Primary Election

Notice is hereby given to the qualified enrolled electors of the City of Holland, State of Michigan, that a primary election will be held on Tuesday, September 4, A. D. 1906, in the several wards of said city as follows:

First Ward—Engine House No. 2
Second Ward—Engine House No. 1.

Third Ward—Common Council Rooms, 20 West Eighth street.
Fourth Ward—Residence of D. Hensen, 309 Maple street.

Fifth Ward—Residence of J. A. Kooyers, 554 State street.

For the purpose of nominating the following candidate, to be voted for at the general election, to be held November 6, A. D. 1906, viz.:

One Republican candidate for Congressman for the Congressional district of which said City forms a part.

The polls of said election will open at 7 o'clock a. m. and will remain open until 5 o'clock p. m. of said day of election.

Dated this 17th day of August, A. D. 1906.

WM. O. VAN EYCK,
City Clerk.

Get Ready for "Bee" At Fair Grounds, Sept. 12.

President Jacob Lokker and the directors of the Holland Fair have selected Wednesday, September 13, as the date of the "bee" at the fair grounds.

Plans have been made for the fifteen additional stables to be built east of the grove on the eastern part of the grounds and the work will be all laid out so that all the "bee" people will have to do is to hammer and to saw. The carpenters will do the expert work.

Many who on account of other engagements could not attend the first "bee" have said they will surely attend the stablebuilding bee. Many of those who attended the last one will also be there September 12, and it is expected that the crowd will be the largest of them all.

If you cannot hammer or saw, one anyway, for there will be raling, cleaning, sweeping and decorating to do.

Dinner will be served by the ladies at noon, and luncheon at 3 o'clock.

Pere Marquette Excursion to Ludington, Sept. 4. Ask agent.

CITY AND VICINITY.

The council of Allegan will hereafter pay the Allegan band for discoursing music once a week on the main street.

George Bender and Charles Harmon caught eight small mouth black bass and one pickerel Tuesday in the river.

M. Kerkhof installed a Kewanee hot water plant in the county infirmary at Eastmanville last week.

William Bochoever pleaded guilty in Justice Post's court to drunk and disorderly Tuesday morning. He was arrested by Officer Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Underwood were in Holland the first of the week, called there by the illness of the latter's mother.—Allegan News.

John Looman has been awarded the contract to raise the Visser grocery on River street to make it correspond with the grade of the street.

The five months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lyons, corner of Columbia avenue and Fourth street, died Monday evening. The body was taken to Newaygo for burial.

The steamer Arthur S. sank Monday at Bradshaw's dock, where she has been tied up for several weeks. The boat belongs to Dave Blom, who purchased her five years ago for $750.

On Thursday, September 20, the democratic county convention will be held in the Macabee hall in this city. The convention will be called to order by County Chairman Al Toppen at one o'clock in the afternoon.

John C. Hoekje left last Monday for Sioux Center, Iowa, to begin his duties as superintendent of the public schools in that place. Mr. Hoekje graduated from Hope college last June, and will hold the position last year occupied by Prof. E. J. Strick.

The Rev. J. VanderMeulen of Grand Haven of the Second Reformed church announced, Sunday, his decision to decline the call to the Bethel church, Grand Rapids, and remain in his pastorate here. His decision caused rejoicing among his parishioners.

Dr. G. J. Kollen, who has been spending about two months in Great Britain and continental Europe, sailed for home the 25th of this month on the steamship Ryndam. He is expected back in Holland next week. Dr. Kollen together with Prof. J. B. Nykerk toured through The Netherlands, Germany, France and Switzerland. Prof. Nykerk has gone to take up his studies at Oxford university.

A team of horses hitched to a buggy and tied in front of the implement store of B. Van Raalte, broke away Monday evening and ran down Ninth street to College avenue, then on College avenue to Eighteenth street, where they dashed into a telephone pole. One of the horses was so badly injured that it died on the spot. The buggy was not badly damaged. The team was owned by B. Van Raalte and his loss will be in the neighborhood of $80.

Tiemmen Slagh is the sole owner of the Slagh & Zuidewind building, having bought the interest of Klaas Zuidewind in the property. This puts a stop to all litigation regarding the property and gives Mr. Slagh a clear title. The building is a substantial structure and is fitted up with all modern improvements and conveniences. Hereafter it will be known as the Slagh block. This is not the only property that Mr. Slagh owns on Eighth street east of College avenue, as he recently came into possession of the Dutch Rusk factory over which there was also some litigation.

There were 110 applicants who wrote the teacher's examination last week in Allegan county and 103 certificates were granted—one first, thirty-seven second, and sixty-five third-grade certificates. The school commissioner is having much trouble in getting enough teachers to supply the district schools. At present he lacks twenty-five teachers. The country school directors will have to pay from thirty-five to fifty dollars per month in order to secure teachers.

Philip Jerue and Harvey Peck, hailing from South Haven, were brought before Justice Stedman of Fennville last week, charged by George Leland with stealing two valuable gill nets from the waters of Lake Michigan near Glenn. The men pleaded guilty and were given a fine of $15 and costs or ninety days in the county jail. They chose the latter. Jerue and Peck tell a hard luck story. They claim that some time since they purchased an old sail boat of C. H. Brown of South Haven and started on a fishing trip up the lake. When between Glenn and Pier Cove they were caught in a squall which took away their main mast, compelling them to drift ashore on some rocks and a hole in the bottom of the boat caused it to founder. In the excitement Jerue lost his wallet and they were stranded. Later they claim they discovered the nets and appropriated them.

The M. B. Wheeler company of Grand Rapids will install the electrical fixtures in the Lambert factory.

The congregation of the Fourth Reformed church is picnicking at Macatawa today.

A. G. Parry is day clerk at Hotel Holland in place of Joseph O'Leary, who is on a vacation trip to Montague.

J. B. Van Oort & Sons have been awarded the contract for plumbing the cottage built by William Kieft of Chicago on the north side of the bay.

Frank Robinson of this city assisted in decorating the interior of the Fennville school house.

A. De Frell celebrated his eighty-seventh birthday anniversary last Saturday.

Henry Geerlings is soliciting advertising for The Leader, the new English paper which will be published by the De Hope Printing company, beginning in September.

The residence in the alley off Land street, between Ninth and Tenth streets, occupied by John Chappel, was slightly damaged by fire last Thursday evening.

The eight-months-old child of Morris O. Chittenden, of Chicago, died at Ottawa Beach Friday of cholera infantum. The remains were taken to Chicago for burial.

Resort train service to Ottawa Beach will be discontinued by the Pere Marquette railway after Sunday, September 9.

Rev. W. E. Broekstra of Grand Rapids preached in the First Reformed church last Sunday morning and afternoon and Rev. A. T. Broek of Newburgh, N. Y., preached in the evening.

A. L. Cappon left Friday evening for Chicago to look after the exhibit of the Cappon & Bertsch Leather company at the National Leather fair, which closed Saturday. Fred Luckner, who has been in charge of the exhibit, returned with Mr. Cappon.

Martin Bush of this city, while hewing a timber for the South Haven Traction company, south of Douglas last week, nearly severed one of his big toes from the foot. Dr. Walker of Saugatuck thinks that the toe can be saved.

Over 1,000 tickets were sold to the benefit concert given by the Citizens band last Friday night on the lawn at Mrs. C. St. Clair's residence. This shows that the people appreciate the efforts of the members of the organization to give Holland the best band it ever had, and their willingness to dispense music at the free band concerts given in Centennial park this summer.

A Van Buren county young man wanted to get married cheap. The county clerk asked him $1 for a license and he kicked, then wrote to Sears, Roebuck & Co. to see if they could not furnish one cheaper. Mail-order houses do not deal in marriage licenses—but would if they could—and the cheap swain had to pay the dollar. It is very probable that the firm kept his address and will be sending him circulars of baby carriages next year.—Allegan Press.

U. S. Observer W. H. Fallon decides that August, 1906, is the warmest month in the history of the weather bureau at Grand Haven. To correctly speak, it is the warmest for the first 22 days of August, but it is doubtful if the next few days of the month reduces the average much. The average daily temperature for the twenty-two days of the month that have slipped away was 72.8 degrees. This mark is over five degrees above the normal for the past 35 years and makes this the warmest August Grand Havenites have ever experienced.

Herman Schmedtgen and Jacob Heisterkamp, keepers of the two well known road houses on the River road, near Grand Haven, have been arrested, charged with selling liquor without the required license. The officers claim to have a strong case. Their arrest follows Sheriff Woodbury's announcement that the blind pig in Ottawa county has got to go. Both Schmedtgen and Heisterkamp were taken before Justice Wachs of Grand Haven. They gave bonds to appear before circuit court in the sum of $200 each.

At the preliminary hearing in Justice McBride's court of Benjamin Millegar and Fred Wise on the charge of the larceny of $40 from a woman at Jensen Park on Farmer's picnic, Wise was released and Millegar was bound over to circuit court for trial. He furnished bail to the amount of $500. Attorney George E. Kollen appeared for Wise and Attorney A. Van Duren for Millegar.

Clay pigeon shooting is again in vogue and a revival of the sport rivaling the days of a few years ago when Holland had the leading shooting team of the state is expected. The Holland Gun club has leased for one year five acres of ground owned by William Porro on the southeast limits of the city and upon it they will build a traphouse 6x12 feet and will fix up the grounds for clay pigeon shooting tournaments. The first shoot on the new grounds will be held today.

Justice Miles sentenced J. W. Wallace to 65 days in the Detroit House of Correction on a charge of drunk and disorderly, and Officer Koeman took the prisoners away Friday.

The excursion train from Holland did not get into Allegan until Monday at 1:30 o'clock. Better stay at home, save your money and ride on Cook & Foster's pleasure boat on the Kalamazoo river.—Allegan News.

