Council Is Concerned For Public Health

SANITARY CONDITIONS MUST BE IMPROVED IN SOME QUARTERS

Board of Public Works Warehouse and a New Bandstand Shell Matters Discussed.

The common council meeting last evening was a short one, Mayor Bosch hastening the session since the common council had had several sessions before during the week and the mayor felt that this one should not be prolonged.

Health matters seemed to concern the city fathers at this meeting, more so than anything else. Two weeks ago at least a dozen places on River avenue, a business street, found not connected with the sewer, much to the surprise of the city officials and the citizens as well. Previous the citizens to the southwest of the city were found not to be connected as well as a factory building. Now Mr. Vogelzang, chairman of that committee, finds a dozen more on Fairbanks avenue and goodness knows how many more will be found if he looks up other odorous districts.

There was one place that was almost unbelievable and undesirable in print. This got the entire aldermanic board in a huff. Aldermen are supposed to inspect the condition but the mayor stated that that's the work of the city inspector and the health board and they would receive the support of the entire council in this matter.

In these sewer connections there are some on North River avenue near the sewage disposal plant and when the sewer was built it appears that the contractors forgot to put in a main sewer of 200 feet along this property, but went around the rear of other property in the neighborhood. It seems that the owners of these dwellings paid for these sewers but now it is unanimously decided to build a sewer at the rear of these dwellings and connect this main directly with the sewage disposal plant near where these houses are located.

The mayor emphatically stated that these property owners will not be compelled to pay for this sewer, since they had already paid for a sewer that wasn't. This error was made many years ago and came to light just recently. The mayor was right in stating that the taxpayers there should not be penalized and the aldermen unanimously felt the same way. The error must have been made when the sewers were first built in Holland. Alderman Drinkwater is the man who brought up the matter. The city engineer thought the cost would be about $300 to serve six dwellings and 200 feet of pipe would be needed. The expense would be mostly borne by the government.

Alderman Bultman, supported by Alderman Huyser, asked that this trunk sewer on North River avenue be installed.

A communication from Secretary Raymond Knooihuizen, secretary of the American Legion band, asking that their former communication regarding a band shell be given consideration, stated that the present bandstand in Centennial park had filled its purpose and was entirely inadequate. Apparently the aldermen did not know what to do with the project since it was not in any WPA proposals and the material cost would far exceed the labor cost. No one seemed to get enthused about it, largely because they did not know how the thing was to be managed financially and otherwise. The matter sort of filed itself away, as it were. Anyway the American Legion band deserves every consideration and the least we can do for them is give them a shell, for a new bandstand is a shell for the band but the thousands of citizens and resorters who come to hear the concerts in the summer time. As Alderman Kalkman says, "They should not be compelled to beg for it." The News says, "Amen."

The matter of the board of public works site again came up in a communication. It was first suggested to file the communication but Alderman Van Lente got on his feet and asked that action be deferred until the next meeting, Sept. 4. He stated that the relations between the board and the common council have always been most amicable, that the board consisted of men who are thoroughly conversant with its needs and he felt that through courtesy to the board two weeks should be given to confer again and to study the matter more thoroughly. Mayor Bosch stated, stating that he had the greatest confidence in all board members, that this thing should not be hastened and he wished to give it further study.

City Engineer Jacob Zuidema, when questioned on the cost of construction, stated that federal officials had informed him that jobs under the public works administration cost as much or more than private contracts because of the wage scale that must be paid—this relates to buildings of stone and brick.

Alderman Jacob Bultman and Nell De Cook agreed with him, the latter citing recent experiences in which it cost the city more than the grant amount.

City Attorney Elbert Parsons reported that at a recent session of city attorneys of the state, the opinion had been expressed by several that buildings could be constructed more reasonably under private contracts than under federal aid.

One reason for this is that a great deal of expert labor such as bricklayers, must be used, and we have no bricklayers on the welfare, so the city would have to pay for all bricklaying which is a high wage. Much semi-skilled labor also enters into building projects and there are a few of these on the dole list. It is the intent of the government to build these projects with the work of idle men and women.

SPECIAL ELECTION PROPOSALS EXPLAINED

A special election to be held on Monday, Sept. 9, with the purpose of bonding for $23,000 to put over several WPA projects, is fully explained in the election notices on page 3, section 1 of this issue.

The information therein as drafted by City Attorney Parsons and City Clerk Oscar Peterson, is absolutely and legally correct. You will find there just exactly what you are voting for in three proposals, what you are getting, how soon the bonds will have to be paid and who is eligible to vote on these proposals. It is a matter for the taxpayers to vote on, both man and wife can vote, or those single persons who own property of their own. It would be well to turn to page 3 and study the proposals carefully for those are the ones you will have to vote on as passed by the common council at a special meeting.

COUNCIL NOTES

Alderman George Damson opened the meeting with prayer.

Donnelly-Kelly Glass Co. on River avenue, received a permit to spend $600 in building over their office rooms on River avenue.

Alderman Vogelzang asked that the following places on Fairbanks avenue be notified to connect up with the sewer. Nos. 176, 170, 168, 166, 160, 152, 146, 144, 140, 138, 134, 132, were mentioned.

Alderman Damson states that the sidewalk crews are making rapid progress on the jobs that are still to be finished before the crews leave. Holland will be about 100 per cent perfect in sidewalk construction.

The mayor himself was surprised last evening, when he wielded the gavel so hard that the gavel block, made of stone, was split in twain. Even the mayor's forceful arguments are harder than a rock.

The aldermen, at least some of them, went to see the wrestling match to see whether it complied with the rules of the humane society. Kalkman said "It was great fun." Van Zoeren had seen much better fights. Huyser, the bard of the Fifth, simply gave that benevolent smile of his and said nothing. That surely shows no one was killed.

Alderman George Damson is now a real city father. He is passing out the cigars because of the first new baby at his home. There was considerable talk about storks by the members and Art Drinkwater moved that the council congratulate him which was graciously done.

Very welcome news was the message from the treasurer that $45,000 had been taken in by taxes in one week.

Henry Knoll, 174 East Fourth street, asked to come under the compulsory sewer act under the ten-year payment plan.

Inspector Tony Dozema was requested to take action against those who have not complied with the sewer act and made an effort to connect.

Alderman Ben Steffens and Henry Prins were unavoidably absent.

Mayor Bosch doesn't like wrestling. In the discussion that arose over the Masonic temple wrestling he said: "I am not of the wrestling type. I wouldn't go to a wrestling match for $50. I never cared for that sport. Possibly many others do, but that's their business."

Daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Karreman Weds

Miss Pearl Antoinette Karreman, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Anthony Karreman, of Waupun, was married Wednesday afternoon, August 14th, at five-thirty o'clock to Mr. Willis John Van Giesse, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Giesse, of Gary, Indiana.

The ceremony was held in the newly-furnished home of the bride and groom. The bride was escorted by the Rev. and Mrs. Karreman. The bride's maid was the sister of the bride, Miss Jean M. Karreman of Grand Rapids, Michigan, and the best man was the father of the groom, Mr. William Van Giesse. The double-ring ceremony was used. Miss Margaret Mae Karreman was ringbearer. She carried the rings on a small pillow made from the same material as the bride's dress.

The bride was dressed in a delicate peach silk crepe with accessories to match. She carried a bouquet of tea roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The bride's maid wore a pink crepe dress. The ringbearer was dressed in blue silk. The groom was attired in a dark grey oxford suit.

After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the Valparaiso Wayside Inn for the wedding supper. The wedding party included Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Van Giesse, Rev. and Mrs. A. Karreman, Jean and Margaret Mae Karreman, Mrs. and Mrs. Wm. Van Giesse, Mrs. Dina Schroeder, Miss Angeline Van Loggansport, Ind.

The bride and groom received several beautiful gifts. On the following day the bridal couple left for a honeymoon at Central Park, Holland, Mich. They will be at home at 3552 Washington St., Gary, Ind., after August 26, 1935.

The Sarah group of the Ladies' Aid of Trinity Reformed church will hold an ice cream social on the church lawn at 7 p. m. tonight.

Unusual Tour Thru Canadian Northwest

HOLLAND GIRLS TAKE TRIP TO ALASKA BY MOTOR CAR AND BOAT

Miss Lavina Cappon and Miss Dorothy Smith, former teacher in our public schools, have made an unusual trip covering a period of nearly seven weeks.

They started from Holland, crossed some of the western plains into Canada, traveling by motor car through the Canadian north-west which included the beautiful Canadian Rockies. It is a wonderful trip and in their itinerary they struck Medicine Hat, the place where weather is made. As long as we can remember, a big blizzard in the winter always found its origin in Medicine Hat. The truth of this is very problematical. Anyway, when the Holland girls got there the weather was most beautiful.

