Is The Parking Problem At Last Settled Here?

COMMON COUNCIL MEMBERS IN RESENTFUL MOOD;
CHANGE POLICE REG-ULATIONS AGAIN

Council Passed Second Regulation
Illegally; Made It Binding
Last Night

The meeting of the common council last night was rather tense when it came to the parking question and there was a general feeling that since the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners could not get their way, that they decided to throw all parking regulations and traffic changes in the "lap" of the common council so the "city fathers" could try their hand in what the police felt was their jurisdiction.

Some two weeks ago the common council stipulated that on west River Ave. from 7th to 10th Sts. there should be diagonal parking, and that on east River Ave. parking should be parallel in those blocks. It appears that the Police Board reversed this order and inaugurated parallel parking on both sides of the street. This again brought a storm of protest from shoppers and the decision was again reversed. Last night a petition of 250 names from Holland and vicinity raising the common council for its action on diagonal parking on the west side of River Ave., was filed. It appears then that another change was made by the police and parallel parking was again installed which again brought protest. This change was made on the supposition that the resolution passed by the common council on August 10 was not valid.

That again threw the matter into the "lap" of the common council and the aldermen, therefore, appeared in a resentful mood, and they were bound to make the matter legal at last night's council. The cool and collected Ald. Huyser arose and with a handful of resolutions read them clearly and distinctly as a schoolmaster does, and stated that he presented the resolutions because the action of the council was invalid on the grounds that insufficient notice was given and that the number of aldermen who passed upon the matter were less than at the previous regular meeting, which under the rules of the council prohibits any reconsideration of the action taken at a previous meeting. When Ald. Huyser had read this, asking for the annulment of this action, the aldermen voted unanimously to rescind that action.

A further step was a second resolution declaring the action annulled, as it relates to that section affecting parking vehicles in the city of Holland, and that a reconsideration be given the matter. All this was a matter of form, and this resolution, too, was unanimously passed by the common council in order to straighten out what had been incorrectly and illegally done at a previous meeting.

But the last resolution was the crux of the whole parking question. It was not the intention of the common council to back down on their action, which was illegal, but to pass the same resolution with the same intent, to pass it legally. The action, in short, places the common council on record that the regulation suggested August 4 be approved and that the adoption of parallel parking on River Ave. on the west side thereof between 7th and 10th Sts. has been reconsidered by the common council at this regular meeting on August 18, and that it is the judgment of the council that any parking of vehicles should be ordered and established on River Ave. on the west side thereof from 7th to 10th Sts. and that River Ave. as above specified should be marked for legal parking accordingly, so as to provide for parking substantially at 25 degrees from the curb, and that all parking on River Ave. on the west side thereof between 7th and 10th Sts. shall be at an angle of 25 degrees with the curb, measured from the curb.

ZEELAND LADY DIES IN HOS- PITAL AT STATE CAPITOL

Mrs. Violet De Jonge, age 21, of Zeeland, died in a hospital at Lansing, Tuesday, a few hours after the car in which she was riding with her husband, Russell, 25, collided with a truck on US-16, a mile west of Williamston. Mr. De Jonge's condition is critical. He was said to have a skull fracture and two broken legs.

Police said the De Jonge car smashed into a truck owned by the Creston Transfer Co. of Grand Rapids, which Floyd Ward 22, of Grand Rapids, the driver, had, marked on the roadside.

The DeJonges were returning to Zeeland after visiting Mr. De Jonge's father, Flokkert De Jonge, who was confined at the University hospital, Ann Arbor.

Mr. De Jonge operates the Certified Radio Shop at Zeeland. Both graduated from Zeeland High School. Mrs. De Jonge was in charge of the primary class Sunday School of the Second Reformed Church, where her father, Richard Van den Berg, is pastor.

The remains of the unfortunate woman were taken to Zeeland and are now at the Langeland Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements cannot be made until the results of Mr. De Jonge's injuries are better known. Mr. and Mrs. De Jonge were married in Zeeland in 1936. Mrs. De Jonge was a niece of Mrs. S. J. Houtman, William Winstrom, Frank Van Hove, and Mrs. Gerrit Wierda of Holland, and a granddaughter of Mrs. Peter Winstrom, also of Holland.

Mrs. DeJonge is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Winstrom of Zeeland; a brother, Kenneth, and two sisters, Rose and Dorothy.

Council Notes

All aldermen were present except George Damsen and John Vogelzang. The latter was laid up due to an accident to his foot.

Dyke and Volkers asked for permission to lay sidewalks. The matter was left to the committee on sidewalks on motion of Ald. Bultman, supported by Alderman Oudemool.

The Holland Hospital boilers have been inspected and found in good condition.

An outside firm asked for permission to collect junk in the city. This small matter brought some "fireworks." A motion was made to leave the matter to the License Committee, but Alderman Prins presented this when he exclaimed, "I believe in giving this business to local people who help the city and who pay the taxes. Why give it to an outsider who pays no taxes?" When the matter was put up to a vote, however, the Prins proposal lost by a 6 to 4 vote, and the matter will be left to the License Committee. It is understood that this committee is to take into consideration the local angle.

The Prins motion in reality had the majority vote of the aldermen present, the vote standing 6 to 4 in favor of Prins' substitute motion, but City Attorney Parsons ruled that according to the charter there must be a majority of the elected aldermen who would vote favorable in order to carry the motion. Two aldermen being absent, the majority vote could, naturally, not be had. Had the two aldermen been present and they would have voted with the 4, then there would have been a tie vote and the mayor would have to be the deciding factor. But feeling there was no majority, Prins' motion was lost, although it had a majority of the aldermen present.

On a motion of Ald. Kalkman it was finally decided to have a sidewalk laid on 22nd St. between Central Ave. and Lawdale Court.

The city attorney will be asked to take up with the Greyhound Bus Line the payment for a new sidewalk, which Ald. Kalkman claims this transportation company broke in several places. The property in question is on the west side of 7th St. and Central Ave., said to belong to Mrs. John Pieters of Kalamazoo. Ald. Prins moved that the Greyhound Co., if they broke the sidewalk, should repair it. Ald. Kalkman also claimed that the Greyhound sometimes has seven buses parked on the east side of the sidewalk on the East side of Central Ave. Anyway, the city attorney is going to look into the whole matter.

Two weeks ago a petition was sent into the common council asking that steps be taken to abate the smoke nuisance at the Holland Gas plant and the Sligh Furniture Co. on 12th St. near Columbia Ave. The matter was given to City Attorney Elbert Parsons to take up. Mr. Parsons stated, in giving his report, that he received the fullest co-operation of the Michigan Gas and Electric Co., that "Bill" Bergot behind abating the nuisance immediately and placed steam jets under their boilers, which had contacted desired effects. He then contacted all those who had signed the petition to find out whether the smoke was still bothering. Some of them stated, "We have noticed no smoke lately. We didn't know you were running." Mr. Elbert Parsons stated, "I couldn't have had a better reception from the Holland Gas Co. folk. They got busy immediately and gave us co-operation with a little delay at the Sligh Furniture Co. plant for the reason that the company is installing a new boiler of the smokeless variety, and Mr. Sligh stated that the cut-over which the old boiler will be done away with and the new boiler will be in working order. Here, too, was the best of co-operation. In fact, Ald. Prins became so enthused that he asked for a vote of thanks for the city attorney, who made the negotiation, and the Michigan Gas and Electric Co. for their hearty co-operation. Mayor Geerlings augmented with "Such co-operation is for the good of all" whereupon the "city fathers" gave a unanimous vote of thanks.

"Case" Vander Heuvel was given permission to put in a filling station at River Ave. and 2nd St.

Lee & Cady was given permission to mark off a loading space at their warehouse on Central Ave.

Bert Sloot was the successful bidder of six to purchase city property at the corner of 11th St. and Lincoln Ave. His bid for the property was $850.

Ald. Kleis moved that taxpayers be given more time to pay taxes, but found out that the Ways and Means Committee had extended the tax limit to September 5, and Ald. Kleis let it go at that. However, the 5th of next month is the "deadline."

Ald. Huyser said that progress is being made on investigating the pavement of part of 12th St. This street is in wretched condition in spots and surely needs attention.

Mayor Geerlings suggested that Holland be given another thorough street, and that this be College Ave. He stated there was no hurry, but simply suggested it in order that the aldermen may give the matter more thought. It was referred to the committee on streets and crosswalks with instructions to report later.

Harvey Hop Sees And Hears Queen Give Welcome

HOLLAND BOY, NOW IN THE NETHERLANDS, WRITES OF INTERESTING EXPERIENCES
JAMBOREE

By Harvey Hop

World Jamboree,
Troop 12, Subcamp 8,
August 7, 1937.

Editor Mulder,
Holland City News.

Dear Sir:—
Am sorry that I am a few days late in writing, but there is so much activity here that one hardly finds time to write.