A Self's brick building on River street, occupied by Peter Dulyea's saloon, will be raised 14 inches in order to bring it to a level with the curb line. The work will be commenced within a few days and will be a very difficult job.

The family ties which till recently bound Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Roda together, although at times rather weakly, when Mrs. Roda left for Holland, here she intended to stay, but a couple of days was enough for her and she has already returned to be forgiven, so now "everything is lively and the goose hangs high."—Saugatuck Commercial-Record.

The new Fifteenth street sewer laid in place of the old one, which was defective, is completed, and the residents of that locality no longer complain, as conditions are now satisfactory and sanitary. Superintendent De Young now has a force of men at work on the new Sixteenth street sewer from Central avenue east.

Thirty minutes to get out of town or a trip to the Detroit House of Correction was the choice given a drunken glass blower arrested by Officer Leonard, when arraigned in Justice Post's court last Saturday. He got, and was soon followed by Charles Davis a strychnine fiend, who was given an hour to disappear from the precincts of Holland. Davis, when arrested by Officer Davis, was suffering from an overdose of whiskey and strychnine and it took the efforts of Dr. J. J. Mersen to get him in shape to get away.

Launch Blows up at Waukazoo.

The first serious accident this year at Waukazoo occurred at 9:30 last evening. A party of resorters including Mr. and Mrs. E. Rice, Mrs. Andrew J. Hirschel and Sam and Robert Hirschel were preparing to take a ride in Mr. Rice's launch, the "Margaret R" in charge of Mr. Van Vulpen. Preparatory to starting, a match was lighted in order to examine the engine when the entire gasoline apparatus exploded setting fire to the boat and seriously burning the occupants. It seems that a leak had sprung in the pipe conveying the gasoline from the tank to the engine and the boat was filled with the inflammable vapor. All the occupants were more or less seriously burned. Mrs. Hirschel is in the most serious condition, being so severely burned that it was at first thought her injuries would prove fatal, but this morning she is resting more easily and the physicians say she is out of danger. Drs. Leenhouts and Thomas of this city, Dr. Reading and wife, house physicians at Waukazoo, and a trained nurse from Grand Rapids are carrying for the victims. The launch was a total loss.

CORRESPONDENCE

Saugatuck.

Richard Baker of Saugatuck came Tuesday to complete the boat for Cook and Foster of Allegan. He will be assisted in the work by L. W. Grant and Henry Till of the same place and he will have other help. It will take them five or six weeks to complete the boat, but if everything goes all right you will be able to go up the river in that pleasure boat before snow flies. It will be well built, too, by Mr. Baker. He is a past master in boat building.

Mrs. Koning of Holland and Mrs. John Dreyden of Saginaw visited with John Koning and family last week.

The Chicago, Saugatuck & Douglas line is making extensive preparations to improve their dock the coming winter. A good dock will be built along their entire water front and a large warehouse built. D. F. Ludwig has been engaged as local manager and will have charge of the work but at present he is superintending the dredging. The dredging in the river below town has been completed and the dredge is now at work near the swing bridge where the Douglas dock and warehouse will be built. Mr. Ludwig will continue in the real estate business.

Monday evening of last week $172 was taken from the safe at the Chicago, Saugatuck & Douglas Transportation company's dock. As the Kalamazoo did not get away from here on her Sunday night trip till Monday morning she could not get back in time to make her Monday night trip so the passengers and freight were taken down to the mouth in small boats to meet the Glenr, Agent Fletcher went down also and a short time after, his assistant, Ray Veits, followed in a row boat, with a belated passenger, and during their absence the money was taken from the safe which was not locked. About $40 of the money belonged to Mr. Fletcher and the remainder was the company's. Rolfe Greenough and Will Heuer who went to Chicago the next night were arrested by mistake charged with the theft but were let go before they were searched.

W. S. Harbert has finished the road he has been building among the hills on the ox-bow for the past number of months and it is a beautiful drive which represents the expenditure of a good deal of money.

The old Park house property has been recently sold to the Chicago Athletic club. This is one of the most beautiful spots on the Kalamazoo river, and it would greatly improve the appearance of the place if the old building should be torn down and a little money invested in making improvements.

Graafschap.

Pretty dry here. Crops in fair condition. Wheat and rye poor, oats fair and corn is good.

Our buttermaker is out on a visit to Nykerk, East Holland, with his wife and children. They are the guests of Harm Arens.

The people are all anxiously waiting for Holland's Greatest Fair.

Pickles are nearly gone, tomatoes are just starting.

Household Cares.

Tax the Women of Holland the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties with a constantly aching back. A woman should not have a bad back, and she wouldn't if the kidneys were well. Doan's Kidney Pills make well kidneys. Here is a Holland woman who endorses this claim:

Mrs. M. Shonaker, 256 West 15th street says: "I suffered from constant heavy aching pains across the small of my back so that I could not rest easy at night in any position and during the day I felt tired and languid. The kidney secretions became badly affected, irregular, too frequent, scanty, and were attended by a good deal of pain besides depositing a heavy sediment. I suffered also from headaches and spells of dizziness so that I either had to sit down or hold on to something to keep from falling. I used a great many different remedies but without obtaining any benefit. Friends advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and used them. They are the best remedy I ever tried, and I have no hesitation in recommending them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Douglas.

Mr. S. B. Chapel, the new principal of the Douglas school, is already in town, and has commenced operations by planning for a course of lectures and entertainments to be held during the winter under direction of the High School. The work is already under good headway and the course is assured, a large number of tickets having been pledged in advance.

Laketown.

The families of L. M. Nelson and F. C. Lewin, the parties who have just purchased the E. P. Simpson place in Laketown, are enjoying a few weeks in their new country home. Messrs. Nelson & Lewin are business partners and do a real estate building business in Chicago with headquarters in the Rectory Building.

Gibson.

Mr. Tennes family who are resorting on the Brady farm have brought their automobile here from Chicago.

Frank Hubbard and wife have a fine baby boy which arrived a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, who rent the Jensen farm, have a nice baby boy which ways 10 pounds.

Mrs. Davis daughter Florence and children from Chicago are visiting her.

Harvesting is over and threshing has commenced.

August has been a delightful month and resorters have had a good time.

Everybody is preparing for Labor Day at Jenison Park next Monday.

The past three months has been a busy time for our people who are engaged in selling fruit and vegetables at Macatawa Park.

Mr. Wallins family is here from Chicago. Mrs. Wallins health is improving, we are pleased to hear it.

Mr. Tasker, who purchased the Lightner farm, claims his health is much better since he moved here. He has been unable to walk without the use of crutches for several years. Until this misfortune overtook him he was a contractor and builder for many years. It was he who planned and built Mr. Bell's house, which Mr. Brady now owns.

Mr. Wright has been quite feeble from heart trouble.

A Mean Trick.

For the Holland City News

Last evening another row boat was added to the number of boats that have been borrowed from Ottawa Beach. It seems to be the custom for certain people, perhaps in order to escape paying ferry and car fare, to jump into the first boat and row away, regardless of whose boat it is. The people do not think about the other fellow. Why can't this practice be stopped? All boat owners should unite in their efforts to stop this sort of stealing. Last night the White Rock boat belonging to Mrs. Westveer of White Rock Cottage, Holland, was taken from the Murphy landing at Ottawa Beach, and unless the boat is returned to the above place it will cost the young fellow that had the boat about forty dollars. The boat is an easy one to spot. It is a double oared boat, painted yellow inside and white outside, with a blue stripe around the top. It also has a novel arrangement for lifting an anchor which arrangement is very noticeable at the prow of the boat. Let the fellow or fellows who took the boat please return same and they will be forgiven. No questions will be asked.

Parties who intend to rent rooms or board students during the next school year which begins Sept. 18, please notify Prof. A. Raap, 347 Central avenue. State number and cost of rooms, board, and whether light or heat is included.

Can't look well, eat well or feel well with impure blood feeding your body. Keep the blood pure with Burdock Blood Bitters. Eat simply, take exercise, keep clean and you will have long life.

Hives, eczema, itch or salt rheum sets you crazy. Can't bear the touch of your clothing. Doan's Ointment cures the most obstinate cases. Why suffer? All druggists sell it.

Don't use harsh physics. The reaction weakens the bowels, leads to chronic constipation. Get Doan's Regulets. They operate easily, tone the stomach, cure constipation.

"My child was burned terribly about the face, neck and chest. I applied Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. The pain ceased and the child sank into a restful sleep."—Mrs. Nancy M. Hanson, Hamburg, N. Y.

OHIO IS AFTER TWO-CENT FARE
Board Invites Passenger Officials to Confer on Reduced Rate.

Columbus, O., Aug. 25.—The Ohio railroad commission will take up the question of applying the two-cent fare law to interstate traffic on Ohio roads at once.

The commission has called a conference of the passenger officials of Ohio railroads to be held in this city August 30, when an effort will be made to secure an amicable adjustment of the controversy.

Failing in this the commission will file formal complaint with the interstate commerce commission.

The Ohio railroads now base all interstate rates on the old rate of three cents a mile.

GRAND JURY INDICTS RAILROAD AND OIL COMPANY.

One Hundred and Twenty-Three Separate Violations Charged Against Rockefeller Combine.

Jamestown, N. Y., Aug. 27.—The New York Central Railroad company has been indicted by the western New York federal grand jury on a charge of giving discriminating and unlawful freight rates on shipments of oil by the Standard Oil company and of unlawfully failing to file a schedule of such rates with the interstate commerce commission at Washington.

The Standard Oil company was again indicted on a charge of accepting unlawful and discriminating freight rates on shipments of oil over the Pennsylvania, the New York Central and the Vermont Central railroad companies.

The indictments are closely related to those found by the same jury two weeks ago against the Standard Oil company and the Pennsylvania in the matter of discriminating rates for oil shipped by the Standard from Olean to Burlington, Vt.

