HOLLAND, MICHIGAN

IS HOLLAND GOING TO THE BAD?

LARGEST POLICE CALENDAR IN ITS HISTORY; NINETY-SIX ARRESTS IN AUGUST

Nothing to Worry About, However; Only 40 Tall Light Arrests Were Made; Fewer Drunks, Only Thirteen

At first blush, the arrests made by our local police would indicate that our town was going to the bad, as the list has nearly trebled.

The total number of arrests made in August show that 96 persons had dealings with the minions of the law. Generally the legal machinery has been grinding in, or out about, one a day, but this month more than three was the average.

The automobile has added wonderfully to this enormous crop of arrests and while the public does not look upon a man in Holland arrested for speeding in the same light as a person arrested for drinking or larceny, still the many arrests for auto offenses gives room for thought.

In the larger cities jail sentences are being doled out and many a speeder has and is occupying a cell today for similar offenses.

Anyhow the offenses attributed to the auto last month totaled 71 of a sum total of 96 arrests made. Of this number 21 were for speeding, 40 for tail lights out, 8 for cutting corners, 1 for reckless driving, and 1 for using false numbers.

The drunks who have filled a prominent place on the calendar for many years past are not in it any more. These have last standing and have these have lost standing and have ination of 13.

Theft on the other hand is on the increase as five cases of larceny and one of forgery have been unearthed by the police the past month. Other cases are using indecent language, two; rape, one; delinquent one; and violation of the vehicle ordinance two.

There were seven night lodgers. The light were out in five stores, and the door of one place of business was left wide open.

CITY APPEALS TO RAILWAY COMMISSION

WILL ASK THAT BODY TO HELP MAKE THE CROSSINGS SAFE HERE

The struggle of the common council to get the Pere Marquette railway to make its crossings in the city safe will be carried up to the state railway commission. This action was taken last evening when city attorney Mc Bride was instructed to get into communication with the commission and in this way to have pressure brought to bear on the company to have the necessary safeguards provided.

The city attorney has communicated with the officials of the company but the aldermen last night became impatient at the delay, declaring that conditions at some of the crossings are such that an accident may reasonably be looked for. They wish to avoid this and for that reason decided to appeal to the state railway commission in order to secure immediate action.

CHARGES SCAVENGER HAS TWO RATES

ALDERMAN DECLARED THAT HE CHARGES TEN CENTS IN ONE PLACE AND FIVE IN ANOTHER.

That the city scavenger is discriminating in the rates for the collection of garbage was the statement made last evening by Ald. Congleton to the common council. Mr. Congleton reported that he knew of at least one case where the scavenger had charged ten cents for collecting a can of garbage while the ordinance allows him only five cents per can.

The aldermen expressed the opinion that no such discrimination should be allowed and that the matter should be investigated. A recommendation to this effect will probably be made to the health department under whose jurisdiction the city scavenger works.

BURGLAR ENTERS FACTORY OF W. E. DUNN & CO.

TAKES WITH HIM TOOLS VALUED AT FROM $100 TO $150.00

Foot-prints Are Tracked Up to Twentieth Street and Then Lost.

The plant of W. E. Dunn & Co., Ottawa avenue, was burglarized during the night to the extent of from $100 to $150 worth of tools. According to the list of missing articles made by the company today the thief took with him 38 articles.

He took a grip belonging to one of the employees to carry away the stolen goods, but that apparently was not large enough so he abandoned it and must have used a sack or some other receptacle. He attempted to enter the building by way of the door, but found that too hard to open, so he broke a light in one of the windows and entered in that way.

The burglary was committed after the heavy rain since the foot prints leading away from the building were still quite distinct. They were tracked up to 20th street and then lost, apparently going north. It is supposed that the thief will make for Chicago, which is about the only place where he can dispose of the goods safely.

The police are working on the case and all the towns and cities in a wide radius have been notified to be on the lookout for the burglar.