They also visited the well-known town of Calgary and stopped for a time at Canada's most beautiful resort at Lake Louise in the Jasper National park region where one of the finest hotels in all Canada is located. In this region snow-capped mountains glisten in the sun and glaciers from the arctic region are also to be seen, and the girls saw them, live ones as well as those that are extinct.

After touring one of the most beautiful scenic regions on the western hemisphere, Miss Cappon and Miss Smith motored to Seattle, Washington, parked their car and took the steamer Alutian for Alaska. En route they were privileged to see a school of whales spouting near the Queen Charlotte Islands and saw other unusual ocean freaks and occasionally an iceberg.

This is a beautiful time of the year in America's most northern possessions. Although the sun is short, they are most delightful and flowers and crops are much in evidence as they are here. The Holland folk gained considerable knowledge of the Alaskan regions during their short trip, taking in the interesting highlights of that arctic country. They returned by steamer to Seattle, started their trip homeward again by motor car, went through the famous Yakamaw valley, over the American Rockies, visiting Yellowstone National park, saw its wonders often described, and then came home.

Miss Cappon and Miss Smith occasionally visited Canadian tourist camps, but found these very poor compared to those in America.

A little adventure while at one camp was a bear endeavoring to open the door, but the bears are harmless and inclined to be playful. They saw plenty of mountain goats which are said to be the most sure-footed creatures in existence. These goats are tremendous jumpers but they don't jump from "peak to peak" in the mountain regions, as some would have it.

Upon their return they had traveled nearly 8,000 miles. Both reported a delightful time and at the same time are glad to be back in Holland to spend the remainder of their vacation. Miss Cappon is a teacher in domestic arts in our public schools and Miss Smith has also been an instructor in the local schools.

FORMER HOLLAND BOY NATIONAL EVANGELIST

Rev. James Oostema who has been a preacher and a Bible teacher and an evangelist for more than thirty years, is in the city, and will be at the city mission next Sunday.

Mr. Oostema has traveled widely and his work has taken him to every part of the United States and to much of Canada. He at one time served one of the three large churches in Philadelphia by John Wanamaker. At different times he has been conducting meetings in the larger cities in the United States, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit, St. Louis, Louisville, Indianapolis, Springfield, Peoria, Ill., and Colorado Springs, Colo.

Mr. Oostema spent several winters in Nova Scotia as religious instructor in one of the colleges there. He stated that the northern country was a mighty cold place to be, but he seemed to find the cold better than the natives and it did considerable to rehabilitate his health which for a time was impaired because of strenuous work.

Mr. Oostema was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roelf Oostema who lived on East Ninth street. During his stay here he is stopping with his sister, Jennie Oostema. It will be remembered that Peter Oostema, for many years a grocer here and later a grocer salesman, is a brother James, the evangelist, also was a storekeeper. He was first connected with the old Boston store here, conducted by Moses Yelmestein. Then he took a position with Ardis and Warnock who bought out the clothing business of Yonkman and Dykema, located in the P. S. B. store building some 35 years ago. He then left for Grand Rapids and later for Chicago, as floor manager in a department store.

Then conversion came and he went to Moody's institute in 1902 where he graduated and has since preached the gospel, and as he puts it, "I bring them a live message, thoroughly orthodox, without any side issues."

He stated further that he never

Rokus Kanters and Son were the first licensed plumbers in the city and now with the completion of the water works the Mayor and his sons made the first connection on River St. with the Steketee & Bos grocery. Since this trip was made 8 more River St. merchants have asked for connections. Note: The Steketee & Bos grocery was on the northwest corner of River Ave. and Ninth St. and is now the Huizer Market, moved a little further south. It was at one time conducted by Wm. Van Dyke, who later built a brick structure on the corner for a hardware store which later became a part of the James A. Brouwer Furniture Co. store. The Kanters Hardware Store was located on Eighth St. It is still called the Kanters' Block, now occupied by the K & B Hat Shop and Western Union, Knoll Plumbing.

Three runaways on Main St. on Wednesday made downtown more lively than usual. Note: Those were in the hitching post days — there were several rows of them on the business streets. Then you had to tie your vehicle down to keep it parked. Now you back from stall to stall to avoid that "nice nasty" man who makes chalk marks so gracefully. A hitched wagon now means $1.00 and costs for the library fund. Henry Luidens has it, he says. We fear "handsome Jack" would learn to fly.

Supt. J. K. V. Agnew and Roadmaster Sterling of the Chicago and West Michigan R. R., went over the road this week on an inspection tour. They also stopped off at Holland. Note: It is said that having no name for a little village grown up along the track north of West Olive, the company officials called it Agnew after the general superintendent. Mr. Agnew has passed on many years ago, but the little village bearing his name still stands about the size it was when named 60 years ago — with a few old stations added. Most folks know that the C. & W. M. is now the P. M. The D. L. & N. — Detroit, Lansing and Northern — was also part of the system, but now it is all the Pere Marquette R. R. System and has been for several years.

Five boys ranging from 14 to 18 were gathered in by Marshal Ed Vaupell and C. J. De Roo. They were caught in the act of smashing windows and pulling doors and otherwise damaging the groceries of the Walsh De Roo Milling Co., near the depot. They were taken before Esquire Isaac Fairbanks and he reprimanded them severely and let it go at that. Note: We will not give the names of these thoughtless boys. The fatherly talk by Mr. Fairbanks apparently made good citizens out of them — most have passed away and some have fine families.

Twenty-five Years Ago

Alderman Ed Van Drezer, who has been conducting a restaurant in this city since 1889, has sold his business to John Hoffman, chef on the steamer Nyack. Mr. Van Drezer is one of the best restaurant men in western Michigan and since 1900 he has not had the doors of his place locked either day or night. Note: Your editor remembers when Mr. Van Drezer arrived with his restaurant outfit from Grand Haven, Mich., on the site of the Holland Village Hotel. It was always disputed whether John Kooyers, many years Park Commissioner, or your editor took the first meal in the first real restaurant in Holland. Both were employed at De Groendewit a few doors away. The late alderman had a wonderful partner in Mrs. Anna Van Drezer in her day the finest pastry cook in Holland — both worked early and late to make the small enterprise the success it later became. It was the beginning of the restaurant service in this city. In those days folks took their meals at home. Farmers took a cracker and cheese lunch at a grocery store or the confectionery stores served cookies with coffee or tea. The old City Hotel served dinner only from noon to 1:30, but farmers felt that too "lightened." The restaurant idea grew slowly but surely. Today Holland has not less than 25. Mrs. Van Drezer still lives on East 10th St., across from Hope campus. Mr. Van Drezer passed away some 20 years ago. There are three fine daughters, Mrs. Mae Bush, whose husband is a prominent minister in Detroit; Mrs. Marian De Jong, wife of a Prof. Chris De Jong of Normal University, Illinois, at one time principal of Zeeland High; Miss Maud Van Drezer at home. It is rather a coincidence that all the children and their husbands mentioned in this article are graduates of Hope college.

Three fine spaniels, each worth $10.00; the property of Ben Lieverse, were poisoned. Note: This will forget the fundamental religious teaching he received in the big white church with the large pillars across from his home. That's where his parents worshipped and as a youngster he was taken to this Ninth street church every Sunday regularly.

He will be at the City Mission Sunday.

Miss Joan Nyhoff, teacher in Holland, spent two months traveling through the northwestern states including British Columbia and Alberta, Canada. Among many other places she visited Yellowstone National park, Glacier park and Waterton lakes.

John Van Tatenhove, Jr., is visiting at Yellowstone National park.

was 25 years later but we bet it "burned Ben up."

Prof. and Mrs. Egbert Winter of Spring Lake are entertaining twins, the second pair the stork has left beneath their roof. They are girls, but the first pair were boys. Note: Dr. Winter is now and has been for some time an able member of the faculty of Hope college. Twins seem to run in the Winter family. Dr. G. W. Winter, noted surgeon, on Eleventh Street, can also boast of twins, born about that time.

The two pairs of twins are as follows: the sons, Hartger and Garrett, and the daughters, Eleanor Jean and Elizabeth Jane. The sons of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Winter are John K. and William G. Rather unusual, these twins are all graduates from Hope.

H. Kragth of Noordeloos fell from a beam in his barn Saturday while threshing, striking on the concrete floor 30 feet below. When picked up he was unconscious. He was internally injured and four ribs were found broken.

A snorting automobile passing through East Saugatuck Sunday frightened the team of J. Keen and the horses jumped across ditches, breaking wheels of the buggy and tipping out the daughter of Mr. Keen. The folks were going to church. The buggy was smashed. The correspondent berates Sunday driving of the automobile generally.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Alice Keppel and P. Theodore Moordyk of Zeeland, August 17. Note: Ted was at one time employed by the Lokker Rungers Clothing Co., and was the son of a minister. He later managed both Ted and Ed Store of Zeeland. Both were students at Hope college.