The 5th World Jamboree came to a glorious opening in Vogelzang, Netherlands, with the Queen and the beautiful little country sitting in the reviewing stand with Lord Baden Powell, grand old chief of scouting. Although 80 years of age, this grand old man stood for over two hours watching 25,000 scouts, representing 43 different countries, march by. The American contingent was the first to march by. As we drew abreast of the stands 815 scouts drew, as one, a small American flag from his pocket and cheered lustily while he waved it over his head.

The Queen was dressed in orchid and looked very nice as we marched by within 10 feet of her. After all the countries had marched by, there was a grand rush into the field at which time the Queen and the Chief Scout spoke to us. The Queen was nervous and, therefore, her voice was quite pitched. That is what I was told by some Dutch people.

Tuesday our troop of 42 boys were hosts for boys from 20 countries. It was a delightful meeting even though some of the boys could not understand everything that was said. Boys from Egypt played Mandah and sang Egyptian songs. Each of the countries craved some such interesting stunt typical of their country. An American boy, who has lived in India all his life except for brief visits to the States, gave this poem which gives full purpose of the World Jamboree. This is how it went:

"BROTHERS ALL ARE WE"

Here where the campfire burns
And where the world youth are met,
Brother, give me your hand,
Say you will not forget.

If in the years to come
Rumors of war arise,
And wrath, mistrust, or greed
Beset the nations,
The sting of angry words,
The surge of nations' pride,
How shall they make us hate—
Our tents stood side by side,
We stood with arms alined,
We joined in joyous play,
And, with youths friendly eyes,
Smiled, what we could not say.

What barriers knew we then
Of breed, or race, or name,
We owned one chief, one law,
One promise, and one aim.

Here where the campfire burns
Let us through the place—net,
Brother, give me your hand,
Say you will not forget.

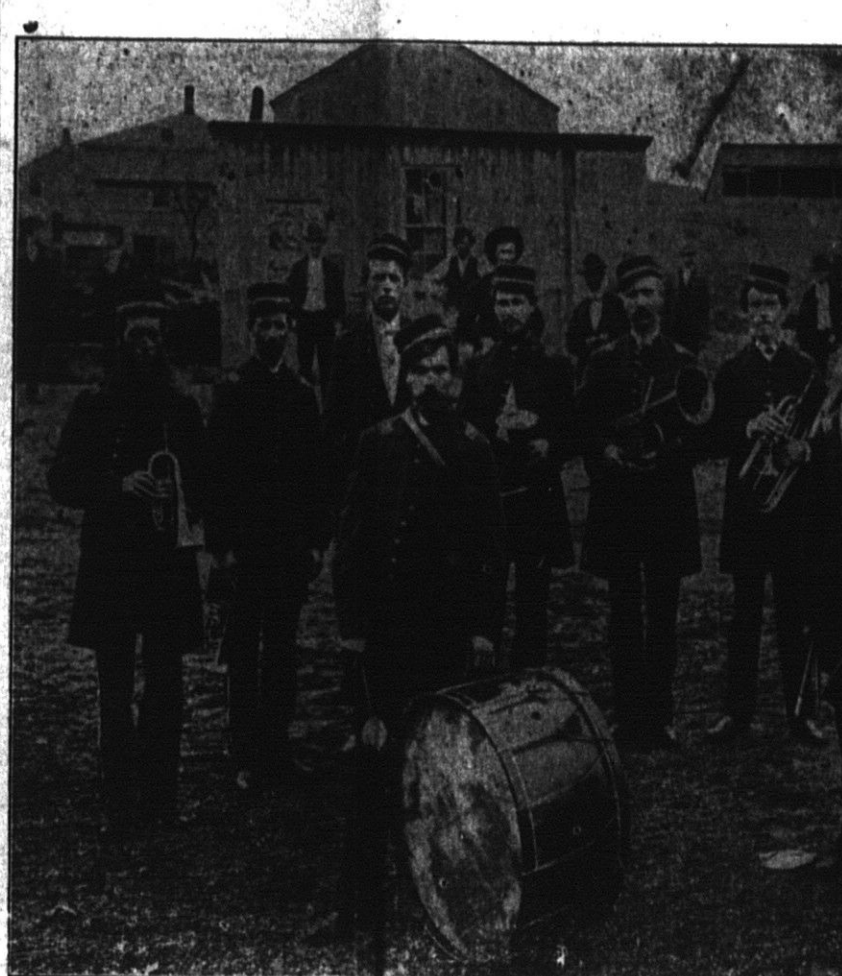

At this meeting we also had James E. West, head scout of the U.S.A. Our troop, which is made up of boys from Ill., Ind., Wis., and Michigan, was highly commended for having this meeting.

A very interesting feature of the American Camp is the gateway which is composed of 815 logs, one for each boy in the camp. These logs are 3 feet long and 4 inches in diameter and have the name of each boy personally carved on each log.

Being from Holland and having wooden shoes and picture post cards of Holland with me, my tent is usually surrounded by a host of visitors. I speak my knowledge of the Dutch language and wait for the next crowd. I have received many invitations out to dinner and have accepted a few. I find the Dutch people to be very hospitable.

All in all, the camp has been very interesting and very worthwhile. I have made many friends and have received a world of experience. Hoping you find this material useful, I remain
Sincerely yours,
Harvey Hop.

Band Painting In Holland Museum

The above picture has been reproduced into a painting representing Holland's first band after the fire of '71. This painting for a time was in the band room of Holland's American Legion Band.

However, Holland's Historic Commission a few days ago asked to have it as one of the exhibits in the large collection in the Museum, now housed in the old Peoples bank on East 8th St. The Museum authorities asked the writer to name if possible, the personnel represented in this picture. This was done.

In the first place, this band was organized even before the Holland fire. This band happened to be on parade a few months after the fire and some of the ruins are still in the background. The small shack is a saloon that took the place of one that burned down, and Hollanders who liked their beer and liquor were compelled to take it in rather primitive style. It was on the site of the Patsy Fabiano confectionery store.

The man way in the rear with the beard and arms akimbo is said to be John R. Kleyn, father of Simon Kleyn and Mrs. Ed Westveer of this city. He was a contractor and builder and there was plenty of contracting and building to do after that fire.

The names of the players in the rear from left to right are: William J. Scott, the leader with cornet in hand. He was the father of the late Dr. W. Preston Scott. He was conductor of hotels and for many years was in charge of the hotel at Shady-side, today Jenison Hotel Macatawa. For many years he and "Ma" Scott conducted a hotel at the northwest corner of Columbia Ave. and 9th St. This building is still there and was recently painted.

The next is John Grotenhuis, a veteran of the Civil War, one of Holland's leading painters in the early days. His parents were Van Raalte pioneers and his two daughters still live in this city. The tallest gentleman in the rear is John Roost, oldest son of Jan Roost, a well known character in pioneer days. The father was a harbor builder here, was mayor of Holland, was a state legislator, and finally became a clothing dealer in his store occupying part of the site of the Brouwer Furniture Co.

Alfred Huntley is the fourth in line. He was an able machinist and millwright and reared a fine family here. For many years his shop was on West 7th St. near River Ave. He, with others, started the first electric light plant called the Wolverine. It was later absorbed by the Holland municipal plant. His son, Art Huntley, for many years manager of the Bell Telephone Co. in Holland, is now a high official in that organization.

Then comes Otto Breyman, a general German, whose home was the mecca of society in the early days and was located on the southeast corner of Central Ave. and Graves Place, now occupied by the home of Mr. Ed Heeringa. Mr. Breyman was a veteran jeweler and more will be known about him this week in the Fifty Years Ago column.

Gus La Barbe always looked like a Kentucky colonel, and one of Holland's best dressers. He left Holland shortly after the fire for Chicago and lived in Roseland, and was a city employee for a number of years. The last in the row was John Kramer, Civil War veteran and an officer in the army. For many years he was commander of the A. C. Van Raalte Post G.A.R.

That in substance is the history of this picture, and pardon the lengthy history on the personnel, but that places the members in the minds of the older folk and gives their background to readers who came later.

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The store of Otto Breyman on the southwest corner of Main and Markets Sts., has just been completed. Mr. Breyman has also put new counters and showcases of the latest design in his place of business. A new stock of gold and silver watches, precious stones and plateware is now being placed. Mr. Breyman was the city's pioneer jeweler. The firm first went under the name of Joslyn and Breyman, with the store in what was known as Kenyon's Hall. Holland's first opera house building, which burned 54 years ago. This brought a dissolution of partnership and Mr. Breyman moved his jewelry store to a frame building on the site where the new building was erected. Later the jewelry business was taken over by his son, William Breyman, now living in Grand Rapids. The then new building of Breyman was occupied by C. De Pree's drug store, Vaupe's drug store and others. Today it is occupied by the McClellan store.

