Vander Jagt Visits

By Cornelia Van Voorst
Sentinel staff reporter

U.S. Rep. Guy Vander Jagt of Michigan's 9th district visited Holland Thursday, one of 41 stops on a week-long visit to cities and towns in his 11-county district.

Response this year has been three times greater than former years, the Congressman said as his mobile office arrived nearly an hour late. "We haven't been able to keep on schedule anywhere." He visited Zeeland this morning.

Subjects his constituents discuss with him fall into three categories, he explained.

"It's gratifying to know that one-third just want to say 'hello' and 'thanks for good service.' One little lady who appeared to be over 80 came on her bicycle in the rain to thank me for something my office had done for her two years ago. She felt guilty she hadn't sent me a thank-you note.

"Another third have specific problems dealing with Social Security, veterans' benefits, and the like. One senior citizen wanted my help to get her toy poodle into a housing project. There wasn't much I could do about that one.

"The other third have comments—everything from the Panama Canal, energy and its impact on home heating and gasoline prices, Congressional matters, Congressmen's pay, abortion, etc.

"Oddly enough, many, many people cannot differentiate between state and federal matters. One lady became irate over the state lottery when I said Washington had no control in the matter. Some others feel I'm dodging the issue when I suggest they get in touch with their state representatives.

"Of all the subjects in the third category, people in the 9th district seem preoccupied with the Panama Canal, some getting emotional over it. They are concerned with 'giving it away' and other proposals in a new treaty. I don't know what will happen but I'm sure the Senate cannot muster a two-thirds majority for ratification under present proposals."

He added that the abortion subject generates more emotion than any other, with both sides fighting equally hard. While he recognizes the full scope he adheres to previous "no" votes in that solutions can best be found at levels other than the federal government.

Vander Jagt had no change from previous statements over the possibility of being a Republican candidate for U. S. Senate next year to fill the position being vacated by Sen. Robert P. Griffin. He keeps the subject on the "back burner" until Gov. William Milliken makes a decision. If Milliken becomes a senatorial candidate, Vander Jagt will move to the "front burner" for further consideration.

Vander Jagt, who never lost an oratorical contest while a student at Hope College in the 50s, is one of the busiest Congressmen in Washington. He makes about 10 speeches a week, many of them on a nonpolitical basis. As chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, he addresses many Republican audiences all over the country. Tonight he will be at Boyne Mountain addressing a convention. Over the weekend he will be in Iowa for three or four speeches. He thrives on his grueling pace.

Vander Jagt loves meeting his constituents in the annual visits. "There is no substitute for personal contact," he said. "Letters and telephone messages are good but they can't compare with face-to-face conversation. Besides, it's good to get away from Washington and get a fresh perspective of what the people are thinking of back home. And Western Michigan is so incredibly beautiful these days, so green . . . it makes everybody feel good!"

Perhaps, he said, the "good feeling" is a holdover from the Bicentennial last year, a great occasion for America, one that gave a positive touch of appreciation of a truly great nation.

West Ottawa Increases School Hot Lunch Fee

By Ann Hungerford
Sentinel reporter

Citing escalating costs of food supplies and preparation, West Ottawa board of education Monday night unanimously approved an increase in the cost of hot lunches in the district.

Effective Aug. 15, 1977 cost will increase from 40 cents to 45 cents for students and from 50 to 55 cents for adults.

In approving the motion members of the board expressed concern that the price hopefully would not have to be increased for two years, the time span since the last increase.

Four staff appointments were also approved by the board including John Skoglund, as assistant Middle School principal. Skoglund, an elementary school principal from Grayling, has experience as an elementary teacher, middle school teacher, K-8 counselor and elementary principal. He is completing his work on his elementary administration specialist degree at Michigan State University.

Stuart Post of Grand Haven, was awarded a contract as director of guidance and evaluation in the West Ottawa high school. Post has his master's degree in guidance from Western Michigan University and has five years experience as a high school guidance counselor. He has served three years as an admission counselor and four years as an assistant registrar with Grand Valley State College.

James Helmink of Mt. Pleasant was contracted to teach biology in the high school. He is in the process of completing his master's degree work at Central Michigan University.

Robert Knox of Adrian will be teaching in the high school art department and will assume the post of varsity wrestling coach. Knox obtained his master's degree in art education from Siena Heights College and has taught art at Sand Creek High School for the past five years.

The board also accepted the resignations of David Golub, special education teacher with the emotionally impaired; Amber Rosim, social studies teacher at the middle school and Irene Yonker, fifth grade teacher at Beechwood School.

