FRANK PETTY IS CONVICTED ON SERIOUS CHARGE

CASE STIRS UP THE NEIGHBORHOOD AT JAMESTOWN, MANY GO TO GRAND HAVEN

Frank Petty, a young man, 22 years old and a salesman of tombstones and monuments, who lives at Goble, Michigan, was found guilty charged with assault with intent to commit rape upon Miss Ada Hoeve, 22 year old daughter of Gerrit Hoeve, a farmer at Jamestown.

From the testimony given it seems that Petty, who is a smooth talker, accosted the young lady at her home, when no one was present, and Prosecutor Miles brought out that Miss Hoeve had to fight desperately to save her honor, and it was alleged that only a sore hand of Petty prevented him from accomplishing his purpose.

The defense endeavored to show the jury that Petty did not use force, and denying the charge made. The young lady in question, some years ago worked at a local cigar store, and the management speaks highly as to the girl's reputation.

Anyway Jamestown is all stirred up over the case, and at least 50 from that locality were present at the trial.

The case was not one of Miss Hoeve against Petty, but was rather a case of the people vs. Frank Petty, with Miss Hoeve acting as a witness.

Simon Bos of Holland, was foreman of the jury, and it was he who read the verdict of guilty, after the twelve men had been out a half hour.

Petty is a married man and has one child. Mrs. Petty was constantly at her husband's side during the trial, which lasted nearly a day.

It is stated that Petty often called on Mr. Hoeve and his two daughters, Ada and Gertrude the latter being seventeen years of age, and he was well acquainted with the family.

The tombstone man was represented by Attorneys Lokker & Den Herder of Holland and Attorney Louis of Paw Paw. Prosecutor Miles represented the people.

NEW LAW HALTS ELOPERS AT GRAND HAVEN

Two couples, the men resplendent in carefully pressed clothes of the latest cut and obviously new with a big white posy in the lapel button hole; the women dressed like fashion plates, one without an entirely harmonizing green color scheme; arrived at the county clerk's office this morning to get marriage licenses from Orris Sluiter and see a Grand Haven minister before boarding the Str. Arizona for Milwaukee and a big honeymoon. They neglected however to inform themselves that at least one of the contracting parties must live in the county in which the license is secured and as all Grand Rapids people the honeymoon was halted for a short time while the two rushed to the Furniture city for the necessary documents.

WILL GIVE BUS SERVICE TO COMMUNITY FAIR

The bus will start from the tower block and will stop anywhere when signalled. The service will be provided by the Peoples Transport company.

Tomorrow, Wednesday night, Aug. 19, there will be one of the biggest parties at the big pavilion, that Saugatuck has ever staged. It is the farm and barn party with prizes. See the announcement on page five. See issue. Friday night August 21 will be a night in flower land. It surely is a colorful affair. The big pavilion at Saugatuck will be open every night until Labor day.

BRYAN'S EATING AND THE UNTIME- LY GRAVE

BRYAN WAS SUPPOSED TO HAVE GOTTEN HIS FILL ON CELERY AT HOLLAND

Holland is surely becoming closely identified with the late William Jennings Bryan, and possibly soon we'll find that the Commoner lived here for a spell.

The latest one sprung is found in The Chicago Herald-Examiner, of Sunday, August 9, where Sloane Gordon, a newspaper correspondent, and an old friend who accompanied Mr. Bryan in all his campaigns, sets forth in a page article, "How Bryan ate Himself Into An Untimely Grave."

The article is indeed interesting, especially to those who wish to reduce. It is of unusual interest to Holland people, for the reason that Mr. Gordon draws in, the city of Holland and Mr. Bryan's voracious appetite here, while making a campaign speech.

The article about Bryan as far as Holland is concerned, maybe true, but this is very doubtful, as the writer has attended every campaign meeting, every lecture, and was present at every appearance of Mr. Bryan, in and about the city, and such an incident was not noticeable.

It appears that Mr. Gordon might have got his towns mixed, as Kalamazoo at that time was the city of celery, and Holland if it had any at all, could not boast of that particular product, in the way that Mr. Gordon would picture it.

Anyway the story makes good reading and follows below:

"Celery Bombardment

"This was not an unusual performance for Mr. Bryan. He always had the appetite of an ox. He could and did, without question, eat as much always as any four men of the accompanying party.

"One time the Bryan special was sidetracked near Holland, Michigan. That's where the cultivation of celery has reached its apex. The Bryan car was literally bombarded with celery. It came in dainty packages, in iced containers, in baskets and in hamper.

"Bryan liked celery. He sampled one of the iced parcels and found it good. For a full half hour, while the train waited, Mr. Bryan munched celery. He must have eaten 30 or 40 stalks of it, and when he came on the platform to address the crowd that gathered to greet him when the car was finally drawn into the Holland depot he had a bunch of celery in his hand and waved it, as an orchestra director would a baton, during his speech. Then he ate the baton."

Mr. Gordon goes on further and states that Mr. Bryan demanded at least six meals a day, where he found this necessary for the reason that he was constantly active, and his restless energy, called for fuel and yet more fuel.

All the same the Holland story it seems, should be taken with a grain of allowance, at least as far as the city where the celery incident happened is concerned.

It looks more like Kalamazoo than Holland.

MANY WATCH LIFE SAVER AT MACATAWA

METHOD OF RESCUING AND REVIVING DROWNING PERSON IS

At least three hundred interested spectators including Boy Scouts, and Camp Fire girls, attended life saving demonstrations given by Alfred S. Moreau of the American Red Cross at Macatawa Park yesterday afternoon. Mr. Moreau is an expert instructor in swimming as well as an adept at life saving and resuscitation methods.

Mrs. G. J. Van Duren was instrumental in getting Mr. Moreau to Holland.

In a short talk delivered to those who were assembled to see the demonstration he stated that all water was dangerous and should be considered as such. Although an expert swimmer himself with a powerful physique that the average man would envy, Mr. Moreau stated that he never went on a swim of any length unless accompanied by a boat. He is also an enemy of the canoe, claiming that they have no place at all on rough waters and that they are dangerous anywhere.

In his artificial respiration induction methods, Mr. Moreau used the prone pressure system which almost every Boy Scout is more or less familiar with and which is a part of the first class scouting test. In reviving an apparently drowned person, Mr. Moreau stated that no time should be lost in getting to work with the prone pressure method after getting the party from the water. The correct positions for the use of the resuscitation method were shown and a very instructive afternoon was enjoyed by all.