While playing in a tree near Zeeland Claude Gunn, the boy who rescued Miss Jennie De Jong from drowning a few days ago, fell from the tree and broke his right arm.

Fifteen Years Ago Today

Deputy Sheriffs Bert Homkes and Lew Bouwman were disgusted officers. About 10 days ago they received a hurry call from Hotel Ottawa at the beach. When arriving about $1,500 in diamonds had been stolen from their rooms. The deputies called the maid "on the carpet" and found that she had loaned and was wearing the sparklers and was showing off to the maids of other families at the hotel. No sooner was this mystery cleaned up than a second jewelry family reported to the hotel management that $2,500 in diamonds was missing. The two deputies hastened back to the hotel and found the jewels missing. Note: This popular hotel burned some 11 years ago. It seemed to be the diamond center of the resort district. The large veranda around the place was simply alive and glittering with them. Those were the "good old days."

Mr. John Telling and Mr. August Heuer of the Holland Shoe Co., purchased the beautiful site on Black Lake west of Montello Park and these gentlemen will build two beautiful homes there. Note: The Telling family living in the east building and the Heuer home was later purchased by J. A. Vander Veen who resides there with Mrs. Vander Veen. The Heuer family have left Holland several years ago.

From a long list of prizes given at Cardeau Beach, where the Capenters and Joiners held their picnic, we pick a few of the winners — space forbids to publishing of the whole article of a column: Girls' running race: Wykhuizen, Karreman, Jewellers, 1st, breastpin, Katherine De Weerd; 2nd, book; 3rd, Fris Book Store, Delia Holder; 3rd, Motto, Gummer's Photo Shop, Gertrude Boersma. Clothespin race for married women: 1st, vase, De Vries & Dornbos, Henrietta Oonk; $2.50 prize on French Cloak, Mrs. F. J. Trimpse. Potato race for girls, 6 to 10 years: 1st, deck of Flich, A. Peters 5-10c Store, Harriet Oonk; 2nd, game of Lotto, A. Peters, Christina Gebben; 3rd, burnt wood box, A. Peters, Evelyn Van Dyk.

A millionaire by the name of Felt bought the Bennett Bros. farm and will build a beautiful summer home and show place near Gibson. He will build a stone road from the West Michigan Pike to his place on Lake Michigan. Note: It was and is still beautiful, but the man who built it has passed away. At one time the owner reared a herd of deer on the place. These are now a part of those roaming Allegan county along the Kalamazoo river. Today the herd number nearly a hundred and are protected by state law. The West Michigan pike is now US-31.

MISS DEPREE RETURNS FROM EUROPEAN TRIP

Miss Dorothy DePree of Louisville, Ky., has just arrived in Holland from New York City. Miss DePree has been touring Europe, taking in the places of interest there. She is the daughter of the late Dr. Henry E. DePree, pastor and teacher here thirty years ago, but before his death on the faculty of the Presbyterian seminary at Louisville.

Mrs. L. Padnos and Mrs. H. Vining's division of the American Legion auxiliary, will hold a baked goods sale in the Modern Hat Shop, 28 East Eighth street, on Saturday of this week.

Legion Band Turns Out With Best Uniforms

GET FOURTH PLACE IN CHICAGOALD MUSIC FESTIVAL; 80,000 IN AUDIENCE

The Holland American Legion band, 46 strong, made their great visit to Chicago and have returned and are glad they made the trip. Although they did not pull down first honors they were successful in getting fourth place in class A, but they felt that their experience and the advertising they gave Holland was well worth the price—and the News thinks so, too.

The local band was uniformly better than any band in the entire line-up, and there surely were a great many bands and drum corps, not including the song fest from different choruses, one being a colored men's and women's chorus with more than 1000 members. Radio reception was had in Holland that evening because of the electric storms and the Tribune station did not come in as good as usual. The Tribune of Chicago sponsored the Chicagoal Music Festival.

The Holland aggregation had a regular picnic, leaving on the Greyhound late Friday afternoon, arriving there at 9 o'clock. They were taken directly to the Lawson V. M. C. A., a fine headquarters. It was a 16-story building with 650 rooms, each provided with a radio and telephone.

That evening the members were given the privilege of seeing the Chicago loop district and in the morning at 8 o'clock they rehearsed in the Y. M. C. A. ballroom. After the rehearsal they were taken to the Lakeshore Athletic club where the contest was held at 10 o'clock. There were five bands in this building and several were holding contests in other buildings.

Holland had the keenest competition it has ever run up against. After the contest reports came in as follows: Winners: Cedar Falls Iowa band, first place, 105.16-2-3; St. Mary's Training School band, Chicago, second, 102.33 1-3; Froebel school band, Gary, Ind., third, 97.16 2-3; Holland American Legion band, fourth, 93.50.

The Holland band went to Soldiers' field at 7:30 that evening and the entire arena was a sea of mud. The sight at Soldiers' field simply dazzling with electric lights, was an inspiring sight. It so thrilled the Holland boys and the members of other organizations that they forgot all about the mud underfoot and trudged on in the grand parade that was one of the spectacles.

The large mass band with thousands of musicians played together "Liberty Bell March" and the "Stars and Stripes Forever." Grobel's band of 280 pieces played for all the Soldiers' field activities, including the chorus singing.

The singing of Negro spirituals by a mixed chorus of colored folk, accompanied by this large band, was a thrill not soon to be forgotten.

The program included soloists, vocalists' choruses, and cornet trio. About 300 children dressed in green and orange and carrying umbrellas of white and orange gave the dance of the daisies which was excellent.

The winning band from Cedar Falls, Iowa, is an organization that has been playing for forty years and has won three different times at the Chicago music fest.

St. Mary's holding second place this year, won first place last year. Other large bands to win in their respective classes are as follows: Class B, Cudahy American Legion band, first; class C, Wurlitzer band, Chicago, first; class D, Boone County Farm band, Belvidere, first. Racine, Wis., won first in class A drum corps, and the Polish National of Cicero took honors in class B.

Director Eugene Heeter said: "I am proud of the boys. They met with tough competition, in fact, they were never pitted against stronger aggregations. I consider it a splendid experience, not only for them but for myself."

Secretary Raymond Knooihuizen stated that the whole trip was worth while and that the boys left Holland with high hopes and that in order to advertise the city, two large banners had been painted and placed on each side of the Greyhound, advertising the city of Holland and its band.

President Harold Karsten said: "The Legion band has made quite a record in prize winning. We can't always win but we found a place near the top and that is gratifying when you consider the company you had to compete against. The experience derived has been worth the efforts given. Holland's band deserves the praise of its citizens."

The judges of the contest in the class in which Holland took a part were Evert McCracken, who is director of the Baylor university band of Waco, Texas; Carl Christensen of the State College of Brookings, South Dakota; and Peter Michelsen of State Teachers' college of Stevens Point, Wis.

As the grand finale to this great musical festival, a tremendous pyrotechnic exhibition rung down the curtain on one of the most successful music festivals ever held in the city of Chicago.

A letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. John Breen of 245 West Fifteenth street, today, which gave details concerning the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Smith, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Breen. The child was born in London on Aug. 8, and a cable telling of the birth was received here on that day. The letter states that the daughter, weighing 6 1/2 pounds has been named Alyce Jean. Both mother and daughter are doing well. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are both missionaries in the Sudan, being stationed at Khartoum. Mrs. Breen expects to return to Africa in October. Mr. Smith is at the Lupwe station.

MISSIONARIES ARRIVE IN AFRICA

Word has been received here that Miss Jennie Stielstra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Stielstra, Lakeview boulevard, and Miss Bertha Zagers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Zagers of Muskegon arrived in Makurdi, Africa, on Friday, July 5. They were met by Mr. Edgar H. Smith, husband of Nelle Breen Smith, and Miss Cora E. Haigh. The young ladies sailed from New York on May 20, after spending their first furlough in this vicinity. They also filled numerous speaking engagements while on furlough.

The young ladies began their work immediately upon arrival, Miss Stielstra in the Lupwe Mission boarding school, and Miss Zagers as medical missionary.

Mrs. Smith is spending a short furlough in London.

LOCAL MEN TO BE BUSINESS ADVISERS

Arthur W. Wrieden and Marvin C. Lindeman, well-known industrial men of Holland for a great many years, have launched into a new enterprise. They render marketing and merchandising counsel and give such helpful advice which will be of unusual benefit to mercantile and industrial customers. Both men are well known in Holland and have been enterprising citizens, always carrying their share of the civic load, in helpful work or financially.

