Results of Thinking

Benefits from never wasting anything are clearly emphasized if we, as a scientist would, think about the matter, consider our condition and possibilities of "arriving" if we are prudent.

Just notice how people who save regularly do succeed.

Where the Race of Cars Go By

By MISS LAVERNE ESSENBURGH

With apologies to Sam Walter Foss

There's many a man who has risen to fame
That started without a cent;
Who was born of humble and lowly birth
But with his fate was not content;
There are men who have stirred this nation of ours,
As it will never be stirred again;
But let me live in Holland, Mich.,
Where they sell "Vans" gas to man.

Now we live in Holland where day after day
The race of cars go by;
Cars that are good and cars that are bad
Even as you and I;
But whether you drive a "Packard-8"
Or steer an ole "tin can";
The cars in our town all go—for we use
"Vans" gas that's a boon to man.

We pass cars as we travel along
On M 11 or M-51;
Some hustle along at fifty per
And some can hardly run;
We turn not away as they holler for help
But give them the BEST we can;
And watch them rejoice as they speed away
Using "Vans" gas—a delight to man.

You all must drive over gas-eating roads,
And detour to left and right;
You ride over many an unpaved stretch;
Through hills of rocky height;
So fill up your car with "Vans" good gas,
And if the weather be foul or fair,
As long as there's one drop left in your tank,
"Vans" gas will get you there.

"Vans" gas puts pep in your motor,
It keeps your engine O. K.;
It saves your car from wear and tear,
As you drive it day after day;
And as the cars go whizzing by,
Transporting the race of man;
It's not the motor that makes them "hum",
But the Gas that is sold by "Van."

NOTE.—The above poem from the pen of Miss Essensburgh came to us unsolicited. Miss Essensburgh is a Holland girl, a graduate of Holland High School and is presently employed in the offices of Chas. H. McBride. Her ability as a writer is evidenced by hundreds of poems of local color.

SLAGH STORE HAS NEW MANAGER

BERTAL SLAGH WILL CONDUCT THE BUSINESS WITH HIS BROTHER

Since the death of former alderman Bert Slagh, who for 30 years conducted a prosperous paint and wall paper business on East 8th St., it was necessary to rearrange the business somewhat and Bertal Slagh was named the manager and he will be assisted by his brother, Edner Slagh.

Bertal Slagh, besides having a general supervision of business affairs, will take charge of the men, figure on painting jobs, and watch the progress of all work. Edner Slagh will be in the store on East 8th street. The firm name will remain the same as before, Bert Slagh & Son.

The sons wish to thank all patrons who so liberally patronized their father while he was living and ask the same consideration for the mother and sons who are now interested.

HAMILTON FREE FAIR, 1926

The program committee of the Hamilton Community Welfare association takes pleasure in announcing the Sixth Annual Labor Day festival, which is this year going to be celebrated as Hamilton's Free Fair, September 6th, day and night. In presenting this program we hope to make this fair an outstanding celebration in our history. To do this each individual in the community must do his part toward this development.

The Hamilton Labor Day celebration is a splendid example of team work and we endeavor, thru the community idea of co-operation, to bring to this community a program of city amusement, interesting displays and all co-operative concessions. All the stands and concessions are operated by the people of the community, who voluntarily give of their time without remuneration, the profits of which are being used to procure for Hamilton a recreation system.

The Hamilton free fair grounds are located in what is known as the Dykstra grove on the scenic bank of the Rabbit river.

The grounds will be electrically lighted in the evening. The administrative officers are: Joseph Hagelskamp, president; Henry Hoffman, secretary; Harry Lampen, treasurer.

The program committee submits the following tentative program: Sept. 6th, last time, 8:30 A. M., ball game, "Ship's Tigers" vs. East Saugatuck, 10:30 A. M. ball game Hamilton vs. Caledonia. The afternoon program starts at 12:30. There will be a band concert by the Caledonia band; there will also be music by Prof. E. J. Babbitt's Junior Orchestra. We feel especially fortunate in procuring a professional entertainer in both vocal and instrumental music, and who enjoys a reputation of being the best colored comedians.

Also Hon. John C. Ketcham will deliver an address on the Agricultural situation from a national standpoint and Hon. Thomas Read from Shelby, Michigan, formerly a lieutenant governor of this state, has been procured to give us an address.

The sport committee wishes to announce that about two hundred dollars in cash and merchandise will be given away in sports and contests.

Remember lunches, coffee and refreshments will be served on the grounds.

All profits will be used for community benefit.

HOLLAND BOAT COMPARED TO AN ELEPHANT

MUSKEGON FOLKS CURIOUS WHEN SIDEWHEELER DOCKS THERE

Writer Says, 'She Looks Squatty—But Oh, How She Rides!'

Holland has never been quite satisfied since the Goodrich Transit Co., after merging with the old Graham & Morton Transportation Co., took the beautiful steamer "City of Grand Rapids," from this port and sent her to Muskegon. However, it is sort of adding insult to injury, when J. C. Beukema, of Muskegon, in a special article, compares the steamers "Saugatuck" and "Holland," the only steamers remaining, to elephants.

Aside from this rather ungracious comparison, the writer has some complimentary things to say about the local boats, together with some interesting history. Mr. Beukema writes:

"She looks squatty, her lines are as graceful as those of an elephant—but oh, how she rides!"

"And that," in brief is the tale of the good ship City of Saugatuck, one of the few sidewheelers plying on Lake Michigan and flying the Goodrich Transit Co's flag.

"The eastern lakes are thick with sidewheelers. There's where the Saugatuck came from. She was purchased, together with the City of Holland from the Detroit & Cleveland Navigation Co. Flying D. & C. colors, she was known as the City of Alpena, and the Holland was known as the City of Mackinac. Both operated between Detroit, Cleveland and Mackinac Islands.

"Comparatively few people in western Michigan are acquainted with shipping on the lakes, and it is possible to conceive of carrying a load of anything but a few exceptions notably the Goodrich steamers, Holland, Saugatuck, City of Benton Harbor and City of St. Joseph, all boats are propelled by engines. To ports north of Holland, their appearance excites much curiosity.

The Saugatuck has been operating into Muskegon, replacing the Alabama, and her tri-weekly appearances have brought many people to the docks anxious to get a glimpse of the steamer. And—she isn't pretty, but oh, how she rides.

"She rides wonderfully well. She can't roll in a storm, she just pounds and what a difference to the passenger between smashing the waves, and rolling gently or not so gently from side to side.

"The Saugatuck was built in '93 at Wynaedotte, is 1735 tons gross, draws 13.4 feet of water, and is capable of making 15 miles per hour. She is permitted to carry 329 passengers across the lake and 1051 on excursions inside the three mile limit. She is 266.2 feet long and 69 feet wide. She is beautifully fitted out, better, in fact than it is possible to conceive of, considering her 33 years of use.

MISS METTA ROSS TO TEACH AT HOPE COLLEGE

WAS AN INSTRUCTOR IN THE HIGH SCHOOL FOR YEARS

Miss Metta Ross, for several years a teacher in the history department at Holland high school, has been engaged by the Hope College to teach at the Hope College. Miss Ross received her A. B. degree with high honors in 1915 and has been absent from the high school faculty for one year.