HOLLAND DAY IS ON WEDNESDAY

The board of directors of the community fair announces thru Secretary John Arendse that Wednesday will be Holland day at the fair next week. According to the schedule made out for fair week, the days have been arranged as follows: Wednesday—Holland Day; Thursday—Agricultural Day; Friday—Resorters Day.

LEGION IS LIABLE TO HAVE AN AUCTION SALE

FRED BERTSCH WIRES IN FOUR CASTS OF CIDER

While the big Radio show given under the auspices of the American Legion, was rather a failure, from the standpoint of an audience, at the Masonic Temple, it was an unusual success when it comes to the audience that listened in, and it hardly could have been expected otherwise.

The absence of the crowd all but Saturday night, was not because folks were not interested, but rather because they wished to hear how their favorite local artists would perform on the receiving end of a radio set.

There is nothing unusual about that only it was a matter that the Legion boys did not figure on, and consequently on Thursday there were a very disappointed lot of Legionnaires after the first night show.

But it has been proven that the Radio fans are no cheap sports, which was borne out, when the bundle of checks and bills began rolling in.

Monday night in one home in this city, 25 friends and neighbors gathered together, and listened to the entire show. During the middle of the program, the head of the house phoned in a substantial sum, more than paying the price of admission of the entire lot of visitors.

One radio fan stated, "I hear these singers in church nearly every Sunday. They sing beautifully, but I want to find out how it sounds over my radio set. The man however did send in a $5 bill.

The Willard G. Leenhouts Post finds that there are other things pledged besides money. Fred Bertsch promised four casks of cider from his Old Dutch Farm, worth altogether $50.00, he'll sell this cider for $40 and give the money to the Legion, or the soldiers can auction it off as they please.

Ed Fisher's Poultry Farm gave six broilers, Superior Cigar Store gave one box of cigars, Tom White, gave a ham, Brjeve, "The Cookie King" gave a can of cookies and the C. J. Johnson Cigar Co. of Grand Rapids gave a box of Van Dam cigars.

With all this merchandise and possibly more, the Willard G. Leenhouts Post, are thinking of putting on an auction sale, with proceeds going toward the Radio fund.

Anyway roughly estimated, Commander Ben Lieveuse will run only a little short of the entire amount required to put over this radio show that has given Holland some valuable advertising during the past week.

Anyone being liberally inclined can help Mr. Lieveuse out further, any modest amount will be thankfully received.

GATES OPEN FOR 41ST AN- NUAL FAIR

The Holland Community Fair will open its gates Wednesday morning, and from the standpoint of exhibits, concessions, shows, race horses, cattle, poultry, fine arts, school exhibits, in fact any department you might mention, it is the largest and best fair that has ever been staged in this city.

This is the forty-first anniversary of the Holland fair, and if weather permits, it will be one that will not soon be forgotten.

The grounds are simply jammed with concession folks, and from all appearances it will be difficult to handle any more, because of the tented city that has sprung up on the grounds over night.

While all departments of the fair will be as large or larger than previously, the management has made special arrangements to hold the world's largest poultry exposition in connection with this year's show. Hatcherymen and commercial poultrymen are co-operating to make this event a success. The agricultural building with a capacity for 5,000 birds has been reserved for the poultry show and officers of the Michigan State Poultry Improvement association predict that it will be filled with the finest fowls in the world—all Michigan grown.

The Zeidema & Polle circus with its 35 car loads of equipment, has arrived and the tents are up. They come with seventeen different shows. Most of Holland's business men all are working feverishly to get their respective booths in shape.

Those exhibiting in the Art Hall this year are the following: G. H. Huizenga, Jeweler, Vandenberg Oil Co., James A. Brouwer, furniture, Merritt Shoe Co., Deur & Zwemer, hardware, Home Furnace Co., Holland Lumber & Supply Co., Fancy Goods Dept., Corner Hardware, Goodys Music House, High School, manual training and household work, Yonker Plumbing & Heating Co., Vlascher Brooks Ins. Co., Art Department, display, canned and baked goods, Vandenberg Bros., furniture, Gearda Electric Co., Austin Harrington, coal, Good Coal Co., Oakland Sales & Service Co., Hayden-Koopman Auto Co., A. La Huls Co., Zealand, Scott-Lagers, Lumber Co., rest room, De Vries & Dornbos, furniture, Meyer Music House and Holland Maid Co.

The regular school year for the Allegan city schools opens on the first Tuesday after Labor day which happens to be later than usual this year, Sept. 8. Practically the entire corps of teachers has been employed. Miss Mary Siegers formerly of Hope college will instruct in Latin.

A marriage license has been issued in Kent county for John Boeve, 33, of Grand Rapids and Marie Hietje, 21, of Holland.

HOW IS THIS FOR A BRAZENED HOLD-UP?

AUTO DRIVER ASKED TO SEE CI-GARS FROM MERCHANT, THEN LIGHTS OUT

Although the theft was petty, nevertheless one of the brazened little holdups that took place in Holland a few days ago is hard to beat.

Two neatly dressed young men driving a high-powered car, stopped at the store of Albert Bekker, one of the men entered the place of business at Columbia Avenue and 18th-st., and asked Mr. Bekker if he had Dutch Master cigars. He was told that he did have and gave the price as $4.50 a box. When the supposed resorter asked to take a light box and a dark box to his friend in the automobile, unsuspecting Bekker handed out the two boxes, the smartly dressed young man took them out, picked them in the automobile which was running, and to the surprise of Mr. Bekker they soon disappeared down Columbia avenue toward 8th street.

It took several minutes for the local merchant to grasp the situation, and by the time the police were called up, the cigar thieves were several miles away.

Mr. Bekker has been troubled with a great deal of thieving out of his store, and at least from that standpoint he has been very unfortunate.

He says however that for gall this holdup was the worst.

LIGHTNING NOT ROB- BERS PUT OUT AL- LEGAN LIGHTS

POSTOFFICE BANDITS HAD
IT

Dispatches through the state papers reported from Allegan, are bound to have it that the bandits who robbed the postoffice put the whole lighting plant out of commission in order that they might make an easier get-away.

This is absolutely untrue, but the Consumers Power Co. finds that lightning must have struck some of the heavy feed wires, knocking down a half dozen poles, and putting the lighting system out of commission for two nights.

Not alone was there no light, but also no power.

