OLD COLONIAL CHURCH TO BE REMODELED

AT LEAST $4,000.00 WILL BE SPENT TO PUT THE CHURCH IN MODERN SHAPE

Sloping Floors, Choir Loft and New Gallery Are Some of the Changes

The old Colonial church with the big pillars will soon be transformed into a modern structure and the old edifice in which Dr. Van Raalte, Dominie Peters and other prominent divines spoke to their flock from Sunday to Sunday will be revolutionized from the "old-fashioned" to the up-to-date.

Altho the outward appearance of the church will remain as it is, unique because of its peculiar construction, the interior will undergo such changes that the dominies of old would not recognize it as their former place of worship.

At least $4,000 will be spent to make these necessary changes. In the first place the rostrum will be so arranged that a choir loft can be built to the rear of the pulpit, and as soon as this is completed a regular choir will be organized to aid with the church music.

The floor in the auditorium will be made slanting and the seats so arranged so that the communicants, and audience can easily see the pastor and more readily hear his discourse.

The gallery to the rear will be extended into the church several feet adding considerable seating capacity to the already spacious auditorium.

Rooms will be built under the gallery that can be used as church parlors, and can be closed off from the rest of the church, or by means of raising glass partitions the whole can be thrown into one.

The seats in the gallery will also be made elevated as those on the floor below.

Another furnace will be added to the heating plant now in use, assuring a cozy warm church the coming winter.

The church proper will be redecorated throughout and the large wooden structure will also receive a coat of paint on the outside.

The change in the seating capacity was made necessary because of the rapid growth of this flourishing congregation.

Rev. E. J. Tuuk is loved by his congregation and he has proven to be a live wire not alone in religious, but civic affairs of this city.

Mr. Tuuk has just received a call from the Third Christian Reformed church of Roseland, Ill., which he is now considering. His parishioners and the city at large sincerely hope he can see his way clear to remain in Holland as head of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church.

SAUGATUCK BEST FLOWER GARDEN IN TEMPERATE ZONE

THAT IS WHAT BOTANIST SAYS OF THAT SUMMER GARDEN

James A. Peterson, an attorney from Chicago, is in Saugatuck making a study of the local flora in these parts. He has been admitted to practice in the state and federal courts here and having attended the constitutional convention and having been acquainted with many prominent men in the state.

Mr. Peterson is emphatically a believer in newspaper publicity, and expressed amazement that the superlative attractions of Saugatuck have not been better advertised. Grasping a scratch pad and pencil he summarized his impressions and suggestions as follows:

"Many ignorant persons don't know Saugatuck is on the map; many educated persons don't know the most valuable attractions Saugatuck has. Saugatuck has the best flora collection of any city or village in Michigan—or for that matter, of any north of 22° north latitude. This fact must be advertised, so that all may read and learn.

"Local merchants and prominent citizens should organize and advertise Saugatuck without further delay. Start the work in the local paper—it will help the town. Botanists and geologists will hike to Saugatuck to increase their herbariums, bringing in their wake all those who wish to increase the weight of their intelligence."

We can say amen of Holland to a great deal of what Mr. Peterson says for Saugatuck.

DAMAGE DONE TO STREETS MAKE ALDERMEN SORE

WILL HAVE A STEAM ROLLER AND TRACTOR ORDINANCE MAYBE

Eighteen Ton Excavator Spills The Pavement On Twelfth Street

That Holland will soon have a tractor ordinance or an ordinance preventing heavy machinery from being moved over our public streets has been announced by the ordinance committee of which Alderman Ben Wiersema is chairman. The city engineer has been having more or less trouble with the threshing machines and other bulky steam and motor driven machinery.

But what capped the climax was the moving of an eighteen-ton excavator thru the city on its own power. It seems that Campbell & Co. who have the job of laying the Saugatuck-Holland Pike road sent their excavating machine to this piece of road work by the way of Holland.

The affair is an instrument with large broad wheels having spikes four inches long. The machine had already gone over the Twelfth street pavement and had done a great deal of damage. The gravel streets in places where it had passed were also torn up and will have to be dragged.

The heavy machine was first discovered by City Engineer Zuidema entering upon the First Avenue Pavement. He stopped the man at the wheel from moving the excavator further and compelled the crew to first saw off every pike sticking out from the broad wheel before he allowed them to proceed.

With much grumbling the company's engineers did as they were told, the operation consuming several hours. Before this operation was completed, however the machine did at least a hundred dollars damage to the Twelfth street pavement.

The common council instructed the city engineer to repair the damage and told City Attorney McBride to present the city's bill to the road contractors immediately and demand settlement. The affair may bring on an ordinance governing the moving of tractors, engines, threshers and all heavy machinery over the city streets.

ELECTION INSPECTORS ARE APPOINTED

WILL SERVE AT THE AUGUST PRIMARIES

The common council last night appointed six election inspectors who will serve at their respective wards on primary day August 27.

The inspectors chosen by wards are as follows:

First Ward—Jacob Lokker.
Second Ward—Arthur Drinkwater.
Third Ward—John De Koeper.
Fourth Ward—James Brink.
Fifth Ward—Henry Vander Warf.
Sixth Ward—Jacob Sprang.

NINETEENTH ST. PROPERTY OWNERS WARM UNDER COLLAR

SAYS STREET DOES NOT HOLD UP UNDER TRAVEL; "GOT WHAT THEY ASKED FOR SAYS COMMITTEE"

Citizens on 19th street between 1st and Van Raalte Avenues were up at the council in a body last evening. Stating that the street laid two years ago had proven to be a complete failure and they asked the city of Holland, to repair or relay the street at the city's expense the same as they claim had been done on Central avenue.

The citizens thru their spokesman Mr. Mokma seems rather put out about the matter although the chairman of the committee on streets, Mr. Congleton said that the property owners got just what they demanded. The committee had pleaded with them to lay a pavement instead of gravel but the property owners insisted on gravel. Mr. Brink who was also a member of the committee on streets at that time stated that the city was even threatened with an injunction suit to be instituted by the property owners should the city pave this street instead of gravel it. "You got just what you asked for and that against our advice. This same matter came up on Eighteenth street and we at last persuaded the property owners to pave instead of gravel the street. The Eighteenth street property owners are now glad that they decided on pavement instead of gravel. You insisted on the gravel and got it and the property owners on 19th street have no one to blame but themselves, said Mr. Congleton. The council has left the matter to the committee on streets to see what is the trouble and what can be done for the street.

NO "STOP SKIP" ON INTERURBAN FOR HOLLAND

HOLLAND INTERURBAN IS NOW MAKING IMPROVEMENT ON EAST EIGHTH STREET

Heavier Rails Will Have to Wait Until After the War Is Over

Mr. Morgan, superintendent of the Holland Interurban road, was in the city last evening and came before the common council in order to straighten out several matters that had been pending and requested by the aldermen. Mr. Morgan has been on the sick list for the past four months and is just getting back on the job and for that reason some of the matter asked for had been delayed.

The first matter taken up was heavier rails on East Eighth street, because of a complaint that had been sent in by the resident property owners stating that the heavy cars shook their homes as they passed.

This Mr. Morgan said was out of the question now, because the government controlled all the steel and none could be gotten until after the war. He said however, that as soon as material could be secured the necessary changes would be made.

The aldermen understood the situation and did not press the changes on East Eighth street at this time. The company is however relaying a large part of the pavement between the rails and to the side of the track on East Eighth street and is making a good job of it.

Mr. Morgan seemed willing to cooperate with the city in other ways. He asked the mayor and aldermen if any street paving was contemplated this year and was given the information that possibly Sixteenth street near the Shoe factory might be paved and also a part of Harrison avenue. Mr. Morgan suggested that these be delayed long enough so that new and heavier rails could be laid stating that wherever new and permanent improvements were to be made the company desired to lay better and more substantial rails. The aldermen stated that possibly the improvements on these streets would be only temporary until after the war but of course they could not say just what disposition was to be made of these streets as they needed attention because of being in such poor condition. Mr. Morgan said they would be ready to do their share whenever the time came.

The National Fuel Administration is asking for a stop skip schedule on all street cars and interurban lines. Mr. Morgan asked the city fathers what disposition they wished to make of this request. Mayor Bosch stated that according to the schedule agreed upon last April the city had enough "stop skip" cars and that nothing further should be expected from the city. This seemed agreeable to the aldermen and the railroad official.

TWO YOUNG MEN ARE PROBATIONED BY JUDGE CROSS

BOYS GIVEN A CHANCE TO MAKE GOOD, WHICH THEY SAID THEY WOULD DO

In circuit court Judge Orien S. Cross gave two young men, held for sentence in the Ottawa circuit court, another chance to make good. The court stated that he did not wish to cut the young men off from a chance to reform by sending them to prison and he offered them the opportunity to mend their ways and avoid the more serious difficulties in the end.

Louis Gardner who was charged with entering the Pelton store in Robinson township and carrying away a small amount of change was placed on probation for two years, with a stipulation that he pay the costs of court, and turn over $1 per month to the county as the probation fee. J. C. Lehman of this city was appointed his probation officer. The lad will report at frequent intervals and avoid bad company in the future.

Barney Nienhuis of Muskegon county, charged with entering residence at West Olive in the day time was also given a two year probation. Dan Peterson of Muskegon was appointed probation officer for him and the usual provisions were made concerning the payment of the costs. Nienhuis was arrested in the Interurban station here, after an all-night vigil by Sheriff Dornbos and Deputies Boomgaard and Jack West.

Miss Marie Bangor received word this morning from her friend Mr. David Schoonwald, former business college teacher that he arrived safely overseas.

WILL AID THE AGED BUT NOT THEIR HEIRS

CITY WILL PROTECT ITSELF IN EXTENDING HELP TO PEOPLE WITH PROPERTY

Wants Its Own Back Before The Heirs Get a Chance At The Estate

The Common Council last night reaffirmed its position taken several times before during the past few years in regard to the matter of extending aid to people who have property. There are from time to time cases of old people who own their home but who have no means of support and who are too old to earn their own living. In such cases it is frequently considered the best plan to have them in their home and help them with city funds.

But experience in the past has sometimes shown that after the city had contributed to their support for a number of years, the heirs of the aged people, after their death, came forward and claimed all the property, leaving the city in the lurch.

This is considered an imposition. The matter has been discussed from time to time in the council during the past few years, and it came up for discussion again last evening. Mayor Bosch very emphatically declared that the policy to be followed should be to so protect the city that it would get its money back when such an estate is closed up, before the heirs who did not support their aged relatives during life could get their slice of the property.

A concrete case came up in which the aged pair themselves suggested that such an arrangement should be entered into. They were to self-respecting to ask charity and they suggested that papers should be so drawn up that the city would be reimbursed for the aid extended before the heirs would get a cent of the property.

The aldermen agreed that this was only right and just and the council informally declared that such a policy should be followed in all cases of this nature in the future. The city is willing to help people of this kind but it is not willing to help them for the benefit of their heirs.

REGISTRATION IN HOLLAND CLOSES SATURDAY

There is a registration now going on in the city of Holland. It is in preparation for the coming primary in Ottawa county and throughout Michigan. The primary date this year is August 27 and all persons who are not registered will have to have their names enrolled in the office of City Clerk Overweg if they wish to help in choosing the persons who are to appear on the ballots in county and state.

City Clerk Overweg announces that the registration will close on Saturday of this week. The law provides that it shall close on the third Saturday before primary day, and those who do not register before Saturday will be deprived of a vote. Those who voted at the last election and are properly registered will of course not have to register again.

Although women cannot vote in the coming primary, they will have the right to register with the city clerk before Saturday. This opportunity is given so that if later some question should come up on which women can vote they will be ready to exercise the right of franchise.

RECEIVED CABLEGRAM FROM "JOCK" RIEMERSMA

Miss Mataline Van Putten received a cablegram last evening from Regimental Sergeant-Major, "Jock" Riemersma, of the 319th engineers of the 85th regiment.

He states that several other Holland boys and himself arrived safely in France. There are many Holland boys in this division and those whose names we could ascertain are Richard Oggel, Bert Cathcart, Willis Potts, Ben Laman, and Ben Lievensen.

