Mayor Bosch And Council For Second Road

LEAD FOR MAYORS LETTER... ALDERMEN UNANIMOUSLY SUPPORT RESOLUTION BY HENRY PRINS

If Successful Holland Will Have Two Roads to Saugatuck

The long debated new highway to Saugatuck and south via First avenue came up again rather unexpectedly after the matter had laid dormant for more than a year. At that time there was much agitation for and against the road, while those with resort property felt that a new road would divert tourist travel away from the district where the resorts are. Those who want the new road contend that the undesirable truck travel would be diverted from the resort highway onto the new highway and that should be pleasing to those who live and have property on the resort road. It is also held by advocates of the new road that resorters know where resorts are and will go to them just the same and will be pleased to get away from the truck travel.

The contention also is that the new road would tap a fertile farming and fruit country directly south of Holland, and furthermore, the complaint has always been that Holland never got its full quota of roads as compared with other cities in the neighborhood and every added road to the city's network of highways would mean just that much better access to the city.

Be that as it may, the mayor and common council have taken a hand in this road matter as will be seen by a message from Mayor Bosch below, which was unanimously approved through a resolution presented by Alderman Prins, chairman of the ways and means committee.

In this resolution a committee was appointed composed of the mayor, City Attorney Clarence Lokker, and Engineer Zuidema to handle this road matter. The message is self-explanatory and follows:

August 3, 1932.

To the Honorable, the Common Council of the City of Holland, Gentlemen:

I desire to call to your attention a matter of real importance to the citizens of Holland and of the surrounding territory to the south. After considerable debate and thorough consideration, the common council of the City of Holland at a special meeting held on the 23rd of March, 1932, approved the plans and specifications of the state highway department for the relocation of a portion of trunk line US-31, running south from the City of Holland about four and one-half miles through Fillmore township and connected up with the present so-called Saugatuck road. Mr. Willman of the state highway department was present at that meeting representing the state. This approval had been sought by the state highway department as early as Aug. 1, 1931. I need not go into details of what transpired between the state and the city, but it is a matter very well known to most of you. For some unknown reason these plans as approved by the council were recently tentatively changed by the state highway department. Suffice it to say that some influences have been brought to bear to defeat the wishes of the vast majority of the people interested in this project and an attempt made to cause the state department to abandon the new project.

A committee from Holland, consisting of Austin Harrington, a member of the Ottawa county road commission, the city engineer, city attorney, and your mayor held an interview with Gov. Wilbur M. Brucker and Grover C. Dillman, state superintendent of highways, at Lansing on Tuesday, July 26, 1932, for the purpose of protecting the interests of the City of Holland and having the original plans carried through. Arrangements were then made for this same committee to appear before the administrative board at their next regular meeting to have a hearing on the subject.

On Friday evening, July 29, at the request of the officers of Fillmore township this same committee appeared before a large gathering of property owners and persons of Fillmore township interested in this project. This meeting was attended by many enthusiastic parties and was a convincing demonstration that the people of Fillmore township wanted this improvement. So enthusiastic were the property owners along the north and south road that they agreed to donate such portions of their property as might be necessary to construct the new portion of the highway to a width of 100 feet. A resolution was passed at this meeting and the offer to donate was incorporated therein, which is now on file with the state highway department.

On Tuesday, Aug. 2, this same committee from Holland accompanied by a large representation from Fillmore township appeared before the administrative board and received a very courteous hearing by the board. The results of these efforts will only be known when the matter is finally disposed of by the state department.

In the meantime I believe this council should protest vigorously against any changes in the original plans and endeavor by every legitimate means to cause the state to keep faith with the City of Holland on the original proposition.

Trunk line US-31 is a very congested highway. It is used by all tourists as the only through route and is constantly used by citizens of Holland for pleasure drives along the lake to our resort section. Trucking along this route has become more and more extensive. The roadway is winding and with its many curves presents a dangerous road to motorists during heavy traffic. Eventually this road would have to be widened to accommodate the traffic which

"DANIELS" WERE AFRAID OF THE LIONS DEN

George Gets must have his little joke on his guests and it is generally a good one. While escorting the judges and federal clerks through his zoo, he stopped long at the cages of the two ferocious lions, lecturing in the meanwhile on the strength and ferocity of the "king of beasts." Near the cage was a large printed entry blank. Mr. Gets stated that one of the features during the banquet would be "wrestling the lion" and "would anyone enter in the contest?" The guests took one peep at the lion specimens and edged away from the entry blank to the more peaceful looking monkey cages. Even assistant judges had worried faces doubting Mr. Gets's sincerity. But the lion wrestling contest went through just the same. The cage was rolled up near the banquet and with expectation and some fear it was expected to spring from the lion's mouth and terrify the guests, but their fears were allayed when to their surprise the kittenish little lion, recently born, poked its little head through the opening and playfully ventured forth.

The little take-off brought a burst of laughter from the men and women. "Oh, ain't she cute?" from the ladies.

It was the high light at the Lakewood farm party and Riri seemed to enjoy her popularity to the fullest extent.

ALICE BOTER HELPS JUDGE PRETTY GIRLS AT ALLEGAN

Miss Marietta Killian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Killian, tonight was adjudged first in the Allegan beauty contest, which is preliminary to the main contest at the county fair, Aug. 29 to Sept. 2.

Miss Killian is 5 feet, 5 inches tall, weighs 108 pounds, has blue eyes and blond hair. She will be a junior in the Allegan high school this fall. She is active in Girl Scout and all school activities.

From a field of 25 contestants four girls were selected to represent Allegan in the county fair competition. The same kind of selection is being made in other communities of the county. The runner-up in the Allegan contest is Miss Mable Weaver. The other two girls chosen to represent Allegan are Miss Berna Mae McKinnon and Miss Jean Blum.

Our own Alice Boter was one of the judges and let us say right here that Miss Alice would give any lot of girls a run for their money when it came to personality and beauty.

Judges were Miss Evelyn Corstange of Kalamazoo, Miss Alice Boter of Holland and Arthur Gallagher of South Haven, all newspaper workers. Mrs. R. H. Pitzer worked with Henry Karstens, manager of the Regent theater, which sponsored tonight's contest, in arranging the program.

Edward Dawson. Rev. W. H. S. Demarest heads the committee as convener.

FENVILLE LAUGHS AT TAXES

The news that Fennville tax is now due may cause shivers to agitate your spine, but just stop and think how lucky you are to be living in Fennville, where our tax is now one half of last year — but five mills — to keep a first-class village running with all modern improvements; where the marshal's chief duty is pumping water twenty-four hours in the day. — Contributed.

THERE ARE ONLY EIGHTY OTTAWA CANDIDATES

Eighty candidates have qualified in Ottawa county for the nomination of congressional, state and county offices for the September primaries. The Republicans have two or more candidates for every office with the exception of George C. Borek for drain commissioner and Carl T. Bowen for surveyor, who are unopposed, while the Democrats have placed a full ticket in the field from probate judge to county surveyor.

Rev. John R. Mulder of West-

Trinity Theological seminary will have charge of both services at Trinity Reformed church Sunday.

would cause the loss of many beautiful and ornamental shade trees along the highway and destroy the natural beauty of the road, seriously affecting the desirability of the many permanent residences along the shores of Black lake.

The proposed new route would save through motorists considerable time and many accidents. It would take its course through a beautiful farming territory and add extensively to the interests of the citizens of Holland. If the greatest benefit to the greatest number of people is to be considered, then this new route must be obtained.

