Eleven Drivers Are Caught In Zeeland

HOLLAND MOTORISTS VIOLATE ZEELAND'S SPEED LAWS

Holland has been well represented in Zeeland police court when it comes to violating traffic laws. Here is a list of those who paid fines in justice court there lately:

Ted Wendell, Holland, $3.75, speeding.
Calvin Potts, Holland, $3, for crowded driver's seat.
John Seine, Holland, $3, disregarding signal.
H. Kraft, Holland, $3, disregarding signal.
Lavinia Cappon, Holland, $3, disregarding signal.
W. Plummer, Holland, $10, for speeding.
Dick Hamburg, Holland, $10, for speeding.
Henry Weaver, Holland, $3, disregarding signal.
Ray Boss, Holland, $10, speeding.
Albert Ver Beek, Holland, $3, disregarding signal.
H. Knoll, Holland, $3, disregarding signal.

Zeeland also has a few as the following list would indicate:

Peter Plets, Zeeland, $3, parking without lights.
F. De Young, Zeeland, $3, disregarding signal.
Cor. Riersema, Zeeland, $3, disregarding signal.
Cornelius Smith, Zeeland, $3, disregarding signal.
J. Fyneveer, Zeeland, $3, disregarding signal.
John Kraal, Zeeland, $3, disregarding signal.
George Moeks, Zeeland, $3, parking on sidewalk.
Gus Winterhalder, Zeeland, $3, disregarding signal.
Henry Wierma, Zeeland, $3, disregarding signal.
A. B. Sneller, Zeeland, $3, disregarding signal.
John Berghorst, Zeeland, $3, disregarding signal.

With few exceptions all the teachers have been engaged for the rural and village schools of Ottawa county. Fifty per cent of the teachers in the rural districts will be new while those in the village schools will be virtually the same as last year. Number of teachers listed is 213 and number of schools 133. Gerrit G. Groenewoud, commissioner of schools, announces schools are ready for the opening of the new school year. New buildings have been erected at Montello Park, Beechwood, Ferrysburg and East Holland. The school in district No. 8, Spring Lake township, has been remodeled. The total amount expended approximates $250,000.

G. J. Diekema was in Lansing on official business.

YOU CAN ASK QUESTIONS

of HOLLAND CITY STATE BANK employees about banking practices, or of our officers about money and investment matters, and be sure—always—that your inquiry will be treated courteously and helpfully.

We have always thought that a reputation for hospitality was worth guarding no less carefully than money—and the safety of this strong pioneer bank is well-known throughout this section of Michigan.

DON'T FORGET

Don't forget that next Tuesday is a very important day. It is primary day in Michigan, Ottawa county and Holland.

The Republicans and Democrats elect their county and state tickets and while the Democrats are not very excited since there is but one candidate for each office, the Republicans, especially around this county, are having a merry scrap, although it is clean and above board.

It is useless to give the names of the candidates here since these have been published with pictures for the past two months and appear in this issue for the last time.

The all important thing is, whether a Republican or Democrat, whether you live in Holland or in the township, come out and vote next Tuesday. It is your duty as an American citizen.

TRINITY CHURCH IS TO BE BEAUTIFIED

The interior of Trinity church, Central Ave. and 20th St., is being improved considerably in appearance by the erection of a new background for the pulpit. The design was drawn by Architect Harvey Weemhoff of Grand Rapids. The work will be completed before Sunday. The interior of the church will soon be redecorated and then the full beauty of the work will be seen.

Paul Rader, who was scheduled to speak at the Lake Harbor Conference grounds this week was forced to cancel his engagement there on account of being called to Washington to protect the rights of his Sunday radio broadcasting. Mr. Gerald Winrod, a forceful and talented speaker, who was at Lake Harbor last week, will take Mr. Rader's place, speaking during the remaining days of this week.

Rev. Frock of Kent City will have charge of all services in the First Orthodox Baptist church Sunday.

Hope Man Again Heads Zeeland School

ZEELAND SCHOOLS HAVE 900 PUPILS

The Zeeland public schools and the school for Christian instruction will open on Tuesday with a combined attendance of some nine hundred pupils. The public schools attendance is estimated to be near 675 with some 200 of these attending the high school department, the remaining 450 being in the grades.

The number of public school instructors numbers twenty-eight, including the superintendent. Prof. Chris A. De Jonge of Hope College will again be superintendent and M. B. Rogers principal, while Miss Sena Telgenhof continues as secretary and Mrs. Fairbanks as librarian. The remainder of the personnel is nearly the same as last year.

The Zeeland Christian School will open its doors on Tuesday and the following teachers have been engaged: Miss Althebra Brat, kindergarten; Miss Nella Breen, grades 1 and 2; Miss Bertha Nienhuis, grades 2 and 3; Mrs. R. Nies, grades 4 and 5; Miss Josie Heeren, grades 5 and 6; Mr. Edw. Wezemander, grades 6 and 7; Mr. J. Arens, grade 8 and principal.

Tribute Is Paid To Co. D Holland Guards

CAPTAIN GEERDS OVERCOME WHEN LOVING CUP IS PRESENTED

Badger Trophy is Given Place of Honor in Banquet Decorations

In spite of the downpour of rain that lasted for several hours three hundred men and women of Holland and vicinity attended the banquet given at the armory honoring Company D, 128th Infantry of the Michigan National Guards, who came back from Grayling under a much sought-after treasure, namely the Badger trophy, which honor carries with it the name that they are the best military company in the State of Michigan.

The copper shield occupied a place of honor, over the speaker's table, and naturally was the main feature in the decorations where the national colors predominated.

Hon. G. J. Diekema of Holland was toastmaster and he enumerated why Holland was on the map. He says Holland was first recognized as a race horse town with Boone's McKinley winning races right and left in all circuits. It became nationally known when Neil Ball gave Holland a ball team that brought fame beyond Michigan's border. It is now known the world over because of its famous, its San-Tex, its War M Friend Tavern, its wonderful system of schools and its Hope College.

Its fame will now be augmented by the meritorious work done by Company D during the past year. This was made possible by one of Holland's real leaders, namely Captain Heinie Geerds. He is a great organizer and how he whipped a company of dutchmen in line is still difficult to conjecture for these Hollanders hate to take orders (laughter and applause). But Heinie knew how and he and his staff received the full cooperation, the love and respect of the men under them.

Company D have not only honored themselves but they have greatly honored Holland, he said. Mr. Diekema next introduced General John H. Schouten, of Grand Rapids, who many years ago was a Holland boy, but has grown gray in the service in behalf of his country. Mr. Schouten gave Mr. Geerds and Co. D full credit for the remarkable showing made and advised them to be right on their toes next year or one of the other eighty companies might cop off the prize.

Mr. Schouten pointed out that the nation was clear behind in military defense while under the constitution it is entitled to 500,000 man power, it has but 180,000. He stated that the National Guard has proved a great bulwark for Uncle Sam's national defense policy and it was because of this preparedness that all National Guard companies made such a wonderful showing during the World War.