STENCH FROM SEWERS CLOSE DOORS AND WINDOWS

A complaint was sent in to the council last evening from the citizens living on north Central avenue in which the complaints state that the stench from the city sewage is so bad in that locality on these hot days that windows and doors must be kept closed. This is where the outlet of the Holland sewer system is located and where the old septic tank once stood. It is simply coming back to the big question of what is Holland going to do about its sewage? How is Holland going to prevent the pollution of Black Lake and river? It is the biggest question that confronts us today locally.

HOLLAND MAN
SPEAKS AT HAM-
ILTON EXERCISES

Another congregation is apparently not afraid of having the flag in the church, as is significant from the program published in this article.

The First Reformed church of Hamilton, Michigan, dedicated their service flag with ten stars Friday evening.

The deliberations of the evening were in charge of the Rev. William C. Walvoord. The program follows below:

Hymn—"Come, Thou Almighty King;" Invocation; Scripture Reading—Psalms 33; Song—Battle Hymn of the Republic;" by a double quartet; Reading of the Roll of Honor; Dedication Prayer; Hymn—"America, My Friend"; Address, Rev. E. J. Blekkink, D. D.; Solo, "Should the Stars in Your Service Flag Turn to Gold," Miss Henrietta Borgman; Hymn—"God Bless Our Native Land;" Closing Prayer and Benediction, Rev. E. J. Blekkink, D. D.

Roll of Honor—Sergeant Hans Kempker, Private Bert J. Vos, Private Roger Van Dyke, Private Cornelius Wentzel, Private Henry Wentzel, Private George E. Lohman, Private Marvin Slotman, Private Fred Glupker, Private Gerrit A. Van Dyke, Private Joe Wentzel.

MEETS WITH A SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Friday morning Martin De Witt 116 East 17th street while sharpening a grass scythe for a neighbor nearly cut off his hand in the operation.

Mr. De Witt is a wooden shoe maker and has the tools for doing knife sharpening and while favoring his neighbor the scythe slipped and brot on the injuries. Dr. Cook was called and had to practically sew the member back to the arm. Mr. De Witt will be laid up for a few months at least.

Mr. De Witt is the man who makes all the small souvenir wooden shoes that are sold at the resorts as souvenirs. In fact his fame for wooden shoe making has gone all over the country and he is constantly rushed with orders and especially at this time of the year.

DEATH LEAVES
FAMILY IN BAD
CIRCUMSTANCES

What is considered by those who investigated it as a pitiful case of near destitution, came to light with the death of Mrs. John S. Bouman of Harlem, a few miles north of Holland on the West Michigan Pike. The mother of this family was only 41 years old when death took her away, but she was the mother of twelve children. Four of these are under six years of age.

The family's crop this year is almost a total failure, the frost having swept away most of the things that might otherwise have yielded a fair harvest. A Holland citizen, learning that this large family of hungry children had been without potatoes for nearly four weeks, immediately sent a bushel of potatoes to the family, and he brought the case to the attention of others for similar action, if possible, to tide the family over until their scanty crops are farther advanced.

The funeral of Mrs. Bouman was held Tuesday at 11:30 from the home near the Harlem Reformed church, and at 12 o'clock from the church, Rev. B. Wynveen officiating.

REV. JAMES WAYER
DECLINES THE CALL TO TRINITY CHURCH

Rev. James Wayer in a communication to the consistory of Trinity church in this city declined the call to come to the local church. This fact was made known to the congregation Sunday morning. Rev. Wayer also announced his decision to his present congregation, the Bethany Reformed church of Grand Rapids, Mich., to the relief of his flock there.

This is the second minister who has declined a call to Trinity church since Rev. Van Peursen left for Kalamazoo some three months ago.

The first call was extended to Rev. Nettinga also of Grand Rapids, who declined to take a professorship in the Western Theological Seminary of this city. Both pastors are graduates from the two local colleges.

Mrs. Rev. T. M. Vanden Bosch died Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mokma at the age of 75 years. She was born in Zeeland, Netherlands and came to this country while a young girl. She has been doing missionary work in different localities and for the past four years she has been a resident of Holland.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mokma, 39 W. 17th street and at 2:30 from the First Reformed church, Zeeland. Rev. Brokestra of 4th Reformed church officiated. The surviving children are Jacob H. Vanden Bosch of Le Grand, Mich., and Mrs. John Mokma of this city.

A surprise was given Thursday night on Gerrit Oudemolen 181 W. 9th St. who leaves Saturday to serve Uncle Sam in the navy on the Great Lakes. Those present were—Mr. and Mrs. J. Heerspink Sr. and sons Herman, Fred and daughter Johanna from Graafschap; Mr. and Mrs. John Heerspink, Jr. from Holland; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Van Zanten.

A very enjoyable evening was spent and all wished Gerrit good-bye and good luck.

RIVERSIDE PARK
FARMERS' PICNIC
COUNTY WIDE FARMERS' PICNIC,
AUGUST 23RD

Unusual arrangements are being made in the office of the agricultural agent for a big county wide farmers' picnic to be held at Riverside Park on the Grand River south of Coopersville all day beginning at ten o'clock on Friday, August 23rd.

This picnic is to occupy the unusual position in the history of agriculture of Ottawa county in that it is to be a picnic of farmers held wholly by farmers and entirely financed by them. This does not imply however, that none but farmers are expected to attend for the merchants and businessmen either from within or out of the county are with their families encouraged to be present to enjoy this festivity.

The primary reason for arranging a picnic of this sort is for the purpose of calling together the farmers of the county as a single body in order that they may become better acquainted and enjoy a wider field of friendship than is usually found in a neighborhood and community picnic. A second purpose is that of calling together the members of the various organizations of the county for a one days' festival with the result that arrangements are being made that every Grange, farmers club and Gleaner organization may compete with other organizations in some form of friendly athletic rivalry.

A full program of sports as well as a complete afternoon program and all other details of arrangements will appear in the next issue of this paper.

FARM PROPERTY IS WIPED OUT
BY BIG BLAZE

A fire destroying seven thousand dollars worth of property broke out Monday afternoon on the farm of Gerrit Flokstra of Beaverdam, five miles northeast of Zeeland. The blaze was caused by the threshing machine belonging to the De Lennu Brps. The large barn and all its contents including grain, live stock and farm implements, the adjoining sheds and the grain separator, belonging to the threshing outfit, were completely destroyed and it was only by desperate efforts that the farm residence was saved from a similar fate.

Monday was threshing day on the Flokstra farm and while the farmers were enjoying their afternoon lunch, a blaze originated in the barn, supposedly from a stray spark from the threshing engine. By the time the men had finished their lunch and left the house the barn was wrapped in flames and the conflagration spread with such rapidity that all efforts to save the stock or grain separator were in vain. From shed to shed the blaze swept and soon the house stood in bleak loneliness among the smoldering ruins.

Two hundred bushels of last year's oats were consumed by the flames. Forty tons of new mow hay were also stored in the barn. In addition to farm machinery and the other contents of the barn and sheds, a valuable team of horses and a cow were cremated. The loss to Mr. Flokstra was five thousand dollars which is covered by an insurance of an even $1,000. The grain separator was insured for $700 leaving a loss of in the neighborhood of $1,200. The separator and rest of the threshing outfit belong to the two oldest sons of L. Lennu of Zeeland and was operated by a younger son. The owners of the outfit are now in government service, the one having already landed in France and the other being on the high seas.

WILL NOT GO TO HOPE COLLEGE

Rev. James T. Veneklassen of Grand Haven has declined the call of the faculty of Hope College and will remain in the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of that city. The announcement will be received with the greatest satisfaction by the people of his church and by the general public at the county seat as well. Mr. Veneklassen has not only proved himself an able preacher and pastor but he has always responded well to community calls as well. Though there may be some who disagree with him, there are none who are not willing to recognize his good work.

Mr. Veneklassen was recently offered the chair of Greek of Hope College the post left vacant by the elevation of Prof. Dimment to the presidency of the college. The offer of the post to Rev. Veneklassen, was a distinct honor but the pastor after considering the matter fully decided that his field of greatest usefulness was in the pastorate of the church.—G. H. Tribune.

Mr. Veneklassen was a native of Zeeland, graduated from Hope College and married a Holland girl. He is well known and has many friends here who would have liked to have had Mr. Veneklassen accept the position. The chair of Greek has not been offered anyone else.

Subscribed and sworn to this 5th day of August, 1918, before me, a Justice of Peace.

N. Hoffman.

My commission expires 1920.

Call for Meeting by Township Clerk.

To John Y. Huizenga, Paul Schilleman, Henry Ver Liere, Charles Eilander, Constituting the township Board of the Township of Holland.

You are hereby Notified, That on the 31st day of July, A. D. 1918, application was made to the County Drain Commissioner of the County of Ottawa for the locating and establishing of a certain drain which will traverse the Township of Holland and that on the 1st day of August, A. D. 1918, I was notified by the said Drain Commissioner of the filing of said application.

Now Then, By virtue of the power vested in me by the statute in such case made and provided, I hereby designate the 16th day of August A. D. 1918, at 6 o'clock in the P. M. noon at the residence of Elmer E. Avery, Sec. 31 in said township, as the time and place of meeting of the township board to consider and take action on said application, at which time and place aforesaid you are hereby notified to be present.

CHARLES EILANDER,

Township Clerk of the Township of Holland.

Expires August 10th

NOTICE OF MEETING

To Whom It May Concern:

Whereas, on the thirty-first day of July A. D. 1918, an application was filed with Barend Kammeraad, County Drain Commissioner of the County of Ottawa for the locating and establishing of a certain Drain, which said Drain was described in said application as follows, to-wit: Commencing on W side of Homestead Ave. on the north side of 24th St. thence 1061' west to the present drain to be 2 ft. wide on the bottom with 18" tile under Dikema Ave.; commencing at the West side of track on Ottawa Ave. thence along the south side of 23rd St. 1649' to the present drain to be 2 ft. wide on the bottom with 18" tile under Homestead Ave. and under Dikema Ave.; commencing on West side of Homestead Ave.; thence 1061' along the north side of 22nd St. to the present drain to be 2 ft. wide on the bottom with 18" tile under Dikema Ave. also 18" tile under 22nd St. on east side of Dikema Ave.; that a grout (6 ft.) six feet by forty feet culvert be built for the present drain under 20th St.; that the present drain be widened to three and one-half feet wide on the bottom throughout its entire course. That this drain system be kept open from year to year by thoroughly cleaning it out before winter each year, that said drain will traverse the township of Holland in said County.

Therefore notice is hereby given that in accordance with the statute in such case made and provided, a public meeting of the Township Board of the Township of Holland will be held on the 16th day of August A. D. 1918 at the residence of Elmer E. Avery in the township of Holland in said county of Ottawa at 6 o'clock in the afternoon of said day for the purpose of determining the necessity of said Drain and whether the said proposed drain is necessary and conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare. At said meeting any and all persons owning lands liable to assessment for benefits or whose lands shall be crossed by said drain may appear for or against said proceedings, and may be heard in relation thereto.

Dated this 6th day of August, 1918.

To the Voters of Allegan County

I ask your support for the nomination of Sheriff of this county. And if nominated and elected will promise you a competent and honest administration of this important office.

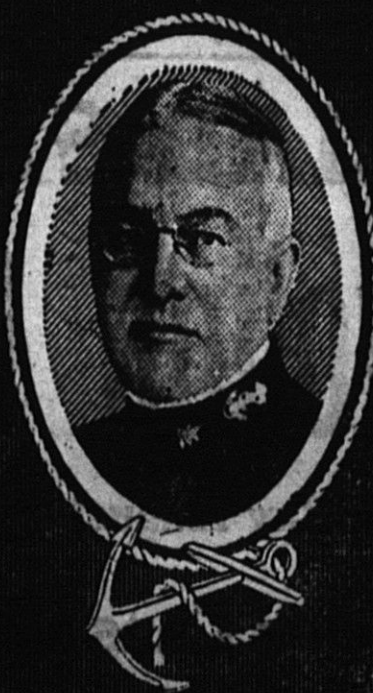

Being a Hollander by birth and speaking the Holland language would perhaps make it more convenient for people of this part of the county who have business to transact with this office. And my policy has always been and will be if nominated for sheriff and that is, A Square Deal for Everybody.