I should like to have this council pass a resolution tonight officially recognizing and approving the actions on the part of this committee, and to go on record in unmistakable terms as favoring the relocation of this portion of US-31, and to appoint this committee or some other committee as a permanent committee to follow up the efforts already made to secure the final adoption of the plans to relocate that portion of trunk line US-31 under discussion.

Respectfully submitted,
NICODEMUS BOSCH,
Mayor.

Getz Again Entertains Most Royally

UNITED STATES JUDGES AND COURT CLERKS SEE ZOO AND GARDEN GIVEN BANQUET

George F. Getz, host of Lakewood, has again put Holland on the map when at least 100 strangers from abroad came to this city and were royally entertained at Lakewood farm. Through the good offices of former Circuit Judge Orfen S. Cross and former City Attorney Charles H. McBride an outing at Lakewood farm was arranged to entertain members of the Federal Court Clerks' association, secretaries of judges and many of the judges themselves. This association is holding convention in Grand Rapids, but decided to spend an afternoon and evening at Holland and at Lakewood farm.

George, Sr., was assisted in the entertaining by George, Jr., and thing arranged to make things comfortable for the delegates.

Mr. Getz had a large arch built over the main walk which read "Welcome Federal Clerk Association." High over this arch "Old Glory" was majestically floating. The guests arrived early, at least 100 strong, and the Messrs. Getz, Sr. and Jr., personally conducted the jurists, clerks, secretaries and their wives and sweethearts through the zoo and about the beautiful gardens. Tables had been arranged for a banquet at 6:30 around the concrete loop on Lake Michigan, and the American Legion band from Holland was present to furnish the music on this occasion. An improvised band stand festooned with flags and bunting was arranged by Mr. Petersen, Director Heeter and his able players gave a fine program of band music.

It was not a speaking program but more in the nature of an outing with liberal refreshments as one of the features. The ladies of the Eastern Star of Holland ably took charge of this part of the arrangement.

During an intermission in the banquet prizes for winners in the afternoon contests were awarded. Judge Fred M. Raymond of Grand Rapids was a guest.

Another among the prominent judges present and a special guest of Mr. Getz was Mr. Charles E. Woodward of Chicago. Judge James W. Wilkerson, the man who sentenced Al Capone, was also to have been present, but sent notification that unforeseen matters prevented his being there.

Orrie J. Sluiter, clerk of the federal court of Grand Rapids, and Attorney Louis Oosterhuis, chairman of the Ottawa County Bar association, were also present to assist in welcoming the guests.

Many of those present had never been in this part of Michigan before and their surprise was unbounded and their praise was unstinting. That they will come again goes without saying.

Host Mr. Getz was remembered when Attorney Charles McBride presented him with a large toy ball-bearing windmill. It was a beauty and a thoughtful remembrance of the guests to a "perfect host" as "Mac" put it. During the banquet an old Italian organ grinder and his "monkey" threaded their way between tables to the amusement of the folks present.

Judges Raymond and Woodward and Mr. Scully were among those to brave a ride on the swaying back of Nancy, the zoo's huge elephant.

After the banquet Mr. Getz presented numerous prizes for official and unofficial contests held during the afternoon. They were as follows:

Bathing beauty contest, won by Miss Roxey Brogan, Knoxville, Tenn.; elephant riding, Judge Raymond, first, and Mr. Scully, second; golf, Miss Helen Sweeney of South Bend, Ind., first, and Mrs. Mary Northrop of Chicago, second; person from the farthest distance, Mrs. M. Steele of Fargo, N. Dak.; dancing, Mrs. Ollie McDevine, Covington, Ky.; woman's division in elephant riding, Mrs. Helen Lochmeyer of South Bend, first, and Miss Peris Nichols of Grand Rapids, second; best singer, William Roland of Philadelphia, Pa., and smoothest talker, Mr. Gardner. Guest prizes were awarded Mrs. Woodward and Mrs. Raymond.

The Congregational Ladies' Aid is sponsoring a benefit program to be given by the Black Box Players at the high school auditorium at Saugatuck, Tuesday evening, Aug. 9.

The Allegan Fruit & Produce Co. began buying pickles last week. O. L. Hayward, one of the proprietors, said a large acreage is being grown in this section but that owing to the cool nights the crop is below normal.

Stickup Pair Pull New Stunt

A hold up was staged on US-16 in Coopersville by a girl, about 16, and two men, when William Stearns, Muskegon Heights, a truck driver, was stopped and searched for money. Stearns noticed a girl on the highway waving a flashlight and an empty gasoline can, and supposed someone was out of gas. He stopped and got down from the truck prepared to give assistance, when two men stepped out of the dark sticking guns on either side of him. They frisked him for money, but found none.

Stearns, just before he alighted from the truck, slipped his pocketbook under the seat of the car. Another truck coming from Grand Rapids bore down upon the holdup men and they released Stearns, telling him to get on and not to squeal. He resumed his trip, stopping long enough to tell the state police. They went to the spot but were unable to get any information leading to the apprehension of the holdups.

The men and girl were not masked and all were fairly young, Stearns stated.

Grand Haven Spends $28,000 For Welfare

FUND IS IN RED $10,000. WILL BE ECONOMIC SO THERE IS NO OVERLAPPING

Grand Haven Tribune.—The Grand Haven city council will look to the board of public works for welfare funds before attempting any other means of raising the necessary amount of money to meet the welfare situation in this city. At the invitation of City Attorney Charles E. Misner, the council and board will gather at the Hotel William M. Perry within a few days to discuss the matter and to arrange funds, if possible, with the board rather than issue bonds, the only other procedure which was laid before the council Monday night.

According to the city manager who made the report from the welfare fund, the city's welfare fund is in the red $10,000.23 now and there is no money in the account. The actual expenditures for welfare the work last year was $28,325.58. This amount together with an overdraft of over $5000 shows the total amount to be $33,333.81. According to the present demands at least $20,000 will be needed next year.

The appropriation for last year was $10,000. This year it is $15,000. The $5000 borrowed by the Grand Haven council a few weeks ago must be paid within a short time as one half the amount is due now.

The city attorney suggested emergency bonds are not to be had to be ratified by the people, as one method of raising money. Alderman Boon suggested the board of public works be asked to assist. He described the situation as a husband and wife in the same family. If one has money and the other hasn't then it is the duty of the one who has to assist the one who needs funds.

It was pointed out by Mr. Misner that one of the reasons the public works board did not accede to Mr. Watson's plan to build a new hospital some time ago was the belief that the board would have to assist the welfare situation.

Mr. Kammeraad stated that he believed $2500 would be sufficient to meet the needs until the tax money were available for the new budget which goes into effect Oct. 1st.

Despite the fact that Grand Haven is in debt and will probably have to dip into the other municipal board funds, this city is by no means in as bad a situation as are hundreds of other cities.

Mr. Misner suggested that inquiry be made into the Federal plan of the reconstruction finance committee relative to getting funds for this type of work. It was pointed out that the light plant is a money maker for Grand Haven and as such the funds should be utilized for the benefit of those who actually need it.

The date of the joint meeting has not been set.

BIBLE SCHEME IS REVEALED

Good times and bad, the Bible remains the world's best seller and petty racketeers are using that fact in a lucrative easy money scheme, investigators said today. Obtaining names from obituary columns, the operators visit a widow, express surprise at learning her husband is dead, and tender their sympathy. Then they remind the bereaved that the departed "ordered" a Bible. The widow then usually pays — double price.

