New Highway South Of City Is Favored

MERCHANTS' COMMITTEE MEET WITH DELEGATION FROM SAUGATUCK

It is apparent from letters and maps received from the State Highway Department that a re-location of US31 in this vicinity is contemplated.

Blue-prints and specifications all point that way and it is apparent that practically the entire highway from the Indiana line to beyond Muskegon will be straightened or widened or re-located. From information received it seems that the last stretch which must be definitely settled is between Saugatuck and Holland and without doubt in the minds of the state department this route will with a few minor changes possibly be decided upon.

As has been repeatedly stated in the News, the road will go directly south through Fillmore township from First Avenue and then go in a southwesterly direction connecting with Saugatuck, and a new bridge is to be built between Saugatuck and Douglas at the present bridge site or very near that location.

In order to get the views of the merchants of Holland on this matter the road committee named some time ago, conferred with a committee sent from Saugatuck. A two-hour conference was held at the Lokker-Rutgers building and it was apparent that the committee from Saugatuck preferred to have the road located along the lake front, across a swing bridge spanning the channel there, then swing in an easterly direction connecting with the new proposed road. This would incur a tremendous expense and Mr. Harrington stated that it was doubtful whether either the Federal government or the state department would sanction the added expense. They would compromise however by connecting the principal streets of Saugatuck with the new road, a distance of about a block, and name it US31A.

The Holland committee promised to help Saugatuck in endeavoring to get the change made in the routing but there seems very little hope of this because of the heavy outlay. It would appear, judging from the conversation of the Saugatuck committee, that while they prefer their own routing they would rather have the road materialize and be connected up with two roads rather than with just one road.

Mr. Harrington, who was present at the meeting, stated that the talk would be kept up and the talk that it would eventually be abandoned is out of the question for it serves not only Saugatuck folks but hundreds of patrons who have built homes between Saugatuck and Virginia Park. Of course that is important and should be definitely understood.

Before discussion was entered into by the Saugatuck and Holland committees, Austin Harrington, chairman of the Ottawa County Road Commission, read a letter of some length from Grover C. Dillman, state highway commissioner, in which he pointed out why this location was chosen and agreed upon by the state and federal engineers. The state authorities seem to want to hasten the matter since the United States government has promised federal aid to build this road and the state is surely not overlooking that bet.

Ray Tariff made a plea that we should use the old Saugatuck road entirely and thus draw the resorters through the scenic district. Mr. Van Zeylen and Mr. Dombos pointed out that they felt that the resorters would surely take kindly to these scenic highways and thus avoid the diverted heavy truck travel that so often blocks the old Saugatuck road and makes travel unpleasant as well as hazardous.

Mr. French of the Sentinel stated that no one should attempt to sidetrack the city from receiving an added road; that two good highways were better than one and three were better than two; that every new road was a convenience not only to the local public but to the outside public as well.

He also pointed out that the "Scenic Roads" could be well marked with signs where they diverted from US31, so tourists could not help but know where these were. Mr. Mulder of the News stated that he had been on a committee to solicit funds to build a gravel highway into Fillmore township nearly thirty years ago; that it is one of the best farming districts in Allegan county and the entire countryside would like nothing better than a concrete highway. He stated that Supervisor Guy Kehkhus of Fillmore had made several trips to Holland to foster that road recently and also went to Lansing to call on the Road Commission in behalf of that project. Jacob Lokker who also favored the road remembered he and A. B. Bosman had been members of that road committee many years ago.

Mr. Mulder believes tourists are (Continued on Page 4)

JUST ARRIVES AS NEW PASTOR AT ZEELAND, SON DIES

The happiness of the Free Methodist congregation at Zeeland in the arrival of its new pastor, the Rev. James W. Archer, turned out to be sorrowful when it was learned that his son, John Archer, of Kankakee, Illinois, was critically ill.

Rev. and Mrs. Archer came from Cedar Springs, Mich., to Zeeland to assume their new duties last Thursday, where they had been serving a Methodist church, and upon their arrival at Zeeland found the summons from Kankakee apprizing them of their son's illness with infantile paralysis. Three days later John Archer, aged nineteen years, passed away, leaving a sorrowing father and mother, Rev. and Mrs. James W. Archer, two brothers and two sisters, Paul, Burton, Ruby and Helen Archer.

Funeral was held Tuesday at Cedar Springs.

USE PEACH STONES FOR FUEL

In former years the canning factory at Fennville has hired men and teams to draw the cherry and peach pits away, but this year the pits are piled up to dry and then used for fuel under the big boilers. One farmer dried out a lot of peach pits and found that they made excellent fuel, not having to buy much coal all winter.

Rev. Harry Brower, who recently graduated from the Western Theological Seminary in Holland, will be in charge of the morning and evening services at the First Reformed Church of Zeeland next Sunday. The subject of his evening sermon will be "Our Rewards at Christ's Second Coming." Rev. THIEVES ENTER GRAND HAVEN GARAGE; TAKE $2 FROM REGISTER

Thieves broke into the Mastenbrook garage, Grand Haven, near the south limits of the city some time Saturday after midnight and change amounting to $2.00 was taken from the cash register. Sheriff Steketee is investigating the theft of about $200 worth of copper wire from the Berlin Fair grounds at Marne. This is the second time wire of this type has been taken in the past two weeks. The heavy copper wire was cut from poles. It was the work of someone who evidently was accustomed to this type of work, the officer reported.

HUDSONVILLE INCLUDES HOLLAND TEACHER IN SCHOOLS

Hudsonville schools will open next Monday instead of the Tuesday after Labor Day as in Holland. The teaching force remains practically the same as last year, with D. H. Van de Bunte as superintendent and Richard Mouw as principal. Misses Katherine Zierlyn and Arlene Haan have also been reappointed in the high school department.

In the grades, Miss Dorothy Haan, a graduate of Hope College, has been engaged to teach the kindergarten and first grade, while Miss Gladys Seydel, Miss Jean Van Dam and Miss Anne Heyboer will again have charge of the second and third, fourth and fifth, and sixth and seventh grades, respectively. Miss Heyboer will also be in charge of music in the grades. Mr. Mouw will again be athletic coach.

The high school building has been completely redecorated and refurnished; the assembly has been rearranged to accommodate an increased enrollment; and everything possible for a happy and successful year has been provided.

MAN HURT IN FALL OFF ROOF IN GANGES

Claude Walker, 45, was critically injured Monday morning when he fell about 100 feet off the roof at Ganges in Allegan county. At Buttrick hospital it was reported he was unconscious and probably had suffered a skull fracture and internal injuries. He was repairing a roof on a dwelling when he lost his footing and fell to the ground. It was reported to Patrolman John Stevenson, who took the injured man to the hospital after he had been taken into Grand Rapids by Ganges residents.

LOCAL BAND ENDED SEASON TUESDAY WITH REQUEST PROGRAM

The American Legion Band of Holland gave their final concert for the season at Centennial park on Tuesday evening. It was in the form of a request program and required an hour and a half to complete instead of the usual hour. At the end of the concert, each member of the band was presented with a bouquet of flowers from the Grandview Gardens of Zeeland.

It is believed that the largest crowd of the season attended this final concert.

The band will give a program on Tuesday evening at the Old Soldiers' Home in Grand Rapids in response to a request. The concert will be given in the grove at the home and local residents are invited to attend. The players will leave the city hall at 6:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening.

ON SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 6, the local group will give concerts at the United States Veterans' hospital at Camp Custer and at the American Legion hospital in Battle Creek.

Children of Missionaries Remain Behind

ONE TO STUDY AT HOPE COLLEGE AND SECOND TO FINISH IN THE EAST; TWO DE PREE SONS GO BACK TO CHINA

Rev. and Mrs. Henry P. De Pree are returning to China and will sail from San Francisco next week. The two daughters, Carolyn and Lois are remaining in America where Miss Carolyn will continue her work at the training school at Vineland, New Jersey, and Miss Lois De Pree will continue her education as a sophomore at Hope College. The two sons will study at the Shanghai-American school in China.

Dr. and Mrs. De Pree were born and reared in Zeeland and have been connected with the Second Reformed church since childhood. In 1904, Mrs. De Pree received financial support from the Zeeland church. They have spent twenty-five years in China and are intensely interested and familiar with the field there.

They have spent a year in this country residing in the Reformed church mission house on East 13th street in Holland. Together with their two sons, Harold and David, they left yesterday on their return trip to Amoy, China. Dr. De Pree is president of the South Fukien Theological Seminary at Amoy. He returns to China with signal honors, since the degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him by Hope College during graduation week last June.

At a Sunday evening farewell at the Second Reformed Church at Zeeland, special music was furnished by Prof. W. Curtis Snow, prominent organist of Holland, who presented, "Festival Prelude" or "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" by Faulkner, "Reverie" by Dickens and "First Organ Symphony" by Maquaire. The Hope college pipe organists' efforts were greatly appreciated.

