Milk Ordinance Passes But Is Still in the Air

MAYOR AND ALDERMEN
FEEL RESTRICTED MILK
AREA MEANS MONOPOLY

Spectator Tells Audience of More Than a Hundred His Opinion of the Milk Law

The common council meeting last evening was a long, drawn out affair, principally because a lengthy ordinance which had just been drafted by the ordinance committee, read, section by section, and approved or disapproved in that way. Chairman Huyser of this committee was given the chair by Mayor Bosch who took a seat in the audience to listen to the deliberations that followed.

City Attorney Parsons who assisted in drawing up this ordinance in a legal manner, was called upon to give a review of the changes made deviating from the old ordinance. It appeared that there were some revisions in some of the sections and some entirely new sections. It was apparent from the "go-in" that the aldermen were not going to stand for certain changes that had been made and that applied especially to restricted areas from which milk was to be secured and by the same token restricted areas where pasteurization was to take place. The complete ordinance as drafted, but not as passed, is found on page 3 of this section. The first bone of contention, if you turn to the ordinance, is in section 4, beginning at the word provided. This contains a ten-mile limit from the city and caused a great deal of discussion, and when the final vote came on a motion by Alderman Prins, supported by Alderman Kleis, the last half of the paragraph in brackets was stricken out and, according to the revised ordinance, there is no limit. By the same token section 7 of the ordinance restricting pasteurization plants beyond the six-mile limit was also stricken out. This section rather dovetailed with section 4, and the aldermen felt that there was a possibility of a milk monopoly, and they were going to forestall that, knowing that there was a fine supply of milk beyond that limit around East Saginaw, Overland, Drenthe, etc., districts that have much in common with Holland in a commercial way, aside from the milk industry.

The contention of those who favored the restricted ordinance was that a limit had to be made since one inspector could not begin to inspect an area greater than that suggested in the ordinance. Other aldermen contended that state inspection together with city inspection, augmented by proper pasteurization, would cover this entire situation without any harm to the city. Others stated that with a greater area it had been demonstrated that Holland could get cheaper milk and cream as was brought out by one of the spectators in the audience, and in that case there might be a saving to Holland milk users to warrant an added inspector.

Alderman Prins stated, "Why should we make limitations at this time? Who knows what the winter has in store for us after this summer's drought? We may have to go far beyond the present contemplated limits, because of this terrible dry spell, although this locality was more fortunate than other localities."

Nick Lanning asked for the floor and went rather rough shod after the local milk dealers. It appears that Lanning's Market had been supplying heavy cream at a more reasonable figure below that sold by the local milk dealers. State inspectors had temporarily denied the selling of the supply from that source, he claimed, but later had authorized the milk station to sell products from that source. Mr. Lanning mentioned that he had given milk inspections taken in the city which seemed to carry considerable weight with the aldermen as they deliberated over the different sections of the ordinance, especially as it came to restrictions. Mr. Lanning stated that a few of the city milk dealers wanted these restrictions in order to curtail competition. This is strongly denied by local dealers and as one dealer put it today "all we want is a just milk law." Aldermen were not so much concerned about any part of the ordinance, except the limitation put on the milk area and that of pasteurization. The matter of the ordinance with the changes made finally came to a vote and passed almost unanimously, but at this juncture the new milk law struck a snag.

Mayor Bosch arose from the audience where he had been seated during the rehearsing of the ordinance and said:

"Gentlemen, I am not criticizing your work, but in the drafting of this ordinance I have not been consulted, and I feel that this law is important enough that it demands the consideration of every one of us. I thoroughly approve every change you have made. I do not believe in this restriction for there are many areas of fine dairy country just beyond the limits stipulated, where wholesome dairy products can be obtained, and these farmers have much in common with Holland. I am glad you passed the ordinance as you did and I am thoroughly in accord with the changes made. However, I feel that this is a voluminous document and I, as mayor, do not wish to sign a law which I am not thoroughly familiar because of lack of time given to peruse the law thoroughly. There may be something more in the law that may need changing. I may be wrong about this, but delaying a few weeks will do no harm, and I find that you have completed the work satisfactorily. I will be glad to tell you so. On the other hand if there are further changes that I feel should be made, I will be only too glad to suggest them to you for your approval."

"I feel that this ordinance should not pass at this time and I am not

COUNCIL NOTES

The common council and the audience repeated the Lord's prayer led by Alderman Bultman.

Van Raalte avenue will not be paved. A questionnaire was sent out to 51 owners of parcels of land on that street, 13 did not reply, 35 objected to paving at this time and 3 wanted paving done.

The milk ordinance as drafted but not as passed, is found complete on page 3 of this section.

City Attorney Elbert Parsons was instructed to attend the hearings at Lansing of the Michigan Bell Telephone company before the utilities commission. The matter of rates is to be gone over.

A resolution protesting to Gov. Comstock the trap netting in Lake Michigan of white fish was adopted by the council.

Election inspectors were chosen for the coming primaries as follows: First ward, Dick Brandt; second ward, John Wolman; third ward, Harry Jones; fourth ward, William Lawrence; fifth ward, G. W. Koogers; sixth ward, Herman Steggers.

The polls during the primary on Tuesday, September 11, in Holland will be open from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Alderman Prins made a motion to put in a six-stall garage at engine house No. 2 in the first ward. At present there is a shed which will be torn down and the lumber used together with more lumber from the Ottawa Furniture company plant. City Engineer Zuidema is in charge.

Alderman Van Zoeren brought up a matter relating to guards at the schools, stating that last year we were under the impression that welfare paid for these men, but when the bill came in the city had to pay. Mr. Van Zoeren felt that this was a school matter and ought to be paid by school funds. The council did not go that far, however, but the matter will be referred to the school board.

A man by the name of Knowlen asked to rent the city farm on East Sixteenth street, upon which to raise wheat next year. The matter was left to the committee on building and property. The mayor injected: "I don't care what you do with that farm."

The City of Holland being in partnership with the Chamber of Commerce, Director Bill Connolly submitted a complete report of the activities together with the financial statement. It was a thoroughly compiled report and the ways and means committee will go over it.

The City of Holland owns eight houses; all need repairs ranging from $50 to $300. City Clerk Oscar Petersen read the reports of the committee on buildings and property itemizing the different needs. The committee felt that this work could be done through the works division with the city paying for the material. Mayor Bosch was not satisfied with this. He said: "Some of these houses are not worth fixing. Our experience with the government has been bad enough, and we do not want another fire engine house experience where the city has to pay. The government is still juggling with the alphabet and I would only approve fixing these buildings if the government comes through, and pays for the work and we pay for the material. We will follow the government." Alderman Drinkwater and Alderman DeCook made a survey of these buildings.

A very laughable incident came up relative to the repair on houses. One house occupied by a man by the name of Van Munster. He has caused the city a great deal of trouble and there has been much breakage, and the committee recommended that the new windows be of wire woven glass. The large audience had a good laugh.

The ways and means committee was empowered to act in granting the Knickerbocker society of Hope college a two-year lease of the city owned property at the corner of Central avenue and Twelfth street.

The trio of owners, representing 131 feet of frontage, were opposed by 35 owners with 2,400 feet of frontage who declared themselves satisfied with the present condition of the street.

Possibly the biggest crowd of the month attended the session in the city hall last evening. All seats were taken and overflow space in the corridor and adjoining rooms was occupied. Milk and police undoubtedly was the cause.

The mayor today declared that he could not sign the ordinance as passed last evening, as there are no milk or cream quality standards set up in the city law.

Only the state law stipulates the minimum butter fat content of milk and cream. The mayor, in order to make the law valid, would have signed the ordinance as passed today, but if changes are asked for undoubtedly the law will be held over for revision until three weeks hence. No one will suffer because of the short wait. We have lived under the old one for a decade. Why hurry?

Mrs. Jack Bontekoe of the Mass Furniture Co. and Mr. Bontekoe are in Chicago attending the curtain and drapery show.

ing for delay even if my vetoing power is necessary to do so. I am taking this course not to annul your work, but rather to have it more complete. I find that this is necessary. While it may not be, I feel that it will do no harm to delay until the next meeting of the council which will give me time to go over the ordinance thoroughly. I wish to reiterate what I said before, what you have done this time is all done.

Holland Makes Good At Haven Centennial

FLOATS AND BAND ARE THE
SIDELINES

All Grand Haven felt very kindly toward Holland last Friday. This was evident on every hand where Hollanders came in contact with Grand Havenites. The county seat folks all thought that Holland showed a wonderful spirit in taking such a big part in helping them succeed in their hundredth birthday celebration. They knew we did our best, they knew we contributed a generous share in putting over what we did, and that is not discounting the wonderful displays in parade and pageant that the city of Grand Haven put on.

The whole was simply a marvelous spectacle well and thoughtfully planned, and what is more there was not a mishap of any consequence, even the weatherman so regulated his showers that it proved refreshing rather than otherwise.

Our own Holland American Legion band under the direction of Eugene Heeter, was there with a full membership, and expressions were heard everywhere, "Here comes that great band from Holland, Michigan," and the boys never showed to better advantage.

