Like seeks associations with like, and no one can justly attribute such swarming together to misguided selfishness. Our population consists of 99 per cent of good people and the other one per cent are good also, but with varying degrees. People of the same political opinion or religious trend seek in their political or religious associations others who harmonize with them in such opinions.

Our population consists largely of people direct from the Netherlands or related to such countrymen. There are few who can trace their origin to Germany, but without exception all are loyal to the land of their adoption and salute with reverence the grand old flag under which they live.

America demands, and the melting pot sometimes needs skimming and the scum thrown into the sewer. However there is but little drawback in the assimilation in the melting pot of our community, if the question of sectarianism is left out.

Speaking of sectarianism, there seems to be quite a variance in the beliefs cherished by the people of the four different denominations that worship here in their respective houses of worship.

Each of these churches worships the same God and have devotion and love for the Lord Jesus Christ, and the only reason why there are four separate denominations is because of some slight tenet cherished by them with undying tenacity. The oldest of the houses of worship is the Congregational. This is located near the eastern end of Main street and has in connection a hall that accommodates quite an assembly. This hall is considerable source of revenue to the church. The second church to be organized here is the Reformed church. These people purchased their house of worship from the disciples, when that body ceased to function. The Christian Reformed church, from a numerical standpoint, is the most populous body in the village. Dissension among their membership over the question of saving grace split off quite a number from this church roll. These dissatisfied people, with the help of others, formed a church of their own and built the largest and most beautiful church edifice in our village.

Perhaps there will not be so many denominations in the Heaven above.

But we firmly believe we will find many of these people whose tenets seem to clash with those of people's Bible doctrine.

It would be wonderful and exquisitely sweet if all of God's people here could be influenced to use the same pasture and eat the same food in harmony.

Take it all and in all there is not much wrangling among the churches after all. No one seems to travel around with religious chips on their shoulders even though politics and sectarianism are frequently the cause of community quarrels and dissensions.

For the proper understanding of Bible truths, education and religion are, or should be, co-existent. Each is an excellent brace to the other in the search of truth, and it is truth that should be in demand in every investigation in order to fully understand what is needed and demanded of us in our search for religious truths.

In the olden days, the sins of the ignorant God winked at, but under the influence of great opportunities for truth in the present day no one can find excuse for ignorance. Our village is exceedingly favored in having one of the very best public schools in the country of like population and possibilities. It has grown from a mere nucleus. The nucleus though small, resulted in strength in action and resolution of purpose. Three houses have been erected and outgrown by the increase in population and improvement in the art of instruction. The first was devoted to the instruction in the education needed to read, write and perform the necessary computations in arithmetic formula with which to perform the necessary duties incident to business life. The second was the result of finding their quorum too crowded and means of instruction too meager and not well enough developed to meet the increased demands upon pupils of that day and age.

Demand for greater possibilities and more improved help that became the basis of the desperate need of still more help in quarters sufficient to house the pupils and sufficiently qualified teachers to instruct according to new and improved methods approved by our State Board of Education led to the building of our present schoolhouse. This, too, has become too crowded to make possible the proper accommodation of our pupils and the best assistance in the greater developed methods of instruction.

This is recognized by our patrons and steps right now are being taken to meet the demands upon us and further the best instruction of our children.

Our school has advanced slowly, perhaps, but steadily until we have no fear of its retrograde in the future. We have just passed the best year of school in our history, which convinces us that we are trying to do the best thing possible for our young people. Our superintendent and his force of teachers are all workers, and the results of their work are seen on every hand. Our coming year of school promises to be an improvement upon even last year.

The fact that our Chr. Reformed brethren have established a parochial school in Hudsonville has been a factor in relief to the congestion of our public school, as nearly two hundred children have been drawn to the other school. The pupils of the Christian school usually come to the public school after completing their eighth grade. A number of these have been

BEES SET RECORD; CLOVERCROP HELPS

MOVING HIVES TO FRUIT BELT ALSO BOOSTS PRODUCTION

A record production of white comb and strained honey is believed to have been made this year by apiarists in southern Michigan, according to reports received here. The increase in output is attributed to the large acreage of red, sweet and alsike clover.

Returning from a trip about the state, Prof. Edwin Ewell, bee specialist, at Michigan State College, reported he saw more clover in southern Michigan this year than in any season in the last decade.

Sweet clover is ideal for bees and Prof. Ewell reports the acreage of this legume is increasing rapidly in Michigan.

Moving bees into the fruit belt at blossom time last spring did not prove as profitable to beekeepers as they had hoped, owing to the rainy weather throughout the bloom period. The colonies, however, improved in strength and were in excellent physical condition for the clover bloom in June and July.

Strength has been partly depleted, Prof. Ewell reported, by swarming in colonies which were not supplied with new supers as rapidly as others were filled.