Mr. Lindeman has been the head of the Lindeman Agency and was formerly in charge of advertising at the Charles Karr Co. of this city. Mr. Wrieden, formerly with the Holland Furnace company, was more recently manager of the Warm Air Furnace Industry institute.

They will continue their activities with the latter organization which is comprised of furnace manufacturers throughout the country. Their offices are on the second floor of the Warm Friend Tavern. The firm has already built up a sizeable clientele, not alone at home but abroad. The local men are putting the enterprise on a broad plane which means business not only in Michigan, but in other states of the Union. Thus far their efforts have brought gratifying results far beyond their expectations.

He also built the beautiful home for his family and brick stables for his horses and carriages, on Twelfth and Central avenue, where the Knickerbocker club of Hope college is now located. That was Holland's first hospital of any account and Mrs. Kremers, after her husband's death, contributed liberally to the establishment of that hospital. When it became inadequate, the fine hospital on a conservatory attached to the board of public works, was substituted. The beginning, however, was a boon to the general public in those days.

Telephone Co. Helps In Law Enforcements

Bell Telephone Gets Out Police Directory of the Entire State, Holland Included

The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. is aiding materially in law enforcement in this state. Through the local manager, Gene Ripley, the Holland City News has received a police telephone directory, a pocket edition. It is a handy, simple affair with all the ranking officers listed.

In Holland the name of Frank Van Ry is boldly printed, Chief of Police, his office phone is 3141, residence 2668. In Grand Haven, Chief of Police is Lawrence De Witt, office phone 48, residence 534. Lawrence is a former Holland man. Sheriffs of the state are listed under counties in Ottawa, it is Benjamin H. Rosema, office and residence No. 18, Grand Haven. In Allegan under the county, Fred Miller is sheriff. He resides at Allegan and his phone number is 14.

Listed under cities, Allegan still has a marshal, Oscar Lemon by name. His office number is 56 and residence 449. And so on the directory goes in a thirty-two page booklet with additional spaces in the back to put in new chiefs, sheriffs, etc., with all directions how to reach them by phone or by wire.

In the middle of the book are the long distance telephone rates to these places all over the state during the daytime and the reductions during certain periods at night. All the State Police are also listed and how they can be found. The directory surely is a ready reference for any person or official can find any or every head officer or officers in the state in their respective cities. The State Police are listed separately as are the sheriffs, chiefs of police and marshals.

Every public place, in fact, every business place should have one of these books for any emergency.

In a circular letter, Mr. Ripley says in part as follows: "Michigan law enforcement officers are being supplied with copies of the fourth edition of the Police Telephone Directory by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company. The book contains the names, and residence and office telephone numbers of peace officers throughout the state and is designed primarily as a telephone reference list for their use in getting in touch with each other quickly, day or night, either at nearby or distant points. It is being distributed free to those state, county and municipal police officials listed in the book."

"The first section of the directory lists the location, commander in charge and telephone number of all state police detachments. The second contains an alphabetical list of Michigan's 83 counties, the names of the sheriffs, and their home and office telephone numbers. Next are listed, alphabetically, the more important Michigan cities and villages, with the names of the police chiefs and their residence and office telephone numbers."

DOINGS OF REGULAR POLICE BOARD MEETING

The police board in regular session decided to discontinue the special officer at Kollen's park on Monday, Sept. 9, a week after Labor Day, and on the day of the opening of school.

The common council request that the police board to keep the "city fathers" informed as to liquor violations. The communication was filed away. Holland's police radio system will also be inspected by the state police mechanic.

Fire truck drivers in the fire department and police officers can have a vacation if they give up their half day each week to cover the vacation. When this time has been made up the half day will continue. The police department does not intend to be nigardly with the boys, however, as Chairman Brower pointed out the special police fund for the summer was already drawn and vacations without a comeback of some kind would cost the police board $350 extra. The appropriation for summer policing was placed in the budget at $1,000—thus far $1,136 have been used. Chief Van Ry and Chief Blom were instructed to allow men to have their vacations on the "make-up time" basis.

Chairman Brower reports that he hoped to have the WPA project of repairing the fire engine houses in the Second and First wards in and submitted by the end of this week.

Poor visibility to motorists at street corners where tall bushes and shrubbery grow, will be given attention, the matter being referred to the park board and chief of police. The officials feel these are dangerous to traffic.

At least 500 feet of new hose was purchased by Chief Blom, who reports the equipment is A No. 1.

John P. Luidens, former chairman of the board, who has been ill for the last four months, still cannot be present at police board meetings.

MUSKEGON-OTTAWA INDIAN 100 YEARS OLD

Muskegon county has an old Indian by the name of Joe from the Ottawa Indian tribe who was 100 years old Thursday.

Coggswell, as he is known, says the first 100 years are the hardest. From now on he can play around a little.

Joe speaks reasonably good English, evidence of three years training in government school in Oceana county where he resided at one time. He was born Aug. 15, 1835, on the banks of the Grand River in Kent county. His father, Mitchell Coggswell, was a French half breed, and his mother a full blooded Ottawa.

At the age of three, Joe was brought by his parents to Muskegon where he grew to young manhood. He left home when he was 28 years old, and roamed where he could find a living. At one time he resided in Hart, attending the government school for Indians. He advanced as far as the third grade, and then pulled up stakes and wandered about until he arrived at Muskegon again.

He has relatives scattered throughout the midwest. A daughter, Martha Keshaway, is living in Eagle River, Wis. His son, Henry, was last heard from in Milwaukee, and he has another daughter, Mrs. Mary Topp, in Muskegon.

Joe has his application in for an old age pension, but he doesn't "know when I'll get it."

THE MOSLEM WORLD A QUARTER CENTURY OLD

The Holland City News is in possession of a copy of "The Moslem World" of July, containing more than 100 pages, beautifully colored illustrations with an Egyptian smock, and the embellishments, Egyptian all the way through, as this relates to figures and drawings strictly Egyptian. Ornaments from Egypt colorfully made is an art by itself and you can't mistake these. The one in the July issue of "The Moslem World" is striking in that way.

Dr. Samuel M. Zwemer, the editor, writes the first story under the title "A Chinese Arab Amulet." Dr. John E. Kuizenga of Princeton, N. J., now at Central Park, Holland, contributes to the magazine and his subject is "The Heart of the Matter." John Van Ees, a missionary to Arabia, who spoke at the graduating exercises of the Hope college seniors and delivered several lectures in the local churches in June, contributes "Our Message and Our Goal." Egyptian writers as well as prominent American and foreign writers, contribute to the July issue.

Those interested in a publication from a country that was always bound up with mystery, a country semi-barbaric and semi-enlightened with strange, fascinating arts in stone, can get considerable information from "The Moslem World." Mr. Zwemer is still working diligently as editor of this publication.

BOY, TWO YEARS OLD, SUFFERS FRACTURED SKULL IN FALL TUESDAY

The condition of the child is reported to be favorable. Treatment is being given to Lee at the home. The father is an engineer employed by the federal government at this port.

DEPEND ON NEW FUNDS FOR HOLLAND WELFARE

Unless the people of Holland approve the $23,000 bond issue Sept. 9 to be applied on WPA projects, the city will have 290 families on direct relief next year, since the FERA folds up tomorrow.

Figures in the county welfare office show this number now working under the FERA.

The proposed WPA projects dependent on the bond issue will bring in $158,000 in wages on the basis of 300 employable persons and $44 per month for unskilled labor. Skilled and semiskilled laborers will receive higher wages.

CARL MAPES MUCH LOVED MAN IN WASHINGTON

Aug. 14, 1935.

Dear Ben:

We, two of my boys and I, have just returned from a trip which included a couple of days in Washington. This was my first visit to Washington, and was much interested in many things I saw and heard. One item I think both you and all of our readers will be interested in. It relates to our congressman, Carl Mapes. I saw, and talked with no less than 20 congressmen, both representatives and senators; most of them were Democrats. Everyone had a fine word for Carl Mapes. Without exception, he is denominated the most popular man in congress today. Congressman Reed of Pennsylvania, enthusiastically stated that he believes Mapes is the biggest man in Washington. Speaker Burnes told me that "Mapes is one of the finest men in congress."

Almost every man in congress tries to make speeches; they all appreciate it when a quiet and modest man like Mapes comes forward; a man who knows what he is talking about; makes a full and fair statement of the exact facts; accords to every man a fair consideration of his opinion, and makes no attempt at grandstand. I believe that Mr. Mapes can get what he wants as well, or better than any other Republican, and better than most of the Democrats in congress today. He knows how, and he doesn't antagonize.

You may be interested in knowing my impressions of how the South feels toward the New Deal. If so, I may make a statement next week.