Other changes in the Hope faculty make Prof. Zook assistant in the History department, while Mr. Timmer is transferred to the Latin department.

The faculty roll is not as yet completed but with the signing of the man for the chair in College Bible, left vacant by Dr. Pieters, the roster is nearly completed.

NELLIE CHURCHFORD TO PREACH AMONGST THE INDIANS

Miss Nellie Churchford's work is going beyond the borders of Holland. She received a message from an Indian chief near Bradley, Mich. asking for her services for a week among the members of his tribe.

She said she was glad to go and give her services without any charge for at least a week. She left Tuesday for the little Indian village.

Vincent A. Martin, republican candidate for state senator, who lives in Fruitport, was in Holland calling on friends. He is opposed by Gordon Van Eenennaam, of Zeeland and Mr. Davidson.

One little, two little, three little Dutchmen, four little, five little, six little Dutchmen—real live "Kleines." See 'em! talk to 'em, hear 'em play! It's the home-grown Dutch kid band from the Old Dutch Farm. They will dispense liquid melody to boost Jack Blue Old Dutch sales at the Fair.—Adv.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Van Landegend and Meislin have received their new well auger and are ready to put in more drinking water pumps and drive wells.

The Holland City Cornet band will give a very attractive concert on Thursday next, at Keenyon's hall, and will be assisted by several of the best musicians of the Germania band of Grand Rapids. This promises to be a grand affair, surpassing anything we have had of this kind.

Our new band, under the care of Dr. Gee, is making commendable progress and will soon turn out on a parade.

About dark on Saturday evening, as the snow Sea Bird was moving down the Saugatuck river to Lake Michigan with a cargo of lumber, and about a mile and a half distant from the dock where she loaded, the mate capt. Horace Ames, fell overboard and was drowned—only a few rods from the identical place where the Fanny Shriver lost a man overboard the week before.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

L. E. Van Drezer is laying a cement walk in front of his residence on East 10th street.

Saints Rest, the house boat that has been in the way east of the Wolverson boat Works for some months, was sold at sheriff's sale Wednesday to Alderman William Westhoek who had libelled the boat for wages due for labor. The house boat was owned by W. A. Paulsen, of Chicago, who is now serving time in the Illinois penitentiary for alleged embezzlement.

Fourteen bands will take part in the band tournament in Centennial Park next week Wednesday. A large crowd will be on hand at that time, Zeeland, Allegan, Grand Haven and Otsego bands are among them.

E. P. Stephan and family have moved into their new house on East Ninth street.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. T. Vandewater, East 13th street, Sunday—a son.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Tuesday while Miss Ruth Carpenter, who is resorting at Grand Haven, was bathing in the surf she was carried out beyond her depth by the undertow. She was floating on a launch cushion and as soon as she realized her plight, she became frightened and screamed for help. Two men in a canoe attempted to effect a rescue, but the high waves caught the little craft and quickly overturned it. Before another boat was secured Judge Kirby, who noticed the bather's plight from the Indian village, started out thru the breakers in a clinker boat, which stood up well in the sea. He soon reached her and directing her to remain on the life preserving cushion, and hold fast to the boat, he brought her safely to shore.

The Knickerbocker theatre has been leased for a period of two years to Charles E. New and John C. Agnew of Evanston, Ill. The deal was closed thru the Michigan Trust company of Grand Rapids, which has charge of the estate of Teiman Slagh.

Dr. G. J. Kollen has moved from the president's home at Hope college and is living in the dormitory. Dr. Ame Vennema, the new president, will move into the home in a short time.

Takes Course In Piano, Pipe Organ

Miss Minnie Vandewater, who has served as a music teacher for some time, has returned from Detroit where she took a six weeks' course in music. She has served as organist of the Sixth Reformed church and in order to improve her technique in that line she took some work in pipe organ. But she chiefly devoted herself to work in piano taking lessons with the celebrated Prof. Mc Kay, who has studied in England, France and Boston. Miss Vandewater has reopened her studio at her home, 287 Lincoln Avenue, and will receive pupils in piano there.

STORM PUT TELEPHONES AND LIGHTS OUT OF COMMISSION

Whatever plans the Grand Haven city manager had for his crew of light and power men for Monday morning, were quickly dispersed and forgotten in the stress of business created by the havoc of the mighty storm that held the city and out-lying districts in its grip for about two hours Monday morning.

The telephone at the Grand Haven city hall rang almost constantly telling of the troubles of residents all over the city caused by wires being down, and no current for the Monday morning washing machines.

From one end of the city to the other came calls showing that the storm must have divided, spreading itself in many directions as it struck the city from the lake and a westerly direction.

RIVALS GETZ GREEN-FOR-GOVERNOR CELEBRATION

Against the cooking of a whole steer by George Getz at his recent Green-for-Governor celebration consider the feat of Charles E. Brown, superintendent of the metal plant of the Grand Rapids Show Case Co.

Mr. Brown scrambled about 50 dozen eggs Monday morning and did it all in a second. He was returning from his summer home when his truck went into a ditch about two miles east of Sparta. Mr. Brown, who was not so fragile as an egg and therefore not injured, said it was quite a mess.

Claude B. Casto of the Pheasant Duffield Fireworks company has arrived in Holland to arrange the oval at the race track into a suitable stage setting for his display of fireworks.

Secretary Arendshorst states that the fireworks display Wednesday and Thursday nights will be the finest ever seen here. There will be fourteen set pieces, not including several comical ones and a number of sky fireworks to be shot off every second while the display lasts.

One set piece will show the period of 1775, representing the old. Another of 1926 will depict in letters of fire the new.

Paul Jones and his ships, Paul Revere on his famous horse, Lafayette, the famous French general of Revolutionary days, George Washington, the "Father of His Country," the national capitol, and President Coolidge, together with the eagle, shield and flag, will constitute a part of this wonderful display of fireworks unusually appropriate on the 150th birthday anniversary of this nation.

The first night of fireworks will be on Wednesday, Holland day, and the second on Thursday.

UNDERTOW BRINGS NEAR DROWNING AT MACATAWA

FIVE HUNDRED RESORTERS PRAISE YOUNG BOY SCOUT FOR BRAVERY

That boy scout training is a wonderful lesson for young men was again demonstrated at Macatawa when Jesse Ziegler of Chicago, Chas. Dehl, of Memphis, Tenn., and Bob Dillard of Grand Rapids were swimming in the surf at the bathing beach at Macatawa.

The three boys were playing catch with a rubber ball, and in some manner an overthrust was made, the ball landing nearly fifty feet further into Big Lake than was expected.

Young Ziegler who is a good swimmer was unmindful of the heavy surf but had not figured on the undertow that has been terrific caused by mid-summer storms.

It was when Ziegler was on the point of coming back with the ball that the back-wash caught him. It was soon evident that Ziegler was in distress fighting tremendous odds and when a big breaker enveloped him, matters really looked serious.