STATE CALLED BEST AS AIRWAY CENTER

LANPHER SEES MICHIGAN AS LIKELY LEADER IN AVIATION

Michigan is better adapted than any other state in the union to become the center of airplane industry, Maj. Thomas G. Lanphier, commander of Selfridge field, told members of the Lansing Exchange club today.

The same materials, mechanics, plants and other equipment used to produce automobiles may be converted to the manufacture of aircraft, he pointed out, and "business men have an opportunity to get in on the ground floor of this new major industry."

The country's awakened interest in aviation was attributed by the speakers to the achievements of Lindbergh, Chamberlain, Byrd and other trans-oceanic fliers whom he praised for their courage and wish to promote aviation.

Major Lanphier flew to Lansing from Mt. Clemens with an escort of five other pursuit planes. They all landed at the new air field, which is still in process of construction, and the commandant's plane broke a wheel when it struck a pile of stones.

COSTS 1 CENT TO COLLECT A DOLLAR IN U. S. TAXES

It will cost the federal government slightly less than 1 cent to collect each dollar taxes next year, Internal Revenue Commissioner David H. Blair estimated. A preliminary budget of $33,000,000 was submitted to the Secretary of the Treasury Mills by Mr. Blair. The internal revenue bureau collects approximately $3,600,000,000 annually each year.

GENERAL BIBLE CONFERENCE AT PINE LODGE

Hanna Divinity School, Springfield, Ohio. He is an outstanding figure in the conservative ranks. He is an author of more than a score of books. His is very much in demand on conference platforms.

Dr. Kuizenga

Rev. John E. Kuizenga, D. D., is president of the Western Theological Seminary, former president of General Synod of the Reformed Church, a preacher of note in Reformed circles and known on Winona, Grove City and other conference platforms.

Rev. S. C. Nettinga, D. D., is Professor of Church History in the Western Theological Seminary, former president of General Synod of the Reformed Church, one of the outstanding figures in our Reformed Church and a speaker on summer conference platforms.

The daily program will conform to the general idea on which all conferences are founded, that those who attend shall have part of the day for rest and recreation. There will be two sessions, in the morning and one at night, the afternoon left free for all kinds of summer pleasures. The meetings and hours are as follows: 9:30 a. m., Bible Exposition by Dr. Kyle or Dr. Keyser; 10:30 a. m., lecture by Dr. Kuizenga or Dr. Nettinga; and 7:30 p. m., address by Dr. Kyle, or Dr. Keyser. As the arrangements have been made with the speakers, Dr. Keyser expects to be on the grounds the first half of the conference period. And Dr. Kuizenga will be the lecturer for the first half and Dr. Nettinga for the second half. Dr. Keyser will give the address on the opening night.

Pine Lodge is a lovely spot on a beautiful lake and is well adapted to conference purposes. Its limpid waters, its beautiful hotel and bungalow cottages, its seclusion at the end of the road, its proximity to Holland which is a church center and a beautiful city, its accessibility by boat and railroad and bus, its favorable central position in a well known resort section all combine to make it a very choice place for a summer conference. For rest, for beauty, for recreation, Pine Lodge is unequalled.

Pine Lodge belongs to the Reformed church. It is an independent organization but its officers and directors are members of the Reformed church. Its appeal is to the Reformed church and it gathers its support from the Reformed church. The teachings from its platforms are not necessarily denominational, everybody is welcome and all who love our Lord and the Word are comfortable, but these teachings are Scriptural and conservative.

DETROIT PAPER TELLS OF GREEK THEATRE

In an editorial the Detroit News of Sunday prints the following:

"In the beautiful summer resort district which is the pride of Holland, Mich., recently was dedicated an outdoor amphitheatre resembling the theatres of ancient Greece. The event was made the occasion of a series of entertainments which attracted the crowd."

"The experiment will be watched with interest in many other places where people seek summer recreation. The ancients made much of open-air entertainment. The climate of the Mediterranean border area is not rainless. The architects of classical times succeeded in providing adequate protection from inclement weather by the use of masts and awnings."

"Some have thought that the Greek theater may afford the nature needed by the little theater movement in this country. If enterprises like that undertaken at Holland, encourage amateur production of drama, the various picturesque surroundings of hillside and woodland, a real contribution both to art and to health and recreation will result."

THE CASTLE CONTAINS RARE FOREIGN COLLECTION

MISS HELEN WING, A REGULAR GLOBE TROTTER

In the lobby of the Castle at Castle Park of modern fame there is on display a collection of foreign works of art illustrating the beauty of common materials, and some less common, when used by a talented worker. Miss Helen Wing and a friend toured Europe as concert artists in the early spring season this year and while abroad it is a hobby with Miss Wing to obtain as many quaint and antique objects as she considers genuine and valuable. Each summer brings thus a new attraction for the Castle folks as her little shop is well known.

