OTTAWA GETS
HALF MILLION
STATE BOOSTNO PROTEST FROM COUNTY AT LANSING HEARING: WAYNE
GETS HIGHEST INCREASE

The next general property tax levy for Michigan will be based on a state equalized valuation of $3,400,000,000. This compares with $7,700,000,000 last year.

Ottawa County, which did not protest at an increase of $500,000, will have a valuation of $700,000,000 against $700,000,000 last year. Wayne County valuation is $3,400,000,000 with her percent of the state tax hence 49.08 or about half as against $7,700 last year on $3,400,000,000.

The board's final figures are $335,600,000 less than the valuation urged by W. S. Linton but an increase of $35,210,000 over last year.

OUT OF 3 CITIZENS
LIBRARY BORROWERS

According to the Hackley public library Muskogee annual report an average of one person in every three in Greater Muskogee is listed as a borrower of books, placing the cities among the first seven of 200 cities in the United States of more than 40,000 population as "reading" cities. Muskogee proper leads, with approximately 35 per cent of the population registered book borrowers, with Muskogee Heights given an average of 25 per cent.

The library and its branches now have 87,190 books in circulation, and last year patrons borrowed an average of more than 8 per capita, or a total of 443,484. Listed among regular borrowers are 18,000 individuals. Fiction books have been most popular, being listed as 67 per cent of the total borrowed.

Rev. C. P. Dame will have charge of the Prayer service in Trinity Reformed church this evening, and will speak on the subject "A Fine Resolve."

A UNIQUE WAY TO INTRODUCE A WASHING

Rather a unique way to introduce the Vac-A-Tap washing machine in Holland is followed by the James A. Brouwer Furniture Co. who in a half page advertisement printed elsewhere gives free a new $1.00 bill to each of the housewives of this city who arrange with the Brouwer Co. for a demonstration of the Vac-A-Tap when their family washing will also be done free. Such application must be by Saturday night.

He Built a City

A man we know of earned his first money at the age of eight by building fires in a village grocery. He worked his way through college carrying laundry bundles and selling papers.

With $3,000 saved money he bought a barley field, built a city on it which now has 5,000 population.

PAVILION SURE
SHOP AND KITCHEN FOR HOTEL

Architects are now busy drawing plans for the large new dance pavilion at Macatawa and added plans for a new kitchen, a new dining hall and a Koffee Shop across from the main hotel are also being made.

Not much can be done before September, when the summer guests leave but then work will begin in earnest on new buildings and the remodeling of the hotel proper.

Every room in the big building will be gone over. All rooms will have hot and cold water and bath and a large number of them will have shower baths also. The hotel is to be refurnished throughout and by next season Hotel Macatawa will be a place to be proud of.

The new management is also making a survey of the park not alone but is taking inventory of everything, and noting also places where there is cleaning up to do, alterations to make and so on. The new concrete road into Macatawa will be ready either this fall or early next spring. After the old boat houses are cleared away, a low dock of three feet is to be built to accommodate small yachts.

RED ARROWS
TO MEET AT CAMP
GRAYLING, MICH.WISCONSIN AND MICHIGAN BOYS WILL CAMP TOGETHER FOR FIRST TIME

For the first time since the World War, the staff officers of the 32nd division located at Wisconsin trained with the comrades of Michigan at camp Grayling this year.

It will be remembered that the sister states of Wisconsin and Michigan furnished what was called the iron brigade during the civil war, a brigade that was a wonderful history book of it.

During the World War there was another brigade of Wisconsin and Michigan boys. It was the 32nd or red arrow division. This division is composed of units from both of these camps and all are striving to keep alive the wonderful traditions of the old organization.

Holland has several red arrows who are meeting their comrades from Wisconsin this week.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The farm of Mr. J. Veuling, residing about 1 1/2 miles southeast of the Oriskany church, was struck by lightning on the afternoon of Wednesday last, and consumed by fire. The barn contained a quantity of hay and some 140 bushels of wheat, and other valuable. The barn was partially insured.

A hunter in the woods of northern Michigan fell into an old mine hole and was badly injured. He was badly injured and he was drawn out with a rope. An exploration of the hole was made the next day and a human skeleton was found at the bottom in a sitting position. Investigation left no doubt but that it was the skeleton of a man who had fallen in and had perished of starvation. Marks on the side of the excavation showed where he had tried to cut steps, and his rusted gun was found near the top. An old almanac for the year 1860, taken from the remains of his clothing, indicated it probable that he met his fate in that year.

An exchange says: "The Great scheme for draining the Zuyder Zee is now really begun. A dyke, 25 miles long, is to be built across the gulf, and the water is to be deliberately pumped out. The scheme is now really begun, and if completed will form one of the greatest engineering feats of the world."

Potatoes are so plentiful in Kansas as to be hardly worth marketing. Each side of the road in Kansas has begun to wear dresses that permit the feet to be seen and there are rumors that the day of long trails is over.

Highland Park, Grand Haven is planning another meeting of the Central Highland Park Assn., which was held a few days ago at Owl's Nest, the cottage of the president, Theodore Bender. Reports from the committee on roads, lights, and fire protection were heard, and steps will be taken immediately to improve Sickler road, and to install lights on the main sidewalks. The committee members reported a gratifying willingness on the part of the Grand Haven city officials to co-operate. The wisdom of the action for better fire protection was illustrated again this week when a grass fire started back of some of the cottages, burning over about four acres. Through the efforts of the Grand Haven fire department assisted by some of the resorters, the blaze was under control in a short time.

Highland Park is now at the height of the season. The weather has been ideal for the tennis tournament being held. The finals of the junior singles have been reached, the players being Lawrence Verrier, who was winner of the junior cup last year, and Edwin Duran. The junior doubles began Wednesday. The senior tournament, both singles and doubles, will be played today. Last year's winner, Dr. Alvin Williams, is also playing this year.

HOLLAND DAY

NEXT WEDNESDAY

Next Wednesday is Holland Day at the Community Fair. The Holland Merchants association has had cards printed stating that the merchants will close their places of business on that afternoon. Many shops too will close on Holland day afternoon. There will be a specially fine race card in the afternoon and fireworks in the evening. Merchants who are to close will have cards displayed in their store windows.

THREE SONS AND A FATHER OF
HOLLAND BECAME AMERICANS
AT SAME TIME

Several Applicants were also Given Preliminary Examinations.

County clerk Wm. Wilds has compiled a list of new American citizens who up to a few days ago were aliens from different countries across the Atlantic.

A score or more applied for citizenship papers and are now numbered in Uncle Sam's great family.

An unusual feature which arose in citizens were examined and given the Ottawa county court house when papers a few days ago, was the admitting to citizenship of a father and three sons in the De Vries family of Holland, who all applied and were all admitted together.

Walter De Vries is the father and the sons are Elemer, Martinus and Thomas De Vries, all coming from the Netherlands some years ago.

Others from Holland who were admitted were Dick Smallegange, John Van Driel, Clarence Dokter, Cornelius Vande Wege, Henry Francis Wolff, all coming from the Netherlands some years ago.

Norman Frederick Russell from England also lives in Holland and was admitted.

Andrew Vander Ploeg of Zealand was admitted giving his nationality as a Hollander and Sidney Ferris, a Dutchman, was also admitted.

Those from Grand Haven who were admitted were Frank Vayda of Hungary, Ignazio Priano, Italy, and John De Groot, Netherlands.

Three were admitted from Coopersburg, they are Sikke, Sijsterman and Sier, Sijsterman both Netherlands and William Lang a German from Rutland.

The new citizens were mostly Hollanders with a sprinkling from other nationalities.

Preliminary examinations were also asked by 8 others, who did not receive their citizen papers up to this time, but will some time in the near future. These are Josephine Stephany, Grand Haven, from Switzerland; Gunnar Olund, Grand Haven, from Sweden; Allada De Jonge, Holland, from the Netherlands; Tony Galvan, Grand Haven, from Yugoslavia; one of the Balkan states, Marie Josephine Knapp, Holland from Hungary, Gerrit Hendrik Ten Harnel, Holland, from the Netherlands, Stanley Kuna, Holland, from Poland and Nicholas John Andrews, Grand Haven from Greece.

SMOKE NUISANCE GETS PROTEST FROM CITIZENS

A petition signed by more than one hundred citizens was presented to the common council Wednesday night protesting against the smoke nuisance in the eastern part of the city. The concerns complained of by these citizens are the Holland Rusk company, the Michigan Tea Rusk company and the Lambert Furniture company. The council instructed Mayor Kammeraad to appoint a special committee to take up the petition and work out a solution.

AT FRUITPORT

Mrs. Kate Ives, 40, was struck by an automobile last night as she was walking from Muskegon to her home in Fruitport and died en route to a hospital. According to Coroner L. B. Lee, the woman first stepped in front of a car operated by Earl Falconer of Muskegon Heights, and as he tried to avoid hitting her, she stepped in front of another car operated by Edward Brockensha of Grand Haven.

Mrs. Ives lived some time according to information obtained by the coroner, was in the habit of walking along the highway at night.

For perhaps the first time in a generation it was necessary last night to bring a sargent-at-arms into play to secure a quorum at the meeting of the common council. It so happened that several of the aldermen were out on vacation and when the session was scheduled to open at the usual time only six were present.

First the telephone was brought into play but that brought no results. Finally the only alternative was to send a sargent-at-arms to Castle Park and Commander Alderman S. B. McLean, who had remained away on account of a slight illness, Alderman Hyma and K. B. Olson were sent to the park. As soon as they had explained the situation to the alderman from the fourth ward he cheerfully came to make council business possible. Without him it would have been necessary to adjourn without doing any business, and as important business was in prospect the others were unwilling to do that. Later in the evening Alderman Brieve also appeared, making eight in all. But as a result of the trip to Castle Park the meeting did not open until twenty minutes to nine.

Ray Tardiff Makes Earnest Plea For A Decision One Way or Another

The expected controversy over changing the zoning classification of the territory between 9th and 10th street east of Maple avenue broke out at the meeting of the common council Wednesday night. The council previously had approved the reclassification and referred it to the zoning appeal board. The board approved the action of the council, stating certain conditions and restrictions as to width of the strip, etc. A motion was made to set the hearing for September 7.

Aldermen McLean and Thompson voted "No," and that blocked action, as there were only eight aldermen present. When a record vote was taken there were four "No" votes—Aldermen Hyma, McLean, and Van Zanten. This killed the motion.

A little later in the evening Mr. Ray Tardiff made an earnest plea to the common council to come to a decision one way or the other. He pointed out that this question has been dragged out for eight months. Time, he said, is extremely vital to him in this matter. Unless there is a quick decision now the building operations will be dragged out into midwinter, which will mean a great deal of unnecessary expenditure.

He said he believed that eight months was certainly enough time for the city officials to come to a decision and either to say yes or no. Mr. Tardiff pointed out that he began business here four years ago without a nickel and that he has built up an institution that is a good thing for the city, with a payroll of between $15,000 and $20,000 a year. He asked if the council wished to drive this out of town. He said Holland is his city and he wants to go any length to stay here and build an institution here that will be a credit and a benefit to Holland. He said he liked his native place and wanted to go any length to do the right thing.

But he submitted that eight months was certainly long enough to act on his petition either one way or the other.

Al McLean said he was against the creation of a laundry in the fourth ward but that he would do anything in his power to help Tardiff secure another suitable site. Mr. Tardiff replied that all other possibilities had been exhausted. He went into some detail to show why other sites were out of his reach. He said he had not been arbitrary about this matter but had made every effort, in conjunction with the industrial society, committee of the chamber of commerce and other local bodies to find another suitable site. The effort had been fruitless, he said, and he left the impression that the alternative to the proposed site would be to take the laundry out of the city. What he asked for now, however, was a decision without more delay so that he could do either one thing or the other.

Mayor Kammeraad agreed with him that he had a right to a decision without further delay and promised to call a special meeting as soon as possible to come to a decision. The matter could not be settled Wednesday night after Tardiff had made his appeal because two aldermen had been excused and a quorum was no longer present.

TWO ARE HELD AFTER
SAUGATUCK RUM RAID

Walter Gantzow of Chicago and George Shay of Saugatuck were arrested by the United States commissioner Arthur Van Duren at Holland last night on a charge of violating the liquor laws. Both were examined and were bound over to the federal grand jury under bond of $3,000 each.

The two men were arrested by the federal officers from Grand Rapids early last evening following a raid on "The Barn," a dance hall in Saugatuck, and seizure of a large quantity of gin. Gantzow, the operator of "The Barn" and Shay served as bartenders, officers said.

BOBS UP ONCE

The Peter Hiemenga controversy bobbed up again at the meeting of the common council Wednesday night when everybody thought that it had died a natural death. Mr. Hiemenga has built in that neighborhood and over which there were many hot controversies several months ago.

He said the residents of that section were sick and tired of delay and that they were looking for action. "I have been here for a long time and I am living there under the conditions and there are many others who feel the same. I am here to ask if the council is willing to buy my property that has been depreciated by reason of this illegal erection of a carpet cleaning building."

Mayor Kammeraad explained that the small attendance made action impossible last night and he asked Meyerling and his associates to be patient until the next meeting when the question will be brought up in earnest.

Bob Wilson promises a junior tennis tournament at Ottawa Beach during this month. A silver cup will be offered as the prize for the most skillful player.

Where Your Dollar Goes Further

In Appreciation

And To Make New Friends

For 40 years it has been my great pleasure to serve the people of Holland as a jewelry merchant. My friends and customers have made it possible for me to achieve a degree of success that is most gratifying to me. Now I am about to retire from active participation in the jewelry business. I have sold my stock to Mr. B. H. Williams who has worked with me for the past nine years. I will, however, keep in touch with my old friends by remaining in charge of the Optical and Silverware departments.

Before making this change, I wish to do something as an expression of thanks to my many customers who have made my business successful. I wish to make new friends, too. I have decided that the best way to do this is to permit the public to come into the store and buy what they want at the price they wish to pay.

I will disregard the price tags on every watch, diamond and jewelry item in my store. You can pay whatever the item is worth to you. Naturally, such an event will take on the nature of an auction sale. It will be unlike the usual auction, however, in that it will not be a money-raising sale. It will be for the sole purpose of permitting my friends and customers to buy jewelry at the price they want to pay.

BODY IS FOUND IN THE GRAND HAVEN HARBOR

The body of a man was found floating in Grand Haven harbor Sunday afternoon. The body has not yet been identified and the dead man is believed to have been between fifty and fifty-five years old.

Because of the condition of the remains, which have been in the water about ten days, burial was held Monday afternoon at the Kiel Memorial. Services were held Monday morning by Rev. Candler of the Methodist church.

Shortly after 3:30 Sunday afternoon Albert Drager of Grand Haven was standing on the Robbins' dock at the foot of Washington street. Glancing down into the water he saw the body of a man floating just under the surface. He immediately gave the alarm and Coroner Henry J. Boer was called.

Troutman of Spring Lake, passing in his motor boat, was hailed, and with a boat hook Mr. Troutman held the body, until the U. S. Coast Guards arrived to take the remains from the water. The coroner took charge of the body and made such examination as possible in an effort to establish the identity of the dead man.

No papers were found in the pockets of the man's clothing which would in any manner aid toward identifying the body. The only article in the man's pockets was a safety razor.

The dead man was five feet seven inches tall. He had sandy hair and hazel eyes. He wore a black overcoat, under which were a blue overall jumper and gray vest. He wore black trousers and a brown checked shirt. A black cap was pulled tightly over his head. His teeth are all missing, with exception of three stubs, one in the upper jaw and two on the lower.

While no one has been reported missing from any of the steamers operating in that port it is possible that the dead man may have been a member of the crews of one of the passenger steamers. An effort will be made to check up on the crews of the boats, if possible, although this task will be difficult. Extra deck hands are carried on some of the steamers for the purpose of handling freight in port. Many of these men are not known to the ship's officers and sometimes make but one trip.

SPEED BOAT CREW HAVE TROUBLE IN THE BIG LAKE

Capt. William J. Preston and a detail from the Grand Haven U. S. Coast Guard Station rescued the motor speed boat Lady Louise III in Lake Michigan Sunday afternoon. On board the speed boat were Dr. Clark of Grand Rapids and several guests who were thoroughly drenched and chilled by the high seas, when the big motor boat from the station reached them.

The Lady Louise III, left the harbor at Grand Haven early in the afternoon. Outside the harbor the motor speed boat Lady Louise III in Lake Michigan Sunday afternoon. On board the speed boat were Dr. Clark of Grand Rapids and several guests who were thoroughly drenched and chilled by the high seas, when the big motor boat from the station reached them.

