CITY AND VICINITY.

August has been an ideal summer month.

Everything flourishes this year, including the sand bar.

Sixteen coaches of people from Grand Rapids were hauled to Ottawa Beach Sunday by the C. & W. M.

The Federation of Labor at Chicago has refused to observe November 11, the day the Chicago anarchists were executed, as a Memorial Day.

F. B. Wallin, of Grand Rapids, well known in this city, and formerly of Saugatuck, was seriously injured by a kick from a horse Saturday. His leg was broken between the knee and the ankle.

The excursion to Lansing Saturday was a popular affair, especially with the farmers, who desired to take in the agricultural college. At this station 50 tickets were sold and at Zeeland 95. All enjoyed the trip.

At the state prohibition convention, held in Lansing Wednesday, there was a large attendance. Noah W. Cheever of Ann Arbor is the nominee for governor, and Jacob Van Zwailenberg of Petoskey the nominee for land commissioner.

John Kool, a single man, 33 years of age, residing near the county line, was on Saturday brought before Judge Goodrich by Supervisor Souter of Holland town, and adjudged insane and taken to the Kalamazoo asylum. He was afflicted with epilepsy.

Last week the school bell on the Central building, which was cracked some years ago, was replaced by a new one. Holland is rather unfortunate with its church and school bells. Just at present the bell of the Third Reformed church makes a doleful appeal for renewal.

Mayor Perry of Grand Rapids has received a letter addressed to the "Burgheemeester." It came from Leenwarden, Netherlands, and contained an inquiry as to the whereabouts of J. H. Hofstra. This gentleman will hear something to his advantage, if he will call at the mayor's office.

On Sunday next Rev. K. Van Goor will preach in Graafschap, and Prof. H. E. Dosker in the First Ref. church of Grand Haven. Rev. Dr. P. de Pree will be in the First Ref. church of Muskegon, Rev. J. Van der Werp in the Pine Creek schoolhouse, and Rev. Dr. J. Poppen in the Second Ref. church of Grand Rapids.

Born, to Mrs. and Mr. A. I. Kramer, on Wednesday—a daughter.

Ex-Lieut. Gov. Henry H. Holt, of Muskegon, died Tuesday, aged 67 years.

Miss Frances M. Hughes, the well known harpist, will spend the winter in New York. She will teach, do concert work and play the harp in one of the Presbyterian churches.

In honor of the 18th birthday of the Queen of Holland on Aug. 31, the Dutch minister at Washington will give a reception in the afternoon of that day at the Everett House, New York.

Prof. and Mrs. C. J. Dregman broke up their summer home at Central Park Monday and spent a few days with friends at Grand Rapids. The lessons at the business college will be resumed Monday.

The announcement is out of the marriage on Sunday evening at the Christ. Ref. church in Graafschap, of John Bouws and Miss Jennie Brouwer. The nuptial tie will be laid by Rev. J. Groen of Zeeland, pastor of the bride.

Mrs. R. Schuitema, of Holland town, took the boat for Chicago Saturday morning, for the purpose of submitting to a surgical operation. On Wednesday the much-dreaded affair took place and the latest reports from there are very encouraging.

The ordinance granting a franchise to the Grand Rapids, Holland & Macatawa electric railroad was up for discussion at Monday's session of the Grand Rapids common council, and amended in several important features, but owing to the absence of several aldermen it did not pass, and was laid over for one week.

The many G. A. R. friends of Col. A. T. Bliss, of Saginaw, will learn with regret that on Monday he was forced to submit to another operation, by which two of his fingers were amputated. On the night of July 4 his right hand was badly mangled by the premature explosion of a dynamite cracker, and he then lost a portion of two fingers. The wounds healed slowly and eczema added to the complications, rendering a second operation necessary.

We are in receipt, from the superintendent of Farmers' Institutes, of Institute bulletin No. 4, being a report of the Farmers' Institute work in this state during the past season. The volume is a book of about 275 pages, containing a very complete report of the Institute work of the state in all its various phases. Every paid-up member of our County Institute Society is entitled to one of these bulletins, and they will be distributed through the secretary of that society, Colon C. Lillie, of Coopersville.

The C. & W. M., since it has again been put in possession of the Allegan branch, is not neglecting that part of the road. Several miles of track, between here and Allegan, are being re-ballasted, and at Allegan efforts for a closer connection with the village are again renewed. Says the Gazette: "C. & W. M. surveys were in Allegan this week making surveys of two or three routes by which the company could get its track and depot nearer the business portion of the village. After the cost of the extension has been estimated something more definite may be learned. The coming of these men shows that the railway officials are interested in the project and it is to be hoped they may find it practicable and advantageous to build the road."

A sad death was that of Mrs. Fillmore Bird on Saturday last, at Grand Rapids. For years she had been ill and suffering, until finally she concluded to submit to surgical operation. With this in view she left her home, near Waverly, on Wednesday of last week. The operation was performed at the U. B. A. Home in the forenoon of the day she died. The deceased, nee Dina Roost, was a daughter of the late John Roost. She was born in this city Nov. 14, 1858, and was married in 1874 to Fillmore Bird, who survives her, with three children: Walter, aged 23, Minnie, aged 21, and Edith, aged 17. As other mourners we should also mention her aged mother, and two brothers and two sisters. The remains were brought home and buried from Grace Episc. church on Tuesday, Rev. Mr. Law, formerly of Allegan, conducting the services. Relatives and friends from outside and present were Richard Roost and wife of Chicago; Albert J. Bird, of Rochelle, Ill.; Mrs. P. Hastings, Oregon, Ill.; Mrs. E. L. Todd, Aurora, Ill.; Mrs. M. W. Rose, Grand Rapids; Mrs. Ainsworth, Spring Lake; and Mr. and Mrs. John Hartgerink, Zeeland.

It will take several days yet before the trolley cars are again running.

Republican ward caucuses will be held on Thursday, Sept. 8. See notice.

Monday was a record-breaking day at the Heinz pickling works, the amount of cucumber pickles brought in on that day reaching 2,989 bushels.

The latest reports from Neal Van Duren, at Ann Arbor, are that the prospects for ultimate recovery are as favorable as can be expected in a case of serious typhoid.

The organization of a Holland Society in Grand Rapids is progressing favorably. They expect to start out with a membership of sixty. Fred Van Anrooy is named as secretary of the society.

Capt. Clark of the warship Oregon is expected to arrive at St. Joe at an early day, where he will stay a while for a rest, and be the guest of his brother, the keeper of the lighthouse supply station there.

The young man John Van Breda, a member of the 2nd Wis. Infy., who died on August 2, was at one time a resident of this city, in the employ of J. W. Bosman, the clothier. This was about four years ago.

It is suggested that a general peace jubilee be held at Lansing, Oct. 12, in connection with the unveiling of the statue of ex-Governor Austin Blair. Such an occasion would draw people from all over the state.