A wedding occurred at Zeeland Wednesday evening which was a social event of some importance, and was very largely attended. The contracting parties were Mr. Henry P. De Pree and Miss Henrietta Everhard, both of Zeeland. The young couple start in life with the kind wishes of a host of friends in this part of Ottawa county. Note: Both Mr. and Mrs. De Pree are living happily at Zeeland with a fine family, and we understand that a golden wedding anniversary was held Tuesday, the 17th. Mr. De Pree is the proprietor of the De Pree Hardware, Holland, and has been for many years. The family, however, has always retained their home in Zeeland.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

John T. Hiller of Spring Lake saw a big fish swimming in the shallow water near the dock, and, thinking it was a dogfish, he grabbed a club and stumped it. It proved to be a fine specimen of tiger bass, weighing five pounds, measuring 21 inches in length and 15½ inches around the body.

OLD FASHIONED SNAKE AND AND BLACKBERRY STORY

The writer remembers the old fashioned blackberry days, when the approach to the woods in this vicinity was literally covered with wild blackberries. Many of the citizens would go out with baskets and pails to pick their winter's supply of these luscious berries. The blackberry patches in those days, however, were infested with rattlesnakes. In fact, it seemed that rattlers were partial to blackberry bushes in which to make their lair.

Blackberry pickers in the olden days carried two things—a receptacle in which to put the berries and a strong club with which to way-lay rattlesnakes. We also remember a few instances where snake bite medicine in the form of strong whiskey was applied, and a stout binding of the limbs where a snake had bitten was also frequent and a help until the second aid was supplied by a physician.

We are reminded of these blackberry days by an almost similar occurrence near West Olive a few days ago. H. Headley and Burt Morris of Holland were picking blackberries on the farm of the father of Mr. Headley. According to Morris they had picked about two bushels of berries when Headley saw, or rather heard, a rattling in the bushes. Brushing away the stalks to get a closer view he saw a rattler coiled up not far away from him. He started to walk away but claimed the rattler followed him.

Morris picked up a stout club, rushed to the reptile just as he was coiled up to strike, but Morris stated that he struck first and way-laid the now scarce rattlesnake. And as evidence, he says the snake was still on the grass near where it was killed.

Morris states that shortly before the snake episode he had gone into an apple orchard to pick some apples, which was resented by a "Billy" goat. As he slid down from the tree the goat was right on the job and played "Baby Bunting" with Morris' coat tails.

Morris was full of snake stories when giving this little piece of news, and stated that once he killed a spotted adder. Upon his approach the adder stuck its tongue out at Morris. He killed it with a hoe. He also relates the killing of many black snakes when he was in his younger days. One hardly knows if Morris is a snake charmer or a snake killer. Anyway, he has had his experience with snakes.

HOLLAND MERCHANTS SER- VICE BUREAU SEEKS TO EXPAND

The Holland Merchants' Service Bureau has been a boon to the merchants and other business men of Holland. From a humble beginning some years ago this bureau has materially aided the sellers of merchandise, informing them where credit is nil and where credit is due, thus saving them many a headache as this relates to "dead beat" accounts.

The local bureau has had its ups and downs and its struggles; however, under the able management of John Mikula the bureau today is on a very solid foundation and is due for expansion. In fact, a campaign is ready to start on August 23, when Floyd J. Habel and his associates, credit organization for members of the National Retail Credit Association, will arrive in Holland for the purpose of conducting an "Education Membership Campaign" in order to aid the local Merchants' Service Bureau. The campaign is to continue for a period of at least two weeks.

Mr. Habel, former district manager of the National Retail Credit Ass'n., has been doing this work of education for different Service Bureaus in 48 states. Mr. P. J. Vicari, manager of the Holland Merchants' Service Bureau, who is also a member of the National Retail Credit Association. Mr. Vicari is the keeper of the records of 30,000 persons in this territory and, we believe, has one of the most responsible positions in Holland today.

Confidential records carefully guarded, all symbols in code known only to the confidential reporters in his office in Holland tells the story. These master records have grown during the past years with increasing population, and on a moment's notice Mr. Vicari can furnish not only the paying habits of every individual buyer in this trade area but complete information as to identity, history, character, resources and income.

"We do not attempt to pass judgment on any applicant for credit," Mr. Vicari says. "We simply compile and furnish the information to the members of this organization upon request. The members are their own credit managers."

Debtors, like the membership, are met with an attitude of helpfulness by the Holland Merchants' Service Bureau where Mr. Vicari and his assistants help hundreds of debtors each month, teaching them how they can maintain good records and meet their obligations promptly. They are shown the economic value of treating credit as a sacred trust.

"Most debtors are honest and have a desire to pay their obligations and live within their income," Mr. Vicari believes. "It is a matter of education, and one of the duties of this office is to maintain that balanced budget as nearly as possible for every one of our 30,000 consumers."

The organization intends to carry on a continuous educational campaign teaching the public the value of a good credit record. When Mr. Vicari took charge of the office the membership and facilities were limited, but under capable management it has grown in membership and service.

Holland Church Extends Call To Rev. Beerthuis

HUDSONVILLE PASTOR PO-TENT FACTOR IN BUILDING
CHURCH THERE

At a congregational meeting of the members of the Immanuel Church, holding services in the Holland Armory, it was unanimously decided that a call should be extended to Rev. C. M. Beerthuis, for several years pastor of the Hudsonville Community Church. Mr. Beerthuis has been very successful in the Ottawa County village and he played a leading part in building a new church at Hudsonville, and his activity in the congregation has brought a material growth in this church. It is understood that the new church has practically been paid for. Mr. and Mrs. Beerthuis are graduates of the Moody's Bible Institute of Chicago, and have three children. Mr. Beerthuis who was formerly assistant pastor at McBain, Mich., has been in the ministry for nine years.

Immanuel Church in Holland began its services in the Woman's Literary Club rooms, nine years ago, but soon outgrew these quarters and the congregation has since been holding services in the Holland Armory. The average Sunday attendance being 500. A year ago last June, Rev. J. Lanting, who served the congregation for eight years, reluctantly accepted a call to the First Baptist Church of La Salle, Ill. He was the first pastor of this local church since it was organized nine years ago, with a membership of 14 families. Today the membership is 300 and the Sunday School also has an attendance of approximately 375.

The Immanuel Church has been active in gospel work in Allegan County jail, Allegan County Home, and also in street work and in the distributing of tracts, Gospels and Testaments to institutions and homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lovelady are engaged in assisting in the work of the church and are in charge of the church choir. The Immanuel Church in Holland has been without a permanent pastor since Rev. Lanting left a year ago.

HOLLAND MAN IS SHOT NEAR JACKSON

A man armed with a shot gun is being sought by sheriff's officers after an unsuccessful attempt to hold up John Van Raalte of R. F. D. No. 1, Holland, driver for the Associated Truck Co., about 1 a.m. today, eight miles south of Jackson on US-127.

The men fired at Van Raalte and two leaden pellets lodged in the driver's scalp, but the wounds were minor. Mr. Van Raalte was enroute from Toledo to Muskegon. Mr. Van Raalte said today that as his truck rounded a curve on the highway the lights of the truck revealed the bandit standing at the side of the road. He said he failed to hear the man if he yelled at him but that when his truck drew abreast of the man he fired his gun.

FORMER METHODIST PASTOR HERE DIES IN GRAND RAPIDS HOSPITAL

Rev. J. O. Randall, who some six years ago was pastor of the First Methodist Church in Holland and took a deep interest in civic enterprises as well as church work, while a resident of this city, died in Grand Rapids at Blodgett Memorial Hospital, where he had undergone surgical treatment some two weeks ago. He had been resorting at a cottage on Lake Michigan near Ludington when he became ill and was quickly removed to Grand Rapids.

While in Holland he was a member of the Holland Exchange Club and took a deep interest in Masonry. He was a 32nd degree Mason and a Knight Templar. It is said that Rev. Randall was the originator of the Blossom Festival at Benton Harbor when he was a pastor in that city. He was also an enthusiastic booster for the Cherry Festival in Traverse City when he became district superintendent in northern Michigan. Last September he became pastor of the Belding Church.

Funeral services will be held this Friday afternoon at Belding and interment will take place in Union Cemetery at Steubenville, Ohio.

Mr. Randall was born in Tinneconne, Ohio, of Quaker parents. He attended Londonderry Normal in Ohio and was graduated from Drew Theological seminary, Madison, N. J. in 1895. His first pastorate was at Steubenville, Ohio, and later he was pastor of churches in Ashland, Ohio; Providence, R. I., and Attleboro, Mass.

Rev. Randall is survived by the widow, Lucy Randall.

Gerrit Koovers, Holland attorney, and Fred Van Wieren, Ottawa county drain commissioner, who resides in Park township, were in Grand Haven, Wednesday, on business.

Just every business and professional office in this community as a member," Mr. Vicari pointed out. "The reason for this goes back to 100 per cent membership means that we can put credit losses to a very small fraction of one percent, stimulate turnover of accounts receivable and thereby create greater business and maintain the buying power of our community."