Yours Respectfully,

J. A. Van Arkel

$20,000 BLAZEMONDAY NIGHT AT JENISON PARK

Monday night at 11:30 o'clock fire was discovered in the rear of Olympia pavilion at Jenison Park by H. E. Crawford of the Crawford Cafe across the way, who immediately called it to the attention of Bill Moran, one of the proprietors who was sitting in front of the pavilion.

In an instant however the blaze was seen to shoot through the big dance hall and within 45 minutes the old land mark which has housed many a convivial party in its day, and was known from coast to coast by the tourists and resorters, was burned to the ground.

Shortly after the blaze broke thru the roof of the pavilion, the flames spread to the home of Peter T. McCarthy, located about a hundred feet east of the pavilion. So rapidly did the flames spread that only a small part of the contents of the home was saved, while practically nothing from the pavilion could be taken from the building.

Mr. Moran thinks that the fire originated from some rubbish that he and one of the employees had been burning in a large iron tank back of the building near where the fire is said to have started. He said that at 9 o'clock Monday night the fire was still smoldering from the afternoon's burning and he proceeded to cover it with sand. At 10:30 Monday night a strong wind shifted from the southeast to the southwest, and a regular gale was blowing at 11 o'clock. It is Mr. Moran's opinion that a spark must have blown from the tank, and in under the cork-dry wooden pavilion and the strong wind fanned the fire brand into a blaze.

Jenison Park has no adequate fire protection to cope with a fire of this kind and altho five hundred men soon poured forth from the cottages all along the lake shore and started bucket brigades, they were not able to stay the flames.

Mrs. Albert Tibbe immediately shot of the Holland fire department and its new pumper and soon got into communication with Chief Blom, telling him the whole of Jenison Park was burning up, begging him to come with all possible speed.

It took the pumper, boarded by the night men of Engine House No. 1, and Chief C. Blom, just twelve minutes to get from the station house to Jenison Park. They soon had the pumper on the shores of Black Lake and were pouring two strong streams at one hundred pounds pressure into the fire.

Just before the Holland Fire department reached the conflagration, the fire had spread to the trees and fences of Jenison Amusement Park and the timely assistance of the Holland Fire department saved the park from destruction.

Fire brands fell everywhere among the cottages northeast of the pavilion, and soon a fire was discovered in the ice house of Marshall's hotel, some 500 feet from the fire, and although the ice house could not be saved the Holland Fire department saved the large hotel near by.

John Toren's bowling alley and home were also touched by the fire but these were saved by the quick work of the volunteers.

Tuesday morning all telephone service between Holland and the resorts were out of commission, the polls having all been burned to the ground. Mr. Orr and a gang of men were up bright and early Tuesday morning placing new poles and the wires were again working by noon, much to the relief of the resorters and hotel men, who were constantly besieged by long distance calls at this time of the year.

The heat from the fire was so intense that the beautiful row of trees skirting Jenison Park are well scorched and my possibly die. Several windows were also broken in the home of James Irving, which stood near the pavilion.

In the pavilion were three pianos, two National slot machine pianos and one from Meyers' Music House, these were burned. Mr. Moran says that all his files, bills and account have all been burned, and he does not know how the contents in the safe which is lying tipped over and bent in the embers, will pan out. He says that the loss on the pavilion, ice house and the home of Peter McCarthy will be at least $20,000 with $5,000 insurance over all.

Mr. Moran says that last week he cancelled a $1,000 policy on the contents of the building which he had taken out with Dekker & Jeans of Grand Rapids.

The resorters are loud in their praises of the Holland Fire department, in fact they can talk of nothing else but of how our "laddies" saved Jenison Park with all its cottages from total destruction.

Mr. Moran and Mr. McCarthy both said "Our loss is complete and the Holland Department could not help us, but you can say that if it was not for the timely aid of your excellent fire men, and your new pumper there would not have been a building left standing at Jenison Park. They certainly deserve all the praise that can be given them."

This is the second loss that Mr. McCarthy has had within the past fifteen years. The first loss was that of Virginia Park hotel at Virginia Park which also burned at the height of the season, when this popular resort hostelry was filled with guests.

The proprietors of Olympia Pavilion Mr. McCarthy and Mr. Moran have no immediate plans for the future, and could not say if the pavilion would be rebuilt or not.

BOOSTS OTTAWA MAN FOR SENATE NOMINATION

In a lengthy editorial the Grand Haven Tribune boosts Wm. Connelly for the nomination for state senator. Calling him "Ottawa's Candidate," the Tribune declares the other parties are not strong enough in Ottawa to be seriously considered. Says the Tribune in part:

"William Connelly is pretty well known in Ottawa county. For a number of years he has been a member of the Ottawa County road commission. To this important commission he has given the best that is in him. He has made the good road problem his study, and upon surveying the proposition from all angles, he has come to the conclusion that the people's money is used to better advantage in the construction of permanent roads, which will not begin requiring repairs as soon as they are completed. So efficient has he become in the matter of road concrete construction that the road enthusiasts throughout the state recognize him as one of the principal road men in the whole state of Michigan. Those who have the real interests of Michigan's highways at heart, are very much in hope that Mr. Connelly will be sent to the Michigan state senate from the Muskegon-Ottawa district.

"While Mr. Connelly has always tried to be faithful to party obligations, what fame and reputation he has attained have not been secured in the field of politics. He has never been a candidate for office on a strictly partisan platform. There has always been something better behind his efforts than mere political ambition and the result has been gratifying to the general public. In his efforts, Mr. Connelly has naturally bumped up against a number of opponents. His vigorous methods have sometimes created enmities, but he has kept to his ideals notwithstanding, and in many cases those who originally opposed him have declared for him now.

"The next session of the Michigan state legislature is going to be one of the most important ones in many years. The trend of the times is steadily toward increasing motor traffic. It has been pretty thoroughly understood now that motor vehicle traffic is going to become greater and greater each year. The automobile has long since ceased to be for pleasure only. The power truck will be called upon to relieve the pressure on the railways, therefore the state of Michigan, the greatest automobile manufacturing state in the union, must be prepared. There is going to be some great road legislation, and men with their hearts in the construction of roads should be sent wherever possible, in order that the state may get the best of it. Wm. Connelly of Ottawa county is such a man."

S. O. Hartwell, superintendent of Muskegon schools for three years, has resigned to become head of St. Paul schools, succeeding A. H. Hartwell, the former Petoskey school superintendent who goes to Buffalo. Hartwell came to Muskegon from Kalamazoo.

JURY BRINGS IN VERDICT AGAINST ALBERT JESKE

After considering the testimony in the slander suit of the People against Albert Jeske, the jury in Justice Wachs' court at Grand Haven returned a verdict of guilty and Jeske was assessed a fine of $50 and costs as a penalty. He paid the fine. The hearing was begun Thursday morning, when the jury was secured and all testimony was introduced in the afternoon session.

Jeske on the witness stand said that he saw King take Jeske's citizenship papers out of a school record book in which he carried them. It was this statement, which King alleged Jeske made in public which caused the suit for slander to be brought. The trouble is said to have arisen on the district school board of which both are members when King demanded Jeske's naturalization papers. It was alleged that Jeske declared King had taken them.

Before the matter had reached the court it became almost a neighborhood affair and a number of residents of that portion of Olive were mixed in it more or less. There were many witnesses called to testify in court.

John Arendshorst, secretary of the Holland fair was in Gr. Rapids Friday looking up clean fair attractions. He already has the merry-go-round and the Ferris wheel contracted for.

SAUGATUCK HOME IS DESTROYED; WOMAN BURNED

The home of Bert Cartwright at Saugatuck was quickly consumed by fire Saturday. The blaze was started as Mrs. Cartwright lighted the oil stove to prepare breakfast. The flames spread so rapidly that the fire was beyond control before aid could be secured.

The fire made such rapid progress that the family narrowly escaped with their lives and it was with difficulty that the children were rescued from the floor above. In fact they had to be carried downstairs thru the dense smoke and fire.

Mrs. Cartwright was severely burned by the first blast from the stove, her hair being singed, her face scorched and one of her ears badly burned. The loss on the building and contents is partially covered by insurance.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE WRITES UP SAM MILLER

Sam Miller and his depot cafe is becoming quite popular to the outside world. The Chicago Tribune in its "A line o' Type or Two" has the following on the Holland man and his business:

"This column has provided harborage for many wheezes about the Pere Marquette railroad. (By the way, the name on the locomotives does not carry an accented letter.) And so it was with a feeling of big adventure that we boarded a P. M. train for the first time. We found that, as usual, the devil is never so black as he's painted; and it was worth the trip to discover, at the Holland station, the o. f. eating place where for fifty cents one can get a good steak, a mess of fried potatoes, bread and butter, a pot of good tea and a wedge of fair lemon pie. Good lemon pie is extinct.

Newberry As A Real Woodsman

Howard City Record—"I first met Truman Newberry in the early eighties when he came up in the north woods to work for the Detroit, Bay City & Alpena Railroad then uncompleted," said A. J. Du Puis, one of Michigan's veteran contractors, a few days ago. "I was a bridge contractor for the road. Newberry was just out of college and the way he embraced his rather trying railroad job in those early days, when the woods were full of adventurous characters and dangers were not few, appealed to his associates from the very start.

"Our trip was with a locomotive and embraced a distance of perhaps 30 miles to the 'end of the iron,' as we said then, and from there young Mr. Newberry was to walk some seven miles through the forest to the first night's camp. He was accompanied only by the walking boss, one 'Pat' Gorman, who was alone armed with a long-nosed revolver of early pattern. Gately, the new railroad man made the trip and after the routine, hearty lumber-woods supper, played games with the rest of the men and along towards midnight sought his couch, an improvised bed made out of narrow bevel slats and cedar boughs. The next morning he smilingly declared that he never slept better in his life—and he looked it. Then he, Gorman and I started out for a thirty-mile trudge over a woods trail and thru the wilderness to the camp most remote from civilization where I had a gang of men preparing bridge timbers. This was a day's trip. Arriving there, Newberry never complained of being tired, although all of us seasoned men were, and socially joined in the rough, good-hearted crowd he found there.

"Mr. Newberry was a favorite from the first with the men he met because of his very humanness and likable qualities. Altho reared in a luxurious home and well educated, he seemed to be thoroughly at home with the crude surroundings and the habits of the woods life. He soon became secretary of the railroad company and with rare tact demonstrated justice and fairness in all his decisions. Later, at the road's headquarters in Tawas, I met him often and heard the men of the road and the camps discuss him frankly and it was always favorably. I remember once when he found himself stopping at a hotel across the street from where my gang of men and I were located, he invited all of us over to spend the evening and talk of old times. This certainly showed his democratic nature and unaffected good fellowship.

"I have known Mr. Newberry ever since and have always regarded him as one of my very best friends. When he is home now and meets me, he always comes up and greets me with a hearty 'Hello, there, Gus,' and I can vouch from personal knowledge as to his being easily approachable and warm-hearted.

"Truman Newberry is all business—that is he makes decisions quickly, and puts things through with dispatch. In my judgment his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the United States senatorship will appeal to all the same as his fine, manly attitude appealed to his lumber woods and railroad associates in the early days. He is splendidly qualified for the public service, has always accepted the duties of citizenship in the proper spirit, is of a constructive temperament, broad-minded and independent."

The Newberry estate owns considerable property in Reynolds township this county.

Friday Dr. Nichols, Dick Boonstra and Chief Van Ry finished up with a physical examination of fifty men, who will become new soldiers from the second draft. Some of these men will leave in August, others will leave in September. Eight men left for Syracuse, New York where they will go into training Friday evening.

At Syracuse only white men will be taken and no man qualified for general military service will be accepted. There are about 10,000 limited service men in the first class in Michigan, according to Adj. Gen. Bersey. The limited service men who because of physical defects are unfitted for active military service, will be used for replacing men who are physically fit for trench duty. No farm laborers will be taken in this call. The men who left from Holland are Elmer M. Bell, Henry W. Top, William Oonk, Gunder Anderson, Dick Hasselink, and Leonard Casuue of Holland, Tony De Balse, West Olive, Arnold M. Brouwer, Jamestown, Willis Mattison also left for Ft. Leavenworth to go into the U. S. Signal Corps.

On August 15 eight boys leave for Ann Arbor, Mich., to take a mechanical training course in carpenter work, automobile and smithy knowledge which they will acquire at the University city.