Following is a list of the things stolen:

1 12-in. luften scale, marked H. H.; 1 6-in. hook scale, marked H. H.; 1 6-in. inside caliper, marked H. H.; 1 3-in. inside caliper, marked H. H.; 1 6-in. hook scale, marked M. S.; 1 6-in. scale with hook off, marked M. S.; 1 10-in. inside caliper, marked M. S.; Bell protractor and center head; 1 6-in. outside caliper, 1 8-in. outside caliper, 1 12-in. scale, 1 4-in. inside caliper, 1 6-in. inside caliper, 1 14-in. pipe wrench all marked E. D.; 1 pair of pliers and hack saw marked E. D.; 1 4-in. comb square; 1 adjustable wrench; 1 6-in. hook scale; 1 pair dividers; 1 10-in. caliper with lock nut; 1 12-in. caliper; 2 6-in. pliers; 1 4-in. caliper; 1 3-in. caliper; 1 6-in. caliper; 1 12-in. scale hook; 1 thread gauge; 1 center gauge; 3 prick punches; 1 small screwdriver; 1 small micrometer; 1 2-in. micrometer; 1 traveling bag 18 inches long, brown leather.

WOMAN TURNS IN A FALSE ALARM DURING STORM

FIREMEN GO THRU DOWN POUR AND GET A THOROUGH DRENCHING

Thru meanness or hysteria a woman called up the water works station at 10:15 last night stating that there was a fire near the Van Raalte Avenue School.

Both companies responded going hurriedly thru the heavy down pour and muddy streets to find that when the place was reached where the fire was supposed to be, that no blaze was in sight, nor was any person present who knew of a fire.

What prompted the lady to phone is not known unless hysteria owing to the severe lightning caused her to see flames.

STORM WAS TERRIFIC

Reports from Saugatuck are to the effect that one of the most terrific storms in the history of that place swept the resort town Wednesday afternoon. At about 5 o'clock a shower of pieces of ice fell on the town. Some of these weighed as much as an ounce, it is said. The rain and the ice were mixed with hail stones as large as marbles.

Furniture Dealers Certainly At It

DRY GOODS DEALERS, CLOTHIERS, AND JEWELERS CATCH THE RIGHT SPIRIT

The News already has several Dollar Day announcements and advertisements, giving exceptional bargains and there will be a great many more in next week's issue. But the furniture dealers are taking the cake for making Dollar Day a real bargain day. It is doubtful if ever such prices were offered before for one day.

The clothing dealers, dry goods men and jewelers advertising in this issue are not a whit behind. These merchants are catching the spirit of the day and for what purpose it is intended.

The day is not to make money but to offer marvelous prices on goods that any sane person cannot help but see bargains that are genuine.

A glance at the Dollar Day Adva. in this issue is enough to convince any reader of this fact. Next week this paper will give a full list of the Dollar Day Bargains on next Saturday, September 15. Dollar Day is chiefly intended as a time when the merchant introduces himself to the buying public.

ALDERMEN CLASH ON MOVING OF A KITCHEN

MAJORITY REPORT OF STREET COMMITTEE IS REJECTED BY THE COUNCIL

Members Were Against Moving Old Shacks from the Country Into Holland.

Something of a tempest in a tea-pot was stirred up last night at the meeting of the common council when the question came up of allowing the moving of a kitchen from Holland township into the city, the plan being to use the kitchen as a garage. The majority report of the committee on streets and crosswalks was against the proposition while the minority report was in favor.

The majority members opposed the proposition on the ground that it was not right to move old buildings into the city and they wished to have the council go on record as against this general practice. They wanted it understood once for all that old shacks were not to be brot into the city from the outside.

The minority member of the committee contended that the building was in good shape and that the owner had bought it in good faith, thinking the council would not object; that moreover he had secured the consent of the neighbors to the premises on which the building is to be placed.

