Find Bank Money In Mattress And Under Blankets

HUDSONVILLE BANK BANDS AROUND SEVERAL PACKAGES

Later—Rest of Money Found In Bottom of a Garbage
Can

Just before the Holland City News goes to press $572 in Hudsonville bank money, taken by robbers from the bank late Tuesday afternoon, was found in the Willis Gillette camp on West Seventeenth St. where Mr. and Mrs. Gillette were.

THE NEWS STOPS THE PRESS TO TELL THE STORY

The News stops the press to tell the story that just now the balance of the bank money was found, nearly $4,000 in a garbage can found at the Gillette camp tent on West Seventeenth street. The money was in the bottom of the can, covered with oozing, slimy garbage—and talk about filthy lucre, here surely was a mess.

Fred McEachron, cashier of the bank was busy cleaning and drying the money.

The way the garbage can tip was received was through Mayor Brooks who grilled Kraai, who confessed to being implicated in the robbery and that the balance of the money would be found in the garbage can.

Chief Vander Schel hastened local officers to the place, including Police Commissioner Bill Deur, and the money was found.

Mayor Brooks states in substance that Kraai confesses that he and Peters held up the bank and that Gillette was the brains behind the whole scheme. There was no time at this late moment to give the complete confession given at the Mayor's downtown office.

conducting a roadside stand. This money was found tucked away in a mattress and later another roll of money was found secreted between blankets at the same place.

Mrs. Gillette was arrested and was searched by Mrs. Mabel Vandenberg of the Red Cross, and 56 one dollar bills were found in her purse and several one dollar bills were found in the cash drawer at the stand, possibly more than the stand would take in an entire week. Around the money found in the mattress were the paper bands with the name "Hudsonville bank" plainly printed on the outside.

Officer Bontekoe was giving Mrs. Gillette a thorough grilling in the presence of a Holland City News representative and she admitted that Peters had given her the money she had in her possession. It was rather a coincidence that the lady possessed all one dollar bills and Cashier McEachron stated that in all 1300 one dollar bills were taken from the bank.

The men suspected in Holland by the Holland police, were Henry Kraai, 23, Willis Gillette and Omer "John" Peters.

However, what brought the matter to a climax was a telegram from Battle Creek sent to Mrs. Gillette, intercepted by the Holland police in which Peters wired that $100 be sent him to Birmingham, near Detroit. Officers Peter Lievense and Neal Plaggenhoef were rushed to that city and arrested Peters when he made the demand for the money at the telephone office. The local officers telephoned home, informing acting Chief Vander Schel that they had Peters and that he made a full confession and that they were bringing him home. The two officers had not arrived when the News went to press therefore the exact details cannot be given at this time.

Another man implicated was George Vander Pool, who was taken to Grand Haven. Vander Pool had been in difficulty before but tipped the officers off about who committed the robbery and wanted to be safeguarded since the men implicated had threatened him, he claims, and he wanted to go straight since his last tilt with the law. Officers believe that Vander Pool is telling the truth.

The officers are now endeavoring to find out which of the group entered the bank. Kraai, who formerly lived in Borculo, also has been in difficulty before. Miss Corey, who had a full view of the two robbers who entered the bank when she returned from the back room for a drink of water, did not recognize Kraai in Holland when he was presented to her. She said the taller man had a mustache—but stranger than say Kraai had shaved off his mustache the day after the robbery and was presented to Miss Corey clean shaven.

All this afternoon Kraai told acting Chief of Police Vander Schel that he would come clean if given pencil and paper so he could figure it out. These were handed to him but at 6 o'clock he was still "figuring it out."

Gillette absolutely denies his guilt and in this he is backed up by his wife, but he will have to explain away how Hudsonville bank money was found about his band and tent in which the couple lived. It is understood that the officers a few moments ago were tipped off

HELPS WITH THE THRESH- ING AT EIGHTY-ONE

Mr. Wm. Fox, of Borculo, who is 81 years of age, is very spry as he assisted with the threshing at the Hop farm. He was a former resident of Zealand and a cobbler at Elzinga's Shoe store in the days of hand shoe making. Mr. Ralph Fox and his daughter, Mrs. Jennie Nusimer of Holland visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hop last Friday.

FORCED BARBERING BRINGS FINES TO RESORT BOYS

Charles Leonard, aged 18, and Paul W. Gross, 17, Highland Park residents, from St. Louis, pleaded guilty to an assault charge on Europe City. Justice C. E. Burr sentenced them to apologize to the parents of the boy, and pay the costs of $4.30.

Cornelius Gross, aged 16, associated in the assault, was dismissed. The arrest was made by the Sheriff's department on Tuesday following a complaint of the parents, that their son, 14 years old, had been rushed into a car and his hair cut according to the fancy of the three older boys.

A. H. LANDWEHR TO HEAD HOLLAND FURNACE BOARD

A. H. Landwehr was elected chairman of the board of the Holland Furnace Co. at the regular meeting of directors Tuesday. He succeeds the late C. M. McLean. Mr. Landwehr has been president of the company since its organization in 1906. C. H. Landwehr, his brother, was elevated from vice president and general manager to president. E. C. Landwehr was elected first vice president; John P. Kella, second vice president; and Ernest H. Sulkers and Arthur W. Wrieden were re-elected to their respective positions of secretary and treasurer.

HOLLAND MAN IS TO FIGHT DRUNK CHARGE

Peter Braamse of Holland, convicted in Justice Huxtable's court at Zealand of being under the influence of liquor while driving his car on M21 near Zealand, will appear in his case to the circuit court, Mr. Braamse was very indignant after a Zealand jury had convicted him and being a little deaf it was difficult to make him understand that the jury had convicted him. He denies flatly that he ever tasted a drop although the jury held otherwise. The prosecution brought in one Holland witness and introduced testimonies of some deputies who made the arrest.

At the trial he repeatedly maintained he had not been under the influence of liquor, but the jury, composed of John Holleman, Ted Moerdijk, Gerrit Veneklasen, Cor. Beukema, Geo. Vander Weide and John Fris determined otherwise and brought in a verdict of guilty. He was assessed a fine of $100 and costs of $28.55, and thirty days in the county jail. In case the fine is not paid an additional sixty days will be added to his imprisonment. His driver's license was also revoked for ninety days. Braamse through his attorney, Carl Hoffman, appealed the case to circuit court immediately.

Hastings is so well pleased with tarmac paving, such as has been laid between Allegan, Monterey and Hopkins, that it has ordered 26,000 gallons of the stuff with which to pave thirty-one city blocks. This county is laying more of this in road improvements in Gunplains.

Dr. Ralph Ten Have, Ottawa county health commissioner, attended a clinic in Ann Arbor over the week-end.

that some more money would be found in a bucket near the stand, but by 6:30 the officers had not returned.

Representative Fred McEachron was the city all day and was uninteresting in his praise of the Holland police officers who had indignantly worked on the case. Among those who have been untiring in their efforts were acting Chief Vander Schel, Officers Peter Lievense, Neal Plaggenhoef, Jim Spruit, Night Officer Frank Van Etta, Dave O'Connor, Officers Van Hoff, Peter Bontekoe and Frank Wierda and Justice Galien.

Sheriff Steketee and Deputy Marvin DenHerder, and Dick Homkes were also active.

The capture of the Holland suspects brought two state detectives to Holland, namely Philip Hudson and E. P. Sears, both of Lansing. They had no hand in the capture however. John J. McKen of the American Surety Company, who has insured the bank against robbery, is also on the ground. He is assistant manager of the company in Detroit.

Leonard Gillette of Zealand was also implicated but states that he was not in on the deal. He said that he suspected the boys were up to something but what it was, he did not know and the officers are inclined to believe him.

Without doubt Holland officers will be in on the division of a $2500 reward if the men in question are convicted of this crime. This reward is a standing offer of the Ottawa and Allegan County Bank units, each bank contributing their share to such a reward for any bank robbers caught and convicted at any time in their district.

The information leading to the arrests came from George Vander Pool, who reported to Night Chief Frank Van Etta that an effort had been made to get him in on the job to the point of thrusting a gun in his pocket. Vander Pool said he succeeded in escaping from the quartet. He immediately carried his information to Van Etta, but the robbery had been perpetrated before Van Etta could get information to the Hudsonville bank.

The total amount stolen at the Hudsonville bank was $4,150.

State Bank At Hudsonville Is Robbed of $4150

Robbers Keep Car Going While
They Loot; Shove Employees
In Bank Vault

Holland police were quickly notified shortly after 4 o'clock Tuesday, that robbers had held up the Hudsonville bank and relieved the institution of $4150 and made their escape in a whippet car that was left running in front of the bank, while they entered and took the cash at the point of a revolver, according to report. Two bandits entered with pistols drawn and held up the assistant cashier, secured $4150 from the vault, overlooking $3000 in cash in the till behind the counter.

Henry P. Stegeman, assistant bank cashier, and Gladys Corey, teller, were alone in the bank when the bandits entered. Miss Corey was in a back room getting a drink of water, while Stegeman was sitting at a high bookkeeper's desk working a ledger, with his back to the teller's window.

According to Stegeman, his first intimation that some one was in the bank was when words were spoken so inaudibly he could not catch their meaning. He continued working momentarily on the figures before him.

Then, as the intruder passed through a gate and walked to the entrance leading into the working quarters, came the command, "Don't look up."

"Naturally I looked up," Stegeman said. "The bandit was holding his left arm over his face to prevent identification, while a blue gun, probably an automatic, was pointed at me with his right hand. I quickly turned my head down again as commanded. He was the only gunman I saw at the time."

Drinking cup in hand, Miss Corey emerged from the back room, unaware that a holdup was in progress. She said she knew someone was in the bank from hearing conversation, but presumed it was one of the directors talking to Stegeman.

When she saw the gunman, she instinctively started to back out through the door, but was ordered, "Come on in here. We want you, too," she related.

As she walked into the room Miss Corey obtained an excellent view of the gunman. Each was about 6 feet tall and of a rather slim build, probably weighing about 140 pounds, according to her description. She said they appeared about 27 or 28 years old. One had black hair and a black moustache. The other wore a dark felt hat, under which light hair could be seen.

The bandits ordered both Miss Corey and Stegeman into the vault, where Stegeman handed over the money to the bandits upon request. "Is that all?" demanded the darker of the two as he received the $4150, of which $1400 was in one dollar bills, and most of the remainder in fives, tens and twenties, with a few fifty and one hundred dollar bills.

"Yes, that's all there is here," Miss Corey said she told them.

The bandits did not question them further about money in the till, which contained approximately $3000 more of the bank's funds.

Politely, the bandits then told Miss Corey and Stegeman, "Please don't ring the burglar alarm. Keep quiet and don't move out of the vault until we've gone."

Both withdrew from the vault and closed the doors, but did not lock them, ran to their car, which was parked directly in front of the bank with the motor running and headed southeast, jumped in, whirled around a corner and departed south on old M-50.

The two bank workers remained inside the vault, fearing to open the door lest they be shot, until they heard the outer-scraper door of the bank slam, and then dashed outside.

Stegeman immediately ran next door to the home of Marshal John De Vree and notified him of the robbery, while Miss Corey picked up the telephone and when the operator answered shouted, "We've been robbed." The operator notified Sheriff Kelley and then surrounding towns and within a short time bank vigilantes were searching for the bandit pair.

About 25 feet from the bank, at Hudsonville's only traffic light on M-21, H. Donald Broersma, 54 Pleasant st., S.W., Grand Rapids, was unsuccessfully attempting to "thumb" a ride into Grand Rapids.

He saw the bandit car pull up in front of the bank, watched its two occupants enter, but thought nothing of it, and then run out, jump into the machine and drive off at high speed. He gave officials a description of the car and said he believed the first four license numbers were 1-077, although he did not obtain the last three.

A machine resembling that of the description furnished by Broersma had been "hanging around" in the vicinity of the Henry Van Hage garage most of the afternoon, apparently waiting the bank closing time. Mr. Van Hage told bank officials the description furnished by Miss Corey.

North Holland's Style Show

Although Fourth of July has long since passed, a few days ago a snapshot was sent in relative to the celebration held at North Holland which proved to be an unusual success.

There were many features in the parade that passed through the village—decidedly unique. All school districts were represented in some way with floats. Noordeloos in their division showed the farm implement age, harking back to the sickle and following by the cradle, the reaper, and the binder. Rather a unique feature of this display was a reaper 50 years old, owned by two old bachelors, Wolting Brothers, and the machine was driven by Mr. Kuiper. West Olive transfused the light of all ages from the tall, thin candle to the electric light. West Crisp pictured the evolution of travel, from the old team to the automobile, and what is more the more of courtship of today and yesterday was vividly shown. In the case of dabbins, the old "nag" had full rein.