It is a real contribution to literature. Although sometimes technical the matter contained therein is fascinating and is an avenue of research for those inclined to study and receive information as this relates to missionary work among the Mohammedans. Mr. Zwemer stated that up to this time the publication has been nearly self-sustaining, but it is time that all help to support this enterprise. Not a few have contributed in Holland in the way of subscriptions and otherwise and Dr. Sam Zwemer would be greatly pleased to receive subscriptions or contributions to this work. "The Moslem World" address is 156 Fifth avenue, New York City, New York.

A publication of this character is entitled to the support of everyone. Mr. Zwemer is one of our native sons and his influence, covering a period of years, as an editor and from the rostrum, has been an uplifting factor and has had a stabilizing influence among the Christian nations.

POLIOMYELITIS SITUATION

It is impossible to predict that an outbreak of poliomyelitis will occur this year, but indications are that it is on the increase although the incidence is not above normal for Ottawa county and vicinity, but certain parts of the state and country are having as high an incidence as in 1931.

There is no known specific treatment. Convalescent serum, which is blood serum from cases who have had the disease, can be used early, but results have not been encouraging although there is no danger connected with the giving of the serum. Since there is no other measure and since there is still some question as to its value, an attempt is being made to have it available. A large amount of serum needs to be used for each case, making it difficult to obtain sufficient serum. Blood is being collected by the health department and is being sent to Lansing for preparation.

STYLE SHOW AT Waukazoo SEEN BY AT LEAST 300

The fashion show at Waukazoo Inn last Saturday, which included dinner and dancing given under the auspices of the inn, attracted at least 300 people. Not alone was there good music and impersonations of the great Caruso, and timely harvest and summer songs by the guests and the leaders of the song fest, but also fine dance music and a general good time with the outstanding feature being the style show in which the latest modes of fall and winter were presented to a very interested and intelligent audience, well-versed in the style of the day.

They pronounced the Jeanne Shop and the Kruisenga Vogue Shop, both of Holland, as putting on a review as unique, tasty and colorful as they had seen for some time, in a fall garment and headgear, showing. Most of the models were from the elite of the larger cities already mentioned in last week's issue of the News.

With the exception of the Misses Mathieu, who resort at Ottawa Beach, and Miss Barbara Telling, whose home is in Holland, all the models were resorters in Waukazoo.

August 25, 1935
BARNABAS

(Acts 4:35, 37; 11:19-30)

Henry Geertlings.

Barnabas was one of the men who made the early church great. In olden times a man's name was not only a means of identification. It was a description. They changed this man's name from Joseph to Barnabas, which means cheering helpfulness. Whenever people thought of Barnabas they said, "There's a man I would go to for help if I were in trouble." He was a well-to-do gentleman of Cyprus. This city at that time was famous for its wines, wheat, oil, figs and honey.

Barnabas became such an enthusiastic Christian that he sold out his interests and donated the proceeds to the apostles. He looked upon his wealth as a trust fund, to be administered, according to the will of God. He evidently retired from business to devote his whole time to the Christian movement, a splendid idea for modern retired business men.

Later, when the scene had changed from Jerusalem to Antioch, he figured again in the story. The Christian message had an immediate and immense success in Antioch. This city was the third in the empire. Beautifully situated on the river Arontes, it was wealthy, luxurious and very wicked. In this rich and sinful city the evangelists found a field white for the harvest. Around the Jewish community, noted for its moral superiority, there had gathered a large fringe of Gentile adherents, called Grecians to distinguish them from the other Gentiles who had no connection at all with Judaism. Some of the newly arrived Christians, who had lived among foreigners and liked them, had no scruples about mixing with Gentiles. As a result they won many converts.

When the news came to Jerusalem, the leaders of the church were greatly disturbed. They were not sure that these people ought to be encouraged to come into the church. Some had the inspired good sense to suggest that they send Barnabas to investigate. When he came to Antioch he was open-minded enough to see the good in proceedings which were nothing short of revolutionary. He believed in these new Christians who had never submitted to a Jewish rite. His open-mindedness was the foundation of the great missionary ventures of the early church. It was from Antioch that the first missionaries were sent out.

Barnabas was convinced that Antioch was very soon to hold the key to the whole Christian position. Jerusalem, the metropolitan city was set in its ways, narrow in its outlook. Here in Antioch was freedom from the dead hand of tradition and racial prejudice. Here also was problems which needed both grace and intelligence. Barnabas believed that no one in Jerusalem could handle the situation better than himself, but he also believed that it demanded someone who could handle it better than he could. He remembered that young man, Saul, now at home in Tarsus. He would go for him. Here was not only discernment, but an amazing selflessness. He must have known that, working with a man of Paul's youth and training and spectacular gifts, he himself would undoubtedly have to take second place, perhaps be displaced altogether.

Barnabas began life as a business man. When he decided to go into the church, his business training stood him in good stead. He recognized, of course, that the prosperity of a church is gained by principles and methods differing in some ways from those which win success in business. He knew that the church's prosperity is first of all a spiritual prosperity. When it becomes wealthy spiritually, it will not need to worry about the material means for carrying on its work.

Barnabas recognized also that, like a family, the well-being of one section of the church is bound up with the well-being of the other. When news came that a great depression was likely to continue in Judea for some time, he and Saul organized a relief committee. That expression of the family relation, that spirit of love and brotherhood which separated the new church in Antioch from the old church in Jerusalem.

This consecrated man of means, a converted business man, in quiet self-effacing ways, made possible the early victories of the Christian movement.

A bank owes its existence to the stockholders and depositors who organize and maintain its facilities. The service of the bank is available to the entire community and may be used by anyone. But there are certain rightful privileges which may properly be afforded to depositors in preference to non-depositors.

This is especially true of loans. A depositor has made himself known to the bank. He has cooperated to make this service possible. In the spirit of the old saying that "turn about is fair play," the bank naturally tries to be as accommodating as possible to its regular depositors.

STATE'S TAX DRIVE
PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

Michigan's thousands of home owners, responding to the state's appeal to "pay back taxes and save your homes," are rushing to redeem their properties before Sept. 1, deadline for payment of taxes for 1932 and prior years without interest or penalties. Payments of delinquent taxes throughout the state are twice as heavy as they were a year ago, according to Gus T. Hartman, deputy auditor general.

"Fifty-five counties show payments totaling $688,314 for the week ending August 10," Hartman reports. "In the same period last year, these counties collected only $296,451. The money is rolling in faster every day."

"Actual tax payments do not tell the real story," he said. "While a majority of property owners are paying back taxes in full, many are taking advantage of the Moore-Holbeck plan, which permits payment of taxes for 1932 and prior years over a period of 10 years without penalty. More than $4,000,000 in delinquencies have been put back in the paying column under this plan in the first half of this month and the rush has just begun. This means that small home owners are taking advantage of the easy payment plan and redeeming properties which have long threatened with sale by the auditor general."

County treasurers all over Michigan report they have their forces working nights and Sundays to keep up with the rush. Many of them have issued appeals to the public to make payments to avoid long waits in line by paying at the offices.

George Felt of the Felt estate at Gibson has been spending a few days on a fishing trip with friends near Isle Royale. This beautiful spot has been purchased by the government as a national park.

OTTAWA COUNTY FARM NOTES; PEACH GROWERS NOW WORRY ABOUT CROPS

By L. R. Arnold

(County Farm Agent)

The annual trip to Michigan State college by Ottawa 4-H members for competition in judging crops occurred Aug. 16-17. One load of boys was transported by Merton Henry of Marne, another by Frederick Wolf of Robinson township. Eleven boys competed in judging. Two days were spent by the youngsters in receiving preliminary training and in actual judging. Two days were spent by the youngsters in receiving preliminary training and in actual judging. Results will not be available until about August 22. Ottawa leaders are optimistic over prospects of sending a team to Detroit state fair.

In addition to the boys who made the trip for judging two additional loads of children were taken to the college and state capital on a sight-seeing tour. L. R. Arnold, agricultural agent, took one load, and Miss Evelyn Boyer, Zeeland, transported another group. This trip was given as a reward to the members for their fine work. The forenoon was spent in visiting various departments of the college. Lunch was eaten on the college picnic grounds. In the afternoon a lengthy visit to the state capital was made. En route home the groups were taken to the Ionia fair and state reformatory.

Two demonstration teams also competed at Lansing. One team, Lawrence Redder, Hudsonville, and Miss Evelyn Boyer, Zeeland, presented a sugar beet demonstration. Otto Pino, agricultural instructor of Zeeland, accompanied the team. A handicraft team consisted of Howard Irish and Nick Van Wyngaerden both of Coopersville. Lawrence Bruggers and John P. Miller of Coopersville, made the trip also to compete in wood identification.

The county agricultural agent, L. R. Arnold, is now perfecting plans to offer a free trip to Lansing for all Ottawa 4-H members who have participated in the past year program. Details will be given out later.