Henson informed the board that contracts are being written and credentials checked for new staffers to fill the vacated posts.

Dan Lukich, director of the Holland and West Ottawa sponsored community education program, presented a synopsis of the program which will be a joint effort this year.

In elaborating on the history Lukich explained that last spring's leisure and enrichment program proved to be substantially more successful than anticipated with more than 500 persons enrolling in the 40 courses. He anticipated that a spring session would be added to the fall and winter sessions once again.

Lukich introduced his staff members including Terry Moore, new adult basic education coordinator; Lorna Wassink, adult education counselor and Betty Boes, leisure enrichment director.

In the near future, an additional adult education counselor will be added in the West Ottawa district, Lukich said.

Following the report on community education the board formally approved the joint contract of the Holland and West Ottawa districts to formulate a comprehensive community education program.

All members of the board were present. The board adjourned into executive session for a meeting on the progress of negotiations.

The next regular board meeting will be held on Sept. 19.

GETTING READY—"110" sailors scrub down their 24-foot crafts Saturday in preparation for National competition beginning today at the Macatawa Bay Yacht Club. Eighteen boats will set sail in the six-race, week long event.

MBYC Sailors Hot In '110' Warm-Up Race

By Ann Oswald

It was smooth sailing for the "110" sailors of the Macatawa Bay Yacht Club as they raced to two of the top three sailing spots in Sunday's warm-up race for the International "110" Nationals at MBYC.

Skipper Bill VandenBerg along with son Mark, and Rick Kraai with crew Marlon Boer, nabbed second and third place finishes in the preliminary race. Both sailors are veterans of last year's Nationals at Martha's Vineyard, where they finished in the top half of the pack.

The Atlantic coast boats that both Kraai and VandenBerg predicted last week would be "dynamite", captured the first and fourth placespots. Massachusetts sailor Jack Slattery crossed the finish line first, while Atlantic coast champion Paul Hollerman of South Boston took fourth place.

Eighteen boats set sail Sunday morning on MBYC's 8.8 mile Olympic course on Lake Michigan to warm-up for the real racing that begins today. The harbor gun at 9:45 will single the start of the racing today.

Although Atlantic coast boats dominate the entries, boats from as far away as San Diego, California, will find themselves in the spray of the six-race, week long competition.

Harvey J. Buter of Holland was appointed a member-at-large from the city of Holland to the board of directors of Holland Community Hospital at the board's monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon. He succeeds Peter J. Vanden Bosch who resigned recently.

The board voted to invite the townships of Fillmore, Port Sheldon and Olive to join the Hospital Authority at the next regular election. In the authority at present are the city of Holland and the townships of Park, Holland and Laketown.

A special board meeting was scheduled Aug. 23 at 2 p. m. for the opening of bonds increase in two years. Previous prices were $2 and $1.50.

This decision was made at a meeting of the ox roast committee this morning in City Hall. Serving on the committee are Mayor Lou Hallacy, City Manager Terry Hofmeyer, Soren Wolff, Gordon Heidenga, Joe Romeyn, Jaap De Bleecourt, Nelson Bosman, Vern Schipper, Tom Renner and Steve Hiligan, the latter three from the Hope College administrative staff.

Hope College opens early this year with students arriving Aug. 27-28 and classes starting Aug. 31. The college football team will be playing De Pauw University at Saturday at 1:30 p.m. Persons attending the game are instructed to walk to Windmill Island using the Sixth St. exit. Shuttle buses will be available at that point.

The menu will follow the established pattern: sandwiches made of prime roast beef, baked beans, relishes, potato chips, chocolate cake, and choice of coffee, milk or soft drinks.

Some 100 or more leaders of the city and college will assist in serving. Serving hours will be from 1:30 to 6 p.m. to allow a choice of lunch or supper.

Bil-Mar of Zeeland will assist in pre-cooking the beef.

Tickets will be limited to 4,000. They will go on sale Aug. 31. City Finance Director will direct the ticket sale.

The annual ox roast represents an exercise in precise coordination at top levels: the college arranging for food service, park department and street department transporting tables and tents, Windmill Island looking after grounds and other arrangements, police directing traffic, and city and college staffs looking after dozens of other details.

Buter Named to Hospital Board

Associate staff privileges were approved for James F. Byrne M. D. in family practice.