North Holland float had rather a domestic complex. The washboard and tub, the handpower in wash-rig machines and the electric, making all easier for mother and the home.

However the float that took first prize was the style show of East Crisp. Outfits of old vintage of 75 years ago—yes, even beach pajamas—were in the display.

In the picture above you will notice the two center figures, the sweet, motherly-looking lady in wooden shoes, together with the Grand Rapids and state police also were notified and were on the alert for a car containing the two men answering the description.

The description of the men in the car tallied with that given by the bank employees. It is believed the robbers headed into the Allegan county brushlands to await nightfall be-

Strange Suit is Started Against Spring Lake Co.

MANUFACTURING OF ICE IN RESIDENCE DISTRICT BRINGS
NOISE AND DAMAGES

Spring Lake needs a zoning ordinance it appears, judging from a suit just filed at Grand Haven and at least the preliminary in the matter has already been started, when Samuel Falls, prominent Spring Lake man filed a petition asking for an injunction restraining Tony Ver Plank from operating his artificial ice plant, located next to the Fall's residence.

The petition was denied in circuit court a few days ago by Judge John Vanderwerp of Muskegon, occupying the bench in place of Judge Fred T. Miles, who has been in the court in Muskegon for the past week. The case was set tentatively for Wednesday, Aug. 12.

Attorney Leo C. Lillie, of Grand Haven, appeared for the Sam Falls, claiming that irreparable loss was being sustained by his client in loss of sleep, through the continuous running of the ice plant adjacent to the plaintiff's property; loss of property by damage to furniture, curtains and interior of his home by smoke; loss to the house through jarring of the building from the constant vibration caused by the running of the machinery. Claims of damages in the amount of $3,000 are asked.

The defendants in the case were represented by attorney Louis H. Osterhaus, who in a lengthy argument presented to the court reasons why a temporary injunction would not alone cause loss to the defendants but to hundreds of others in the community, who are depending on the Spring Lake Ice Company for ice.

The plaintiff claims that continual and continuous operation of the plant, which is running on a night and day schedule up to Sept. 1, is a nuisance which is unbearable because for many years on Savidge street in Spring Lake and Long before the Spring Lake Ice Co. had installed their plant there.

In his remarks on the case, Judge Vanderwerp said while he did not believe it was necessary for him to grant a temporary injunction, he believed the case should be heard at an early date. It is not certain before whom the case will be argued, but it is assumed before Judge Vanderwerp or Judge Fred T. Miles, some time about Aug. 12.

The question is one which is of interest not only to Spring Lake people, but to all cities having a zoning ordinance in operation and Holland comes under that head. The Verplank Ice & Coal Co. have just completed a modern ice manufacturing plant which was installed in the building once occupied as a warehouse by the interurban company. It is situated in the heart of the business district of Spring Lake, although one block in that section is occupied by residences. The court room was well filled.

Mr. Falls in an interview states that the noise from the diesel engine in the ice plant, the fumes from the oil and the vibration which has shaken the ground nearby, causing plaster in the Falls house to crack, have all caused him loss. He stated that he and Mrs. Falls had to abandon their residence and move to a cottage in order to secure a night's rest.

The artificial ice plant was erected this spring by Mr. Ver Plank in the former interurban power house following failure of the ice crop on the lake last winter. During the recent hot spell, he was forced to operate his 120 horse power diesel engine steadily for six weeks without a shut down in order to supply the demand for ice. Gas from the engine is carried off in a tall steel stack.

James Brundage, 24 years old of Lansing, was pulled from the harbor just north of the coast guard station, Grand Haven, at about 9:30 p. m. Tuesday. Brundage, when rescued, was in a drowning condition. He was resuscitated by the coast guards and rejoined his party of friends later in the evening.

fore proceeding further. Except for the victims no one was aware of what was going on until the gunman had made a clean get-away. The loot was taken from the vault into which the victims were forced and was all in bills of $1, $10, $20 and $100 denominations. No customers were in the bank when the bandits entered. The robbers parked their car directly in front of the building, which is just off M21, on the left. Miss Corey was in a rear room getting a drink of water and Stegeman was busy over his books with his back to the door. One of the gunmen passed through the office at the right of the entrance and was entering the cage when the assistant cashier turned around.

The robber put his arm over his face and commanded: "Don't look at me. Get into the vault."

The bandits apparently were observed at the time of the robbery by no one in the village besides Stegeman, Miss Corey and Broersma. Fred F. McEachron, cashier, had remained at his home Tuesday, had started to come down to his office about 3 o'clock, but changed his mind when he experienced dizziness. A few minutes later he was called to the bank.

The black-haired bandit with the moustache was described by Miss Corey as about 6 feet tall and weighing 140 pounds. The second bandit was less observed but he appeared to have light hair and was poorly dressed and wore a dark felt hat, Miss Corey reported. Both gunmen were young, probably under 30 years of age. The report from Overisel stated the driver wore a blue shirt and suspenders.

TALK ABOUT TROUT FISHING —45 IN ONE HOUR

George Getz, Jr., has just returned from a trout fishing trip in Wisconsin, 95 miles from Duluth. He was guest at the C. E. Lewis farm at Lewis, Wisconsin, named after the man who owns the place and who privately raises trout to stock streams.

Anyway, George, Jr. caught 45 beauties within an hour in one of the small streams flowing through the estate. Mr. Lewis sells trout by the thousands to different states throughout the nation, and take Mr. Getz's word for it, the streams flowing thru Lewis' land are virtually alive with brook trout.

Local Attorney Casts Lot In Bigger Field

THOMAS N. ROBINSON OPENS UP LAW OFFICES AT
TWIN CITIES

Thomas N. Robinson, who has been an attorney in this city for a score of years, will leave Holland for a new and larger field, namely Benton Harbor and St. Joseph, the Twin Cities on Lake Michigan. He has leased offices there and will begin his practice the first of next week. His family of nine children will stay with Mrs. Robinson at the Lake Michigan cottage during August and will go to Benton Harbor in time for the opening of school.

Mr. Robinson has been an energetic citizen and an untiring civic worker and has given freely of his time in promoting civic projects and welfare work. No one knows better than a newspaperman how many of these duties an interested citizen must shoulder and Mr. Robinson has carried his full share. The local attorney feels that for him there is a broader field in the new location and he has the assurance of the proper entry in the legal field of the "peach belt" country.

While in Holland, Mr. Robinson has been in many important cases where he has made an excellent showing as a legal adviser. He has gone beyond the local field and recently won a prolonged legal battle involving millions of dollars in the so-called Lumber Ruber Tire suit at Akron, Ohio. These cases were fought through the lower and higher courts covering a period of years and turned out successfully for Mr. Robinson's client. Mr. Robinson still has that legal connection as well as being the attorney for firms in Flint and other Michigan cities.

Mr. Elbert Parsons, the law partner of Mr. Robinson, will continue to practice law in Holland. Mr. Parsons knows the law, has been an able assistant to his former partner, and has made many friends in this city. The supposition is that he will continue in the offices that have been occupied by the local firm for a number of years.

The Grand Rapids Herald of this morning prints a picture and the following story of Mr. Robinson: "The law firm of Robinson and Parsons at Holland has been dissolved, it was announced today."

"Elbert Parsons, junior member of the partnership, will continue to conduct the business in the future and Thomas N. Robinson will move to Benton Harbor and open a law office in the Fidelity building there Monday."

"With his departure from Holland, Mr. Robinson will have finished 20 years of activity in this city. He is a graduate of the Holland high school and the University of Michigan. Completing his education in 1911, he opened an office here the same year. Later he formed a partnership with the late Raymond Visscher and from Jay Den Herder. For the last eight years Mr. Robinson and Mrs. Parsons have been associated."

"Active in civic affairs, Mr. Robinson was one of the founders and the first president of the Holland Fish and Game Club, was president of the Rotary Club two years, exalted ruler of the Elks club here a number of years ago and a member of the chamber of commerce."

G. John VanZoeren, living at 78 West 15th street, head chemist at De Pree Co., was seriously injured Monday morning when in some unaccountable way, he had his left hand caught in the large fan used to take fumes from the laboratory in which he works. The blades so mangled two of the fingers that amputation was necessary. Mr. Van Zoeren was hustled to Holland hospital where medical aid was given him. It is expected that he will leave the hospital today.

Rev. J. Lanting and family have returned from the Gull Lake Bible Conference. Mr. Lanting conducted the services last Sunday at the Wyoming Gospel Tabernacle, Wyoming Park.

Goodrich Boats Are Saved From Auction Block

BOAT COMPANY IS NOW PAY-ING DEBTS AND WILL BE GIVEN A CHANCE

Three ships of the Goodrich Transit company, the Christopher Columbus, Carolina and Arizona, were saved from the auction block by a decision rendered by circuit Judge John C. Kleczka in Milwaukee a few days ago.

Sale of the ships was threatened in a foreclosure proceeding brought by the First Union Trust & Savings bank of Chicago, and its receivers, Captain Edward Taylor and George F. Getz. The receivership petition was filed last November, alleging the Transit company defaulted on a $50,000 obligation. The three ships now lie idle in Manitowish harbor.

Judge Kleczka agreed with the contention of the receivers at a hearing several months ago that sale of the ships would cripple operations of the Transit company. If the sale were made, the decision held, it would be better to dispose of all the assets of the company in one deal. The decision stated that the Goodrich company has reduced a $700,000 indebtedness to $164,800 and that its receivers had been able to cut operating losses materially for the first four months of this year as compared with last year. The Goodrich Boat Co. should be given a breathing spell to exist. Boating seems to have picked up this year according to report and if given the proper consideration, and a chance to make good, this old established company will undoubtedly be able to pull out of its financial difficulties and will continue to be a potent factor in great lakes shipping and commerce. Holland can help in this by thinking of the local Steamship Co. when sending out, or directing of incoming freight via the Goodrich.

SAY FAREWELL TO MISSION- ARIES TONIGHT FRIDAY

Third Reformed church will give a farewell reception this Friday evening to missionaries soon to return to the Orient. Rev. James M. Martin, pastor, will speak and President Wynand Wichers of Hope college will preside.

Missionaries include: Rev. Albert Oltmans, for 45 years a representative in Japan of the Reformed Church in America and now secretary for Japan of the American Mission to Lepers; Evelyn Oltmans and C. Janet Oltmans, associated with the Japan mission since 1914; Rev. and Mrs. Henry P. DePree, connected with Reformed missions and educational work in China since 1907, and J. Coert Rylaarsdam, graduate of Hope college recently appointed short term missionary in Arabia to succeed Raymond DeYoung.

The Oltmans family, including Paul, who recently was commissioned a missionary to Japan, will start for the Orient about the middle of August and the DePrees will leave for China within a few weeks. Rylaarsdam will sail for Arabia in September.

Mrs. Oltmans, who had been associated with her husband in Japanese mission work since 1886, died several months ago at Charlotte, N. C., during their furlough in this country. Their son, Theodore Oltmans, now is a medical missionary in China.

Dumb and Dumb

The dictionary says that to be literate is to have a knowledge of letters, to possess an education. For practical purposes of the census, literacy merely means the ability to read and write.

When we read that illiteracy is decreasing in the United States at a rate of approximately 1.7 per cent every 10 years, we may be encouraged, but not too set up. With a population of 122,775,046, a percentage of 4.3 illiterates is a credit to the educational fervor of the nation.

Literacy, in its accepted sense, inevitably tends to raise the standards of a people. Beyond this, in its finer meaning, it should produce thinking men and women. The world is full enough of half-baked thinkers, dizzy from "a little learning." To the truly educated man reading and writing are but the tools of literacy.

Wrapping Parcels in College

The postoffice department has obtained permission from the interstate commerce commission to increase the size and weight limits of parcel post packages, and is about to launch "an intensive campaign to make the American parcel post supervised." Sixty parcel post supervisors will be attached to the largest postoffices throughout the country. They are expected to establish and maintain contact between the public and the stamp counter.

The postoffice department will not rest its efforts there. According to its announcement: "Classes in civics in the schools and colleges throughout the country are to be instructed in the proper manner to wrap, pack and address their packages, with a view to wiping out the economic loss occasioned every year through improperly wrapping and addressing matter which is handled under the fourth-class mail privileges."

The initiative capacity discovered by the department in this seeking to increase its revenue through the parcel post is encouraging; but why should instruction in wrapping parcels be confined to classes in civics. Why not extend it to classes in mathematics and geography — as a matter of fact, to all classes in school and college, whose members have grown up without having learned how to tie a string or address a parcel intelligently?