Capt. Preston was notified by the friends of Dr. Clark that the Lady Louise III had not returned to port and the coast guard boat put out to search for the missing craft. The motor boat was finally sighted and picked up directly west of Lakewood beach near Holland. All a few minutes party were extremely high when the coast guards how in sight. The coast guards left the station at 1 o'clock and returned with the Lady Louise in

Members of the Allegan Rotary club and their families enjoyed a picnic at Bass Lake Monday. Sports of various kinds and boating were features.

KIN OF MRS. BOOTH TO GIVE GOSPEL MEETINGS

Grand Rapids Herald—A series of Gospel meetings will be started at 7:45 this evening at the Grand Rapids Gospel Airplane, Powers ave., and Leonard st., NW, by Victoria Booth-Clibborn Demarest of Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Demarest will preach and her husband, Agnew Demarest, will direct the music.

Mrs. Demarest is the granddaughter of Catherine Booth, "Mother of the Salvation Army." She was born and educated in Paris and has preached the gospel in 11 countries.

She will preach Sunday at the City Mission, giving addresses at 4:30 and 7:30 o'clock.

FIRE RECALLS LUMBER DAYS

Memories of the old mill days are being aroused in the minds of the old timers at Spring Lake by sawdust fires, which have started on the old mill site, long since abandoned to weeds and undergrowth.

Fires burning deep down in the old edging docks and saw dust deposits at the north end of Sixth street, in that village, kept a force from the fire department working Sunday. While the fires were not particularly menacing to property, heavy smoke from old wastes caused considerable inconvenience to people living in that section of the city and the firemen were sent to give whatever relief possible.

A great area of the land at the north end of the city along the river bank was built up by the mill owners of edgings and saw dust. Over this the subsoil of sand and mud drifted and dried out. In places heavy soil and brush has grown up. Long continued dry weather with sparks to ignite the material underneath and fires sometimes burn for weeks causing a great smoke.

G. R. MAN PAYS FINE IN ALLEGAN COURT AFTER DRUNKEN BRAWL

As the result of a drunken brawl at Green lake early Sunday, John Duffy of Grand Rapids, Joseph Nemedi of Kalamazoo and John and Albert Thiel of Byron Center were haled into Allegan county court Monday.

Duffy and Nemedi paid fines of $19.50 and costs, and were released. Albert Thiel was given 30 days in jail in addition to $19.50 fine and costs, as he has been in on previous counts. Thiel's father John was given a 30-day jail sentence and costs of $9.50 for cutting a tire on Deputy James Halloran's car after the officer had arrested his son.

The men all pleaded guilty on arraignment following an investigation conducted by Prosecutor Harry Fell. The trouble occurred following a dance at Green lake.

TO MEET AT FOREST GROVE

The Brookman family reunion, the second annual meeting of this family, was held last Wednesday at Spring Grove at Jamestown. The main speaker of the day was H. E. Boer of Hamilton. A miscellaneous program was given, followed by a program of athletic sports. This family organization was formed last year, with H. E. Boer as president and A. VanderWall, of Forest Grove, secretary.

Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Filipe and four children of Douglass, Long Island, are spending the month of August at the Hub Boone cottage at Edgewater Beach.

Rev. James De Kraker and family of Grand Haven are on a motoring trip thru the east. They are visiting New York, Boston, Washington, and other places of interest.

BRAKE TESTS TO START THIS WEEK IN OTTAWA C.O.

Grand Haven motorists and drivers entering that city from other places will submit to brake tests during the next few days. The tests will be conducted by Lieut. Arntz and Trooper Roy Shields of the Michigan State Police. In the Grand Haven tests Chief Pippel and members of the police department will co-operate with the state police. For tests held outside of the city Sheriff Kamfe, his deputies will work with the police.

Lieut. Arntz was in Grand Haven Tuesday completing arrangements with Chief Pippel and drivers county. Both the city and state police officers expect to start the tests Tuesday and it is thought that they will continue for several days until all cars are tested. Tests will be conducted from nine to twelve in the morning and from one to four in the afternoon. It is possible that several evenings will also be given over to the work for the accommodation of the factory men who do not drive their cars during the day, but who are anxious for the sake of their own safety as well as that of the general public, that the brakes on their cars be given the regulation test.

The tests are conducted under the auspices of the Michigan Department of Public Safety in cooperation with the Detroit Automobile Club. Cars which pass the brake test are furnished with stickers and drivers of those cars upon which the brakes do not work properly are furnished with cards containing information as to the faults together with recommendations as to correction.

The test is made with the cars running at the rate of twenty miles an hour, in a 50-foot space. It is probable that the city tests will be held at the usual place on Washington street near Fourth street, Grand Haven, where the police have marked out a testing zone. Chief Pippel at Fifth and Washington streets and the Holland members are expected and for their comfort and entertainment.

A happy gathering of nephews, nieces, grand-nephews and grand-nieces of the Van Raalte pioneer family was welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Keppel at their summer cottage at Buchanan beach Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Christine Van Raalte Gilmore, the last remaining member of the Van Raalte pioneer family, was crowned the honored guest by those assembled from near and far.

The delicious supper royally provided by the nephews and nieces, served at ample tables on the commodious porch overlooking the clear blue waters of Lake Michigan, together with the charm of alluring garden flowers brought a feast to eye and palate.

At the close of this happy hour the little Joy Bringers club, organized a year ago by the grand-nephews and grand-nieces to bring Christmas cheer to the Inhabitant leper children, enthusiastically opened their "pig banks" so that the hearts of those who have little or closed the ceremony by singing "Jesus Loves Me, This I Know."

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Keppel, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Van Raalte, Jr., Mrs. O. S. Reinold and son Junior, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. K. Van Raalte, Jr., and children, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vischer and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Vander Broek and son, Rev. and Mrs. A. Van Lewis Kleinhekel, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Kleinhekel, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Van Raalte, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Peilgrim and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalenberg and son, and Mrs. A. C. Van Raalte Gilmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson W. Staplecamp of Kenosha, Wis., and Rev. and Mrs. John A. Dykstra and children of Grand Rapids are the house guests of Mrs. Denis Staplecamp, 14th St.

SHOWER IS GIVEN FOR AUGUST BRIDE

Mrs. D. Schaefenaar and Mrs. H. Cramer entertained at the home of Mrs. L. De Loof with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Evelyn Nykamp, who is an August bride. Those present were: Miss Evelyn Nykamp, Mrs. W. Nykamp, Mrs. R. Nykamp, Mrs. J. Zwemer, Mrs. W. Bronkhorst, Mrs. W. Van Regenmortel, Mrs. J. Vanden Brink, Mrs. G. Vanden Brink, Mrs. B. A three course luncheon was served. Prices were won by Mrs. B. Nykamp and Mrs. J. Zwemer. The bride-to-be received many fine gifts.

W. C. T. U. WOMEN TO MEET HERE ON AUGUST 31ST

Plans have been completed for the forty-eighth annual county convention of the W. C. T. U. in Holland, Aug. 31 at the Woman's Literary club. There will be three sessions, one in the morning, a second in the afternoon and the final session in the evening.

Speakers of prominence have been secured. Announcements of the program are not as yet available for publication.

The county president, Miss Margaret J. Bilz, will be in charge of the meetings. Miss Bilz, a national temperance lecturer and an officer in the international organization, has just returned from California where she has devoted her time and talent in raising money for a home for the aged to be supported by the W. C. T. U. She comes back to her post with renewed zeal and enthusiasm.

Many Grand Haven members plan to attend the convention. Mrs. R. H. De Marrell, of Holland, who is secretary of the organization, states that six unions from Ottawa will be represented and that such gatherings are a rule bring many visitors from neighboring counties. At least 150 members are expected and the Holland members are expected and for their comfort and entertainment.

PLANT AT GRAND HAVEN IS AT LAST A GOING CONCERN

Grand Haven Tribune—The organization of the Hayes Products Corporation, capitalized at $40,000 has been nearly completed and the officers and directors elected. The following officers will have charge of the plant: president, H. J. Hayes; vice president, A. A. Gillingburg, and secretary and treasurer, G. Van Sluys, who is also the general manager of the plant here. The directors will be the officers named and A. A. Anderson and W. W. Hoagland. These men with the exception of Van Sluys are Grand Rapids men and H. J. Hayes, the president and controller of the Hayes Ionia in Grand Rapids.

The new company follows the Hayes Products Co., which went into the hands of a receiver here a few months ago. They were able to liquidate with a fair per cent to the creditors. The building and remaining assets were sold through the courts at auction in July and were bid in by G. Van Sluys.

The Hayes Products Co. was organized in 1922 to manufacture toilet seats and tanks. Later they switched to radios and for a time things went along well. Overstocking and over expansion are said to be contributing causes to their final failure and falling into the receivership.

During this time the product was changed to graining on steel and the completing of instrument boards, cow bar panels, and garnish mouldings for automobiles. They have been particularly successful in this line and a little while ago employed 160 men in the plant.

They are now booked with orders from Geo. Overland, Falcon, and Chrysler automobile companies and are just now waiting for release orders, when they expect to put on at least 150 men.

The stamping of this product is not yet done here but the time is coming when they expect to expand and be able to manufacture from the raw material.

One of the officers today said there was no stock selling in this new organization, the most directly interested being the sole owners.

This company with its new organization looks like a comer. G. Van Sluys, who has been here for the past three years and directly associated with Mr. Hayes for a number of years, is hopeful that the plant will have a big future. He has already done much to put it on a paying basis and with any kind of business expects to make this one of the stable industries of the city.

ALLEGAN K. OF C'S PLAN DINNER SUNDAY

The Knights of Columbus will have a chicken picnic dinner at Sacred Heart church at Watson from 1 to 2 o'clock next Sunday. An invitation has been extended to Supreme Knight-elect Martin H. Carmody of Grand Rapids to attend as guest of honor. A program will follow the dinner.

Guests will be present from Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Battle Creek, Otsego, South Haven and other towns in this section.

The young men were arrested by Deputy Theodore Swartz of Dorr Saturday evening.

GIVES INTERVIEW ON THE BUCKING BRONCHO RIDERS

Gus Hornbrook's big Western Rodeo and racing combination will be a feature at the Holland fair and this is what he has to say about the bucking broncho.

"When a Broncho is bad, the best thing for him is to be just as bad as possible, for if he's not good enough he's worth something. Sounds queer, doesn't it? But fighting bucking bronchos are always in demand by big Western Rodeos, Roundups, and Wild West Shows. And of course, the more fight a horse puts up, the more thrills it gives the audience, and the more valuable he is to the people who give the show."

"There are different kinds of bucking horses, cowboys will tell you. There is the outlaw horse that always fights and never can be broken of the habit. He begins to buck the minute a rider comes near him. Then there is the 'loco' horse. You probably have heard that word before, and know that it means 'crazy.' Well the loco horse shows no sense at all, his one idea is to get rid of the rider and he may run himself right into a fence and break his own neck in order to do it."

"Then there is the fair and square buckster that lets the cowboy get on his back, and then sets in to try and get rid of him. This kind of horse does not take any risk to himself as the 'loco' does and he usually isn't a killer. He just puts his bucking skill against the man's riding skill, and they have it out. He is the kind of horse that is worth the most to his owner."

"You see when the Spanish first settled in this country (remember your history) they brought horses with them. If there ever had been horses in America, they had disappeared before the Spanish came. Now some of these horses that came with the Spaniards got away, and their families grew and soon there were herds of them wandering wild on the plains. These wild horses had two fierce enemies, the mountain lion and the wolf. The mountain lion would leap on the horse, get a firm hold and break his back. The wolf would make a running attack so the wild horse learned to fight by jumping, striking out with his feet, and he learned to buck-fight. These characteristics have remained with him, and are now providing the American public, the greatest entertainment and Rodeo fun when the cowboy tries to ride them."

"The bucking broncho riding is one of the ten big interesting acts included in the Gus Hornbrook attractions."

Sacramento, Aug. 8—California has decided to take drastic action to make motoring safe and pleasurable, by its passage of perhaps the most revolutionary set of auto laws in the country.

These are called the Breedlaws, after the legislator who initiated them, and cover practically everything in motoring from speeding to the slow driver to preparing the way for compulsory auto liability insurance.

Under these laws, the speedy driver gets more sanction of the authorities than does the "slowpoke." It is the reckless, drunken and inebriated driver that is under ban of the new laws.

According to the Breed auto code, the legal speed limit is increased from 35 to 40 miles an hour on the highways, while penalties for drunken and reckless drivers are made stiffer and harsher.

By adding another cent tax on gas, making the rate three cents a gallon, the state expects to apply the additional revenue of $10,000,000 yearly to the construction and maintenance of perhaps the finest highway system in America.

The new law requires drivers to pass state examinations and denies licenses to the physically and mentally unfit.

By using 5 percent of the gas tax and the money from a $10,000,000 bond issue, the state will start eliminating grade crossings.

Besides this positive action, the authorities are paying the way to compulsory insurance by naming a commission to study this problem.

Discussions also concern the slow driver, especially in connection with the problem of creating two-speed highways to take care of such motorists.

Mrs. Ed Hietje has returned from a visit to her children, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hietje at Stanford, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. H. Hietje at Hartford, Conn., Mr. Eddie Hietje at Flint, Mr. and Mrs. John Kammeraad at Norwalk, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. John Bovee at Akron, Ohio. Incidentally she saw the following scenes: Catskill mountains, Bear Mountain bridge, New York reservoirs, U. S. battleships, Storm King mountain, Sing Sing prison, J. D. Rockefeller estate, Connetquot State, use of Liberty, nation building, Woolworth tower, etc.

Mrs. Hietje passed through many of the same scenes 40 years ago when she came to this country with her parents and she was struck by the remarkable changes that have taken place since then.

CADILLAC, Aug. 10.—A safety campaign to eliminate the most hazardous points on trunk line highways is being inaugurated by the state highway department, A. L. Burridge, division engineer, announced today.

Estimates are being prepared in the district highway office here, to be submitted to the Lansing office, on the cost of improving 25 of the most hazardous conditions which exist on the trunk line roads of this district. These improvements will consist of putting in curves where there are dangerous turns, widening narrow, culverts, and bridges and widening narrow road-beds.

The department is putting on an active campaign to do everything possible to make trunk lines more safe for traffic.

"We appreciate that the new law which has done away with the 35 mile speed limit makes it necessary to have our roads in such condition that they can be driven safely," Mr. Burridge said. "It is our desire to do everything possible to correct any place that would create a hazard for the driving public."

To do this work will cost about $200,000 for this district and will necessitate an extra appropriation from the administrative board.

Asphalt is now being laid at Walton Junction. A crew is widening the road for asphalt from Tustin to connect with the road three-fourths of a mile east. The village is now figuring on widening the main street with asphalt. It is expected that the village will widen it to about 40 feet.

A contract for the three-fourths mile of concrete north of Reed City will be let tomorrow. This will allow for completion of the road this year from Reed City to the junction with M-63.

The asphalt on the stretch from M-43 to Reed City will be ready for traffic Labor Day, and the asphalt plant crew will then start laying pavement from the line north.

Surveyors are finishing the field work on the location from Cadillac to Tustin and starting to run the line south of the piece from Dewing to LeRoy. This piece, includes the overhead crossing at LeRoy.

Three thousand members of Van Buren and Allegan county Masonic lodges, their families and friends gathered at Base Line lake in Allegan county Tuesday to hear Gov. Fred W. Green, the principal speaker at the joint county Masonic picnic.

The governor expressed his keen interest in the farmers' problems and stressed the urgent need of national legislation to relieve the condition. The attitude of congress in refusing aid to the farming industry, which he characterized the most vital and necessary industry in the country, was sharply criticized by the speaker and a comparison of measures passed in assistance of other industries made. He pledged his support to the farm interests and warned farmers to consider carefully their own interests and to demand future legislation for this purpose.

Explaining his veto of the appropriation to the Lansing office, the governor said he believed the state should get out of debt before undertaking any extensive building program at the university. Over education is the present tendency which is not at all beneficial to the state, he said.

More and better facilities should be provided in laying the foundations—the grades rather than in the superstructure of college education.

Whatever tax is fixed, it will all be devoted to road purposes, he promised.

Gov. Green was introduced by State Sen. George Leland of that district. Cong. John Ketcham spoke briefly, following the governor's address, on the history of Masonry and endorsed the order for its many fine tenets and practices.

A tall game between the two counties and various games and sports events, with dancing during both the afternoon and evening, were other features of the day.

INDIANAPOLIS—There are cruel changes ahead for the English language.

Honest Anglo-Saxon may be supplanted among adults by baby talk if the present craze of parents to sponsor this form of unintelligible jargon in their children is allowed to continue, according to Benjamin N. Bogue.

"When parents condone the use and repetition of silly manufactured baby words they are building up faulty articulation in their boys and girls that will require years to overcome," declared Mr. Bogue, in an address here. "The ordinary individual fails to appreciate that the baby talk that seems so delightful and cute is not the product of the baby's mind at all but his attempt to copy their inaccurate attempts to copy him."

