Saturday is clean-up day for Holland if it does not rain. We hope it rains, as we need it, but if it doesn't—then clean up!

STEPHAN RESIGNS

E. P. Stephan, who was elected last Wednesday evening by the common council as one of the two new members on the board of supervisors provided for by the new charter, has resigned. He believes in government by the people and for the people, but the best explanation of his resignation that we can offer, is the resignation itself which follows:—
To the Honorable

The Mayor and The Common Council of the City of Holland:
Gentlemen: I herewith tender my resignation as Supervisor.

After thoroughly considering the responsibilities and duties connected with the office, and what was expected of me, I have come to this conclusion:

If I should go to Grand Haven I would vote for the resubmission of the County Road System to the people, and as I have reasons to believe that I was appointed on account of a belief and conviction that I would oppose same, which conclusion was justly based upon statements made by myself before my appointment, I do not feel that I can honorably accept the office. "A public office is a public trust" and the man who accepts the responsibility of representing the people in any capacity must lay aside personalities and prejudices and truly and earnestly endeavor to reflect the wishes and desires of those whom he represents.

I do not wish to accept an office at your hands under a misapprehension, and I therefore tender my resignation, giving you the opportunity to elect someone else if my decision does not meet with your approval.

Respectfully yours,
E. P. Stephan.

YOUTH SACRIFICES LIFE TO SAVE HIS FIANCEE AND CHUM

Sweetheart, A Detroit Girl, Leads Him To Fate

After saving the lives of his sweetheart, Miss Teresa Miller, of 728 Cass avenue, Detroit, and his chum, Arthur Cook of Gobolville, Michigan, Hal Souter, 19 years old, of Shelby Mich., well known in this city, was drowned after a desperate struggle Friday evening in Little Traverse bay, just off Harbor Point.

Several employees of the Harbor Point club house were surf bathing and Miss Miller accepted a dare to go a considerable distance beyond her depth. The watchers saw her disappear from view and then a cry awoke them to her danger.

Cook Leaps To Rescue

Cook at once leaped to the rescue, but was unable to combat the waves, and went under. By that time Souter had reached the scene. In a miraculous manner he kept the two drowning persons afloat until "Billy" Bailey, engineer at the club house and the Harbor Point life saver, went to the rescue, and bore them ashore, being obliged to leave Souter, who was keeping afloat, although exhausted.

Miss Miller was quickly revived, but it required an hour of earnest work on the part of Harbor Springs physicians to restore Cook.

Hero Is Forgotten

In the excitement, Souter, the hero of the occasion, was forgotten, and it was several minutes before some one sighted his body floating near the shore. Three hours failed to bring him to consciousness, and it was finally ascertained that all attempts were futile.

Souter expected to begin his sophomore year at Albion next fall, and had been studying during the present summer, when his duties as porter at the club house gave him time.

Cook is 23 years old, and steward at the club house, and Miss Miller is a diningroom girl. Both the rescued persons are doing nicely, but hundreds of summer visitors are mourning the death of Souter who was a favorite all over the Point.

The body was sent to his home at Shelby as soon as word was received from there. He is well known in Holland and has relatives here. He is the son of A. E. Souter, of Shelby and a nephew of the late George H. Souter of this city.

ZEELAND BOY RUNS AWAY

Monday, Marshal Zwemer of Saugatuck received notice to look out for a young boy who had run away from home last week in Zeeland. Upon investigation he found in one of the river camps young Richard VanLoo, about fifteen years of age. He was taken into custody and held until Tuesday when his father came and took him home.

Put In New Block Signals

The Pere Marquette railroad is installing a system of block signals along their lines where there are bad curves and where trainmen can see but a short distance ahead. These blocks are placed a mile apart. When a train enters one a signal is thrown up warning trains following. If the train is running more than twenty miles an hour the signal stays up three minutes. As long as the train remains in the block the signal stays up.

NEW PECK MEASURES

The state dairy and food commissioner has announced that the bottomless peck measure, one that beats the consumer out of about three pounds of potatoes or apples must go Aug. 15. This measure contains the same number of cubic inches as the ordinary flat peck measure but because of its stove-pipe shape it is impossible to get a peck of potatoes or apples into it. Its use after Aug. 15 is condemned. The use of liquid, quart measures in selling such commodities as beans or anything not liquid is also prohibited, and violations will invite prosecution after the 15th of this month.

IT IS ALL TANGO, TANGO

Saugatuck Commercial. — The "Tango" has met with such general approval among dancers that they can't stop dancing it. They don't have time enough to do it at night at the Big Pavilion but they have to do it on the streets and the pedestrians can walk with the horses in the middle of the road. We are told that the dance originated among the barbarians and we believe some of our young people of today can give the originators pointers in the art for we can hardly imagine more ungraceful manners than we see at times on the street by those who apparently think themselves quite smart.

TEN-MILLION-DOLLAR CASH DIVIDEND

A ten-million-dollar cash dividend, if the report is true, on the tenth anniversary of a great manufacturing business, the Ford Motor Company, is a feature of more than passing interest in both the financial and manufacturing world. It is true that the development of a new market has in part made such a stupendous business possible; but in the same time many other automobile manufacturers have come and gone; only a few, in fact, have prospered largely. Part of the success of the Ford company is also due to the making of a low-priced car; but other have made cheap cars too. But after all other factors have been considered and their respective importance weighed, it must be conceded that the personal equation is the concentration in perfecting a system of efficiency.

AEROPLANE MEN HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL IN HOLLAND

E. O. Weeks, the aviator whose machine has been at the Fair Grounds for the last two weeks, attempted a flight to Saugatuck, Sunday, at about 9:30, and the many churchgoers of this city were astounded to see about 4000 feet in the air an aeroplane going westward. Directly over the partially completed new high school, spectators saw the machine become submerged in a thick cloud and for about two minutes it was entirely lost to view. This is one of the dangers that an aviator desires to avoid, as he must, in order to keep his bearings, always be able to see the ground.

Directly after entering the cloud, Mr. Weeks sailed back toward the Fair Grounds, not wishing to take a chance while the clouds hung so low. Monday, however, he made a successful flight to Saugatuck in twelve minutes. While there he gave an exhibition, and returned last evening to Holland, in fifteen minutes.

The aeroplane has been taken apart and shipped to Chicago, enroute to Grand Fort, Colorado, where Weeks is booked for a three day's engagement. In view of the hard luck the aeroplane boys have had in and around Holland, it is certainly to their credit that we have been treated to a grand aviation exhibition. During the last two weeks there was not a day that Mr. Weeks did not make a flight and it is safe to say that he has been seen in flight by every man, woman and child in Holland.

To William G. Johnston, of Bushnell, Illinois, is due in large measure, the fact that Holland people were given their money's worth in this first attempt at an aviation meet.

An appeal will be taken to Circuit court.

SPRICK LIVERY IS SOLD

Bronsema & Griswold The New Owners

Henry Sprick veteran horseman and livery owner of Grand Haven, well known in Holland, sold his barn and most of his horses yesterday to William Bronsema, an employee, and Frank Griswold, a former barnman, in D. E. Riley's place for many years.

The new owners took complete charge yesterday morning and will improve the business as rapidly as possible. It is the only livery in Grand Haven at the present time and there is an excellent chance for the two men which they have not been slow to realize. Mr. Strick will undoubtedly retire from active business.

Prosecutor Goes to Springfield

Prosecuting Attorney Louis H. Osterhaus left last night for Springfield, Ill., to appear today in a hearing before Governor Dunne of Illinois, concerning the extradition of James Carlin and Thomas Flannigan, two Chicago detectives for whom warrants were issued upon complaint of Charles Shartenberg. Shartenberg claims that he and his wife were kidnapped from Macatawa July 28, and taken to Chicago, locked up in a stateroom of the steamer Grand Rapids.

Mr. Osterhaus received a message from him last night concerning the hearing and left for the Illinois capitol as soon as possible.

Next Saturday afternoon the ladies of the Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will hold a sale of home baked goods at the millinery parlors of Mrs. Nellie Toren.

TELEPHONE EAVES DROPPERS PUT TO SHAME

Eavesdroppers on a party line near Portland started a wild rumor afloat last week when they fell for a neatly laid plan by some of the subscribers who wanted to find out just who it was, had been butting in on every conversation on the line for the purpose of grabbing off an ear full of chatter. The two neighbors who were plotting, began a conversation and in the course of their talk one of them told of how a neighbor's boy had just been drowned at the Commonwealth dam. In about thirteen minutes by the watch there were several neighbor's rigs headed for the dam to view the remains and tender their sympathies to the stricken parents. It is easy to imagine what their feelings were when they took a tumble to themselves.

ENORMOUS CATCHES OF FLIES

Charles H. Holt of Kalamazoo was in Allegan early in the week in the interest of his fly-trap trade, being represented here by Samuel Blain. They have placed seven large traps, some of which have been shown on the streets with surprising big swarms of captured flies. They have capacity enough for several millions. There are some amazing figures given for the number of flies captured in some of the cities of the country. By count of portions and corresponding measurements it was found that in Redlands, California, in 23 days in 100 traps, 3,750,000 were taken. In another city fifty gallons of dead flies were measured out from the traps.