The indictment specifies that the New York Central made a special rate to the Standard from Rochester to Norwood, of nine cents per 100 weight, while such rates were not given to other shippers, nor a schedule of the same filed with the interstate commerce commission. The charges were embraced in one count.

In the indictment against the Standard Oil company there were 123 counts, each count relating to a separate and distinct shipment of oil over this route.

CHANCE FOR CUBAN REBELS TO BACK UP

AMNESTY DECREE IS ISSUED BY THE SECRETARY ON ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT.

Simultaneously With Its Publication Loyal Troops Defeat Insurgents, Killing Seventeen Men and Losing One Man in Fight.

Havana, Aug. 28.—At the moment Monday when the government was issuing its proclamation offering pardon to rebels who would lay down their arms its forces were dealing the most telling blow that has yet been struck against insurgents in the field.

For several days it has been stated that Gen. Guzman's force of insurgents, which was variously estimated at from 200 upwards, contemplated an attack on Cienfuegos. Col. Valle with a detachment of rural guards and volunteers was dispatched to Cienfuegos for the purpose of engaging Guzman and breaking up the band. The encounter of the two forces resulted in the worst disaster which the insurgents have sustained up to this time. They lost 17 men killed and many wounded, while the loss to the government force was one man killed. The government is without further particulars of the fight.

Insurrection in Decline.

That the insurrection is in a shaky condition seems to be a fact, although the end may not be as near as members of the government profess to believe. Ex-Congressman Faustine (Pino) Guerra, the insurgent leader operating in the province of Pinar Del Rio, in a signed statement telegraphed to the press Monday night declares that he is as determined as ever that the last presidential election shall be annulled before there can be peace in Cuba. That Guerra's force of 2,000 men is well armed and supplied with ammunition and food is amply verified. Their greatest drawback now is the lack of money; but the people of the western part of Pinar Del Rio are furnishing them with all the supplies needed, taking in return therefore orders on the "Cuban government" and in many cases refusing to accept any consideration.

Regarding Amnesty.

The government's offer of amnesty is variously received. It is impossible to say what its effect will be upon those to whom it is addressed. Alfredo Zayas, president of the senate and leader of the liberal party, stated that he was unable to express any opinion as to whether the insurgents would grasp the opportunity offered them of surrendering, but said in his opinion as a lawyer, Secretary Montalvo could not legally issue such an order, for the constitution provides that only the president may make such a proclamation which must be countersigned by some member of the cabinet.

Secretary Maintains Legality.

Secretary Montalvo, on the contrary, stated that the offer of clemency was issued by the direct order of President Palma and also gazetted officially. The secretary added that the document was in reality an order of the secretary of the interior, issued by direction of the president to Gen. Rodriguez, commander of the rural guards.

The foreign element, including many Americans, criticize the offer of amnesty as a weak and disappointing action, showing a desire for peace at any price and a willingness to sacrifice the possibility of future security to a present expediency.

ADMIRERS OF NEBRASKAN GATHERING AT NEW YORK.

Reception at the Battery Will Be Extremely Simple—Neighbors Threaten to Lasso Him.

New York, Aug. 28.—The town is filling up with Bryan welcomers and other excursionists. From now until the day of the reception delegations from all over the country will be arriving almost hourly and they will bring with them a lot of others.

Missourians and Illinois men, who will lead the delegations in point of numbers, were expected to arrive early Tuesday. St. Louis Democratic club, 20 strong, will be at the Saranac.

Edward F. Goltra, of St. Louis, upon whose yacht, the Illini, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will be taken off the steamship a quarantine, said that he did not know who would be his guests with the Bryans aboard the Illini.

The programme for the reception at the Battery on Thursday will be the simplest possible. Mr. Bryan will be met, as he steps off the yacht, by Acting Mayor McGowan, President William Hoge of the Commercial Travelers' Antitrust league, Lewis Nixon, chairman of the plans and scope committee, and one or two others, probably.

Mr. McGowan will extend the freedom of the city to Mr. Bryan, who will be escorted to a carriage, in which the acting mayor, Mr. Hoge, and Gov. Folk also will ride. A few other carriages, with members of the reception committee, will follow.

After the ride to the Victoria hotel Mr. Bryan will be received in the hotel by a committee of five distinguished Democrats from each state.

The proposal to have Mr. Bryan pass part of the time before he lands officially at the Battery in a yacht does not meet with favor with the Nebraska delegation, it is said. Mayor James C. Dahlgren, of Omaha, who has been chairman of the delegation, had views of his own on that subject.

"We're going down to meet Bryan in a boat," he said, "and you can bet we'll bring him back if I've got to lasso him myself."

Monday night the Nebraska delegation went to a theater to see the play written by Mr. Bryan's daughter.

TWENTY-ONE PERSONS TAKEN OFF STEAMER CHARLES A. EDDY IN LAKE HURON.

Signals of Distress Hoisted and Passenger Boat Comes to Aid of Doomed Craft Just in Time—Little Saved from Vessel.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 28.—Twenty-one persons, including the captain's wife and two small children, were rescued early Tuesday from the burning steamer Charles A. Eddy by the Detroit and Cleveland line steamer City of Mackinac, off Port Sanilac, in Lake Huron. All of them escaped uninjured and were brought to this city on the City of Mackinac. The Eddy was destroyed.

The Charles A. Eddy, which was owned by the Gilchrist Transportation company, of Cleveland, was bound down from the head of the lakes with a cargo of ore. Fire broke out early Tuesday while the steamer was off Port Sanilac. It spread with great rapidity and was soon beyond control of the crew. Distress signals were sounded and Captain Simpson of the City of Mackinac, which was bound down from Mackinaw island to Detroit, crowded to its capacity with passengers, responded with his boat. He had passed the Eddy and was about three miles beyond her when he came about in response to the distress signals.

Exciting Rescue is Made.

A heavy sea was running and Capt. Simpson decided that the quickest and safest way to take off the score of people on the burning boat was to lay his big steamer alongside. He accordingly steered the City of Mackinac to the windward of the burning freighter and amid great excitement among the hundreds of passengers, came alongside of the Eddy and took her crew off over the rail.

Captain Elsey of the Eddy was sick in bed with lumbago and had to be carried from his ship to the Mackinac with his wife and two children aged three and four years. All on board the Eddy lost all their possessions except the scanty clothing they had on.

Fire Spreads Rapidly.

The fire broke out in the forward end of the boat and spread so rapidly that several members of the crew had to break the windows over their bunks and crawl through, as the regular means of egress were blocked by fire and smoke. Captain Elsey's wife was driven from her cabin clad in only a nightgown and stockings, and the two baby girls were almost nude. The second mate had on only a fur overcoat when rescued. The half-clad, frightened persons huddled, unprotected, from the cold wind on the open deck while waiting for the City of Mackinac to take them off.

A message from Port Huron Tuesday afternoon says that the steamers Ogdensburg and E. A. Meyer succeeded in extinguishing the flames on the Eddy and have towed her into the St. Clair river, with her forward cabin and decks burned off.

NOT BUYING UP DISTILLERIES.

Standard Oil Horrified at the Thought of Making Whisky.

New York, Aug. 28.—M. F. Elliott, general counsel for the Standard Oil company, was shown the telegram from Peoria, Ill., to the effect that the Standard Oil company had taken steps to acquire all of the principal distilleries in the United States as the result of the passage of the denatured alcohol law by congress.

"Nothing could be more absurd," said Mr. Elliott. "The Standard Oil company has taken no steps in this direction whatever, nor will it. We have no interest in buying up distilleries, or in the manufacture of denatured alcohol. There have been no negotiations to that end and no talk of any."

Mrs. Longworth's Open Fete.

Cincinnati, Aug. 28.—Cincinnati's fifth fall festival was opened by Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth Tuesday. At ten o'clock the daughter of the president pressed a gold button on the balcony of Music hall, overlooking Elm street. An electric current sped to a great chime of bells which crown the "bridge of smiles," and their tones heralded the opening of the festival, which will continue four weeks.

Will Again Represent Porto Rico.

San Juan, P. R., Aug. 28.—The unionist party Tuesday unanimously renominated Tulio Larriaga as commissioner of Porto Rico to the United States congress.

BROADER STREETS ARE PLANNED

Valparaiso Thoroughfares Are to Be Rebuilt on Modern Lines.

Valparaiso, Aug. 27.—The government has drawn up and presented a project for the reconstruction of Valparaiso. In order to prevent the flooding of streets they will have a uniform level. The minimum width of streets, without counting sidewalks, will be 15 metres. The government will pay cash for lands expropriated for this purpose and will facilitate loans to owners of lands thus taken. Customs duties will be suspended for 18 months on construction material.

The bourse and commercial houses are not yet doing business and because of a lack of money the banks are forced to continue limited payments.

A state of siege continues here and nobody is allowed on the streets after six o'clock in the evening.

There have been some accidents as a result of the use of dynamite in the blowing up of damaged buildings.

TYPHOID FEVER AT THREE OAKS.

Dead Sparrows in Waterworks Standpipe Cause Epidemic in the Town.

Three Oaks, Mich., Aug. 24.—The cause of an epidemic of typhoid fever among the 1,000 inhabitants of this place was discovered Thursday when a member of the board of health climbed to the top of the waterworks standpipe and found the dead bodies of several thousand young sparrows in various stages of decomposition, covering the surface of the water.

Immediately the mayor gave instructions to empty the standpipe, scrub and paint it.

Hundreds of sparrows' nests have been built on a ledge that runs around the summit of the standpipe and the young birds are supposed to have fallen into the uncovered standpipe while trying to fly.

The cover made for the standpipe when it was constructed was never put on.

There are now twenty-one cases of typhoid fever in the town.

ARMS BROKEN IN AUTO SMASH.

