Council May Think In Terms Of New Museum

WARM FRIEND TAVERN CO.
ASKS COMMON COUNCIL
FOR LICENSE TO SERVE
DRINKS BY THE GLASS

Dr. A. Leenhouts, who last February took a deep interest in Netherlands Day, which brought to Holland the descendants of Dutch pioneers in western Michigan and beyond to Holland, commemorating the twentieth anniversary of the coming of Van Raalte, appeared before the common council to tell the aldermen what effect this has had on making this city the pivotal center for all such activities. As we all know, this commemoration had a very gratifying outgrowth. Through the aid of the U. S. government in its research department, of which Willard Wichers is the head here, considerable was done to perpetuate those things that are near and dear to the hearts of the Dutch ancestry, and intensely interesting to our American friends, Mr. Leenhouts stated.

A museum was started, the doctor said, first in the basement of Hope college chapel, and now in the old Peoples Bank building on East Eighth street. Dr. Leenhouts stated that the response that this museum has brought is conclusive evidence that the people take a deep interest in these things and the entry of curios, documents, and such exhibits as relate to early American history, and especially Dutch pioneering, was spontaneous and what is more, this interest has continued until now the housing of these valuables has become so great that they are not near enough room to keep them safely. Many of them cannot even be exhibited for lack of facilities, and are stored until there are facilities.

Mr. Leenhouts pointed out that word has been received from Muskegon, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, and other centers with a Dutch background, wanting to help, but they also want to know whether Holland is going ahead on its museum idea, for if Holland doesn't do just that some other Dutch center would; and as Dr. Leenhouts pointed out, this city is the birthplace and the foundation of the first Holland settlement, and this must be perpetuated, and no better method could possibly be devised than to establish a shrine in the form of a museum to bring this about.

It is with that in mind that Dr. Leenhouts asked the common council to become museum-minded. He did not ask for money; he did not get the common council set plans; but all he asked was that a committee be appointed from the members of the common council to collaborate with a committee of men chosen during the celebration last February to form plans, ways and means for a museum.

Dr. Leenhouts' suggestion was duly followed and Mayor Geerlings appointed a committee, comprising the following aldermen: Chairman, Ben Steffens; Ed Brouwer, Al Kleis, Henry Prins and Peter Huyser.

The committee of the Board of Netherlands Foundation to meet with these men are Dr. Wynand Wichers, chairman; Cornelius Van der Meulen, George Tinkhof, William Arendshorst and Dr. A. Leenhouts.

A matter that came up before council was the request that the Holland Hotel Company, operating Warm Friend Tavern, be given a license to sell liquor by the glass to hotel patrons. The matter came up at this time since it was pointed out the Michigan Liquor Control Commission on July 21 sent a communication to this and other councils setting forth that under the amendment liquor control act it is necessary for all municipalities continuing to authorize the sale of liquor by the glass, for the council to vote on or before September 19 in favor of it or that the matter go to a vote of the people.

Other cities of any size have allowed their hotels and a few other places to sell by the glass since patrons demand this service. Selling by the glass is allowed in licensed hotels in Saginaw, Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Grand Haven and other places near here, but up to this time an application has never been made, as far as hotel patrons are concerned, to sell liquor by the glass. The hotel wishes to establish its bar on the first floor, to do away with the wholesaling of liquor by the bottle, and sell by the glass as any other hotel in the vicinity does. Mr. Lillard stated that the average patron who uses liquor doesn't want a bottle, but simply wants a drink. He also said that the Tavern is at a disadvantage with hotels all around, within a few minutes' ride, giving service in that way.

Alderman Ed Brouwer, who has been consistently dry, stated that the wish of the hotel is to confine the liquor to the first floor with a suitable bar, and to serve as do the hotels in the neighborhood. Mr. Brouwer stated that there may be some in Holland who are opposed to the move of selling liquor by the glass, but they are not fully aware of the situation. Under the present 6, D. D. arrangement, patrons of Warm Friend Tavern cannot buy liquor by the single drink, but are compelled to buy in bulk, which, as a rule, means more liquor than they care for. When liquor is purchased by the bottle there is a tendency to carry the liquor to the rooms, which is not the desire of Warm Friend Tavern or any other hotel.

Our local civic center, Warm Friend Tavern, is in competition with all the hotels in the neighborhood where this has been permitted for the past two or three years.

Council Notes

Mayor Geerlings called the meeting a half hour earlier in order to speak at a labor meeting in Odd Fellows' Hall, at 8:00 o'clock. At that, he couldn't get away from the council meeting until 9:00 o'clock because of the pyramid of business that had to be transacted.

A much-bewhiskered and long-haired individual from the House of David wanted a license to sell rugs. The matter was frowned upon by the council since we have folks who sell rugs and pay taxes. The matter was left to the license committee.

Holland is a member of the Michigan League of Municipalities, comprised of cities of importance, where they bring their problems and compare notes. Mayors, city clerks and aldermen gather there. This year it will be at Saginaw Wednesday and Thursday, September 15 and 16, when City Attorney Parsons is on the program for a discourse. City Clerk Oscar Peterson will also be a delegate, as will Alderman Frank Smith. Because of this convention the common council meeting will be held one day early on Tuesday, September 14.

There has been a protest from residents on West Ninth street by the Washington boulevard and Van Raalte avenue, recently laid, asking that the south side of the street for a block be marked "no parking." That block is filled completely by automobiles of non-residents and folks living on that street have little chance at their own property. It was left to the street committee for further report.

Alderman John Vogelzang brought in a resolution from the American Legion band asking that $200 be appropriated with which to draw plans and specifications for a band shell in which the fine instruments of the band can be housed. This has been a crying need in Holland for years. The band concerts have been a real asset, bringing many visitors and a great evening of pleasure for thousands of local people during the entire summer. It is understood that if plans go through, a band shell will be built costing approximately $5,000. Just where the shell would be built has not yet been determined, but finally, at the recommendation of Alderman Damsen the matter was left to the civic improvement committee, rather than to the music committee, where this improvement really belongs. The members of that committee are Alderman Brouwer, Alderman Prins, and Alderman Kleis. They undoubtedly will collaborate with the music committee. It was on a motion of Alderman Kleis that the $200 appropriation was passed.

Alderman Kalkman wanted to hold the matter of a band shell up because, he says, "next spring we'll vote on buying that tannery property again, and then we can put the shell up on there."

The matter of stationing officers at street intersections adjacent to the different schools was brought up again. Alderman Brouwer wanted to know who was to pay for these men and it was decided that a committee be appointed to confer with the school board, asking that the Board of Education pay 50 percent and the city of Holland 50 percent. The committee, appointed by Mayor Geerlings were Alderman Kleis, Prins and Smith.

That automatic light arrangement, costing considerable money, to be located tentatively at U. S. 81 on Nineteenth street, was again brought up. The aldermen felt that City Attorney Parsons is doing good work and wanted him to continue to negotiate with Murray D. Van Wageningen, the state highway department head. Everything relative to this light will be found in the police report elsewhere in this issue, together with other matters that were referred to the council.

"Casey" Kalkman, although well meaning, but an excitable individual, got all "het up" first about a place on the tannery property. He got really "around up," however, when he wanted to make a through street from River avenue over Eighth street, west then to Washington avenue and Ninth street, then over Lake street to Van Raalte avenue, South, to Seventeenth street. He felt that this circuitous system of highways should be lined with stop signs, making it a through thoroughfare. What caused his excitement seemed to be that he was under the impression that these had already been called through streets, passed by the council some time before. He even accused the common council of passing laws and then not "sticking" to them, and the police board of not enforcing them anyway. Alderman tried to tell him that such a resolution was not passed, but was referred to the police board to find out whether it would be workable. Chairman Huisenga, who was present, stated that the board had gone into it thoroughly and found it would be not only a hardship on the motorist, but it was not workable. But "Casey" wouldn't stay put, until City Attorney Parsons put him straight on the matter.

"Casey" has been dubbed by some of his friends as "Bromo Seltzer," because at times at times he fizzes and bubbles over.

Alderman Kleis made known that within a few days a fine wooden shoe neon sign will be seen at

Hamilton Is To Stage Large Labor Day Fete

PROGRAM WILL BE REPLETE
WITH MUSIC, COMMUNITY
SINGING, SPORTS AND ORATORY

By GEORGE SCHUTMAAT
Chairman Labor Day Program

Hamilton will celebrate Labor Day with festivities Monday, September 6, in an all-day program to be held on the grounds immediately adjacent to the Community Auditorium and the ball park. This is the thirtieth anniversary of the first Labor Day celebration, and a dedicatory service will be included in the program commemorating the achievement of acquiring the Hamilton community grounds on which the program and celebration will be held this year for the first time.

A special appeal is made to all who attend to protect from any injury the many young trees which have been given special care during the past several years to make possible an attractive grove for future enjoyment.

John Brink, Jr., chairman of the local organization that sponsors the Labor Day celebration, has made special arrangements for providing a large show tent which will house a very large audience, and all stands and concessions will be covered with tents to afford protection in case of rain. A public address system has been provided.

There will be on exhibit at the Community Auditorium a furniture display which has been purchased by the business men of the community. Athletic prizes will be a feature.

Mr. Joe Hagelkamp has charge of the committee which will light the grounds for the evening program, and all concessions, and a large midway will be suitably lighted, and grounds will be sprinkled to prevent dust.

The new grounds are very easily accessible to M-40, and there is ample parking space. Mr. Bert Vos, who has charge of the Order and Parking committee, reports that easy and ready access can be had to all of the parking grounds during the entire day, and traffic can move readily at any time to the public highway.

The forenoon activities consist of a "double header" ball game at the Community ball park in which our local team will play. Ball game starts at 8 o'clock. At 10 o'clock the Virginia Park club and the Zoet Fuels of Holland will stage the usual attraction.

The afternoon program will begin at one o'clock with a band concert by the Casco band and the band will march from town to the community grounds. The Rev. I. Scherpiense will lead in devotional

MRS. W. CURTIS SNOW ON FACULTY AT HOPE

President Wynand Wichers of Hope college has announced that Mrs. W. Curtis Snow, widow of the former head of the Hope college School of Music, will take the place of Miss Sarah Lacey, who is entering University of Michigan for advanced work. Mrs. Snow will instruct in piano and the history of music and theory.

HARVEY HOP BACK

Harvey Hop, the Scout who attended the World Scout Jamboree in The Netherlands, and who contributed some fine experiences to the columns of the News, returned to Holland this afternoon. He said it was a delightful trip and one he will never forget.

OTTAWA SHERIFF HAS FULL JAIL OVER SUNDAY

Sheriff Frank Van Etta held a full house at the Ottawa county jail Sunday with 81 inmates to watch. Of these 12 were females. Alderman Brouwer and two men were taken together with three women and three women. Last night the number of prisoners dropped to 22.