W. H. Orr has been confined to his home for a few days with illness.

They left last night on the G. & M. boat for Chicago for a short visit. From there they will go to the Mackinac Islands. They will make their home near Zeeland.

John Hannan, aged 56, walked away from the Jackson prison farm in Jackson yesterday between 7 and 8 o'clock p. m. It is believed he will be caught because he is a cripple and easily detected. Hannan went there from Ottawa county in 1911, for from five to ten years and was a trusty.

ONE MAN FROM EACH PARTY IS GIVEN AN OFFICE BY COUNCIL

That the common council is already acting on the hint given by the people when they voted for non-partisanship by adopting the new city charter seems to be shown by the appointments made Wednesday evening. Many a reader who saw the cuts of Ben Mulder, Fred Jackson, E. P. Stephan and Henry Brusse doubtless noted the fact that each of the four political parties in Holland was represented, Mulder being a republican, Jackson a socialist, Stephan a Progressive and Brusse a democrat.

PRESENT PRESIDENT NOW TO BE SEEN IN POSTOFFICE GALLERY.

A very beautiful photograph of President Woodrow Wilson has been hung in the Holland postoffice along with pictures of Taft, Roosevelt and McKinley. Postmaster VanSchelen has always taken great pride in making the postoffice spick and span in every respect and it is considered one of the best conducted institutions of its kind in the state.

Mr. Van Schelven is now serving under the third president, having been appointed some sixteen years ago by McKinley. Each president he has honored with a picture on the wall, and Wilson has now been added, although the present president is not of the postmaster's political persuasion.

Instead of Paying Fines Overweg and Van Roosendal Get Out Of Town

David Overweg and Lois Van Roosendal have turned up missing and it looks as if the county will be out about $20 in fines. These young men were sentenced to pay ten dollar fines by Justice Sooy a few days ago and were given a little time to raise the money. The boys seem determined enough as they left the office but their designation must have been not to pay the fine instead of a determination to raise the money. Instead of raising money for fines they raised what money they could for railroad fares and put a wide distance between themselves and the local police.

Two Men Whose Names Have Not Been Learned Came Near Drowning

Two men in a canoe came near drowning at Macatawa Sunday afternoon when a big sea struck their canoe and upset it. The names of the men have not been learned. They were paddling beyond the piers when a big wave spilled them into the water. The life savers arrived, but G. Peason and Charlie Vander Hall, who were out in Skinner's minnow boat had come to the rescue and had brought the men to shore.

MISS MARIE COLLINS OF CHICAGO IS DRAWN INTO DEEP WATER BY UNDERTOW

Two Companions Also Came Near Losing Their Lives Friday Afternoon

Miss Marie Collins, of Chicago 21 years old, found death at the bathing beach at Saugatuck Friday afternoon when she went beyond her depth. Miss Collins with two young men companions, was in bathing at the beach when the three are supposed to have been drawn beyond their depth by the strong undertow that existed Friday. The rics for help were immediately needed by those on shore and every effort was made to save the men and the girl. One of the men came near drowning but he was finally rescued. But all efforts to reach the girl proved vain and she was carried away by the undertow.

A call for help was immediately sent to the Holland Life Saving crew and they arrived shortly after, but their efforts to find the body of the girl proved fruitless. Every effort was made Friday afternoon and evening to recover the body but it was not until Saturday morning that it was found. When found the body was lying in three feet of water.

The girl's home is in Chicago and her parents were immediately notified by telephone Friday afternoon. They arrived in Saugatuck Saturday morning and took charge of the body. Miss Collins had been spending a short time at Saugatuck at the Maplewood hotel.

This is the second drowning at Saugatuck this season, besides the accident of last week in which the dock collapsed, dashing Zeeland picnickers into the water, which came near resulting fatally.

M. VAN PUTTIN USES "SWEET FERN" TO CURE IT

No more hay fever at this season of the year when hay fever claims its thousands of victims if the remedy of a local man helps others as much as it does himself. M. Van Puttin declared that after having suffered with hay fever for twenty-five years he has discovered a remedy in what is called "sweet fern," a plant the leaves of which he declares furnish a remedy when put in the pillow case of the pillow used at night.

Mr. Van Puttin received this remedy from a traveling man who declared he had received it from an Indian many years ago. Mr. Van Puttin has often been asked about his remedy and he has given the fern to many sufferers. Lately he made a shipment of it as far away as Sioux Centre, Iowa.

CITY OF GRAND RAPIDS SLIGHTLY DAMAGES THE "BOLARIS"

The City of Grand Rapids coming into the harbor at 3:40 Sunday afternoon struck the sailboat "Bolaris", damaging the rail of the latter and causing other slight damage. The "Bolaris" was immediately ahead of the City of Grand Rapids on entering the harbor at Macatawa and near the Ottawa Beach hotel the sailboat turned right into the path of the steamer. The Grand Rapids backwatered as much as possible, but it could not avoid striking the "Bolaris." No one was injured.

GRANDMOTHER OF LITTLE BOY SAID TO HAVE TRIED TO TAKE HIM HOME

Dramatic Row Precipitated Friday Night And Child Is Kept In Holland

A feud in regard to the possession of two small children in this city came to light Friday evening when a Mrs. Smith of Waukazoo tried to take her grandchild, one of the little Smith boys at present stop ping with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vander Schel, 253 West Eleventh street, into her rig and take it home with her.

It is claimed she was passing the Vander Schel residence early in the evening with a rig and induced the boy to get into the rig with her. She then is said to have whipped up the horse and started to go, but one of the Vander Schel boys saw her and ran and caught hold of the back wheel. His sister came to his aid and finally Mr. Vander Schel rushed out of the house and demanded the child. He was greeted with a succession of blows with a horse whip by Mrs. Smith it is alleged. The end came when Mrs. Smith faintly away as a result of the excitement and the child was brought back to the Vander Schels.

The father of the two children is a traveling salesman and has left the children in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Vander Schel. The children have lived here since the death of their mother, sometime last winter, but their other grandmother, Mrs. Smith it is said did not approve of this, and being devoted to the children, she wished to have them stay with her always. They went to see her often and it is claimed that a few days ago she tried to detain them at her home near Waukazoo, but Mr. Vander Schel went after them and brought them back. No papers of adoption have been made out and the matter is in an unsettled state. Both sides claim an equal right to the children.

Holland Township Residents To Spend Three Months There

Mrs. J. Soer and daughter, Mrs. John Posma of Holland township left for New York. From there they will sail for the Netherlands to visit the former's sister and other relatives. They expect to be gone about three months and will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. T. Palmboos of Drenthe.

CHARLES OLSEN CLEANED HOUSE ON ALL HIS RELATIVES AT PARTY.

Was Arrested by Deputy Sheriff Dornbos and Fined $25—Other Arrests May Follow.

Charles Olsen of Zeeland was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Dornbos Monday charged with assault and battery on his father-in-law Mr. Dirk Wiersma of Zeeland. When arraigned before Justice Sooy, he pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs of $5. He paid and was released.

Both the Holland police officer were awakened from their slumbers about one o'clock Sunday morning with an urgent call to come to Zeeland because a man was on a rampage up there. The police told them to get Zeeland officers and Dornbos explained to them that all the cars had stopped running and that he would have to drive up which would mean a delay of over an hour and by that time he said all would be in bed.

The Zeeland man then informed him that it was all over anyway but they thought it would be better if he came up. Mr. Dornbos went up Monday to investigate the affair and found that Charles Olsen had in fact gone on a rampage at a private party of his friends and relatives and had badly battered practically everybody present including his father-in-law, father, two sisters, brother-in-law and others without receiving a scratch himself. Even one of the neighbors came in for his share. The relatives do not wish to make a complaint against any of the others in the party but other arrests may follow.

PROSPECTS ARE GOOD FOR FRUIT OF GOOD QUALITY.

The peach harvest is soon to commence and the crop this year so far as this section of Western Michigan is concerned promises to be of extra fine quality. The peaches that are growing in well cultivated orchards are the best this season because they have done better considering weather conditions. It is expected that these peaches will be of extra fine quality. The peaches that are growing in well cultivated orchards are the best this season because they have done better considering weather conditions. It is expected that these peaches will be of extra fine flavor and that they will ship much better than if the season had been a wet one. Shipments in quantities will begin about the 15th of this month and will continue until October.

The annual peach crop has always been a big factor in the Grand Rapids fruit market because there are thousands of fine peach orchards on the Kent count hills. Michigan has been advertised so hard during the past five years as a fruit section and as the section that produces fruit with flavor that it is believed the demand for peaches will be much stronger this year than has been the case in the past.

During the peach harvest it is a frequent thing to sell peaches by the car load in the local market and it is said that as many as fifty carloads have been sold in a single day.