While few were inconvenienced because of the darkness, it gave the postoffice bandits an ideal condition under which to work.

Had there been a fire, the water being shut off, the department would have had to depend entirely upon the new fire pumper.

The fume repairs have been completed and no further trouble should be experienced.

The fact that the lightning damage on the same night that the robbery occurred, give rise to the rumor, that robbers had intentionally cut the wires that supplied the city with light.

GIVES TEA IN HONOR OF MISS MARY DONNELLY OF HOLLAND

Miss Gladys Presley of Grand Haven has returned from a few days' stay in Grand Rapids where she has been the guest of Miss Elizabeth Leonard, sorority sister. While in Grand Rapids she assisted Miss Leonard in the delightful tea given at the Leonard home on Prospect avenue for Miss Mary Donnelly of Holland, whose marriage to Michael Leonard will be solemnized sometime in the late fall. This tea was more or less of a reunion for Miss Presley as there were present many of her college friends and sorority sisters whom she has not seen for some time.—Grand Haven Tribune.

LOCAL

The News was issued on Tuesday night in order to give the Holland fair a parting boost of success. Its the biggest fair this week, that this vicinity has ever seen. Don't miss it!

The Holland Elks will give their annual benefit ball at the Saugatuck pavilion, on Tuesday evening, August 25. There will be many special features in the way of moving pictures for those who do not dance, and besides an extra fine orchestra is assured. Nick Horstein, Louis J. Vandenberg and Elman W. Dick, constitute the committee on arrangements.

Seventeen young ladies, bookkeepers at the Holland Furnace company, visited the county jail here last night with a noisy advent and were welcomed by Sheriff and Mrs. Fred H. Kamferbeck.—Grand Haven Tribune.

The mercury at the Ottawa county weather bureau today registered 80 above at nine this morning, the highest point during the day and was at 79 this noon. Humidity was high however, being 71. The westward lake breeze aided in cooling things off after the 85 degree heat of yesterday.

John Lyons of Spring Lake was arrested for speeding on Second-st., Monday night by Officer Boomgard of Grand Haven. He paid Justice Lillie a fine and costs amounting to $8.80. John Bosch of Allendale paid a fine and costs of $10.50 to Justice Lillie for speeding. He was arrested by Deputy Charles Saltsdover.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Van Uithoven and Miss Alvina Strong, spent Saturday with Mrs. H. Garvelink and daughter, Marion Poel and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Poel of Holland.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Fire works at the Holland fair on Wednesday night and Thursday night. There will be several set pieces, and a gorgeous air display.

LOCAL WOMEN SEE A LITTLE GIRL KILLED

A terrible accident occurred at Grand Rapids shortly after Thursday noon when little Miss Hage, a seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hage of Grandville Avenue, was fatally injured.

The child was struck down by Miss Lucinda Sherwood of Grand Haven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Sherwood, who are well known in Holland. The young lady is 19 years old and stated that the child ran directly in front of the car, which was going at a very moderate rate of speed. The accident occurred directly in front of the Hage home and the little girl died only a few minutes after being struck down.

Miss Hage, it is stated, had gone across the street to look into a mail box, and this duty performed, she darted back directly in front of the car driven by Miss Sherwood, who although horror stricken, clamped on the brakes in a desperate effort to stop the car. This caused the heavy machine to skid from the road, but did not save little Miss Hage.

In the car with Miss Sherwood were her two aunts, Miss Martha Sherwood and Mrs. Ruby S. Garrod, 94 W. 13th street, Holland.

Coroners Simon LeRoy and H. C. Wolfe were both called to the scene and questioned witnesses. Both said that death was due to fracture of the skull and announced that an investigation may be held.

Besides the father and mother, four children survive, Ruth, 11, Russell, 10; Glenn 4; and Robert 13 months. The funeral arrangements will be completed Friday morning.

Two witnesses state that they saw the girl swiftly running across the highway, directly in the path of the automobile that was entering the city from the west coming from the direction of Holland.

Up to this time Mrs. Garrod or Miss Sherwood had not returned to this city. It is stated that they are nearly prostrated because of the terrible accident for which they were in no-wise to blame.

Immediately after the accident occurred, they did everything possible to aid, remaining with the stricken family until late.

Zealand Record.—Henry Looker escaped with a pair of severely burned hands, Monday evening, when the remains might have been much more serious. Since his brand new son arrived at his home about three weeks ago he had been aching to give him a ride in his car but for obvious reasons he could not take Mrs. Looker out with him and he did not feel free to take his son and leave his wife behind. But Monday evening arrived and he bundled both into his car and enjoyed the happiest ride of his life. All went well and they returned home in good spirits. Shortly after returning to his home he discovered smoke coming from his garage and upon investigating found his car afire. He immediately put his shoulder to the "wheel" and shoved it outside. Then he proceeded to put out the flames which proved both successful and painful. It appears that the engine's exhaust had set fire to the oil tank where it was burning escaping gas but the fire did not get into the tank.

The last two weeks of wet weather have been ideal for the development of blight on celery, tomatoes, potatoes, cucumbers and beans, according to Clinton P. Milham, Ottawa county farm agent, who has been having many reports of effected crops in various parts of the county. One agriculturalist who was at the farm agent's office Thursday morning while the discourse on blight was going on, echoed the words of Mr. Milham in the reference to potatoes.

Mr. Milham has issued a warning to farmers to get out their spray outfits and load up with Bordeaux mixture for the battle on blight. Unless something is done to fight the blight, the crops mentioned will be seriously damaged this year and the big crops they have boasted of will not materialize.

HOLLAND PAIR MARRIED FOR 56 YEARS

The Sentinel reporter interviewed one of Holland's oldest couples Thursday when he called on Mr. and Mrs. Donker Leys at their home a short distance from this city on the Grand Haven road.

Mr. Leys, who is 85 years of age, was as spry as a youngster and talked freely of his past as he sipped his morning coffee.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Leys came to this country in the year 1866 and finally settled in this locality. Mr. Leys spent one year in New York and also lived for 6 years in East Virginia, while Mrs. Leys came almost immediately to this section. For over 44 years the couple have lived together on their farm 2 miles from Holland.

Recently the Van's Fertilizer company bought the farm but gave these people the right to live on the premises for the rest of their lives. Not having enough ground to make farming alone payable Donker Leys found employment at the Holland Furniture company. Although it was two miles to walk he never rode but walked both ways each day. Up until he was 84 years of age he continued this practice and claims this walking kept him in fine trim.

