The County Seat of Ottawa County.

Address of Wm. N. Angel, Esq., at the laying of the Corner Stone for the new Court house, at Grand Haven, Mich., August 21, 1893.

After tendering his compliments to the Building Committee for the honor conferred in selecting him as the speaker of the occasion, Mr. Angel said:

The question of the permanent location of our county seat has been an open question, for nearly half a century, and it may be not inappropriate at this occasion to briefly glance at the successive struggles to remove it from Grand Haven, where it was located at the organization of the county.

The first skirmish for position to that end, was in the state convention which framed our present constitution—in 1850, and it was generated by Dr. Timothy Eastman, the delegate from this county.

This name calls up a man of mature years, of dignified, almost courtly presence, of wide reading and study, of commanding abilities and of unsurpassed hospitality and conversational powers. His residence for several years prior to 1850, had been at the place now known as Eastmanville. He early saw that to be the place for the future capital of the county. His seat in the constitutional convention of 1850 gave him the first chance to disclose his tactics. With energy and zeal he worked for a provision—Article X, Sec. 8—by which a majority of the board of supervisors could designate the place to which a county seat, once established, might be removed. In this he was unsuccessful, and a two-third vote of the body was made the constitutional number.

It should be stated that the main argument against Grand Haven for the county seat was based upon its geographical location. It was contended that its final location should be at or near the geographical center of the county, upon the bank of Grand river, then the only great highway from east to west, and dividing Ottawa county proper into two parts—not very unequal in territorial area.

The question of changing the location of the county seat from Grand Haven came to a vote for the first time at the October session of the board of supervisors in 1856. Candidates for county seat honors in the spring of that year prepared for the coming contest and in some cases selected their men for supervisors for that special purpose. ***

Here permit me to recall the names of men who were the earliest settlers at this place—men whose business capacity and sterling worth in all the walks of life, gave them a wider fame than their own county. Confessedly at the head of these should be placed the name of a man, whose classical learning had enriched natural talents of the first order, an able minister of the gospel of our Lord and with capacities equal to the greatest and most varied secular affairs, the Reverend Wm. M. Ferry. There were also, Thomas W. White, Nathan H. White, Henry Griffin, Clark B. Albee, Thomas D. Gilbert, Francis B. Gilbert, Henry Penney and George Parks. These original settlers, of whom none except T. D. Gilbert of Grand Rapids are now living, were reinforced by a generation of younger men, some of whom have passed away, and the living have almost reached the period allotted by the Psalmist as the limit of human life. Thos. W. Ferry, W. M. Ferry Jr., Robert W. Duane, three brothers, Ebenezer, James and John W. Barnes, and Dwight Cutler, all worthy successors of those early pioneers.

For six years prior to 1855, I had served as county register of deeds, and hence it was thought by the people of Tallmadge township where I resided in the spring of 1856, that my residence for more than half a decade at Grand Haven conferred special qualifications for a seat on the board of supervisors on the county seat question.

The little village of Lamont in that township, lying within 5 miles of the east line of the county, thought itself a candidate for county seat honors. The political complexion of the town was, by a strong majority, opposed to bourbon Democracy, and it is not too much to say that Mr. Geo. Luther, a man of high social position, active public spirit and warm personal feelings, was the acknowledged leader of the dominant party.

In the spring of the year politics were thrown to the winds. Only one candidate for the office of supervisor was nominated and he was safely elected. That candidate, Mr. Chairman, was myself. I am aware that it is a matter of questionable taste to speak of one's self in a paper of enduring value. I mention this, and hope to be excused for so doing, because it had never happened to me before and has never happened since. It is probable that the outcome of the main question for ever put an end to my being again considered at all, as available for the high honor of supervisor.

At the annual session of the board in October 1856, only one ballot was taken for the new location of the county seat, when 16 votes were cast, Ottawa Center receiving 11, Grand Haven 2, and Eastmanville 3. A motion was carried to postpone further voting on the question until the January session of the board. At that time the territory now constituting Muskegon county was embraced in Ottawa county and consisted of the organized townships of Casinovia, Muskegon, Norton, Ravenna and White River. Such able men as Stephen L. Lowing of Georgetown, Benjamin Smith of Crocker, Simeon Hazelton of Polkton, Dr. Thomas Smith of Ravenna, and Robert W. Duncan of Ottawa, were members of the board.

At the January session of 1857, the board tackled the county seat question with a will—the 7th ballot showing 19 votes, and giving Eastmanville 13, Grand Haven 3, and Ottawa Center 3. Through persistent begging for unsubstantial, complimentary support, Lamont, on one ballot, got 4 votes—all on others, while in the field, one vote. Thus Eastmanville became the location for the popular vote at the ensuing April election. Grand Haven was sure a majority of the people favored removal. To scatter that majority was its obvious policy. New competitors were encouraged to come forward as allies to Grand Haven and all of them were played against Eastmanville. The popular vote showed a majority against it of more than 300.

One year later the board of supervisors gave Ottawa Center a chance to test its strength with the people. Grand Haven played the same strategic game, which had won the previous year, and Ottawa Center lost by nearly 500 votes. One other designation (in 1863, I believe) failed to win on the popular vote by a still larger majority than was cast against Ottawa Center. Since then, although efforts were made in that direction, the Board of Supervisors has been unable to agree upon a location to require a popular expression of the electors.

Down to January 1857 no building had been erected specially for the holding of courts and for the public officers. The latter were kept for the most part in stores, with the dry goods hardware, tin pans, cod fish, New Orleans molasses and lumberman's supplies. A change from these places was made in January 1851 to a room for the clerk and register of deeds, over the store of our late well known townsman, Mr. Henry Griffin, on the corner of First and Washington streets. The first piece of office furniture ever owned by the county was a pine, hand-made, writing desk, with a slanting rest for the record books, at which the writer stood, or sat, on a three-legged stool. The desk must have cost as much as five dollars.

On the east side of Second, between Washington and Franklin streets, in the winter of 1837-8, was erected a small frame building, seated after the fashion of school houses of those days, which for thirteen years served the triple purpose of school house, church and court house; and after 1850, when a new school house was built, was continued to be used as a house of religious worship and for the administration of law and justice in the courts of record until 1857.

The Laying of a Corner Stone.

It was one of the mile-posts in the history of Ottawa county, the laying of the corner stone of the new court house on Monday; while to Grand Haven it was the consummation of an earnest, life-long desire.