THAT MOTTO TO BE PRINTED ON ALL FAIR PLACARDS

Directors Make Plans To Make Fair Come Up To Promise Of The Motto

"Bigger and Better" is the slogan that will appear on all the advertising matter of the Holland Fair this year. The advertising committee will get busy and get out a series of bills and placards that will be more ambitious than those ever gotten out before. But advertising will not be the only thing. The whole board of directors will make every possible effort to make the fair that is to be held September 16, 17, 18, and 19 come up to the promise of the "bigger and better" motto.

The directors of the fair went over to the grounds Thursday to pick out a sit for the new stables for horses. The stable will be built where the hog house is at present situated, the latter to be moved farther east. The new stable for horses will contain twenty box stalls and forty single stables. These stables will be for the horses that are brought to the fair for exhibition purposes.

The race track will be put into better shape than it has been in years. Considerable money will be spent in doing this work and conditions will be ideal for races. During past years the races of local horses have usually proved more popular than the races of outside horses. Because of this fact the directors have decided to confine the races as much as possible to local horses. There are a great many of these in this part of the state and some thrilling races will be pulled off.

A feature of the fair is expected to be the exhibition of the Lakewood Farm.

Last year the exhibit of this farm was one of the drawing cards of the fair and it was one of the finest exhibit ever seen there. The entire exhibit last year was made at Mr. Getz's own expense, which amounted to considerable for a large exhibit of this kind. The fair directors appreciated what it meant for the fair and they will make an effort to secure this exhibit again this year. They expect to call on Mr. Getz in a body and invite him to help in making the fair a success. They believe that he will be interested enough in the fair and in the agricultural development of these sections to accept their invitation.

AFTER TODAY MILK ORDINANCES WILL HAVE BACKING OF STATE

Holland's milk ordinance will get direct backing from the state law after today, when the new law in regard to milk and cream will go into effect. This law was passed by the last legislature and was approved May 8. It is the most stringent law that has yet been passed in regard to safeguarding the public against unclean milk and cream. The creameries and cheese factories come under the provisions of the law as well private individuals. How thoroughly the new law covers the field can be seen by reading the document itself, which reads as follows:

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

Section 1. For the purpose of this act, the term "milk" shall mean the fresh, clean, lacteal secretion obtained by the complete milking of one or more healthy cows, properly fed and kept, excluding that obtained within eight days before and four days after calving, and contain not less than eight and one-half per cent of solid not fat, and not less than three per cent of milk fat; and the term "cream" shall mean that portion of milk, rich in milk fat, which rises to the surface of milk on standing, or is separated from it by centrifugal force, is fresh and clean, and contains not less than eighteen per cent of milk fat. Milk which shall be drawn from cows that are kept in barns or stables which are not reasonably well lighted and ventilated, or that are kept in barns or stables that are filthy from an accumulation of animal feces and excreta or from any other cause, or milk which shall be drawn from cows which are themselves in a filthy condition; or milk kept or transported in dirty, rusty or open-seamed cans or other utensils; or milk that is stale, putrescent or putrid; or milk to which has been added any unclean, or unwholesome foreign substance; or milk which has been kept exposed to foul or noxious air or gases in barns occupied by animals, or kept exposed in dirty, foul or unclean places or conditions is hereby declared to be insanitary milk. Cream produced from any such aforesaid insanitary milk; or cream produced by the use of a cream separator, which separator had not been thoroughly washed, cleansed and scalded after previous use in the separation of cream from milk; or cream produced by the use of a cream separator placed or stationed in any unclean or filthy room or place or in any building containing a stable wherein are kept cattle or other animals, unless such cream separator is so separated and shielded by a partition from the stable portion of such building as to be free from all foul or noxious air or gases which issue or may issue from such place or stable; or cream that is stale, putrescent, or putrid; or cream that is kept or transported in dirty, rusty or open-seamed cans or other utensils; or cream which has been kept exposed to foul or noxious air or gases in barns occupied by animals, or in dirty, foul or unclean places or conditions, is hereby declared to be insanitary cream.

Sec. 2. No person shall by himself, his servant or agent, or as the servant or agent of any other person, or as the officer, servant or agent of any firm or corporation, sell or offer for sale, furnish or deliver, or have in possession or under his control with intent to sell or offer for sale, or furnish, or deliver, to any person, firm or corporation, as food for man, or to any creamery, cheese factory, milk-condensing factory, or milk or cream dealer, any insanitary milk or any insanitary cream.

Sec. 3. No person shall by himself, his servant or agent, or as the servant or agent of any other person, or as the servant or agent of any firm or corporation, manufacture for sale any article of food for man from any insanitary milk or from any insanitary cream.

Sec. 4. All premises and utensils used in the handling of milk, cream, and by-products of milk, and all premises and utensils used in the preparation, manufacture, or sale, or offering for sale of any food product for man from milk or cream or the by-products of milk, which shall be kept in an unclean, filthy or noxious condition are hereby declared to be insanitary. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation engaged in selling, or furnishing milk, cream or any by-products of milk, intended for use as food for man; and it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation engaged in selling or furnishing milk, cream, or any by-products of milk, to any creamery, cheese factory, milk condensing factory, or to any place where such milk, cream or by-products of milk are manufactured or prepared into a food product for man, and for sale as such; and it shall be unlawful for any milk dealer, or an employee of such milk dealer, or any person, firm or corporation, or the employ of such person, firm, or corporation, who operates a creamery, cheese factory or who manufactures or prepares for sale any article of food for man from milk, cream, or by product of milk, or who manufactures, reworks, or packs butter for sale as a food product, to maintain his premises and utensils in an insanitary condition.

Sec. 5. Any person, firm or corporation, not a common carrier who receives from a common carrier in cans, bottles or other vessels any milk, or cream, ice cream or other dairy product intended as food for man, which has been transported over any railroad or boat or boat line or by other common carrier, when such cans, bottles or vessels are to be returned, shall cause the said cans, bottles, or other vessels to be thoroughly washed and cleaned before return shipment.

Sec. 6. Any person who by himself, his servant or agent, or as the servant or agent of any other person, or as the officer servant or agent of any firm or corporation, who violates any provision of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail not more than sixty days.

HOLDS MEETING FOR THIS PURPOSE MONDAY AFTERNOON IN BOSTON RESTAURANT

Monday afternoon the ticket committee of the business men's chautauqua met at the Boston restaurant for the purpose of making the round up of the number of tickets sold.

During the forenoon the members of the committee called at the various factories and places of business where tickets had been left for sale in order to learn how many had been disposed of and this afternoon at the meeting the report was made.

While the bulk of the tickets will be sold in the city of Holland, efforts will be made to cover Jenison Park, Macatawa, Saugatuck and other cities.

It was found that fully 500 tickets of the 600 that are wanted have been sold. Four members of the committee were absent and the exact number could therefore not be estimated. But during this final week every possible effort will be made to reach the six hundred mark since that will mean a doubling of the percentage which will be available for the Y. M. C. A.

WILL HOLD SPECIAL SESSION ON AUGUST 20.

Result of that Meeting Will Probably Depend On Whom Council Will Appoint in Stephan's Place.

The special meeting of the board of supervisors for the purpose of taking up again the question in connection with the good roads tangle will be held on August 20, in the supervisors' room in the court house in Grand Haven. This conclusion was reached today when the required number of members of the board from the northern end of the county asked for a meeting, and County Clerk Jacob Glerum made the necessary preparations to notify the members throughout the county.

The whole road question will now center on whom the council will appoint in the place of E. P. Stephan who handed in his resignation to City Clerk Richard Overweg, Tuesday.

The present lineup, taking for granted that the new member, Mr. Brusse will vote against resubmitting the question to the people, is as follows: For resubmitting the question to the people 13; against, 12. If Stephan had remained in office the vote would have been 14 to 12 in favor of resubmission. If the council appoints a man in Stephan's place who favors the referendum the question will be resubmitted; if one is appointed who is against it the vote will be a tie.

For this reason much interest centers in the next meeting of the common council when Mr. Stephan's resignation will be brought up. It is likely that a special meeting will be held some time this week. The regular meeting will not be held till a week from last night, which would be the evening of the day on which the supervisors will hold their meeting and which would be too late.

FIND GAS KILLS SHADE

TREES IN ALLEGAN CITY

Allegan, Mich.—So many large maple and elm shade trees have died here this summer, supposedly from gas from leaky pipes, that the Allegan County Gas company, brought Prof. C. N. Frey, a government expert to the city to study the situation.

He reported that he found many trees had been killed by gas, but that others were badly affected with the cottony maple scale, a pest new to Michigan, but which has wrought damage in other states. He advised treating the trees with a kerosene emulsion.

Local Representatives Come Back From Eagle Picnic Loaded With Honors.

Lee Cummings and H. Kraker dove parties to Paw Paw Lake. Sunday to attend the Eagles' Picnic. A very successful trip was made going and all enjoyed a good time at the picnic. A good program had been arranged and some of the Holland men carried off the honors. Holland had the honor of having the tallest and shortest man at the picnic in the persons of Bob Bontekoe and Lee Cummings. They were given a box of cigars each because of this distinction. The Holland men also had the smallest and fattest Eagles with them in the person of Lee Cummings and Roy Cummings respectively. Roy was presented with a five pound dressed hen for this and Lee was given a small live pig. C. J. Kuite of Holland Arie No. 594 was appointed as one of the judges.