Stanley De Pree, popular bass soloist at M. S. C., who won first honors in the state audition competition, and prominent on the air, also furnished two solos, "The Primal Son" and "Abide With Me."

The departing missionary delivered a touching sermon and incidentally dwelt on their intense suffering when they at one time were kidnapped by bandits and communists, but after their release, they showed remarkable power and strength, in which they were sustained by Almighty God.

Mrs. De Pree spoke briefly emphasizing that the work they will resume, is practically the same as that of the home church. New methods and new problems are frequently tried and met, and she expressed eagerness to attempt, in the Chinese church, the successful ways in vogue in the Zeeland and Holland churches.

Rev. Richard J. Vanden Berg spoke in behalf of the congregation, expressing appreciation for past success and assurance of continued interest and prayer for rich blessings.

Rev. Anthony Luidens, formerly of Holland, now of Rochester, New York, closed with prayer and benediction. The closing hymn was "God Be With You."

VESPERS SUNDAY AFTERNOON IN DIMMENT MEMORIAL HALL

Many requests from Holland and the resorts have come asking for an organ recital by Professor and Mrs. W. Curtis Snow. It was decided that a program will be given at Dimment's Memorial Hall, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock when these exceptional artists will be heard.

Folks from Holland and vicinity are cordially invited to attend and Dean Dr. Nykerk, who is making the preliminary arrangements, extends to the local resorters next Sunday.

Undoubtedly the beautiful chapel will be brought into play more often. Last Sunday morning a general invitation was sent out to local and resort people asking them to hear Dr. John E. Kuizena of Princeton, N. J., who is resorting here. It was very gratifying to see the large throng of people who accepted the invitation and the imposing edifice, seating more than 2,000 people, was well filled to hear Dr. Kuizena. It was very gratifying to see the large throng of people who accepted the invitation and the imposing edifice, seating more than 2,000 people, was well filled to hear Dr. Kuizena.

On this occasion Dr. and Mrs. W. Curtis Snow also furnished the excellent organ and piano offerings.

DeWitt will make the opening address. The other speakers will be State Representative A. Dykstra of Grand Rapids and ex-Gov. Fred W. Green. A program of sports is being arranged with the closing event a baseball game between the Hudsonville Tigers and the Byron Center Merchants.

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The Seventh-Day Adventists are "camp-meeting" at Battle Creek with an average attendance of about 5,000 people. Note: Later Battle Creek became the leading city in the nation as a center of that denomination.

The Engelman and Goodrich Transportation companies have put two steam canal boats on the St. Joseph river for daily trips to Berlin Springs in connection with their respective Lake Michigan lines. There is an immense amount of fruit grown along the river that can be picked up by these boats and each is trying to get its share of the Chicago freight.

The Board of Education has engaged as principal of the schools, Prof. N. L. Downey, of Lisbon, Mich. at a salary of $1,000 a year.

On Sunday the woods of Harrington and Knoll near the banks of Pine Creek took fire and 500 cords of wood were burned, 50 thousand feet of pine, hemlock and whiteoak logs and 700 railroad ties. The wood was chopped last winter and was scattered over 40 acres. The loss is about $800. The fire is located about one-half mile south of the college dock. Note: This property was located in the Waukazon district and was then called "Point Superior." The entire Waukazon woods was then the property of Hope College and thanks to a little foresight on the part of the college authorities in the earlier days, one of the finest forests on a lake in Michigan was preserved and Holland can feel proud of the beautiful landscape. While others cut and slashed the trees for gain, Hope college kept the timber standing. One can also gather from this item that wood and lumber could be bought for "a song." Try and buy for $800 the equivalent in wood, lumber, logs and ties today.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Pay for Game Birds on Farm With Script

FARMS ARE LISTED FOR HUNTERS. PAY FOR GAME THEY SHOOT

A new kind of "paper money" has appeared in Nebraska. Authorized by the legislature, this is known as "hunters' script" and is the only legal currency with which hunters may pay farmers for the privilege of shooting on their land. The script, valued at 50 cents a coupon, may be cashed by banks or stores like currency, but is issued and redeemed by the Nebraska Game Commission. The script plan applies to upland game bird hunting and is said by a bulletin of the American Game Association to be the first experiment of its kind for bringing the landowner into game raising in a business-like way. The Nebraska commission is also the first to attempt a cooperative system of game fish raising.

The commission sells the hunters' script to sportsmen at face value. A sportsman may go to any farm listed by the commission as favoring up to acceptable game standards. The farmer holds the script during the hunt and keeps one coupon for each bird taken. Each hunter can procure only a certain number of coupons and must sign each one. If he fails to get his allotted number of birds he can redeem the coupons at face value.

Mr. Nies was a son of the late John Nies, pioneer hardware merchant of Holland and Saugatuck, and was graduated from the Saugatuck high school. He then attended Michigan State college, Cornell University and was graduated from Lewis institute, where he remained as instructor. He was dean of the electrical department of that noted institution. He also held the position of vice-president of the Kimball Electric Co. of Chicago for several years.

His home for many years had been in St. Charles. He is survived by his widow, two sons.

Funeral services were held at St. Charles Wednesday.

"PEEPING TOM" GETS SOUR RECEPTION

A "peeping tom" was reported in the neighborhood of Slickney Ridge, just south of Highland Park, Grand Haven, at the sheriff's offices Sunday morning. He was dressed in a white shirt and black trousers, and was last seen making a bee-line for the woods to avoid the onslaught of the outraged cottagers.

NORTH HOLLAND MAN ASSISTS STRANDED AEROPLANE PASSENGERS

Rather an unusual sight occurred in North Ottawa County near Nunica and was witnessed by Mr. Albert Stegenga and family of North Holland.

Stegenga, by the way, is local agent for the Federal Land Bank of St. Paul and had to inspect a piece of property in that vicinity and mixing a little pleasure with business, he took his family for a picnic at the same time. Loading up the machine with a substantial picnic dinner they started out.

It was while they were sitting on a grassy spot enjoying the repast they heard a plane zoom over and saw it circle about as if the pilot was looking for a landing. The pilot apparently was a very man and after much maneuvering the big plane slid along on its pontoons over a farmer's field. The passengers thought that an airport had been made but found upon alighting that they were away from civilization and the pilot informed them that engine trouble had developed but they praised the pilot for his careful handling of the large plane without mishap. Only the pontoons intended for water landing, rather than land landing were slightly damaged.

There were four passengers in the plane making regular trips between Milwaukee and Detroit and they stated that they did not even feel jarred during the landing.

Mr. Stegenga offered to drive the passengers and pilot to Muskegon, where train reservations were made. Mr. Stegenga took the pilot back with the repairs for the plane. The pilot is E. L. Mc Millen and the Co-pilot, S. A. Carson, and the plane belongs to the fleet of the Kohler Aviation Corporation.

The names of the four passengers are as follows: Miss Florence Grieve, Miss V. Trythall and Mr. Victor Braun of Milwaukee, and Mr. R. L. Newton of Detroit.

DR. WM. WESTRATE, CITY PHYSICIAN AND BOARD BACK INFANTILE PARALYSIS CAMPAIGN

Dr. Wm. Westrate and the officials of the Holland Health Board, see the danger of an epidemic in the form of infantile paralysis and although only one case is reported in this city, one at Borculo and another near Coopersville, at least 100 cases are reported in Michigan.

Dr. Westrate wishes to impress upon parents in Holland and vicinity the importance of reporting to their physicians if their children show indications of having infantile paralysis. With early recognition and immediate reports, specific cases and possible contacts can be isolated as the most effective way of blocking the plague.

Dr. Westrate handed in to the Holland City News, the following list of symptoms indicating the beginning of infantile paralysis: 1. Fever; never high, with an average of 102 degrees F.

2. Headache; is severe; most frequently general, but may be at back of neck and sometimes may be absent, but then replaced by severe back pain.

Rigidity of the neck; distinct resistance to anterior flexion. Rarely is there retraction and never lateral limitation.

4. Tremor; Fine trembling of lips and hands, especially on movement as when taking a glass of water. There also may be coarse twitching in sleep.

5. Apathy; The patients are mildly indifferent and drowsy—never comatose and are perfectly bright and alert when aroused, but then are irritable sometimes.

6. Vomiting; Once or twice on the first day, but rarely is it persistent or severe. It should be mentioned that vomiting often is severe as an initial symptom in the bulbar or spinal types.

7. Retention of Urine; When questioned, the mother often remarks a 12 to 24-hour period without urination; it never demands catheterization.

8. Constipation; It is almost uniformly present.

9. Sweating; This is seen unusually as beading about the lips and neck, and is profuse rarely.

"The pre-paralytic picture presents us a distinct clinical entity with symptoms definitely those of a mild meningitis; headache,

Insurance and Health

The life insurance industry has been a strong force in the interest of longevity and better health. It has done an invaluable work in fighting disease and seeking remedies, in the study of child health and motherhood, and in the millions of medical examinations of policy-holders.