Campaigns of this sort are necessary to remind one of how many people there are in the world who go through life utterly incompetent to some of its most primitive tasks.

AUTOGYRO COMING TO THE ALLEGAN COUNTY FAIR NEXT WEEK

Of more than usual interest to those who would keep abreast of the times is the announcement by the management of the Allegan County Fair that they have obtained consent from the Detroit News, owners of the autogyro airplane that has been talked of so much, but which few people in this section have ever seen, to bring this new machine to the fair.

A demonstration by Pilot Byerly of the News is planned for the entertainment and education of fairgoers for two days at the fair. These demonstrations will be given from the center field in front of the grandstand and will show how this newest type flying machine rises off the ground almost straight up, hovers motionless in mid-air and then comes slowly down to earth in almost a straight drop but at a slow rate of descent.

As this machine is hard to obtain for such occasions it is possible to have it at the Allegan Fair for only Thursday, Aug. 6, and Friday Aug. 7, therefore these will both be big days at the fair.

Mrs. A. Steketee Lived Through Pioneer Days

OLD AND RESPECTED CITIZEN DIES AT THE AGE OF NINETY

One of Holland's oldest citizens, Mrs. Greetje Steketee, widow of the late Andrew Steketee, one of the leading pioneer merchants, died early Saturday at her home, 66 W. Eleventh street, at the age of 90 years.

Mrs. Steketee came to Holland in 1855 and later with her husband went through the trials and hardships of pioneer life in the Van Raalte period in this colony. Andrew Steketee, the husband, was the founder of the present A. Steketee & Sons Dry Goods store, which in the olden days also had a grocery in connection.

Mr. and Mrs. Steketee also lived through the stressful period of the big Holland fire of 1871 which swept away practically all of Holland's business section.

The Steketees were also members of the old Van Raalte church and with the secession joined Dr. N. M. Steffens in founding the First Reformed church, the first meetings being held in the old frame Hope College Chapel building. The church at Central Avenue and Ninth street is the result of the work of these founders.

In the earlier days Mrs. Steketee was a diligent worker in the church and even at advanced age took a live interest in all activities there. The Holland family of Steketees are a branch of the well known Steketee family of Grand Rapids, many of them prominent in business and merchandising and outstanding in political life.

The first of the Steketees to come from the Netherlands arrived at Zeeland with the pioneers. This was Jan Steketee who came with five sons and three daughters. Among them being Paul and Andrew Steketee, who later became merchants of note in Western Michigan.

Mrs. Steketee came from the Netherlands as a young girl of 14 and was later wed to Mr. Steketee at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jan Scholten, at that time living in Holland Township.

The funeral services were held from the home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. James A. Weyer, pastor of the First Reformed church, officiating, assisted by Rev. Henry J. Veltman, a former pastor, now at Muskegon. Interment took place in the family plot in Holland Township cemetery. The survivors are Mrs. Kate Siegers, of Lafayette, Indiana, Mrs. Mary Tays of Holland, Paul Steketee of Jensen, Gerit Steketee of Galesburg, Ill., George Steketee, Peter Steketee, Andrew Steketee, and Henry Steketee of Holland. A sister, Mrs. Reka Boonstra of Zeeland, and Mr. Henry Scholten of Holland, a brother, besides twenty-one grandchildren, also survive.

Three Times as Many Peaches as Last Year

PRICES OF FRUIT AND SUGAR SHOULD URGE HOUSEWIVES TO FILL CUPBOARD SHELVES

Prospects of a good peach crop, both in Michigan and the rest of the peach growing States, lead the department of horticulture at Michigan State College to advise housewives to prepare to add a large supply of this fruit to the families winter stores.

Peaches will be on the market in quantities from now until late September and it is impossible to tell just when they will be cheapest. The Michigan crop usually starts on the market the middle of August and this State will have three times the number of peaches it had last year.

Locally grown, tree-ripened fruit usually has the best flavor and makes the best canned product. The price of sugar is low this year so housekeepers have an excellent opportunity to preserve a year-around supply of peaches.

Varieties recommended for home canning are Rochester, South Haven, Kalamazoo, Engle, J. H. Hale, Gold Drop, and Elberta. Many home canners will be surprised to find that several varieties of peaches have better qualities for the pantry shelves than Elberta, but any of the varieties named can be used with the assurance that they will be satisfactory. This is advice sent out from Michigan State College East Lansing.

MARRIAGES DIVORCES DECREASE IN COUNTRY

Marriages decreased 8.7 per cent and divorces 4.2 per cent in the United States during 1930.

The census bureau, completing compilations three months more quickly than in any previous year, yesterday tallied 1,123,180 marriages in 1930 as compared with 1,232,559 in 1929. The 1930 divorces numbered 191,630 as against 201,468 in 1929.

Experts attributed the falling off to the business depression. The marriage market fell, with a particularly heavy touch, inasmuch as marriages increased 4.2 per cent from 1928 to 1929.

SUDAN GRASS AS SUMMER FEED FOR CATTLE

Sudan Grass makes an excellent and safe green summer and fall pasture according to Agricultural Agent Milham. Because Sudan Grass is new to many farmers and because some misinformation has been given relative to the poisoning of cattle from Sudan Grass, the following information has been obtained to clear up the situation.

The Guernsey herd at the Kellogg experimental farm near Battle Creek were pastured on Sudan Grass throughout the dry season of 1929 without the slightest trouble. The State College sheep flock has been pastured for two weeks on Sudan Grass with no experience to date. According to troubles in the southwest, trouble may be experienced during a period of prolonged drought or after frost. Frost produces a chemical change in the plant which is poisonous to cattle so farmers should not pasture the grass after frost. There are probably 200 acres of this crop in the county this year.

Where Hospitality Always Reigns

George F. Getz, the genial host of Lakewood Farm, has again put Holland on the map with big men of the nation. He and his son, George Jr., were the hosts of a score or more of Illinois state senators, men of prominence, several congressmen from Illinois and at least two governors. Last year he extended an invitation to a similar group and this year all were fishing for a second invitation to visit Lakewood.

They came on the training ship "Wilmette," were given luncheon and dinner at Lakewood, saw all there was to see there and that sure is something, bathed in the surf of Lake Michigan and had a special program arranged for them. Of course the animals and gardens were much enjoyed. There were at least a dozen Chicago and newspaper men from other cities, photographers for these papers, including "The Deacon" of the Chicago Tribune, known the country over.

Governor Harry G. Leslie of Indiana as well as our own governor, Wilbur Brucker, were honored guests. Roderick Mason and Billy Mason, who stand high in Illinois politics, were present. William J. Stratton, Illinois secretary of state, was also present.

The honored guests spent the night at Warm Friend Tavern and a breakfast was had the next morning when Mayor Brooks presided. A trip about the city was taken and some of the best buildings and factories were visited. The Bell Telephone Company building of Dutch architecture as well as the Warm Friend Tavern was especially admired. Centennial Park came in for an abundance of praise. The party left at 10 o'clock Monday morning on the yacht "Mizpah" in charge of Captain McDonald. This is said to be one of the largest yachts on the Great Lakes.

Among the guests were the following: Gov. Harry G. Leslie of Indiana and son Richard Leslie; Gov. Wilbur M. Brucker, and William J. Stratton, secretary of state of Illinois. State senators of Illinois invited to Lakewood were J. Leroy Adair, Charles W. Baker, James J. Barbour, Martin R. Carlson, Andrew Cuthbertson, Clinton L. Ewing, W. L. Fynn, John R. Hamilton, Louis H. Hanna, Harold C. Kessinger, Simon E. Lantz, Charles E. Lee, William R. McCauley, Richard R. Meents, Joseph L. Myers, Victor J. Michel, Arthur A. Miles, Ray Paddock, Earl B. Searcy, Guy L. Smith, Charles H. Thompson, Harry Willson, N. M. Mason, Thomas P. Gunning, Richings J. Shand, and Lowell B. Mason.

Others who attended include Roderick Mason of the Chicago Tribune; E. L. Ames of the Chicago Post, R. J. Finnegan of the Chicago Times; Homer Guck of the Herald-Examiner; M. Forest of the Chicago American; James Houghteling of the Daily News; Robert Lee of the Chicago Tribune; Captain Edward Evers, Captain Everside, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, Dr. A. B. Smith, James Getz, Jr., and James Ames, publisher of the Journal of Commerce.

PILLOWCASE "BANK" IN WASH WITH $196

Policemen William Kenny and Steve Harrington, went to work in a laundry in Chicago.

Before them was a mountain of dirty clothes which they sorted, bundle by bundle. Beside them was Mrs. Doris Mikalunas.

Finally after they had sorted, and sorted and then sorted some more, Mrs. Mikalunas shouted: "That's it."

She pointed to a particular bundle, which was opened. Inside, the officers found the $196 which Mrs. Mikalunas had hidden in a pillowcase.

BLIND MAN IS STEERED INTO ALLEY, ROBBED

L. H. Hunter, 30 years old and blind, tapped his way out of a drug store at Denver, Colo., and stopped at the corner, preparatory to crossing the street. "Here, Buddy, let's go," said someone. Hunter was grasped by each arm. He thanked his helpers.

Instead of being taken across the street, Hunter was taken into an alley. His cane was thrown away. He was robbed of his billfold, containing $42.

MACATAWA MINSTRELS A BIG SUCCESS

Children Score in Old-Time Minstrel

From the "Gentlemen Be Seated" to the "Grand Finale by the Entire Company," Macatawa Hotel guests and cottagers were delightfully entertained by a group of talented children under the personal direction of Judge M. Hartman of St. Louis.

The following comprised the cast: Wilma Engel of St. Louis, Interlocutor; Mary Martindale, of Lansing, Michigan, "Ruby Taylor"; Mary Ellen McDermott, Danville, Ill., "Madam Queen"; Fred Kelly, Grand Rapids, Michigan, "Amos"; Raymond Friedman, St. Louis, "Andy"; "Endmen".

The following were the vocal selections: "Moonlight Saving Time" entire company; "King's Horses," Dorothy Scheu; "Walking My Baby Back Home," Raymond Friedman; "Whisper Song," Harold Sachs; "Sleepy Town Express," Dorothy Scheu; Macatawa, entire company. Tap Dancers—Mary Martindale, Mary Ellen McDermott.

Fancy Dance—Wilma Engel. Others on the cast were: Shirley Hartman, Judith Gorgold, Florence Baum, Delilah Murrall, Louise Larson, Mike Scheid, Arthur Pinstler, Bill Larson.

A special feature of the show was a bathing beauty pageant in which five years of age participated: Betty Logie, Ronald Rottie, Bobbie Denile, Sol Jonas, Clark Stout, Jack Baker, Bobbie Baker, Jane Foster, Donald Stout, Marjorie Logie, Roy Benan, Buddy Pinstler. Camilla Stout, aged ten, proved an able accompanist.

All Is Now Ready For Big Allegan Fair

POPULARITY EQUAL TO OLD-TIME EXHIBITS ANTICIPATED FOR AUG. 4 TO 8

While fairs in many adjoining counties have been discontinued, Holland included, interest in the annual Allegan County fair is keener this year, according to Joseph F. Mosier, president. The Allegan County fair will be held Aug. 4 to 8, three weeks earlier than usual, and because of many new entertainment features it is expected by fair officers this year's celebration may reach the popularity goal established by fairs of a decade ago.

An airplane wedding with a popular Allegan county young couple as principals will be one of the features. An automobile parade and style show each evening of the fair is expected to prove a big attraction. There will be auto races on the final day. Contests in which patrons of the fair will take part each afternoon harkens back to the early days of the fair.

Extensive Midway In addition to all this there will be the usual free acts, horse races, stock, fruit and grain exhibits and a midway with many unusual attractions.

Valuable prizes will be awarded winners in the contests, which will include a harmonica contest, coaster wagon parade for children, boy scout contest, greased pig catching, greased pole climbing, bread slicing contest, rolling pin throwing contest, and husband and wife calling contest. Prizes are to be offered for the largest family on the grounds, oldest man and woman, couple married the longest, boy with the most freckles, boy with the reddest hair, and many other events.

A feature of the automobile races will be the awarding of prizes for the oldest and newest cars on the grounds, the funniest car, the most collegiate car, a tire changing race and a back-seat driver's race. In this race the wife will sit in the back seat and "drive" while her husband sits blindfolded in the front seat. The race will be around the half-mile track around which obstacles have been placed.

Latest in Styles At the auto parade and style show a group of best looking girls in Allegan county will present the very latest styles and will take part in the parade of the latest models of automobiles. The competition will be for a silver loving cup and the title "Miss Transportation of Allegan County," winner of the title will receive, in addition to the cup, $50 in gold. There will be a second prize of $25, third of $15 and fourth of $10.