The aldermen voted in favor of allowing the building to be moved but not until after considerable heated argument, Ald. Congleton of the streets and crosswalks committee finally declaring that that committee after this would not again investigate matters of this kind since the aldermen didn't count the committee's investigation and recommendation for anything.

Ald. Wiersma gave notice that in the near future the committee on ordinances would introduce an ordinance covering the moving of buildings thru the city streets.

TELL STORIES OF HIGH JINKS IN HOTEL CASE

CLAIMS MADE IN COURT THAT HOTEL AT BERLIN HAD FAST TRADE.

Fight Is Bitter; Attorneys For the Proprietor Get After The Witnesses.

Stories of high jinks at the hotel at Berlin were the basis for several witnesses called by Prosecuting Attorney Fred Miles in his fight to have the hotel closed. The case started Tuesday with the cross examination of Joe Kirkhoff, the proprietor by the state under the statute. This morning Berlin residents were called as witnesses by Mr. Miles, and these witnesses told of things they had seen about the place. Some of the things which were said on the witness stand would not bear appearance in print.

Several witnesses were grilled by the attorneys for the hotel proprietor and the result was some pretty lively tongue-fire at time which brought the smiles to faces of the many spectators. Several of the witnesses claimed that the high jinks were not infrequent at the hotel which advertised chicken suppers and catered to automobile trade. One man testified of seeing people coming out of the hotel after the prescribed hours. Upon being pressed by Attorney Ellis in regard to the matter the witness declared that he had never seen a chicken supper affect people that way before.

Tom Quartelle, scout master of the Berlin Boy Scouts, was a witness on the stand for the state and he recited things he had seen about the hotel about fair time last year. The scout master testified that he quit drinking in January.

MAKE CHANGE IN CENSOR BOARD

One Member Resigns Last Night; Another Is Appointed

A change was made in the Censor Board last night when the council received the resignation as member of the board of Mrs. D. Vander Haar. This resignation was accepted by the aldermen without comment.

Later in the evening the Rev. J. F. Bowerman pastor of the M. E. church, was unanimously appointed as member of the board.

FORTY-NINE IS TOTAL OF WEEK'S LISTS

THAT MANY WERE CERTIFIED TO DISTRICT BOARD TODAY BY LOCAL BOARD.

The end of this week will see the wind-up of the draft board's work as far as examining registrants for recruits for the first quota of men needed is concerned. It is practically certain now that out of the 179 men to be examined next week enough "good ones" will be secured to fill the quota of 191 men.

A total of forty-nine were certified by the local board to the district board as the result of the examinations of the present week. That many will not be needed out of next week's examinations in order to fill the list.

The members of the board are looking forward to the time when their long task will be over. The work has by no means been a holiday affair for them and they declare they will be glad to have a breathing spell.

Following are the names of the young men from this district who were certified to the district board this week:

Frank de Moen Kleinheksel, Henry Gommers, William Louwama, Leo Jacob Meyer, Henry H. Lanning, Herman John Spoor, William Frederiek Reus, Harold Ezra West, Henry Mulder, Ray Mitchell, Raymond E. O. EXPLOSION FOLLOWED THE PATH OF LEAST RESISTANCE

OTHERWISE MANY MORE PERSONS MIGHT HAVE BEEN KILLED IN FILLMORE

One hundred farmers rushed to the scene of Saturday afternoon's fatality one mile south of here and saved the barn and house and two straw stacks which were threatened by fire caused by the explosion of a traction engine. Edward Reimink, who was killed, will be buried Wednesday. He left a wife and three children. John Gruppen sustained a fractured collar bone and John Wiegink's face and side were bruised.

If the explosion had not followed the path of least resistance the probabilities are that several others would have been killed. Instead of breaking the engine to bits as usually happens in such cases the explosion tore off the smoke box door. This swung on its hinges and whirling around hit Reimink on the head instantly killing him.