We would be remiss in this resume of the Centennial if we did not give our own "Dutch" Vander Schel, full credit for his contribution toward the Holland division in the parade. The windmill float with a Dutch garden complex in which little Dutch children played, received the admiration of many; the Dutch fishing "smack" with its labyrinth of nets and fishing rigs reminded one of the "Zuider Zee." The "Stadsraad" were on a float by themselves looking very dignified in silk hats, Prince Alberts and swinging the proverbial cane. They were all smiles and did not seem to be weighed down with the chief of police investigation. Aside from looking wise, not much business was transacted possibly because a quorum was not present.

A musical float brought a hilarious uproar from the sidelines. Six Dutch accordion players and a crowd of male singers were lustily singing "Zoo lang als de lepel in de breipot staat, dan treuren wij nog niet." It seemed to be a great antidote counteracting the depression for it literally means "As long as the spoon is in the gruel, and with a stomach full, we should worry," only it sounds better than Dutch, says "Dutch" Vander Schel. The "hit" in the Dutch division was a gentle spoken word and her off-spring, a sweet cow and her calf, a spring, a woe calf, were the center of attraction. "Mamma" and baby Holstein didn't know what the excitement was all about. Bossie gave an occasional "moo," and the clumsy little calf bleated for more milk. And yes, there were milkmaids and churns and cheese makers and butter rollers, a bevy of sweet young ladies, all in the proverbial Dutch headgear and voluminous skirts, and did they churn and roll butter, and make cheese from the milk that remained after the little calf had gotten its share?

Interspersing these floats were a part of Holland's Tulip Time division, but we are sorry to say that here Holland looked rather skimpy. It had been thoroughly advertised that this division would be present, but the easiest part of the parade which meant simply "dress and go" fell far short of the spectacle we stage here at home. But then despite this shortage, Holland's division went over big, and Grand Haven citizens as well as the officials of the Centennial, could not say enough in praise of our efforts, and we wish to say here again that "Dutch" Vander Schel and those who aided him deserve unstinted praise. This was a labor of love requiring much time in which Holland received the favorable publicity and the good will of its neighbor.

Relative to the Holland division the Grand Haven Tribune has the following:

"The Legion band from Holland led the Holland section, one of the largest in this division of the parade. Then came a truck filled with city officials of Holland in native dress, and a splendid windmill float.

"Queen Wilhelmina of The Netherlands was ably impersonated by Mrs. Gerrit Buis of Holland with Doris Jean Van Huisen as Princess Juliana sitting beside her in an ancient carriage. She was presented with flowers from the reviewing stand. The climax of the floats of this section was the butters, cheese and milk industry of Holland. A cow and her calf, with milkmaids churning and making cheese was a realistic bit of the display. A float representing fishery was also a part of this delegation.

"Mrs. Trientje Braak, 92 years old, mother of Jacob Braak of Spring Lake, was honored with flowers as the oldest person in the parade. She appeared to be enjoying the experience to the full.

"Girls in blue costumes, quaint hats and the usual sabots passed by with boys in the characteristic bloomers and sabots. Another group mounted on a truck sang the old Dutch songs, and Ben Mulder, editor of the Holland City News, joined in from the reviewing stand. Many of the Holland representatives were local people as well as their neighbors from Holland, Michigan."

The Holland City News would like to inject the following at this juncture: The editor's name was mentioned because the Grand Haven Tribune scried, Miss Bos, was close at hand, but let me say right here that others who joined in the song fest were Mayor Nicodemus Bosch and son, Randall, and last but not least, Bill Connolly who did not know the meaning of it all since the dictionary wasn't handy. He, however, succeeded in guessing at some of the words, injecting

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Two thousand and two dollars was the amount taken in for passenger tickets from the local station, the C. & W. M. R. R. Why not build a better depot? Note—The little village of Holland did by far more train riding then than now, with the advent of the automobile. In spite of this fact, this city received a fine depot just as the truck and the private cars were taking the local business from the railroad.

Jacob Kuite, Sr., local butcher, this week shipped 132 calves to the Chicago market and received a fine price for them.

Last Thursday the grocery firm of Prins & Geerlings was dissolved by mutual consent, Peter Prins continuing the business. Note—The Prins mentioned is a former alderman, father of "Heinie" and Mr. Geerlings was the father of Henry and Jacob Geerlings of this city. The store, a frame structure, stood about where the Holland Theatre now is.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Prof. John H. Kleinhekel to Mrs. Anna Van Raalte on Tuesday, Aug. 19. Note—For many years the former was instructor in mathematics at Hope and Mrs. Kleinhekel was the daughter of Holland's founder.

The Alpena Restaurant, conducted in the Blom building on River St. will move to the store east of Nies' Hardware. Anthony Romeyn is still conducting it.

While singing at Hope Church Sunday morning, Oscar Erickson, leader of the Chicago Glee Club, bolted from the church after he had sung only a few bars and has not been seen since. It was learned later that the great singer had burst a small blood vessel while singing which necessitated his hasty exit from the church.

MISS NETTIE DEJONG LEAVES FOR CHINA AUG. 24

Miss Nettie R. DeJong, missionary to China, who has been spending her furlough in this city and vicinity, will leave on Monday, August 20, sailing from San Francisco on August 24 on the S. S. President Pierce. It is quite a coincidence that August 24 also marks the twentieth anniversary of Miss DeJong's first journey to the orient as a missionary. We might mention that friends desiring to send steamer letters to Miss DeJong should address them to her "Sailing on S.S. President Pierce, August 24, via San Francisco."

LOCAL DUNN PLANT SHOWING REAL PROGRESS

W. E. Dunn, H. E. Dunn and Norman Dunn sailed from New York on the S. S. Majestic today for London, England. While there they will put into operation an assembly plant for the W. E. Dunn Mfg. The London plant will be known as "Dunn's Engineering Works, Ltd." and will be devoted entirely to the assembly and servicing of equipment built by this company in that part of the world. The factory building has already been completed, and it is expected that the machinery will be placed and the plant in operation within the next thirty days.

Three sisters of Mr. Hoekje, the Misses Hannah and Emma, reside in Holland, and two are instructors in our public schools. A married sister, Mrs. H. B. Stegman, also lives in Holland. ZEELAND TO WIDEN CHERRY STREET

Alderman Brill of the Zeeland common council moved that the following offer of B. Kampe be accepted: Namely, that Mr. Kampe would give a proper deed for sufficient footage of his property to Cherry street for the sum of $450.00 provided he be exempt from assessments for improvements of sidewalk, curb and black top paving, and he would remove the trees, grapevine and fence. This motion prevailed, all voting therefor. This will make Cherry street a full width highway and will improve that location greatly.

Much Activity At Holland's Rescue Mission

TEACHING, PREACHING AND BENEVOLENT WORK NOW ON PROGRAM

Since the reorganization of the City Rescue mission on Central avenue with George Trotter as acting superintendent in charge and his brother, Mel Trotter, superintendent, devoting part of its time to mission work here, the latter giving his services without charge to the mission, a very pretentious program is being launched with the bodily as well as the spiritual welfare of the needy going hand in hand.

The report compiled by Acting Superintendent George Trotter is very gratifying and would indicate that some real hard work has gone into the rejuvenation of our city mission.

A report for the months of June and July show that the mission has conducted or held nine sessions of Sunday school with an attendance of 1,019; 9 young people's services for the Junior Missionary band, 129 attendance; 52 regular meetings with 1,884 people in attendance; 1,525 people through its 7 street services held each Saturday night at Eighth and Central. Besides this there were several hundred in the one park service they were privileged to hold at Centennial park. With special prayer meetings and other meetings, 98 services have been conducted during these two months. Many calls have been made to the sick and needy, clothing distributed and many helped through the activities of the City Rescue mission of Holland.

George Trotter states he can see more and more the need of this great work here in Holland, and is greatly encouraged with the help and co-operation he has received. He states also that he feels that the local mission has a wonderful future, and already plans are being made for an extensive program for the fall and winter.

The City mission has also joined hands with the Holland American Legion in collecting clothing, bedding, shoes and wearing apparel for which there is a great need. Benjamin Lievesee heads the committee of the Legion, and Benjamin Wieseman of the city welfare is also giving all co-operation.

The City mission is to be the clearing house for this distribution and a thorough record will be kept of all transactions and a report available of who receives and what is given. Of course, this report as to names will not be a public matter for the press.

The City mission is also sending out personal letters to citizens of Holland in which an appeal is made in behalf of the City mission. These letters also contain pledge cards, asking for support, in order that the City mission can hold a high place and can do worthwhile work in the community. The mission has always received support by way of contributions to the "Community Chest," but this we all know, has been temporarily discontinued.

In the list of meritorious projects for which the "chest" was intended the City mission was a paramount benevolent need. Today, however, the mission must get its support elsewhere. It is regarded as a vital part of this city that belongs to the people of Holland and this city and its environs need its Christian influence.

The personal letters sent out closes as follows:

"Mr. Mel Trotter, who is superintendent of the City mission of Grand Rapids, has been selected by the present board to act as superintendent here until January 1, 1935, and his brother, George Trotter, is actively in charge.

"For various reasons the financial condition of the mission needs immediate attention and we solicit your contribution for this worthy cause. We enclose a pledge card for your convenience, which, please fill out and return to the treasurer. Any amount you can send us now will be very much appreciated. If you do not care to send it by mail, we can have a representative call for same."