Housewives of Michigan are looking forward to peach harvest time with hopes that peaches will be plentiful. Orchards are hanging heavy with this delicious fruit, but this fruit has not been harvested yet and possibly may not be harvested, warns L. R. Arnold, county agricultural agent.

Berrien county has a prospective two million bushel harvest, the largest in history. Ottawa county has some five orchards which will give heavy harvests providing everything goes right. The most critical period for peach growers is approaching, and such growers do not know yet what the harvest will be.

This year has been a trying one for the farmers. A late wet spring endangered the corn crop. Indeed the crop is still in great danger. Small grain growers have had trouble due to weather conditions. Now comes the peach growers' time for worry. Brown rot is reported in Berrien the greatest peach growing county of the state. This disease hits just about harvest time. It can ruin the whole crop in a very short time.

The peach grower has a large investment in the crop. In most cases he has several years of labor with other attendant costs with possibly no crop harvested at all. Now a crop is in prospect, but without further steps all may be lost. If the weather comes off hot and muggy at picking time the danger of brown rot is intensified. Right now ideal conditions exist for an outbreak of the disease.

No poison is necessary in checking the brown rot. Dusting or spraying must be resorted to. If growers dust, sulphur should be used. If growers spray a dry mix of some of the wettable sulphurs at the manufacturers' recommended strength should be used. Information on this treatment is given in the 1935 spray bulletin which may be obtained from the county agricultural agent. The application must be put on at least 10 days before picking time to get results.

Peaches from Illinois have shown up on the Benton Harbor market affected with the rot. In such cases the peaches had to be sorted over. Prices on these peaches dropped from $1.75 to 75 cents. Any rot in the crop will make both the buyers and consumers suspicious of the entire volume. The grower will find himself holding an almost worthless product.

COMMON COUNCIL

Holland, Mich., August 7, 1935.

The Common Council met in regular session and was called to order by the Mayor.

Present: Mayor Bosch, Ald. Prins, Vande Lunde, Drinkwater, Kalkman, Van Zoeren, De Cook, Steffens, Damsen, Huyser, Bultman, Van Lente, Vogelzang and the Clerk.

Devotions by Ald. Steffens. Minutes read and approved.

The Mayor ordered the regular order of business suspended, stating that he had a message for the Council which he asked the City Attorney to read. In brief, the Mayor's message outlines his activities along the line of securing W. P. A. projects for the City of Holland. He stated that he had met with the various boards in the city to discuss certain projects, and as a result of these meetings, he was presenting them to the Council tonight. He further stated that the recommendations which he was making were not for projects that could be considered speculative or fantastical, but something that would be of lasting benefit to the city without impairing its financial condition. These projects would also provide a large amount of labor without very much material cost.

The Mayor recommended an airport project, stating that this would be an asset to the city of Holland and it would also provide a large amount of common labor; also the construction of a hangar could be built largely from material from the former Ottawa furniture factory.

The second project that he recommended in his message is the playground project. In this project the Mayor stated he was not recommending a swimming pool, but the balance of the project as presented by the Playground Commission was recommended.

He further recommended projects that the Park and Cemetery Board could present. These, also, consist largely of labor. The message also recommends street and culvert improvement projects that the Street Commissioner and City Engineer may present at a later date. He further stated that he was making these recommendations since he felt that the Council should adopt a program of governmental projects under the W. P. A. that would give employment.

Mayor suggested that the project that he had outlined be considered separately.

It was moved by Ald. Steffens, seconded by De Cook, that the recommendation for an airport project be approved.

The Mayor then called upon Mr. Connelly, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, for a report on the airport project. In making his report, Mr. Connelly stated that a joint meeting had recently been held with Col. Floyd Evans of the State Board of Aeronautics, together with a committee consisting of aldermen from the Council, and members of the Chamber of Commerce. At this meeting, held on Saturday, August 3, 1935, several sites for an airport were looked over which met with the approval of Col. Evans and the committee. Mr. Connelly further stated that he had been assured by Col. Evans that an amount up to $25,000 would be available for the development of this project. This includes construction of a hangar, a wind direction indicator, a concrete field circle, boundary markers and two diagonal runways 800 feet in width and 2,000 feet in length. He further stated that he had been assured by Col. Evans that if the city furnished the site together with salvaged material from the old Ottawa furniture factory that no further cash outlay would be required on the part of the city to qualify for the project.

The Mayor also called upon Mr. Charles A. French of the Holland Sentinel for his views in regard to the airport project. In brief, Mr. French stated that he was of the opinion that an airport was very essential to any growing community in these modern times; that he was very much pleased with the Mayor's message recommending the project and was heartily in favor of it.

Mayor also called upon Ben Mulder of the Holland City News. Mr. Mulder also stated that he felt the city should take advantage of this opportunity and develop an airport for the city of Holland.

In the discussion that followed, Ald. Bultman asked if any particular site had been selected. He also wanted to know if the property now owned by the city on East 16th street or the present social airport north of the city could not be improved and developed into a suitable landing field.

In answer to this the Mayor stated that Col. Evans had stated that neither one of these properties was suitable and acceptable to the state.

Mayor Bosch then went on to explain to the Council that the action that they take now is only tentative and a preliminary step which would authorize the Ways and Means committee and the Mayor to go ahead and make application for the project. He further stated that if it were found that the city would be obliged to furnish funds which were not available, it would be necessary to present the matter to the people for their acceptance or rejection. City Atty. Parsons also informed the Council that the city in its last appropriation bill had raised as much money as it is permitted under the charter. If it were found necessary to raise more funds as the city's share in participating in these projects, such funds would have to be voted by the people.

The vote on the airport project prevailed 11 to 1, Ald. Bultman voting nay.

The Mayor then called upon Mr. Richard Van Kollen, member of the Park and Cemetery board, who outlined to the Council projects which he had proposed in the development of the parks and cemetery. He stated that in outlining these proposed projects, the park board had taken into consideration all desirable improvements and it was possible that in making the applications some of them could be omitted. The development suggested for Lakeview Park was grading, covering with black dirt, seeding, and putting in a sprinkling system; also sheet piling along the bank of the river. Estimated cost of this project is $1,482 for material and $1,500 for labor. They also proposed to do considerable work in Prospect Park. This, however, was more labor at an estimated cost of $415.

They also proposed to fix up and beautify the so-called triangle on 22nd street where the present voting booth is located. Estimated cost of this was $250 for material and $860 for labor.

They also proposed to put in sheet piling at the foot of the dump on West 12th street; such sheet piling to extend from Kollen Park across to the present sheet piling on the sugar beet dump. Estimated cost of this improvement was $3,200 for material and $4,500 for labor.

The Board further proposed to clean up the former fairgrounds property now known as "Fairlaw" cemetery; also some improvements to Pilgrim Home cemetery. This project was practically all labor since it involved the moving of concrete and dirt. The labor cost of this project was estimated at $5,280.

On motion of Ald. Steffens, seconded by Van Lente, several projects as proposed by the Park and Cemetery board were approved unanimously.

Mayor then called upon Ald. Van Zoeren to outline the proposed playground project. Mr. Van Zoeren stated that it was his understanding that the Michigan Board of Public Works had been approved $100,000,000 for playground projects, and he felt that the city of Holland should take advantage of this opportunity to secure a playground project for Holland.

Mr. Van Zoeren stated that the project as proposed eliminated the swimming pool; further, that the estimated cost for material in constructing the playground at 21st street and Pine avenue was $10,903 for materials and $14,682 for labor.

The proposed project at River-view Park had an estimated amount for materials of $3,142 and for labor $4,080. Mr. Van Zoeren further stated that they estimated they could salvage material from the old Ottawa furniture factory building amounting to approximately $4,000. This would leave approximately $10,000 for materials and $18,711 for labor. He further stated that their estimate as to the amount that the city would have to furnish of these materials would run between $4,000 and $5,000.

On motion of Ald. Van Zoeren, seconded by De Cook, playground project was unanimously approved.

Mayor Bosch then stated that in addition to these three projects that had just been approved, he was recommending the paving of streets providing property owners are agreeable. However, since the participation of the government in this paving was not entirely clear, they were making further investigation as to just how such projects would work out.

On motion of Ald. Bultman, seconded by Van Zoeren, Street Committee and City Engineer instructed to look into this matter and find out just what the government will do in approving paving projects.

Mayor then called on Mr. James De Young, chairman of the Board of Public Works. Mr. James De Young, in addressing the Council, stated that the Board is very much in need of a new warehouse and also grounds for a coal yard and where poles and other materials can be placed. He further stated that their present office space in the City Hall is very crowded and if a warehouse were built, they could move their meter-testing department into the new warehouse and thereby make more office space in the City Hall.

