Bothering Couple in the Park Cost $40.00

Henry Vanden Beldt who was arrested for creating a disturbance in Centennial Park was fined $40 by Justice Van Schelven.

A complaint was made by W. H. Reynolds, who with a young lady, was sitting peacefully in the park when Vanden Beldt walked up and laid his hands on the young lady who he did not know.

An altercation followed and the complaint was signed by Mr. Reynolds which brought about the arrest.

GODFREY CLEANS UP ON DIRTY MILK DEALER

INSPECT 86 DAIRIES IN ALL; CLEANLINESS PREVAILS GENERALLY

Dr. Godfrey, our most thorough health officer together with Inspector Bosch assisted by Richard Overweg, city clerk, have during the past two weeks made a thorough inspection of all dairies in this vicinity from which Holland gets its daily milk supply.

In all 86 dairies were inspected and on the scale of 100, the average is 84 which is said to be very acceptable.

Four dairymen were not scored because they did not keep their stables clean and also did not use the proper sanitary precautions in handling the milk.

On the other hand they did get a scoring from the doctor for their negligence, and these four promised to do better.

One dairyman however left his milk surroundings in such bad condition that Dr. Godfrey forbade him from selling any more milk in the city.

In an interview the doctor has something fine to say about some of the dairymen.

Said Mr. Godfrey: "Many of our dairies are models of cleanliness with stables whitewashed and floors spread with bright clean straw and everything about the premises show that the dairymen are painstaking and careful."

"There are a few however that spoil things. The one mentioned above was not alone negligent about the dairy house, but the dairyman himself was not careful of his person."

"The only way to have pure milk is to cut out the unsanitary milkmen, forbidding them to sell their product in Holland."

"A hasty and unexpected followup inspection shows considerable improvement since a week ago."

FRUIT AND SAND TO BE HAULED IN HUGE AMOUNTS

According to George E. Hunt, formerly of Holland, division freight agent for the Pere Marquette R'y Co. that system will handle 5,000 cars of fruit this season compared with 4500 cars last year. The system has handled 500 cars of Michigan fruit to date. Coarse sand is being hauled from Bridgman, Riverside, Grand Haven and Manistee, the total carloads for the six months of the present season being 3,999, compared with 2,326 carloads for the corresponding period a year ago.

HAVEN'T SEEN DAUGHTER IN 12 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. T. Volkema of Holland and son Claus left Wednesday for a trip through South Dakota and Iowa.

The main intention of the trip is to see some of their children living in those two states.

Mrs. Sterk who lives in South Dakota has been absent from the city for 15 years and during her fifteen years of married life she made but one trip to Holland with one child. This was a dozen years ago.

Since that time the stork has brot four more which the grand parents will see for the first time when they reach their destination.

They also intend to visit a son in Iowa and will be away for at least a month.

HOLLAND MAN IS NEARLY ELECTROCUTED

While Henry Lohman of this city attempted to repair a short circuit at the Macatawa Power and Water station, the screw driver he was using slipped and struck a live wire and 2300 volts passed through his body.

Lohman was standing on a step ladder when the mishap occurred and the charge knocked him off from the elevation onto the shoulders of a fellow workman.

Th fall broke the current, and had this not been the case, Lohman surely would have been electrocuted.

The hand holding the screwdriver however was badly burned as the result of the current passing through it.

TWO HOLLAND MEN MOTOR TO MILWAUKEE

ON THEIR WAY CHANCE TO SEE THE HARDING FUNERAL TRAIN PASS THRU

Mr. Vos of the Vos Electric shop and Mr. Dunnewind, one of the employees have just returned from a motor trip to Milwaukee where they visited the famous Moe-Bridge Electric Fixture Manufacturing plant.

On their return through Chicago they were privileged to see the funeral train of the late President W. H. Harding pass through the city.

They state that one coach alone was filled to overflowing with massive floral tributes taken on along the way as the train swept across the continent.

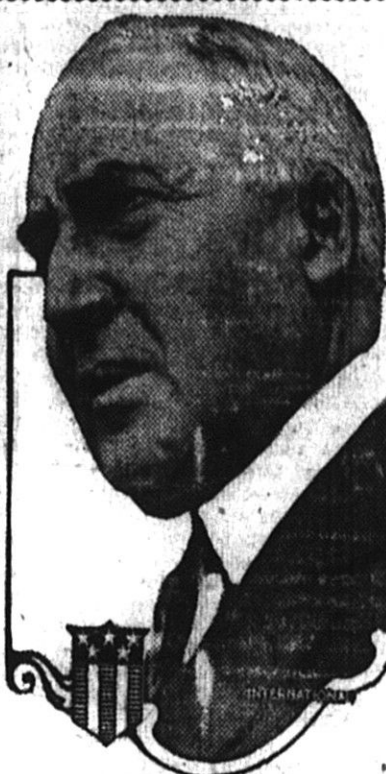

One coach also banked with flowers contained the body of the president and Holland men saw guards standing at the head and foot of the casket.

All along the line as far as the Holland men could see along the track was a mass of silent people and as the train passed through every one uncovered and as Mr. Vos describes it, "It was a sight that touched the heart of every patriotic citizen who was there, and there were but few dry eyes in that human mass."

Pine Creek Community will give a program Saturday afternoon at Buchanan Beach. There will be a ball game at 3:30. Pine Creek Independents will play Holland Cubs.

Rev. and Mrs. B. Hoffman of Morrison, Ill. are visiting friends in Zeeland and vicinity.

OUR DEPARTED PRESIDENT

HOLLAND FOLKS SEE THE HARDING FUNERAL TRAIN

Had Twenty Minutes While Engines Were Being Changed at Clinton, Iowa

Mr. and Mrs. B. Kamferbeek who are on a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. I. Van Westenberg at Fulton, Iowa, were unusually fortunate in seeing the Harding funeral train pass through a town directly across the Mississippi river from Fulton, and Mr. Kamferbeek's interesting description is found in the following letter:

Fulton, Ill., Aug. 6,

Dear Friend Ben,— Just got back from Clinton, Ia., across the bridge from Fulton, where I saw the funeral train of the late President Harding at the Northwest R'y depot. The train changed crews and engines here and stopped for about 20 minutes. I was two hours early so I got a good place on the station platform to see as much as I could. There were 11 cars to the train when it pulled in. There were many notables aboard but I was close to only two, Gen. Pershing and Secy Hoover. The last named walked over the platform and Pershing sat at a window, but did not come out of the train. The engine was all decorated in black and white with a large shield at the head of the engine. One coach was all filled with flowers, and the other were dining, parlor and other cars. The rear one with the body of President Harding was so close to us that we had a full view of the banked up casket with flowers and a soldier at each corner of it. It was one mass of people here at the depot on both sides of the track for nearly a half mile and all other points of advantage. A large basket containing American Beauty roses was presented to Mrs. Harding by the city of Clinton through the mayor. At the depot the old soldiers, boy scouts, and the American Legion men were represented. Mr. VanWestenberg took his car and rode over to East Clinton and parked his car along the tracks like hundreds of others did to see the train pass by. It was not going fast and all had a good view of it. There were people here at the station in Clinton who came all the way from Davenport just to see the train pass through.

With best regards,
BEN KAMFERBEEK.

WOMEN JURY ACQUITS MRS. DE WITT

A REGULAR NEIGHBORHOOD QUARREL IS AIRED IN COURT

Yesterday one of those old-fashioned cases of which there are only a few nowadays, was tried before Justice van Schelven, the case taking up the entire day.

Mrs. Bertha De Witt was charged by Mrs. Gabriel Kulte with assault and battery some time ago, in which Mrs. Kulte alleges that she was severely beaten by the defendant, and scourged seven times, and otherwise made charges.

This is alleged to have happened about two months ago, and the trial brought to the large court room practically the whole North End where these people live.

Charges and countercharges were made up by the attorneys for the defense and also the prosecutor, and Mrs. Kulte even went into a faint during the trial.

Her testimony as to Mrs. Kulte's wounds were brought out by Prosecutor Ames on the testimony of Dr. Lappan, and even Neuse Churchford bore witness as to the condition of Mrs. Kulte after the alleged beating.

So it can be readily seen that the suit was quite a spectacular affair in which many witnesses, even the sister-in-law of the defendant, Mrs. Driscoll, testified against Mrs. DeWitt.

After eight hours of lawing, the case went to a woman jury and in one hour and a half of deliberation, the Holland ladies acquitted Mrs. De Witt.

The women who acted on the jury were Mattie Van Putten, Nellie VanderBie, Reka Tuttle, Marie Oert, Sena De Keizer and Nellie Mulder. Attorney Daniel Ten Cate of Diekenma Kollen & TenCate defended Mrs. DeWitt, while Prosecutor Miles appeared for the people.

COUNCIL RESOLUTION TO BE PRINTED IN GOLD

SIGNED COPY TO BE SENT TO MRS. HARDING

The common council at a meeting held Tuesday night passed suitable resolutions as these relate to the late president and it was then decided that a neatly printed copy of the resolution be sent to Mrs. Harding, signed by the Mayor and City Clerk. The Holland City News Printery is getting up the form in which the left hand corner near the signature the city seal is to be found printed in gold, with the wording, "Eendragt Maakt Magt; God zij met Ons." Literally translated the wording in English would be "In Union there is Strength; God Be With Us."

A facsimile of the seal is found in this article.

EAGLE TRANSFER SOLD OUT TO GERRIT HELDER

THERE WILL BE ONLY ONE TRUCK LINE TO GRAND RAPIDS IN THE FUTURE

The Eagle Transfer Line running between Holland and Grand Rapids has been sold out to Gerrit Helder of Grand Rapids and has been consolidated with the other truck line, namely, Scholten Bros.