"The evil of baby talk is like the evil of allowing children to mumble or stammer, which leads to the imitator himself becoming a stutterer, one of the hardest of speech defects to cure and one requiring institutional care. Because baby talk is the only kind the infant hears, he very soon builds up an entirely foreign and distinct vocabulary."

"Then, when his elders wish him to speak correctly, the child is forced to unlearn the faulty words he has acquired and learn the correct ones, which he should have been taught originally. Often he carries through life these faulty baby words which in the end have become a barrier to his progress through life."

"The state highway department is trying as rapidly as possible to build highways to provide the greatest safety for automobile drivers and to pass over them," said G. C. Dillman, deputy state highway commissioner, in an address at Muskegon, in honor of the Marquette railroad officials. "It will be many years, of course, before we shall be able to build all the curves for the greatest safety, put in the needed grade separations and straighten out the unnecessary turns," Mr. Dillman continued, "but during the past few years we have spent $20,000,000 on our state highway system, thanks to the funds raised by the gasoline and weight taxes."

"Thousands of persons are coming into Michigan every year for their vacations, but they are not going to the hotels. They are on our highways, traveling not 25 but 35 or more miles an hour and headed for our state, county and city parks and tourist camps. Thus it behooves not only the state, but also the counties and cities to establish such parks as the one you are dedicating in Muskegon today."

Wichita, Kan.—Only one out of every forty American farmers who desert agriculture for the city every year leaves the land because he has built up a competence for himself and family, according to a survey.

"Of 649,000 persons who left the farm last year," says the survey, "only 16,295 or 2.5 per cent did so because of having achieved financial independence."

"Economic reasons" were cited by 245,322 farmers or 37.8 per cent as the cause of their trek from the land. Old age and physical disability were responsible for the retirement of 168,644 agriculturists or 25.2 per cent. Opportunity to give children better schooling in the city was the reason advanced by 70,741, while 11,682 said they had given up their land to let their sons go on the farm. All other reasons combined were responsible for 131,482 farmers leaving the land.

"High wage scale of the city is the biggest factor in drawing the agricultural class away from the land. Comparative study of incomes shows that artisans, white collar workers and salesmen have a higher income average than farmers. But farmers who move to the city find that living standards there are no higher than on the farm, since automobiles, radios, gasoline pressure lamps and stoves, washing machines, and self-heating gasoline pressure irons have given the country just as many conveniences as urban centers possess. As long as prosperity continues, the city worker may be better off than his rural neighbor, but in deflation years the farmer has the advantage over the city toiler, since he can always produce a good living for himself and family on his land."

All motorists who visit Muskegon will halt with delight the fact that the long stretch of road in the marsh below the Mona Lake Hill is to be relaid. A Muskegon news.

work of relocating trunkline highway US-31 at the head of Mona Lake, one mile south of the Muskegon Heights limits, was started Friday when the first loads of foundry dirt were dumped in the marsh on the course which the new route will follow.

The present road, besides being narrow and including several turns is constantly giving way because of settling, and both the state and the county have been preparing plans for several years for the new road. The route as approved will continue straight at the foot of the Mona Lake hill, connecting with the present road again at a sharp turn near the ice house at the head of the lake. The fill will take a year or more, it is estimated.

Allegan high school has transferred its privilege of attending the national dairy show in Detroit to Danville, which received second place in the state college stock judging contest. Out of about 125 schools, Allegan received first place in the dairy judging contest through Alfred F. Woodham.

In poultry judging Allegan ranked fifth; in potatoes, sixth and in grain, thirty-ninth. Lawrence Thorpe received third place and a white ribbon in potato judging and other members of the team; Murray Teusink, Jack Billman and Kenneth Young all ranked high.

CHICAGO—"Rough house" motor campers who leave a trail of tin cans, newspapers, litter, and boxes behind them are one of the most dangerous factors in causing forest fires, according to Karl Kilby of Wichita, Kansas.

"Inexperience is the chief liability of these vacationists," said Mr. Kilby. "They do not consciously mean to leave rubbish for other campers to clean or fire that may flare into conflagrations. But they are usually in such haste to cover ground that they neglect the elementary rules of safety."

"Experienced motor campers leave a minimum of debris behind on their camp site. They cut down the forest fire hazard by carrying a collapsible gasoline pressure stove that leaves neither embers nor ashes. They know it is advisable to dig a hole for tin cans and refuse as soon as camp is pitched and they are careful to fill it in and stamp it down when camp is broken."

"There is no finer type of recreation for the average city dweller than to get out into the wilderness with his car and spend his vacation under canvas. But the volume of motor travel has increased at such an unprecedented rate that education in camping has become almost a necessity."

Hogs at Michigan State college at East Lansing are having corn flakes for breakfast the same as individuals who have adopted the dry cereal habit. This dish for pigs was tried four years ago, but the lower prices for corn have not made it necessary since then.

This spring when the price for corn went up again, the college bought a quantity of the flakes, and now it is being used in place of corn. The cereal consists mostly of slightly over or under-cooked flakes and also the small particles accumulated in the course of the manufacturing process.

W. E. J. Edwards, in charge of swine at the college farm, considers the flakes as a very good substitute.

DEPLETES STOCK OF DEBILES

The Berlin farm bureau association at Marne, Ottawa county, has declared a stock dividend on its membership paper, to the extent of five shares of stock to every member.

This is the first time the company has declared a dividend on its common membership during its five years of existence although it has paid a dividend of seven per cent on the investment notes of the company.

The dividend is warranted by a surplus that has accumulated during the past year and is now passed on to the stockholders. This is in addition to the bonus that patrons have received of getting their feed and poultry supplies at a basic rate, at the cost plus enough profit to take care of overhead and give a sufficient amount of working capital. This has been possible because there have been no private interests working for personal gains.

A year ago at a directors' meeting it was decided to hire Mr. D. R. Edgerly of Jenison as manager. He is well acquainted with farmers and their problems, by virtue of his managerial position over Benj. Hanchett's farm and his training at M. A. C. Mr. Edgerly has made good at the farm bureau. He has increased the inventory and line of stock so that now the farmer may get everything from seeds to hardware. Just recently the company took on a full line of feeding materials and poultry supplies. The manager has taken upon himself to give free soil tests for lime requirements to all farmers, patrons of the company or not. The response to this service has been large. There have been no private interests working for personal gains.

During the past year the association has handled 37,700 bushels of wheat, 22 cars of coal, and over 200 tons of fertilizer. Besides supplying the regular feed and poultry trade, last year the company handled five cars of lime and this year since March 1, has handled 12 cars, a notable increase. In this work the board of directors has stood back of the management and their credit has helped establish more firmly the credit of the association.

To meet the increase in business and to provide the necessary capital, the stockholders have decided to reorganize and in this way allow more farmers to join the organization. Further by organization into a cooperative organization, as has been done, the company can obtain a greater credit and in this way take advantage of 10 and 15 per cent discounts, the extra credit also allowing greater purchases with their lower prices, resulting in lower prices to patrons.

The reorganization has taken place, the Berlin Co-operative Co., assuming all the assets and liabilities of the Berlin Farm Bureau. The new company desires to continue the same business principles. This includes: President, John Buth, vice-president, Charles Clayton, secretary, D. R. Edgerly, treasurer and general manager, and the directors, Wm. Roberts, Wm. Raach and Oren McClure.

DEPLORES SCORN OF LOWLY PENNY

A business man in the middle west deplores the careless and even scornful attitude of this generation toward the penny. We are contemptuous of this humblest of coins, he says. People drop pennies and do not bother to pick them up. They deliberately leave them on counters in stores and banks. This merchant, a self-made man who came up through hard work and practice, expressed not only dismay but indignation at such prodigality. Well, there are not many penny wise people today. Time was when a penny was a penny and not only children but men and women counted it. A penny today will purchase practically nothing, but it was fifty years ago, but where as it did fifty years ago, there were a hundred now. People spend recklessly. There is an extravagance in this country which startles visitors from the old world. We are the freest spenders on earth and are proud of it. A nation of spendthrifts would be desirable, but a nation of spendthrifts is almost as bad. The humble penny deserves to be treated with respect. It takes only from two to five of them to buy a newspaper. The penny may be humble, but it is the penny that makes the difference between a man and a beggar. It is the penny that makes the difference between a man and a beggar. It is the penny that makes the difference between a man and a beggar.

MANY MILLIONS IN SMALL AREA

New York—Park avenue between 34th and 60th Sts. lays claim to the most stupendous aggregation of multi-millionaires the world has ever seen.

In this impressive canyon of stone and steel apartment buildings live approximately 4,000 families, who, in 1927, will spend upward of $200,000,000, according to Miss Ruth Miller in an address here.

"Here are apartment buildings with sixty millionaires under one roof," said Miss Miller. "The average income of those residing in the section is in excess of $100,000 a year, allowing for savings and reinvestment. The area's 4,000 women and their daughters will spend $35,000,000 for clothes, while fathers and sons will outlay about $18,000,000 for railroads. It is estimated that the Avenue will spend $32,000,000 for food and restaurants; $20,000,000 for jewelry; $20,000,000 for motor cars and garages; $16,000,000 for beautifying and the purchase of face powder, rouge, necessary scientific appliances to prevent perspiration and its odor, and other articles of the toilet $20,000,000; for travel, $15,000,000; and for flowers, candy, and gift things, $10,000,000."

Judgments of $500 were found for the plaintiff in the case of Henry Meyer vs. Patrick McCarthy by Judge Gross in circuit court, Grand Haven, Tuesday afternoon. Suit was brought for $1000 on an automobile claim made by Meyer.

LAKE HIGHWAY HEARING SET FOR FIRST MONTH

Grand Haven Tribune—A regular meeting of the Ottawa county road commission was held Thursday morning in the court house with all members present. A general survey was made of the work being carried on over the county road system with reports most satisfactory to the members.

The date of hearing for determination and objections to the road to be built beyond Perryburg, leading from U. S. 31 to Lake Michigan, was fixed for Sept. 1.

Carl T. Bowen reported construction started on the "Holland Road" and work to be pushed in that direction for the balance of the season.

WILL HONOR MEMORY OF JOHN STARK

Concord, N. H., Aug. 13.—The state of New Hampshire will dedicate a memorial Tuesday at Bennington, Vt., in honor of Gen. John Stark and the New Hampshire troops who participated in the battle of Bennington. It will be the 150th anniversary of the famous Revolutionary battle at whose beginning John Stark called to his men: "There they are boys! We beat them today, or Molly Stark, a widow."

The recent New Hampshire legislature made the necessary appropriation for the erection of the memorial. At its dedication there will be a military parade and addresses will be delivered by Governor Scudder and Senator Joseph W. Pomeroy.

Brave John Stark, who won the battle of Bennington 150 years ago and sent a thrill of enthusiasm throughout the American army, had not been in good humor for some time. In the last promotion of general officers he had been overlooked and he felt that he had been overlooked.

From this place he had hurried in 1775 at the news of the battle of Lexington, and at Bunker Hill he had rendered valuable services, later distinguishing himself also at Trenton.

The main American army under George Washington was retreating before Burgoyne's advance, in August 1777. Bennington was about 25 miles east of Burgoyne's line of march, and there the Americans had established a depot of horses and stores.

Burgoyne, with his destitute army, planned to get these supplies. He was bent on Albany, and he knew that he could join Howe in New York. His plan was to invade and isolate New England and then crush the Americans at that point.

He had captured the very important position of Fort Mifflin on his advance from Canada and had driven the American army before him. He had no doubt that he could take the Bennington depot, and the secret expedition that he organized was to make a demonstration toward the Connecticut valley, overawe the country and return to Albany.

It was John Stark who destroyed all these deep-laid schemes. Burgoyne's army was defeated, and he was driven back to Albany. He had 900 men, including 100 Indians, to Bennington, and sent after him reinforcements numbering 500 more.

New Hampshire ordered out the militia and gave the command to John Stark. His brigade consisted of 1500 men, and the entire force that gathered to resist the invasion was not less than 2800. The hostile force came within sight of each other on Aug. 14. It rained heavily the next day, and on the 16th Stark attacked the enemy on three sides at once, he himself leading the advance on the British front.

There was fierce fighting for two hours. During which British Major Baum at last was compelled to yield. His whole force was compelled to surrender, and he himself was mortally wounded.

The Americans thought the day's work was done and began to disperse, but shortly the reinforcements that had followed Baum came up. It was Stark who saw that the day was not yet won. He perceived the situation and immediately rallied his men and led them on to victory. This victory immediately revived the drooping spirits of the Americans. The country was stirred to fresh enthusiasm, volunteers poured in to strengthen the American cause, and Burgoyne's march thereafter was to defeat and ruin.

SPEED BOATS ARE ORDERED TO OBEY THE SPEED LIMIT

Complaints have been received at the United States Engineers office at Grand Haven regarding the violation of the federal speed regulation for boats, signed by 24 individuals in that locality. They charge that boats are so operated between Lake Michigan and Spring Lake as to endanger lives and damage property that other boats not having power have been swamped and damaged at their moorings and that it is not safe for small boats to use the channels.

One case was reported of two speed boats racing past the Grand Haven slip at the foot of Washington St. It is even said that signals to check down are disregarded and that row boats, canoes and fishermen are disregarded and endangered.

The federal law limits the speed of all boats entering or leaving any of the harbors on the east shore of Lake Michigan, to a rate of eight miles an hour. The office points out that this is very generous as the west shore federal law limits the speed to only four miles an hour.

The officials of the U. S. department are inclined to believe that the speed regulations are complied with in most cases and those who have grossly misused this law have done so through ignorance and not through negligence, recklessness or gross misconduct, which might call for the revocation of licenses due to ignorance of nautical matters by owners or operators of the boats.

The attention of the Spring Lake Boat Club is called to this disregard for regulations with the belief that as a body can do much to instruct local drivers of the existing laws and do much to prevent a continuance of it.

To quote from a similar case at another harbor: "There can be no doubt as to the intention of the Federal Government to protect owners of structures, riparian banks, and boats and property along same, from damage due to boats using these channels."

The complainants have been advised that any future violations should be promptly reported in writing with dates and localities and names of boats and they will be promptly dealt with according to the statute.

The Spring Lake Boat Club is desirous of doing all possible to keep their members and others informed as to the law and to instruct their members as to the importance of complying with the law in all respects.

The club has many times in the past with power is supposed to watch and make sure they have weathered the swells coming from the motor boats before leaving the scene. If they are within the speed law there is very little danger as a rule.

The wells from the racing speed boats are heard and many times are exceedingly dangerous to small craft. On the lake where there is plenty of room there is not so much danger, but in a channel there is not much chance. This law holds on the river and should be carefully complied with one of the leaders of the boat club.

What applies to Grand Haven harbor also holds good in Macatawa Bay. Exactly the same orders were issued for this port recently.

Middle Aged Women Vanish

New York—There are no longer any middle-aged women. Low necks and short skirts, sleeveless dresses, chiffon hoes and small hats are cheating Father Time. "Women are all girls now," declared H. Bellas Hess, in an address here. "Modern clothes not only inspire youth but counteract the ravages of years. Today women are just as old as they dress."

"My own Paul Forst and the village dressmaker created a fashion, there were only three kinds of clothes. There were the frilly, fussy ones appropriate to youth, the more austere and becoming to maturity, and those consisting chiefly of widow's weeds and black bonnets out of which Grand-ma would have been a scandal. Now the article does not predict the eclipse of the independent dealer. Rather it sees only the advent of an efficient tradesman eliminated and the public benefited by increased efficiency and service from both individual and chain stores."

While the chain stores have the advantage of quantity buying power, the independent dealer, by specified make-up arrangements, can buy in large orders, so combating the quantity buying power of the chain store corporations.

But despite the inroads of the chains in retail business, the Shrine article does not predict the eclipse of the independent dealer. FARM OWNED AUTOS DOUBLED

WICHITA, KANS.—Number of farm-owned automobiles in the United States has doubled in the last six years. There are now 4,328,423 cars on American farms, compared with 2,100,000 in 1921, according to a report made public by a research bureau.

Texas leads all the other states in the number of farm-owned cars with 285,716, the report sets forth. Illinois is second with 238,106, and Ohio third with 231,977. There come Iowa with 229,000, Pennsylvania with 219,288, New York with 204,391, and Wisconsin with 204,182.

"Widespread use of automobiles for farm work has greatly increased agricultural efficiency in recent years," says the report. "Adoption of other labor saving devices including milking machines, tractors, safety gasoline, and pressure sprayers, have enabled farmers to boost their earnings by accomplishing more work. Household drudgery of farmers' wives has been greatly lightened by introduction of gasoline pressure stoves providing quick clean heat, washing machines, and running water."

Seven states have more than 300,000 farm owned automobiles, the report points out, while nine more record more than 100,000 cars in operation on farms.