This work has, of course, cost millions of dollars—but few would say the money was not well spent. It is equivalent to the work of other branches of insurance in studying and improving the industrial accident situation, fire prevention, etc. Every time a life is saved, a disease prevented or cured, the work of the life insurance industry is justified a hundred times over.

It goes without saying that the people of today are far better informed on the fundamentals of health and good living than were their ancestors. And the life insurance industry deserves a large share of the credit.

Condemned to Death

To the New York Herald Tribune: Michigan has no death penalty. As a consequence the three criminals who shot and beat to death two boys and two girls can only be sent to prison for life. That they will be a continuing burden to the taxpayers of that state is a relatively unimportant matter. Any community that has so much concern for the safety of its criminals and so little for the safety of its citizens deserves to be saddled with such a burden. The real problem arises from the fact that these men have, from now on, nothing to fear. They have already felt the extreme penalty that the state provides. They will not only try to escape, they will almost certainly succeed, and the attempt will probably be accompanied by the death of one or more prison guards, servants of the state. Those persons who oppose capital punishment have just as certainly condemned to death an unwritten number of the state's employees as if they had sat in the jury box and found them guilty of a crime meriting death.

Chickens Are Much Like us Human Beings

HENS HAVE INDIVIDUALITY AND PERSONALITY. AND ARE VERY TEMPERAMENTAL. EXPERT CLAIMS

Hens, according to E. C. Foreman, former head of the poultry department of Michigan State college, are individualists. Foreman has many friends in Holland, in fact, has spoken here often and is known nationally as an authority on chicken raising and is engaged here as a commercial poultry raiser.

The chicken, Foreman says, has a real social consciousness and is as temperamental as any Hollywood actress. Foreman has studied their habits since he was a child. He made his first poultry exhibit when he was eight years old, trundling his chickens in a wheelbarrow to a Collingwood, Ont., fair from his farm home.

There is style to chickens, he says. He demonstrated that a White Leghorn hen, which he termed "one of the rugged, refined feminine type," had small limbs and fine lines that suggested a similarity to the refined human.

"Every hen," Foreman says, "has just as many characteristics as a human being. Among all the millions of hens in the world there are no two alike."

In the main, says Foreman, the chickens fall into three classifications.

"Out of every 100, approximately 10 are supers, 60 are mediocre, and 30 are culls. That, I think, is about the percentage of each you will find among human beings. The 10 per cent have beauty and character and 'intelligence,' are keen and alert and aggressive, and the pullets and hens have a certain refinement."

For six years Foreman was in charge of the Michigan State college poultry extension department and served as head of the college's poultry department for two years.

WHEN CIRCUS WAS IN ALLEGAN 50 YEARS AGO SALOONS WANTED CONCESSIONS

Allegan Gazette.—Barnum's circus had visited Allegan 50 years ago and drew a great crowd, the largest the town had ever seen—14,000 or more—and the Journal described the show elaborately. An employee was detailed to escort the editors specially and there were some amusing experiences. At one time the guide sent back the crowd by exclaiming, "My God, gentlemen, you are obstructing the view of the clergy!" Don Henderson showed his knowledge of natural history by asking what sort of horse the tapir was.

Twelve arrests for drunkenness were made the day of the circus. That was not so bad as it sounds, for sometimes half that number were made any Saturday. The number of saloons in the town had been greatly decreased, but there were still ten or twelve of the iniquitous concerns left.

First shipment of peaches was made July 21 by John B. Dumont. Others soon followed including some by Lyman A. Lilly. They were Amsons, a kind that soon disappeared because of its extremely poor quality. Amsons and Hale's Early were white peaches; clingstones, and did not deserve the name of peach. These shipments were said to be badly infested with curculio which insect pierced the green fruits and laid eggs which soon made the peaches all but worthless.

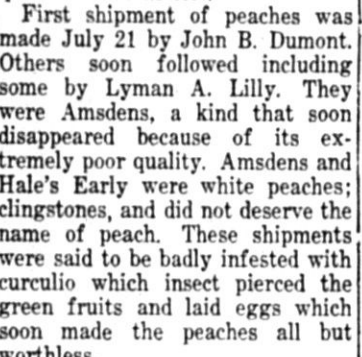

The boldness with which the saloons were run is shown by the fact that some of the keepers approached councilmen with a proposal that they would keep closed a part of circus day if they could be permitted to keep open past the legal hours at night, but this was refused.

BATTERY BROODERS

Many poultry raisers now use battery brooders. Both individual and long tiers of batteries are used. Some have heating devices—usually electricity or hot water. Others are kept in a heated room. These brooders are especially adapted for raising broilers for market but are also used for raising pullets. From 60 to 100 baby chicks are put in each compartment, and from one-fourth to one-third as many can be raised to broiler age there, the remainder being transferred to other brooders or put on range as the chicks grow. Battery brooders are usually of metal, with floors of 1½ inch hardware cloth or wire which permits the droppings to go through. The advantages claimed for battery brooders are less disease in rearing chicks, saving of brooder space, reduced labor costs, saving in fuel, and operation independent of the season of the year and weather conditions.

For Protection

Little Evelyn, age three, much interested in her mother's sewing, noticed that she had not put on her belt. When her mother stopped her work for a moment, Evelyn looked up and said: "What's the matter, mother, did you stic, or hurt yourself with the needle? You better put your funnel on."

Attorney General Defines Rights of Riparian Owners

Voorhies Gives Ruling on Fishing Privileges at Inland Lakes

A voluminous opinion by Atty. Gen. Paul W. Voorhies interpreted the rights of riparian owners on inland lakes to the conservation department in line with the statutes and supreme court opinions.

In general the opinion ruled that in private lakes less than 250 acres in size the owner can take fish without qualification if he planted them. If planted with public fish without his consent, the same rule would apply. If his consent were gained to the public planting, however, the lake would be open to the public. The public would also have rights to the lake if it has a navigable inlet or outlet, the opinion said.

If the lake is more than 250 acres in size and planted with public fish, the riparian owner is excluded from taking fish if the public is excluded regardless as to the consent of the owner to the planting of the fish. The same navigability test would apply to approach streams. Navigability would be based on the ability of the stream to permit commerce. It would not include a stream navigable only to small boats and canoes.

Riparian rights are carried with the sale of the property, the ruling continued. Riparian owners share equally the rights to the surface of the private inland lake, including boating, bathing and ice sports. The only special privilege allowable is to take fish out of season. Owners cannot charge fishing fees but can rent boats and other privileges. Riparian owners own the subsoil to the center of the lake.

During the sultry days of August fishing is often an unproductive sport. The fish lie listlessly in deep water, lacking energy and appetite. August fish—those from southern Michigan's smaller lakes—are often undesirable from the table standpoint. August finds them wormy or with that weedy flavor associated with "dog days." Frequently their flesh is soft.

The Great Northern Pike traditionally refuses to take the bait in August. It is a popular superstition that pike cut their teeth during this month, and are unable to eat no matter how strongly hunger moves them. Frequently pike are found with swollen gums. The "no bite" rule does not apply to the small ones, which are always greedy for food, or the hard, firm pike of northern waters.

Because of the high temperature, bass seldom feed in the shallows during the day. If the lake is spring fed, they are invariably at the bottom of the deepest pools, where cold water bubbles up from the interior of the earth. Sundown usually brings them out of retirement, and they remain active until shortly after dawn.

Night fishing in August frequently provides sport that can not be obtained during the day. Bass and walleyes prefer the darkness for their hunting. A black plug is often taken by them on clear, moonlit nights, and conversely, a white plug when the sky is overcast.

Hot weather seems to make little difference in the appetites of the small pan fish. Perch, bluegills, rock bass and similar varieties will almost always take a minnow or worm. But the big fellows are more "choosy" and require coaxing before they can be added to the string.

Even though fishing is poor, August brings the angler a measure of consolation. September is just a few weeks away, and many prefer the beginning of the autumn, when the weather is cool and flies are not troublesome, to any other season.

MUST BE REAL GOOD TO GET DRIVER'S LICENSE

Failing to heed a police summons for an offense even of parking too long may result in the revocation of the automobile driver's license and the loss of license plates, according to an action by the department of state. Although the measure was designed primarily for Detroit, in view of the mounting number of automobile fatalities there, it will be in force throughout the state. A hearing by the local police department will be the test whether or not the offense merits the suspension of the license.

COUNTERFEIT STAMPS ARE STOPPED

Attempts of gangsters to force malt dealers to purchase counterfeit malt tax stamps, have been to a large degree stopped by the Department of State with the assistance of local law enforcement officers. As soon as the department pointed out that the purchaser of counterfeit stamps was as guilty, under the 1931 law, as the seller, the activities of the gangsters in Detroit were greatly lessened.

By preventing the sale of counterfeit stamps, a rather large increase in revenue, which goes for the care of the state's tubercular patients and for a new Northern Michigan sanatorium, is expected. When the present supply of malt tax stamps is exhausted, the department will issue a new series which will be radically different from the present stamps.