The Eagle Transfer Co. was owned largely by Holland men who naturally relinquished their interest.

Both Mr. Helder and Scholten Bros. will be actively engaged in trucking and with the combination there will be eight trucks on the line.

Mr. Helder will move to this city and the main offices in Holland will soon be established.

There will only be one truck line to Grand Rapids in the near future and it is stated that the Michigan Utilities Commission will allow only one as long as this one gives service.

THINKS LOST WOMAN JUMPED OVERBOARD

After a thorough search extending for over two weeks on the part of the county officers and steamship officials investigators have come to the conclusion that Mrs. Peter Karmgaard of Grand Haven lost her life jumping or falling from the Goodrich line Indiana while on a trip from Chicago to this city on the night of July 22nd.

No additional information regarding Mrs. Karmgaard has been heard since the finding of her suit case on the Goodrich dock where it had been left by members of the crew of the Indiana.

Zeeland will honor President Harding by closing all factories and other business activities Friday afternoon. Memorial services will be held at 2:30 o'clock in the Zeeland city park when Rev. G. DeYoung eulogizes the president. Rev. H. Ostendorp will speak on "The Honor Due the President of the United States." A quartet will sing two songs and taps will conclude the services.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE WED IN HOPE CHURCH

MISS KATHRYN VANDER VEEN AND MR. THEODORE YNTEMA ARE MARRIED

Simple and impressive were the ceremonies that marked the marriage of Miss Kathryn Elizabeth Vander Veen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vander Veen of 115 West Twelfth St. to Mr. Theodore Yntema, son of Mrs. D. E. Yntema, R. R. No. 10.

The wedding took place at eight o'clock at Hope church. The bride was preceded to the altar by the maid of honor, Miss Katherine Mc Bride, and the groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Leonard Yntema.

Mrs. Martha Cotton Robbins played several organ selections before the arrival of the wedding party, and played both Lohengrins Wedding March and the Mendelssohn Wedding March during the ceremonies. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, and met the groom before an altar, prettily banked with ferns and baskets of peach bloom gladiolas.

The Rev. Paul P. Cheff officiated. Mr. Chester Yntema, a brother of the groom acted as head usher, and Mr. Cronel Rogers of Cleveland, O., Mr. C. M. Mc Kee, of Chicago, Mr. Richard Kozelka of Chicago, and Mr. Winfield Burggraaf of Holland, all college friends of Mr. Yntema's at University of Chicago and Hope College served as ushers.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white frosted crepe, draped at the side and trimmed with rose-pointe duchesse lace. A court train fell from the shoulders, and the tulle veil was caught up with a cap banded with rose-pointe lace and orange blossoms. She carried a very lovely bouquet of bride's roses and swansonia. Miss Katherine Mc Bride, the maid of honor, wore a smart little dress of peach bloom taffeta, bouffant at the sides and trimmed with gold flowers. Her bouquet was fashioned of ophelia roses and forget-me-nots.

Immediately after the wedding a small reception and supper was given at the home of the bride's parents on Twelfth street. The color scheme of peach and blue was carried out in the house. Forget-me-nots and Ophelia roses together with gladiolas and garden flowers were used in the rooms, and a centerpiece of snapdragons and Ophelia roses and lighted pink tapers graced the dining room table.

The bride's mother, Mrs. J. A. Vander Veen was very lovely in a gown of French blue crepe remaine trimmed with silver and lace, and Mrs. D. B. Yntema, the mother of the groom wore a charming black lace gown.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Yntema left for their honeymoon on an extended motor trip. For her going away costume the bride wore a three-piece suit of gray tuckered polart twill, and a red juveyn hat.

There were a large number of out-of-town guests present at the wedding and reception, among them Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Vander Veen of Elm Station, Central Park, Dr. and Mrs. A. Vander Veen of Grand Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Vander Veen of Grand Rapids, Miss Lucille Vander Veen of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Van Leuven Sr., of Grand Rapids, Miss Annette Van Leuven of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. HON G. J. DIEKEMA TO BE THE SPEAKER ON FRIDAY

Mayor E. P. Stephan who has charge of the Harding Memorial Exercises to be held at Central Avenue church Friday afternoon at 2:30 has asked Hon. G. J. Diekema to be the speaker of the day.

In selecting Mr. Diekema, Mr. Stephan stated—"I would not know of a man who is better fitted to speak with authority upon President Harding than our fellow townsman. Mr. Harding was a personal friend of Mr. Diekema; Mr. Harding was in the senate when Mr. Diekema was in the House, and for years back Mr. Diekema has closely watched and has been in intimate touch with the departed president."

"Personally I know and feel that while Mr. Diekema is a wonderful orator that this subject of Mr. Harding is close to his heart and that the participants in the Memorial Day exercises Friday afternoon will hear an eulogy on Mr. Harding which will never be forgotten."

HOLLAND BOY IS CRUSHED BY AN ELECTRIC ELEVATOR

A terrible accident took place at 9:40 Saturday morning in one of the large three-story buildings of the H. J. Heinz Co. of Holland when Harold Laverne Johnson was practically crushed to death by the electric elevator, which he was tending.

Just how the accident happened may never be known, although a coroner's jury has been drawn by Coroner Westrate to investigate all the happenings at the local plant.

The first that the employees knew about the accident was when the screams of the lad were heard and the belt was thrown off the elevator pulley, and employees within 50 feet rushed to the elevator shaft only to see young Johnson pinned between the elevator and the floor.

It took only a few minutes to extricate the young man but it was soon apparent that he was terribly mangled and Dr. Winter and Kool and also the Nibbelink ambulance were at the plant within ten minutes and the young man who was still conscious was rushed to Holland hospital where he received medical aid but Mr. Johnson's condition was hopeless and all medical skill was unavailing, and the young lad of 17 passed away late Saturday afternoon.

Harold was a student at the local high school and would have graduated next year. He was elected as an alderman at the school at the last election.

He was of a lovable disposition and not only had a host of friends in Holland but also in Grand Haven where he formerly lived.

Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson of this city. Mr. Johnson, it will be remembered, is the local representative of the Graham & McPherson Transportation Co.

The deceased was a member of Hope church and for a young member was very active.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon from the home, 85 West Ninth street, Rev. Paul P. Cheff, his pastor officiating.

The funeral car took the body to Grand Haven and interment was in the family plot.

At the grave short services were conducted by Rev. James De Kraker, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

DROWNING TAKES PLACE AT MONTELO PARK

A tragic drowning took place late Friday afternoon at Montello Park, directly west of the ice houses at the foot of 30th street.

Miss Lane Bruer who was wading out from the shore at the local park apparently stepped out too far, called for help, went down before assistance could arrive and was not seen again until the body was taken out from the water.

Information of the accident was received at police headquarters at 3:30 when Patrolman Rufus Cramer, a brother-in-law of the unfortunate girl, rushed to the spot where the accident occurred and at 4 o'clock "Chuck" Te Beek who lives near Montello Park and who was dragging for the body brought it to the surface.

Dr. Kools was also on hand, and assisted by the officer and the pulmonary attempt was made to restore the girl to consciousness, but the supposition is that Miss Bruer who by the way is a good swimmer, suddenly stepped off into a hole of which there are many in that vicinity and became entangled in the net and died of heart failure, rather than drowning.

It is said that the body was taken from a depth of about eight feet of water.

Miss Bruer who was employed at the Holland Shoe company, was 26 years old and was living with her sister, Miss Rena Bruer, West 21st-st.

The sister was visiting at Kalamazoo at the time and was nearly prostrated when the sad news arrived.

Mrs. Rufus Cramer 148 West 10th street and Mrs. Fred Zieglerman living on West 19th street, are also sisters.

The funeral of Miss Lane Bruer was held at the home of her sister Mrs. Fred Zieglerman, 191 W. 19th-st., on Monday at 2 o'clock p. m.

AT LEAST 2000 AT TEND ZEELAND RALLY

One of the largest mission rallies ever held in this vicinity was held in Zeeland Friday, when 2,000 people gathered at the Zeeland park in the annual mission rally of the Reformed churches of Holland and vicinity. The program speakers were of the very best that could be secured from the Reformed church workers.

In the afternoon the main addresses were given by the Rev. A. Van Bronckhorst, of Japan, who spoke on the spiritual needs of Japan. Dr. A. Pieters of Japan addressed the audience in Dutch. The closing address was delivered by Rev. H. Dosker, D. D., of Louisville, Ky., one of the most noted theological educators in the world.

The evening service was opened by songs. Rev. Jas. Wayer of the First church of this city gave devotionals. Special music was given by the Third church quartet and the addresses of the evening were given by Rev. H. Bilkert, of Arabia, and Rev. G. Watermuller of Winnebago mission, New Mexico.

Rev. Bilkert stated the Arabs wanted the education of the white man, that they were nationalists, and that their hopes of a good government were shattered at the peace table in Paris. The younger men are drifting into atheism, he continued. The leading men of Baghdad plead for American goods, appeal for American education.

Rev. Watermuller pleaded for the neglected Indians, stating that there now are 240,000 civilized Indians and that soon the Indians would become scattered all over the U. S.

The executive committee is composed of Rev. Van Peursem, Zeeland, president; Rev. M. Duren, secretary; and Luke Lugers, Holland, treasurer. John Vandersluis, veteran choir leader of this city, led the singing.

Officer O'Connor met up with five automobile loads of gypsies at the East End limits Tuesday and when they inquired about the town, O'Connor stated "Go straight down this street, turn north when you get by the clock and don't stop in this town, or we'll run you in." The gypsies hastened through the city and were soon lost on the West Michigan Pike going to Muskegon.