RETIRED ALDERMAN DAMSON GIVEN PRAISE

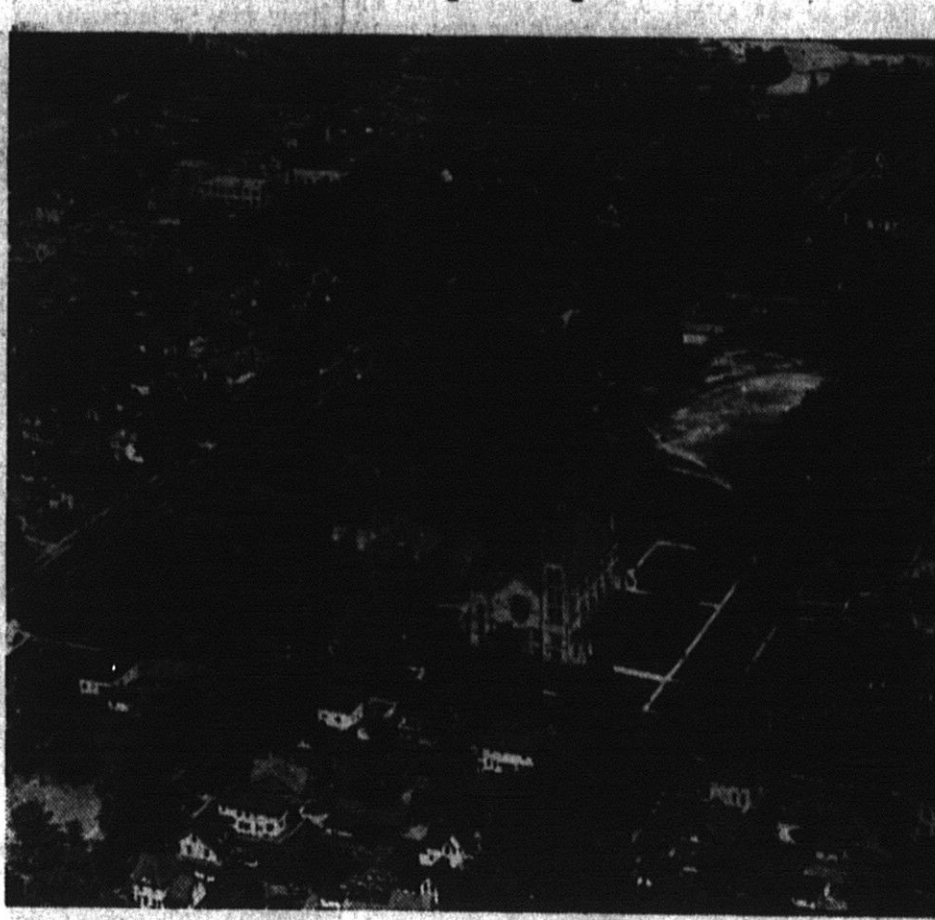

It is regrettable that a fine city official, such as George Damsen proved to be, has must retire, for the young man has made an excellent record since he was elected by a handsome majority as representative of the Fourth ward. He has now built himself a new home in the Sixth ward and will soon move his family to this domicile.

Just before the common council adjournment, George got up and stated, "I think it has been a privilege for me to serve the City of Holland. I have loved my work and felt that I was serving a wonderful community. I also feel it a privilege to serve with you men, it has been a real pleasure and I have always been given the most kindly consideration. It is with deepest regrets that I tonight, send in my resignation. The moving to a different part of the city makes this imperative."

Several aldermen were on their feet at one time expressing regrets at Mr. Damsen's leaving. Mayor Geerlings stated: "I have worked with Mr. Damsen frequently during my term in office, and I find him an official that can be relied upon, his judgment is worthwhile following, and his efforts never fail to bring results. He works faithfully in all his undertakings, and is very modest in taking credit for that work. The common council will miss Mr. Damsen in their deliberations."

Alderman Drinkwater, Kleis, Steffens and others gave praise to the retiring alderman, then a rising vote of regrets were taken, all aldermen and the mayor standing. Alderman Steffens asked that action be deferred until the next regular meeting, when the vacancy from the Fourth ward will be filled.

View Of Peaceful Hope Campus From The Clouds

The picture above is an airplane view of Hope College campus now quiet and peaceful. However, within ten days these buildings, nestled among the trees, will be filled with activity with some 600 students and faculty coming back with the opening of the institution. It is easy to pick out the different buildings, however, it was never more evident that the old campus is still covered with a veritable forest, a great many of the trees being of the woods variety. Anyway, all of us have just reason to be proud of this fine institution and also of the Western Theological seminary just across the way.

News Items Taken From The Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

An announcement was received by the editor of the Holland City News that Prof. Henry Boers of Hope college was married to Miss Louise Berkhoff of Chicago on Thursday, Aug. 25, 1887. They will make their home for a time at the Park House at Macatawa. Note:—Prof. and Mrs. Boers have long since passed away. He was considered an able instructor at Hope. Mrs. Boers came from a prominent Chicago family. The brother, George Berkhoff, being a member of the Netherlands and the family stood high socially in Chicago. The family were also members of the Knickerbocker Club. The Park House mentioned was then at Macatawa. The Berkhoffs were prominent at Macatawa for many years and owned property there.

Twenty-six hundred baskets of fruit were shipped from Holland by American Express in one day. Otto Breyman is the express agent an enterprise he handles in connection with his jewelry store.

Simon Lievense has purchased from Wm. H. Finch the old Civil War veteran, the entire outfit for moving of buildings. Mr. Finch was injured recently when a building he was moving came down on his back, while he was under it. He was saved by his helpers who dug him out. He was unable to continue in his work, however. Note:—Mr. Lievense, who passed away a few years ago, was Holland's building mover for a long time after that. He was the father of Ben, Peter and Jake Lievense of Holland.

Martin Beukema is already having several row boats built for his boat livery at Macatawa Park for next season. He states that boating has been so fine the past season that he will need again as many boats next year. Note:—Mr. Beukema did considerable in boating and also owned a Ferry boat, the Lizzie Walsh, which took excursion parties out in Lake Michigan. Later he became interested in the West Michigan Laundry, located then on West Eighth street, near the site of the Sentinel building. Now this enterprise is housed in a substantial structure on West 17th street, managed successfully by Calvin J. Tardiff.

The Chicago and West Michigan R.R., together with the steamer "Queen of the Lakes," carried 55,000 passengers between Holland and Macatawa and Ottawa Beach this season. The steamer Macatawa carried 25,000, mostly local business. Note:—The "Queen" was a large side-wheel boat and was run in connection with the local railroad excursions. The passengers being transferred from train to boat at 5th street, Holland. There was a great deal of rivalry between the local and railroad boat. The steamer Macatawa as a rule had a 10-piece band playing from the top of the pilot house. The band members were selected from Holland's musical talent and "Bill" Thomas, band leader, generally got a small band together for the summer months for this purpose. The band, of course, was for the purpose of attracting passengers to the local boat. Capt. Harrington at that time was the purser on the local boat Macatawa.

A fishing party composed of Luke Sprietma, Lars Solosth and John Karreman caught 50 white bass off Signal's dock on the north side, Friday afternoon.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Vegter, a daughter.

Cornelius Stroop, Graves Place, has accepted a railway mail clerk. His first run will be between Grand Rapids and Fort Wayne. Note:—Twenty-five years later Cornelius is still a mail clerk and the miles

he has traveled since that time would encircle the earth many times over. He now lives on Macatawa drive, R. R. 1.

Marriage Licenses:—Peter Verschure, 24, plumber; Mabel Cook, 22, both Holland; Wm. Seller, 20, painter, Martha Bouwkamp, 24, Holland; Henry Kuiper, 22, cheese maker, Zeeland, Anna Krol, Holland.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hume, a daughter.

When a tree operator was looking for maple borers in the woods at Jensen Electric park he found neatly tucked away in one hole in which he placed his chisel, a hand bill telling of an excursion on the steamer Soo City of the Graham and Morton fleet. The bill must have been placed there 17 years before. The date of the excursion was July 25, 1895, from Holland to Muskegon. It is supposed that squirrels carried the bill to a nest in the opening many years before. Note:—The Soo City was considered one of the most beautiful ship models on the great lakes. It was speedy and was the subject matter in many a song and story in the early days. It was later taken through the Welland canal to the Atlantic seaboard where it was wrecked in a bad storm with all on board perishing.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Postmaster Willard Claver of Zeeland states this week that he has heard from the postoffice department at Washington, D. C., stating that Zeeland will enjoy free delivery of mail beginning Oct. 1st. The securing of this convenience has been a long uphill battle but has finally become a fact. It was the combined efforts of Postmaster Claver and Congressman Carl E. Maves that brought the desired result. Note:—Zeeland has had free delivery of mail for 15 years; however, Uncle Sam has treated this city even better. Since that time a fine new postoffice has been built together with an auxiliary building necessary to handle the millions of "chicks" and eggs from this tremendous poultry center.

Blowing of horns and flag-laden motor cars announced the arrival at Karleau Beach on Lake Michigan that the Vander Water family was coming for their annual reunion. There was a parade over Eighth street with banners flying and the motored wended its way northward then on over the Alpena road to the picnic grounds. There were 80 in the party and the center of the attraction was the venerable father and grandpa, W. H. Vander Water. Note: The old gentleman is still living and is the "daddy" of "Gill", "Tine", Miss Corn and the other Holland Vander Waters. The item stated then that there were 54 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren—undoubtedly a few more can be added 15 years later. Among the children today are a corner, a judge of probate and a member of the Board of Public Works.

Henry Zwemer of Holland has revived the old lumbering days. He has 12 "lumber jacks" busy on a patch of woods fringing Lake Michigan near Port Sheldon. The ring of the woodman's ax can be heard for a half mile on that 80 acres of fine forest. Mr. Zwemer will be careful not to destroy the value of the shade, since many new summer homes are being built there. He expects to saw a quarter of a million feet of lumber, not counting the cords upon cords of wood that are a part of all lumber sawing.

"Jimmy" Hudson, colored boy, waiter at Hotel Ottawa, Ottawa Beach, was drowned in Lake Michigan. He dived off the pier in deep water and never came up again until the life-saving crew got him 10 minutes later. The coast guard station men had been alerted that no drownings would be reported

POLICE DEPARTMENT RIGHT ON THE JOB

The common council was adjourned at 9:15 and already the police department night man, Mr. Bill Stokette, who is handy with the brush, was busy at 3 o'clock in the morning painting the 25-degree parking stalls around the public schools on Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets. Before sun-up the stalls were all painted according to the direction of the council.

We didn't see John Donnelly there either with his little paint brush, but it is said that John "wields a mean brush" when he has a mind to.