The cause of the explosion is somewhat in doubt. It is probable however that the water gauge was clogged and that while it showed two inches of water in the boiler the boiler was probably empty. So when the cold water was poured into it the explosion followed.

The report of the explosion was heard for miles around.

LOSES MONEY AND JEWELRY IN DETROIT

Mrs. Henry DeKruif of Zeeland, while visiting her sisters, Misses Jessie and Anna Kremer at Detroit, met with the loss of $20 and some valuable jewelry through thieves entering the house while the family were out driving. Money and jewelry belonging to the Misses Kremer was also taken. Their father, now deceased, was the one-time pastor of the Holland church in Zeeland and later of the Catherine Street church in Detroit. Some of the jewelry stolen came to the family through Dutch ancestry and was especially prized for that reason.

Dr. Albert Curtis of Holland has returned home after spending several days in the city on a business trip.—Muskegon Chronicle.

TWO THOUSAND ATTENDED THE BASE BALL GAME

OLD TIME PLAYERS STILL FULL OF "PEP"; "DIEK" GIVES BOYS TALK.

The invincible Zeeland Independents met their Waterloo Labor Day when they bumped up against the newly organized Holland Independent team, consisting largely of the pick of the Factory League, together with many of the old heads of former successful ball ball clubs. The old vets, among them Jake Van Putten, Jr., Carl Shaw, Spriggs Te Roller and Babe Woldring, showed their old time form and demonstrated that they had not lost their cunning in playing the great national game. Holland won both games, defeating Zeeland in the morning 14 to 5 and in the afternoon 10 to 7.

Promptly at 3 o'clock President E. P. Stephan, in a short speech of welcome, presented the Goldsmith cup given by the Superior Cigar Co., to the Limbert team, which team was successful in winning a majority of the games in the Factory League summer schedule. Babe Woldring was on hand to accept the cup and responded very graciously.

Mr. Stephan introduced Hon. G. J. Diekema "Diek" gave a good ten minutes' talk about Holland boys; base ball and the coming grand stand. Diekema's talk received a most hearty approval, judging from the demonstration that followed.

After the speech it was play ball. Zeeland drew first blood when one score was brought in in the very first inning. When Holland came up to bat a few scattering hits brought three men on bases while two men were retired during the inning. It was up to Babe Woldring to do his bit and bring in the three men. With two strikes and two balls, Babe braced himself for the final effort. It was one of those sharp cracks that did the business and the ball went sailing over centerfield, the three men crossing the home-plate and Babe making a three-bagger.

It was a swatfest for the rest of the inning, with Doe Walsh and Jake Van Putten both batting out two-baggers. When the side was retired, eight tallies were chalked down on the score board. After this lead the game proved rather listless and dull until the eighth inning when Zeeland rallied with a batting streak when four scores were made by the Zeelanders.

Features of the game were a three and a two-bagger by both Babe Woldring and Doe Waltz. Two two-sackers by Jak Van Putten; a sensational running catch by Carl Shaw, a double play in the third by Ingham to Ashley to Waltz. Spriggs Te Roller did some remarkable backstop work and threw out several Zeelanders at second.

One time the crowd went up in the air. This was when Ashley made possibly one of the longest drives that has been made on the College grounds in some time. The ball as witnessed by a majority of the spectators was within the foul line. Umpire Gibson saw it differently, however but did not call it a foul until Ashley had made the circuit of the bases and touched home-plate for a tally.

George Lage, the 13th St. druggist, Holland's otherwise sporting man, had taken up a pot for the Holland player making the longest drive. The purse was split between Doe Waltz and Babe Woldring, both men making three base hits.