SEARCH FOR YOUTH THOUGHT DROWNED PROVES FRUITLESS

Sheriff Cornelius Steketee and Deputy Jack Spangler spent the greater part of Friday following up a drowning in Tallmadge township that turned out to be no drowning at all.

Residents near the old George Root grist mill on Sand Creek in the southern part of the township reported yesterday morning to the sheriff that they had found a boy's clothing on the bank. The sheriff and Spangler went to the scene, found that none of the youths of the neighborhood were reported missing but to be on the safe side, drained the mill pond. They found nothing.

Mrs. Dick Schaffenaar submitted to an operation at the Holland hospital Monday.

Mrs. Andrew Klomparsen underwent an operation at the Holland hospital Wednesday morning.

BORCULO

Master Gerald Elenbaas of Borculo has returned to his home after spending several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huizenda at Zeeland.

Miss Carrie Schout spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koop at Holland.

Miss Lotts Of Ottawa County Busy Woman

MISS LOTTS OF OTTAWA COUNTY IS VERY BUSY WOMAN

At Least 800 Women and Girls Are Enrolled in Her Home Demonstration Classes

A comprehensive report of home economics extension work in Ottawa County during the past year was presented by Esther C. Lott, home demonstration agent, that is rather convincing and indicates that she is a very busy woman. The projects carried in the county during 1931 have met with much enthusiasm and many improved practices in home-making are observed as a result of the work. In the 68 Ottawa County communities organized the following adult and junior projects have been completed: nutrition, home furnishings, child care and training, sewing, hot lunch and home management. One hundred and three local leaders in their respective communities have carried the project work to more than 800 women and girls enrolled and to 1500 not enrolled. Thirty training schools were conducted by the agent at six centers to give instruction to the leaders in the presenting of subject matter. Some interesting improved practices as direct result of the adult projects follows:

Nearly 500 home-makers are using more milk both in cooking and as a beverage in their families, also more fruit and raw vegetables are being served in this number of homes. Many mothers have reported fewer colds than due to knowledge of general nutrition. 465 homes have been made more pleasant and homelike by the addition of a braided, hooked or crocheted rug, by new color schemes, by rearrangement of articles and furnishings. Besides the 110 mothers enrolled in the child training classes 109 fathers received the project material, 211 children are enrolled in these homes having parent education. More than 100 magazine articles and books on child training were read by those enrolled in the child study classes.

Five hundred and forty-one articles are reported made by the 4 H club girls enrolled in the sewing projects. 1669 pupils in the rural schools were served hot lunches during the winter months by the 4 H hot lunch clubs. Miss Lott reports unusual interest being shown by the summer program of work which includes marketing demonstration gardens, 4 H food study and canning. More than three hundred have already been in attendance at the canning demonstrations which the home demonstration agent has conducted so far this summer which have especially emphasized the canning of vegetables and poultry. The canning instruction will be continued throughout the summer months.

Working through organized groups of farm women and girls the home demonstration agent with the assistance of the 103 local leaders who give volunteer service, plans to put through an even greater campaign of both adult and junior education next year. The home demonstration department deals with education outside of school walls through its organized groups and 4 H clubs in the rural communities and villages.

Holland Folks Abroad

Martin Hacklander was a visitor in Chicago Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Karsten are on a week's vacation to the Straits, Mackinac Island and other places of interest in Northern Michigan.—Miss Helene Van Kersen left Monday to attend a mission feast at Atwood.—Mrs. H. J. Hansen and daughter have returned from a week's visit to Dearborn.—Rev. and Mrs. Henry Van Dyke have returned from a vacation trip through Michigan.—Dr. and Mrs. Seth Vander Werf and son Lester, left Thursday for Coxsackie, New York.—Mrs. Ben Tucker and grandson La Verne Wellen are spending a few days in Fennville.

NORTH HOLLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knoll are happy over the fact that the stork brought them a twelve pound baby girl, named Mildred, born July 22. Harriet Kapenga and Gertrude Diepenhorst spent a few days last week visiting friends in Kalamazoo.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schilleman and children moved to Spring Lake last week. Mr. and Mrs. Gail Schilleman are now occupying the home at North Holland.

Rev. and Mrs. Massen and family returned last Friday after a two-weeks' vacation. They spent most of the period visiting their parents and other relatives in Iowa.

Thomas Kapenga, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kapenga, fell from a wagon last week and injured his leg severely. He was taken to the Zeeland hospital and is rapidly recovering.

Up to this time crops have been wonderful but rain is badly needed.

We notice that the resort season is on because of the heavy traffic.

Interment took place in Riverside cemetery at Saugatuck.

OVERISEL

The Hamilton folks are not the only ones that are objecting to the telephone situation. We in Overisel also do. If the changes take place, this whole vicinity will feel the effects of it. And if the rates are raised, many patrons will have their phones removed. They say the service rendered is not worth the extra raise.

Rev. Wm. Fyle of Overisel is taking the rest of his vacation at this time. He took two weeks vacation last month and intends to be at Pine Lodge for a week or more and then go on to spend the rest of the time at the Bible conference at Winona Lake. During the absence of the pastor the following ministers will have charge of the services at the local Reformed church: next Sunday, August 2, Rev. Hekhuis of Grandville; August 9, Rev. Justin Hoffman of Morris, Ill.; and on August 16, the Rev. A. Maatman of Grand Rapids.

will also speak at 3 p. m. and at 7:30 p. m. He is a Hebrew Christian who illuminates his exposition by sharing with his audiences his intimate knowledge of Jewish customs and Hebrew expressions. Last Sunday evening the audience was happily surprised by Mr. Van Goethem's glowing account of the work in the Belgian Gospel Mission. "Spiritual Israel" is the topic to be discussed by Rev. John Van Peursem at the morning service in the 1st Reformed Church, Sunday. The evening sermon topic will be "What the LAW could Not Do." The Ladies' Trio of the church will sing.

Rev. R. J. Vanden Berg and J. Van Peursem are attending the School of Theology which opened at Pine Lodge this week. Many ministers from near and far are in attendance.

HAMILTON

Mrs. Henry Schutmaat who has been seriously ill for several weeks is convalescing.

Celery planting is just about finished in this neighborhood. The work is much easier and is also done more quickly than in former years as a result of the planters. The season was exceptionally dry. However most of the local growers have irrigated and Ed Miscooten, one of Hamilton's leading growers reports that the crop is getting a fine start. Other crops are not so fortunate and the intense heat and drought is doing considerable damage.

Rev. Bernie Mulder of Pella, Ia., had charge of the services at the First Reformed church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mason visited at the Bert Scott home at Dunningville Sunday.

Florence Lugten is spending several days with friends at Ganges.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kemper Sunday—ason, Dale Vernon.

Rev. John Brink and family were entertained at the First Reformed parsonage last week Friday.

The Harry Hulsman family of Holland are occupying the home of Mrs. Sena Maatman while the latter is camping at Ottawa Beach.

Last Friday seems to have been an unlucky day for the Hamilton teams, both losing a game by the close margin of a single run and by the same score of 5 to 4. The Merchants taking the count at the hands of the East Ends from Holland, while the Independents bowed to the Martin Independents for the second time. Monday evening the Merchants obtained revenge at the expense of the Vriesland All Stars.

At the start it appeared as if both teams were planning a clouting fest. The visitors started the game with hits of all kinds to obtain a 5 run lead, but Lugten settled down and held them scoreless for the rest of the game. The visitors' threat had just the right kind of effect on the youngsters. Through the game the Vrieslanders were kept busy vainly chasing the ball and when 8 innings had been played they found a 10-run count against them.

Mrs. Walter Monroe Jr. and children of Holland visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klein during the past week.

Julia Slotman of Detroit is home for an extended visit.

Prof. Arthur Kochele and family of Allegan; Mrs. B. Voorhorst and family spent last week at the John Brink cottage at Eureka Park.

The Sunday schools of the local churches motored to Baseline for their annual union picnic. The weather was favorable and a large number of folks joined in the fest. A program of sports was staged in the afternoon and a large number of prizes were awarded the winners.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Derkse of Holland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nieboer Sunday.

Helena, Richard and Gordon Rice of Kalamazoo are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. G. H. Slotman for several days.

Andrew Lohman was in Grand Rapids last Friday on business.

Dr. William Huyser of Kalamazoo visited at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Riegerink Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Calloway Thursday—a son

Mrs. J. Fisher of South Bend, Indiana called on Mrs. Lee Slotman Monday.

Ben Eding was F at with a load of pickles for the season Monday. He was followed by a close second and third when G. J. Klein and Jan Smit breezed up to the station neck and neck.

The C. E. society of the First Church enjoyed a social at Tunnel Park last week Tuesday evening. About 50 young folks were present.

Jerry Hagelskamp and John Tanis figured in one of the most surprising head-on collisions Monday in the lane leading to the celery field of Henry Drenten. The road is a winding affair lined with dense shrubs. At one of the sharp turns the two Fords met before either of the drivers knew what had happened.

Fortunately the cars were going slow and little damage was done. Rev. Edard Tanis and family of Grand Rapids visited at the homes of Mrs. H. Tanis and John Peters Tuesday.

The Farm Bureau is planning to build an addition to the oil sheds within the near future.

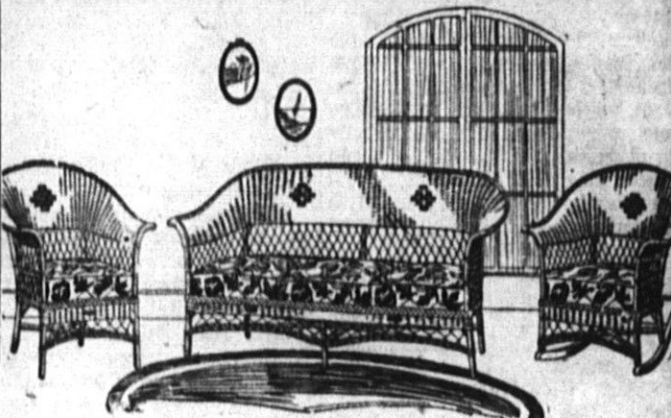

Mrs. Hendrika Jansen has been on the sick list, but the aged lady has recovered sufficiently to be up and around again.

Victor Maxam returned home from San Francisco, Calif., where he attended the International convention of Christian Endeavor societies. He reports that splendid meetings were held. On the return trip Mr. Maxam visited several of the historic and scenic places of the West.

Mrs. Sena Maatman and daughter Adelaide returned home after spending two weeks camping at Ottawa Beach.

The sports committee has started raising a fund for the Labor day celebration. The chairman of the committee says that they intend to apply several coats in the most scientific manner.

Arthur H. Boske of Lansing, who recently has been operating a gas station at Bronson, was brought to Allegan by Sheriff Guy Teed charged with non-payment of alimony for the support of his 2-year-old daughter, who is living with her mother at Hopkins. Boske was arraigned before Judge Fred T. Miles in circuit court Tuesday and sentenced to serve one year at Jackson prison.

Otis Barlow of Allegan also was before Judge Fred T. Miles in circuit court Tuesday to face a charge of nonsupport of his two children. Judge Miles ordered Barlow to pay $50 by Saturday of this week and $50 a week later and after that $50 per week or suffer the alternative of being sentenced.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hellenhal and daughter, were guests of Mrs. A. Hellenhal Sunday in Holland. Rev. Henry Beltman, pastor of the Second Reformed church of Grand Haven for the past three years, delivered his farewell sermon to the local congregation Sunday evening. Rev. Beltman and his family left Monday for the new charge, Hope Reformed church, at Los Angeles, Cal. It is with much regret that the people of the Grand Haven church bid their pastor goodbye. During his pastorate of three years, the church has made splendid strides, increasing the membership to 365 by 140 new members through confession and 30 by transfer. The benevolent fund was increased about $1,500 per year and the centennial drives for home and foreign missions were successfully completed. The indebtedness to the Ministerial Pension fund has also been erased.

Mrs. Mary Sullivan of Grand Haven has filed a suit in probate court to break the will of Patrick J. Terry, for many years a coal dealer in Detroit and a brother of the plaintiff. He was buried here following his death a few weeks ago. In the will half the estate was left to Mrs. Sullivan and half to Mrs. Marie Terry, who with her husband, James, lived with Terry. Mrs. Terry was named administrator of the estate. She reported the estate to be $124. Mrs. Sullivan told the judge that a few years ago her brother told her he had $10,000.

He leaves the widow, Nora; two brothers, William of Laporte, Ind.; and Harry of Sawyer, and a sister, Mrs. Jessie Guiderbeck of Kalamazoo.

