NEW HOLLAND GIRL WEDS

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at Grand Haven at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stegenga when Miss Susan Stegenga was united in marriage to Mr. Evert Kloosterman.

The Rev. Andrew Stegenga of Brighton, New York, a brother of the bride performed the ceremony. The bride was beautifully gowned in white net over white silk and carried white carnations. She was attended by Miss Jennie Nienhuis, who wore white embroidered veil and carried pink sweet peas. The groom was attended by Dr. Peter Ver Meulen of Grand Rapids. After the ceremony, the wedding party, consisting of Rev. and Mrs. Andrew Stegenga, Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Kloosterman from Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stegenga and daughters, Esther, Elizabeth and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Evert Kloosterman, Miss Nienhuis and Dr. Peter Ver Meulen, motored to Highland park where a five-course dinner was served at the hotel. The newly-weds left on the Chicago boat for a short wedding trip. Mr. Kloosterman is a salesman from Grand Rapids and Miss Stegenga has long been a teacher in Ottawa county public schools. They will make their home in Grand Rapids.

INTERESTING HISTORY OF HOLLAND TOWN

HOLLAND TOWNSHIP VOTE AT FIRST CAUCUS WAS NINE WHICH CONSTITUTED NINETENTHS OF TOTAL VOTE

First Election Held at Home of Dr. Van Raalte in 1849. I. Marsilje Still Has Minutes of Meeting

In glancing over the files of the Holland City News we come across some interesting bit of history of Holland township, which not alone shows the organization of the township but the first election held and also an agitation for good roads. C. Vander Meulen who was for Zeeland, what Dr. Van Raalte was for Holland, urged the good roads question strongly.

The following article is taken from the issue of the Holland City News dated March 30, 1889, and is not inappropriate at this time since the large twenty-ton stone is being erected near the old Scholten bridge in honor of men and events that took place in Holland township in the earlier days.

The story follows:—The township of Holland was organized and its first town meeting held on April 2nd, 1849. We have been shown the records of this first election by Mr. Isaac Marsilje, the popular clerk of Holland Township.

From these records we present the following interesting history of the event. It will be seen that the number of voters was not large enough to require as many tickets as at present. Of these "first voters" Henry D. Post is the only remaining citizen of Holland. Hoyt G. Post resides at Grand Rapids. Nearly all the rest are dead; and the whereabouts of the few of those remaining alive is unknown.

The first paper is a written notice to the qualified electors of the township of Holland requesting them to meet at the house of A. C. Van Raalte, on the first Monday in April, at 9 o'clock, a. m. for the purpose of organizing said township according to law and electing township officers. This was signed by J. Mailly, jr., H. G. Post, and H. D. Post, legal voters of the township. At the foot of this notice is a call for a caucus "at the store of Post & Co., Saturday, March 31, at 1 o'clock, P. M."

The minutes of this first caucus are preserved. This was attended by nine-tenths of all the voters in the township.

The whole number of voters in the town being ten, the caucus held by nine of them made it safe for the candidates to bet on their own election. The ticket nominated at this caucus was as follows:

For Supervisor—Henry D. Post.
For Township Clerk—Wm. Bronson.
For Treasurer—Hoyt G. Post.
For School Inspectors—Ira Manly, Hoyt G. Post.
For Directors of the Poor—James Walker and Henry D. Post.
For Commissioners of Highways—Alvin V. Benham, Henry D. Post and James Walker.
For Justice of the Peace—Josiah Martin, James Walker, Asa Haynes.
For Constables—Alvin V. Benham and Benjamin Brist.
For Assessor—Martin Bronson.

The election was duly held at the residence of Rev. A. C. Van Raalte. The record states that the polls were opened between 9 and 10 a. m.; adjourned till 11 a. m. and opened again at 11 a. m. Votes were deposited by H. D. Post, Asa Haynes, A. V. Benham, James Martin, Benjamin Brist, James Walker, William Z. Bronson, H. G. Post, C. D. Shenick, Ira Manly, making a total of ten votes. It is unnecessary to state that the caucus ticket was elected. The tickets were all written out, and they are still preserved in the clerk's office.

At the time of this election there were many Hollanders in the township of Zeeland and Holland, but they were not voters. Zeeland had not been organized as a township, so its people gathered together in the church and prepared a memorial to be presented to the voters at the election in Holland township. This is signed by the Rev. C. Vander Meulen, and is a curiosity, as indicating the wants and conditions of the people at the time. It was as follows:

"To the town meeting April 2, 1849, at the house of Mr. A. C. Van Raalte. The meeting of the people of the village Zeeland, have sent Jan Robbers and Albert Borgers with the following request:

1. We desire a magistrate at or by the village of Zeeland
2. A poor master or director.
3. Road commissioners.
4. A road from the village of Zeeland to the settlement of Vriesland from section 19, through 20, 21, etc.
5. To finish the bridge over the Black River and bring the expense of that bridge upon the road tax.
6. That the assembly may take measures that the road from Grandville through the village of Zeeland to the city Holland may get finished, because there is not alone a slow process, but it seems as if there was not cared for it at all.

Considering that this meeting shall promote all that can tend for welfare of the settlement, we bring in our request, that we can be persuaded that there will be given satisfaction to the message of the last year of the governor.

In name of the congregation.
Zeeland, March 28, 1849.

C. VANDER MEULEN.
It will be noticed that Holland was then known as the "city." The eastern terminus of the great road was to be nearly as important a place in

FARMER HAS CORNER ON WHEAT CROP

NEW HOLLAND MAN THRESHES 44 BUSHELS OF WHEAT FROM ACRE

Peter Nienhuis of New Holland certainly has a bumper crop of wheat on his farm at New Holland. Yesterday he threshed 44 bushels of wheat per acre, and on a four acre field the total amount of wheat was 176 bushels. The state average per acre is in the neighborhood of 16 bushels, showing that Mr. Nienhuis has been blessed with an unusual large crop.

CARTOONIST PICTURE LOCAL MEN IN HIS CHALK TALK

One a Fisher of Men the Other a Fisher of Fish.

Henry Geerlings and John Vandersluis the chalk cartoonist thought were fit subjects to practice on in his deliberations in the Chautauqua tent last evening.

Geerlings was portrayed as a jack of all public-spirited work and not the least of these being the collection of money to help these causes along. The picture showed Henry with a collection box looking hungry for added subscriptions to the Y. M. C. A. funds.

Altho the cartoonist has seen Mr. G. Geerlings on two occasions only, the likeness was strikingly a Geerlings "Physog."

John Vandersluis if anything, was leaner than usual but the fishing pole, bait and paraphernalia was there. John even had a bite in the picture, in fact the whole expression in his face was that of a big strike, but alas cartoonists have a way of turning joy to sorrow and anticipation to realization, the hook was caught in John's trouser seat.