Score—Holland 10; Zeeland 7. Hits—Holland 14; Zeeland 10. Two base hits, Zeeland 4; Holland 7. Batteries, Zeeland—Barnard and Mills; Holland, Batema and Te Roller; Umpire—Gibson. Both games were featured by the terrific hitting of the Holland warriors. In the morning Barrand of Zeeland was forced to retire early in favor of Wasink, who did not fare much better, while Overweg of Holland was constantly in trouble thru wildness was relieved by Woldring. Zeeland's loose base running in the morning was very costly as time and again a runner would be caught asleep which killed their chances of scoring.

OTTAWA MAN SHOTS WIFE THRU BREAST

GRAND HAVEN TOWNSHIP FARM-ER COMMITS MURDER AFTER FAMILY QUARREL.

Elmer Kolberg, in a fit of rage shot his wife thru the breast with a loaded shot gun Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The family lived on the West Michigan Pike about three miles south of Grand Haven.

It is said that Kolberg is a man of very violent temper at times and that he and his wife have been quarreling of late. Friday night the altercations came to a climax when Kolberg pulled down his shot gun, aimed it at his wife's breast, pulled the trigger and literally blew a hole thru her. The woman staggered out of doors, leaving a trail of blood behind and fell in the dooryard dead.

A daughter, Ella Swedek, was also living at the home and at the first shooting, she left the house screaming loudly and the neighbors were soon aroused.

Another shot was then heard which goes to show that Elmer Kolberg attempted to take his own life after seeing the bloody work he had already done. He didn't succeed in his attempt however as the second shot resulted in a slight scalp wound only, also taking some of the hair from the man's head.

Sheriff Dornbos was quickly summoned and he was at the place in short order taking Kolberg to the county jail where he sits in silence, not uttering a word. Coroner Presley of Grand Haven Saturday morning was impealed a jury and the inquest was held.

Kolberg, it is said, lost his first wife and about five years ago married this one in Chicago. From the time of this second marriage matters had not gone smoothly at the Kolberg home, and yesterday the fatal shot gun was brought into play.

DID KOHLBERG PLAN MURDER A WEEK AGO?

It is said that Ernest Kolberg, who blew a hole thru his wife with a shot gun Friday night on their farm on the West Michigan Pike, between Holland and Grand Haven, will be tried and the defense of his attorney Dan Pagelsen will be insanity.

Some sidelights on the murder that are being developed are that Mrs. Kolberg married Kolberg thru a matrimonial bureau and that soon after the marriage quarreling began. It seems that Kolberg particularly objected to his wife's relatives being around.

It seems also that the man not alone worked his spouse in the house doing the house work but compelled her to do her bit in the field besides. The woman is over seventy. The family troubles reached such a state last week that Mrs. Kolberg went into Grand Haven and consulted Lillie, Lillie and Lillie, attorneys, concerning plans for a separation of some sort.

The attorneys advised a settlement of the property between Kolberg and his wife, rather than the starting of divorce proceedings, and wrote a letter to Kolberg, advising him how to go about making a settlement.

According to the testimony given the coroner, Kolberg, his wife and Mrs. Swedek worked in the pickle field during the morning, and in the afternoon Kolberg drove to Agnew with the lead, returning late in the afternoon. After supper Mrs. Kolberg was resting on the couch, when Kolberg asked her what they were going to do about the letters from the lawyers. Mrs. Kolberg told him she thought that they should reach an agreement together, and if not they would have to come into Mr. Lillie's office and have him fix it up.

Kolberg went out to the barn and after walking nervously back and forth in the yard, he came up on the back porch. The next thing Mrs. Swedek knew, he had fired upon her mother. The mother ran towards the outer door of the kitchen. Mrs. Swedek hurried through the dining room and out of the house through another door. She declared that Kolberg called after her to stop screaming. Then he fired again and she saw the shot scatter around her.