Captain William Wilds, Ottawa county's clerk, made a hit when he said that the next best company of the state, Company F, of Grand Haven, delegated him to bring greetings to Company D, of Holland, the best company in the state. His remarks brought cheers from the audience.

Congressman Carl E. Mapes, although not on the program, stated that he had known Capt. Geerds and the rest of the boys for some time and he was impressed with the manly lot of soldiers of high character that are represented in Co. D and that it was no wonder that the Badger trophy was handed to one of the smaller cities by a group of unbiased judges, who judged on merit alone.

Judge Orien S. Cross made a great hit and was given an ovation when he paid tribute to G. J. Diekema as a lawyer and as a man. He said that Holland should change its slogan from the Wood-En Shoe town to the Banquet city. He stated that it is a wonderful citizenry that will give flowers to the living rather than to the dead. He pointed out that Holland had honored Mr. Diekema a few years ago as its leading citizen. It had not been unmindful of the great work of Mr. George Getz, and now Company D had brought honor to the city and Holland was not slow in recognizing it, paying tribute to this company and through this demonstration, encouraging it to even greater things.

Holland gives credit where credit is due, whether it be man or woman, or groups of men or women. Mr. Cross said. It is a fine spirit in this community that should be emulated in other communities. It is a merited recognition, he stated. Toastmaster Diekema then introduced Mayor Brooks as a man young in years but old in head with a noble heart. Mr. Brooks then told of the organization of Co. D shortly after the war, that he personally really discouraged Captain Geerds, for Holland folks were not thinking in terms of military companies after that terrible bloodshed. He said that Mr. Geerds insisted that young men should be equipped to go into future battles and his plans were so conclusive and he was so insistent that the company was organized, and this same spirit of persistence also brought the new armory in which it was possible to bring Co. D up to the high standard which eventually brought them the much cherished treasure, the Badger trophy.

He then presented Mr. Geerds with a beautiful loving cup, and through it Holland wishes to show its appreciation to Mr. Geerds and his men. Captain Geerds, when he accepted the token, was nearly overcome and it was fully two

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY.....

Early on Monday, August 24, a frost was noticed on the sidewalks of this city.

Geo. W. McBride, Esq., Republican, of Grand Haven, will go in joint debate on the political questions of the day with Mr. Richardson of Jamestown, a Democrat. The debate is to be held at Zeeland Thursday and a large crowd from Holland and Grand Haven are promised to be on hand at the village. The village marshal is adding a deputy or two to the force.

John Albers of Holland has an orchard of peach trees bearing fruit 10 inches in circumference. They are Crawford and were shipped to Chicago market by the local fruit man, G. A. Koning.

Holland school census is 913 as follows: First ward, 275; second ward, 131; third ward, 352; fourth ward, 155.

The True Dutch Reformed Church of Zeeland is building a new edifice of brick and stone which will be an ornament to the town.

Geerlings and Co. are building a flour mill at Hamilton.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY.....

Pennville, the trotting horse of J. H. Nibbelink and Sons, won the free-for-all at Allegan. The best mile on heavy track was 2:19.

The ninety-five purchasers of lots in the McBride addition sold by B. L. Scott and John Raven, the auctioneer, gathered in De Grandt Hall for the drawing. In trembling anticipation they awaited as to who would be the lucky four to draw house and lots according to agreement before the sale. The lucky ones were Bert Michmershuizen, Fritz Jonkman, Arle Boven and Miss Alice Foster.

The painters and decorators of Holland have formed a Union and elected the following officers: President, Frank L. Robinson; Vice President, Geo. McCormick; Financial Secretary, Isaac Ryzenga; Warden, Edward DeKraaker; Conductor, Martin Dekker; Preceptor, Bide Purchase; Trustees, John Visser, John Westhoek, C. E. Yeskes. The Union has 23 members.

HOLLAND FAIR NOTES

Mrs. Ralph Voss of Hamilton, was presented with a fifty Chevy sedan by the officials of the Community Fair association, the presentation being made by President Austin Harrington.

The little turrets on the wall, rather the fence, at the fair grounds, stood in good stead and the watchman picked off a fence climber who was found to have nearly a hundred dollars in his pocket. When brought to the gate he relieved his conscience and bought a ticket. The turrets at least have proven to be a good scare for the few who attempt to climb over but now resort to digging under.

Mrs. Charlie Kirchen of Holland is intensely interested in fancy horses and is an exceptionally able equestrian, winning many honors in the sixth annual horse show, as is noticed elsewhere in this issue. Carter Brown of Castle Park, William Eaton of Waukazoo, were also well represented as winners.

The state fish exhibit from the conservation department failed to show at the fair because of some misunderstanding as to the cost of putting it on. A demand was made of $500 which the management of the fair could not afford to pay for one exhibit. It is understood that the exhibition will be put on next year providing the Holland Fair Association will pay the expense of bringing it here, when will be more reasonable.

Governor Fred Green was to fly to Holland on Thursday, Governor's Day, however, the inclement weather prevented this since Mr. Green had only an open plane available and Holland surely would not ask him to risk his health in attempting a flight under those conditions.

The Gold Brick, lost, strayed and stolen out of Holland's main street was found and exhibited in the Art Hall as Exhibit A. Mayor Ernest C. Brooks, played guard at each corner of the cherished treasure.

One of the interesting features of the fair was the grand cavalcade in front of the grand stand when all the fancy horses, nearly 100 of them, from the horse show, and from the exhibits were paraded on the race track. Blooded stock from the cattle barns were also shown, including "Bull Durham" from the State Exhibit. The boys and girls in the different calf clubs were also represented with young veals, proudly leading their prize winners, when it was possible to lead them.

The special attractions at the Holland Fair were of exceptional merit, the outstanding feature was the spectacular one of auto polo. "Red hot lizzys" were climbing each others frames, took nose dives and tail spins in order to get the big ball either to one goal or another.

Rev. John M. Vander Meulen accepted call as pastor of Hope Church and also position on Hope College faculty.

Miss Lena DeHaan and Gerrit W. Kooyers of Holland were wed. Rev. G. A. Dubbink performing the ceremony. The happy couple were married in the large parlor where the bay window was tastefully decorated with flowers and potted plants, palms and ferns. At least 150 guests were present to witness the event. Miss Lena Dykhuys played the wedding march and the flower girls were the Misses Minnie Rinck, Margaret Dalman and Mildred Kooyers. Mr. Kooyers is one of Holland's leading attorneys and one of the firm of Marsjelle and Kooyers. His bride is the daughter of Mrs. Libbie DeHaan.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY.....

The News devotes a column to the fact that Arnold Mulder, editor of the Sentinel, has written the book "The Dominion of Harlem" and that the McClurg Co. of Chicago has published it and that the story is in great demand.

Chief Blom was getting his first statistics as to cost and upkeep of an auto fire truck.

Miss Alma Soloth, while bathing at Jensen Park, was nearly drowned when she ventured out too far. Rev. Anthony Kareman quickly came to her aid with a row boat and grasped the little girl as she again appeared on the surface and brought her safely to shore.

