Doings at Reed's Lake.

Reed's lake at Grand Rapids, is the scene of a thrilling reproduction of the great naval battle between the Monitor and the Merrimac on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, September 11, 12 and 13. Reproductions of the famous little iron ship, the Monitor, and of the great Confederate ram, the Merrimac, were floated on the lake, and engaged in a terrific battle, hurling shells and bombs at each other in a thrilling manner. Startling eruptions and great explosions added to the excitement.

Accompanying the battle was a magnificent display of aquatic fireworks, including myriads of fiery fountains coming out of the lake, wonderful chromatic effects on the water, water fish, diving devils, and the wonderful skidoo fish.

All this display is, of course, free, and it is part of the Old Glory Celebrations at Ramona on the nights named in honor of Fair week and the closing week of Ramona's season.

There is a strong vaudeville bill in Ramona theatre during the week, one of the acts being the startling "Globe of Death", in which two men riding motor cycles loop-the-loop, not once but many times.

All of the Ramona Circle attractions remain in operation throughout the week.

The Rev. R. S. Strickland of South Haven is at the head of a vigorous campaign, which will be waged for local option in Allegan and Ottawa counties this year. At the November election men will be at the polls to get names to a petition asking permission to submit the question to an election. A large fund is said to have been raised for a vigorous campaign, and if the petitions are successful, the matter will come up at the spring election. The liquor men will undoubtedly put up a stiff fight against the movement.

Charles Kahlasch, a former employe of the local Gas company, with his wife and four children, moved to Holland, this state, some two weeks ago. Kahlasch getting employment at Heinz's Pickle factory. One Lloyd Coon, a worthless sort of a fellow and a former schoolmate and possible admirer of Mrs. Kahlasch, was also a resident of Holland and a frequent caller at the woman's rooms. On Saturday last Kahlasch turned over to his wife, at noon, his week's earnings, and at 6 o'clock in the evening when he returned from his work his children informed him that their mother and Coon had gone away. The woman left a note telling her husband that she had gone to Benton Harbor. Mrs. Kahlasch took with her the money her husband had given her to pay a month's rent of their rooms and two of the children—two girls aged 5 and 7 years. Kahlasch, with the two remaining children, aged respectively 3 and 9 years, came to St. Joseph Sunday, and left the children in the Children's Home. He applied Monday morning to Justice Bracelin for a warrant against the eloping couple but was informed that he would be obliged to return to Ottawa county for the warrant. Kahlasch explained to Justice that his principal reason for asking for a warrant was the recovery of his two children whom his wife took away, intimating that his wife might go where she pleased for all he cared.—St. Joseph Herald.

Cor. Eighth Street and Central Ave.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Etta, Monday—a daughter.

The Grand Rapids, Holland & Chicago Railway company is equipping all its freight cars with air brakes.

Nick Kameraad expects to move into his new shoe store, corner of Sixteenth street and Central avenue, in about two weeks. The store he vacates will be occupied by J. Weersing, dealer in real estate.

Wm. Dennison has the contract of remodeling the Wm. Leonard cottage at Jensen Park. The cottage will be moved fifteen feet nearer the water's edge.

Abner Kelley of Hamilton planted two seeds of Hubbard squash this season and the vines cover a space of six square rods. Standing on the edge of the patch Mr. Kelley counted ten squashes and the vines are very thick.

A spark from a locomotive kindled a fire on the Pere Marquette right-of-way on East Fourteenth early Friday afternoon. Both hose companies were out and the blaze was quickly extinguished.

B. Riksen, who has the contract for grading and graveling Columbia avenue from Sixteenth street to Twenty-fourth street, started work Thursday with four teams hauling sand.

J. A. Schaub is principal of the Ferrysburg schools this season. Miss Bolthouse, who taught the school last season is teaching in Holland.—Grand Haven Tribune.

James, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Van Loo died at Grand Haven Saturday morning of cholera infantum with which he had been ill for several days. The little fellow's illness was a desperate one and little hope was held for his recovery as it was discovered that the trouble had gone to the brain. Little James was one of the brightest of boys and had just passed his second year. His death was a sad blow to his parents. The burial was held in Zeeland Monday.

The common council of Grand Rapids have been having a lively discussion over the school budget and one item of $20,000 for teachers' wages has been the main point of discussion. The council claims that with the $200,000 that the city will receive about November 1 from the primary school fund and the mill tax and back taxes that will be coming in during the year, will be all that will be needed for teachers' wages and have refused to raise the additional amount. The same question will soon come up here to be decided. This city will receive in November about $16,150 of primary school money, and with the mill tax and back taxes that come in during the year, besides an amount of primary school money in May of next year. This last amount may not be large but still will be paid in during the school year. Thus it will be plainly seen that it will not be necessary for our school board to raise one dollar for teachers' wages, and thus give the tax payers a rest for this year at least.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Blendon.

The Blendon branch of the Zealand Cheese Co. commenced operation September first and the company already finds that they have far underestimated the patronage of that vicinity, their plant being too small by half to handle the milk brought in by the farmers. ## A Good Reason.

Holland People Can Tell You Why It Is So.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure the cause of disease, and that is why the cures are always lasting. This remedy strengthens and tones up the kidneys, helping them to drive out of the body the liquid poisons that cause backache, headache and distressing kidney and urinary complaints. Holland people testify permanent cures.