Holland National Guards returned from Grayling Saturday with two trophies — the Stewart trophy won by Gerald H. Bonnett for being rated as the best soldier of 5,000 in camp, and the kitchen trophy for the best mess hall and kitchen won by Don J. Zwerger, J. Streu, H. Dekker and S. Wierda. The contest for the kitchen trophy was captured from Company I of Grand Rapids by a narrow margin.—Grand Rapids Press.

Holland and the Black lake resorts again have become the mecca for ministers and missionaries on their vacations and furloughs. Some ministers and families are occupying their cottages, many others annually come to Holland to visit with relatives, while others are attracted here because of their associations with friends during their careers in Holland's educational institutions. Many of the wives of ministers are former Holland girls and never miss their annual visits to this city. The number of visitors will be augmented in August, the popular vacation month for ministers.

Heinie Van Klink, successfully averted a collision with John Konig's truck Monday. The truck, however, struck his arm, breaking it near the wrist and just below the shoulder.

Allegan County Agricultural Agent A. D. Morley warns Allegan county farmers to be on the lookout for army worms, especially in the northern part of the county. He also advises that mites are present on raspberry canes in great numbers. As soon as the berry crop is harvested the old canes should be removed and burned immediately. After this is done three applications of spray should be put on the bushes five days apart. The spray should consist of a 1 per cent oil spray. Care should be exercised to use too much pressure and break off the tender shoots, and the spraying should not be done in the middle of the day.

Down Go Prices on CHEVROLET

Service Work!

Come in Today and Save!

Never before such sweeping reductions on Chevrolet service charges! Never before such low prices as those now in force at your Chevrolet dealer. A motor tune-up costs only $1.50. And many other equally essential service jobs have been reduced in the same proportion. In fact, it is now possible to have your car put in first-class condition at a remarkable low cost.

This new Chevrolet economy is the direct result of the policy of your Chevrolet dealer of sharing with his owners every saving made possible by Chevrolet's modern manufacturing and service methods. It is just another of the money saving advantages that Chevrolet owners can enjoy.

Come in—start now to benefit by these lower service charges. Service work done today will not only save you money now—it will prevent little troubles from becoming big repair bills. And now you will enjoy summer driving more if your Chevrolet is performing at its best.

Blame Lazy Bug For Bad Grass- hopper Plague

FARMERS WILL HAVE TO USE
POISON BAIT TILL PARA-

The clouds of grasshoppers which ate up the crops of the ancients were supposed to be a signal that the gods were offended, but the swarms which are working in some Michigan counties this year are known to be due to the laziness of the blister beetles which are supposed to keep the grasshoppers in check.

The larvae of some of the blister beetles feed almost exclusively on the eggs of grasshoppers and as long as there is a plentiful supply of these eggs the larvae grow fat and the beetles increase rapidly in numbers. When they have eaten so many eggs that the grasshopper crop is reduced, the larvae starve, and the beetle population is cut down to a point where it ceases to be a check upon the hoppers.

Right now the hoppers have the upper hand and man must use some poison bait to kill them or suffer the damages they will do to his crops. This bait can be prepared at little cost, especially if a large quantity is mixed for all the farmers of a community, and it effectively stops the grasshoppers.

The bait is no good unless it is properly mixed with the correct ingredients and farmers in the infested areas can be sure that their bait is prepared correctly if they will ask the county agricultural agent to give them the detailed directions. Both time and money will be saved if groups of farmers prepare the amount they require at the same time.

MANY CHILDREN WIN SWIMMING PINS AT COLLEEN PARK

Many boys and girls are spending the hot summer days at Colleen Park, one of the most popular play grounds in Holland, where they can enjoy a daily swim. The park is open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 8:30 o'clock in the evening. Many children are learning to swim.

The boys and girls who earned the pin for swimming fifty feet are Alfred Meppink, Eugene Denny, Joseph DeVries, Cornelia Klein, Earl Monroe, Gilbert Kowan, Frank Zwiering, James Thompson, Bill Zeepir, Elmer DeMaat, Althea Franks, P. Kelly, Jack Whalen, Jay Hoffman, Junior Overweg, Robert Heeringa, Robert Deur, Ralph Neusen, Donald Baldus, Jack Hieminga, Justin Dyke, Josephine Van Braght, Raymond Vos, Harvey Monroe, Effie Frank, Irene Verhey, Albert Aldring, Myra Grover, Edward Hallet, Robert Myrick, Kasper Schegardus, Louis Myrick, Herman Naberhuis, John Lokker, Jr., Thomas Niessink, Robert Luloff, Julius Derks, Ray Grisson, Edward Vander Bie, Rose Mary Burrows, Preston Brown, Edward Robinson, Donna Hieftje, Harold Welscoot, Eunice Loyer, Edward Boss, Kenneth Hill, Don Vander Hill, Yvonne Bosman, Helen Rottschaefer, Osborne C. Ash, Margaret Van Braght, Lenore Dalton, Almer Prins, Bert Naberhuis, Don Paris, Russell Karrel, Rose Ellen Aman, Henrietta Brickeridge, George Van Dyke.

Up-to-date ninety-three boys and girls have earned their beginner's pins.

Those who have earned their swimmer's pins are entitled to the use of the raft and diving boards. Some of these had only their beginner's pins at the beginning of the season.

Those awarded swimmers' rights were Clarence Zonne, Hector Martin, Donald Visser, Henry Felder, Lorenzo Trevan, Joseph De Vries, Don H. Kolean, Preston Hopkins, Earl Vander Kolk, Pete Van Ivar, den, Jerold Essenberg, Edward Chapman, Richard Kelly, Robert Myrick, Louis Myrick, Casper Schegardus, Clifford Cunningham, Wilis DeNeff, Robert Cooper, Marian Tysse, John Shagun, Alma Prins, Max Schiber, John DeWitt, James Thompson, Jack Hieminga, Henry Gebben, Louis Stegenza, Elmer De Maat, Jack McElay, Mildred Bouwens.

The highest honor of the season has been earned by Charles Viller, a member of Detroit, who was awarded his Junior Life Saving emblem. Several others are preparing for this examination.

The swimming lessons and examinations are given by Gerald Breen, Edward Damson and Carl Damson. No accidents have occurred at the park this season. Five persons were rescued by life guards.

The guards insist that all who have not earned their swimmer's pin to stay inside the life line.

Holland citizens will not be awakened from their slumbers by the shrieking of the "mocking bird" as an alarm for fires in the early morning hours. The board of police and fire commissioners has renewed its action in making the "fire whistle" taboo between midnight and 6 a. m. Firemen will be routed from their beds by alarms in their homes.

An unusual situation has developed in the personnel of the board of education of Holland's public school system. The Christian Reformed Church in America, which supports the Christian school system, has obtained control of the board members by adding three members in the recent election and now has a representation of five. The other four members are affiliated with the Reformed Church in America. The Reformed Church led the previous board 7 to 2.—Grand Rapids Press.

Rev. Lambertus Van Laar, pastor of Prospect Park Christian Reformed church at Holland since 1926, has declined a call to Highland Park, Ind.

In an endeavor to prevent Frank Cooley of Allendale from picking huckleberries in Amman park without a permit from the city of Grand Rapids, Rudolph Kapff, deputy of Kent county, was assaulted and treated roughly by the Allendale man, which resulted in an arrest for assault and battery.

Cooley paid a fine of $13.30 in Justice C. E. Burr's court, Grand Haven. The man had no berries, but the officer alleged he had complaints that the man was attempting to get the fruit without the permit. The park belongs to Grand Rapids, but is in Ottawa county.

Services at Central Reformed at Grand Rapids were in charge of Prof. John R. Mulder of Western Theological seminary, of Holland.

THREATENS TO KILL BROTHER; JAILED IN ALLEGAN

Secrecy surrounds the 40 year feud between Charles Howard and his brother Fred brought to light Saturday with the arrest of Charles at his Cheshire home in Allegan county.

"I'll kill him someday. It's either him or me. I'm going to mind my own business but someday I'll get him. No, I'll not tell anyone what we are enemies about," said Charles when questioned by Sheriff Guy Teed of Allegan.

Charles was taken to Cell No. 13 with no charge booked against him. Monday morning his brother Fred arrived at the jail but refused to see the prisoner.

"I don't want to be near him so he can get his hands on me," said the frightened brother. Fred then pleaded with Deputy Ed. Clock to keep his brother in jail so he could not get loose and make good his threat.

Charles' friends brought him gum, matches and tobacco Monday morning.

He is 60 years old, single, colored.

DONATES USE OF COURSE

Nathaniel Robbins, Sr., has turned over his miniature golf course on Washington st. to the Grand Haven playground authorities for use in connection with summer recreational projects, it was learned from J. C. Lehman, who had just interviewed Mr. Robbins. Mr. Lehman believed that the supervisors would confine the use of the course to the girls, since the boys already have so many games and activities in which to participate. Just how the course will be employed, however, will be decided upon later.

WALTER HAGEN, GOLF PRO, PASSES THROUGH CITY WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Grand Haven Tribune.—Walter Hagen of Detroit, recent winner of the Canadian open golf championship at Toronto over Percy Allis, British pro, in a 36-hole play off, and winner of the U. S. open in 1914 and 1919, was in the city last night, en route from Detroit to Milwaukee.

He crossed the lake on the Missouri and had his family with him. He said they were going on a fishing trip. Eddie Vandenberg, employed at the Robbins' dock, spotted the golfer and talked with him for some time. Hagen was much interested in the Sharkey-Walker fight and seemed pleased that a draw was called as Walker seemed to be his favorite.

DISPLAYS CORN STALK OVER SEVEN FEET TALL

A cornstalk measuring seven feet and four inches in length attracted considerable attention and interest when displayed in the Spelman store window at Fennville. It was grown by Frank Bushee on his farm east of town, and is the more remarkable because the soil in the pine plains section is not especially famed for fertility.

Another big stalk, 6 feet tall, is a product of Postmaster Charles Bassett's garden. The corn is at Fennville's garden displayed in the post-office.

PREVENTS CAR FROM PASSING; FINDS IT TO BE SHERIFF TEED

Allegan News: According to state law if you signal to pass a car while traveling on the highway, the car signaled must not increase its speed to prevent the passing.

Every motorist doesn't know this. For instance, Simon Wiergerink, 35, of Manlius didn't. He was driving on the East Saugatuck road out of Hamilton one night last week when a car signaled to pass. Wiergerink "stepped" on it. It cost him $14.65 in Justice Fides Fish's court for doing it.

The man who signaled happened to be Sheriff Guy Teed.

There isn't much you can say for times like these except that everybody has learned how to pronounce "deficit."

Among the flying craft used to smuggle in at least a few undesirable citizens is the stork.

MICHIGAN AUTO LICENSES MAY BE MADE OF COPPER

Michigan's 1933 automobile license plates may be made of copper. The Department of State feels that Michigan's Copper industry might be benefited if automobile plates could be made of state-mined copper. This matter will be given careful study and consideration in connection with the 1933 plates, which will be ordered early in 1932. The cost of using copper as compared with 24 gauge steel now in use will have a direct bearing on the final decision. The 1932 plates now being manufactured will carry a color combination of a dark blue background with white block numerals.

HORSE SHOW AT CASTLE PARK ON AUGUST 4TH

Tuesday, August 4th is the date set for the annual horse show at Castle Park. The event will begin at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and it is expected that a number of horses will be entered by resorters. Winners in this show may compete again at the Holland Horse show to be held on August 21 at the Holland Fairgrounds. Entries to the Holland show come from all of Michigan and silver trophies are awarded for superior horsemanship.

Names suggested by the management of the show as likely to appear in the various events at Castle Park, follow below.

In the junior jumping class, two and a half feet, suggested entries are Carter Wilkie Brown, Patsy Cleveland, Mary Corley and E. Hy-lons. The horsemanship at a walk class, riders under six years, may include Austin Brown, Gilbert Carter and Judith Matthews.

The three-gaited class, riding on to count, may include Mrs. Harold Wood, Mrs. Carter Brown, Mrs. W. Carter, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Duncan Forbes and Mrs. T. Hearne. The egg and spoon race will be another feature of the show.

In the three and a half foot jumps, riders will be Joan Elliott, Marian Barber, Baxter McLean, and Theodore Page. The oat race entries include Antoinette Hearne, and Ann Hunter Hearne. The parent and child class will be entered by couples from the Carter, Brown, Hearne, Page, Forbes and Barber families.

The four-foot jump class may include Marian Carter, Baxter McLean, R. A. Page, Roy Nobel and Mary Nobel. A riderless jumping event will also take place, a six-foot, triple bar being used.