John Van Tatenhove, salesman at Bokers Clothing Store, was surprised to receive a check for $5.00 from the Poreskint Underwear Co. The company awarded him the money for putting up the third best show window display of that firm's goods. There were many competing windows in other parts of the country and John never expected to receive a prize, in fact had forgotten about the window trim made early in the spring.

Mrs. Wm. J. Scott, mother of Dr. J. Peston Scott, died at Jensen Park at the age of 77 years. After September 1, milk in Holland will be 7 cents a quart instead of 6 cents.

Mrs. G. Schaffenaar, West 8th Street, died at the age of 74 years.

At every presentation at least one and sometimes two machines were put out of commission, running on the rim was only a minor incident.

Alderman Bill Vandenberg of the Third Ward proved an able announcer at the Holland Fair. His utterances were plainly audible and he should be substituted for the regular.

Secretary Vande Bunte has proved to be a peach, quiet, unassuming but filling the job of secretary to the letter. There is little doubt but that he will be named again to fill that office in December.

The faithful president, Austin Harrington, with a big cane, was found right at the outer gate where he has stood for years with a welcome ready for all fair patrons. "Cap" resurpects that cane once a year, during fair week. It is now back with the moth balls until next August.

Ben Brower, custodian of the strong box, says nothing, rain or shine, but faithfully guards the gate receipts and knows where every penny goes.

Ted of Ted & Ed of Zeeland, John Kooiker and Bill Vandenberg of Holland put in a separate berth for the grand stand this year and it worked out fine. Mr. Kooiker and committee stood responsible for the revenues of the grand stand, and consequently the management of it.

Jake Lokker and committee were responsible for the clean appearance of the fair grounds when the exhibition opened on Tuesday. Jake had been working for weeks to put the ground in proper shape.

Every director on the Holland Fair Board was on his toes to make the Community Fair a success. Thursday's rain was discouraging but Friday's ideal weather more than made up for Thursday's loss.

Fifteen years ago Holland Fair Association paid a man by the name of Mr. Weeks $500 to fly his aeroplane over the grounds. Last week fair patrons saw plenty of planes constantly hovering over from Holland's airport carrying passengers at $2.50 each.

The 4-H clubs with their different exhibits occupied one large building and among the prize winners were groups from Georgetown, 2 from Forest Grove, Bower, 2 from Zeeland and North Zeeland, Chester Heights, Peach Plains, Ravenna and Chester.

A review of happening at the Community Fair will be found on page one of Section two, this issue, including the horse race staged by the sheriff candidates, with "Near-Beer" winning.

Benj. Hanchett of Grand Rapids, prominent in railroad circles, was so pleased with the Holland Fair and especially the horse show that he called up and told Secretary Vande Bunte that he personally

Fair Spelling Bee Proves Rare Treat

VICTOR ALLEN OF JAMES-TOWN WINS HIGHEST HONORS

At least fifty pupils from Ottawa and Allegan county rural schools participated in the old fashioned spelling bee put on by the Holland Community Fair on the grand stand on Thursday.

Despite the rain the stand was well filled and this new departure was in reality a real educational treat.

There were six from the Allegan county rural schools, six from the Zeeland schools and the remainder scattered from different parts of Ottawa county.

Ottawa county school commissioner, Gerrit G. Groenewoud, of Holland was in charge of the contest and the ability of the rural pupils to handle big words was a revelation.

From Allegan county Helen M. Blake of Pennville was the winner, receiving $3.00. Katherine Boeve of Fillmore was second, winning $1.00. The Fillmore school is taught by Miss Esther Boeve.

From the Zeeland school districts, June Van Peursen was the winner, receiving a $3.00 purse, Beulah Vander Wege winning second, receiving $1.00.

From the Ottawa county rural group Victor Allen of the Star school, Jamestown, won first and Marcel Zavadi, Robert school, Port Sheldon township, won second honors. The teacher of the former is Vesta Loew, and the latter Jeanette Van Horn. The winners received the same prizes as those from the other schools.

In the elimination contest that followed Victor Allen of Jamestown won the highest honors, spelling down the other winners, and received an added purse of $4.00.

These spelling bees are destined to become a popular feature at all future fairs.

VIRGINIA PARK CLUB TO BUILD COMMUNITY HALL

The Virginia Park community club has decided to construct a new community hall from the old Consumers Power company plant located at the park and used for years by the Holland Interurban. Plans call for the renovation of the building at a cost of $5,000. The building will be 130 feet long and 40 feet wide. It will be so equipped that it can be used for volley ball and basket ball in the winter. A stage and projection booth for the presentation of movies will be added. The hall will have a seating capacity larger than that of any Holland building.

The Community club has several hundred members. The men's club has more than 200 active members and several honorary and associate members. The club has outgrown its present quarters in the short period of two years.

ARREST MAN IN WAVERLY ON INDECENCY CHARGES

James Taylor arrested in Waverly on a charge of indecent liberties, was convicted by the jury in circuit court on Monday after several hours devoted to his trial. He is confined in the county jail where he will remain until sentenced. The man is said to be a traveler with his home where his hat is.

Fenna Menken was given a judgment of $250 in a law case against Roy Kinyon relative to an automobile accident that occurred a year ago on the highway to Saugatuck. Two cars telescoped and several were injured.

The jury was excused by Judge O. S. Cross Tuesday after convening, until Thursday. A case which had been scheduled was not ready and made a hole in the calendar.

would promise several added fancy horses for next year's exhibition.

"Jim Crow" pet crow who hung around the stables of J. T. Weber of Detroit, was a popular personality at the fair. He was trained by W. H. Feeney and he and three trained bantams are mascots of Mr. Feeney. The crow is very friendly, was always looking for something to eat or to be petted. The bantams jumped through the hoops and did other stunts also. It is said that Jim Crow has a split tongue and can talk like a parrot.

Mrs. Louise H. Campbell of Lansing, state home demonstration leader, was at the Holland Community Fair Wednesday afternoon inspecting the work of the various clubs exhibited and the canning demonstration given in the agricultural building by members of the Marine club. The demonstrations were given daily by Miss Margaret Holleman and Miss Virginia Burch, two girls of the Marine "Vit-Em In" club. The object was to show the latest scientific methods of canning fruits and vegetables. Those interested were able to follow each step through from the raw state to the neatly canned product. Each step was explained, and the ways to avoid common mistakes. Following the demonstration the girls answered questions about canning problems. This work was preliminary to their competition today in the state canning contests at Lansing against teams from all over the state. They were taken to Lansing Thursday by Mrs. Ruth Morley who directs the work of the girls 4-H clubs of Ottawa county. Mrs. Morley feels that her team has a good chance to win, and this belief was concurred in by Mrs. Campbell who termed the demonstration "perfect."

FIGURES SHOW HOLLAND COMMUNITY FAIR MAKES GOOD

Secretary Vande Bunte and Treasurer Ben Brower have been putting in some time, comparing Holland Fair attendance figures with last year, which was the banner year of the fair and despite the rain the gate receipts were just nine dollars short of 1927.

Of course one day, the day of rain, money at the grandstand naturally was not taken in for there were no races, but then no purses had to be paid for that day, so that helped a little.