Garret Kopenga, living five miles southeast of Holland, farmer, says: "I have been subject more or less all my life to attacks of kidney pains and backache. If I caught a cold or strained myself from doing any unusually heavy work I was sure to be laid up for a time. The attacks came on at intervals and were very severe, so that it was almost impossible for me to bend over and if in a stooped position I could scarcely straighten up again. I tried a great many different remedies and wore plasters but could get nothing to remove the trouble until I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended and went to J. O. Doesburg's drug store in Holland and procured them. My back was hurting me severely at the time but it required only a few days treatment to relieve me and in a short time the aches and pains were entirely removed."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the great system tonic and builder.

Itch! Itch! Itch!—Scratch! Scratch! Scratch! The more you scratch the worse the itch. Try Doan's Ointment. It cures piles, eczema, any skin itching. All druggists sell it.

A lazy liver leads to chronic dyspepsia and constipation—weakens the whole system. Doan's Regulents (25 cents per box) correct the liver, tone the stomach, cure constipation.

Cures baby's croup, Willie's daily cuts and bruises, mama's sore throat, grandma's lameness—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—the great household remedy.

Mystery Solved.

"How to keep off periodic attacks of biliousness and habitual constipation was a mystery that Dr. King's New Life Pills solved for me," writes John N. Pleasant, of Magnolia, Ind. The only pills that are guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction to everybody or money refunded. Only 25c at the Walsh Drug Co.

Fifty-five Bodies Recovered Out of 255 Caught in Avalanche.

Tiflis, Sept. 11.—Practically without warning the side of a mountain rising above the township of Kwarell broke away, and in a sea of semi-liquid mud, sand and stones swept down on the township and overwhelmed and obliterated it.

W. J. BRYAN BEGINS TOUR OF THE SOUTH

A political cartoon titled "PROMISES." at the top. It depicts a man in clerical robes, possibly a priest or bishop, holding a document in his right hand and gesturing with his left. To his right is a wire cage labeled "PEOPLE" which contains a single bird. The scene is set on a tiered, stone-like structure. The cartoon is signed "H. H. 1898" in the bottom right corner.

It Will Be Holland's Biggest Fair.

The premium list for the Holland Fair is out. It indicates that the fair will surpass all others. Here is the greeting signed by President Lokker and Secretary Whelan:

"The Holland Fair officials have kept their words and each year witnesses a flattering increase in the exhibits, the attractions, the enjoyment and the attendance of the Holland Fair. You know when you exhibit you will get your premium money; you know you will get your race purses; you know you will be recompensed handsomely for the interest you take in the big event. Knowing these things you feel like coming, and to you, in behalf of the fair officials, we extend a cordial invitation to take part in our fair, which this year will be held September 25, 26, 27 and 28.

"Encouraged by the remarkable successes of recent years we are putting forth every effort to make the coming exhibition the best ever held on the Holland grounds.

"$1,300 will be expended for races and we have assurances that some of the best trotters, pacers and runners on the circuit will contest.

"Fine free attractions will be furnished—in fact all along the line the officials will seek to make the fair the banner event of the association.

"Look over this premium book, fill out your entry blanks and take part in the big show."

Regarding the races the book says: "This idea of offering $1,200 for races is a good one. Con De Pree, chairman of the Speed Committee, finds that owners of some of the fastest horses in the country snap at the chance of contesting for such liberal purses and he promises a field of horses that will excel any that ever faced a starter's flag in Holland. It's easy to get horses this year, for the horsemen are pleased with the treatment they have received in the past. Another thing that makes it easy is that the Holland fair dates do not conflict with Grand Rapids, Berlin, Allegan, Benton Harbor, Hillsdale, Hastings, Lake Odessa, Howard City and other important fairs; and the horsemen will head for Holland during the week of September 25 to 28."

Great Features For Holland's Greatest Fair.

Charles A. Floyd, traffic manager of the Interurban railway and N. J. Whelan, secretary of the Holland Fair, have returned from Detroit, where they went two weeks ago to work in connection with the finance committee of the state fair.

The fair was an unprecedented success, the total receipts running over $100,000. Mr. Floyd had charge of the ticket system and was practically in charge of the financial end and so impressed were the fair officials with his work that they offered him a permanent position at a salary considerably in advance of that which he now receives from the railway company. Mr. Whelan was elected a director of the fair for two years.

While at Detroit Mr. Whelan secured some of the leading attractions for the Holland Fair, which will be held Sept. 25-28; among them being Lacey's big horse. This horse will be seen in one of the side shows and each person buying a ticket is entitled to a guess on its weight which is in the neighborhood of 19,000 pounds. The person guessing the nearest will be given a cash prize.

The Merry-Go-Round used at Detroit will also be here and with it will come the manufacturer. It is a fine machine.

Another attraction secured is Fearless Tude, the acrobatic wonder, who does back somersaults and other thrilling acts from a high scaffold and also performs other thrilling acrobatic feats.

It is likely that the 714 pound fat girl and the doll man whose weight is 15½ pounds will be one of the features of Midway row.

Arrangements were nearly completed to secure the big Ferris Wheel that was at the state fair. This wheel is twice as large as the one that was at the fair three years ago and will prove a great drawing card.

If you want a bargain in children's Hose be sure and go to John Vanderluis next Wednesday and get some of those 25 cent Ribbed Hose for 10 cents a pair. A large Hosiery factory failed and Mr. Vanderluis got part of the stock. Also Ladies $1.50 Duck Walking skirts for 98 cents.

Koke? Well I guess. Cheap? You bet. Beats coal, beats wood, $4 a ton.

Death of John Albers.

The death of John Albers, a well known G. A. R. veteran and member of Co. I, 25th Michigan Infantry, died last Sunday evening at his home, 123 West Fourteenth street, at the age of 71 years.