ZEELAND YOUTHS IN COURT FOR ALLEGED SERIOUS OFFENSE COMMITTED ON 13-YEAR-OLD GIRL

John Kornoelje, aged 17 years, was the defendant in a suit of attempted assault preferred by the parents of 13-year-old Gertrude Zuberink tried in circuit court Wednesday. Upon arraignment of the case and receiving testimony it was brought out that the pair had been with another couple of the same age and that their immoral conversations had been duplicated. This case was not prosecuted however.

The evidence bore out the stories of the young people that no act was committed. Margaret De Jonge aged 14 years, and John Bos, aged 15 years, were the others divulged in the testimony. Attorney J. N. Clark of Zeeland was solicitor for the defendant.

Prosecutor Osterhaus made his statement to the jury after 10:30 o'clock yesterday and Attorney Clark delivered his plea at 2 o'clock.

The jury had not returned at three o'clock.

The jury brought in a verdict of assault and battery.

these days. The "bridge question" it seems is a "chestnut" forty years old.

Voted—That all hogs over six months old be allowed to go at large, all horned cattle also. Voted—That the sum of $200 be raised to defray the town expenses. TEAMSTERS AND DRAYMEN AND FAMILIES ENJOY DAY'S OUTING YESTERDAY.

Pic Program of Contests Is Picked Off; Numerous Prizes Were Awarded.

The best picnic ever pulled off by the Holland draymen and teamsters was the one given yesterday at Oaklawn Park. There were seven wagon loads of men, women and children in the party, and the program was so complete that there was something doing every minute of the day, so much so that darkness put an end to the series of events, making it impossible to pull off all the events that had been scheduled.

The Holland merchants had generously donated a number of prizes. In addition to those listed below other merchants had made donations that could not be awarded because of lack of time; but all were made good use of, and it was because of these prizes that the picnic was a big success. A court of justice was maintained on the grounds and officers were busy all day making fake arrests. John Vandersluis and J. S. Dykstra, though not belonging to the party, were victims of this court. They were out fishing at Bignall's dock and were "arrested" on the charge of disturbing the peace. They paid fines of 25 cents each and then were reimbursed by being fed all the ice cream they could eat and by smoking all the loaded cigars they could.

Following is a list of the prizes awarded:

Box of cigars, donated by H. Van Tongeren, awarded to the winners of the ball game.

IT WAS DIFFERENT WHEN THE DOMINE'S HOUSE CAUGHT FIRE.

A certain preacher in one of the southern states was preaching away one Sunday night when a fire alarm broke the attentive stillness of the sanctuary.

Sit still! he cried to his disturbed congregation. If there is a fire the Lord will take care of His own and not let anything happen that should not happen.

Just then two children who had stepped outside shrieked:

Oh, it's the parsonage! It's the parsonage!

Without a word of farewell that preacher made a wild bound from the pulpit and struck out for his burning residence.

There is times, it seems, said a lean member of the congregation, when the Lord needs help.—National Monthly.

ORRIE BRUSSE SENDS ANOTHER INTERESTING LETTER.

Says Germans Fire Twenty Shells to Allies One

Below will be found another letter from Orrie Brusse, son of ex-Mayor Brusse, of this city, who is now serving in the English army with the Canadian troops.

Dear Dad and Mother:—

Received your letter written to Halifax so will answer it at once. We expected to leave here this week, but I guess it is a false alarm. We were inspected by the Minister of Defense of Canada, Col. Sam Hughes and Sir Robert Borden, then we are to have one by Kitchner and the King this week. Taking everything together we thought it was a trip across the channel but it turned out to be only a shift of camps. Life is full of excitement here in our camps and we are fast being made into an efficient battery, as good if not better than some of the Imperial troops. The country is full of wounded soldiers who are confident that the war will be over by next winter, but I have my doubts. Was talking to a British soldier just back from the firing line and he says the Germans are firing 29 shells to our one and we are holding our own. The engagement at Neuve Chappelle was a credit to the Canadian soldier. The gas was used at this time and the French retreated on the run. The Canadians held their own and tumbled over an observation tower at which Allies had been trying to get for weeks. Everything seems to be getting back to the old days. Helmets are used and steel shirts to throw off shrapnel. Hand grenades are thrown from a sling-shot. So you can see it is pretty close fighting. Just to show you how those Germans are all over France. A Battery of light artillery left England on Monday and on Wednesday half of the lot were back wounded. So you see we are up against a tough proposition. Everyone has praise for the U. S. in helping Belgium but they all hope she will get in this and make it so much shorter. Address always Army Post Office, London, 2nd Heavy Battery, C. O. E. F.

With love,

ORRIE.

LAST CHAPTER IN MAHAN-DYK-HUIS CASE

Children to Live in Sight of Father's Prison; Mother Goes On to Detroit.

Grand Haven Tribune:—

A mother with her three children—a bright, proud boy of 12, a pretty daughter two years younger and a boy of 5, were charges of Deputy Sheriff Vander Noot to Ionia on the early morning train. The children know that their mother is going to Detroit to be placed in jail and they know that they shall not see her for nine months. And they know they will live at a home arranged for them in Ionia within a few squares from the prison where their father is serving a year behind bars.

The older children sobbed loudly with their mother and the baby was in tears because his mother was in some misunderstood distress. There were no curious spectators to witness the pathetic departure of the woman whose recent trials in Ottawa courts surpass all Grand Haven records for brazen baring of a woman's very soul. There were few who did not know of the whole affair and were glad to be rid of the faintest semblance, although there was that awful pathetic detail. The party boarded the car and in another minute had left the city where was staged probably the most unusual scene of mayhem ever perpetrated in Michigan.

From the first the case was replete with extraordinary details. With the commitment of the assault of Thomas Mahan upon the person of Fred (Tark) Allison, a young man whom he had found at his home one April night in '14, a long series of unwholesome turns and dramatic surprises continued the court sensations until this month. Then was the last and most-talked-of case dismissed. The Ottawa county official charged with complicity in similar offenses of Mrs. Mahan, was exonerated by relinquishment of Prosecuting Attorney Osterhaus. The entire court room filled to brimming, witnessed this sensational climax to one case of its kind on record in Michigan. And with the final minor details, to follow this week, comes the much-welcomed end.

NORTH HOLLAND MAN VENTS HIS WRATH ON FATHER OF SON CHARGED WITH BURGLARY

"Lute" Hoffman of North Holland, who was held up, robbed and beaten at his home a short time ago Sunday tried to explain what he thought of the case to the father of one of the men he charges with the crime, and as a result he got into trouble himself. Dick Riemersma, Sr., while with a party of friends, many of them ladies, was accosted on the street by Hoffman. Hoffman used vile and indecent language to tell Mr. Riemersma, who is a respected citizen of his community, what he thought of him for raising a son that would try to rob a poor innocent man.