The department does not sell stamps through traveling representatives and they can be purchased only at the main office in Lansing or at the branch offices of the department in Flint, Saginaw, Grand Rapids, Marquette, Jackson and Detroit.

Henry Kooiker Passes Suddenly Sunday Morning

WAS A SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER FOR AT LEAST HALF CENTURY

Holland loses a much beloved citizen in the person of Henry Kooiker, who died suddenly Sunday morning at his home at 9 West 13th street at the age of 87 years. Most of this time he lived in or in the vicinity of Holland and was well known in this community and along the entire country side as well.

He came to America as a lad of 13, sailing with his parents in a sailing vessel across the Atlantic in the year 1857. As many of the Hollanders of the early days, they came to Michigan to pioneer and tilling of the soil was the occupation they were devoted to in the Fatherland. The family settled on a farm in Overisel and up to the time of his death Mr. Kooiker still owned a large farm in that neighborhood where he lived until six years ago, when he moved to Holland, making his home with his daughter, Miss Sena Kooiker.

Mr. Kooiker always took a live interest in the Holland fair and was repeatedly elected as either vice-president or president. He had been a director for a number of years or served as superintendent in some department of the local association. He always made himself useful during fair week and was ever considered one of the moving spirits in this enterprise. When he felt the years creep upon him he asked to have younger men take his place but the Holland fair was not complete without Mr. Kooiker and they named him an honorary member.

Mr. Kooiker was intensely interested in religious work and for many years was active in the Overisel Reformed church where he served as an elder for a number of years. He was especially interested in young folks, serving as a teacher in the Sunday School for more than a half century. He was an ardent supporter of young peoples' societies and constantly worked with them.

Work in a civic capacity was also taken up by him he having served as moderator on the district school board of the Overisel schools for a long time.

While in Holland Mr. Kooiker generally attended the Third Reformed church, but he has always retained his membership in the Overisel church and worshipped there often when it was possible for him to do so.

Both in Holland and Overisel, Mr. Kooiker was looked up to as a public-spirited citizen, a highly respected and christian gentleman.

A few weeks ago, Mr. Kooiker figured in an automobile accident when he sustained a dislocated hip but he had been discharged from the hospital and was improving nicely from this accident and it is not believed that this was contributory directly to his sudden death.

Mrs. Kooiker, who was also a person of exceptional qualities, much beloved in her community, preceded her husband in death fifteen years before.

The surviving children are: Rev. G. Kooiker, Terry, Montana; G. John Kooiker, Mrs. George Huizenga, Miss Sena Kooiker, Joe Kooiker, all of Holland; Benjamin Kooiker, Overisel; and Mrs. Henry Colbrander of Orange City, Iowa. He also leaves 22 grand children.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home in Holland, at 9 W. 13th street. Rev. Henry Pyle of the Overisel Reformed church officiated at the home services assisted by Rev. James M. Martin and Rev. E. J. Blekkink. Rev. Pyle assisted by Rev. G. J. Hekhuis of Grandville, a former pastor of the Overisel church, Rev. Benjamin Hoffman, a close friend of the family, Rev. John Rogers of Hamilton and Rev. Martin conducted the rites at the Overisel Reformed church at 2:30 o'clock. Interment took place in Overisel cemetery.

Favorite Bible Passages of George H. Moses

U. S. Senator from New Hampshire.

Ecclesiastes 12, quoting verses 1-7: Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; while the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain.

In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, and the doors shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fall: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets; or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

MAD BECAUSE WATER MELONS WERE NOT RIPE

The celery house of Gilbert Bussies at Hamilton was entered Saturday night and the visitors are now the possessors of some of Gilbert property. The same night the melon patch of G. Nyhoff was visited. The fruit was not ready for picking, however, and the persons evidently to show their disappointment and spite, made havoc of the patch and then proceeded to the Nyhoff home where they hurled an unripe melon into the yard of the owner.

Concoing melons is usually considered in a somewhat different light than stealing but the action of these persons, as it seems to us, is worse than robbery. Wanton destruction does no one any good, whatever the motive may be. Very likely it was the work of some youngsters, whose minds are still narrow gauged and single tracked, for we can hardly believe that older and therefore wiser folks would allow themselves to act in such a manner.—Hamilton correspondent.

OTTAWA COUNTY FARMER GETS DAMAGES FROM RAILWAY

Because Luke Denhof, a farmer living near Conkling, had kept an old agreement dated 1886 between the old Toledo, Saginaw and Muskegon Railroad, allowing the property owner the right to maintain two cattle passes under the railroad right-of-way, a settlement was effected in circuit court at Grand Haven giving Denhof one cattle pass and $1,300 damages. The suit was started by Denhof against the Grand Trunk Railway, successor to the Toledo line, restraining the railway owners from filling in the cattle passes under the right-of-way which he claimed. The road bisects the Denhof farm and to keep cattle there two passes were allowed the owner in the old agreement.

It became necessary to fill in the passes as the supports were getting old and unsafe. The parties compromised by allowing one pass to remain and $1,300 damages for the loss of the other.

The final program includes these pieces: "Gardes Du Corps March," by R. B. Hall; "Spick and Span," overture, F. Jewell; Selection from "Robinhood," George Weizand; "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," Saint-Saens; "Artist Life Waltz," Strauss; "Home Songs," C. HAMILTON

The program for Hamilton's big Labor Day celebration is nearly completed. It will be a day and night celebration. In the morning two ball games will be played. The merchants will taken on one of Holland's teams at 8 A. M. while the Independents and the Hudsonville team will try to break the tie, each team, having won this summer. In the afternoon there will be band music, two state speakers and an interesting sports program. The sport committee has been nursing and greasing a pig as a special feature.

In the evening the program will be opened with a band concert and will be of an entertaining nature. A motion picture will be shown; at the close a large number of prizes will be given away. The Casco band has been obtained and they have promised to give all kinds of music during the day. The men have determined to do away with the dust and have secured a large pump which will throw 200 gallons a minute so the grounds will be thoroughly soaked during the week preceding the celebration. No admission will be charged in order that the people may enjoy the entire day without cost. There will be all kinds of stands so that folks will be able to spend the day on the grounds without returning home for meals and bringing heavy picnic baskets with them.

Lugten on the mound for the locals was in good form edging out Stoepeke of the visitors in a pitcher's duel. Last Tuesday evening in an abbreviating game of six innings the Independents easily won from the Holland Dicks by a 9 to 1 count. Rich Wentzel whined 12 men in six innings and held the visitors to three hits, while his teammates seemed to enjoy the serving of D. Fogarty, sending stinging grounders through the infield and sharp liners over their heads. The visitors also played an erratic game in the field, five errors being chalked up against them.

Wife of Judge Selected Text and Hymn for Her Funeral Service

Services for the late Mrs. James J. Danhof were held Friday afternoon at the Second Reformed church, Grand Haven, which was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, many coming from long distances to pay their last respects to this much beloved woman. The funeral sermon was delivered by Dr. Henry Hospers of the Western Theological Seminary, Holland.

Mr. Hospers has been an intimate friend of the family for a number of years and it was altogether fitting that he should be in charge of the services.

Dr. Hospers gave a very impressive address in which he portrayed the benevolent spirit that dominated Mrs. Danhof all through life. This spirit was reflected even in the text and the hymn chosen for these services by the deceased since both, Dr. Hospers said, were at the last request of the departed shortly before her passing. He said the hymn and the text had been her religious guide all through life.

Mrs. Wm. Van Schelven of Grand Haven, an intimate friend, sang the request hymn and was visibly affected as was the large audience.

In his discourse, Dr. Hospers pointed to the accomplishments of Mrs. Danhof and the high place she occupied in the community in which she had lived all her life. He pictured vividly her civil life, her religious life and her home affiliations, and he said the large outpouring of friends and dear ones—filling the church edifice, evidenced the high esteem in which Mrs. Danhof was held.

Holland was well represented at the funeral, most of the local attorneys were present, headed by Circuit Judge Fred T. Miles. Among them were attorney Orien S. Cross, Daniel Ten Gate, Clarence Lokker, Charles Mc Bride, Elbert Parsons, Prosecutor John Dethmers and Nelson Miles. Others attending were City Inspector Henry Bosch, Ald Frank Brieve, Ben Mulder, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luidens, Mrs. H. Hospers, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vaupell and Delbert Vaupell, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Pellegron and family, all of Holland. Dr. and Mrs. Hessel J. Yntema, Baltimore, formerly of Holland.

NEW HIGHWAY SOUTH OF HOLLAND IS DISCUSSED FAVORABLY BY HOLLAND MERCANTILE COMMITTEE

not as ignorant as some might suppose. They know where the scenic places are and go out to find them. This is evident at the Oval, Getz farm and other places of attractions way off the beaten path. He pointed out that the Muskegon Scenic drive, really a hide-away road, branching from North Muskegon, is congested with sightseers going from Muskegon to Sylvan Beach. Trucks, however are forbidden on this highway and go US31, the regular highway from Muskegon north. However, even though this scenic drive is off the "main drag" it is filled with sightseers, Mr. Mulder stated.