SPRING LAKE BOY, SON OF MR. AND MRS. CARL BOWEN, IS HURT IN COLLISION

Howard Bowen, 14 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Bowen, of Spring Lake, was in the hospital at Zeeland overnight following an accident on the Beaverdam road 10 miles east of Zeeland.

He suffered a wrenched back and was in severe pain for a time. Mr. Bowen, Ottawa county engineer, and Mrs. Bowen were called here last night. Mr. Bowen came back this morning to learn that the injuries were not serious.

The Bowen boy was riding with Peter Kammeraad, county surveyor. The machine was struck broadside by another car, the name of the driver not being learned. The accident took place at an intersection and the Bowen car was ditched.

Mr. Kammeraad, who was driving, returned to his home at Grand Haven after several stitches had been taken in his arm which was cut in the crash. The Bowen boy was brought home the following day. The father, Carl Bowen, was Holland's city engineer some years ago.

SAUGATUCK SURE HAS A FAST FIRE SQUAD

Saugatuck Commercial.—Friday morning, July 17, the fire department was called to the farm of S. Wade in Gibson to help put out a fire. They made the run of five miles in nine minutes and saved the farm house with the exception of part of the roof. This is very fast work and the boys are deserving of great credit for their prompt action.

HOW SOME FARMS ARE MADE TO PAY

Sandland farmers of Ottawa County may learn a great deal about sand land management and the growing of crops on poor sand soil by attending the meeting Aug. 7th at the Pennsylvania railroad farm, north of Howard City, says Agricultural Agent Milham. On this farm may be seen the results of the use of lime with phosphorus and potash fertilizer, alfalfa, rye, vetch and corn and other crops which fit into the Keston rotation. The farm in charge of B. O. Hagerman has been made to pay the income from the farm dependent upon returns from dairy cattle, poultry and the sale of seeds. Last year over 2,000 Michigan farmers studied the results of the methods at a meeting there. Accurate cost and yield figures will be made available at the meeting.

Holland Bride To Make Her New Home In England

A SCHOOL DAY ROMANCE BRINGS HAPPY COUPLE TO THE ALTAR

A childhood romance culminated in the marriage of Miss Edythe L. Tyner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Tyner, River avenue, and Mr. Lester E. Strub, formerly of Upper Sandusky, Ohio. The ceremonies were performed at Hope Church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the presence of the immediate family and a few close friends of the bride, with Rev. Paul E. McLean officiating.

The bride was charmingly beautiful as she entered the church edifice on the arm of her father and took her position in front of the altar which was simply but richly decorated with baskets of flowers, white tapers in candleabra against a background of palms and ferns.

The soft strains of "O Promise Me," was played by Miss Margary Selby during the ceremony. The bride wore a soft gray semi-princess gown that fell in long graceful folds to the floor. The bodice was trimmed in little clusters of French knots and pearls and the belt was caught with a pearl buckle.

A large white horse-hair hat with a touch of gray trimming, long white gloves, gray hose and slip-pers completed the costume. The bride also wore a large corsage of orchids.

Preceding the wedding ceremony Miss Gladys Wagner sweetly sang "O Promise Me."

Immediately following the ceremony a three course luncheon was served at the bride's home on River avenue and the couple left for Chicago. They sailed from New York Wednesday noon, July 29, and after a two weeks honeymoon, trip to Paris and London they will reside at New Castle on Tyne.

Mrs. Strub's traveling costume was a dark blue Rathmoor suit with a small navy blue hat and accessories to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Strub entered Junior High school in Upper Sandusky, Ohio, and a warm friendship sprang up which has lasted through all the passing years.

Mrs. Strub is a graduate of the Holland High school and Hope College. For four years she taught high school languages and the past three years has held a position at Rose Cloak Store, Holland.

Mr. Strub graduated from Upper Sandusky High school and Miami University at Oxford, Ohio. He obtained a position as expert chemist with the Proctor, Gamble Co., of St. Louis, Mo., and the past two years has been production manager. In recognition of his dependability and competency they have appointed him as their representative in England and superintendent of the New Castle factories on the British Isles.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Adams of Detroit, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Grimmett, Battle Creek, Mrs. John Wagner, Miss Gladys Wagner and Gerald Fell of Plainfield.

A marriage license application has been received from John Van Duine, 60, of Holland and Mrs. Nancy Houseman, 55 of Wyoming township.

Boat Business This Season As Good As In 1930

GOODRICH STEAMERS AND MICH. TRANSIT BOTH REPORT BETTER BUSINESS

Muskegon Chronicle.—Boat passenger traffic between Muskegon, Chicago, Milwaukee and other Lake Michigan ports this season will equal and possibly exceed the 1930 summer business, according to local agents of three lines, two of whom announced changes and additions in service today.

Beginning today Goodrich Transit company boats will leave Muskegon nightly and will sail directly to Chicago without stopping at Grand Haven two nights a week as on the present schedule.

The S. S. Grand Rapids also will be scheduled to leave Muskegon Sunday night instead of the S. S. Alabama. This change is being made because the Grand Rapids is a larger boat and will be able to accommodate more week-end passengers destined for Chicago.

Last Sunday night the Goodrich passenger list included 410 persons. Similarly large crowds have been taking the boat to Chicago at the close of a week-end in Western Michigan. Monday night nine automobiles and about 100 passengers were aboard.

Under the new schedule announced today by A. M. Lake, local agent, the Grand Rapids will alternate on the run with the exception of Saturday, when the Grand Rapids will make a daylight run stopping at Grand Haven.

J. A. Johnson, formerly of Holland, now of Muskegon, agent of the Michigan Transit company, also announced that beginning Friday, July 24, the S. S. Manitowish will continue beyond Harbor Springs to Mackinac Island and Sault Ste. Marie.

In order to make this addition to the present schedule several other changes will be necessary. A new night boat will leave Chicago Wednesday night to arrive here Thursday morning and double back to Chicago for a daylight trip to Muskegon Thursday afternoons, continuing to Frankfort.

ALLEGAN MAN AT 90 LEARNS TO DRIVE A CAR; FARMED WHEN CAR WAS 10c THE BUSHEL

Andrew J. Johnson, 90 years old, is the only one left of 47 Trowbridge township farmers who enlisted in the Civil war and yet can ramble off to town at 15 miles per hour, just as easily as he ever could. The fact is, he never drove a car until he was 83. He bought a brand new sedan way back then and he says it's just as good as it ever was as far as he can tell. "Oh, it's a little old fashioned, of course, but it's only been run about 4,000 miles," he tells us.

Mr. Johnson admits that sometimes when he sees a car coming down the road it looks like two until he gets close up to it, but any attempt to keep this 90-year-old veteran from driving has failed. When he wants to go to town he drives there.

"I never venture to drive clear downtown," he says, "for I'm afraid to do that, so I park my car on the way in and walk the rest of the way."

In 1863 Mr. Johnson bought a 60-acre farm adjoining his uncle's. "You have no idea what farmers had to go through with in those days," this life-long farmer says. "Beans were only 50c a bushel, corn 10 cents a bushel, and beef. Good pork sold for 3 cents and bae. 24c. I couldn't have kept my head above water," he went on, "if it hadn't been for the timber and sugar bush on my farm."

Mr. Johnson had to leave the farm in August of 1864 and joined the 13th Michigan Infantry. While he was never in a battle, he says, "My regiment did more fighting and lost more men than any other regiment from Michigan. Most of the 11 months which Mr. Johnson served were spent as a train guard. For that reason he missed out on the fighting."

"I lost my life's earnings in a bank that failed," Mr. Johnson regretfully states. "But the pension that comes to this old veteran every month cares for his present needs. He is exempt from tax on his 42-acre farm also."

HOLLAND CITY BOARD MEMBERS GUESTS OF LOCAL GROUP AT COUNTRY CLUB

Grand Haven Tribune.—The local board of public works was host to the Holland city country club last night. The dinner was given by the gentlemen of the board as a return courtesy for a similar affair which was given for the local board by the Holland men at the time of their organization.

Following the dinner, which included six men from each city including the superintendents of the plants, the group went down to inspect the municipal plant.

The Holland men expressed themselves in the highest praise of the plant and believe it is one of the finest they have ever visited, they said. The local board is well pleased with the results of the Diesel engines which have been running for the past two months and expect to give out a report shortly which will tell just how efficient the engines are.

NEW YORK BIBLICAL STUDENT TO PREACH AT UNITY CHURCH

Muskegon Chronicle.—Russell Damstra, a student from the Biblical Institute of New York City, will preach Sunday, August 2, at Unity Reformed church, in the absence of Rev. C. P. Dame, who is to begin his vacation Tuesday.

Sunday, August 9, Rev. George Heneveld, pastor of the First Reformed church at Wycoff, N. J., who serves as pastor of Unity Reformed church over an eight-year period, will be in charge of the services.

PLAN TO REBUILD DAM PLEASES ALLEGAN FOLK

Allegan sportsmen are elated by announcement that the state highway and conservation departments will cooperate in replacing the dam on Swan creek, near M-80 bridge, restoring the large pond known in years gone by as Smith's mill pond, for many years the best pike fishing grounds in the county.

The old dam was torn out when M-80 was relocated several years ago.

W. H. Chapman, 82, passed through Holland on the final lap of his 20,000-mile hitch-hike tour of the United States and Canada. Chapman said he left his home in Connecticut eight years ago.

Turtle Places Eggs in Nest With Caution

REPTILE USES FEET TO COVER EACH EGG WITH SOIL AND THEN DEPARTS TO STREAM

The old turtle patiently made her way up a sloping bank, thick with heavy growth of weeds. She made her way more easily as she entered a field of bean plants. Many days without rain had left the soil dry and a little hard. This soil she passed over and came upon another field but lately cultivated.

The old snapper dug industriously into the soft, furrowed earth, but did not appear satisfied, for she again continued her journey for about 20 feet. The sluggish and muddy stream where she spent the greater part of her existence was now 100 yards distant.

She began to dig into the soft clay loam. This earth seemed satisfactory and she scooped into it with her hind legs. The egg-nest was about five to six inches in diameter and of the same depth. It required 15 minutes to prepare.

I pushed her from the nest, but she did not lunge forward as they oftentimes do, but returned immediately to her work. As each egg was laid it was carefully covered with soil and placed to the outside wall of the small pit by her small, claw-like feet. She lay directly above the nest and it would have required eyes as keen as a marsh hawk's to have detected her unless one had observed her progress across the field.

After two hours the old female snapper had deposited from 20 to 30 eggs and had as carefully placed them. Each egg was perfectly round and about three-quarters of an inch in diameter. The shell is similar to that of a hen's egg. She replaced the earth in the pit and tamped it into place with both front and hind legs. When she had completed her task it was indiscernible where the nest had been made.

EGGS CONCEALED

She made her way back to the stream by almost the same path she had used when coming forth to lay her eggs. As she was returning to the stream soft rain began to fall and this all but obliterated the tamping she had done on the soft loam. Everything was as before except the eggs lay carefully concealed from the enemies of turtles—weasels and skunks.

How the Useful Plants Came to Mankind
By T. E. STEWARD
WNU Service

The Garden Pea

THERE are a number of wild vetches and lupins, but no plant that can be identified with the garden pea has ever been found growing wild. Botanists are inclined to ascribe its origin from the region south of the Caucasus whence the Aryans came into Europe, and there is evidence that it is at least as old, used as human food, as the Aryan invasion. It is not a plant of China or of ancient India. Unless it originated south of the Caucasus and was carried west by the Aryans it may have come from the north shore of the Mediterranean, where a number of plants of the genus "pisum" do grow wild at the present time.

Those who think of modern garden delicacies as something of relatively recent origin may add the garden pea to the list of plants whose seeds or perfectly identifiable remains have been found in the rubbish heaps of the Swiss lake dwellers, persons who belonged to the age of bronze, before iron and steel were known to civilized man. Peas found in the Bronze age remains differ slightly in shape from the modern garden pea, but are probably the same. One scientist, Hier, offers proof that he found peas in Stone age remains, which would place its European use at a point prior to the coming of the Aryans. If this is so the garden pea probably originated in more than one place, in Europe, and in the region of western Asia whence the Aryan came. For there is evidence that they knew it before their migration.

Peas were a favored vegetable among the Greeks and Romans, and the name by which we know it is derived from the Latin name Pisum.

Unlike the garden pea, the field pea is known to grow wild in southern Europe, being quite abundant as a wild plant in some parts of Italy.

In all there are eight known varieties of the genus Pisum, all of them native either to Asia or to Europe, but mostly original in the neighborhood of Persia and the rich districts south of the Caucasus.