The building now in course of construction is the third "temple" in this county dedicated to the administration of justice, within a period covering over half a century.

The first was erected in 1837. This however was not a court house proper. It was built mainly for school purposes, and incidentally used also as a church and a place to hold courts. The second, or present, building was erected in 1856, as a bonus from the citizens of Grand Haven to defeat the up-river people in their attempts at removal of the county seat.

The festivities on Monday were such as to revive county recollections and reminiscences. The settlement of what now comprises Ottawa county, begins at Grand Haven, and dates back for over seventy years. The first pioneer, the advance guard of a more permanent white settlement, is Rix Robinson, who landed there in 1821, the exact date or month not being recorded. He was a native of the state of New York, and received a more than common education, with a view of practicing law. However, he preferred another career. In 1834 he went west, his father giving him $1,000. From Buffalo to Detroit it took him 26 days. At the latter place he became an army sutler, remained a while, and then started for St. Louis. Here he invested the remnant of his capital in tobacco and other articles and started north, intent upon Indian trading. At Mackinaw he becomes identified with the American Fur Company, and is charged with open-infring trading posts in the north-west. In 1817 he established one on the Calumet river; in 1819 one on the Illinois river; in 1820 one at Milwaukee; and in 1821 at the mouth of Grand river.

Behold Grand Haven in its swaddling clothes! For the next period of 13 years, from 1821 to 1834, this region was inhabited solely by the Red man and an occasional white trader. Similar posts to the one at Grand Haven had also been established at different points on Grand river, one at Charleston, a platted village near Eastmanville, by Pierre Constant, a Frenchman; another, as early as 1780, between Grand Rapids and Lowell by a French woman, Mad. La Framboise; a third, at Grand Rapids, etc.

The permanent white settlement of Ottawa county however dates from 1834, the year of the landing at the mouth of Grand river of Rev. William M. Ferry and family. Mr. Ferry brought a family in this wilderness and planted behind the sand dunes, in the wilderness, and among the wigwams of the Indian and in the camp of the adventurer a christian home. He was a native of Massachusetts. His father was a farmer, and gave him a college education. Desirous of entering the ministry he works his own way to obtain a theological course, a part of which he secured at New Brunswick, N. J. His desire is now to labor as missionary, and he is sent to Mackinaw, where he establishes a mission post and remains there twelve years.

With a view of recruiting his health and improving his finances he seeks other fields and fixes upon Grand river, where he arrived November 2, 1834. It was Sunday morning, and in the afternoon he pronounced what was perhaps the first gospel message ever delivered in these regions, from these very suggestive words: "For who hath despised the day of small things." Behold Grand Haven in its cradle! It is a retrospect of these small things, their insignificant beginning, which gave value and satisfaction to a corner stone such as was laid on Monday. Hence, also, it was so fitting that the several parties designated to officiate on that occasion had been selected from among those whose memory could still recall the days of small things: Ex-Senator Ferry, a son of that first christian family; Dwight Cutler, a pioneer from way-back, who left his native home in Vermont and located at Grand Haven in 1830, Wm. N. Angel, a settler of '43, the first register of deeds of Ottawa County; Rev. L. M. S. Smith, a venerable divine of 86 years, whose voice was heard in that primitive school house and temple of justice, above referred to, as early as 1846.

The occasion brought forth a large concourse of people, variously estimated at from 1,500 to 2,000. Most of the townships in the county were duly represented. Holland city and township, they, also, had sent there due quota.

Promptly at two o'clock the president of the day, Mayor H. Bloeker, called the assemblage to order and the following program, as outlined by the committee, was carried out:

Prayer—Rev. L. M. S. Smith.
Music—Glee Club.
Address—Wm. N. Angel, Esq.
Music—Grand Haven Cornet Band.
Announcement and placement of sealed metallic box, containing articles deposited in corner stone—Hon. Thomas W. Ferry.
Laying of Corner Stone—Hon. Dwight Cutler.
Music—Glee Club.
Benediction.

At the conclusion of Mr. Angel's address—which will be found in another column—Senator Ferry stepped forward and in a few fitting remarks deposited the several documents in the copper box, saying:

In conformity to memorial usage, we likewise make deposit in the corner stone of what promises to be Ottawa county's most imposing structure. In this metallic box, to go into the stone, we place that deposit.

We first place in it a copy of the HOLY BIBLE, the rock on which the institutions of a christian republic imperishably stand.

Next we place Ottawa County's part of "Michigan Pioneer Collections, Vol. IX, 1886" and of "Historical Compendium of Ottawa County, 1892-3," in recognition of the high rank the county holds with associate counties of the state.

We place a photograph of the "Old School House," the first built in the county, at Grand Haven, and as the only remaining glimpse of the building that held the first day and Sunday schools, church services, public meetings, and courts of the early days of the county.

We place a photograph of the old court house, and what appears to-day of the progress made upon the new, and pay passing farwell to the disqualifications of the old, present; and bid heartily welcome to the possibilities of the new, future court house.

We place copies of the several newspapers published in the county, because the press formulates public thought, and inspires growth of communities.

We place a catalogue of Hope College, in honor of the first curriculum of the state, that couples study of the Godhood and manhood of the human race.

We place a catalogue of Akeley Institute, as our Columbian tribute to woman, placed now educationally abreast with man.

We place, with bated breath, the Committee's "Historical summary of settlement, growth, and status in '93, of Ottawa County"; and here cheerfully embalm it for posterity.

We also place program of to-day's exercises as our '98 memento to descendants of Ottawa county, never to lose interest in laying corner stones of county public buildings.

Finally we venture, in behalf of this large assemblage who have listened to the historically interesting, and able address of the orator of the occasion, to place a copy of his oration.

The box is now ready to be sealed. Now that the box, holding the deposit, is sealed, we hold it up to the parting view of the audience, and place it in its final resting place.

As the massive stone was lowered into position Mr. Cutler proclaimed it well laid, which announcement was lustily endorsed with three rousing cheers by the multitude.

The Ottawa County part of "Michigan Pioneer Collections," above referred to, is a series of papers read at the Semi-Centennial celebration of its settlement, held at Grand Haven, Dec. 2, 1884. These papers are as follows:

Two Deaths by Drowning.

Thursday afternoon Black Lake witnessed the sad drowning of two young people: John Haan, aged 24 years, and Miss Jennie Anderson, aged 20 years. They were out sailing with Rev. Conrad Haney and his son, a lad of about 12 years. When opposite the point west of Central Park, a sudden puff of wind struck the boat and it capsized at once. Owing to its being heavily ballasted, it sank to the bottom, in about 20 feet of water.