It has developed that some individual is going through the country representing himself as W. R. Stevenson of this city, selling spectacles to the farmers, telling them that should they not prove satisfactory to return them to his office in Holland, where they would be exchanged free of charge. Mr. Stevenson requests us to state that he has never sold any spectacles outside of his place of business in Holland, and does not employ any one to do so for him, and any one using his name for that purpose is an imposter.

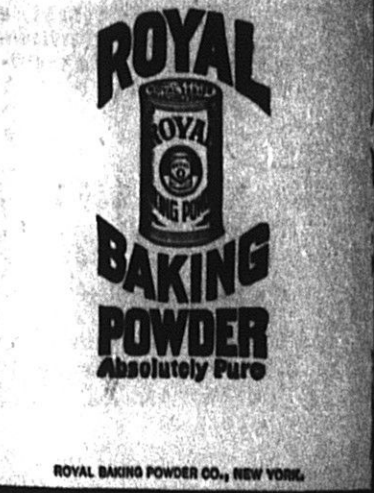

The Republican County Committee has fixed upon Tuesday, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock a. m., as the time for holding the county nominating convention. It was suggested to hold the convention in Holland, but the fear that the trains would not secure proper connections for the up-river delegates caused the idea to be abandoned. The vacancy from Jamestown was filled by the appointment of Henry Bosch. An executive committee was appointed consisting of E. Lynn, Tallmadge; G. Van Schelven, Holland; L. P. Ernst, Polkton; Chas. Wells, Berlin; Wm. Savidge, Spring Lake; Chas. H. Brouwer, Georgetown; J. Verhoeks, Grand Haven.

On Farmers' Picnic Day a quantity of rings, to the value of $50, were stolen from Paul Steketee's bazaar. Through the clever manipulations of Geo. A. Ford one of the parties to the theft was apprehended at Grand Rapids, with part of the stolen goods on his person. He gave his name as Wm. Drumgoole. Sheriff Van Ry took him before Justice Van Schelven on Tuesday, when he had his examination and was bound over to the November term of circuit court. Drumgoole claims that although he was in the city that day, he did not do the taking, but that the next day a part of the plunder was given to him, by some one on whom he refuses to squeal.

LETTERS FROM THE FRONT.

The last letters from William and Charles Hiler, Co. L, 33rd Mich., received by their parents, are dated near Santiago, Aug. 10, in which they write as follows:

"We give you a condensed history of the events that occurred during our stay here. June 27 we were landed from the Yale in small boats. The waves were high and made lots of fun for us. When the boats touched ground we jumped and ran for it, but not all got off without getting wet.

We went into camp one-half mile from the landing place, and the next morning found us in a palm grove. We saw our first pack train this morning, about 100 mules, led by a man on horseback.

On June 28 the whole regiment took its first salt water bath. While in the water a heavy rain storm came up. It poured down for two hours; hundreds of naked men were running in every direction for shelter. It was fun. Our tents were full of water and land crabs. What a night we had of it!

The 29th we helped unload a transport, and the 30th we were allowed to go to Siboney; we took a good long look at this city, or village. That night we were about retiring, when orders came to fall in. We were to leave at midnight, in heavy marching orders. Our destination was unknown, but we found out next day, and July 1, 1898 will ever live in our memory, clear and vivid. We took 3 days' rations of hard tack.

At 8 o'clock in the morning we took a ride on a Cuban train of ore cars, and landed two miles from Fort Aguadores. We marched along the beach a mile, and could see Sampson's fleet ready to bombard the fort, only waiting for us. It was a grand sight. We took to the brush, back towards the railroad, and were near it, when we were ordered to throw off our rolls and keep quiet as we marched. It was a terrible moment, no one knew what was coming. We struck the railroad and were taking off our haversacks, when a shell came whizzing over our heads. Then Sampson woke up. The din was fearful, we can't describe it to you. We were in a column of two's and were about to march down the track when a shell burst right in our Company. It was awful; two men were killed instantly and three wounded. We then entered the bushes again. Other shells flew over us, but did not take effect.

Four hours we laid there, listening to the roar of guns. Long after the fort stopped firing, our boats kept it up. All that stopped us from having a terrible fight was the bridge being burned. As it was, we could do nothing but draw their fire, and Sampson did the rest. Our sharpshooters did some firing, but could not tell whether they tipped over any Dons or not. We were not allowed to go and get our rolls, for the guns that killed our boys was not silenced; it was back among the hills, and had a dead range on us. When we went to get our haversacks we were fired on by that gun again.

Thus ended the only fight the 33rd had, but it gave us a taste of what to expect later on. Happily the war has ended, and no more fighting for us.

From July 8 to Aug. 10, we passed through some severe experiences, but nothing more than might be expected on this island. We suffered for necessities in some ways, but being more fortunate than most of the boys we have pulled through so far all right.

Chas. H. ... promoted to adjutant's order ... gives him a very pleasant place.

We miss Bud and Geo. M., but presume they are home and enjoying themselves.

We saw at a distance the naval battle between Sampson and Cervera; we could hear the firing distinctly.

To tell all we went through with, would fill a book. One incident was very sad. A poor fellow in the hospital, crazed by fever, broke away from his nurse, rushed to the cliff and plunged into the sea. Two men tied ropes to their bodies and plunged after him and saved him. A heavy sea was running, and all three were cut up bad. As in Mooney's case, the sharp rocks soon use a fellow up.

Aug. 10. We have for the last few days had good grub, and it will continue so, they say. Our captain is all right. He looks out for his boys, and but few are away from roll call any day.

Give our best regards to all that inquire for us. Always a letter from home, in every mail, is what's kept us up. Some of the boys seldom hear from home.

AN OPEN LETTER To MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on every the original "CASTORIA" which has been used in the homes of the Mothers of America for over thirty years.

LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought and has the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on the wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company, of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President. March 24, 1898.

San Francisco, Aug. 24.—A special from Manila of August 23 says: Gen. Merritt has assumed the governor's duties and transferred the command of the Eighth corps to Maj. Gen. Otis. Brig. Gen. H. G. Otis, of California, has been ordered to report to Gen. Anderson, and Gen. MacArthur has been assigned to command the Second division. Col. Owenshine, of the Third regulars, will command the brigade in place of Gen. MacArthur.

Insurgents at Manila Ready to Surrender Their Arms.

Manila, Philippine Islands, Aug. 24.—At a conference between the insurgents and the Americans the former declared emphatically that they were willing to co-operate with the Americans and to surrender their arms promptly if assured that the islands would remain either an American or a British colony, or under a protectorate of the United States or Great Britain. Otherwise, the insurgent leader asserted, they would not dare disarm, but must positively refuse to do so. They threaten a fresh rebellion within a month if the Americans withdraw.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Educational Institutions at Santiago Will Open on September 15.

Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 24.—The conference between Gen. Wood, military governor of Santiago, and the local authorities with reference to opening the public schools, has resulted satisfactorily, and places will be ready for 4,000 children on September 15. The salaries of the school commissioners have been fixed at somewhat reduced figures; the element of sectarianism has been eliminated from the management, and an American basis of education has been proposed.

A HARD PLACE.

Customs Collector at Santiago Finds His Duties Very Extensive.

New York, Aug. 24.—A dispatch to the Herald from Santiago de Cuba says: Customs Collector Donaldson is finding the duties of his office more extensive than he probably had any idea of at first. He has had the difficult task of dealing with the entire ecclesiastical establishment of the province of Santiago.

The entire clergy, from Archbishop Crespo down, sent in the regular monthly "impress" for the payment of salaries. The archbishop's salary originally was $18,000, but had been reduced to $12,000, owing, as stated in the "impress," to the bad condition of the treasury.

To Mr. Donaldson were also presented claims from the professors of the institute schools, police and other bodies, all of whom were paid under the Spanish regime by the head of the customs department.

The claims were tabulated and submitted to Gen. Shafter, who will ask for instructions from Washington.

SALOONS CLOSED.

Commander at Ponce Seeks Primary Causes for Reason of Disorder.

Ponce, Puerto Rico, Aug. 24.—Gen. James H. Wilson has assumed control of the district of Ponce and has ordered that all saloons shall be closed for three days, with a view to quieting the existing disorders. They will be opened subsequently under special regulations. Gen. Grant has established his headquarters here.

AWAITS MRS. MILES.

The General Hears of the Coming of His Wife and Daughter.

Ponce, Puerto Rico, Aug. 23 (delayed in transmission).—A cable message announcing that Mrs. Miles, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Col. Rice, sailed for Ponce on the United States transport Odom from Charleston last Saturday will delay the departure of Gen. Miles and his staff possibly several days.

During the attempt last night to locate a fire to the east of Ponce a platoon of troop A, of New York, under command of Lieut. Couderc, accompanied Lieut. Davenport, of the signal corps, to Santa Isabel. The men had an exciting time, riding at a furious gallop after midnight and covering 20 miles in two hours. Lieut. Davenport tapped the telegraph wires at several points without locating the fire. The party returned this afternoon utterly exhausted.

Wheeling to San Francisco.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 24.—E. Victor Sergeant and Robert McKisson, both of Lowell, passed through this city on bicycles on their way to San Francisco, which they must reach by December 1, without the assistance of railroad or steamboat conveyance, to satisfy a wager made by members of Vesper Country club, of Lowell.

Gold Going to Manila.

San Francisco, Aug. 24.—About $1,000,000, mostly in gold and silver coin, will be carried to Manila on the Scandia for the payment of the United States troops in the Philippines. The coin will be guarded by a detachment of soldiers.

Stirring Incidents Mark the Raising of the Stars and Stripes at Honolulu.

AUGUST 12 IS NOW A HISTORIC DATE.

President Dole Yields Up the Islands and Minister Sewall Accepts the Transfer—The National Salute is Given and the Oath of Allegiance is Taken.

San Francisco, Aug. 23.—The steamer Belgic brought the following:

Honolulu, Aug. 12.—Precisely at eight minutes to 12 o'clock to-day the Hawaiian flag descended from the flagstaffs on all the government buildings, and at exactly five minutes to the same hour the stars and stripes floated on the tropical breeze from every official flagstaff.

An Impressive Ceremony.

The ceremony was a most impressive one. To hear the strains of "Hawaii Ponoi" for the last time as a national anthem; to hear the bugle blow taps as the Hawaiian ensign sank from its position, and to notice the emotion of many who had been born under it and had lived their lives under it, was solemn. But then came the bright call for the raising of Old Glory and the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner" broke forth as that banner was unfurled to the breeze. Then the cheers broke forth, and eyes that had been dim for a few minutes became bright and lightened up when the stars and stripes blew out.

Proceedings in Detail.

The ceremonies began with the departure of the First regiment of the national guard of Hawaii from their shed at ten minutes to ten in the morning. The parade was headed by a detachment of 25 police, under command of Capt. Kane and Lieut. Warren. Then came the Hawaiian band and the drum corps.

The regiment marched to the boat landing to escort the troops from the Philadelphia and Mohican, which were already drawn up on shore. The United States forces were commanded by Lieutenant Commander Stevens, and consisted of one company of marines and two of blue jackets from the Philadelphia, a company of blue jackets from the Mohican and an artillery detachment of two guns and 42 men. The naval detachment was headed by the flagship's band.

At the Stand.

Several hundred citizens' guard preceded the troops up the main avenue and took a station on the left of the stand. The police deployed on either side of the avenue. The Hawaiian band took up a position on the right of the platform, and the Philadelphia band on the left. The First battalion of the Hawaiian regiment occupied the immediate left of the stand, and the Second battalion was on the right.

The United States troops were stretched across the avenue in double file, the marines being in front.

President Dole Arrives.

As soon as President Dole and his cabinet came from the executive building to the platform, the justices of the supreme court, followed, and then Admiral J. N. Miller and United States Minister Harold Sewall came down the steps, followed by Capt. C. H. Wadleigh, of the Philadelphia, and S. M. Book, of the Mohican, and their staff of officers, and Col. Barber, of the First New York regiment.

The Transfer is Made.

The ceremonies opened with prayer by Rev. G. L. Peterson, pastor of the First Methodist church, of this city.

United States Minister Sewall then rose, and, addressing President Dole, who had risen, presented him with a certified copy of the joint resolution of congress annexing the Hawaiian islands to the United States.

President Dole answered, acknowledging the making of a treaty of political union, and formally yielded to Minister Sewall, as the representative of the government of the United States, the sovereignty and public property of the Hawaiian islands. Mr. Sewall replied:

"Mr. President: In the name of the United States I accept the transfer of the sovereignty and property of the Hawaiian government. The admiral commanding the United States naval forces in these waters will proceed to perform the duty entrusted to him."

Hawaii's Flag Comes Down.

The Hawaiian band played "Hawaii Ponoi," the national anthem. Col. Fisher gave the order to the national guard battery, stationed on the executive grounds in command of Lieut. Ludwig, to fire the national salute of 21 guns, which was also repeated by the Philadelphia. As the echo of the last gun reverberated in the hills a single sound, and the national ensign of Hawaii came slowly down until it reached the ground, never to go up again.

Stars and Stripes Go Up.

There was a short pause, and then the admiral nodded slightly to Lieut. Winterhalter, who gave the order: "Colors, roll off." The flagstaff band struck up the well-known strains of "The Star Spangled Banner," and as the stars and stripes slowly ascended there was breathless suspense. But as it reached the top cheers broke forth from the crowds below, and salutes of 21 guns were again fired by the Hawaiian battery and the Philadelphia.