Mr. Albers was born April 8, 1835, in Groningen, the Netherlands. With his parents he came here in 1848, his father conducting for many years a jewelry store where John Bosman's store is now located, and for a time Mr. Albers continued the business after his father's death. He never married.

Deceased was the son of Stephen Whipple and was born in Farmington, N. Y., 67 years ago, but came to Michigan when he was but a lad of 14 years of age.

For about sixteen years he was mail clerk on the Chicago & West Michigan R'y., after which he settled on a farm in Georgetown, where he lived until failing health compelled him to give it up and move into Hudsonville. He was a veteran soldier and served in the civil war.

He served as township clerk, justice of the peace and county agent, which latter office he held up to practically the time of his death. His wife and one son Fred G. Whipple of Grand Rapids survive him.

The funeral was held at Hudsonville Saturday morning.

Death of Mrs. Dell Souter.

Mrs. Dell Souter, whose maiden name was Ida M. Dykema, was born in Holland, Mich., June 1, 1867, and died at her home on a farm near Middleville Tuesday, September 4. Since last December she has suffered from cancer of the stomach. She visited Ann Arbor in June, hoping for aid from the medical skill there, but the relief was only temporary. Her body was brought to Holland, and the funeral was held in the Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. A. T. Luther officiating. She leaves a husband, one son, George, a little daughter, Gertrude, eight years of age, a father, John C. Dykema, and a sister, Mrs. Jacob Van Anrooy, of this city. ## Many Improvements Made at Holland Fair "Bee."

The good results of the "bee" at the Holland Fair grounds yesterday are readily apparent after a glance at the grounds. The thirty-foot addition to the grand stand was completed and it certainly is roomy and comfortable.

The implement shed was enlarged and improved and is now a substantial structure capable of accommodating a good exhibit.

The trotting stables are the great feature. Fifteen of them were built and the trotters will certainly be comfortably housed.

Besides these improvements a force of bee-ers cleaned and renovated the halls and fixed the fences.

Taken all in all it was a great bee, and the work done means much for the future of the Holland Fair.

Those who donated to the "bee" were Du Mez Bros., De Pree Bros., Rutgers & Heuneveld, Boston Bakery, Anton Seif, P. F. Boone, Stratton's livery, Dave Blom, Blom & Dreher, A. B. ## WHAT FISH SEE OF WORLD

College Professor Gets the Results with a Camera Under Water.

That a fish in an aquarium has an entirely different view of the external world than we whose vision is unhampered by glass or water is a thought that perhaps has come to but few. One of these few is Prof. Robert W. Wood, of Johns Hopkins university, who has succeeded in obtaining photographs of Mount Vernon Place, and a view looking west down Monument, and north and south down Eutaw streets, as they would appear to a fish submerged near those localities.

As is well known, an eye below the surface of the water sees the sky compressed into a comparatively small circle of light, the center of which is always immediately above the observer, the appearance being as if the pond were covered with an opaque roof with a circular window cut in it. The objects surrounding the pond, such as trees, houses or people, must appear around the rim of the circle of light, but the human being is unable to get a clear notion of their appearance, since his eyes are not adapted to distinct vision under water.

Reasoning from this fact, it occurred to Mr. Wood that a very good notion of how these things appear to the fish would be obtained by immersing a camera in water and photographing the circle of light. His apparatus was constructed out of a lard pail, a short focus lens provided with a very small diaphragm being cemented over a hole perforated in a metal disk which rested on a rim soldered around the inside of the pail. The plate was placed on the bottom of the pail and the whole filled with clean water in a dark room. The lens was covered by a metal cap, operated by a handle on the outside of the pail. The apparatus was set on the ground, and the surface of the water covered with a sheet of glass to prevent ripples, the pail being so full that the glass was in contact with the water. This arrangement obviated the necessity of immersing the affair in a pond, since the function of the latter was performed by the water in the pail above the lens.

A number of interesting pictures were taken, among them being Mount Vernon Place as it would appear to a fish submerged in a pond near the base of the lion. The monument is plainly shown, and the adjacent buildings can be plainly made out around the rim of the circle of light.

DIFFERENT KIND OF PET.

Handsome Young Woman Had Something Better Than Dogs to Love.

When the thin woman in the long gray ulster sat down in the subway car opposite the fat woman holding a bright little Scotch terrier, it could be seen at once that they had points of common interest, and that these points of common interest consisted of dogs, relates the New York Press.

"What a dear little fellow he is," chirped the thin woman.

"Isn't he a dear?" cooed the fat woman, smuggling her pet so closely that he had to sniff for breath.

"Mine is a French poodle," answered the thin woman. "I hear those gray terriers are coming into style, though."

"Yes, they're all the rage," said the fat woman. "I had to give up fifty for Sandy."

A handsome young woman who occupied the seat by the thin woman was an interested listener to the colloquy. She was good-looking enough to attract attention anywhere, and she looked as if she loved everything that was worth loving in this world, including dogs. She leaned over and gave Sandy's head an affectionate pat, and Sandy tried to lick her gloved hand.

"You love dogs, too?" said the fat woman.

"Oh, yes," was the reply, "who could help it?"

"What kind is yours?" came the eager query.

"Mine? Oh, I haven't any. Mine is a baby."

And the fat woman and the thin woman raised their brows, turned up their noses and grew coldly silent, just as if some one had said something to shock their sense of modesty.

ETHERIAL BODY VISIBLE.