Circuit court at Grand Haven opened Monday and most of the attorneys from Holland were at the courtseat.

RIDE LABOR AGITATORS OUT OF THE CITY

The labor organizers, absolute strangers in this city, who have never before met any of the men at the Holland Furnace Company over whom they have become so concerned all at once, were given very rough treatment by a crowd of Holland Furnace Company molders, who to a man are standing by their boss, Mr. A. H. Landwehr.

It is stated that the men at the shop have been chafing because of the constant pestering and prolonged stay of these organizers from St. Louis, who have been mixing things up for them here in Holland judging from the talk on the street.

It is stated that some 18 or 20 molders got together, went to a hotel where the organizers had been stopping for two weeks or more, and demanded admission to their room. It is stated that the lights in the room went out immediately and the door was locked.

According to the police report it seems that a brother of an organizer by the name of Lake, was sent down to investigate. He was soon recognized by the crowd of Furnace Company employees, was dumped into a car, driven 3 miles out in the country, dumped out, and told never to return again.

A short time later Officers Cramer and Stoketee found a young Holland lad by the name of Kleviet who it is said had become infected with the agitation virus, and men at the plant where Kleviet had been working had picked him out as being partly responsible for their trouble.

Be that as it may, Kleviet was all a-tremble, surrounded by the big burly molders with blood in their eyes, and Officers Stoketee and Cramer soon took charge of the situation, got Kleviet out of the crowd, and Officer Stoketee escorted him home, where apparently he was very anxious to go.

It is stated that trouble has also been stirred up at the Western Foundry east of the city, which is a branch of a Chicago concern, and as soon as the manager heard of it, he let the dissatisfied ones go. Others it is stated demanded that the discharged molders be reinstated, but this the management refused to do, whereupon a few more left the shop, while more than half of the men stood loyally by to draw off the heat that was ready to be taken within a short time.

The loyalty of the remaining molders, it is said, saved the company considerable money, for everything was ready to pour off the molten metal which would otherwise have remained unpoured.

HAVEN WOMAN LOST COMING TO THAT CITY

The whereabouts of Mrs. Peter Karmgaard of Grand Haven who has been missing since July 22 when she boarded the steamship "Indiana" at Chicago bound for Grand Haven, are still unknown despite a vigorous search conducted by Sheriff Fortney and his men and her husband, Peter Karmgaard.

Mrs. Karmgaard was on a visit to Chicago to see her son there and was to leave on the Goodrich steamer Indiana on the evening of July 22. Her son saw her aboard the steamer and left just as the warning whistle was sounded for visitors to leave. Mrs. Karmgaard's suit case was aboard the boat at the time and was brought to Grand Haven and placed on the dock by members of the crew who knew Mr. Karmgaard. Mr. Karmgaard came down to the dock and got the suitcase but his wife did not appear.

Mr. Karmgaard waited for some time thinking that his wife would eventually appear but the county officers were notified immediately and started the search.

Possible means of escape from the steamer before leaving Chicago were sought but it was established that Mrs. Karmgaard could not have been on the boat when it arrived in Grand Haven on the morning of July 23. Officers have asked the Goodrich Co. to make a check on their pass slips and tickets to determine whether or not Mrs. Karmgaard left the boat before the steamer left Chicago.

The theory that Mrs. Karmgaard may have been lost overboard is now scouted by members of the crew who state that besides the lookout there are also two other men constantly on duty, the deck watch and the cabin watch. It is stated however that in spite of the watches and the 50 or 75 people who are constantly on deck, that it would be a comparatively simple matter for a person to be lost overboard.

Mrs. Karmgaard was said to be of extremely nervous disposition her trip to Chicago being occasioned by worry over her son who is working there. Suicide was never hinted at by her, however, according to those who knew her. She is described as being 55 years of age, 5 feet six inches tall, medium heavy set. Her hair was dark in color and mixed with grey. All information regarding her whereabouts should be immediately wired to Sheriff Fortney.

The Zeeland Record and Holland Daily Sentinel are indulging in mutual recriminations as to whether certain citizens of Holland who guaranteed the financial success of a Chautauqua and were compelled to pay a deficit, are or are not "going into spasms" over their loss. Here in Allegan, this has occurred without any public walling. In fact, last year the business men financed a free Chautauqua for all comers. But then, we expect to spend a nickel once in awhile.—Allegan Gazette.

HARDING'S AMERICANISM

President Harding's intense Americanism is set forth eloquently in these words to the American Legion at its flag conference at Washington last Flag Day, June 14:

"I have seen the flag raised abroad and I have often wondered where I liked it best.

"It is a beautiful picture in a patriotic procession.

"It is an inspiration where it is unfurled over the American schoolhouse as a guarantee of the liberties and opportunities of American youth.

"It has been a beautiful emblem of brotherhood when unfurled from the flagstaffs of relief ships carrying the American bounty to suffering peoples.

"But to me, the dearest picture of the flag is when it is carried by the old veterans of the Civil War. But for them there would not now be forty-eight stars glittering in the field of blue."

HOLLAND "GYPSY" ALSO FIND IT WARM IN GRAND HAVEN

The Gypsies who were told to pass on through Holland by the local police, reached Grand Haven and this is what the Grand Haven Tribune tells about them—

"Two Cadillac automobiles and one motor truck filled with gypsies were visitors in the city Friday noon. The wandering folk paid a short stay to the downtown section which aroused the merchants to such an extent that a number of hurry up calls were sent to the police department. The appearance of the police checked the gypsy activities and a quick departure was made for the country districts."

"From Grand Haven the gypsies departed for Spring Lake, after being quite evident that the wandering tribes were out to collect a little cash to replenish their gasoline for the two Cadillacs supplemented by the truck were quite capable of eating up fuel."

"All of the old dodges were tried, fortune telling being supplemented by promiscuous compliments together with the preparatory measures for a little "dip" activity. Local people proved wise as a whole and no loss was reported. The two Cadillacs then started shedding their loads of greasy humanity at the corner of water street and then the embryo raid started in all directions. One storekeeper's shop was entered and the sole occupant was showered with blessings. Chief Pippel and Officer Klumpel ordered and followed them out of the city to make sure of their "culture. Spring Lakers fortune telling activities on the part of the Nomads as well as the other methods of procedure."

MOTION MADE TO DISSOLVE THE INJUNCTION

In answer to the injunction made several days ago by Hercules Goselle, manager of the Jensen Park concessions at Holland thru his attorney, T. N. Robinson, Prosecutor F. T. Miles has filed a motion for dissolution of the injunction restraining the county sheriff's department in their program of law enforcement.

A hearing on the injunction has been set for August 13th as the earliest date at which such hearing may be held. The hearing is to be held before Judge Cross in the Ottawa county circuit court.

Prosecutor Miles stated that the motion for dissolution set forth in the program of the officers was being one of law enforcement and that the court would be asked to dissolve the injunction on such basis. The prosecutor stated that he did not see how such an injunction could be made to stick as it clearly held up the officers of the law in pursuing their duty.

HUNTLEY RUSSELL'S SON IS TO BE WED

One of the greatest social events held in Grand Rapids for sometime will be the wedding of Miss Lucille Hopson and Francis T. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Huntley Russell of Comstock Park.

Relative to the event and the pre-nuptial event the Sunday Herald has the following—

The eyes of the social world will be focused on the brides—and the grooms—who will wend their ways to the altar within the next few weeks, and 'tis anticipated that every one will be busy buying wedding gifts during the autumn. The brides are awfully busy these days, getting the trousseaux in readiness, and buying new frocks for the honeymoon, and at the same time house-hunting and purchasing furniture for their future home.

The first girl who will desert the rank of the "unmarrieds" will be Miss Lucille Hopson who has chosen the first of September as the day when the wedding bells will ring for her and Francis T. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Huntley Russell. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hopson will issue the invitations for the nuptials the last of this week the services to be read at the Park Congregational church.

The first of the pre-nuptials affairs arranged for their pleasure was the merry dinner dance Saturday evening at the Ottawa Beach hotel which had as hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Dennis, about two dozen guests being present. A continual round of affairs will dot the calendar for a fortnight preceding their marriage, for both are very popular young folk.

Mr. and Mrs. Huntley Russell are well known in this city and have many friends here.

Huntley has repeatedly been a candidate to congress for the nomination on the Republican ticket from the 6th district. He was elected on a state ticket as state land commissioner and has held other positions of trust in Lansing.

Mrs. Russell who is an ardent suffragette has spoken repeatedly before the Woman's Literary club of Holland, and besides have made their home at Ottawa Beach for the past thirty years, spending about one-half of their time annually at the local resorts.

SIX MEN TO INVESTIGATE ELEVATOR ACCIDENT

Coroner Dr. Wm. Westrate is to give the elevator accident at the Heinz plant a thorough investigation.

There are many rumors afloat which may be without foundation and the coroner feels that the best way to clear everything up is to have a jury investigate just how the accident that killed Harold Johnson occurred. For that reason the local police gathered together a jury and in a body went to the Nibbelink Undertaking parlors to view the remains.

No further action will be taken until after the funeral when the jury will reconvene.

The men chosen are Fred Beuwkes, John Vandervliet, Bernard Kefer, Martin Vander Bie, Jacob Lokker, and Alex Van Zanten.

Miss Julia Kleis of the Sentinel office spent the week-end with friends in Fremont.

HOLLAND CANNING COMPANY MAKES MON- EY ON CHERRIES

The cherry crop the last few years has meant a great deal to the Holland Canning Co.