The affiliation of the Holland Merchants' Service Bureau with the National Retail Credit Association with more than 1,250 credit bureaus in all parts of the United States, Canada and Europe gives these bureaus no matter where one may go, the credit record follows through the co-operation of these bureaus, always keeping in mind the welfare of both the member and the consumer.

Coat-Eating "Hoppers"

(Chicago American)
In eastern Colorado State Highway Engineer Ernest Montgomery drove his automobile through the grasshopper-ridden countryside, and arrived home with innumerable holes in his coat. He insists the holes were made by grasshoppers, eating the coat.

You are, of course, at liberty to doubt that grasshoppers actually ate the coat of Engineer Montgomery, but it is true beyond argument that in a metaphorical sense grasshoppers ARE eating the coat of many a miserably helpless American farmer, also the pants and shirt. A "bumper crop" pays off no mortgage if grasshoppers instead of people become its "ultimate consumers."

Science and governments unite to fight the grasshoppers for mankind's food supply, destroy countless millions, but the grasshopper armies, fortified with a horrible reproductive fertility, sweep on, uncontrollable as the winds.

However, that will be changed. The invincibility of insect armies lies in the fact that insects have no fear; you cannot frighten them away, you can only kill them; they have no imagination. Happily, man HAS imagination. Imagination will find a way to kill grasshoppers as fast as they are hatched, or to prevent their BEING hatched.

U. S. War Vets Dying at Rate of 111 a Day

One hundred and eleven survivors of the nation's wars who are living today will be dead tomorrow, according to estimates of the Veterans' Administration at Washington.

Death is removing every day an average of 90 veterans of the World War, 15 of the Spanish-American war, five of the Civil War and one of the Indian Wars.

On June 30, 877,294 World War veterans were receiving compensation and pensions, whereas the pensioners of the Spanish War totaled 174,562. Despite their advanced age only about one-sixth as many survivors of the Spanish War are dying daily.

There were 7,031 Civil War veterans drawing pensions on June 30, and 3,000 Indian fighters.

Since the American Revolution, the nation has paid its war veterans $21,998,622,286 in benefits, including peace-time pensions to retired and disabled soldiers. More than 550,000 veterans and 316,482 dependents of dead veterans are receiving pensions or other compensation.

Two dependents of veterans of the War of 1812 still are receiving compensation. One is a widow, the other a daughter of pensioners.

EMPLOYMENT BOOST IN HOLLAND FOR AUGUST

A survey made by William M. Connelly, manager of the Holland Chamber of Commerce revealed that the month of August will see a big increase in employment in Holland's industries. The new $100,000 plant of the H. J. Heinz Co. completed in a period of three months starting May 1, swung into full operation this week. Large shipments of cucumbers are being received daily at the plant.

The season for the Heinz plant opened August 1 and will continue for approximately 60 days. Approximately 600 persons are now at work in the new building.

The number of people employed will be increased from 750 employed last year to the 1,000 mark during the peak of this season. All local help is employed in the plant. Fall production at the Holland-er, Inc., chocolate candy manufacturers started August 15. They began operation with one million pounds of candy on order. The company began operations in Holland less than four years ago with 12 employees. Today their product, bearing the signature, "Holland, Michigan" is nationally known.

This concern's peak employment last year was 350 and they expect to employ a still larger force this year.

Improvements have just been completed in one of Holland's new industries, the Security Sportswear Co. The interior has been enameled white and improvements to the ventilating and lighting system have been made.

ZEELAND COUPLE MARRIED WEDNESDAY MORNING

Miss Virginia Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Owens of West Olive and John Van Eden of Zeeland, were quietly married at the parsonage of the Second Reformed Church at 11 A. M. on Wednesday, August 18, the Rev. Richard J. Vanden Berg officiating.

The bride was attended by her sister, La Vanche Owens and Mr. Jerald Veldheer attended the groom.

The bride was connected with the Zeeland hospital for several years and has numerous friends in that city. Mr. Van Eden is one of the proprietors of Van's Sinclair Service Station. The young couple left on a wedding trip and upon their return they will reside in the upstairs Berghorst apartments on Main Street.

RAISE EGG STANDARDS IN THIS SECTION

During the course of the coming week L. G. Stallkamp, Zeeland, expects the arrival of a government inspector who will in the future inspect and test eggs according to government standards. All eggs tested and coming up to the standard specifications will be sealed in new wooden crates with all new fillers and flats. Eggs coming up to these standards will command a higher price and the producer will naturally be paid more for his product.

The producer on the other hand will have to be more care in feeding and handling of hens and eggs. These factors should aid materially in increasing the annual farm income in the Zeeland farm area.

Mrs. Harriet Smith of Hudsonville announces the engagement of her daughter, Marie B., to Gerard De Jonge, son of Mr. and Mrs. John De Jonge of Vriesland. The wedding date has not been set.

Animal Ages Revealed

Dr. A. D. Peacock, Professor of Natural History, Dundee University, in writing on the ages of animals and birds says: "The potential longevity of the toad and frog may reach 36 and 12 to 16 years, respectively. A Japanese salamander has lived 40 years in the Zoo."

"Exact European records show 40 years for captive alligators. Experienced students believe that no great ages are attained in lizards and snakes."

Have Until Aug. 31 To Pay Taxes Less Penalty

Less than Two Weeks Remain in Program; Tax Sale is Announced

If Ottawa county property owners desire to save penalties on delinquent tax payments, they have less than four weeks left, Nicholas Sprietsma of Holland, county treasurer, announced today. While tax payments have increased during the past few days, considerable delinquency is reported and after August 31, penalties applied.

Delinquent taxpayers have two options, one of which saves money and the other costs. If they pay all of their 1936 tax and three-tenths of their 1937 tax, they have the privilege of paying 1933, 1934, and 1935 delinquent taxes on a collection fee basis of only 2 per cent. This does not include special assessments which carry six per cent interest penalty per annum from the date of their return.

If tax payers do not take advantage of this offer, then the penalty applies at the rate of three-quarters of one per cent per month and an additional four per cent collection fee.

All real estate taxes for 1935 and earlier years will go on sale, probably this coming spring, unless they are paid in full or are paid up to the currently due installment. This means that the 1936, 1937 and 1938 taxes must be paid at least one-tenth of the total of 1933, 1934 and 1935 taxes must be paid in order to escape this sale. This is in addition to the three tenths required on 1932 and prior years taxes.

If the first installment of 1933, 1934 and 1935 taxes has not been paid, property will go to tax sale for the full amount of these taxes.

While property delinquent on taxes after August 31 will go on the tax sale list, it can be paid at any time after that up until the date of tax sale by the owner, but penalties must be included in such payment and the total amount due will be considerably more than payments made before August 31. Mr. Sprietsma explains that interest penalties apply on property not brought up to date as of return of tax rolls. For some years the interest or percentage will go as high as 21.

This method of payment was provided by recent laws which have granted special extensions of time for payment to the delinquent property owner.

A special effort is being made by Mr. Sprietsma to save taxpayers money in calling attention to citizens of the law and plan as well as dates upon which privileges end.

In Allegan County, Treasurer John F. Stockdale is also calling attention to taxpayers relative to this same plan in that county.

England's Fastest Train

The fastest and most luxurious train in the British Empire has been placed in operation on the run between London and Edinburgh. The last coach, somewhat resembling a great sports car, strikes a new note in railway fashion. It is constructed largely in glass and will give its occupants a breadth of vision never before experienced in observation cars.

The Coronation Express, as the train is called, is drawn by engines of the Pacific class, painted blue and with panels in front of the three lions of England and the lion rampant of Scotland. The train makes the journey of nearly 400 miles in six hours. Formerly the fastest train made it in 7 hours, 15 minutes.

Dr. and Mrs. Chris A. De Jonge of Norway, Ill., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit P. Rooks, Zeeland, and also Mrs. A. H. Van Dreizer, 123 East 10th St., Holland. Mrs. Van Dreizer is the mother of Mrs. Dan Jonge. Mr. De Jonge is a well known instructor and an author of note.

Rev. Russell Redeker, a graduate of the 1937 class of Western Theological seminary, has been installed as a missionary to the East and West Sioux classis of the Reformed church of the Particular Synod of Iowa. He will be in special charge of the newly organized church at Primghar, Iowa.

OTTAWA SCOUT CAMP GIVEN HIGH RATING

The Ottawa-Allegan council of Boy Scouts summer camp, Camp Ottawa, located at Pettit Lake in Newaygo county, has received a first class rating by the national council.

The recent inspection made by Lorne W. Barclay, national director of activities for Boy Scouts of America, placed the camp in the highest ranking groups. The rating listed the Ottawa camp as one of the best in the state. M. P. Russell received notice of the inspection Saturday.

Camp Ottawa will be made a base camp for the Chicago Scouts who engage in taking canoe trips from the Chicago camps down the Muskegon river—Grand Rapids Press.