The following gifts were acknowledged with gratitude: $1,000 from First Michigan Bank and Trust Co., a painting from the estate of John C. Jander, and $445.40 from proceeds of a garage sale of the Food Service Department for a salad bar in the cafeteria.

James Bridge, director of finance, was appointing officer-representative to the Municipal Employees Retirement System. Announcement was made that hospital employees voted 373-20 to remain in the Social Security system. Both are continuations of previous programs, but action was necessary in changing from a city institution to an authority.

Two change orders were approved, $549.45 for adding a door to the temporary emergency entrance, and a credit of $262.44 for scaffolding and deleting lowering of a manhole cover.

The hospital board did not vote compensation for board meetings but did arrange remuneration for certain cases in which members are out of town on official hospital business.

Thomas Sentenced

ALLEGAN — Daniel Thomas was charged to 5-15 years in Southern Michigan prison in Jackson today by Allegan Circuit Court Judge George Corsiglia for the beating death of a Oak Haven camp resident Oct. 9.

Thomas, 28, was found guilty of involuntary manslaughter July 15 for the death of Robert Van Dusen, 19, of Collegedale, Tenn. at the camp near Pullman.

Judge Corsiglia denied defense motions to set aside the jury verdict, dismissal and to set bond pending appeal, saying "the jury verdict was fully consistent with the evidence."

Thomas had been charged with second degree murder with intent to do great bodily harm less than murder, but Judge Corsiglia told the jury it could consider the involuntary manslaughter charge.

The jury deliberated less than five hours in finding Thomas guilty. Witnesses at the trial stated Thomas beat Van Dusen with a hose for disciplinary reasons.

Ask Second Judge For Allegan County

LANSING—The State Court Administrative Office is recommending to the Supreme Court of Michigan that they approve a recommendation to the Legislature for a second Probate-Juvenile Judge for Allegan county.

The recommendation is based on a recently-completed study which shows that of all the counties in Michigan with only one fulltime Probate-Juvenile judge, Allegan county and its judge, George A. Greig has the highest combined juvenile and probate caseload of any other judge.

The study's figures showed Judge Greig's caseload to consist of 489 juvenile cases and 1,231 probate cases for a total of 1,720 pending cases. Judge Greig stated that based strictly on population, the county has an unusually high caseload.

If the Supreme Court and Legislature approve the recommendation, the additional judge would be elected in November, 1978 and take office Jan. 1, 1979. The Supreme Court administrator's office notes one problem in that under the population formula in the probate code, Allegan would not be entitled to an additional judge based on its estimated population unless the Probate Code statute were amended. The office suggests as an alternative to amending the code that "perhaps an arrangement could be made for a second Ottawa County probate judge to assist with the caseload in Allegan."

Holland Revises School Transportation Policy

By Cornelia Van Voorst
Sentinel reporter

A new transportation policy was adopted by the Holland Board of Education Monday night, dealing mainly with changes caused by the closing of Federal and Montello Schools and the construction of a new junior high school. Part of the program will not be implemented until the new junior high opens year hence.

The transportation code would provide or transportation as follows:

1. Kindergarten through sixth grades, more than one mile from school.

2. Seventh through ninth grades, more than two miles from school.

3. 10th through 12th grades, more than three miles from school.

4. Kindergarten through sixth grades required to cross M-21, US-31 bypass or Eighth St. between M-21 and US-31 bypass.

5. Elementary special education students.

6. Secondary special education students as deemed necessary by the director of special education.

7. Kindergarten through sixth grades required to attend school outside of their elementary attendance area.

Financing will be studied. The report listed an estimated eight additional buses, but these will not be needed this year.

In other business, the board rejected bids received for the Federal school building property. There were two bids, one of the Holland-Zeeland YMCA for $111,200, subject to financing, and the other of $50,000 from the Ottawa County chapter of the American Red Cross. School Board Atty. Jack Marquis said the YMCA bid did not meet requirements of the advertising. The disposition of the property will be restudied by the board.

The board approved a resolution whereby Holland district will apply for $15,999 to be applied toward debt retirement. It is the first year Holland district is eligible for such funds under the State Aid Act.

Also approved was a revised fee schedule for building and rental use policy carrying an increase of approximately 7 percent.

Increases in fees for hot lunches also were approved in the district's arrangement with West Ottawa district. The rate for paid lunches will be increased 10 cents from 40 to 50 cents per meal. Adult lunches will be increased by 10 cents from 50 to 60 cents per meal. PTO sponsored lunch programs at Harrington and Lakeview Schools will be requested to support noon hour supervision in the same ratio as other elementary schools.