One peculiar thing about the aged couple going to church is that in the great number of years they have never been to church together, outside of the times when they had their children christened. The old gentleman still walks into Holland every Sunday morning and attends the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church. In the afternoon Mrs. Leys never fails to attend services but goes with a horse and buggy.

When asked why this condition existed no reply was received, but on the side it was found out that Mrs. Leys did not trust her husband's driving ability so he went alone, walking.

Mr. Leys said he had never been sick in bed a day but it was not because he was not sick enough to be in bed, but because they couldn't keep him there when he was sick. "Do you smoke?" asked the reporter. "You bet I do," replied Mr. Leys. "It may hurt some people but I have been smoking and chewing since I was 6 years old," and then he walked over to a big can of tobacco and filled his old pipe. As he puffed vacillatingly he said, "I sleep fine, I never wake up when it storms and I always go to bed hungry. Sleeping on a full stomach is no good, I never do it." Coffee four or five times a day now is a regular occurrence in the home. Both of the aged couple still read without the aid of glasses and they joked with one another continually when asked about their past.

"Who was the first president you voted for?" asked the reporter. "I don't just remember his name," said Donker, but it was the one following Grant. "Was it Tilden?" "No, he was a Democrat and I am Republican, I guess it was Hayes."

Mr. Leys has a fine garden and works there every day wearing heavy wooden shoes. His other work now consists in sawing big ties which will be used this winter to keep the occupants of the little home warm. At present they live with their daughter, Miss Cornelia Leys. Seven children have been born into the family and they are all living. They are: Mrs. A. De Vries, Constantine, Mich.; Mrs. T. Den Uyl, Holland; Mrs. P. Kloosterman, Holland; Mr. C. Leys, Grand Rapids; Mrs. J. Schipper, Holland; Mrs. A. C. Kott, Grand Rapids, and Miss Cornelia Leys.

One of the big safety coaches running between Grand Haven and Holland ran into a Ford car that was suddenly stopped in the middle of Trunk Line 11, two miles south of Grand Haven Wednesday night. The bus driver claims the driver of the Ford didn't signal and he was unable to brake quick enough. The Ford driver claimed damages and trailed the bus into Gr. Haven. Damage to the rear bumper of the flivver was estimated at $2. The matter was not reported to officers.

WILL PROMOTE SALES SCHOOL UNDER C. OF C.

One of the important items of the program of work to be promoted by the Grand Haven Chamber of Commerce this fall will be a school for retail sales people. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce held Thursday the program as submitted by Secretary A. C. Gross was accepted in detail. The course will be presented in the form of night school sessions and will be open to salespeople of Grand Haven, Spring Lake and Ferrysburg. This should appeal to every merchant so much that he should encourage his salespeople to take advantage of this splendid opportunity which is offered free of tuition. Enrollment blanks will be available at the chamber of commerce office beginning with the 1st of September and the dates of the course will be from October 1st to the 15th.

Grand Haven merchants will co-operate through this course to develop a capable sales force and the course itself will cost but two dollars for the ten sessions and will also include six free pamphlets on selling which will be issued those attending the school. Members of the school will be asked to get into actual selling and practical class demonstrations will be made.

Good and bad points in actual demonstrations will be brought up for the class discussion during the ten lessons. The first lesson will take up organization of the class and the second will deal with selling qualifications. Others will include the sale, the goods sold, the customer, employer, how to live on 24 hours a day service and the store system, ending with closing exercises and a big banquet.

Speakers for different sessions will be secured from various store organizations. Sessions to be held at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters. Merchants are to be canvassed and encouraged to enroll their clerks.

This course will offer a free evening course to any person in Grand Haven, Spring Lake and Ferrysburg who wishes to take advantage of the same regardless whether now employed as a salesperson.

Wild's orchestra, now playing at the Highland Park pavilion has made arrangements with W. B. D. C. broadcasting station in Grand Rapids where a special program will be broadcast every Monday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock.

This organization under the direction of P. R. Wilds is considered one of the best dance orchestras in Western Michigan and radio fans are assured of a treat in their program which will consist of the wonderful symphonic arrangements exclusively employed by the Wilds' musicians.

Holland music lovers too will be anxious to listen to this orchestra. The organization is well known in Holland having filled several dance engagements at the Masonic temple and Woman's Literary club.

Agent Gregg of Allegan county writes: "Mari demonstrations will be held at the Colburn farm, south of Hopkins, Aug. 18, and at Leppen Lake, on M-13 near Monteth Junction, on the 24th. There will be talks on the use of mari as well as demonstrations of the excavation of mari. They will start at 2 o'clock, fast time, and it is hoped everyone will be prompt. The third demonstration on the Sherger farm will not be held, but one will be announced next week for the 27th, which will be held in the northern part of the county."

Virginia Van Wief, 16-year-old girl sensation of the golf world this season, added another title to her collection Thursday afternoon when she defeated Miss Elsie Tidding of Highlands, former state champion, 1 up in 19 holes for a leg on the Spring Lake Country club championship cup.

TO HOLD EXAM FOR CLERK CARRIER

A clerk-carrier (chauffeur) examination will be held in this city on Sept. 19th, from which any vacancies which may occur in the local post-office force will be filled. The receipt of applications will close on Sept. 9th.

Applicants must have reached their eighteenth but not their forty-fifth birthday on the date of the examination, unless entitled to preference on account of military or naval service.

Clerks and carriers are divided into five grades, the salaries of which are $1,700, $1,800, $1,900, $2,000 and $2,100 per annum respectively. The tomato season at the Holland Canning Co. will open in about two weeks and will continue until a heavy frost nips the crop. Indications augur for a big half crop, providing seasonable weather continues. In some sections the crop is light, while in others it will be unusually large. William Reus reports 36 tomatoes on one hill on his farm.

The plant will be kept in operation until after the close of the fruit season. The apple pack will approximate 3,000 bushels.

The local company is in the midst of its rhubarb pack and the total tonnage for the season will approximate 75 tons. The spring pack was about 27 tons. The bean pack will end in about a week with an average crop. The bean snipper force numbered 273 women during the peak of the season.

Taken as a whole the season will reach the average. The strawberry pack was about the smallest on record totalling about 475 crates against 3,000 for an average season. The cherry pack approximates 508 tons.