The new manager's method of canning has made the cherry pack a wonderful asset to the company. A good crop not alone means a great deal to the factory itself, but to the growers as well.

While this is supposed to "have been an off-year for cherries, Manager Corey states that the company has put up exactly 1,058,511 pounds of cherries, and has found a ready market for every pound of them. The growers too, have materially benefited for the Holland Canning Co. paid out to the cherry farmers the sum of $69,548.30.

Surely a handsome check for but one departure of the many that find a market at the local cannery.

Despite the medium crop of cherries the management states that the company has never put away more cherries than this season, and it is especially gratifying that the Holland cherry is in great demand throughout the United States and Canada and the entire output can be disposed of without any effort and still demands cannot be entirely fulfilled.

It will be especially gratifying to the city of Holland to know that the sun of prosperity is shining on the right side of the Holland Canning Co's fence.

L. Smith has returned from a week's visit to northern Iowa. Mr. Smith states it now looks like there will be a bumper corn crop.

Miss Martha Rich left Monday morning for Traverse City where she will spend the month with Mrs. R. A. Wilhelm.

Noon vice president of the State Farm Bureau will speak. Baseball, indoor ball, athletic stunts and a barnyard golf tournament will prevail. This will start at 10 a. m. to decide county champions. ## BENNIE BATEMA GETS BEAU- TIFUL HALL CLOCK

That the Holland Independents base ball players appreciate the efforts of their captain, Bennie Batema, who recently took onto himself a visit was shown Monday evening when the welders of the stick, together with wives and sweethearts marched in upon the home of the newlyweds and gave them a surprise that will long be remembered.

Bennie who is always awake on 3rd can never be otherwise in the future, since a beautiful Colonial hall clock with chiming will always be near his sleeping and waking hours.

This beautiful token of esteem came from the thoughtful fellow-players in Holland's "crack" baseball team.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McLean have left to spend two weeks at the Michilinda Tavern, Whitehall, Michigan.

$200,000,000.00 COULD BE SAVED BY THE CITIZENS OF MICHIGAN.

If all new houses in Michigan were to be built the Bolhuis Lumber Company way until these new houses equalled in number the houses which now exist in the State, the total saving to home-owners would be approximately two hundred million dollars.

This immense saving would be brought about by a difference of only four hundred dollars on the average home. And considering the quality of construction, time saved in building, and longer life of the structure, plus the actual saving in money, the difference shown by these figures is very conservative.

And how are you to put a price on your life-long satisfaction that you get when you build into your house the very ideas that you care most about?

"Expressive Houses" do not cost more than ordinary houses, in spite of all their advantages. When you have carefully compared the plans and specifications that we can make—even after adopting many of your own building thoughts—you will find that we can save you money enough to allow a lot of added freedom in the selection of your home furnishings.

It will not obligate you in the least to investigate. Call us up to-day.

LOCAL

Three of Holland's rural letter carriers had the honor of conversing with the former president. They are Bert Tinkoff, G. J. Heedrick and John Brinkman, delegates to the national convention of letter carriers a year ago. Mr. Tinkoff states that President Harding said to him personally "we are all working for the same government, you in your place and I in mine, and it is for one cause. We are all working for a better government."

Mr. Tinkoff also stated that the whole atmosphere around Mr. Harding and the men in his cabinet was one of wonderful human spirit and that there was not a dominating feature about the president or his aides. All the men were deeply touched by the loving thoughtfulness the nation's leader gave to his fellow workers.

Sheriff Fortney and his men have managed to corner a "Peeping Tom" on Sunday when Ed Peters, manager of the Boat houses at Highland Park Grand Haven called and stated that such a person was in captivity on his premises at that moment.

"Tom" is no other than John Jenkins of Grand Haven, who it is alleged has been creeping under the bath houses at the Park for the purpose of peeping. He claimed to have opened doors underneath the bath house and then crawl along under the structure.

Mr. Peters had an inkling that this practice was going on so he rigged up an electrical warning bell and caught the intruder in the act. The sheriff was called and the man was taken to the county jail where he was kept until Tuesday. It is stated that others are indulging in the "Peeping Tom" practice and that apprehension will be certain if the act is persisted in much longer.

Judge Oren S. Cross of the Ottawa and Allegan county circuits is in receipt of a letter from the wife of a man sentenced by him for forgery which gives an interesting side-light on human nature. It appeared that her parents were not pleased with her marriage and she desired to have the dress of herself and children such as to create an appearance of prosperity. Her husband's earnings were not sufficient for this purpose and she could not understand the difficulty of procuring money. Result, forgery by the husband, prison for him and now self-support for her. She writes now she has learned how hard it is to make a living, that she sees it was all her fault, and begs that her husband be returned to her that they may start again with a different outlook on the world. As his term is nearly up she may have to learn a few more pages from the hard book of life.

Ty Cobb, the greatest base ball player of all times, and for years the star performer on the Detroit team who is now the manager of the Tigers is a great admirer of the late president, Mr. Harding.

Down in August, Ga., in the home of Tyrus Cobb, there is a portrait prominently hung in the living room. "To Ty Cobb, with sincerest admiration of a fan for the world's greatest base ball player, Warren G. Harding."

"President Harding was one of the finest men I ever met," said Cobb on Saturday. "His love for the game meant a great deal to base ball. He knew the game, he was not simply a fan, but a student of base ball."

"Every player who ever met the President must have felt the same thrill I did. He liked to talk base ball. He would ask intelligent questions that displayed a deep knowledge of the fine points. He knew every player, knew the faults of many (that is the playing faults), and long remembered thrilling incidents. He recalled many plays and discussed them with an intelligence one rarely finds among closer followers of the game."

Many of our public men attend ball games, their purpose being, apparently, to be photographed. They pose for the movie and still cameras, and after all the photographing is finished they sit with a bored look for a few innings and then leave.

President Harding was not of this type. He always came early and he watched practice intently. He stayed until the last out was made, and he kept an intelligent box score of the game.

Cobb recalled the practice game President Harding attended in August, this spring. Mr. Harding came early to watch Detroit and Toronto play. It was a mean, blistering March day. Few stayed thru nine innings. President Harding and calling upon complete score, and when Cobb looked this over after the game, he noticed the President had carefully and correctly made every change in the lineup, and had not missed a play.

Mrs. Jane Haight Ackerson of Holland, lived to pass her one hundred and first birthday Saturday. A detailed story being given in Thursday's issue of this paper. It is doubtful whether she will round out her 102nd year because of failing health.

In a city league game Monday night the Holland Shoes defeated the Montello Park team 12 to 5. The Shoes used their clubs to good advantage, this coupled with good base running put the game on ice for the Shoemakers. VanZanten and Scheuer formed the winning battery and Willis and Walters and Jappings, the losing battery. Van Zanten made 13 of the Parks whiff the air. The feature of the game was the hitting of Colton with four hits out of five trips to the plate.

This makes the fourth game played in the city league and the largest crowd was out Monday night to root for their team.

Tonight the South Ends play the East Siders, the South End team formerly being the Warm Friends.

Everybody come out, no admission is charged, but the boys pass the hat in order to cover expenses.

Wednesday night the Holland Cubs play the Limbers. This is the "kid" team that administered such an awful beating to the Merchants a week ago.

On account of the Harding funeral next Friday the annual picnic of the Allegan County Farm bureau has been postponed until Saturday. County agent Grege expects the program will be the same. The blacksmiths' association of the county also will meet there Saturday and Mr. Grege has arranged for joint sports between the two meetings, a tug of war being the principal event as far as proposed. It is probable the blacksmiths will accept the deal.

Henry Kraker, the plumber has secured from Mr. Gardner of Spring Lake a consignment of beautiful Lotus flowers, said to be Cleopatra's favorites.

The flowers are a native of the Nile where these beautiful blooms grow in profusion.

"These flowers are a beautiful yellow and average about 26 inches in circumference."

The Spring Lake man has seven beds of these Egyptian beauties and prides himself in having the only Lotus bed in this section of the country.

Many years ago some Lotus seed was planted in the bayou opposite the Gardner home, and nothing materialized for a number of years. Then a one lotus appeared, and now Gardner has lotuses to spare.

History states that the lotus played a very important part in the life of the Egyptian.

It is stated that it was extensively used on the slave markets, its odor being so overpowering and intoxicating that prospective buyers of beautiful women paid fancy prices for the beautiful maidens placed on the auction block in the slave marts.

Anyway Henry Kraker is showing these alluring blossoms in his show window.

A young man is now languishing in the county jail after being torn away from the arms of his sweetheart. The suitors went to visit the young lady of his affections who lives in the village of Ferrysburg but unfortunately the house had been previously visited by diphtheria. A quarantine sign was up but the man determined to do his "shaking" anyway. He was watched by officers and was nabbed. At present he is awaiting fumigation before being arraigned before Justice Lillie on a charge of breaking quarantine laws.

Mrs. Erwin R. Perry of Chicago "who is summing at Macata" was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon Thursday at the Kopper-Kettle Inn, in compliment to her niece Miss Florence Annetta Ross, of Toledo whose engagement has just been announced.

Miss Ross is a graduate of Wellesley College, and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell Ross who spend their summers at the Park, and have a wide circle of friends in the Grand Rapids colony. The date for Miss Ross's marriage has been set for the eighth of September and it will be an interesting event in the society circles of Toledo.

The Holland Boy Scouts are looking forward with anticipation to the opening of their camp on Monday, August 13, on the large plot of woods near Getz farm, called the Boone and Baker Beach.

The boys will be in good hands as they will be constantly under the supervision of Scout Executive, William Slater, of our public schools.