Mr. Riemersma made a complaint against Hoffman charging him with using indecent language in the presence of women. When arraigned before Justice Sooy Monday a. m. Hoffman pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $10 and costs of $6.75.

Dick Riemersma, Jr., is now awaiting trial in circuit court on a charge of the burglary of Hoffman's home and assault on Mr. Hoffman.

LARGE BOULDER SHOWS WHERE ZEELAND COLONY BEGAN

Legend on Brass Plate Will Tell of the Early Days of the Settlers

The Zeeland Old Settlers' association under the direction of Henry DeKruif has placed a large boulder on the farm originally owned by J. H. Boone on the Zeeland road, between the brick yard and Scholten's bridge as a memorial to the early colonists. The stone probably weighs more than 20 tons.

Cornelius Van Loo of Zeeland, Postmaster G. Van Schelven of Holland, and Cornelius Roozenraad of Zeeland, respectively president, vice-president and secretary of the association are making arrangements to have a bronze plate placed upon the boulder the inscription to be practically as follows:

At a point 71 rods due south and 16 rods east from this memorial boulder, on the east side of the stream stood Het Water Huisje, built in the summer of 1847 by the Zeeland colonists, under the leadership of Jannes Vande Luyster. The site was the landing place for all supplies and building material which came from Holland to this point by flat boats and which was used as a base and distributing point that year for the settlements at Zeeland, Drenthe and Vriesland. The structure was built of logs, one story, with bark roof and was utilized by the early colonists for storage and temporary lodgings. The exact location is designated by a small boulder marked A. D., 1847.

The plate will also contain an outline of the historic shed. Special services will be arranged in the future for the proper dedication of the memorial.

VERSATILE FAKIR HAS BEEN OPERATING IN HOLLAND AND GRAND HAVEN.

Played Deaf and Dumb But Gets Hearing from Judge.

The hobo who gave his name as Charles E. Clark, and who was arrested in Holland Monday on a charge of begging is probably one of the best fakirs in the business. Clark received 30 days in the county jail for his actions in Holland and when he was taken to the county jail the officers there recognized him as a man who had just completed a ten days' sentence or rather he had won his freedom by his crookedness.

In Grand Haven Clark played deaf and dumb to win the sympathies of the people and beg some money. He was caught and given ten days in jail. He had served about half his sentence when he was taken with a fit in jail. He broke up things in general and so anxious were the officer to get rid of him that they left him go before his time was up.

Clark then came to Holland and here he played the rheumatic act. He was a helpless cripple, but he could talk and hear very well. He was ordered out of town, and refusing to go he got 30 days in jail. While an officer was taking him to the depot Clark had a fit. A doctor was called and Clark was dragged along toward the depot so as not to miss the train. As they reached the station platform he gave a knowing wink to the officer and then came out of the fit in fine shape after a muce at some smell ing salts.

Clark now occupies a solitary cell in the county jail and it is very likely that he will be kept in solitary confinement during all of his sentence. There he can "fit" to his heart's content and get in good practice for the time when he shall be released. He may probably be a blind man or a civil war veteran after he gets out.

LOCAL ORDER OF ELKS GAVE A PARTY IN HONOR OF N. J. WHELAN

Is Remembered With Beautiful Presents On Eve of Departure for Wisconsin.

A farewell party was given by the Elks, Holland lodge No. 1315, Thursday night in honor of N. J. Whelan. Evaluated Ruler on the night of his departure to make his home in Wisconsin. A program of speeches and songs was given the song features being those of Frank Girdler, Bert Hogan and Dr. Jacob Smith of Grand Rapids. Dr. Smith's selections were particularly fine, while Girdler and Hogan excelled in story telling, Hogan scoring as usual with his Dutch dialect tales.

Percy Ray acted as toastmaster and responses were made by T. N. Robinson, Harry Burkholder, Elton Dick and J. Van Putten Jr.

In the course of the evening the toastmaster had occasion to make several presentations, the first of which was a beautiful tapestry rocker presented to Mrs. Whelan with the admonition that she was to use it to sit in while waiting for him when away.

A presentation that caused an unusual amount of merriment was that of a beautiful cut glass punch bowl. It was carefully placed before the toastmaster and while he was holding it in his hands during the speechmaking the top part of the bowl slipped and fell off and was about to fall to the floor. Frank Girdler made one tremendous dive forward to rescue the precious piece of glass. He went through superhuman antics to catch it before it reached the floor. In the excitement the other part of the bowl was dropped from the toastmaster's hands and both parts crashed down into a thousand pieces. There was great consternation until it was discovered that the punch bowl, instead of being cut glass was a fake and that the dropping and breaking had been premeditated and was part of the play. Mr. Girdler not being in the secret. When this was discovered his face was a study, and so was Mr. Whelan's, who also had been on the point of making a dash to rescue the beautiful bowl.

The third gift, like the first, was a genuine one. It consisted of a handsome sterling silver visiting card case, properly inscribed, and adorned with the insignia of the order.

Mr. Whelan responded to the presentations and expressed his great appreciation, thanking the members for the uniform courtesy and good will they had shown him while Exalted Ruler.

Miss Rose Whelan and Master Nicholas J. Whelan, Jr., were remembered with a beautiful bouquet of cut flowers.

GEORGE E. CLEMENTS AND FAMILY RIDE THROUGH FLOODED ROADS.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Clements and family returned Thursday from an automobile trip to Toronto, Canada.

The Clements party had the misfortune to be caught in the cloud burst that flooded Detroit, and during the greater share of the trip from Detroit to Lansing the car plowed through water up to the running board. During the rest of the journey the water was not so deep but the excessive rains had made the road nearly impassible.

The Jamestown old settlers' picnic will be held at Spring Grove, Saturday, August 14. G. J. Diekema of Holland will be the speaker. S. F. Martin of Grand Rapids will ascend in a balloon.

MRS. MAHAN MUST SERVE FROM 9 MONTHS TO THREE YEARS AT DETROIT

Judge Cross Monday afternoon passed sentence on Mrs. Leona Mahan of Grand Haven. She was sentenced to spend not less than nine months and not more than three years in the Detroit house of Correction with a recommendation of nine months.

This sentence resulted from the sensational Allison-Mahan cases that have been keeping circuit court at Grand Haven busy for many months. Mrs. Mahan's husband is now serving time for maiming Turk Allison. At the time when her husband pleaded guilty Mrs. Mahan and Allison pleaded guilty but sentence was deferred until after the Dykhuys case should be disposed of.