Pittsburg Hotel Man and Wife Seriously Injured in Accident.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—A. L. Richmond, a hotel proprietor of this city and Mrs. Richmond were brought to this city to a hospital Sunday night each with a broken arm, serious contusions and other injuries received in an accident to the automobile in which they were returning from Cleveland.

Mr. Richmond will recover but his wife received internal injuries which it is said will cause her death.

The accident occurred at the hamlet of Hiram Schoolhouse, Ohio, when the machine was going about 40 miles an hour. The steering gear broke causing the car to plunge over an embankment, plowing Mr. and Mrs. Richmond beneath.

The chauffeur with Charles Brown, a friend of the Richmonds, were also hurt. They remained at the Ohio hamlet.

MELON PATCH RAIDS SERIOUS.

Seven Men and Boys Wounded, Three Perhaps Fatally, Near Boone, Iowa.

Boone, Ia., Aug. 28.—Seven men and boys were wounded, three perhaps fatally, Monday in fracas over raids on melon patches.

Newton Phipps, William Phipps and James Moreland, prominent farmers, were set upon and badly stabbed by a gang with whose members they had remonstrated for smashing melons on the Phipps farm. William Phipps probably will not recover.

Oliver Wright, Fred Phillips, Fred Moreland and George Webb, four boys, were discovered upon the farm of William Coleman. Coleman thought they intended to raid his melon patch and opened fire with a shot gun. All four of the boys were wounded, two perhaps fatally.

Was Boycotted; Given Damages.

Racine, Wis., Aug. 28.—Judge Fowler, of Fond du Lac, Tuesday awarded Otto B. Schulz, a prominent baker of this city, $6,000 damages in his suit against some 80 members of the Trades and Labor council for boycotting his business and placing his name on the unfair list some two years ago because he refused to put the union label on his products. The decision was handed down in the circuit court at Fond du Lac.

Do You Know This Man?

He came to town the other day and when the city obscured his line of vision a look of vast astonishment twisted his countenance.

"Say," he said, "Am I the man that was buried beneath the first consignment of paving brick?"

"Am I the man that stepped in a manhole and ran the gauntlet through the first sewer?"

"Am I the benighted grumbler that growled against the first cement walk and then fell upon it and fractured it?"

"Am I the stumbling block that bellowed forth protests against the first factory that was bonused?"

"Am I the whiner that whimpered against park improvements?"

"Am I the wailer that rent the heavens with lamentations when electric light and gaslight were first mentioned?"

"Am I the man that was spurned from the right-of-way by the first street car?"

"Am I the man that was seized with nervous prostration when the din of the boys and the girls, the young men and the young women arose from the municipal playgrounds?"

"Am I the man that sang 'How glad I am,' the night the opera house burned?"

"Am I any of these men or am I all of them?"

"You are not all of them. To be one of them is trouble enough," he was told. "But we have a few more like you who are looking for through tickets. Where have you been since you were shoved off the map?"

"Where have I been?" He whispered. "Home aint a nothin like this. It's me for the tall timber. When the other obstructionists come to my solitudes I'll extend a welcoming hand. This town is no place for me. I'm not worth standing room here. It's 23 for me. Iskido." Do you know him?

Will Not Be a Candidate for Re-election.

It is reported upon good authority that Commissioner of Schools, C. E. Kelly, will refuse to become a candidate for re-election to his present position. One reason for his refusal is that certain physical conditions prevent his carrying out to his satisfaction the many possibilities of the office. Another reason is that the spirit that inspired our state legislature to merge the two two-year terms into one four-year term was a desire to make the commissioner's service entirely free from and independent of party politics, so that he could give his whole time to building manhood rather than to building "political fences." That Mr. Kelly has been true to this spirit will be unquestioned, and yet it is very doubtful whether any candidate would have the courage to enter the field against Mr. Kelly for re-election should he permit his name to be used.—Coopersville Observer.

A Black and White Holdup.

Two boys giving their names as Deigneau and Ferguson and their home Benton Harbor related a tale of woe to Marshal Kamferbeek Saturday. They said that they boarded a box car at St. Joseph Friday night and that when the train started they found that a colored man and a white man were also there. All went well until Fennville was reached when the colored gentleman brandished an ugly knife and the white man forced the boys to give up not only their money, $1.75 in all, but most of their clothes. The tramps then put on the boys clothing and the boys dressed in the outfit left by the tramps. When Waverly was reached the boys were forced to vacate the car and the highway men continued their journey.

Marshal Kamferbeek notified the officers of nearby cities to look out for the black and white combination. Deputy Sheriff Andre was told that a colored man had been seen near Hudsonville and he drove there from his home at Andre's crossing. Near Hudsonville he saw a colored man walking towards Holland. The colored man told him he was going to Grand Rapids. "You're going the wrong way," said Andre, but keep right on, for I'm going to take you to Holland. The colored man grinned and came along. Andre placed him in the city jail pending investigation. Nothing could be added showing that he was the guilty party and he was released from custody.

South Bend Young Man Meets Death In Waves.

John Dushane met death in the waves of Lake Michigan last Thursday afternoon while he was in bathing at Chicago Beach about a mile from the south pier with C. R. Campbell and other friends. All were having a jolly time buffeting with the heavy waves when an extra heavy one caused Dushane to lose his footing and the treacherous undertow dragged him under. His companions rushed down to the bath houses nearly a mile distant for life preservers in the hope that they could render aid but they were too late. Then they notified the life saving crew and Captain Pool and the surfmen responded and dragged for the body but too much time had elapsed and it was difficult to tell where to look as the current had swept it from the scene of the accident. It was eleven o'clock before the body was found, and then George Conover, who with friends of Dushane was patrolling the beach, saw the waves cast the body up about 2 miles from the place where the drowning occurred.

With his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dushane of South Bend, Ind., and his brothers and sisters, James, Donald, Anna and Mary, the young man had been staying at the Knickerbocker Cottage which the family recently purchased of Geo. Birkhof of Chicago. He was engaged in the Electric Light business in South Bend and was a business man of much promise. His age was 24 years.

The family closed their cottage the day following the drowning and took the body to South Bend for burial.

Allegan Has a Mysterious Case

What may prove to be a case of murder in which the principals live in Allegan, finds its origination in Chicago as the following from the Chicago Tribune of Sunday relates:

After being twice "drowned" and twice "buried," P. J. Kempler, 207 Vine street, is now facing arrest in Allegan, Mich., on a warrant sworn out in Chicago yesterday charging wife abandonment. The undoing of the "corpse" was brought about by detective work performed by the "widow," who disguised herself as a farmer girl, and asserts that she found Kempler wooing another woman in a sylvan retreat on the other side of the lake.

In the meantime Capt. O'Brien of the detective bureau is trying to figure out how the clothing, papers, and jewelry of Kempler came to be found upon a body taken from the lake at the mouth of the harbor about May 21 last. Two life insurance companies from which Mrs. Kempler collected $2,000 on account of the supposed death of her husband likewise have interested themselves in the case. Although admitting that there is a chance that Mrs. Kempler made a mistake in identifying the man in Michigan as her husband, the insistence of the woman has caused Capt. O'Brien to believe that her story is true.

Kempler's age is placed at 40 years. His wife is younger. Up to last April they lived together at the Vine street house, Kempler working as merchandise marker for Marshall Field & Co. According to Mrs. Kempler, their life was not altogether happy by reason of there being another and younger woman in whom Kempler was interested.

In April Kempler disappeared. Mrs. Kempler reported her loss to the police, and every unidentified dead body was scrutinized with the idea that it might be that of Kempler.

On May 7 a body was taken out of the drainage canal near Summit, Ill. It was identified by Mrs. Kempler as that of her husband. She admitted to the police at the time that she wasn't quite sure of the identification, but she paid for a good funeral on the chance. Then she donned widow's weeds and prepared for a season of mourning.

Scarcely two weeks had passed when a detective appeared at her house and announced that the body of Kempler had been taken from the lake near the government pier.

"Why, I buried him two weeks ago," said the woman. "He's in his grave."

"Well, this body has clothing that answers the description of your husband's clothes," answered the detective. "Papers belonging to Mr. Kempler were found in the pockets and the watch and chain are his."

Mrs. Kempler recalled the doubt with which she had buried the other body, and it was not difficult to persuade her to view the body. When the sheet was pulled from it she exclaimed:

"That is the suit of clothes he wore when he went away!"

Then she caused another funeral to be held, and, without discontinuing the season of mourning, sat down to cogitate. The face of the second body had not appeared any more like the face of her husband than was the case with the first body.

"Water causes great changes,"

was the explanation urged upon her, but she was not satisfied. Her thoughts reverted to the young woman with whom her husband had been acquainted. Finally she recalled that Allegan, Mich., in times past had been a favorite resort of her "late" husband. Then a letter from a friend in Michigan casually mentioned seeing Kempler there. The friend did not know about the funerals.

Acting on a newly formed theory Mrs. Kempler disguised herself as a farm girl. In a short gingham dress she haunted the neighborhood of the Michigan town for several days.

Finally, she stole upon a couple sitting on a bench under some trees. The woman on the bench was the rival charmer aforesaid and the man was Kempler, Mrs. Kempler declares. She did not disturb their peace, but hastened back to Chicago and presented herself before Capt. O'Brien.

The head of the detective bureau gasped as he heard the remarkable story. Mrs. Kempler insisted that she had not been mistaken in the identity of the couple. In obedience to Capt. O'Brien's advice, she swore out a warrant charging wife abandonment. The authorities at Allegan were telegraphed to arrest the man suspected of being Kempler and preparations were made to dispatch two detectives to Michigan.

Pending the arrest, Capt. O'Brien has set his men at work investigating the record of missing persons on the theory that a murder may lie concealed in the tangle. Mrs. Kempler at present is living with friends at 245 Melrose street.

MORE ABOUT ALLEGAN'S MYSTERIOUS CASE.