THREE INDICATIONS THAT FALL IS APPROACHING

That fall is approaching is evident from the city's activities. First the light standards were given a fine coat of green, the city is busy painting every hydrant a fiery red, and the park board has men at work cutting the lower green boughs from the shade trees along the streets. Kind of an advance preparation for the fall end of the year.

FARMERS' DAY IN HOLLAND SEPTEMBER 25

There was quite a sizeable gathering of the merchant members of the Chamber of Commerce, held at Warm Friend Tavern in the ball room on the sixth floor, for the purpose of fostering a Farmers' Day program to be held in Holland on Saturday, September 25. The Holland Merchants' Association and the Chamber of Commerce are together on this afternoon and evening program to be held in the Armory the latter part of September. The afternoon program will begin at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon and in the evening at 7:30.

At that time the WLS radio program, representing the Prairie Farmer station, will send their stars to Holland to put on these programs. Prairie Farmer is doing the organization work, is distributing the tickets to the Armory, and is furnishing the talent that is to appear here.

A representative of Prairie Farmer, H. B. Ferrel, was introduced by the manager of the Chamber of Commerce, Bill Connelly, who told of the object of the gathering, the result in other localities, and the pleasing reception such a program of entertainment. Mr. Connelly explained how the Chamber of Commerce had gone into this matter together with the Merchants' Committee of the Chamber, and after considerable deliberation felt that this clean, wholesome program would be a fine means through which to entertain our neighbors in Ottawa and Allegan counties.

The entertaining of our agricultural friends has taken on several forms. Many years ago Holland entertained them at Jensen Park with a mammoth picnic, and also one picnic was held in Holland. Then the farmers were entertained with a dinner at the Armory and a program of music, a band, and a list of speakers, first in farm problems, were featured.

This program is altogether of a different variety, and it was considered that for this once it would be a welcome change. Undoubtedly later some other form of entertainment will be thought of. Anyway, it was decided that Farmers' Day will be Saturday, September 25.

In an interview Mr. Connelly stated "The functions of the Chamber of Commerce are not alone for the purpose of looking after the interests of industries as this relates to Holland, Tulip Time, conventions and kindred matters, but it also has the interests of the farm population in this vicinity at heart. The Chamber has aided considerably in the 4-H farm club movement, organized for the future. There are 18 such organizations in this vicinity and they will all get the helping hand of the Chamber of Commerce whenever called upon.

"We are also deeply interested in the poultry industry, and as we all know, lower Ottawa and Allegan Counties, and especially the Zeeland and Holland areas, are the outstanding poultry districts of the state. Pickles and sugar beets also connect up directly with the two counties. Both are diversified industries with a diversified crop, which bring revenues to the farmer and the laborer as well. Between the H. J. Heinz Co. and 1250 farmers and women find gainful employment at these plants during the season, and besides, there is a large working force the year around.

"Holland is especially interested in agriculture and an occasional get-together is a wholesome thing, and it also shows that this city is not confined to a city limits but that the interests of this community are closely tied up with the interests of Holland's environs—the countryside."

John H. Van Otterloo of Hancock, Minn., who has been spending the past two months at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Jane Van Otterloo, left Thursday for his home by motor. Mr. Van Otterloo accompanied the Rev. and Mrs. Vanden Heuvel who are planning to make their home in Hancock where Rev. Vanden Heuvel has just accepted a call to the Christian Reformed church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Roelie and son, Roger, and Jack Barrett of South Manitou Island, are visiting at their cabin at Macatawa Park. Dick Modders of Holland, who has been visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Roelie, returned here with them. He quietly celebrated his eighty-second birthday anniversary Wednesday.

DELEGATES TO CONVENTION
AT DENVER VISIT GREAT
SALT LAKE

The following letter from Gerald Tinkhof, employee at the Holland Printing Co., was received this morning by The News, telling of his trip, incident to attending the convention of American Federation of Reformed Young Men's societies, held at Denver, Colorado. The letter is replete with interest and one amusing incident was their attempt to bathe in Great Salt Lake, Utah, and they "couldn't keep their feet on the ground."

The letter follows:

Yellowstone Park, Wyoming.

Ben Mulder:

Imagine our embarrassment in arriving in Denver to find a large city. We had always thought that it was just a one-street western town. We arrived in Denver with our party of five late Tuesday evening, August 24. The members in our party were Andrew Helder, Jerry Bulthuis, Harvey Zoet, Bud Westerhof and yours truly.

The convention dates of the A. F. R. Y. M. S. (American Federation of Reformed Young Men's Societies), were August 26 and 27. We were cordially welcomed by the Denver folks and were assigned to different homes for the duration of the convention. We were free to come and go as we pleased and were given a great deal of the mornings in the individual homes. Everybody reported the best treatment at the hands of the Denver people. Our lunches at noon and dinners at night were served for a nominal sum in the basement of the First Christian Reformed church with the exception of Thursday evening when the entire congregation of 300 delegates and visitors traveled about 35 miles into the mountains for a steak fry.

On Friday evening an inspirational meeting was held in the large South High with a mixed group. Prof. Berkhof, Grand Rapids, gave the main address of this evening. The young men were told, jokingly, to retire early, immediately after the meeting, so they could get up at 5 a. m. for a 250-mile mountain trip. Our group did not go because we went on the beautiful scenery including several typical mountain towns with their mountains as a background and the usual one street and post office with loungers in front showing tobacco and discussing the latest news.

Trying to tell of the mountain scenery with snow capped tops and varified air is impossible. The only way is to actually see it. Just imagine being on the top of a mountain wearing a jacket to keep out the cold and below roads and automobiles looking like mere toys—in fact some were almost indiscernible. Also imagine riding in a canyon between two ridges of mountains, one on each side with a clear mountain stream running about six feet from the roadway.

Some of the fellows were disappointed in not seeing old-fashioned westerners and Indian wigwags with papooses on their backs until finally two days out of Denver, in a small town in Idaho, we actually saw these Indians and also honest-to-goodness cowboys with sombreros and chaps riding into town.

The weather for the trip was ideal. We didn't see any of that hot weather that the west is noted for. We are still combing the salt from our hair from our swim in the Great Salt Lake, Utah. Our fellows, being accustomed to swimming in Lake Michigan, were agreeably surprised when they couldn't keep their feet on the bottom of the famous lake. We suffered some discomfort when some of the salt water came into contact with our eyes.

Just before entering Yellowstone National park we roughed it for two days in a small log cabin set in the Rocky mountains. The only accommodations we had was a pair of water used for drinking and cooking purposes. We cooked our own meals on a small coke stove.

"Necessity is the mother of invention." is a true axiom. We had only a few utensils, but we managed to have good meals nevertheless. It gets so cold during the early morning that a pair of water, standing outside of the small cabin freezes to a depth of one-half inch.

Tomorrow (Tuesday) we expect to visit the park proper and if the scenery is as good or better than the mountain scenery around Denver and Salt Lake City we will have had a wonderful trip.

Yours in business,
GERALD TINKHOF.

Others in the group with Mr. Tinkhof are Harvey Zoet, Bud Westerhof, Jerry Bulthuis and Andrew Helder.

Also attending the convention are Albert J. Bonge, Fred Volkman, Andrew Ver Schure, Jacob Menken, all of Holland, and Jacob Schumacher, Julius Lamer, William Lamer and Marvin Lamer all of Zeeland.

The Rev. and Mrs. John R. Kemper and family who have been visiting in Holland, left Thursday for New Brunswick, N. J., where they will make their home in a missionary apartment. Rev. Kemper is missionary to Mexico, and is on a nine months' leave of absence.

Daniel Ten Cate, his son, Vernon Ten Cate, and daughter, Miss Mrs. Ten Cate, and Miss Elinda Klever, all of Holland, have returned after their visit in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klever.

Think American

At the outset of the so-called World War, Woodrow Wilson enjoined the American people to be neutral in thought as well as in act.

The injunction was not easy to obey.

Americans will think what they like, as other people do.

And as long as they do not translate their thoughts into action, as they ultimately did in the World War, there is little harm done.

The danger is that too much thinking and talking makes action easy.

Again, as in 1932, a lot of people in this country are thinking and talking as if the United States were under a moral obligation to go to the assistance of the Chinese, who outnumber the Japanese six or seven to one.

The Chinese and Japanese are two Oriental peoples, who have their own ways of doing things, and who, if let alone, will in the end settle their dispute to their own liking.

We went into the late war in Europe to make the world safe for democracy—and see what has happened to democracy in Europe!

And if we mixed up in the undeclared war now going on in China, we might be instrumental in bringing about another settlement that would be equally lacking in permanency.

Americans should think American.

A Great Railroad Achievement, Seldom Noticed

(Chicago American)

A Chicago & North Western train, bringing its customary load of commuters to work in the loop, was derailed yesterday morning just outside the station. Nobody was hurt much, but the accident prevented several thousand of the 9-o'clockers from making their accustomed punctual appearance in their offices.

Passengers on the derailed train walked the short distance into the station. Those on trains arriving later were unloaded out in the yards, left to hike a quarter-mile or so. Nobody seemed to mind. More than one passenger was heard to remark that this was the first delay he could remember in twenty years of commuting.

That such a thing can be said about the service on any railroad is astonishing, but it CAN be said, with almost literal accuracy, about the Chicago suburban service in general.

Day in and day out. Summer and Winter, a couple of hundred thousand suburban Chicagoans roll into the loop on suburban trains. In general their arrival is so punctual that you can set your watch by them. In the evening they stream back to the railroad stations and embark on trains that deliver them in their widely scattered towns, usually on the exact minute of scheduled arrival. The folks at home know just when to have dinner on the table and the coffee steaming in the cup.

Because only rarely is the clock-like regularity of this procedure interrupted, it is taken for granted by every one, but actually it is an astonishing phenomenon.

The army of men and women who live in the suburbs and work in downtown Chicago is greater than the entire population of many a respectable city. Moving all those people into and out of the loop twice a day, almost always ON TIME, is one of the great achievements of railroad organization.

Police Board Understands Its Province

CITY ATTORNEY EXPLAINS TO BOARD OF POLICE AND FIRE COMMISSIONERS ITS RIGHTS AND ITS RELATIONS TO COMMON COUNCIL

A question which has been a matter of debate for some time was settled last Monday afternoon when members of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners met in the office of City Clerk Oscar Peterson at the city hall for a regular meeting.

City Attorney Elbern Parsons was present at the gathering and was asked to explain the powers of the board. This Mr. Parsons declined to do, stating that he would rather answer specific questions, than give a blank explanation of the board's powers.

The discussion resulted because the board had recently found out that they had over stepped their authority in attempting to regulate traffic in the city. The council objected to the Police and Fire Board's regulation of parallel parking.