PROPERTY OWNERS AND CITY OFFICIALS DISCUSS IMPROVEMENT OF WEST 18 STREET MONDAY NIGHT

Will Probably Build Stone Street, Most of Those Present Favoring That

The property owners living along Eighteenth street between River avenue and 1st Ave., held a meeting Monday evening in the basement of the Maple avenue church for the purpose of deciding on how that street shall be improved. Mayor Bosch, Alderman Conleton chairman of the committee on streets and crosswalks, Aldermen Vander Hill and Wiersema of the Sixth ward were present at the meeting. About forty property owners were present.

The system of building stone streets was explained to the property owners and they were so enthusiastic over it that when a vote was taken only four out of the forty opposed the stone street and held out for paving.

The meeting Monday night was only a preliminary gathering and no definite action was taken. A committee of five was appointed to look into the matter of the expense of improving the street. This committee will meet with the mayor, the street committee and the city engineer. The committee is composed of the following: Frank Bolhuis, G. Moelenaar, Frank Charter, C. Steketee, and Ben Dalman.

After the committee has secured all the necessary figures in regard to the cost of the improvement another meeting will be held at which a definite conclusion will be reached. Then a recommendation will be made to the council for action.

The contemplated street is not a gravel street, but what is known as a washed stone street with gravel binding. It has proved very successful in various parts of the city and it is believed that it will be very satisfactory on 18th street.

CORNELIUS YSKES, WELL KNOWN HERE, SERIOUSLY WOUNDED IN GRAND RAPIDS.

Boarding House Keeper Fires Twice When He Makes a Threat Against Her.

Cornelius Yskes, until about a year ago a resident of Holland, living at 46 East Sixth street was shot Sunday and probably fatally wounded by Mrs. Martha Church in Grand Rapids. Mrs. Church conducts a boarding house in that city and Yskes had been in her employ for some time. Two weeks ago he was dismissed and according to Mrs. Church's story he returned Sunday and threatened her. She sent for the police and when he threatened her she shot at him twice. One of the bullets perforated his intestines twice and it was only because he was immediately rushed to the hospital that death did not ensue almost instantly. Mrs. Church after firing the shots called the police and gave herself up with the statement that she had fired because she was afraid of the man.

Yskes has been in trouble in Holland a number of times. More than once he was arrested on charges of non-support brought on behalf of his wife and four children. He served more than one term on this charge and had but recently been released. For some time he has not been in Holland much, spending much of his time in Grand Rapids doing odd jobs to make a precarious living.

Mrs. Church who fired the shots is not unknown in Holland either. She formerly lived here. Her maiden name was Yonkman. She married a man named Ter Beek who dropped dead in Holland some years ago. Later she married Mr. Church of Grand Rapids and for a number of years she has been conducting a boarding house.

This is not the first time that there has been trouble at the boarding house. Some months ago Mrs. Church had a man arrested for threatening her with a razor. He is now serving time in the state prison for this offense.

Cornelius Yskes Not Yet Out of Danger

Cornelius Yskes, formerly of Holland, who was shot last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Martha Church in the latter's boarding house in Grand Rapids is in a critical condition at St. Mary's hospital. Mrs. Church is still held by officers at headquarters pending developments in the victim's condition.

The committee was composed of Alderman Slagh, Vander Hill, and Steketee, as well as Fire Chief Blom and Mayor Bosch.

LOCAL BOAT COMPANY FAMED IN MARINE CIRCLES FOR THE STABILITY OF BOATS.

Graham & Morton Line Doing a Good Business In Spite of the Bad Season.

In business for over half a century, having carried many thousands of passengers and thousands of dollars worth of freight, the Graham & Morton Co., at this time, in view of the recent Eastland disaster, is receiving considerable attention in marine circles because of the fact that this is one of the big boat companies on the Great Lakes which has had a minimum of accidents. The line is now known as the "safety first" boat company.

It is the stability of the Graham & Morton boats that has made the line one of the biggest transportation companies operating out of Chicago. While it is not generally known outside of marine circles, the stability of a boat rests on the shape of the bottom or hull of the vessel under water.

Three of the big Graham & Morton boats, "The City of Grand Rapids," "The Puritan" and the "City of Benton Harbor" were designed with the one sole idea in view—safety at sea. They were designed by a noted naval architect, Mr. George L. Craig, designer of many successful passenger steamers navigating the Great Lakes. The hulls or bottoms of these boats are so shaped that for them to tip over is considered impossible. The latest built vessel of the company, "The City of St. Joseph" has been tested out by Prof. Cooley of the University of Michigan for stability and speed.

The stability of this fleet of boats has also been assured by their use for several years. They have carried large and capacity loads of passengers, never having had any trouble or caused any nervousness from listing or unstable conditions. And G. & M. boats have navigated the waters of Lake Michigan in all kinds of weather, smooth and rough, which is the best test a steamer can be put to.

The Graham & Morton company is now one of the few big steamboat companies operating on the Great Lakes which is doing a good business despite the unfavorable weather conditions and the fact that the Eastland disaster has made people timid about going aboard lake going vessels. The stability and safety of the G. & M. liners is so well known that the traveling public has no fears about the reliability of those palatial lake liners, either in fair or foul weather. All of the G. & M. liners are equipped with wireless, another safety first measure which the public has taken into consideration. In addition every boat carries the full number of life boats and life preservers required by law.

While the Eastland accident will put two or more lines out of business, the Graham & Morton company will continue along the same successful lines that has made it one of the biggest and most successful of steamboat companies on the inland waterways.

HOLLAND INDEPENDENTS GAIN SAFE LEAD IN PENNANT RACE.

The Holland baseball team gained what is expected to be a safe lead in the pennant race in the Ottawa and Allegan county league by defeating the Pennville team by a score of 14 to 6, Saturday. The batteries for Holland were Batema and Ashley, for Pennville Johnson and Johnson.

Douglas won second place in the league while Pennville dropped to 3rd place by defeating the Zeeland team by a score of 8 to 4. The batteries were for Zeeland, Wyngarden and Alderink; Douglas, Atewater and Karsten.

TRIAL OF CHRIS VER PLANKE BEGAN YESTERDAY.

Riemersma to Be Tried Later; Much Interest Is Shown In the Case Here.

The trial of Chris Ver Planke of this city, charged with breaking into the home of Lewis Hoffman in North Holland with intent to rob and that he actually assaulted and robbed Hoffman was begun in circuit court in G. Haven shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday. There Dick Riemersma, who is held on a similar charge, will be tried later after the case against Ver Planke has been disposed of. The jury in the Ver Planke case was drawn yesterday. There is a good deal of interest in it in this part of the county, partly because Hoffman, whose home was broken into, is rather well known. He will be one of the principal witnesses, and his testimony is expected to be rather exceptionally interesting, as it was at the examination in a local justice court about three weeks ago.