A few minutes after the hoisting of the official flag others were raised from two side towers and the military headquarters.

A Proclamation.

Minister Sewall then read a proclamation stating that President McKinley directs that the civil, judicial and military powers of the government shall continue to be exercised by the officers of the republic of Hawaii. All such officers will be required to take the oath of allegiance to the United States and renew their bonds to the United States government.

The powers of the minister of foreign affairs will cease, so far as they relate to diplomatic intercourse between Hawaii and foreign nations.

The municipal legislation of Hawaii and the existing customs regulations will practically remain in force until the congress of the United States shall otherwise determine.

Oath of Allegiance.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies the national guard was marched to the parade grounds, where Minister Cooper administered the oath of allegiance to Col. Fisher. The colonel then administered it to his officers, and the captains to the men. The regiment then escorted the naval battalions to their boats and returned to the drill shed to sign the roll. A ball at the executive building, at which 2,000 guests were present, was the culmination of the festivities which followed the ceremony of flag raising.

Starving in Alaska.

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 24.—Capt. Abercrombie has sent a letter to Secretary of War Alger from Port Valdes, Alaska, asking the government to send a steamer there to bring home the stranded men who are already dependent upon Abercrombie's exploration party for food.

A New Navy.

Washington, Aug. 24.—The navy department opened bids at noon Tuesday for 16 torpedo destroyers and 12 torpedo boats, to cost in the aggregate not to exceed $16,000,000, as provided in the last naval appropriation act.

The Question of the Hour.

The advocates of the new national policy of expansion find strength in the fact that every addition of territory in the past has proven a satisfactory adventure and to-day no American citizen would abandon one rod of the territory acquired. They also refer with satisfaction to the character of the arguments, in times past, used by "some of our best men," in opposing annexation and find that they run along the same grooves of to day.

The thirteen states, says a writer in the Inter-Ocean, felt at the close of the revolutionary war that they were big enough for all practical purposes, and as they glanced out over their Western possessions wondered what they would ever do with them. But when a few years thereafter Jefferson was called to the presidency, many states of the South had been organized, and flourishing communities with great farms and commerce of considerable proportions had appeared in the then far West. The only outlets for this trade were the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, and the latter was held by a foreign power. President Jefferson, one of the wisest statesmen in his day, foresaw the dangers in having the mouth of that great river under foreign control, and at once began diplomatic work.

Napoleon had by treaty with Spain secured all the vast tract of land now known as "the Louisiana purchase." He was friendly to the United States, and President Jefferson instructed our Minister to France to enter into a negotiation for a control and ownership of the mouth of the Mississippi. Receiving encouraging reports, Jefferson sent his ablest man, Monroe, to aid our regular minister in the work. Soon after his arrival in France the threatened war between England and France became a certainty.

The French treasury was well-nigh bankrupt, and the open threat that England would make her first move against French territory in Louisiana, and powerlessness to prevent its capture, induced Napoleon to make the offer to sell the whole "Louisiana purchase" to the United States for $15,000,000 in cash. The proposition astonished Monroe, and he at once expressed a desire to lay the matter before President Jefferson. Napoleon, aware of his danger, and the necessity for haste, at once offered to send Monroe to America on one of his fastest vessels, the Blonde.

Monroe was soon closeted with the President, who was almost dazed by the grandeur of the proposition. He enjoined secrecy on the part of Monroe until he could sound leading Senators and members of his Cabinet, and break down prejudices. To the senators from the South, anxious for the rich territory of Louisiana, adapted to their system of labor, the plan at once commended itself. To all residents of territory that contributed to the commerce of the Ohio and Mississippi the scheme was at once acceptable and desirable. When the buttonholing and diplomatic work was completed, and a clear majority of the Senate was shown, the public was informed of this deal in the most extensive territory ever purchased for money consideration by any nation upon the globe.

The purchase covered all the great territory west of the Mississippi, now owned by the United States, except that of Texas and California, and the cost was but the fraction of one cent for the acre. The whole deal required great promptness of action, but the reference to the public records will show it met with a stubborn opposition from the far East, which on principle opposed all extension of territory.

President Jefferson at once sent out the Lewis and Clark expedition, and for two years these explorers made an accurate survey of the Columbia river territory.

But so little did our statesmen of that day care that they pigeon-holed the masterly report made by Lewis and Clark, and it was not printed until seven years after. The boundary line was run up against the great stony mountains and stopped there for forty years; and, our statesmen meantime refusing to make any laws regulating Oregon farmed the territory out in a treaty with England in 1818, and re-enacted in 1827, thus virtually giving the whole land now composing the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho up to English rule. For forty years the English ruled it, through the Hudson Bay company, and the United States during that interval had no more power or influence there than they have in Ireland to-day.

From time to time, from 1824 on, some statesman would arise in Congress and propose a bill recognizing our interest in Oregon, but never once did one become a law. It went on thus until 1834-36, when the Methodists, Congregationalists, and Presbyterians began sending their missionaries to preach the gospel to the Indians of Oregon. These missionaries were a brave, muscular, patriotic lot of American men and women, and were not so easily driven out as had been the American fur traders, who yielded to the Hudson Bay company. It was their letters which, by 1840, began to awaken new interests among the people, and start statesmen to talking. Just turn back to 1840-44 and read the debates in Congress. We will have space for but a few. They will suffice for examples of many. Said the great Daniel Webster:

"What do we want with the vast, worthless area, this region of savages and wild beasts, of deserts, and shifting sands, whirlwinds of dust, of cactus, and prairie dogs?"

General Jackson put himself on record as favoring "a dense population," and added:

"It should be our policy to concentrate our population and confine our frontier to proper limits."

Senator Dayton in 1844 declared the whole country "worthless, with the exception of land along the Willamette, and stripes along other water courses, and the climate so unfriendly to human life that the native population has dwindled away under the ravages of malaria."

Senator Winthrop of Massachusetts quoted Senator Benton's speech of 1825, in which it was said: "The ridge of the Rocky mountains may be named as a convenient, natural and everlasting boundary. Along this ridge the Western limit of the republic should be drawn, and the statue of the fabled god, Terminus, should be erected on its highest peak, never to be thrown down." This sentiment of Benton, uttered in 1825, Senator Winthrop commended for its wisdom, and then said: "Mr. President, we do not need it; we won't be crowded for elbow room for a thousand years."