Mr. De Young stated that the project of a warehouse would cost the taxpayers nothing since the Board had cash on hand to pay its share; further, that the estimated cost of the project is around $65,000, and if this amount the Government will furnish a direct grant of 45 per cent.

In this connection Clerk stated that he had communication from the Board of Public Works relative to the purchase of a suitable site for the warehouse. Mayor Bosch, however, stated that this could be taken up in the regular order of business and inasmuch as the Council had considerable more work to do, he ordered a recess for five minutes in order that they might relax and then go on with the balance of the regular work that was before them. After recess the matter of a warehouse for the Board of Public Works and the selection of a site was again discussed. The Clerk presented a communication requesting the Council for permission to take a 60-day option on Lots 1 to 6, block 25, located on 6th street between College and Columbia avenues, now owned by the Kleyn estate. The request being made on the assumption that the P. W. A. will furnish 45 per cent of the money needed for this project. The committee further states that this option will be closed only when the grant is approved. The property in question is for sale at a price of $14,250.00.

Ald. Van Lente questioned the price and stated that it was his understanding that this property had previously been offered for $12,000. In answer to this Mr. De Young stated that it was true they had offered some of their property for $12,000. However, they did not care to dispose of only part of the property and wanted to sell their entire holdings, which is considerably more than they had previously offered to sell.

It was brought out in the discussion that followed that there is a frontage of approximately 777 feet on 6th street. It was the opinion of Ald. De Cook that the city already had sufficient property and it was not necessary to purchase more property for a site for a warehouse.

Ald. Huyser also questioned if the city was desirous of purchasing more property than they already had.

Mr. De Young stated that they were willing to build a warehouse on any suitable site. However, in looking over the various sites, it was the opinion of the Board that the Kleyn property was the most desirable of any in the city. He stated that the price may seem a little high. However, it was just what the Board needs and he felt that it should be purchased and the warehouse constructed on this site.

Mr. De Young stated that they had previously made an attempt to construct a warehouse in the swamp. However, it was determined after starting this project, that the cost of foundations was excessive and it would be cheaper in the long run to secure a good piece of ground on which to build a warehouse.

Ald. Kalkman stated that he felt that the Board of Public Works had made a thorough investigation and he was in favor of abiding by their decision.

On motion of Ald. Drinkwater, seconded by Kalkman.

Resolved, That the recommendation of the Board be adopted.

After some further discussion, a substitute motion was offered by Ald. Vande Lunde, seconded by Prins, that the matter be tabled for two weeks.

This motion was lost by a vote of 8 to 4.

The Mayor then put the original motion of Ald. Drinkwater to a vote that the recommendation of the Board be adopted.

This motion also lost by a vote of 8 to 4.

Before resuming the regular order of business, Ald. Van Zoeren stated that he felt that since the Council had now approved of several of these projects it should be someone's business to see that they are carried out to a successful conclusion.

Mr. Van Zoeren, therefore, recommended that the Mayor be designated as chairman of the various Boards of Committees to see that these projects are actually presented for the approval of the Government.

On motion of Ald. Van Zoeren, seconded by Van Lente, adopted.

The Council then resumed the regular order of business.

He informed that fishermen go as deep as 950 feet in the lake and the largest catch which his company has made is 42,000 pounds of fish off Grand Haven. Holland, Aug. 14, 1935.

To the Editor of the Allegan Gazette:

My two boys and I have just returned from a trip, which included two days in Washington. It was my first visit to Washington and I heard and saw many things interesting to me. One item that I believe will be of interest to you and perhaps to many of your readers relates to our congressman from the fourth district. While visiting in the capitol, the congressman from the fifth district, Carl Mapes, introduced us to a number of the leading members, both Democrats and Republicans, of whom we read so much in the papers. I took occasion to inquire always as to the impression Mr. Hoffman is making in congress. In every instance I had the immediate reply that he is one of the keenest men and one of the best legal minds in congress. No one questions either his patriotism or his courage. Mr. Mapes told me that he is making a real impression even in a Democratic congress.

It is my opinion that if he remains in congress another term he will be a real leader of both thought and action.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

If you had planned to have Baked Ham for Sunday dinner, it would be well to change to poultry or lamb. Fresh and cured pork continues to rise in price; broiling or frying chickens are moderate; lamb is of excellent quality and also moderately priced. There are many good values in fresh vegetables. Corn, peas, lettuce, tomatoes, and egg-plant are low priced. Fine cauliflower and green lima beans are coming to market. Points of exceptional quality are selling at the lowest price in many weeks.

Many fruits tempt the appetite and are needless grapes and red Malaga, Bartlett pears, oranges, bananas and peaches. There are cantaloupe, honeydews, honeyballs, Persian and Casaba melons—it is difficult to make a choice.

Eggs, butter, and cheese prices remain about the same. Fish is to be had in great variety at attractive prices. Following are three Sunday dinner menus at different budget levels. Planned to use seasonable foods.

Insect Army Moves
Into Beet Fields

The appetites of Michigan insects appears to be entirely out of control this year; and, as a final course to their banquet they have attacked sugar beet fields which formerly have been immune from serious insect pests.

Climbing cutworms and army worms are the offenders on the beet crop. Fields in Eaton, Ingham and Bay counties have been badly damaged by these worms which have migrated from spring grain fields which have been harvested. Ottawa and Allegan counties up to now have not suffered materially. The only control method which promises control is the use of poison bran bait.

In sections where the worms have not already entered the beet fields, a furrow plowed around the outside of the field will act as a barrier and the poison bait can be applied in the bottom of the furrow. More bait should be scattered at the edge of the field or on areas within where worms are already working.

Poison bait for cut worms is prepared by mixing one bushel of bran, one-half gallon molasses, one pound of white arsenic and enough water to moisten the mixture. A little banana oil is added to the bait to make it more attractive. One pound of paris green can be used instead of the white arsenic. Neither arsenate of lead nor calcium arsenate can be used in poison bran bait. The bait should be scattered thinly on the ground, 20 pounds will treat an acre.

ESCANABA CREW NOW
USING RIFLE RANGE

Squads from the coast guard cutter Escanaba are being given two weeks' target practice at the Ferryburg range, under command of Lieut. Rufus Mroczkowski.

During the firing a flag will be flown so that anyone in the vicinity may be warned. Practice will be in light arms. The range has recently been improved so that there is no danger from stray bullets; nevertheless, the flag is being shown as a warning.

OTTAWA COUNTY NEWS

The sloop yacht Valley Camp left Macatawa Lake on its cruise around the world. The 20-foot boat hails from Cleveland, Ohio. She is the smallest boat ever to make this attempt. Capt. Lodge expects to take three years for the cruise and the "purses" will amount to $52,000 if he makes it. The last three mariners who attempted it were lost. His route is Chicago, through the canal, Illinois and Mississippi rivers to New Orleans, next Cuba, Mexico, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Panama, along the west coast of Alaska, across to Russia, Japan, China, India, Suez Canal, up the coast to Italy, France, Spain, England, Shetland Islands, Iceland, Greenland, Labrador, Nova Scotia to New York, Hudson river and Erie canal to Lake Erie again. He expects to make a port every night but can easily stay awake for 48 hours or more he says. The boat is an old life-boat and he has cabined and decked it for the worst storms. Later he will put in an engine. The trip will mean not less than 40,000 miles.

ALLEGAN COUNTY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Koning, who have been living at Nazareth Academy, near Kalamazoo, for the past year and a half, have completed their work there and have taken the LaDick house of the Clifford Paine Farms, near Fennville, for the present. Mr. Koning was for several years at Lakewood Farm, Holland.

Returning to Allegan this week from his vacation in the East, Father Callahan found his new church growing almost as rapidly as he could have hoped and he promptly expressed his satisfaction. "The rains and the excessive heat," he said, "have of course delayed the work that we expected but we will be ready to use the church Sept. 1. I am quite sure and that is only two weeks behind the original prediction." Father Callahan had a great vacation. The first thing he did was deliver to Miss Margaret Coleman of Cambridge, Mass., the sum of $500 instead of an automobile that was given her at the Fourth of July celebration in Allegan. He found Miss Coleman the oldest member of a family of nine and the only one working. She needed money and she got it. Our priest spent a

CHILDREN WILL LIKE THEIR
MILK WITH FLAVORSChocolate, Fruit Juices and Spices
Make Tempting Drinks

Children whose appetites for milk must be encouraged in hot weather often are more than glad to drink the needed daily amount if simple flavors are added.

The most common milk drink is chocolate milk. A supply of the chocolate syrup can be made and then used as needed. Twelve pounds of sugar are mixed thoroughly with one pound of cocoa, one-half pound cornstarch, two teaspoonfuls cream of tartar, and a dash of ground cinnamon. This is boiled for a few minutes in a gallon of water, cooled and three ounces of vanilla are added. One ounce of the syrup is added to seven ounces of milk.

