HOLLAND CITY NEWS

S. L. MORRIS, Editor.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 1873

LETTER FROM J. W. CHAMPLIN.

Mr. I. Capon, Holland, Mich.

DEAR SIR:—I have investigated the question sent to me by A. J. Hillebrand, Township Clerk, of the township of Holland, which question is as follows:

"Is it lawful that the School Inspectors of the township of Holland make a settlement with the Board of Education of the city of Holland, between School District No. 1, of the township of Holland, and the Public Schools of the city of Holland, concerning the property debts, and credits of the same?"

My answer to the above question is, that it is not lawful. There is no provision of law under which any such settlement can be made. But further than this, there is no occasion for any such settlement.

I have had what purports to be your amended charter before me, but it does not contain the title of the act passed by the Legislature. I have to-day examined the journals of the Legislature, and I find the title of the act to be as follows:

"A bill to amend an act entitled An act to revise the charter of the city of Holland," being amendatory of an act entitled "An act to incorporate the city of Holland."

Approved March 25, 1867.

You will perceive there is nothing in this title relative to the incorporation of a body to be known as the "Public Schools of the city of Holland,"—nothing whatever relative to any interference with your school system which you enjoyed, not by virtue of any act of incorporation of the city of Holland, but under the general laws of the State—nothing in this title to call attention to the object creating a body corporate for public purposes, and investing it with the corporate franchises, and divesting School District No. 1 of its property, and vesting it in this body corporate, as is provided in article twenty-three of the amended charter.

Our system of education has its foundation in Article XIII. of the Constitution of the State, and is of itself a particular object of Legislative control, and enactment. The system exists independent of local, municipal corporations, as is clearly illustrated by the former charter of the city of Holland. Neither the act of incorporation of 1867 nor the amended act of 1871 contained any provisions relative to schools in the city of Holland. And while they provided for the election of a School Inspector, they did not define his duties but left it to the general law, or, to speak more accurately, was entirely silent as to what his duties should be.

In creating a corporation, such as a School District, or such as the "Public Schools of the city of Holland," it is manifest at a glance, that it is for an entirely different object than the creation of a municipal corporation. They are both corporations for public purposes, yet the authority conferred by the Legislature is for totally different objects. It needs no argument to demonstrate this proposition.

Having called your attention to these facts, and to the title of the act under which the Board of Education assume to act, I now direct your attention to Article IV, Sec. 20, of the Constitution of the State of Michigan, which provides: "No law shall embrace more than one object, which shall be expressed in its title."

It is apparent that the act of last winter, entitled "An act to amend an act entitled An act to review the charter of the city of Holland," being amendatory of an act entitled "An act to incorporate the city of Holland," approved March 25, 1867," embraces more than one object. One object was to amend the then existing charter, which it has done; another, and distinct object was to create a corporation styled the Public Schools of the city of Holland, and to confer upon it powers incident to such corporations, and vest in its title to certain property then held by School District No. 1. This object is not expressed in the title, and is therefore unconstitutional and void.

The Supreme Court of the State of Michigan, in speaking of this provision of our Constitution (People vs. Mahany, 13 Mich. 494), say that it is intended to remedy a practice, "by which, through dextrous management clauses were inserted in bills of which the titles gave no intimation, and their passage secured through Legislative bodies whose members were not generally aware of their intention and effect. There was no design by this clause to embarrass legislation, by making laws unnecessarily restrictive in their scope and operation, and thus multiply their number; but the framers of the Constitution meant to put an end to legislation of the vicious character referred to, which was a little less than a fraud upon the public, and to require that in every case the proposed measure should stand upon its own merits, and that the Legislature should be fairly satisfied of its design when required to pass upon it."

Judge Cooley, in his work on Constitutional Limitations, sums up the authorities as follows: "It may therefore be assumed as settled, that the purpose of these provisions was:

First. To prevent hodge-podge or "log rolling" legislation.

SECOND. To prevent surprise or fraud upon the Legislature, by means of provisions in bills of which the titles gave no intimation, and which might therefore be overlooked and carelessly and unintentionally accepted; and THIRD. To fairly apprise the people through such publication of Legislative proceedings, as is usually made, of the subjects of legislation that are being considered, in order that they may have opportunity of being heard thereon, by petition or otherwise, if they shall so desire." (Cooley on Const. Limitations, pages 143 and 144.)