It was in the same great debate that Senator McDuffie of South Carolina said:

"Sir, as I understand it, there are 700 miles this side of the Rocky mountains that are uninhabitable; where rain never falls; mountains wholly impassable except through gaps. How are you going to supply steam? Have you made an estimate of a railway to the Columbia? The wealth of the Indies would be insufficient. What use could it be for agriculture? I would not give a pinch of snuff for the whole territory. I wish the Rocky mountains were an impassable barrier. If there was an embankment of five feet to be removed, I would not consent to expend $5 to remove it and enable our population to go there. I thank God for his mercy in placing the Rocky mountains there."

While such eminent citizens of fifty-five years ago were putting themselves on record to make their descendants blush, there came riding into Washington a man dressed in furs and deer skins and the dust of the plains upon him, Marcus Whitman. He was no mugwump. He had ridden 1,500 miles on horseback, over mountains and plains during the dead of winter. He asked and was granted a hearing with President Tyler, and his secretary, Webster. I will not attempt details. Sufficient to say there was a sudden and miraculous change. A voice of the people was heard and politicians hurried to cover. McDuffie, Winthrop, Calhoun, Dayton, et al, no longer rounded elegant sentences against "an extension of territory." The very next year, instead of referring to a worthless country, fit only for wild beasts and wild men, "a great political party emblazoned upon its banners, 'Oregon and Fifty-four, Forty, or Eight.'" And what is more, under that banner they won. It was the American spirit that prevailed.

But the mugwump still lived. He ridiculed the "bear flag" in California and sneered at John C. Fremont, the "pathfinder," for sacrificing money and life for that "visionary and worthless territory." About the same time our conservative statesmen sneered at the acquisition of Texas and the most brilliant orator that has lived in our century, Thomas Corwin, of Ohio, sacrificed his political existence by going contrary to the will of the people. The same class of mugwumps raised the old cry when $7,000,000 was spent for Alaska.

Such, briefly, are the teachings of history, and its lessons may be read with profit. The men who fifty-five years ago denounced Oregon as worthless and the acquisition of California and Texas as a crime were no more short-sighted than are the statesmen of to-day who have tried to arrest public sentiment regarding Hawaiian legislation and attempted to plug the ears of the American people so they cannot hear the cries of Cuba. Frozen Alaska has paid for herself many times over; Oregon, Washington, and Idaho are three great states as they stand today, and with possibilities second to none in the Union. Texas—who can foretell its future in the years to come, with its soil and climate? As to California, no state has filled a grander place. And remember, they all were won by a scratch and in direct opposition to a great cry against "an expansion of worthless territory."

If it is acknowledged that the men of that day who opposed expansion were short-sighted, what must be said of the same class in 1898? The national capital is nearer Cuba and Porto Rico than in that day it was to Philadelphia and Washington. The nation is to-day in closer contact with Manila than it was then with Portland, Maine. Then we were just away from the cradle and in short clothes. The lessons of history are plain. Webster, Winthrop, McDuffie, Dayton, et al, may have represented statesmen in that day, but the old man dressed in furs and buckskin represented the people and the American idea. Old glory was raised over Oregon and California and Texas, never to be hauled down. Where is the American who regrets it?

A great work and a grave responsibility has been laid upon the nation's shoulders now, and it will not shirk a duty so plainly in the interest of our Nation today and of our Nation of the twentieth century.

For Senator.

The Senatorial Republican convention at Grand Haven on Saturday, was on the face of it a most harmonious affair.

Muskegon and Ottawa were both represented by full delegations. Two vacancies in the latter were filled by the appointment of G. J. Diekema and H. R. Doesburg. Notwithstanding the unanimous instruction in favor of Suel A. Sheldon it had been attempted to create a diversion among the Ottawa delegates in favor of some outside party. Had this succeeded the Muskegon delegation was said to be ready to join the revolt and there's no telling what the result might have been. All this, of course, centered around the U. S. senatorship. As it was, Burrows and Sheldon came out ahead.

The convention was rapped to order by Dr. C. P. Brown of Spring Lake. G. J. Diekema was called to the chair. He congratulated the convention upon the clear political sky hovering about us; referred with pride to the glorious pages written by the Republican party in the history of the country, and the steady onward march of progress and prosperity; paid due tribute to the splendid record being made by President McKinley and his administration, and especially by Secretary Alger of our state, notwithstanding the hostile criticism that is being poured upon him for the present; and called attention to the position of eminence to which this country had risen among the nations of the earth by the wise and lofty statesmanship of our executive. In referring to the business on hand Mr. Diekema quoted the harmony that had always existed between Muskegon and Ottawa, how they had worked hand in hand to promote the best interests of the party and that the action of to-day would be a continuance of that past.

Henry Wolf of Muskegon was made secretary. Subsequently the temporary organization was made permanent. Upon the report of the committee on credentials A. Bilz of Spring Lake asked leave to be heard. He alleged having been elected a delegate from Ottawa, while his name did not appear as such in the report. A motion by a Muskegon delegate to allow him and Wm. Walter of Robinson each half a vote was voted down, and this ended the matter.

The formal presentation of Mr. Sheldon's name before the convention was made by R. Alward of Georgetown. The position of state senator, said the speaker, is a proud one, and the man that fills it should be broad-minded. When Senator Savidge declined a re-nomination the demand for Suel A. Sheldon came up from every locality in the county. He is a man of the people, self-made, and carries an honorable name among his neighbors, not only the farmers, but businessmen as well.

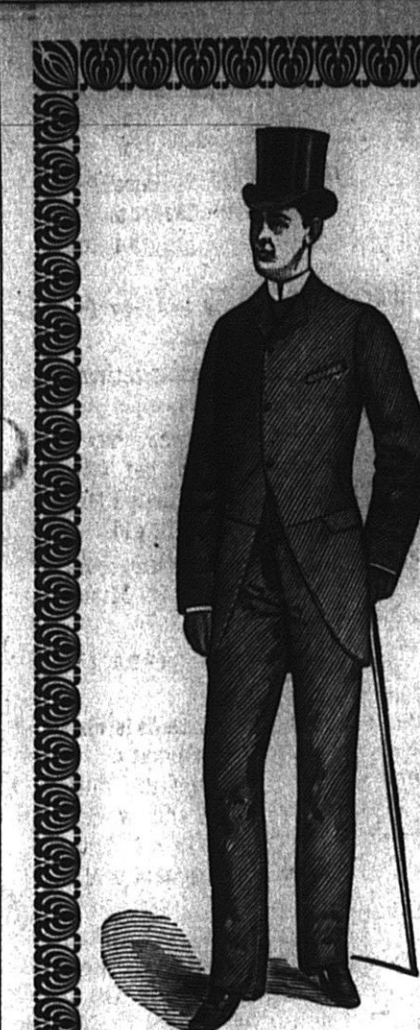

In behalf of Muskegon J. E. Turner seconded the nomination of Mr. Sheldon, and said that the only contest in the matter would be what county was to roll up the biggest majority for the candidate.