Riemersma has been spending the time since his arrest in the Ottawa county jail, since he was unable to furnish the one thousand dollars bonds that the court required when he was bound over to circuit court. Ver Planke furnished the bonds at the time and has had his freedom since the time of the examination. The decision in the Ver Planke case will probably have an important bearing on the Riemersma case which will follow it. At the examination in the local court Ver Planke declared that he had been so drunk at the time when the home of Mr. Hoffman was broken into that he did not remember where he had been or what he had been doing.

Yesterday Mrs. Leona Mahan, sentenced Tuesday by Judge Cross to spend from nine months to three years in the Detroit House of Correction, was taken to Detroit to begin her sentence there yesterday noon. There was a rumor yesterday that Mrs. Mahan had disappeared Tuesday immediately after the sentence had been pronounced, but court officers denied it yesterday. She spent the night in the county jail and is now behind the bars in the Detroit institution.

EUGENE YOUNG AND CORNELIUS VANDER NAGEL GET 30 DAYS FOR LITTLE SPREE

After a police officer had responded to a call Tuesday night about 11 o'clock he went to the Interurban freight house in West Eighth street and found Eugene Young, Cornelius Vander Nagel and one other man enjoying a little booze party. All three men were quartered in the city jail for the night. Yesterday one man was released as he had not been intoxicated or caused any disturbance, and Young and Vander Nagel were sentenced to spend 30 days in the county jail when arraigned before Justice Miles. Young is on the black list, but he would not tell who gave him his liquor. He said a man on the Puritan gave it to him, but that he did not know the man.

FATHER AND MOTHER BOTH IN PRISON, LEAVING CHILDREN HELPLESS.

The attack on Fred Allison over a year ago, one of the results of which was the sentencing of Mrs. Leona Mahan Tuesday, furnished the county a great deal of unpleasant comment, and its developments have had no higher moral tone. The outraged husband is serving a year in Ionia, and now the wife will do her time. Allison is held for sentence but his case has not been disposed of. The most pathetic phase of the whole affair is the situation in which the windup leaves three children of the man and woman. They will be taken to Ionia, where it is understood that the father has made arrangements for their care for the present.

SIXTEENTH STREET ROAD NOW BEING IMPROVED BY THE COMMISSIONERS.

Yesterday work was begun on the Sixteenth street road, one of the principal approaches to Holland from the east. The work is under the direction of the county road commission. The road connects Holland with the villages of Drenthe, Overisel and other villages and hamlets, as well as a particularly rich farming community.

The improvement of this road will mean much to that section of Holland township. At the same time work is being rushed on the Alpena Beach road so that in the near future practically all the highways leading into Holland will be in very good shape.

MR. AND MRS. F. GORDON HOLD FAMILY REUNION AT GRAND HAVEN.

The family of County Treasurer Fred Gordon held an old-fashioned family reunion in Grand Haven Tuesday. There are 14 in the family including Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, and they have been together for the first time in several years this summer at the Gordon home in Nunica.

The family party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon and the following sons and daughters: Ethel, Evelyn, Ella, Richards, Everett, Marion, Howard, Ruth, Robert, Mildred, Alice and Carol Gordon. The reunion was broken last night, however, by the departure of Miss Ethel and Richard for Montana where they have taken up a homestead near Harwell. They expect to prove up their claims and remain in the west where Miss Ethel is at present teaching.

MISSION FEST WAS SUCCESS.

The first annual Mission Fest held at Zeeland last Thursday was a great success. Fully 2,000 people crowded into the First and Second Reformed churches to listen to the speakers. Rain prevented the gathering in the Park. Special feature of the day was the work of the Boy Scouts. The program was carried out as scheduled both morning and evening. Over $1500 in money was collected for missions.

LUNG MOTOR GIVEN A HURRY-UP TEST.

Committee Tests Out the Length of Time Taken In Arriving On the Spot.

As a result of a test call for the lungmotor made Monday night by a special committee appointed at the last meeting of the council, steps will be taken to arrange things in such a way in regard to the lungmotor that not a minute needs be lost in getting that instrument to the scene of an accident. The committee, composed of Aldermen Vander Ven, Kammeraad and Brower, together with the Mayor, sent in a call at ten minutes before seven o'clock, the call being sent in from the lake near the west city limits. The call was sent by having the police light turned on. It was just 18 minutes after the call was first sent in that the lungmotor arrived on the scene. It was nine minutes after the police got the red light signal that they had the lungmotor on the spot, nine of the total of eighteen minutes having elapsed before the police got the signal. Of that nine minutes only three and a half minutes were consumed in transporting the lungmotor from the city hall to the lake. The police pressed the automobile driven by Raymond Vischer into service and the run to the lake was made in record-breaking time.

The committee decided that 18 minutes is too long a period to elapse between turning in a call and having the lungmotor ready for use. They were not disposed to blame anybody. The experiment in fact was made last night in order to find out what will be necessary to make the lungmotor more available. It seems that adequate provision has not been made in regard to the handling of the lungmotor and in view of the handicaps the police department did remarkably well in getting it to the scene as soon as they did.

But the fact remains that a delay of 18 minutes would in most cases make the lungmotor entirely useless and steps will be taken to have the time cut down materially. The committee will work out some system, based on the information they received from last night's experiment, whereby not a second may be lost. The committee is of the opinion that if the lungmotor is to be of any use at all it must be possible to get it to the scene where it is needed with as much dispatch as the firemen reach a fire. To do this some provision will have to be made to have someone always on the job ready for a call at any time.

JOHN BURGESS, FORMER HOLLAND MAN, WANTED ON TWO DIFFERENT CHARGES

Eludes Officers In Bloomingdale And Then Comes To Holland; Settles Affairs With Local Attorney.

John Burgess, formerly of this city, was arrested by the police Sunday in this city after having eluded arrest for some time on two different charges. Judge Orien S. Cross had sworn out a bench warrant for Burgess on a charge of contempt of court, because Burgess did not pay a balance due on alimony to his former wife, and James Cole of this city had a warrant sworn out against Burgess before Justice Miles on a charge of selling a wagon that he had bought of Mr. Cole on a title note.

Mr. Burgess has married again and is now running a grocery store at Bloomingdale, Van Buren county. Deputy Sheriff Dorabos went to Bloomingdale after Mr. Burgess and the sheriff of Van Buren county attempted to arrest Mr. Burgess, but each time Mr. Burgess seemed to get wind of the officers' actions and he was somewhere else when the officers came to get him.