The party left for home at about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. They stopped at South Haven while and then started for Holland. But the Cummings car seemed doomed not to get here without some trouble, and just between Douglas and Saugatuck, the crash came. While Lee was trying to back up the car to get on a different road he forgot how much room he had and backed over the embankment. The car tipped on its side at the bottom and Roy Cummings who was standing up trying to get a good view of what was going on was thrown out. His body was bruised in several places, his head received some bad bumps and his ankle was sprained. He is working again today but still feeling sore. The others in the party were unhurt. A farmer who happened along hitch-hiked his ever faithful horse to the auto and pulled it up the bank. The remainder of the journey was made safely. Those in Cummings' car were: Lee, Roy and Ernest Cummings and C. J. Kuite. In Kraker's car were: H. Kraker, H. Schabbel and Bob Bontekoe.

Socialists to Hold Annual Outing On August 30.

Under the auspices of the Holland Socialist local a picnic will be held either at Jenison Park or Waukazoo on the thirtieth of August. Although the picnic will be given by the socialists all are freely invited to attend. A number of committees have been appointed for the program of sports, and arrangements are being made to secure one of the best speakers obtainable from Chicago. Negotiations are now on to secure either Frank Bohm of that city or J. O. Eentall, State Secretary of Illinois. Both of these are eloquent speakers.

JUDGE CROSS DENIES PRAYER OF THE COUNTY ROAD ROAD COMMISSIONERS

Also Dissolves the Temporary Injunction That Prevented Supervisors From Taking Vote

Friday morning in circuit court in Grand Haven Judge Cross handed down his decision in the good roads injunction matter. The judge denied the writ for a permanent injunction prayed for in the bill of complaint issued by the county road commissioners, and he dismissed the temporary injunction that had been secured by the commissioners and that caused the board of supervisors to take back the vote by which they had decided to resubmit the good roads question to the people of the county.

The opinion of any kind. It merely stated that the injunction was dissolved. There were few people in the court room when the decision was handed down, since court was not in session just then, the jury having been dismissed until Monday.

This decision is essentially a victory for Mayor Bosch and the twelve other supervisors who voted to resubmit the good roads question to the people. They were in favor of this line of action and the matter would have been settled at the special session of the supervisors if the temporary injunction had not been served. On the day when it was served many of the supervisors were disposed to ignore it, but the next day they decided to await its affirmation or dissolution by Judge Cross. It was believed right along among by the thirteen who voted for resubmission, that the injunction would be dissolved and they believed that then it would be easy to call the supervisors together again and cast the same vote again.

But the election of the two new supervisors in Holland has injected another element into the situation and although the dissolution of the injunction is a victory for the thirteen nevertheless it is very likely that the election of the two members will more than offset the advantage that the election of the twomembers.

The good roads controversy has been a desperate game from the very start, and the shrewdest political wits have been matched against one another. At various times in the game one side or the other has gained an advantage, until the vote now apparently will be a tie, which it this case will be a tie that cannot be broken and that will be the same as a victory for the faction that does not favor referring the question back to the people.

There may however be other elements in the situation that at the present time do not appear on the surface. Supporters of the faction (that favors the referendum in this case declare that they believe there can be divided some way for gaining what they declare is the evident will of the people of the county. The other faction however is jubilant over the way the question has developed and they believe that they can hold their thirteen together, assuming that the two new members will be with them, and can carry out what they believe to be the will of the people of the county.

The next step will be to call another meeting of the board and fight it out there. When this meeting will be held has not yet been determined.

When the matter comes to a vote and it is found to be a tie there is said to be still another way out. The claim is made by those who favor the referendum that there is a law which compels the board of supervisors to recognize the proper demands for a referendum. And if the board refuses to accede mandamus proceedings may probably be instituted to compel the board to grant the request. This action may be taken in view of the fact that the petitions for the referendum are said to be regular in every way and in accordance with law. In fact they were so declared by a committee of the board of supervisors which investigated the petitions.

ALL THE CRIMINAL CASES ON CALENDAR ARE FROM HERE

This end of Ottawa County is pretty well represented on the criminal calendar at the August term of circuit court. A statement to the effect that there are only two cases from this end of Ottawa has brought the information from Prosecuting Attorney L. H. Osterhaus that all the six cases on the criminal calendar are from these parts. One is for violation of the liquor law, two for carrying concealed weapons, one for larceny from a house, one for false pretenses, one for violation of the pure food law. There is none from another part of the county, a questionable distinction that does not often fall to the lot of this end of the county.

WILLIAM O'GRADY AND JOHN CAHILL PUT UP FIGHT BUT WERE NOT A MATCH FOR THE OFFICERS

Two men giving their names as William O'Grady and John Cahill were arrested Monday night at the P. M. station charged with trying to board a train without having fares. They were locked in the city jail over night and Tuesday morning when arraigned before Justice Miles they pleaded guilty to the charge and were sentenced to pay the costs or spend ten days in the county jail. They claimed they could raise the money by telegraph and were given a short time to get the money.

Officer Austin deserves a great deal of credit for this arrest as it is claimed the men put up a strong fight to get away but were no match for the husky policeman who bundled them into a bus and took them to the jail.

They claimed they were employed by the P. M. and were on their way to Bridgeport where they were going to work.

Vaudie, Parker and Nick Take Ride On Fish Tug But Java Says, "Me For Shore"

Vaudie Vanden Berg, Harry, (Parker) Nies, Java Ver Schure and Nick Hoffstein planned to take a trip on the tug "Cuckoo" that is used for fishing out of this port. But when morning broke and every thing was in readiness for starting Java with his weather eye on the wind and picture of a boat plowing through giant waves in his head said he did not think he would care to go and so did not show up when the time came for starting. The other three started out boldly but when lake Michigan was reached and the tug began to roll the trip for Parker and Nick was not what they heard it cracked up to be. Nick got very sick but Parker claims that he was only dizzy although the other members of the party do not agree with him. Vaudie stood the trip like an old sea-dog, having had a great deal of experience in this line at Pine Creek, Texas. But the local men have one consolation. I was so rough that the tug's crew could not lift the nets and two of the crew were seasick.

BAD PARK ROAD RESPONSIBLE FOR ACCIDENT TUESDAY MORNING.

The poor road between Holland and Macatawa was responsible Tuesday for a bad accident that cost Henry Teusink a good deal of money and his son Elmer an injured leg. Teusink is the proprietor of the Virginia Park Dairy and he was driving to town early with 200 quarts of milk in his wagon to supply his customers in the city. In addition to the milk which was mostly in quart bottles, he carried a quantity of ice which is necessary to keep the milk at the proper temperature.

The road is in very bad shape and automobiles have frequently got stuck in the deep sand. Moreover there are numerous holes which make the traveling almost impossible. Teusink's milk wagon pitched into one of the holes and the jar was so severe that part of the bottom of the wagon dropped out spilling 50 quarts of milk in the road. About fifty bottles were broken and the boy Elmer was buried under the streaming milk and broken glass. His leg was badly bruised. Fortunately the horse was gentle or the accident might have been worse.

A number of young people stopping at one of the hotels at Saugatuck came very near to being arrested. They had been seen on the street, the girls in boys' clothing. Officer Zwemer went in search of them but they had changed their makeup before he could get his hand on them.

RELIGIOUS CHAUTAUQUE TUESDAY MORNING BEGAN WITH GOOD AUDIENCE.

Program Continue for Three Days; Tuesday's Meeting Interesting

The religious Chautauque held under the auspices of the Western Social Conference opened Tuesday morning with a very encouraging audience in Winants chapel.

Tuesday afternoon the meeting was charge of the Rev. Matthew Kolyn, D. D., professor at the Western Theological Seminary, who opened with prayer and introduced the speaker, the Rev. P. B. Fitzwater, D. D., from the Moody Bible Institute, of Chicago, Ill.

The morning session was devoted to a study in the book of the "Ephesians". During his discourse, the doctor stated that the book of the "Ephesians" is the most spiritual in the Bible and on account of that deserves our careful study and consideration.

The spiritual and the practical sides of the book were discussed and great emphasis was laid on the spiritual side of it.

He described the calling of the church and the duty of its members towards it and towards the world, saying that the church had a great message to proclaim but that the fundamental weakness of the preaching nowadays was that it attempted to be practical without doctrine.

He illustrated the working of the church by an illustration from the parable of the great pearl upon which he placed a different interpretation than which is generally admitted. And with a clear vision of the church and a knowledge of the duty of the individual members we are linked to unborn ages and we can go back to our occupations with this vision and live the lives which differentiates us from the world.

The Rev. G. Tyse of North Holland closed the meeting with a prayer.

The address was very helpful and was greatly appreciated by the audience.

This afternoon the meeting was in charge of Prof. John W. Beardslee, D. D., and Prof. Henry E. Do-ker, D. D., LL. D. delivered an address on "The Institutional Debt of America to the Netherlands."