In making her selections Miss Wing aimed at unusual sources. As a result the brooches, rings, and inlay work are truly exceptional. Italian miniatures, jewelry of all kinds and inlaid wooden boxes from Sorrento, Italy, with the appliques from Switzerland that came originally from Egypt, all serve to create a luxurious profusion that intrigues both the eye and the little imp of possession. Of special beauty are the Venetian silk shawls and the cloths of Swiss wool, the softest material known.

While in Paris Miss Wing and her companion witnessed the arrival of Col. Lindbergh at his goal after his recent flight. She was impressed by the respect the French people held for this daring and level-headed American youth, who changed the world's opinion of Americans in general.

WOLVERINES GET 10TH VICTORY

Pretty fielding and hitting enabled the Wolverine Stars to cap their 10th straight. The victim Wednesday night was East Holland Independents at East Holland by a 10-7 score. The game was one of the most thrilling seen for many a moon and a large crowd of spectators attended. The Wolverine only got six bingles but each of them meant runs since 7 free passes were issued by the three East Holland moundsman. The Stars put six runs across in the third, but the Hollanders scored two in the fourth. In the fifth with the bases loaded, Ed Prins clouted a homer and tied the count six all. Prins was the batting star of the evening getting two triples and a homer in five times up. The Bektormen got two in the seventh and made their margin larger by getting two more in the ninth. Ed Wolters pitched good ball all the way but especially in the pinches. In the ninth he retired the East Hollanders in fine fashion with two strikeouts and an outfield fly.

GEORGE GETZ GIVEN PERMISSION TO HOLD DEMPSEY-TUNNEY GO

George F. Getz of Holland and Chicago, promoter of the fights for the civic glory of Chicago, was given permission Tuesday by the Illinois State Athletic commission to stage the Dempsey-Tunney heavyweight battle in Soldiers' field, Thursday night, Sept. 22.

The commission, in addition to approving the date, also approved the scale of ticket prices of $40, $30, $25, $20, $15, 10, and $5, all prices to include war tax.

The commission, however, decided that it would need to inspect the blueprint of the field, before Tex Rickard could place the tickets on sale. The commissioners wanted to know where the various priced seats will be located before they would permit any to be sold. The diagram of the proposed seating arrangements is now being prepared by engineers for Rickard and the South Park board. The plans probably will be presented to the commission at its regular meeting next Tuesday.

John Wesley Lee, one of America's well known evangelists, will speak at the gospel tent on North Church-st., Zeeland, Thursday and Friday nights of this week.

Henry Bos, sr., of 514 Central Ave. left on a trip to the East, Tuesday. He will visit New York, Paterson, N. J., Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and other places of interest.

Appreciating the fact that many wanted to see the big fight at New York on July 21, but distance and time prevented business men and ladies from enjoying this, HOLLAND THEATRE has arranged to show the DEMPSEY-SHARKEY fight pictures here for two days starting Thursday and Friday. On account of the tremendous amount of controversy that this fight has brought out, these pictures taken at the ringside, show clearly the entire seven rounds. Slow motion pictures depict so vividly Dempsey's weaving offensive, Sharkey's right across and the terrific infighting of both men. The film is much more entertaining to many than a twenty-five dollar ringside seat.

DAVID BRINGS THE ARK TO JERUSALEM

LESSON TEXT—II Sam. 6:1-19;
Ps. 134.

GOLDEN TEXT—We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

PRIMARY TOPIC—David Worships God.

JUNIOR TOPIC—David Worships God.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How to Worship God.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Exalting God in Individual and National Life.

I. David Made King.
Over Judah (II Sam. 2:1-4).
Upon the death of Saul and Jonathan, David knew that the time had come for the fulfillment of God's purpose, but he carefully inquired of the Lord as to the proper movement to make. God directed him to Hebron, whereupon the children of Judah anointed him to be their king.

2. Over Israel (II Sam. 5:1-5).
After the death of Ishbosheth, the children of Israel came and formed a league with David, anointing him as their king. They assigned as their reasons:

- (1) He was their brother (v. 1).
- (2) This is true of Jesus Christ, who has become our kinsman through the incarnation.
- (3) He was their leader in war, even in Saul's time (v. 2).
- (4) He was the Lord's choice (v. 3).

3. David's Unsuccessful Attempt to Bring Up the Ark (v. 1-5).
This is an example of a wrong way of doing a thing. That the Ark of the Lord of Hosts, the symbol of God's presence, should be brought to the center of the nation's life was a decision worthy of all praise. David gathered together the representative men of the nation in order that the movement might be a national one. That David was sincere in this measure cannot be doubted, but he was hasty and inconsiderate, for the procedure was an express violation of God's statutes. The dictum that it matters little what you do, just so you are honest and sincere, is one of the devil's blackest lies. David cannot be excused on the grounds of ignorance, because he had the opportunity to know.