The boys who leave on August 15, will be Charles J. Bidder, Andrew Rutgers, Cornelius Serier, Alfred McCarthy, Fred Christell, Nick Vander Zee, Jacob C. Elenbaas, Neil Ottink, and Leonard Lokese of Zeeland.

On the same day seven men will leave for Valparaiso, Indiana, where they will take a technical mechanical course. These men are Ronald W. Rosie, Harry Hanson, Arthur DeJonge, Lester Annis, John P. Smith, James E. Bareman and Herbert Cook of Holland and John Clarence Barensse of Zeeland.

FORMER HOLLAND MAN BECOMES UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR

Prof. Wm. H. Atwood will hold two professorships next year. He has been Head of the Department of Biology in the Milwaukee State Normal school for the past year and will become Professor of Biology in the College of Dentistry of Marquette University, at Milwaukee, Wis. next year; and will also retain direction of the Department of Biology in the Milwaukee State Normal School. This arrangement is to continue for the duration of the war, when Professor Atwood will probably resign one of the two positions and give his entire services to one school.

Professor Atwood graduated from Hope College in '12 and has taken advanced degrees at Washington university and the University of Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Atwood and children are spending a few weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Atwood and Mr. and Mrs. A. DeWeerd, of this city.

WOUNDS OF HOLLAND BOY NOT SEVERE

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Glerum were overjoyed Monday to receive a letter from France announcing that their son Corp. John Glerum had not been seriously injured, but that the wounds were comparatively slight. Some time ago the parents received a telegram from Washington stating that their boy had been "severely wounded." Quite naturally they worried a great deal, not having any further information. But the letter that came Monday took a load of worry off their shoulders.

Young Glerum wrote that he had been wounded in the thigh with shrapnel. He declared that he expected to be able in a week to hobble about again and that in a month he would be ready to go back into action. The letter was written on July 9 and the wound was received on July 2.

ERNEST BROOKS GOES TO FT. THOMAS, KY.

Ernest Brooks of the Holland High school who has been endeavoring to get into the service for some time was ordered to report on August at Ft. Thomas, Ky.

He will then go into the training camp for field artillery work.

Mr. Brooks was afraid his recent auto accident in which he broke his shoulder blade might bar him from the service at least for a time and he is greatly pleased that his call has come.

Mr. Brooks has been working faithfully every day selling thrift stamps and doing his bit in other ways, whenever the occasion presents itself.

Mrs. D. Van Sytzama of Zeeland received notice that her oldest son, Johan has arrived safely in France with the ordnance corps.

ANOTHER HOPE GRADUATE GOES BACK TO MISSION FIELD

Herman Renskers, a Hope graduate, will return to China via Vancouver, the later part of August. Renskers has completed the postgraduate work in the field of education to which he has devoted himself during the year he has been on furlough in this country.

Rev. and Mrs. B. Rottschaefer, former Holland residents, probably will be unable to take their furloughs to America this year owing to limited steamer accommodations. They have been missionaries in India for 7 years.

Bert Slagh has the contract of painting the big gas holder of the Holland City Gas Co. Bert is doing the job personally. The holder is nearly 100 feet high and the painter is suspended by a thin cable. Bert is some "steepie jack."

The Holland teamsters with their families, the company comprising some one hundred persons, left for a day's outing at Bender's Beach Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. They were taken to the beach in Bender's launch.

Henry Aldering, Herman Bekker, Will Dykstra and Garret Kamphuis were gathered in by the local police for pelting stones against the home of Carl Herman. The young men were warned to stop their stoning but continued. They were given a thorough lecture by Justice Van Schelven.

The Men's Adult Bible class of the 14th street Christian Reformed church conducted the services at the Poor farm yesterday. A very interesting talk was given by A. Peters, teacher of the class after which the audience was much impressed with a couple of vocal solos by Al Vegter, accompanied by Miss Hattie Wentzel.

Bonds for the purpose of raising $6,400 to make several Grand Haven streets a part of the state trunk line system of roads, will be voted on at the August primaries. This bond issue if carried will repay the bad piece of road on the Beach Tree drive connecting with the West Michigan Pike to Holland.

Here is a new one, get your auto in the city pound. Holland motorists when going to Battle Creek and Camp Custer must be careful and not violate any of the city ordinances relating to automobiles; for if you do a poundmaster will put you with the dogs and it will cost you $2 to get out of the auto pound.

First Reformed church, Rev. Henry J. Veldman, pastor, probably has the largest representation of any church of its size in the state. Two service flags containing 78 stars occupy a conspicuous place on the platform and a third will be added as the number will probably be increased to 100 before winter. The Sunday school class of Dick Boler alone has 48 stars and four sons of B. J. Lemmen are listed, as are three sons of S. Althuis. Every one of the boys has been presented with a testament and all have been given church identification cards. The band of benevolent workers has furnished each one with a soldier's kit and every one receives a weekly letter from some one connected with the church and one a month from the Sunday school. Joe Meeuwssen was the recipient of 40 letters the first week he was out of the trenches.

Ed Van Wyke who made his home with J. Deters Sr., at Zeeland, became seriously ill there the last week and was taken to the Holland Hospital where he is improving.

Walter Morris, employe in the Economy Meat Market, suffered a painful injury to his shoulder when he fell off the wagon on to the cement walk striking his shoulder. He was laid out for a short time by the accident.

Chicago reported a temperature of 110 degrees. The hot wave will be broken only by thunderstorms, first appearing in the west, or by a high pressure area from Alaska, neither of which were in sight, it was said.

Rev. Anthony Kaarman of Passaic, N. J., has accepted a call to the Second Reformed church at Muskegon. Mr. Kaarman is a graduate of Hope college and Western Seminary and formerly was pastor of Ninth Reformed church, Grand Rapids.

Superintendent of Parks John Kooyers, suffered a heat prostration in Centennial Park Monday afternoon. He was taken to his home by one of the employees of the park and a physician was summoned. No serious results followed the prostration.

John A. Moyer, aged 58, died at the home of George H. MacAllister of Laketown township Monday. The deceased is survived by a widow and one son Earl. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Dykstra's Undertaking parlors in this city.

John Fraga, Dickie Bolt and Lawrence Huizenga left Monday morning on a bike tour to Holland. They will ride from there to Grand Rapids and then back home. The boys expect to be gone two or three days and will spend their nights in the open in true scout fashion.—G. H. Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Den Herder and son, Edward, and Mrs. Minnie Veneklassen, and son, Harold, of Zeeland, were guests of Judge and Mrs. James Danhof for over the week-end. Miss Tjatie Pellegrom of Grand Rapids and Miss Dorothy McEachron of Hudsonville are guests of Judge and Mrs. Danhof.—G. H. Tribune.

The Great Lakes jackie band of 45 pieces played on the enthusiasm of 35 young men of Grand Haven Monday evening at Central park, this number joining the ranks in the navy campaign which is being conducted this month. Following the concert the home of Nathaniel Robbins was opened to the boys who in turn were entertained.

It was impossible to get coal delivered in Holland Wednesday or feed, or wood or any other material of that nature in the delivery of which the services of a teamster will be needed.

The Bulletin of Vital Statistics, issued by the Department of State, just out for the month of May, shows there were 104 births in Ottawa county and 57 deaths during that month. In Holland there were 27 births and 10 deaths; in Grand Haven 15 births and 6 deaths; in Allegan county 80 births and six deaths; in Allegan county 80 births and 42 deaths; in Allegan city, eight births and eight deaths.

J. C. Ryan who has called on the Holland printers for the past forty years as a traveling typist has again struck Holland and is employed at the Holland City News. Mr. Ryan got his first job in this city about forty years ago from the late Leonard Mulder, publisher of DeGrondwet and he refers with pride to the fact that this was the first and last time he ever set Dutch type. Of course Ryan is no Hollander.

A rumor has spread about the city that Ray Tardiff of Holland had been killed in France. The story goes that the announcement had been made in Grace church Sunday. The Sentinel has run all these reports down and finds that no announcement of Tardiff's death was made in church, nor can anyone verify the fact that anything unusual has befallen the young man from Holland. Letters from the front have appeared in the Sentinel often, written by Ray Tardiff.

Gerrit Oudemolen who has been in Detroit passing the examination for enlistment into the navy has passed all the requirements in fine shape and is now back home awaiting order to go. He may be called tomorrow or sometime in the future and has orders to hold himself in readiness for a minute's notice.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Martha M. Duncan of Grand Haven were held Wednesday afternoon at the home on Lake avenue. Mrs. Duncan was laid to rest beside her husband in the little burial plot in the midst of the forest adjoining Duncan Memorial Park which she donated to the City of Grand Haven.

In the list of corporations increasing its capital stock appears the name of the First State Bank of Holland from $50,000 to $100,000.

Next Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pott expect to celebrate the 30th anniversary of their marriage at their home in this city.

Arthur S. Billings, a Whitehall fisherman made such a big haul he had to go home and get a wheelbarrow to tote the load to the house. One catfish tipped the scales at 37½ pounds.

Rev. George Hankamp of Forest Grove has received a call from the Reformed church at Little Falls, N. J.

Sheriff Stauffer of Muskegon reports that resorters arriving daily from Chicago are generally obeying the law against liquor importations into Michigan. The officials have kept close watch on passengers arriving by boat and say that as far as is known almost no liquor is being brought to the summer homes.

Four and seventenths acres of land have been added to the north side of Duncan Memorial park at Grand Haven as a further gift of Mrs. Robt. W. Duncan to the city.

Harold Hoyt is here from Detroit, called by the death of his father, Charles K. Hoyt. The former high school football star has a fine position in a big spring company in the state metropolis and is looking well.—Grand Haven Tribune.

The ladies of Crescent Hive held their annual picnic at Beechwood. After a potluck dinner was served a game of baseball was played and other games were enjoyed. Bertie Decker won the rolling contest; Lena Williams won the bicycle race and the ball game was a tie. Lunch was then served. The ladies all enjoyed the day.

The city commission will enact no legislation to compel grocers and butchers to close their places on Sunday. This was emphasized Thursday evening which Commissioner Tallmadge, as a member of welfare committee, reported out on the petitions for the closing of the business places and recommended that an ordinance be passed. He found no support. Commissioner Tisch, the second member of the committee, did not sign the report.

"It does not seem that the city is ready to say to the grocers and butchers, 'You may open your business places on Sunday for the sale of such non-essentials as ice cream, candy and peanuts, but you may not sell such essentials as groceries and meats,'" said Commissioner Tisch. D. B. Hovey interjected a statement that the groceries which are open on Sunday serve a real purpose, as they are being used by residents in their neighborhoods as community ice boxes. There are many people, he said, who cannot afford to purchase and maintain ice boxes, and to these is afforded an opportunity on Sunday mornings at present to purchase fresh foods for the Sunday dinners.

"Trench and Camp," a military newspaper in the Camp Funston edition of Saturday, July 27, a copy of which has reached Holland, contains the following item about a former local musical organization: "The Royal Holland Bell Ringers are an interesting bunch. They were sent to us by the Central department. They will be here until Monday."

Mrs. Katie De Vree, mother of Mrs. Gerrit Kraagt, died at the home of her daughter a few miles northeast of the city at the age of 73 years. The deceased is survived by one child, two brothers and two sisters. The funeral was held Wednesday from the home of Gerrit Kraagt, Rev. E. J. Trunk officiating. Friends are requested to omit flowers.

George F. Getz had as week-end guests at his country place, Lakewood Farm, near Holland, the board of governors of the South Shore Country club. The yacht Lakewood took the guests for a cruise on Lake Michigan and Black Lake. Among the guests were Everett C. Brown, John C. Campbell, Francis A. Fowler, Charles E. Fox, W. W. Harless, R. J. McLaughlin, Stacy C. Mosser, Robert E. Peacock, Wm. H. Powell, E. Warren, Everett L. B. Patterson, W. M. Wilson, E. W. Tobin, Edwin W. Sims, C. M. Smalley, J. R. Thompson, R. B. Upham, J. F. Hagley, and Carleton White.

The Second Reformed church of Zeeland has 43 men in the service, two of which are captains, two lieutenants, one sergeant, five corporals and two cooks.

A telegram was received here of the death of Miss Gertrude McNeal at Fort Colborne, Ont. She was Mrs. J. D. Kanter's sister, and will be remembered by many of Holland's citizens, as she has visited here on several occasions.