Semi-Transparent Mass Surrounding the Bones Penetrable by Rontgen Rays.

They say they have seen the etherial body, one of man's subtler bodies interpenetrating the dense physical body. The orientals have long claimed to have seen it with a higher vision and the occidentals are now seeing it by the aid of instruments. In being able to see the skeleton of a live person by Rontgen rays we have gone far to surmounting difficulties in making out the shadow of the etherial body. A hazy, semi-transparent mass surrounds the bones in a skiagraph which seems to invite definition by simple methods of research requiring little more than a better understanding of the offices of the different rays of light to give us a glimpse of the man that survives the mortal case. The etherial body, erroneously termed the soul, seems to be a compound of those electric corpuscles of which matter is supposed to consist with the unknown principle of animal life, and it is obviously a connecting link between mind and matter. A discovery of this sort is calculated to revolutionize the mental sciences and correct many erroneous ideas. It particularly is important to ascertain how the etherial body acts during life. Many doubt the existence of any inner form of this kind. But it is an established belief in the east, especially in India, handed down from ancient days. It is difficult to see how their knowledge could have been so complete, even including the fact that the etherial body never grew old after attaining maturity, unless they had been able to catch sight of the inner form.

A Beautiful Wedding.

Miss Amelia A. Dosker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry E. Dosker, of Louisville, Ky., and Robert M. De Pree, were married Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. E. King, 47 East Thirteenth street. The ring ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Rev. H. E. Dosker, D. D. who was assisted by Rev. Peter De Pree, D. D., of Grand Rapids, father of the groom. Little Edyth Koke of Grand Rapids was ring bearer. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Hazel Wings. The ribbon bearers were Harold De Pree, Donald Steketee, Cornelius Dosker, and Eugene Steketee. Helene De Pree and Gertrude Dosker, flower girls, strewed the path of the bride with flowers. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white embroidered batiste, her veil caught with a wreath of swansons and carried a shower bouquet of the same flower. During the ceremony Miss Grace Browning sang "O Promise Me." The bridal party stood before an embankment of palms and ferns. The rooms were prettily decorated in green and white asters being the flower used. Nicholas Dosker, brother of the bride, officiated as master of ceremonies. The wedding gifts were numerous and costly. Mr. and Mrs. De Pree cleverly escaped from their friends without the rice shower which was in readiness for them. They walked out of the front door and before any one realized that they were taking their departure, they were in G. W. Browning's auto and were whirled away. At the residence of D. B. K. Van Raalte they donned their traveling apparel and then Mr. Browning took them to Zeeland where they left on an Interurban car for Grand Rapids. Their destination was unknown. They will be at home after November 1 at 47 East Thirteenth street, Mrs. M. E. King's home, where Mr. and Mrs. De Pree will reside during Mrs. King's residence abroad. Among the guests from out of the city were Dr. and Mrs. Peter De Pree, Mr. and Mrs. C. Dosker, Dr. and Mrs. B. Dosker, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Doornink, Wm. Doornink, Miss Gertrude Botti, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Koke, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Idema, James De Pree, the Misses Erances, Anna and Alice De Pree, and Mrs. D. J. Doornink, all of Grand Rapids; Dr. and Mrs. Peter De Pree of Olive.

STATE WINS BIG MINE SUIT

MINNESOTA COURT HOLDS LEASE LAW CONSTITUTIONAL

Case Involving Title to Land Worth Millions Is Decided—Hill Holdings Affected.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 8.—The state supreme court Friday handed down a decision in the case of the state of Minnesota vs. Mabel C. Evans, upholding the decision of the St. Louis county court at Duluth, which held that the state law governing mineral leases is constitutional. This case involves the title to the famous Virginia Silver mine, located on the Minnesota range and which is said to be worth several million dollars. The action was brought by the state against Mabel Evans, the holder of the lease, on the ground that mineral leases are invalid because school and swamp lands can only be sold at public auction. In this case the lease was taken out privately, there being but one party to make a bid on the lease.

The court, in its decision by Chief Justice Start, held that "on a full consideration of the question it is the opinion of the court that this mineral lease statute does not authorize a sale of any of the school or swamp lands of the state within the meaning of the constitutional prohibition; that it is constitutional and the leases are valid."

The court held that a lease to the mineral rights did not carry with it the title to the land, which was still vested in the state. Judge Start explained that while this view was rather far fetched, the court decided the question in this manner in order that the extensive business interests, involving an immense investment of capital, might not be seriously disturbed.

The decision affects all the mineral holdings of the United States Steel corporation, J. J. Hill's iron ore interests and many other small holdings.

POINTS ABOUT FRANKING.

Had Its Birth Honestly Enough, in 1660, But Has Come to Be Abused.

American legislators are not the only ones who abuse their franking privileges. Recent history in England has caused the London Chronicle to say: "Franking had its birth, honestly enough, in 1660, in the desire to relieve members of parliament of the expense incurred in the discharge of their national duties; but the practice rapidly widened until it became possible for members to transmit their household goods at the public charge, as the following extract from old post office records testifies: 'Fifteen couple of hounds going to the king of Romans with a free pass—two maid servants going as laundresses to my Lord Ambassador Methuen—Dr. Crichton, carrying with him a cow and divers necessities—three suits of clothes for some nobleman's lady at the court of Portugal—two bales of stockings for the use of the ambassador to the crown of Portugal—a deal case, with four slices of bacon, for Mr. Pennington of Rotterdam.'"