III. God Vindicates His Law and Holiness (v. 6-9).
The people were very joyful as they moved on toward Jerusalem with the ark, but suddenly there was a stop to the jubilant voices and music. At some rough place in the road the oxen stumbled and Uzzah, anxious for the precious freight on his cart, reached forth his hand to steady it. This resulted in his being stricken to death, as a man who touches a live electric wire. Ignorance does not make a man immune from the death which is in the touch of the heavily charged electric wire; neither does it in the case of the violation of God's laws. Since the ark was God's dwelling place among men they needed to know that He was holy. This awful visitation of judgment struck terror to David. Well it might, for he was in the path of disobedience.

IV. The Ark of God in the House of Obad-Edom (v. 10-12).
The homes where God is welcomed are always blessed. Obad-Edom was not better personally than Uzzah and David, but he openly received the Lord and properly related himself to Him. What had been death and dread to others was life and blessing to him. This was all because of his attitude toward it.

V. The Ark Brought to Jerusalem (v. 13-19).
1. Sacrifices were offered after going six paces (v. 13).

David made the start and when convinced of God's approval, he made offerings. These were both burnt and peace offerings, typifying the self-dedication of the offerers and their thanksgiving (I Chron. 16:1).

2. David's great joy (v. 14, 15).
The people joined him with great shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.

3. Michael's criticism (v. 16).
Even though David went to excess in his expression of joy, it was wrong in her to criticize, for God seems to have sanctioned David's rebuke of her (v. 23).

4. The grand celebration (v. 17-19).
As a token of his gratitude to God, David generously treated the people.

5. The King of Glory, the Lord Jesus Christ, coming (Ps. 24:7-10).
This was not the psalm composed by David for the occasion of bringing up the ark; that was Psalm 135. (See I Chron. 16.) It is strange that such a suggestion should have been made. This 24th psalm pictures Christ as the coming and triumphant King. At that time the gates shall open to Him and the King of Glory shall come in.

SIX HUNDRED ATTEND SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC
The annual Sunday school picnic of the 14th Street Christian Reformed church was held Thursday afternoon and evening at Pine Lodge. About 600 were present and a most enjoyable time was spent. There was a full program of sports, with prizes attached. The picnicers enjoyed a basket lunch together at night, after which there were more sports.

GRASS FIRE THREATENS ALLEGAN FARM HOME
Fire destroyed about four acres of grass and wheat on the Rambold farm Friday afternoon just outside the Allegan limits on the Osego road. The tenant was burning rubbish in the backyard when the field caught from it.

The house was endangered, but the Allegan fire department, which offers protection to rural dwellers, soon extinguished the flames.

LINDBERGH IS INVITED TO VISIT CAMP GRAYLING

Col. Leroy Pearson, chief of staff at Camp Grayling, Wednesday wired Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, at Cleveland, inviting him to visit the Michigan National Guard camp at Camp Grayling next week and take part in the maneuvers of the 32nd division air service. Four airplanes of the 32nd division air service will fly to Camp Grayling Saturday to work with Detroit's 182nd heavy artillery in anti-aircraft operations.

WELCOME PLANS FOR LINDBERGH ARE PREPARED

One thousand Grand Rapids boy scouts have been enlisted by Mayor Elvin Swarthout's general committee preparing for the reception August 12 of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, to supplement the police force, 150 firemen, the sheriff's force and 20 state troopers to handle what is believed will be the greatest crowd ever assembled in Grand Rapids.

THE PLAYGROUND EXPERIMENT IS SEEN AS SUCCESS

With the summer vacation period more than half over, in fact only four weeks left until the time when the pupils will have to respond again to the call of the school bell, it is possible to take stock of the city's first supervised summer playground experiment.

The summer playground plan was originated about a year ago, when the board of education and the common council jointly decided to assume the financial responsibility for such a movement, each of the two paying one-half of the cost.

This work was gradually developed during the winter months and when school let out in June everything was in readiness, with a supervisor appointed, who in turn had provided himself with a corps of helpers, one playground superintendent for each of the four playgrounds.

The whole thing was an experiment so far as Holland was concerned and the members of the commission, as the time for putting the plans into operation, were frankly anxious about the success of the venture. They realized that if the first summer's efforts met with little or no response, the playground movement would be greatly retarded in Holland and might have to be discontinued altogether.

With the summer as far advanced as it is, those fears have been put aside. The children of Holland have taken naturally to the system and many older persons have also taken advantage of the opportunity. It is certain that the first summer's experiment will be a real success and that probably means that it will become a permanent feature of Holland's recreational activities.

The invitation is once more extended to all grownups to take advantage of the opportunities for play each evening on one of the four playgrounds. Children come of their own accord, but grownups are always welcome.