The chautauque meetings which are now in session prove to be very helpful as well as very instructive to the people of Holland. Tuesday afternoon the meeting was in charge of Prof. John W. Beardslee, D. D., and Prof. Henry E. Dosker, D. D., delivered a lecture which was greatly appreciated by the audience, and which will prove of interest to every Hollander in this country. The doctor spoke on: "The Institutional Debt of America to the Netherlands."

In his introduction, the speaker stated that we are always taught that England is our mother country, while in fact the whole world is our mother. He told several things about the early history of the Frisians and about the people who inhabited the land which is now called Belgium and that section around the great rivers Maas and Waal.

The English language, he said, contains many Dutch words, and quoting the words of Prof. Graham of Oxford, England, who said that "no man can be a true student of English unless you have studied the Dutch," he proved of what great importance the Dutch people have been throughout the early history.

The early American histories were written in England by men who had never seen American conditions and both, Graham in 1836 and Vancoff in 1747 ignored the fact that the Netherlands had something to do with the shaping of America.

The greatest difference between America and England could be expressed in the sentence: "All men are equal." This is not true in England, for there a king and his aristocracy are found, while here in America we can not even hire servant help.

Again the 47,000,000 of acres of ground in England are held by only 150 people while many thousands of acres are yearly fenced in by the rich land owners to which they have no legal rights.

To prove that Holland had something to do with America's history, Dr. Dosker stated that the founders of Connecticut, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, all spoke Dutch fluently. New York was a purely Dutch colony and today the names of the so-called 400 betray in many cases the Dutch descent.

He proved that our Article of Confederation, the Declaration of Independence and our Constitution were founded upon Dutch documents called "Union of Utrecht." Whole sentences are literally quoted. This was natural as Holland was the only republic in existence with a written constitution.

Many of the institutions found in America can be traced to the Dutch. In Holland they have the Upper and Lower Chamber corresponding to our Senate and Congress, and many of our legal offices correspond to those held by the Dutch.

From Holland we received our system of mortgages and deeds, for in England it is not necessary to have a deed properly recorded.

Our sane and safe prison system we received from the Dutch, who had this hundreds of years ago and which system is so perfected today, that it is the model for all nations.

Our banking system we obtained from Holland, and even today our state and national banks correspond to the state and national banks in the Netherlands.

Our county school system came from Holland. As late as 1813 no public school system could be found in England and even today it is very inefficient there, while the Hollanders in New Amsterdam and wherever they settled build school houses. In this connection the doctor paid a fitting tribute to Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, who founded Hope College in this city.

But above all, we got the idea of religious liberty from Holland, which idea is not found in England even today. England has done much for America. It has brought the states in close relationship with each other, it has welded our people together, but our most characteristic institutions do not come from England but from Holland.

Dr. Fitzwater from the Moody Bible Institute delivered his second lecture on the Ephesians Tuesday afternoon and this morning Dr. Fitzwater gave his last discourse on the "Ephesians."

About a hundred people attended Tuesday meeting of the religious Chautauque held at Winants Chapel because he will change his vote. It simply means that Mr. Brower believes that the people throughout the county are asking to have a chance to express their opinion on the subject and that he has come to the conclusion that in view of the circumstances that have developed it will be better and will save a great deal of wrangling to vote for this referendum, since after the vote by the people the question will be settled once for all.

Mr. Kittel captivated his audience from the first by his bearing and strong voice. In language that fitted such a great subject he led his audience through the times of the last half of the fifteenth century and pictured the times when Savonarola lived and worked. In this half century many great deeds were accomplished that the 20th Century is now reaping the fruits of. The printing press was invented; Columbus discovered America; Constantinople was conquered by the Turks; the Renaissance began. It was an age when great movements were started for the benefit of humanity and men gave their lives to a great cause.

The speaker told of the boyhood of Savonarola; how as a child he was morose and melancholy, refusing to play with other children; how he had refused to walk in the great parade of the ruling Duke in his home city at the age of twelve. As he grew older his heart and soul cried out against the corrupt conditions of religion and politics and being unable to do anything he entered a monastery and soon became a Dominican Friar.

Mr. Kittel held his audience's attention as he told of how Savonarola had failed to rouse any enthusiasm in the people he spoke to at first; but when finally he was raised to a high position the people heard of his wonderful preaching and all the people in Florence came to hear him and were made repentant of their past life by his teaching; how as a statement he had defied Lorenzo de Medici, the magnificent Prince of Florence and poet, scholar and patron of arts; how later after Lorenzo's death, his son tried to rule Florence with an iron hand and Savonarola saved them; how he had stopped invasion, given the people of Florence a constitution, instituted many reform measures and was after all this given a martyr's death in the same building in which he had so many times swayed his audience with his preaching—all this after he had refused to give up his congregation to go to the chair of Alexander VI. Although he died a martyr his spirit lives yet among the people, said the speaker, and four hundred years after his death the square in which he met his death was strewn with flowers in his honor.

Mr. Kittel lectured yesterday on a "City Without a Wall."

SUPERVISOR JOHN S. BROWER OF HOLLAND TOWNSHIP TO FAVOR REFERENDUM

Latest Move Made Known Today Practically Settles That Question; Meeting Next Week

All doubt was removed from how the good roads vote will stand when the vote is taken a week from today when Supervisor John S. Brower of Holland township today let it be known that he would vote for the referendum when the question should come up again. With Mr. Brower on the side of the majority, assuming that the others of the majority vote the same way as they did at the last session of the board of supervisors, the vote will stand 14 to 10, leaving out of consideration for the moment the new members from Holland. Suppose Mr. Brusse should vote, as he has said he would with the minority that would make it fourteen to eleven. Suppose the man who shall be appointed to take the place vacated by Mr. Stephan, should vote with the minority, even then it would be only twelve to four, a margin of two votes in favor of the referendum.

Mr. Brower said that after mature consideration he had come to the conclusion to take the stand he has. He said he believed that in view of the fact that the board of supervisors had received and approved the various petitions from every township and village and city in the county demanding that the question should be referred to a vote of the people, and in view of the fact that Judge Cross had seen fit to dissolve the injunction against the board of supervisors, he believed that it would be best under all these circumstances to vote in favor of letting the people have their say about the good roads question in November.

Mr. Brower has constantly voted with the minority at previous sessions of the board and has constantly shown himself in favor of the county road system. Nor does it necessarily mean that he has changed his ideas about the county road system because he will change his vote. It simply means that Mr. Brower believes that the people throughout the county are asking to have a chance to express their opinion on the subject and that he has come to the conclusion that in view of the circumstances that have developed it will be better and will save a great deal of wrangling to vote for this referendum, since after the vote by the people the question will be settled once for all.

IS MUCH STRICTER THAN OLD FOR RURAL SCHOOLS

Today, August 14, the school laws passed at the last session of the legislature will go into effect, and it will be well for the members of school boards throughout the county to post up on the changes that have been made. As far as the rural schools are concerned the new requirements are strict and if properly carried out will place the district schools upon a much higher plane than they have been in the past. School houses and grounds will have to be put in a perfectly sanitary condition and inspected by the superintendent of public instruction in order to be rated as a standard school. The aim and object of the laws is to increase the efficiency of the schools and enable the scholars to work in sanitary surroundings which are essential, as the ability of the student depends upon the condition of his health. The old idea that any place was satisfactory for a school house has been eliminated and now certain requirements must be lived up to in the districts in order to draw the primary money from the state.

ROOMS ADDED TO M. E. CHURCH CHRISTENED "BURNS PARLORS"

Members Show Deep Respect For The Memory Of Their Late Pastor

Thursday night at the Methodist church a reception was given by the Men's Bible class for the purpose of making a report, and closing up the matter of the two new rooms recently added to the church. There was a large attendance. Mr. A. Harrington, chairman of the board of Trustees, presided in his usual genial manner. Lunch was served by the gentlemen, followed by impromptu toasts, by Mesdames Wright McClellan and Rich and Elferdink, Miles T. R. Blinn, J. Belferdink, Dr. Baker and the Rev. D. Stanley Coor. Miss Bedell of Los Angeles was present and rendered a whistling selection, playing her own accompaniment. A full and complete report was given by the chairman of the building committee Mr. O. A. Burns. This report was unanimously adopted and the rooms were christened "Burns' Parlor," in appreciation of the valuable services constantly being rendered by the chairman.

Touching mention was made of the late Pastor, the Rev. P. E. Whitman, showing how deeply and reverently he was beloved by the whole congregation.

With this feeling of tender regard for their former spiritual leader pervading the whole gathering, loyalty to his ideals and desires for the church interests was pledged amen by all present.

BOARD OF TRADE IS FLAT BROKE

Turns Over Its Entire Balance In Accordance With Recent Vote

Grand Haven.—At the meeting of the common council Monday night, a check was received from the board of trade for $9,117.61, the amount remaining in the hands of the board of trustees, in accordance with the desire of the voters as evidenced at the last election. This leaves the board of trade without a penny in its coffers and with nothing to carry on the work to encouraging new industries to come to Grand Haven, except the city's natural advantages. It is believed by many that a good substantial industry in search of a suitable site will not hesitate for a few thousand dollars of a bonus.