A marriage license was issued in Kent county for Forest M. Terrell, 29, Gr. Rapids, and Evelyn Hayes, 19, of Allegan.

GRAND RAPIDS WILL BE STOPOVER POINT ON ALL RAILROADS

Beginning August 15, Grand Rapids will be a stop-over point on all railroad lines entering the city. After that date any person buying a ticket to any railroad station beyond the city, will have the privilege of stopping in Grand Rapids for a period of ten days, without paying additional fare.

For instance, a traveler buying a ticket from Chicago or Detroit, to Traverse City, via Grand Rapids, may stay in Grand Rapids ten days if he requires the privilege when purchasing his ticket. The same privilege will be extended to the person buying a ticket from Mackinac City, or any other place north, to St. Louis, Cincinnati, etc., via Grand Rapids.

This is something the business men of Grand Rapids have been asking for a long time. It is believed it will encourage thousands of travelers to stay there for longer or shorter periods, whereas, under the old non-stop arrangement, they passed right through.

The federal law limits the speed of all boats entering or leaving any of the harbors on the east shore of Lake Michigan, to a rate of eight miles an hour. The office points out that this is very generous as the west shore federal law limits the speed to only four miles an hour.

100,00 STORES ARE NOW LINKED IN RETAIL CHAINS

New York, August 8.—Approximately 100,000 retail stores of all kinds in the United States today are operating as units of 10,000 chain stores organizations, which have doubled the volume of their business within the past eight years.

This is the calculation of Earl Chapin May in a survey based on figures from the Department of Commerce and other sources, and published in the Shrine magazine for August.

Ranging in size from groups numbering a half dozen stores to one nationwide retail grocery organization with 15,000 units, the chains today have secured 75 per cent of the shoe business, 25 per cent of the drug business, and from 10 to 15 per cent of all retail trade, it is estimated.

Tracing the history of the chain store business, the writer finds that while the chains have become business factors of national importance only within the past generation, they have been in existence for many years. In New York the Little chain store, the 15,000 "A. & P." groceries in the country today.

"Thirty-two years ago a young man named Woolworth made the first successful experiment with the 'five-and-ten-cent' store at Lancaster, Pa.," he says. "Last year the F. W. Woolworth Company netted more than $20,000,000 from gross sales reported by nearly 1,500 stores."

"Twenty-seven years ago a man named Wheat in Syracuse decided to give away a 'thank you' card with every dollar's worth of goods bought at his store. He was the first to plan for locating other chain stores close to the greatest numbers of passers-by. The United Cigar Stores of 1926 took in nearly $60,000,000."

"Barely a quarter of a century ago J. C. Penney decided dry goods could be sold at a profit. He started the smaller cities of the middle west. During the past year 750 dry goods stores operated on the Penney plan, a gross business of $115,000,000."

"The United Drug Company sold last year through its 11,000 stores or agencies nearly $100,000,000 worth of goods. Canned goods, clothing, and plain and fancy clothes are related by chains, as are dairy products, flowers, fruits, hardware, hats and hosiery. Hotels, theaters and restaurants are being run in chains. Hardly a month goes by without some new chain being added to the list."

The latest manifestation of the chain store era, and one which the investigator finds is gaining wide popularity is the organization of cooperative buying groups by independent merchants who, while retaining their individual identities, are making arrangements to buy in large orders, so combating the quantity buying power of the chain store corporations.

While the chain stores have the advantage of quantity buying power, the independent dealer, by specified make-up arrangements, can buy in large orders, so combating the quantity buying power of the chain store corporations.

But despite the inroads of the chains in retail business, the Shrine article does not predict the eclipse of the independent dealer. Rather it sees only the advent of an efficient tradesman eliminated and the public benefited by increased efficiency and service from both individual and chain stores."

GASOLINE WAR ON IN MUSKOGON

Hostilities were resumed in Muskogon's gasoline war when independent oil dealers cut the price of motor fuel to 15 1/2 cents a gallon.

This is the third reduction in the price of gasoline there in four months. Motor fuel sold for 20 cents in April when a two-cent slash in price occurred. Another reduction of one cent followed in a few weeks. Gasoline had been 17 cents in Muskogon for nearly three months.

Muskogon oil dealers launched a state-wide gasoline war two years ago when the price was 23 1/2 cents. Periodic reductions since that time have cut 'gas' prices eight cents a gallon. Gasoline Saturday was cheaper than kerosene at many filling stations in Muskogon.

The 15 1/2 cent price includes a state gasoline tax of two cents. The state gasoline tax will advance to three cents next month.

'CHAIN GARAGE' ON SCENE NOW

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 16.—Announcement was made today that 48 towns in Michigan have been selected as locations for units of a nation-wide chain of garages now being established throughout the United States.

These cities were selected, it was stated, after a survey of highways and the average flow of inter-city and inter-state automobile traffic throughout the state.

According to an estimate made by 882 automobile associations, 1927 is expected to set record figures for motoring, it being estimated that 40,000,000 people will be out on the highways—for business and pleasure—in 10,000,000 cars. This traffic movement and its steady growth each year is responsible, it is said, for the establishment of a nationwide chain of bonded garages replete with a nationally standardized insured automotive service.

"In locations where satisfactory clean attractive buildings are available with established local garages," said Mr. J. M. Coates, general manager of the chain company, "our plan includes the building of super-service stations for motorists' needs."

The chain of bonded garages is already operating in more than 300 units in 14 states and the additional locations are said to be included in the 1927 expansion program of the chain company.

ALLEGAN GIRLS PASS SEVERE LIFE SAVING TESTS AT CAMP

Helen Herman, Dorothy Stratton and Ruth Gregg won the distinction of earning badges and passing requirements of the Girl Scout life-saving tests at Warner lake camp, Allegan county, last week. The tests are very difficult and the girls were in the water continuously for four hours completing the various tests.

W. H. Stansberry was appointed a director of the Peoples Savings bank of Grand Haven to succeed George D. Turner, who has resigned. Stansberry is president of the Peoples Novelty Co. Mr. Turner was a former county clerk of this county.

The tennis tournament which was played last week and the beginning of this week resulted in a victory amongst the women for Miss Virginia Bradford, formerly of Grand Rapids and now residing in Holland. The trophy in the men's section was won by the Shores of North Holland. Grand Rapids Herald.

JACK DEMPSEY TO OPEN CAMP NEXT FRIDAY

Tex Rickard and Leo Flynn were returning to Chicago today to join Billy Gibson in conducting the preliminary events of Chicago's greatest athletic spectacle, the Dempsey-Flynn heavyweight title match of Sept. 23.

Flynn, Dempsey's manager, has about decided on Lincoln Field's race course for the challenger's training camp. While Gibson, the champion's manager, is preparing Cedar Creek County Club on Fox Lake for Tunney's workouts.

Rickard is bringing along his office staff this time to handle the ticket sale. He will start next Friday when the tickets arrive from New York. The Palmer House arcade, on Chicago's busiest thoroughfare, State-st., will be the ticket headquarters.

George F. Getz, the big cool man who is the legal promoter of the fight today accepted the Palmer House offer and cancelled plans for use of a vacant store room on Washington Blvd., just off State-st.

The Dempsey headquarters at Lincoln Field's will be ready for glove swinging Friday, with the same list of sparring partners Jack used in preparing for the Sharkey battle. Dempsey will arrive from Salt Lake City on Thursday. Two westerners will be added to the three who worked out with Dempsey at Saratoga. They are Jack McCallister, Detroit heavyweight, and My Sullivan, St. Paul middleweight, a cousin of Tommy Gibbons, the only boxer ever to split the limit with Dempsey while Jack wore the heavyweight crown. Gibbons lasted the full 15 rounds at Shelby.

Just when Tunney will arrive to finish his training has not been decided. Mr. Gibson is expected to move west as soon as possible and get accustomed to Chicago's early fall weather. Gibson is going to Tunney's camp at Saratoga, N. J., as soon as he has talked over the situation with Rickard.

PIANO-TUNERS' PRESS AGENT HAS HIS SAY

New York, Aug. 10.—Eight million out-of-tune pianos are turning the aesthetic ear of America into a cauldron of anger, says a report of the National Association of Piano Tuners in convention here last week. Ninety per cent of the nation's pianos are out of tune, and the younger generation is thus getting a faulty musical training, Charles Deutschmann, president of the association, said.

HAMILTON BEATS THE SOUTH ENDS

The South End Cubs, although having been strengthened by some new players, were no match for the Sipes Tigers of Hamilton Monday night 3 to 2.

DUTCH PRINCESS TO BE A STUDENT IN UNIVERSITY

A. J. Barnauw in News-Letter of Netherlands-American Foundation.—When I was a student at Leyden, a generation ago, the university was a training school for men only. There was, it is true, one law student of the other sex, and a few women were enrolled in the school of medicine, but their very scarcity emphasized the university's maleness. Queen Wilhelmina, then at the age at which a Prince of Orange might have been registered as a student of the Law School, received private tuition from Leyden professors at her palace in The Hague. But woman has since invaded this ancient stronghold of male learning, and Her Majesty's daughter, Princess Juliana, will share in the fruits of that victory when, next September, she will register at Leyden as a student in the Law School of Leyden, the first Princess of Orange to be enrolled in the university which a Prince of Orange founded more than three hundred and fifty years ago. The princess will reside at Katwijk, a seaside resort at a few miles distance from Leyden, and maintain a strict incognito. To her fellow students she will be known as the Honorable L. van Buren, she will join the Women's Union, and has expressed a wish to become an active member of the Leyden Dramatic Club. There could be no better training school for the part she will have to play in the future as queen of a democratic nation than the college with its many opportunities of social contact with young men and women from various strata of society. What Miss Louise van Buren will learn in recess hours from her fellow students may prove to her, in later life, more valuable knowledge even than the learning that she will gather from her professors in the classrooms.

HOLLAND BEATEN BUT HIGHLAND WINS PLAY

Spring Lake country club golfers triumphed over the team from the Holland club Saturday at Spring Lake. The final count was 25 to 11.

At Highland club in Grand Rapids Sunday, however, the Grand Haven Scotchmen were compelled to take the short end of the count in a match with the Highlands golfers.

WOLVERINE STARS BEATEN SATURDAY

Playing the first game of the series of three for the Western Michigan Championship, the Northwestern A. C. Colts took an 8-7 victory from the Wolverine stars at River Park and also smashed the ten game winning streak which the Wolverines had piled up. The Colts are a fast ball team and they played good baseball thru out the game. Berba, the leading pitcher in the Business League in Grand Rapids, started on the mound for the Colts but was forced to retire after a barrage of hits by Westerner Spoelstra, Slighter and Sakers which netted four runs. O'Connell, Benton Harbor seminary star, took up the pitching burden and allowed but one hit in the remaining four and one-third innings and struck out nine batters. Sakers pitched good ball for the Wolverines but was not able to beat the Grand Rapids champs.

The Colts scored three runs in the first inning on four clean hits. The locals knocked the count however by netting four runs in the first two innings. In the fifth inning the Colts apparently put the game on ice with four runs but the Bakkermans came back in their half of the inning with three runs. The game was won in the ninth when the Colts reached first on an error, stole second and came in on Grego's single. VanZanden drew the applause of the crowd with his pretty catches in left field. Spoelstra moved off the mound in the afternoon with three blunders in five time up. Score by innings:

Colts 300 040 001—12 3
Wolverines 111 040 000—7 8 5
Batteries: Slighter and Sakers, and Grego; Sakers and Westerhof.

Boys and girls club members of Ottawa County directed by agricultural agent Millham are planning attractive displays at the Holland Fair. It is expected that there will be 15 calves, 32 pens of chicks, 11 potato and 3 corn exhibits. The exhibits are all produced and selected by the club members as a part of their regular club work. Clubs to exhibit are located at Conklin, Niles, Spring Lake, Georgetown and Olive Center.

The remains of the unidentified man found in the harbor Sunday, were buried yesterday. Brief services were conducted at the Kiel Mortuary by Rev. Candler of the Methodist church. Local authorities were unable to discover any clues which might lead them toward a solution of the mystery of the man's identity, and there is little chance that identification will ever be made. The theory is that the dead man was a member of one of the deck crews of one of the steamers operating out of this port, and it is believed that he either fell overboard from the ship or off the docks into the water.

Geo Getz is again in the lime light in Chicago. This time the Chicago papers picture him as the right hand man of mayor Wm. Thompson and as an entertainer of Capt. Lindbergh. The Chicago Examiner in a half page photograph shows the Lakewood Farm man with hand raised asking the turbulent crowd to be quiet so both "Lindy" and "Big Bill" can say what they have to say and be heard. More than 200,000 Chicago folks were gathered at that time.

The convict ship "Success" in charge of Capt. D. H. Smith, the owner, that anchored at the foot of Eighth street just a year ago, is now on exhibition at Bell Isle Park, Detroit and the proceeds are going to a "Child Welfare Fund." The Detroit Free Press devotes much space to the old ship built a century and a quarter ago and that for 50 years did duty as a floating prison.

PLANTING WHEAT? READ THIS

7½ TIMES the Fertilizer's Cost

Rensselaer, Ind.
Sept. 24, 1926.

The American Agricultural Chemical Company, Detroit, Mich.

Sirs:
Last Fall I purchased from your local agent some "AA QUALITY" Fertilizer (Agrico Brand, 2-12-4) and used it on my wheat field. I used 150 pounds to the acre. My wheat yielded 30 bushels per acre and was of the best quality. I got 15 bushels more to the acre by using your fertilizer.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) W. L. HOOVER

Figure it up for yourself. Increased yield, 15 bushels to the acre, paid for the fertilizer seven and a half times over. A good profit on foresight and care in selecting fertilizer on its crop-producing record.

Please remember that every batch of "AA QUALITY" Fertilizer has first to prove its value in our well-equipped laboratories. It has to meet tests which establish its crop-producing value. Every "AA QUALITY" Fertilizer is built up to a standard, not down to a price.

GUARDSMEN VICTIMS OF BANDITS AT GRAYLING

A band of holdup men have been plying their trade at the entrance of Grayling camp grounds the last few days. Several attempts were made to crack the large safe in the administration building where the state pay roll is kept. A heavy guard instructed to shoot on sight has been placed at the entrance at various strategic points to guard the camp. Several taxis were held up and guardsmen from northern Michigan, Wisconsin, and relieved of their money and valuables.

GIRL WHO JILTED DENVER MAN GOES TO NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fish of Grand Haven are going to New York within a few days in the same "Lizette" in which they eloped to South Bend, Ind., to get married. Mrs. Fish before marriage was Miss Doris came of Grand Rapids, who, after graduation left for Denver, Colo., as an athletic director and there met a wealthy man of 42, named Irvin McCrary. They decided to get married and sail for Europe. The invitations were sent out and Miss Doris came home to prepare for the coming event. She met by accident her former sweetheart of girlhood days. They were married and the only announcement of the marriage was a telegram to McCrary in which she said, "I'm sorry but I can't marry you." Guests who had been invited to the wedding with McCrary also were notified that there would be no ceremony.

Neither Mrs. Fish's father, who is a railroad conductor at Grand Rapids, nor the mother, have offered approval of their daughter's change in plans and the couple say they will make no overtures to them.

"SPIRIT" TO GO TO FAMOUS INSTITUTE

The silver "Spirit of St. Louis" will never mold into decay, forgotten like less famous planes. It will eventually be placed in the Smithsonian Institution, Col. Lindbergh told newspapermen in his conference with them yesterday. When the mechanical partner in "We" will go into the safe-keeping of the museum the colonel does not yet know.

"It may be when I have finished this tour and it may not be," he said. "I haven't decided just when it will be."

FORMER HOLLAND MAN ELECTED AS POULTRY HEAD

Dr. L. C. Heasley, formerly of Holland, now of Grand Rapids, was re-elected president of the Michigan Poultry Improvement association at the annual meeting at Michigan State college at East Lansing, Friday.

L. Van Appledorn, of Holland, was elected secretary-treasurer. The choice of secretary-treasurer was postponed. The board of directors, which was also chosen Saturday, includes the following in addition to two officers: W. A. Downs, Romeo; W. E. Eckard, Paw Paw; E. G. Kibbourn, Flint; C. N. Whitaker, Lawrence; J. A. Hannah, Michigan State college poultry department; J. P. Garlough, editor of the Modern Poultry Breeder, Zeeland; and Professor C. G. Card, head of the college poultry department.

ARE MARRIED ON SATURDAY

Harold De Loof, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard De Loof, and Miss Evelyn Nykamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nykamp, were united in marriage Saturday evening at seven o'clock at the parsonage of the 14th street Christian Reformed church, the ceremony being performed by Dr. Wm. Masselink. Mr. De Loof was attended by Louis Nykamp and his bride by Esther Brink.