"This form of abuse died when the post office stable underwent a purification, but it speedily gave place to another variety. Members signed packets of letters wholesale, gave them away to their friends, and sometimes paid their servants' wages in franked envelopes; in fact, they became a valuable form of currency, subject to the art of the forger, who did a roaring trade. In 1715 £24,000 ($120,000) worth of free correspondence passed through the post office.

"Fifty years later the nation was staggered to discover that the amount had increased to £170,000 ($850,000), and stringent laws were passed to mitigate the immoral tendencies of the houses of parliament. But all was in vain, until Sir Rowland Hill managed in 1839 to abrogate the privileges altogether."

INACCESSIBLE FORESTS.

Dense Tropical Growth of Guatemala Contains Much Valuable Timber.

Nearly all of the northern and eastern part of Guatemala is covered with a dense tropical forest, consisting of mahogany, different kinds of cedar, cunila and other hard woods. Along streams down which logs can be floated much of the mahogany has been cut, but as yet very little of the other woods have been marketed. This is especially true of the departments of Peten, Alta Verapaz and Izabal.

Most of the forests still belong to the government, and the usual method of securing the timber is by concession, by which a certain number of trees are cut at a given price per tree, or a stipulated sum is paid for the timber on a given tract. It is not an easy matter to get titles to large tracts of land in Guatemala, as it is discouraged by the government. These concessions are not usually granted for a longer period than five years. Sometimes it is stipulated that if a certain number of trees are cut during that time they must be renewed.

The pine forests are limited, being in the mountainous country principally and inaccessible. Most of the lumber used comes from the United States, principally from California. The forests of this country are generally so inaccessible that the railroad companies import nearly all their ties, and even import coal, because it is difficult for them to get enough firewood.

DEADLY FOE OF MOSQUITO.

Large Numbers of the Pests Are Killed Off by the Electric Fan.

Having noticed recently a suggestion of trapping mosquitoes by inducing them to deposit their eggs where they and the resulting larvae may be dealt with, writes Dr. W. F. Arnold, in American Medicine, I beg leave to submit the following suggestion, which I hope may be of some slight use in the prevailing yellow fever crisis. The common electric fan frequently kills mosquitoes, hence it may, I think, be made a factor in preserving public health at this juncture. I noticed immediately upon installing a fan in my quarters at Cavite, P. I., in 1902, that it killed numerous mosquitoes every night, besides preventing them from attacking me while I was able to endure its direct blast. Later on I had some reason to think that dead mosquitoes were not so numerous as they had been, although live ones seemed numerous enough, in all conscience. But I found by spreading a sheet upon the floor that the fan's effectiveness was as great as when first set up, the white surface enabling me to see the dead insects more easily than otherwise. It had occurred to me that they might have acquired in a short time the ability to avoid injury from it that birds soon learn after telegraph wires invade their territory.

Almost every one must have seen or heard of birds killing themselves by flying against such wires when they were first put up, yet such an occurrence soon becomes quite exceptional. But, as I have intimated, I think that I overestimated mosquito intelligence. Hence I presume to suggest the employment of electric fans (the larger they are probably the better) in all infected mosquito districts. These fans might be increased in insecticide power by placing flat and shallow pans containing cheap oil in front of them. I take it that every aid in such riddance will be welcomed.

It Takes Nerve

Everything depends upon your nerves. It is nerve force that causes the brain to direct the motion of your body; it is nerve force that causes your heart to pulsate, and send the blood through your veins; it is nerve force that causes your stomach to digest food, your kidneys to filter the blood, and the liver to secrete bile.

In fact, nerve force is the power that runs your body, so if you feel worn-out, irritable, nervous, cannot sleep, or eat well, have pain or misery anywhere, your nerves are weak, and your system run-down. To restore this vitality take Dr. Miles' Nerve which will strengthen and build up the nerves. You cannot be healthy without strong nerves.

"For eighteen years Dr. Miles' Nerve and Anti-Pain Pills have been my close companions. Early in married life, while raising children, my nerves became all worn-out—could not sleep; had no appetite; indigestion very bad, and had such awful dizzy spells. Then I began using Dr. Miles' Nerve, and at once I began to improve, and soon found myself in perfect health."

Let the women folks examine any garment of my making, they will tell you "that's well made."

Now sum up the clothes question—good cloth, well made into a splendid fitting garment, just as you want it, costing no more than store clothes; isn't that a combination worth trying?

I have convinced many.

PERFUME MADE IN GERMANY

Growth of Industry Makes That Country Rival of France and England.

Vice Consul Fuller writes from Hanover that the German perfume industry is now one of the most important and successful in the world, rivaling that of France or England. He describes it in the following letter:

Some of the biggest factories are in Leipzig, but Berlin, Karlsruhe and Hamburg are important centers of the trade. There has been a vast increase in the last few years in the diversity of essential oils produced from plants and 40 varieties of those plants are employed in the German factories, which use as well such products of foreign lands as nutmeg, cinnamon, camphor, balsams, pepper, musk and ambergris.

The production of the essential oil is expensive, ranging from about $227 a pound downward, according to the scarcity of the oil in the plant. With fresh flowers the distillation takes place as near the place of picking as possible, as the fresher the products the better. The stills contain about 3,500 pounds of flowers and the necessary amount of water. Great care is taken as to the amount of heat supplied and to its regularity, the process being thoroughly controlled, an excellent product resulting.

ABOUT NATURAL BRIDGES.

Their Formation as Accounted For by Scientific Investigators.

It is commonly believed that natural bridges, of which the Natural Bridge of Virginia is the best known American example, are due to the falling in of cavern roofs, leaving only a part to span the stream which the destruction of the cavern has brought to the surface.