Local Police "Mop-Up" Young Hold-Up Men

JUDGE MILES QUICKLY GIVES THEM A PRISON TERM

Chief of Police Peter Lievens and his men were instrumental in catching three young "stick-up" youths, who, late Saturday night endeavored to relieve John Tupper, owner of a delicatessen store on Columbia avenue, of his week-end receipts which amounted to about $70.

Three young men were involved and one caught from Holland, namely Lorenzo Trevan, who is 16 years old and lives on East 16th street. The other two in the hold-up were George Shaganoby and Lawrence Mex, both age 16, of McDonald, Michigan.

Chief Lievens was tipped off that a hold-up was to take place although he was not sure of his information. He kept vigil, nevertheless, at the point where the hold-up was supposed to take place. He took with him Officer Neal Plaggenhoef and stationed the police car near 16th street and Columbia avenue. They spied the three young robbers about an hour before Tupper closed his place of business. They saw the youths sneak behind some bushes in the neighborhood. Both Lievens and Plaggenhoef left their car, crept near to the hiding place, remaining in the dark. They saw Tupper close his store, walk toward the bushes where the robbers were secreted, and when opposite the hiding place, saw the youths with gun in hand jump in front of the unsuspecting shop-keeper, telling him to "stick 'em up."

At that juncture the officers got busy, tip-toed behind the four on the sidewalk and Chief Lievens told them to stand still and put their hands aloft.

Instead the three "ducked" west on 16th street and the minions of the law began popping away at the fleeing hold-up boys. No shots took effect, however, for the officers feared the strayed shots might crash through the windows or hit pedestrians who soon congregated. Chief Lievens, however, recognized one of the youths named Trevan and went directly to his home, where, as they suspected, they found the youngster in bed, but there was plenty of evidence that he had just crawled in. Both officers gave the youngsters "third degree work" and he "spilled the beans" after first denying knowledge of the hold-up. He took the officers to the barn where a gun was placed in hiding, between a partition and a false moustache, presumably as a disguise, was also placed up as well as another mask.

Trevan was then taken to police headquarters where he told the names of the other two participants. The officers, accompanied by Frank Van Etta and Frank Wierda, began a search of the city and they found that two persons had walked the tracks to Waverly. They then entered a box car filled with tramps but none answered the descriptions of the two missing bandits. From there the two officers made a quick trip to St. Joseph and Benton Harbor where gathering places for hoboes were inspected. After notifying police in the twin cities, they drove to Hartford, near McDonald, and then to McDonald to notify authorities that the two youths were sought.

The two officers returned to Holland at noon Sunday after the night and morning of activity. After about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Hartford police in a communication here said they were holding the youths, who had been apprehended in McDonald. Officers Peter Bontekoe and Benjamin Kalkman were dispatched to return them to this city.

Police learned the youths had boarded a passenger train here and had ridden on the roof of a car to Hartford Saturday night.

Quick justice was meted out to the three youngsters Tuesday afternoon by Judge Miles.

New England's Re-Employment Plan

What is called New Hampshire's plan for the re-employment of 3,000,000 wage workers has been discussed and approved by a conference of New England employers, labor leaders, economists and industrial engineers. President Hoover has been requested by that body to call a national conference at which the plan may be explained and encouragement given to its acceptance in every section of the United States.

Voluntary sharing of such work as is available or will be available next fall and winter is the essence of the plan. The cost of production is not to be increased; wage scales are not to be reduced, but the hours of labor are to be shortened and under the guidance of experts work is to be spread as widely as practicable. Those already employed will not be asked to sacrifice their living standards, but so far as is possible without injustice being done to them and their families, the jobs will be shared.

The depression, as many are aware, has led not a few employers to adopt the policy of spreading work. But thus far this policy has been strictly empirical and individual. The New England conference proposes that it be given scientific backing, made co-operative and applied extensively and systematically from now on until there is definite recovery of American and world industry and trade.

The idea is practical and constructive. Present conditions of unemployment with the resulting evils pleaded powerfully in favor of its general application.

SPRING LAKE TENNIS
TEAM BEATS OTTAWA

A tennis tournament between Spring Lake and Ottawa Beach players was held yesterday at the Spring Lake country club, the Spring Lake team defeating the Ottawa Beach players on total points. The scores were as follows: Harold Dornbos, 5-7, 6-4, 7-5; Bert Hathaway, Spring Lake, 6-3, 6-1; Joe Zeimet, Spring Lake, 6-3, 6-1; John Tyse, Ottawa Beach, 6-2, 6-3.

In the doubles play Hathaway and Kortlander, Spring Lake, 6-2, 6-4; Tom Toole and Ray Johnson, Ottawa Beach, 6-4, 4-6, 6-1.

The tournament was arranged by Bert Hathaway and Bob Kortlander. The team will play again at the Kent Country club courts, Grand Rapids, and a return tournament will probably be played at Ottawa Beach before the season is over.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Probate Judgeship

IRVING J. TUCKER HAS
LEGAL MIND FOR
PROBATE JUDGESHIP

Irving J. Tucker, Republican candidate for judge of probate for Allegan county, was born in East Saugatuck, Manlius township, Allegan county, and has been a life-long resident there.

Despite his affliction caused by infantile paralysis covering a period of thirteen years, through sheer grit he worked his way through school, graduating with honors from Holland High school in 1925. He also received his A. B. degree at Ann Arbor from Michigan in 1929, completing two years of law course at the University of Michigan law school, which equips him with the knowledge of law absolutely necessary in handling the many cases that demand fair judgment as these come up in probate court, which largely deals with widows and children who have no knowledge of technical law points.

Mr. Tucker is a member of the Christian Reformed church at East Saugatuck and has been a worker in the church.

Mr. Tucker has another decided advantage in the fact that he speaks both the English and the Holland language. There are still a great many instances in Allegan county, at least where the older folks prefer to discuss matters in the Holland language.

The primaries in Allegan county will be September 13, and Mr. Tucker's friends solicit your support for his candidacy for probate judge at this time.

VALUABLE ROBINS

Grand Rapids Herald—Our urban neighbor, R. J. Fisher, has been witnessing an interesting exhibition of the robin's value to mankind. Small white grubs have been eating Cain with the Fisher lawn. Large brown blotches marked the location of their ravages. One day Fisher discovered a robin digging into one of these brown spots. In a couple of seconds out came a big grub, and down doh'n's throat it went. Fisher continued to watch. The robin would stand with their heads cocked on one side as if listening for the sound of grubs working under ground. Then they'd pounce on the chosen spot, dig into the grass and, when their bills emerged, another grub would be out of luck. The result no more grubs in Fisher's lawn.

Rabbit Nests Hard To Find

YOUNG BLIND, HELPLESS AT BIRTH

Cottontail rabbits are the most common game animals in Michigan. Every fall and winter thousands of them are taken by the hunters. But the sight of a nest of young rabbits, cleverly concealed by a wad of down and grass, is not nearly as common as you might suppose. In fact the nest of Molly Cottontail is seldom found except by accident, or when farmers are mowing their fields.

In a slight hollow in an open field, Molly Cottontail builds the home for her little ones. She lines it with grass and roots and plucks soft down from her own breast with her own sharp teeth to give it a final lining that will be smooth and warm. When her little ones are born they are blind squirming mites of pink flesh. Sometimes there are four, sometimes there are six or seven, or even eight in the litter.