The couple left immediately for a trip around Lake Michigan. On their return they will occupy a new home that is now being built on West 21st street, as soon as it is completed. Mr. De Loof is employed at the Model Drug store.

MAKE TRIP THRU NEW ENGLAND

Rev. and Mrs. James Wayer are making an automobile trip through New England. Under date of Aug. 12, Mr. Wayer wrote: "We have made 1,700 miles in our little Dodge and still carry the air of Holland undiminished in our tires. Have seen Niagara Falls, Five Finger Lakes, Watkin's Glen, Storm King Highway, West Point, Mount Alma, Mohawk Trail. We spent Sunday, August 6th, at Northfield, Mass. Then Concord and the battlefield at the old bridge, Lexington, Plymouth and the historic points, Cape Cod, through Boston to the White Mountains. Today we go through the mountains of Vermont."

Sheldon Linne, famous artist of New Orleans, and son Harold have been guests the past week at the Perry Colony cottage at Macatawa.

John Tietz of Goshen, Indiana, will return to his home Saturday, after an extended visit with his sister, Mrs. E. Winter and Mrs. M. Borgman of this city.

YOUNG CAMPBELL IS NOT GUILTY IN HOMICIDE CASE

For two days the retrial has been in progress of Kenneth Campbell, charged with negligent homicide in connection with the death of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Braak of Spring Lake on January 31, 1926, at the Spring Lake bridge as the couple were returning home from church. Practically all the evidence that was given at the former trial when the young man was found guilty was repeated.

Among the witnesses called by Prosecutor Lokker were Mr. and Mrs. Cottrell Reed, Robert Jorgenson, Harold Rosema, Russell Verplank, Raymond Verplank, Anthony Verplank and Arthur Page. Thursday morning the testimony of Vernon Sands and Frank Carvey was read from that given in the first trial.

Harold Rosema's testimony differed somewhat from other testimony given at the last trial and when closely questioned by Attorney Dikema he seemed to be at a loss just where the Campbell car was when it was brought to a stop. His testimony did not correspond with testimony given before.

Robert Jorgenson, one of the prime witnesses for the defense, the only man who claims to have paced the distance from where the bodies lay to where the car stopped, corroborated his first testimony that the car went 115 feet.

The defense has put on no witnesses and Kenneth Campbell, the respondent, has not been called. As there were no eye witnesses to the accident, the prosecution base their claims on the place and condition of the car after the accident and the manner in which it skidded to a stop to show the rate of speed at which the young man was traveling.

Carl Bowen gave his opinion that a car of such type, a Cadillac coupe, on a slippery and icy pavement, could not have been brought to a stop without skidding badly if it had been running over 25 miles an hour. Testimony from Robert Jorgenson agreed.

Thursday morning the jury was taken to the scene of the accident at the bridge and upon their return, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney J. Den Hoeder opened the argument. He outlined the difference between the old statutes of murder and the comparatively new statute of negligent homicide and compared the meanings of negligent with the old and new order.

He said the testimony of Jorgenson was more apt to be correct than that of Mr. Reed and Mr. Mulder as the distance was measured after the first excitement and was more apt to be correct than their estimates. He gave the jury a fine history of the boy, the family he comes from and admitted that Kenneth might have been a speed maniac at that time but that he was not. Nevertheless this was not the question nor did it have a bearing on the case in question, he said.

Louis H. Osterhouse took up his argument, basing his conclusions on the fact that no one saw the accident. The witnesses were all more or less excited and under strain, the position of the car afterwards proved it could not under the weather conditions have been driven at an excessive rate of speed and that Campbell could not be held under the supposition that he was driving carelessly.

C. J. Diekmans made his plea in the defense in behalf of Kenneth Campbell and Prosecutor Clarence Lokker followed, answering the argument raised by both Mr. Diekmans and Mr. Osterhouse. The attorneys then rested their case. Judge Cross gave the charge and the jury went to deliberate at 3 o'clock. They were still deliberating near midnight.

The buzzer rang and the 12 men who filed into the court room appeared all tired out. They told Judge Cross that they were divided on the question of guilt and innocence of young Campbell.

Judge Cross told them to go home, sleep on the matter and report again at 9 o'clock when he would give his charge again for a second time. Then they could go on deliberating until they were absolutely sure that a verdict could or could not be reached.

At 9:30 this forenoon court went into session again and Judge Cross once more made his charge to the jury. The twelve men went into the jury room once more, coming to a decision two hours later and bringing in a verdict of not guilty at 11:30.

INSECT DAMAGE AND BLIGHT HIT STATE SPUD CROP

Beetles are damaging the potato crop in parts of Michigan, while blight is also appearing in some places, according to the latest crop report released by Herbert E. Powell, state commissioner of agriculture and Vern H. Church, federal agricultural statistician for Michigan. The dry weather is slowing up growth all over the state.

While the crop as of Aug. 1 showed a condition equivalent to a production of 31,262,000 bushels with the outlook one point better than the 10-year average, conditions since the first of the month have been adverse.

The heaviest potato receipts of the season to date resulted in an uncertain market for that commodity yesterday. Buyers were determined to obtain their stocks for less, bids ranging from 90 cents to $1.25 per bushel for fair quality. Growers and truckers were holding for $1.25 to $1.50 per bushel. Shipped-in Cobblers were steady at $4.50 to $4.75 per 11-peck barrel.

VICTIM OF "DIP" GETS WALLET BACK—EMPTY

Scott Hale, an employee of the Michigan Soldiers' home at Grand Rapids, who lost a pocketbook containing $200 in currency and other less valued possessions while attending the Lindbergh day celebration Friday, Saturday received through the mails an envelope with the wallet which was "lifted" by a pickpocket. A meal ticket and some lodge papers were intact. Mr. Hale made a report of the matter to Police Lieut. John Quirk.

JAMESTOWN GIRL PLEADS GUILTY TO PERJURY

Miss Henrietta Kuiper of Jamestown appeared in circuit court after being arrested at the request of Prosecutor Lokker, charging her with perjury. She pleaded guilty to the charge and will be sentenced by Judge Cross at the end of this term of court.

A very strange case came up about a half year ago in which Miss Kuiper charged her father, one more dramatic case in the meantime the baby had died and remorsefully Miss Kuiper came to the prosecutor's office and stated that Harold Scholten was not guilty of the charge of which he was convicted, that she had told an untruth involving him.

Naturally all charges were immediately dismissed. But on her own admission Miss Kuiper had committed perjury and it is on that charge that she will be sentenced.

Further action may follow in this case, it is stated, when the matter comes up again in circuit court.

VAN DERBERG OIL COMPANY MAKES RADICAL CHANGES

As stated in Thursday's Sentinel, the Vandenberg Bros. Oil Co. today confirm the rumors which have been current during the past two or three weeks with reference to a connection they have made with the Roxana Petroleum Corporation, a subsidiary of the Royal Dutch Petroleum company, world wide in its oil producing, refining and marketing operations. In an interview with the Sentinel today, Wm. C. Vandenberg, of Vandenberg Bros. Oil Co., said: "Our company entered the business of distributing petroleum products in Holland and adjacent territory in August, 1919. Because of the marvelous development of the automotive industry it has been necessary for the petroleum industry to step lively in order to keep pace. During our eight years' connection with the distributing end of the business the picture has been a constant one of change and change has been taking place in oil, I believe, during this period than in any other commodity. I mean not only in methods of producing and refining crude oil but in its uses and also in marketing and distribution. For instance, at least 95 per cent of the drive-in filling stations in existence today were erected during the past five or six years. And because of an over-supply of crude oil, competition amongst refiners has become exceedingly keen and generally speaking this has meant better merchandise, although today there is considerable of the so-called 'bogus' gasoline being dumped upon the market and this is usually of doubtful quality."

"While there is no outright sale of our properties involved at this time, it is true that our company has 'Changed to Shell.' After negotiations covering a period of almost two years, we have finally made a mutually satisfactory long-time arrangement with the Roxana Petroleum Corporation which calls for the distribution of 'Shell' products through all of our stations and other outlets and in addition to the communities we are serving at present, we have been granted considerable new territory, some of which is already developed and the rest will be developed as rapidly as possible.

"Shell" is the trade name of the Royal Dutch Petroleum products and it is used and known the world over, so naturally we are quite happy over the long-time efforts of both parties to make this connection, which becomes effective Monday, August 15, 1927, and at that time we shall discontinue 'Shell' exclusively. However, we are still Holland's own oil company and whatever profits remain we will continue to be used in the further development of a greater and better city and community."

ZEELAND PASTOR ACCEPTS GRAND RAPIDS CHARGE

Rev. Edward Masselink who has been supplying the pupil of First Christian Reformed church of Zeeland, has accepted the call to the pastorate of Trinity Reformed church at Grand Rapids. Mr. Masselink is a graduate of Chicago university and Princeton Theological seminary. He also took a post-graduate course at the Baptist Theological seminary in Louisville, Ky., where he received the degree of doctor of theology.

Mr. Masselink will be examined for ordination by the Classis of Grand Rapids, Sept. 1. The classis will then ordain and install him as pastor of Trinity church. He will assume his duties there some time in September. Trinity church has been without a pastor since last fall when Rev. John Van Zoberen accepted a call to Orange City, Iowa.

W. E. Schumacher and H. H. Schumacher attended the chautauque at Grand Rapids, Friday night, at which Senator Philip LaFollette, son of the late Senator Robert M. LaFollette, was the speaker.

ITALIAN IS HELD IN AUTO SMASH ON RIVER AVENUE

At 10 o'clock Friday night two cars came together at the River Ave. and 12th street intersection and within a few moments there was a traffic jam. At least 1,000 people gathered around the wreck. Police officers, with a few minutes' endeavoring to straighten out traffic and remove the demolished cars.

According to the evidence gathered by police in fixing the blame for the crash, Mrs. Henry Ter Haar was driving toward the city with her child and another lady. She was going south on River Ave., awaiting the green light to make a left turn on 12th to go east. She saw a Ford sedan coming towards her at a high rate of speed. In order to avoid a collision she again turned to the right.

The driver of the Ford sedan also saw the danger of colliding with the Essex driven by Mrs. Ter Haar, swerved to the wrong side of the turtle on the street, but by so doing struck the Oakland car of Garry DeWeerd head-on.

In the Oakland car was Lambert Baumann, a local confectioner, who was badly cut. The impact threw the Ford sedan entirely around, and out of it came eight Italians, some of them children. In a few moments the air was filled with foreign speech as two other cars came into sight, also filled with Italians, some of them women carrying babies on their arms.

The Italians were endeavoring to place the blame on the Essex car, which was untouched, but police investigation shows that the Italians were coming at a high rate of speed and that the driver of the Ford sedan was at fault. It was found that the car driven by the Italians was on the wrong side of the street, which might have been brought about to avoid an accident.

The police contend, however, that the car in question could not have been under the driver's control, which is necessary at all times and especially at such a much traveled street intersection.

Friday night Chief Van Dyke ordered the arrest of John Bono, R.I.T. Grand Rapids, driver of the Italian car, and held Charles Divria as a witness. The charge placed against Bono is reckless driving. He was arraigned before Justice Charles K. Van Duren Saturday morning.

M. and M. R. B. Champion quickly threw open their home to the Italians in order that some of those who were cut up might be taken care of and some of the hysterical women with their little children might be calmed.

One Italian girl, 7 years of age, was badly cut and was given medical aid. The Oakland car owned by DeWeerd was hauled away and the Ford sedan, minus wheels windshield and fenders, was taken to the Ford hospital.

The driver of the Italian car appeared before Justice Van Duren Saturday forenoon. Two cases will grow out of the accident, a criminal suit, with bond placed at $100, and a civil suit for damages, with bond placed at $300. The driver is being held until he can furnish the bonds.

PERCH ARE BITING AT GRAND HAVEN PIERS

Grand Rapids Herald—For two days recently conditions here just right for those who were fortunate to be on the piers at Grand Haven with minnows and angie worms to come in with a nice mess of lake perch. Fred Gunemann of 1112 Bates St., Grand Rapids, was there, and he reports having made a fine catch of the tasty fish. According to the old-timers at the piers, when the weather is fairly cool and the wind from the southwest, is the time to try one's luck for perch, on the south pier. A northwest wind is more likely to bring them to the north pier.

LINDY GAVE MOTHER FIRST AIR RIDE AT GRAND RAPIDS

Charles Lindbergh gave his mother her first ride in the Spirit of St. Louis Friday afternoon from the Grand Rapids airport. His first thought, after the celebration at John Ball park, was to mother and it was high up in the air in the plane that crossed the Atlantic that mother and son had their first taste-a-tete of several days. For a long, undisturbed hour, Lindy and his mother sailed through the air.

Lindy said his mother enjoys flying but her first trip in the Spirit of St. Louis gave her the biggest thrill of the day. An extra seat had been built in the plane to accommodate Henry Ford a few days ago in Detroit.

CONTRACTS AWARDED ON HOLLAND PARK PAVING

P. J. Hoffmaster, superintendent of parks, has awarded contracts for the construction of a concrete pavement in the new Holland state park at Ottawa Beach. The stretch terminates in a broad parking space on the lake shore.

In addition to the pavement, rest houses and other conveniences will be installed. The work will be completed this fall and the park will be in splendid shape by the opening of the 1928 season. Hoffmaster said in his report.

TWO NEW MEMORIAL STAMPS ON SALE

Postmaster E. J. Westveer announced today that two new stamp issues commemorating events in the Revolutionary war are now on sale at the post office. One is known as the Burgoyne stamp and commemorates the defeat of Burgoyne. The other is the Vermont sesqui-centennial stamp, recalling the 150th anniversary of Vermont's joining the American colonies in the war against England.

CAPT. GEERDS MEETS WORLD FLYER AT GRAYLING

Captain Heinke Geerds writes the boys of Co. D are receiving the Sentinels every day and are hungry to get the news for which he thanks this paper. He says further:

"We had a nice trip up, good roads and good time. Camp was made by sundown, and then sleep. Met Lt. Ogden last night. He is one of the round-the-world fliers and is now with the new observation group of the Michigan national guard. He is a real fellow, and about as good looking as they make 'em."

"Wish you would run up once for a visit. I am certain you would not regret the trouble of the trip. There are many things of interest for you I am sure."

NO LOTTERY ADS ARE PERMITTED BY SINGLE SAM

This is the season of the year when lottery advertisements are the order of the day; innocent in themselves, no doubt, but contrary to postal regulations. During county fair period the guessing contests, drawing contests, and giving away merchandise are part of the program.

The Holland newspapers have had several tussles with some advertisers along these lines, but today the advertiser with an announcement of that kind is referred to Postmaster E. J. Westveer, doing away with all arguments.

It appears now that the Grand Haven Tribune has had troubles along these lines and under a heading, "Lotteries and Free Notices," the Tribune says:

"The Daily Tribune in recent weeks has been flooded with requests for publicity and also advertising space on lottery schemes. The Tribune has no criticism to make of these devices for making money but a newspaper's hands are tied."

The federal government gives no leeway in such matters. The postal regulations provide heavy penalties to both advertiser and newspaper including loss of the second class mailing privilege to the newspaper as well as fines for publication of any information regarding lotteries. This provision was written by Congress to break up the Louisiana and other gigantic gambling games but applied as well to the church quilt drawing or any other device with an element of chance in it. Giving away of automobiles or any other prizes by lot is forbidden matter in both advertising and news columns. Even announcements of the winners after the event is over violates the law of the federal government.

"If the public realized this it would save much embarrassment to the newspapers and disappointment to the promoters. Mailing lottery tickets or invitations to keno parties, etc., against the law as well."

"Another point on which there seems much uncertainty in Grand Haven is the distinction between news and advertising. The Daily Tribune spends money to get news and features. It promotes circulation to make its advertising columns valuable for local merchants."

"The Tribune has one thing to sell—advertising space. If it gives it away it cuts its own throat. The Tribune, of course, is glad to promote community welfare movements but any event for which admission is charged and to which the general public is invited is a commercial enterprise and should pay its way. Such announcements are properly paid advertising and will receive reading notice only when they are properly exploited in paid space."

PAY FOR NATIONAL GUARDS ARRIVES UNDER PROTECTION

An attempted holdup of the Camp Grayling mail truck failed Friday when Mr. Ralph Kugel of Saginaw, driver of the truck, which had been forced off the road, drove through the woods and outdistanced two men in an old car.

The pay of the national guardsmen, amounting to more than $100,000, arrived under heavy guard. It is believed the two men thought the mail truck contained the money.

The 182nd field artillery, after three strenuous days on the ranges, returned to camp with but one problem to complete. The heavy guns will be fired today in honor of Gov. Fred W. Green, who will inspect the camp.

Ten members of the defense committee of the Detroit board of commerce are slated to arrive today and remain over Sunday for the review.