Mrs. P. Kempler of Chicago, who buried two men as her husband, and in disgust found her live husband camping at Scott Lake, near Allegan in company with a woman who, she says, caused her trouble, arrived in Allegan this morning and directly sought the sheriff to ask if he had found her husband at Scott Lake yesterday.

She was informed that he went to the lake early in the morning and to every cottage and camp at the lake and found that Kempler had left.

"My opinion is that he has gone back to Chicago," he said. "I found where he had been with the woman, Mary Reinhart, and a couple from Chicago. They evidently had been there quite a while. He probably has gotten wind of his wife's detective work and has gone."

"I last saw my husband Sunday morning, August 19," said Mrs. Kempler, when interviewed at the jail, "rowing a boat in Scott lake, as he was approaching Maud's landing. I am sure that it was he, and can swear it before any court. Will Simmerman and 'Baby' Mary Reinhart, the one for whom all this rumpus was kicked up, and her mother, were with him."

"Yes, I was in disguise and had been around the lake several days watching them. I dressed as a young girl and it was easy for me to see everything they did. I shall see him in prison if it takes every cent I have. I tell you that the plot to defraud the insurance companies was patched at the 'can rushers' meetings. My husband was straight once, but fell in with a lot of crooks and they hatched the plot."

"They have tried to get the insurance. Several times when I was away, a man called and said that he was an old lover of mine and had come to see me again. I was wise and kept away. They would have had that fellow make love to me and then blackmail me into giving them a part of the insurance."

"The first body that was found looked like my husband and the second one had on the suit of clothes that my husband wore, his watch and chain, some fraternal papers and some shipping bills for Marshall Field & Co., for which company he has been working."

"I do not think that he has gone back to Chicago."

Will It Ever Be Solved?

Will the Golden murder case go down as one of the unsolved crimes of the county? It seems so now. Like the Oom murder in Grand Rapids last fall it has never been solved.

Sheriff Woodbury however has never given up the search for the murderer. Since the night when the young Dennison merchant was shot down in cold blood, the sheriff and a few of his tried deputies have been on a ceaseless hunt. They have investigated hundreds of clues and thrashed over many theories. For days they searched the woods about White Lake. Then the discovery of Golden's pocketbook and the finding of the revolver, which the murderer undoubtedly used, brought them closer home again. Every conceivable theory and clue has been run down.

Even now, many weeks after the crime, Sheriff Woodbury often starts out to sift over some new evidence or to again investigate some of the old stories. Many men have been questioned but there has never been evidence enough secured to warrant an arrest.

After the finding of the revolver an effort was made to trace it down. The manufacturers of the weapon were appealed to but they wrote that they kept no track of where guns went. It was thought that by the aid of the number the weapon could be traced.

The officers however learned that a revolver of the make and same calibre was sold by a Sparta hardware store sometime before the murder. The Sparta merchant says he would know the man who purchased it if he should ever come face to face with him. The gun was sold early one morning to a stranger. The merchant said he remarked about it at the time for the gun was of a pattern and calibre not often purchased, and it was the last one he intended to get of that particular kind.

Acting upon this tip, and unknown to the general public, Sheriff Woodbury has taken men to Sparta, who were known to have been in the vicinity of Dennison when the murder occurred, but one and all, the Sparta hardware merchant failed to identify.

The crime has been a baffling one from the first but there will be no let up in the man hunt and perhaps some day murder will out.

Sound Advice On School Subject.

Here is some good sound advice offered by Superintendent Bishop on the eve of the commencement of the school year. It was embodied in his report to the board of education:

"The essential qualities of a good school depend, most of all, upon the teaching ability, the character and the professional spirit of the teaching force. During the past year the corps of teachers throughout the whole school met these qualifications in a good degree. They were active, competent and faithful, rendering efficient service to the school. About 85 per cent were Normal trained and the benefits of this training were apparent in the daily work."

"The teaching corps for next year should be equally strong. Although many of them are new to our schools nearly all of the grade teachers employed will have had experience in the work. The corps has been selected with the greatest care. Special effort has been put forth to adapt the teacher to the work required. Home teachers having the necessary qualifications and experience have been employed. With two exceptions all grade teachers are normal trained and nearly all are members of an evangelical church. We have for the coming year a body of teachers whose sentiment will fully accord with the general religious sentiment of the city. Every member of the corps will be able to conduct the regular devotional exercises of the school from a heartfelt desire to make them advance the religious education of the child."

In the matter of discipline the report says:

"The word discipline once had a world of meaning which is now absent from the term. Study of the child has made teachers more sympathetic in their judgments and less severe in punishments. Some progress has been made during the past year by way of substituting the milder for the harsher means of discipline. Corporal punishment has been made a last resort. Those teachers only who lack time, strength or disposition to use less decisive but even more effective means will resort to corporal punishment at once. On the other hand it must be fully recognized that the teacher is armed with the state's authority. The success of the school depends upon the ready and implicit obedience of every child. The teacher must be upheld. In our own school the number of pupils under each teacher is large and this fact alone calls for somewhat rigid discipline."

The sultry weather we have had of late will not last much longer. Soon you will spend most of your time in the inside of your dwelling instead on the porch. Therefore you will be interested in seeing that the interior is attractive and comfortable. A good way to secure these two desirable results is to take a look around and find where a piece of furniture has and there will prove acceptable. Then, having found out what you want go to Jas. A. Brouwer's furniture store, where the goods and the prices are right and do your purchasing.

JURY GIVES VERDICT.

The jury at the coroner's inquest in the case of Andrew G. Nyhuis, who stepped from an Interurban car into 20 feet of water at Macatawa Park Wednesday night and was drowned, was given the evidence in the case at 11 o'clock Tuesday.

Shortly before noon the jury delivered the following verdict: "That the said Andrew Nyhuis came to his death at Macatawa, Mich., on August 22, A. D. 1906, at about 10:15 p. m., by stepping from the rear platform of passenger car No. 20 of the G. R., G. H. & C. Ry. Co., while said car was standing upon the trestle near the Macatawa dock and stepping into the waters of Macatawa bay where said waters are of about 20 feet in depth and being drowned at said point; that the said company had not provided any means or contrivance to prevent persons from so stepping from the car into the waters of Macatawa bay while any car should be so placed on said trestle, and that neither the conductor nor any other employee of said company warned the passengers in said car that they were placed upon said trestle; and left the car without properly giving notice to the passengers of the danger of attempting to leave said car by the rear platform while in said location."

The inquest opened in Justice Van Duren's court at 9 o'clock. Attorney George E. Kollen appeared for the railway company, and the parents of the dead boy were represented by Attorney M. A. Sooy. Seven witnesses were examined and every detail of the accident—the position of the lights on the dock, the work of the life savers, and the custom of the railway company with reference to backing cars out over the Macatawa trestle—were fully gone into.

The jury included A. Van Duren, E. P. Stephan, B. D. Keppel, Dr. R. C. Devries, A. J. Huizinga and H. Van Tongeren. The first witness called was Lewis Griswold, motorman on the car from which Nyhuis plunged into the water. He stated that he told the passengers that the car was to be backed out on the trestle; that no one was left to guard it; that he and the conductor had gone over to Colby's pavilion to get some ice cream; that there was room to get off the front end as it stood on the trestle; that it was customary to back cars into the trestle to let other cars ahead; that there were lights along the dock and in the car and that the water could be seen plainly; that he received his orders from the conductor. He admitted that he had a lantern at the car after the accident, but stated that he used it merely to guide the life savers to the scene of the drowning.

The conductor of the car, D. W. Taylor, is ill with typhoid fever, and it was impossible to secure him as a witness. Motorman Woods of the Saugatuck car, which Nyhuis intended to board when he left car No. 20, stated that there was plenty of light around the car as it stood on the trestle and objects in the water could be plainly seen. He, however, could not give the location of the lights.

Master Mechanic Herbert of the Interurban testified that on the dock, six feet from the front end of the car, was a cluster of five incandescent lamps, and that 40 feet from the rear end of the car was another cluster of five lamps, and that there were lights along the shore west of the point where the car stood. He admitted that on the west side of the car was a shadow over the water extending four feet beyond the car.

John E. Cummings, of Grand Rapids, an eye witness of the tragedy, said that he was sitting on the railing between the dock and the trestle and saw Nyhuis leave his seat and walk toward the rear of the car. The witness was about to warn Nyhuis of the open door above the water when the latter wheeled around and supposing he had made the discovery that the water was below the door Cummings paid no further attention and did not see Nyhuis again until he saw him struggling in the water. The drowning man came to the surface only once after he fell in, according to Witness Cummings, and then the place where he disappeared was marked by a line of bubbles. The witness stated that the life savers dragged once or twice over the point where the man disappeared and then confined their efforts to dragging at some distance from the car.

"I could see the water plainly three feet away from the car," said the witness, "but nearer than that there was a shadow over the water."

Mrs. F. A. Cady, who was on the car when Nyhuis walked off, said that she did not see him step from the car, but that she heard Miss Lena Pomp scream that her lover was in the water. Witness hurried to Colby's pavilion and caused a message to be sent to the life saving station, and she then went back to the car. She said that she had received no warning from the car crew that the car was to be backed out on the trestle. She saw the drowning boy rise to the surface once and then disappear.

John Nyhuis, father of the dead boy, testified that his son was possessed of average intelligence; that his sight and hearing were good and that he was 21 years old.

Life Saver Robert C. Smith said that the message of the drowning reached the station at 10:20 and that the crew hurried to the scene, arriving there probably five minutes later. They searched until 11:35 and found the body four feet away from where it sank in 19 feet and 10 inches of water. He explained that the drag they used first was not available in the work on account of the wires and rubbish at the bottom of the lake, and that after they got the grappling hook they had no trouble in getting the body. He admitted that the life savers did not work over the body to exceed two minutes after recovering it.