The Saugatuck committee were very sensible about the whole matter and their attitude indicated that they wished to co-operate with Holland.

Judging from the blue-prints and the surveys that have been made, it would seem to the News that regardless of what a Holland or Saugatuck committee or a local common council may say about the matter the federal and state authorities seem to have their plans well defined and are going through with those plans regardless of any local feeling one way or the other in the matter. All those at the meeting seemed to sense that idea. It appears that it involves the whole of US31 of which the highway between Holland and Saugatuck constitutes only a small part. The committee from Saugatuck was composed of Mr. T. T. T. of the Fruit-Growers State Bank, Mr. Weed of the Big Pavilion and Mr. Jackson, a business man of Saugatuck.

The local merchants committee was composed of Cornelius Dornbos, president of the Merchants' association, Ray Tardiff, Charles French, Kenneth De Pree, Charles Van Zyl, Jacob Lokker, Austin Harrington and B. A. Mulder. Of this committee, Jacob Lokker was the chairman.

It was finally decided by the Holland committee on a motion by Mr. French, that the local committee favor the idea of an added road to Holland but that if it can be of any service to Saugatuck to make some alterations at that point, that the Holland committee would gladly give that aid. This motion was voted favorably on by those present.

The Saugatuck men thanked the Holland committee for the kindly interest they have shown in behalf of Saugatuck.

Our opinion may be wrong but the News feels that if the old Saugatuck road is maintained as has been promised and the old road is well marked at intersections as a "Scenic Road"—so all can read—that these two roads will benefit both Holland and Saugatuck more than a single highway would. It seems too that a large number of rural folks living south of Holland would also be much pleased.

The Gas Flame

Symbol of Woman's Victory

Over an Age-old Foe

Every day, in the home, woman goes to battle. Housework is her adversary against whom she matches her strength, her wits and her courage.

The struggle between these two will go on forever. Woman always wins, but Work is never beaten, bobbing up fresh every morning, ready anew for the fray.

For ages, Woman had only the crudest weapons to aid her, until during the last century gas-making was invented and gas applied to household use. Since then, other inventions have come along to help out, but Gas was the first great modern invention to enter the lists in the service of Woman against Work. Gas still maintains that leadership.

The greatest weapon in the service of Woman today is the Modern Gas Range. More than any other household appliance, it saves Woman's time and strength. And it is supreme in its field. Pretentious rivals may assert claims of equality, but their boasts are not supported by performance.

Woman knows this. Nine out of ten women in the market for a new cooking appliance choose the Modern Gas Range.

Modern Gas Appliances for every purpose are always on display in our showrooms. We invite you to come in and examine them at your leisure.

NINTH ANNUAL HORSE SHOW BRINGS OUT SOCIETY AND LOVERS OF HORSES

Even though Holland has no fair this year the horse show, inaugurated nine years ago, in a small measure filled that niche at least this year. Society from the Holland resorts, Holland and the principal cities in Michigan were in force to see the splendid array of the best horse flesh in the state.

Not alone was there a horse show but there were horse races, and one unique feature was the presence of Bert Hammond, who is 62 years old and rode a steed in each fair with unusual skill. Hammond raced on Holland's tracks when the fairgrounds were still at the west end of the city, embracing what is now Kollen Park, Holland Sugar and Holland Shoe Factory company's properties and he has been following the "ponies" ever since.

It is evident that Hammond is some man on a horse for his "Colonel Thatcher" came in first in the running races and "Missouri Boy" second in the second running race. In the first the time was 50 3/4 seconds for the half mile and in the second race 50 1/2 seconds for the half mile.

The grandstand at the horse show was comfortably filled and many automobiles were along the side lines and within the large oval.

The weather was ideal and this was reflected in the large attendance with the ladies well represented. Besides being a horse show the latest fashions were so conspicuously evident that a fashion show might also have been staged at the same time.

Grandstand interest achieved a high pitch directly after 1 o'clock when three races were held, two saddle races with brightly-dressed jockeys and one harness race that pleased local spectators because John Boone drove the winning horse, owned by Charles Taylor of Coopersville. Second place in the harness race was taken by Ben Lugten of Hamilton and third place by Gil Van Hoven of Zeeland.

At least 165 horses entered in competition in the horse show of which 30 figured in the awards.

The racing events were also very interesting, bringing a great deal of excitement. One harness race and two saddle races were staged. The harness race was won by "Sterling Hall" driven by Boone of Holland. The first saddle race was won by "Col. Thatcher" driven by Bert Hammond of Fremont. Hammond also placed second in the second saddle race, won by "Swift Current," driven by C. Dollaway. The final event was headed by Mr. Brown followed by his pack of hunting dogs.

The results of these races are as follows:

OTTAWA COUNTY WANTS CUT IN PROPERTY VALUATION

Ottawa county makes a demand with 28 other counties for a sharp reduction in valuation. Representatives from the different counties have been at Lansing to lay before the state board of equalization the financial woes of the tax payers. Accounts of the industrial depression in various communities, tax delinquencies, abandonment of cutover lands, and the shifting of the population figured largely in the arguments presented by representatives of various counties in their efforts to obtain greater cuts than the $600,000,000 state-wide reduction recommended by the tax commission.

ILLINOIS MAN KILLED NORTH OF WEST OLIVE IN PECULIAR ACCIDENT

Timothy D. Beard, 46 years old, manager of the National Car Exchange of Maywood, Ill., was fatally injured Sunday noon when his car skidded on US-31 at Agnew near the junction of M-50 and turned turtle in a ditch on the west side of the pavement. There was no one else in the car.

Beard got off onto a soft shoulder and in righting his car it skidded across the road and went into the ditch and pinned Beard under the steering wheel where his body was crushed. He died almost before the body could be extracted.

Relatives arrived and took the body to Pentwater, his old home, where interment took place. Strange to say the car was not damaged and the eye glasses the man wore were not broken. He was on his way to Pentwater to attend a family dinner. Beard's mother had died two weeks before it is stated and also was buried in Pentwater.

HOLLAND MAN HURT

Fred Howard, Holland, suffered a leg fracture when struck by an automobile driven by Peter Elzinga of Zeeland, while the former was crossing M-21 near the Holland city limits. Howard was taken to Holland Hospital. He will be laid up for some time.

The Elzinga car turned over after striking Howard but none of the occupants was injured.

FOUR PERSONS KILLED IN ALLEGAN COUNTY

The injured are Mr. and Mrs. Reno Morgan of Trowbridge township, and their four children; Cornelius Bush, 19, and Frank Jackson, 21, son of Mrs. Josephine Jackson, both of Bradley. The injured were taken to Bronson hospital, Kalamazoo, and the dead to Benons undertaking parlors at Allegan.

No Mosquitoes

One of the pleasing things about fishing this year—at least in this neck of the woods—is the lack of mosquitoes. We've had a few of the pests buzzing around our ears the last few nights but there hasn't been a day on the stream when mosquito dope has been an essential. Probably the reason for this is the 1930 drought which dried up many of the swamps and killed the mosquitoes.

Golf will be played in the afternoon and the outing will be brought to a close with a banquet at which time prizes for the golf competition will be awarded. GRASSHOPPER PERIL EXISTS IN VAN BUREN BUT NOT IN ALLEGAN

Allegan County Agent, A. D. Morley says he has not heard of any destructive species of grasshoppers in Allegan county. This is not true of Van Buren county, where there is a serious infestation near Decatur. Celery and onions and even the fruit and leaves on peach trees have been eaten by the ravenous pests.

LOOK FOR BETTER "CHICK" YEAR NEXT SEASON

Zeeland baby chick raisers are looking forward to a better season next year. Shipments this season closed earlier than usual and were much smaller than in recent years. Egg prices are advancing and conditions are believed to warrant good winter and spring prices for chickens. Many persons now are taking up the new plan of small home-operated farms.

Former Holland Folks Travel Thru Europe

REV. AND MRS. BUSH NOW WRITE FROM ROME AND FLORENCE; WILL BE HOME IN SEPTEMBER

The letters to Mrs. Anna Van Drezer, East Tenth Street from her daughter traveling in Europe, continue to arrive and are most interesting. Two below tell of Rome and Florence.

Rome, Aug. 3, 1931

Dear Mother and All:— We had two nights and one day in Venice and wished you all could be with us. We left for Rome Saturday morning at 7:40 and arrived about 8:00 at night. It was a long hard trip but we all kept happy.