THE REV. H. J. VELDMAN CONTRIBUTES ARTICLE TO "CHRISTIAN INTELLIGENCER"

Quotes Dr. Kollen's Address, the Only Address That Received Applause At Opium Conference

The Rev. H. J. Veldman, pastor of the First Reformed church of this city, who is this summer in The Hague, the Netherlands, conducting the American Church services there, is the author of an article printed in this week's issue of "The Christian Intelligencer." In the opening paragraph Mr. Veldman tells of the numerous festivals and celebrations held in The Hague this summer. Much of the article is of interest to local readers because of the fact that the writer describes the part taken in the Opium Conference by Dr. G. J. Kollen and quotes his address in full. After the opening statement Mr. Veldman continues as follows:

"While I do not desire in the least to minimize the importance of the festivals and celebrations to which reference has been made yet I cannot refrain from saying that in my estimation meetings have been held at The Hague, at the same time that these local and national celebrations were in progress, which because of their beneficial and far-reaching influence were far more important than anything to which attention has been called. I refer, of course, to the International Opium Conference, held at The Hague from July 1-10.

"At this truly international conference no less than twenty nations were represented. The honored representatives of the United States were Doctor Hamilton Wright, of the Department of State; Mr. Lloyd Bruce, the American Minister at The Hague, and our own honored G. J. Kollen, LL.D., president of Hope College.

"It may be of interest to the readers of The Christian Intelligencer to know that the United States, found in the vanguard of so many noble enterprises, also initiated this good work. The first international opium commission convened in Feb. 1909, upon the invitation of the United States. I have it upon good authority that splendid progress is being made towards the ultimate complete eradication of the curse of opium, and that the time may not be far distant when the long-for-day shall have come.

"Though the conference bore no religious character, yet the honored gentlemen listened with profound respect to Dr. Kollen when he called attention to the missionaries on foreign shores and their share in arousing the nations to the evils of the opium traffic. The fact is that this was the only address which was applauded. The friends of missions cannot but rejoice that Dr. Kollen had the tact and courage to present such a plea before such an august presence. He has not only honored himself; nor the Church and institutions which love him dearly by so doing, but also the Christian nation which he had the honor to represent. I know the many, many friends of Dr. Kollen will be anxious to read that address and therefore, I append it without any further comments:

"Mr. President: "As delegate from the United States of America, I desire to express, not only my hearty approval of the deliberations and actions of this honorable body, but also my great satisfaction with the spirit of accord and unanimity that has marked our sessions.

"Personally I have long taken a deep interest in this opium question. Many of the graduates of the educational institution with which I have been officially connected for more than 40 years have gone as missionaries to those countries which have suffered so much from the terrible opium habit. And when today I hear, upon the very floor of this Conference, the touching plea from the delegates of those countries to stamp out this evil, then I can not but feel and think that the consecrated men and women who went forth in large numbers from Great Britain, the United States, and other countries, taking their lives in their hands, to deliver and lift up the nations of the Orient have done much to awaken the world to this great evil and have been largely influential in making such a conference as this a possibility in this year of grace.

"Are we not all agreed that as a result of their noble work and heroic lives, the Christian world was recently greatly stirred and cheered when the president of the reformed Chinese Government requested the prayers of believing Christians everywhere for the first establishment and prosperity of the nation?

"Mr. President, the work of these devoted men and women was not confined to any one church, nor restricted to any one nation. Their work was wider than any church and more comprehensive than any nation. Today these men and women, as well as the countries from which they voluntarily exiled themselves, for the sake of the cause dear to their hearts, are looking to us with longing heart and hopeful expectation for favorable and speedy action.

"Should diplomatic or economic questions prevent immediate action; can not we, then, at least now speak to them a word of appreciation concerning their past achievement, and of good will and encouragement in regard to future endeavor?"

"The nations of the world are becoming closely united. We begin to understand, better than ever before, that when one nation suffers the others suffer with it; and that the altruistic national life leads to international happiness and prosperity."

MRS. W. J. SMITH GIVES VERSION OF SENSATIONAL STREET SCENE

Declares She Had Not Attempted to Take Child Away and That Vander Schel's Were Aggressors.

The feud about a child that resulted in a rather sensational street scene last Saturday in which Mrs. W. J. Smith of the North Side and a Vander Schel family in Holland figured, has not yet been definitely settled. Tuesday Mrs. Smith and her son, Bernie Hills, the father of the two children in question, were in the city and told their version of the scene. They also made inquiries which may result in legal action against certain members of the Vander Schel family. Mr. Hills has taken his two children from the Vander Schel family and they are now staying with him in Mrs. Smith's cottage on the North Side.

Mrs. Smith in her version of the case declared that certain members of the Vander Schel family had been the aggressors in the street scene of last Saturday. While driving with a friend through the city, said Mrs. Smith, she saw her little grandson who was making his home, together with her little granddaughter, with their grandparents, the Vander Schels. She merely talked to the little boy, according to her story, and took him on her lap in the buggy while the rig was standing still, and she had made no attempt to take the boy away.

But she declares that certain members of the Vander Schel family threatened her and heaped verbal abuse on her; that they forcibly took the child away from her altar she was merely having a little visit with him on the street and had no idea of taking him away with her. That she had struck anyone with a whip was also denied, as well as that she fainted. She declared that she had never attempted to detain the children at her home, but that they had merely made ordinary visits to her occasionally such as were natural for grandchildren to make to a grandmother.

Mrs. D. L. Kenney writes: "I cannot sufficiently express my thanks to you for your Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. It has cured my tetter, which has troubled me for over fifty years." All druggists, or by mail 50c.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER
THIRTY FIVE YEARS AGO

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mr. W. T. Perlee, formerly Register of Deeds for Ottawa County. He died on Thursday morning at his home in Lamont this county. Mr. Perlee had a very large circle of friends and was widely known.

The large liberty of others displeased us; and yet we will not have our own desires denied us.

White Slavery

The two little Italian slaves have been rescued from their weary life in New York, but the slaveholder goes free. The testimony of the child musicians showed conclusively that they were driven like slaves to their cheerless task, rated like slaves if they failed to bring home as much money as their master thought they ought to have earned, fed and lodged like slaves, and surrounded with influences that must have made them in time the victims of a still more degrading bondage. What was even worse, their testimony showed that they were deliberately sold by their parents into this miserable existence.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Capt. F. R. Brower, of the steamer, S. B. Barker, who has been visiting his family in this city for a week left on Wednesday last for the scene of his labors, Chequamegon Bay, Wisconsin. His two daughters, the Misses Francis and Kitty Brower, and Prof. and Mrs. C. Doebberg, with their daughter, Kitty, and Mr. Henry Perry of Detroit accompanied him.

To Mr. and Mrs. B. Veneklaasen of Zeeland—a boy.

To Mr. and Mrs. J. Ter Beek of Zeeland, a boy and girl.

Ripe peaches appeared in the market this week.

To Mr. and Mrs. H. Elferdink—a twelve pound girl.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO

The party of young men from Allegan who have been camping out at Macatawa Park returned home Monday. They had with them a diminutive dandy who acted as their steward. He was dressed in white linen, with red handkerchief at his neck and the tiny creature caused much amusement at the Park.

Three years ago, Mr. H. W. Perry a prominent citizen of Brazil, Indiana, visited Macatawa Park for his health. He has returned each year since; and there are now thirty people from that town stopping at the Park hotel. There are also about fifty people from South Bend and Mishawaka, Ind., at the Park. This shows what the "Hoosiers" think of our beautiful resort.

To Mr. and Mrs. John Pyl of Zeeland an eight pound boy.

Married:—At Ann Arbor, Mich., by Rev. Dr. Chas. Scott, on Tuesday, evening, August 7, 1888, Charles B. Scott of St. Paul, Minn., to Addie D. Bird of the former place. Another son of Pres. Scott, Alex. W. was married at Fort Collins, Col., on the 14th of last June to Miss Anna Maxwell of that city. Both couples are now on a visit to their parents and we extend our heartiest congratulations to the former Holland boys.

Married:—At the residence of the officiating Magistrate in Olive, August 7th by Samuel Mountford, Esq., Mr. Frank Barry of West Olive to Miss Vilo Sanky of Grand Rapids.

Died:—The seven weeks old baby of Mr. and Mrs. J. De Feyter, last Wednesday.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Among those went to the Worlds Fair this week, are: J. C. Post, G. W. Browning, Jas. Kolé, Simon Roos, Mrs. Simon Bos, Cornelius Klyn and children, Miss Rockwood, Miss Anna Haberman, J. Van Zwail, wenberg, Guy and Louis Wise, Miss Jennie Borgman, and Miss Mannue Gunst.

Nicholas Walcott of West Drenthe, aged 23, died very suddenly on Friday of last week. He was suffering from deafness as a result of an attack of the grippe, two years ago, and had been to Ann Arbor to obtain relief. On the way home he took the wrong train and landed at Albion instead of Grand Rapids. Finally he reached as far as Zeeland and while being conveyed from there to Drenthe in a carriage, he died, from what is supposed to have been mental and physical exhaustion.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Mr. Harvey, the aged veteran, has so far recovered from his recent paralytic attack that he was able to drive to town this week. He still fails to have the use of his left arm.