The secretary was thereupon directed to cast the unanimous vote for Mr. Sheldon, who, being called for, thanked the convention for the nomination, saying: "I can talk better for others than for myself; but I will state that my voice and vote will be for every meritorious measure. I am a Republican for principle and not for office. If I find that the corporations are paying their just proportion, they should not be persecuted; if not, they should be made to pay their share." Senator Savidge in reply to a demand for a few words excused himself by stating that he had ceased to be a statesman and was now a sportsman, and extended an invitation to the convention to attend the Spring Lake yacht races in the afternoon.

The following senatorial committee was named: Dr. C. P. Brown of Spring Lake, H. E. Shuster of Wright and P. P. Schnorbach of Muskegon.

With a cheer for President McKinley, Gov. Pinkney and Senator Sheldon the convention adjourned.

Mr. Sheldon, the nominee, was born in 1850 in Wisconsin. He came, when one year old to Michigan with his parents, who settled in Ottawa county on the farm Mr. Sheldon now owns and cultivates. The family was by no means in easy circumstances, and as a youth Suel was trained to hard work and long hours on his father's farm. He secured a fair education in the district schools, supplemented by home study, and while still in his teens began teaching country schools in the winters, an occupation which he followed for 12 years, teaching five years in the district in which his home is situated. Then he went into business and made a good record. Five years of this time he was western manager for the Jackson Wagon Company, having charge of the sale of the company's manufactures in the west, with headquarters at Omaha, Neb. From that he returned to Michigan and later bought his home farm from his father, who wished to retire on account of advanced years. Mr. Sheldon has since added to his farm until it contains 152 acres and is now considered one of the best and most valuable farms in Ottawa county. It has over 3,000 peach, pear and plum trees. It is situated on the G. B. & I. road and is 10 miles from Grand Rapids. Wright township is stalwartly Democratic, but last spring Mr. Sheldon was elected supervisor on the Republican ticket, although the other candidates on the opposite ticket won by majorities of from 63 to 80. He is the first Republican supervisor elected in that township in twelve years.

FOR THE HOLLAND CITY NEWS.

The George Junior Republic.

For a number of months past occasional notices of the "George Junior Republic" have appeared in the papers. Doubtless many have enjoyed reading the one published in McClure's Magazine for July, 1897.

Visitors to this interesting Republic, said to be the smallest in the world, leave the train on the Lehigh Railroad at a small station called Freeville, N. Y.,—as if those who named it had a presentiment that this name would in time become appropriate. From there, a walk of perhaps a mile and a half across the country brings one to the fifty-acre farm which residents of the neighborhood quickly point out as, "that place there, where you see the flag flying."

For several summers this farm was used by Mr. William R. George for such children from the New York tenement districts, as were fortunate enough to receive aid from the "fresh air fund," and as many as three hundred were accommodated in the rude building or in tents. But it was found impossible to do much good for these, who came merely as visitors to the country and stayed only two or three weeks.

The provisions sent in from Ithaca and other places in the vicinity, were it is true, devoured with no less gusto than would be expected of street gamins out for a holiday; and the boxes of second-hand clothing, contributed by sympathizing friends, were commonly opened before enthusiastic audiences. In fact, since it appeared that the chap whose clothes were the most ragged and dirty got the best of these gifts, it soon became evident that these embryo thugs were tearing and soiling their clothing in secret, that they might be in line for whatever the fates should bring.

But this was by no means what was desired by Mr. George and his co-laborers, and so in 1895 it was decided to receive only a limited number of boys and girls from fourteen to eighteen years of age, and to keep them all the year round in the hope of being able to fit them for industrious and honest lives. This alone would make the place worthy of attention; but the method by which the sixty boys and girls now on the ground are governed, and at the same time trained to meet the conditions of real life, is so unique as to be a most interesting experiment.

Finding that the orchards on neighboring farms were suffering at the hands of his boys, and that it was no small task to spank twenty or thirty at a session—and further, that it was almost impossible to administer justice to all concerned, Mr. George decided that every boy charged with such a misdemeanor should be tried and sentenced by a jury of his peers.

This plan worked so well that by degrees a system of complete self-government grew up. And so the visitor of to-day finds on this farm a miniature republic, having legislative, judicial and executive departments and a monetary system of its own—with tin currency worth a hundred cents on a dollar, and hence just as good for their use as the "dollars of their daddies" could be.

On the Saturday when the writer visited the farm three citizens were in jail. (Every boy or girl above sixteen years of age is eligible to citizenship, while the few under sixteen have duly appointed guardians.) One of the prisoners had been a policeman, and was under arrest for permitting a prisoner to escape. On examination that afternoon he was bound over to await the session of the grand jury, the prospect being that he would eventually be sentenced to the stone pile for two or three days. Another boy had varied the monotony of his work in the kitchen of the fifteen-cent restaurant by throwing a mop out the window at a passer-by. For this offense he had been arrested under the charge of assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than the crime of murder. At his trial, which lasted perhaps half an hour, a number of witnesses were examined and cross-examined in interesting and lively fashion. After being out some five minutes the jury brought in a verdict of "not guilty."

But second only to the training in obedience to law and respect to rightful authority, is that which tends to establish and strengthen habits of industry and judicious economy. There is always plenty of work for everybody at good pay. The older boys and girls run restaurants and lodging houses, at which accommodations varying in desirability may be had on the "American plan." Of course, they can not feed and house tramps without running behind themselves; so it becomes necessary for each boarder to pay strictly in advance. If, therefore, a boy runs out of money because of idleness or extravagance, he is certain of an opportunity to learn wisdom by going hungry. And if he attempts to avoid bills for lodgings by sleeping under the barn or on the haystack, it is more than probable that one of the policemen will place him behind the bars under a charge of vagrancy.

The limits of this article prevent us from going further into detail. Suffice it to say that while two-thirds of the citizens of the "Republic" come from the slums, and have behind them records in the police courts of the city, they are, under the just and kindly treatment that they here receive, coming to be as honest, industrious and manly—or womanly—as could be expected of those of their years.

This seems to be the universal testimony of those acquainted with the facts; and it is cause for regret that the funds needed to place the work on a safe and permanent basis have not yet been secured. In the hope that a somewhat definite income may be guaranteed, persons interested in this work, (already indorsed by members of the faculties of Yale, Cornell and Syracuse Universities), may become members of the "George Junior Republic Association," upon the payment of five dollars per annum. This entitles one to full reports on the condition of the Republic, and of the many interesting events that take place there.

The Coming of Baby.

When a baby comes to the house real happiness comes. The care and anxiety count for nothing against the clinging touch of the little hands and the sound of the little voice. The highest function given to human beings is bringing healthy, happy children into the world. Over thirty years ago the needs of women appealed to Dr. Pierce, now chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. The result of his study and thirty years practice is embodied in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It strengthens, purifies and makes healthy the organs distinctly feminine. It gives weak women the strength and health necessary for the production of healthy children and it makes the bearing of those children easy. It is sure to cure any weakness or derangement peculiar to women; stops pain, soothes inflammation, strengthens, purifies, invigorates.