Unlike the garden pea, the field pea has not been found in the Bronze age remains of Switzerland and of Savoy. This may have been due to the fact that it was not used by them. It must certainly have been known, because it still grows wild in places not very far removed from those ancient deposits. (© 1933, Western Newspaper Union.)

Master's License

Joseph Conrad's knowledge of English, literary and colloquial, need not here be praised. But there were certain words which he, so to speak, declined to learn. One very odd example was the word "vowel." He transposed the "v" and "w" sounds, so that it became "wovvel." I have been told that he would even write it so. He pronounced "used" as two syllables, sometimes like "usit"—London Fortnightly Review.

SOME MORE RED TAPE
IN AUTO LICENSES

One of the least known provisions of the new automobile driver's license law, is that concerning changes of address. Under the new law, the license contains blank spaces where new addresses can be placed when the holder of the license moves from one address to another. Failure to follow out this provision of the law is a misdemeanor. Another avenue to make law breakers out of innocent folks.

When a motorist who has a new license moves, the license with the change of address should be taken or sent to the local examining officer and the change will be made at that office. Motorists should not send their licenses to the Department of State, nor should they make the alteration themselves. Department records show that applications for new licenses are being made very slowly. Licenses obtained before Jan. 1, 1925 must be replaced by new ones before Nov.
1, 1931. If the "last minute" rush becomes too great, many drivers may find themselves without a license for a week or 10 days and consequently unable to drive.

Mrs. Warner
Took Own Life
Say Officials

LOSS OF HER DAUGHTER SEV-ERAL YEARS AGO IS A FACTOR

Grief over the loss of her small daughter was a contributing factor in the death of Mrs. Evelyn Warner at Allegan, Mrs. Warner died from poison which she herself took.
If her physical condition had not been as weak as it was this poison might not have resulted in her death. These are the opinions of Prosecutor Harry Pell and Sheriff Guy Teed of Allegan county, who have written files on the tragic death of the 21-year-old girl wife of Laney Warner 58.

Reports of toxicologists at Ann Arbor that Mrs. Warner's stomach contained poison—possibly phenol, a person similar in its action to carbolic acid and a poison sometimes used in the manufacture of illicit whiskey, has led Pell to the deduction that it was perhaps poisoned liquor that caused Mrs. Warner's death. Her physical condition was such as to make her susceptible to serious results even from slight poisoning. She was suffering from alcoholism, her liver being twice the normal size and her condition was further weakened as a result of the bruises she had sustained two days before her death. These bruises are still of unknown origin.

Laney Warner, husband of the dead woman, has told the sheriff and prosecutor that his wife had been melancholy ever since their small daughter had been taken from them by probate court several years ago following an automobile accident. Mention of the child always brought about a period of depression. On the fatal night Mrs.
Warner rose from her chair at Mc-Kay's store at Round lake when her husband began to relate an account of the accident which cost them their child. It was only a few minutes later they heard Mrs. Warner cry out. Witnesses now believe that she was calling for her child as she said, "Babe Babe, Babe." At the time they thought she was calling to Warner.

Complete investigation by Pell and Teed fail to reveal any incidents surrounding Mrs. Warner's death. Which would lead them to believe that she met her death in any other manner than by her own hand.

Warner, held for three weeks in the county jail, has been released.
It is revealed by Pell and Teed that he was not being held because of any charge placed against him.
The officials state that Warner was in no condition physically to return to his home and that he, himself, thought it better that he remain at the local jail where he would receive proper care until such a time as his strength had been restored. He is suffering from shattered nerves.

Unless some unforeseen circumstances should arise the case is a closed chapter in the record of Allegan county officials.

Mrs. Warner was found dying on the night of June 17 two miles northwest of Allegan. She died in John Robinson hospital an hour later. Immediate check-up on her husband's story that she had taken poison was corroborated by the testimony of Mr. and Mrs. A. R.
McKay of Round lake. However her husband was held pending more complete investigation. The fact that Warner's first wife, a sister of the dead woman, took carbolic acid eight years ago, led officials to believe that perhaps the second Mrs. Warner had been a victim of fool play. Suspicion has been cleared away to the satisfaction of officials.

Coroner C. Clay Benson says he has not yet signed the death certificate.

McKay's story of the happenings
of that night, as far as he knows, agrees with the story originally given out. McKay added one new side-light to the case when he told about how Mrs. McKay jokingly asked Mrs. Warner if her husband had beaten up on her when she saw her black eyes and bruises.
Warner then stated she had been in an accident and recalled various other accidents they had been in.
As he started to tell of the accident on PawPaw hill several years ago which resulted in their little girl being taken from them by authorities, McKay says Mrs. Warner got up from her seat and walked to a room in the back of the store. According to McKay she then returned to the room where Mr. and Mrs.
McKay and Warner were sitting and screamed that she had taken poison. Mrs. McKay administered milk and eggs which caused her to vomit, he says, and when she attempted to get into the car as though to drive it herself, Laney said to her: "No, Mamma, let me drive." McKay told him he had better take her to a doctor which McKay states he thought Warner intended to do. The next they heard, McKay says, was of Mrs.
Warner's death.

SAUL CONVERTED AND COM-MISSIONED

LESSON TEXT—Acts 9:1-19; 1
Timothy 1:12-14.
GOLDEN TEXT—Whereupon, O
king Atrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Saul Chosen to Be a Missionary.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Saul Chosen a Missionary to the Gentiles.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR
TOPIC—A Vision and a Response.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT
TOPIC—Saul's Conversion and Commission.

I. Saul's Violent Hatred of the Lord's Disciples (vv. 1, 2).
Saul knew full well that unless the movement set on foot by Jesus was stopped it would supersede Judaism. The noble display of faith by Stephen in sealing his testimony with his blood did not soften Saul's spirit, but rather intensified his hatred for the Lord and his disciples. It made him more determined than ever to stamp out the Nazarene heresy.
The intensity of his madness and the extent of its operations are best set forth in his own words (Acts 22:4; 26:10-12 R. V.). He obtained authority from the high priest to carry on this murderous work.

II. Saul Kicking Against the Pricks (vv. 3-9).
The figure here is that of the eastern ox driver following the ox with a sharp iron fixed to the end of a pole. The animal is prodded on with this instrument and if refractory, it kicks against the sharp iron and injures itself. This is a graphic picture of Saul as he was madly fighting against Jesus.

1. A light from heaven (vv. 3, 4). The time had come for the Lord to interfere. Saul was smitten with blindness and fell to the earth.
2. A voice from heaven (vv. 4, 5). This was the Lord's voice calling Saul by name and asking "Why persecutest thou me?" To this Saul replied, "Who art thou, Lord?"
Then came the answer, "I am Jesus whom thou persecutest." It is to say that persecution of the disciples is persecution of Jesus. Jesus is so closely identified with believers that he feels their sufferings and regards mistreatment of them as mistreatment of himself.

3. Saul's inquiry (v. 6). "What wilt thou have me to do?" The Lord told him to go into the city where information would be given him as to what he must do.
4. Saul entering Damascus (vv.
7-9). The proud persecutor went humbly into Damascus, led by his attendants. For the space of three days he remained blind, and fast-ed. What went on in his soul in those days no mortal can know.
Doubtless in this time he got hold of the truths which he later proclaimed to the world, for his conversion was the basest fact of his theology. The day is coming when all men shall behold the dazzling glory of the Son, either in salvation or in condemnation (Phil. 2:10, 11; Rev. 6:15-17).

III. Saul Ministered to by Ananias (vv. 10-19).
1. Ananias' vision (vv. 10-12).
The Lord appeared to him and instructed him to go to Saul. He gave him the name of the street and Saul's host, and informed him that Saul was now a praying man and that he had prepared Saul by a vision for the coming of Ananias. The Lord knows the name of the street and the number of the house in which his chosen live.

2. Ananias' fear and hesitancy
(vv. 13-16). He knew of Saul's murderous and the authority which he came. The Lord encouraged him to go, assuring him that Saul was no longer an enemy but a chosen vessel to bear his name before the Gentiles, kings, and the children of Israel, and that the badge of his commission should be great suffering for Christ.

3. Ananias' obedience (v. 17).
His fears being removed, Ananias went to the house where Saul was stopping, put his hand upon him and affectionately addressed him as brother. The hitherto savage persecutor is now a brother in Christ. Ananias informed him that the Lord had sent him with a twofold mission:

a. "That thou mightest receive thy sight."
b. "Be filled with the Holy Ghost. He received his sight forthwith. It is not said that he received the Holy Ghost then, but his life work proves that he did.
4. Saul baptized (vv. 18, 19). After Saul received his sight, Ananias baptized him. The Lord bestows the gift of the Spirit upon whomsoever he will, and may designate anyone, whether occupying an official position or not, to lay hands upon individuals.

IV. Paul Put into the Ministry
(Tim. 1:12-14).
He was commissioned for his work among the Gentiles by Jesus Christ. He did not enter the Christian ministry, but was placed there by the sovereign act of the Lord.
He was transformed from a blasphemer and a persecutor through the abundant grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and made the apostle of the Gentiles.

Local News

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James R. Van Hartesveldt, of Fennville, at the Holland hospital, on July 18, a daughter, Joyce Ann; to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Valing, of rural route 6, at the Holland hospital, on July 18, a son Roger Dale.

Miss Florence Karel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Karel of 129 East Sixteenth street, and John Kammeraad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kammeraad of Holland Route 6, were quietly married Saturday at South Bend, Indiana. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kammeraad of DeCatur. The bride wore a beautiful gown of orchid chiffon with white accessories. Mr. Kammeraad is employed at the Holleman-De Weerd garage. The newly-weds are making their home at 194 West Sixteenth street.

Miller Sherwood, a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Sherwood, won the tennis championship of the Y. M. C. A. camp, Ha-O-Went-Ha on Torch Lake. Sherwood returns here this week to take part in the city tennis tournament scheduled during the next two weeks. He holds the boys' title at present and will probably enter the doubles with his partner of the high school team last spring, Melvin Waldschmidt—Grand Haven Tribune.

A daughter, Joyce Ann, was born to Mr. and Mrs. James VanHartesveldt Sunday, July 19, at the Holland hospital.—Fennville Herald

The annual basket picnic of the Sixth Reformed church and Sunday School will be held at Tunnel Park Wednesday, August 5. Cars will leave the church at 1 o'clock. Drivers who have room in their cars are asked to call at the church and take some of the picnicers to the grounds. Persons who desire to go at 5:30 o'clock and have no automobile are asked to notify Fred Van Voorst before Tuesday evening, August 4. George Woldring is the chairman of the sports committee and a good program has been arranged. The downstairs classes will compete in the afternoon and the upstairs classes in the evening. Ball games, horseshoe contests and swimming will be enjoyed.

All attending are asked to bring their own supper including coffee and lemonade. Tables and benches are provided.

The Bocks family reunion was held Saturday at Rosabelle beach. The occasion was also Michael Bocks 80th birthday anniversary. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Bocks and son, Frederick; Michael Bocks, Mrs. L. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bocks and children, Leona, Donald and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. George Bocks and children, Marian, Kathleen, Bobby and Billy, Mrs.

Charles Barnard and Miss Eunice Mokma.

Mrs. Lucius Boltwood entertained a group of friends at dinner Saturday evening at her cottage at Ottawa Beach. Those present were: Miss Elvira Boltwood of Goshen, Mass., and Donald Crawford of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hopson and son, Earl G.; Miss Letta Hyndorn, Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. Russell and daughter, Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Boltwood and children Barbara and Chester, Charles Boltwood, Charles Armstrong, all of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Charles McBride and daughter Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dougherty, all of Holland.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Marcotte on West Fourteenth St., was the scene of a beautiful but simple wedding Saturday morning when their daughter, Miss Ruth Marcotte, became the bride of Dr. Marinus H. Hamelink, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamelink Rev. Bert Brower of Home Acres, brother-in-law of the groom, performed the ceremony at 11 o'clock in the morning in the presence of the immediate families. Following the wedding ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. After the reception the couple left for the East. They will be at home in Worcester, Massachusetts after August 1. The bride is a graduate of Holland High school and Hope College. She has taught in the Coopersville public schools for three years. Dr. Hamelink is a graduate of Hope College and the University of Michigan Medical school. He has practiced in California for some time.

A large group of women of the Holland Country club enjoyed the bridge luncheon given at the clubhouse last week Tuesday. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock by the clubhouse cateress. Guests were seated at small tables. Beautiful flowers decorated the rooms. Mrs. Edwin Dodge and Mrs. William Eaton acted as hostesses. Mrs. Con DePree was the winner of the bridge honors in the group of Mrs. Dodge and Mrs. J. G. Van Leuwen won the club bridge prizes.