Mr. Parsons pointed out that the Police and Fire Board has no legislative functions or governing powers. Traffic matters are set out in the City Charter, and should be handled as recommendations to council.

Council has not, in the past, objected to the Board's handling of traffic problems, but did think it necessary to use its powers in the settlement of the parallel parking issue recently.

The case of the selection of Chief of Police Lisenne was alluded to by Mr. Parsons as an example. The matter of settlement of the respective powers of the two bodies was taken to hearing at that time. The Board has the right to hire and fire any member of either the police or fire department at any time, regardless of the consent of council.

In answer to Commissioner Hyma's question, as to who might select the chief of either department, Attorney Parsons pointed out that the chiefs may be chosen by the Board, however, subject to council's approval.

It is the duty of the Board to make recommendations to the council on traffic regulations. The cooperation of both council and the Board is necessary to a smooth functioning in the matter of regulating traffic," Mr. Parsons concluded.

Mayor Henry Geerlings suggested that the Board make traffic recommendations to council from time to time. Mr. Parsons stated that he would be willing to attend any Board meeting at any time to give his opinion in legal matters. Routine business was the subject of the remainder of the Board's discussion. The proceedings are found elsewhere in this issue.

Biggest Snapping Turtle

A monster snapping turtle, largest in years to come to the attention of conservation authorities here, is in Lake Lansing, a small resort lake near the city of Lansing.

The turtle was caught in a trap by Dan Shiffer of Lansing, who took its measurements and left it in his boat while he went for an axe. From end to end the top of the shell was 32 inches in length and in width, 23 inches. Fisheries men estimated the turtle would weigh 50 pounds or more.

When Shiffer returned the turtle was gone. He has set his trap in the hope of catching it again.

Regulation Of Traffic Still Problem Here

COSTLY TRAFFIC LIGHTS, AND SAFETY FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN URGENT MATTERS CONFRONTING POLICE BOARD

At the last meeting of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, the matter of traffic lights at 19th St. and River Ave. at the junction of US-31A and at 17th St. and River Ave. was brought up for discussion. Upon motion of Commissioner John Donnelly the matter of the light at the 19th St. intersection was referred to the common council with a plea that they use their influence with the state highway department.

Mayor Geerlings reported on recent inspections made by himself in the matter of traffic at 17th St. and River Ave. "On a busy night," the Mayor stated, "it requires a motor vehicle 15 minutes to cross the intersection." Similar delays were experienced at 19th

St., the Mayor stated. The highway department will install a light at a cost of $800 to the city, the remainder of the $1500 to be paid by the highway department of Michigan.

Attorney Elbern Parsons, who was present at the meeting, stated that Murray D. Van Wageningen, state highway head, will be in Holland about September 7 for the purpose of inspecting such matters as are being constantly brought up before the board as this relates to streets and lights.

Commissioner Hyma suggested removal of curbing one block each way from the intersection at 19th St., thus adding to the width of the street at that point and relieving traffic congestion there. Attorney Parsons stated in this connection, that he thought the council had the authority to carry out this matter, subject to the approval of the state highway department.

Upon motion of Commissioner Hyma, the board agreed to recommend a change from 45-degree parking to 25-degree angle parking in the vicinity of Senior and Junior high schools. Alderman Peter Huyser, it was announced, is making a study of traffic matters, and will make a report to the common council.

The matter of employing school traffic officers was brought up by Police Chief Frank Van Ry. Boy Scouts, Mayor Geerlings pointed out, could be employed at Washington school. Bad traffic conditions were mentioned at the St. Francis de Sales Catholic school and other schools of the city that should be given attention before school opens. The Police and Fire Board budget, however, contains no appropriation for employment of police for this purpose. Upon motion of Commissioner Donnelly, the matter will be taken up with the Board of Education. Mr. Donnelly also suggested that if officers are needed, recommendations should be made to the Common Council by the board.

TWO PAINFULLY INJURED AT ZUTPHEN
Jacob Peules of Zutphen sustained serious injuries Monday when he was kicked by a horse on his farm. The injuries are not dangerous.

Henry H. Loeks was injured Monday when his leg was caught between a cement wall and a heavy chain which he was using to move a wagon that was stuck in soft ground.

The injuries, while painful, are not serious.

A son named Eugene Allen was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Van Der Sluis, 189 West Eighteenth street. A son was born Monday in Butterworth hospital, Grand Rapids, to Mr. and Mrs. James P. Gray. He has been named Thorne-Barr. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Simmons, 115 East Thirtieth street, are the parents of a daughter born Tuesday in Holland hospital.

Sure. I BOUGHT AN ELECTRIC RANGE . . . MY WIFE'S TOO GOOD TO BE A KITCHEN DRUDGE!

WIVES STAY YOUNG AND FRESH WHEN THEY HAVE A COOL, CLEAN HITCHED IN WHICH TO COOK . . .

Your wife works hard enough feeding the family without being handicapped with an old-fashioned range and a lot of extra work. She's a mighty attractive woman, and you want her to stay that way. You think too much of her to have her sweating in a kitchen that makes her droop with fatigue. Give her a chance to enjoy more freedom . . . fix her up with an electric range so that she can have a cool, clean kitchen in which to cook. She rates the best . . . especially when it means a happier wife plus money in your pocket.

It's a Snap to do your cooking ELECTRICALLY

It's easier to cook with electricity than with any other kind of heat . . . and it's absolutely clean. No fumes to foul the air; no wasted heat to make the kitchen unbearably hot. Food tastes better . . . and is healthier, too. And it's cheap . . . probably much cheaper than you imagine. Why don't you investigate; the facts will interest you greatly.

LOCAL NEWS

Grand Haven is putting over a resort program using KNOX, St. Louis, Mo., station on Saturday, September 4, for a fifteen minute broadcast. The broadcast from Grand Haven was prepared by Mayor Cook and Kingsbury Scott. Several resorters from St. Louis stopping at Highland park are taking part. The idea is to give the historic background of this Michigan resort and a place where some of the St. Louis folks spend the summers.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Van Zee and daughters, Evelyn and Mrs. Harvey Maatman of Grand Rapids, Mrs. John Vande Luyster, Mrs. William Van Koeveling and daughters, Henrietta and Antoinette, Miss Winifred Van Hoven of Zeeland, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Marcus and daughter, Mary Lou, Miss Betty Brewer and Mrs. Ben Scherhorn of Holland were guests of Mrs. Cyrus Vande Luyster, route 3, Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Isaac Opie and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Art Krem of Hollywood, Cal., spent the week-end with Mrs. Opie's brother, William Halley, whom she had not seen for 36 years. The visitors have left for Wisconsin and will visit other places en route to their home.

Miss Laura Boyd, head of the German department at Hope college, and Miss Martha Sherwood, also of Holland, returned to Holland, Wednesday, following a four months' tour of continental Europe. The two women left here May 5. Their tour covered England and France, Belgium and The Netherlands. Miss Boyd spent six weeks of the time at Weimar-Jena university at Weimar, where she studied in a special department for foreign students studying the German language. Frequent trips were made by Miss Sherwood and Miss Boyd into different parts of Germany and Austria during their stay in Weimar. They visited Oberammergau, the city famous for the Passion Play, and also made a trip to Lake Lucern, in Switzerland.

Jack Lange, 22, of Spring Lake, who pleaded guilty on his arraignment last week to the charge of forging checks on his grandfather, James Dingell of Grand Haven, totaling about $280, began Tuesday serving a three to 14 year sentence in Southern Michigan prison. He was sentenced Tuesday by Judge Fred T. Miles in the Ottawa circuit court at Grand Haven.

Police Chief Frank Van Ry reported that the following twelve persons received fines for various traffic violations in Holland during the past week: Stewart Veltman, N. Slavin, Kit J. Koers, L. D. Abbey, John Huizenga, Jr., Vincent Fox, Dick Ritsma, Herman Hoek and Howard Sharp, speeding, $5; Gene De Gloppe, failing to stop for stop street, $3; Jacob Muller, operating motor vehicle with no driver's license, $5; Sam Habing, parking automobile and leaving motor running, $3. Addresses were not listed.

Melvin Brunette and Herman Oudemolen, both of Holland, each paid a fine and costs of $10 when they pleaded guilty to charges of disorderly conduct on their arraignment before Justice of the Peace Raymond L. Smith, Monday. The two men were arrested about 4 a. m. Sunday by Holland police near Eighth street and River avenue after they were reported to have created a disturbance in the business district.

Mrs. Edward Oonk was hostess Thursday evening at a miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Alda Baldwin. Bunco was played during the evening and prizes were awarded to Juliet Dyke and Alda Baldwin. Refreshments were served and table decorations were pink and white. The bride-to-be was presented with many beautiful gifts.

PIKE AND PERCH LIMIT REDUCED IN GREAT LAKES

Beginning Jan. 1 new wall-eyed pike and perch fishing regulations will go into effect on the Great Lakes. After that date the no-limit restriction of these two species will be abandoned and only 50 per cent of seven inches or longer and 10 wall-eyes of 14 inches will represent the daily and possession limit.

LIONS CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The Holland Lions club held its last outdoor meeting Tuesday night at the Holland Country club. Fall activities will begin at the next meeting of the club to be held Tuesday, September 14, at 12:10 p. m. at the Warm Friend Tavern. It was reported at Tuesday night's meeting that the health and welfare committee of the club, which has charge of arranging for the treatment of infantile paralysis, has made arrangements for Mrs. Milton Anderson of Fennville to go to Warm Springs, Ga., to enter the sanatorium there for treatment.

Dr. Van Haltsma, chairman of the committee, said Mrs. Anderson will leave soon for an indefinite stay. Her expenses will be paid from moneys derived from the annual President Roosevelt birthday ball held here in January. A report also was made by the blind committee. Fred Ten Cate, blind broom maker, will be furnished with ample places where he may sell his brooms. Features and plans of the newly organized Netherlands Pioneer and Historical foundation were explained by Dr. A. Leenhouts. The club voted to support the movement for the establishment of a permanent Dutch museum in Holland.

Cong. Hoffman Comes Home To Tell Them

Allegan County Congressman Ready to "Stump" Wherever Called

The Grand Rapids Herald in a recent issue prints an article written by William R. Muller, Washington staff correspondent, in which he sets forth that Cong. Clarence E. Hoffman of Michigan, whose home is in Allegan county, is coming home when Congress adjourns and expects to do some speaking in Michigan when he gets back. The article states that Hoffman would carry his fight into Michigan as soon as he is able to do so after adjournment.

The review of Cong. Hoffman's record is found in the Herald as follows:

Hoffman scanned the record of his attacks on John L. Lewis, CIO chairman, and his organization since Jan. 1 and said he has "just started." The record showed: Out of 19 speeches on the house floor, the Michigan congressman devoted 15 to sit-down strikes, criticisms of the national labor relations board, charges of Communist organizers in CIO ranks and accusation the committee disregarded "law and order" in its organization efforts.