Friday was a big day at the grandstand, both afternoon and evening, where other years Friday brings but a half crowd.

There were more concessionists this year than last year, which also makes up for the grandstand loss on Thursday.

Tuesday's attendance was considerably larger than any Tuesday before, there being a total attendance of 530, not including 25 vehicles. Wednesday's attendance was as follows: Afternoon tickets sold, 1,965; vehicles, 437; evening, 1,432; vehicles, 226.

Thursday afternoon, 2,430; vehicles, 638; evening, 1,637; vehicles, 302.

Friday afternoon, 5,495; vehicles, 1,195; evening, 1,775; vehicles, 272.

This would indicate that the total admission, not including passes of exhibitors and concession men and children under age who go in free, but cash admission paid only, during the entire week of the fair, figured a grand total of 15,284, and vehicles, 3,070.

POPULAR EXCURSION TO SAUGATUCK LABOR DAY

The last lake excursion for the season is to be put on by the Goodrich Transit Company when the steamer "City of Holland" is to make a trip to Saugatuck on Monday, Labor day.

The big side-wheeler will leave the Holland dock at ten o'clock in the morning arriving in Saugatuck at 11:30. Ample time for a picnic spread. The boat will leave Saugatuck at three o'clock, arriving in Holland at 4:30.

Holland folks can see Black Lake again from a steamer rather than from an automobile and experience a delightful trip on Lake Michigan skirting the shore and witness the picturesque scenery as the ship winds its way up the Kalamazoo river, drawn by a large tug piloted by an Indian River pilot. There will also be an orchestra aboard.

ONLY ONE CORONER FROM HOLLAND

The north end of the county has three candidates for coroner for Ottawa county in the primary. Holland has but one, namely Gilbert Van De Water.

The county is entitled to two coroners. It is well that north Ottawa be given one but Holland and lower Ottawa, the more densely populated, should also have its coroner.

Within the last three months Coroner Van De Water has been called ten times to take care of cases in lower Ottawa. Mr. Van De Water has made an able official and should be returned if for no other reason than to have a coroner in south Ottawa as well as north Ottawa.

NEW OTTAWA COUNTY ROAD OPEN WEDNESDAY

M50, west Michigan's first super-highway, was dedicated Wednesday with fitting celebration, in the afternoon at Allendale, Ottawa county, and in the evening at Walker township school. Townspeople, farmers and officials from Grand Rapids, Kent and Ottawa counties took part in the speechmaking which continued until late in the evening.

The Reformatory band played at the meeting on the town hall grounds at Allendale and the Reformatory orchestra at the banquet which the women of Walker district served in fine style, chicken, biscuits and all.

The road goes through some of the best farming country in Ottawa county and connects up with U. S. 31 at Agnew. It means another scenic highway for local motorists.

Last Sunday evening the pastor of Trinity Church, Central Ave. and 20th St., began a new series of sermons on the subject, "Damaged Souls." The following sermons comprise the series: "A Soul Damaged by Trickery," "A Soul Damaged by Self-Will," "A Soul Damaged by Disobedience," "A Soul Damaged by a Lie," "A Soul Damaged by the Loss of an Ideal." Next Sunday evening Rev. Mr. Dame will preach the second sermon of the series, "A Soul Damaged by Self-Will." You are invited to come.

Marvin De Jonge, son of Mr. and Mrs. George De Jonge of Zeeland, will leave Saturday to attend the University of Illinois at Urbana. Mr. De Jonge received a scholarship in mathematics from Hope College.

Rev. and Mrs. Bernie Mulder and children have returned to their home in Pella, Iowa, after spending six weeks visiting relatives in Holland and Zeeland.

CHEST CLINIC THURSDAY

Alma Koerte, city nurse, informs the News that next week Thursday afternoon there will be another chest clinic, held at the Woman's Literary club room from 1 o'clock to 5 o'clock. Dr. William Vis of Grand Rapids will be in charge and will be assisted by Miss Madge Breehan, county nurse.

Drowning of Co. F Man is Unusual

WENT TO MILWAUKEE TO LOOK FOR A JOB IS STATED

The flag is flying at half staff on the Grand Haven Armory in memory of one of Co. F, 126th Inf., who was drowned in the Kinnickinnic river near Jones Island, Milwaukee, the fore part of the week, under circumstances that caused the coroner there, to start an investigation.

Charles Miller's body was recovered by the Milwaukee police and according to the story told to the coroner by Lloyd French, also of Grand Haven, he and Miller were asleep on the docks near the river bank. French suddenly awoke and missed his friend, immediately giving notice to the police after he became alarmed at his continued absence. He said they had come to Milwaukee in search of work. Not finding any, worn out and discouraged, they lay down for a little rest.

Miller is well known in military circles in Ottawa county. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Miller of Grand Haven township, born in Chicago, July 6, 1906, and came to this section 14 years ago. He has lived on the farm with his parents ever since. He joined Company F five years ago and was the oldest private there.

HOLLAND BUSINESS COLLEGE OPENS TUESDAY

There is no need for Holland folks to send their children out of town for a business course while Holland has a college so high class as the Holland Business College.

This college opens in the Peters Block for the fall term next Tuesday and the night school opens Monday, October first.

Students will be registration of students Saturday afternoon and evening when Albert Hoeksema, the principal, and C. J. Dregman, the treasurer, will be on hand to meet prospective students.

The Holland college has been in business more than a quarter of a century and graduates from this institution are in great demand. Requests for prospective graduates are always on file at the school and practically every student has been placed in some lucrative position in Holland or elsewhere.

LIKE IN HOLLAND, PASTOR WELL REMEMBERED

A new car has been presented to Rev. Wm. Mascelink, pastor of Alpine Avenue Christian Reformed church, Grand Rapids, as a token of appreciation from his congregation. On returning last week from a vacation in Minnesota, Rev. Mascelink found the car in the garage at his home, 961 Alpine Ave., N.W. It appears that the young pastor is as well remembered as he was when he was pastor of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed Church of Holland.

FORMER HOLLAND PASTOR LEAVES GRAND RAPIDS

Rev. J. M. Ghyssels, pastor of Twelfth Street Christian Reformed church, Grand Rapids, for the past three years, has accepted a call to a Christian Reformed church at Lafayette, Ind. The date when he will leave his present pastorate has not been determined. Before going to Grand Rapids, Mr. Ghyssels was pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church of Holland.

Students from the Country-- have generally been conspicuously successful at this school. Many country boys whom we educated are now men in responsible positions as managers of plants, branch managers, store managers, salesmen, and accountants. Many country girls have been developed by us into bookkeepers and stenographers at good pay.

Enroll now and get in line for your opportunity next year.

Register on Saturday from 3 to 5 or from 7:15 to 8:15.

Fall Term opens Tuesday, Sept. 4.

WELLER NURSERY LOSES LAW CASE

The law case, Weller Nursery of Holland, against John P. Thomas for the balance of $280 on some landscape and planting work which the company did for him some four years ago, was thrashed out in Circuit Court, and was decided against the Holland firm.