Mr. Haney succeeded in getting his boy to the mast, which was four feet out of water, and then got hold of Miss Anderson and would perhaps have rescued her; but John, just then coming up under him, caught hold of his leg, and in the struggle to loosen John's hold he lost his grip of Miss Anderson. By this time Mr. Haney was too much exhausted to make further efforts in saving Miss Anderson, and barely succeeded in getting to the mast himself.

The scene was witnessed from the shore by Danie Ten Cate, a brave lad of 13 years, who was visiting near by, at his uncle's, Aldert Diekema. He took to a small boat, but for want of oars he could not row to the wrecked yacht, so he jumped into the water, and towed his boat to the scene, and thus rescued Mr. Haney and his son.

Rev. Haney, a Congregational minister of Chicago, was spending the summer with his family here, camping out on Point Superior. Miss Anderson was his guest, she having arrived there Sunday morning. Her home is also in Chicago, at 45 Champlain Ave., with a widowed mother, whose main support she was.

The young man is well and favorably known in this city. The family at one time resided here, before the big fire, his father keeping a shoemaker's shop on River street. Their present home is in Muskegon, 55 Florence street. This summer, and until a few days ago, he had been engaged as porter on the steam Saugatuck. Mrs. C. Dykema of this city is his aunt.

The accident happened about four o'clock. The life savings crew hearing of the tragedy, with their usual promptness, repaired to the scene, and succeeded in bringing the bodies to the surface. Friends at Chicago and Muskegon were at once telegraphed and the remains placed in charge of the undertakers. Friday afternoon the body of Miss Anderson was taken to Chicago in charge of a friend of the family. The remains of Haan were taken to the house of his cousin, Mrs. Simon Bos, awaiting instructions from his folks at Muskegon.

Justice Post held an inquest, resulting in a verdict of accidental drowning. The jury was composed of John W. Bosman, Chas. Boyenga, Jacob Keefer, Peter H. Wilms, Pieter Pfantstiel and F. G. Bennett.

DR. SCHOUTEN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF RHUBARB is too well known to the public to need any recommendation. It is enough to say, as is proven by the testimony below, and hundreds besides who have used it, that it is exactly what it is claimed for it. If you or your children are troubled with diarrhoea, one or two doses will convince you as to the merits of the preparation. In complaints of children it has no equal. Don't be afraid to give it to your youngest child. How many children die, only a few days old, of those green capillary discharges? How many suffer day and night of catarrh and bilious diarrhoea, caused by taking cold and using injurious food. The COMPOUND SYRUP OF RHUBARB being a Tonic for the bowels, cures all these miserable complaints, when not of too old standing, with a few doses. It does not only check the Diarrhoea, but after being stopped, it moves the bowels naturally and healthily. It is not the case with many A. N. Diarrhoea preparations.

To the Trade and to Housekeepers:

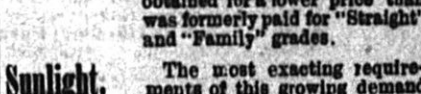

Progress.

The steady decline in prices during the past few years has placed the highest grade of "Patent" flour within the reach of the masses and has resulted in a wonderful increase in its sale as this grade can now be obtained for lower prices than was formerly paid for "Straight" and "Family" grades.

Sunlight.

The most exacting requirements of this growing demand are met by our Fancy Roller Patent; the original and only genuine "Sunlight Flour."

Always Branded:

A Triumph of Milling

This magnificent flour is the result of the most careful and scientific manipulation of elaborate milling machinery which we exclusively control, and the careful selection and blending of the choicest varieties of wheat.

Unquestioned Superiority.

This flour is universally acknowledged by Millers, Flour Dealers and Bakers to be unequalled for Whiteness, Purity and Strength.

Accept No Imitation or Substitute.

The genuine "Sunlight" flour is sold by all the leading Grocers and Flour Dealers. If the parties you buy of cannot supply this brand, write direct to us and we will tell you where you can obtain it, or supply you direct if no dealer in your town handles it. Do not allow yourself to be put off with an imitation or inferior substitute.

SAILED THE SEAS 38 YEARS.

One of His Experiences.

For thirty-eight years Capt. Loud followed the sea, most of that time as master of a vessel, and upon retiring from the water was appointed by the Secretary of the United States Treasury to superintend the seal fisheries in Alaska, which position he held five years. He relates one experience as follows: "For several years I had been troubled with general nervousness and pain in the region of my heart. My greatest affliction was sleeplessness; it was almost impossible at any time to obtain rest and sleep. Having seen Dr. Miles' remedies advertised I began using Nervine. After taking a small quantity the benefit received was so great that I was positively alarmed, thinking the remedy contained opiates which would finally be injurious to me; but on being assured by the druggist that it was perfectly harmless, I continued it together with the Heart Cure. Today I can conscientiously say that Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure did more for me than anything I had ever taken. I had been treated by eminent physicians in New York and San Francisco without benefit. I owe my present good health to the judicious use of these most valuable remedies, and heartily recommend them to all afflicted as I was."—Capt. A. P. Loud, Hampton, Me. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, express prepaid. They are free from all opiates and dangerous drugs.

ITALY IS SATISFIED.

SHE SENDS FRANCE A POLITE MESSAGE.

Senate Listens to Mr. Voorhees-Indiana Bankers in Trouble-Cherokee Strip Not All Good-Fatal Riot in a Pennsylvania Town.

The Amende Honorable.
According to a semi-official announcement made at Rome Tuesday evening, "Admiral Brin, Minister of Foreign Affairs, has instructed Signor Rissman, Italian Ambassador to France, to inform the French Government that in view of its spontaneous dismissal of the Mayor of Algiers-Mortes the Italian Government, appreciating the friendly disposition thus shown, and placing complete confidence in the efficient and impartial action of the French magistracy for the punishment of the guilty parties, is happy to be able to consider the incident satisfactorily closed." The Italian Government is taking steps to punish the officials who are held responsible for not preventing rioting in Rome. Signor Giolitti, the Prime Minister, issued a decree ordering the suspension from office of Signor Gaesenda, Prefect of Rome, Signor Senni, Chief of Police, and Signor Majnetti, Inspector of Police in the district in which the French Embassy is situated.

ONE MILLION A WEEK.

World's Fair Now Having a Great and Genuine Boom.