Mrs. Kolberg's daughter by her former husband, Mrs. Ella Swedek of Chicago and her baby son have been at the Kolberg home since July 15, and the daughter seeing how things were going in the home, had been urging her mother to return to Chicago with her. On the night of the murder Mrs. Kolberg and her daughter were in the kitchen of the farm house, and Mrs. Swedek was engaged in bathing the baby. Suddenly, according to Mrs. Swedek, Kolberg came into the room with a shot gun and fired point blank at his wife. The shot entered the woman's body, just above the right breast and caused her death within a few minutes. Realizing her danger, Mrs. Swedek seized her little girl from the bath tub and ran with her out of the house. She states that Kolberg fired another shot at her as she fled.

Clasping her naked baby in her arms, Mrs. Swedek fled across the fields to the home of George Maerhauser, the nearest neighbor and informed the family what had occurred. George Maerhauser started immediately for the Kolberg home. There he found the murdered woman lying in the kitchen and out on the porch lay Mr. Kolberg, with the blood spurting from a scalp wound in the top of his head. To all appearances after the shooting his wife, the farmer sat on a bench and pulled the trigger of the shot gun.

The aged murderer is reported to be in good shape and there is no doubt of his recovery, for the wound he inflicted upon himself is only slight. His sons called at the jail to see their father but it was thought best not to disturb the old gentleman and they did not see him.

The gun used by Kolberg in the slaying of his wife is said to have belonged to his son, Herman of Grand Haven. The old man borrowed the shot gun, stating that he wanted to shoot birds.

On Wednesday of last week, Mr. Kolberg was in Grand Haven and visited a store stating that he wanted to buy a musket. When told that muskets were out of date now and hard to get, the old man seemed disappointed. He was told that he could probably get a weapon in a second hand store and left with the intention of visiting one of those places.

All this seems to point to the fact Kolberg was then contemplating the murder of his wife and possibly that of his daughter-in-law and his own suicide.

"We, the coroner's jury of Ottawa county, Mich., find that Minnie Kohlberg came to her death, August 31, 1917, by a shot gun wound inflicted by one Ernest Kohlberg, her husband at their place of residence in the township of Grand Haven, Ottawa county, Michigan. (Signed)

John F. Van Aaroy, John Wealeh, Henry Lanz, Cornelius Vander Noot, Minke Dykhuis, George A. Blackford.

There was no other verdict which could very well have been returned by the coroner's jury at the inquest into the death of Mrs. Minnie Kohlberg, the victim of Friday night's tragedy in Grand Haven township. The inquest called by Dr. William Presley county coroner, was held Saturday at the court house, and the examination of the witnesses was conducted by Fred T. Miles, prosecuting attorney. Daniel F. Pagelsen was present at the inquest as a representative of Ernest Kohlberg. Three of the farmer's sons were present in their father's interest but Kohlberg himself was not at the inquest.

But three witnesses were called at the inquest. Mrs. Ella Swedek, a daughter of the dead woman and the only person, other than Kohlberg who saw the tragedy was the principal witness. Herman Kohlberg the aged man's son from whom the deadly shot gun was borrowed was also asked to testify, and did so under the protest of Mr. Pagelsen, who held that the son should not be asked to give any testimony which might be used against the father. Coroner Presley ruled, however, that the testimony was necessary to his inquiry into the case. Herman Kohlberg therefore answered the few questions put to him, concerning the borrowing of the shot gun. Sheriff C.

Dornbos was the only other witness.

Under questioning by Prosecuting Attorney Miles, Mrs. Ella Swedek insisted that there had been no quarreling, to her knowledge, between her mother and Ernest Kohlberg, at any time previous to the shooting. She made the statement on the stand that Kohlberg was always good to her mother. During her testimony, Mrs. Swedek referred to Kohlberg as "Dad" and seemed to have no resentment against him for his rash deed.

SECOND MILITARY WEDDING SOLEMNIZED IN ZEELAND

A simple but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. G. TenHave in Zeeland, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock when their daughter Miss Effie was united in marriage to Dr. W. Westrate. It was the second military wedding performed in Zeeland. About 50 guests assembled to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Leonard Trap. The bride entered the room unattended. While the strains of The Wedding March were played by Miss Marie Glerup. The bride was simply but becomingly dressed in a traveling suit of brown and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The groom wore a military suit, having been lately commissioned as first lieutenant in the Medical Officers Corps. The house was artistically decorated with the national colors.