When born, the young rabbits are entirely helpless and nearly naked, but they grow rapidly. Soon the gray fur begins to appear, and in two weeks, they are running hither and thither, and in a month, they will be independent of mother Molly, making their own ways in the world.

During the first few weeks of their life, however, they are closely guarded by the mother. When she leaves them, she covers the nest with a wad of down and grass, and cleverly conceals it that it is much harder to find than the nests of many songbirds.

The rabbit has several litters during the summer, which makes possible its abundance. It is estimated that some 25,000,000 rabbits are killed every year in the United States.

MAYO HADDEN TAKES OVER SUPER-SERVICE STATION AT RIVER AND SIXTEENTH STREET

Mayo Hadden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hadden of Eleventh street and Pine avenue, has bought the Holland Super-Service Station at the corner of River avenue and Sixteenth street, conducted for some time by Charles Van Zyl.

As a boy Mr. Hadden went through our public schools, graduated from high school, and was prominent in athletics.

After his marriage to Miss Leenhouts, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. Leenhouts, the family left the city. For two years Mr. Hadden was with the Studebaker company at South Bend and for the past five years was branch manager of the Vacuum Oil company at Chicago, specializing in the management of the largest super-service station in that city.

Mr. Hadden is also a graduate of Michigan as civil engineer and has spent two years in France as an overseas soldier in the air service.

Mr. Hadden and family longed to come back to Holland and seeing this opening took advantage of it, and states that his experience as an engineer and a specialist in lubricating products will stand him good stead in this new venture.

He said that he intends to make it headquarters for "carefree motoring," and that it will be a one-stop station where everything to a car can be taken care of from simonizing to oiling, washing and "gasing." Expert mechanics will be constantly on hand, taking care of car repairing, using the most approved methods, and Mr. Hadden wants it distinctly understood that he is not selling new cars, but will service any make of car efficiently and without any delay.

Mayo Hadden extends a cordial invitation to the motorists of Holland and vicinity and the tourist public. Watch for his quarter-page announcement in the next issue of the Holland City News.

A "Firm"

The name "firm," as applied to a business establishment, is from the Latin "firmare" to confirm by signature. Gradually the meaning changed until it meant those who signed business letters—the "firm."

Grows in Many Places

The pecan is one of the most cosmopolitan of all the native trees. It grows well on high, dry lands, in clay, loam and light sandy soils, and in river bottoms where water does not stand during the growing season.

Dignity in Animals

A game bird or animal can be excessively cautious, strangely timid. But it is never cringing. When in secret hiding, it maintains a certain aristocratic distinction. The only true elegance, indeed, is natural behavior.—American Magazine.

Filed A Huge Petition

Five thousand names are required on a petition for nomination of a gubernatorial candidate in this campaign, but last Saturday this petition for Gov. Brucker was deposited with the secretary of state and it bore 202,000 names. Delegations were present from several cities and hundreds of persons from all about the state. There were bands and speeches, a reception and luncheon, and the Brucker campaign was started with immense enthusiasm. Senator Pulver of Owosso was master of ceremonies. He is to manage Brucker's campaign for the nomination.

RESORT SLIGHTLY OR UNSIGHTLYNESS

To judge by some of the common public sights this time of year, a summer resort is one who has an idea that it is cute to appear in public in articles of dress or undress, in which they would not care to be seen in their own home town. Fortunately the day of horse-drawn vehicles has passed, or some of the "costumes" would cause a lot of smash-ups and runaways.

NEW FIRE ALARM AT ZEELAND SOUNDED FOR FIRE

The Zeeland new fire alarm has been tested at a real tryout as two alarms for small fires were reported on the same day.

Damage in both fires was very normal, but the alarms sent in served to prove the efficiency of the siren, bringing out the fire crew in a very short time as well as summoning numerous spectators from every part of the city, indicating that the whistle was well up to requirements.

The first fire alarm was turned in for a blaze on the roof of the Harm Kromedyk residence on South State St., which was put out before the firemen arrived.

A few hours later the signal was again given for a second time calling the department to the farm of Gilbert Van Hoven on North State St. road, where a stack of straw had caught fire. This blaze was the result of a small bonfire, the flames of which had spread through the dry grass. Owing to danger from sparks to the farm buildings across the road, the department was called but little could be done beyond keeping the fire from spreading further through the dry grass.

Did You Ever Catch A Funny Fish?

Did you ever catch a fish that you or your friends could not identify? Are the fish in your favorite fishing waters afflicted with some disease or did you ever find a dead fish and wonder what killed it?

If so, send the specimen to the Institute for Fisheries Research, University Museum, Ann Arbor, and not only will curiosity be satisfied but the Institute will probably obtain information that will assist others in identifying fish and will give data in carrying on fish investigations.

Fish sent to the Institute for identification or examination should be packed in ice in a paper lined wooden box or preserved in a solution of one part of formaldehyde to ten parts of water. Large fish be slit on the side when preserved in solution.

When a situation is acute; that is when fish seem to be dying in large numbers from pollution or some other cause, a report should be made immediately to the local conservation officer or to the Lansing office of the Department of Conservation.

Futile Suggestion

Their entertaining but a nuisance at this time of year. Red squirrels make life miserable for nesting birds and are accountable for the destruction of many nests.

Sells His Blood As a Matter of Business

German unemployed are making a business of selling their blood to hospitals for transfusion purposes. The popularity of this latest avocation has caused the price to be paid for a pint of human blood to take a sudden drop.

Among Berlin's unemployed who have resorted to this last possibility of earning something on the side, in addition to their dole, Herr Walter Leske holds the record. Within two years his veins have been tapped forty-seven times by physicians.

Herr Leske, like many of his colleagues, wanders through Germany on foot. He is reputed an excellent business man. When he is out of cash he simply walks to the nearest hospital and asks if the doctors want to buy some of his blood. He willingly offers a sample free of charge and if it comes up to requirements he invariably earns enough to enable him to reach the next city.

Paris License on Princess' Automobile Stuns Traffic Cop

A bewildered Chicago policeman pondered over the strangest auto license he had ever seen and the Princess M'Dvni almost missed her first aria in "Herodiade."

The princess, known to opera-goers as Mary McCormick, was late in leaving home for the matinee performance and her yellow imported car sped along LaSalle St. at forty miles an hour.

Edward Albright, her chauffeur, ignored a stop signal in his haste to reach the Civic Opera House before curtain time.

Policeman Oreville Berkeley, not an opera fan himself, overlooked her highness' car at Chicago av. The princess protested in vain. When the policeman saw the French license plate—2477 C. F. L.—the singer foresaw technicalities and abandoned her car for a taxi.

She reached the opera house in time for the curtain. Her chauffeur will appear Thursday in Traffic Court to explain why opera singer and royalty should have the right of way.

Rev. and Mrs. D. Zwiers and son, John, have left for Iowa, where they will spend ten days visiting relatives.

MISSIONARY WORKER WILL RETURN SOON FROM WINNEBAGO INDIANS

Miss Anna Elenbaas, who has been a missionary worker at the Winnebago mission of the Reformed church of Zeeland, for the past seven years, spoke briefly on the wonderful opportunities for work among the Indians of Nebraska at the Sunday evening service at Second Reformed church. Remarkable progress has been made in recent years in Indian work and great encouragement is felt as a backward look is made. The Indians are appreciative and look eagerly to missionaries for direction and help to live an upright life. Miss Elenbaas cited several remarkable incidents of outstanding transformation in the life of Indians. Lives of worthwhile service have taken the place of debauchery and vice in many instances. Miss Elenbaas is the daughter of Peter Elenbaas of this city, and she plans to return to Nebraska in the near future to continue work after a six weeks' vacation spent with relatives and friends in Zeeland and elsewhere.