Success has crowned the efforts to make the Columbian Exposition "popular." The attendance has grown steadily and largely for the past ten days. The number of paid admissions has gone away ahead of the 100,000-a-day mark. It is estimated that the total attendance for the current week will approximate very closely, if it does not exceed, one million. The public seems to have just awakened to a realization of the fact that the greatest wonder of the century is here at Chicago awaiting their attention, writes a correspondent. Surely but somewhat slowly the people have been learning the meaning of the term, "World's Columbian Exposition." Now they seem to have grasped its import, and they are coming hither by the tens of thousands to gaze upon the vision of beauty. The bulk of the crowds that fill the park are visitors to Chicago. They come from other cities and from towns and hamlets, from the shop and from the farm. They will come every day for a week, and when they return to their homes they will tell the story of this palace of delights and other hundreds of thousands will come in their places, and so it will go on to the end of the chapter.

THEY DEFY THE LAW.

Bloody Resistance to a Corporation in the Streets of Gilberton, Pa.

The other night citizens of Gilberton, Pa., in the enforcement of a borough ordinance, tore up the tracks of the Schuylkill Traction Company, and the following morning a large force of men, all armed, attempted to relay the tracks under the personal direction of Assistant Superintendent Richard Amore. In the collision that ensued James Paritt, aged 25, and William Hughes, citizens, were killed, and Evan Davis and Richard Amore of the company side were seriously injured. Will O'Connor was also shot in the hand and foot. Others are injured. Everything quieted down when the railway company's force was withdrawn, and outside of an excited populace talking over the disturbance nothing has transpired to cause any repetition of the trouble.

THE CHEROKEE COUNTRY.

Portions Unfit for Settlement—Work of Schemers Thwarted.

The surveyors who have been working in the Cherokee country report that the western portion of the strip is unfit for settlement, and that the rush will probably be concentrated on the more desirable lands located farther east. It has been discovered that some enterprising persons obtained advance information about the intended location of the county seats, and had organized companies to take possession of the sites and resell them after the opening. The officials, to thwart the scheme, have quietly relocated the county seats by moving the sites a certain distance in another direction. President Cleveland has issued his proclamation opening the strip to settlement at the hour of noon, central standard time, Saturday, Sept. 16.

VOORHEES SPEAKS IN SENATE.

Gentleman from Indiana Supports His Bill with Strong Arguments.

Senator Voorhees, of Indiana, Chairman of the Finance Committee, opened the silver battle by addressing the Senate in a lengthy argument in support of the silver-purchase cessation bill. The speech received unusual attention, and, according to a Washington dispatch, was concise and ably delivered. Nearly every Senator was in his seat. Many members of the House occupied the sofas in the rear and the galleries contained the largest crowd of the session. The presiding officer was obliged to threaten to clear the galleries in order to receive the applause called forth by Mr. Voorhees' affirmation of alliance to Cleveland and other strong points.

Bankers Under Arrest.

The sensational developments in connection with the failure of the Indianapolis National Bank have finally led to the arrest of President Theodore P. Haughey, of the bank; his son Schuyler, president of the glue company; Francis A. Coffin, president of the Indianapolis Cabinet Company, and his brother, Percival B. Coffin, treasurer, and Albert B. Reed, bookkeeper of the latter concern. President Haughey is charged with embezzling bank funds and the others with aiding and abetting him. They are each placed under $5,000 bond.

Forty-nine Japanese Must Return.

The steamer Wajima Maru arrived at San Francisco bringing fifty-nine Japanese from Victoria, B. C. The Immigration Commissioner decided that ten are actors and will be allowed to land, while the remaining forty-nine are contract laborers and will be sent back.

TO ABOLISH WAR.

An International Peace Conference Held in Chicago.

The Arbitration and Peace Congress Legion, which met in session at the Art Palace, Chicago, is engaged in a noble work—the substitution of international arbitration for international warfare. The object of the meeting was well expressed in the speech of the presiding officer, Hon. Josiah Quincy, First Assistant Secretary of State. Mr. Quincy said: "Public opinion is now a more distinct and concrete thing than it has ever been in the past, and governs the civilized world to a greater extent than ever before. It is this public opinion that we are here to endeavor to effect, to shape toward the belief that in the present stage of the development of mankind was between nations are barbarous and unnecessary. The people are now at last educated to think and to understand, and to grasp the fact that they have the power to rule themselves. The modern growth of the press and the general and constant discussion of questions of public interest, which it makes possible are developing the reasoning powers of the people and giving to intelligent thought a force it has never before possessed. If we can increase by ever so little that body of intelligent thought which is now making itself felt against all international warfare, then we can claim a practical result for this congress in the highest sense of the word." Nearly every nation on the earth was represented at the conference.

MOB IN POSSESSION.

Government Troops at Bombay Powerless to Keep Order.

Government dispatches say that Bombay is in possession of a mob and that the troops are powerless. Every mosque has been destroyed and many persons massacred. Europeans are panic-stricken. Troops are now protecting only the public buildings. The governor has appealed for help, asking for instructions. The troubles began on Aug. 12, when a number of encounters took place between fanatical Hindus and Moslems on the streets. The day was one of religious observance of both these religious and race enemies and both were allowed to celebrate simultaneously. The Moslems made the first attack and were routed by the Hindus. Troops were hastily called from outlying posts and were massed in the chief native centers. Guns were trained upon the principal streets, the inhabitants being ordered to stay within their dwellings. At first they obeyed, but soon the fighting began again, when more troops were called in, but they found it impossible to cope with the native factions. Early in the riots the business houses were forced to close up through fear of being looted by the rioters. Those who know the fierce race hatred between the Moslems and Hindus say both sides will fight to the death.

Outlook Much Brighter.

Reports received by Comptroller Eckels from various parts of the country indicate that a better feeling prevails in banking circles. The number of failures the past week has been small compared with the corresponding week in July, and the month of August has been comparatively free from panic. More national banks failed in July than in any month in the history of this country, and the record for the current year has been most appalling. It is believed now that the worst is over, though failures in various sections may still be expected. It is known that in New York and some other places several of the banks that are still treated as solvent are technically insolvent, inasmuch as in some instances they have failed to pay cash on good checks or to honor in full the drafts of depositors, though still pretending to do business, but in view of the general stringency that still prevails Mr. Eckels is not inclined to close institutions that, if treated with some leniency, will weather the storm and shortly return to a rigid observance of all the technical requirements of the law. He believes that such a course will be better for the depositors and business communities where the banks are located. Nearly 150 national banks have closed their doors during the summer, but more than half of them have already reopened or else arranged for an early resumption of business. Just twenty-two banks have actually reopened. In each instance their capital was unimpaired, and in nearly every case the deposits have been returned in full to the bank upon reopening.