Evidently the chase got too hot at last and Sunday Mr. Burgess came to Holland to settle up the charges against him. The local officers had received notice to arrest Mr. Burgess if he came around here, and Officer Peter Bontekoe took him into custody when he met him Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Burgess was brought to the attorney interested in the case against him and he settled up the whole affair and was released.

HOLLAND MERCHANTS TO UNITE WITH FARMERS IN A GRAND CELEBRATION

Date Not Yet Set But It Will Probably Be Held In the Month of October

It was decided Friday night at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce that Holland shall hold a Harvest Picnic instead of a Farmers' Picnic. The date for this picnic has not as yet been definitely decided upon, but it is scheduled to come off sometime in the first part of October.

It was decided to drop the name of "Farmers' Picnic", as a good many farmers objected to the name and as Mr. White of the Beach Milling Co.,

Girls Receive Certificates at The Kalamazoo Normal.

The following Ottawa county girls were given certificates from the Western State Normal school at Kalamazoo last week:

Graded department: Cornelia Werks, Zeeland; George Lemmon, Holland. Rural certificates: Verna Althuis, Henrietta Brinks, Henrietta Oostema, Florence Wammant, Holland; Helen Kamps Zeeland.

stated, that the farmers do not want Holland to have a picnic for them but they would like to co-operate and have a picnic together with the city people, in which both can take a part in making it a success. "A good many farmers object," said Mr. White, "to being handed a cup of coffee and a sandwich, as bait for trade; they feel that they can buy their own if necessary."

The farmers as a rule are willing to co-operate and be part of the committee of arrangements. Another objectional feature," said Mr. White, has been for young smart lads to pull a burlesque off on the farmers, in the way of a big straw hat, bandana handkerchief and the kids parading along the street with a straw in their mouth. This the farmers feel is an insult to themselves and their vocation."

W. H. Orr, secretary of the Fair, wanted to designate one of the days of the fair for a picnic of this kind. He said that he no doubt was a little selfish in this matter, stating that he was looking out for the interests of the fair, which after all was not his fair, but the fair of the citizens of Holland. The members of the Chamber of Commerce however, thought that the two events would conflict and one or the other would suffer by it.

Henry Geerlings suggested that the picnic be held after the Fair and said that sometime in the first part of October would be a good time to pull it off and his suggestion was followed out.

Since the name "Farmers' Picnic" was objected to by some, Prof. Edward Elias suggested that the name be changed to "Harvest picnic", since the both the name and time of holding would be appropriate and it would eliminate the objectional feature in the other name.

A rousing talk was given by John Vandersluis for a successful picnic and pros and cons of the picnic were also wisely discussed by Emory P. Davis, Gerard Cook, George Van Landegend, Herman Van Tongeren, Chairman Landeweher, Mr. De Pree of the DePree Hardware Co., and others.

At this meeting Chairman Landeweher presided and Ben Mulder acted as secretary, in the absence of Secretary D. Boter, who was out of the city.

Coming Back to Holland, Michigan

UNITED DOCTORS SPECIALIST WILL AGAIN BE AT HOTEL HOLLAND
Monday, August 23, 1915
ONE DAY ONLY
Hours 10 A. M. to 8 P. M.

Remarkable Success of These Talented Physicians in the Treatment of Chronic Diseases Offer Their Services Free of Charge

The United Doctors, licensed by the State of Michigan for the treatment of deformities and all nervous and chronic diseases of men, women and children, offer to all who call on this trip, consultation, examination, advice free, making no charge whatever, except the actual cost of treatment. All that is asked in return for these valuable services is that every person treated will state the result obtained to their friends and thus prove to the sick and afflicted in every city and locality, that at last treatments have been discovered that are reasonably sure and certain in their effect.

These doctors are among America's leading stomach and nerve specialists and are experts in the treatment of chronic diseases and so great and wonderful have been their results that in many cases it is hard to find the dividing line between skill and miracle.

Diseases of the stomach, intestines, liver, blood, skin, nerves, heart, spleen, kidneys, or bladder, rheumatism, sciatica, diabetes, bed-wetting, tape worm, leg ulcers, weak lungs and those afflicted with long-standing, deep seated, chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of the family physicians, should not fail to call. Deafness often has been cured in sixty days.

According to their system no more operations for appendicitis, gall stones, tumors, goiter, piles, etc., as these diseases are treated without operation or hypodermic injection.

They were among the first in America to earn the name of "Bloodless Surgeons," by doing away with the knife with blood and with all pain in the successful treatment of these dangerous diseases.

If you have kidney or bladder troubles bring a two ounce bottle of your urine for chemical analysis and microscopic examination.

No matter what your ailment may be, no matter what others may have told you, no matter what experience you may have had with other physicians, it will be to your advantage to see them at once. Have it forever settled in your mind. If your case is incurable they will give you such advice as may relieve and stay the disease. Do not put off this duty you owe yourself or friends or relatives who are suffering because of your sickness, as a visit at this time may help you.

Worn-out and run-down men or women no matter what your ailment, consult them. It costs you nothing. Remember, this last free offer is for this visit only.

Married ladies come with their husbands and minors with their parents.

Despondency Due to Indigestion.

"About three months ago when I was suffering from indigestion which caused headache and dizzy spells and made me feel tired and despondent, I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Geo. Hon. Macdonald, N. Y. "This medicine proved to be the very thing I needed, as one day's treatment relieved me greatly. I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they rid me of this trouble." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

BOY KNOCKED DOWN BY JITNEY, BUT NOT SERIOUSLY INJURED

The automobile jitney Bus, operated by Peel & Woodham met with an unavoidable accident Friday a. m. when they ran into a small boy at Montello Park. The jitney had just reached the top of the hill going toward the park when the driver slowed down for another car that stopped in front of him to let off some children. The occupants of the front car noticed the car behind them with the exception of one little lad who ran directly in front of the jitney. The mud guard of the car struck the youngster in the cheek and knocked him down but the boy jumped up immediately and said, "I ain't hurt." The jitney was moving very slowly and stopped almost as soon as it hit the boy. A bruise is the extent of the lad's injury.

EXPECT FARMERS FROM ALL PARTS OF OTTAWA AND ALLEGAN COUNTY

As previously announced the Eleventh Annual Farmers' Picnic will be held at Jenison Park Wednesday, Aug. 25.

As usual this will be the date when the residents of the rural communities of Ottawa and Allegan counties will meet each other as they have done for many years past.

It is not only that the people come to Jenison Park for a holiday at this time but this is the time when they meet their friends many of whom they have not seen since the year previous. It seems as if everyone is there and that is what makes the Farmers' Picnic such a success.

As in former years there will be a fine barbecue served at noon and arrangements have been made so that this can be served much quicker and better than at the previous picnics.