He made labor speeches at Providence, R. I., New York city, New Bloomfield, Myrdsdale, Johnston and Hershey, Pa., and Flint, Mich.

He has introduced bills and resolutions to: Force unions to incorporate, elect officers by popular vote, register with the secretary of labor and submit financial reports.

Prohibit sit-down strikes in interstate commerce.

Discharge federal employees engaging in strikes which interfere with government business. Request the President to protect citizens in all states in time of strike violence.

Maverick Is His Foe Hoffman's foe from the first has been Rep. Maury Maverick (D-Tex.). They have clashed frequently on the floor.

The Allegan representative says he is convinced this session of congress will consider none of the legislation he has proposed. When congress convenes again in January, he contends, it will be forced to take action on his proposals or similar ones.

"When congress adjourns, I'm going back to Michigan," Hoffman said. "I'm going to speak on the law and order issue every time I'm invited. It will be an issue in the next state election, and everyone will know where I stand."

The News might add it is quite a coincidence that Dr. Francis E. Townsend came into Cong. Hoffman's county and city on Saturday, August 14, and spoke at the fairgrounds there under the auspices of the Townsend Club members of the Third, Fourth and Fifth Michigan districts.

The founder of the Townsend movement for the universal old-age pension was in Allegan as part of a speaking tour which he has been making through the state during the month of August.

Cong. Hoffman fought the Townsend movement during the last campaign and this organization fought the congressman in the entire 4th district, represented by him. Besides, this opposition was augmented by the natural opposition of the Democratic party. Despite this fact Clarence Hoffman was sent back to congress with an overwhelming majority of over 4,000. It can truly be said that in going to Allegan Dr. Townsend was entering the "political enemy's country!"

Mr. Hoffman is now back and he is almost completely dated up for discourses in several parts of the state and beyond.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fris and sons, Jackie and Eddie, of Zeeland are spending a week's vacation at Minnetonka Beach on Lake Michigan, near Port Sheldon. Miss Donna Hietje of Holland is staying with them.

STREET SIGNS TO BE FIXED THIS FALL

Repainting current signs and replacing missing ones is a program to be carried out in Holland this fall, according to Mayor Henry Geerlings and City Engineer Jacob Zuidema, who reported Monday
that the matter was given consideration recently. Following a visit here by a representative of the state penal institutions, the city officials took under consideration
a proposal to purchase pre-manufactured street signs, now being manufactured by convicts at Southern Michigan prison at Jackson.

However, it was felt that with less than one-fourth of the signs
missing and the rest in good condition except that they needed
painting, it would be a saving to continue the use of the current signs.

RESETTLEMENT PLANTS 1,267,469 TREES HERE THIS SPRING

J. J. Van Akkeren, project forester for the Resettlement area,
of Allegan county announced this week that 1,267,469 trees had been planted by men working under him
this spring. The check-up, which was just completed, shows that 3,147 acres of land were covered by this number of trees.

Jack, Norway and White pine
were used in the plantings. Fall plantings are now being projected by the forester, and he expects to put another 890,000 trees in the ground before winter. This includes 400,000 white pines, 200,000
Jack pines and 290,000 Norway
pines.

In addition to these, he will order 90,000 assorted trees, including mountain ash, white cedar,
hard maple, American beech and Norway spruce. There will also be available 46,000 trees which have been grown at the Barry
ranch by the Resettlement administration.

BUTLER BOY CRASHES INTO HORSE ON M-40

Clessen Butler, 17, of Dunningville, Allegan county, early Wednesday morning crashed his car
into a horse on M-40 at Millgrove,
killing the horse and sustaining minor injuries. His automobile was badly damaged.

Butler was returning home from Allegan when he saw a horse come out from behind a guard rail. He swerved to miss it, only to crash into a second horse which was along the other side of the road. The horses had escaped from a barn in which the owner
had placed them for the night.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mimeson on August 25, a son, named Dennis Lee.

FIND FOX IN HENHOUSE

A rather unusual incident is reported from Ganges. A few evenings ago a fox was found in L. A.
Bartholomew's henhouse. Two young men, Wayne Weed and Jim Hirner, were at Bartholomew's
when one of the visitors thought he heard a noise, and equipped with a flashlight, started to investigate. They pointed the light at the hencoop and a red fox dashed out of the open door and scampered away in the darkness. It was evidently scared off before it had a chance to steal a supper.

Chess and Checker Club is Arranged

The following chess and checker players met a few days ago at H. L. Beach's new summer cottage at Castle Park and elected Captain Austin Harrington president of the club:—Carl George, Castle Park; H. L. Beach, Castle Park;
Arthur Van Regenmortel, Jensen
Park; Captain Skinner, Macatawa;
Harry Harrington and Carl Harrington, Holland.

The royal game of chess is probably one of the oldest, if not the oldest, game played in all of the important countries today.

Free instruction for those wishing to learn the regular game of chess, or the new variation, called "Angel Chess," will be offered to anyone interested, at any of the regular club meetings, provided an application is made to H. L.
Beach, Castle Park, previous to the regular club meetings.

Mr. Beach has taught the 7th and 8th grade boys and girls in several of the public schools in the suburbs of Chicago and will furnish free to any beginner the typewritten rules and methods which enabled over 1,000 boys and girls
in Milwaukee to become chess players.

This course of chess instruction
is sponsored by the National Playground and Recreation Association of America and during the present
summer has been played in many of the public out-of-door playgrounds and parks throughout the country. Many of the high schools and all of the larger colleges now have their regular chess teams, which hold inter-collegiate tournament games.

"The three chess and the three checker players winning the greatest number of games at the close of the Round Robin contest that started last Tuesday will automatically constitute our club's chess and checker teams to represent us
in competitive games with other club teams," said Austin Harrington, the president.

The Wandering Sand Dune Goes Miles Inland

In Allegan County Has Crept to Fillmore Township and Beyond

The editor of the News has repeatedly given stories of how sand inundated, so to speak, the sawmill town of Singapore, near Sau-gatuck, years ago, and other freaks the wandering dunes perform. A new angle about sand dunes comes from the pen of Edwy Reid, Allegan editor and Allegan county historian, who, today, well in the eighties, still wields a very clever quill. He says as follows:—

(By Edwy Reid)

Did you ever take a walk across
or among the sand dunes of Lake Michigan which stretch across from Douglas to Macatawa park (and just how much further I cannot just now tell)? This summer they will be roamed by thousands despite the fact that it requires not a little strength of body to make much of a trip. Where they are not exposed to winds and so are slowly moving inland, they are heavily wooded and covered by taller growth. The number of kinds of shrub, tree, and flower is surprising. Every kind is there that grows anywhere in the state,
both evergreen and deciduous, and there are plenty of large trees as well as the smaller ones. One will sink half way to shoe-tops where-ever he may go, but the revealed
beauties are well worth the exertion.
These dunes have been formed through a great many years by the prevailing western winds. There are none on the west side of the lake. Not all the dunes, however, are along the present
lake shore. They may be found some miles inland. What is now Lake Michigan once extended far into the present state as well as over northern Illinois. What it was in early geological times is still called Lake Illinois by scholars and scientists. Near Douglas may be traced dune (shore) lines
and in the town of Fillmore they may be distinctly traced ten miles from present water; and similar traces exist clear across Allegan county from north to south with large flat depressions that clearly must have been under water. West of Round Lake there is much of this sort of ground and just east of that lake is a depression that is an old lake bottom. Suel P. Hudson says he has seen them there fishing from boats. It is likely that many of the hills in Valley and Heath are very old dunes. While cultivated farm crops are impossible in such sands, all sorts of tree and shrub flourish there. I can show where, say a hundred years or more ago, apple orchards
flourished but finally died, more from want of care than from want of sustenance. Near the old Trux farm above New Richmond there was a good-size apple orchard which died solely of old age. Near it, on the river bottom, I once found two apple trees of great spread and height which evidently were seedlings from the old orchard. Fruit was brilliantly red in color, of large size, but almost featureless. At least they did not taste much like apples, but were as beautiful as sin in a vast portion of the human race.

I lately read that the extinct
village of Singapore ceased existence because it was overwhelmed
by dunes. The dunes were formed
there, to be sure, and obliterated
all trace of the town; but the town
was dead before the drifting sands covered it. Creeping inland of dunes is not infrequent even today.
I know of a case in Valley where
a man had to move his house to save it from extinction; but this particular dune is fifteen or more miles from Lake Michigan.

CROWS ARE ABUNDANT IN GRATIOT COUNTY
Judging by the bounties paid
crow hunters in Gratiot county,
Mich., the birds find this section
much to their liking. Over $300 has been paid so far this year in bounties at 10 cents a bird. Last year only 2,922 were bounties and this year's record may be double.

RAIDING CREW WIELD AXES IN HOBO CAMP
A squad of police officers, Friday, destroyed the hobo camp
known as "Waverly Jungles," located on Pere Marquette Railroad
Co. property at the east edge of Holland, and sent approximately 40 "bums" on their way with a warning not to return here.

Orders were issued by Sheriff
Frank Van Etta to destroy the camp after having received numerous complaints that the hoboes
were creating a disturbance in Holland by begging. The hoboes were reported to have visited nearby farms where they stole vegetables for food and even went
so far as to milk the farmers' cows.
The raiding party consisted of Deputy Sheriff William Van
Etta, Henry Borr, Deputy Sheriff
Marvin Smith, Rufus Crane, and Ernest Bear of the Holland police department and Justice of Peace John Gallen. The shacks were destroyed, in which the hoboes
made their homes, and their cooking utensils were broken and shot
full of holes to make them useless
for future use. The sheriff reported that a nearby quarry hole offered the hoboes a source of water in which to wash their clothes. On wash days, the camp somewhat resembled a nudist assembly as the "bums" lay about in the "raw"
while their clothing dried. The official visiting party also found a group of approximately 15 boys
ranging from 10 years to 19 years old, swimming nude in the nearby quarry hole. The boys were lined up and pictures were taken of them.

Dr. H. Stephen James of New York to Speak Here

Guest speaker at the two-day
convention here, which will mark
the 50th anniversary of the Ottawa
County Sunday school Association,
Oct. 5 and 6, will be the Rev. H.
Stephen James, D.D., minister of the oldest First Reformed church in Albany, N. Y.

Both talks will be delivered in Hope Memorial chapel. His subject for Tuesday, Oct. 5, will be "Christ's Challenge—Follow Me"
and for Wednesday night will be
"Go Forward." Dr. James was graduated from Mt. Union college, Alliance, O., receiving his A.B. degree in 1914, as well as the honorary degree of doctor of divinity in 1934. Because of his genius as a scholar and speaker he is in constant demand among the churches of the east.