Judge Cooley could not better have described the evil effects of the violation of this Constitutional provision in the passage of your new charter, if he had had it in his mind's eye. There was nothing in the title of the act to apprise your citizens of the wrong about to be perpetrated upon them by incorporating the "Public Schools of the city of Holland,"—dividing the District, depriving a portion of a school house and school facilities—taking away property for which they had been taxed to pay and transferring it to this new corporation.

Had the title intimated such an object, would not your citizens have availed themselves of the opportunity of being heard thereon by petition or otherwise?

The effect of this constitutional provision is, that when the act, as in this case, is broader than the title, or in other words, embraces an object not expressed in its title, that portion not embraced in the title must fail. I have no hesitation in stating it as my opinion that title 23, of your new charter is null and void, and that School District No. 1 of Holland remains intact, as if title 23 had not been passed by the Legislature. The officers of the district are entitled to the control and management of the affairs of the district.

I am very truly, &c.,
J. W. CHAMPLIN.

A DREAM.

Correspondence of the Holland City News.

One hot summer day I went out to take a walk, with a view to go to some park; book in hand, sitting down to read Mark Twain's "Innocents Abroad." Very much I enjoyed myself, but being very warm that day, and sitting very quiet under the shade of the trees, sleep overtook me and I was soon dreaming, and lo! my dream was as follows:

I was traveling on side-wheel steamers, and railroads, until I stopped at a small, but neat country place, the name of which I could not learn. However, so much I know, it was in the north western part of our country. The place itself had many churches of one denomination, and the most of the parish consisted of people of foreign birth.

In comparison with my real abode, this place was very still, yet it was here that I took up my residence. Whenever I went out for a walk after supper, from every dwelling was heard a religious song, but very different from our American church hymns.

I was very inquisitive, and an investigation brought me the intelligence that they were Holland Psalms. I almost thought I was in "New Jerusalem." No places of public amusement were visible, intoxicating drinks were not sold, everything of that kind was thrown out, or as some mischievous fellow dared to come, he was looked upon with contempt.

On a celebration of the Fourth of July, there happened to be a juggler who wished to give an entertainment for the young folks if he could only get a place in which to perform. Nobody was willing to allow room for such a purpose, except one good-natured, free-hearted fellow. Said he, "If you can use my grocery store you can have it." The offer was accepted, and the news was spread, around. The store was crowded full of young people, and it was really a delight to look upon the laughing faces of those little ones, which was caused by the funny tricks of the juggler. Adults could not be found except the owner of the store, the juggler, and a church-deacon in the character of a spy, the latter being a Superintendent of a Sabbath School. The owner took notice of the deacon's presence, and comprehended his errand, of which he informed the juggler. After a while the deacon prepared to leave, but was politely requested to remain. The juggler, walking up to where the deacon stood, put his hand in the inside coat-pocket of the deacon, telling him at the same time that to leave was very all very well, but an honest man must leave the goods at their place, and brought to light a very dirty shirt, which brought forth a merry laugh from the little folks.

Dreaming on, I saw the place growing, but as the population became more numerous, they also became more demoralized; but by and by there came a daring man who began to sell some intoxicating liquors, but was soon played out for lack of business, and the opposition for the authorities, because it was strictly forbidden in the contracts for houses and lots. Faith and Hope was the only principles of the people, and they allowed no interference whatever.

A throng of strangers came in on a certain time, making almost a revolt in the traditional life of the citizens. Some of the new comers demanded amusements, concerts, and societies, but of no avail. At last some strangers with an inevitable power of speech and influence, started a Masonic Lodge. The starting of such an institution was fearful in the eyes of the pious inhabitants, and although some of the most moral and intellectual men became members, they were snubbed and disgraced by the members of the exclusive faith.

Further, I saw in my dream that the place became incorporated as a city, and about this time political parties arose to the surface. These parties were divided into three, viz: Democratic, Republican and Church party. The last one ruling the fractions of the other two, and the exclusive party always came out ahead, till they got a new charter, when the people were requested to vote for their own School Board, although those elected did not qualify.

At this time public amusements came in, such as circus, shows and theatrical performances. A taste for different arts became more general, and even high standing church members allowed themselves the freedom of going to a theater in a city near by, but do not do such a thing in the place of their residence.