The defendant claims he came from Chicago with little knowledge of the sandy soil of this community and allowed the Weller Co. to plan and outline the disposition of his plantings. Out of one field of wheat, not a single seed was left, he claimed, following a Michigan sand storm.

Thomas has a counter suit for damages against the company. The whole case is said to have arisen over the failure of a strawberry patch to yield as the owner expected. The case has been hanging fire for four years.

Following the findings of the jury in the Benjamin and Jennie Zimmerman suit against Richard Bultman of a verdict of no cause for action, several other cases hanging on this trial were decided on as no cause for action. They were brought by Mrs. Christine Gilmore, Henry Timmerman, Peter Nienhuis and John H. Schrotenboer.

The case of Alvin Bauhahn against Joe Nykamp was dismissed also. Erma Abel vs. Joseph Antonides, Mrs. John Hansel won a judgment of $1000 from Frank Plant. In the case of John C. Westrate vs. John Boeve, stipulations was filed dismissing the case.

STATE POULTRY MEN VISIT LOCAL PLANTS

Tour is sponsored by Michigan State College at East Lansing.

The first state college tour with the purpose of getting Michigan into the poultry industry, made its first stop in Holland Tuesday night. The idea is the joint work of Prof. G. Ward and Prof. J. A. Hatch of the college and it is hoped to make this an annual event.

The tour started at the college where they were informed that the legislature voted an appropriation of $60,000 for the construction of a large new poultry plant at the college, and will be released by 1929, but through the efforts of the association the sum will be released at once. From the college the poultry men inspected the plant at Lowell escorted there by a state trooper. They were met at Lowell by Ottawa county men who escorted them to the Zeeland Hatchery of Hatcher of Zeeland. The Silverdale Hatchery of Pools and Plasmans, the Wolverine Hatchery of Henry Wiersma, the Grandview Poultry Farm of J. H. Jackson and George Cabal, the breeding plant of the Superior Poultry farm of C. J. De Koster and the Hillview Poultry farm of Van Zeebe were all inspected by the state men. From there they went to the Warm Friend Tavern in this city.

R. C. Jackson of Jenison has charge of the entertainment in this county. He estimates the poultry business in this county in the million dollar class and intends to expand and make Ottawa county the banner poultry center of the state. Thursday evening the poultry men were entertained by the Zeeland Hatchery Association under the direction of Mr. Jackson. A program of music and a boat ride on Black Lake were special features.

Wednesday morning the party visited the Zeeland Hatchery. They expressed their appreciation for the spike of Zeeland and the tour at Bedford. For the courtesy of the Holland-Zeeland police department for their assistance.

From Lakeview they proceeded to Bangor and Paw Paw and spent Wednesday at Kalamazoo, where twelve other men joined the tour.

Thursday they inspected the Battle Creek factories of the Kellogg company and the farm at Augusta which the Kelloggs gave to the state recently. Tuesday evening they remained at Ann Arbor and on today, Friday will visit the university and the tour at Bedford.

Among the prominent poultrymen and editors on the tour are J. P. Garlough, editor of "Modern Poultry Breeder," W. A. Brown of Romeo, E. G. Kilbourne of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Martin of Flint; Ray Burns of Millington; Dr. L. E. Healy of Grand Rapids; Prof. H. L. Schuler of the United States department of agriculture, Washington, D. C.; R. G. Kirby, East Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. Gerber of Constantine; Mr. and Mrs. Webster of Detroit; L. M. Klevay, editor of Poultry Tribune, Chicago and Prof. Leon Todd of State College.

Credit Men Were Guests of Holland

HON. G. J. DIEKEMA OF THIS CITY WAS BANQUET TOASTMASTER

The Associated Credit Men's Bureau of Michigan with some fifty delegates present from out of town and several from Holland and Ottawa county were in convention, assembled at Warm Friend Tavern, Monday and Tuesday.

Mayor Ernest C. Brooks welcomed the visiting credit men and in a brief talk stated that no business could exist without integrity and no credit could exist unless that credit was kept up to standard. But that credit meant a great deal in the commercial world today.

He gave a brief account of what a credit bureau has done for the merchants and manufacturers in Holland during the short period that it has been in vogue.

Mr. B. G. Oosterbaan of Muskegon, president of the state organization gave a brief response to the welcome of the mayor.

William Stribley, manager of the Grand Haven Credit bureau, spoke of "Some Reasons Why a Merchant Should Be a Member of a Retail Credit Association" and Earl H. Becker of Royal Oak spoke on "The Best Method to Overcome the Direct Credit Inquiry Evil."

Luncheon was served at 12:15 when President Dieke Warner of the Holland Merchants' Credit Bureau gave a short talk relative to the organization of which he is the head and introduced many of the guests who responded telling of their experiences.

At the afternoon session Floyd Miller, state vice president, presented the subject "Impressions of the National Convention." The remainder of the session consisted of an open discussion on various subjects presented during the day.

Monday evening G. J. Diekema of Holland, was toastmaster at the banquet, he being introduced by Mr. Oosterbaan. Mr. Diekema in a unique way, dwelt on the established credit found in a community of Hollanders. He pictured the coming of Dr. Van Raalte and his little band who after diligent search found this beautiful bay, an arm of Lake Michigan and in these virgin forests built a colony where there was religious freedom. Holland's credit was already established then, he stated. And because of the integrity of the Hollanders a college was built and this beautiful city is the result. Mr. Diekema said further in brief:

"We are happy to welcome you, happy in the character of our city, with no tenement district, no unpainted homes, happy in our church spires which rise above our contented homes, happy in our manufacturing establishments, happy in our merchants. We have no cliques, Catholic and Protestant work side by side, and Democrats and Republicans work hand in hand—that is, up until this year."

Mr. J. W. Griest of Chicago, the principal speaker, had as his subject "Our Profitless Prosperity," an address which dealt with changing conditions of competition in present day American life, especially among retail merchants. As typical of the conditions he finds in investigations throughout the nation he told of an Oklahoma merchant who said: "I netted $8,000 last year—but I can't find the money!" "Business is good and stable and has every indication of remaining so," said Mr. Griest. "Out of the eleven presidential election years, seven were above average and the other four broke even. Why are people complaining? Because many are doing business without a profit."

"Merle Thorpe made the statement in Nation's Business that 'A business man must run like the devil to stay where he is.' In 1921, at the peak of high prices, retailers were accused of being 'profiteers,' and Senator Arthur Capper had congress appropriate $50,000 to investigate. The investigation showed the retailers were doing business at a small margin of profit. In 1914 the annual net profit on gross sales was 6 per cent. In 1926 it was only 1.3 per cent. Department stores doing a business of $1,000,000 annually showed a net profit of 1925 of seven tenths of one percent. In 1926, five tenths of one percent, 2 in 1926 and .008 so far in 1928. In the last income tax figures available, twenty-nine hundredths of one per cent of the people of the United States paid over 95 per cent of all the income taxes of America."