Miss Pomp was present at the inquest, but her condition was such that she could not be placed on the witness stand, being afflicted with a serious nervous disorder.

THIRTY-TWO DEAD IN BOMB OUTRAGE

ATTEMPT TO KILL PREMIER OF RUSSIA RESULTS IN WHOLE- SALE SLAUGHTER.

Gen. Min Assassinated by Young Woman in Pursuance of Edict Issued by Revolutionary Committee, the Murderess Firing Five Shots.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—The daughter of Premier Stolypin who was injured by the bomb explosion in the premier's summer home Saturday and who was erroneously reported to have died, was still alive Sunday, having passed a quiet night under the effects of an opiate. The premier's son, who also was hurt, is better.

The telegram sent by Emperor Nicholas to M. Stolypin after the explosion was as follows:

"I cannot find words to express my indignation. I hope with all my heart that the health of your son and daughter will soon be restored and likewise that of the other persons injured."

The dowager empress Sunday morning made inquiries as to the condition of the premier's children.

Total Dead Thirty-Two.

Two more persons injured by the explosion died during the night, bringing the total number of deaths up to 32. Twenty-six persons were killed instantly.

The central committee of the social revolutionists has drawn up a proclamation which declares that unless the government forthwith alters its policy such acts as the attempt on the life of Premier Stolypin will be pursued to the utmost and government representatives will be killed by hundreds.

Gen. Min Assassinated.

Saturday's unsuccessful attempt on the life of Premier Stolypin with its sickening, useless slaughter of 32 persons, was followed Sunday night by another revolutionary outrage in which Gen. Min, commander of the Semenovskiy guard regiment and who since his promotion to be a general has been attached as a personal adjunct to the suite of the emperor, was killed on the station platform at Peterhof by a young woman, who fired five shots into his body from an automatic revolver and then, without resistance submitted to arrest. The capture of the girl was effected by Gen. Min's wife, who held her until the arrival of an officer.

This was the third successive attempt on the life of Gen. Min, who was condemned to death by the terrorists immediately after the Moscow revolt last December on account of stern repression practically by a battalion under his command and especially for the wholesale execution of persons condemned by drum-head court-martial for being caught with arms in their hands.

Shot in Back.

Gen. Min was returning from his summer residence at Peterhof and had just greeted his wife and daughter on the platform when a young woman—almost a girl—approached from behind and fired two shots into his back and then three more into his body as it sank to the ground. Further shots were prevented by Madame Min, who threw herself upon the murderess and seized the hand which held the pistol. The woman did not attempt to escape, but she cautioned Madame Min not to touch a handbag which she had placed on the platform before shooting the general, explaining that it contained a bomb.

To the police the girl acknowledged that she had done the deed, saying she had executed the sentence of the fighting organization of the social revolutionists, but she refused to give her name.

KERMIT ROOSEVELT IN WRECK

Son of President Slightly Shaken, but Wires He Is All Right.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 27.—Delayed for several hours, but uninjured by the wreck of the North Coast limited upon which he was coming east from a visit to his father's old ranch at Medora, N. D., Kermit Roosevelt and his young friend, John Heard, reached St. Paul Sunday afternoon.

The accident to the train on which young Roosevelt was riding occurred at Berea, a small station west of Valley City, and was caused by a split switch. Five coaches were derailed but none of the passengers were seriously injured.

Young Roosevelt, who occupied a compartment sleeper, was somewhat shaken up, but otherwise experienced no ill-effects. He at once wired the president at Oyster Bay that he was "all right."

FOREIGN COMMERCE IS LARGER

Totals as Compared with Last Year Show Big Increase.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The imports for the month of July according to the monthly statement of foreign commerce issued by the department of commerce and labor were $102,586,797, as against $84,512,606 for July, 1905; while the total amount of exports for July, 1906, were $111,551,415, as against $674,454,040 for the same period in 1905, while the total exports for the seven months in 1906, ended with July, were $969,394,143, as against $848,899,444 for the same period in 1905.

SILAGE POINTERS.

Crop, Cost of Filling Silo, Effect of Silage on Milk Flavor.

Corn silage is, as a rule, the most economical succulent food that can be obtained for dairy cows at a season when pasture is not available. Although not a balanced ration in itself, it tends to heavy milk production and economical milk can be made by feeding corn silage and a legume hay without the use of much grain.

By helping the pasture out during dry periods with partial silage more stock can be carried on a given area than by pasturing alone. No crop will furnish more feed to the acre than corn, and with the silo this can be utilized for silage.

In Illinois corn seems to be the best single crop for the silo, and by combining with it cowpeas or soy beans the feeding value is greater, ton for ton, than of corn alone.

When corn is fully tasseled it contains less than one-fourth as much dry matter as when the ears are fully glazed. From this stage to maturity the increase is but slight.

That silage may keep well the corn should not be cut until most of the kernels are glazed and hard. If too ripe the silage will not settle well and the air will not be sufficiently excluded to prevent spoiling.

The corn is most easily handled by cutting with a corn binder and using a silage cutter of large enough capacity to avoid the necessity of cutting bands.

If silage is to keep well the leaves and heavier parts must be kept thoroughly mixed, evenly distributed in the silo and well tramped next the wall. After filling, the top six inches should be wet once and the whole surface tramped every day for a week to obtain a thin, compact layer of well rotted silage which will exclude the air.

Records of the cost of silo filling were kept by the experiment station on nineteen different farms in various parts of the state, and the cost was found to range from 40 cents to 70 cents a ton, the average being 50 cents. Of 372 comparisons made between silage and nonsilage milk, 6 per cent were in favor of the silage milk, 29 per cent were in favor of the nonsilage and 11 per cent indicated no preference.

The foregoing items summarize in useful fashion the very informing bulletin No. 101 of the Illinois experiment station.

CROP ROTATION.

Advantages and Disadvantages Demonstrated in the West.

Perhaps the most striking effect of crop rotation is to be found in the case of the western corn root worm, which costs farmers of the corn belt millions of dollars annually. The eggs are deposited in late summer and fall about the roots of corn. These eggs hatch the following spring, and the larvae attack and devour the roots, thereby damaging the corn, in some cases the loss being nearly total. It has been demonstrated again and again that a rotation of crops, using for the purpose some of the small grains for a single year, will utterly destroy the pest, even in the most seriously affected fields, and corn may again be grown on this land with perfect safety. In fact, it is only where this cereal is planted on the same ground year after year in succession that the insect becomes at all troublesome.

Dangers From Crop Rotation.

However efficient, in general, rotation of crops may be in the suppression of insect pests, the measure may easily be so applied as not only to prove ineffective, but actually disastrous. This is especially true in the change from a grass to a grain crop and also in the process of breaking up and bringing under cultivation swamp lands, notably in the middle west. The farmer who destroys the grass plants in his fields and in their stead attempts to grow Indian corn, by so adjusting his plowing and planting that the grasses are killed out, leaving the insects that feed upon them on the verge of starvation at the time his corn is pushing above ground, will find that he has made a serious mistake. A certain period of time must elapse between the destruction of the old and the starting of the new vegetation, in order to starve or drive out the insect enemies. In many portions of the middle west a very large percentage of the annual loss to the corn crop by reason of insects is occasioned by this sort of a change from grass to a corn crop.—F. M. Webster.

Disease Resistant Crops.

Some instances may be cited to show just what is meant by resistant or immune varieties and their value. Grapes furnish a striking example. European grapes planted in this country fail wherever the American grape root louse is present because the louse is able to attack and destroy the roots of these varieties. The roots of native American grapes are also attacked by the same louse, but are so hard and wiry that the louse cannot destroy them. In other words, they are resistant. The unusual resistance of the Keiffer pear to blight has made it possible to grow this pear in the southern states, where most other varieties fail because of blight. The variety of cowpea known as Little Iron has proved so resistant to wilt disease that in some fields it has survived when all other varieties have been killed by the disease. American gooseberries are but little subject to the mildew which seriously affects the larger English varieties grown here. With nearly every crop grown some of its varieties are more resistant or immune to some disease or insect attack than others.

Under its influence the brain becomes active, the blood purified so that all pimples, blotches and ulcers heal up; the nerves become strong as steel, so that nervousness, bashfulness and despondency disappear; the eyes become bright, the face full and clear, energy returns to the body, and the moral, physical and sexual systems are invigorated; all drains cease—no more vital waste from the system. The various organs become natural and healthy. You feel yourself a man and know marriage cannot be a failure. We invite all the afflicted to consult us confidentially and free of charge. Don't let quacks and fakirs rob you of your hard-earned dollars. WE WILL CURE YOU OR NO PAY.

THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS.

Peter B. Summers, of Kalamazoo, Mich., relates his experience: "I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indigestion and excesses in early youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me, guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in, and the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, went to Mt. Clemens for a bath, but received little benefit. While AFTER TREATMENT at Mt. Clemens I was induced to consult Drs. Kennedy & Kergan, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through my nerves. I was cured mentally, physically and sexually. I have sent them many patients and will continue to do so."

CLOTHES

JUST AS YOU WANT THEM

"Just as YOU want them" clothes is the kind I am making right along.

You select the cloth you like and tell me what you want, and you get it.

My "correct method" of measuring and cutting makes a misfit impossible.

In making up clothes, special care is given to strengthening parts that have the most wear, and the little things are not slighted either.

Let the women folks examine any garment of my making, they will tell you "that's well made."

Now sum up the clothes question—good cloth, well made into a splendid fitting garment, just as you want it, costing no more than store clothes; isn't that a combination worth trying?

I have convinced many.

Will you let me prove my statements to you?

"The car was doomed from the start," he said. "They adopted the wrong remedy in its case. Their remedy was as wrong as was a Jacksonville waiter's in my case."

"In Jacksonville one day I entered a restaurant and ordered a steak. When the steak came on it was so tough that I could hardly cut the gravy. I said to the waiter:

"Walter, this steak is awfully hard to cut."