LAKE HIGHER IN JULY THAN IN JUNE

Lakes Michigan and Huron are 0.12 foot higher than in June (since 1860 the July level has averaged 0.97 foot higher than June); they are 1.01 feet higher than the July stage of a year ago, 0.84 foot below the average stage of July of the last ten years, 4.03 feet below the high stage of July, 1876, and 1.01 feet above the low stages of July, 1925 and 1926. Based on past records the monthly mean level for August is likely to be about 0.795 and not less than 0.792.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Meyer of Kalamazoo are resorting at Central Park for two weeks.

CENTRAL PARK TO TAKE STEPS SOON TO INCORPORATE

Central Park, little resort town on the south side of Black Lake midway between Holland and Macatawa, wants to become an incorporated village. At least enough of the people of Central Park are in favor of this to take steps to bring it about. The Central Park Improvement association, which acts as a kind of chamber of commerce for the community, has taken the matter under consideration and has appointed a committee whose duty it will be to learn what steps must be taken for incorporation and how Central Park can attain the end it has in view. The committee is made up of Henry C. Burmsa, of Grand Rapids, chairman, Albert Kronmeyer of Zeeland and Central Park, and Marinus Den Herder, a Grand Rapids attorney. These three have begun work to secure the incorporation of the resort as a village or have at least started to gather the necessary information preliminary to taking such legal steps as may be necessary.

Discussing the project, Chairman Burmsa said that the people of Central Park are dissatisfied with the way they are taxed and with what they get for the taxes they pay. He claims that the people of Central Park are assessed too heavily by the township and that they are not getting value received. The idea is to incorporate as a village so that the tax returns may be used in what the members of the committee at least think a more equitable way. Mr. Burmsa said Central Park is not getting in roads and other improvements adequate returns from the money the property owners pay in taxes to the township.

Last fall Central Park, along with other sections west and east of the city, had an opportunity to become a physical part of the city of Holland. Mr. Burmsa claims that had the resort been incorporated at the time the village would have been such a movement. The park wants improvement, he asserts, and since the project to combine with the city of Holland failed, Central Park will try incorporation on its own hook.

OTTAWA COUNTY MAN PUTS THE FISH LID ON

More stringent enforcement of commercial fishing regulations in Michigan will be undertaken by the state department of conservation as the result of a special report prepared by Commissioner William H. Loutit of Grand Haven.

Mr. Loutit recently completed an extensive personal survey of fishing conditions in the Great Lakes, including Huron, Superior and upper Michigan in state waters. At this week's monthly meeting he asserted that "the state has concentrated so much on regulating game and wild life, conditions in the fishing industry have suffered." He intimated there were wholesale violations of the code.

The report urged that the department bring its commercial fishing statistics up to date, asserting the present data was of little value, not giving necessary information for comparative analysis.

Search is being made by Allegan county officers for a woman charged with passing two worthless $20 checks in Plainwell this week. One of the checks, drawn on a Plainwell bank and signed with the name, Mrs. F. Shaw, was cashed by Homer Popham, who made the complaint to Sheriff Ben Lugten Friday.

The woman described as being five feet, seven inches tall, weighing about 180 pounds and having dark complexion and hair, the latter shorn in a long bob.

The Goodrich Transportation company, which has Holland as one of its ports of entry, this week gave the announcement to all its employees that henceforth the person who drinks will be persona non grata to the company as an employee. While not wishing to dictate the conduct of employees after working hours, the company, through Charles C. West, executive vice president, as much as advises all those who are drinkers, even moderate drinkers, to eliminate themselves from the company because the firm has the conviction that if they do not do so voluntarily now the same thing will become necessary involuntarily after the employee has lost his efficiency through the use of intoxicants.

The announcement is published in this week's issue of "The Goodrich News," official organ of the company, and reads as follows:

"An employee of this company has recently been discharged for drinking. He started as a so-called moderate drinker but as he went on the habit became fixed and his efficiency decreased. In consequence the company was not receiving the service from him that his position demanded."

The Goodrich Transit Company does not attempt to dictate the conduct of its employees after working hours, but it most decidedly does reserve the right to employ the men who are most efficient and who are likely to remain so.

We reserve the right to believe that the so-called moderate drinker will in time be of small value to this company.

"If any employee disagrees with this policy, it will be better for both of us that he sever his connection cheerfully and voluntarily at this time rather than involuntarily at some future time."

"Days of keen competition are here and every one of us must keep our brains clear and our bodies in vigorous condition. We do not say that you must not drink, but we do say, if you must drink, that you be part of some other organization."

"The old alibi of drinking with patrons or prospective patrons of the Goodrich line in order to secure their business will no longer serve. It is neither necessary nor excusable."

"Therefore, starting right now—if you do not want to let booze alone, let us part company and on account of past associations, we will do anything we can for you, except allow you to work for us."