A splendid program of activities incident to scout work is assured the boys and all scouts wishing to go to camp are requested to communicate with Mr. Slater and any parent wishing further information can easily get these details by calling up City Phone 2415 where Scout Master Mr. Slater can be found.

Further arrangements are to be made at a meeting of the Boy Scouts to be held on Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock outside of the scout room at the high school. This meeting is especially called for purpose of arranging for camp necessities and to keep the lads informed as to what they are required to take along with them.

This is a very important part of the arrangement, and the boys must surely be there Thursday evening of this week at six-thirty o'clock. Remember the boys will go into camp on Monday, August 13, and will remain until August 27.

Mr. Slater states that parents and friends are not only invited to visit the boys, but are urged to show their interest by motoring down from time to time.

This is a duty that parents of scouts must not overlook, and if you have no boy present, it is only fitting that you take an interest in the young manhood of this community who will have to carry on when you are gone.

Mr. Slater states further that all the boys are welcome and asks the fathers especially, to come and sit around their camp fire "to smoke the pipe of peace," and further says, "if you want to put on weight come to the camp for that's the place where you get good eats."

Of course Mr. Slater means the "pipe of peace" is smoked only by the visiting "dads" for the scouts are total abstainers.

The daily program that is to be adopted follows below:

7:00 a. m.—Reveille.
7:20 a. m.—Flag raising.
8:00 a. m.—Breakfast.
9:10-10:30—Scout instruction.

In a letter to this paper Rev. Bernie Mulder, graduate of Hope College now pastor of Covenant Reformed church of Muskegon Heights, and who had charge of the Muskegon Heights Memorial services for the late president Harding writes as follows:

"Mr. Diekema was as good, if not better than I have ever heard him, his reserve power and his suiting the word to the occasion were certainly splendid."

Rev. Mulder then proceeds to give the following account of the services:

Memorial services for Warren Gamaliel Harding, late esteemed President of the United States were held Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the Muskegon Heights High school, the Methodist, the Baptists, and the Covenant Reformed churches participating in a union service. The memorial address was pronounced by the Hon. Gerrit J. Diekema of Holland. The address was a masterpiece and showed an acquaintance with the late President and an insight into his entire life that was a surprise to the hearers in the congregation. Harding, the man, was set forth with simple, homely incidents and quiet descriptions that were a power for good to the listeners. Harding, the Christian, was portrayed as a firm believer in the God of the nations and in the mediatorial power of His Son Jesus Christ. That more of the simple teachings of Jesus might be put into effect in the nations was the President's last plea. Harding, the statesman was described as the leading citizen in the world, a great quiet power for international good and justice and peace. "Well that France ratified the Pacific Pact before the author of it died. Well that he might die in that city whose Golden Gate overlooks the broad expanse of waters for which he insured peace."

To those who know Mr. Diekema from the barrister and statesman angle only, he was an agreeable revelation. Where the former demands forceful power and rampant eloquence this occasion demanded quiet tribute, and the speaker gave it in such a way that not one of them, but only of the character whose life he portrayed.

Mr. Diekema was fittingly introduced by ex-postmaster B. G. Oosterbaan, of Muskegon, a personal friend.

A. R. "Tommy" Maus 29, prominent South Haven business man and semi-professional baseball player, died Wednesday evening in a hospital at Plymouth, Ind., of injuries received the night before when the automobile in which he was riding was hit by another car and rolled into the ditch.

Maus had been called to the Indiana city on business at the time of the accident. Exact details surrounding the crash were not contained in the reports.

Funeral services were held from the residence Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. His father came from Oregon for the services. He is survived by the widow and two children.

The following clipping was received from a former Holland citizen about an important real estate deal transferring the holdings of Mr. S. W. Wheeler, president of the Wheeler Land & Loan Co., which reads as follows:

"One of the largest real estate transactions made in this section of the Red River Valley for a long time was completed yesterday when S. W. Wheeler, president of the Wheeler Land & Loan company sold his interests in the company to R. E. Werkman. Mr. Werkman has been with the company for the past eight years and is well informed as to conditions. He has prospects of locating a number of Hollander families who will make most desirable citizens for the community. The present holdings of the Wheeler Land & Loan Co. include over two thousand acres of the best improved farms in the vicinity of Crookston, Minn. Mr. Wheeler plans to return to Santa Ana, Calif., where his family is now located."

The Graham & Morton Transportation company has made arrangements to sell through tickets the same as any other railroad company, namely to any part of the United States.

The fare via the boat will naturally be cheaper for the reason that the boat fare is cheaper in the beginning.

A ticket can be purchased at the Graham & Morton dock for instance to California, Denver, Colo., or any western point and the baggage will be checked directly to the destination to which the purchaser has purchased the ticket.

The Graham & Morton Transportation company has also made arrangements with the big Parmelee Bus Co. of Chicago to take care of passengers from the boat dock to any depot in the city of Chicago.

The local company has folders from all different railroads and these can be had for the asking.

This new departure will surely be a convenience to the traveling public.

Progress in negotiations toward the joint utilization of the Michigan Railway company's station at Grand Rapids on Lyon street by the Grand Rapids, Grand Haven & Muskegon R'y company is reported to City Manager Fred H. Locke by S. L. Vaughan, vice president and general manager of the G. R. G. H. & M. R'y Co. "We have had a satisfactory meeting with the Michigan R'y officials and are now waiting for a conference which will probably be held the last of this week, with the Grand Rapids R'y Co's officers," Mr. Vaughan notified the manager.

MISS NELL WALKER IS A GLOBE TROTTER

Nell Walker, a spry dame from Los Angeles, struck town Wednesday morning, dressed in Khaki with a pack upon her back.

She looks just what her name implies, a professional walker, and they call her "Globe Trotter Nell."

She started from Los Angeles last New Year's and has since that time visited Mexico, secured the signature of President Obregon, has gone thru Canada to Alaska, and has secured all the seals and the signatures of the mayors in the cities through which she passed.

Wednesday morning she called on City Clerk Overweg, secured the Dutch seal, which she said she could not get, and also had the signature of the mayor.

She has walked 5,000 miles altogether thus far, 2800 being walked off in the United States.

She has worn out three pairs of shoes and a pair of soles on every 30 days. She says the average shoe maker is a poor one, but in Holland with a shoe factory she thinks a good stout pair of shoes suitable for her purpose can be secured.

From Holland she is going to Detroit, through Canada to Halifax, then to New York where she will take the steamer for Europe, walking through Europe and Asia she will go to Japan taking a steamer for Honolulu, and then back to her home town in Los Angeles, California.

Occasionally she gets an auto ride, but states that the holdups have been so many that drivers shy at giving a anyone a lift.

Miss Walker pitches her tent at night wherever she finds herself along the roadside, and also carries a big gun.

In Canada, she was not permitted to carry a gun and the authorities said that it was not necessary.

The Canadian officers however did advise her to carry a gun in the States as it was really dangerous to travel there.

Miss Nell naturally smiled when the Canadians made these comments. She was also not allowed to carry a revolver in Mexico, strange to say where everyone is "toting" a pistol. While Mexicans are simply bristling with weapons, an alien is relieved of them.

"Globe Trotter Nell" makes her way by showing a film of her adventures and giving health talks in some movie house, the towns through which she passes.

Wednesday night she appeared at the Colonial with her film and her talk and her walk.

DRUNKEN DRIVER PAYS THE JUDGE

$100.00 FINE

Deputy Sheriff Ed VanderWest was hastily called up at Macatawa Park at 3:30 a. m. Tuesday, where he had been called earlier to stop some rowdies who had been hooling around the resorts, making night sleep for the resorters really a nightmare.

The call which came from West Olive, was from Robert Bennett, who stated that a drunken driver had smashed up his Ford, and that he was holding the man.

VanderWest, who had put an end to the disturbance at Macatawa, rushed to West Olive where he found William Johnson of Muskegon under the influence of liquor, he having driven his Jewett Six into the rear end of Robert Bennett's Ford.

Johnson's car was put out of commission, the front end being badly stove in.

The Ford was also badly battered and was hauled into Holland the next day for repairs.

Bennett's car stood along the roadside six miles north of Holland on M1, the car being stalled for lack of gas. Johnson who came zigzagging along, also coming to Holland, gave the Bennett car the full benefit of a rear end collision.

Johnson claimed that Bennett did not have his tail light lighted. This however Bennett denies.

Deputy VanderWest took Johnson to Holland, lodged him in the city jail until morning when he was arraigned before Justice Don Herder, where he pleaded guilty to the charge of driving while drunk and license giving the man a thorough lecture.

Mr. Don Herder fined Johnson $100 and costs of $5.65 or 60 days in the county jail. The traveling man promptly paid and no doubt will have to pay all the damages to Robert Bennett besides, or stand a civil suit.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT ON THE PERE MAR- QUETTE CROSSING

A Ford touring car driven by Louis Cech of Grand Haven township, overloaded to capacity with car and Mrs. Cech and ten children, was demolished by a Pere Marquette switching train Saturday evening about supper time. The accident happened at the dangerous Penneyer Crossing in Grand Haven.

Young Cech was driving his parents and the children, making 14 occupants in the car, into Grand Haven to get some ice cream. Not noticing the approach of the switching train, the car tried to cross the track and was caught on the coupling of a tank car which carried it nearly a car's length before the train could be stopped.

Mrs. Josephine Cech, wife of P. Cech owner of the Ford sustained minor bruises and an abdominal wound; Mildred Cech of Chicago, a granddaughter of Mrs. Cech, suffered a bad head wound and Helen Zenco of Grand Haven township sustained a broken leg. The injured were taken to the Hatton hospital in a Yellow Taxi cab and were given immediate attention. They were reported to be doing well at the latest reports.