On Sunday, two deaths were announced in this city. Though anticipated in both instances, they are none the less sad, in fact peculiarly so Johannes De Jongh, who, had been long and seriously afflicted with cancer in the face, died at the age of twenty-six, leaving a wife and two children. Bert Visser fell a victim to consumption. He was thirty-three. His wife and one child survive him.

TEN YEARS AGO

Mrs. Henry Scholten died at the age of 40 years, at her home in East 15th Street, Tuesday morning. She was born in Graafschap and is the daughter of Reeka Bouws, one of the early settlers of Filmore township. Her maiden name was Effie Bouws. She is survived by two children, eight sisters, Mrs. Henry Rook, Mrs. William Lubbers, Mrs. John Mulder and Mrs. Wm. Streur, the Misses Jennie, Gertrude and Reka Bouws and one brother, John R. Brouws, the Graafschap representative of the News. The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the 14th Street Christian Reform Church. Rev. Drukker and Van Hoogen officiating.

MUSICAL NUMBERS AND READINGS TO ENTERTAIN AUDIENCE IN WINANTS CHAPEL.

A musical and literary program combined was given Wednesday evening in Winants chapel in connection with the chautauqua that program is being given there by the Western Social Conference this week. HT program was under the direction of Prof. J. B. Nykerk and it will consist of musical numbers and readings.

Mrs. George B. Kollen gave two readings, "My Double and How He Undid Me," by Edward Everett Hale, and "The Alto's Inspiration," anonymous. Mr. Wm. E. Vander Hart also gave two readings, "Papa and the Boy" by J. S. Harbour, and "The Ruling Passion" by Wm. H. Siviter.

Owing to the death of Harold Lucas in Battle Creek Sunday, Miss Hazel Wing and Miss Grace Browning were compelled to cancel their numbers on the program.

Mr. Lucas was a cousin of Miss Wing and Miss Grace Browning.

Miss Wing was to have given a piano solo and accompanied several of the singers. Miss Browning was scheduled to sing a solo. Prof. Nykerk however was fortunate in being able to secure Miss Esther Dempsey of Chicago, sister of Mrs. J. Van Putten, Jr., who is visiting here. Miss Dempsey is a post graduate student of piano and she is considered one of the brilliant pianists of Chicago. She played the Eleven Rhapsody by Liszt.

The singers were Mrs. Van Verst, Mrs. S. Pardee, Willis Diekema, Daniel Kruiderier and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Soulen. Harris Meyer and Alle D. Zuidema accompanied some of the singers.

A pleasing program is assured.

County Report

The Holland Gas Company last night presented a petition to the council asking for permission to do the digging that was prevented by Alderman Van Drezer, and the fire department last week.

That the petition may have heavy sailing is likely. It was referred to the committee on streets and crosswalks of which Mr. Van Drezer is chairman. This committee will report at the next meeting. The petition reads as follows:

Holland Mich., August 6, 1913.

The Honorable, Mayor and Common Council, of the City of Holland Michigan.

Gentlemen:—

Complying with Section 3 of an Ordinance, No. 213, Granting to Bascom Parker of Niles Michigan and his assigns the right to construct, maintain and operate Gas Works in the City of Holland, Michigan, we hereby make application to lay the following Gas Mains and Service Pipes, Service Pipes:—At No. 289 East Ninth St.

Service Pipes:—At No. 307 East Sixth St.

Service Pipes:—At No. 305 East Sixth St.

Note:—

Aside from taking care of the above fifteen applications for gas, which we have on file at our office, we find it necessary to re-enforce the mains on East Ninth Street and East Eleventh Street in order to supply proper pressure to our very small and both run to a dead end consumers as these mains are end.

In addition to improving our service in the East end of the City, it is also our intention, at some future time, to supply the City of Zeeland with gas and will, to some extent, benefit the Holland Gas Company, financially which in turn will help us to give to our consumers in Holland the best of service.

Respectfully Submitted, Holland City Gas Co.

E. P. Davis, Manager

Referred to the Committee on Streets and Crosswalks, to report at the next regular meeting of the Council.

The Consistory of the Maples Avenue Christian Reform Church petitioned for permission to move Church Building from First Avenue and 16th Street, to Maple Avenue and 18th Street, and presented the signatures of fifteen residents in the vicinity to which the said church is proposed to be moved, consenting to same.

Granted.

Peter Mass and others petitioned for the construction of a sewer in Eighteenth Street, between Van Raalte and Maple Avenue.

Referred to the Committee on Sewers, Drains and Water Courses.

H. Bartels and others petitioned for the laying of water mains on Eighteenth Street, west of First Ave.

Referred to the Board of Public Works.

Ald. Van Drezer as chairman of the street committee made a formal report last night to the Common Council on the sensational episode in local history which happened last week when the gas company was prevented from digging up the streets. The report which has the story in a nutshell reads as follows:

Holland, Mich., August 6, 1913.

To the Honorable the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Holland, Gentlemen:

Your committee on streets and crosswalks, beg leave to report that through its Chairman, Ald. Van Drezer, on Wednesday of last week the Holland City Gas Company was stopped from laying any mains in East 11th St., for the reason that no permission had been granted therefore by the Common Council, and that an injunction was obtained by the City Attorney, preventing the Company from digging or opening any streets or laying any pipes in any streets without such permission first had and obtained.

Your committee was of the opinion and is satisfied that the opinion was correct, that the sole object of the Company was to get a line of pipes in the street for Zeeland extension, and we are firm in our stand that no such action shall be taken or permitted unless some provision is first made to take care of that large part of the city of Holland, where no gas is now supplied.

We would therefore recommend that the action be concurred in, and that it is the sense of the Common Council that no permit for piping shall be granted until such time as the Company and the City can get together and agree upon extensions to be made within the city, so that our own people shall be taken care of and supplied from the present source before permitting the company to take the supply manufactured here outside. We believe that Holland should have first consideration both at the hands of the Council and of the Gas Company.

Respectfully submitted,

L. E. Van Drezer

A BATHING SUIT IS A LOT

Somebody has invented an anecdote of a sturdy, staid old farmer tutored in the extravaganzas and ex travaganzas of modern city life who gazed with bewildered eyes on the tango. "What do you think of that?" asked his city friend. "Well," said the old man in amazement, "he marries the girl, doesn't he?"

Related in the first instance as a vulgar joke the anecdote is worth repeating in all seriousness as the most poignant criticism yet offered of the indecencies attending many of our modern dances. At the most respectable and well regulated dance halls in the country the so-called "freak dances" are not allowed and they cannot inveigle themselves into the respectability of art in the name of the beautiful. Punch, of London, cartoons the bunny hug as about to be kicked out of the house. Across in Germany a fatal duel is fought between two army officers because one criticized the other for permitting his daughter to turkey-trot at a garrison ball. As nearby as Saugatuck and our resorts the chaperones are worrying because the tango is danced in bathing suits on the beach.

It will comfort the chaperones somewhat if they remember that the young ladies under their incomplete surveillance are possibly wearing more clothes when on the bathing beach than they would if dancing the tango in the dance pavilions. For this is the most notable feature in the summer fashions of 1913—that many of our women seem to have forgotten to put on some of the things they wore in other years, whatever they may be. We say "seem" because we may more becomingly speak of effect in this instance than cause. And the effect is that the dress of many American women on the streets of our cities today is not any more immodest than ever before but probably much more ugly. The attempt of very fat women and very thin women to wear one and the same style has often been the source of many a merry laugh in this hot and weary world. But somehow it is not as easy to laugh at these things as it used to be. With the present elimination and abbreviation of feminine garments we see too much that is merely frightful and hideous and not funny at all. That women who are acclimated to these wonderful exhibitions of themselves should delight in a form of musical deportment that would win them distinction in the red light district, or should consciously or unconsciously transform an innocent amusement into a gross invitation to immorality is not at all astonishing. It is part of the spirit and temper of our times.

More moralizing will not change all this. Perhaps it has been written down by the fates that it should not be changed. Perhaps we are destined to grow worse before we grow better. Personally, we are inclined to be very optimistic about present social and moral conditions. If Americans have lost something in taste and manners they have gained ethically in other ways. It may yet be revealed by a kindly God that we are not as badly off as we seem. However there is no doubt but that the dance of indecency is as true a sign of future degeneration as it is a reflection on the society of which it is a part.

Ending The Opium Traffic

One vice which has almost enslaved numerous people and which has fastened its tentacles upon a large portion of the world's population is likely to be practically abated as the result of the recent international opium conference at The Hague.

Dr. Hamilton Wright, who, with Lloyd Bryce, American Minister at The Hague, represented the United States at the conference, has made his report to Acting Secretary of State John Bassett Moore, showing that thirty-five nations have joined in the signing of the opium convention which will practically eliminate traffic in the drug.

The United States, of course, is one of the signatories, and it only remains for the Senate to approve the general convention designed to prevent traffic in habit-forming drugs and for Congress to enact certain bills now pending carrying out internally the provisions of this general treaty to give our agreements full effect.