A visit from Maj. Gen. William Laster, sixth corps area commander, is expected Aug. 17. It is believed the major general will go there for an inspection trip, will fly from Chicago, headquarters of the sixth corps.

STEWART MEDAL IS CAPTURED BY A HOLLAND MAN

A telegram to The Sentinel from Capt. Henry Geerds at Grayling announces the good news that Sgt. Franklin J. Fazerkerly is the winner of the Stewart medal as the best soldier in the camp. The telegram was dated Saturday and it gives no details, only the bare announcement that the Holland guardsman is the winner.

The Holland boys went to camp this year firm in the hope that Fazerkerly would win the coveted honor. He was a candidate for it a year ago and then came near the goal. This year he made the grade and hence brings honor to Company D of the 126 Inf., has been appointed orderly city of Holland which that company represents.

In a letter sent before the winner had been announced, Company D said:

"The Holland Sentinel: Holland, Michigan. Dear Sirs:—

Just a few lines to day to tell the people of Holland hello, and that we are all enjoying the camp here."

Sgt. Frank J. Fazerkerly, Co. D, 126 Inf., has been appointed orderly for the Honorable Gov. Fred W. Green.

Sgt. Frank J. Fazerkerly, Co. D, 126 Inf., also has won the honor of being the representative of 126 Inf. to discuss the medal contest. We hope are well and happy."

The boys wish to thank the Sentinel for the papers. And we sure enjoy them."

Co. D, 126 Inf.

WILD WEST RODEO COMES TO THE FAIR

Gus Hornbrook's wild west Rodeo will be at the community fair this year and will be a 4 day and a night event. The fair will be held Aug. 25-26 inclusive.

The secretary announces that he has booked some of the leading producers of spectacular performances including the Great Royal Hippodrome, an aggregation of fancy riders, and Gus Hornbrook's western rodeo.

The Royal hippodrome performers will entertain with sensational Roman chariot races, fast and furious standing races, each rider standing on two horses; and thrilling Kentucky running races with riders in full jockey costumes.

The western rodeo will bring cowboys and cowgirls who will thrill spectators with exhibition of wild horse riding, wild steer riding, trick horse riding, cowboy relay races, lariat spinning, and every known trick sprinkled with boisterous comedy. These special attractions are among the greatest that make the fair and park circuits.

REGATTA DUE ON LABOR DAY AT SPRING LAKE

Grand Haven Tribune—A meeting of the Spring Lake Boat Club members will be held in the chamber of commerce rooms on Saturday night to discuss arrangements for the 2nd big regatta which the club hopes to stage on Labor Day.

While the Fourth of July celebration was a success, the later one is to eclipse it if possible the previous meet and in its efforts are going to be exerted to arouse interest among outside boat owners and clubs.

At the Saturday night meeting C. D. R. Mulder of Muskegon will propose a regatta presented by D. T. Campbell of Campbell, Wyan and Campbell, as a trophy to be used for a series of meets by boat clubs of Western Michigan in speed racing with the Chris Craft types. This cup, worth $200, will become the permanent possession of the boat owner scoring the most points during this season and next. In this way it is hoped to keep the owners coming in for every meet during the year.

Saturday a delegation will go to Holland, where they hope to interest the lovers of speed racing. Next week they will go to Mona Lake and later to White Lake. This exchange is going to do a lot to promote the interests of the Western Michigan speed boat owners and to establish Spring Lake as the center of interest for speed boat racing in Western Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Hartman are entertaining at their home, 93 W. Adams street, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Adams and daughter Misses Margaret and Christine of Milan, Mich.; also Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowe and granddaughter, Miss Gladys, of Ovid, Mich.

Miss Sue Modders of Holland and Miss De Jong of Montana, a cousin, are motoring to Washington, D. C., and thru the south. Miss Modders will be gone a little more than a week.

Mrs. Phil Kregor and son, Jack, have returned after spending two weeks with Mrs. Kregor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ghyssels, at Ottawa Beach—Grand Rapids Herald.

SIXTY GATHER AT REUNION

About sixty descendants of the Cornelius Steektee family gathered at the home of John and Mary Elenbaas at Zeeland Wednesday evening.

A potluck supper was served on the spacious lawn of the Elenbaas home. After supper a picture was taken of the group, games were played on the lawn and a sociable time was enjoyed by all.

It was decided to make this gathering an annual event. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: John De Jongh, Pres.; Peter Elenbaas, Vice Pres.; and John K. Van Lente, Sec'y and Treas.

Cornelius Steektee came to this country from the Netherlands in the year 1854 and located in this city with his family of eight children, two sons Jan and Cornelius and six daughters, Maria, who became the wife of A. Elenbaas, Pieterella, wife of C. De Jongh, Cornelia, wife of H. Te Siegte, Neeltje, wife of T. Westing, Janna, wife of H. Van Lente, Paulina, wife of H. Vanden Beidt.

The only surviving member of this family is Mrs. Neeltje Westing, aged 84 years, of this city.

Mr. Steektee died soon after arriving in America and later Mrs. Steektee became the wife of J. Te Siegte. Large families were reared by the members of the Steektee family and consequently the descendants have increased to a large number and most of them reside in and around Holland.

VILLAGE WILL HOLD REUNION

For several years the village of Coaklin in North Ottawa has been in the habit of having an annual homecoming and this year will be no exception to the rule for advertising is out, announcing a free barbecue and homecoming to be held there on Sunday, August 20. The program of sports, and the numerous special prizes offered will undoubtedly create a great amount of interest, as usual, but there are also other features.

Aeroplane will be on hand throughout the day to take passengers who desire a short trip through the ether. Then there will be a band concert in the evening from 7 to 8:30 by the I. O. O. F. band of Grand Rapids, and in fact they will furnish music throughout the day. Chair swings and a merry-go-round will amuse the children, as well as the grown-up children.

GEORGIA ADDED TO AUTO CENSUS

Today there is only one state missing in the auto plate census of cars that have visited Western Michigan this season. Wednesday a story was related to the effect that cars had been seen in Western Michigan from the states in the Union with the exception of Georgia and Idaho. Cars from those states very probably have passed through here but it happened that they had not been observed by those paying attention to such things.

Last night Georgia was added to the list. Harry A. Jones of the Warm Springs Tavern, today added Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Witt, of Atlanta, Ga., to the list. Mr. Witt is manager of the Holland Furnace Company branch in Atlanta and he arrived in Holland last night. That leaves only Idaho to be accounted for.

For good Printing call on us.

ALLEGAN DEALERS TO HEAR OF FERTILIZER

A meeting of Allegan county fertilizer dealers will be held under the auspices of the Michigan State college department and County Agent Ralph Helm in the county court room at 1:30 Tuesday, Aug. 23. Suggestions on fertilizers best adapted to various soils and crops will be given by a specialist from the college and a general discussion led by him will follow. A series of farm meetings to aid farmers in selecting fertilizers will be given at later dates.

Orders for trees for spring planting should be placed now with the forestry department of Michigan State college, as the number of seedlings available will not meet demands according to information received from the college by County Agent Helm. Michigan white pine is recommended for reforestation in Allegan county.

HOLD THEIR FIRST FAMILY REUNION

The first annual reunion of the Boeve descendants was held at Pine Lodge, about 250 were present. After a meeting of the entire group, a well prepared program, arranged by Mrs. Gerrit Bosch and Mrs. John Van Oss, was rendered. The program was opened by singing the 25th psalm, the 6th verse. The following numbers were given: reading of letters, solo and duets by the members of the different families. After the program they took a vote if they would like to have the reunion annually and it was carried unanimously. They then proceeded to raise funds for the expense of the reunion. A motion was passed to access all male members above twenty-one years a dollar. The nominating committee appointed the following officers: Pres., Mr. Henry H. Boeve; Vice Pres., John Fisher, Sec., Mr. M. Brandt; Treas., William Van Der Belt. The sports were under the direction of Jacob J. Heider.

ATTENDS NATIONAL EAGLE CONVENTION

William Wilson of Holland, worthy president of the large Hollanderie, has been spending the week in Milwaukee, together with Mr. Wilson, as a delegate to the national Eagles convention.

Mr. Wilson at the state convention was honored as head of the state organization and the local order found it altogether fitting to send him to the national convention this year, which was done by a unanimous vote.

Towards the close of the convention it was decided to hold the next national meet of the fraternal order of Eagles at Los Angeles, California, which was finally decided upon. Kansas City, Cleveland, Buffalo and New Orleans also sought the meeting.

Milwaukee's proposal that that city be chosen as the site of the national memorial building of the Eagles will not be placed before the convention until Friday.

The proposed building will house the national headquarters of the fraternity and cost $3,000,000. It will be erected in memory of the Eagles who lost their lives in the World War. Present headquarters is in Kansas City.

SAY FAREWELL TO MISSIONARY

There was special service Sunday evening in the Graafschap church. It was a farewell service for Miss Cora Van Zanten, who will return to Rehoboth, New Mexico, this week, where she will resume her work as matron of some 80 Indian girls at the boarding school of the Christian Reformed church. Miss Van Zanten is supported by the Graafschap congregation and has spent her vacation in this vicinity.

The service was in English and will begin at 7:30 P. M. A farewell hymn will be sung by a quartet of four young ladies. The pastor will have charge of the service. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

HOLLAND YOUTH SENT TO BOYS' SCHOOL BY JUDGE DANHOFF

Judge James Danhoff of Grand Haven sent Chris Hoogendorn of Holland and J. Briggs of Hudsonville to the industrial school at Lansing for a full term.

The charges brought against the Holland boys was reckless driving but in reality he was charged with several petty offenses. Deputy Sheriff Egbert Beekman had watched him for some time, following up complaints.

One-Armed Drivers In Same Make Cars Stage a Collision

An Ohio car had lost its way while going north near Holland and had turned into the Alpena road. On correcting their mistake and turning back on to US-31 it collided with an Indiana car. Both autos were Over-lands and both were about equally smashed up, although the occupants were not injured.

A crowd soon collected and the bystanders began blaming one or the other. In the manner of bystanders, the occupants of the two wrecked cars saying nothing. Finally one bystander, having run out of arguments with which to blame the Indiana man, noticed that he had only one arm, and straightaway he triumphantly claimed that that was undoubtedly the reason for the wreck.

It sounded quite plausible until some other bystander, who was partial to the Ohio man, discovered that that driver also was one-armed. The rest of the crowd saw the humor of the incident and the angry discussion subsided sufficiently to allow the drivers of the two cars to admit that in their opinion each was about equally to blame. Their cars were taken to a local garage, were repaired, and each went on his way.

WOLDRING FAMILY HOLDS A REUNION

The fifth annual reunion of the Woltring family was held Thursday afternoon and evening in the James-town woods. About 100 members of the family gathered there this noon. A fine program of sports was prepared by the sports committee composed of John Eysma, Tuk Woltring and Babe Woltring, all of Holland.

There was a buffet supper at five o'clock and election of officers for next year will be held.

CORN BORER NOT YET HERE BUT IS EXPECTED SOON

On several occasions the county agriculturist, C. P. Milham, has been called to localities in Ottawa by an excited farmer sure he has the dreaded corn borer on his farm and panic-stricken when he contemplates his losses.

There has been so much written and said about the pest that any insect that has the resemblance to this one is viewed with great alarm. Mr. Milham does say, however, that the worm which many have mistaken for the borer is found in some of the corn this year but it is not the borer of foreign type that is giving farmers throughout the country such anxiety. It is one similar to it but not nearly so deadly. It is called a stalk borer, is larger than the other worm, has a black head with stripes and is very active. It also attacks potatoes, columbine, ragweed and pigweed but it in check and therefore is not to be feared as is the other pest.

A cold wet spring favors insect life and retards the parasites that destroy them. This was the case this spring hence there has been much loss to farmers and gardeners through this source. While this country seems to have a good share of rain the actual measurements show a deficiency for the year. There has been an abundance of sunshine, despite the rather cool temperatures of the summer, and things are growing at a great rate throughout the county.

The corn near Beria is reported to be exceptionally fine.

Mr. Milham states emphatically there are no corn borers in Ottawa county yet, but they can be expected in two hours. They are already preparing being made to fight them. The best authorities on the situation do not hope to overcome them but only to check the ravages somewhat. The solution of the fight is a natural destroyer that only time and nature can develop. The borer has not been in the country long enough for a parasite to be developed yet.

The borer advances about 60 miles a year, and attacks 150 known plants.

CASTLE PARK IS SCENE OF OUTING OF BIBLE CLASS

About 80 members of the men's Bible class of Hope church motored to Castle park Thursday for the annual picnic held in the afternoon and evening. Mr. and Mrs. Sears McLean and Mr. and Mrs. James McLean generously threw open their cottages to the Hope church Bible class men and aided in all preliminary arrangements, looking after the comfort of the members. All picnic sports were indulged in. The outstanding feature was the baseball game between a team captained by Brother Chapman and a second by Brother Olive.

Olive had insured his team against defeat but in this particular case all signs failed and Chapman's team, thru the efforts of Rev. Mr. Van Westenburg, as pitcher, secured the most runs. The nine divided the prize, a box of cigars, and handed a few to the vanquished as a peace offering. John Ogge was the mainstay for the losing team, he acting as umpire.

There was considerable excitement among the horse shoe pitchers. The pair to win first prize were Brother Chapman and Brother Dregman. Martin Dykema and Joe Hadden won second prize.

Several ladies of Hope church were present to aid when the teams were ready and these were well provided for by John Vanden Broek, who headed that committee.

Giving prominent men large cakes is quite the thing these days accordingly to the news reels. President Coolidge got one the other day at the summer capital in the Black Hills. The Bible class was not going to be outdone and during the picnic a large cake was brought on for G. J. Diekema, class teacher. The top of the cake was embellished with these words: "A teacher giving 100 per cent service." There were several prominent pastors from out-of-town present, among them Rev. Paul P. Chert of Omaha, Rev. Benj. J. Bush of Detroit, Rev. Raymond Eusden of Boston, and Rev. J. Carleton Pelgrim of Frankfort, Kentucky.

BIG TRUCKING CO. EMPLOYEES PICNIC AT JENISON PARK

One of the big picnics recently held from Grand Haven was that of Vyn Bros. trucking service, when the men and officers of the company, together with their families, mounted the big trucks and bowed away to Jenison Park to spend the day. There were about 70 in the party.

The usual basket picnic with many good things supplemented by the company offered the big entertainment, with games and races following in the afternoon.

One feature was the baseball game between the city drivers and the longhaul men. The Grand Haven city crew won and even yet there is considerable feeling on the subject.

GARAGE AT GRAND HAVEN TAKES FIRE

The garage belonging to Lawrence Botbyl, 701 North Seventh St., Grand Haven, was burned at 8 P. M. Wednesday while the family were out of the city and the car fortunately in use. The cause of the fire is unknown and when the department arrived they found the inside a mass of flames. They succeeded in overcoming the flames quickly, leaving the building standing but charred and about ruined inside. The loss is estimated at about $100.

JUDGE CROSS TO FIX PRICE OF GRAND HAVEN PROPERTY

The Akley hall property, Grand Haven, which was offered to the city by the trustees, headed by William Hatton, at $75,000, and was later condemned by the city for use after they had offered $60,000 for it, may yet become the property of the city if the parties can come to an agreement.

The price is to be fixed by an arbitration board headed by Judge O. S. Cross. Judge Cross has consented to this and Mayor H. H. Hillman and the council are willing to submit to its findings.

OTTAWA COUNTY RECEIVES ANOTHER FEDERAL PRISONER

Albert Campbell of Paw Paw, self-styled distributor of "yellow trees," paid a fine of $400 in federal court Thursday morning for using the mails to defraud. Judge Fred M. Raymond gave him the alternative of 90 days in the Ottawa county jail.

Campbell pleaded guilty last Saturday morning to distributing "yellow trees" which in fact were only grapes, which in fact were only ordinary Concord brand. He at first stood mute and a not guilty plea was entered.

SPRING LAKE CRUISER HAS A NARROW ESCAPE

"The Amata," the beautiful cruiser belonging to W. A. Wallace of Grand Rapids and Spring Lake had a narrow escape recently in Lake Michigan.

The cruiser was on her way from Charlevoix to Spring Lake and encountered rough weather all the way. The Amata was washed ashore near Little Point Sable light-house and several cottages there, but was for a time undetected. The water coast guards were called but for some reason could not give assistance. In the meantime they were rescued by the Crowe brothers cottagers who went out in a motor boat and took off the negro chauffeur, Capt. Smith and a boy seaman.

The crew returned to the Point to tow the Amata to Whitehall for repairs, after the yacht of Lew Wallace had been dispatched from there to stand guard.