GRAND RAPIDS MAN DIES AT HOLLAND RESORT

James Campbell Everett, Grand Rapids investment broker, who was spending the week with Herbert
W. Curtis on Lake Michigan near Lakewood Farm, died suddenly Sunday at the Curtis cottage where he and his wife, Helen, were visiting.

Funeral services were held in Grand Rapids and burial was in Oak Hill cemetery. Bishop John M.
McCormick officiated. Immediate relatives were pallbearers and the honorary pallbearers were selected from the most prominent business men of Grand Rapids, with whom
Mr. Everett was associated for 30 years.

MRS. HELEN DEJONGH OF BURNIPS, DIES

Mrs. Helen DeJongh, 72, died on Tuesday at the home of a daughter,
Mrs. George Coluse of Hope township, near Hastings. Mrs. DeJongh had resided at Burnips many years and was a member of the O. E. S.
Surviving are another daughter,
Mrs. Fred Skellenger of Detroit;
two sons, Fred of Burnips and John
of Grand Rapids; two brothers,
Mark and John Dykema of Holland,
and two sisters in Virginia.

HOLDS WORLD RECORD FOR LONG MIGRATION

Golden plovers make the longest continuous flight in the world—
2,400 miles at a single stretch
without alighting on the way, from Nova Scotia to northern South America, the entire trip taking forty-eight hours, flying steadily
by night and day.

Legion Notes

According to Department Commander Carl H. Smith of Bay City, Alfred C. Joldersma of Holland, who this year was named a member of the department finance committee of the American Legion, has been appointed chairman of the committee. This is the highest appointive office in the department. In the Willard Leenhouts
American Legion post, Mr. Jolders-ma has served as finance officer,
vice-commander and member of the park board and trust board of the legion. He also served as fifth district committeeman and in 1931 he was elected department finance officer, a position which he held for a record time of five years.

Four Arraigned in Local Court Before Judge Gallen

Four defendants in criminal cases entered pleas of guilty to charges filed against them when arraigned, last Thursday before Judge John Gallen. Bernard Westerhoff, 31, and Ira Bronkhorst, both residing in the vicinity of Second St.
and River Ave., each paid fines
and costs of $5 on charges of drinking at a local park. They were arrested Wednesday night by Holland
police at Riverview Park. John Bale, 20, 89 East Ninth St., charged with operating his motor vehicle which, equipped with an exhaust whistle, caused a disturbance, paid fine and costs of $5.15.
He was arrested Saturday night
on the old Zealand road. Bernard Baker, 17, son of John Baker, rural route No. 4, Holland, charged with reckless driving, withdrew his previous plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty. He paid a fine of $25 and $6.25 costs. His driver's license also was revoked for six months. The charge against Baker resulted from an accident just north of Lakewood Farm on the night of August 19 in which his automobile crashed into a bicycle,
ridden by Robert Gezon of Grand Rapids, who was injured. David Stinson, 15, also of Grand Rapids, who was following Gezon on another bicycle, escaped injuries
when he was thrown clear after Gezon's bicycle had struck his wheel.

The Republican club program of Pullman last week was furnished by Mrs. Christine Radloff and son Robert, William Jones, Mrs. Della
Lewis and George Masters furnished the program. Lunch was served. The next meeting will be on Sept. 15.

Survey Shows Farmers Have Good Season

Ottawa County Farmers Will Profit by Bumper Crops,
Agent Reports

Prosperity for Ottawa county
farmers because of bumper crops
and good prices appears certain for 1937, L. R. Arnold, Ottawa county agent, said when making a survey of farm conditions.

Ideal weather has favored the farmers of this county, he said, as this section has escaped wind and severe storms that have done considerable damage in other parts of the state. One storm touched the northern part of the county but there was very little damage done.

A season that started cold and wet has developed into one of the best growing summers in many years and in consequence there are excellent yields in the small grains,
such as oats, rye and wheat. There would have been a bumper crop in wheat had it not been for black rust which caused some loss
as toward the end of the growing season. On the whole the wheat crop for 1937 is very good, he continued.

There has been a fine yield of
oats with ideal growing weather.
Ordinarily with the late start, due to the wet weather; this crop
might have been considerably
short but the weatherman has been kind and the plantings grew steady-ly from start to finish.

Corn, which is the main crop
in this county, promises to be very good and there is reason to believe that it will be a bumper crop.

Oats were hurt some last spring, but at that the onion farmers are going to have a fine
crop. Celery has been good. Potatoes were injured by late frosts but those farmers who continued
spraying escaped this pest.

There are indications that blight
has started in some of the bean
fields but there is nothing alarming and most farmers with large plantings are expecting good returns.

Market reports indicate that prices will be good this fall with wheat at $1.40 at the present time.
There are good prices for oats and rye. The corn price will be determined later as the crop is not at its height as yet.

Fruit growers, especially those
farmers who had strawberry plots,
reaped a good harvest earlier in the season. The strawberry crop was the best in many years and prices remained good. Raspberries also proved money makers. Tons of raspberries were shipped by Ottawa county farmers to the cannery at Fennville where they received 7 1/2 cents a pound right
through the season.

A bumper crop of apples is in prospects but prices are not expected to be very high, which suggests well for the consumer. There have been some losses, however,
through scab, which was hard to control this year. All the peach men in the country expect large crops, although prices will be somewhat depressed due to the abundance of this popular fruit.

Dairy farmers look forward to a good 1937-38 year with plenty of feed to carry them through. Milk and butter prices are sufficiently high to return good profits.

Poultry passed through a bad
year in 1936-37 with feed high and prices low. Many farmers became discouraged and there have not been kept up. With advancing prices and keep fairly low, the farmer should reap a proportionate profit on his chickens this year and Mr. Arnold believes that those who have good flocks will see a better
year than has been the case for some time.

Taking everything into consideration Mr. Arnold says the year 1937 will be one of the most prosperous ones for a long time as far as Ottawa farmers are concerned
as weather, that great determining factor in the life of a farmer, has played a fair hand, producing some of the finest crops that Mr. Arnold has seen since he has been the county agent.

Mr. Arnold apparently has overlooked three important crops—
namely, pickles, tomatoes, and sugar beets. From all indications,
the pickle crop is unusually large,
and while it is too early to say just exactly what the beet crop will be, up to this time the prospects are very reassuring. It is well to remember that these two crops in this vicinity play a tremendous part in conjunction with other produce raised upon the farm.

REFORMED WORKERS QUIT CHINA WAR ZONE

With unofficial war raging in China, many Reformed church missionaries have been recalled from the area in which the fighting has occurred.

Dr. William J. Van Kersen, district secretary of the board of foreign missions in Holland, stated that China is second in missionary work to India in the Reformed Church in America.

The Reformed church has established 26 churches in an area of 8,000 miles. In these churches and cities 3,348 communicants have been received. Ten Sunday schools have continued to develop in which the pupil enrollment is 1,506.
The population the area covers is 4,000,000. The Reformed church has 35 missionaries in this field, 12 of them men. A native staff of 314, of whom 168 are men, aid in the work.

In educational work 14 boarding schools have been established, 6 of them boys. The total enrollment is 2,095, of whom 912 are girls. The Chinese mission has five hospitals and dispensaries. The children's home at Kulangu has an enrollment of 27. A special kindergarten is established as Chang-chow.

LOCAL NEWS

The engagement of Margaret Mary Donnelly, daughter of Mrs. B. F. Donnelly, 284 Maple Ave., to Vincent O. Martineau of Grand Rapids, son of Mrs. Antoine Martineau of Milwaukee, Wis., was announced Monday by Mrs. Donnelly. Mr. Martineau is connected with the district attorney's office in Grand Rapids. The wedding is scheduled to take place some time this fall. Mrs. Donnelly, with Miss Donnelly, and her sons, Bernard and John, returned a week ago from a summer abroad.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the Nibbelink-Noter chapel for Gerrit Ten Brink, former Holland resident who died Saturday evening in Kalamazoo at the age of 70. The Rev. N. J. Monma, pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church, officiated and burial was in Pilgrim Home cemetery. Surviving are four children: John of Grand Rapids, H. H. Hefton of Grand Rapids, Martin of Virginia Park and Bernard of Holland; three brothers, John of Holland and Harry and Jacob of Kalamazoo, and a sister, Mrs. A. Bredenburg of Middleville.

Theodore Van Duren, 49, 1241 Lake Drive, Grand Rapids, died Sunday at his home following an illness with diabetes. Mr. Van Duren was the son of Albertus and Helen Van Duren, former residents of Holland. He is survived by one son, Albertus, and his wife, Jo and four daughters, Mrs. A. C. Van Rasse and Mrs. Albert Diekema, all of Holland.

SOCIETY NEWS

Miss Evelyn Slager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Slager, who in September will become the bride of Adrian Woldring son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Woldring of this city, was the honored guest at a miscellaneous shower held Friday evening at her home, 19 East 14th st. A color scheme of pink and white was used for the decorations in the home and for the two-course lunch which was served by Mrs. Slager. In games, which were enjoyed during the evening, prizes were won by the Misses Phyllis Greengood, Anen Windemuller, Lillian Klein and Grace Schreier.

A group of friends, most of whom are employees of the Warm Friend tavern, gathered at the home of Miss Frances Van Voorst, 271 East 16th st., Friday evening, for a party honoring their former housekeeper, Mrs. Frank Cheyven. Bunco was played and a two-course lunch was served.

Miss Beatrice Geerlings was hostess at a surprise personal shower last Wednesday evening at her home at 35 East 12th st., honoring Miss Florence Damstra, who is leaving Holland Sept. 14 for nurse's training in Butterworth hospital, Grand Rapids. Prizes in games were awarded to Mrs. Marinus Smeenge, Miss Gladys Dombos, Miss Ruth Homfield and Miss Maxine Deur. A lunch was served by Mrs. J. Geerlings and Mrs. B. Oelen.

Mr. and Mrs. Adelphos Dykstra, whose marriage took place August 12 in Fulton, Ill., will make their home at 71 West 18th st., after Sept. 1. Mr. Dykstra will enter his last year at Western Theological seminary in the fall and Mrs. Dykstra also plans to take a few courses at the seminary. The wedding was held in the Trinity Reformed church of Fulton with fathers of both the bride and groom officiating. Mrs. Dykstra was formerly Miss Bernice Mollema, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Mollema of Fulton, Ill. Mr. Dykstra is a son of the Rev. and Mrs. B. D. Dykstra. Miss Mildred Schuppert of Holland, secretary at Hope college, was maid of honor. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Schuppert, also attended the wedding. Mr. Dykstra has been assisting the Rev. Bert Brouwer of the Unity Reformed church in Muskegon this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Dykstra arrived in Holland August 13.