The man and wife who buy on charge accounts will tell you that next month's salary (providing there is no sickness to face), belongs to "the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker," because the privilege of charge accounts tempts people to buy beyond their means. And charge accounts mean higher prices.

SERIOUS AUTO ACCIDENT PUTS 2 IN HOSPITAL

At 3 o'clock Sunday a serious accident occurred on the Waverly road, near the North Holland church, when the automobile owned by Andrew Chepkema collided with a tree, and the impact smashed a new Oakland sedan into splinters.

In the car were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wabeke and four children of New Holland and Mr. Andrew Chepkema, a barber of Zeeland, who had one child with him.

Because of the accident, Mrs. Wabeke is in serious condition at the Holland hospital with a broken leg and bad cuts about the face. One of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Wabeke is also seriously injured and will have to remain at the hospital for some time. All the rest of the passengers received minor injuries and were taken to their respective homes.

Mr. Chepkema stated that he had to pass a car in a narrow roadway and he turned to the right upon what he thought was the shoulder of the road; instead it was part of a ditch where the weeds had grown up and had been cut even with the roadway by the road commissioners. Mr. Chepkema took this for solid ground, and when the car sank into the ditch, much to the surprise of the driver, Chepkema lost control and the car collided with the tree at the roadside.

The result was the terrible accident which demolished the top, smashed the windshield, wrecked the seats and practically the entire upper part of the car. Judging from the appearance of the car, it is a mystery how anyone ever came out alive. The Oakland had recently been purchased, and when dragged by the wrecking crew to the West End Garage, showed it had been run 2310 miles.

The injured were quickly taken to Holland hospital where medical aid was immediately given.

Physicians say that Mrs. Wabeke is in serious condition although slightly improved Monday afternoon. Mr. Chepkema, who was driving, had invited the Wabeke family to Zeeland for supper, intending to go to a Zeeland church in the evening. Before going to Zeeland a short ride in a round about way thru the country was suggested, and it was while making this drive that the accident occurred.

FINAL PLANS FOR DEPOT ARE PASSED

A committee of citizens headed by Mayor Kammeraad was called to the Pere Marquette depot Thursday afternoon, at the request of local agent, E. B. Rich, who stated that Chief Engineer Tuttle of the system would be present with final blue prints and material of which the new depot is to be built, together with such other information as would be of interest to the citizens of Holland. To say the least, the members of the committee present were agreeably surprised, when the layout prepared by Mr. Tuttle was shown.

The chief engineer had everything down to the very last detail, and a new station commensurate with the city's needs is now surely becoming a fact.

As has been stated before, the new depot will be built further north to do away with any blockade on East Eighth street, and that in itself is most desirable.

The depot project means really a double depot, for there will be two buildings the full length of the two being 240 ft., with a small separation, covered by a train shed connecting the two structures.

The main building will contain a large waiting room, 43x32 feet, in the center of which will be a commodious and convenient ticket office. To one side of the large waiting room a ladies' rest room, 11x14, is found in the plans, and on the other end a men's smoking room of the same size is provided for. There is also to be a nursery, where small children can be cared for, away from the hubbub of the general waiting room.

The lavatory rooms are to be the last word in the plumbers' art, the Pere Marquette railroad having in mind nothing but the very best and most sanitary equipment.

The smaller building, erected in close proximity to the larger one, will be for baggage and express. The handling of heavy trunks will be taken care of in a separate building a short distance from the main depot. There will also be a train shed 300 feet long, in front of the depot, extending within two feet of the incoming trains, thus protecting all passengers who entrain or detrain during stormy weather.

There will also be a platform 900 feet long, extending from 5th street north considerably beyond the site of the present American Railroad Express Co. building, which together with the restaurant owned by Mr. Miller, will have to be torn down. This platform will be constructed entirely of paving brick.

There will also have to be considerable filling in done to the north and the tracks going to the Holland freight depot will also have to be moved over on the new made ground, in order that enough space may be available to take care of the entire new depot project.

To the west of the depot a small shed will be built in order that passengers coming by automobile can alight or can be taken on, without inconvenience during stormy weather.

This shed will be large enough to accommodate at least 3 automobiles at one time.

The committee present also was asked to select the style of brick that is to be used in the construction of the building. They chose what is known as the Faulstich smooth faced brick and in the collection there are six different colors, all of them to be used in the buildings. A smooth faced brick was selected for the reason that it is easy to clean at intervals when the smoke and grime make the depot look unsightly.

Mr. Tuttle stated that all contractors must have their bids in for the buildings not later than August 21, and he expects to have the new structures under cover before cold weather sets in. He is now figuring how best to accommodate Holland until the new depot is completed. The present building may be moved over south to Eighth street, with the sheds taken off, or a combination baggage and passenger coach may be switched on a side track at the head of Eighth street, to do duty during the months that the new building is under construction.

Holland is to have a real depot and the plans and specifications would indicate the general manager, Mr. Alfred, is doing the splendid thing, by giving Holland even a little more than was expected, but not more than what has been deserved. The committee that went over the plans were: Mayor Nicholas Kammeraad, E. P. Stephan, Arthur Van Duren, Alderman Lepple, John Donnelly, Sears McLean, Wynand Wichers, Frank Whelan, Sam Miller, E. B. Rich, Wm. Vander Ven, Frank White and B. A. Mulder.

The West Michigan Furniture factory employees enjoyed a picnic on the shore of Lake Michigan last Saturday and one of them wrote it up in poetical form as follows:

"The West Michigan had a picnic, and it was a swell affair. I'm glad I had a chance to go, I wanted to be there. We motored out of Holland some seven miles from town, to the shores of old Lake Michigan to some one's picnic ground. The weather was delightful, the roads were lovely too; we scarcely raised a bit of dust as long processions do. I did not count the autos, in fact I hadn't time, but I want to tell you, mister, there was something of a line."

"And when we reached the picnic ground and looked out on the lake we saw the largest drop of water that was ever in this state. I think the state of Michigan has made a great mistake they ought to own a strip of land half way around the lake.

"We had a splendid program and a lot of dandy games, and lots of people won a prize but I don't know their names. Perhaps you won't believe me when I tell you we had fun, and everybody shouted when they saw the youngsters run. They done their level best as some kids copped the prize; the rest looked disappointed, you could see it in their eyes. Some seemed to be well satisfied to linger in the shade, while others more courageous went to the lake to wade. They wanted me to take a plunge but I had to tell them no, I didn't dare to wet my corns for fear they'd start to grow. I was very well contented to see the youngsters play; when folks get old as I am, they're only in the way. Some seemed loath to leave the grounds as through the woods they roamed, till the shadows began to lengthen, then they skeddaddled home."