"The waiter hurried to me with a solicitous air.

Keep Your Nerve

It is nerve energy that runs the organs of your body. The storage battery is the nerve cells in the brain and spinal cord, and from this battery nerve force is sent out through the system of nerves. To keep the body healthy you must have plenty of nerve force; if you have not, the organs work imperfectly, the circulation is sluggish, digestion bad, appetite poor, kidneys inactive, and aches, pains and misery are the penalty.

You can keep the system strong with Dr. Miles' Nerve. It assists in generating nerve energy; it strengthens the nerves and makes the whole system strong and vigorous.

"I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Miles' Nerve to those suffering from nervous prostration, insomnia and melancholy. After several months suffering from above diseases I tried this medicine and found immediate relief. It soothes and strengthens the nerves, chases away the gloomy and depressing thoughts and gives the sufferer renewed strength and hope. It is a superb nerve restorer."

ASPARAGUS RUST.

Sulphur Treatment Has Proved Successful in California.

For a number of years a serious disease, a kind of rust, has been spreading throughout the asparagus growing districts, which appears to be reducing production to a marked extent and in some places has destroyed plantations to a degree.

The rust does not appear on the asparagus cut for canning or for market, and the crop is only injured indirectly through the weakened condition of the roots and crowns.

How Sulphur is Used.

R. A. Smith of the California station has for a number of years been carrying on experiments to test various means for the control of this disease, and he reports success with the use of dry sulphur thoroughly dusted over the plants. The best form of sulphur to be used is the flowers of sulphur, which is the finest grade obtainable. It should be thoroughly dusted over the plants in advance of the appearance of the summer stage of the rust and one or two applications given later during the season. To make the sulphur more adherent a spraying with whale oil soap and water is recommended to precede the powder. The sulphur should be applied at the rate of about 150 pounds per acre for each application. The cost of the sulphur and its application was about $6 per acre for two applications in California. This treatment has proved very successful in California and is reported upon favorably by a large grower in South Carolina. It is essential to begin the treatment early, probably within three weeks of the beginning of summer growth, and to keep the sulphur showing well upon the plants throughout the season.

Clover Root Borer.

The clover root borer is a small brown insect whose young is a white grub with brown head and jaws. As a rule, clover infested with this pest begins to die in spots over the field in late July or August. Ordinarily, if this injury is noted by the farmer it is attributed to the effect of dry weather, and the further destruction that may not become more obvious until the following spring is charged up to the effect of winter. Now the young of the borer are footless grubs without eyes, and living roots are with them essential to life. Let the roots wither or die while the grubs are still young and they must perish. If while the insects are in this helpless stage, which continues some time after the hay crop has been removed, the land is broken and the clover roots thrown up to the action of sun and wind these will wither and dry out, thus destroying the insects infesting them. While this does not save the clover, it destroys the pest so that it does not develop and make its way to other fields.

The Village Butcher.

The village butcher's possible rehabilitation may be one factor in an increase of the farmer's receipts for his products. While the large cities are making an appeal for home dressed meats, the consumer there cannot be so certain of getting what he asks for as can the resident of the village and of the smaller cities and towns, where, with populations of 5,000 to 10,000 or 12,000, nearly every one "knows his butcher" and can more nearly depend on home killed products, so that the supply will be fairly represented by the demand, and such butchers will, as a general rule, offer a more ready market at higher prices for nearby live stock of all kinds. This may be better for the local butcher or may not. However, the natural deduction is that it would be better for the farmer contingent to such markets.—Rural Magazine.

Cement Work.

It seems that the foundation has much to do with the success of cement work, according to the Cement Era; for stable floors or clay or loam one should proceed as follows: Excavate six to eight inches for foundations, fill in with cinders, crushed stone or sand; spread in three inch layers and tramp well. Foundations should be well flooded and allowed to stand for a week or more in order to become thoroughly compacted; smooth off to a level surface.

POPULAR GARDENING

'Tis a pity to let the weeds go to seed now.

A last sowing of early table beets may be made.

Spinach for fall marketing may be sown now.

Flat early turnips are a good thing to sow on the vacant ground from which crops have been removed.

Keep the soil stirred about the late cabbage plants.

Late peas, lettuce and winter radishes are sown in August.

By taking advantage of a time when the ground is moist bush beans may be sown for awhile in August. The stringless green pod might be tried.

Turnips are often sown broadcast, but sowing in drills makes it easier to thin and cultivate them.

The fall gardener might try a last sowing of an early variety of sweet corn. When favorable weather holds on good corn is sometimes picked late in October.

Too early banking of celery is often the cause of rust. Some gardeners say banking should not begin before the middle of September.

The lettuce plants that are going to seed are quickly pulled up, and poultry relish them amazingly.

Frequent hoeing and a little liquid manure will help eggplants along very much.

BIG PHILADELPHIA TRUST COMPANY IN TROUBLE.

Discovery is Made Soon After Death of President That Finances Are Greatly Involved.

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—The Real Estate Trust company closed its doors Tuesday afternoon. It was the second in point of standing of the Philadelphia trust companies. It has a capital and surplus of $2,900,000, and deposits of $7,500,000. It was established in 1885, and Frank K. Hipple was its president up to the time of his death last Friday. The company did a large business in call loans, having about $6,700,000 of such loans outstanding.

An investigation by the trustees of the company followed the death of Mr. Hipple and disclosed such a state of affairs that a meeting of representative bankers was called for the afternoon to consider the situation. After examining the situation exhaustively these bank officials found themselves unable to lend the required assistance and called a meeting of their own trustees. Meanwhile those in charge of the Real Estate Trust company found it necessary to close its doors. There are rumors to the effect that Mr. Hipple's death, which was assigned to cerebral hemorrhage, was not the result of natural causes.

Samuel F. Houston, vice president of the company, issued a statement after the concern had closed its doors in which he said that the affairs of the company were very much involved and that the officials found themselves unable to continue business.

"In round numbers," he said, "the failure will amount to $7,000,000. At a meeting of the banks and trust companies of the Philadelphia clearing house Tuesday, an effort was made to raise money to tide the company over its difficulties, but all we could get was $3,500,000, or about one-half what was needed. Consequently the court has been applied to for a receiver."

Rumors of the condition of the bank caused a slight run early in the day and in the last half hour thousands of dollars were drawn out by depositors.

Frank K. Hipple was treasurer of the board of trustees of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church and it is said had all of the funds on deposit in his company. Hipple had been engaged in heavy real estate deals and it is said lost millions of dollars.

Judge Audenreid, in common pleas court, has appointed George H. Earle, Jr., president of the Finance company, of Pennsylvania, receiver for the company.

ROOSEVELT SPELLS NEW WAY.

Official Correspondence Now According to the Phonetic Method.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 28.—President Roosevelt's correspondence is now spelled in accordance with the recommendation of the Carnegie spelling reform committee, of which Prof. Brander Matthews is chairman. An official list of the 300 reformed words reached the executive office Monday and the letters which were mailed Monday afternoon were spelled in accordance therewith. This list will be the official dictionary of the executive staff henceforth, and when the committee shall add new words to the list its recommendations are to be immediately adopted.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The president's order regarding phonetic spelling will be extended to all parts of the government. By his direction all public documents are to be printed with that form of spelling. A meeting was held Monday, called by Public Printer Sillings, of all the chief clerks of the various departments and a committee was appointed to formulate rules for carrying out this order. The committee will report at a future meeting.

Church is Set on Fire.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 28.—Fire Tuesday morning destroyed the First Christian church, at Fourteenth and K streets, the loss being $50,000. The Catholics purchased the building a year ago and were changing it into a cathedral. Father Shine charged that enemies of the church set fire to the structure. Thirty minutes after the flames were discovered the walls fell, four firemen narrowly escaping death.

INDICT OIL TRUST

ON 6,428 COUNTS

GRAND JURIES AT CHICAGO RETURN 10 TRUE BILLS AGAINST STANDARD CONCERN.

RECEIVING UNLAWFUL REBATES IS CHARGE

Fines Aggregating $128,560,000 Can Be Imposed If Verdict of Guilty Is Returned in Each Case—Rockefeller Company to Fight.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—The first big gun of the government's fight against the Standard Oil company was fired here Monday, when the two federal grand juries which have been investigating the relations of the oil corporation with various railroads centering in Chicago returned ten indictments to Judge Bethea. In the indictments there is a total of 6,428 counts, each representing an allegation of the government that Standard Oil received an unlawful rebate from one of the railroad companies involved. This is the largest indictment in history.

The railroads mentioned in the indictment, which are not accused by the grand jurors, are the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, the Chicago & Alton, the Chicago & Eastern Illinois, the Evansville & Terre Haute, the Illinois Central, the Southern and the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern.

Can Be Fined Millions.

If the Standard Oil company is found guilty under each count and the fine is placed at the maximum of $20,000, the total of the fines would reach the figure of $128,560,000; if at the minimum of $1,000, the total would be $6,428,000. On an earlier indictment Judge Bethea fixed the company's bond at $25,000. If the same ratio is pursued the present demand would be $8,000,000.

Judge Bethea has announced to District Attorney Morrison that he would prepare to consider the indictments any time after September 17, previous to which, however, a conference between all the federal attorneys interested is to be held, at which Attorney General Moody will be present.

Standard to Fight.

Standard Oil promises to contest the battle at every step, and the first strife will come when District Attorney Morrison appears before Judge Bethea to ask that the company be required to furnish bonds for its appearance to answer the indictments.

John S. Miller, who has been retained as special counsel by Standard Oil, will present the plea for bond. Mr. Miller said:

"The Standard Oil company does not propose to resort to obstructive tactics and will not unnecessarily delay the hearing of the cases. It is ridiculous, however, to ask the Standard Oil company to give bond for its appearance in court. The company cannot run away. I have never heard of a corporation being compelled to give bail in a criminal prosecution."