It was very comfortable here yesterday. In the morning Ben and I drove to St. Peter's alone in one of those old-fashioned carriages. We found a very lovely service in progress when we arrived. Mass was being celebrated by some church dignitary of note and all the pomp and pageantry of the Catholic Church was in evidence. I never saw such gorgeous vestments. The Vatican choir was exquisitely lovely. Wish you could have heard the boy soprano voices ring out. After Mass a procession formed, ex-soldiers, attendants, priests, all arrayed in magnificent colored robes, chanting and swinging incense and under a gold canopy held by 8 attendants marched the Bishop. I wish I could paint the picture for you. The brilliant uniforms, the gorgeous robes, chanting, angelic music, kneeling people, all forming a picture I shall never forget.

Later we went by automobile to Tivoli where the ruins of Hadrian's palace is. You have no idea of the extent and size of this place. The Villa D'Este is near Tivoli and a place of such beauty I shall never be able to describe—one of those places so beautiful it almost hurts. This morning we again visited St. Peter's and the Vatican with Miss Dumpe, our guide. It was a very fatiguing experience.

We have a lecture at 4 so I must rest a little. We are well. So far Italy hasn't been very hot, thank goodness.

Lovingly,
MAE.
Florence, Aug. 9, 1931

Dear Ones:— Well, Sunday night again and we are now in Florence. Florence is as wonderful as ever. I know we couldn't get out of Italy without some very hot weather, but we are trying to take things a little easy and then we can manage very nicely.

We had a fairly comfortable trip up from Rome. I shall be glad to get out of Italy though. You have no idea how strained every thing is here. No one dares discuss Mussolini; we don't dare mention his name. We all refer to him as Al Smith! We were warned several times before coming, not to ask any questions about him as to where he lived, etc. All the speakers we have heard here are very circumspect; they are absolutely uncommittal in their statements. They have been so colorless, one can't find out anything.

We have done many pleasant things on the side. Last night we drove out of Florence across the Arno and had dinner on a terrace overlooking the city. It was perfectly beautiful. Yesterday afternoon we shopped some and later Countess Compagni personally showed us through the private rooms of the Palazzo Vecchio. It was a great privilege. She is a charming woman. Her husband has the supervision of all the monuments in Florence.

This morning we visited the Russian church and heard some wonderful music. There were very few at the service, but I enjoyed it. We expect to drive to Fiesole late this afternoon and dine there some place out-of-doors. It is great fun eating out-of-doors in the evening. Usually it gets quite cool.

We rowed for a while on the Arno the other night with Mr. Holban, our guide. He is a very interesting man. Will tell you all about him some day. He belongs to the old Rumanian nobility and lost most of his fortune during the war and is doing this work this summer to help pay the enormous taxes on his big estate.

My but these Italians are a noisy lot! We can hardly sleep. They seem to stay up all night. They were out on the street before four this morning, laughing, yelling.

We will soon be where it is cooler. We leave tomorrow for Milan and have one day there. Then Murten for about four days. We will have a good rest there. It will seem good to be out of this heat. Then we will have about a week in Geneva; a week in Paris and then sail for home.

It has been a wonderful summer. I have learned many things—some valuable lessons, I hope.

Lovingly,
MAE.

Knoll Case is on September Court Calendar

MANY DIVORCE CASES LISTED; BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS CASE LIKELY TO COME UP

The case of the people against Leonard D. Knoll of Holland, held under bonds for armed robbery, in connection with the Hudsonville bank robbery case, promises to be the most important case in point of outside interest, in the circuit court calendar for the September term.

Court opens on Sept. 1 for arraignments and calendar arrangements. It may be that Judge Fred T. Miles will sentence Henry Kraai and John Omar Peters of Holland, who confessed to their guilt in the Hudsonville robbery case and who have been held in the county jail since the armed robbery of that bank several weeks ago.

Matt Hahan, John Behn, convicted of liquor violations, will come up for sentence. An appeal will be made in the case of Peter Braamse, of Holland.

On the civil calendar, the case of the Board of Public Works against the City of Grand Haven will probably be of most interest in Grand Haven. The case is not listed on the printed calendar, but it is expected the attorneys will both be ready, when the case is called on the opening day. The whole matter involves who is to pay an attorney's bill already contracted. It is understood to be a friendly suit to decide a legal point.

A large number of divorce cases are listed including the following:

Jay R. Hawkins vs. Helen M. Hawkins; Anna Cochran vs. Charles F. Cochran; James R. McKinley vs. Mary H. McKinley; Harm Bolthouse vs. Cornelia Bolthouse; Libbey Solley vs. Bert Solley; Jessie Dok vs. John Dok; Minnie Bryant vs. Harry Bryant; Elizabeth Mahder vs. Sam Mahder; John Homfield vs. Minnie Homfield; Kathryn Van Puhl vs. Henry Van Puhl; Minnie Zlotnicki vs. Stanley Zlotnicki; John N. Garvelink vs. Mary C. Garvelink; Wilma Louise Thompson vs. Harold William Thompson; Lulu Thomas vs. Anthony Thomas; Clara Rainey vs. Myrtle Rainey; Thelma Zuidema vs. Peter Zuidema; Myrtle Gullford vs. William Oliver Gullford.

There are 13 civil jury cases and 23 civil non-jury cases listed. The case of Walter Malstrom, Grand Haven, against Joe Sickman, city police deputy, for false arrest is expected to come up. The damage suit of Gertrude Geglio vs. Marvin Huizenga under two counts also is a Grand Haven case, Marvin Huizenga is being charged with negligence in an automobile accident. James Manaman also has a case against Huizenga.

SPRING LAKE COUNTRY CLUB REVISES GOLF RULES

A change has been made in regard to the ruling of the Spring Lake Country club board of governors that local parties may only use the course twice a year and then when accompanied by a member. Another change was made in regard to non-resident green fees. These fees of $2 for week-day play and $2.50 for Sunday and holiday play, are to be reduced one-half after 4:30 p. m. daily, throughout the year.

An Announcement

The following banks announce that beginning Sept. 1, 1931, a change will be made in the rate of interest on Savings Accounts and Certificates of Deposit:

Interest at the rate of 3½%, payable semi-annually on all Savings Accounts, to be computed on a basis of the largest amount continually on deposit for the preceding six calendar months. This rate is figured when deposit has been left for a period of one year. All amounts on deposit for over three months and less than one year will be computed on a rate of 3 per cent.

Certificates of Deposit will draw interest at the rate of 3½% per annum, if left continuously on deposit for the period of one year. Interest at 3 per cent if left six months.

This action of the reduction of interest on time deposits is in accordance with the resolution unanimously passed by the Michigan State Bankers Association at its last annual meeting held in June, 1931.

It is generally known that because of changed economic conditions since 1929, the yield from good marketable investments has been gradually declining until at present it is the lowest for many years with no sound indication of substantial advance in the near future. As it has been the policy of conservative banks to invest their reserves and a substantial part of their deposits in this type of securities, it naturally necessitates a reduction in interest rates on deposits, which action most of the leading banks of the state and country have already taken.

The undersigned banks have built up their business on Conservative Policies, and our action in reducing interest rates paid on time deposits is in line with the practice of all well established Banking Institutions.

The State Banking Commissioner endorsed the above action in the following words:

"We feel that the change which you have determined to make is based upon good judgment and sound banking principles, as the condition of the security market at the present time and for some time in the past has been such as to render reduction in interest rate most essential. The action which you are taking is unquestionably in accord with safe and sound banking."

Sincerely yours,

R. E. REICHERT,

Commissioner

Holland and Ottawa County Back Brucker

OFFICIALS WILL CO-OPERATE WITH MICHIGAN'S GOVERNOR TO SUPPRESS CRIME AND CURB "BLIND PIGS"

Governor Wilbur Brucker has inaugurated a policy to curb crime in Michigan and to drive out "Blind Pigs" and "Speakeasies" now within its borders. The governor has taken a firm stand on this matter, especially since the torch murder of two boys and two girls at Ypsilanti. This brutal slaying of four young folks by a negro and two whites brought the aftermath that started a campaign to make things "hot" for gangsters and criminals in the state of Michigan. Officials from all over Michigan have signified their intentions to back up the governor. The prosecutors of Allegan County and Kent County have given their endorsement and Ottawa County also followed quickly.

Here are a few of the Ottawa County endorsements.

Judge Fred T. Miles, Judge of Ottawa-Allegan Circuit—The youth are beset by the awful examples of parents and so-called aristocracy of communities who glory in defying the law. Youth is not responsible.

John R. Dethmers, Prosecuting Attorney, Grand Haven—Many young fellows are involved in crime today through the deteriorating influence of moonshine. Women in this county are not seriously affected yet. So long as the legal safeguards exist to protect the moonshine manufacturer, this menace will remain and increase. Juries will not convict, and they are getting worse each term.

Cornelius Steketee, Sheriff, Grand Haven—Crime is increasing and is more deadly, due to moonshine. As fast as a law is passed regarding it, the supreme court punches it full of holes so the manufacturers escape. Juries will not uphold the work of officers. High school boys and girls are being literally ruined and petting parties are usually started with a drink. Anyone who wants liquor in this county can get it, if he has the money. And when the habit is strong, the half-crazed mind will stop at nothing.