Twelve Passengers Are Hurt.

Twelve persons were injured, none fatally, by a collision on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad a mile below Dubuque, Iowa, at 3 o'clock Thursday morning. A freight train crossing the main track to a switch was struck sideways by the east-bound passenger train, which was thrown down the bank and within twenty feet of the river. The coaches landed bottom up, and the lamps having been extinguished the passengers groped in the dark until the trainmen broke open the doors. A switchman who gave the passenger train the signal to proceed was to blame.

Hanging at Quincy.

William J. Jamison, a colored herb doctor, was hanged at Quincy, Ill., for the murder of Supervisor Charles N. Aron on April 10, 1892. This is the third legal execution the county has known in its sixty-five years of history, and they have come just thirty years apart. Jamison's crime was an atrocious one and was committed because Aron refused to pay for medical services.

Fatal Work of Smoke.

As the result of a fire at St. Paul which lasted fifteen minutes Wednesday evening one fireman is dead and four injured, two of them probably fatally, and the stock of goods of W. J. Dyer & Bros., a wholesale and retail dealers in musical instruments, is ruined. The firm did the largest business of any establishment west of Chicago.

Diphtheria at Arlington, Ohio.

The village of Arlington, Ohio, is suffering from an epidemic of malignant diphtheria, all efforts to subdue the disease having failed. The whole town has been quarantined by the physicians and authorities.

Burglars Rob a Freight House.

Burglars entered the Missouri Pacific Railroad Company's freight-house at Nebraska City, Neb., and secured $4,000.

Victoria Is Well.

There was no foundation for the rumor that Queen Victoria had suffered a stroke of paralysis.

DEATH IN THE STORM.

FIVE LIVES LOST IN NORTHERN NEW JERSEY.

Five More Die at a Grade Crossing—Prisoners Fight Because Their Soup Was Thin—India Has a Cramp Over the Silver Question.

Wild Work of Winds.
There was a terrific tempest in the region of Somerville, N. J., Saturday night, which cost five lives and caused great loss of property. Storms from the north and south seemed to meet over the place and resulted in a deluge, a destructive shower of hail and death-dealing strokes of lightning. The rain lasted until after midnight and the people had no chance to see what damage had been done until morning. They found then that the path of the storm had been half a mile wide. Just in the edge of the path was what was supposed to be the strongest building in that part of the state, the wholesale grocery warehouse of Tunison & Losier. It was a three-story brick building. The roof had been cut off clean and was lying, a mass of wreckage, fifty feet away. In the whole town there were not more than half a dozen windows with a northwesterly exposure that had not been smashed.

SIGNS OF IMPROVEMENT.

Come from the Good Sense and Recuperative Power of the People.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:
There is a rift in the clouds. Faint and yet definite signs of improvement are all the better because they come, not from possibly delusive hopes or from momentary foreign aid, but from the good sense and the wonderful recuperative power of the people themselves. Business is trying to go ahead without waiting for Washington. Imported gold—$9,000,000 or more during the week—does not go to the right spot, but the people are creating a home-made currency for themselves by using certified checks in paying hands, selling local accounts and purchasing grain and cotton. The bank circulation has increased $2,000,000, but the decrease on deposits of national banks alone from May 4 to July 11 was $193,000,588, and during the last month withdrawals have also been heavy. Little money comes back as yet from timid boards, and the paralysis of exchange is nearly as complete as ever, but that very fact pushes each section and city into relying more on itself and less on Government and Wall Street. Many concerns are failing or closing, but resumption are now becoming somewhat frequent, and in the very shrinkage of production we see evidence that demand must soon overtake supply. Wheat drops near the lowest figure ever known. In spite of decrease in visible supply, for though western receipts are not large, stock on hand is far beyond the power of speculators to carry with money markets in their present condition. The movement of corn is decidedly large, with crop prospects improving.

CHOWDER CAUSES A SCRIMMAGE.

Deer Island Prisoners Object to It and Resist the Police.

The Deer Island Prison broke loose Friday, and pandemonium reigned for two hours. Quiet was restored by a squad of Boston bluecoats who clubbed them into submission. The cause belli was the fish chowder which was served for dinner that day. There are more than 1,000 prisoners on the island. The dining-room will accommodate only 300, so it is necessary to divide the prisoners into four gangs. The regulation Friday noon repast is fish chowder, and Friday's meal was prepared accordingly. It was good chowder, too, but the first two layers ate it all, and water with a fishy flavor was served to the third squad. The waiters, who are themselves prisoners, gave these the tip as to how the chowder had been doctored and then there was a howl. The prisoners threw the chowder upon the floor and cursed the cook.

Glutted with Silver.

A special dispatch to the London Times from Calcutta says that the absence of demand for India Council bills is attributed there to the enormous importations of silver that were made during the protracted sittings of the Herschell Indian Currency Commission. These importations, during the year ending March last, amounted to 15 crores of rupees (150,000,000 rupees), against a normal yearly importation of 8 crores (80,000,000 rupees). The dispatch adds that a great fall in exchange within the next few weeks is inevitable. The readjustment which must follow to bring the rate to its old must be severe.

Walked 2,000 Miles.

John Treadwell, 12 years old, who started last spring to walk from Nebraska to Higanum, Conn., 2,000 miles, arrived at Higanum Wednesday night, completely exhausted, ragged, and half starved. His father, John Treadwell, formerly lived there, but died in the spring of 1887, and his mother moved to Nebraska and died in the spring of 1893. The boy, who was left destitute, started off without a cent. He had two uncles living a mile out of Higanum Village, but was too weak and died before reaching them.

SENATE REPEAL BILL.

Finance Committee Frames and Reports a Measure.