The Holland City News would like to add that the City mission has done a great deal of good in Holland. The editor has been in close touch with the work of the late Nellie Churchford, who founded the mission under trying circumstances 27 years ago. It was a terrible struggle, but the success was ultimately apparent with the creation of the fine and suitable building on Central avenue. Depression entered into the mission rank as it has into everything else, but now with the gradual upturn it is felt that this worthwhile organization should receive a portion of the benevolent support when and wherever possible. The mission is a spiritual haven for a great many who have no other church affiliations but feel at home there where an atmosphere prevails that is thoroughly democratic and they fraternize with those whom they associate with daily in their particular walk of life. There are many of these folks and they have much in common. They are a part of this community and we feel that they deserve aid as well as any other meritorious and benevolent enterprise.

The officers of the mission are Isaac Kouw, president; Dick Meengs, vice president; Nelson A. Miles, secretary and treasurer; George Trotter, superintendent; Mel Trotter, acting superintendent.

The directors are William Arendshorst, James A. Hoover and Con De Pres.

HOPKINS BANK PAYS CERTIFICATES EARLY

Hopkins State Savings bank in Allegan county has called for payment the moratorium certificates, series C, as of August 21, 1934. The bank has been called for payment of $450.00 provided he be exempt from assessments for improvements of sidewalk, curb and black top paving, and he would remove the trees, grapevine and fence. This motion prevailed, all voting therefor. This will make Cherry street a full width highway and will improve that location greatly.

LIGHTNING CUTS SNAKE'S HEAD FROM BODY

Strange pranks were played by a bolt of lightning during a thunder storm at Hensinkville, S. C., recently.

First it struck a tree and snapped off the head of a snake hidden in a knot hole.

Then it jumped 8 feet to a parked automobile and tore two holes in the top.

Still unspent, the bolt plowed a furrow in the earth about 10 feet long and showered loose dirt on the top of a house 30 feet away.

After the storm the snake's head was found beside the house; its body was still in the tree.

RECOVER LEO LILLIE'S CAR AFTER THIEVES BADLY WRECK IT

The Studebaker car belonging to Leo C. Lillie of Grand Haven has been recovered, but it is far from the beautiful new model it was when stolen on Monday night from Third street, opposite the Elks temple.

The car has evidently been in trouble for there is hardly a square inch that is not battered, dented and scratched. The car evidently rolled over several times on the gravel road of M-50 west of the Yellow Jacket gas station.

It was picked up by Zeeland deputies and later was towed into this city by a local garage man. No trace of the robbers has been found. If they were injured when the accident occurred no one in that section of the county reported it, said the officers.

ZEELAND BANK MAKES FULL PAYMENT UNDER PLAN

The banking skies of Ottawa county are looking brighter and brighter as time goes on. The latest gratifying surprise is the announcement of the Zeeland State bank through the president, Chris J. Denfelder, who states that time certificates D and E are available for payment. These certificates are not due until 1937 and 1939, and total nearly a half million dollars, or to be exact, $465,000.

This, added to the three payments already made, will mean that the bank will have paid out in full in fourteen months' time, certificates amounting to a million and a quarter dollars.

The amount of money released and redeposited at the Zeeland State bank is directly covered by federal deposit insurance, the same as previous payments that were made and redeposited during the past several months. This automatically takes place since the Zeeland State bank has a coverage for every depositor which has recently been increased from $2,500 to $5,000 for each depositor.

The complete payoff of all the certificates was accomplished without resort to borrowing on either bank or trust department assets but through liquidation and refinancing of notes and mortgages. The Zeeland bank holds one of the high records in the state for the quick payoff of its time certificates.

THE LAST PAY OFF BEGINS MONDAY, AUGUST 27.

U. S. LEADS WORLD IN RADIO SETS AND STATIONS

The United States leads all other nations in the number of radio broadcasting stations and radio receiving sets. According to the department of commerce, out of the world's 1497 medium wave stations the United States is credited with 585, and out of 42,540,239 receiving sets estimated throughout the world, the United States has 18,500,000.

The regional distribution of radio receiving sets shows North America first-ranking, with a total of 19,769,405. Europe is second-ranking with 18,594,805 sets, and is followed in order by Asia, 1,932,712; South America, 909,867; Oceania, 639,338; Europe-Asia (Russia and Turkey), 605,500; and Africa, 93,072.

The United Kingdom, with 6,124,000 radio receiving sets, ranks second to the United States, and is followed by Germany with 5,424,755; Japan, 1,739,160; France, 1,554,295; Canada, 1,100,000; Spain, 790,000; Sweden, 66,368; Czechoslovakia, 620,000; Argentina, 600,000; Russia, 600,000; Denmark, 551,681; Austria, 507,459; and Australia, 500,341.

PICKLE DELIVERIES HEAVY AT ALLEGAN

Ward Granger and O. L. Hayward, proprietors of the Allegan pickle factory, report heavy receipts of excellent quality pickles. The early crop was seriously damaged by drought. The harvest will continue until killing frosts arrive.

VAN HARTSEVELD FREED FROM COUNTY JAIL

Philip Van Hartseveldt is again a free man, after more than two months' incarceration in the county jail. Judge Fred T. Miles made this possible after a rehearing of the case in circuit court yesterday. Mr. Van Hartseveldt testified that up to this time he had been unable to comply with the judge's request to pay alimony to his former wife, but now that he is released from custody he will endeavor to obtain employment and if successful will live up to the court's orders.

In giving his decision Judge Miles said:

"The purpose of the statute requiring the court to punish for failure to support children, and failure to comply with the court's order to do so, is to secure the support to which children are entitled, and to enforce the corresponding obligation of parents to support. With plaintiff's statement on the record that he desires to pay the amounts ordered, and that he will do so as soon as he can do so there seems to be no good reason for continuing the imprisonment. Plaintiff should not leave the state, however, until the order has been complied with, and its future compliance secured in the same manner. This statement is not an order, but an

Council Silent On Police Board Communication

WILL NOT COLLABORATE WITH MAYOR AND ALDERMEN
ON LIEVENSE MATTER

The "Chief Lievensen investigation" is still hanging fire. Upon a motion two weeks ago by Alderman Huyser, a proposal was made by the aldermen to meet in private session with the police board to go over this chief of police matter and after the meeting or meetings, then to come to some decision on the vexing question. At Monday night's meeting the police board failed to come to a decision but promised to have a communication ready before the council meeting. This communication, signed by the chairman, Mr. Luidens, sets forth that they felt that nothing would be accomplished by such a meeting, and stated that they were not responsible for any rumors that would harm Mr. Lievensen.

The aldermen were silent when the communication was read, but it was apparent that the matter was not over. Even the mayor had no comment to make any further than to say that the action of the board did cause rumors "so I feel that that part of the communication means nothing." On motion of Alderman Kleis the communication was tabled until the next regular meeting. The communication follows:

Holland, Mich., Aug. 13, 1934. To the Honorable, the Mayor and Common Council, Holland, Michigan.

Gentlemen: The board of police and fire commissioners received notice of the action taken by your body at their last regular meeting held August 1, 1934, requesting a private, informal meeting with our board to discuss our action in requesting the resignation of the former Chief of Police Peter A. Lievensen.

After due deliberation the police board feels that little, if anything, would be accomplished by such a meeting. The statement has been made that rumors have been circulating in the city derogatory to the character of Mr. P. A. Lievensen. If this is true, we wish to state that this board has no part in such rumors. When we requested the resignation, it was our honest opinion that such action was necessary for the good of the service. We were firmly convinced that Mr. Lievensen was not the proper person to be chief of the Holland police department, and therefore, considered it our duty to the taxpayers and citizens of Holland to make a change.

Lest We Forget

The French War Ministry this week issued a revision of its war death totals showing that in all 1,400,000 soldiers and sailors of the republic lost their lives in the struggle that began 20 years ago this month. The announcement recalls other figures this generation, at least, should not permit itself to forget. According to a list issued by the United States War Department in 1928:

| | | |
|-----------------|-----------|-----------|
| Russia | 1,700,000 | 2,500,000 |
| British Empire | 908,000 | 191,000 |
| Italy | 650,000 | 600,000 |
| Rumania | 335,000 | 80,000 |
| United States | 126,000 | 4,500 |
| Germany | 1,700,000 | 1,150,000 |
| Austria-Hungary | 1,200,000 | 2,200,000 |
| Turkey | 325,000 | 250,000 |

Counting them all up and including the figures for the little nations, it was known in 1928 that 8,500,000 men had been killed during the years from 1914 to 1918, and that 7,750,000 men still were missing. A total of more than 16,000,000. And Europe today is desperately fearful of another war.

Mrs. William L. Eaton and Mrs. W. C. Kools entertained Tuesday afternoon at a tea for women members of the Holland Country club and their guests. Baskets of garden flowers featured the decorations. Mrs. H. C. Henshaw won high score in bridge with Mrs. C. C. Wood receiving second prize. Mrs. John E. Telling and Mrs. Marvin Lindeman will be hostesses at a luncheon at the Country club next Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

POLICE BOARD TAKES UP MANY MATTERS AT MEETING

The board of fire and police commissioners, after asking reporters to leave a meeting Monday night when they discussed the request of the city council to take up, with the council, the matter of Peter A. Lievense's dismissal as police chief. Reporters were told later that no decision was reached, but that definite action would be taken Wednesday before the council meets.