Judge John Van der Werp, Muskegon Circuit Court—Now holding court in Ottawa County—Conditions were worse because we haven't the death penalty. It's these affairs that may wake up people to the need.

The Holland police department also has signified to aid Governor Brucker to the fullest extent. Acting Chief Henry Vander Schel states that the liquor sources in Holland have not been many but those that do exist will be rooted out as soon as evidence is obtained. He says that the speakeasies that exist will be given attention and a watchful eye will be kept for "wet places" the year around to stop the flow of liquor as much as possible.

The police board, the acting chief and the officers have a campaign mapped out for them in co-ordination with the plans laid out by the governor of Michigan.

Bud Ver Lier had his tonsils removed Saturday, August 15.

FIRM FOR DEAD ONES SURE IS LIVE CONCERN

The Royal Casket Co., a subsidiary of the Zeeland Ornamental works, which started operations several months ago in the Auto Bow plant near the Harp & Cooley plant east of the city has won a place among Holland's successful smaller industries.

The company is operating with a full time crew of 16 men and disburse a pay roll of $500 a week. The plant was obtained for Holland through the efforts of the Holland Chamber of Commerce. The Pere Marquette with a force of men has also improved sidings to the plant and it sure is a hustling spot in Holland at the casket plant.

Manuel P. Huyser of California was the honored guest at a beach party held last week Thursday evening at Tunnel Park. A picnic supper was enjoyed after which games were played. Those present were: Manuel P. Huyser, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Huyser, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Huyser, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell B. Huyser and children, LaVerne, Esther and Ivan.

Manuel Huyser is in the electrical department in the USS Saratoga, one of the largest navy plane carriers on the west coast stationed at San Pedro, California. He is home on thirty days leave.

JUST a tasteful dose of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia in water. That is an alkali, effective yet harmless. It has been the standard antacid for 50 years. One spoonful will neutralize at once many times its volume in acid. It's the right way, the quick, pleasant and efficient way to kill all the excess acid. The stomach becomes sweet, the pain departs. You are happy again in five minutes.

Don't depend on crude methods. Employ the best way yet evolved in all the years of searching. That is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. Be sure to get the genuine.

OTTAWA COUNTY FARM NOTES FROM MR. MILHAM'S OFFICE

A group of over five hundred leading farmers is being organized in Ottawa County by Agricultural Agent Milham. This group is made up of one or more farmers in each square mile in the county. Individuals in the group are called local advisors who provide the agent with correct mailing lists, acreage of crops in their mile and other information to make agricultural extension work more efficient and beneficial. These advisors will meet with the agent in the fall to plan winter meetings selecting subjects and locations for meetings. In the spring they will advise the agent relative to places for summer demonstrations. They will also inform the agent of work in their community which they think should be done to make farming more profitable. In other words this group will advise the agricultural agent of what should be done in the county. This will give the Ottawa farmers a greater voice in agricultural practices.

There is no question, says Mr. Milham, but that the advice, assistance and cooperation of this group in planning together will be a great factor in the future prosperity of agriculture in Ottawa County.

Nine boys from Ottawa County representing the 4H clubs motored to East Lansing last week to compete in grain judging contests and in handicraft demonstration work. The boys doing judging were: Elwood McMillan, Allendale, Donald Burch, Marne, Elmer Modderman, Lamont, Bernard Culligan, John Veenneman, Wm. and Bennie Westra, from the Hanchett school. The handicraft demonstration team consisted of Howard Vanden Linden and Howard Irish of Coopersville. The boys were accompanied by Ben Westra, Wm. Van Allsburg and C. P. Milham.

On August 24 and 25 Mr. Milham will take seven boys to the College for dairy and livestock judging. The boys who will go will be: nine from the Drenthe Club to judge the beef cattle, sheep and swine and the following to judge dairy cattle: Bernard Van Huizen, Allendale; Chas. Baldus, Nunica; Almond Rymer, Spring Lake; Allen Collis, Wright; and Donald Laug, Louis Nuland, Wayne and Howard Rusten from the Marshall school. This last group won the local judging contest at Coopersville recently.

BOWELS need watching

Let Dr. Caldwell help when your child is feverish or upset; or has caught cold.

His simple prescription will make that bilious, headache, cross and irritable child comfortable, happy, soon in a few hours. It soon restores the bowels to healthy regularity. It helps "break-up" a cold by keeping the bowels free from all that swelling mucus waste.

You have a famous doctor's word for this laxative. Dr. Caldwell's record of having attended over 3500 births without loss of one mother or baby is believed unique in American medical history.

Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from your druggist and have it ready. Then you won't have to worry when any member of your family is headachy, bilious, gassy or constipated. Syrup Pepsin is good for all ages. It sweetens the bowels; increases appetite—eases digestion more completely.

Grand Haven Faces a Bond Issue to Help Take Care of Her Needy

With $2,600 already spent out of the coming year's $10,000 welfare department appropriation, Grand Haven faces the prospect of a bond issue for poor relief sometime this winter. The appropriation for the fiscal year starting Oct. 1, 1930 was overdrawn $1,800 last May when the new council came in and at the present time $2,600 of the $10,000 appropriation for the year starting Oct. 1, 1931, has been used.

Even in summer, according to Mayor William Ver Duin, a member of the welfare board, the amount needed for the care of the city's needy amounts to about $800 monthly. The mayor is not optimistic that the winter will show a letup but predicts a big increase in the amount. He feels that before the winter is over, a bond issue of $5,000 or $10,000 will be needed to carry on welfare work and provide food, clothing and housing for those out of funds and unable to secure employment. "We must not let anyone in Grand Haven endure real suffering this winter," he declared.

Discussing the question of a bond issue for welfare funds, Alderman Peter Van Zyl felt that the city might legally bond itself for $5,000 without a vote of the people but suggested that an opinion be secured from the city attorney on the question. Mr. Ver Duin's idea was for a issue to run 10 years by which time affairs would be going normally and payment of the issue need not be felt.

Several voiced the opinion that the city funds were not being spent with the proper amount of caution as to whether those aided were needy cases. There was also some comment that funds provided for food were not spent for staple articles. Mr. Ver Duin said from his experience on the welfare board that the grocers were cooperating in only giving necessary foods on city orders and that exhaustive inquiry as to the need of each applicant for help was made before aid was given.

Miss Constance Norlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Norlin of Route Two, and Theodore Range of Chicago were united in marriage on July 4 at Crown Point, Indiana. The couple were attended by Miss Esther Jones and Eldo Coffman, both of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Range left Monday on a honeymoon trip to the East. They will make their home in Holland and will be at home to their friends after September 10th.

STYLE SHOW AT WARM FRIEND TAVERN

Today, Friday, the Rose Cloak Store for the benefit of Holland residents is staging a Style Show at the Warm Friend Tavern, to the dinner guests of this popular hostelry.

Some conception of the chic styles for fall wear to be shown, is reflected in the display windows of the Rose Cloak Store.

Although mid-summer is here the display window is replete with fur creations. These windows are outstanding for the reason that the display is artistic with color scheme blending beautifully, and the windows not overloaded with merchandise.

The luxurious fur coats and gowns are in a soft tan setting indicative of the fall season, the background being embellished with a leafy vine and having an aspect of ripened fruit and harvest time.

The creation is from the hands of Mrs. Taft who is of an artistic turn of mind, and therefore this popular emporium always carries out the artistic complex.

SAUGATUCK, DOUGLAS, FENNIVILLE AND VICINITY

Herbert Robinson, 24, was arraigned in Justice Fish's court in Allegan charged with selling a half gallon of alcohol at Saugatuck August 5 to Floyd Peters. Sheriff Teed made the arrest. Complaint was signed by Jack Blackall. Robinson stood examination, Monday and was bound by Fish to the October term of circuit court. Bail was set at $1,000. It was thought he has been running liquor into Saugatuck from Chicago by automobile and then selling it in Saugatuck, using the automobile as the base of operations.

Miss Hyatt of Deckerville is the new pastor at the Ganges Baptist church, near Pier Cove.

Miss Elaine Vaupell, of Allegan, entertained for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Francis LeRoy of Ann Arbor at dinner at Hargie's Inn, followed by bridge at her home, Friday evening. Guests included, Delbert Vaupell of Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Herman DeLano, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gallagher and Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Maentz.

At the new Richmond homecoming about 200 guests registered and the election of officers resulted as follows: President, Owen Lamoreaux; vice president, Mrs. Elsie Smeed; secretary, Mrs. Mabel Barnes; treasurer, Mrs. Mabel Colf Thomas.

Distilling the peppermint and spearmint crops in the Fennville district has commenced but the dry weather has also injured these crops.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the farm home on U.S.-31 half a mile south of Ganges, formerly owned by Thomas Kiernan, Sr., last Friday night. The farm is owned by Mr. Kiernan's son in law, Roy Haile of Detroit. The house was unoccupied.