"Business showed great volume, production and distribution, but no profits. The greatest need is for business to show a profit, because it is out of profits alone that beautiful cities are built such as your toastmaster spoke of so eloquently, schools are built, churches supported and living made possible. Distribution in the past 10 or 15 years has been centered in mail order houses, chain stores and big department stores. I do not condemn any of these. When a man like J. C. Henney can be kicked out of his home and become the head of 10,000 successful stores I will pay that man a compliment. There is probably not a person here who would not be glad to be at the head of one of these big concerns." In conclusion he predicted that within the next ten years the keenest minds in America will be working on the problems of the retail merchant.

Music was furnished during the banquet by Herb Van Duren's orchestra. The little Chervin girls, Anita and Selma, gave a Dutch dance wearing blue and white costumes complete to the wooden shoes. They were accompanied by Miss Imogene Dykema on the piano.

Robert Bidlack, credit manager of the City Ice & Fuel Co. of Flint, enthusiastically advocated the value of organizing the credit managers of large stores and other business organizations into an association that could work in conjunction with the bureau. The idea presented by Bidlack was received by the convention and a committee was appointed to effect a Credit Managers Association.

The following officers were elected Tuesday afternoon: President, Floyd Miller, manager of the credit bureau at Pontiac; vice president, William Rorke, manager at Saginaw, and J. C. Deremo, manager at Grand Rapids; secretary-treasurer, Earl Wright, manager at Ionia.

The board of directors comprises Harry M. Long of Flint, Walter Kirby of Lansing, W. F. Holmes of Port Huron, E. F. Groseman of Jackson and B. G. Oosterbaan of Muskegon.

The January meeting of the association will be held in Detroit in the form of tri-state convention, the states of Ohio and Indiana meeting with Michigan. The May meeting will be held in Ypsilanti.

HOLLAND FOLK GUESTS AT SPRING LAKE

Grand Haven Tribune.—Mrs. Ellis Nixon and Mrs. Edwin Balgooyen entertained at the home of Mrs. Balgooyen for Miss Katherine Mulder of Spring Lake, complimenting her coming marriage to Richard Kruijsen of Spring Lake, which will take place sometime in the near future. Cards were enjoyed during the evening. The bride-elect later was presented with some lovely gifts. Refreshments were served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bolt-house, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Van Doorne, Miss Anna J. Dykema, Miss Dorothy Mulder, Miss Grace McCarroll, Holland; Marion Kruijsen, Herman Kruijsen, Anson Mulder, Henry Dobben, Bert Wolters, Fremont, and James McColl of Holland, Mr. Nixon and Mr. Balgooyen.

HOLLAND MEN START BORING FOR OIL AGAIN

The third test oil well to be drilled near Holland during the present wildcat program was started this week.

C. L. Bullock, the driller, and Henry P. Zwemer of Holland, will be the only two men financially interested in the experiment. Favorable strata indications led the men to make the Terbeek farm the site of the next operations. This place is about one mile from the Waverly well which was last lowered. Regardless of the outcome of the present project, the two Ottawa county men will join hands with the Muskegon Oil corporation to sink a well near the point where the Ottawa and the Muskegon corporation leases join.

ZEELAND GIRL MARRIED IN HOLY CROSS CHURCH

Miss Elsie Siekman, the oldest daughter of Adolph Siekman of Zeeland was wed to Clarence Klamp, son of Mrs. May Klamp of Chicago at the Holy Cross church in that city on Saturday evening, August 25. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Anna Siekman, and by Miss Florence Hubbard. Arthur Klamp and Lawrence Larson accompanied the groom, and little Geraldine Brown was flower girl.

Mr. Klamp holds a position with a Chicago transportation line and they will make their home in that city. Mrs. Klamp, who is a Zeeland girl, has been employed at the Chicago telephone exchange for the past two years.

After the marriage ceremony the party proceeded to one of the leading Chicago hotels, where they partook of a sumptuous wedding dinner. The newly wedded couple are now spending their honeymoon here at the home of the bride's father, one mile north on Fairview road, Zeeland.

WORK ON BLUEGILL POND OF HOLLAND BODY STARTED

Work has been started on the bluegill pond on the grounds of the Holland Game and Fish Protective Association on M21 near New Groungeton. The new pond will have a capacity of 150,000 bluegills. The pond will not be stocked until next spring. The new pond will be between the bass pond and M21 so it can be seen from the highway. The bass pond is showing excellent results. The bass fry are developing fast enough so that the 50,000 fish can be planted in Black Lake and River some time next month. Inspectors of the pond believe it is the best in the state.

Mrs. H. Kroen of Creedman, Ohio, entertained guests from Creedman, Chicago, and other places at a dinner at her summer cottage at Jensen Park.

Lester Bruce of Houston, Texas is a guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. William Bruce.

Janet Tans accompanied the Andrew Karsten family on a business trip to Lansing last Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Kolan was called to Kalamazoo last week as a result of an accident in which her mother was injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Stokmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Helton and Miss Alice Bos of Chicago were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stokmeyer last Monday.

Mrs. Christine Meussen of Detroit visited her sister Mrs. Dirk Brink during the past week.

Mrs. Harley Schutmaat and children expect to move to Kalamazoo in the near future. She plans to attend the Normal during the coming winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mason and son Robert of Muskegon were week-end guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Mason, Zeeland, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Veen and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mooney, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ten Brink and daughter, Holland were guests at the Wm. Ten Brink home Sunday.

The literary meeting of the First Reformed church held Monday evening, nine bids for the painting of the exterior of the church were received. The lowest bid was made by Mr. Streeter of Allegan and the work was given to him.

The public schools will open Tuesday Sept. 3. Miss Looze and Bullman have been re-organized as teachers and the Trillium instructors for this term are Mr. T. T. Gorder and Miss Trigg.

Labor Day will be celebrated here, when an interesting program will be staged. Senator Seth Pulver of Owosso, Mich., and Attorney G. H. Alberts of San Antonio, Texas will be speakers for the day and music will be furnished by the Calcedonia band. A colored quartette known as Hoo's Silver-strings will sing at the evening entertainment also. A ball game will be staged in the morning. An evening of food and motion picture has been provided by the committee.

minutes before he could find words of expression. He said it was only through the cooperation and encouragement of citizens as well as gathered here that made it possible to make a showing such as they did.

But it never could have been done had not the new army and the added equipment made it possible. He thanked all those who had a hand in bringing the army to Holland "and especially our beloved E. P. Stephan, who was mayor at the time," said Mr. Geerds.

Mr. Geerds continued as follows: "When I returned from France I had been taught the lesson that lack of training meant in a conflict. I saw companies of men who were in civilian clothes in July enter into the greatest of battles in October untrained. Nervous, not cowards, but they didn't know what to do. I decided then and there that part of my life would be devoted to training men in military service, so that they would be equipped, God forbid, would any future conflict come. They at least they would not be called to duty as sheep for cannon fodder."

Mr. Geerds graciously gave credit to the men for their cooperation and to the subordinate officers for their untiring efforts. He then gave the command for the company to stand up, which they did saluting, and they were given a rousing cheer by those present.