Clerk Oscar Peterson read a letter from Lievense in which the dismissed chief said there seemed to be some misunderstanding as to whether he had requested an explanation of his dismissal, and he wished to go on record as wanting to know why he was dismissed. In the regular meeting Com. John F. Donnelly asked that a study be made of the feasibility of installing telephones along the street to replace police call boxes. He also suggested water meters be installed and the fire department be charged only for water used instead of, as now, $40 a hydrant. This, he said amounts to $17,600 a year.

Chief Blom said that figure is lower than paid by other cities of the size of Holland. He is not in favor of making a change. A request from Chief Blom that the floor of the rear room of the West Eighth street fire station be lowered so the small fire truck can be housed there was referred to the special building committee of the board to confer with the building committee of council and the city engineer.

Chief Blom was requested to obtain estimates of the cost of installing shower baths in the fire stations, as has been proposed.

The annual picnic of the North River avenue mission was held on Tuesday afternoon and evening at Tunnel park. James Slager, superintendent of the mission, was in general charge, aided by several committees.

Mrs. Elbert Parsons was hostess to the Macabees, at an outing at Eaglecrest park Tuesday afternoon and evening. Thirteen attended the affair and there were no mishaps and besides the ladies were not superstitious. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Parsons.

Miss Jean Steinfert, who will become the bride of Mr. Bernard Plakke early in September was the guest of honor at a shower given Tuesday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Gerrit B. Nykamp. Mrs. Nykamp and Mrs. Tony Steinfert, mother of Miss Steinfert, being hostesses. A most enjoyable afternoon was had by all, prizes in the several games played being awarded to Miss Alma Plakke, Mrs. G. Nykamp, Miss Jean Steinfert, Mrs. John Fairbanks and Mrs. Tony Steinfert. Those present besides the guest of honor and the hostesses were Mrs. Dirk Steinfert, Mrs. John Fairbanks, Mrs. Frank Fairbanks, Mrs. Peter Steinfert, Mrs. Henry Van Oort, Mrs. Harry Steinfert, Mrs. Alice Hoeksma, Mrs. C. Plakke, the Misses Alma and Marjorie Plakke and Viola Steinfert, all from Holland, and Mrs. Henry Steinfert of Grand Rapids.

TRAP NET FISHING GETS ITS BUMPS EVERYWHERE

Last week Grand Haven, Saugatuck and South Haven passed resolutions condemning "trap net fishing," and today Holland goes on record through its civic bodies as against it. A resolution was passed by the Holland Game club and will be by the Holland Chamber of Commerce at the next meeting.

The resolution passed by the Fish and Game club follows: "Whereas, present legislation permits the placing of deep-trap submarine net in the waters of Lake Michigan under the jurisdiction of the state of Michigan to a depth of 80 feet, and, "Whereas, said legislation was passed with seeming disregard of the fact that the white fish spawning grounds in Lake Michigan customarily range from depths of 60 to 80 feet, and

"Whereas, deep trap net fishermen formerly operating in Lake Huron have commenced operations in Lake Michigan and said operations threaten seriously to deplete, if not entirely to destroy, the white fish industry in Lake Michigan through the utter destruction of breeding stock, and

"Whereas, it is the bounden duty of the state to protect this great natural resource and the interests of the people of Michigan therein, and the interests of legitimate commercial fishermen licensed by the state, approximately 1,300 in number, who do not employ these devices, as against a few who use deep-trap nets,

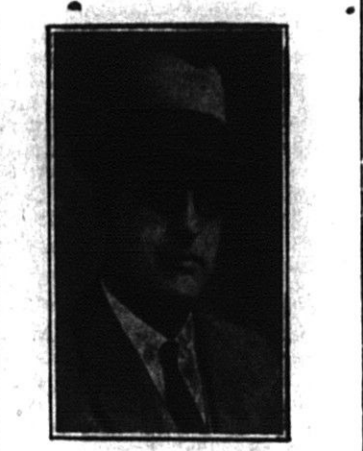

"Now, therefore, be it resolved, that in the interest of conservation of an important natural resource belonging primarily to all the people of the state as distinguished from a few deep-trap net fishermen, and in the interests of maintenance of the legitimate commercial fishing industry, we, the Holland Fish and Game club, hereby appeal to Hon. William A. Comstock, governor of the state of Michigan, to employ the great powers resident in his office to prevent the reckless and unscrupulous operators who have no regard for the public welfare or of the future of the industry.

"Resolved, further, that we request the governor, in the event the police powers of the state are insufficient to remedy the situation, to conduct such negotiations with federal authorities, the aforementioned operators; their customers, the major fish buyers of the New York metropolitan area, et al, as may be necessary to stop this practice."

The Allegan County Woman's Democratic club will meet in the Douglas town hall at 2:30 August 23. A state speaker will address the gathering. The Men's club will join the group in the evening for a fish dinner at Saugatuck.

ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR TREASURER

Benjamin Wiersma of Holland wishes to announce his candidacy for county treasurer on the Republican ticket and asks for support on the primaries on Tuesday September 11. Mr. Wiersma has been a resident of Ottawa county and a taxpayer for the past 40 years and for 30 years he has been employed in the printers' field, holding a responsible position with the Poole Bros. Printing company until that plant moved its equipment to Chicago nearly four years ago. He has served the city of Holland as alderman for seven years and because of his exceptional insight in civic affairs was placed on many very important committees.

He was chosen as one of the members of the charter commission to revise Holland's charter and showed exceptional ability along these lines.

He is a member of the Third Reformed church and has served from time to time as a member of the consistory and has been called upon repeatedly to aid in other church activities. He has always been deeply interested in county and city affairs and undoubtedly is well-qualified to administer the affairs of the county treasurer's office.

The Duty of Every Banker

It is clearly the duty of every banker in the country to perform certain services. The most important of these are:

- Q 1. To afford perfect safety for deposits.
- Q 2. To grant credit to those who deserve it.
- Q In the matter of granting credits the public must in fairness remember that banks are not lending their own money, but money of their depositors, represented very largely by the earnings and savings of the people.
- Q It is possible that some legitimate borrowers are hesitating to approach the bank for credit but we know of no time when good borrowers are so warmly welcome.
- Q Deposits in this bank are insured to the greatest extent provided for any bank, $5000. for each account.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish to announce that I am a candidate for re-election as drain commissioner of Ottawa county on the Republican ticket at the coming primary election on September 11. It has been my aim while holding that office to economize wherever this was possible without being harmful to the service and I feel that much has been accomplished along this line as the expenditure thus far will indicate. Much has been done, especially in rural districts, with the wholehearted co-operation of those to be benefitted through service as this relates to the office of drain commissioner.

This was especially true in water conservation through the dam system. I have always received the most willing assistance and co-operation in my work throughout the county for which I am most thankful. I submit the results of my efforts for your approval and feel free to ask you for your support for re-nomination next month.

Gratefully
GEORGE BORCK,
Drain Commissioner of Ottawa County.

The farm bureau garage has installed the new Sun motor tester, a new scientific machine which reveals all motor operations. Every connection, every operation or the slightest misadjustment in the motor is fully revealed. It is one of the finest inventions for motor testing and servicing we have ever seen, enabling one to make an accurate diagnosis of every motor trouble. A large number of cars have already been brought in for a testing.

The City of Holland Ordains:

Sec. 1. That no person, persons, partnership, corporation, society or association, shall engage in the sale, delivery or distribution of milk, cream, skim milk, sour milk and/or buttermilk, in the City of Holland, without having first obtained a license so to do, from the City Clerk of said City; and no person, persons, partnership, corporation, society or association shall bring or send milk, cream, skim milk, sour milk and/or buttermilk for sale in said City except through a licensed dealer as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. The word "Person," shall, for the purpose of this ordinance, hereinafter be construed to include individuals, co-partnerships, firms, corporations, societies and associations.

Sec. 3. Before any person shall engage in the sale, delivery or distribution of milk, cream, skim milk, sour milk and/or buttermilk in the City of Holland, he shall make application to the City Clerk of said City for a license for that purpose, which application shall be in writing, upon the form prescribed by the Board of Health for said City, and shall be approved by Health Officer and the Milk and Food Inspector of said City.

Sec. 4. Said application shall state fully:

(a) The full name and place of residence of said applicant. The exact location of the place or places from which said applicant obtains and/or intends to obtain milk, cream, skim milk, sour milk, and/or buttermilk, and the exact location of the place or places from which said applicant obtains and/or intends to obtain and/or in which is produced the milk and/or cream from which is obtained, manufactured and/or derived the cream, skim milk, sour milk and/or buttermilk, which said applicant intends to sell, deliver and/or distribute in said City of Holland. (Provided: That no license shall be issued to any applicant whose application discloses that any location or locations are situated at a greater distance than ten miles from the City Limits of the City of Holland; and Provided, further, that each application shall state the distance from the City Limits of said City of Holland, of each location mentioned in said application.)

(b) The number of cows in each herd supplying said milk, cream, skim milk, sour milk and/or buttermilk or any portion thereof.