GRAND HAVEN TAXES MUST BE PAID BY SEPT. 14 IF PAYER WOULD ESCAPE PENALTY

Grand Haven Tribune: Tax notices are being sent out by the city treasurer of Grand Haven to property owners in the city. They must be returned by Sept. 14 if the taxpayer would escape the four per cent penalty. There is $126,178.97 to be collected in city taxes, which on the assessed valuation of $7,478,472 makes a rate of $15.60 or 40 cents lower than last year.

After the September date a 12-day allowance is made to those who have failed to meet their tax bills, which brings the final date to Sept. 26 before the tax unpaid is declared delinquent and the amount is put on the winter tax rolls, which includes state, county, school and road taxes.

The custom of dividing the taxes in two periods has met with favor for a number of years, although there are many who would like to see the school tax taken care of at this season.

Road Blows at Coopersville

Pavement on U.S.-16, a short distance east of Coopersville, blew up the other day due to the extreme heat. The pavement raised up about a foot and a half across the width of the highway. One accident was caused by the blow up, in which one person was knocked unconscious when the car hit the spot. The names were not learned.

Bennett Gas and Oil Station immediately sent guards to the spot to warn all drivers, and kept a man there until relieved by the regular employees of the Ottawa county road commission. The pavement was repaired without delay.

These blowouts occur in this county when subjected to unusual heat and the road employees are powerless to prevent accidents of the kind. The public is warned to be careful in driving as the sudden expansion occurs within a moment's notice and is liable to take place at any time.

Catch Sardines at Night

Night is the best time for sardine fishing for it is then easier to locate the fish. In swimming through the water they disturb myriads of microscopic organisms which glow like fireflies and so enable the fishers to detect the presence of their prize.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

GIBSON FARMER IS ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Wesley Mize, 63, prominent Allegan county farmer, was accidentally shot and killed on his farm, 3 miles north of Saugatuck on U.S.-31 at noon yesterday.

Mr. Mize had been in the fields driving away blackbirds with a shotgun. When he returned he placed the gun against a wall of a barn, and it is thought that the weapon fell and thus was discharged. He died instantly. Surviving are the widow, Ida; a son, Samuel; a daughter, Roxie, and the father, who lives near Chattanooga, Tenn. Mr. Mize had lived on his large farm for 20 years.

HOLLAND INDUSTRIAL SHOW NOT TO OPEN UNTIL SPRING

Decision to delay opening of the proposed all-year exhibition of locally manufactured products was announced yesterday by Vaude Vandenberg, chairman of the committee.

The project, proposed by Dr. E. D. Dimmett, former president of Hope college, at a Rotary meeting three weeks ago has been considered by a Chamber of Commerce committee. With arrangements made to rent the Van Ark building on Eighth street, and the main floor almost entirely rented, it was considered advisable to delay opening until April 1. Original plans had called for opening by the end of this week. This will be in ample time for next summer's resort season.

PHILLIP VAN DONGEN RECEIVES INJURY TO EYE

Phillip Van Dongen, about 68 years old, who lives at Grand Haven, seriously injured an eye when a piece of wood with a nail in it struck him directly in the eyeball. Mr. Van Dongen was at his home cutting up a board when the accident happened. He is under a doctor's care but expects to go to Ann Arbor for treatment since it is believed he will lose the sight in that eye.

Many Allegan people have purchased in winter season mushrooms grown on a "farm" near Holland. For a time the business was a satisfactory one but worms finally infested the beds to such extent as to ruin them. The owner had met other reverses of fortune which so affected him that he committed suicide. One might eat wormy mushrooms and never know the difference just as people used to eat cheese, "skippers" and all, with no perception of unusual taste, but one doesn't really care to do so. All wild mushrooms are infested by worms when they pass a certain age and are ready to pass out. These are easily discoverable by eyesight. So look over the mushroom you buy, pull off the stems, and if you see at the broken place some "pinholes" running into the tops, either eat them or reject them as you may feel inclined.—Allegan Gazette.

The Allegan city waterworks are pumping fully three million gallons of water per day which is more than one-third as much as the Kalamazoo works supply. So far there has been no need of restrictions on use of the water for sprinkling nor any other purpose; and it is the best public water in the state, so declared by the state board of health.

Football Too Strenuous

Football was played in England as early as the Ninth century. By the Fourteenth it had become a national problem because of its brutality, and the game was prohibited by royal edict.

Tribute to Journalism

The journalist is always working against time, and I sometimes think there is no more wonderful achievement of our modern civilization than the production of a newspaper.—Neville Chamberlain.

The Never Failing Key To Success Is — Save Wisely

Q That a savings account in a well regulated bank is the foundation to monetary success is time proven. It never has failed to be true.

Q The perils of speculation—the hollowness of lavish [not judicious] spending, contrasted with the saneness of building up a reserve at the First State Bank, are obvious at half a glance.

Gulf Gas	1	6	.143

The Holland Boosters blew up in the sixth inning last Wednesday and exploded their previous perfect record by bowing to the Pure Oils on a 9 to 4 count.

Van Lente hit a double with the bases loaded and drove in 3 runs to bring the Boosters out of the hole in the seventh inning and eventually defeat the Mossers, 6 and 5 in the greatest battle of the season.

After leading for eight innings the Dutch Boys went down before the rally of the Pure Oils in the ninth inning and the final score was 6 and 5 for the Oils.

The Gulf Gas crew outthit the Phillips, 11 and 10, but failed to make the circuit so many times that they lost the game on a 10-to-2 score.

The Dutch Boys took their first victory for the second half of the City League by defeating the Phillips nine, 5 and 3.

Increasing cloudiness darkened the field so much that the Mossers-Gulf Gas game was called at the close of the sixth inning, but not before the Mossers had run up an 8 to 1 lead.

Schedule for Coming Week.
Friday, Aug. 5—Pure Oils vs. Gulf Gas.

Saturday, Aug. 6—Dutch Boy Breads vs. Holland Boosters.

Monday, Aug. 8—Pure Oils vs. Phillips "66."

Tuesday, Aug. 9—Mossers Leathers vs. Dutch Boys.

Wednesday, Aug. 10—Gulf Gas vs. Holland Boosters.

Thursday, Aug. 11—Pure Oils vs. Mossers Leathers.

The Dutch Boy Breads are playing a double header Saturday. After playing the league game with the Boosters, they have engaged an encounter with the Grand Haven All-Stars.

The Grand Haven nine has appeared in Holland several times this season and has walked off with a couple of victories. The last time the All-Stars were here they took down the Phillips "66."

This Saturday will be a return game for the defeat the Dutch Boys took at their hands a month ago at Grand Haven. The locals have broken their long string of defeats and feel on the upgrade. Either Zorhof or Vander Brink will do the pitching for the Breads.

A score of 97, considered high even for male applicants, was attained by Mrs. Weersing. Mrs. Weersing is taking over the office of her husband, John Weersing, who died about a year ago after having been in business here thirty years. She gained her knowledge of the business by assisting her husband.