So much for poetry. The picnic was all the poet says it was and the employees would like to thank the management for its co-operation in making this picnic a success. There were many races and numerous games and all those who took part had the time of their lives.

The prizes won were as follows, the name of the winner in each case following the prize and the name of the donor coming last: casting rod, Steve Oudemolen, Superior Cigar Store; Klaxon Electric horn, P. Michelson, White Bros. Electric; percolator, Mrs. H. Steggerda, De Pree Hardware; box of candy, Mrs. M. Mulder, Adams Elting Co.; 50 ft. garden hose, G. Derksen, Tyler Van Landegard; smoking stand, H. Fasen, Tromp Mfg. Co.; Pyrex dishes, Mrs. H. Derks, Nies Hardware; box of candy, Mrs. G. Hesselink, West Mich. Fur. Co.; box of cigars, P. Lugten, C. Lamberts; hand saw, J. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Van Dyke of Beechwood, Mich., a pretty wedding took place Thursday night when their daughter Mabel Ruth and the Reverend John Kempers were married.

The bride was attractively gowned in a creation of white French crepe and Chinese filet lace, and a brilliant coronet of lace and pearls set off by a veil of tulle. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and swansonia.

Miss Lillian Van Dyke, who attended as maid of honor, wore a gown of blue georgette crepe and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and rose buds. Mr. Bert Kempers officiated as best man and Miss Dorothy Ann Van Dyke was the ring bearer.

Delightful music was provided by Miss Pearl E. Paalman of Grand Rapids who sang "Beloved, It Is Morn" by F. Ayward, Miss Margaret Trompen of Grand Rapids played "Country Gardens" by Percy Grainger, and the "Etude Mignonne" by Schutt.

As the bride descended the stairs with her father, Miss Trompen played the Lohengrin wedding march. Under an arbor of green leaves the double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. James M. Martin of Holland. A wedding supper was then served to 60 guests.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John Kempers, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. John Kempers, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rozeboom of Sioux Center, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Leusenkaamp and Miss Eleanor Leusenkaamp of Casnovia, Mich., Mrs. Harry Van Dyke, Ruth Van Dyke Della Van Dyke, Henry Van Dyke, John Leusenkaamp, Pearl Paalman, May Trompen, Marguerite Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Elferink, Herman Beuker and Harold Veldman of Grand Rapids, Mrs. M. Van Dyke of Los Angeles, Chris Walvoord, Miss Erna Vander Jagt, Mr. Alwin Ten Pas, of Cedar Grove, Wis., Nelle Kole of Fremont and Miss Jeanette Top of New York.

The old gentleman Steven Vander Meulen on Monday celebrated his eighty-third birthday at the home of his children, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Oost, at their farm home on M-51 two miles east from Vriesland station. Mr. Vander Meulen has been a resident of Zeeland township nearly all of the forty-three years he has been in America. At the age of forty years he came to America with his wife and children and for a short time lived in Holland township, and the second summer located on the farm where he has lived until the death of his wife about two years ago. Among those who participated in the festivities are: Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Holstege and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Oost and daughter Alice, Mrs. Peter Krol, John and Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Krol and children Preston and Sena, Mr. and Mrs. Vellenga and children, Mr. and Mrs. Dantema and children, and Mr. B. De Haas. Among these were several great grandchildren.

The Holland Poultry Association directors have had some very busy sessions, lately, that have to do with preparations for the coming Poultry show in Holland late in the fall.

The 25th anniversary of the organization, that was the beginning of the poultry industry in Ottawa County, was postponed until this year because of lack of facilities to celebrate it properly.

The Hotel for a banquet is now ready, and the Armory for a mammoth exhibition is also completed, and arrangements have already been made, by Secretary Ed Brouwer, to hold the show at the Armory, while Arend Siersema will have full charge of all banquet arrangements, and he will be assisted by Marinus Kole and Nick Brouwer.

Ed Brouwer, the Secretary, is compiling a souvenir addition covering many interesting details, relating to the Holland Poultry Association during the past 25 years.

Much of this information Mr. Brouwer has gleaned from the files of the Holland City News, covering that period, and it has taken months to get the notes, and such desired information as will give an interesting historic sketch.

A comparative statement of the poultry industry during these 25 years, will surely open the eyes, not only of the Poultry raisers but of other folks as well.

Mr. Brouwer practically has the notes gathered, and the whole will be than whipped into shape, so that it will make a readable story.

Mr. Brouwer has also suggested that during the week of the show, a poultry school will be one of the features, along the lines of those held at M. S. C. and Cornell, and the directors at the recent meeting have sanctioned this new departure.

Mr. Brouwer has practically made arrangements with all the speakers, and they are national known authorities on poultry and poultry raising. In a later article a detailed program and full information relative to this school will be printed.

Manager C. F. Slunger of the local American Railway Express reports that business is exceptionally heavy at present. Holland serves as a junction point for many northern resorts and these places are crowded with resorters. Passenger trains are also carrying big loads and Holland is getting its share of tourists and resorters.

Judge Orien S. Cross' court will decide soon whether the picturesque old drive from South Haven to Saugatuck is to be closed near Douglas.

The Holland motorists consider this one of the most beautiful spots on the big lake and a show place to take friends.

Since a better road between these points was laid out to the east several years ago property owners have been building into the right-of-way of the old road, some setting up claims that the drive was only a trail and not a legally established highway.

Both Douglas and Saugatuck officials have entered the fight to maintain the road, which always has been an important asset to the resort interests.

Sometime during the night Nies hardware store on East 5th St. was entered through a rear window and at least $45. of guns and ammunition were stolen. Police believe they have a clue that will lead to the arrest of the guilty parties.

Snyder & Sons of Spring Lake have started work on a contract for about a mile of cement sidewalks, let to them recently by the village.

Westley Keller of Grand Haven foiled an attempt to break into his candy stand on the pier made by three small boys. The boys were taken to the police station and reprimanded.

Victor Hoyt of Detroit, a son of the late Charles K. Hoyt, former county clerk of Ottawa, and former Grand Haven mayor was operated on Monday for gullet at Blodgett hospital, Grand Rapids.