(c) That applicant is thoroughly conversant with the laws of the State of Michigan and the rules and regulations of the Department of Agriculture of the State of Michigan, governing the production, handling, storing, transporting and sale of "Grade A" milk sold or to be sold for direct consumption, and also with the terms and provisions of this ordinance, and in the case of application for a license to sell skim milk, sour milk and/or buttermilk only, said application shall also state that said applicant has a thorough knowledge of proper pasteurization.

(d) The manner in which said applicant intends to dispose of said milk, cream, skim milk, sour milk and/or buttermilk, and the location of the place where he proposes to conduct said business, if same shall be fixed.

Sec. 5. The fee charged for the license herein provided for shall be: For selling milk, cream, skim milk, sour milk and/or buttermilk from wagon or other vehicle, $5.00 for each vehicle; for selling from the house or when delivered by hand, at the rate of $1.00 for each cow owned or kept for the supplying of milk or any milk product, including cream, skim milk, sour milk and/or buttermilk within said City, but not to exceed $5.00, and all money received as license fees under the terms of this ordinance shall be turned into the Public Health Fund of the City of Holland to be used by the board of health in carrying out the provisions of this ordinance.

Sec. 6. The license herein provided for, if issued, shall not be transferable, and shall not extend beyond the first Monday in June next after the issue of the same. Provided, further, that said license may be revoked or suspended, without refund of the license fee paid therefor, upon hearing, by the Board of Health of said City, after five days' previous notice by said Board of Health of an intention to revoke or suspend said license, in the absence of good cause shown to the contrary by the holder thereof, when any of the provisions of this ordinance, or of the laws of the State of Michigan, or any of the Rules and Regulations of the Department of Agriculture of the State of Michigan, governing the production, handling, storing, transporting and sale of "Grade A" milk, cream, skim milk, sour milk and/or buttermilk, sold or to be sold, delivered or distributed in the City of Holland, shall have been violated by the holder of said license, or whenever any false statement shall have been made by said applicant in the application for such license.

Sec. 10. For the purpose of inspection, the Health Officer, Milk Inspector, and the Assistants of either of them or any member of the Board of Health of the City of Holland, are authorized to enter any building, structure, room or premises, either within or without the corporate limits of the City of Holland, where milk, cream, skim milk, sour milk and/or buttermilk are produced for sale, distribution, sold or held for sale and/or distribution within the City of Holland. Mrs. Diekema To Be Director Of Roble Hall

LEAVES ANN ARBOR TODAY, ACCOMPANIED BY MRS. GEORGE E. KOLLEN

Mrs. Gerrit J. Diekema, widow of the late G. J. Diekema of this city and United States minister to The Netherlands, who has been social director of Betsy Barbour house at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor for the past three years, was in Grand Rapids Saturday and Sunday to bid goodbye to her many friends prior to leaving today for Palo Alto, California, where she will assume directorship of Roble hall, woman's dormitory, at Leland Stanford university. She was the house guest of Mrs. William Alden Smith, college avenue, southeast, Grand Rapids.

As director of Roble hall, Mrs. Diekema will have charge of the activities of the freshmen women and she will also join the staff of Mary Yost, one of the most outstanding women's deans in the country.

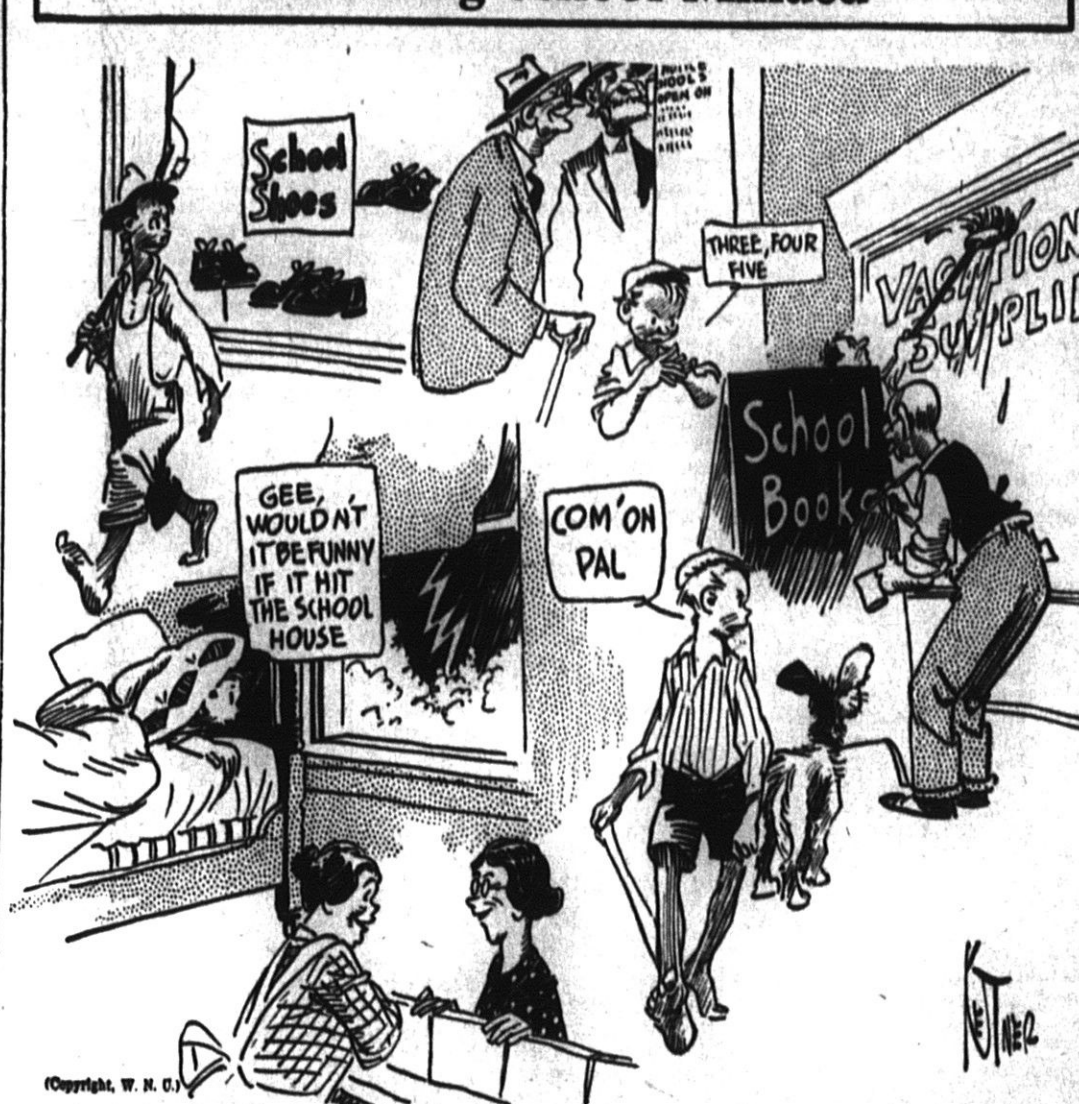

Her only motive in leaving Michigan, where she has many friends and delightful associations and where she has lived all her life with the exception of the time she spent in The Netherlands, is to take advantage of a more responsible position with a larger future.

She is a graduate of the University of Michigan and preceding her marriage was head of the English department of Highland Park high school, Detroit. She was also president and secretary of the state conference of teachers of English.

On her return from The Hague, Mrs. Diekema began work at the university on her master's degree in English literature which she completed in 1933. She also took courses in personnel work and psychology. Mrs. Diekema was at one time a member of the Holland high school faculty shortly after her graduation from the University of Michigan.

During the ten years she made her home in this city Mrs. Diekema was known for her interest and activity in church and civic projects. While here she helped to organize the Ottawa county health unit and was instrumental in the organization of the Hope college

Becoming School Minded

Woman's League, of which she was the first president.

She left Ann Arbor today (Friday), by motor, accompanied by the late Mr. Diekema's sister, Mrs. George Kollen of Holland, and Kerl Belber of Blacksburg, West Virginia. Her itinerary will include the Black Hills, Yellowstone and Glacier National parks, the Canadian Rockies, Vancouver, Victoria and finally San Francisco, which is only thirty miles from Palo Alto.

LOCAL HORSE SHOW TO BE PUT ON IN BIG WAY AT CASTLE PARK AUG. 30

Holland's annual horse show will take place at Castle Park Thursday, August 30, at 2 o'clock. Proceeds of the show will be for the crippled children's fund, sponsored by the Holland Rotary club. Charles Kirchen of Ottawa Beach and Holland, W. L. Eaton of Waukegan, Carter Brown of Castle Park, Mrs. Roy Nobel of St. Louis and Miss Marian Carter of Chicago compose the committee in charge of the annual event.

LABOR DAY CELEBRATION TO BE HELD AT HAMILTON

Hamilton is getting ready for a big Labor Day celebration. The local community welfare is putting forth every effort to make the celebration this year bigger and better than ever before. It has been an annual event for many years and attracts hundreds of people from far and near. It has really become a homecoming day for former residents and friends.