The Amata was filled with water when the last two were taken off and it is not known whether the water came over the side or through a hole in her bottom.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR AN AUGUST BRIDE

A miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. John Van Nul in honor of her daughter Ethel whose marriage to Herman Windemuller will take place this month. The guests were entertained on the lawn and a three-course luncheon was served. Guests present were the Mesdames H. Windemuller, John Van Nul, H. Hobelev, P. Van Wingeren, H. Blaukamp, E. Hall, C. Heyler, H. Huxtable, G. Stegink, H. Stekete, J. Dykema, C. Shannon, B. Groeters, Jim Van Nul, L. Gallen, H. Nienhuis, E. Streur, A. Streur, F. Hornstra, G. Dyke and the Misses Pearl Brower, Ethel Van Nul and Grace Heyboer.

FORMER HOLLAND MAN TO PREACH IN HOME CHURCH

Rev. John H. Warnshuis, formerly of Holland, now pastor of the Brighton Heights Reformed church in New York, will occupy the pulpit in the Third Reformed church in Holland Sunday evening. Recently the New York World printed a sermon preached by Rev. Mr. Warnshuis, together with his cut and the following biographical notice:

"The Rev. John H. Warnshuis, a graduate of Hope college, Holland, Mich., and of the Theological Seminary at New Brunswick, N. J., was installed as pastor of the Brighton Heights Reformed Church, November, 1926. Previous to this he served as a missionary in India for eleven years under the Reformed Church. In cooperation with the Madras Government Mr. Warnshuis succeeded in initiating several experimental schools and was among the first to use intelligence tests in Indian schools for practical purposes. He aided in the reorganization of the mission society with a view to sharing the control of mission work with Indian Christians. A disease of the eyes caused by the tropical glare compelled him to return to this country."

The Joy Bearer Class of the 9th St. Chr. Ref. Church held their beach party at Idlewood Beach. Supper was served. Games were played, prizes were won. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, Alberta Grant, Anna Pathuis, Mayne Borden, Georgiana Piers, Lena Bos, Georgia De Weerd, Therna Vanden Brink, Cornelia Otting, Alagorda Knoll, Hilda Knoll, Bessie Baker, Tena Baker, Nella De Young, Janet Kiles.

Miss Kay Kasten, who is in training at Elletts Memorial Hospital, Grand Rapids, is home on a three weeks' vacation.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pathuis, East 5th street, a nine pound girl, Mary Jane.

There is usually something to be said for and against almost any kind of paving, one type being preferable to others because of varying conditions and not any one type being absolutely the best for all places. The repair work that is now being done on north River avenue on the block between Sixth and Seventh streets has brought out one favorable point for brick.

As every one knows, there are a good many things to be said against brick, and also many things to be said in favor of this type. The main argument against it is that it becomes rough after it has been in many years, as shown by the pavements of River avenue and Eighth street. These were the first pavements laid in Holland and they have served well, but everybody knows that they no longer make very comfortable driving.

The repair work now going on on north River avenue shows that the bricks can be turned over and present a new surface to the traffic. While the edges of the bricks on the side that was exposed to traffic are all nicked and broken, the side that was underneath, embedded in the concrete base, is as smooth as the day the brick was laid. This surface will be turned up in repairing the street and in this way a new smoothness will be given to the pavement.

Holland is not the only place where this is being done. In some cities, according to a report of the National Paving Brick Manufacturers Association, whole streets are being turned over. Engineers are taking the cue from the thrifty housewife who turns the fraying cuffs of her husband's shirts and are turning the bricks that have done service for a generation. A new new street results. Reports from city engineers say that streets that have been in use for more than 30 years are being relaid on bases that will adequately support modern traffic and that of a hundred brick taken from the veteran pavement 85 are being relaid.

SUGGEST NAME FOR NEW PARK

Another name for the new park at Ottawa Beach has been suggested by a Holland citizen. He proposes to capitalize on the fact that some of the most beautiful dunes in the state are located on the edge of the park and would call it "The Dunes."

The name may conceivably conflict with "Dunes Park" near Gary, on the edge of Dunes Highway, but the name is being added to the list which is slowly growing longer.

HOLD THEIR SECOND FAMILY REUNION

The second annual family reunion of the Peenstra family was held at John Ball Park. About 100 were present. Sports and a ball game were features of the meeting.

Those present from Holland were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schadelee, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Schadelee, Mr. and Mrs. Simon De Boer, Mr. D. Tanis, Mr. and Mrs. John Jonama. Officers elected were: John Peenstra, pres.; D. Kroodsmma, Sec'y; A. Prins, Treas.; Mrs. L. T. Schadelee, program.

MUSKEGON WOMAN TAKES AIR RIDE ON 75TH BIRTHDAY

Relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Bertha Klise of Muskegon Thursday evening to aid her in celebrating her seventy-fifth birthday anniversary, but Mrs. Klise did the surprising.

With her son, Lieut. Bernard Klise of the police department, she went to a Muskegon aviation field and took a 15-minute ride over the city of Muskegon.

FURNACE ARTISTS PLEASE AUDIENCE

Thursday night's program over WHBM was received by the radio public in fine style. Requests came in very fast. Special numbers were dedicated to certain people who asked for them. The entire program was given by the employees and friends of Holland Furnace Co.

The Trinity male quartet pleased the listeners with their numerous selections, as did Miss Cora Slenk and Miss Gertrude Mulder with their vocal numbers. Miss Geneva Van Lente gave two wonderful readings entitled "A Chip from the Old Block" and "The Whistling Boy," the latter being a musical number. Miss Marion Ingham and Miss Ruth Slenk accompanied at the Bush & Lane piano. The local furnace company people are putting on a two hour program a little later in the season.

In the early evening program, Mr. Simon Karsten, aged 70, died at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon at his home at 200 East 26th street. Mr. Karsten had been an employee at the Holland Shoe Co. plant for 15 years as janitor. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Peter Vander Lune; also by two sisters, Mrs. H. E. Van Kampen of Holland and Mrs. Bert Boone of Hardewijk, and four grandchildren, living in Allegan.

Funeral was held Monday at 1:30 at the home and at two o'clock at the First Reformed church. Rev. S. Vander Werf, D. D., officiating. Interment was in the Holland cemetery. Please omit flowers.

WHAT IT MEANS TO THE MOTORIST

The Coming of SHELL TO HOLLAND

The VANDENBERG BROS. OIL CO. feels privileged to offer to the people of Holland and vicinity gasoline and motor oil of such high quality and reputation as SHELL. We are confident that it will be but a short time before the yellow-red Shell will represent to Holland motorists what it already does to automobile owners throughout the Middle West--petroleum products unexcelled by any other brand.

The Coming of Shell to Holland Means

1. Petroleum products produced from start to finish by the Shell organization—their reputation for high quality jealously guarded at every step in production, refining and distribution.
2. Service that is distinctive and helpful. Shell Service Stations are all that the name implies. You will be impressed with the prompt and courteous treatment you receive at each one of them and the evident appreciation of your patronage.
3. A new realization of the possibilities of your car. Shell Gasoline and Shell Motor Oil—the perfectly balanced combination of fuel lubricant, never fail to deliver the utmost speed, power and silent performance from your car.

Learn to look for the yellow-red pumps and stations—the mark of Shell Products. You will quickly find out that it pays even if you have to go out of your way to patronize them.

Shell Motor Oil

The low-temperature, vacuum-process used in refining Shell Motor Oil retains the natural lubricating values of the crude. Hence this clear oil withstands friction and heat for an unusually long period, without breaking down.

In all types of motors, under every conceivable condition of service, this clear oil has been motor-proven. It has demonstrated its long-lived ability to provide a cushion of protection for all parts subject to wear.

Lesson for August 21

GOD'S PROMISE TO DAVID

LESSON TEXT—1 Chron. chapter 17.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever a scepter of righteousness as the scepter of thy kingdom.
PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Promise to David.
JUNIOR TOPIC—How God Rewarded David.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How God Gives Us the Better Things.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—God's Great Promises.

I. David Desires to Build a House for God (vv. 1, 2).
Having subdued all his enemies, David sat down in his palace and beautiful house to meditate. While thus musing, he is led to see the incongruity of dwelling in a house of cedar while the Lord's place was so common. A truly devout soul cannot be content to dwell in personal ease and luxury while the Lord's work is neglected. David's proposition met with Nathan's approval, but the next day he came with definite instructions from the Lord regarding it.

II. David's Desire Denied (vv. 8-10).
While fully appreciating David's motive, the Lord disapproved his plan. The rejection of his plan was not because of his nonappreciation of David, for he had taken him from the lowest walks of life and elevated him to the highest place among men. He assured him also that the cause would not suffer because of this change of plan. Two reasons may be assigned for God's prohibition of David's plan.

1. David was a man of war (1 Chron. 22:8; 23:3).
Since the kingdom of God is to be a peaceful kingdom, it was not fitting that a man of war should build the capital city. This was not a reproach of David for being a man of war. The enemies of the Lord must of necessity be put down. No peace or rest could be to God's people till the enemies were subdued. It showed, rather, that David had done his work and that the time had now come for another to take up where he had left off, and push to completion.

2. The time and circumstances were not fully ripe.
God's house should be a great house, therefore it would require a man's best energies to build it. The nation's treasury was no doubt much depleted by the wars. Since much money would be required, ample time was necessary to enable the people to accumulate funds.

III. The Lord Pledged Himself to Do More Than David Proposed (vv. 9-13).

1. David was to have a great name (v. 8).
David's name has gone down in history as one of the great men of the earth. It was a long way from herding his father's sheep to the throne of this great kingdom.

2. Israel to be established in a central place (v. 9).
The nation was not again to be moved away, nor to be wasted by the children of wickedness. Peaceful possession of the land was to be enjoyed. This looks to a future day.

3. He was to enjoy God's continued favor and help (v. 10).
All his enemies were to be subdued.

4. Perpetuation of the kingdom in David's line (vv. 11-14).
(1) "Build thee a house."
This means a granting unto him of a posterity, a family line. David proposed to build a temple as a place in which to worship God. God proposed to establish the kingdom in David's line. This was to be perpetuated in David's seed after him. This was partially fulfilled in Solomon, but was more largely fulfilled in Christ.

(2) "Establish his throne" (v. 12).
This means the placing of him in a position of royal authority.

(3) The kingdom was to be perpetual (vv. 13, 14).
He was to be settled in his kingdom forever. Disobedience to God would be visited with chastisement (II Sam. 7:15), but the covenants were not to be abrogated. Chastisement followed, but David's seed is destined to occupy the throne (Luke 1:31-33; Acts 13:14-17).

IV. David's Worship (vv. 16-27).
In his actual worship, note:
1. His humility (vv. 16-18).
Those who really worship God approach Him with great humility.

2. His praise (vv. 19, 20).
Out of a heart of gratitude he praised God for His faithfulness and grace.

3. His gratitude (vv. 21, 22).
He had an appreciation of God's fidelity and expressed his gratitude to Him for it.

4. His petition (vv. 23-27).
All praise and expressions of gratitude but lead up to the offering of definite petitions to God.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Amanda Hill, former Allegan county demonstration agent, to Earl Berry was received this week. The marriage took place in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hill of Coral, August 10. Mr. Berry is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Berry of Monterey and is superintendent of schools in New Troy. Mrs. Berry taught home economics in the Traverse City schools the past year.

Mr. Albert H. Timmer of Redlands, Cal., celebrated his fifty-fourth birthday at his cottage on 32nd St., and expects to return to California the latter part of September. Among those who helped them celebrate were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Timmer, Mrs. Wm. Hop, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hop, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Luidens, Mr. and Mrs. John Vanderzwaag, Mr. and Mrs. John Veenberg and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bezelman. Mr. Timmer was presided with a beautiful fountain and a very enjoyable evening the guests departed at a late hour.

City's Radio Broadcasting Station Has Moved From the Warm Friend Tavern To Locate in Masonic Temple

Holland's own radio station WHBM has moved to its new location in the Masonic temple. The managers of the station stated that the move was not because of the local people to watch the broadcasting. The public is invited to come to the main auditorium of the temple to watch the process. Holland is very fortunate in having such a powerful station as WHBM. With the new radio law in effect, the small cities have a hard time getting a station. Manager E. S. Davis states that the station will stay in the temple until the 24th of September. If possible, the local station will become a part of the national network.

Holland's station, with its increase of watt power, will reach out to both coasts. Telegrams and calls have been received from all parts of the middle west, together with numerous letters, cards and notices.

Tonight's program will be one of good music and art. "Chuck" Snyder, with his Sauterback Barry orchestra, will give a popular selection program. The requests of last week will be filled. "Chuck" has added two new players to his already large organization. Kenneth Godeschal, saxophone player, and Frank Harrington, trombone artist, will be with the orchestra tonight. The addition of these two players will make the dance band one of the biggest and best in this part of the state.

The Trinity male quartet will also be on the program with several request numbers and new selections. These boys have been singing together for years and are rated as one of the best in Western Michigan. They have sung for large audiences and are well received over the air. The station's new phone number is 2316.

WHITE HOUSE REMODELING IS FINISHED

Remodeling of the White House has been completed and the job accepted. It is announced. The new roof is firmly in place, the attic rebuilt, and all that remains to be done is some painting, dusting and replacing the furniture. Everything will be ready for President and Mrs. Coolidge to move right in when they return from their vacation next month.

LOCAL WOMAN GETS RADIOGRAM

Mrs. Zuverink, 322 River Avenue, received a message via radio from her son George Kronmeyer who is ill at Albuquerque, New Mexico. The message stated that George was getting better.

The radiogram came directly from Albuquerque through the station of Russell Sakkers, 53 East 7th Street, who is a member of the American Radio Relay League. A regular schedule is being made with the station in Albuquerque and no doubt more messages will be received.

SUNNYCREST GIRLS STAGE FINE PROGRAM

A Holland club was to have given a program at the Macawa hotel Friday night but announced almost at the last minute that they could not come. So the management called on the Sunnycrest school for girls to fill the gap and they responded with a program that was all the more appreciated because it was provided on short notice.

Miss Fay Carlyle impersonated a gypsy. Miss Partige an Irish woman. Ruth Gear a wood imp, and Miss Partige also gave a dance. The program was in charge of Miss Helen Clarke.

Tonight the American Legion will give a program at the Macawa hotel Tuesday night the Holland Exchange club; Wednesday night there will be a mock wedding dance; and Thursday night the Grand Rapids sea scouts will give a concert followed by a lawn dance.

C. D. M. GUESSES ABOUT MOST POPULAR DUTCH FIRST NAME

A remarkable discovery has been made. It has been discovered that the name with a prefix of "Van" or "Voor" or "Vander" is the favorite one in the city of Holland.

It doesn't say but we presume the favorite first name might be Gerrit. C. D. M. in Muskegon Chronicle.

Dr. Raymond L. Zwemer of Harvard is visiting his aunts, the Misses Zwemer, 353 Central Avenue. Dr. Zwemer, who received his Ph. D. from Yale and is a graduate also of Hope College, has been doing special work the past year at Harvard. He has just returned from a trip through Texas. Dr. Zwemer is a son of Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Zwemer.

Mr. and Mrs. T. DenUyl and son, Tony, and Miss Cornelia Leys of Holland, spent Tuesday in the city, calling at Blodgett hospital to see Miss Nellie Den Uyl, who is a nurse there, and who had the misfortune of being badly burned on her leg with hot water last week. Mr. T. Den Uyl is a brother of Mrs. Nagelkirk of Sweet street, N. W.—Creston News.

ONLY ONE THIRD OF CHILDREN IN SUNDAY SCHOOL

Only one-third of the children of Allegan county are regular attendants in the Sunday schools of that county or regularly enrolled pupils. This rather startling fact was brought out Friday in a stirring address delivered by Henry K. Boer, of Hamilton, president of the Allegan county Sunday school association, at the annual picnic of all the denominations of the county at the Allegan county park.

Mr. Boer's subject was "Reaching the Unreached," which is the official slogan of the county Sunday school association. He brought out the fact that although a great deal of very good work has been done and is being done in the Sunday schools of all denominations in Allegan county, the fact that only a third of all the pupils are Sunday school attendants is a challenge to those who believe in the Sunday school as a great social force for good.

Mr. Boer gave a large amount of information in his address in regard to the Sunday school conditions in Allegan county. He has studied this subject for a long time and in his capacity as head of the organization he has had opportunity to get into close first-hand touch with the situation. Mr. Boer, whose home is in Hamilton, is available at all times by any Sunday school in any denomination in the county to assist in straightening out difficulties or to help in any other way that will advance Sunday school work in Allegan county.

All the denominations were represented at the picnic Friday, which was an all-day affair. Refreshments were served and a day of recreation was indulged in. Dr. House, of Saugus, superintendent of Sunday schools of the northwest section of the county, served as chairman of the day.

Drives are being held for all sorts of things, Mr. Boer said in his address, for farm bureaus and poultry advancement and other things, which are very much needed in Allegan county. He stated that he would have as its purpose to reach the unreached children and bring them into the Sunday school.