TWENTY YEARS AGO SINCE TRINITY CHURCH WAS DEDICATED

Today the members of Trinity church are commemorating the building of their new edifice costing $17,000 at the time. Those on the dedicating program were Prof. J. E. Kuizenga, who delivered the principal address; Rev. Henry J. Veltman, pastor of First Reformed church, and Dr. G. J. Koljen, president of Hope college, besides Rev. John Van Peursem, the first pastor.

Trinity church had its first inception when a group gathered on Dec. 5, 1910, and met again at the home of George Hyma on Fine avenue for the second time. On March 9, 1911, some fifty old persons met to discuss the matter further.

On March 12, 1911, services were held in the old Hope-chapel and a Sunday school with 77 members was organized with Dick Stekotee as superintendent. Charles Dykstra was treasurer, and J. H. Kramer, secretary.

The church was organized and established officially April 11, 1911, and the new building, as printed in The News at that time, was dedicated in the early fall of 1912.

The church has had three pastors, Rev. John Van Peursem, now of Zeeland; Rev. Clarence P. Dame, now of Muskegon, and Rev. H. D. Ter Keurst, the present pastor.

At the time of the dedication there was a membership of 142; now there are 279 families and 799 communicants.

When the church was first formed it had a total membership of 87, with 45 families represented.

Members of the first consistory were: Prof. A. Raak, J. W. Oonk and Dr. H. J. Popen, elders, and Dick Stekotee, George Hyma and David Damstra, deacons. The consistory was installed May 7, 1911, with Rev. Van Arendonk in charge. Communion was celebrated for the first time by the new congregation on May 21 and was in charge of the late Dr. N. M. Steffens. The sacrament of baptism was administered for the first time May 14, 1911, when Evelyn Mae Kooyers and Preston Stekotee Luidens were baptized.

On July 8, 1912, the first relief society was organized and its officers were N. Essenburg, president; Anthony Van Ry, vice president; Charles Dykstra, secretary, and George D. Albers, treasurer.

SUPERVISOR DAMSTRA RUNS FOR SHERIFF

Zeeland Record—Peter G. Damstra, senior partner in the plumbing and heating business of Damstra Bros. in Holland, is announcing his candidacy for the office of sheriff on the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Damstra has served the county for a number of years as supervisor, and had not thought of undertaking a campaign for the shrievalty until his friends added insistence to persuasion. He is very frank in stating his political policy when he says in his announcement that he is committed to the principle of no more than two terms for an office holder unless there is no opposition registered from the party endorsing him.

Gravel Roads
Suffer Badly
From EconomyHIGHWAY LACK IN DUST LAYER
AND SCRAPING ARE DAMAGING CARS

G. H. Tribune:—As the county is not providing dust layer for the county gravel roads as a measure of economy, many private property owners are laying the dust at their own expense and requests have come to the Ottawa county road commission to instruct their employees not to scrape the road during the season. The board has acceded to their wishes as far as possible with the result that many roads are becoming very rough and a menace to motorists.

At the meeting of the board this morning the matter was discussed and Carl Bowen, county engineer, was instructed to use his judgment in handling the situation. If he believes it necessary to scrape the road for the benefit of motorists, he will do so. Reports have come of broken springs, bumped heads and other minor difficulties arising from the rough roads.

Six new picnic tables and benches were ordered for Tunnel Park, which is becoming one of the most popular parks on the lake and the only county park in the county. The park is located near the Gots farm on Lake Michigan shore. There were already 32 tables, but the great crowds this summer have made it imperative that more accommodations be provided.

HEALTH BOARD HOLDS
REGULAR MEETING

A monthly meeting of the board of health was held Monday. It was made known that restaurant owners here have been notified that persons handling food in their establishments must obtain certificates of health by Saturday.

In the annual examinations 59 persons have been given medical inspection and all have passed. Dr. William Westrate, health official, stated.

One case of malarial fever was the outstanding contagion during the month of July, it was reported. A total of 18 cases of contagious diseases were reported during the month; 5 cases of mumps, 13 cases of measles and 1 case of malarial fever.

Has Contests In
Both PartiesREPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS WILL FIGHT FOR
PLACE IN SEPTEMBER
PRIMARIES

For the first time in many years Allegan county voters may not only cast their ballot for either a Republican or Democrat, but may also have their choice of Democrats. While there has often been a Democratic ticket in the field this year is the first time in recent history there have been contests in that ticket. This year in many offices there are more contests in the local Democratic ticket than in the Republican.

Nearly sixty candidates had filed their intention of running for county and state offices here when the date for filing closed Tuesday. Only one candidate filed on an independent ticket.

Most eagerness was shown for the offices of judge of probate and sheriff, seven Republican candidates filing for each office with one candidate on the independent ticket for sheriff.

Petitions filed included those of the following:
State Representative—Fred Wade, Saugatuck, present incumbent; Arthur Odel Trowbridge; Floyd Barden, Ganges, Republican; Waldo W. Holbrook, Wayland, Democrat.

Distinguished Indian Died
Near Bradley

Many people do not know that the remaining Indians living near Bradley are the survivors of what once was a large settlement of them.

The Indian mission at Bradley was established about 1863 by James Selkirk, an Episcopalian minister whose name was given to the lake nearby. He remained there many years. A famous chieftain of that vicinity was Noonday. This was a literal translation of his Indian name. Indians west of Barry county were not warlike and never afforded any trouble; but Noonday served with the British under the great chief Tecumseh and he saw the latter killed in battle. When he grew old and sick he was taken to the Bradley mission by his fellows and he died there. Many of the Barry and Allegan county Indians removed to northern Michigan though a few of them stayed at Selkirk's and some went to near Hartford. Perhaps the few still in this county in Salem and near Hamilton were of the same Pottawatomie tribe. Noonday was a very capable man. Late in life he became converted to Christianity.

EVER SEE PARKEGONBISH LAKE?

Allegan Gazette:—Many readers have seen and admired it though under a different name. That is the Indian name for Gun lake according to a writer on "Indians in Barry County" in Michigan Historical magazine. It is said that Gun lake is a correct translation of the Pottawatomie name. Whether this is true it is unfortunate that the Indian name did not remain. "Gun" lake means nothing in particular while the Indian name would be distinctive. There is a legend, quite uncertain, that the name Gun is due to the finding of a quantity of firearms in the water. It seems rather improbable. Anyhow, why not now revert to Parkegonbish?

ALLEGAN HAVING TROUBLE WITH TRANSIENTS

Allegan Gazette:—At the instigation of local business men who are proprietors of dry-cleaning and laundry concerns in this city, the question of licensing out-of-town trucks entering Allegan to do business along these lines has been brought before the council. At a meeting of the council Monday of last week an ordinance passed its first reading providing for the licensing of such trucks which come to Allegan every week and take a considerable amount of money outside. The fee proposed is $20 per year. The second reading of this ordinance will come before the council August 1, after which twenty-one days must elapse before the proposal becomes a law. It is understood that bakery and other trucks coming here each day and taking business that would otherwise go to Allegan merchants will probably be licensed later.

NEW AIRPORT BEING PREPARED FOR SAUGATUCK

There is an airport being prepared on the Roger Reed farm on Richmond Road, near Saugatuck. The promoters are hoping and expecting this port to be one of the best licensed ports in the state. Three planes will be there over this week-end for commercial and pleasure flying.