Eagle Is Killed By Shovel Blow

Eagles have been figuring prominently in the news hereabouts, and the University of Michigan has a new specimen for its museums.

At the Atlanta district conservation post, Supervisor G. A. Eagle received a report that Elwood Larson, Alpena, Mich., had been attacked by an eagle while walking through the woods with a pick and shovel over his shoulder. Larson killed the eagle, which made the attack, and turned it over to Eagle, the conservation supervisor, who sent it to the university museums at Ann Arbor.

Larson told Supervisor Eagle that a fluttering of wings had caused him to look around to see the eagle perched on the pick over his shoulder. When he dropped the pick, the eagle attacked him so he killed it with the shovel, he said.

Eagles will be protected the year around in Michigan if a bill passed by the legislature is approved by the governor.

ZEELAND FIRM MOVES TO NEW LOCATION

The De Bruyn Seed and Produce Co. has moved its office to the De Bruyn Co. warehouse on Washington Street, Zeeland. With the change in office also went the selling place of the garden and field seeds formerly conducted on Main Street. They are also equipping their warehouse with the seed cleaning equipment. During the past year The De Bruyn Seeds and Produce Co. has handled several hundred cars of onions, carrots, flour, sugar, and fruit jars, etc., necessary to the wholesale produce business. Besides the local warehouse, they have stations at Grant, Imlay City, and Saranac, Michigan, and Hollandale, Minnesota.

Pastures Cause Decline in Milk

A decline in milk production, blamed on the seasonally poor condition of the pastures during July, is shown in the report for that month by the Southeast Ottawa Dairy Herd Testing association. The average milk production of 689.2 pounds was considered satisfactory as was the average butterfat per cow of 30.5 pounds.

Practically every one of the 22 herds in the association were in pasture and 20 of them are fed grain while in pasture. Three herds are run on alfalfa and two on Sudan grass, which with sweet clover are reckoned to be superior pastures. Michigan State college dairy experts, according to County Agricultural Agent Leo R. Arnold, are emphasizing the need for better pasture with the alfalfa-brome grass mixture as most suitable for dairy cows. Use of fertilizer on pasture land is also encouraged.

There are 24 cows in the Southeast association which produced more than 50 pounds of butterfat, one, a five-year-old Holstein at Greenvale farm producing 2,001 pounds of milk and 78 pounds of butterfat. The Greenvale Holsteins made excellent records while a grade Holstein under three years old owned by Henry Libben gave 1,457 pounds of milk and 52 pounds of butterfat.

DEATH COMES TO AGED LADY CONFINED IN HOLLAND HOSPITAL FOR SIX YEARS

Mrs. Barbara Svihla, who was 80 years old and has been confined to Holland hospital for nearly six years because of paralysis caused in a fall when she injured her back, passed away after spending all these years in fortitude, and despite her serious illness retained her sunny disposition. She was conscious until a few moments before death came. For years the kindly old lady was comforting to other patients in the hospital even more fortunate than she was, for she was destined to stay while she saw many come and go during these months and years of her confinement.

On October 18, last, her 80th birthday anniversary was celebrated and many birthday greetings, cards, and visits were enjoyed on that day. Even a birthday cake was the crowning incident on that October 18. In 1925, a few months before her husband's death, the couple celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Albert S. Svihla died on December 24 of that same year.

Mrs. Svihla came to Chicago from Czechoslovakia with her husband and two children in August, 1883. Mr. Svihla worked as a millwright. During the intervening years, seven children were born, six of whom survive. Surviving are four sons and two daughters. Mrs. Mary Rummel of Fland, Charles Svihla of Chicago, George Svihla of Brookfield, Ill., Albert Svihla of Oaklyn, N.J., Dr. Arthur Svihla, a professor in Pullman, Wash., and Mrs. Edward P. Morlock of Holland, 14 grand children and six great grandchildren also survive.

The body was taken to the Nibelink-Notter funeral home. Funeral arrangements are pending word from children at the west coast and New Jersey. However, rites will be held in St. Francis de Sales church and burial will be in Chicago. Friends may view the body today at the Morlock home, 141 West 19th St.

Macatawa is to stage a carnival on the Hotel lawn tonight, Friday, at 7:30 o'clock, and booths will be erected, and altogether it will be a colorful affair. Mrs. L. R. Birmingham is in charge of the affair and has been getting the support of guests of the hotel and cottage owners as well. All are doing something to make the carnival a success and the proceeds will go to park improvement.

TAXPAYERS ATTENTION

1935 and Prior Unpaid Taxes

It is most important for you to know the provisions of the Ten Year Installment Plan (P. A. No. 28 of 1937) which provides for the continuation of the grouping of 1932 and prior taxes under one total, and the grouping of 1933, 1934 and 1935 taxes under one total, and these totals to be divided into ten equal installments.

Third Installment of 1932 and Prior Taxes Now Due

Should be paid before Sept. 1, 1937. A collection fee of 2 pct. will be added to the first, second and third installments, if paid before Sept. 1, 1937.

First Installment of 1933-1934-1935 Taxes Now Due

Should be paid before Sept. 1, 1937. A collection fee of 2 pct. will be added if paid before Sept. 1, 1937. To be eligible for payment of 1933-1934-1935 taxes under the ten year installment plan, the first three installments of 1932 and prior taxes and the entire 1936 tax must be paid. Application must be made before Sept. 1, 1937.

Balance of Installments of 1935 and Prior Taxes

May be paid at any time before matured date (Sept. 1st of each year) with a collection fee of 2 pct. Any installment not paid by Sept. 1st of the year it is due, is considered delinquent and there will be additional interest of $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1 pct. per month. Special assessment carry interest at the rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1 per cent per month since date of return on 1933, 1934 and 1935 and since Sept. 1, 1935 on 1932 and prior taxes.

Entire Year's Taxes of 1935 and Prior Years.

Important

Otherwise you have lost your opportunity to take advantage of the ten year payment plan.

It is an accurately controlled heat; it makes cooking a delight and success. Foods taste better, and are healthier, too. Easy, quick, largely automatic, electric cooking also has its time and money economies...much greater than you probably imagine. So get the facts, learn the low cost of this modern miracle. OLD TIME FARMERS' DAY
REVIVED IN HOLLAND

The Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce decided at their meeting to stage a Farmers' Day on Saturday, September 25th. The program this year will differ from those of the past in that the sessions will be held both afternoon and evening. Features of the programs will be put on by Prairie Farmer-WLS entertainers. Each program will run two hours, with an extra one if necessary to take care of a possible overflow. In addition to the musical numbers there will be a moving picture comedy and an address by W. E. "Bill" Renshaw dealing with youth organizations.

The Holland Armory has been chosen for the staging of Farmers' Day program. Mayor Henry Geerlings will make the address of welcome and members of the Chamber of Commerce will be present as a greeting committee.

Admission to the Armory will be tickets distributed by the field staff of Prairie Farmer, who will cover the entire area around Holland. Holland is growing as an agricultural center due to the increased operations of the H. J. Heinz Company, the Lake Shore Sugar Company and the poultry industry. In appreciation of this it is deemed advisable to resume annual Farmers' Day activities in this city.

Is The Parking Problem At Last Settled Here?

in the same manner as now employed for angle parking on 8th St. The resolution further directs that the police department be instructed to carry out these directions within 48 hours at the passing of this resolution, and that the committee on streets and crosswalks of the common council be authorized to employ the necessary labor and to expend the necessary material to cause said River Ave. in the location specified to be marked for parking as hereinbefore directed.

All the aldermen voted in favor of this resolution, which was put by Ald. Huver and supported by Ald. Bultman. Ald. Brouwer objected to the time limit in which the police department was to do this work. He said 48 hours was not enough. He suggested a change to 72 hours. There was no action taken on that since the city attorney explained that the job took a little longer, as long as it was evident that the police department had started on the marking. If the job was not quite done in 48 hours it was not expected that the city would finish the job.

Ald. Drinkwater also objected to the time limit, but when it was assured that this action would not be drastic as to a few hours their objection was withdrawn. Then another parking matter came up when a petition was presented by Ald. Kleis, carrying with it approximately 150 signatures. The petition, so freely signed, contains the following request:—

To the Common Council, City of Holland:

The undersigned respectfully submit to the council that the parallel parking now enforced on eighth street below River Avenue, (West of River Ave.), is working a serious hardship, reducing by half the available space in a district of little traffic, but where parking space has always been in sufficient. The present ruling drives traffic to districts where there is room for cars, and you petitioners therefore request that the system of angular parking be restored.

This matter was referred to the street committee to report back to the council at the next meeting.

The petitions, however, would indicate how resentful shoppers and property owners are to parallel parking. The petition above represents that area nearly 100%.

A further "riff" occurred in the council when several matters recommended by the common council to the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, such as placing of flash lights at dangerous corners and other proceedings, given in the council proceedings a few weeks ago, were sent back to the common council. The council members took it that the action of the police board at Monday night's meeting, referring matters back to the council and returning 3 communications covering these recommendations, was an indication that the common council should take care of those things themselves, if they saw fit to do so.