The activities will begin with a ball game in the forenoon on the local diamond with one of the strong Michigan teams. A splendid program of music and speaking is planned for the afternoon and evening. A program of sports has been arranged at the close of the afternoon program. There will be many added attractions on the grounds and coupon tickets will be given with canteen ticket purchases for which valuable prizes will be presented during the evening program to the holders of winning numbers.

The place where all former celebrations have been held, now known as Sal's Grove, is an ideal location, two blocks east of the main highway with plenty of room and shade. It will be a day and night of celebration.

The Misses Ethel, Anna and Joy Luidens, 394 College avenue, were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower Saturday evening, given in honor of Miss Anne Meengs, who will be a bride this month.

DOG'S BARKING SAVES HOME

Fred Lohuis, living on rural route No. 2, a mile east and a half mile north of the airport north of the city, was rudely awakened at midnight last Thursday by the barking of his dog. Upon investigation he found his car in flames, and but for the immediate assistance of neighbors who came to his aid the garage and barn adjoining and the home might also have been destroyed by fire. As it was all the buildings were saved. The damage to the car was estimated at $125.

HADJI BABA'S MIDNIGHT SPIRITUALISTIC SEANCE AND GHOST SHOW

The most mystifying, unearthly and bewildering stage show ever presented in this city comes to the Holland theater Tuesday night for a special midnight performance only—starting at 11:30 p. m.—when Hadji Baba's Spiritualistic and Seance and Ghost Show will be offering. It deals as the title suggests with the deep, dark mysteries of the unknown—and patrons may rest assured of seeing something entirely out of the ordinary, something over which mere man has no control, and is not of this earth.

We solemnly warn you that anything may happen, therefore, when the lights are lowered mid a spectral glow of unearthly light, if a cold, clammy hand settles itself upon your shoulder—be calm. Don't get excited—it may be only a friendly spirit, earthbound and helpless, striving for communication. If he brings you face to face with the supernatural, don't be afraid.

It is a seance for thinking people—therefore, the management has placed a ban on all children under 12 and ladies must be accompanied by male escort to gain admission. There will be a nurse and doctor present to administer to those who cannot stand the strain.

Aside from this uncanny, unearthly stage performance the management has arranged for a special screen feature entitled "The Ghost," which, by the way, is a spine-tingling, blood-curdling thriller featuring the outstanding film star, Boris Karloff.

The twelfth annual reunion of the descendants of Franc Kammeraad was held recently at Pine Lodge. Mrs. John Bolhuis, Vander Brink, 85 years old, and Ben Kammeraad, age 79, last survivors of the Franc Kammeraad family, were among the 150 relatives present.

NEW INVENTION FOR FISHERMEN MADE BY ALLEGAN MAN

Carl A. Warner, county clerk, ranks now as probably the greatest fisherman in Allegan county, if not in the entire district, resulting from his newest triumph.

Warner's latest contribution to piscatorial science is the invention of a little gadget which fastens on the side of the boat to hold the rod and reel, letting the line drop over into the water. The new fastener is hailed by many experts as a long-awaited advancement in fisherman's lore as it is now possible to fish with a minimum of effort on the part of the fisherman who can now read a magazine or doze off quietly in bliss.

Although Warner already has many inventions to his credit, it is understood that he is still working on his greatest hope—a gadget to automatically land fish after they have been hooked.

HIS BOAT CAPSIZES. PORT SHELTON MAN DIES IN PIGEON LAKE

Grover Smith, 41, of rural route No. 1, West Olive, believed to have suffered a heart attack, was dead when his body was recovered from Pigeon Lake, Port Sheldon township, seven minutes after he fell from his rowboat. Smith had started to row from Ebel's landing across the lake to his home, when the boat overturned. Charles Ebel, who saw the mishap, recovered the body. Coroner Gilbert Vandewater who, with Deputy Sheriffs Tony Groeneveld and Peter Wierum, was called to the scene, said there was no water in Smith's lungs and that he believed Smith was the victim of a heart attack. No inquest was considered necessary. Besides his widow, Smith is survived by three children, Sylvia, Roger and Bud. Smith recently was injured in a cave-in on a road project.

Funeral services were held on Monday at 1 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Kline of West Olive, rural route 1, and at 2 o'clock at the Seven Day church of God in Port Sheldon township. Burial was in Vandenberg cemetery in Park Township.

PARENTS ARREST SON FOR THEFT

A rather unusual case came to light August 4 when the parents of Tony Zastawnik, route 4, Allegan, signed a complaint before Justice Cook for the arrest of their son on a charge of stealing ten bushels of wheat from their granary. Zastawnik was apprehended when he attempted to dispose of the grain. On being questioned he showed the officers how he had filled ten sacks with straw and buried them in the remaining wheat so that the grain would not be discovered. He pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny before Justice Cook and was sentenced to serve twenty-five days in the county jail.

GRAND HAVEN B. P. O. E.

$2,000 MORE OF BONDS
At a business meeting of the Grand Haven Elks directors last night $2,000 in bonds on the Elks building were retired. The Elks have never defaulted on interest, bonds, nor deferred a payment during the entire time the bonds have been in existence. This record has been kept up through the years of the depression and is considered quite remarkable. The bonds pay 6 per cent interest and are held generally by local people and Elks club members. The issue was for $50,000 made when the new building was constructed. The regular retirement of the bonds has reduced the indebtedness to about $37,000 it was reported by one of the members today.

Services at the Central Park chapel next Sunday will be conducted by Rev. John Vander Ploeg of New Era. There will also be special music.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Yntema of New York City are spending the summer months at the home of their mother, Mrs. D. B. Yntema, at rural route No. 2, Holland. Mr. Yntema is a member of the faculty of the medical school of Cornell university.

County Will Use Relief Men On Roads

GRAVELING STARTED ON M-50 SPUR FROM US-31 TO LAKE SHORE, IS REPORT

At a meeting of the Ottawa county road commission and committee of good roads of the board of supervisors held in the court house at Grand Haven, unanimous action was taken to employ men from the welfare lists on county road projects.

The two boards acted jointly upon the recommendation of the road commission that the $10,000 which was requested by the board of supervisors to be used in the support of welfare this winter be expended through the road commission for road work.

The lists will be supplied through the welfare commission, the commission to pay for the labor. Carl T. Bowen, road engineer, stated today that the $10,000 would probably be increased as the winter season wore on and the demand was sufficient to make further expenditures through welfare.

John DePre, assistant county welfare executive, and two men, Engineer McGee and Superintendent Wagg from the state welfare department, were in conference with the county engineer and were entirely satisfied that the road commission be allowed to handle the funds to be expended. It is believed that the long experience of Mr. Bowen, and the road commission in handling work of this kind will be very advantageous. The road commission has spent thousands of dollars in welfare work, long before there was any assistance given through federal state aid, it is said.

Mr. Bowen reported that grading on M-50, which is the west spur of the concrete highway leading from Grand Rapids, west, is completed and graveling started today. This addition to the present highway forms an important new highway which will tap the resort section and afford a direct route for many resort owners with property on the south Lake Michigan shore about eight miles south of this city. The work was held up for a while by a walk-out of the truck owners for several days. Following the adjustment the work has progressed rapidly and the road will soon be in condition for travel.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boeve and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Boeve, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kortering and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Dykhuys, Mr. and Mrs. G. Oonk, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. HOLLAND TOWNSHIP MEET

The attention of all farmers living in Holland township is called to the meeting scheduled by County Agricultural Agent L. R. Arnold at the Holland Township hall on Monday evening, August 20, when the subject of shortage of feed will be discussed.

Finish Grading on M-50 to Lake Road

Grading has been completed on the extension M-50 from US-31 to the lake shore road, Carl T. Bowen, county engineer, reported today. Gravel will be placed on the road next week and within a short time it will form a much needed approach to the lake front from Grand Rapids via M-50.

The good roads committee of the board of supervisors and the road commission met in joint session Monday to discuss placing welfare labor on county road projects. The commission has been called on to employ labor as its contribution to welfare instead of turning over a lump sum from its funds. Mr. Bowen thought some labor might be used to cut weeds and grass alongside the highways instead of employing mechanical means. Other county projects are at stages where little hand labor is needed.

How much grass can a cow eat? The Huntley farm experiment station tested a Holstein cow by weight and found she consumed 216 pounds of green pasture in a single day, but the average cow could eat only 140 pounds.

GRAND HAVEN THEN, TODAY SHOWN ON MAP

Centennial sponsors have ordered printed thousands of copies of a special map, drawn by Kenneth A. King, showing the original Grand Haven superimposed on a part of the Grand Haven of 1934. The map should prove a big help to visitors next month in spotting the many places of historical interest.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Boonstra met a few days at the hotel.

Dimes and Waitresses

(Chicago American)

A dime is not a lot of money, but it may be an excellent barometer of business.

A waitress is not usually considered an expert on political economy. But her views on recovery may be nearer to the facts than those of an entire brain trust.

Thus it is pleasing to note that the waitresses in many of our restaurants report that prosperity is very much in evidence, because the dime has replaced the nickel as a tip.

This small fact does not look imposing compared with the charts, graphs and statistics that the brain trusters put out.

But, remembering the results of brain trust predictions, we think we'll pin our faith to the dimes and the waitresses when it comes to judging "conditions."