Judge O. S. Cross was in Grand Haven Saturday to preside at the naturalization of 23 individuals who are severing their connection with their mother countries and swearing allegiance to the United States. They were examined by the officer from the central office at Detroit, assisted by the county clerk, William E. Wilds. Added to his class were about 13 who were presenting their preliminary papers.

Holland's band is "in clover" when compared with their sister city. Muskegon's city band played its last public concert Friday night. Director F. L. Berman announced, and will disband immediately. Lack of funds is given as the cause. Mr. Berman personally solicited the funds which have been used to pay the 28 musicians and has been alone in his endeavors to provide public concerts through the summer.

A plea to the city commission to provide a fund for band concerts next summer in its budget was made on Monday night. The Muskegon Chamber of Commerce and other organizations are also to be asked to make provision for a concert fund for next summer.

Anyone coming to Michigan and taking up residence or work here should procure Michigan plates.—Allegan Gazette.

C. P. Milham, county agriculturalist, has been over Ottawa county making a survey of the frost damage which resulted from the low temperatures of this week and he says there is a considerable loss in some parts.

Corn and potatoes are the foremost crops with cucumbers, tomatoes, celery and beans ruined to a large extent. The areas effected were back from the lake in Robinson and Blenden townships.

Mr. Milham says the temperatures in the low parts and about the city in general were far below the official temperatures recorded by the weather bureau. A damaging frost which actually from makes a record for this section in August.

The dry weather was a contributing factor to no larger loss as frost has had bad effect on growing things filled with water. The cells are swelled and particularly susceptible to damage then.

The rain fall has been below normal this year and at present the country is exceedingly dry. The rumble and some of the trees through the country are cracked and already are turning in color presaging the glories of fall season.

Mr. Milham reports crops to look generally good, especially the grain.

The complaints that have been coming from Lakewood Farm in regard to rowdies, complaints that have resulted in a road commission closing the road in front of the farm after ten o'clock at night, were strongly reinforced today by a number of cottage owners and resort promoters in that general section.

John J. Arendshorst of Eagle Crest Park and Idlewood Beach is making an appeal to the public authorities for protection similar to that given at Lakewood Farm, and others are joining him in a movement of this kind. The result is likely to be a general policy of protection that will ensure law and order and a regard for the rest and comfort of summer residents in that whole section against the rowdism of automobile parties who often make the night hideous.

"We believe we have the same right to protection that a resident in town has," one resort owner said. "If a rowdy automobile party parked in front of a home in town and turned the night into a revelry, the police would soon put a stop to it. We at the resorts ask similar protection."

Mr. Arendshorst received a letter from a resort in which the latter said: "Just wish to call your attention to the fact that large numbers of people are abusing your hospitality in allowing them the freedom of Idlewood Beach, especially in the neighborhood of the drive and walk leading to the steps at the south end of the pier. For several nights parties have been noisy and carousing until long after midnight, making a nuisance of themselves and to the neighbors and cottage owners of Idlewood Beach. I do not personally object to anybody having fun, but believe it is to the best interests of Idlewood Beach to preserve the good name it has up to this time enjoyed as a fine place for respectable people to spend their summers."

Several of the cottage owners have expressed indignation in regard to the matter and I hope that something can be done so that Idlewood Beach may retain the good name it has always enjoyed."

With complaints like that coming in, a general policy of public protection will probably be instituted. It is also pointed out that fires on the beach are often neglected and endanger cottages. The summer residents are determined to have protection and it looks as if they are going to make a fight for it. They are going to demand that have been made for some years on the same score by Lakewood Farm and a few nearby residents.

The L. L. L. club held its annual picnic Friday at Tower park. A potluck lunch was served, after which a ball game and sports were enjoyed. Prizes were won by Mr. Tony Van Lere, Mrs. R. Wednesday, Aug. 3rd, the families representing the Voss family group gathered in re-union at the Allegan county park, six miles south of Saugatuck. Several came in the morning, while others arrived shortly after dinner. All present for the afternoon and evening numbered 127. This was the first gathering held by this family group. Several members had never met before and others had not seen one another for many years. The total number of this group reaches near the 300 mark. A most enjoyable day was spent and it was decided to make this an annual affair. Mrs. Derk VanderKamp, the oldest member of the group, was elected president, who appointed an executive board of five and a sport committee of four.

The Grand Rapids, Grand Haven & Muskegon railway plans to start motorbus service between terminal cities on the electric road within a week if a favorable decision is handed down by Judge Leland W. Carr in the interurban case now pending in Ingham circuit court. F. L. Vaughn, general manager of the road, said in an announcement made in Grand Rapids today.

The interurban must await the decision of the court in the suit of the Safety Motor Coach lines seeking to restrain the road from using its commission from issuing an order authorizing the G. R., G. H. and M. road from starting motorbus operations. Mr. Vaughn expects a court decision shortly.