At last night's meeting according to the discussion, the aldermen did not look kindly on the action of the police board in rejecting their recommendations, and referring them back without comment. Several of the members wanted to go ahead, but Mayor Geerlings "poured oil" on the troubled waters favoring that the differences between the two boards be amicably settled.

Ald. Prins wanted to know why the common council should "knuckle under" to the police board when it had the final authority to act on matters of this kind. He said the police board didn't bend backward to comply with requests made of them, which is evident, by returning the recommendations without comment. Some of the aldermen wanted to go ahead with these traffic changes on their own authority. Ald. Prins stated, "If the council has the power to regulate such matters, then the only thing to do is to establish angle parking on River Ave. as the sinners of a petition with 250 names request."

Ald. Brouwer jokingly took Mr. Prins to task when he said, "If the council has the power," He was armed with the city charter, which indicates that the city council is in full control of all streets and highways, and that body has the last say. Mr. Brouwer said, "In the future don't say 'if', for the council has the power and there is no question about that." Mr. Brouwer was in favor of settling the difference between the board of police and fire commissioners with the council and was willing to volunteer his services on a council committee.

Mr. Prins here injected that the police board had shown no tendency that it desired to work with the common council. At least no move was made, that he knew of, that there was any such intention. City Atty. Parsons stated that in the future, in order to legalize things as it relates to matters of this kind, he would see to it that the proper resolutions and the proper machinery for legal action, as provided by charter or ordinance, would be established first before any future action on matters of this kind would be taken. Mr. Parsons does not believe in haphazard action when the right way legally is available.

Anyway, this parking, traffic question has become a frightful tangle. But it seems that the common council is all set and knows its program and is willing to confer with the board of police and fire commissioners in an amicable and businesslike way. It is sincerely hoped that all action between these two city bodies will run along smoothly from now on. Misunderstandings are dangerous things between city units. We feel that the matter is not so serious that the "wrinkles" cannot be smoothed out. The parking question is a vexing one, not alone here, but everywhere, and no wonder there is a vast difference of opinion as to the best way to solve it.

INDIAN HEAD SIGNS TAKEN AT WAUKAZOO

History relates tales of the Indians scalping white settlers but Saturday the story was not only reversed but the entire heads of three Ottawa county "Indians" were taken by "white scalpers" at Waukazoo.

The sheriff's department in Holland was notified that three expensive Indian head signs had been stolen. The signs were a replica of the head of the famous Indian Chief Waukazoo and had been made at considerable expense.

MOVES HOUSE ON WHEELS

The old Marlatt house in Fennville, built 50 years ago for a print shop, was put on wheels and hauled out to the Hayes farm on Hutchins lake road. Monday morning where it is to be converted into a bungalow. The moving gives place in Fennville's March of Time a new garage and service station to be built on the site that will add another to the modern buildings serving local auto agencies, of which the new Chevrolet building, constructed last fall, and the handsome Ford garage are notable examples.

Mrs. S. Fopma, wife of the pastor of Noordeloos Christian Reformed church, who was injured in an auto accident August 1, is improving in Holland hospital. Mrs. Fopma suffered a fractured pelvis and other injuries.

In an accident which occurred Monday at 8:30 p. m. at the intersection of the road leading to the Waukazoo community and the shortcut road between Holland and Ottawa Beach, Mrs. O. S. Riemold, 64, of Yonkers, N. Y., who also maintains a residence on East 16th St., one and one-half miles east of Holland, suffered minor injuries. Mrs. Riemold was riding in the automobile with her husband when it collided with a car driven by Clyde Miller, 18, of St. Louis, Mo. Deputy Sheriff William Van Etta who made an investigation of the accident, said he was informed by Mr. Riemold that another car in front of his prevented him from seeing the stop sign and that when the other car drove across the intersection without stopping he did likewise. Miller and James Falls, who also was an occupant of the car, escaped slight injuries. After striking the Riemold car, the other vehicle owned by John Broghard of St. Louis, continued for some distance and was reported to have turned over twice.

The condition of Mel Trotter, superintendent of the Grand Rapids City Mission, who suffered a heart attack here about two weeks ago, still is critical. He is confined to his bed at his cottage at Macatawa Park.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dykema and son of DeWitt, Ia., have returned home after a short visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Knooihuizen, 30 East 14th St.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bloemsa Give Their Eighth and Youngest Child in Holy Matrimony

Marie Bloemsa Becomes the Wife
of Bernard Heuvelhorst

Letta Wells, Zeeland, Michigan

Perhaps there is in Zeeland no more familiar figure than that of Peter Bloemsa, painter and paperhanger. He broke his record as a faithful worker last week when he worked all night, decorating one of the local business houses. However, Peter thinks his most remarkable record is that of rearing and marrying off eight sons and daughters. The readers will agree that this is indeed a record that deserves praise and creditable mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Bloemsa were married August 24, 1897, just forty years ago since which time they have resided in Holland, Cadillac, Grand Rapids and Zeeland, having come to Zeeland thirty-one years ago. Their family consists of four sons and four daughters, all of whom are living, married, and doing well. The first one was married fifteen years ago. The last and youngest, Marie, was married this week Tuesday, at her parents' home on N. Elm St., to Mr. Bernard Heuvelhorst, also of Zeeland.

Following is the remarkable list of Mr. and Mrs. Bloemsa's children: Egbert Bloemsa of Inlay City, Mich.; Mrs. Bert Reimink of Holland; Lambert Bloemsa, of Zeeland; Tony Bloemsa, of Zeeland; Mrs. Ted Fleming, of Grand Rapids; Mrs. Otto Bosma, of Zeeland; Bernard Heuvelhorst, of Zeeland. There are nine grandchildren in the family, and Mr. and Mrs. Bloemsa keep young with them. Both of them are just as active, happy and healthy as they were forty years ago, to all appearances. When questioned as to how he was able to keep continually cheerful, pleasant and optimistic, Mr. Bloemsa answered: "Well, I learned years ago that whenever I lost my temper I said something I ought not to say—so I made it a rule to stay pleasant." Mrs. Bloemsa thinks regular duties and work are the secret of her health and happiness.

Zeeland has had weddings galore this summer and is thankful that marriage was raised to a high and spiritual significance by the teachings and principles of Christ. Although its meaning is now much deeper and more significant than formerly, it is amazing that the

GAMBLING MACHINE OPER- ATION BRINGS FINE; GUILTY ON A FORGERY CHARGE

Four persons were arraigned in circuit court this week before Judge Fred T. Miles at Grand Haven and one was sentenced. The arraignments were made by John R. Dethmers, county prosecutor, of Park township.

William Herbst, Grand Haven township, pleaded guilty to operating a gambling machine at Log Cabin service station. He was fined $150 and 10 costs which were paid.

Jack Lange, Spring Lake, pleaded guilty to forgery and Judge Miles announced he would be sentenced later.

Marion Bosch, from the southern part of the county, was arraigned on a negligent homicide case and pleaded not guilty. He is charged with driving a car which caused the death of Loyd Ulbert on July 18 on a road in Georgetown.

The Ottawa county road commission is declaring war on motorists who ignore traffic signs and drive on blacked-out roads. The officials have asked the cooperation of the sheriff's department to arrest offenders.

Gerrit R. Hunderman of Drenthe paid fine and costs of $11.55 for permitting his tractor to be driven on a newly-laid road by an employee, James Brink. Robert Needer of Holland also pleaded guilty to driving on the same road and paid a fine of $5. Levi Vander Kolk of Hudsonville paid a fine and costs of $9.35 on a similar charge.

HOLLAND WOMAN WITH BELL COMPANY 10 YEARS

According to the Michigan Bell magazine for August, Miss Flossie M. Efting has been a faithful employee of the Bell Telephone Co. in Holland for ten years. She is in the traffic department. This magazine, issued every month, gives a great deal of information relative to the thousands of employees throughout the state in different departments of that gigantic institution, which has been a tremendous aid in facilitating business in Michigan and beyond, and a potent factor in bringing more comfort and pleasure to the home-owner.

GRAND HAVEN COUNCIL AP- PROVED SELLING LIQUOR BY THE GLASS

Sale of liquor by the glass in Grand Haven was authorized by the city council at a meeting held Tuesday night, which according to the new state ruling must be done before Sept. 18 or the matter must be submitted to a vote of the people.

The number of places must not exceed four, according to a second resolution which was adopted unanimously, introduced by Harold Westerhof.

There are now two places. The Hotel Wm. M. Ferry and The Green Mill, where liquor is sold by the glass. Alderman James Van Wassen stated that he had been informed there was another local man seeking a license to sell by the glass. "I believe that a limitation should be set on the number of places where liquor is sold by the glass," said Mr. Westerhof, "as too many places of that type might be dangerous to a city of any size."