Deputy State Food Inspector L. A. Knapp of Muskegon narrowly escaped death Thursday when the automobile he was driving was run down by a street car and practically demolished. The deputy is well known to the business men of Holland as a state inspector.

Every time you stick a Thrift or War Stamp on your card you are mailing money to yourself to be received later with interest. Cashing in these stamps is going to be better than "getting money from home," for with the money comes the remainder that you contributed to the great victory which then will have been completely won.

Marinus De Fouw, enlisted in the gas defense service in the medical department of the U. S. government. He wired his father Herman DeFouw that he reached New York City safely and was sent to Long Island where he met several Holland boys who were glad to see a man from Holland. Peter C. Steketee also left a short time ago for Philadelphia. In these two men Herman De Fouw loses two good electrical men and the government gains two.

Will Glerum, son of former county Clerk Jake Glerum, now of Lansing, who has been with the U. S. Shipping Corporation offices in Philadelphia, spent Friday in the city. Mr. Glerum has resigned his position with the commission and is on his way to Fort Thomas, Ky., to enter the next officers' training school at that post. Mr. Glerum has been in the east for some time and has been located in Washington and New York City as well as Philadelphia. He says that the East is fairly sizzling with war activity and that Hog Island is one of the wonders of the world.

REGISTRATION NOTICE

NOTE IMPORTANT CHANGE IN REGISTRATION NOTICE

To the Qualified Electors of the CITY OF HOLLAND, State of Michigan:

Notice is hereby given that in conformity with the Act 126, Public Acts of 1917, I the undersigned City Clerk, will, upon any day except Sunday and a legal holiday, or the day of any regular or special election or official primary election, receive for registration the name of any legal voter in said city not already registered who may APPLY TO ME PERSONALLY for such registration, except that I can receive no names for registration during the time intervening between the third Saturday before any general or special election or official primary election and the day of such election.

August 10, 1918—Last Day for General Registration for Primary August 27

All electors not already registered and intending to vote at said election, should make PERSONAL APPLICATION to me on or before the 10th day of August, A. D. 1918.

Notice is further hereby given that I will be at the City Hall from now until the close of registration, on

Aug. 3 and Aug 10, 1918

From 8 o'clock a. m. until 8 o'clock p. m. on each said day for the purpose of REVIEWING the REGISTRATION and REGISTERING such of the qualified electors in said city as SHALL APPEAR and apply therefor.

The name of no person but an ACTUAL RESIDENT of the precinct at the time of registration and entitled under the constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the next election shall be entered in the registration book.

Registration of Absentee by Oath

If any person whose name is not registered shall offer and claim the right to vote at any election, and shall, UNDER OATH, state that he is a resident of such precinct and has resided in the Ward TWENTY DAYS next preceding such election, designating particularly the place of his residence, and that he possesses the other qualifications of an elector under the constitution; and that, owing to sickness or bodily infirmity of himself, or of some member of his family, or owing to his absence from the city on public business or his own business, and without intent to avoid or delay his registration, he was unable to make application for registration on the last day provided for by law for the registering of electors preceding such election, then the name of such person shall be registered, and he shall then be permitted to vote at such election. If such applicant shall, in said matter, wilfully make any false statement, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and, upon conviction, be subject to the pains and penalties thereof.

Provision in Case of Removal to Another Precinct

Any registered and qualified voter who has REMOVED from One Election Precinct of a city to another election precinct of the same City shall have the right, on any day previous to election day, on application to the City Clerk, to have his name transferred from the registration book of the precinct from which he has removed to the registration book of the precinct in which he then resides. Such elector shall have the right to have such transfer made ON ELECTION DAY by obtaining from the board of inspectors of election of the precinct from which he HAS REMOVED a CERTIFICATE OF TRANSFER and presenting the said certificate to the BOARD OF ELECTION INSPECTORS OF THE PRECINCT IN WHICH HE THEN RESIDES.

Women Electors

The names of all qualified WOMEN ELECTORS not already appearing on the registration list will be registered provided PRSONAL APPLICATION is made in conformity with the foregoing provisions.

MOTION PICTURE PLAN LOSES IN ZEELAND

Zeeland has once more lost its chance to get a moving picture theater. By an overwhelming vote of five to one the common council of that city decided at this week's meeting of that body to reject the petition of Mr. MacDermand the Zeeland photographer who asked for permission to operate such a play-house. The sentiment of the public of Zeeland was said to be overwhelmingly against granting of the motion picture permit, and only one alderman, Alderman De Koster, ventured to vote in favor of the new departure.

The decision of the Zeeland council was made without discussion. It took only a few moments, just long enough for the city clerk to call the roll and receive the yea and nay responses of the six aldermen. Not a word was said either for or against the proposition. A petition had been sent to the council from all the five churches of Zeeland against the proposition of securing a movie for Zeeland and that seems to have settled the matter.

By this action the common council of Zeeland maintains for the city of Zeeland a unique distinction. It puts Zeeland in a class by itself in the whole state. There is perhaps no other town of its size in Michigan that is without a movie.

Mr. Mac Dermand, in making his petition for a movie for Zeeland, placed many safeguards about the matter. He declared that his plan was to show only pictures of educational value and that he was as much opposed to pictures of lower type as any of the good people of Zeeland. But the vote of the Zeeland aldermen seems to show that even pictures of educational nature are under the ban in that city.

MACHINE RELIEVES LABOR SHORTAGE

H. Van Tongeren Wednesday installed in his cigar factory a new stripping machine which he hopes will relieve the acute labor situation. Mr. Van Tongeren, because of the scarcity of labor and also because of the increased output of his product, has had difficulty for several months in securing enough strippers to take care of the demand.

The machine is the Universal Stripping Machine and is manufactured in New York. By the use of it one girl can do as much work as is done otherwise by three.

FORMER HOPE STUDENT MARRIED

News has been received in Holland of the marriage of Rev. Cornelius De Young, Hope College graduate of the class of 1913. Rev. De Young is pastor of the Bellevue Reformed church of Schenectady, N. Y. The bride is Miss Norma C. Bosworth. Mr. De Young has been pastor of that church for two years and his bride is a graduate of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. While at Hope Mr. De Young was prominent in the religious work of the institution. He was president of the College Y. M. C. A. While a student at the New Brunswick Theological Seminary he won the preaching prize of his class.

Local People Put the Automobile to New Purpose

The automobile has been put to a great many new uses undreamed of in the days when it first came into general use, but another use has been discovered for it my a number of Holland people which will be a new one to many. During the hot evenings of the past week or two some local people have formed a habit of donning bathing suits and bath robes in their own bath rooms at home, hopping into their family cars and going to the Lake Michigan beach at some more or less unfrequented point for the purpose of indulging in an evening dip.

The plan works admirably, it is said. After the dip the bathers wrap themselves in their bathrobes again, hop back into the waiting automobiles and drive back to town, changing to ordinary clothes in their own bath rooms.

The plan has spread to a number of families and its simplicity is appealing to others. It cuts out the necessity of having a bath house on the beach or of changing clothes in the woods, as has been done frequently. That plan has its disadvantages because of the sudden surprises that are sometimes in store for those who don their bathing suits in a clump of bushes.

Now that the automobile is in such general use the bath-house on wheels to which use it has been put is likely to be a popular institution with people who wish to take a cool dip in Lake Michigan's refreshing waters of an evening.

BLACK LAKE IS IN FINE SHAPE FOR BATHING

Black Lake water is as safe to bathe in as any water can be, according to a statement made by Mrs. La Bourslier. There is splendid bathing in the lake at the Lakeside Inn, and a considerable number of people are taking advantage of it. There may be pockets along the edge of Black lake at some points where weeds and green matter have collected making bathing undesirable, but the more important bathing beaches on the bay are as desirable for bathing purposes now as they have ever been.

They have been used for this purpose for years, and at many points along the shore considerable bathing equipment has been installed. In some sections the swimmers prefer Black Lake to Lake Michigan because of the greater facilities for diving and deep water swimming.

Mrs. La Bourslier believes that the rumor in regard to the alleged undesirability of Black Lake for bathing purposes has been originated by some one who has a grudge against Black Lake resorts and who wished to harm them. She declared that bathing conditions on many of the Black Lake bathing beaches are ideal just now and have never been better.

Harold E. Veldman, son of the Rev. H. J. Veldman, enlisted in the navy at Grand Rapids Friday. He reported for duty in Grand Rapids, Thursday at 1 o'clock.

Miss Ruth Stratton of Richland who has been the guest of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Shaw, West Twelfth-st., for a month returned to her home Sunday.

Rev. H. E. Jacobs of Albany, N. Y. and family are spending a month's vacation with relatives in Holland. He is a graduate from the local College and seminary.

Ed Clark, superintendent of the Wolverine Motor Works of Bridgeport, Connecticut, is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hiler, 199 W. 9th street. Mr. Clark was formerly a Holland resident and the Wolverine was a Holland business institution. Both Mr. Clark and the Wolverine moved to Bridgeport some years ago. The motor works has proved to be a prosperous enterprise.

CHURCH AT ZUTPHEN TO BE REBUILT SOON

Architect J. & G. Daverman of Grand Rapids have been selected to prepare plans for a Christian Reformed church to be built at Zutphen, Mich.

It will be 45x70 feet frame, colonial in design. The seating capacity of the auditorium will be 350 and annex 100.

In the basement will be Sunday school rooms ladies' parlor, dining room and kitchen with accessories.

The church will cost at least $15,000 for which the pledges have all been secured.

TWO LADS OF 18 YEARS VOL- UNTEER FOR COAST ARTILLERY

Gerald Slagh, 18 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Slagh of this city volunteered for service in the coast artillery and will leave Monday for Columbus, Ohio for training. Bert Slagh, another son, will also go into the service soon. Ernest Van Lente, 18 years old, son of Henry Van Lente of this city has also volunteered for the Coast Artillery and will leave Monday for Columbus.

Mrs. John Baumann died Sunday morning at her home near Harlem at the age of 41 years. She is survived by her husband and twelve children, her parents, two brothers and five sisters. Funeral services were held on Tuesday at the Harlem Reformed church, Rev. Wynveen, and Rev. Tyssie officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Van Dyk, of Holland spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Arnoldink.

The Sunday school of the New Holland Reformed church held their annual picnic at Ventura, Wednesday.

HOW fickle is the American public? Republicans and some democrats in Michigan want to know, and have begun a senatorial campaign which is national in its interest on account of being a significant test of the degree of popular stability. The selection of senators is getting to be a serious matter with Michigan, anyway, Wolverines of whatever party never having enjoyed the success in senators they have in automobiles. But that is a local matter which can be discussed more suitably in the Detroit Athletic Club any night the home talent is not panning the Liberty motor or bemoaning the collapse of Ty Cobb. The national element is the human inclination of a hundred and ten million people to find out if it is politically practicable to slip an anti-detection suit over a man's past and rush him to the capitol in the guise of a tongue-tied angel with a blue-eyed baby stare.

Who's the gent? Why, none other than our old friend and laugh provoker, Hank Ford—the demon propagandist and ship leaser who, holding the quite figurative hand of an Austrian adventuress, strode up the gangplank of the Oscar Hand sailed to Scandinavia in search of peace; the astounding pacifist who put forth a harrowing belch because the United States wanted to loan France and England a few honest dollars that didn't belong to him, and ended a perfect day with the remark that a soldier was "either crazy or lazy"; the public jester who said he would not fly the American flag after the war because it was just "something to rally around."

Some of Hank's friends or hired hands, having summarized his bank roll possibilities if unallied with his brain, must have given him the office to quit talking and do a little more spending. At any rate Hank went so far as to build a hospital, the facade of which looks as if it was resigned by the same talented engineer who created the svelt lines of the Great Flivver! Also, he invested in Liberty Bonds and gave to the Red Cross along with several widows and some of his employees. Inevitably, this eleventh-hour chivalry coincident with the demotion of the peace publicity cabinet, led to politics—and we have in one great, gorgeous, blorious, glittering, gratis exhibition, children at half-price, the superb, scintillating spectacle of a guy aiming for the second estate who might attain equal fame simply by visiting the psychiatrists at any National Army Cantonment.