A large wave followed another, and it was noticed that Ziegler was struggling, and Charles Dehl hastily went to his rescue, but being small of person was unable to cope with the helpless boy, who was larger than himself, and soon both were exhausted. Ziegler sank from sight for a moment and Bob Dillard, a boy scout from Grand Rapids, jumped in to save both pals from drowning.

Young Dillard is strongly built and an excellent swimmer. He relieved Dehl who swam to shore and then had young Ziegler on his back endeavoring to swim to shallow water.

Instead Ziegler got a strange hold when the first big breaker came along and Dillard was compelled to pry himself loose with his knees which was a hazardous task, but he succeeded nevertheless.

By that time young Dehl had rested for a moment and then called to the beach for help. As usual there were many on shore, however no one ventured in, so Dillard kept on swimming, with his burden and with the aid of Dehl and 15 minutes of hard fighting with the waves Ziegler was brought on shore in an unconscious condition.

The two young men did not wait for life savers to come and resuscitate the nearly drowned boy, but Dillard immediately used his own boy scout methods and in about ten minutes Ziegler revived with a terrific headache, however.

He was taken to the Dillard cottage where he was given some warm clothing and also some hot tea and was little the worse for his experience.

Dehl and Dillard however, were sick for a few days owing to the large amount of Lake Michigan water they had taken into their systems.

Bob Dillard is 16 years old, Ziegler and Dehl are fifteen years old. Mr. Dillard is one of the highest ranking Eagles of the Boy Scouts of Grand Rapids and has passed in swimming, life saving and has his merit badge given by the National Scout Association. He also has his junior, senior and Red Cross badges of merit and the belt containing all these honors embroidered in silk, a beautiful gift from his mother, Mrs. R. Dillard, Grand Rapids, who is president of the boy scout mothers of Kent county and has taken a very live interest in boy scout work, and thru this organization of 3000, has brought the mothers in closer contact with their young sons.

Boy Scout mother organizations should be established all over the United States, since it cannot help but impress the son that the mother is watching, is intensely interested and it is a matter of pride to show his parents that the Boy Scout will ever endeavor to excel.

Without doubt Boy Scout training saved the life of Jesse Ziegler of Chicago.

YOUNG LADY CONSTRUCTS ADVERTISING IN POETRY

Elsewhere in this issue Vandenberg Bros. Co., are publishing some advertising matter done up in poetical style. The verse is from the pen of Miss La Verne Essensburgh who is employed in the offices of City Attorney Charles H. McBride. Miss Essensburgh is a Holland girl and a graduate from Holland high school. She has written many poems having local color as the subject matter.

BIRD TAKES BIRD'S BALL AND BIRD LOSES MATCH

A golfer named Bird is certainly angry at the bird that made him lose his game recently at Port Cheshire, England; if the bird had not interfered he might have won. Mr. Bird drove the ball to the green, but before he could take his putt a crow came down and carried the ball 150 yards away.

TROUT PLANTING TOTALS MILLIONS

More than thirty million trout have been planted this year by conservation department representatives in Michigan lakes and streams.

Dr. Jean Metzelaar is in charge of the planting work and reports that it is nearly completed for the season. Only a few blue gills remain to be planted.

Several thousand breeding bass were planted this year, due to the over supply in the hatcheries.

The Federals crowded one step near the pennant Monday night when they downed the Shoes, 8.7. The game was decided in the last inning when the Federals slipped in and won. But two more games are to be played by the Federals and both must be won before they can claim Holland championship honors.

FAIR OPENS WITH MANY NEW DISPLAYS

SMILING SKIES GREET CROWDS AS EXHIBITIONS ARE PLACED IN FINE SHAPE

Carnival Shows Missing As Added Attractions Call For Strong Competition

The Holland Community Fair opened its doors Tuesday to a good sized crowd which took a first look at the displays which crowded the grounds. In years past very few have attended the opening session but the treasurer reported the largest receipts in years for an initial day.

The new displays add a great deal of attractiveness to the fair and everything will be in readiness to greet the crowd which is anticipated Wednesday which is Holland's day. Many of the carnival shows which were here last year are not on the grounds, but just enough of this type of entertainment is afforded.

The dog show is the largest that Holland has yet witnessed. The Alfenbosch kennels sending many contestants. Schinok of the North, Alaskan Malamute, Akita, Collies and other pedigreed dogs are listed. One kennel contains a mother and eight puppies which were born Tuesday morning.

The Florist building also greatly surpasses offerings of other years. Many new entries have been made and now the Veller command, Chelick, Shady Lawn, De Vries and Behn Florist companies have exhibitions. Individual entries include the Tellings and Mrs. Post of Holland.

The Home Demonstration department is another new affair which is sure to please. Clubs from Coopersville, Forest Grove, Zeeland, Bausse and nearby places are entered with exhibitions of sewing and other places of needle work. These clubs are keen competitors and fine prizes are offered. The club members are mostly girls from the farm districts. The farmers clubs from several small towns are also competing in fruit and vegetable. The Forest Grove group had a beautiful display all set early Tuesday.

In the school building competitive displays are found. The city schools including Junior high, Senior high, Horace Mann, Washington, Froebel, Lincoln, and Van Raalte have work which is arranged in a pleasing manner. Zeeland high school, Junior high school and grade schools are sure to give Holland contestants a close tussle for prizes.

This work includes mechanical drawing, fine arts, printing, arithmetic, penmanship and language. The usual troop of Boy Scouts are missing as Director Geiger has many lads in camp for the third session at Camp McCarthy.

In order that things may go smoothly at the gate, Manager Arendshorst asks that all passes be shown and official cars have the proper signs on.

When the Holland Independents stack up against the American League All-Stars here the last week in September the local lineup will include some of the best players available.

Manager Spriggs is loading up for this affair as the barnstorming team will be presenting their best efforts to show their class as big leaguers.

An elaborate and pleasant family party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Klaas Van Klaveren in the Eagle hall, on Friday evening, August 20, the evening of their 40th wedding anniversary, at which 91 guests were present. The hall was beautifully decorated with gladioli and perennial flowers furnished by the Weller Nurseries, which together with the happy smiles and the hearty welcomes by the couple promised everyone a most enjoyable evening. And nothing had been omitted by the hosts to make it an enjoyable evening that will long be remembered. A great variety of refreshments reserved and plenty of smokes, together with play, song and music furnished one continuous stream of fun all the time until the last guest left at 3 o'clock in the morning.

The party was opened with a welcome speech by the host, Mr. Van Klaveren, who at the same time left the party in charge of Mr. P. A. Weller as chairman of the evening.

Several speeches were given, all of which were fitting and greatly enjoyed. Jacob Weller read a poem written in honor of the hosts, which was especially interesting and touching. The music was largely furnished by the Weller orchestra and various guests as Miss Sine Kasten, piano; and Mr. H. Kasten, piano; Miss Theresa Weller, piano; and Mrs. H. Van Meurs, violin; Miss Wilma Kasten, reading; P. Weller, piano, and Jan Weller, violin.