Combined electric and motorbus service between Muskegon and Grand Rapids is contemplated in the new interurban schedule now being prepared in Grand Rapids and hourly service at certain periods of the day is proposed.

Direct motorbus service between Muskegon and Grand Haven is also planned by the interurban.

Interchange of service between the Shore Line Motor Coach lines and the interurban is expected when the electric road inaugurates motor coach service.

Vercoe and Worm, owners of a tract of land on the north side of the river at Grand Haven, containing a large acreage, were in that city recently with J. Solander of Chicago, a landscape engineer, to look over the plot with a view to putting in improvements for development and sale in the early spring of next year.

Mr. Solander, who has had much experience in developing resort districts around Chicago and Indiana, is most impressed with the beautiful spot at Grand Haven and sees the opportunity of making it one of the most beautiful as well as most convenient resort districts anywhere.

The supervisors at their October meeting authorized the sale of bonds amounting to $60,000 for the construction of three and a half miles of road from US-31 to the lake shore which will open up the section and also greatly benefit many of the farmers living near there.

The plans call for elaborate services, including a central lodge, where cottagers may have club privileges, a golf course, air port, and system of road work that will make available wooded sections and hills of exceeding beauty. The beach will be thrown open and directly tapped by the highway that will skirt the beach to the pier. This will also open up the mile of beach property owned by the Soule estate.

The owners have had the property for some time but have taken no pains to push things until the road was put in. A series of hearings will be held for any objections to the present plan. There are none in prospect as the Vercoe and Worm organization and other resort interests plan to pay at least 80 per cent of the paving tax.

The state assessed valuation for the 1927 tax roll was tentatively placed at $9,380,500,000 by the state board in Lansing. This was an increase of approximately 10% over the valuation by last year's board when the total was 7,709,709,000. The rate of increase in 1926 was about 5%.

The board elected O. B. Fuller, auditor general, as chairman. Herbert E. Fowell, agricultural commissioner, and William S. Linton, tax commissioner, of Saginaw, were present. The other two tax commissioners who legally are members of the board have not been appointed by Gov. Green.

In fixing a new figure the board increased the Wayne County (Detroit) valuation by $600,000,000 over the 1926 total. The entire increase for the state is $670,710,000. The Wayne ratio of the state property tax since 1900 has been 47.66% in 1926 to 51.01% this year.

In assessing the remainder of the counties the board raised the valuation in many cases but not enough to offset the percentage of Wayne's big increase. Consequently a majority of the counties, even if their valuation went up, enjoyed a reduction in their percentage of the state's $26,000,000 tax which will be levied this year.

The figures will be mailed by the board to each county. Those desiring a review must appear before it in Lansing the third Monday of the month, Aug. 15.

Ottawa County's assessed valuation was increased from $70,000,000 set by the board last year, to $71,500,000. (The Board of Supervisors in June assessed the county at $60,615,220.) The Ottawa ratio has decreased from 51% to 48.4 per cent owing to the big Wayne boost.

Kent's value was boosted from $373,000,000 to $375,000,000 but the ratio decreased from 4.83% to 4.47%. Montcalm's valuation stays at $61,000,000 but the rate drops from 44% to 43.7%.

Muskegon's valuation stands at $96,000,000 but her rate slides from 1.24% to 1.14%.

William G. Tisdale, clerk of Allegan county, was elected vice president of the State County Clerks' association meeting at Adrian. The 1928 meeting will be held at Petoskey.

Several Holland ministers occupied pulpits in Grand Rapids, Sunday. From the Reformed demonstration Dr. John E. Kuisenga served Immanuel congregation; Rev. James Martin occupied Grace Church pulpit; Prof. Paul H. Hinkamp of Hope college addressed Fairview congregation; Rev. Gerrit Koolker, formerly of Bethel, now of Florida, preached at Bethel; Third Ref. services were in charge of Rev. J. P. De Jonge. Rev. A. Keizer of the Christian Ref. demonstration delivered a sermon in Demus Ave church, while Rev. L. Van Laar of Prospect Park church preached at the Second and Fourth churches.

At a special meeting of the State Commercial & Savings bank, of Zeeland, it was decided to pay a percent dividend to stockholders as of record on July 1, 1927. There was also added $5,000.00 to the surplus. At this meeting the resignation of Mr. B. Nevensen, tendered January 1st, was accepted. Mr. Nevensen has been cashier since 1905 and filled the position very faithfully. He was elected second vice-president at this time and will stay with the bank in that capacity.