Now comes the plot, the stealthy stuff, done at midnight while the Congressional Limited is pulled up at the water wagon: Henry Ford, the great engineer who made Barney Oldfield's first racing car, the great philanthropist, who gave a couple of hundred homomomphs a free trip to Europe, the great savant who discovered the non-essentiality of art and education . . . Henry Ford, the self-detonating genius, running for senator on both Democratic and Republican tickets—that ought to hold "them there" Republicans for a period of unrest!

Would Henry do it? Henry was coy. So his mentors revarnished the camouflage homespun and sent him down to Washington in a lower berth, prepaid. They went with him, perhaps to be sure he wouldn't try to chew the flag in the New Willard lobby or be interviewed by the Washington Times on the subject: "How to Raise a Slacker." When the party returned to Detroit it gave air-raid alarm and announced to the frightened proletariat that President Wilson had personally advised Henry to go to, through and around it. Thereby Hank became a confusion candidate on most of the Democratic ticket, with 147,000,000 designs on part of the Republican ticket.

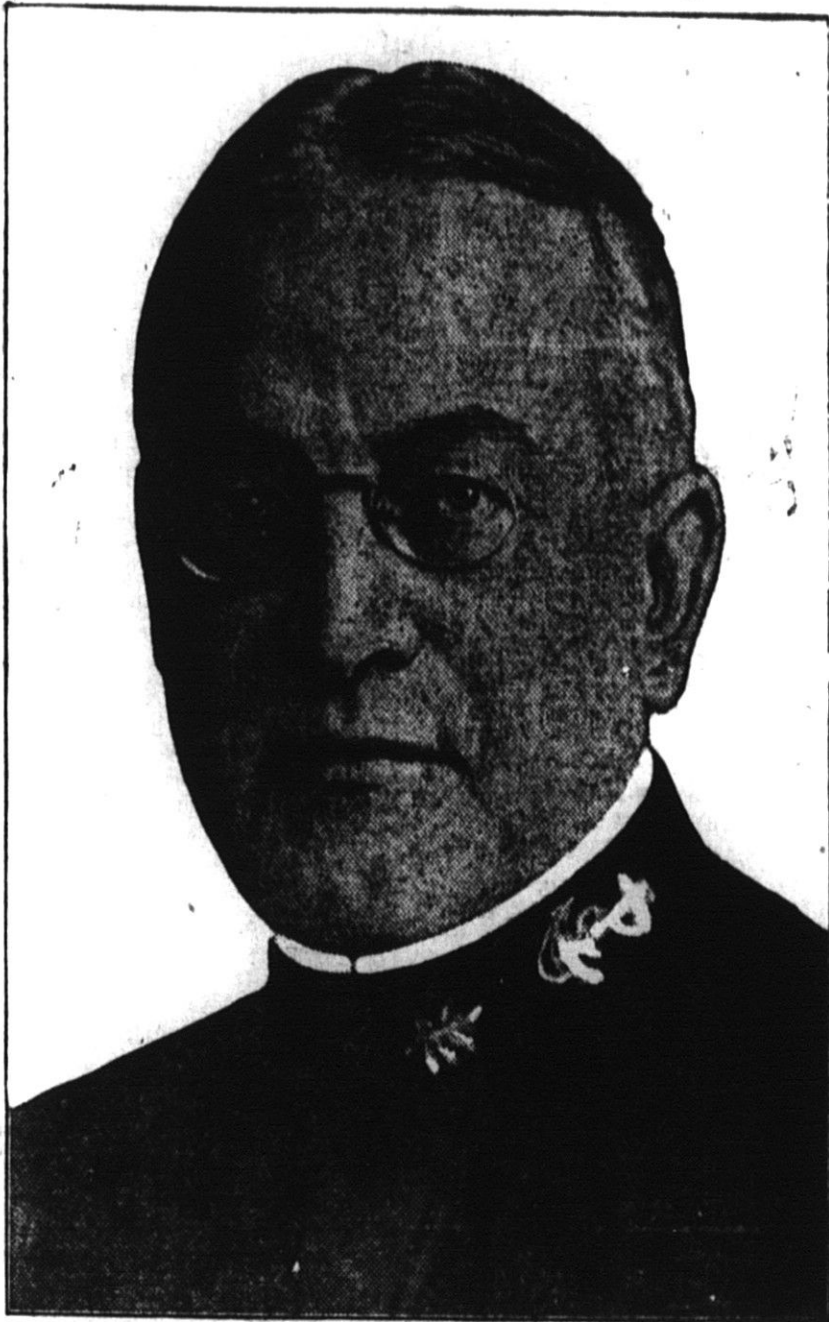

Was there a screech as of a mad eagle? There was, and likewise an odor as of employed buzzards. Michigan people with memories as well as party affiliations began a vigorous strafing of the strategists who sought to market a sterilized pacifist just because the combination of present popularity with the somewhat hazy endorsement of President Wilson afforded an opportunity for a little fancy plumbing within Michigan machine politics.

Republican candidates for the nomination bobbed up, wavered and bobbed up again. One of them, ex-Governor Osborn, said he'd be gosh-dinged if he let his fear of a beating stand in the way of peeling the bark from Henry's protoplasm, or words to that effect. The fight waxed warm and the wax melted. Then some of the most steadfast among those who resented the attempted gobble, and resented still more the installation of Henry Ford in a senatorial chair at a time when this war-burdened country needs every capable and patriotic senator it can get, called for a candidate who properly might represent the Republicans and who, if nominated on that ticket properly fight be recommended to the people—a strong, well-balanced man whose election would be of real service to the nation and would release Michigan from the unkind hands of interstate persiflagers, satirists and scandal-mongers.

The thoughtful community sprang a known and tested candidate on Henry's satellites, just as he was being rehearsed with a fourth reader. They named Truman H. Newberry, former Secretary of the Navy and now Lieutenant-Commander of the Third Naval District—the New York district—a man whom it had been unsupported would be willing to risk defeat in the pursuit of a job he might have had years ago for the asking. It was a good deal like requesting a champion prize-fighter to risk his title against a "pork-and-beaner" at a Red Cross Fund boxing carnival.

For Commander Newberry is an American naval officer, not a politician—he is fulfilling his duty with the sole object of helping his country to defeat her enemies. He has given his sons as well as himself to the cause. His wife is actively employed in women's war work. Gentleman as he always has been, he diligently obeys the orders of his superiors—one, his successor as Secretary of the Navy, and the other, the district commander whose orders he formerly issued. He has no time for electioneering, no expressed inclination for office. When his Michigan friends asked him if he would accept the nomination, he said he would if they wanted him to do so and that he would stay out if they wanted him to do so. His friends said they wanted him to go in.

I called on Commander Newberry one day shortly after the Michigan embroglio drew the national spotlight and came away with the impression of having interviewed an American of one of the finest types that ever discussed his own political status.

His replies to questions concerning the advertised endorsement of Henry Ford by President Wilson and Secretary Daniels was characteristic of his long-established reputation for careful speech and meticulous courtesy. He said:

"I am not making this contest. It is being made for me. I am satisfied with my present job. This country is at war, and I am glad to think my services are needed, as well as the services of my twin sons, who both are fighting. It is not for me to discuss any action that may have been taken by my superior or by the administration. I am here to get young men for the navy and to see that they are started right.

"Nor do I think it would be in good taste for me to say anything about the candidacy of Henry Ford. I have no great personal ambition to go to Washington—not as much as I have to help beat this Prussian king and get my family back in Detroit. You know I have seen my family together only since I have been in the service. (Since Commander Newberry has been a naval officer he has been away from his post in New York for just one day. This was on the occasion of the accidental overlapping of the leaves of absence of his two sons, one a major in the army and the other an ensign in the navy.)

"I have had my shift at Washington. I spent nearly six years there and always have been sincerely gratified at the honor bestowed upon me by President Roosevelt. There is no reason for me to seek to go back there, gratifying as it might be to receive such an honor by popular vote. I am happy serving my country, in the added knowledge that my successor as Secretary of the Navy was kind enough to appoint me to this post."

Commander Newberry is a "good soldier." Not only does he work hard and regularly at his post and therein set an excellent example to all the officers and boys who come under his direction; not only does he take orders from his successor at Washington and from a commander previously under him with the grace that becomes so well and enduringly a man of good birth, careful breeding and naturally fine instincts—he has always been a "good soldier," just as his father, a Michigan pioneer, was before him and his sons are after him. It was this trait which got him to Washington as Secretary of the Navy. The circumstances have been told many times, but if the ante-war character and expressed sentiments of one candidate are to count for anything in this most peculiar state fight, an old story about the other is worth recounting for the sake of the voter who may have forgotten the source of fame of both. Here is the story:

In 1916 Truman Newberry helped to organize the Michigan Naval Militia and served as a seaman in it, despite the fact that he was important in several industrial movements in which the Newberry estate was heavily interested of under his conduct of it. He served throughout the Spanish-American war as a lieutenant, junior grade, on the U. S. S. Yosemite and helped to bring home the bacon in the shape of the Spanish munitions ship Antonio Lopez, which was driven onto the rocks by Morro Castle and captured under the fire of two Castilian gunboats. Prior to that war, while he was a plain "gob" on the training ship Yantic, he was extended the privilege of swabbing the deck on the day Theodore Roosevelt, then Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was giving the Wolverine lads the delighted once-over. A great alabaster yacht flew past and Theodore asked the Yantic commander what ship she might be.

He did not know and Teddy asked the deck swabber.

"She's the Dawn, sir."

"How do you know she is?"

"She's mine, sir."

"Oh!"

Roosevelt tucked the incident into one of his deathless brain cells, and when he became president he had Truman Newberry looked up in the world's almanac and appointed him Assistant Secretary of the Navy and afterward, in 1908, made him Secretary of the Navy.

There is not much more to say about Commander Newberry in connection with a public matter. His reputation is public and the sequence of his interests in American affairs is unbroken by departures from the ideals of citizenship.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Rev. D. Van Peut, of this city, has received and accepted a call to the Reformed church of East New York, Long Island, in the suburbs of Brooklyn. Rev. Van Peut has been the pastor of Hope church for the past few years and has made many warm friends who are sorry to see him leave.

Mr. Duncan Robertson of Grand Haven is building a steamer somewhat like the Henry Brewer, but longer for Capt. McCluer. The boat will run on the Fruitport route.

The Chicago & West Mich. Railway Co.'s depot at Grand Haven, which burned a few weeks ago, has been rebuilt and will soon be ready for occupancy.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

The News office was moved last Wednesday to the Grondwet building where all business connected with the paper will be transacted.

Rev. Daniel Van Pelt returned to this city last Monday from his trip to the Netherlands.

The Workman Mfg. Co. is turning out on an average of fifteen fanning mills a day for the Vindictor Fanning Mill company.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The building of new docks along the south shore of Black lake is not limited to the reconstruction of Central Wharf. At the point west of J. Kuite's place, the latter is also engaged in building a landing, and hereafter this site will be known as Point Sheldon, in honor of the late Kalamazoo banker by that name, who until shortly before his death was the owner of that tract.

The estimate of the wheat crop in Ottawa County this year is an average yield of sixteen bushels to the acre.

A fish three inches long was carried into the intake pipe at Muskegon harbor and from thence into a garden hose six miles distant in the city.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Dave Cawer, whose home is near Laketown, was seriously injured in a runaway Friday night. His vehicle was demolished and he was thrown beside the road, where a searching party found him unconscious.

Thos. Beucus was in the city this week and installed another of his acetylene gas plants, in the residence of Mr. Riemers, on Maple street.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Ballard on the 4th inst.—a daughter.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

A duck with four legs was among the brood of ducklings hatched in the coop of Harvey Van Dusen, who runs a poultry farm north of the city, Sunday. Excepting the legs the duck is perfect.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Moon— a daughter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. Steketee on Tuesday—a son.

The death of Miss Gertrude Exo occurred last Sunday at her home on the north side after a long illness of tuberculosis of the lungs. Her age was 18 years. The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the M. E. church, Rev. A. Trott officiating.

TEN YEARS AGO

An event of interest in Grand Rapids, Grand Haven and Holland was the marriage of Charles A. Floyd of this city to Marguerite Howard Vander Veen, which took place 6 P. M. yesterday in St. John's Episcopal church in Grand Haven. The ceremony was performed by the rector of the church, Rev. De Witt Tanner.