Members of the Ladies' Bible class and home department of Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church entertained their husbands at a picnic at Tunnel Park Tuesday evening. A picnic supper was served at 6 o'clock, after which games were played.

Mrs. John F. Donnelly was pleasantly surprised by a group of friends at her home, 59 West Eighteenth street, Sunday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Refreshments were served and a social time was enjoyed.

MANY YOUNG MEN
GO WRONG; SENTENCED
BY JUDGE MILES

Arthur Clink, 19, and Malcolm Ferguson, 19, of Grand Haven, were sentenced each to one week in the county jail, $25 costs and placed on two years' probation by Judge Fred T. Miles Monday afternoon following their plea of guilty to a petty larceny charge.

The young men admitted taking a watch and $12 in money from a car parked on the north shore, all of which was proved to be under $50. The charge of grand larceny was changed to petty larceny. This is the first time Ferguson, a state-wide known tennis champion, has been in the tolls of the law. Clink has served at the state industrial school at Lansing and at Ionia. His probation from Ionia expired in March. He has been attending high school and has made good progress, it is said. Their confessions led to the uncovering of the gas ring, formed by boys in Holland, Grand Haven, Grand Rapids and Muskegon.

Other sentences meted out by the judge were: Julius Resner and Lawrence Schoening of Grand Haven, guilty of violation of the prohibition law, 30 days in county jail, two years' probation and costs of $25 each.

David Carey and Dale Charter of Grand Rapids pleaded guilty to breaking and entering in the night time. They confessed to robbing two oil stations at the junction of M-50 and US-31 and a barbecue stand near Camp Blodgett. They were living in a camp at the oval at Grand Haven. They have not yet been sentenced.

Our Sand Dunes
Considered Best
On "Big Lake"

ONCE CONSIDERED BARREN WASTE; NOW OUTSTANDING FEATURE FOR RESORTERS AND ARTISTS

The sand dune section of Michigan, for years considered as liabilities and which caused extensive studies to find means of making them productive are coming into their own — as focal points for those seeking recreation.

There has been a steady growth in the popularity of the state parks located in the sand dunes along the shore of Lake Michigan, and P. J. Hoffmaster, state parks superintendent predicts that eventually they will become the most popular as a class of the more than half hundred parks scattered in every corner of Michigan.

While the sand dune sections along the shore have always been popular with bathers they were not believed to have any other particular use. Today the dunes parks are crowded with campers. Campers who have pitched their tents on the sand seldom seek any other kind of camp, preferring the clean, soft sand and the excellent drainage that it affords, to hard, sodded ground.

The dunes also offer flora that is unique and unlike that found in any other section of the middle west, according to Mr. Hoffmaster.

The fact that the dunes provide the finest kind of play grounds for children is another reason why families are seeking the dunes parks for their vacation or weekend camping trips. These sand mountains are also highly favored by the artists in their work.

Because of this rapidly increasing popularity of the dunes parks, the supervised areas are being developed as rapidly as finances will permit. The Holland, Van Buren, Grand Haven and Muskegon parks, located in some of the finest dunes on Lake Michigan's shore now have the various park conveniences.

The upper peninsula has one dunes park — the Grand Sable banks near Grand Marais. The state now owns 1400 acres among the dunes separating the waters of Lake Superior from Grand Sable Lake.

Hollands To Hold Big
Rally; Holland Man Guest

Approximately 10,000 Hollanders from Kalamazoo county and vicinity are expected to attend the first annual picnic of the Knickerbocker club of this city, to be held at Summer Home resort, Long lake, Aug. the 18th.

Gov. and Mrs. Wilbur M. Brucker will be guests of honor and the governor will give an address on "Hollanders and Michigan." They will be escorted to the picnic grounds by a 100-piece military band from Camp Custer.

The Gas Refrigerator Is Forever Silent

Not the muffled sound of machinery running in oil, for it contains no machinery. The GAS REFRIGERATOR is noiseless when you install it and forever after, because there is nothing to cause noise.

The process which sets up an endless cycle of coolness in this marvelous refrigerator is as simple in action as a thermometer. A refrigerating fluid sealed hermetically, a trickle of water, a tiny gas flame. That's all.

The operating cost is very small—not only below that of other automatic refrigerators but less than any other refrigerator.

Come in and see our display of the GAS REFRIGERATORS.

The telephone is a valuable aid in securing

Employment

MANY persons who are "on call" for either temporary or permanent employment find that their telephones give them an advantage. For employers often summon those persons first whom they can reach easily and quickly by telephone.

And in emergencies, such as fire, accident or sudden sickness, your telephone is PRICELESS PROTECTION, enabling you to summon aid immediately, day or night.

Few things that you buy offer so much useful service and protection at such low cost as the telephone.

OTTAWA COUNTY FARM NOTES

By C. P. Milham

Will it pay to leave alfalfa seed cutting for seed this year? Conditions are less favorable for Ottawa farmers obtaining alfalfa seed than in the last four years. Moist soil, cool nights and heavy dews cause "slipping" of the blossoms and seed pods. To determine if alfalfa is setting or slipping look at bloom heads. If the heads are setting there will be developing special pods in older blossoms and alfalfa seed will result if crop is left. If the blossoms are falling or slipping, leaving a fine white thread there will be no seed and alfalfa should be cut for hay. Because of the failure of many clover seedings this year many are asking about fall seeding of alfalfa. Here are a few simple rules: Unless soil is neutral or alkaline it is a waste of time and money to seed alfalfa. Test soil first and see. Most soils require from one to three tons of lime or marl equivalent per acre applied six months or more ahead of seeding on sandy soil up to the middle of August. Use Hardigan, Grimm, Michigan or Ontario variegated seed. Sow with a nurse crop of half bushel of oats a barley per acre drilling north and south. Close every other drill hole so nurse crop rows will be fourteen inches apart. The use of 200 pounds per acre of an 0-8-24 or 0-20-20 fertilizer pays. Inoculate the seed with wet or jelly culture.

It is useless to seed on clay or heavy soil in the fall because due to frost the young seedlings will be killed. The dairymen's slogan should be "one acre of alfalfa for every cow on the farm." This will provide abundant hay of high protein content lowering the amount necessary of purchased concentrates and also provide summer legume pasture.

A meeting of southwest Michigan celery growers, managers of celery marketing organizations and agricultural agents was recently held at Allegan. The purpose of this meeting was to talk over marketing problems, competition, prices, trucking, freight rates, grading standards and laws, inspection, organization and storage.

Mr. Paul Kieft from the Grand Haven association presided at the meeting. Agricultural Agent Milham and four others besides Mr. Kieft attended from Ottawa county. A committee was appointed consisting of representatives from Ottawa, Kent, Muskegon, Van Buren, Kalamazoo, Barry and Allegan counties to plan a meeting to be held at a central point at a later date to continue further plans for organizing muck crop industry of Michigan.

Misses Josephine and Henrietta Johnson of Holland, and their brother, Louis Johnson of Hamilton, and Miss Grace Looman left Monday morning for Niagara Falls and other points of interest.

WIND AND WATER
Already political prognosticators are proclaiming that the campaigns leading up to the November elections this year will be more than ordinarily factual. They see the beginning of "a new era." Conditions are such, they say, that the people, as never before, want more facts and less ballyhoo.

There is no doubt about what the people want. Whether or not they get it is where the doubt comes in. They always have had to take what the political promoters and managers have handed them in hard times as well as in easy times. The Chinese have a system of goomany by which many of them regulate a large part of their lives.