Miss Marion Klaasen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Klaasen, 54 E. 16th-st., became the bride Friday evening of Mr. Theodore Tritenbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tritenbach, sr., of Highland Park, New Jersey. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride at six o'clock in the presence of about 75 relatives and friends.

Before the ceremony Miss Edna Reverts charmingly sang two selections, accompanied by Mrs. Bert Brower on the piano.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mrs. Bert Brower, the bride and groom, preceded by the officiating clergymen, Rev. James M. Martin and Rev. Anthony Luidens of Highland Park, and by the ring bearer, little four year old Marion Klaasen, cousin of the bride, marched in and took their places under a bridal bower of smilax, ferns and swansonia. The ceremony was performed by Mr. Martin, and Mr. Luidens offered prayer.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white Canton crepe, with pleated flounce and lace, and a veil of silk tulle. The bridal bouquet was of roses, sweet peas and swansonia. The bride's traveling gown was of pencil-blue satin-faced Canton, with a hat of pencil-blue chiffon velvet. She wore a string of pearls, the gift of the groom.

The ushers were the brothers of the bride, Raymond, Clarence and Russell Klaasen and Mr. Bert Brower. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held and a three-course luncheon was served. The bride and groom left last night on a wedding trip through the east to Montreal by way of Niagara Falls and the St. Lawrence. Later they will be at home to their friends in Highland Park, N. J., where Mrs. Tritenbach has been employed as a teacher for a year, which position she will again occupy the coming year, while the groom continues his work at the New Brunswick Theological Seminary.

Mrs. Tritenbach is a graduate of Holland high school and Hope college, graduating from the latter institution in June, 1924, and teaching the following year. The groom graduated from Rutgers college in 1923 and he is at present a member of the Senior class of the New Brunswick seminary. He is also president of the student body of that seminary.

In addition to many guests from Holland, the parents of the groom were present, as well as guests from Detroit, Grand Rapids, Grand Haven and Muskegon.

The Flint and Star baseball team added another victory by defeating the West End. Verano, the West End's star player played a good game, not only by allowing just 6 hits but also by his hitting, getting 3 out of four. The Lakesiders had a 1-0 lead but in the sixth inning Japenga came in on a balk by Verano. Later Verano walked a man with the bases full. Ed Wolters who pitched for the Stars allowed 11 scattered hits.

Summary:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 A R H
Flint-Star 0 0 0 0 1 2 2 1 6 9
West End 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 2 11
Struck out: 11 by Wolters; 12 by Verano; Bases on balls: 5 by Wolters and Spoelstra; West End: Verano and McCarty.

A shower was given Wednesday evening by Mrs. S. Pas and Miss Katherine Wassenaar at the home of the latter in honor of Miss Janet Jonker who is to be a September bride. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink gladiolas and pink crepe paper. The many beautiful gifts were hidden in various parts of the house, each gift hitched to an alarm clock, the alarm going off at intervals of ten minutes when the bride-to-be would locate the presents. Meanwhile the guests were entertained with music and games. A two-course lunch was served by the hostesses.

Those present were: Mesdames: N. Jonker, F. Jonkman, A. Meenes, H. Brieve, G. De Vries, S. Pas; Misses: Grace Jonker, Gertrude Jonker, Bessie Vanden Brink, Nelle Zeerip, Janet Roos, Bertha Michmershuizen, Retta Pas, Madge Mulder, Joan Wassenaar, Kay Wassenaar, guest of honor Miss Jonker.

Hoboes and other types of wanderers had better stay away from Holland unless they want to sleep in the city jail. Chief Van Ry has ordered the officers to lock up every suspicious looking character and Friday night about a dozen spent the night in jail. A short while ago the Chicago police had a thorough cleanup and consequently much of the undesirable material had to find other homes. Holland and other nearby cities surely got their quota of this type and some of the petty thieving has been laid to these men.

Generally hoboes just beg but the type of men who have been hanging about Holland nights are not that kind. However, being locked up is not related by them and they will soon spot Holland and stay away from here. One man Friday night told Officer Steketee that he had a room but when the officer went with him to find his lodging place he could not locate it. He spent the night in jail. Suspicious looking men in cars are also chased out of the city as a number of crooks nowadays are using the auto for quick getaways.

CHILDREN GO INTO FAIR FREE

All children under twelve years of age will be allowed to go into the community fair all next week free of charge. Directors insist, however, that children under this age must be accompanied by their parents or must be in charge of some responsible person. The Holland fair association will not be responsible for children who are not properly accompanied by older persons. Secretary Arendshorst also wishes to announce that the fairgrounds will be open to the public free on Monday and Tuesday, day and night. All concessions will be going full blast by that time.

Here's a Suggestion!

Sometimes, for all you know, you may want to sell your house. When that time comes, how would you like to take a tip from experienced real estate dealers?

Well, anyway here's what they are doing in many cities: They advertise the location of the property, number of rooms, and whenever possible: "Heated by a Holland Furnace."

We often receive lists of these ads from our Branch Managers, and of course, we enjoy the evidence of personal pride on the part of our men.

The convincing thing about it is all simply that no mention of other furnaces is to be found in these real estate lists.

USES BRYAN AS SUBJECT FOR SERMON

Rev. Clarence P. Dame, pastor of Trinity church spoke Sunday night to an audience that taxed the capacity of the church. Mr. Dame spoke on the subject, "William Jennings Bryan, the Christian Statesman."

The high lights of this sermon are found below:

"America has been blessed with many Christian statesmen. The utterances of our statesmen in many instances are marked by Christian principles and ideals. This evening, regardless of our political principles or parties, we are met to honor a departed Christian statesman whose life beautifully exemplified the teachings and principles of the Master—the valiant William Jennings Bryan. Let us consider a few of his splendid traits."

"In the first place Bryan possessed marked intellectual powers and abilities. I mention this first because some have dared to call Bryan an ignoramus. Three times his party honored him with the candidacy for the presidency. Universities gave him degrees—and universities bestow no degrees upon fools. Four things which he advocated—the income tax, popular election of senators, prohibition and woman suffrage—have become a part of our constitution. His ideals on peace have been ridiculed, yet the League of Nations has adopted some of his ideas. His position on evolution is laughed at by many today. I venture to predict that those who today ridicule the opposition of Bryan to evolution will revise their opinion before twenty years have passed. Have you read 'The Prince of Peace'? Did you read the address Bryan wrote for the trial in Tennessee but which he never delivered which however was published in full by many newspapers a few days after his death? Any man who called Mr. Bryan an ignoramus discredits his own intellectual powers."