By a study of the North Adams Natural Bridge, says the Geographical Record, Prof. Cleland has been led to the conclusion that in this case at least the origin is quite different. In this case the bridge seems to be due to the solution of the limestone along a joint plane near the former course of Hudson brook. At first only a small amount of water seeped along the joint plane, but after awhile it made a channel large enough to divert the entire brook under the surface, giving rise to the bridge.

Walcott had previously offered a similar theory for the Natural Bridge of Virginia, and Cleland concludes that while the falling in of cavern roofs may occasionally give rise to natural bridges, the most common cause for such bridges in marble, limestone, sandstone and lava is that outlined above.

RUSSIAN DUEL BY SUICIDE.

Losers in a Game of Cards for Life Is Compelled to Kill Himself.

A tragedy, romantic on the surface but in reality throwing a repulsive light on the hollowness of life in Russia, is reported from Moscow.

Two young Poles named Nidetzky and Komorowsky, attending a ball given by Count Fedorov, were both so smitten with the beauty of the count's daughter that, though friends from boyhood, they at once became deadly enemies and before the ball was half over had determined upon a duel to the death by that most strange but most deadly of all methods—the suicide of one of the combatants. It was decided that the loser of a game of cards should kill himself, and toward the end of the ball the infuriated pair went to the card room for their game at death. In a few minutes Komorowsky had lost, and, quickly drawing a revolver, he shot himself through the heart. Nidetzky took the first express for Berlin.

As for the fair cause of the tragedy, she was so little impressed that within a few days she had accepted a proposal from a Russian nobleman.

TOLD BY BAKERY WINDOWS

When They Contain But Little Show It Is an Indication of Good Business.

"He runs a bakery, I know that," said the broker's clerk, "but I don't know what kind of a trade he has."

"How do his bakeshop windows look?" asked the broker.

"Bare as a picked bone," said the clerk. "There isn't a thing in them except filled paper, a couple of rolls tied up with red ribbon and a plate of cakes no thicker than a dime."

"Then the fellow is gilt-edged," said the broker. "He has first-class customers. Just show me a baker's windows and I can tell you nine times out of ten the quality of his trade. If they present the appearance of having been struck by famine, he caters to rich folks—supplies them with lady-fingers and dainty wafers thin enough to see through. His customers don't need anything more substantial. Never be afraid to make a deal with a baker who has starved looking windows; he is making money hand over fist. The fellow who makes a display of whole pies and cakes and real loaves of bread is not so well to do. His customers are second and third class. They like to eat and don't care who knows it, and the baker finds it to his advantage to advertise his wares. But it is the baker who caters to the common people who knows how to get up a window that makes your mouth water. The pies he makes are as big as cart wheels, his cakes are seven layers thick, his slabs of apple roll are coated with every known kind of spice and his sinkers are stuffed with real jelly."

VESSEL TO PROTECT SHIPPING AND COMMERCIAL INTERESTS AROUND HAVANA.

CRUISER DES MOINES IS BELIEVED ON WAY

Island Port Thought to Be Destination of Craft—Washington Officials Silent—Veterans Suspected of Being Disloyal to Palma.

Washington, Sept. 11.—American shipping and commercial interests about Havana, Cuba, are to have the protection of an American warship in Cuban waters. While government officials show an inclination not to discuss Cuban affairs in any particular beyond making public dispatches from Mr. Sleeper, the American charge at Havana, confirming dispatches printed in the daily press, there can be no doubt from the attitude of the officials that the cruiser Des Moines, which cleared from Norfolk Monday, is sailing on a state department mission and it is rumored in official circles that she will proceed immediately to Havana.

Cruise for "Health of Sailors." The secrecy concerning the Des Moines extends to all officials of the navy department, where it is said that she has been sent on a cruise "for the benefit of the health of the sailors and marines."

President Roosevelt, it is rumored here, is responsible for the sailing of the Des Moines. It is known that the state department is keeping him advised daily of all information received from Havana and that he is keeping in close touch with the situation from every possible source.

The sailing of the Des Moines has chilled the sanguinary feeling in official circles of President Palma's ability to promptly suppress the insurrection and it is believed here that the revolutionary forces may be making greater headway than would be supposed from the meager news which comes from the island. The very fact that it has become necessary to dispatch a United States cruiser to Cuban waters is taken as an indication that the seriousness of the uprising has been belittled.

Veterans Are Suspected.

Havana, Sept. 11.—The government of Cuba now views with suspicion not only its political opponents, but also many of those whom it has hitherto trusted as friends. It is stated on the most reliable authority that the government has suspected for several days that even some of the members of the veterans' peace committee desired to turn their peace-making into a practical Liberal victory. Since the majority of those interested in the movement are Liberals and independents, this fact gives some color to such suspicions. The veterans deny these insinuations. They are all apparently solely interested, for the moment at least, in securing peace.

It is learned that the proposition submitted to the government by the rebels was that half the senators and half the representatives resign and that new elections be held to fill these vacancies. President Palma and the members of the cabinet were to hold their positions. New general elections also were to be held, and new municipal laws were to be provided for.

All the men remaining in the towns of San Jose and Las Ojas, near Cienfuegos, have joined the rebels. Baldemero Acosta, a prominent resident of Havana, whose loyalty to the government has been questioned at various times and who denied his disloyalty, joined the rebellion Tuesday with 100 followers. Acosta and his men started for El Cano, in Havana province.

New Paymaster General.