The Senate Finance Committee has at last responded to the pressure of public opinion and done something. This something consisted in adopting the following repeal bill, which Senator Voorhees introduced in the Senate:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Congress assembled, that so much of the act approved July 14, 1890, entitled "An act directing the purchase of silver bullion and issue of Treasury notes thereon and for other purposes," as directs the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase from time to time silver bullion to the aggregate amount of 4,000,000 ounces, or so much thereof as may be offered in each month at the market price thereof, not exceeding $1 for 37.5 grains of pure silver, and to issue in payment for such purchase Treasury notes of the United States, be and the same is hereby repealed; and it is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States to continue the use of both gold and silver as standard money, and to coin both gold and silver into money of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, such equality to be secured through international agreement or by such safeguards of legislation as will insure the maintenance of the parity in value of the coins of the two metals, and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the market and in the payment of debts. And it is hereby further declared that the efforts of the government should be steadily directed to the establishment of such a safe system of bimetalism as will maintain at all times the equal power of every dollar coined or issued by the United States in the markets and in the payment of debts.

TO UNITE AGAINST THE EAST.

Governor Stone Urged to Call a Convention of Western and Southern States.

A petition signed by all the State officers and State House employees of Kansas was sent to Gov. Stone, of Missouri, asking him to call a Western and Southern States convention to consider measures for the relief of the people, for the cultivation of commercial relations and for securing freedom from the East in business affairs. Gov. Leavelle has received a letter from Gov. Fishback, of Arkansas, announcing that he would send delegates to Chicago, Sept. 13, with the Kansas delegates to work on a plan to divert Western exports from the East to the Gulf of Mexico.

PENSION ATTORNEYS' FEES.

According to a Decision They Are Entitled to 32 in Increase Cases.

Assistant Secretary Reynolds, in a decision, held that attorneys in pension cases would hereafter be allowed a fee of $2 in increase claims under the act of June 27, 1890. It was contended by the attorney in interest that fees under the act of June 27, 1890, should be governed as to amount by the act of July 14, 1894, which allows a fee of $10 where no contract for a greater fee is stipulated for, or where no contract for fees has been filed. The Assistant Secretary, however, holds to the contrary, and allows a fee of $2.

Ill-Still in a Cell.

An illicit whisky still in full operation was found in the cell of Charles Wellborn at the County Jail in Birmingham, Ala. The still was hid under a table and improvised of a bucket, in which were a piece of curled glass pipe as a worm, three tin boxes as fermenters and a spittoon as a furnace. Molasses, apples and the like furnished the prisoners as food were used as materials for making the rum.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

The boiler of the Wellington Roller Mills at Lexington, Mo., exploded, and instantly killed Engineer Richard Johnson, aged 35 years, and a boy named Frank Albion. Albion's body was blown to atoms and Johnson was buried under an immense pile of coal. The boiler was thrown a distance of 100 yards up a steep hill.

Inflexible in Bad Shape.

The British steamer Inflexible, which stranded on Harker Island, remains in a bad position. The weather is threatening and if it becomes stormy what little chance there is of floating the vessel will be lost. Her crew has left her, but Captain Taylor is still on board.

Ecuador Wants War.

A Panama special says: There is a popular clamor in Ecuador for a declaration of war against Peru to take revenge for atrocities said to have been committed by Peruvians during the dispute over the boundary and in violation of the status quo.

Actor George A. Beane Dead.

THOMAS TO RETURN.

ASKED TO TAKE HIS FORMER POSITION.

Rome Filled with a Howling Mob—French Embassy Threatened—Memorial to Lincoln Unveiled at Edinburgh—Republicans Gain in France.

Theodore May Have His Job Again.
Theodore Thomas has been requested to come back, according to a statement made Monday by Secretary Wilson, of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the Columbian Exposition. A telegram was sent to Mr. Thomas, who is now at his summer home in Fairhaven, requesting him to assume his old position as musical director at his old salary. This is an entire change of front on the part of the Fair officials, but the wonderful increase in Fair attendance is said to have put a brighter complexion on future plans. The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the Exposition decided to continue the symphony orchestra at its old salary for two weeks. At the end of that time the orchestra can give concerts in Festival Hall, charging 25 cents admission and turning over to the Exposition a small percentage.

HOWL FOR REVENGE.

Italians Attempt to Mob the French Embassy at Rome.

The whole of Italy seems inflamed against the French for the massacre of Italian workmen at the salt mines at Algiers-Mortes. Riots directed against the French occurred in many of the provincial towns. The police, in many instances, were unable to restrain the fury of the mob, and troops were called out to protect the French. In Rome an infuriated mob of Italians, hooting and howling for French blood, made an attack on the French Embassy. Some of the rioters carried cans of petroleum and did not hesitate to openly boast that it was their intention to destroy the Embassy. The attack was anticipated, however, and when the mob swept up the street to attack the building troops surrounded it, while police were thick at all the approaches. The presence of the troops seemed to inflame the attacking forces all the more, and the mob attempted to break through the ranks of soldiers. They were ordered to disperse, but refused to do so, whereupon the soldiers charged. The mob held its ground for a time and fought stubbornly. It was not until repeated charges were made upon them that the rioters began to retreat, fighting all the time. Forty-five rioters were arrested. Many of the mob were at the front of the fighting were wounded by the sabers that the soldiers used unsparingly.

RAIL-SPLITTER IN SCOTLAND.

A Monument to President Lincoln Unveiled in Edinburgh.

The new Lincoln monument at Edinburgh, Scotland, was unveiled Monday afternoon. Sir William Arrol presided and Consul Wallace Bruce delivered the oration. The monument represents Lincoln freeing the slaves. It is fourteen feet in height, the bronze figure being life size. At the foot of the martyred President is a figure representing a freed slave and battle flags. The entire cost of the monument was $6,000, which was subscribed for the most part by Americans in Scotland and in England. The monument was raised by Consul Bruce and the project sprang from his discovery that a union veteran had been buried in the Scotch city in a pauper's grave. A burial plot surrounds the monument.

Gigantic Irrigation Scheme.

The Salina (Kan.) Commercial Club made arrangements for the great Interstate Irrigation Convention called Sept. 28. The members were enthusiastic over the prospects of the Convention. Five thousand invitations will be sent out at once as a preliminary measure, and a systematic course of advertising and information has been arranged to follow the invitations. The plan of the Convention is a gigantic one, embracing the States of Nebraska, Colorado, Texas, Northern New Mexico, Kansas, and the Dakotas.

Elections in France.

The Paris Chamber of Deputies consists of 584 members, of whom Algeria returns six and the various French colonies ten. Returns from 310 districts show the election of 309 Republicans, 14 Conservatives, Rallies and 44 Conservatives. Re-balls will be necessary in 143 districts. Thus far the figures show that the Republicans have gained forty-six seats and have not lost one.

Idle Men Attack Chinese.