"This man used his intellectual ability to advance God's Kingdom. What a contrast between him and the brilliant lawyer who opposed Mr. Bryan in the Scopes trial. This lawyer spoke in our city several years ago on the threadbare subject of personal liberty. What influence did he exert here? Did he inspire any one to noble living? Did he instill high thoughts in the minds of the youth? Not a soul was blessed by his presence nor by his words. Bryan too spoke in our city. Some of you heard him. He had high ideals before you, he directed your thoughts Godward. The testimony of the minister who officiated at Bryan's funeral substantiates what I say. He heard Bryan speak at Hope College and resolved then and there to dedicate his life to the gospel ministry."

"In the second place Bryan possessed courage. He had convictions and fought for them. He courageously waged warfare for moral and spiritual principles. The pastor referred to his fight in the Democratic convention in San Francisco for a dry plank, his fight against the Tammany crowd in the convention at Baltimore, and his beautiful prayer in the committee room, of the resolutions committee at the last convention and to his present battle to keep out of the schools the teaching of that unproven theory—evolution. 'He was a crusading Christian.'"

"In the third place Bryan was a man of unquestioned sincerity. Friend and foe admitted this. He was sincere in his political life and therefore and bitter enemies. His personal life was blameless, there is no spot upon his record. In his religious life he was sincere. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and a Fundamentalist. He believed the liberals were intellectually dishonest subscribing to a creed in which they did not believe. His sincerity made him defend the historic Christian doctrines."

"In the fourth place this man was devoted to simplicity. Rightly was he called 'the Commoner.' He loved and best understood the folks who lived in rural districts and small cities—the people who form the moral backbone of the nation. This simplicity he got from his Saviour. He was humble enough to feel the need of a Saviour."

"In the fifth place Bryan was a man of faith. The whole world knew that Bryan was a Christian. His last battle he waged on behalf of the Bible. How glorious was that confession which he made just a few days before he died! He believed in the inspired Bible, in the virgin birth of our Lord, in the atonement of Christ, in His physical resurrection, in miracles, in the creation of man in God's image, in the historic doctrines of the Christian Church. Are there any young folks here who are tempted to scoff at these old, old truths? Think twice before you do. If a man of Bryan's intellectual ability gladly and humbly accepted these truths you do well to think deeply before you reject them. He objected strenuously when men diluted the Bible to make it palatable for the 'cultured crowd.' His last utterances and the last published address will no doubt open the eyes of many people to the perils of agnostic and atheistic teaching in our schools."

"I have mentioned a few traits of this great Christian statesman. America has lost a great man. The influence of his long public life has been mighty. He was a moral and spiritual force. Do you know the secret of his life? Jesus Christ His Saviour. This intellectual, courageous, sincere man of simplicity and faith believed in Jesus Christ as his Saviour. Is Mr. Bryan's Saviour yours?"

HAMILTON

A little son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Brink, Hamilton, got one of his hands into a power wringer. The hand was so badly injured that it required the attention of the doctor. Hearing the cries of the little fellow, Mr. Brink came to his rescue in time to save him from more severe injury.

The resignation of H. D. Strabbling as secretary of the board of education has been accepted and George Schutmaat has been elected by the board for the position.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Kaechele have returned from their summer's study at Western State Normal school and Mr. Kaechele is this week assisting his father on the farm in Leighton while another son is having his vacation.

Little Miss Naomi Thomas of DeLton, Illinois, who has been a guest several weeks in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mosier, is now visiting friends in Fennville.

Prof. Paul Hinkamp of Holland occupied the pulpit of the American Reformed church on Sunday morning and evening August 9th. Last Sunday, which was the last of the pastor's vacation, Rev. F. J. VanDyke of the Central Park Reformed church, who was formerly the pastor at Hamilton, delivered the sermon both church services.

Rev. Herman Potgeter and family are spending the latter part of their vacation in the west.

Miss Edna Dangremond was eleven years old a few days ago, and to celebrate the event she gave a birthday party to which she invited a number of her little girl friends. They all had a joyous afternoon and the little friends made Edna a number of gifts that will long help her to remember with pleasure her eleventh birthday.

A team from Blood Brothers' factory came to Hamilton, a few days ago and played a very good game of ball with the local team, who beat the Allegan team by a score of 3 to 0.

Observation, it is said, has revealed the fact that some folk, mainly city folk, of course do not know beans. However that may be, it is quite true that just now some people in Hamilton know little else but beans and will know little else until the bumper crop of beans is harvested and cucumbers claim equal attention. The copious rains and other favorable weather conditions have combined to produce an exceptionally large yield of beans and thousands of pounds of these are being delivered daily from this section to the cannery in Holland.—Allegan Gazette.

Martin Timmerman, who is manager of the West Olive salting station this season was in Hamilton last Sunday to visit his parents.

ZEELAND

Henry Looker escaped with a pair of severely burned hands a few days ago when the results might have been much more serious. Since his brand new son arrived at his home about three weeks ago he had been aching to give him a ride in his car but for obvious reasons he could not take Mr. Looker out with him and he did not feel free to take his son and leave his wife behind. But Monday evening arrived and he bundled both into his car and enjoyed the happiest ride of his life. All went well and they returned home in good spirits. Shortly after returning to his home he discovered smoke coming from his garage and upon investigating found his car afire. He immediately "put his shoulder to the wheel" and shoved it outside. Then he proceeded to put out the flames which proved both successful and painful. It appears that the engine's exhaust had set fire to the oily tank where it was burning escaping gas but the fire did not get into the tank.

Mrs. M. De Jonge gave a farewell party at her home on East Washington Street, Zeeland, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Post and family who leave for Florida next week. Those present beside the hostess were: Mr. and Mrs. Abe Post and family, Mr. and Mrs. John M. De Jonge and family, Mrs. Kate Cook and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Caudle and children, Mr. and Mrs. Martin De Jonge and family, Miss Henrietta De Jonge, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ter Haar and children, Wilson Rosco and Marvin De Jonge, Mrs. John Van De Luyster, Mrs. Maggie Van Koeveering and children, Dr. Jacob De Jonge, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tredenc, Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Hoven, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. John De Jonge and family, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Wierda, Mrs. Peter Bareman, Forst Smith and Edward Van Eck.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Morren, Zeeland city, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Zeerip, East Holland, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vander Veere, Noordeloos, a daughter.