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bloemsa Give Their Eighth and Youngest Child in Holy Matrimony

of Bernard Heuvelhorst

Letta Wells, Zeeland, Michigan

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bloemsa

customs today are very similar to those marriage customs in the old Hebrew commonwealth. Today, as on those days, the father gives away the bride; the announcement and betrothal are accompanied by feasts ("showers"), gifts, etc., as in olden times. Back in those old days, the ring was used, and regarded as a token of fidelity, and of the bride's adoption into her husband's family. Vows were worn by the bride, and it is from olden times, also, that the custom of wearing white as a bridal gown was derived, although the modern bride does not invariably wear white. In those old days, the wedding festivities continued from seven to fourteen days after the ceremony, which, perhaps, is the main point of difference between the old and new.

Although we have long since passed through a period in which wives were under more or less subjection, the stride today is that husband and wife plan things together, and the wife and mother has taken her important place as the potent influence in her home, vested with a large degree of independence. Her knowledge of cooking, sewing and the many duties of the home are standing her in good stead, and today a good housewife is efficient, skillful, and active in the home. The old time phase of homemaking, of course, is very essential.

ZEELAND WOMAN GETS AUXILIARY NOMINATION

Mrs. Charles F. Murphy, Northville, was nominated without opposition Monday for president of the American Legion auxiliary, Michigan department. She is now first vice-president. Swanson, Ironwood.

OTTAWA SCOUT CAMP GIVEN HIGH RATING

The Ottawa-Allegheny council of Boy Scouts summer camp, Camp Ottawa, located at Pettit lake in Newburg county, has received a first class rating by the national council.

The recent inspection made by Lorne W. Barclay, national director of activities for Boy Scouts of America placed the camp in the highest ranking groups. The rating listed the Ottawa camp as one of the best in the state. M. P. Russell received notice of the inspection Saturday.

Camp Ottawa will be made a base camp for the Chicago Scouts who engage in taking canoe trips from the Chicago camps down the Muskegon river.

HOLLAND MAN OWNS MOUNTAIN LION CUBS

Herman Prins, local service station owner, of Eighth Street and Columbia Ave., has two kittens that attract more attention than all the other cats in the city.

The reason these five-month-old kittens are being viewed by motorists and others is the fact that they are baby mountain lions when captured by Mr. Prins. The two cats have been named "Pick and Pat."

They were returned to Holland in the motorbus owned by Mr. Prins. They are fed on horse meat. The lions sleep most of the day. They weigh about 15 pounds apiece. Prins plans on selling the cats to a zoo when they become larger. They are on display in the show window of the station.

MISSIONARY UNIONS WILL MEET IN FALL

WANT TUNNEL PARK ACREAGE INCREASED

With Tunnel park taxed to capacity daily, citizens of Holland are asking whether acreage adjoining the site is to be purchased this year to increase its capacity and relieve congestion.

Attendance at the park is second only to that at the Highland Park oval at Grand Haven and the Ottawa beach oval at Holland. Tunnel park is adjacent to the beautiful Lakewood farms.

SEE HISTORIC SPOTS IN THE EAST

Mr. and Mrs. John Riemersma, Paul and Clinton Harrison, sons of missionaries, have gone on a motoring tour to the principal eastern cities and the historic spots found there. They will visit Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston, New York City and other large centers. The Harrison boys will visit their grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bobbe, at Baltimore, Md., and the Riemersmas will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Landwehr at Philadelphia. Principal Riemersma will return in time for his school duties in Holland public schools.

Train Demolishes Empty Automobile

A Pere Marquette flyer demolished the car of Howard Doolittle at 1 o'clock last Friday morning after the car had failed to make the turn across the tracks four miles south of Pullman, Allegan county, and had rolled over two or three times down the right of way.

All the occupants of the car had gotten out and were attempting to push it off the tracks before the train came along. None of them was hurt in the second phase of the crash, although Doolittle sustained a broken arm when the car rolled along the tracks.

Riding with him at the time were Dale Donovan of Holland, Miss Avis Benjamin, Miss Betty Michie and Miss Violet Sparlock, all of Allegan. They all received minor cuts and bruises. Doolittle was treated at the South Haven City hospital, Miss Benjamin and Miss Michie were treated at the Allegan General hospital and Miss Sparlock in the office of a local physician.

The car's occupants were returning from a dance in Grand Junction when the accident occurred.

FIVE HURT AS TRUCK, CARS HIT IN OTTAWA

Five persons were injured Thursday night in an accident two miles west of Zeeland on M-21 involving two cars and a truck.

The accident occurred when A. J. Klomparsen of Hamilton attempted to pass a truck and both the truck and automobile collided with another car driven by Jacob Negelkirk of Holland. Identity of the truck driver was not learned.

Negelkirk suffered several fractured ribs and shock, and Mrs. Negelkirk was removed to Zeeland hospital suffering from shock, lacerations and a fractured right wrist. Their son, John, suffered a broken thumb. Klomparsen, who was bruised and possibly injured internally, was removed to his home. Frank McJarry of Holland, a passenger in Klomparsen's car, received face and chest lacerations.

LARGE CROWD AT HART & COOLEY PICNIC

The annual all-day picnic of the Hart & Cooley Co., Saturday, at Tunnel Park, was attended by approximately 1500 persons, including employees, heads of the departments, the office force and their families.

Activities began at 9:45 a.m. with an indoor tournament resulting in victory for the small press room team, captained by Harold Barkel. Sports for the entire group were conducted in the afternoon with some 16 or 18 events, the most interesting of which was the chicken race for women. Thirty-six chickens, released six at a time, furnished much excitement for the entire group. All prizes with the exception of the chickens were cash. Entertainment during the dinner hour was provided by the Hart & Cooley amateurs and all participants were given cash awards. Sid Jarvis was chairman of the day. He was assisted by Foster Mack and Peter Ver Schure, refreshments; Jack Bonetko, transportation; and Herman Van Kampen, grounds. Basket lunches were served at noon and evening together with free coffee and lemonade. All attending the picnic were picnic tags and had been given a long ticket resembling a railroad ticket, which when they were torn off for items at the concession, including use of the bathroom.

Following the supper hour, a contest was held in which many cash prizes were awarded. Richard Smeenge received the $25 grocery order prize; J. Ten Broek, $20 cash; Ted Mouw, $15 and J. Visser, $10. Other prizes in this event included two five-dollar prizes and ten one-dollar prizes.

Of special interest was the ball game in the afternoon played between the "Swell Heads," captained by Oscar Johnson, and the "Gore Heads," of which Foster Mack was captain. The "Swell Heads" won by a score of 4 to 1. The increase in attendance at the picnic this year is attributed to the increased number of employees. Last year between 800 and 900 attended the picnic.

The city's new traffic ordinance has been printed in book form and is now ready for free distribution to the public. Police Chief Frank Van Ry said any person desiring a copy may obtain one by calling at the police headquarters. The new traffic ordinance went into effect July 28.

Reinder Niemeyer and his sister, Miss Gertrude Niemeyer, of St. Paul, Minn., are spending this week at the home of their cousin, Mrs. Simon Meusen, 271 West 12th St.

The Rev. George King, pastor of the Baptist church of Columbus, Ind., and Mrs. King and their son, who spent last week at the home of B. Roos, 112 East 20th St., left for their home Monday.

Those Who Will Drive Reckless Must Pay Dearly

Case Warns "Crash"
Drivers of Cost

With the tide of highway accidents in Michigan on the upgrade, with its accompanying rising toll of life, limb and property damage, Leon D. Case, Secretary of State, has pointed out an act of the 1937 legislature which will make accidents more expensive than ever for the person deemed responsible for them.

In 1933, the financial responsibility law was passed, barring from the roads any operator unable to satisfy a judgment of $300 or more in property damage, or for any amount in personal injury, as the result of an automobile accident. Drivers are barred until they pay their judgments, and even after that, in order to regain the privilege of driving, a driver must prove his future financial responsibility, as the law directs. "Proof" must be in the form of the posting with the Secretary of State of $11,000 in cash or negotiable securities, or the filing of a special form of liability insurance.

The 1937 legislature reduced the unsatisfied judgment provision from $300 to $150, which means, Case points out, that more drivers than ever will probably become involved in the law.

The most interesting feature of the law's operation, however, is that the overwhelming number of persons brought under the law are those convicted of drunk driving, rather than those unable to meet damage judgments. Operators are barred from driving for three-year periods following conviction of a number of motoring offenses specified in the financial responsibility law.

It is believed, however, that with the lowering of the amount which will involve drivers in the law's provisions, that lack of financial responsibility, rather than lack of sobriety, will eventually be a major cause for disbarment from highways.

Plans Made to Erect New Club House on Site

Purchase of 1,800 feet of frontage on Water St., opposite Kelly Memorial Park by the American Legion post of Grand Haven was announced today and arrangements are being made by the post to erect a clubhouse on the property. Plans for the clubhouse will be announced later.