Near Fresno, Cal., a mob of unemployed men started out to raid the Chinese employed at the vineyards. The sheriff went out with a posse and intercepted them as they were driving off a lot of

A kind Providence has spared to the present time the only survivor of that little band of adult earliest settlers at this place, who for sixteen successive years taught the village school, and who through a long life has been constant in religious, in charitable and in all good works. Let us hope and pray that Miss Mary White may have many years to come of health and happiness to crown the record of a noble life!

Men, eminent in civil and judicial callings, sat on the bench and plead at the bar in that unpretentious structure on Second street. Justice Whipple and Ransom—the latter afterwards Governor of the State—and George Martin, a brilliant young attorney of those days and later Chief Justice of our Supreme Court, were among the number. If Grand Haven ever had a building which should have been preserved from the vandalism of this materialistic time—from the march of progress, which is one overshadowing fact of the nineteenth century—that little house, so early, so long and so variously useful, was the one. The venerable chaplain on the present occasion, in the true spirit of love and veneration for monuments of the historic past, has presented to friends and to the corporation of this city keepsake articles made from the well preserved beech sills of that modest structure.

In the same year in which the question of locating the county seat at Eastmanville had been rejected by the people, the old court house, as we shall soon call it, was built by the people of Grand Haven and presented to the county. For years past the public spirit has chafed under the inadequate and unsafe facilities it afforded for the public records and business, and its unsightly exterior and interior wounded the pride of that public spirit. The Board of supervisors in 1885, submitted the matter of bonding the county to build a new court house. It was voted down by nearly 2400 majority. This, however, did not stop the agitation of the question by the leading citizens. It did stop all favorable action by the Board for another test of the popular strength, until the present year. The people of the county nobly responded in the month of April last. The sum asked was voted by a large majority.

The beginning of the result of that patriotic action, is before us. Upon this solid masonry of Waverly stone—the product of our own county—will be erected a useful and indispensable public edifice. The good people of the county will view with pride and pleasure the completed court house, which their own voluntary and generous means shall have brought into existence. Let us hope that it may be saved from the destroying elements, for many, many generations to come, as a reminder of the Columbian year—the year when the whole earth has contributed to honor the memory of the illustrious Genoese navigator, on the new continent which he discovered and in the young city of that New World, which, in its marvelous growth of population, of opulence and of commerce, has no parallel in the annals of time.

A Word in Favor of Liberal Education.

The following circular, issued by President Kollen, speaks for itself:

To all friends of education HOPE COLLEGE sends greeting!

Is education valued as it deserves? It is not, so long as education, as complete as circumstances and ability will allow, is not brought to every child. A liberal education should be the rule—not the exception.

Do you want to be a free and independent citizen, do you want for yourself a larger outlook upon the world, do you desire to extend your field of usefulness, get a liberal education. Shall we train the hand to become skillful, and not cultivate the heart and the mind—train dumb animals, and not our sons and daughters?

Parents, have you children blessed with the desire and ability to learn, pray do not rob them of the bright and successful future which is open to every American citizen, by keeping them in hopeless ignorance. Do you wish your children to hold useful and honorable stations in life, give them a chance. And then, if you do well your part, you may be assured that your children have as good ability and as much chance of success as any class or section of people in this broad land.

To all such as are convinced of the above and are looking for a wholesome and economical center of christian education, HOPE COLLEGE is in a better condition than ever before to extend an invitation of welcome.

All who are acquainted with its work, readily admit that the Classical Course offered by HOPE COLLEGE is of a very high order.

Successful efforts are now making to raise the Scientific Course to the same high standard. The Faculty has been strengthened by the election of two new men.

Prof. D. B. NYTEMA, who was elected to the Chair of Chemistry and Physics comes to us with years of experience and success, and an enviable reputation as superintendent and teacher.

New buildings, commodious and beautiful, are going up, and, by a munificent donation, the Library is about to be doubled.

Under the new law relative to the granting of certificates by denominational colleges, HOPE COLLEGE offers besides the usual Diploma, a legal certificate authorizing the holder thereof to teach in any of the Public Schools of Michigan.

HOPE COLLEGE was never before so well equipped to do thorough and effective work in all departments as it is to-day, and the new President desires to assure the public that he will endeavor to receive all with the same kind and cordial helpfulness that have characterized the administration of our esteemed Dr. Scott.

Teachers, who have bright pupils in your schools—and all have—will you call their attention to the importance of education, show them this circular, and send us their names?

Alumni, Students, Ministers of the Gospel, and all Friends of HOPE COLLEGE, please interest yourself in the education of one or more of your young friends, sending us the names of deserving ones, especially of such as are not likely otherwise ever to receive a good education.

For catalogues and information address Prof. J. B. NYKERK, Holland, Mich., or if any of the Faculty are within reach, go and arrange for a personal interview.

The above are a few of the questions sent us by our readers, who wonder why J. C. Post keeps right on selling houses and lots in Holland city, in spite of the World's fair, dry weather, and hard times.

The following persons who have recently bought of him can tell you why: Mrs. Harriet Johnson, of Chicago, who bought a fine lot at Bay View.

Mrs. May E. Stuck, of Colorado, purchaser of a handsome lot in Bay View.

B. G. Scott, who bought a pleasant home on Twelfth street, Bay View.

Egbert E. Post, the purchaser of the pretty cottage on Thirteenth street, Bay View.

Dr. John Mastenbroek, late of Muskegon, who invested in two fine lots in Waverly and another in Bay View addition.

John Ten Hagen, of Olive, a lot in Bay View addition.

George Van Der Veen, the purchaser of a nice house and lot in Bay View.

E. Groeters of Holland township, who bought two lots in Bay View.

Gerrit Kronmeyer, who invested in two choice lots in Post's addition.

J. Van Dyk, the buyer of the tasty cottage on Fourteenth street, Bay View addition.

A. B. Bosman, who bought a pleasant house on East Fourteenth street.

And a score of others who have bought houses and lots from J. C. Post during the past month.

They will all say that he sells just what you want, at lower prices than anyone else, and upon terms that suit everybody.

More than this, they will tell you that real estate in Holland City is the safest and best investment a man can make, and that, if you are wise, you will at once call on or address, The Holland Real Estate Exchange.

HOLLAND CITY NEWS.

SATURDAY, AUG. 26, 1893.
Holland, - - Mich.

Pioneer Data of Holland.