The indictments returned far exceed any advance estimate of what the two grand juries have been doing in their secret sessions, yet it is declared to be apparent that the reports are but the beginnings of the government's battle against Standard Oil. The indictments referred simply to rebate giving and receiving, and were returned as under the Elkins interstate commerce law of 1887. The vastly more important phase of the proceedings which are now the uppermost endeavors of the Roosevelt administration as betokened by the policy which has been mapped out by the president and Attorney General Moody is to bring Standard Oil to an accounting as violating the Sherman anti-trust law, as a corporation acting in restraint of trade.

ST. PAUL FACTORIES BURNED.

Heinz Pickle Warehouse and American Can Plant Destroyed.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 28.—Fire which started in the warehouse of the Heinz Pickle company on the west side shortly after midnight Tuesday and burned fiercely for three hours, destroyed the big plant of the Heinz company, the large factory of the American Can company, and a three-story frame tenement building on the opposite side of the street. The total loss is estimated at $241,000.

When it was found that the fire had got beyond the control of the firemen the tenants in the frame building, about 30 in number, many of whom were employed in the factories, were ordered out of the building. The tenement soon caught fire and when the walls of the can factory fell they crushed the frame building to the ground. The tenants lost about all their personal effects.

Will Not Seek Pole This Year.

Big Labor Day Celebration.

Plans are all completed for the big Labor Day celebration at Jenison Park and a monster crowd is expected.

Among the speakers will be Joseph Warnock of Harbor Springs, one of Holland's favorite socialist orators and Guy H. Lockwood.

The baseball game will be between the Poole Bros. nine and a nine from the Kinsella Glass Co. instead of a nine from the Heinz pickle factory. The printers claim they can mop the earth with the glass men.

The program of sports will be exceptionally good as some of the most athletic of the laboring men will enter the contests and the members of the committee are racking their brains for something new and novel in the line of sports.

The City of South Haven with Derhammers celebrated Military band aboard will give an excursion on Lake Michigan in the afternoon, and the balloon will ascend at 4:30 o'clock.

Business will be suspended in the afternoon as all of the business places will close after 12 o'clock.

Use Salt.

A farmer living near Grand Rapids, who it is claimed never has a wheat failure, says that he sows 200 pounds of salt to the acre in getting the land ready for planting. He states it as his opinion that the salt keeps the wheat from smutting and to an extent prevents the red rust. Last year he had a yield of 40 bushels to the acre, and thinks he will average 35 to 40 bushels this year. The Voigt Milling Company of Grand Rapids gives it as their opinion that most wheat is sown so late that it does not get enough growth to form a mat protection to the roots in an open winter.

Ottawa's Normal Training Class.

A Normal Training Class has been established in Grand Haven, and will begin work on the 10th of next September continuing nine months with the usual vacations. Miss Louise Kilbourne, of Kalkaska, known to be one of the strongest normal teachers in the state, has been engaged to devote her whole time to this class, and her work, supplemented by some of the best talent in the Grand Haven City schools, including instruction in music and drawing, promises a rare opportunity for those who receive admission to the class.

In order to be admitted to the class, the applicant must be seventeen years of age and possess one of the following academic qualifications:

(a) A graduate from the tenth grade of a high school.

(b) A teacher with two years experience.

(c) A teacher's examination record sufficiently high for a second grade certificate.

On completing the nine months' course, the graduate will receive a 3 year teacher's certificate, renewable without limit, and good in any county in the state when endorsed by the county board of examiners of that county.

The class is supported by the state, county, and city of Grand Haven, and no tuition or matriculation fee whatever will be paid by the student. It is designed to fit its students for teachers in our rural and small village schools, and is necessary to supply the growing demand for trained teachers. Everyone of the many requests received for teachers, thus far this year, has been for experiences or trained teachers, and the untrained beginner is having a hard time to get a chance to experiment. Our district boards want the best, and would rather pay what a good article is worth than to pay less for a poor article or one of uncertain quality.

All persons desiring to join this class will please notify C. E. Kelly at Herrington or Superintendent E. Cummings at Grand Haven, and they will receive application blanks and bulletins giving a more complete account of the work. The number that can join this class is limited, and it may be that all applicants cannot be accommodated this year but we hope to be able to make room for all that come in the right spirit, willing and able to do the work necessary to place them in the front ranks of the teaching profession. Others, we do not want.

Mrs. I. Cappon Loses $1,500 in Swindling Scheme.

A petition filed in the Ottawa county circuit court reveals a swindling scheme whereby Mrs. I. Cappon of this city has apparently lost $1,500. The petition was filed by the Spanish council at New York asking for the appointment of a commissioner to take the testimony of Mrs. Jacoba Cappon, and Judge Padgham has granted the petition and has appointed Charles H. Mc Bride as commissioner.

The petition and letter are written in Spanish and a translation is attached directed by the judge of the district court of Hospicia of the city of Madrid, Spain.

The petition sets forth that one, Carlos Insuati is held in Spain under their criminal laws charged with attempted swindle, and asks the court for the testimony of Mrs. Jacoba Cappon.

The testimony of Mrs. Cappon has been filed in the circuit court. She recited in her testimony that in November, 1905, she received a letter from Carlos Insuati, 44 Palm St., City of Madrid, Spain, which letter was addressed to Isaac Cappon. This letter stated that a female child named Maria Rodriguez was a daughter of a cousin of Isaac Cappon, and that the child was homeless, had no father or mother, and that the father when he died had placed the child in his charge with instructions to send her to Mr. Cappon. The letter also stated that the father of the girl had left a will, a copy of which was received by Mrs. Cappon the next day after she received the first letter, the will showing that the girl was left a fortune of 2488 pieces of money, the denomination of which was not given, and three trunks, containing heir looms and valuables.

The letter recited to Mrs. Cappon that the money and property was in the hands of a certain tribunal in Spain and that he, Carlos Insuati, would get possession of it and send it with the child to Mrs. Cappon.

Mrs. Cappon wrote Insuati stating that her husband was dead, and that she would care for the child. Then came a letter from Insuati saying that he could not get the money and the property of the child until certain debts were paid, and that $500 would be necessary for such purpose, or the property would be sold to pay the debt. Mrs. Cappon sent $600 in answer to this letter, and later received a reply from Insuati acknowledging the receipt of the money, and a letter from Maria Rodriguez, directed to Isaac Cappon. The latter letter was very affectionate Mrs. Cappon says. Insuati in his letter stated that $600 was not sufficient to cover the debts and that the tribunal required the payment of $550 more, and a few days after receiving this letter there came addressed to Mr. Cappon, a purported copy of the order of the tribunal directing that the balance of $550 be paid within 35 days. This was done. A third request was made of $350 to properly clothe and pay the travelling expenses of the girl, and since this money was sent nothing was heard from the alleged guardian, until the government officials took a hand in the affair.

Death of Mrs. R. Oostema.

Mrs. R. Oostema, one of the pioneer residents of this city, died last Saturday morning at her home, 39 East Ninth street, at the age of 66 years. For the last few weeks she has been in a critical condition, the culmination of nearly 23 years of suffering from rheumatism. For the last six years she had been unable to get about excepting in an invalid chair.

Mrs. Oostema was born in the Netherlands and came here in 1847 with the founders of Holland. In 1861 she was married to R. Oostema, a member of Co. I. 25th Michigan Infantry. He died in 1894. Mrs. Oostema is survived by seven children, Mrs. Gerrit Raterink, Kent City; Mrs. J. P. Meima, Chicago; P. F. Oostema, Grand Rapids; Rev. James Oostema, Mattison, Ill.; Misses Jennie and Magdalene, and John Oostema, all living at home.

The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Ninth street Christian Reformed church, Rev. A. Keizer and Rev. D. R. Drukker officiating.

Kollen, Hazel Wing, Theo. Thurber, Mae Van Drezer, Marguerite Diekema, Katherine Post and Gladys Williams. At 11:30 a table was placed in the prettiest spot in the park and around it were placed the hungry little tots. The table was prettily decorated in red and white, and the children were served by the Holland young women, all of whom were attired in white and wore red roses.

After luncheon the children gathered on the green and indulged in old fashioned games, under the direction of the entertainment committee. At 3 o'clock the orphans boarded the home-bound cars, having had one of their most delightful outings. A vote of thanks was tendered the young ladies who so studiously looked after the entertainment of the orphans at the park.

TOLD BY BAKERY WINDOWS

When They Contain But Little Show It Is an Indication of Good Business.

"He runs a bakery, I know that," said the broker's clerk, "but I don't know what kind of a trade he has."

"How do his bakeshop windows look?" asked the broker.

"Bare as a picked bone," said the clerk. "There isn't a thing in them except frilled paper, a couple of rolls tied up with red ribbon and a plate of cakes no thicker than a dime."

"Then the fellow is gilt-edged," said the broker. "He has first-class customers. Just show me a baker's windows and I can tell you nine times out of ten the quality of his trade. If they present the appearance of having been struck by famine, he caters to rich folks—supplies them with lady-fingers and dainty wafers thin enough to see through. His customers don't need anything more substantial. Never be afraid to make a deal with a baker who has starved looking windows; he is making money hand over fist. The fellow who makes a display of whole pies and cakes and real loaves of bread is not so well to do. His customers are second and third class. They like to eat and don't care who knows it, and the baker finds it to his advantage to advertise his wares. But it is the baker who caters to the common people who knows how to get up a window that makes your mouth water. The pies he makes are as big as cart wheels, his cakes are seven layers thick, his slabs of apple roll are coated with every known kind of spice and his sinkers are stuffed with real jelly."

"How to keep off periodic attacks of biliousness and habitual constipation was a mystery that Dr. King's New Life Pills solved for me," writes John N. Pleasant, of Magnolia, Ind.