At midnight a lunch was served with an order from the host to prepare for the other fifty per cent of the evening. After that a dance was started with the Grand March in which every one participated, and a fine time was had until 3 o'clock in the morning when the party finally broke up. At lunch Mr. Van Klaveren, the host, in a speech, expressed his gratitude for the hundred per cent presence of those invited, the way each had tried to make the affair the most enjoyable of his life and thanked everybody for the beautiful presents received, which in every way spoke of friendship, love and esteem, which had always prevailed and which he hoped will continue to prevail.

DELINQUENT TAX PAYERS STILL OWE CITY OF HOLLAND IN NEIGHBORHOOD OF $12,000

With approximately $12,000 in delinquent taxes still to collect, City Treasurer Karmann has had time since last Monday, the last day of the tax campaign, to clear the books and all vestiges of the busy tax period have now disappeared from the city treasurer's office. It was a very busy tax period, with $411,482.55 to collect. Most of this was collected during the last three or four days of the campaign. The largest day was on Saturday before the close of the tax period when the sum of $119,000 was collected. Most of this was in large amounts contributed to Holland's tax budget by the large manufacturers.

The $12,000 left uncollected at the close of the tax period is about the same amount that usually remains uncollected. And in many cases the tax payers who failed to come across with the money they owe the city are the same who fail to pay up other years. With some tax payers this habit has become more or less chronic in spite of the fact that there is a penalty attached to failure to pay that amounts to a neat sum in cases where the assessments are, rather large.

All who have so far failed to pay will have an opportunity to do so until the first day of September, with a penalty however of four percent added as a collection fee. The city treasurer is forced by the terms of the city charter to charge this fee. Occasionally delinquent tax payers protest against the fee but the city treasurer has no choice in the matter and the taxpayer has only himself to blame for not paying on time.

After the last day of August it

ZELLAND CHURCH PLANS TO GREET NEW PASTOR

Second Reformed church of Zeeland is making preparations to welcome Rev. Richard J. Vandenberg of Chicago, who recently announced his acceptance of its pastorate.

Mr. Vandenberg is a graduate of Hope college and Western seminary and has been in the ministry for 10 years. He has served churches at Kalamazoo and Chicago. He will succeed Rev. C. L. Austin as pastor of the Zeeland church.

ARE WORRIED ABOUT SIZE OF THE VOTE

All indications are that the primary campaign which will come to a close on September 14 will be one of the most quiet political contests ever staged here. Some might have predicted that it is almost a misnomer to call it a contest at all. It is not even a race, unless some of the candidates propose to race against time as there is nothing else to race against. Some might have an ambition to roll up a larger vote than ever polled for their respective offices, but it is not likely that such a thing will come to pass.

In fact, some of the candidates for public office are worried about getting out the vote. It is well known that when there is no hard fight on any of the offices the voters are apathetic and many do not take the trouble to go to the polls. The candidates for the two or three of the offices where there is a race are worried that that may operate to their hurt. Those who are looking for nomination on the basis of the normal vote of the county are not so sure how their calculations will be affected if the vote is small.

But it is calculated on the other hand that the contest for the Republican nomination for governor will bring out the vote this year. Two years ago the governorship was practically a foregone conclusion. It was conceded by those who were at all posted in politics that Groesbeck would be renominated. But that was not the case this year. At that time there was genuine interest in the contest and it seems likely that many will go to the polls to vote on this issue who might otherwise not take the trouble to vote at all. And when they vote on governor they will naturally also vote on the county offices.

And there is another element in the situation that is likely to operate to bring out the vote. A systematic attempt will be made to impress upon the people the duty of voting. This campaign will be made throughout America and Ottawa county will probably also feel the effect of it. People are to be addressed earnestly to go to the polls regardless of what their politics are.

DRIVER DIES WHEN CAR GOES INTO CHANNEL

Charles Matthews, 47, Chicago street car employee, was drowned early Friday in the Benton Harbor ship canal when a coupe in which he and another man were riding plunged over the embankment. Both men were able to get out of the submerged car but Matthews could not swim.

The accident was very similar to the one at Grand Haven which caused the death of two men who drove their coupe off of the Washington street dock into Grand River. The city of Grand Haven is now involved in a fifty thousand dollar damage suit brought by the heirs of the men who lost their lives.

Mr. Van Dyke of Hamilton was surprised Saturday evening. When entering the house he found his children and grandchildren there to help him celebrate his 65th birthday. He was presented with a beautiful leather rocker. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wiersma and children of Zeeland; Mr. and Mrs. John Van Dyke and children of Holland; Mr. and Mrs. R. Haakman and son John of Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. R. Van Dyke of Hamilton; Gerrit, Albert, Ted, Johanna, Jake Van Dyke, and Miss Hazel Ende of Holland.

NEW PERMITS SWELL HOLLAND BUILDING SUM

Holland's building total for the first seven months, which was listed as being around $550,000.00, took a jump over the week end and Saturday of this week. Holland fans like these players as the games as usually hard fought.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Alsburg of Detroit, Ind., motored to Holland to spend a week with their parents. Mr. Van Alsburg is with the Holland-St. Louis Sugar Co.

Plans are pretty well under way now for Fennville's Home Coming on Saturday, Sept. 4th.

When the Illinois Giants bump up against Holland Friday and Saturday a pair of battles are sure to be waged. Holland has won two of the four games played and naturally the home town tilters think they are better than the Giants. However, the Giants also have two scalps under their wings, one being a 14-6 victory.

If each team should win one game, honors would be even again, and a third series would be played. If Holland wins twice, this will no doubt be the last appearance of the dukes this season.

WEALTHY MEN COME TO FAIR WITH HORSES

The Grand Rapids Press of Saturday, in a column article headed, "Saddles in Use As the Motors Idle," tells how the women of Grand Rapids are taking to horseback riding and describes the fine stables of some of the wealthy men. Incidentally the Press says that some of the wealthy Grand Rapids men have entered their thoroughbreds in the Holland Fair horse show.

Says the Press in part: "Perhaps one of the most interesting places for horse fanciers to visit and ride is Oak Farm, where Mr. and Mrs. John Wood Blodgett, Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Snow, and Mr. and Mrs. Bissell have their stables. The groom, Edwin Cordery, is busy now with plans for the new stables and arena which Mr. Blodgett is having built on E. Leonard-rd. The arena is to be 70x130 feet and will be one of the largest of its kind in the middle west. This new plan for Mr. Blodgett's will be called 'Delwood,' deriving its name from Delos, Mr. Blodgett's father's name, and Wood maiden name of his mother. One of the Kentucky thoroughbreds, Reika, owned by Mr. Blodgett, will be entered in the Alameda horse show to be held Aug. 27, at Holland. Mr. Snow has an English bred mount which he plans to have entered at the same show. Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Pherson recently have purchased the Kent Saddle Club and are enjoying riding their horses, Lad, Max and Dan, during the summer months. Listed at the Holland fair also will be one of the horses from the Ferguson stable.