Senator Arthur Vandenberg was the last speaker on the program. Mr. Vandenberg surely endeared himself to the hearts of an Holland audience when he paid tribute to Company D. He said in part, "all that a nation can hope to be is bound up mass fidelity and the loyalty of its citizens. I believe that soldiers, any group of young men, who pledge themselves in the defense of their country are our best citizenry. And even in these there seems to be a better and a best for Michigan's eighty companies have tried for the Badger trophy, wonderful bodies of men all of them, but I take Company D of Holland for mine."

"I saw them work at Camp Grayling. I was proud of them, they deserved the honor, and these young men are honoring your city."

"I wrote a book once portraying the greatest American. I pointed out that Alexander Hamilton typified all that a great American should be. As time goes on I have revised my opinions along those lines and I believe that the greatest Americans cannot be identified by name alone, but by types. I say now it is the unknown soldier who traded his identity for immortality. He is the greatest American, now and forever."

"I believe that the man who gives a few hours each week studying to be a soldier is dedicating his life to the greatest thing this country holds. Preparedness is not only the price of safety, but of peace. We are a peace loving nation but still I believe as long as there are standing armies in other countries, no matter how large or small, although a peaceful nation, our man power should be prepared and not untrained. We would be foolish and silly not to maintain our national muscle."

"The nations of the world know that America's strength has never been put to dishonorable means. The Revolutionary war was fought for freedom, the Civil conflict was for emancipation of the slaves, the war with Spain was to lift the heel of oppression from the neck of a bleeding people who now have self-government. The World war was not for self-aggrandizement, not for gain, but to preserve democracy the world over."

"The religion of this fine old town of Holland has been built into the character of your young men. It is the cornerstone of this community — another example showing that you cannot get along without religion and without God. The National Guards in Michigan have a record and a lineage that will compare with the greatest military bodies the world has ever known and in years gone by the greatest names of Michigan men are inscribed in the honored list of our national heroes."

"The United States of America can never over-invest in its National Guards. For any investment is sure to bring big dividends in preparedness, in safety, in character, and in the building of magnificent men."

"I was in Camp Grayling three weeks ago Sunday, as men were called to service. At a given signal men wheeled out from their respective camps and as battalion after battalion formed, including your Co. D., they were headed by large military bands and in unison they played 'Onward Christian Soldiers.' That is just what they are. They are emissaries of peace and of this fine concourse of men I bring greetings to Company D to the superlatives of them all."

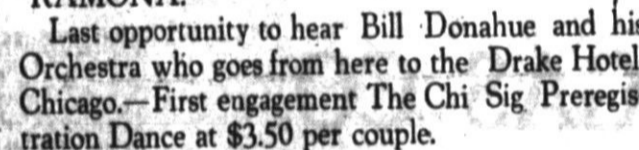

The American Legion band gave a continuous program of excellent music during the spread and Jack Bos favored the gathering with solos during intervals.

The program follows:

Spring Lake, which is growing as a fine residential district, is circulating petitions to secure a charter adapted to the needs of the village. It has been operated under a blanket charter issued by the state but its development makes the change necessary. Walter McHugh, William Pellegrom, Frank Scholten, W. D. Spencer, Wm. A. Bilz, William M. Connelly, D. M. Cline and George S. Christman are among those circulating the petitions.

FREEZING BY HEAT A NEW THING

Freezing by heat, with the same gas you use for cooking—this is the latest development of science in the field of automatic refrigeration. This most paradoxical of inventions—ices from heat—was the discovery of two Swedish students who developed the idea while attending the Royal Institute of Technology at Stockholm. With the completion of their device they solved a problem that had baffled science for more than a hundred years—freezing without the aid of machinery, valves or moving parts. So perfect is the invention that once the tiny gas jet has been lighted the refrigerator continues to operate indefinitely without further thought or concern. The reason for its noiselessness lies in the fact that it is physicochemical in action. In other words, heat is applied to a steel unit containing chemicals. This causes them to change form—from liquid to vapor, to gas, to liquid. In the process they absorb the warm air from the box in which the unit is installed. As the system functions as long as the heat is applied, the result is a constant low temperature which protects food from germs, yeast spores and decay.

A short time after the students completed their invention, the American rights were acquired by Servel, Inc., for more than two million dollars—probably the highest price ever paid for a class room idea. After giving it a thorough test gas and water control it was ready for the American market. It is now being introduced in Holland by the Holland Gas Company. The name of this new ice-maker is Electrolux. It is obtainable in several pastel shades of enamel finish to fit the modern ideas in kitchen decoration and the box is cork insulated and porcelain lined.

WORK IN PROBATE COURT IS INCREASING

In a compilation embracing cases in Ottawa County probate court, it is evident that in recent years there has been a tremendous growth in the work of this court. From 1845 to January 1, 1917, a period of 72 years, there were 7755 cases as appears of record in the Probate Ct. for Ottawa County.

From January 1, 1917 to August 1, 1928, a period of eleven years and seven months, there were new cases both in Probate and Juvenile Courts, 4875.

Judge Danhof states that when he went into office, January 1, 1917, there were probably 1000 cases or more in progress of settlement so that the judge has heard and passed upon about one half of all the cases that have come before the Probate Court since 1845.

Any one who has a grievance, or who is dissatisfied with the decision or ruling of the court may appeal to the Circuit Court for relief. During his term of office, there were only ten appeals to the Circuit Court, of which six cases were dismissed by mutual consent of the parties; one dismissed by the court for want of prosecution; one affirmed by the court; one affirmed by the court in part and reversed in part.

That there has been such an increase in business is due to the fact that new laws have passed giving the Court greater jurisdiction; one particularly relating to the enactments as to the so-called Mothers' Pension; the statutes providing for surgical or medical treatment for afflicted adults and minors who are without means to defray this expense; the law providing for treatment of habitual drunkards or addicts in State Hospitals; and the law giving the Probate Court authority to compel sons or daughters to support dependent parents when they have the ability to do so; laws to provide for the blind, and those who are afflicted with tuberculosis; the insane, epileptic, feeble minded, paralytic.

All of these laws, humanitarian and charitable in purpose, have greatly enlarged the original jurisdiction of the Probate Court which had principally to do with the settlement and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the court being particularly charged with the duty to safeguard the interest of widows and minors and those under legal disability.

The first Civil War widow to receive her extra allowance of $10 a month, secured payment through the local Red Cross office. Widows over 75 years, were allowed this $40 a month, by congress. If any do not get their increase by Sept. 30, they should inform Mrs. G. J. Van Duren who is in charge of the Red Cross office.

Mr. and Mrs. Scholten and two children of Inwood, Iowa and Guy Van Lant of Edgerton, Minn., have been visiting at the Poelakker home at Graves Place last week.