Mr. and Mrs. John Huizenga and children, of Holland, were weekend guests at the Clarence Dailey home.

William Steenburg, charged with breaking and entering a cottage at Hutchins Lake near Fennville pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Charles Orther of Fennville, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs and jail for thirty days, with an additional 30 days if fine is not paid.

A survey is to be made of the Kalamazoo river from Albion to the mouth to determine the amount of oxygen in the water, the quantity of bacteria, and the amount of flow of water. Eighteen other rivers are to be treated in the same way. This is done to obtain data upon which to base future action of the stream control commission. This work was to be done last year on the Kalamazoo, so probably it has been completed. The degree of pollution from towns and cities and certain industries was to be determined. Practically all of the larger cities of southern Michigan are situated on the streams investigated. No doubt the River section flowing through Allegan county from Allegan to Saugatuck will come in for a "look over."

With a very poor prospect for a fruit market this fall, growers might better imitate the example of their California brethren and only try to market the very best of their fruit. The crop now going to market will not net the growers anything, but will weaken the market for the future. In California the canners have agreed to destroy over 140,000 tons of cling peaches, which will leave them just about what the consuming public will buy and give them a profit. Michigan could well afford to imitate some of the other states and pass a law to prevent the shipping of these very low grades. Such a law has given those western states a standing in the market which Michigan can never earn without similar drastic legislation.—Allegan Gazette.

The fifth and last exhibition of the summer season of the Saugatuck Art association was opened with a public reception in the Saugatuck Art gallery Saturday. The exhibition is a collection of oil paintings by Oskar Gross, portrait painter; Carl Hoerman, landscape painter; and Kathleen Buehr Granger, who contributes still life compositions. Mr. Gross addressed the members and guests of the association and music was provided by Hermia Braithwaite Fonger, Florence Adele Fend and Carmine Barille. The reception committee consisted of Mrs. Frederick F. Fursman, chairman, Mrs. Oskar Gross, Mrs. Carl Hoerman, Mrs. Fred Stearns, Mrs. Alice Dawson, Mrs. Abbott Davis, Mrs. McMorris and Mrs. Charles Sproul.

The Fennville Fruit Exchange is busy taking care of a rather poor crop of Oldenburg apples. In spite of extra spraying a great many apples have been stung and, though the worms were killed, it leaves damaged fruit. The market is very slow and low, the A grade now bringing about 60 cents and the B grade about 45 cents per bushel, which leaves the growers a very small sum to help meet their growing costs. No buyers have been here to contract for later fruit and there is a rather discouraging outlook.

Last Friday evening Saugatuck and vicinity witnessed the presentation of the Annual Minstrel Show by the Camp Gray employed staff with the manager, Mr. R. A. Walker, acting as the interlocutor. The minstrel first part was made hilarious by the four men: Messrs. Otto Taylor of Saugatuck, Russell Damstra of Holland, Irvin Pedersen of Chicago and Vin White of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Specialties were presented by Miss Margaret Wallace of Clovis, New Mexico, and Miss Helen Lasater of Athens, Tenn., and by Mr. Jack Pelon of Holland. These were supported by a well trained chorus. The second part of the program included a Human Organ number, the pipes of the organ being represented by members of the staff. It was played by the assistant manager of the Camp, Mr. J. Fred Speer of New York City, and presented by Mr. Frank Birkett of Watseka, Ill. An artistic group of songs was sung by Miss Mary Seldon of China, and a rapid-fire blackface monologue was given by Mr. Damstra. Much credit is due to Miss Donnell Fry of Princeton, Ill., as the producer and to Miss Barbara Mohlenbrock of Murphysboro, Ill., as pianist.

The Fennville canning factory is closing the pack of string beans, the drouth having cut the crop very short. Usually the pack last about six weeks but this season will be about four weeks. Reports from Wisconsin state that the bean and pea crops there have been lost by drought so consumers would better lay in a few cans before the price advances. There was quite a carry-over of string beans from last year which will help out the visible supply. Following beans there will be a lull at the factory to be followed by plums, peaches, and crabapples.

Tells More Of The Jerusalem Of Present Day

By DR. A. J. BROWER

We were taken over the supposed "Via Dolorosa" or the sorrowful way as it is sometimes called. It begins near St. Stephen's Gate on the east of the city and continues on to the church of the Holy Sepulchre. The first station marks the House of Pontius Pilate. A building or church is built over the supposed court of Pilate, according to tradition, but I could not believe much of it. Rocks and tablets seemed to be their only clue to the real spot if this was the place, and that seem all that was left in a cave or dug out. When I was in Rome, I went to a church which stood on the opposite side of the square from the Lateran Palace. In it was the Scala Santa or Holy Stair. This flight of twenty-eight marble steps is said to have been brought from Pilate's Court in Jerusalem and Christ is supposed to have ascended them. They are encased in wood and must be ascended on the knees, a painful process, and all the while saying prayers.

When at the top a priest pronounces a blessing upon the participants and descent is made by another stair-case. Repeatedly have these wooden cases been worn out by peoples knees. It is said Martin Luther has gone up on his knees. Not far from Pilate's court we came to "Ecce Homo Arch, where Pilate is supposed to have said "Behold The Man," thence to where Jesus fell under the weight of the Cross. These spots are underground in a cave with a church built over it. In all there are 14 stations where something different has happened at each place. To me it seemed impossible that this all could be true since rubbish covered up the original way for many many years, and to a great depth; yet in Luxer, Kanak, Memphis, Thebes, King Tut, the temples of the Pharaohs were covered up for centuries to a depth of 100 feet or more. A large temple was unearthed while I was at the Sphinx at Lezah in Egypt. It is only a short while ago that the Sphinx showed nothing but the head and shoulder. Later the body and claws of a lion were exposed and now a temple underneath. I was in it. All the excavated ruins are genuine, but excavations have never been so extensive in Jerusalem as in some of the other places, still while one is there one can hear and see but to believe everything is another matter.

The Holy Sepulchre is very interesting. A church called the Holy Sepulchre Church is built over it. This is an extremely busy place at Christmas time so I am told, and it naturally would be since believed to be such an important historical spot. If the Atlantic ocean and the Caribbean sea are marked where the Titanic and the Maine went down they why should this spot be not revered?

We saw the water carriers, today like they were in Bible times. Leather bags made of goat skins. Whole skins, intact, with the exception of the legs below the knees, and the head. One man will carry from one to three such bags, full of water, wine or some other liquid. Matthew 9, verse 17, "Neither do men put new wine into old bottles, else the bottles break and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish." Job 32, verse 19, "Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent it is ready to burst like new bottles." In the Dutch Bible we read, "Ziet myn buik is als de wyn, die niet geopend is, gelyk nieuwe, ledere zakken zou by bersten." A bottle in the Bible means a hollow vessel or bag of leather for holding liquids. Here is just one instance where the Dutch Bible is clearer I think than the English. Bottilla means a leather bag or bottle, but the Dutch just called it a leather bag (and it is a leather bag, not a bottle like we think of a glass or earthen bottle).

These water carriers are a very familiar sight in the temple area but also through Jerusalem, though the modern water-carts have driven them from the principal streets. They fetch the water to the houses where the women are to well off to work, and deliver on small streets where carts cannot go. Just a few years ago our country started to place drinking fountains for horses along our main highways. Later for human consumption, then they were placed on street corners and in public buildings. How well I remember the common drinking cup. Notice how long it took us to do this. In Pompeii I saw public drinking fountains that were there before the time of Christ, so we are just copying after ancient customs and ways.

The water seller carries his supply on his back. He has two brass cups which he clinks together to attract attention. They sell water, lemonade, licorice water, sherbet and still other drinks, but to have a drink out of a goat's skin turned inside out did not appeal to me so I never tasted any of their drinks. Seeing the carriers and the bags was plenty for me.

In practically all the buildings of the temple area we were to either take off our shoes or wear slippers or moccasins over our own, whereas, the Moslems consider this Holy ground.

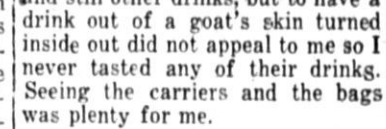

This is the custom among the Mohammedans in all their mosques and round about. Ever since 637 A. D. has this city been under Moslem rule, about from the time of the birth of the Mohammedan faith. It has remained a Moslem city with the exception of one century when the Crusaders held sway. Although at present there are only about 7,000 of their kind out of a population of 60,000. Of these 40,000 are Jews and 14,000 Christians.

Sometimes, some of us had to keep moccasins on. Mine usually fit snug to my big feet, but the small-footed, had trouble. If they would come off, oh how the Mohammedans would scramble to put them back on for us. Of course we respected their belief and were not looking for trouble, hence we did as we were commanded, just like Joshua did of old, only Joshua was at Jericho, we read in Joshua 6, verse 15, "And the captain of the Lord's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy; and Joshua did so."