Money talks; so do waitresses and so do brain trusters. The difference is that money and waitresses say something.

Charles E. Bassett

To the Voters of Allegan County

State Representative

Donald F. Cochrane, the brilliant editor of the Hartford Day Spring, thus comments under date of August 8:

"We see by the papers that ever in the neighboring county of Allegan our friend of many years, Charles E. Bassett of Fennville, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative in the state legislature.

"Scanning of the same Allegan newspapers fails to reveal who is his opponent, if he has one. It ought not to make much difference to Allegan voters who the opponents may be, if a man of Mr. Bassett's character and ability is willing to represent them at Lansing.

"He is an outstanding figure in the agricultural field in the United States, through the exceptional service he has rendered in affiliation with the United States Department of Agriculture and the Michigan State Horticultural Society, as well as a fruit grower in Allegan.

"If the Michigan legislature is liberally endowed with men of Mr. Bassett's type, it will look both different and better than it has during recent sessions."

Is this the kind of man you want to represent you? Then remember to vote for him September 11.

WILL RUN FOR SHERIFF AT NEXT ELECTION

Stories have been circulated that I was a candidate for sheriff on the Republican ticket this year. I wish to say that these stories have no foundation in fact. I am not running against a man who has had but one term in the sheriff's office but I assure you that I will be a candidate two years hence provided—God willing—I live and retain my health. I always feel grateful for the support given me in previous primaries and hope to merit that good will at a later date.

MARRIAGE OF DAUGHTER TAKES PLACE ON PARENTS' SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Genevieve Koelker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Koelker, and John Haakma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haakma, were united in marriage Monday evening in the presence of immediate relatives and friends, the ceremony taking place in the Schutmaat apartment at Hamilton. Rev. John A. Roggen, pastor of the First Reformed church, performed the impressive double-ring ceremony and was assisted by Rev. F. Wyngaarden.

The bride, beautifully gowned in pink satin, carried a bouquet of roses and swansonia, and was attended by Edith Boeve from East Holland. The best man was John Timmer.

Mrs. Allan Callahan played Lohengrin's wedding march and accompanied Josephine Kuite, who sang "Beloved It Is Morn," by Aylward, and "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond.

After the ceremony, a bounteous supper was served. The entire color scheme was carried out in silver and pink, the former being in honor of the bride's parents whose twenty-fifth wedding anniversary also fell on the date of the marriage of the young folks.

The young couple is among the most popular young people of Hamilton. The bride for several years was teacher at Fillmore district No. 5 school with exceptional success. The bridegroom is employed at the Stallkamp Egg Exchange and is also well known as the peppy backstop of Hamilton's baseball team. Their many friends are happy that they have decided to remain in Hamilton and will reside for the winter in the Schutmaat apartments.

At the close of the festivities Mr. and Mrs. Haakma left for a honeymoon trip by motor car to the Century of Progress exposition and the Wisconsin "Dells."

The community extends the happy couple felicitations and wishes for them many years of happiness and success.

REVIVAL OF 4-H CLUB WORK LIKELY IN OTTAWA COUNTY

(Grand Haven Tribune)

Revival of the 4-H club work and home demonstration work in Ottawa county was seen last night at a meeting held in Holland, called by Miss Deborah Veneklasen, county welfare director, to discuss vocational and recreational program to be instituted in the county under FERA.

Miss Veneklasen addressed the meeting, including representatives from this city and other parts of the county, telling the purpose of the new plan which will give employment and provide a program of pleasant recreation and vocational work for many people in the county.

In the counties the work will necessarily revolve around the 4-H club work and the home economic work, she stated, as up to this time it has been two units stimulating work of that kind among the rural sections.

The home demonstration work has been dropped for some time in this county, except for the work carried on by the state extension, and for a time the boys' work was conducted by the state. Since the appointment of L. R. Arnold, county agent, the boys' work has been revived, but the home economic and home demonstration work has not had a county leader.

The meeting was called to select a county committee to direct the policy and make plans for the fall and winter work, but it was decided that committees working in each community would be of greater benefit as sectional groups will be better able to know the needs of their sections. These committees will be appointed later by Miss Veneklasen.

Night schools in the county will be one of the projects pushed. Heretofore night schools have been conducted by the boards of education and local teachers have been hired to teach the classes. In the new plan the FERA will be responsible and unemployed teachers will be chosen to conduct the schools.

The county FERA has been operating playgrounds during the summer as part of the national program and the proposed program is a continuation of the same plan.

The meeting was well attended and evoked great interest. Among those from here who attended were Mrs. Glenn Olsen, president of the Women's club; A. E. Jacobson, president of the Rotary club; C. O. Reed, president of the Grand Haven Recreational club; Miss Susie O'Connell, Miss Catherine Cavanaugh, Mayor Lionel Heap, E. H. Babcock, and Rev. Cornelius Lapelak.

Fred Zigmertman spent a few days in Chicago visiting friends and also attending the Century of Progress exposition.

SUNDAY DINNER SUGGESTIONS

THIS week and next yellow Elberta peaches will be at the height of their season and the price is moderate. Since late peaches will be scarcer and high, now is the time to do canning and preserving. Thompson seedless and Malaga grapes are plentiful and reasonable. Cantaloupes are good and attractively priced, and honeydew melons are fine but expensive.

Tomatoes, lettuce, celery, cucumbers and cabbage, together with beets and carrots, are plentiful and cheap. These vegetables help to make summer salads and cold plates the appetizing things they are. Meats in general are a little cheaper or no more expensive—which is good news.

Here are three Sunday dinner menus:

Low Cost Dinner
 Yeal Fricassee Mashed Potatoes
 Buttered Carrots Bread and Butter
 Sliced Peaches
 Tea or Coffee Milk

Medium Cost Dinner
 Roast Lamb with Gravy
 Boiled Rice Glazed Carrots
 Bread and Butter
 Jellied Fruits
 Coffee (hot or iced) Milk

Very Special Dinner
 Cream of Corn Soup
 Jellied Veal Stuffed Tomato Salad
 Sliced Cucumbers
 Hot Mincemeat Butter
 Sponge Cake Sliced Peaches
 Whipped Cream
 Coffee (hot or iced) Milk

KOEMAN-JUIST MARRIAGE TAKES PLACE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Koeman was the scene of a pretty home wedding Wednesday, Aug. 8, when their daughter, Miss Anne Koeman, became the bride of Jacob Juiet, of Fulton, Ill., recent graduate of Western Theological Seminary. The marriage rites were performed by Rev. Jacob Vander Muelen of this city, uncle of the bride, before an improvised bower of ferns and mixed flowers, the double ring ceremony being used.

The bride, gowned in white silk crepe with satin trimmings, was attended by two sisters, Miss Janet Koeman attending as maid or honor, and Miss Elsie Koeman as bridesmaid. The bridegroom was attended by Peter Meurer of Holland.

After a wedding trip to Fulton, Ill., where they will spend a few days with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Juiet will make their home in Kalamazoo where Mr. Juiet has accepted a call to the East Side Mission.

SMITH AND LACY, OPPOSING CANDIDATES FOR GOV.
SPEAK AT PARK

Quite a large gathering came out to listen to Judge Lacy of Detroit, candidate for governor against Comstock on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Lacy spoke from the steps of the Masonic temple and was fittingly introduced by Lewis N. Stemphy, local attorney who is also a candidate for prosecuting attorney of Ottawa county.

Mr. Lacy said in part, as follows: "The real purpose of government is to promote the general welfare, and the state and federal and local governments should co-operate to that end. We know that President Roosevelt will do everything that he can to promote the general welfare and to relieve the distress of the home and farm owners and of the unemployed and those who are in distress. But we should not expect the federal government to do all of that alone. The state government should line itself up with the federal government 100 per cent in wholesome co-operation so that all may work together in team work to accomplish the best results possible and get ourselves out of this depression."

"The state of New York has re-institutionalized more than 54,000 of its aged, worthy poor and placed them in homes on an old-age pension basis, reducing the cost from $39.61 to $23.80 per capita per month. Several other states are now pursuing this same policy and in some instances the reduction in cost has been as high as 75 per cent."

"The experience of those other states proves that this could be done for less than one-half of the cost which is now imposed upon the backs of our taxpayers for maintaining our worthy, aged poor in institutions, and with the other one-half which would be saved we could take care of as many more of them on an old-age pension basis without adding to the present tax burden of the people."

"I am opposed to the sales tax on necessary food staples, because it is an unjust imposition on the poor, who are least able to pay. I do not think that a tax upon bread, butter, milk and other foodstuffs necessary to sustain life is defensible on any basis. No one can tell me that the great state of Michigan, with all of its riches and all of its wealth, has to tax the food that men, women and children eat in order to sustain government."

John W. Smith, one-time mayor of Detroit, spoke to a large crowd at Centennial park Saturday afternoon.

He said: "I am in this campaign because no candidate of either party espouses the social and economic views that I hold," Mr. Smith said.

He accused Alex J. Groesbeck of being in sympathy with large utilities, especially the Standard Oil company, for which he is the counsel. Frank Fitzgerald, the third candidate for governor, he charged with lack of program.

Mr. Smith said the most important question before the people is the finding of new sources of revenue, making it possible to abolish the sales tax which, he described as the only tax on foodstuffs in any civilized country of the world.