In a quiet ceremony at the parsonage of Trinity Reformed church last Wednesday evening, Miss Doris Japenga, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Japenga, 20 West 16th st., was united in marriage to Clifford Steketee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Steketee, 305 West 17th st. The Rev. H. D. Terkstra officiated at the single ring service, which was performed at 6 o'clock. The bride was charming in a flowing gown of Royal blue chiffon velvet with silver moire trim, fashioned on princess lines. She carried a bride's bouquet of roses and snapdragons and wore a wreath of flowers in her hair. Attending her as bridesmaid was Miss Betty Vis of Zeeland, who wore a formal gown of navy blue organza trimmed with white. She carried a bouquet of snapdragons and small yellow and white asters. Theodore Steketee of Holland attended his brother as best man. Following the ceremony a family dinner was served at the country club to 28 guests. Later 80 guests, relatives and friends of the couple, gathered for a formal reception and danced to the music of Jack Criner's orchestra of Grand Rapids. Punch and dainty sandwiches were served. The club lounge was beautifully decorated with large bouquets of gladioli and dahlias. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Japenga of Wayland, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, served as master and mistress of ceremonies. Mr. and Mrs. Steketee left last Wednesday evening for a wedding trip to the Straits. After Sept. 1 they will be at home at 305 West 17th st.

The Westrate family reunion was held last Wednesday afternoon at the cottage of Dr. William Westrate at Tennessee Beach. Swimming and other sports were enjoyed. Officers named for the coming year include: Dr. Westrate, president; M. C. Westrate, treasurer, and Mr. C. J. Westrate, secretary.

James Vos, superintendent of the Sunday school of Fourteenth St. Christian Reformed church, entertained the teachers and officers of the Sunday school and their husbands, wives and friends at a hamburger fry, last Wednesday evening at Tunnel Park. About 35 were present. Hamburgers were fried in the grove by James Slager and George Kuipers. Later the group spent an enjoyable time on the beach visiting and singing.

About 50 persons were present at the tenth annual reunion of the Nienhuis family, last Wednesday afternoon, at Tunnel park. An informal social time was spent, followed by a basket supper. A program of sports in the evening was conducted by Bert Kraai, Bert

Vander Swaag, Harold Nienhuis and Martinus Nienhuis. Since the rotary system was adopted last year Martin A. Nienhuis will retain the office of president. Nienhuis, vice-president; Mrs. Berdine Olthoff, secretary, and Bert Kraai, treasurer. Retiring officers are George W. Nienhuis, vice-president; Mrs. Theodore Boot, secretary; and Mr. Boot, treasurer. Arrangements were made for another reunion next year.

Miss Ethel Mokma was guest of honor at a personal shower, last Wednesday night, at the home of Mrs. Henry Bos. Miss Mokma is leaving for Chicago soon to attend the Moody Bible Institute. The evening was spent in playing games and prizes were awarded to Miss Ethel Mokma, Miss Betty Van Klink, Mrs. John De Ridder, Mrs. L. Mokma and Miss Helene Brinkman. Miss Mokma was presented with many useful gifts. A lunch was served by the hostesses, Miss Margaret Deltama, Mrs. Bos and Miss Jean Mokma.

Miss Gertrude Kramer, pianist of New York City, was guest of honor recently at an informal musical given at the home of Mrs. Reuben Scott in Fennville. The assisting hostess was Mrs. Albert Koning. Miss Kramer is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kramer, on West 12th St. A delightful program was given by Miss Kramer, assisted by Miss Dorothy Paton, contralto, of Ann Arbor; C. Barille and his guest, Mr. Focarina, of Chicago, violinist; Gerard Hanchett, Holland pianist; and Miss Elaine Groom, 11-year-old pianist of Chicago. Following the program, several of the musicians responded with request numbers. Among the guests was Perry Weed, venerable violinist of Fennville, who responded to Mrs. Scott's introduction with words of appreciation. Light refreshments were served, with Mrs. Blakeslee Crane presiding at the punch bowl.

Miss Ruth Molengraf, who will be married to Denton Norlin in September, was guest of honor at a linen shower Friday evening, given by Mrs. William Norlin.

ZEELAND

More than 250 entries are expected in the annual Zeeland flower show to be held in the City auditorium today Thursday and tomorrow Friday. Much interest is being shown by exhibitors. The show is sponsored by the Zeeland Garden club. Mrs. T. H. Pickinger of St. Joseph, an accredited state judge, will be in charge of all judging. A children's class has been added this year. Features include an exhibit of flower paintings, under direction of Mrs. Carl Heerman of the Chalet Art-gallery of Saugatuck. The club has arranged for an exhibit of old-fashioned flower quilts and old-fashioned flower pictures. Under direction of Rosa Clark, local Boy Scouts will have two exhibits featuring helpful hints to plants and flowers and one of the various types of woods found within a radius of one mile from the exhibition hall. At 8 o'clock this Friday afternoon Paul R. Krome of Michigan State college horticultural department will give an illustrated lecture on "Flower Arrangements." Miss Edna Brandt is general chairman.

A Safety Tip FOR YOUR Labor Day Trip

Here's Why FIRESTONE STANDARD TIRES GIVE YOU MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

DON'T take chances on your Labor Day trip. Protect yourself and family by equipping your car with a set of new first-quality Firestone Standard Tires. Firestone builds extra quality and extra safety into these tires and sells them at lower prices because Firestone controls rubber and cotton supplies at their sources, manufactures with greater efficiency and distributes at lower cost.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS—eight extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord because every fiber of every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber by the Firestone patented Gum-Dipping Process. This counteracts the internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—because there are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords under the tread.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—because the tread is scientifically designed.

YOU GET LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE—because of the extra-tough, long-wearing tread.

You need all of these features to make your car tire-safe on your Labor Day trip. Firestone gives them to you at lower cost. Join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign today by equipping your car with a set of new Firestone Standard Tires—today's top tire value.

DON'T RISK YOUR LIFE ON SMOOTH WORN TIRES!

DO YOU KNOW

THAT last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 20,000 men, women and children?
THAT a million more were injured?
THAT more than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to smooth, worn, unsafe tires?

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

September 5, 1937
God Requires Social Justice
Leviticus 19:15-18, 32-37
Henry Geerlings

A builder was heard to remark some time ago that the average person on passing through a new house imagines the construction of it is quite simple, because what he sees hardly gives the suggestion of all the work that has gone into the building. But if that same individual were to appear on the site when the spade is first put into the ground and remain as an inspector until the builder could say, "Now every part of this home is completed," he would know how much hard work, and what skill was required to get every piece in place.

The building of a nation requires a vast deal more time, and an infinite measure of patience, and the skill of the Eternal One, if each individual is to find his place and be made willing to do his share of the work, and to function with every other individual in the land. We who are citizens of this republic fail to appreciate the history that lies behind us, and of the slow and painstaking progress by which we have come to the place we now occupy. The story of the people of Israel, and God had to be patient. He spelt what He had been liberating from Egypt seem to have made very tardy advance, let us remind ourselves that that is the story of every people.

The broader view than most of us have of social justice is forced upon us today. It used to be that there was more independence from other people than we can have now. A family used to exist separately, often producing in the home nearly everything it needed. It had but few contacts with other people. News from a nearby county or town came so rarely and arrived late that there was not much chance to be concerned about how the other half lived.

Today we know conditions throughout the world better than our forefathers knew them of people in the next state. The multiplicity of means for making the people of the world our neighbors keeps us informed about floods in China and famines in India and strikes in every section of this and other countries. We demand the latest edition of the daily paper so as to have the latest flash of news.

We have learned what happens elsewhere affects us. A strike in California deprives us of fruits and vegetables grown on the west coast. A drought in the far west cuts off our grain supply and we pay more for what we eat. A racket springs up in a great city and all the people are touched by it. A law is passed by congress, aimed at a condition in one part of the nation, and all of us feel the effect of it. We are so tied up today that a demand for social justice in one section, or by one class of people, reaches throughout the land.

We learn of all these conditions. There is a stimulus to sympathy for most of us, or a feeling of unfair discrimination and consequent resentment. The whole situation calls on us to do something, to be doers and more than listeners. There is a special injunction for Christians concerning the way for far-fung conditions. The example of Christ points the way for justice for all. It is expected that the church take a stand and work for social justice. This comes down to us individually.

Now the Old Testament laid down rules for meeting conditions growing out of the fact that people must live together. Justice had to be maintained in all dealings. These conditions at the times and met the rules. We cannot take a verbatim code from these old rules, but we cannot escape the timeliness of the principles underlying them.

The rules in Leviticus pertained first to fellow Hebrews. So we think of them in terms of our acquaintances, friends and family—people we know. Some we know by hearsay only. We owe them everything we can do to procure justice for them. The lesson sets forth conditions for meeting these conditions, able obligations. It is worth while to note the range of these obligations. They include poverty and what is to be done to help the poor; they point to property in the matter of stealing and fraud; the physically handicapped are to be treated justly, in the fear of God; personal justice is to be cultivated in every relationship; there is to be a considerable personal regard for others, in the matter of judgment, gossip, revenge, and respect for the aged.

OTTAWA COUNTY NEWS

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Dykstra Funeral home for Rhine Baker, 72, a resident of Ottawa Beach for the past 50 or 60 years who died of a heart ailment Saturday at 10:15 a. m. at his home. Services were conducted by the Rev. John Vanderbeek, pastor of Sixth Reformed church. Burial was in Lakewood cemetery on Lakewood Blvd. Mr. Baker had been in poor health for a few months but was taken seriously ill two weeks ago. Mr. Baker, who never married, conducted an ice business among the resorts. His father had had a grocery store. He is survived by three brothers, Klaus Baker of Decatur, and John and Henry Baker of Ottawa Beach, and two sisters, Mrs. Joe Dudley of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. William Witkshire of Holland.

Members of the Gerard De Jonge family enjoyed a family reunion at Port Sheldon Wednesday afternoon and evening. A basket dinner was served and sports and contests added to the enjoyment. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Hietje, Miss Ruth Hietje, Mrs. George De Jonge and sons Junior and Howard, all of Zeeland; Mr. and Mrs. John De Jonge and daughter Nelce, of Vriesland; Mr. and Mrs. Bert De Jonge and son Donald, of Grand Haven; Mr. and Mrs. John Posma and children, Louis and Ivan, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Huisinga and children, Vera and Donald, of Beaverdam; Miss Betty Claire Stone of Lansing.

Mrs. Charles Garbrecht, one of Ottawa county's oldest settlers, who will be 92 years old on Sept. 5, was the honored guest at a family reunion last Sunday afternoon at her farm home in West Olive. The celebration also was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Quist and son who have returned to their home in Riverside, Calif., after visiting relatives here since July 30. Mrs. Quist is a daughter of Mrs. Garbrecht. A basket lunch was served in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garbrecht. About 25 families totaling approximately 100 were present. The reunion was a picture taken of the group. Entertainment consisted of games and music.