Among the documents placed in the corner stone is a "Historical summary of the settlement, growth and status, in 1893, of Ottawa County." It is a typewritten pamphlet of 50 pages, carefully and ably compiled by the chairman of the committee on historical facts, Senator Ferry. That part of it which refers to Holland was written by Henry D. Post, Esq., of this city, a member of the committee, and is as follows:

HOLLAND.

The first settlement in the township of Holland was in the year 1836, at Superior, on the north shore of Black lake. A village was laid out and quite a number of buildings erected there.

The founder of the Holland Colony was Rev. Albertus C. Van Raalte, who sailed from Rotterdam, Netherlands, September 14, 1846, on the American brig "Southern", of Boston, commanded by Capt. Crosby, arriving at New York November 4, 1846. He brought with him Hendrik Oldemeyer, Frans Smit, Jan Laarman, Egbert Van Zee, Jan Klaasen, Bernardus Grootenhuis, Jan Dunnewind, Willem Notting, Evert Zagers, Egbert Frederiks, Harm Kok, Hermanus Lankheet, Derk Plasman and Cornelis Van Herwynen. They came by steamboat to Buffalo, thence by Erie canal to Detroit. Dr. Van Raalte reached Black lake by way of Allegan in December, 1846. During the winter of 1846 he and his family were hospitably entertained in Allegan by Hon. John R. Kellogg, spending the winter in arranging the land purchases for the proposed colony, and other necessary preparations for building houses for the settlers. In March 1847 they removed to the new location, at the head of Black lake, now occupied by the city of Holland. A few days were spent by Rev. Mr. Van Raalte and his family at the Indian mission of Rev. Geo. N. Smith in the township of Fillmore, Allegan county, until their house was enclosed sufficiently to shelter them.

The township of Holland was organized on April 2, 1848, by holding its first election at the house of Rev. A. C. Van Raalte, and eight qualified voters were present.

The officers chosen were:

Supervisor, Henry D. Post.
Township clerk, William Z. Bronson.
Township treasurer, Hoyt G. Post.
Justices of the peace, Henry D. Post, James Walker, Asa Hayns, Josiah Martin.
School Inspectors, Henry D. Post, James Walker, William Z. Bronson.
Highway Commissioners, Henry D. Post, James Walker.

The first school district was organized June 29, 1848, and the following officers chosen: moderator, A. C. Van Raalte; director, Henry D. Post; assessor, Wm. J. Mulder.

The first school was taught by Ira Hoyt, with 170 pupils.

The first post office was established at Black River post office, Henry D. Post, postmaster.

The first tannery was built at Superior, by James Knox, who removed to Chicago after the abandonment of Superior, and built a tannery at the junction of Chicago river with the south branch.

The first vessel built was the schooner A. C. Mitchell, at Superior, by a salt water ship carpenter from Nantucket, Mass., who took his time and built a very strong vessel, which sailed Lake Michigan many years.

The first hotel was kept by Jan Blinnekant in a wooden building, which was brought from the ruins of Superior, and stood on the site of the Holland City State Bank.

The first bank was established in 1870, by J. Coatsworth & Co., on the corner of River and Eighth streets.

The first store was the "Colony store", in 1847, the purchases for which were made principally in Albany, N. Y., by Elder George Young, of Grand Rapids, and B. Grootenhuis.

The first manufactory was an ashery for making pearl ash and saleratus, at the head of Black lake, by Post & Co. (H. D. Post and A. C. Van Raalte), in 1858.

As to the date of the organization of the first church, this can only be fixed by stating that it dates from the landing of the first Holland colonists here. When Rev. A. C. Van Raalte, with a handful of pilgrims, following an old Indian trail, arrived in these regions, in 1847, the first church was practically established. They subsequently united formally with the Reformed Church of America.

The first church building was the log church thirty by sixty feet square, where Pilgrim Home cemetery is now. The first English preaching church was held in the red school house, near the present "City Mills", in 1854. Rev. Mr. Beidler was the stated supply.

Hope Church was organized, and its first pastor, Rev. Abel T. Stewart, D. D., installed in May, 1860.

The first newspaper published was De Hollander, in 1850, by Hawks &

Bassett, Henry D. Post, English editor.

The first saw mill was erected in 1836, by the Superior Company, at Point Superior.

The first wind saw mill was erected in 1848, by W. K. Fletstra and Klaver Brothers.

The first grist mill was built by Jan Rabbers on Way-ma-to-go-sha, or Frenchman's Creek, in 1849.

The city was incorporated in 1867. Its first officers were:

Mayor—Isaac Cappon.
Recorder—Henry D. Post.
Treasurer—George Lander.
Marshal—Teunis Keppel.
Supervisor—John Roost.
Justices—Edward J. Harrington and John Hulzinga.
Aldermen—1st ward, Geo. G. Steketee and Jan Pauels; 2nd ward, E. Van der Veen and Richard K. Heald.

Coming down to 1893, the elective city officers are:

Mayor—George P. Hummer.
Clerk—George H. Sipp.
Supervisors—John Kerkhof and Johannes Dykema.

Treasurer—John Pessink.
Marshal—Frank Van Ry.
Justices of the Peace—Gerrit J. Diekema, Gerrit Van Schelven, Henry D. Post, Isaac Fairbanks.

Aldermen—1st ward, John A. Ter Vree, Jacob Lokker; 2nd ward, Louis Schoon, Peter De Spelder; 3rd ward, Simon Den Uyl, Geert Dalman; 4th ward, Rudolph A. Habermann, Nicholas Schmid; 5th ward, Arend Vischer, Wilson Harrington.

Board of Education—Wm. H. Beach, president; C. Verschure, secretary; G. W. Mokma, P. H. McBride, A. Vischer, T. Keppel, G. J. Van Duren, H. Kremers.

The churches at the present time number 8, as follows: 3 Reformed, 2 Holland Christian Reformed, 1 Methodist Episcopal, 1 Protestant Episcopal, 1 German Lutheran.

The Public Schools consist of 1 high school building, 1 central school, and 3 ward schools, with a teaching force of 27 teachers, and a school population of about 1,700.

Hope College was founded as an academy in 1851, and incorporated as a college in 1865. It has at present an attendance of 250 students. Prof. Gerrit J. Kollen is president of the institution.

The present population of the city is fully 6,000.

The manufactures at present embrace the following: Furniture, leather, flour, wooden ware, baskets and veneer, pails and tubs, staves and head staves, agricultural implements, wagons and carriages, etc., etc., some of these being the largest of their kind in the state, with an annual output to the value of over two million dollars.