The Ford was reduced to junk by the impact. The coupling on the tank car caught it and prevented toppling which undoubtedly saved several lives, for had the Ford been turned over, a number would have been killed without a doubt according to eye witnesses. The train was moving at a slow speed and was brought to a quick stop, it was stated.

It was stated that the electric signal was not working at the time of the accident. A truck belonging to Peter Van Gylzen and driven by A. J. Neiring of Grand Haven, had stopped at the east approach to the tracks to await the switching train to pass. The engine is said to have blown a loud blast on its whistle on approaching the crossing and to have slowed down. The train was backing up with two engines and a tank car on it.

One or two other cars were parked waiting for the train to pass. Mr. Neiring stated that he did not believe Louis Cech was driving more than 15 miles an hour when the accident happened. He also stated that the bell was not ringing of the signal.

The Cechs live out in the country about five miles, the home being one mile and a half east of the Stone School on the old Beech Tree road.

Those who saw the car impaled on the coupling of the tank car and who saw the accident, at first believed some one was killed. The victims were taken to the hospital however and are said to be doing well. A rumor was about stating that one of the little girls would lose a limb as the result of the accident. Three of the girls were grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Cech who had come from Chicago on a visit.

Dr. and Mrs. John Masselink and daughter, Sadie Grace, and Mr. and Mrs. John Wichers of Zeeland left Tuesday on a trip to Washington, D. C.

The Misses Henrietta Van Maurick, Reka Bos, and Johanna Johnson are spending the week end in Muskegon visiting friends.

Miss Esther Praken has left for Annville, Ky., where she will be engaged in teaching the coming school year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Van Eyck of Detroit are visiting in the city with relatives.

MUSKEGON HEIGHTS LADY MOST YOUTHFUL GRANDMOTHER

Youth grandmothers, please step aside for Mrs. Margaret Rathbun, who is a resident of Muskegon Heights and thus far is the youngest grandmother in the United States.

"Grandma" Rathbun is just 34 years old, and looks even younger. Recently a Chicago woman 37 years old claimed the record for being the very youngest grandmother, and her title was not disputed.

It was July 5, 1923, that Mrs. Rathbun became grandmother a son having been born to her daughter, Mrs. Melvin Hillard, of Muskegon. The mother is 16 years old.

"And I want to tell you it is certainly a fine baby," said Mrs. Rathbun showing the true instinct of a grandmother. "It is the best baby in the world."

Mrs. Rathbun was born in Detroit and until five years ago resided at 1821 Lillibridge street, in that city. Mrs. Hillard was also born in Detroit.

The young grandson is certain of expert care, for Mrs. Rathbun is a graduate nurse. She was graduated from the University hospital in Ann Arbor in 1909. She was married when 16 years old and became a mother at 17. She studied nursing after the birth of her daughter.

"Somebody has been telling on me," said Mrs. Rathbun when seen at her home. "But it is true. I am a grandmother, and only 34 years old. I feel no older than 30 but I am afraid that I will feel older soon with them all calling me grandmother."

After graduating from the University hospital, Mrs. Rathbun nursed in Ann Arbor for two years. She then returned to Detroit where she remained until she came to Muskegon. It was a year ago that her daughter was married.

OTTAWA COUNTY IS WORTH SIXTY- FOUR MILLION

Michigan has $50,000,000 more taxable value now than a year ago according to the tentative figures the state tax commission today presented to the state board of equalization. Total amount of the taxable property is placed at $6,545,065,000 while the figures presented a year ago were $6,497,187,000.

The increased valuation is spread over 25 counties, Wayne leading with an increase in taxable property of almost $4,000,000.

Fifty-eight counties are represented as having a lower value than a year ago.

Following its organization the naming of N. F. Simpson as chairman and the receipt of the tentative figures of the tax commission, the board of equalization adjourned to meet in the state senate chamber Aug. 20 to begin the hearing of protests against the proposed assessments.

Space forbids to quote the valuation of every county in the state but the valuation of the largest county which is Wayne, and the counties in this vicinity have a conservatively estimated valuation as follows: Wayne $2,226,500.00; Allegan, $51,314,000; Muskegon, $33,484,000; Kent, $330,195,000; Kalamazoo, $133,720,000; VanBuren, $39,988,000; Ottawa, $64,750,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Erick A. Prisman of Morgan Park, Chicago, announce the marriage of their daughter Helene Emiline to Harold John Karsten of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Karsten of Central Park, Holland, on June 30th at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. A. J. Bunker officiating.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white rosepoint spiderweb lace and cat's paws, and wore a long tulle veil held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses. She was attended by Miss Eloise Shaw of Chicago as maid of honor, and Mrs. Paul Stewart of Baraboo, Wis., and Miss Emilie Katzel of Chicago as bridesmaids. The maid of honor wore a peach and gold gown, and carried ophelia roses. The bridesmaids were gowned in jade green and silver, and carried ophelia roses, carrying sunburst roses and pink roses respectively. The groom was attended by his brother Geo. R. Karsten, of Holland.

After a wedding supper at the bride's home, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Karsten left for a motor trip thru Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky, visiting the Mammoth Cave and many other points of interest.

After two and a half weeks touring in the south, the young couple arrived at Central Park, Holland, to spend the remainder of their honeymoon at the home of the groom's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Karsten returned to Chicago the 23rd of July, and are at home at 11019 Esmond St., Morgan Park, Chicago.

MISSION PICNIC BRINGS FIVE HUNDRED TO JENISON
At least 500 attended Miss Nellie Churchford's Mission picnic held at Jenison Park and the outing to these people proved a great success and pleasure.

Miss Churchford especially wishes to thank the business men for the many prizes given and also those who kindly donated automobiles.

Many folks also furnished cakes and other eatables which stood the eats committee in good stead at the picnic dinner.

Some cash was also received for which Miss Churchford and the members of her mission especially were duly grateful.

The picnic of the Sunday school of the 14th St. Christian Reformed church which was to be held Friday has been postponed because of the sudden death of President Harding. The future date for the picnic will be announced later.

BOLHUIS LUMBER AND MFG. CO. MEN HOLD PICNIC

Saturday, August 4th, will be a day not to be forgotten in the history of the present 126 employees of the Bolhuis Lumber & Mfg. Co. as it marked the holding of their first annual picnic.

At 9 o'clock in the morning the employees from Holland gathered at the corner of 12th street and River Avenue, ready to be transported to Cardeau Beach, where they were joined by the large delegation from Grand Rapids, escorted by S. W. Bolhuis, and the peppy bunch from Grand Haven, under the leadership of D. D. Gronewelt, making a grand total of 300 who enjoyed the day at the beach.

Upon arrival at the beach Mart Oudemool was seen from a distance with a large table cloth tied about his neck making what seemed to us, but by the old fashioned process, but upon closer inspection it was made known that he was making lemonade.

At 10:45 a ball game was played between the Holland office men and the Holland mill men, after which the mill men drank the pop. In this game Andrew Ver Schure, pitcher for the mill, showed his great ability in umpiring.

From 12 o'clock until 1:30 everyone enjoyed themselves by satisfying their appetites. Coffee was served by the refreshment committee. During this time Mr. Frank Bolhuis was also scheduled for a short talk, but he was not heard as he left his paper at home and had not remembered what he had intended to say. Instead a fish story went around in which Mr. Frank Esenbun was the principal character. He stated that he went fishing early in the morning and had caught 56 perch. We summarized that 26 were taken out of the water and the balance out of the dense fog.

Promptly at 1:30 the program of sports began. The main events for the afternoon were the Rooster chase for ladies and the pop drinking for the superintendents. After considerable chasing the rooster found its doom in the hands of Mrs. A. Wassing of Grand Rapids.

Mr. W. Vander Ven showed that he was still used to the bottle, for he was the first to down the pop through the use of a nipple. In appreciation of this feat he received a "Lady Alice" mouth organ while Mr. A. Wassing who was second was presented with a bar of soap in the form of a doll.

Below is the program of sports for the afternoon showing the prize winners of each—

1. Floating apple eating—boys—first, Belt, H. Vander Leele; second, Mouth organ, John Surney.

CHAUTAUQUA REVENUES WILL GO TO Y. M. C. A.

Immediately after the article on the chautauqua for next year was printed Austin Harrington called up and said that the revenues over and above the contract price would not go to the Masonic Building fund, but to the Y. M. C. A. fund for which there is already quite a sum in one of the local banks the proceeds from other chautauquas.

Mr. Harrington stated that it never was the intention to place the proceeds anywhere else, and the main reasons for going into it at all was that a chautauqua was a wholesome thing in a town, in spite of unnecessary interference from an editor of a neighboring city who is not in the least concerned.

At least that's all set. The revenues will go to the benefit of a Y. M. C. A. to be built at some future date.

story where, pushing open a door, he showed us into our suite of rooms.

Five minutes later, at Currie's suggestion, the three of us were sitting on the stone edge of his swimming pool. It was forty feet long and open to sun and air. For thirty minutes we swam and dived. Then we climbed out and dried ourselves in the warm sun.

Then Bartley lighted a cigarette and told his friend what had brought us to Circle Lake.

Currie said nothing until he had finished, and then, rubbing his chin slowly with his hand, replied, "Do you know, John, there are a good many people around here that doubt if those two men had anything to do with the robbery. There was nothing stolen, so Slyke said. He said also that there was nothing in the house that anyone would want to steal. After the trial folks began to talk, and since those other attempts to break into his place—well, they have talked more!"

"What are they saying?" asked Bartley.