The land has been owned by the Hubbell Sand company of Manistee and much of the sand on the location which composed Five Mile Hill, has been removed for industrial purposes. A railroad spur at one time extended to the property. Officials of the Legion completed the deal with the sand company today. The consideration was unnamed.

Included in the purchase are 13 lots. The Legion's new holding extends back 350 feet and tapers in toward the hillside. The frontage starts at Sherman St., opposite the light plant and extends to the bend in Water St.

The original plan of the property on which the new Legion holding is located, was made in 1837 and at the time a man showed a United States road located in its rear. This road as originally surveyed was a continuation of what is now Grand River Ave. in Detroit and was then the federal road from Detroit to Lake Michigan.

FENNVILLE HOUSE SAVED FROM FIRE BY FRIENDS

Fennville neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Steinberg Saturday afternoon saved their belongings from destruction by fire when they noticed smoke seeping from the second floor of the former Matt Orr house, which they occupy.

On investigation, they found a chair ablaze, apparently fired by live cigarette ashes which had been dropped under the cushions. The Steinbergs were absent at the time, but the neighbors extinguished the blaze with buckets of water and moved the chair into the back yard, still smoldering.

There, it again broke into flames, and was completely consumed. The house is now owned by Mrs. Herman Fredericks, and the Steinbergs occupy the upper floor.

The finance committee of the Allegan county board of supervisors has agreed to recommend to the October session of the board that the county emergency welfare relief administration be allotted $4,000 to help make up the $5,000 deficit carried by the unit for more than one year. The deficit occurred early in 1936 when the supervisors and state welfare office were involved in a dispute over local administration and the supervisors did not turn over the $5,000 allocated to the unit at the January session. Indications are that the state office will make up the additional $1,000 if the board approves the committee report. THE SUNDAY SCHOOL
The Place of Religion in a Nation's Life
Exodus 25:1, 2, 3, 9; 29:48-49; 40:34-38
Henry Geerlings

"And the Lord spoke unto Moses," how often those words or very similar ones occur in these chapters, and indeed throughout the entire Pentateuch! God was always the spokesman, and Moses was chosen to take the heavenly message and carry it down to the people. It reminds one of the time when Jesus took the leaves and the fishes and multiplying them, gave them to the disciples who carried them out and distributed them among the multitudes sitting on the grass.

But the fact that God spoke is not quite as important as is the message that He gave. In this case it had to do with the offering He desired the people to bring to Him as a free gift. This is not the first place in the Old Testament where we read of someone or a number of people bringing an offering. But in no former instance is it presented so impressively as here. Each one was to give; each was to give willingly; the heart of each one was to be in the gift; and the gift was to be taken from the quantity or total portion of the goods each one had. That is the meaning of the word offering. It means something that is taken off from the larger mass and set aside for sacred purposes.

The next permanent thing God gave the Hebrews was the tabernacle, or a sacred dwelling where He could meet with His people and His people with Him. It pleased God to localize His presence, for in that case it would represent more to the people than just the idea of His general presence with them. God is everywhere, to be sure, but that teaching was not so clear or so well understood by them as it is by us.

It was the materials for the tabernacle that their offerings were to purchase. They were to feel it was theirs because they had a part in making it possible. It was to be the religious meeting place all the time they were a wandering people and even after that. It was so constructed that it could be taken down and carried from place to place. It was a portable structure. It was erected in the midst of the camp, so that the distance they had to travel to reach it was not great. After the pattern of it the tabernacle David constructed was made; and the temple Solomon built was patterned after it, though the temple was much larger. By the word tabernacle is meant the furniture, which was made according to God's directions.

We remember that Jacob was surprised at Bethel, where he was spending the night in sleep, when he discovered that God was in that place. From the beginning God taught His own that He was not far from them, but the thought that there was to be a place or a building with which He would identify Himself was more or less new. Jesus found it necessary to assure His disciples that He would never be absent from them. It has been hard for us to realize that fact. How much more so for the Hebrews back there when they were much less acquainted with the ways of Jehovah! Without His presence the building they were to erect would mean nothing more than any other structure they had raised by their labor and sacrifices.

Then, too, this place was to be different from others because it would be sanctified by His glory. This was only another way of saying that His presence would give to it a different meaning. It would stand for something more than any other house they had ever known. When they looked at it they were to think of God occupying it, not in any physical sense, but in a spiritual sense.

And God would do even more than that. He would set aside and sanctify men who would act as the leaders of worship. Aaron, the older brother of Moses, and his sons were to be the ministers in the tabernacle. At this point we begin to trace that long line of Godly men who, through the centuries, were to stand in holy places in the tabernacle, temple, church, and direct the people in worship and declare to them the word of God.

One mistake we are liable to make here is to suppose that the Hebrew people knew God very well. That was not the case. It seems reasonable that with the death of a strange and antagonistic king and the increase of the burdens on the people and the long period of severe oppression, all would serve to make them forget God, so that it was necessary for them to learn again the first truths about His person, His nature, His power, and His purpose. It would be only gradually that they would come to know that it was He who brought them out of the land of Egypt, that it was He who would dwell in their midst, and that it was He who would prove to them that He was their God.

When the tabernacle was completed God filled it with His glory. This glory was of the nature of a cloud, and it filled the building. It was the sign that God was there. That is no new thing to us. Think of the signs and symbols we have in our churches, and they are there to make our God more real to us, to help us to hold fast to His truth, and to know that He is near.

OUTSIDE INTERFERENCE IS NOT NEEDED

Anyone who believes that the independent retail grocery industry is a scattered, unorganized business, made up of hard working individuals trying to get along against great odds, has been sadly misinformed in at least two respects. Scattered they may be, hard working individuals they are, but unorganized and working against great odds—most decidedly no.

One hundred fifty-two thousand individually owned retail grocery stores recently joined in a most worthy campaign to move a grapefruit surplus. The campaign was so successful that the National Association of Retail Grocers is now formulating plans to establish a Retail Grocers' Service Bureau. The purpose of the bureau would be to develop advertising and promotion literature to be used by independent retail grocers in their stores. Display material would be included in this arrangement. Manufacturers would be asked to work with the association service bureau in arranging national promotion events from time to time.

The chain stores have long realized the value of co-operating with producers in the job of moving surplus agricultural commodities. During the past year they have carried on a number of campaigns on behalf of lamb, turkeys, beef, fruits, etc. Every campaign has been successful and both producers and consumers have benefited.

Continued progress of both the independent and chain merchandiser on a sound competitive basis is a boon to all concerned—producer, merchandiser and consumer. Vigorous regulatory or tax legislation to penalize either will inevitably throw the delicate balance of competition out of kilter. When competition ceases, progress ceases, and the consumers are left holding the well known bag.

LOADING RUBBER ON SMALL BOATS IN LIBERIA FOR TRANSPORTATION TO OCEAN FREIGHTERS

From the Firestone plantations in Liberia comes an ever-increasing supply of the world's finest rubber. Money saved here and in manufacturing and distributing enable Firestone to sell a safer, first-quality tire at lower prices.

Why FIRESTONE MAKES A SAFER TIRE AT A LOWER PRICE

PRICES AS LOW AS $6.40

IN THE Firestone Standard Tire, you get extra value in the form of extra safety. It costs more money to build a safer tire. But Firestone can build a first-quality tire made of top grade materials and sell it for less money, because Firestone controls rubber and cotton supplies at their sources, manufactures with greater efficiency and distributes at lower cost.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS—eight extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord by the Firestone patented Gum-Dipping process. By this process every fiber of every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber. This counteracts dangerous internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—because under the tread are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—because the tread is scientifically designed.

YOU GET LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE because of the extra tough, long-wearing tread.

You need all of these features to make your car tire-safe on your week-end or vacation trip. Firestone gives them to you at lower cost. Join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign today by equipping your car with a set of new Firestone Standard Tires—today's top tire value.

DON'T RISK YOUR LIFE ON SMOOTH WORN TIRES! DO YOU KNOW THAT last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 38,000 men, women and children? That a million more were injured? That more than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to smooth, worn, unsafe tires?

At right is section cut from a new Firestone Tire. Note the thick, smooth tread designed against skidding, blowouts and punctures. Come in and see a demonstration.

At left is a section cut from a smooth, worn tire. Note the uneven tread which causes skidding, blowouts and punctures. Come in and see a demonstration.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

BARTLETT pears are news this year. A really bumper crop of this delicious fruit means low prices and plenty of them to go round. Apples, too, are going to be plentiful and cheap.

Mentis continue high with lamb still the best value, and poultry, with the exception of ducklings, is higher. Fish is a reasonably priced food. Eggs and cheese are relatively inexpensive and may be used for luncheon and dinner menus. Buy prices continue below last year's level.

Homegrown vegetables are plentiful and cheap. A generous use of vegetables will help a little meat go a long way.

The following menus call for seasonable, reasonably priced foods.