Undoubtedly Congress will do this. Not to do so would be retrogressive. The action taken by the thirty-five powers is a new evidence of the uplifting tendency of modern civilization and a recognition of the fact that nations as well as men realize their duties to humanity.

We are pleased to mention that Dr. G. J. Kollen of this city was one of the delegates who loaned his influence toward so worthy a cause.

New Tree Pest Found In Allegan

There have been so many maple and elm trees killed at Allegan this summer, supposedly by leaky gas pipes, that the Allegan County Gas Company brought Professor C. N. Frey, a United States agricultural expert, to the city to make a study of the situation. He reported that some of the trees had been killed by the gas, but some were affected by the cottony maple scale, a pest new to this part of Michigan. Other trees have been hurt by the extreme hot weather. He noted many fruit trees afflicted with San Jose scale. He recommended a kerosene emulsion for the maple trees.

EXTREMES HANDED OUT BY THE WEATHER MAN NOT WELL DISTRIBUTED.

While July was marked by extremely hot weather, the records of the weather bureau show the month was four degrees ahead in 31 days of the normal of 72.6.

There was much cool weather and bountiful supply of hot weather, but the two kinds were not well distributed. For example, on July 5, the temperature was ahead of the normal by 38 degrees and on July 25, this vicinity was behind the normal mark just 34 degrees. The hottest day was experienced July 3, when the thermometer registered 96. The coolest day was July 25, when the mercury went down to the 50 mark.

The rainfall for the month was 1.96 inches, .07 below the normal. Sunshine averaged 66 per cent, which is exactly normal for Grand Rapids and locality.

The temperatures have fallen generally east of the Rocky Mountains, with the greatest change over the upper lakes region and the upper Mississippi valley, but are still slightly above normal. Showers and thunderstorms have occurred generally over the upper lakes and scattered localities elsewhere.

HOW IMMIGRANTS CARRY

How Immigrants Carry Money

One of the queerest sights, says Forward, is to see how different immigrants carry their money.

Most English immigrants carry their coin in a small case attached to a chain, which they keep in a pocket as they would a watch.

Irishmen always have a little canvas bag, in which notes and coins are crammed together.

Irish girls, on the other hand, generally have their money sewed on the inside of their dresses.

Germans carry their money in a belt around their waists, and the belt is usually an elaborate and costly affair, no matter how poor the immigrant may be.

The French mostly carry a small brass tube, in which they can place forty or fifty franc pieces, which can be removed very rapidly, one at a time.

There are few Italians who carry a large tin tube in which they keep paper money or silver coins, and this tube is hung around the neck by a small chain or cord.

Swedes and Norwegians are sure to have an immense pocketbook, that has generally been used by their fathers and grandfathers before them, and which has in it enough leather to make a pair of boots.

The Slavonians and Hungarians carry their money in their long boots, together with a knife, fork and spoon.

PERRY'S OLD SHIP NIAGARA MAY VISIT MACATAWA HARBOR

Admiral Perry's old launch "Niagara," raised and patched from resting on the bottom of Lake Erie a hundred years may be towed into Macatawa bay and thousands of Grand Rapids people may have the opportunity of seeing the vessel, which floats from its mizzen truck a flag displaying the admonition, "Don't Give up the Ship."

The Niagara, decked in much new finery and towed by the U. S. S. Wolverine, is making a tour of the Great Lakes and is now in Milwaukee, where the entire city is having a holiday in honor of the arrival of the brig-of-war commanded by Admiral Perry, who so valiantly whipped the British in 1813. The centennial will be celebrated in Chicago next, and enterprising Grand Rapids citizens are now endeavoring to have the flagship visit Macatawa bay before returning to Toledo for a celebration.

Local men interested will get in touch with the Niagara's commander and Put-in-Bay committee at Milwaukee today, and induce the committee, if possible to visit this side of the lake. Perry's victory, it is agreed, was of just as much importance to Western Michigan as any other section of the Great Lakes region, and the desire to honor Perry's name and victory would result in a great demonstration.

LABOR DAY COMMITTEE ARE

Committees on program, finances, invitation, publicity, and music have been appointed and are busy getting ready for the day's entertainment. The bricklayers, carpenters, furniture workers and painters have special committees to look after their individual ends of the celebration.

Mayor and members of the common council will be invited to take part in the day's doings. The fire departments will be asked to join in the parade and a number of good speakers will be provided. It is planned also to have a ball game and other sports.

SAUGATUCK MAN FORGES

Charles Steinbrecher of Chicago, aged seventeen, came across the lake to Saugatuck one day last week to spend a few days with some other Chicago young people there and he ran out of money. In an effort to get some cash he got himself into jail and he will have to answer to a charge of forgery and fraud at the October term of court. He tried to get money on a forged check at the Saugatuck bank but failed. He did succeed with Roger Reed and attempted to with others. He presented checks on Chicago banks, signed with fictitious names. Deputy sheriff, William Roda arrested him and brought him to Allegan, Sunday. His mother came from Chicago, Monday, and gave bond for his appearance here in October, whereupon the boy was permitted to go home.

THE STORY OF THE LIBERTY BELL

The bell which hung in Independence hall in the stirring days of the American revolution, and was rung to announce the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, bore the inscription "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof." Concerning these words, cast into the bell long before it was put to its historic use, there has been considerable controversy, but there will be no more. The mystery has been solved and now we know all about the most famous bell in our history.

The words were a coincidence, an unwitting prophecy of the use to which the bell would be put and which would render it famous for all time. The bell was first cast in 1751 in England to be used in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the granting of a charter to the city of Philadelphia. Letters of Isaac Morris, who was superintendent of the old statehouse when the bell was ordered, which have been discovered by Wilfred Jordan, curator of Independence hall, have made the story of the famous bell clear.

These letters show that the bell was first cast in England, on the model of the famous "Big Tom" of London, by Thomas Lester, whose firm is still doing business in White chapel. The inscription was suggested by Isaac Morris himself, a profound biblical student, and it is taken from the tenth verse of the twenty-fifth chapter of Leviticus.

A year after the bell arrived in America it cracked, and was recast by two colonial mechanics, Pass and Stow. The first recasting impaired the tone of the bell, so that the job was done over, with the result that the tone was considerably improved.

Later the bell cracked again, when used upon the occasion of the funeral of Chief Justice John Marshall July 4, 1835, on the anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence. It was then hanging in the tower of Independence hall, where it hung until 1871.

The clearing away of the mystery surrounding the time of the placing of the words of the inscription in the bell arouses memory of the remarkably prophetic character of those words and how, placed as they were without thought of the great event it was to announce, they were after than perhaps any other that the mind of man could conceive.

MANY SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS PROVIDED FOR ENTERTAINMENT OF FAIR VISITORS

Beachy, The Noted Aviator, To Make Two Flights A Day—Spectacular "Battle in the Clouds" Another Feature.

With no intention to detract from the many contests in every department of the West Michigan State Fair, not forgetting that more information which will feed the progressive mind, may be gained in one day at the fair than in a full month elsewhere, we are just now reminded that the fair that fails to provide special entertainment for the visitor is a serious disappointment to a very large percent of the thousands who enjoy a week at the fair.

The fair at Grand Rapids has been especially fortunate in getting under contract the Daring Beachy, the most noted of all Aviators, who will make two flights every afternoon. Beachy carries with him in one flight each day, an Aeronaut who will ride to a height of 2000 feet when he will leap from the machine, with parachute folded beneath his arm where he carries it until nearing earth when he releases it and sails to safety. This has been described as being so thrilling and death-defying, that strong men hide their eyes, anticipating the fatal fall which does not happen.

The "Battle in the Clouds" what is it? It is new. It is one half century in advance of our day. It is the Climax of Pyrotechnics and Spectacular Production. It is what it claims to be, a Battle in the Cloud or perhaps better defined, an attack from behind the clouds upon the unsuspecting and sleeping city. The city has enjoyed a festival day, when sports and features of fun and frolic have made them tired and have gone to quiet rest. It is now that the bombardment from the cloud rains fire and death healing missiles in the very heart of the sleeping populace. Thus attacked, the defenseless city, where but a moment before all was splendor, quite and contentment, is now converted into chaotic devastation. When the smoke of battle clears away, the victory is celebrated by a pyrotechnical display and fire works of the newest and most expensive kind, costing $800.00 each night will be burned to the delight of the man who has paid just 50 cents to see the Fair through the day, with its hundreds of points of interest, and has staid to enjoy his first evening at the Grand Rapids Fair.

The importance of this feature is better understood when you know that Grand Rapids gets the identical spectacle which has entertained New York City for one month, closing just in time to open here on Monday night. The features here mentioned do not enumerate all the special entertainment provided, there are twelve shows and riding devices, six vaudeville acts, Lady diving from an altitude of 85 feet into a tank of water, twelve harness races and the "Better Babies Contest" beside everything that has hitherto made the Fair Big. Special trains are being arranged for so that visitors who must return will be afforded the opportunity.

This privilege comes just once a year. Begin now to plan and go to the Fair, not for a day, but just as many days as circumstances will permit.