There will be baseball, games of all kinds, athletic sports that anyone can enter and plenty of entertainment for everybody. There will be bands, balloons and other attractions as well.

Excursion rates will be made from all points to Jenison Park on this date.

Three automobile speeders, arrested by Motorcop Bontekoe Sunday, have been arraigned before Justice Robinson and they paid a fine and costs of $5 each. The men arrested were W. Judson and L. O'Leary of Grand Rapids and Gerrit Vos of Holland.

G. J. DIEKEMA'S ELOQUENCE MOVES LARGE COURT ROOM AUDIENCE.

The scene in the court room in Grand Haven Friday when Sheriff Dykhuis was freed from the charge against him was different from anything ever witnessed in that room according to several from Holland who attended the trial. Incidentally Mr. Diekema's address had a good deal to do with the emotions that were let loose by the spectators. In describing the scene the Grand Haven Tribune says:

"The wonderful eloquence of the former congressman will never be forgotten by the audience in the court room. As the words rolled from his lips Sheriff Dykhuis sobbed and tears rolled down his cheeks. His wife beside him gave way to her feelings. Both were thinking of the dear little girl whose future happiness hung in the balance. Jurors with faces browned and seared sat with tears rolling down their faces and toil-hardened hands gripped together. Men matured by years, and mere boys feeling the thrill of such an emotion for the first time, bolted from the room, ashamed of the tears which ran down their faces.

"When the man whose eloquence had flowed in national matters took his seat, the whole court room sat spell-bound for an instant, and then came the wave of applause, like a sweeping breeze across a field of grain. In that few minutes of demonstration came the vindication of Sheriff Dykhuis in the eyes of his fellows. It was like the falling of the curtain on a play which had stirred its auditors to the quick."

DYKHUIS RECEIVES CONGRATULATIONS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY.

All day long today Sheriff H. H. Dykhuis received congratulations from all parts of Ottawa county on the exoneration he received Friday when the case against him in the Ottawa County circuit court came to a sudden conclusion with a verdict of not guilty directed by Judge Cross and rendered by the jury without leaving the court room.

The intense excitement that prevailed in Grand Haven Friday after the verdict had been made public somewhat died down at the county-seat Saturday, but the trial was still the theme of practically all conversations. The vindication of Mr. Dykhuis was more complete than the most sanguine of his friends had dared to hope for. It was Prosecuting Attorney Osterhouse who asked for a dismissal of the case which he had worked up with all his ability. According to the persons from Holland who attended the trial the scene in the court room when the verdict was announced was dramatic and touching to the extreme.

The case for Dykhuis was handled by Mr. Diekema and Mr. Kollen of this city and Att. Dan. F. Pagelsen of Grand Haven. The jurors in the trial were: O. G. Maxfield Coopersville; Millard F. Walling, Tallmadge; George Bartholomew, Crookery; Marinus De Keine, of Zeeland; Gerrit Dolman, Allendale; M. H. Freeman, Jamestown; Frank Hedges of Coopersville; Charles McCarty of Grand Haven township; Roy McClune, Chester; Lester W. Martin, Wright; Frank Slater, Coopersville; Peter Japin-ga, Georgetown.

Mr. Hedges was appointed foreman of the jury by Judge Cross. It was the fifth time in his career that Mr. Hedges has been a foreman of a circuit court jury.

Prosecutor Osterhouse' address to the court Friday in which he asked that case be nolle prossed was unusual. Usually a prosecutor does not ask that the man he has been trying to convict be freed of the charge against him, but Mr. Osterhouse Friday combined in his person, in making the plea to the court, the offices of public defender and public prosecutor, and his action was loudly applauded.

After he had become convinced that Mr. Dykhuis was not guilty of the offense charged, Mr. Osterhouse arose and frankly told the court so, asking that the charges be dismissed. The bit of testimony that was the final clincher in establishing Dykhuis' innocence of the final charge was to the effect that was proven beyond doubt that the sheriff in April, 1914, when the offense was alleged to have been committed, did not know how to run an automobile. The charge being that the offense had been committed during an auto trip that the sheriff took alone with the complaining witness, the proof that he could not drive a machine was conclusive.

After giving a history of the case, detailing the reasons why he had drawn up the complaint against the sheriff, Mr. Osterhouse referred to the fact that there had at the time been some friction between the prosecutor's department and the sheriff's department, but that that had not had anything to do with the drawing up of the complaint. He further called attention to the fact that the testimony had brought out some instances of other alleged instances in which the sheriff was supposed to have been involved, but that no conviction could justly be based on these instances. He gave a review of the evidence in regard to the sheriff's being unable to drive an automobile in April, 1914, and then stated his reasons for nolle prossing the case as follows:

"And so while the matter stands as it is while the trial of the case stands in the condition in which it is now, I want to say to the court, to the respondent and his counsel and to the jury, that it being my opinion that the respondent is not guilty, cannot be guilty, and the jury would not be justified in finding him guilty, of the specific offense with which he is charged, that this case should proceed no further. In so doing I hope no one will think that I am making this statement because I am afraid of anybody or anything or because I am a quitter. I am not willing to acknowledge and I don't want anybody to think that I am a quitter or that I am in the habit of laying down when I believe and can believe I am justified in going ahead. So far as fear or anything of that sort is concerned, I really think it takes more courage sometimes to quit than it does to act and more courage to stop than it does to go ahead. If I could feel that the further prosecution of this case was justified, if I could feel that honestly I could go before these jurors, and in the presence of this court, and leave to them the question of the respondent's guilt at that time, if there wasn't any reasonable doubt in my own mind of the respondent's guilt at that time, I could do that, but feeling as I do, I think that the only fair and the only honest thing for me to do is to do as I am doing and say what I am saying and state frankly to this court and to the jury and to everybody concerned just what my opinions and just what my views are. And at this time and for the reasons that I have given and because of the opinions that I hold, I want to ask without proceeding any further with the trial of this case, that an order of nolle pros. be entered therein and the case dismissed and the respondent discharged, or that such other and different proceeding be taken as the court thinks proper under the circumstances, if of course the court agrees with me in the suggestions that I have made and approves of the opinions that I hold."

After Mr. Osterhouse had concluded his plea Mr. Diekema delivered an eloquent address. He declared that Mr. Osterhouse, in view of the affidavits that had been filed, could not have done anything else but start the case against Mr. Dykhuis. Mr. Diekema further reviewed in brief the testimony that exonerated Mr. Dykhuis beyond the shadow of a doubt, after which he praised Mr. Osterhouse for the action he had taken in the following words:

"Now, the proposition is this: What is the duty of a prosecuting attorney under those conditions, his duty to the people and the public is peculiar, it is not like the duty which we as counsel sitting at this desk owe the respondent. We owe the respondent our every effort to acquit him, the attorney for the people on the other hand has a double duty, it has been so stated several times in the decisions of our Supreme Court, he owes a duty to the people and he owes a duty to the respondent and whether the respondent had any attorneys here or not it would be his duty to do with equal and impartial justice protect the interest both of the people and of any citizen who might be the respondent at that time.