TELLS CLUB OF BALLOON TRIP

Rev. W. C. Timmons, pastor of the First Congregational church, at Missouri, was one of the guests of the Rotary club Thursday noon at Warm Friend Tavern. Mr. Timmons told of an interesting trip that he took in a balloon when he was in Europe. The captain of the American balloon competing in the international balloon race at Brussels was Mr. Honeywell, also of St. Louis, and Timmons was an hour the captain induced the factor of his church to take the trip up acting as his aide.

Mr. Timmons stated that he was slow in returning on such a hazardous undertaking and stated that he did not realize the dangers that such a trip entailed. He told of the thrills that it gives one on an initial trip, and also the awe-inspiring sights that come to view in an air voyage. He said that the balloon in question was 18,000 feet up and finally landed in Spain.

The Rotary club Thursday had many guests of prominence, who were introduced by President Thomas N. Robinson. The guests were Dr. J. L. Tuechter of Cincinnati, O., Jim Anderson of Chicago, Bob Triplette, of Owensboro, Ky.; Geo. D. Benton of Ypsilanti, J. N. Evans, Joplin, Ill., Noble R. Jones, St. Louis, Mo., Fred Adolph of St. Clair and Rev. Raymond Eusden of Boston.

CONSERVATION TOUR PLANNED

On Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 23 and 24, a reforestation and conservation tour of interest to farmers will be held in Roscommon county by the extension department of Michigan State college.

A great deal of interest is being taken by counties along the west shore of Michigan in the reforestation of lands unsuited to other farming purposes. Any Ottawa or Allegan county property owners who are interested in reforestation should place their orders for trees with the Forestry department of Michigan State college at this time, for next spring planting. The number of seedlings available will not meet the demand and the orders placed first will receive first attention.

Michigan white pine is highly regarded for Ottawa and Allegan counties. A total of 70,000 seedlings have been set in 700 acres county this spring.

Anyone wishing further information concerning reforestation can get in communication with the county agent.

BEGIN WORK SOON ON SANATORIUM

Plans for the $50,000 addition to the Muskegon county sanatorium overlooking the Muskegon river valley are now being completed by Frank S. Forster, Muskegon architect.

The addition will be about 160 feet long and of irregular shape. It will be two stories high and will correspond in architecture and building materials used with the original $100,000 structure.

When completed, the addition will provide about 30 more beds for the hospital. About 50 patients are now being cared for at the institution, but conditions are crowded so that there will be accommodations for only 65 or 70 patients in the remodeled institution. Part of the space now used for regular patients will be used for the nurses until a suitable building can be erected for them.

The Strom Construction company built the original hospital and Mr. Forster drew the plans. Plans for the addition will be completed about the middle of August so that bids can be called, contracts let and construction started by about Sept. 1.

The board of supervisors by voting a one-quarter mill tax for the next year expect to raise about $25,000 toward the new addition. Another $25,000 is now on hand from the regular maintenance fund raised by a similar tax.

The Muskegon institution has been visited on several occasions since it was built four years ago by delegations from other states who were planning to erect similar sanatorium buildings. It is still considered one of the most up-to-date hospitals of its kind in the state.

MUSKEGON SETS SHAFT TO MEMORY OF OFFICER WHO SLEW ANDERSON

As a tribute from the city of Muskegon to a brave officer who died in the performance of his duty, a marble shaft, simply inscribed, has been placed on the grave of Charles D. Hammond, detective who was killed in a gun battle with George "Dutch" Anderson, two years ago next month. City officials had originally planned to place the shaft on the spot where Hammond and Anderson engaged in their memorable mortal combat in the rear of the city hall. The plan was later abandoned and the shaft placed over the grave in Oakwood cemetery.

HUMAN BONES ARE FOUND IN HOLLAND HARBOR

During the recent dredging operations on the channel at Macatawa the diver in charge brought up some large bones which he at once delivered to those of the human body, supposedly of an Indian. The bones were found in the slip dug for the new coast guard boat coming next month. The bones were dried and it appears there is a difference of opinion as to whether they are real bones or are wood. Doctors who know bones say they are bones. All agree that whether wood or bones, they are pathway superstition in age map will have to be called in.

SHOWS ALLEGAN ROADS BUSY

In a twenty-four hour count of traffic at various points along highways in Allegan county made under the direction of R. A. Morris, state highway superintendent in the county, large traffic on several roads was shown. A constant traffic during every hour of the twenty-four was noted on M-89. The count as recorded was:

US-131, 3,849; S-131, 3,728; M-40 west of Martin, 782; M-40, Gobles, south 4 miles, 711; US-131, Moline, south 1 mile, 2,686; M-89, 3 miles west of Otsego, 1,869; M-89, 1½ miles west of Allegan, 1,022 from intersection of C. Vandenberg and M-89 D. Allegan, 1,783; Beeline north 1½ miles west of Allegan, 885; US-31, west of Fennville, 3,786; M-89, west of Fennville, 961.

Chloride will be placed on state highway soon, Mr. Morris states.

EAST HOLLAND MAN IS DEAD

John Brinkman, aged 73, a resident of East Holland, died Friday evening at the home of his son, John Brinkman, Jr., 402 Lincoln avenue. He is survived by one son and one daughter.

The funeral was held Tuesday at one o'clock, fast time, at the home of C. Vandenberg, at East Holland, and at 1:30 at the Ebenezer church. Interment will be in the Holland township cemetery.

OTHERS HELPING MACATAWA IN ITS COMEBACK

Earnest Brooks, president of the Holland Exchange club, and Secretary A. E. Lampen, together with the executive committee, have decided that the local club will do its share with the other clubs in helping Macatawa to come back. What the plans are is told in the following announcement sent out by the officers:

"In order to popularize Macatawa Park, and bring the resort back to its proper ranking as Western Michigan's foremost play-ground, various organizations in Holland have been asked to provide short evening programs for the balance of the season. "Tuesday, August 16th, has been assigned to the Exchange club. An entertaining program of local talent, whom we have all enjoyed so many times, and who we know will be a treat to the resorters, is being arranged. The program will be given on the front lawn of the hotel. Dancing for those who enjoy it follows, but it is not a part of our program. "Drive down with your family. The Exchange club alone can make an appreciative audience. Crowds is what is wanted at Macatawa, and Holland itself can materially help in bringing them. If we go, others will go, and we are the greatest assets, the resorters. You are going to drive some where, why not to Macatawa, Tuesday, August 16th, at 8:00 P. M."

Weller Orchestra Gives Good Concert

The Weller orchestra over WHBM was well received by the radio public Friday night. They wish to state that they will be on the air every week as long as WHBM stays in Holland. They will try to fill as many requests as possible. Mrs. H. VanMeurs stated that the requests she could not fill Friday night would be given to the people next week. If any one has any request, write or call WHBM. Tonight's program will be of a miscellaneous type, piano selections, harmonica solos and orchestra music. Requests will be filled tonight. Bill will not present a running story of any ball game today but will give races and like features will be the subject tonight.

HEINZ OFFICIALS VISIT HOLLAND

Substant Muller, vice president of the H. J. Heinz company, Mr. Thomas McCafferty and Jack Heinz, son of Howard Heinz, president of the company, all of Pittsburgh, were in Holland looking over the company's local plant.

They were the guests of James A. Hoover, local manager, and remained for two days, when they left for Saginaw. Jack Heinz, a young man of 19 years, was sent here by his father to remain a month and watch the workings of the business in order to become better acquainted with the large industry established by his grandfather, Mr. J. H. J. Heinz.

Mr. Jack Heinz will return to Holland Monday to begin his month's stay in this city at the Holland plant.

THE HEART of the HOME

If home is to have that gripping influence that holds us secure in life's most treacherous storms, it must be cozy. Some folks live in homes—others in houses. And it is not difficult to tell to which class a person does belong, is it?

The person whose life is strengthened by a happy, cozy home is one that we all admire.

He is one that can smile in the face of any struggle. He is a person who fills the rest of us with confidence. That is the kind of character that we all want to have. So let's strengthen our home influence all we can. Let's start with the HEART OF THE HOME.

NEW FORD CAR REACHES FINAL TESTING STAGE

Definite assurance that the "new Ford automobile" is now an accomplished fact was made Thursday in the following official announcement by Edsel B. Ford:

"The new Ford automobile is now an accomplished fact. The engineering problems affecting its design and equipment and affecting also its manufacture had all been solved."

"But before a single car of the new type is offered for sale to the public each part will have been tested under every condition which we have been able to discover in more than 20 years of building automobiles for use all over the world."

"We know now exactly what this new car is. We have built a number of these cars and they have been performing even better than we had hoped for under a variety of conditions."

"We know also what is needed as to personnel and factory equipment in order to produce these new Ford cars in greater numbers than any manufacturer has ever attempted before. The work of retooling our plants throughout the country to prepare for the heaviest production schedule we have ever undertaken, is now nearly complete."

"But we realize that any new automobile that is to gain and hold public esteem today, whether it shall sell for $500 or $10,000, must perform exactly as it is designed to perform. No automobile manufacturer, in this day and time, should allow the public to do his testing and proving for him. The Ford Motor company cannot afford to permit the automobile user to discover imperfections in these new models."

"We haven't discovered any faults in the finished new Ford car, but we are taking nothing for granted. If there are any faults they shall be found and remedied before any of the cars are offered for sale."

"When the Model T Ford car was designed more than 20 years ago, no one could foresee the wide variety of conditions under which it would operate. It did not occur to us that that automobile would be expected to perform as satisfactorily in Alaska as in South Africa. We knew little about the varying effects of climatic conditions in Boston and in Colon, and we knew nothing of the conditions of the automobile in the tropics."

"The building and testing of the first new cars is costing millions of dollars. But it will give us the complete assurance that we are offering the public a car tested and proven as a new car should be."

"Some of the things we have discovered already in the tests of these new cars are interesting."

"We have accomplished with them a speed of 65 miles per hour—which is slightly higher than we expected."

"We have found that they can be driven for hours at an average speed of more than 50 miles per hour, without discomfort to driver and passengers and without harm to motor and other equipment."

"In a recent test one of these new cars was driven 110 miles in two hours. During the first half hour the car traveled 27 miles. The car covered exactly 56.1 miles the first hour of the trip."

"This test was made over average road conditions. Part of the route lay through level country and part through hill country where the roads were steep and winding. The day on which the test was made was somewhat warmer than the average summer day in this part of the country, but the motor was not overheated during the run and examination of the motor at the conclusion of the run disclosed no ill effects. The car consumed less gasoline and oil during the test than any of our previous models we have put to similar tests."

"The ignition, cooling and carburetion systems performed perfectly throughout the trip."

"We have tested this new car for getaway and pickup with many other types of automobiles and have found that it surpasses all of them with one exception in quick starting and acceleration. The tests already made show that it is faster, smoother, more rugged and more flexible than we had hoped for in the early stages of designing."

"We have known from the beginning that this new Ford would be a handsome car. Experiments have been made with a wide variety of color schemes and body designs and all these have been decided upon."

"When this car is formally introduced within the next few weeks, we shall be able to say that it is the best and most moderate priced automobile we know how to build."

"It is further ordered that public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing in the Holland City News, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county."

APPEALS TO POLICE TO FIND HER WOODEN LEG

Muskegon police have been asked to assist in a search for a wooden leg, without which Mrs. Rose LeMay of Marinette, Wis., is hopelessly handicapped.

The artificial limb and necessary appurtenances were in a suitcase which Mrs. LeMay believes was lost on Ottawa st., or on the Holton rd. Police asked that anyone having knowledge of the suitcase, valuable only to the owner, communicate with them.

Loses Wallet

But It Was Not The Real One

Bill Woldring, the local plumber, was at Grand Rapids right on the dot Friday to see Lindy. He not only saw Lindy but shook hands with him. But that is not all. While he was milling around in the crowd to meet the Lone Eagle, a "dip" in the mob took a small pocket book from his hip pocket. Bill is smiling today, however, for it wasn't the wallet in which he carried his money. The pocket book in question contained only his driving license and a pack of business cards. The pick pockets will now know what firm does good plumbing in the city of Holland, and will no doubt send the Holland man a card of thanks.

ELEVEN BUSES TO BE RUN DAILY BY INTERURBAN LINE

Practically hourly service for 12 hours daily between Muskegon and Grand Rapids and Muskegon and Grand Haven is provided in the new schedule of the Grand Rapids, Grand Haven & Muskegon railway was made public today by F. L. Vaughan of Grand Rapids, general manager of the interurban road.

Inauguration of combined electric and motor coach service within a week is planned by the G. R. G. H. & M. road which recently emerged victor in a court contest started by the Safety Motor Coach lines seeking to have set aside an order issued by the Michigan public utilities commission authorizing the interurban to operate buses between terminal cities.

The schedule announced is subject to change before taking effect.

Through ticket connection between the Shore Line Motor Coach company and the interurban is possible when the electric road starts motor coach operations.

Eleven coaches and five electric cars will leave Muskegon for Grand Rapids between 5 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. Six coaches will leave Muskegon for Grand Haven between 6:40 a. m. and 8:15 p. m.

COLLECT $131,000 ON LAST DAY OF THE TAX PERIOD

The annual mid-summer tax campaign came to a close in Holland Monday evening at nine o'clock when the office of the treasurer closed for the day. The tax gathering had been in progress for six weeks, but in spite of that fact the large sum of $131,000 had to be collected the final day. This amount was outstanding on Monday morning, out of a total of $449,000.

The $131,000 did not include the tax bills of the two largest corporations in Holland, which had paid up on Saturday. It included some large accounts but also an unusually large number of relatively small ones. Monday was the hardest day of the campaign for the city treasurer and his assistants and at the close of the day's work they were more than ready to rest. The close of the tax gathering period coincided with the last day of grace for paying light bills and so there was double work for the city treasurer's force.

The office was engaged today in opening the tax mail that came in Monday but that could not be attended to that day. All checks mailed on Monday, bearing the postmark of August fifteenth, are counted as being on time, even if they did not arrive in the office until the morning of the sixteenth. This policy has always been followed by Holland's city treasurer.

No estimate could be formed today in the treasurer's office as to the amount that will have to be returned as delinquent taxes. It will take more than today to clear the decks of the accumulated work that resulted from the congestion of the last few days. Much routine work had to be neglected to take care of the tax payers who came in streams the last day or two and it will take some time to check up the accounts. Usually in the neighborhood of $10,000 remains uncollected and calls for a collection fee.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR THREE OLD RESIDENTS OF ALLEGAN COUNTY

Mrs. Molly Gould White, 66, old resident of Allegan, passed away in her home Monday morning. Services were held Tuesday morning from Frost-Gordon funeral home, after which the body was sent to Cincinnati, her former home, for burial. She is survived by one son, Gould M. White.

Burial services were held Monday afternoon for Charles H. Mann, 67, of Monterey Center, who dropped dead in the yard of his home last Saturday.

Interment was made in Poplar Hill cemetery and services were held from the Monterey church, Allegan county. Ezra W. Knowlton, 68, was buried from the Frost-Gordon funeral home Sunday at 3 o'clock. The widow and a son survive.

SPRING LAKE HAS BLAZE SUNDAY

A grass fire on the DeVries property near Spring Lake and within the village limits, had a good start Sunday when it was noticed about eleven a. m. The fire department was called and the services of several boys returning from Sunday school were enlisted.

As the property was in close proximity to a group of cottages, the fire at once became a menace. The volunteers fought the flames until three o'clock in the afternoon and finally got it under sufficient control to prevent further damage.

CONFERENCE TO OPEN THURSDAY

The third annual Bible conference will open at Pine Lodge on Thursday, August 18, at 7:30 o'clock Rev. Leander S. Keyser, D. D., professor of Biblical Theology of the Hama Divinity school, Springfield, Ohio, will give the opening lecture. Dr. Keyser is one of the real big men in the church, broadly and progressively orthodox. This should insure a large attendance at the opening night. An additional attraction will be fine special music furnished by some of the best local talent. No admission charges.

FENNVILLE LEADS IN 1926 SEASON APPLE SHIPMENTS

Fennville was the leading shipping point for Michigan apples for the 1926 crop season, a compilation recently completed by R. H. Shoemaker, federal and state market reporter and published in bulletin form at Washington. Total shipments for the 1926-27 season reached 375 cars. Bangor was second with 344 cars. South Haven took third place in order. Total shipments were 4,304. This includes the equivalent of 723 cars to Chicago and 166 to Milwaukee forwarded by boat.

Chicago as usual was the largest purchaser of Michigan apples as far as common carrier shipments are concerned. Rail shipments amounted to 835 cars in addition to the equivalent of 723 cars which were forwarded by boat. Detroit received 252 cars although the bulk of the deliveries are made by truck of which there is no accurate record. Milwaukee received 95 cars by rail delivery in addition to the boat shipments. Toledo received 166 cars of Michigan apples.