A most vexing problem at the war office, in connection with the abrupt close of hostilities, is the disposition of the volunteer troops. In those regiments that have not seen active service there is a diversion of preference.

Some desire to be sent on for garrison duty in the newly acquired territory, while others again prefer to come home and resume their duties as civilians. About one half the volunteer forces are to be mustered out at once. Among those so designated are the 32nd, and 35th Michigan regiments, who have been weakened more or less by fevers contracted in southern camps. The 31st regi-

Fencing Bay View.

The Grand Rapids papers announce that the trustees of the Bay View resort grounds, near Petoskey, have resolved to place a fence around the property and charge an admission fee to visitors.

Bay View was the first Michigan

cottage resort, and it is still the largest, having more than six hundred cottages, with wide streets, water works, electric light, etc. The grounds have always been freely opened to visitors, the same as Macatawa Park.

The reason for this change at Bay

View is one which will soon require similar action by the Park company at Macatawa. The Bay View associa-

FIGHTING IN CUBA.
Battle Reported Between Spaniards and Insurgents.

London, Aug. 24.—According to a dispatch from Madrid to a local news agency there has been serious fighting between the Spaniards and insurgents in Cuba in which the insurgents lost 500 killed and wounded.

The report cannot be confirmed from other sources.

Madrid, Aug. 24.—The government has received a dispatch from Gen. Rios, governor of the Viscayas islands and the successor of Gen. Jaudenes in the governor-generalship of the Philippines, saying that there has been bloody fighting between the Spaniards and the insurgents with an estimated loss to the latter of 500 men. The Spanish losses were "unimportant."

The dispatch says that a number of the insurgent chiefs were captured and shot. A sergeant of gendarmes,

NEGROES REACH PANAMA.

Strikers Rapidly Winning the Imported Labor Over to Their Side of the Fight.

Panama, Ill., Aug. 24.—Union miners have succeeded in inducing a number of Alabama negroes to leave the Springfield mining camp and others are deserting rapidly. The negroes met in session with the union miners at their hall and stated publicly that they had been misled by Operators Overholt and Pohl, and they say they intend returning home. The miners provide food for the negroes as fast as they leave camp. Deputy sheriffs are doing all in their power to keep the negroes on Springfield grounds by threatening to kill them if they leave.

The ignorant blacks are half frightened to death, and shed tears with their pleadings to be permitted to pass the deputies' lines and leave the city.
The union miners have agreed to pay the fare of the negroes to return home to Alabama, and it is fully expected all will leave the city by Thursday night.

The negroes are gradually deserting the Springfield mine and returning to the city to join the union miners.

representatives. One of the members of that committee announced that he

THE EVIDENCE OF OUR SENSES—WHAT HOLLAND PEOPLE SAY IS PRETTY GOOD PROOF FOR HOLLAND.

When we see it ourselves. When our own ears hear it. When our neighbors tell it. Our friends endorse it. No better evidence can be had. It's not what people say in Maine. Or distant mutterings from California.

No deceiving echoes here. Holland people talk of Holland people.

Can you believe your neighbors? Read this statement made by a citizen:

Mrs. M. Shonaker, of 256 west 15th street, says: "During the past five or six years I was troubled a great deal with my kidneys. Latterly it was much more severe and I suffered from constant, heavy aching pains across the small of my back so that I could not rest comfortably at night in any position and during the day I felt tired and languid. The kidneys secretions became badly affected, irregular, too frequently, scanty and were attended by a good deal of pain besides depositing a heavy sediment. I suffered also from headache and spells of dizziness so that I either had to sit down or hold onto something to keep from falling. I used a great many different remedies but without obtaining any benefit. Friends advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box from J. O. Doesburg's drug store and used them. They helped me from the very start. They are by far the best remedy I ever tried and I have no hesitation in recommending them to anyone."

ALGER GOES TO MONTAUK

Visits Camp Wikoff to See to the Comfort of the Soldier Boys.

LIST OF TROOPS TO BE MUSTERED OUT.

Violent Electrical Storm Causes Havoc Among the Tents—Large Y. M. C. A. Tent is Blown Down—Soldiers on the Transports Anxious for the Opportunity to Land.

New York, Aug. 24.—Secretary of War Alger arrived in town from Washington and left the Fifth Avenue hotel at 7:40 Wednesday morning on his way to Camp Wikoff, Montauk Point.

He was driven to the Twenty-fourth street ferry in company with Col. Hecker, who is connected with the quartermaster's department, and is looking after the transportation of troops. Maj. Hopkins, assistant adjutant-general, is also of the secretary's party.

TO QUIT SOLDIER LIFE.

Orders Issued for Mustering Out Certain Regiments.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Orders have been issued for the mustering out of the following regiments:

First Vermont, First Maine, Fifty-second Iowa, Sixth Pennsylvania, Fifth Maryland, Second New York, Second Nebraska, One Hundred and Fifty-seventh Indiana, One Hundred and Fifty-seventh Indiana, C and D, of Ohio light artillery; First Illinois, volunteer cavalry; batteries A and B Georgia light artillery, Twenty-eighth Indiana light battery and the New York and Pennsylvania cavalry troops now in Puerto Rico. Other orders to muster out troops will be announced as soon as definite decisions are reached. The Puerto Rican cavalry mustered out are troops A and C of New York; the Philadelphia city troop, Sheridan troop and the governor's troop of Pennsylvania.

TENTS BLOWN DOWN.

Electrical Storm Plays Havoc in Camp at Montauk Point.

New York, Aug. 24.—In the electrical storm, which continued for four hours Tuesday night, the wind blew down many of the soldiers' tents, twisted the wires about the camp, blew down the Red Cross hospital tent in the general hospital, and caused havoc generally. Two tents were picked from the ground and carried into the ocean.

The wrecking of five unoccupied tents in the detention hospital will prevent the landing of some sick soldiers on the transports. Soldiers are busy fixing up the tents which were blown down, and are putting the camp into fine shape again.

The large Y. M. C. A. tent, in which the soldiers spend much of their time writing to their relatives or reading, was also leveled by the gale.

The news that an order is soon to be issued at Washington to muster out the volunteers in camp, including the rough riders and the Seventy-first regiment, has been received with much satisfaction.

The transport Arcade, which arrived Tuesday night, was inspected. Capt. Capron, father of Capt. Capron, of the rough riders, who was killed at Santiago, is on board sick.

A WEARY WAIT.

Soldiers on Transports Off Camp Wikoff Anxious to Get Ashore.