Four generations of the Steketee family, numbering about 225 persons, held their annual reunion at Jensen Park. Families from Holland, Grand Rapids, Zeeland, Fremont, Beaverdam and other places were present. Ancestry of the Steketee family is traced back to 1764. An unusual incident of historical interest is that the house in which Cornelius C. Steketee was born in 1801 still stands at Borselle, The Netherlands, and is occupied by one of the families of his descendants. Officers elected for the ensuing year are Dick Steketee, president; Dick Elenbaas of Zeeland, vice-president; Mrs. Dena Bos, secretary and Edward Westing, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Trompen of Grand Rapids entertained 28 guests at dinner at Pine lodge last week Tuesday evening. The dinner was in the nature of a farewell party for Dr. Albert Oltman and his two daughters, Evelyn and Jean, who will sail for Japan Aug. 15, and for Rev. and Mrs. H. Beltman of Grand Haven, who will leave soon for their new field in Los Angeles, Cal. Following the dinner Dr. Oltman gave a short address.

No improvement is reported in the condition of Mrs. James J. Danhof, of Grand Haven, wife of Judge Danhof, county probate judge.

YOUNG ATTENDANT TAKEN FOR RIDE, RELEASED AT LAMONT

Gerrit Dephouse, of Spring Lake, young attendant at the Duck Inn filling station half way between Muskegon Heights and Grand Haven, was taken for a ride and today lives to tell about it.

Two bandits, driving an old car, stopped at the filling station at 2 a.m. Saturday, and one of them, at the point of a gun, forced Dephouse to open the till. About $6.90 was taken.

They then forced Dephouse to enter their car and drove rapidly toward Grand Haven. A half hour later, Dephouse, his eyes covered by a bandage, was set out on the road at Lamont, Ottawa county. He called state police.

State officers already had been apprised of the robbery by the owner of the station. The bandits did not see a young man asleep on the floor behind the counter and as soon as they were gone, he pressed the button which rang a bell in the proprietor's home.

This is the third time that this station has been robbed in a year. A few months ago the proprietor shot at the fleeing car which was later found abandoned with several bullet holes in it.

Once before bandits robbed Dephouse and then stopped at the state police station at Grand Haven in an attempt to borrow a light bulb. Several minutes later, Dephouse came into the station to report the robbery and the officers on duty recognized the description as fitting the car and driver which had stopped a short time before.

BARNES, THE CIRCUS MAN, IS DEAD—SOLD OUT FOR A MILLION

The Al. Barnes circus has been in Holland repeatedly, that is when Holland could still support a circus. Al. Barnes always was with his show when it came to the city, but his circus days are over for he is dead.

In the seclusion and quiet of the desert, surrounded by a peace he had sought for years, Al. G. Barnes, dynamic showman of the circus, died at 5:45 a. m. Saturday.

Pneumonia and complications brought to an end his turbulent life. Time and again in the seven months since he came here seeking to cure a lung ailment, his life was despaired of, but each time he recovered, until a sinking spell beat down his lowered resistance.

The tall white-haired circus veteran was conscious almost to the last, attendants said. At his bedside was his third wife, Mrs. Margaret Goldsborough Barnes, former wife of a Colorado cattleman.

They married only last December in Phoenix, Ariz.

Two other women, former wives of Barnes, live near Los Angeles. They are Mrs. Dollie Barnes his first wife, and Mrs. Jane Barnes, his second wife, by whom he had his only children two girls and a boy. A sister, Mrs. Lydia Bishop, living in Michigan, is the only other survivor.

Around the first two wives and the circus was built the sensational life of Barnes from which he sought to escape two years ago when he sold out for a million dollars and began an almost secluded life at his home in Los Angeles.

Hardly a year of this quiet retirement passed before his health began to fail. From the time of his arrival here he was confined to bed almost constantly and a ranch where he lived was guarded to protect the quiet that he sought.

Scouts Have To Get New Camp Next Season

PETER NORG STATES A CAMP FURTHER FROM TOWN IS PREFERABLE

More than 60 Boy Scouts from the Ottawa-Allegan Area, have been enjoying the delights of life at Camp Mit-Chi-Gam-Mi, located on the former Thumm estate on Spring lake. Two weeks ago there were 45 boys in camp but Director Peter Norg, who is Scout executive for the area, reports the record number of 65 who were there during the week just past.

Although the Thum estate will probably only be used as a Scout camp site this year, the Spring Lake Yacht club being about to take it over for development, it constitutes an ideal spot except for its proximity to the towns of Spring Lake and Grand Haven, Mr. Norg says. He hopes next year to locate a more secluded spot, possibly in the wilder sections of Muskegon, Newaygo or possibly Oceana county. The council still owns the site of Camp McCarthy on the shore of Lake Michigan but of late the big lake has not been favored for camping purposes. The novelty of camping there has worn off after the first year or two, Mr. Norg of Holland states.

Every facility for recreation is provided the boys at Camp Mit-Chi-Gam-Mi. On the lake front, the former Thum boat house is used as a dock for the Scout cutter, used for overnight hikes and swimming parties. There are also rowboats and canoes for Scouts who have demonstrated proficiency in handling them, and for the training of those who are learning.

The central parade ground where group sessions and morning muster are held, is located in a clearing not far from the lake shore, surrounded by the caretaker's houses and camp headquarters tent. At either side are clusters of tents in which the various patrols are quartered. Some of the boys group in large army tents while others have a tent sleeping but two or three scouts. There is the camp store and commissary where candy and supplies may be purchased, tools secured for the handicraft work that each scout must complete in camp. The camp museum, converted from a recreation room of the former Thumm property, contains displays of scout handicraft and natural history exhibits, properly labeled.

There is also a mess hall, ball lot where teams from the scout camp and from Camp Cheboygan, a private boys' camp on Potawatomi Bayou play frequent games with the scouts usually being returned winners. Morning routine is pretty well set for those in camp although special permission may be secured for overnight hikes to the lake shore or expeditions into the surrounding country. In the afternoon the boys busy themselves with various occupations, some completing their handicraft or woodcraft work, others taking the archery range and some resting or reading. The afternoon swim is always part of the camp program and is followed at night by camp fire.

Mr. Norg as camp director is assisted by William Van de Water, also of Holland, and the following staff: Chester Le Shagway, in charge of water activities; Arthur Horning, of Holland, in charge of the museum; Dr. A. C. Glennie, nature lore; Leland Beach, Holland, handicraft and Isaac De Kraker, this city, camp mechanic. There are also a number of others who assist from time to time but who do not remain constantly at camp.

The camp will continue through August with a trip to Beaver Island in charge of Mr. Norg, as a diversion for the older scouts. This trip will give the boys an excellent chance to test their ability as scouts and bring into play a practical knowledge of what they have learned. A week at Camp Mit-Chi-Gam-Mi costs but little and the area scout organization is taking care of more campers this year than ever before.

Mrs. Peter Breen and Mrs. A. R. Timmerman entertained with a miscellaneous shower Friday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Breen, who will be an August bride. Buncos were played and prizes were won by Miss Ruth Breen and Miss Hermina Bouwman. The bride-to-be received many beautiful gifts. A dainty two-course lunch was served. Those present were Miss Gertrude Joderma, Miss Lois DeWeerd, Mrs. J. Meiste, Mrs. Oliver Peterson, Mrs. W. Van Etta, Mrs. Oscar Bontekoe, Mrs. H. Vander Kolk, Miss Lillian Dvkhuis, Miss Hermina Bouwman, Miss Ruth Smeenge, Miss Sena Gerding, Miss Ann Hamburg, Mrs. Peter Breen, Mrs. A. R. Timmerman, and Misses Nelle, Theresa and Ruth Breen.

Saugatuck, Douglas, Fennville and Vicinity

Mrs. Laura Ketchum of Holland, formerly of Ganges, returned to the home of her son, Charles, on West 13th street, Holland, last Sunday after being confined in the Holland hospital the past ten weeks with a broken hip.

The Fennville city council has bought a new pumping outfit for the new Maple-st. plant and station. This is the second pumping outfit the city has bought in six years, the first one being in use at the water works plant on property near the council rooms.

Campers from nearly every state in the union have camped at the Allegan county state park this summer, according to Fred O. Webb, in charge. And last Sunday, Webb says, a record crowd of bathers and picnicers were in the park. Campers from other states say Allegan county park is one of the best in the country. Next Sunday an even larger crowd came because of the county band concert. Webb predicts enlargement of the park if its popularity continues. The park is located on U.S.-81 near Ganges.

George Henry Plummer, 73, died unexpectedly at his home in Douglas on Thursday morning, July 16, 1931. Mr. Plummer suffered a slight stroke several weeks ago, but seemed to be recovering from it and was doing his work as usual. He died down town the day before his sudden death, and had been talking with his family only a few moments before the end came.

He was the oldest son of William and Julia H. Plummer and was born at South Haven, Michigan, on Oct. 15, 1858. When a very small boy he moved with his parents to Saugatuck living there a short time before they came and settled on what has always been known as the Plummer farm just south of Douglas. On Feb. 23, 1881, he was married to Miss Kate Graham of Douglas, who survives him. Two children were born to this union, Dean, who preceded his father in death, and Mrs. Erma Porter now of Allegan. Mr. Plummer was a member of the I. O. O. F. and of Dutch-Lodge F. & A. M. Funeral services were held from the home on Saturday afternoon conducted by Rev. Edward Humphrey of Saranac. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful and he was laid to rest in the beautiful Saugatuck cemetery beside his son Dean.

Claude Trudell, aged 55, was hurt severely Monday in the plant of the Pullman Manufacturing Company located south of Fennville. Trudell was preparing to saw a board in a power saw and the board was thrown at him and struck him on the side of the head. Dr. C. C. Corkill was called and had to remove a splinter from the skull and patient was in a dangerous condition. A helper, Cecil Bostater, 20, was struck by the board after it had wounded Trudell and Bostater's arm was badly injured.

Miss Anne Idema of Grand Rapids spent a week at the Saugatuck art colony and returned yesterday.

Miss Eleanor Hutchinson, 14, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus C. Hutchinson of Fennville, will enter the Allegan county fair queen contest.

OLIVE CENTER

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bosch and family of Borculo visited at the home of Jacob De Jongh Sunday evening.

Paul Banks and a friend from Indiana spent a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Banks last week, returning home again on Saturday.

Mr. Jacob De Jongh and his brother John from New Groningen, motored to Coleman last week and visited their brother Ed, and Mr. Thomas Watson, and other relatives for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Gil Vandenberg of Grand Rapids spent the week-end at the home of the latter's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kraai.

John Knoll has sold his farm to Jack Nieboer from Hamilton. Mr. Knoll expects to have a sale Saturday afternoon. The Nieboers will take possession Monday. Most of the Knoll children and their families met together at the old farm home Monday evening and spent a pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Overbeek and children from Holland, Mrs. Chas. Risselada and Mrs. Warren and children also from Holland visited at the home of H. Redder Wednesday.

CENTRAL PARK

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Dosker and son, Cornelius Jr., of Louisville, are guests of Mrs. Robert M. De Pree at her cottage at Central Park during August.

Rev. and Mrs. Anthony Karreman and family of Lansing, Ill., are occupying Mrs. A. Van Kuiken's cottage.

Rev. and Mrs. John Klaren of Roseland, Ill., will occupy the Van Zoeren cottage at Central Park during August.

Wilfred Bult of Chicago spent several days at Central Park with Mrs. Fred Dyk.

The Central Park association re-elected its officers for another year. A. Kronmeyer, president; G. Fletcher, vice-president; G. Dahlberg, secretary, and E. Schmalfeldt, treasurer. An effort is being made to get electric lights for the park.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kronmeyer are celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary this week with a party attended by 120 relatives and friends. Some are here from Passaic, N. J., Chicago, Grand Rapids, Flint, Kalamazoo and Muskegon.

Rev. Richard J. Vandenberg of Zeeland was master of ceremonies. The Central Park baseball team took the Corner Hardware's into camp Monday night to the tune of 8 to 7. The losers were unable to cut down the early lead that the Central Park boys had made. Then Fred Japiga of the Hardware's came up in the sixth with a man on base and hit a home run to tie the score. The Parkers made three in the seventh while the Corner Hardware's could make but two. Batteries: TeRoller and Heusing: R. Van Lente and Berkompas.

RENT US YOUR COAL BIN for the SUMMER

COAL is mined all summer in preparation for the winter's needs. This coal has to be stored.

You have an empty coal bin, so why not let us pay you rent for it all summer. If we fill your bin this month, you will be able to take advantage of our low summer rates... the money you save, you can chalk up as rent money for a coal bin that would otherwise remain empty.