"Mr. and Mrs. J. Hampton Hoult and their son, Jack of Robinson-rd., and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Greene of College-av. are entering horses at the Holland show and have reserved a box for the affair in August. Mr. and Mrs. Hoult will show three horses and they will be ridden during the afternoon by Jack Hoult. Mr. Greene is showing his horse, Animation, in this ring.

"While riding with the classed one of the leading sports at Camp Wohelo, the Camp Fire Girls' camp at Ottawa Beach, many of the girls have become admirers of horsemanship. Among those who have given most of their time to this recreation are Miss Jean Payette, Miss Jean Mc Mullen, Miss Betty Cady and Miss Jacqueline Campau."

FAIR BUILDS BENCHES ENOUGH FOR 100 DOGS

Secretary Arendshorst states that the fair directors have authorized stalls for the dog show in the poultry hall at the Holland fair. There are now being installed in time for next week's exhibition. There will be a large collection of dogs, according to the entry books.

EXCHANGEITES FROLIC ON LAKE FRONT

The Holland Exchange club members and guests uncorked a lot of fun Thursday afternoon at the Exchangeites' annual picnic held on the lake front. The Kookler grounds were the scene of the activities, which wound up with a splendid supper served by an able committee consisting of John J. Dykstra, B. Wagner, Jake Fris and B. Lieveense.

The first event of the day was a ball game with sides captained by Ernest Brooks and Clarence Jolving. No winner was decided upon after 13 innings of play and the contest was called by umpire Stephan. Prof. Lampen and Dr. Banninga carried off the battling honors.

A side captained by P. Lieveense fell before one led by Prof. Lubbers in the three game series of volleyball. While the volleyball games were in session, Mike DeVries was winning the right to be champion horse-shoe thrower of the day. The horse race, with rider sparring potatoes, was won by Clarence Jolving. Dick Boter, riding a fiery steed in the person of Fred Voss, came in a close second. Don Zwemer carried off the prize in the frog race, while Prof. Lubbers was declared victor in the circling stunt, this event giving rise to many humorous situations.

Address race proved to be a thriller. About eight men entered this contest, which was broken up as fellow Exchangeites stole the contestants' clothes while they were running the distance required by the rules. Dick Boter, after proving his cleverness by holding J. Van Tatenhoven to a draw in a bowling contest, won the pop drinking event, by biting a hole in the nipple. Other winners were P. Lieveense in the fango hitting and Don Zwemer in the wheelbarrow race.

The sports were in charge of B. Duer, John Van Tatenhoven and Clarence Jolving.

CAMP MCCARTHY HAS ITS FULL QUOTA OF SCOUTS; WORK AND PLAY FILL TIME

Camp McCarthy is again in full swing, having a fine group of boy scouts from Holland, Grand Haven and Coopersville. Right up on the hills with a fine view and everything conducive to camp life, these forty lads, under the direction of Mr. Geiger and his assistants, are having the time of their lives. The camp is well arranged and kept in splendid order each day by a different patrol, which is headed by a snappy leader.

From the first bugle in the morning until the taps are sounded at night the camp is in action, work and play being nicely divided. A hasty dip is the first thing scheduled for the day and after this the lads are ready for mess which is served in a regular hall. These meals are all prepared by a colored cook, who has each day a crew of helpers from the camp.

With the patrol system in order, the work for each patrol falls upon the leader, the patrol and these men meet every day to discuss the work of their members and bring up any questions for debate. In his way leaders are trained so that the boys each receive more separate instruction.

One great home is to wear the colors designating the officer of the day. Any one visiting the camp will soon detect who this leader for the day is as a lot of strutting soon gives out the information. A fifteen minute period each day is set apart for the military drill and a general review is held every Wednesday.

The first day is get-settled day, and that means a lot. Tents have to be cleaned and everything set in order. Then comes happy day. No boy has a chance to get home-coming until the evening hours as fun abounds. Real work starts on Indian Day. Handicraft Day follows and this falls on Saturday. Sunday is the Lord's Day and it is rightly observed. Preachers from Holland and Grand Haven come and take charge of the services. Rev. J. C. DeVries and Father Ryan having been at camp the first Sunday. Last Sunday, Rev. Mr. Goris and Rev. Mr. Meengs were the visiting clergymen.

The scouts also have devotions before each meal. The director Geiger has scripture reading and a short talk after the meal. In this way many of the boys are given a good insight into the Bible.

Monday is scouts day. Then comes hike day. A great many of the events like the passing of first and second class scouts are in the form of hikes so that this day finds many of the lads wandering off on long expeditions.

Water day is also spent in passing tests and giving the lads a chance to show their skill. Races for worth while prizes are offered and the scouts look forward to this day with great anticipation.

Pioneer day and honor day close the period. The last day is an eventful one as the awards are given out and camp life broken. The work in camp craft is progressing wonderfully, many scouts having belts loaded with symbols designating prowess.

Scout work also takes up quite a place in the camp life for the cabin boys tests which are the first in the series of tests.

One notable feature about the camp is the way that the boys from the different cities enter into the spirit of camp life. Differences are forgotten and every one is a true scout. This will have much to do with curbing the bad spirit which has been in practice between the Holland and Grand Haven schools in athletics. The lads in the camp at present are soon going to be the leaders in athletics at both schools and much of the unnecessary spirit of fight will be done away with.

The leaders of the camp under Mr. Geiger are as follows: Edward Strasman, of Kankakee, Ill., who is assistant camp director. Strasman is a Purdue man and well qualified for the position. Claude Ver Duin of Grand Haven is second assistant of the camp. Patrol leaders are: George Wierma, Troop 12, Holland; Melvin VanTatenhoven, Seascout-Ship Number 18, Holland; Harold Barny, Grand Haven, Assistant Quarter-master; Richard Froebel, Troop 8, Holland, patrol-master.

Mr. T. J. Holland, Senior patrol of Camp, Everett Husted, Troop 5, Grand Haven, Quarter-master; Leo Peters, Holland Seascout, Water front director; William Smith, Troop 5, Grand Haven, Patrol leader.

The Coopersville boys in camp are: Paul Conrad, W. Hartman, Grand Haven, M. Kieft, R. Kieft, Louis Reus, U. Shields, G. Wiegert, Holland, L. Beach, B. Beekman, P. Bolhuis, P. Boter, G. Duer, G. Fairbanks, H. Fairbanks, George Good, John Good, Warren Housinger, O. Kuumerma, S. Klier, V. Klomprens, S. Price, L. Serier, D. Te Roller, K. Thompson, A. Van Zanden, G. Wierma, R. Zielhuis and Paul Zook. The last camp will be held starting next week Wednesday. The boys are anxious to see visitors at any time but Wednesday and Saturdays are set apart for visitors.

JURY OUT LONG IN FARM SUIT IN CIRCUIT COURT

Wednesday Circuit Court was occupied with the case of James Egan, Jr., plaintiff in a damage suit against Coe Nanninga in which he asked for $443 as damage due him for loss on his farm building rented by Nanninga.