No School Board Pay

The Holland Board of Education decided Monday night that it wouldn't vote itself remuneration, now possible under recent legislation in Michigan.

Vice President Robert Gosselar moved that the board refuse such compensation which can run up to $30 a meeting for 52 meetings a year, but Member William Coupe reasoned such action could be regarded as "elitist" and might deter some people from serving on the board. Then he felt most board gatherings are held at time that do not conflict with regular working hours.

Gosselar withdrew his motion and the matter was accepted as information. Whatever the board did or did not do concerns only the 1977-78 school year.

Staff Changes Made by Holland Schools

Four staff appointments were approved by the Holland Board of Education at its regular monthly meeting Monday night in the school administration building.

Patricia Dacey, a 1976 graduate of Central Michigan University, will teach mathematics at E. E. Fell Junior High School. She has served as a permanent substitute most of the past year.

Maria Espinosa Akhter, a graduate of Aquinas College with no experience, will teach bilingual English at E. E. Fell Junior High.

Brad Bodkins, a graduate of Bowling Green University with three years' experience, will teach speech pathology in the special education department.

Yolanda Garcia, a graduate of Eastern Michigan University, will replace Lois Rubin at the reading center. Mrs. Rubin was granted a year's leave of absence to be with her husband who will teach in Cairo, Egypt, for two years. Since the Holland board grants only one-year leaves, she may apply again a year hence.

On another level, the board approved a contract for Terence Moore as coordinator for Adult Basic Education, a program to be shared with West Ottawa district. Moore has been in community education for five years including teaching, counseling and coordination. As an employee of South Kent Community Education last year, he directed the Adult Basic Education program in Holland.

It was also announced that three teachers who were on layoff in connection with program cuts have been reemployed to fill vacancies. They are Mary Finn, Susan Wessels and Richard Harris. The teaching staff has been cut by 16 teachers.

The board also took action that the activities and music extra pay/extra duty positions be retained in the 1977-78 program and that $6,170 to fund these positions remain in the proposed budget. The Performing Arts Center supervisor position ($1,235) was eliminated.

The board is supporting amendments to Senate Bill 714 on Unemployment Compensation. Passage of the bill without the amendments which eliminate certain school positions could amount to an additional cost of $100,000 a year for the Holland district, it was stated. Board members were urged to write separately to their state representatives before the legislature convenes Sept. 14.

A communication from the

Accidents

An auto driven west on 48th St. by Nancy A. Guenthardt, 25, of Portage, collided with a car driven south on Lincoln Ave. by Hershel Burnett, 58, 120 West 19th St., at 10:37 a.m. Sunday.

A vehicle driven west on Seventh St. by Patricia Sue Gras, 21, 247 West Central, Zeeland, was struck by an auto driven north on River Ave. by Keith Alan Sikkema, 19, of Grand Haven, at 6:17 a.m. Saturday.

Christian Schools expressed appreciation for board action in providing two half-time physical education teachers for that system. Details will be worked out with Curriculum Director Richard Rust. The communication came from Christian School Supt. Martij Essenburg.

Attention was called to orientation workshops arranged by the Michigan Association of School Boards primarily for new school board members, although other members will find such conferences helpful. The workshops for this area are scheduled Sept. 19, a regular school board meeting, and the board voted to reschedule the next meeting to Sept. 26. The workshops will be held at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

Cornelia Van Voorst

Dirk Den Hartog has retired from the city street department after 12½ years in general duties, laying sewers, operating a sidewalk snowplow and the last few years as custodian of the street department warehouse.

Den Hartog came here in 1963 from the Netherlands. He was the oldest of 15 children and still has 11 brothers and sisters and his mother living in South Holland, the Netherlands. He has been back on several occasions to visit the family. He is retiring at 62 for reasons of health.

For nine years he was the herring man in Tulip Time Heritage shows shouting "Hollandsche Nieuwe" indicating he had fresh herring from ocean waters. These herring were split in half, salted down, and Den Hartog often demonstrated the fine Dutch art of eating a herring holding it aloft from the tail.

Arthur Fiedler, conductor of the Boston Pops Orchestra, is a great fireman buff. He has his own fire museum at Brookline, Mass.

Holland Fire Chief L. Marvin Mokma sent him a fire helmet recently, making him Honorary Fire Chief of the Holland, Mich., Fire Department.

Fiedler responded with a gracious note, stating he would add it to his collection at the Larz Anderson Transportation in Brookline.