With the Transports, Off Camp Wikoff, Montauk Point, L. I., Aug. 22.—It is weary waiting for the American troops on the transports anchored off Camp Wikoff. There is absolutely nothing to do on board, and the men lounge about the decks, seeking what scant shade can be found in the lee of deckhouses or under awnings, and longing for the orders that will free them from irksome confinement. Again and again the men discuss the happenings of the days before Santiago. Plans are made for trips home whenever freedom finally comes; pay day is spoken of—as many of the men are without money—and the everlasting subject of something good to eat in the future fills all minds.

Fortunately the weather is cool. There is a good breeze every day; and in the evenings it is even chilly. Overcoats are brought out, and the warm corners behind the steamer's smokestacks are the spots most sought after. The men are poorly provided with clothing, and the prolonged stay on the vessels has used up the supply of clean linen that the officers had carefully hoarded.

Goes to Washington.

Springfield, Aug. 24.—Gov. Tanner and Adj. Gen. Reece left for Washington to rush claims of Illinois merchants against the government for supplies furnished in rendezvousing troops. The claims aggregate over $250,000. Many merchants are unable to carry them longer. It is expected Gov. Tanner's visit will expedite the settlement.

Arrives at Camps.

Philadelphia, Aug. 24.—The United States auxiliary cruiser St. Louis arrived at Camps' ship yard. The St. Paul, the sister ship of the St. Louis, is already at Camps'. It is thought two months will elapse before the great ocean greyhounds will be in condition to be returned to the International Navigation company.

Deadlock Broken.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Aug. 24.—The deadlock in the Ninth congressional republican convention was broken by the nomination of Smith McPherson, of Montgomery county.

An Appointment.

Washington, Aug. 24.—John W. Finney, of Pennsylvania, has been appointed assistant United States treasurer at Philadelphia.

A Shattered Nervous System.

FINALLY HEART TROUBLE.
 Restored to Health by Dr. Miles' Nervine.

EDWARD HARDY, the jolly manager of Sheppard Co.'s great store at Briceville, Ill., writes: "I had never been sick a day in my life until 1890. I got so bad with nervous prostration that I had to give up and commence to doctor. I tried our local physicians and one in Joliet, but none gave me any relief and I thought I was going to die. I became despondent and suffered untold agony. I could not eat, sleep nor rest, and it seemed as if I could not exist. At the end of six months I was reduced to but a shadow of myself, and at last my heart became affected and I was truly miserable. I took six or eight bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine. It gave me relief from the start, and at last a cure, the greatest blessing of my life."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Bodily pain loses its terror if you've a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house. Instant relief in cases of burns, cuts, sprains, accidents of any sort.

The drummer who tries to talk a merchant into purchasing a bill of goods may be handicapped by a face rendered unsightly by pimples and blotches and by a foul breath. Some men imagine that bad health does not handicap them in business. A bigger mistake was never made. The slightest disorder may be the biggest kind of a detriment to a business man. An unsightly skin is caused by impurities of the blood. A foul breath means a weak stomach, an impaired digestion and an inactive liver. A sweet breath means that the stomach is sweet, the digestion good, the liver active and the bowels regular. It is an indication of a thoroughly constitutional sweetness. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach, facilitates the flow of digestive juices, gives edge to the appetite, makes digestion and assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It is the great blood-purifier. It makes the eye brighter, the skin clearer, the breath sweeter and the step more elastic. It imparts both mental and bodily activity. It cures all diseases resulting from impurities in the blood. Found at all medicine stores.

"I was a complete wreck; appetite gone, nervous system impaired; could not sleep; and was so weak that I could not stand on my feet ten minutes," writes Miss Ella Bartley, of No. 211 1/2 South Grant Ave., Columbus, Ohio. "I only weighed 95 pounds. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured me and now I have an excellent appetite, sleep soundly and my friends say they never saw me so well."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. All medicine dealers sell them. No other pills are "just as good."

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

A Fearful Accident Befalls a Pioneer Farmer—Thrown from a Load of Hay with Great Force—Entire Body Paralyzed—The Best Medical Aid Possible Used in His Behalf.

From the Tribune, Charlotte, Mich.

One of the pioneer farmers of Benton township, Mich., is Elanathan Munger. Despite the many privations and difficulties which a pioneer contends with, Mr. Munger has succeeded. He has also served as clerk of his township, and is known as a careful, conscientious and honorable citizen.

His busy life has not been all sunshine, however, and in speaking to our reporter of his struggles in earlier days, he said: "One Monday in March, 1890, I was drawing hay to a neighbor's, when I was thrown from my wagon with great force to the ground, striking a front wheel in my descent. I struck on both hands with such force as to almost paralyze my whole body. The injury was most severe to my chest, shoulders, back and arms, although my face was badly cut. It seemed as though the great weight of my fall drove my arms back and injured both them and my backbone."

A prominent Pottsville physician was called on and on the Friday night following I was able to be taken home. The next day I sent for a Grand Lodge physician who blathered me for weeks. I became some better, but the main trouble with my body and arms remained as bad as ever. During the year following this treatment I was not benefited and began to think life to me was not worth living. I feared that my nervous system was completely shattered and that paralysis would follow."

"In reading an article in the Montreal Family Herald and Star concerning Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, about a year or a year and a half after I was injured, I noticed that people similarly afflicted were claiming to be cured. I at once ordered that remedy through my Pottsville druggist, Mr. M. J. Palmer. I think this was the first sold in these parts."

"Inside of ten days after taking the first dose I became satisfied that I had found the remedy to fit my case. I kept gaining; the pills acted as a tonic, regulated my bowels, liver and stomach, gave me a good appetite, lessened the pains in my body and arms and cured a scrofulous condition that I had inherited from my father."

"I now consider myself as good for work as almost any man of my years, and I feel that I owe all I enjoy of life and health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I have no trouble with my arms whatever, and have not had for a number of years."

"I am of the opinion that with pure blood one will have but little, if any sickness, and this medicine will secure that condition. I keep these pills on hand for my family medicine and have not had a doctor since I began their use."

"I am in excellent physical condition and do my farm work without other help than an occasional day's work, and this result has been secured in spite of the fact that I was a complete physical wreck. I cannot speak in high enough praise of this remedy. I have often recommended it to my friends with utmost confidence and shall be glad to answer any inquiries from those who are afflicted, if stamp for the reply is enclosed. My postoffice is Pottsville, Mich."

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 21st day of April, A. D. 1898.

Geo. A. FERRY, Notary Public.

"I fully concur in the statement above made by Mr. Elanathan Munger, who is one of our excellent citizens and who would be the very last man to make an overdrawn statement. The cure in his case was marvelous and resulted in a great many sales of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

"M. J. PALMER, Druggist, Pottsville."

All the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves are contained in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They are sold in boxes (never in loose form by the dozen or hundred) at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or directly by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.