The case was heard in the south of Marne was rented to Nanninga on a three-year lease for $650 a year. This was promptly paid but on leaving the farm it was claimed by Egan to be in very disreputable condition.

Five witnesses appeared for both sides. Attorney Fred T. Miles appearing for Nanninga and Dean S. Pace for Egan.

The testimony and the varying opinions as to the use of the farm were at times very amusing to the audience. The jury retired at 6:30 P. M. and after deliberating until 10:30 brought in a verdict and judgement of $97.91.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Laman returned from a two months' trip to Wisconsin, Minnesota and Illinois.

Herman Hoeksema, the greater part of whom lately were members of the Christian Reformed church of that place.

NEGRO TAKEN TO COUNTY JAIL IN SECRECY

As a safeguard against any possible disturbance on the part of indignant people if the facts became known before their prisoner was safely in jail, the Holland city police spent the night of Friday to Grand Haven Friday morning under a veil of secrecy and he is now safely lodged in the county jail. Flake is a one-armed negro and a statutory charge has been brought against him by a fifteen year old white girl.

When the complaint had been made and signed by the girl Thursday evening, the police immediately arrested Flake, who has been occupying a shack near the railroad track. He has been living there alone. He was brought to the city hall where he was lodged during the night. This morning he was arraigned before Justice Van Schelven, who considered the evidence against him sufficient to bind him over to circuit court.

The public did not attract any public attention and it was not desired by the police that it should until the man was safe in the county jail.

TRUCK BREAKS THROUGH BRIDGE BEING REPAIRED

A loaded two-ton truck belonging to the Allegan county road commission broke through the bridge over the Tonia fair and bridge Wednesday evening. The structure is being repaired and will be placed in first class condition. This bridge is about 125 feet long and when constructed 40 years ago is said to have been the longest single span bridge in the state. It never was intended for the heavy traffic of today and eventually will have to be replaced with a modern cement structure to accommodate the traffic. The city reconstructed the bridge last year at an expense of over $2,500.

LEGION BAND TO HOLD 9th CONCERT

The American Legion band will give its ninth concert of the summer in Centennial Park next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. The band will give concerts at the Holland fair, next Wednesday afternoon.

Three classes of the popular running horse races have been booked by Secretary John Arendshorst and the race committee for the Holland fair next week. They went to the Tonia fair and booked this feature there. It is expected that it will be one of the real drawing cards at the Holland fair as it was at Tonia.

There will be a race each day. The three classes are for one half mile, five-eighth mile, and three-fourths mile. The races are for a purse of $150.

FIRST CASE OF DROWNING THIS SEASON TAKES YOUNG MAN'S LIFE AT MACATAWA

The first water tragedy at the Holland resorts this season occurred at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, when Bud Gorman of Chicago was caught in the undertow and after fighting against heavy odds succumbed when he was thoroughly exhausted.

Gorman was swimming with a brother and another pal from Chicago, when he noticed that Miss Georgia Miller, a niece of Swan Miller, head of the Macatawa Resort company, was in distress with a cramp in her foot. Her call for help soon brought young Gorman to her, for the undertow was getting the best of the young lad.

When he arrived Miss Miller had recovered from the short attack and with some difficulty swam to safety. The undertow, however, took Gorman beyond his depth, carrying him out about 300 feet. His brother and the few other bathers soon saw that he was in distress and fighting against great odds and they endeavored to reach him but the undertow also gripped the would-be rescuers and they had great difficulty in saving themselves without being burdened with a desperate man in distress. A crowd of 500 on the beach were frantic, all giving advice, but little could be done until the life saving station crew arrived, and when the men appeared over the sand dunes young Gorman was seen to give up the struggle.

The coast guards took a small boat from shore, rowed out to where Gorman was floating in the water, dragged the inert body to the beach where work of resuscitation began. The pulmotor from the Holland police department was brought into play, but after working for two hours the task was given up as hopeless.

Dr. Tappan of Holland, who was on the ground at the time, stated that the young man was dead and that he had apparently been dead before he was taken from the water.

Comer Westrate was immediately called and he stated that an inquest was not necessary. The body was taken to the Nibbelink-Notter undertaking parlors Monday evening and from there to Chicago where burial will take place Wednesday afternoon from the home of John G. Gorman, a prominent business man, who came immediately to Holland when hearing of his son's death.

The death of Lawrence Oswald Gorman Monday is the second in the family within the year. The mother of the young man died at Interlake cottage, Macatawa, last summer.

A cousin of young Gorman, Bernard Bourne, also figured in a lake tragedy when during a squall he was swept from a sailing yacht, directly off Holland harbor and his body was not found until ten days afterwards. The wrecked yacht at that time was beached near Lakewood farm.

Gorman is prominent in athletics at Loyola University, Chicago, where he was a student, being captain of the football team on which he played full-back. The family has been coming to Macatawa for a number of years and Bud, as he was commonly known by his many friends, was very popular at the local resorts.

"Salvation" Theme of 3 Sermons

Rev. J. A. Van Dyke, pastor of the Berean church, 19th street, will deliver the second of a series of three sermons Sunday night in the Holland language. The three sermons are on the general subject of salvation. The first one, delivered last Sunday night, was under the title, "The Need of Salvation." The one of Sunday night will be on "The Way of Salvation," and the third one, to be delivered a week from Sunday night, will be on "The Crown of Salvation." All who understand the Holland language are cordially invited to attend.

A man who has a concession at the Holland fair issued a warning to the merchants of Holland and to people who will be doing business at stands at the fair that there are counterfeiters in this part of the state who are trying to get rid of as much counterfeit money as possible. He believes that the counterfeiters will come to the Holland fair to ply their trade and he is issuing the warning to put people on their guard.

He has just been doing business at the Kalamazoo fair and there a number of people were stung. He himself was touched for ten dollars, a counterfeit ten dollar bill being given him for some small purchase. He advises all to be particularly wary of ten dollar bills and to be somewhat careful as to what kind of paper money they take in. It is reasonable to suppose, he thinks, that the counterfeiters will come here after finishing their work at the Kalamazoo fair.

A surprise party was given in honor of Mr. G. J. VanWieren on his 75th birthday anniversary at the home of his son, Mr. J. Van Wieren of Graafschap. There were about sixty present. An enjoyable evening was spent by all.

The two Holland juveniles arrested for stealing at Pullman have been returned to Lansing Industrial school by Officer Van Anroy.

To Speak at the Fair

Gov. Alex Groesbeck, who has served Michigan for three terms as Chief Executive. He is now asking for his fourth term and will make his plea to the voters of Ottawa and Allegan counties Wednesday afternoon at the Holland fair.

On Wednesday evening, Sept. 1st, at 7:30 P. M. in the G. A. R. room of the city hall, the Ladies Auxiliary of the United Spanish War Veterans wish to invite all members and friends of both organizations. A quilt is to be given away that evening. The quilt was donated by several members of the auxiliary, and will be placed in one of the downtown store windows. The place to be announced later.

The program committee is busy preparing a program and a good time is promised. Refreshments will also be served.