"The only sensible way to meet the problem of revenue," Mr. Smith said, "is to increase the severance tax on gas and oil and to abolish the liquor control board, which is hiking our taxes by paying an army of men for doing nothing and paying exorbitant rent for old buildings."

UNUSUAL CAUSE OF
FOREST FIRES

Lightning was given as the cause of seven fires in District 11, embracing the counties of Kalamazoo, Crawford, Muskegon and Benoni, during the early part of June, by Harry L. Aldrich, district supervisor. In several instances, according to Aldrich, the bolts appeared to have struck green trees and buried themselves in the roots where fires smoldered for two days, finally emerging in a mass of old slash several rods distant from the trees.

A total of 41 acres was burned over by the seven fires, the largest individual burn covering 17 acres of land.

Nine wells have been driven near the foot of Mt. Baldhead during the past several years. The well being pumped daily now gives 300 gallons per minute, and the reserve well gives 500 gallons a minute. COUNTY AGED TO RECEIVE
PENSION

Although collections of the old age assistance tax has been far from satisfactory, sufficient funds are now available to start the allowance of pensions to the most needy cases in Ottawa county, it was announced today. Mrs. Anna Poppen, chairman of the county old age pension board, received this information from the state board at Lansing.

Miss Sarah Brodebeck, field supervisor of old age pensions in ten counties, recently called on the county pension board and advised that investigation be made of the various applicants.

Mr. John De Bley has been appointed investigator. He will act under the supervision of the chairman of the county board in reviewing more than 500 applications on file in the county; many of these old people being in dire need.

Nine counties in the state have started to pay pensions to the most needy, Mrs. Poppen stated. Each county receives the full amount that has been paid in by their respective county, and every cent paid in will be used for the assistance of the old people, as the expense of administration is not paid out of the head tax.

On behalf of the many aged citizens in Ottawa county, an appeal is made to you in the name of humanity to do your part to be a good citizen and comply with the prompt payment of the $2 tax to our county treasurer.

Appoint Grand
Haven Attorney
To Aid Farmers

MISNER APPOINTED AS COUNTY CONCILIATOR FOR FARMERS ON DEBT
PROBLEMS

Appointment of Chas. E. Misner of Grand Haven as Ottawa County conciliator to aid farmers in financial difficulties was announced a few days ago.

Mr. Misner, who has offices in the People's Savings Bank building in Grand Haven, was named to this position by Judge Fred M. Raymond of the U. S. District Court, Grand Rapids, under a federal act to enable distressed farmers to obtain compromises or extensions of time to meet their obligations.

Commissioner Misner explained his new duties as follows: "A farmer who is insolvent or unable to meet his debts as they mature may file with the United States District Court at Grand Rapids or with the conciliator commissioner of the county in which he resides, a petition requesting a composition with his creditors or an extension of time to pay his debts."

"Under the terms of the Frazier-Lemke amendment of June 28, 1934, any farmer whose compromise plan is not accepted by a majority of his creditors may have his property appraised and purchase it from the trustee of his estate over a six-year period, paying one per cent the first year, two and one-half per cent the second and third years, five per cent the fourth and fifth years, and the balance the sixth year."

"Unsecured creditors are protected during this period by a general lien and are to be paid by the trustee from the funds obtained through the repurchase by the farmer. If objections are made to this plan the court may stay all proceedings for five years, during which time the farmer retains possession, paying a reasonable annual rental. After the five years have passed he may purchase on an appraisal basis."

"The terms of the composition with creditors or extension proposal may provide for extending the time of payment of either secured or unsecured debts, or both, and may provide for priority of payments to be made during the period of extension as between secured and unsecured creditors."

"In other words, the farmer is given an opportunity to make payments on account to his creditors during the period of extension."

"After the filing of the petition no proceedings can be commenced, nor can proceedings which have been commenced be further prosecuted by the farmer's creditors on any debts or account."

FARMERS TO BE PAID
HIGHER PRICES FOR MILK

Farmers in the vicinity of Zeeland held a meeting last Thursday and signified their intention of going on strike, threatening to cut off the milk supply by Tuesday unless their demands for higher prices were met.

In compliance with the demand of the farmers, a temporary agreement was signed by the two factions for an increase of slightly more than one cent a quart. The dealers represented declared that they are unable to grant an increase permanently without boosting the retail price in the city, as their returns for milk average about six cents a quart.

LOCAL POLICE TO ENFORCE PARKING RULES

Acting Chief Van Ry states that he has received numerous complaints from merchants who feel that they have lost business because of overtime parking on the part of local drivers and that unless conditions change he will instruct his men to arrest violators and they will be subject to traffic fines.

Mr. Van Ry states that because of the many out-of-town folks who make their home in Holland and its resorts during the summer months the police department has not been marking cars, he said, and some of the local business men are abusing the privilege. Many, he pointed out, park their cars in desirable spots for an entire day, or at least part of it.

ZEELAND

Zeeland Gilbert Karsten Legion post junior team was eliminated by Royal Oak, 12 to 6, in the semi-finals of the state American Legion tournament today. Royal Oak trailed, 6 to 2, in the sixth, but a 7-run rally gave them the lead and they never relinquished it. Two defeats eliminated a team from the tourney and Zeeland lost in the first round to Pittenger post of Detroit.

The persons' taxes of the city of Zeeland will be subject to collection by City Treasurer Ben Goosen within a period of 14 days, the city council decided Monday evening. The council also passed a resolution empowering Supt. Gerrit P. Rocks with authority to shut off all water users who have more than three months' water payment to make to the city, unless an application is made to the water department to extend the time on a payment plan. The report of the utility commission was submitted but no action was taken as a special meeting will be arranged with the council and Consumers' Power Company representatives. The committee on streets and sidewalks reported that B. Kamps refused the offer of $350 for a parcel of land for the construction of Cherry street. Committee action was authorized by the council to make the needed arrangements with Kamps. The committee also reported on the resurfacing of Main street, but no action was taken. David Veenendaal, local fireman, was appointed chief of the fire department, succeeding W. Clark, who held the office four years.

"Amos Denounces Self-Indulgence"

(Amos 6:1-7, 11-14)

HENRY GEERLINGS

Pride and boastfulness always lead to self-confidence and indifference to danger. It is the untamed man who has the most to say about what he can do. The athlete, before he meets competitors to victory, is prone to regard himself as invincible. But it is the test that tells how sound is the claim. After the race the boasting runner may find that others could outrun him, the boxer that another can outbox him, the ball team that another team plays better. Amos looked on Israel and Judah as boasting nations, confident in their defenses, indifferent to neighboring enemies, but both nations fell under attack. Loudest boasts are no assurance of greatest success. This is as true of individuals as it is of groups. It is true in matters of morals and religion as in matters of body and mind.

Two cities were in the prophet's mind as he began to pronounce woes upon them. One was Jerusalem, capital of Judah; the other was Samaria, capital of Israel. Both these cities were on high rugged hills, a kind of natural fortification for them. The peoples of these cities were contented in their defense, assuming that no power on earth could overcome them. Amos directed his woes against the leaders of Judah and Israel, apparently hurling his bitterest woes against Israel. But Samaria would fall, as would also Jerusalem. He cited what happened to other cities in the past, three of them had been ruined, in spite of their being the boast and pride of great kingdoms. There is cutting sarcasm in the challenge of Amos to Samaria and Jerusalem to compare themselves, their kingdoms and their lands with these fallen cities, to see whether they had any better chance to endure than these.

Captivity was the worst calamity that could befall a people, but this was surely near at hand for Samaria. Their defiant revivings would be stopped. Humble in the dust would their banner be. And why? Amos declared that the sinful self-indulgence of the people would so weaken them that in time of danger there would be no adequate defense.

The people refused to heed warnings. They laughed at the prediction of overthrow, and said that such an evil day would not come. But several sins were charged against them by Amos, and he made these wicked ways of theirs the basis for his prediction of captivity. In the time of crisis their self-indulgence would show its evil results.

Back of all this prediction was God and He would bring it to pass. The destruction would be complete. Not only the stately, strong houses but the smaller houses of the common people would be broken. The punishment would be on all the people, for all of them had sinned together. That is God's way of justice. He makes no exceptions. He has no favorites. He applies his laws and their penalties alike on all.

Israel should have learned this long ago, but blinded by their prosperity they had lost sight of God and had discarded His laws. Naturally Amos was unpopular as he pronounced woes on them and declared that captivity was near. Besides they could not hope for God's help in the crisis. To do so would be as futile as for horses to try to run up the rocky side of a mountain or for a plowman with his oxen to try to plow the same mountainside. It was all their own fault. They had made judgment as bitter as gall to those whom they judged, and had regarded their wicked ways of life. Had they allowed righteousness, their scheming, bribing, profiteering plans would have been killed. They had trusted in their own strength, and loudly rejoiced in their wrongs. They made sin something to be laughed at rather than condemned. But their fate was coming nearer. Another nation would be used by God for their overthrow and punishment. Under the lash of invaders they would be driven out of their lands. The time was at hand when they would be utterly expelled from their beloved land and an enemy would take them in charge and hold them as captives. This was the price they would have to pay for their self-indulgence.