More than 100 years ago . . .

From city clerk records in City Hall July 18, 1877:

"At the July 18, 1877, Council meeting, the City Engineer of the Fire Department in his annual report stated there had been no fires during the year nor any alarm of fire. He reported on the condition of the two fire engines, two hose carts and the number of feet of hose on hand. He recommended that a chandelier should be procured for the Columbia Engine Room No. 2 and called attention of Council to the condition of the hook and ladder cart."

At the same meeting, a resolution was adopted stating "all weeds should be pulled up and burned which are growing in public parks under the instruction of the Committee on Parks and Public Grounds."

Bill Hop is busy on the west coast planning the ninth annual Holland-Zeeland picnic to be held this year Sunday, Sept. 11, in El Centro Park in beautiful downtown La Habra. Bill, former Holland resident, has arranged these picnics over the years. Last year at picnic time he was in his hospital with stroke II. He has had a fair recovery and is looking forward to a big turnout.

Mrs. Allie Vander Werf, who lives on East Lakewood Blvd., is proudly showing a picture of herself and the governor of Oregon these days.

She recently returned from visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bud (Mary) Staff, in Salem, Ore. Her granddaughter, Jennifer Staff, about 16, is a page at the state capitol and she arranged for her grandmother to be photographed with Gov.

Robert W. Straub

And that's why Mrs. Vander Werf is showing a picture to her friends.

Mary Alice Rosales, 352½ East Fifth St., found an old pictorial book on early Holland in the attic of the home she formerly owned at 127 East Fifth St. when she was getting ready to move.

The nine by 12 inch book had pictures and historical material on schools, parks, Hope College, church, homes, Western Theological Seminary, resort hotels, local industries, transportation and banks.

No date on publication was listed but it is believed the book was printed sometime after the turn of the century.

MIAA Coaches Pick Hope To Follow Albion

By Leo Martonosi
Sentinel Sports Editor
KALAMAZOO—Another typical ding dong football season is expected this fall in the MIAA.

At the annual league press day Thursday at Kalamazoo College, the league coaches predicted that Albion College would repeat as 1977 champions.

The Hope College Flying Dutchmen of Coach Ray Smith were tabbed to come in a strong second. Alma College was picked for third with Adrian, Kalamazoo and Olivet following in that order.

The Dutchmen have been Michigan's most successful small college football team in Division III the past five years and expect to maintain that reputation in 1977.

Smith said that Bill Blacchiere, who missed most of last year because of a back injury will give Hope a fine one-two running punch with all-league returnee Mike Skelton.

The 1977 team could tie a school mark for consecutive winning season. The Hope teams of Al Vanderbush had six winning seasons from 1946-51.

Smith's outfits have won 35 games, dropped 8 and tied two over the past five seasons to rank high among the nation's Division III coaches. In his seven years, Smith has a record of 44-17-2.

The Dutchmen return 23 lettermen and 42 freshmen prospects, including at least 20 excellent candidates, according to Smith.

One of the top veterans is quarterback Mark Boyce, who passed for 16 touchdowns and set a school record with 1,286 yards (73 of 136). Skelton led the MIAA in rushing last year with 490 yards and in scoring.

Dewey Thompson leads the offensive line returnees. Five returning three-year vets include Holland's John Bonnette (tailback), Brian

Council Asks Funds For New Ball Field

By a vote of 7-1, City Council voted Wednesday night to submit a pre-application for Land & Water Conservation Funds for the purchase of approximately 20 acres of property to be developed as a recreation/softball complex.

The land is located south of 32nd St. and east of the C & O railroad, abutting US-31 on the south. The proposal involves $72,000, shared equally by the city and the grant program.

If the full application is approved, property appraisals will be obtained prior to purchase.

Plans call for developing the area to accommodate the rapidly expanding softball program consisting of over 125 teams, and bring improvements to increasing traffic, parking, noise and dust problems at existing, residentially located fields. As proposed, the new project would be situated well away from residential neighborhoods, and would improve the overall efficiency of operating the softball program.

Preliminary plans include four official fields, one practice field, restroom facilities, a general purpose building, portable bleachers, lighting, parking for some 250 vehicles, and play and picnic areas.

Dissenting vote was cast by Councilman Hazen Van Kampen on the basis that the city is already in a program for a new stadium. Council member Bea Westrate was absent.

Sept. 1 is the deadline for filing the pre-application.

If the application is subsequently approved, Council will be asked to appropriate the city's share.