I was feeling quite easy, because I like excitement. A new School Board could not be had; the old one would not give in. I expected a big fight, like that of the Kilkenny Cats, with the commander-in-chief at the head, and

Now a shiver came over me and I awoke, finding my book on the ground, my garments wet; and that I had been dreaming. PETE.

HOLLAND EXCURSION.

HOLLAND, Mich., Aug. 6.

From The Daily Democrat:

About one hundred and seventy-five persons formed the excursion party from Grand Rapids to Holland to-day. The train was delayed in leaving nearly one hour later than the appointed time, yet the run to Holland was made very quickly, without accident or incident worthy of note. The road runs through a well developed farming country, with thriving villages at short intervals. At Zeeland we entered the Holland "colony," one of the richest garden spots in Michigan. Field and fruit crops look much more promising than in the vicinity of Grand Rapids, which is owing to the thorough cultivation they receive. I noticed fields of twenty or more acres perfectly destitute of any verdure except cornstalks. Not a weed two inches high could be seen.

Holland City is beautifully located on the south bank of Black Lake, and appears to have recovered entirely from the terrible fire which destroyed it less than two years ago. It has numerous manufacturing establishments, large mercantile houses, schools, churches and other evidences of a high state of civilization. It has four newspapers, several excellent hotels, wide streets, substantial sidewalks, hospitable citizens, and all the elements of a prosperous young city. Fresh lake breezes made the weather pleasant constantly, and conduces to the good health of the citizens. But it is useless for me to attempt to do justice to Holland in one short letter, therefore I shall not attempt it. I may refer to the city again.

The excursionists sailed down Black Lake this afternoon in the propeller

Chicago Belle, and after picnicing an hour or two will sail out on the broad waters of Lake Michigan. The lake is a little rough to-day, but I hope no one will be compelled to part company with the sandwiches and lemonade, of which the excursionists are well supplied. Joe Levi, of the Star Clothing House, chartered the tug Fanny Shriver this morning, and invited his friends to join him in a trip down the lake. I was among those who accepted, and had a delightful trip.

The excursionists will return home this evening, while Joe and myself will go to Fruitport and Spring Lake. Up to the present time I have heard no dissatisfaction expressed with the excursion or its management. Financially considered, however, it will not be a great success. Mr. Utley, of the Eagle, is the only newspaper man, except yours truly, in the party. A. S. W.

Ottawa County.

We have received the premium List of the Ottawa, Muskegon and West Kent, Agricultural Society.

The Society is to hold their annual Fair at Berlin Sept. 2d 3d 4th.

The first day of the Fair will be given to making entries and arranging the articles for exhibition. It is hoped that exhibitors will bring all their entries this day.

Wednesday—the Second day—Entries continue until 10 a. m., when all entries must have been made, and all articles and animals be in their proper places.

Viewing Committees will report to the Superintendents at 1 p. m., when they will receive their badges, committee books and instructions, and enter upon their duties.

Committees will make their reports before the close of day if possible.

The premiums are very liberal and should induce the farmers in northern Ottawa to patronize the society, and help make it one of the living institutions of the county.

We notice the following names, residents of this city, upon the awarding committees. Class J. Painting and Drawing, Mrs. H. D. Post. Class I. Vegetables, S. L. Morris. Class M. Miscellaneous, Hon. J. Roost.

The Musical Echo for August appears promptly, and is larger by four pages than ever before. Among the attractive contents may be mentioned the conclusion of the charming sketch "Agatha," "Going Home," a poem by Rexford; "Song Verse—Why Bad?" "Music as an Accompaniment," "Heart Songs," and other interesting original articles, correspondence, items &c. The new music in the number alone, if bought at retail prices, would cost nearly two dollars. Musical people must be very hard to please who cannot find something to their liking in the Musical Echo. Subscription price, $1.00 a year. For sample copies address the publisher, H. N. HEMPSTED, Milwaukee.

The Hastings Home Journal says: A family in town has been overtaken with a great disgrace. Notwithstanding the remonstrances of her parents, the oldest girl insists on doing the washing and will help her mother in the kitchen, is inclined to be domestic in many other respects. Altogether it is a most singular case. Possibly the girl is not right in her mind.