Mrs. Westrate is the daughter of Mrs. Gerrit Ten Have, and is one of the popular girls in Zeeland. Dr. Westrate is a son of Cornelius Westrate who resides in this vicinity. He is a graduate of the Medical School of the University of Michigan and has lately completed a year's hospital training in the City Hospital of Youngstown, O. On the 21st of August he was appointed first lieutenant in the M. O. R. C. and is now expecting a call to colors at almost any time.

LADY 90 YEARS OLD, LOST HUSBAND IN CIVIL WAR HAS TWO GRANDSONS IN CONFLICT

Mrs. P. R. Garvelink celebrated her 90th birthday anniversary Friday in a quiet manner at the home of her children Mr. and Mrs. A. Harrington, on First avenue, where she has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Harrington for the past four years.

Mrs. Garvelink was one of the pioneer school teachers of this vicinity. When all was still woods with no railroad or wagon road and nothing but Indian trails, Mrs. Garvelink gathered about her the children of the first settlers in Fillmore township.

In the war of '61, with the north battling against the south, Mrs. Garvelink lost her husband in one of the great battles.

Today two of her grandsons have enlisted in the ranks to take up arms against Germany and to uphold the dignity of the flag. That Garvelinks come from patriotic stock, you can be sure.

With the court room of the city hall packed to its capacity and with a large number of people finding standing room in the hall, Holland Tuesday night gave a fitting farewell demonstration for the soldiers who are leaving for Battle Creek this week and for the others who are to leave later.

The Holland Martial Band and the Drum Corps gave pep and enthusiasm to the gathering by playing on the street and in the city hall before the meeting. The stirring music of these organizations made a big hit with the people.

Chairman E. P. Davis turned the meeting over to Mayor Vandersluis as permanent chairman of the evening. The speakers were G. J. Diekema, Dr. J. E. Kuizenga, G. Van Schelven, Coa De Pree, and the Rev. J. F. Bowerman.

Mr. Diekema gave the cue for the character of the meeting by a fiery address. In the estimation of the thousands of people who have heard him since the opening of the war, Mr. Diekema's eloquence is never more spontaneous than when he is making a war talk, and Tuesday night's address was one of his best. Taking as his text the words of Moses in which he charges the Israelites to be strong and of good courage and not to be afraid because God goes with them, he applied them to the present situation and told the boys to be strong physically, mentally and spiritually. He said that America is the land of destiny, a democracy that was saved from disunion in the providence of God in 1861 so that it might make the world free in 1917. Hence this war is fought for the greatest cause that any war was ever fought for. He told the boys they had the nation back of them and that they should remember they are Holland's representatives on the field of battle.

Mr. Kuizenga said that any words that might be spoken were pitifully inadequate as the expression of the feeling of the people of Holland on saying farewell to the boys. He declared that if he were going with the boys as one of them he would pledge himself to three things, to keep body and mind clean, to go not in the spirit of revenge but to fight the natural tendency to brutality that is often the accompaniment of war, and he would go with an eternal outlook on life and destiny that would make it comparatively unimportant when he should die.

Mr. Van Schelven compared the scenes of departure of today with similar scenes in 1861. He said there was a great similarity but also great contrast. Then the country was unprepared and in a near panic, now everything is being done systematically and with a spirit of confidence that cannot help but give courage to the fighting men.

Coa De Pree declared that the boys who will go to the front will fight for the greatest cause that man can fight for. They are to fight for the principle that Prussianism must be banished from the earth, that the seas must be made free, that small nations shall have the right to live as well as the large. He said the farewell meeting was not an occasion for sorrow but rather joy, that the fathers and mothers, the brothers and sister of the young soldiers should feel honored, and he called upon the people to give every ounce of their own strength to back up the boys in the field. Only in that way, he said, can the war be won.