The application on file of Mr. F. P. Kieft, as cashier, was accepted, and he began his duties on August 1st. Mr. Kieft comes highly recommended. He is thirty-four years of age. After completing a high school course, he took a special stenographic course and entered the employ of the Buckley & Douglas Lumber Company, Manistee, Mich. After thirteen months in their employ, feeling the position offered no great opportunities, he accepted a position with Messrs. Sand & Burr, Bankers. He worked his way up through the ranks of Collection and Clearings Clerk, General Bookkeeper, Paying Teller to Assistant Cashier. The latter position he held from May, 1918, to July 15, 1926, at which time the institution was liquidated and closed out, owing to the death of Mr. Burr. On October 1, 1925, Mr. Kieft entered the employ of the Grand Rapids National bank and was branch manager of the Burton Heights branch. At the time he tendered his resignation to become cashier of the State Commercial & Savings Bank at Zeeland.

New York, August 5.—American horse racing today is about as clean a sport as any in which money is involved, and tales of "fixing" of horses, and of "sharpies" who cheat by professional reformers, have little basis outside of the minds of fiction writers.

That's the opinion of Jack L. Dempsey, dean of American racing experts, whose form charts more than a billion dollars have changed hands in the past 36 years.

"In all my years of turf experience I have come across only one guaranteed sure thing," he declares in an article in The Elks Magazine for August. "That was at Charleston, S. C., during the exposition of 1900—and it was a camel race."

The camel race, staged as a novelty to draw the crowds, looked like an even bet on all entries, Dempsey explains. But he noticed early that all those camels, with the exception of one from which the camels came were betting on a single hump-backed beast bearing the singular name of Holy Moses.

When the barrier was lifted the rest of the camels went away in a cloud of dust, leaving Holy Moses kneeling at the starting line. But they hadn't gone far before they balked and, despite all efforts of the riders, waited until Holy Moses had come up and taken the lead.

"Most of the best betting coups are matters of manipulating not the horses, but the odds," says Dempsey, who points out that the introduction of the parimutuel system and the publicity given all racing matters today make the betting by the average track visitor as above-board as betting can be made.

"In the old days it was a comparatively simple matter to keep the public in ignorance," says his Elks article. "Bookmakers employed clockers and had additional information on the private form of race horses. Then the owners had only the bookmakers to contend against in their efforts to keep the record of their racing mediums secret. Nowadays every newspaper maintains its clockers and publishers form charts, throwing the white light of publicity on every feature connected with racing."

Grand Haven officials today were not inclined to accept either the election or debate proposals of William Hatton, church trustee, as to the city acquisition of Akley Hall.

The officers feel that the only issue at stake is the price of the property and point out that the law has provided condemnation proceedings to determine just that issue, a fair price to the public and a just return to the owners.

The real estate men employed by the trustees appraised the property for $98,811. Mr. Hatton offered the site to the city for $75,000. The citizens committee fixed the value at $55,000 but the council offered $60,000. Hence the difference was $15,000 and should the matter be arbitrated by the courts it has been anticipated the price would be set between $60,000 offer of the city, surely what the jury would consider a minimum value, and the $75,000 price it was offered for as a maximum.

Now, however, the situation is changed as Mr. Hatton, in view of what he considers an arbitrary action by the city, has withdrawn his $75,000 offer and will hold out for the appraised value of about $98,000. He will advise his trustees to fight the condemnation action and expects the courts to protect the higher value which recognized realty authorities have set on the Akley property.

Another element in the dispute is the intention of Mr. Hatton to convert the big brick dormitory into a hospital which he had intended to donate on his own expense. Mr. Hatton has often played the role of a community benefactor and the recent history of Grand Haven is quite largely that of his Eagle-Ottawa Leather Co's development. Being the largest tax payer, Mr. Hatton is in the peculiar position of wanting the city to get a good bargain but as a trustee he objects to the organization he represents being given other than equitable treatment.

Mr. Hatton has no sympathy with the condemnation proceedings but the city officials say that course is the only way out. It guarantees the Episcopal diocese a fair price and leaves it to the courts to protect Mr. Hatton from embarrassment in his dual role. It also releases the council of the responsibility of fixing a valuation to the property which the citizens might not feel was fair to them.

Gus Hornbrook's Big Wild West Show At the Holland Fair

Do you remember way back in the swimming hole days how, when the sun began to sink, you would go home, sneak quietly through the front door, tiptoe cautiously up the stairs, hugging under your coat the while, a lurid copy of "Buffalo Bill's Adventures in the Wild West"? And how in the solitude of your own bedroom by the dim light of a candle, you would surreptitiously peruse the precious book with bated breath, and how every fibre of your being would thrill with excitement at each hair-raising episode. Right there you decided that a cowboy's life was the only life you could ever live. All those boyhood thrills will surge through you with renewed activity when you witness the exhibition of Gus Hornbrook's Congress of Champion Cowboys and Cowgirls, all that you have ever read or heard of the west is Standing Races, and High Jumping Horses.