Washington, Sept. 11.—The president has appointed Col. Oliver C. Sniffin to be paymaster general of the army, to succeed Gen. Francis S. Dodge, who retired Tuesday. The new paymaster general has been in the service since March 3, 1877. Gen. Sniffin had been private secretary for Gen. Grant for several years, and few men now living have a more intimate knowledge of everything pertaining to the Grant administration than Gen. Sniffin.

Lewis, an attractive woman 26 years of age, the wife of a traveling salesman, has been brutally murdered. Her body, with a bullet wound in the throat, was found in a hall closet. The body bore evidence of a struggle. There is no clue to the murderer.

Tragedy in Missouri.

Pleasant Hill, Mo., Sept. 11.—On his farm near here John Carter, aged 45, shot and killed his wife, Nita, aged 23, and then killed himself in the same manner. Carter had been away from home, and when he returned found his wife writing a love letter to his nephew.

PROTECTED TRAIN ESCAPED BEING DESTROYED AT CONSOLACION DEL SUR.

Troops Supposed to Be Surrounded in Pinar del Rio Manage to Form Junction with Men Sent to Their Relief.

Havana, Sept. 10.—Government, military and railroad officials and the newspaper correspondents were thrown into a state of excitement Sunday evening by men who had arrived here from Pinar del Rio with stories that the armored train which left Havana Friday had met with various obstacles and its 300 men, machine guns, horses and equipment captured.

Story Was Confirmed.

As these tales were confirmed by the Western railroad's first telegraphic advices from Pinar del Rio they were believed to be true until authentic reports of actual occurrences were wired by those who had returned to Pinar del Rio from the scene.

The real facts of the case are that Col. Avalos, who was believed to be surrounded in Pinar del Rio city, and the armored train made a junction east of Consolacion del Sur, and the government forces to that extent are improved. The news of this fact caused much relief in official circles.

Insurgents Driven Off.

The train proceeded Saturday evening from Pinar del Rio to 2 1/3 miles east of Consolacion del Sur, at which point the rails had been removed, and replaced a locomotive and three cars which had been thrown from the track. The insurgents attacked but were driven off by the two machine guns handled by the American, Capt. Webster.

Reports received by the government say that 200 insurrectionists were killed in the encounter near Consolacion del Sur, but these figures are not considered to be authentic.

A fight is reported to have taken place at Guanajay, in Santa Clara province. There were fierce machine charges and the rebels retired. Several of them were wounded and five were captured.

Government Forces Unite.

A large portion of Col. Avalos' force had come eastward from Pinar del Rio for the purpose of making a junction with the machine gun corps. At Consolacion del Sur their advance was disputed by a large band of insurgents and a lively fight ensued. The insurgents were driven off and several of them were killed or wounded. Avalos and his men continued their journey eastward and made a junction first with the cavalry force of Capt. Ravenna, which is scouring ahead, and finally with the disabled troop train.

Bridge Blown Up.

The bridge over the Santa Clara river eastward from the train was blown up Sunday, together with two smaller ones, preventing the use of the road beyond Herradura.

As the bridges westward near Puerto Golpe also have been destroyed no trains can operate from Pinar del Rio city in either direction.

OIL COMPANIES FIGHT ROADS

Complainants Charge Freight Rates Favor Their Big Rival.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 11.—The fight of independent oil companies of Indiana begun some time ago through the Indiana state railroad commissioner against the Standard Oil company, assumed more substantial proportions Monday, when three independent companies filed petitions against 41 railroad corporations whose lines traverse Indiana.

The three complaining concerns are the National Mailing company, of Indianapolis; the Tiona Refining company, of Indianapolis, and the Evansville Oil company, of Evansville. Each of these companies deals extensively in petroleum and is a heavy shipper. They are brought directly into competition with the Standard Oil company.

The petitions were forwarded to the commission from Cleveland, where they were prepared.

The principal charge made by the petitioners is "unjust discrimination" on the part of the railroads named in favor of the Standard Oil company. It is declared that the present fourth-class freight rate in force in Indiana—the rate which petitioners are compelled to pay—is much in excess of rates prevailing in other states for similar services. This rate, it is averred, "operates against petitioners, the public, and is not necessary in order to yield a profit to the carriers."

The petitioners insist that lower rates on petroleum have a tendency to increase competition, will result in larger quantities of oil being moved by railroad, will discourage and largely discontinue the practice of distributing by team and wagon and will increase the revenue of the railroad companies.

Prominent Physician Dead.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 11.—Dr. James H. Peabody, one of the oldest and best known physicians in Omaha, died Monday at St. Joseph's hospital as the result of a minor operation. Dr. Peabody was born in Washington, D. C., March 7, 1838. He served in the union army as a surgeon during the civil war and was afterward connected with the regular army and stationed at Omaha.

The boy arrived in Holland several days ago, and was wandering aimlessly about the city when the attention of the marshal was called to him. I tried to find work near my home, but nothing was offered me and I began to tramp. I rode in box cars, and sometimes walked, I had no particular place in view when I started out, and I just drifted around."

The person who has a brick building he wants to put up just now finds he is up against a serious problem. It is almost impossible to find bricklayers. Last week the contractor for the new glass factory offered Grand Rapids bricklayers 65 cents per hour and could not get them. We understand at Osego the ruling price lately has been 69 cents per hour and none to be obtained at that price. When Masonic Temple was built two years ago it was thought that $4.50 per day was an exorbitant price, but there is quite a difference today. The demand is greater than the supply is the reason for the high price. In cities bricklayers only work eight hours per day and here a day's work is supposed to be ten hours, making the wage rate $6.50 per day. Here are very nearly Klondike prices for you.—Allegan News.