The following is from the Kenosha, Wis. Evening News: "Mrs. William Vollmer, 516 South Sheridan Road, announces the marriage of her daughter Florence to Judson W. Staplekamp, at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church, Lake Forest, Illinois, Saturday, August 21st. Mrs. Staplekamp is well known among the younger set in Kenosha, having attended Kenosha High school and Milwaukee Downer, and has been active in social circles since that time. Mr. Staplekamp is at present practicing law in this city having gained his education at Hope College preparatory school, Hope College, Yale University and his L. L. B. degree from the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Staplekamp is the son of Mrs. E. W. Staplekamp of Holland, Michigan, and he came to Kenosha some twelve months ago. He is however well known in this city and has been very active in civic movements. He is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega and Phi Delta Phi legal fraternities."

SOLDIER BOYS PLEASED WITH RECENT CAMP

Holland's soldier boys here returned from Camp Grayling and the army will again be the scene of their activities this winter. The general impression left by this year's camp is one of goodwill and progress. Better grub, better order and less of roughness made Camp Grayling very attractive and the soldiers all report the best time in years. Outside of one man, Private Elmer Oudemoult, who has a slight infection in his foot, the men returned in perfect physical trim. Records galore were broken and Holland's company took home many commendations as well as trophies.

Arriving at camp and being in perfect order in three hours' time was the first record Company D established. Every day of camp the local soldiers drew the prize for having the best company street in the regiment. The medical detachment under the command of Capt. Westrate of Holland won the honor of being the best drilled medical detachment in camp. Most of the men in this company are from Kalamazoo and they worked hard everyday and deserved the prize.

The local company went into the finals for the indoor championship title. Every year Company D puts out a real outfit on the diamond and 1926 was no exception. Going into the last game with nothing to fear from the opposition, Holland's club wavered long enough to be defeated 12-4. They had eliminated four other teams by big scores but failed in the last set.

The state of Michigan officials gave out many German trophies to the different companies and Holland got a fine share. Three helmets with the names of the men who wore them still on the side band are the best trophies Company D received. Two machine guns, 12 rifles, 2 sabres, 18 bayonets of the saw-tooth type, one grenade thrower and several hand grenades form the rest of the collection. Undoubtedly these will be placed on exhibition in the armory soon.

The men wish to thank the Holland newspapers for the papers received daily and also the other people who helped to make their stay in camp a happy one. Next year it is hoped many more visitors will take the opportunity of looking over the home boys in action.

The dog show at the community fair is attracting considerable attention. It is estimated approximately 150 dogs have been entered.

Mrs. L. M. Ederle has returned from Detroit. She was accompanied by Misses Mae and Evelyn Ederle, of Detroit, who will be her guests here for a week or two.

Are Wedded At Parsonage

Miss Tena Hoekstra and Mr. Henry De Vries, both of Holland, were united in marriage at the parsonage of 14th street, Reform church. Miss Hoekstra is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hoekstra of Fairbanks ave. Mrs. De Vries is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. De Vries of 18th-st. After the ceremony the couple made a trip to Hamilton. They will be at home to their many friends after Sept. 1st at their home on 18th street.

THE ELEPHANTS HAVE ARRIVED FOR THE FAIR

Mr. Race Power and his troop of elephants have arrived in the city and these are herded at the Holland fairgrounds. In the race track oval, under a large tent, the four elephants combined weigh 15 tons and it was found that the large platform in front of the grandstand would not be strong enough to hold them, so they will do their stunts on the race track where everyone can see. The elephants will also be paraded on River avenue and 8th street just before noon Wednesday, Holland day.

The elephants have been shipped from the sesqui-centennial exposition at Philadelphia where they appeared in a large patriotic production called "Freedom," in which there were thousands of participants.

The elephants are owned by Mrs. Jeanette C. Power, wife of the animal trainer, who has had them for at least 25 years. She formerly put on the act but now their son George W. Power is the trainer.

For 18 years this herd of elephants put on a high class vaudeville stunt at the New York hippodrome and the Power outfit is now under contract with the Keith circuit, with the exception of the fair period when the elephants go from place to place, showing at county and state fairs. The elephants will go to the Ohio state fair at Columbus next week, and then to Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Horn and three children of Louisville, Ky., are the house guests for a week of Dr. and Mrs. F. N. Patterson, West 12th St. Mr. Horn was formerly athletic director of the Holland schools and he is now physical director of the Louisville, Ky., male high school.

Most of the Holland merchants will close their places of business tomorrow afternoon, Holland day at the fair. These same stores will also be closed on Thursday afternoon this afternoon Holland day half holiday.

WILL PROTEST PRISON-MADE FURNITURE

Holland Furniture manufacturers as well as the manufacturers of Grand Rapids are represented in a general way in a protest carried to Lansing Tuesday by Francis D. Lampa, for the Grand Rapids Furniture Manufacturers association against the manufacture in the prison of furniture in competition with furniture made in factories, by men being paid wages of workers not prisoners.

"While I represent the Grand Rapids manufacturers particularly," says Mr. Lampa, "I am also representing unofficially, the manufacturers of all of Western Michigan; indeed, of all of Michigan, where furniture manufacture is so dominant an industry. I am also speaking, unofficially, for the thousands of men employed in the factories of Grand Rapids and elsewhere because they are hit by this prison competition just as forcefully as are the manufacturers."

"I shall present to Gov. Groesbeck and the state administrative board the resolution of protest adopted by the Grand Rapids Manufacturers association and shall make a more extended statement of why we consider the competition unfair and a very serious detriment to the furniture industry, which is highly competitive without being forced to meet the competition of cheap prison labor."

In two months of this year the report of Iowa prison shows that it has sold $15,325.41 worth of this furniture and in addition to it for the year ending last June 30, sold $219,217.78 worth of chairs made in the prison factory. The Iowa prison factories also turned out shirts of the value of $78,090.05, and other products of the value of $93,636.16, a total sale of products entering the markets in competition with the products of free labor amounting to $1,206,269.40.

It is the furniture production in which the furniture manufacturers and furniture workers of Michigan are interested and it is in respect to these prison industries that Mr. Campeau will make his protest.

The poultry department at the Holland fair is one of the special features of the show. Secretary Edward Brouwer of the Holland Poultry association, stated Monday the entries by Wednesday would range between 1,500 and 2,000 birds, with about 150 owners exhibiting.

GRAND HAVEN VIS- ITED BY A TERRIFIC THUNDERSTORM

Grand Haven was visited by one of those sudden summer thunder and wind storms at 8:30 Monday morning. Many signs about the city were broken down, trees were uprooted and practically every camper's tent at the state park was leveled.

The Ottawa County weather bureau records a wind velocity of 52 miles lasting 20 minutes. There was a variable sand storm from the big hills into Grand Haven before the rain came down, for after the wind there was a downpour of rain accompanied with lightning and thunder. Although the storm was of short duration, the trees suffered considerably, many being stripped of large branches. While the rain lasted 1.25 inches of rain fell.