Mrs. Maggie Sterken, aged 32 years died at her home on West Seventeenth street Tuesday morning about 5 o'clock.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Oosterbaan, Sunday morning—a girl.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Slagh, Tuesday morning—twins, a boy and a girl.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wagner, Wednesday—a son.

MISSION FESTIVAL IN IN THE DOZEMAN' WOODS

A mission festival of the Christian Reformed congregations of Drenthe, Overisel and Oakland was held at Dozeman's woods Thursday morning and afternoon, Aug. 15. Rev. A. Keizer will be chairman of the day. A list of able speakers has been prepared to take part in the program. Rev. Terpstra of Oakland and Rev. H. Hoeksema of Holland will speak in the morning and Rev. H. Beets of Grand Rapids, Rev. J. Groen of Grand Rapids, Miss Bertha Rosbach of the Rehoboth Mission and J. Van de Water of the Chicago City Mission will be the speakers in the afternoon. There will be a canteen on the grounds the proceeds going to the Red Cross.

THE WAR IS ENDED AGAIN BY DOPESTER

Would you believe it? The war will end in 1918. Paymaster J. D. Doyle of the Navy Relief Society of the U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill., has the "dope" from a real dopester. Said dopester has doped out that the sum of the dates of birth and assumption of office of heads of allied nations together with their present ages and the number of years they have governed in each individual case totals 3,836, which divided by gives 1918, the year in which the war is bound to end, of course.

HAS FIRST VACATION IN FORTY-ODD YEARS

Gerrit Heitje of Zeeland is enjoying his first vacation in forty years. He and his Mrs. and children are spending two whole weeks with relatives at Fremont. His next vacation will be when he is forty years older.

STEAL AUTO FROM FORMER HOLLAND MAN

John Moran, aged 22, and Charles Conroy, aged 21, are in the Allegan county jail for stealing an auto at Saugatuck belonging to Albert Koning of Peach Belt formerly of Holland. They were traced to South Haven that night by Deputy Sheriff William Oliver, who lives near Fennville. Mr. Oliver notified Sheriff Hillman before leaving and Sheriff and Under Sheriff Bob Scott took their auto and scoured the country between Allegan and Saugatuck.

Upon his arrival at South Haven Deputy Oliver struck a clue of the whereabouts of the men and learned that they were headed toward Benton Harbor. He called up the police department there and when he arrived found that the men had been arrested. Oliver started back home with the men and was met at Glenn by the Sheriff and undersheriff, who brot them to the Allegan jail. Monday the men were taken to Douglas and arraigned before Justice McDonald. They waived examination and were bound over to circuit court. Tuesday they were up before Judge Cross and both entered a plea of guilty.

Both young men had draft cards, Moran holds a discharge card, Class 5 D, which shows he was discharged for disabilities, while Conroy is in Class 1. Both are well dressed and have the appearance of being a little gay. Among the things in their possession were a number of pouches used for changing figures on cars. The officers believe they have run down men who belong to a gang in Chicago who make a living by stealing cars, changing the numbers on them and then selling them. They denied this, but when asked about the number dies gave an evasive answer.

GRAND HAVEN MAN GETS MARKSMAN SILVER CUP ON CAMP CUSTER RANGE

Mainland Robertson, son of Capt. and Mrs. George Robertson of Grand Haven, a corporal in the Eighty-fifth division, recently received a silver cup at Camp Custer at the ranges for good marksmanship. Mr. Robertson was a member of the five-man shooting team that carried off the honors in his division and had the honor of being the highest gun on his team.

GRAND HAVEN WOMAN, DONOR OF PARK, DIES

Grand Haven, Aug. 6.—Mrs. Martha M. Duncan is dead at her home on Lake avenue. Mrs. Duncan was born in Rome, N. Y., 73 years ago and has resided here forty-six years. Several years ago Mrs. Duncan gave to the city, in memory of her husband, 40 acres of wooded land on Lake avenue, to be used as a public park and recently she added to the gift.

W. C. T. U. OF OTTAWA COUNTY TO CONVEN

The Woman's Christian Temperance union of Ottawa county will hold its thirty-ninth annual convention in the Methodist church at Lamont, August 14. A new president will be elected. Among the speakers will be Miss Dora Robinson of Lamont, Mrs. C. A. Van Camp of Berlin, Mrs. G. D. Albers of Holland, Mrs. Huntley Russell of Grand Rapids, Rev. C. A. Van Camp of Berlin, Rev. J. R. De Graff, of Grand Rapids, Miss Margaret J. Bilz, of Spring Lake, Mrs. Mary D. Post Dutton of Holland, Mrs. Emma Williams of Lamont and Mrs. J. A. DeGraff of Grand Rapids.

A patriotic play, "Columbia" will be given in charge of Mrs. Henry Van Ark of Holland.

CARFERRIES MAY POLL SHIPMENTS AT GRAND HAVEN

Beginning today the Pere Marquette and Ann Arbor ferries may come to Grand Haven with their shipments. Up to the present only Grand Trunk ferry boats have entered Grand Haven harbor, but with the pooling of all such boats on Lake Michigan by the federal government, shipments will be made more direct and carferries will enter those ports which more quickly bring their cargoes to the destination points. The Pere Marquette railroad is transacting all work and transportation at the Grand Trunk depot as a means of doubling up in the government efficiency plan.

BURNING BEEF STEW LOOKS LIKE A FIRE

Firemen Thursday discovered a home in Grand Rapids where meat is served. Mrs. Lars A. Solosth, 1827 Francis avenue, S. E., left a beef stew in a kettle on her stove and returned to find the firemen ahead of her. The stew had boiled down, the beef began to burn, smoke resulted and the department was called. The meat was destroyed when the firemen arrived, they say.—Grand Rapids Herald. Mr. Solosth was formerly from Holland and married a Holland girl in the person of Miss Kate Kuite.

DUTCH CHURCHES TO HOLD MISSION FESTIVAL AUG. 8

Christian Reformed churches of Allendale, Bauer, Eastmanville, Rusk, Jensen, Lamont and North Blenden will hold a mission festival in Benton woods near Allendale today. Addresses will be given by Rev. G. Westenberg, Student A. B. Voss, Missionary J. R. Brink, Rev. M. Van Vessum of Zeeland, and J. Rottenberg, formerly Jewish missionary in Paterson, N. J. of self-preservation from it.

HEARSE IS HIT BY LOCOMOTIVE DRIVER ESCAPES

Peter Notier of Notier, Van Ark & Winter had about as narrow an escape from death Monday afternoon as any man can care to have. Though the hearse he was driving was hit by a freight train, dragged some 60 feet and then hit again by the same train with the driver imprisoned in it all the time, Mr. Notier escaped with a few bruises about his body and a slight cut on his forehead.

Notier was coming from Zeeland where he had been in charge of a funeral. It was about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. At a Pere Marquette crossing on a detour road between Waverly and Zeeland, used a good deal now because of the repairs to the main road but not much frequented by automobiles normally, Mr. Notier slowed up to take a look if a train were coming. The track is obscured by a knoll, preventing a clear view of the line. Hearing no whistle of an approaching train the driver in the hearse went confidently ahead having decided that all was clear. There was a sudden impact when the locomotive struck the back of the hearse and for a few moments the vehicle was dragged along the track with Mr. Notier imprisoned in it. He could hear the wheels of the train whizzing closely past him, one of them now and again striking the hearse. Mr. Notier feared every moment that he would be dragged under the wheels again. Some sixty feet away the front of the hearse was struck again, and the front wheel was taken off. It was then that the imprisoned man had an opportunity to crawl out of the demolished hearse to safety.

The train was stopped within about three-fourths of its length and the train crew hurried back to the scene. They were perhaps as much astonished as Mr. Notier himself, to find him alive.

The hearse was completely demolished. What was left of it was hardly worth picking up.

"Button, button, who has the button?" is now a game at which grown-ups can play profitably as well as can children. The word has gone forth from local Red Cross headquarters that buttons are wanted,—hundreds of them, thousands of them, as many of them as can be scraped together in Holland by the women and children. All kinds of buttons—large, small, medium-sized, plain, ornamental, cheap, expensive. In fact anything that can legitimately be called a button is wanted at headquarters. Too many cannot be brot.

The reason is that there is a veritable button famine not only in Holland but throughout the United States. At least local Red Cross workers are facing the time of their lives trying to secure enough buttons for the garments they are making. No one who has been engaged in the work has any conception of the thousands of buttons that are needed for this work. And the local dealers who have been supplying the Red Cross are having a hard time getting their orders filled. As a result some work is being delayed by the shortage.

To get away from this the Red Cross has decided to make an appeal for buttons to the people. It is something that would not easily be thought of by the average woman unless her attention is called to it. But those women who have already responded say that it is amazing how many buttons they have lying around which they can spare. One woman went through her button box and found more than a hundred to contribute to the Red Cross. If a hundred women or five hundred women should do the same thing, the button famine would be over at one stroke. The Red Cross emphasizes the fact that any kind of button can be used.

NO WONDER THEY AREN'T GO- ING TO HAVE A PICNIC

For patriotic reasons the pupils of the First Reformed Sunday school decided not to have a picnic this year. The church service flag already contains forty-five stars.—G. H. Tribune.

CHIEF CHEF AT HOPE DORM. GOES TO OUTLIERVILLE

Miss Frances Trip who has been the chef at the Hope College Dormitory for some time has accepted a position as matron of the Outlierville asylum for the insane. This is an institution conducted by the Christian Reformed church. A farewell party at Jensen Park was given in her honor, Thursday evening attended by 25 of her lady friends. A beautiful brooch was presented to the departing guest.

The black bread found on German prisoners is made almost altogether of straw. A drowning nation has as much right to grasp at it as a drowning man—and will obtain the same degree of self-preservation from it.

DRUGGIST HELD FOR SELLING OF JAMAICA GINGER

A warrant was issued before Justice Turner of Muskegon Friday morning charging Fred S. Tuxbury, Third street druggist, with violating the state prohibition law. Mr. Tuxbury is charged with selling "Jamaica ginger" 90 per cent alcohol, in violation of the bone dry law. The warrant followed several days investigation by the police department.

Two or three men have been arrested for being drunk and disorderly recently and bottles having Mr. Tuxbury's label were taken from them. Two bottles have labels showing that the drink has 93 per cent alcohol. The police are said to have purchased a pint bottle, marked 90 per cent alcohol, at this store and it is on this purchase that the warrant is based.

Chief Charles Murey signed the complaint which was drawn Thursday by Prosecutor Brock and turned over to Justice Turner Thursday. A warrant was then issued and turned over to the sheriff's force to be served.

About the only trouble encountered by the officers during the past few weeks was from men who obtained their liquor by buying bay rum and Jamaica ginger at drug stores. This, the officials say, is a violation of the state prohibition law. The officials say $2 was paid for the pint of Jamaica ginger at the Tuxbury store.

Holland can also boast of a Jamaica ginger drink when a Waukazoo man purchased three bottles at a grocery store.

COULD NOT GET BY CAMP EXAMINERS

Although he was the best prize-winner that ever came to Hope College, having won practically everything in sight at that institution during the past few years, Walter Scholten is not so lucky in military life. He tried for many months while still at Hope to get into the service and at last he was successful in passing the necessary physical examinations, that allowed him to go to Camp Funston. But he was there only one week. He was not able to get by the medical examiners of that camp because of his poor eyesight and was sent back home. During his week in camp young Scholten did not see much military life at that. The officers knowing that he could not go into the service did not put him to drill but gave him work in the kitchen until his ticket back home arrived.

Mr. Scholten has now done the next best thing by joining the "second line of defense," namely going into the harvest fields in the West to help gather the crops that will sustain those who are allowed to fight.

WHY CERTIFIED GRAIN SEED IS WORTH MORE MONEY

Numerous inquiries have come to the office of the agricultural agent regarding "certified" and "pedigreed" seed and the question asked in regard to this grain indicate that the true meaning of the words is not well understood by the farmers of the county.

Certified seed as the word implies means examined and approved seed. The Michigan Agricultural College is recommending several highly desirable grains, Rye, Rye, Red Rock Wheat, Winter Barley, Wolverine, College Success and College Wonder Oats. This seed has been produced by the College and is multiplied by them or on farms where it can be kept absolutely free from mixtures or other impurities. No other seed except the above varieties is certified by the representatives of the college or experiment station.