One and one-half pounds of chocolate may be used instead of the cocoa. The cocoa settles out of the drink quicker than chocolate but is readily remixed by shaking. Smaller amounts of syrup can be made by using proportionately smaller amounts of each ingredient. Jams, marmalades or fruit juices make fine flavors for milk. Two or three teaspoonfuls to the glass are usually enough but the amount can be varied to suit individual tastes. Grape, raspberry, blackberry, pineapple and cherry are popular flavors.

Spiced milk is easy to prepare. Add a teaspoonful of sugar and a dash each of powdered cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg to a glass of hot milk. The mixture is beaten smooth and served hot.

Children who beg for carbonated drinks can be coaxed into the milk drinking clan by adding a portion of a carbonated beverage to milk. The carbon dioxide gives the milk a snap which children like.

Miss Marie Garesche, St. Louis artist, who has spent many summers in her cottage on the Douglas lake shore, has built a beautiful studio in the ravine on the edge of which her cottage stands, to which she has given the appropriate name of "Ravinedge." She is showing a great variety of subjects—portraits, landscapes and flowers, done in a variety of mediums—oil, pastel and etching. There are many interesting scenes done in Europe—Greece, Italy, Sicily, France and Belgium. One etching, "A Street in Siena," received the first award in an exhibition last winter in St. Petersburg, Fla. Miss Garesche is vice president of the Clearwater (Fla.) Art Club and will return to Florida this winter.

Michigan is a Very Good Fishing State

With 445,608 resident fishing licenses sold in Michigan in 1934, the state stood second among the 48, led only by New York, which sells a combination fishing and hunting license to resident sportsmen for one fee. New York sold 463,320, according to records of the United States Bureau of Fisheries, Washington, D. C.

Minnesota, with a strictly resident fishing license, sold 377,811, and Indiana, with 340,330, was fourth, but has a combined hunting and fishing license law. Of states using a resident fishing license exclusively, Michigan was in the lead and was also ahead in sales of non-resident fishing licenses. During 1934 there were 24,238 non-resident fishing licenses and 45,959 special 10-day non-resident licenses sold, in addition to 22,475 licenses to wives of non-resident fishermen, which are offered at a reduced fee, bringing the grand total of all types of sport-fishing licenses to 338,100.

In total revenue Michigan was sixth; New York, with a fee of $2.25, led all states with receipts of $942,625.27; Pennsylvania was second with returns of $409,427. Michigan, where the resident fee is 50 cents, realized $320,161.50, according to incomplete returns. In the United States, during the 1933-34 period, 4,855,945 anglers licenses were sold for total revenue of $6,886,810.18.

The Lampen family held their fifth annual reunion at Lawrence Street City park last week, Wednesday afternoon, and evening, August 7. About 125 relatives from Saginaw, Hamilton, Oronoco, Holland, Grand Rapids, Zeeland, and neighboring places were in attendance. They are descendants of Mr. Harm Lampen who migrated from Germany many years ago. He had fourteen children, most of whom reside in this vicinity. Officers chosen for next year are G. J. Lampen of Overisel, president; Harry A. Lampen of Overisel, vice president; Mrs. L. De Kraker of Zeeland, secretary; and Harry Boerman, treasurer. Mrs. Harry A. Lampen of Overisel will be in charge of the program, Miss Barbara Lampen of Holland of sports, and Joe Lampen is chairman of canteen committees. Games were enjoyed and prizes awarded to winners in contests.

Mrs. A. R. DeWeerd and son, Raymond and Louis Van Hemert, of 172 East Fourteenth street, left early this morning for Waupun, Wis. They plan to spend a week there visiting friends.

A Gay Party

AN INFORMAL tea is the simplest way to entertain a large group of people. Once the invitations are in the mail, or the guests invited by telephone, it is well to plan an attractive menu, order the supplies, budget the time and work involved, line up assistants and await the day with calm. Prepare as much of the food as possible the day or morning before the tea, and keep someone in the kitchen to refill tea pots and restock sandwich and cake plates during the serving hours. The serving table, the focal point of interest, should be a decorative and graceful invitation to a cup of tea, so cover the table with a gleaming damask or soft lace cloth. Place a bowl of wood violets and lilies-of-the-valley in the center with pale lavender candles in low holders on either side. Then arrange these dainty dishes on the table so they balance one another attractively. This tea party will be the social success of the season:

(*) Indicates recipes given below

Bouchés (makes 4 doz. small ones)—Add ¼ cup butter and ¼ teaspoon salt to 1 cup boiling water and bring quickly again to rapidly boiling point. Add, all at once, 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, and stir vigorously over heat for 4 to 5 minutes, or until mixture becomes transparent. Cool to lukewarm. Add 4 eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after addition of each. Drop by heaping teaspoonfuls onto a slightly greased baking sheet and bake in a hot oven (400° F.) for about 40 minutes or until dry and firm to the touch. Cool and either cut a small hole in top or cut slit in side of each to fill centers with one of the following:

1. Cream Cheese and Horseradish Filling—Combine 1 package cream cheese, 6 chopped Stuffed Spanish Olives and ¼ teaspoon Evaporated Horseradish soaked in ¼ tablespoon cold water for 10 minutes. Blend thoroughly.

2. Cheese, Olive and Ham Filling—Combine 1 package cream cheese, 6 chopped Stuffed Spanish Olives and 2 tablespoons Smithfield deviled ham. Blend thoroughly.

Note: If filling is put in from top, press a Stuffed Spanish Olive half way down in center. If filling is put in the side, insert a pickle fan, made from a Sweet Gherkin, or 3 slices of a Stuffed Spanish Olive half way into opening.

Infold Sandwiches—Have an equal number of slices of white and brown bread. Shape into squares or rounds, then with a smaller cutter of any desired shape, cut the centers from half the slices. Brown and white. Spread the uncut slices with Sandwich Spread or other sandwich filling. Cover with a cut out slice of opposite color, and in the center place the small center of other color.

Marble Wafers (makes 4 doz. wafers)—Sift ¾ cups sifted pastry flour twice with ¼ teaspoon salt. Mix 1 cup sugar, ¼ cup melted butter, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla, flour and soda, and 1 cup Rice Flakes, measured then crushed. Blend thoroughly after addition of each ingredient. Divide dough into halves. Melt ¼ oz. bitter chocolate over hot water, then blend with 2 tablespoons sugar and mix thoroughly with ¼ of dough. Pack light and dark dough alternately by heaping tablespoonfuls in a long, narrow pan that has been lined with waxed paper, so dough is about 2 inches deep. If pan is broader than desired, pack dough lengthwise in only ¼ of the width of the pan, pulling waxed paper up over sides to hold dough in position. Chill from 4 to 6 hours or until very firm. Slice very thin and place on cookie sheet. Bake in a hot oven (425° F.) for 5 minutes. Remove from sheet at once and cool. Note: Cookies should be about 2 inches square before being baked.

Fig and Nut Bars—Cream 3 tablespoons butter, add 1½ cups sugar and cream together. Add 3 eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after addition of each. Sift together, 1½ cups sifted pastry flour, ¼ teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon baking powder and add alternately to butter mixture with ¼ cup milk. Add 1 cup cut-up figs or dates, ¼ cup Mince Meat and 3 cup broken nut meats, and mix well. Pour into shallow greased pan, the bottom of which is lined with waxed paper. Bake in a slow oven (350° F.) for 25 to 30 minutes. Remove from pan, sprinkle with powdered sugar and cut into finger lengths.

The Symbol of an Ideal

The history of American industry affords no example of lasting success that came by chance. Instead, it shows that enduring institutions are products of an honest policy applied intelligently and faithfully over a period of years.

The vital place which the telephone occupies in modern life did not result from accident. It was won—and is held—by supplying the public with a service of genuine and steadily increasing value.

To better that value is the abiding principle of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company's policy. Even during the recent years of sharply reduced revenues, years in which all values were subjected to bitter tests, this company did not relax in its obligation to achieve further improvements in its service.

As a direct result of this policy, the people of Michigan are receiving a higher grade telephone service than ever before. This statement is not made lightly. The improvement is revealed by carefully compiled records of daily performance. They show a greater speed and accuracy in handling local calls; a continued decrease in "out-of-order" reports; more prompt repair service; and a greater proportion of out-of-town messages completed while the subscriber holds the line.

These records, though undramatic in themselves, are important as mile-stones of progress toward complete satisfaction for the users of this vital public service. The improvements they signify were not won by chance—they did not "just happen."

They were achieved by this company's rigid adherence to a policy having as its basic ideal the best possible service for the least possible cost that will maintain the present standards and assure the improvements of the future.