ICE now made from HEAT
without noise or moving parts
A startling new principle that is fast revolutionizing old methods of house refrigeration
At last, automatic refrigeration that is really automatic. At last, a refrigerator that gives you constant low temperature, plenty of ice cubes—without noise, without vibration, without moving parts or mechanism, without requiring any care or attention.
No noise—nothing to wear out
The unique principle of the Electrolux is just as simple a process as heating a kettle of water—and as constant as perpetual motion.
The new household marvel has a refrigerating liquid hermetically sealed in metal. All you do is light a tiny gas flame, and this liquid starts on an endless cycle of expanding into vapor and condensing back to a liquid again.
The liquid never deteriorates; never needs replacement.
With no moving parts, you are not only saved all noise but also all chance of future mechanical troubles. The Electrolux Refrigerator will last you a lifetime. From the walls of rust-resisting Armco Ingot Iron to the extra-thick solid cork insulation, every detail is built to last.
Thousands now in use
For six years this refrigerator has been tested and proved. Invented by scientists at the University of Stockholm, Sweden, in 1922, it is now used extensively abroad and already there are thousands in use in this country. It is offered to the women of the United States by Servel, Inc., a company already famous as a pioneer in electric refrigeration.
Costs little to run
Pay as you use it
On either a weekly, monthly or yearly basis the Electrolux will cost you less than any other refrigerator. You can pay for it over a period of several months. Come in and see this new wonder-worker in action today—no obligation. Look it over, view it in action, and ask all the questions you want.

THE LATE B. STEKETEE

PRAISED BY E. A. STOWE

E. A. Stowe, Michigan Tradesman Editor, praises his old friend, the late Bastian Steketee of this city, in his department "Out Around." In his editorial he says: "The death, funeral and burial of Bastian Steketee were in keeping with the character and career of the man. Nature and circumstance drew the lifeline of his portrait. His inner nature was one of warm kindness, fine analysis and everything which goes on around the average human being. The problem of social welfare and economic betterment awoke in him an unusual source of keen sympathy. He was not automatic in his sympathies. He was not cold. Up to the day of his death, he was the kind-spirited, clear thinking, observing spirit which marched upward and onward to the horizon of his career."

HOLLAND VAPORAIRE

HEATING-COOLING SYSTEM

A REVOLUTIONARY DEVELOPMENT

Advantages never before available in any type of home-heating equipment are now put within easy reach of every home owner by the Holland Vaporaire System. This development obsoletes all previous methods of home heating and establishes new standards of comfort and convenience. One simple, economical system warms the home in winter—cools it in summer—and provides perfect circulation of fresh, clean, moist air at all times. Combining exclusive patented features that are years ahead, Holland engineers have perfected a system that meets every essential requirement for homes of all sizes and saves 20% to 30% in fuel. In hot weather it circulates delightfully cool air into every room. No draft—just perfect ventilation. This means the equivalent of more than a fan to each room—with one central control—at an operating cost of about a cent an hour for electric current. Investigate Holland Vaporaire. See how it antiquates all other ideas of home heating. Get all of the facts before you buy or build a new home, remodel an old one or repair your present heating system. Do this without obligation. PORT SHELTON

Mrs. Mary Kitzendorf died at her summer home in Port Sheldon township Tuesday evening of last week, and her body was sent to Chicago. She has spent the past seven summers here and has made many friends who are mourning her death. She was in business 35 years and had planned to retire. Her family from Chicago and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Bouman of Treynor, Iowa, were at her bedside when she died.

She is survived by her husband Ludwig Kitzendorf, 5697 Ridge avenue, Chicago and three daughters, Lillian, Anna Marie and Elizabeth all at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Bouman of Treynor, Iowa and Mrs. Anna Schaefer of California. Funeral services were held Saturday at Bentley chapel with interment in Rosehill cemetery, Chicago.

BEECHWOOD

New Work in Suburban Holland.

Holland, Michigan has thrown out a new suburb to the north, known as Beechwood. About 550 people are already making homes there. Five factories have moved out, and the place is so near to the business part of Holland that numbers of people employed in town live in the pleasant suburb. At least one "Beechwood Booster Meeting" has already been held, as evidence that the place is developing into a real community. This summer, Mr. Franklin J. Hinkamp, student in the Western Seminary, was assigned to Beechwood for vacation-preschooling work. It was absolutely new ground. "Go ahead," said Rev. Dr. Vander Werf, Field Secretary of the Board of Domestic Missions, when Mr. Hinkamp asked for instructions. "Do any work which suggests itself and try to build up services which may lead to an organized church." Mr. Hinkamp got permission to use the school basement. The community is remodeling the main school building and spending $165,000 to enlarge it, looking to the future. In the unattractive basement, Mr. Hinkamp held services, with an average attendance of 35 and a banner attendance of 100. He visited the homes throughout the neighborhood and found 11 denominations among the 148 families. The Reformed Church had a few more representatives than any of the others. 181 children under 12 were found and 79 young people who were eager for some kind of an organization. It was a fine piece of summer work. Mr. Hinkamp has completed his service and turned the job over to the Classical Missionary, Rev. G. Tyse. The Domestic Mission authorities have arranged to obtain lots on a leasehold basis, and are planning to move a sectional church from Home Acres in Grand Rapids so that the new work may be developed without interruption.—The Leader.

EAST SAUGATUCK

Mrs. G. H. Glupker died at her home at East Saugatuck last Wednesday night, aged 83 years. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the house and 130 at the East Saugatuck church. Rev. Mr. Vander Ploeg officiated.

Registration for general election will be held September 4th to October 20th. All who failed to register for the primary may register at the polls at the primary election Sept. 4th. Those unable to register for primary may make affidavit to that effect and be permitted to vote, according to Oscar Peterson, city clerk.

A new brass bench mark has been placed in the post office building in the stone at the west end of the main entrance steps by the United States Geological survey which has been working in this vicinity for the past few weeks. The plug bears words showing why it was put there and warning against anyone bothering it. The height there above sea level which is 611 feet will be stamped in.

The Grand Haven Beach Road was finished last week, and it is expected to be ready for public use by Labor day. Part of the road has been open for some time, but a half mile with the small oval situated on Grand River between the coast guard station and the Christ-mas cottage will be the stretch to be opened. This will complete a new gateway to Lake Michigan. A cinder road to the coast guard station is also to be built, which now can only be reached by boats.

William Chinnick, prominent business man of Grand Rapids, gave a dinner at the Holland country club last Thursday night for 24 Grand Rapids and Holland friends. Mr. Chinnick gives these parties annually and this time it was the turn of the Holland country club. Chinnick has a cottage at a local resort and has many friends here. There were three men from Holland present: Fred Brummer, E. A. Tansey and Frank Lievense. A delightful repast was served and Chinnick showed himself a royal host. While there were no toasts the presiding officer was C. V. Hilding of Grand Rapids. For the Holland men the dinner was in celebration of the fact that Mr. Tansey broke the amateur course record for the Holland country club yesterday afternoon with a score of 69, breaking the record of 71 held by himself and equaling the professional record of 69 won by Trovinger of Detroit a short time ago.

"The longer I live the more I am convinced that it requires a percentage of Dutch blood in the veins to enable a man to appreciate and properly interpret the Dutch character. The average man regards the Dutchman as a stubborn, obstinate and almost impossible individual, but those of us who have had the benefit of a Dutch ancestry realize that behind a grim forbidding and sometimes unexplainable exterior there is a fineness of feeling and depth of thought and expression which are not to be found in many other people. Because of this belief, I think I am able to understand the Dutch character much better than I could but for the heritage I received from my wonderful Dutch grandfather."