"I don't know such a devil of a lot about it myself," replied Currie, "I was away at the time of the burglary and of the trial. But I do know that some people doubt if there ever was a burglary. Others say the state police and the local cops got mixed up in a row and framed the men. Still others think Slyke knew who the men were but had strong reasons for not wanting to identify them. What his reasons could be, God alone knows! Never cottoned much to Slyke anyway. He is a crabbed sort of chap, a bit conceited, one who is always right and the rest of us, of course, always wrong. But if you want to see him, and are not too tired, we can go over there now. I have to see him myself about a strip of land I just bought from him. His estate joins mine, you know."

Bartley expressed himself as far from tired and very willing to go to see Slyke at once. We dressed quickly and soon joined Currie in the living room. As we went out onto the lawn, he said:

"I am sorry my wife is away, but she will be back tomorrow. I asked Doctor King to come over tonight and dine with us. He can probably tell you more about the robbery than I can, for he was called in by Slyke the night it happened."

After a ten minutes' walk we came suddenly upon a house, a massive stone building, half covered with ivy. A large veranda ran across the front, forming at one end a glass-enclosed sun parlor. What appealed to me most was the huge stone tower that rose from the center of the building to a height of some thirty feet. The house, with its well-kept lawn, stretching to the woods in the distance, made a beautiful picture.

Though we had not paused long to admire the scene, we did not have time to ascend the steps and ring the bell before the butler opened the door. Currie gave his name and we were ushered into a great room which, from its furnishings, might have been called a library if there had been any books in it.

When the butler had left us, Bartley said to Currie, "I presume that this is the room where they found the burglars?"

Currie nodded, and I turned to look about. It had two large windows opening on the side of the house where there was no veranda, and nearby a small safe, half hidden in the wall. This, I judged, must have been what the burglars were seeking. I tried to picture to myself what had taken place on the night of the burglary. There could not have been much light; and I wondered how Slyke's stepdaughter, standing on the stairs at the far end of the room, could have seen well enough to recognize the men when Slyke, who was close by, could not do so.

I had little time for my conjectures, for at that moment Slyke entered the fact, that he was wondering why Bartley had come, and wishing him a thousand miles away.

Bartley himself, seeing how Slyke felt, said with a friendly laugh, "It's hardly right to run in on you this way, Mr. Slyke. I was coming over to see you formally in the morning; but as Mr. Currie said he had some business with you this afternoon, I decided to come with him."

He then told Slyke why we had come to Circle Lake. The man made no response to this, nor did he say anything when Bartley told him of the governor's interest in the two men now in prison for the burglary.

When Bartley had finished, he actually snarled, "I am sick of the whole thing. Those men had a fair trial and were found guilty. What more do you want?"

Bartley, whose eyes had never left his face, though Slyke refused to meet them, shot out suddenly, "But you were never sure that they were guilty."

The remark was so unexpected that Slyke's face grew red and he stammered, "But—well—anyway they were—proven guilty."

"But you yourself said that you could not identify them."

"That may be so, but there were others that did recognize them, even though I could not," Slyke answered.

Bartley changed his tactics. When he sets out to win a person, there are few that can resist him; and in a moment or two even Slyke thawed under his smile.

"I can understand," Bartley remarked, "how bored you must be with the whole affair, but, as you probably know, Mr. Slyke, there is a growing feeling that those men in prison are innocent. What I am to do is to find out whether there is any ground for such a feeling. I know that you will be the very first person to wish them pardoned if they are innocent. Can I come over tomorrow morning and have a talk with you about the burglary? My wide experience may help me to see things that the others have overlooked. The governor asked me to look into the matter, you know."

Slyke did not seem over-pleased at this suggestion, and muttered that he was going fishing in the morning. He finally agreed that his stepdaughter Ruth could give Bartley whatever information he wanted. Seeing that so far as he was concerned, the conversation was over we took our leave.

As we re-entered the woods, Bartley remarked with a laugh, "He was not what you might call keen to see us. That burglary for some reason seems to be a sore subject with him."

When we arrived at the house, Currie excused himself to see about some matters on the estate, and we went up to our rooms.

Currie had said that if we came down to dinner in evening dress he would throw us out; so still in white flannels, we joined him in the dining room. He was talking with a young man of about thirty-five, whom he introduced as Doctor King. He was a likable sort of chap, with clean-shaven face, tanned red by outdoor life, and dark blue eyes with a twinkle in them. Upon his coat was the little insignia that showed he had seen service.

Currie had promised us a good dinner, and we were not disappointed. The doctor showed himself to be a well read as Bartley, who is interested in anything that is a book. As the dinner progressed, we found that the doctor and Bartley found many a congenial topic.

Their discussion finally settled down upon the two schools of psycho-analysis. From the first, this talk bored Currie; and every once in a while he would throw me an appealing glance. At last the conversation turned to crime, and Currie suddenly asked Bartley if it had ever been discovered who Jack the Ripper was. What made him ask the question I do not know. Bartley replied that though no name had ever been given out, Scotland Yard had come to the conclusion that the crimes had been committed either by a crazy Polish Jew, or more probably by a doctor. A well-known doctor had been on the border line of insanity at the time the Whitechapel murders had occurred; and when he dropped out of sight the murders ceased. The English detectives were almost positive that he was the murderer, but they could not prove it.

"No more than they were able to prove," Currie interrupted, "that those men they sent to jail ever broke into Slyke's house."

THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO REST FOR THE GYPSIES

The old saying "there is no rest for the wicked" might be applied to the gypsies.

Nearly every city in Michigan has tabooed them and this is especially true in the fruit belt where the nomads have been raiding the fruit orchards, filling their automobiles with the ripening fruit.

The Holland police chased one batch to Grand Haven, while another caravan was sent in the direction of Saugatuck. At this resort Deputy Sheriff Olson found them reading palms. Olson ordered them on. A few minutes later a spectator complained that $25 had been lifted from his billfold. He refused to give his name. The band was overtaken at the county line but they were inclined to argue until Olson said, "Dig!" They dug and found a $25 that satisfied the stranger. Now the authorities are looking for the same band on the complaint of Mrs. Sarah Kirby of Douglas that solid silverware and a traveling bag were taken from her home that afternoon.

Miss Nellie Churchford will conduct the Mission meeting at Pine Creek on Friday evening.

Miss Audra Hoover of Toledo, Ohio, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Habing.

room. After greeting Currie, he was introduced to us.

While Currie was talking with him about the strip of land that he had bought, I examined him closely.

He was a small, decidedly nervous man, weighing about a hundred and thirty pounds, with low forehead, shifty eyes, and flabby lips that drooped. His face twitched again and again and his hands were never still.

It was not until Currie had told him that Bartley was, that he showed the first sign of interest in either of us, and even then his manner was far from cordial. You could see, in

AUGUST FIRST WAS MOVING DAY FOR THE MAYOR

Mayor E. P. Stephan is now in his beautiful new home on East 9th street and the date of his moving into the new red brick was August 1st.

Twenty-two years ago August 1st, Abe moved into his new home at that time, directly west of his present commodious domicile.

The mayor states that on April 3rd he gave the contract for the beautiful structure said to be the last word in small home construction, to the Bolhuis Lumber Co., with the understanding that on August 1st he would be able to move in.

Friends joked him about the moving date, as filling contracts in the building line do not always come true to stipulation and according to schedule these days.

This firm however made it possible for the moving on August 1st and the mayor, and Mrs. Stephan are now at home to their friends.

City Engineer Mr. Zuidema purchased the mayor's old home on 9th street and moved in when the mayor moved out.

Bernie Rosendahl purchased the city engineer's home on West 15th street and all three moved on the same date and it is understood that there will be three house warmings in the very near future.

MULDER RUNS DOWN MISNER.

Paul Mulder, living at 125 E. 18th street accidentally run down Claude Misner on Central avenue Thursday evening.

Misner was going home on a wheel when the Ford coupe struck the unfortunate man, throwing him onto the automobile's radiator, from which he rolled down to the running board.

When he was brought home, Mr. Misner became unconscious and is considerably bruised up according to Dr. Thomas who had charge of the case.

Strange to say, neither the wheel nor the car sustained any damages.

BIG PRIZE FIGHTER COMES TO HOLLAND

Bill Brennen, the big prize fighter who fought six rounds with Jack Dempsey and later went twelve rounds is taking a rest cure at the Holland resorts.

Brennen, it will be remembered was also knocked out in a twelve round bout by Firpo, the South American, who recently cleaned the clock of Jess Willard, the has been champion.

Brennen is accompanied by his manager, and the two men have located a secret camp here where Brennen will work out, the location of the camp being kept in the dark. However it is stated that the men are in training near Holland.

While in the city Brennen and his manager stopped at the Union Bar on River avenue, Jake Japenga, proprietor.

Brennen is a husky lad tipping the scale at 200 pounds.

SPORT NOTES

Holland was severely beaten by the Postum Cereals in the twilight game Friday evening when Sprigg's men lost out by a 6 to 1 score.

It was a pitcher's battle in which the Holland players failed to connect with the elusive curves of McMillan of the Postums, who allowed only four hits, and these were scattering.

The most sensational play of the game was a difficult one by Klein of the Postums.

Japenga of the Holland team drove one nearly to the score board but Klein speared it single-handed, robbing Dickie of a hit.

Notwithstanding the fact that in Friday's game, Holland was given a 6 to 1 drubbing by the Postum Cereals with MacDonald pitching nearly a shutout game, the locals retaliated on Saturday and whipped the Pure Foods by a narrow margin, the score being 5 to 6.