"If then the prosecuting attorney has been convinced as every man on the jury and every human being that has heard this testimony must have been convinced that the act charged could not have been committed and was not committed, I think his second duty is just as plain as his first was, but I think that the second duty requires more courage than the first required. While the prosecuting attorney was making this statement I wondered, with my fighting propensities, whether I would have the courage in the midst of the battle, when I saw that I was wrong, when I saw that I could not conscientiously proceed, to stop the fight. I am proud to say that our young prosecuting attorney has that courage and he exemplified here this morning a higher courage in discontinuing than he had when he commenced the suit, and I desire to say further in this connection that if it is true as it has been absolutely demonstrated that this witness created and concocted a tissue of lies relating to the April charges, what faith can be put upon his testimony as to any of the other statements. We have testimony here which we could introduce absolutely denying any and all of the testimony relating to the statements of former improprieties but that does not become necessary. Now your honor, I desire to say this and the people of the county ought to know it, that never in all my life in over 30 years of active practice at this bar have I seen such brazen impudence and such a nest of corruption and of bad morals and of absolute carelessness about an oath and the responsibility of an oath as has been brought forth in this case by the witnesses for the people. The prosecuting attorney could not know it, the whole case depends absolutely upon the testimony of this one family and that one family stands condemned here in the eyes of every man who loves decency, in the eyes of every man who loves morality, in the eyes of every man who loves the American home, and all that surrounds it, and so I have no objection to make whatever in behalf of the respondent to the suggestion made by the prosecuting attorney, and before I close I want to thank the court for the absolute impartiality with which he has conducted this case and I want to congratulate Mrs. Dykhuis, whose hair has grown white during the troubles of the past year, upon the happy outcome of this case, and the people of the county and the respondent upon the fact that a Name has been cleared which has been under a cloud for a year."

BOY SCOUTS ASSIST AT WEDDING AT HOME OF MR. AND MRS. J. VAN PUTTEN, JR.

A rather unique wedding ceremony took place Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Van Putten, Jr. when Miss Della M. Soules of Kalamazoo became the wife of Maurice L. Wells, also of Kalamazoo, but at present instructor of golf at the Ottawa Beach golf links.

About a dozen Holland boy scouts were the chief guests at the wedding and it was through them that what had been planned as a simple and informal affair assumed something of the proportions of a more elaborate function. One of the scouts at the last moment persuaded his mother to bake a wedding cake for the affair, and with a few other accessories the wedding became the real thing.

The Rev. Harold Holt of Grace Episcopal church performed the ceremony, the impressive Episcopal service being used. Miss Madeline Van Putten was bridesmaid and J. J. Van Putten Jr., attended the groom. Mrs. A. Cappon acted as matron of honor and the Rev. Mr. Holt's father was master of ceremonies.

But the Boy scouts formed the really important part of the gathering. It was they who saw to it that nothing was forgotten that goes to the making of a real wedding, and at the close they were there even with a bounteous supply of rice to throw after the departing couple.

300 CHILDREN ENJOY VERY PLEASANT FORENOON

Chautauqua People Pleased; Hide Elevation Tickets Instead of Five.

There is no doubt about the fact that the children of the city were posted in regard to the Play Festival with which the Junior Chautauqua opened at 8 o'clock a. m. Monday. Some 300 boys and girls were present to take part in the games that were superintended by Miss Conklin for the Lincoln people with the assistance of Miss Kanter of the Public Library. Secretary L. O. Moody also assisted this morning in handling the large crowd of youngsters.

Both Mr. Otta, superintending the chautauqua here, and Miss Conklin, in charge of the Junior Chautauqua, were more than pleased with the turnout. They declared it was one of the most satisfactory Play Festivals held in any city in the circuit. So well were they pleased with the number that it was decided to make the number of tickets that were hidden for the youngsters to find 11 instead of five as had been announced. It was decided that it would not be quite fair to have three hundred children hunt for only five.

Miss Conklin divided the children into groups and with her assistants she kept these groups busy during the play hours. She introduced a number of foreign games that have but recently been brought to America from other lands, and during the coming year the local children will have a number of games to keep them busy that they never heard of before Monday.

A number of teachers were present Monday morning to watch the children play. Of the eleven tickets that were hidden on the grounds but two were found by girls. The boys were by far the best hunters. The following are the children all eleven years of age and under that found tickets for the Junior Chautauqua: William Reynolds, Verdin Van Dyke, Harold De Vries, Harold De Loof, Clarence Klassen, Julia Huntley, Hoebert Bell, Tena Gebben, Henry Rottschaffer, Bernard Vanden Berg and Elton Hansen.

THE REV. HERMAN HOEKSEMA TO BE PASTOR OF 14TH ST. CHRISTIAN REFORMED CHURCH.

The Rev. Herman Hoeksema, who graduated from the Christian Reformed Theological Seminary last June, announced Sunday to the congregation of the Fourteenth street Christian Reformed church that he had accepted the call extended to him by that church. Mr. Hoeksema took the opportunity while he was conducting the services there to make the announcement. He will be installed in the near future.

Mr. Hoeksema was one of the most popular of the men who graduated last spring. He received five calls, the other four being from churches in Detroit, Patterson, N. J., Muskegon, and Jamestown, all of which he declined the latter part of the week with the exception of the one from the local church.

Mr. Hoeksema is a brilliant young orator and he made a fine record while at the Grand Rapids school.

COMMON COUNCIL

Holland, Mich., July 23, 1915.

The Common Council met in special session and was called to order by the Mayor. Present: Mayor Bosch, Alds. Slag, Drinkwater, Brive, Kammeraad, Congleton, Vanderhoeft, Lawrence, Steketee, Wiersema, and the Clerk.

The clerk reported that the meeting was called for the purpose of considering the matter of purchasing additional ground for the Board of Public Works.

Ald. Prins here appeared and took his seat. The Board of Public Works reported that at a meeting of the Board, held July 19, a resolution was adopted to recommend to the Council the purchase of Lots 2, 3, and 10 and the East 32 feet of Lots 4 and 9, Block 22, of the City of Holland, for the sum of $4,500.

The Board further reported that this property abuts on the west on a line approximately nine feet east of the east line of the Fifth street Station property, and would, if not purchased, limit building operations in that direction.