THE GREAT VAN BUREN COUNTY FAIR

LOCAL NEWS

Jack Lange, aged 22, of Spring Lake, who pleaded guilty in Ottawa circuit court of forgery several weeks ago, was sentenced by Judge Fred T. Miles of Holland to serve not less than three and not more than fourteen years in Southern Michigan prison. He admitted having forged five checks, totaling about $250 over the name of his grandfather, James Dignell, of Grand Haven. He had been held in the Grand Haven jail ever since his arrest.

Cornelius Roosenraad, supervisor of Zeeland and Ottawa counties, and recognized as the state's oldest supervisor, celebrated his eighty-first birthday anniversary recently. The aged man, who was very ill a few weeks ago, has recovered sufficiently to be able to do his regular duties. He is being assisted at present by a daughter, Mrs. Fred Klumper.

In the boxing contest held Friday night, in Bigelow field, Russ Reidsma of Holland became the first boxer to stand three rounds in the amateur boxing ring with Johnny Kemperman, star peltier of Grand Rapids, even though he lost the decision. Reidsma said it was the hardest fight he had ever been in. He offered plenty of punishment to Kemperman in the first round, but was beaten in the next two. He will have a return match in two weeks. Reidsma stayed on his feet through the entire bout, winning the golden statuette through the applause of the crowd for being the most popular fighter on the card. He is the second fighter from Holland to win the award in losing to Kemperman. Stan Brunelle was awarded the trophy after losing a bout several weeks ago by technical K.O. The trophy is on display at the Post Jewelry store.

The Fruit Exchange at Fennville began operations recently, receiving small quantities of early transparent apples. A small force is employed at present but will be increased soon. Mrs. L. N. Johnson of Three Rivers is employed in the office.

MISSING FOR A MONTH

A month has elapsed without any trace of Geo. Bryan of Fennville being reported. Mr. Bryan was last seen on July 28 when he left his rooming house in Ann Arbor to go to University hospital, where he was to take treatment for illness. Notwithstanding that the services of state police and officers in various cities were enlisted in the search and his absence was broadcasted throughout the state, no definite clues have been forthcoming. A report from Hudsonville and another from Chicago of a man whose description seemed to tally with that of the missing man, were followed up but without results.

Christmas Bags Prepared For Soldiers

The work of preparing 70 Christmas bags, to be sent to American soldiers in foreign hospitals, was carried out last Thursday afternoon by a group of women representing the Aid society of the Central Ave. Christian Reformed church. They gathered in the Red Cross office in the city hall. The work was supervised by Mrs. Gerrit Estie and Mrs. Albert Gobben, co-chairwomen of the Red Cross production committee. Mrs. Mabel Vanden Berg, executive secretary of the Ottawa County Chapter of Red Cross, assisted.

The bags are made of cretonne with a pair of shoe strings serving as drawstrings. Included in the bag are a bar of soap and washcloth, writing tablet and envelopes, toothbrush and tooth powder, pencil, comb, knife, handkerchief, smoking pipe and deck of cards. Grand Haven prepared 30 similar bags. These 100 bags are to be shipped to the Civic auditorium in San Francisco and from there will be sent to foreign hospitals for distribution. Last year's consignment from Ottawa county was distributed in Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tirrell and son Jack of Holland called on Mrs. Mary Bennett, Coopersville. —Coopersville Observer.

TWO PERSONS INJURED IN LOCAL WRECKS

Harold Nienhuis, rural route No. 2, Holland, was treated in Holland hospital Saturday night for a severe cut on his face suffered in an accident on North River Ave. near Fifth St. at 9:50 p. m. He was a passenger in the car of John Brandsema which hit the car of Julius Mast, 19, also of rural route No. 2. Both cars were being driven north when the accident occurred. Nienhuis was released from the hospital after receiving treatment.

Olin Wolf of Battle Creek suffered a deep cut on his forehead Sunday at 5:30 a. m. when his motorcycle figured in an accident with another motorcycle at 14th St. and River Ave. He was taken to the Holland hospital. Wolf and Roy Brunt, 26, also of Battle Creek, along with other motorcyclists were en route to Muskegon.

WORK STARTED ON PARK TOWNSHIP COMMUNITY HALL AT WAUKAZOO

With the pouring of the concrete forms, work on Park township's new $56,000 community hall at Waukazoo got under way this week. Work of pouring concrete forms for the horse barns will be started soon. The work is being done under two WPA projects at an approximate cost of $16,000 to the township. The new building will be located across the highway from Park township's new airport, northwest of Holland.

The community hall building will be 116x50 feet and will include necessary facilities for community meetings. Surrounding the community building will be outdoor recreational facilities. Leading from the 100x50-foot horse barns will be a half-mile bridge path winding through the woods.

In placing his estimate for material, Supervisor George Heneveld said 165,000 bricks would be used in the various buildings on the center.

TRAPSHOOT MATCH HELD AT CONSERVATION PARK

In the weekly trapshoot match held last Thursday night at Conservation park, east of Holland, 35 persons participated. Sam Althuis turned in the best score by breaking 28 out of 35 targets. He still holds the record with a percentage of .896. K. Woldering and B. Woldering, Jr., follow close with .880. G. Huizinga, .804; R. Michmerhuizen, .800; E. Caball, .800; J. Wolff, .788.

In the beginners' class H. Doeman holds the lead with .800. E. Vrieling dropped to .532. Other scores were lower.

There will be another shoot today at 5 p. m., continuing until dark.

Because of the continued illness of Rev. D. Veltman, pastor of the Berean church of this city, Evangelist Jacob Bos of Muskegon will again conduct both services next Sunday.

Allegan County News

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the Lange-land Funeral home for Otto Schupp, 47, who died late Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Romeyn on West Main St., following a lingering illness. He formerly was a night janitor at the Zeeland schools. The Rev. R. J. Vanden Berg of Zeeland officiated and burial was in Zeeland cemetery. Surviving are the widow, a son, Donald; two daughters, Lois and Rena Jane; his father, August Schupp, Sr., of Big Rapids; three brothers, Albert of Flint, August Jr., of Holland and Fred of Big Rapids, and a sister, Mrs. Otto Sack of Big Rapids.

Miss Lois Post has returned to her home in this city after spending the summer visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Heyboer in Redlands, Calif.

Miss Hattie Rookus of Zeeland, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Van Doorn and daughter Phyllis and Mr. Win Van Doorn took a week-end motor trip into northern Michigan and as far as Marquette, Wis., visiting the Soo, Escanaba, Munising and other places of interest. Mr. and Mrs. Plin Grieve accompanied them as far as Big Rapids, where they visited Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Grieve.

Rev. Garrett Dykman of Holland spoke Sunday evening at the Bravo community church and three Holland young ladies furnished special music. The church will preach on Sept. 6, evening, and Sunday school each Sunday at 2 o'clock.

Dr. H. Gordon Bates, who has been assistant director of the Branch county health department, will come to Allegan this week to act in the same capacity. He replaces Dr. James A. Dolce, who will go to Eaton county office as assistant to Dr. M. B. Beckett.

George Tibbitts, age 89, of New Richmond, was taken to Douglas hospital for injuries to his back sustained in a fall from a stack of oats on the farm of Mrs. Albert Gretsinger. His condition is considered not serious.

Frank Fenn of Kalamazoo, son of Elam Fenn, the founder of Fennville, was one of the homecoming visitors. He moved from Fennville to Allegan in 1872, after the fire of 1871, which destroyed the Fenn mill and most of the village, when Elam Fenn took his family to live at the Allegan county seat.

Camp Oak Openings for girls has closed its nineteenth successful season, many of the girls having come from the east as well as others from the far west. Westminster lodge at Cedar Gray has a full quota of guests in its several divisions, these numbering 300. There are also about 100 guests in the welfare camp, all under Chicago's Fourth Presbyterian church.

Herman Lenters, 77, of 724 Shamrock St., Grand Rapids, dropped dead of a heart attack last Thursday night at Tennessee beach, where he and a group of friends had gathered for a picnic at the cottage of Herman Slenk of Grand Rapids. Death, which occurred about 20 minutes after he arrived at the beach, was attributed to a heart attack. Mr. Lenters was born in East Saugatuck and later moved to a farm in Allendale. Until five years ago when his wife died, he resided in Zeeland on Cherry St. Since that time he had been living with his daughter and son-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Gerrit Hofmeyer, in Grand Rapids. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Hofmeyer of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Dick Nies of Zeeland; a son, Otto C. Lenters of Cicero, Ill.; eight grandchildren; a brother, Alexander Lenters of Chicago, and a sister, Mrs. P. Jonker of Graafschap.

ZUTPHEN

Several local folks attended the Van Hattum reunion at Gordon park on Wednesday.

Jacob Nynhuis, Melvin Dalman, Maynard Van Noord and Henry Brink left early Monday morning for a pleasure trip to the Straits, Niagara Falls and other points of interest in Canada and the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry De Weerd were guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Loeks, on Sunday.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. John Meengs are mourning the loss of their father and grandfather, Cornelius Struk, who passed away at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick De Kline of Zeeland on Thursday at the age of 87 years. He is survived by two sons and seven daughters. Funeral services were held Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Van Ess were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Brinks of Beaverdam. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Veneklassen and Gertrude of Zeeland were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Hoppen and son on Sunday.

Henry Brower, who has been confined to his bed with illness, is somewhat improved. Miss Jeanette Van Ess was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Van Hattum of Zeeland over the week-end.

The Young Peoples society of Zutphen met with the Christian Endeavor society at Forest Grove Sunday evening. It was a very educational meeting. These neighborly gatherings cannot help but be helpful.

OLIVE CENTER

Threshing is mostly finished and wheat and rye were surely fine crops.

Henry Mulder is busy these days shipping his early celery and it is an abundant crop.

The school is having its annual cleaning done. The school bell will be ringing again.

Two cars, belonging to Bill Assink and Henry Bauman, both of Harlem, crashed on the corner here Sunday night. The Bauman car was damaged, but the Assink car escaped harm. No one was injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Nienhuis and sons, Marvin, Clifford and Roger, left Friday and returned on Wednesday from a trip to Iowa, where they visited at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

HOLIDAY week-ends which bring guests require special planning if expense in time, labor and money is not to overshadow your pleasure in the company of friends and relatives. Somewhat lower wholesale prices for meats and poultry have brought attractive special retail in most food markets. Cheese, eggs and butter prices are still comparatively low for the season.

Vegetables and fruits in general are available in variety at low cost. Green and lima beans, corn, peas, sweet potatoes and tomatoes among the vegetables and peaches, pears, plums and grapes among the fruits are outstanding.

Here are week-end and holiday dinners which require a minimum of effort to serve.