Newsboy Runs A Stand at The Holland Fair

William Hoppe, 321 Central Ave., a Sentinel newsboy, has a good head for business. Although he is only 12 years old, he has temporarily become a merchant, with a place of business of his own. Young Hoppe has erected a stand at the Holland fair grounds. He negotiated for the price of the concession, bought his goods himself and arranged the whole thing himself. Since he has a regular news route he did not wish to lose that because of his temporary business venture and he has hired some one else in his place during fair week. Hoppe began business before the fair opened and on Monday he did $11 worth of business. He sleeps nights in his tent stand and he looks out for everything as carefully as would grownups.

The last open air play of the series given by the pupils of the Sunnycrest School for Girls was scheduled to be given tonight at Sunnycrest. Due to the fact however that the principal performer is ill the play has had to be postponed. It is an Indian pageant and promises to be highly interesting. It is hoped to give it next week, the exact date to be announced later. On Saturday night the Sunnycrest girls gave "The Stolen Prince" and "The Dream Maker" at the amphitheatre at Castle Park. A large audience greeted the youthful players and their work was enthusiastically received.

After coming to Holland and speaking at the fair, Governor Alex J. Groesbeck will go to Grand Haven, where he will give a public address in Central Park, and the Elks band is to give a concert before the speech.

Gerrit J. Peters, 74, died Sunday at his home in Overisel, Allegan county. Funeral services will be held Thursday.

BIG BALLOON ASCENSION AT THE HOLLAND FAIR

For many years the fair board has not allowed balloon ascensions during fair week. Certain members of the board, however, have tried hard to stage such events and this year Holland is going to witness two flights because B. Vandenberg, who is one of the members, offered the events free of charge, a gift from the Vandenberg Bros. Oil Co.

The artists who will make the flights ascenders and they have performed at Hamora Park all summer. A double parachute drop will be put on Wednesday but only a single drop will be staged Thursday. The ascensions will start right out in front of the grandstand where everyone can see the whole works. Balloon ascensions are the most interesting of events as they are thrilling, especially the double parachute drop.

From the balloons will be thrown coupons which will entitle the holder to five gallons of gas free at the Vandenberg Bros. stations. This is only an added event which will help make the 1926 fair one of the most interesting and best that Holland has ever witnessed.

Paul Rader, the prominent Chicago evangelist, spoke at the fine Lode conference Monday night. The attendance was the largest that has yet been experienced at the conference and the tent was packed to overflowing. Mr. Rader spoke on the Bible, past, present and future, and outlined the special mission of the Jews.

The program Tuesday was featured by Wynand Wichers, cashier of the First State bank, and Rev. Albertus Pieters, professor-elect of Bible and missiology in Western seminary.

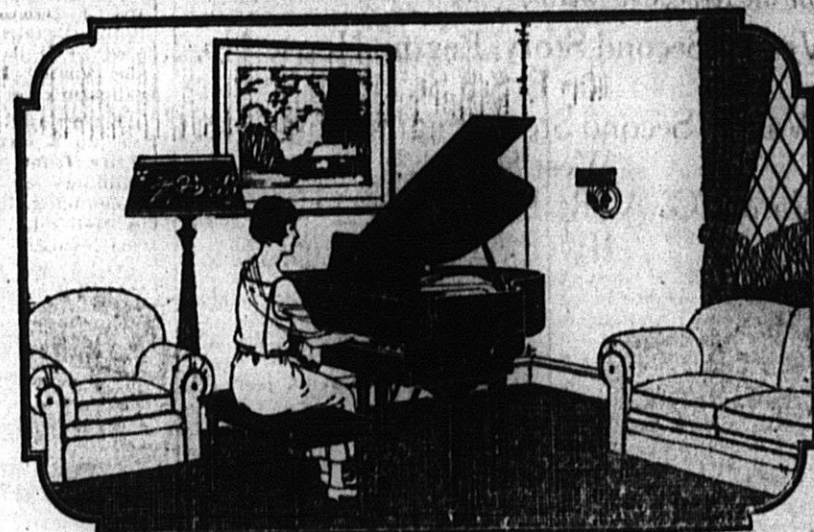

The conference will close next Sunday with Rev. C. H. Spaan of Grand Rapids in charge of the services.

Last winter the Holland story, under the supervision of Sergeant Rowan, was a mighty big place. The next six months will again see this place holding many notable events. The auto show, made-in-Holland week, poultry show, and such exhibitions will be staged again. Also the big court games will take place here, as the crowds can be easily handled and the playing conditions are of the best. Holland high and most probably the Furnace Five, which last year set a record last season, will play their big games on the armory court. There is much talk of reviving the indoor baseball league, with a better distribution of star players so that the race would be much closer. It looks like a big year again for Holland fandom with all teams reporting splendid prospects.

Band concert tonight at Centennial Park.

RURAL BABY CLINIC AT THE HOLLAND FAIR

County nurse Nelle R. Lemmer will stage a rural baby clinic at the Holland fair next week. Miss Lemmer is on her vacation now but she will return to Ottawa county in time for the fair and she made all the arrangements for the clinic before she left. The clinic will be from one to three in the afternoon of Thursday of fair day. Doctors from Holland will be in charge of the clinic to do the examining and Misses Lemmer and Koertge will be on hand to assist the mothers. All rural mothers who wish to have their babies examined are invited to call at the Health Center on the fair grounds where the clinic will be held.

The annual rural baby clinic is popular and each year it brings a large number of mothers to the Health Center with their babies. It is expected that there will again be many this year and arrangements will be made by the county nurse to take care of them. The Health Center will be in full swing again during the entire period of the fair. There will be a first aid to the injured department and there will be room for people who are sick and need attention. The fair is to sit down and to receive treatment from nurses and physicians. Miss Koertge, city nurse will be in charge of this work and she will be assisted by others.

Opportunity will be given at the Health Center for health information for those who desire it. Mothers can bring their babies to have them weighed and the nurses are prepared to talk over the mothers' health problems and to give them advice.

The Health Center officials want to make this feature of the fair as helpful as possible to the general public and the people are cordially invited to take advantage of it at any time during the fair week.

WICHERS LUMBER CO. SAFE ROBBED OF $23

No tangible clues or definite traces have been uncovered as to the identity of the robbers of the Wichers Lumber company safe at Zeeland recently. The loss amounts to about $23 in cash, but the safe lock was knocked off the door and ruined, of course. There was no particular evidence of haste or disorderly get-away. Unless finger print identification later brings the thief to light, there is little evidence to proceed on.

Entrance was gained thru a rear office window, from which the screen was removed and the window forcibly pried up, breaking the sash lock.

The girls of Spring Lake have organized a band. Already twelve of the young ladies have their instruments. Martin Sietema of Ferryburg is the leader of the band. Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Farr, 326 West 12th street, Wednesday, a seven and a quarter pound girl.

In Race for Sheriff

Benj. H. Rosema, of Spring Lake, is the only candidate on the Republican primary ballot for sheriff of Ottawa county. Mr. Rosema was undersheriff in 1925. He will be opposed at the November election by Fred Kamferbeck of Holland, who is the only candidate on the Democratic ticket.