In having grain certified two things are necessary. First an inspector from the experiment station visits the field in which the grain is grown and determines whether or not the grain is true to type and free from mustard, quack grass, Canada thistles and other noxious weeds. Following this a peck sample is sent to the College for examination to be held as a guarantee type of the quality of seed which the grower expects to sell. In this way any grain to be certified must pass field and bin inspection and must be free from all weeds and troublesome diseases.

Rosen Rye being one of these grains is multiplying very rapidly and as a result there is considerable uncertainty Rosen Rye being grown for sale within the county. This uncertified seed is seed which once came from pure Rosen Rye but has become crossed to such an extent that it is not pure and a large majority of the supply is so badly crossed it is very much inferior to certified Rosen Rye seed. Rye like corn crosses and becomes impure by crossed pollenization. In this way no matter how good the rye may be it grown within 40 or 60 rods of common rye the pollen from one field crosses to the other with the result that the Rosen Rye becomes poorer and the common rye to some extent better.

The average increase in yield of Rosen Rye seed over common rye this year is approximately ten bushels per acre. This in view of the fact that it requires but one bushel per acre for seeding is inducing the majority of the farmers who intend to sow rye this fall to seed with this highly desirable variety and to require the purest seed possible which of course can only be with "Certified Seed."

FARMERETTES FROM HOLLAND WRITE AGAIN

The Holland Farmerettes who left Holland to farm it near Shelby have been at it now six weeks and in a detailed letter to the citizens of Holland tell of their experiences. The patriotic women have the following to relate:

Kamp Khao, Mich.,

July 28, 1918

Dear Friends in Holland:

To all who are interested in the movement to secure women and girls for farm work and, especially in the camp of Holland farmerettes who are now working on the Pleasant Valley Fruit Farm in Shelby, our letter is addressed.

Since leaving Holland about six weeks ago, we have been working steadily—sometimes in the gooseberry patch, where we encouraged ourselves by imagining each berry to be a bullet for the Kaiser, sometimes swaying in the tree top while we picked the juicy sweet cherries. It was certainly odd how many cherries fell into our mouths instead of into our baskets. Mr. Demmon told us that if we did not get enough cherries to eat this summer, it would not be his fault, and we know that it will not be ours.

We have been brought up to understand that our work here is satisfactory and that this method of securing pickers is successful. Neighboring farmers have found it difficult to secure pickers, and for a couple of days each week we have helped to pick fruit on other farms. They have all expressed a desire to recruit pickers next year from other places in the same way that Mr. Demmon did this year.

However, life here is not all work. Every night after work some of the girls walk to Crystal Lake—a charming little lake set among wooded hills—to enjoy a swim. The one difficulty about pleasure trips after supper is the rule which requires that all girls be safe and secure in their little beds by nine o'clock. Another favorite pastime is singing to the accompaniment of the Kamp Khao orchestra, which consists of a ukelele, a mouth organ, and a tin drum. We made quite a hit when we walked down the country road one evening at dusk and serenaded the inhabitants of each farmhouse.

Friday morning we were all quite excited by the report that the Crown Prince had been captured. We stopped work to sing the Star Spangled Banner and plan for an evening celebration. When we learned that the rumor preceded the event, we decided to postpone the celebration while we continue to do our share to make that news come true as soon as possible.

Next week Mr. Demmon is going to try us at hoeing beans. Since two of the hired men have been drafted our importance had increased. Mr. Demmon has also expressed a wish that we return next year.

While here we have had several Holland visitors. Besides former Mayor Vanderluis, Mr. Vander Ven and Mr. Brower, we have been visited by Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, Miss Dorothy Hunt and Harold Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Con De Pree, Miss Lida Rogers, Mrs. Beach of Hart who was formerly Miss Fuller of Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Dykstra of Holland and daughters, Ethel and Marie. If any Holland people pass on the pike and fail to find Kamp Khao we would be very displeased, but we will certainly extend a hearty welcome to all who come to see us. We invite all who are interested in farmerettes to visit our camp and see for themselves what persisted workers we are.

Best regards to the home folks, from Farmerette Bill.

PREPARE NOW FOR WINTER, SAYS MAYOR

Mayor Bosch Monday officially took what steps he could as mayor of the city to see to it that there shall be no fuel famine in Holland next winter. Such a famine no city official can prevent and all that the mayor can do is to help those who help themselves. If local citizens neglect the obvious step of filling their bins now, the chances are that they will be up against it for coal next winter, as many were last winter.

"The Grand Rapids city government has issued a statement," said Mayor Bosch, "advising the manufacturers of that city to stock up on coal for next winter. That should serve as a useful reminder to the people of this city as well. And I would like to say that the advice to stock up now goes not only for the manufacturers but for everybody. Every person in Holland who needs a bit of fire next winter, no matter how small it may be, should waste no time to get fuel into his bin now."

"Forewarned is forearmed," continued the mayor, "and I believe that a little forethought now will help a great deal to get ahead of unpleasant situations during the cold months. It is doubtless hard to think of fire now on a hot day like this, but it is the only safe way. A fuel famine costs the city and the individual much money, and it is unprofitable to expend money for something that can be prevented by a little forethought."

"And the same thing holds good for all kinds of strictly winter supplies. The people of Holland are naturally thrifty and prudent, and I feel certain that they will take such steps during these days of summer as will mitigate the rigors of winter in every way. All that is needed is a reminder at this time."

WILL HOLD ITS FIRST ANNUAL PICNIC

The Star of Bethlehem Chapter O. E. S. will hold its annual picnic at Jensen Park next Saturday afternoon. All members and friends are invited to attend. A pot luck supper will be served and games and other entertainment will be provided for both children and grownups. This will be the first annual picnic of the chapter and an attempt will be made to make it a most enjoyable one.

After a month's vacation this chapter's auxiliary to the Red Cross will resume its work, giving every Thursday afternoon to the work. The auxiliary is asking for workers to help in this service.

There will be no rehearsals of the chapter until further notice because of the fact that several of the officers of the order are away from the city on their vacation.

ANDREW WOLTERS HURT IN BATTLE; SUPERIOR OFFICER INFORMS PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. John Wolters, 210 W. 16th street, have received a letter from France announcing the fact that their son Corp. Andrew Wolters has been severely wounded. The information in the letter is very meager and does not say much other than that the boy has been wounded in the knees. The letter is from Young Wolters' superior officer. No other formal notification of the matter has reached the parents.

Young Wolters left this country in March and has been fighting on French soil for some time. He is in Battery A of the 7th Field Artillery.

ADAPT MILITARY TRAINING PLAN AT HOPE COLLEGE

Hope College students who have passed the age of eighteen will now be given an opportunity by the government to enlist in the army of the United States, and those under eighteen will be allowed to enroll in the army. Plans for the Student's Army Training Corps have been perfected by the War Department, and formal announcement of the detailed plans were made to President E. D. Dimment Tuesday.

As a result of this it is expected that most of Hope's students who have passed the age of eighteen will be in uniform the coming year and will receive formal military training which will fit them for active service when they have reached the draft age. Military drilling on the campus will be a prominent feature of college life the coming year.

Special arrangements have been made by President Dimment to give the boys in the Preparatory Department the benefit of this training also, although they are not included in the plan by the war department. The Student Training Corps is only for institutions of full college grade. It does not include such institutions as the Holland High school, Hope Preparatory school, Grand Rapids Junior College or Calvin College. But in the case of the Preparatory Department boys of the local college, the training can be given by the institution, although the work will not be done under the auspices of the United States government, as will be the case with the military training in the college proper.

Four college students have been selected by President Dimment to attend the officers' training camp at Fort Sheridan where they will be prepared for the work of giving their fellow-students the necessary military drill the coming year. These boys are Clarence Heemstra, George De Witt, David Huisinkveld and Theodore Vantema. They have been at camp since July 18, and they will act during the year as assistant instructors to the commissioned or non-commissioned officers whom the government may send to Hope to take charge of the special military work.

BOY STEALS $80 FROM STAR AUTO

Sheldon W. Miller of Akron, Ohio, not yet sixteen years old, applied for a job at the Star Auto Co. This was three days ago, and now Miller finds himself in the hands of the law, and in the county jail awaiting sentence. Miller, of whom very little is known, stole bills amounting to $70.60 and a check of $10.

The way Miller got the money was peculiar. An old gentleman by the name of Anderson is night man at the garage. Because of the excessive heat and a hard night's work, Anderson dozed away in a chair in the office of the garage. In the meantime his pocketbook containing the firm's money, had slipped from his pocket, and had fallen on the floor. Miller seeing the wallet picked it up and left the place throwing the pocketbook in the junk heap at Louie Padnos' junk shop. He also tore up the check and pocketed the money.

Miller at first denied that he had had anything to do with the theft, but Chief Van Ry and Patrolman Bontekoe did a little third degree work and proceeded to search the young man from Akron. He then broke down and told the chief that he had on two pair of trousers and that the money could be found in the watch pocket of the second pair.

Patrolman O'Connor took the lad to Grand Haven Wednesday afternoon, where he will have to face Judge Cross for sentence.

A clearing which made a fine stage setting for a performance of this kind. Against a background of foliage an improvised platform was built, decked in bunting and flags.

The committee having this matter in charge, did diligent work to fix up this meeting place in Doseman's woods in so unique a fashion.

After the program had been completed the audience retired to the baseball park near the large grove where a soldiers' camp fire was soon in progress.

The home guards showed in pantomime what camp life consisted of and truly "tenting tonight on the old camp ground" was well depicted by the men in khaki from Drenthe.

There were several smoldering fires and some tents to indicate the housing of the soldiers.

A show battle was fought and a surprise attack from the Hun was checked just in time by a severe curtain fire from the American soldiers from Drenthe which soon brought the Huns to bay.

Our wounded soldiers were taken care of immediately and quickly by the Drenthe Red Cross, consisting of several blushing maidens from our neighboring village. Nothing of the army was forgotten, even the cavalry being represented by old "Dobbins" from the neighborhood.

The program in the grove was unusually well received, and a very successful evening, not alone from the standpoint of enjoyment, but also with substantial revenues for our fighting boys, was the ultimate result.

The meeting broke up after the audience had through singing the Battle Hymn of the Republic.

Following is the program: Hymn, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," audience.

Prayer and Opening Remarks, Rev. A. Vanderberg.

Music, "Twilight," Mixed Quartet. Dialog, "The Interviewer." Vocal Solo, "Break the News to Mother," Verna Brower. Reading, selected, Hattie Masselink. Drill, Red, White and Blue. Music, "Save the Boys," Male Quartet.

Reading, selected, Margaret De Vries. Dialog, "A Capable Servant." Music, "Angels Bright and Fair," Mixed Quartet.

Budget, Peter Karsten.

Music, "Jesus Lives," Mixed Quartet.

Dialogue, "Naturalization," Music, "America," Audience.

Camp Fire at the Base Ball Grounds.

The following is the committee having the patriotic entertainment in charge: Bert H. Brouwer, Pres., Donald Vander Werp, Sec., John Nyenhuis, John Brouwer, Henry Vredevelt, Peter Karsten, Albert Daining, Marinus De Kleine, Joanna Van Haistma, Hattie Masselink, Jennie Nyenhuis.

ONLY SIXTY ARE ATTRACTED BY "FREE MOVIES"

There were only sixty people present at the widely advertised "free movies" put on in the Knickerbocker Theater Wednesday evening. These movies were for the business man, his clerks, for professional men and for all who are engaged in business of one kind or another. They were given under the auspices of the Retail Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and merchants and clerks had been promised a helpful evening of information about their work. The size of the audience was disheartening. A considerable number of those present were women clerks who tried to learn something helpful for their work.

D. W. Sully gave an interesting and entertaining lecture on "The Troubles of a Merchant and How to Stop Them." The talk was illustrated with stereopticon views, and a three reel movie was also presented showing how to overcome difficulties in the store.

Store management and arrangement of stock to best advantage came in for a good deal of attention. The pictures showed that the difference between failure and success often lies right there.

Courtesy was another point given special emphasis. Special stress was laid on the desirability of courtesy to children customers, because of the fact that their present patronage is worth cultivating and also because of the fact that children have long memories and discourtesy to them as youngsters often reacts on the store when the youngsters have grown up.