Editorial Commentary

Gilbert Van Wynen

Gilbert Van Wynen who died Monday at the age of 81 leaves a legacy of service in song that could be envied by many.

As a gospel singer, Van Wynen was in a class by himself in Holland and was in great demand for singing in churches, at weddings and at funerals, as well as leading hymn sings and singing at the hospital.

He had a gift of expression in his singing that made him a favorite. He may not have passed the tests of professionalism but he was tops with the masses. His Sunday afternoon visits to Holland Hospital started in the mid-1920s in the old hospital at 12th St. and Central Ave.

He used a pitch pipe for his hospital concerts and it was Dick Boter's Sunday School Class of First Reformed Church which provided him with a small folding organ which served him through years of Sunday afternoon programs on all floors of the hospital. In the early 1950s the hospital songs became a request program for hymns, broadcast over a local radio station. The folding organ is still in use.

After several years of employment at the Holland Furnace Co., Gil went into fulltime religious service and for 17 years served as director of the Holland Youth for Christ. He was 50 years old when he took over this position and was the oldest Youth for Christ director in the United States. It was during these years that he conducted Sunday evening hymn sings at the Belvedere Farm, now a rest home near Saugatuck.

Failing health in recent years reduced Gil's activities on the song front. Today's young folk are not aware of an almost forgotten era of gospel singing but to the longtimers who can remember a simple hymn sung with heartfelt expression, it was a period of nostalgia that made the community richer.

Athletes Gather To Learn Ball

By Doug Irons
Sentinel Reporter

HIGH STEPPERS — Football players at Camp Geneva run through their paces under the watchful eye of former Detroit Lion Ed Mooney (R) during Athlete's Week. The Aug. 8-12 session combined work on conditioning and fundamental skills for each sport, as well as serious consideration of the claims of Christianity and what it means to be a Christian athlete.

A number of nationally and locally prominent Christian athletes and coaches conducted clinics in five sports to highlight the seventh annual Athletes' Week held at Camp Geneva Aug. 8-12.

A total of 150 athletes attended the event, including approximately 40 to 50 girls. They ranged in age from eighth through 12th grades.

Clinics were given for boys in wrestling, football, and cross-country and for both boys and girls in basketball and tennis, with all emphasizing fundamentals and conditioning.

In addition, the counselors and campers discussed Christianity and what it means to be a Christian athlete.

After supper each day, a 45-minute "coach's meeting" was set aside to talk about spiritual growth.

Larry Amundsen and Art Holden, Athlete in Action staffers and former Olympic wrestlers and Jim Rynsbarger, Zeeland High School Coach and Michigan Coach of the Year, conducted the wrestling clinic.

There were 20 young wrestlers enrolled in the program this year.

Football activities were led by former Detroit Lion linebacker Ed Mooney, now with the Regional ministry of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes in West Texas. He was assisted by Jim "Tiger" De Witt, Chaplain for the week, as 16 footballers participated.

Another sport offered at the camp was boys and girls basketball, in which 28 boys and 33 girls participated.

Glenn Van Wieren, head basketball coach of Hope College and Jim Haskins, Grand Rapids Creston high school head coach, assisted by Hope senior Jim Holwerda, directed the boys activities, which included one-on-one and free-throw competitions.

The girls' basketball instruction and training was headed by Allendale high school girls coach Tim Mekkes, assisted by Beth Terpstra, Calvin College sophomore, Jan Frazza, Unity Christian high school coach, and Shirley Nevins, Kenowa Hills high school coach.

Cross-country campers were led through a 100-mile week of running by Hope College's all-MIAA (Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association) standouts Lou Hoekstra and Dick Northuis.

Boys' and girls' tennis activities were directed by Hamilton High coach, Wayne Tanis, assisted by Scott Lokers.

The coaches were unanimous in proclaiming the week a successful, special one.

"We're taking Christianity and showing it is a full-time, 100 per cent situation, not just on Sundays," Mooney said. "Faith is viewed from another perspective."

"It's a healthy atmosphere to be in," said Van Wieren, "camping on the shores of Lake Michigan with sport and Christianity. It's been special for both of us (Van Wieren and Haskins); we'll be back next year."

"They're enthusiastic and work hard," Mekkes said of his female hoopsters. "It's been a great bunch to work with."

"We've had some very good discussions about what it means to be a Christian athlete, how to use the platform we've been given through sport to witness to our faith and how all our abilities are God's gifts."

"The witness of all these other coaches from other sports has had a big effect."

"It's been a time of renewing myself."