The Western Union Telegraph Company are engaged in running a line from Mackinaw to Marquette via Sault Ste. Marie. The whole distance is somewhat over three hundred miles, the first 23,000 feet being a submarine cable across the straits. This enterprise will, when completed, form a connecting link, long needed with the iron regions.

Since the Legislature had adjourned the Superintendent of Public Instruction has prepared a new compilation of the school laws of the State, with copious notes, making a volume of 240 pages. Twenty-five thousand copies are through the press, and are being sent to the counties as fast as they can be bound. It requires about 20,000 copies to supply the present demand, leaving 5,000 copies for future call. It was expected that the work would be placed in the hands of school officers throughout the State before the annual school meeting in September, but it is now feared they cannot all be bound in time for such circulation.

The physicians of Saugatuck and Ganges have organized themselves into a protective association. They have adopted a fee bill, which all have agreed to abide by, and a "black list," upon which the names of all those who neglect to pay "the doctor," after a reasonable time, are placed, for which purpose monthly meetings are held, "the list" revised, and each member furnished with a copy of it. This is a move in the right direction, which if fully complied with, will show up the "dead heads" of the county. To add effect to this move, all such names should be published.

ANOTHER BUGLARY.—Tuesday night last the Hardware Store of Haverkate and Son was broken open and fine Cutlery with other Show-Case goods to the amount of some $100 was taken. Also the Store of U. De Vries was entered by taking out a pane of glass from the Store front, and several satchels were appropriated evidently for the purpose of conveying away their plunder.

Officers were employed to detect the rascals, but we do not learn that any arrests have been made.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During the storm of Thursday last the residence of E. Van der Veen of this city was struck by lightning. The current evidently struck the chimney of the main building; dividing, ran off at extreme opposite corners. One current entering the kitchen playing mischief with door- and window casings emerging near the pump. — A large family were in the house at the time, nearly all in the kitchen, yet strange to relate not one of them was injured save a slight burn on the cheek of one of the children.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Oliver's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Emission, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Gonorrhea, Stricture, and Prostatitis, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price in a sealed envelope only six cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of external medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

The lecture should be in the hands of every young and every man in the land.

Twelve Good Reasons Why I Should Trust.

1. The pleasure of purchasing and opening a set of books.

2. The employment of a book-keeper at a high salary.

3. The employment of one or two men to collect your accounts.

4. When called upon to pay some demand—it is so convenient to have a good number of accounts on your books.

5. The pleasure of sending in your bills through the post-office, and seeing nearly one-half your bill paid for postage, returned to settle some account.

6. To hire persons to make collections, and have the greater part of the bills returned unpaid, bringing you in debt to the collector.

7. Trusting parties who have always been your customers, and have the pleasure of seeing them go around one or two blocks to shun your place of business, and take their cash to a rival establishment.

8. To wait a year or two, send in your account, and see the party get up and curse and swear—that if you don't get them, you will never get your pay, and they will be cured if they ever patronize you again.

9. The pleasure of having parties leave town, forgetting to settle that little account on your books.

10. Being compelled to take legal measures to collect your just dues, and thereby make friends with all the relations, friends and acquaintances of the party.

11. The knowledge that you must add all the bad debts in as expenses, and charge all your customers an additional price to cover, is very consoling.

12. The pleasure of making any number of enemies (if you ever ask for your own), who will be sure to run down your store and all connected with it.

NOTICE.

For the above twelve good reasons, I hereby give notice, that on and after this date, all goods sold at the City Drug Store, shall be for cash, and the cash value of an immense stock of goods, and a cash trade.

Now I Mean Business.

I have on my books, accounts ranging from twenty five cents to hundreds of dollars, and I want all who read this notice (if in my debt), to call at once and pay. I must have the money, and I will let you settle without costs, but if it is your wish that I shall add interest and costs I will do so. Remember this, I intend to have my pay and close my books, and have what is my just due.

BRUSHES, GLASS etc. to call and examine my stock. The

made in New York, expressly for my own trade cannot be surpassed. It is warranted superior to any White Lead in this market, and is sold at a much less price. My stock is purchased in large quantities of first hands, saving all jobbers' profits, and can, therefore, afford to sell below my neighbors.

Remember—I am not to be undersold by any House in the State of Michigan. Call and see

VINEGAR BITTERS
PURELY VEGETABLE
FREE FROM ALCOHOL
DE WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whisky, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion. Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Lazziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.