Altho no great spectacular plays were made on Saturday, it was a fine game of base ball with "Father" Woldring bringing in the winning runs in the ninth inning when already two were out.

In that inning Japenga hit safe, Garfy Batema reached first because of a bad error by Capt. Van Strien.

It was then Woldring sent a fast single over second which brought in the winning runs.

LOCAL

The berry harvest is about over. Despite the unusually dry season the crop has been much larger than anticipated. The cherry crop has been one of the largest on record and the market for cherries has been the best in years. Early apples have been on the local markets and the crop will be normal. Peaches promise an average yield, altho in some sections the crop will be heavy. Pears and plums will be below normal. Fall and winter apples promise heavy yield.

The Ann Arbor Railroad has filed suit for $2,000 damages incurred when an automobile struck one of the company's engines at Owosso. The automobile, we understand, simply splattered all over it.

At last the finishing touches are being put on Holland's newly paved streets. Glover & Sons, contractors of Muskegon, are putting the top dressing on the small River street stretch of two blocks to 19th street. It is expected that other streets will soon follow and Holland will be out of its mixed up street mess.

One of the largest interurban cars ever seen on the Holland line came through yesterday from the car barn near Jenison where it was fixed and repainted. It was from the Kalamazoo division and was sent over the Holland line to get a new coat of paint. Dr. J. B. Nykerk, W. H. Beach and Chester Beach were in Chicago Tuesday attending a meeting of the Bush & Lane Piano Co.

The Grand Haven Tribune in its 20 years ago column has the following: "Marshal Dick Vander Haar was here from Holland."

The two airmen from Milwaukee who were lost in a fog, came down town after they had landed and had a long talk with L. Vanden Beldt near whose home they landed, and also replenished their smokes at the Van Tonder's Clear Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit H. Albers of San Antonio, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Z. Albers of Bondurant, Ia., are visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Several informal social affairs are being given in honor of Miss Kathryn E. Vander Veen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vander Veen, who is to be married to Mr. Theodore O. Yntema, the eighth of August, in Hope church.

Miss Irene VanZanten gave a luncheon on Thursday for Miss Vander Veen. Mary Jane Inn for Miss Vander Veen. Miss Mabelle Mulder entertained at Macatawa on Friday with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Vander Veen and Miss Van Raalte who is also to be an August bride. On Tuesday Miss Clare Yntema entertained informally for Miss Jean Bussey of Urbana, Ill., who is her house guest, and for Miss Vander Veen.

Miss Fern White will give a breakfast at Leland Tea Room in Saugatuck on Monday morning for Miss Vander Veen and her guest Miss Ruth Templeton of Greenville, Penn.

On Saturday Miss Kathryn Mc Bride will give a bridge tea at the Country Club for Miss Vander Veen and her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vander Veen will entertain the bridal party and out-of-town guests at a rehearsal dinner on Monday at Hotel Ottawa, Ottawa Beach.

AIR PLANE MEN
COME DOWN NEAR THE FAIRGROUNDS

AIR MEN LAND AT HOLLAND AFTER FLIGHT

Holland Coast Guards Respond to Call for Services

The lost airmen from Milwaukee who were mixed up in a fog and who were thought to have fallen in Lake Michigan came down southeast of Holland and altho their destination was Grand Haven they lost their bearings and landed here.

In the initial report yesterday from the Milwaukee Journal, the paper that sponsored the flight, the airmen were reported to be flying two planes with one pilot in each machine but later in formation showed that both R. G. Conant and Monford Warshauer were flying in the same machine.

The flight across the lake took 57 minutes. The trip took place across the widest part of the lake and was noteworthy because of the dense fog on the lake as well as the fact that it was the first trip of its kind and was made in a land machine.

Heading for Grand Haven, it was thought in Milwaukee that the report would come from there and when the Grand Rapids newspapers became aware of the fact that the airmen had apparently not reached their destination, quite a bit of alarm was created. The wires were kept busy and Coast Guards at Muskegon Grand Haven and this port were notified.

The Coast Guards at Holland were constantly on the lookout for any sign of a plane, but naturally as it turned out their services were not necessary.

While the affair was a false alarm the quick response which the coast guard service made to the demands for its service, cannot but reflect a great deal of credit on this highly efficient organization. The coast guard boats were launched even when the fog was still dense and the men started out in search of the two airmen whom it was supposed might be bobbing up and down the waves with nothing but life belts to keep them on the surface.

THIRTEEN UP FOR CITIZENS PAPERS
IN COURT

Thirteen citizens of foreign countries came up before the Naturalization Examiner for the citizenship papers Tuesday and eleven made the grade, becoming American citizens while one case was adjourned and another dismissed. The new citizens came before the circuit court for a hearing on witnesses and examination.

Charles Wigen naturalization examiner was here to conduct the examination of the prospects for enlistment in the army of foreign born American citizens.

Eight of those coming up for their final papers were from the Netherlands. Of these seven were admitted to citizenship and one case was adjourned. One newly made citizen was from Poland and three came from Canada and one from England while Germany had one candidate for citizenship. The latter case was dismissed. A list of those who came before the examiner and their disposition is listed below. Katherine Lominski of Nunica was admitted to citizenship. She is a native of Poland. Klaas Hol trop of Nunica, a native of the Netherlands, was also admitted. The following from Holland received their citizenship papers: John Boere, Cornelius Mool, Nicholas Schregardus, John Roelofs, Sam W. Miller. All of these save Miller are natives of the Netherlands. Miller is a Canadian born. Thos. H. Ryder of 7th St., Grand Haven, a native of England, was given his papers. Dirkje Quade of Grand Haven township, a native of the Netherlands was admitted. Harry Bolton of Spring Lake, a Canadian and Winnie Burns of Zeeland, a native of the Netherlands complete the list of those given papers.

The case of Reiner Vaupell of Holland was adjourned and Bruno Schoeder of Grand Haven township was dismissed.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON
WILL BE A DAY OF MOURNING

President Coolidge who takes the reins and carries on where our late beloved president Mr. Harding, left off, in his proclamation sets aside Friday August tenth as a day of mourning over the entire nation.

Mayor E. P. Stephan in conformity to this proclamation has asked the city of Holland to cease its every day labors and business of every kind will be discontinued promptly at noon on that day.

All business places will be closed up and work at all manufacturing institutions will cease and while many of the church denominations will hold appropriate memorial day services, public memorial services will be held in the large Central Avenue church on Central Avenue across from Centennial park.

The following message from the mayor, issued to the citizens of Holland, explains all in detail:

To the People of the City of Holland—

An all wise, all powerful and all merciful God whom the Nation worships and honors has, in his inscrutable wisdom, to which we humbly bow, removed from us our beloved President Warren G. Harding, the wise statesman, the devout Christian, the patriotic American, and the devoted husband.

Sorrow and grief fills our hearts as we vainly strive to understand this mysterious providence of Him who works in in a mysterious way His wonders to perform.

President Coolidge has by proclamation designated Friday, August 10th, as a Memorial Day and has requested the people of the country to observe the day by the holding of memorial exercises.

In accordance with this proclamation, I do hereby request the people of the city of Holland to join wholeheartedly and unitedly and in the humble submission to Almighty God in the observance of this day as a day of prayer and thanksgiving. Thanksgiving for the noble life, for the unselfish, patriotic and devoted services of the deceased and prayer for the blessing of God upon President Calvin Coolidge.

I hereby order that the flag shall be displayed half mast from the staff on our city hall until the close of the day; that the city hall shall be closed and all city business suspended from the hours of twelve to six P. M. on that day.

I further earnestly request that all factories and all places of business and amusement be closed on Friday afternoon and that everybody display the flag as a symbol of mourning and as a suitable expression of our grief and sorrow.

I further request that the day may not be made a holiday but that the people gather at the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church at 2:30 p. m. to join in municipal memorial exercises, a suitable program for which has been arranged.

E. P. STEPHAN,
Mayor.

The executive committee of the Holland Merchants association met early Wednesday morning in order to discuss the closing of the places of business Friday to conform with the proclamation of President Coolidge and the message of Mayor Stephan who set aside Friday as the day of mourning because of the death of President Harding.

The Merchants committee was unanimous in their decision that the business associated with this organization would close their stores at noon Friday and the merchants wished it especially understood that the day should not be made a holiday or one of recreation but a day of mourning for our president, who died so untimely and who commanded the respect of every citizen, whether he be laboring man or business man, and the committee urged that all business men and all those associated with retail merchandising so far as possible attend memorial services to be held in the large Central Avenue church.

The merchants association of Zeeland at a meeting also decided to close up the stores there all of Friday afternoon, and appropriate services are to be held at one of the large churches.

The meeting at the Central Avenue church will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock when good speakers and good music will be heard fitting on an occasion of this kind.

It is understood that most of the manufacturing institutions in the city will either close at noon or the entire day, out of respect to the late President Harding whose funeral takes place in Marion, Ohio.

Actual Consolidation of
Telephone Companies Now
Ready to Proceed

TELEPHONE USERS in this community will be glad to know that good progress is being made in plans for the consolidation of the services of the Michigan State Telephone Company and the Citizens Telephone Company.

The necessary authority to go ahead with the work has been received from the Michigan Public Utilities Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Negotiations between the two companies will, therefore, be completed without delay and a transfer of the properties of the Citizens Company to the Michigan State Company will be made at the earliest possible moment. Physical unification of the two systems will be rushed with all speed, although it is a very involved task of engineering, construction and rebuilding, and equipment must be designed, manufactured and installed.

Plans also are under way to provide telephone plant for future growth of the service.

As soon as the transfer of the properties is completed, detailed plans for consolidating the services will be announced and further advertisements will show the progress of the work.