An order for a quantity of steel bars was placed by the railway company with the Paris concern, a bar of steel such as the railway company ordered being about 10 inches long as listed by American concerns. When the steel arrived here it was discovered that the bars were 12 feet long and that the quantity was greater than the company could use in 20 years. Tax Assessments for Paving. The property adjacent to River street, between Fourth and Thirteenth streets, has been assessed in the sum of $38,519.86 to pay for the brick pavement constructed this summer.

Supervisors Van Duren and Ward completed the assessment and each property owner can now figure out to a cent what his share of the expense of the improvement will be.

The property owners will be given five years in which to pay for the improvement. The first year's assessment will be $7,704.32, and this year's tax per foot frontage runs all the way from $1.03 to $1.29 3-5.

The property owners north of Eighth street will have to pay from 90 cents to $1.76 more per foot frontage than their South River street neighbors for the reason that the street railway company is assessed for part of the improvement south of Eighth street.

The North River street property owners will have to pay a total of $6.48 per foot frontage, and the tax for this year will be $1.29 3-5 per foot frontage.

South of Eighth street the assessment varies, according to the width of the pavement. From Eighth to Ninth street it is $5.15 per lineal foot on the east side, and $5.14 on the west side, the first year's payment being $1.03 on the east side, and $1.02 4-5 on the west side. From Ninth to Tenth, both sides, it is $5.58, the first year's payment being $1.11 3-5. From Tenth to Eleventh street $5.27 1/2 both sides, first year's payment, $1.05 1/2; Eleventh to Twelfth streets, both sides, $4.72, first year's payment, 94 2-5.

Self Will Not Be Paid.

The mayor and the committee which included aldermen Stephan, Dyke, and Kerkhof, has decided that Mr. Seif is not entitled to part compensation to aid him in raising his brick block on River street to the street level. Mr. Seif claims that he built the building on lines given him by City Surveyor Price and the building, after the new street was put down is 16 inches below the sidewalk line.

Two sets of plans for the building prepared by Mr. Price were looked over, and it was found that in both plans the front elevation shows a step of one foot to the old sidewalk, indicating that it was planned to have the floor of the building on a level with the sidewalk grade. Architect Price contends that the plans called for an 8 foot basement but it is now only 7 feet deep.

The committee contends further that surveyor Price was not in the city's employ at that time and they can not be held responsible for any of his private transactions.

Busy Week for Council Members.

This has been a very busy week for the members of the common council. The question of the grading of streets in the neighborhood of Prospect Park and the manner of distributing the expense occupied their attention and two visits were made to the neighborhood in question. After a thorough discussion and examination it was decided to delay the filling in of Eighteenth street at the Pers Marquette railway crossing and went on record in favor of paying one-half the expense of grading Twenty-fourth street. The proposition of cutting down the Central ave hill at Twenty-fourth street three feet was turned down.

MATCHES NOT REQUIRED.

How an Oregon Forest Fire Was Started by the Wrath of a Hunter.

"How did this terrible forest fire get started?" inquired the tenderfoot from Indiana, according to the Portland Oregonian.

"Well, you see," said the obliging Oregon man, "last week me an' Si Hanks wuz up in the mountains on a huntin' trip and Si wuz 'bout seven miles from camp an' wanted to light his pipe."

"Oh, I see—and he threw down the lighted match and set the woods afire."

"No, you don't see. Jest lemme tell my story. Si wanted to light his pipe. He had put a bunch of matches in his pocket the night before in the dark. Si kep' a-congratulating himself on having a-plenty of matches, an' he waited till he could set down an' smoke an' drink in the inspirin' scenery. Si wuz jest as eager for that smoke as a tomcat is for his dinner when he sees a bowl o' cream with the kiver off. Finally Si seen a big rock—the finest rock for a seat in the hull state of Oregon, and the finest piece o' scenery from Puget sound to Mexico. Si set down, pulled out his old pipe, an' filled it full o' the best tobacco that grows. Then he reached in his pocket for a match and fetched out a wooden toothpick. He dove in again an' fetched out another. Then he pulled out the hull bunch o' matches an' found they wuz nothin' but toothpicks—an' seven miles to camp. An' then Si Hanks set the forest afire."

"I don't see how he could do that if he had no matches," said the dubious tenderfoot.

"Ye don't, huh?"

"I certainly don't."

"Well, Si Hanks jest naturally set them woods afire with the lightnin' of his wrath."

PLANTS OF ARID REGIONS.

Tender Growths That Survive Long Periods of Severe Drought.

Even the deserts have their botany, as the desert botanical laboratory at Tucson, Ariz., is witness. The water relations of the plants of arid regions so delicately are adjusted that a slight variation in the available supply or in the relative humidity of the air produces a quick and notable effect. A scrub called the ocotillo had been without leaves for several weeks, owing to a long period of drought. One day three gallons of water were poured slowly in the ground at the base of the plant; next day leaf buds were observed, which by the afternoon of the next day had become an inch long, and four days afterward were full grown. The period of activity of plants depends on the period during which they retain their leaves. In the case of desert plants growing under adverse condition to the large amount of moist present in the air, which retards transpiration and thus assists the plant in reserving to some extent the amount of water at its disposal, it is considered probable that the leaves absorb atmospheric moisture in sufficient quantity to be of biological importance. It has been proved that stems of ocotillo absorb both water and atmospheric moisture; it also has been shown that a branch of ocotillo without leaves can absorb a sufficient amount of water to induce the formation of leaves.