Chicago union teamsters have been committing all kinds of "hijacking" crimes — slugging drivers and wrecking trucks — to discourage farmers and licensed truckers from bringing fruit and other products into the city without first paying $60 for a membership; and Chicago policemen pay no attention to this lawlessness. Now this form of opposition has broken out in Michigan. Maurice Martin of Fennville owns and operates a state licensed truck and last week he went to Hart to draw a load of cherries to the Michigan Cannery. After loading his truck he left the car a short time and when he started for home he noticed the car had no power and kept getting worse as he drove along. Examination showed that someone had filled the oil in the crank case with sand, causing the gear habbit to wear out. The guilty parties have not been discovered, but some truckers in the vicinity of Hart had recently been stopped by state officers because they failed to take out their special trucker's license and they were quite angry at outside truckers. — Allegan Gazette.

KINGFISH NOT ONLY FOUND IN RADIO, BUT IN STREAMS AS WELL
The Kingfish is something more than a radio character to the thousands of trout who live every summer in the feeding stations operated by the Department of Conservation. To them the Kingfish is symbolical of piscatorial authority and no feeding station is without several. The trout Kingfish seems born to rule, according to the Fish Division of the Department. An especially vigorous baby trout fortunate enough to obtain just a little more food than the others or to live near the head of the pond where the water is fresher and contains more minute creatures on which to feed, grows more rapidly than the others. Then he uses his strength to boss his fellows and keep them away.

At every feeding station, visitors see trout just as old but larger than all the others, lying near the head screens ready to grasp the choice flies, bug and small organisms carried down the stream. All the smaller trout are warned away and they must content themselves with the artificial food given them by the station attendant. As a result of the feudal system naturally established in a feeding station, when the ponds are seined in September many of the trout will be seven inches long and others but from two to three inches, and these smaller trout are in imminent danger of being consumed by their barbarous brothers.

JUDGE DANHOF Announces

IS APPRECIATIVE

Although it is generally known throughout the county that I am to be a candidate for renomination on the Republican ticket for Probate Judge of Ottawa county, I take this occasion to make a formal announcement, asking you for your kind consideration of my candidacy at the primaries in September.

Judges of probate everywhere have been retained in office for many years. In some counties, Kent for instance, Judge Higby has held that position for a score of years. Judge Smith of Shiawassee and Judge Hollander of Kalamazoo county are old experienced judges. One reason for this is that the judge in office is thoroughly acquainted, not only with all the details of an estate, and there are hundreds and hundreds of these, but he knows the legal technicalities surrounding those cases, being thoroughly acquainted with these facts, with little or no chance that injustice will be done the proper and legal heirs to these many estates. A new judge not familiar with these details, is at considerable disadvantage in breaking in new into these technical and legal affairs.

Another phase that needs considerable study and has to do with the probate office is the widow's pension. A judge already in office knows the conditions of such a family and their requirements, and is able to treat them justly, while at the same time safeguarding the taxpayers' money. This is the best is a difficult position where much injustice can be done, either to the recipient of a pension, or to taxpayers. My endeavor has been to handle these many cases as justly and equitably as I know how with the information I have.

Another matter in which a judge must act diplomatically, wisely and at the same time justly, is with our delinquent boys and girls. We must punish them to save them, but such punishment should be accompanied with the fullest measure of mercy as this is justifiable according to the case at hand.

There are a great many delicate situations arising in which young boys and girls become involved that are trying even for an experienced judge. Undoubtedly it is for these fundamental reasons, together with a great many others, which arise almost constantly, that probate judges are retained in Michigan and other states for an indefinite period.

It is a position that one must grow into, so to speak, and the legal technicalities are so varied and so many that one must really know the law thoroughly to judge wisely and justly, making decisions upon which there can possibly be no aftermath that might bring legal troubles to those who have interests in estates.

The office of Judge of probate deals largely with matters pertaining to widows and orphans, and if there is one class whose interests should be thoroughly safeguarded and who should be guided aright, it is these.

I take this opportunity to thank the citizens of Ottawa county for their kind cooperation during my tenure in office. If you feel that I have conducted this office as it should be conducted, then I ask you to give my candidacy your earnest consideration.

I thank you.
JAMES J. DANHOF,
Judge of Probate,
Ottawa County.

Sheriff Teed, Sheriff of Allegan county, announces that in connection with a state-wide brake test and equipment inspection of automobiles during the month of August local garages will be designated to make such inspections. Garages wishing to handle this work should get in touch with the sheriff at once. Posters designating the official garages for the inspection, also stickers for the windshield of inspected cars will be provided. There will be no charge for the examinations and testing of equipment, although charge for any necessary repairs will be made at regular rates. On the first of September inspection of all cars will begin by the officers in the various communities.

Sunday's ball game between Pearl and the Pure Oils of Holland proved to be a pitcher's contest with Roy Henshaw getting the best of it. He struck out sixteen batters and the Holland pitcher disposed of nine the same way. Pearl won by a score of two to one.

The fine rains of the first of the week were most welcome as it was becoming quite dry; but it has been fine corn weather and there are some fine fields even in this fruit country. Edward Bailey, near Fennville, has one field that is a little better than any we have seen this year. A good alfalfa sod turned under and good cultivation did the trick.

The fishworm has its greatest appeal when about six weeks old, according to an item in the Kansas City Star. But is a fish clever enough to tell the age of a worm without looking at its teeth?

There are five Democrats seeking their party nomination for congressman of the fourth district. They are R. L. Anglemire, Saugatuck, George Foulkes of Hartford, Roman I. Jarvis of Benton Harbor, B. C. Swift of Middleville, and Minnie F. Kaltenbrun of St. Joseph, every last one of them "as wet as the Atlantic ocean."

In 1894 a group of Fennville ladies organized a literary society which they named after Michigan's favorite poet, Will Carleton. The club sponsored and was the means of much benefit to its members and the community. It finally was merged into the present very efficient Fennville Woman's club; but the former members still cherish the memory of many happy hours, and this Saturday afternoon over a score of the ladies will meet in the home of Mrs. Carrie Bassett to dine and recall the past. Members will be present from California as well as Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, St. Joseph, and nearer points.

Manager George Burleigh of Fennville has a force of men erecting the new addition to the M. Steffen & Co. vinegar and pickle works. It is 36 by 60 feet, two stories high, and will contain the pickle processing and bottling works of this progressive institution. Just now they are putting high quality vinegar in attractive glass containers, marketed all over the country through wholesale grocers and jobbers. That means that more help will be employed.

The Merchants were on a rampage this week, defeating Beaverdam on the home diamond, 16 to 3, and Vriesland on their grounds, 18 to 2. The Beaverdam game was called in the sixth inning because of darkness and the sympathy for the ump.

The local youngsters scored 2 in the second, 5 in the third, 1 in the fourth and 8 in the fifth; in the sixth inning the ump made quick work by shouting out to the joy of the fans. Albers on the mound for the locals held the visitors to 3 hits, which with 3 errors by the youngsters, yielded 3 runs. Haakma and Kronemeyer led at the bat with 3 singles each. The team played a smart and snappy game, both defensively and offensively. Vriesland was treated even more mercifully with Freeman holding the Vrieslanders to 3 hits and 3 runs, while his teammates hammered out 18 hits for 18 runs. Kempker and Haakma led in batting with 5 and 3 hits apiece, while Roggen, Kronemeyer, Kelly and Freeman obtained 2 each.