The Rev. J. F. Bowerman, the last speaker, declared himself a hater of war, but he said that there was something more shameful than war and that was a peace based on anything but justice and principle. He declared that the eyes of the world are today on the American soldier and that the world expects great things of him. He called upon the boys who are leaving never to disgrace the fathers, mothers, and friends they are leaving behind. He declared it must never be said of an American soldier that he mutilated a child, defamed a woman or made war on the weak and helpless. He called on the boys to come back in such a way that they can look their mothers in the face fearlessly and unashamed.

In the course of the evening Teunis Prins, one of the men who will leave this week, sang "Your Flag and My Flag," and the meeting closed with the singing of the last stanza of the national anthem under the direction of Prof. J. B. Nykerk who had charge of the music of the evening.

shown Tuesday when it was found on the opening of the schools was shown that the first day enrollment was not only as large as usual but that it was the largest in the history of the schools.

The enrollments in the different buildings were: Washington school, 271; Van Baalte school, 277; Longfellow school, 299; Lincoln school, 301; Froebel school, 285; Junior High school, 375; High School, 331.

The enrollment in the Junior High school is especially large this year compared with other years, so that the building is crowded. The high school enrollment is sure to grow still larger since there are a number of students who are still working but who will come in soon. The total enrollment also is expected to increase somewhat during the next few weeks.

MEN GOING TO CAMP WILL BE NUMBERED LOCAL DRAFT BOARD RECEIVES NEW INSTRUCTION FROM GOVERNMENT.

The local draft board has received new instructions from the government which will make a considerable difference in the manner of mobilizing the troops that will go to the Battle Creek Cantonment from here. Instead of gathering all the men together in Holland in a body, the board will take them on in small groups of five men a day. Thus after Sept. 19, a quintet of new soldiers will leave Holland each day until the entire quota is in Battle Creek.

On September 5 the first quota was sent; at that time five per cent the number required from this district was sent, comprising of ten men in all. Then there will be a recess in sending men until the nineteenth when the five a day system will start. From then on five will go each day until 40 per cent of the 191 have been sent. On October 3 the board will again begin sending five a day until another forty per cent has been exhausted. The remaining 15 per cent will be sent at some uncertain date after that.

This new way of handling the situation has been adopted to avoid congestion. The first five per cent that left Wednesday will be used to form a skeleton army. These will have two weeks the start of the others and by the time the second contingent arrives the first men are expected to be in shape to whip the others into line. For the first ten men the board has been instructed to pick out the men who have had the most training, and they must all be white men. That the government is going to feed the soldiers well at Battle Creek is shown by the fact that as many cooks are wanted in the first contingent as can be obtained.

STEAL SHIRTS AND THEN PAY FINES

Morris Davis and Lewis Davis, two men living in the East End, paid a fine of $4.50 to Justice Van Schelven on a charge brought of simple larceny. Both men, one 23 and the other 26, entered the house of "McKinley" De Weerd during the day time when they found the door unlocked and took two shirts belonging to the "long distance walker."

One shirt had been worn but the other was found in the home of the men. The fine imposed was promptly paid and the men were both released.

STEALS TIME FROM A HOME AND MONEY FROM LETTER ALSO TAKES HAMMER AND CHISELS FROM HOME OF "McKINLEY" DE WEERD

Albert Johnson, a lad of 15 years, has been picked up by the police and charged with breaking into a house and stealing a clock, some hammers and chisels.

Johnson entered the house of "McKinley" De Weerd north of the Pere Marquette depot while DeWeerd was in the poor house and lugged away nearly everything the poor man had left. Not alone did the boy steal and enter a house, but he also robbed the mail. A Mrs. Bronsen asked the chap to mail a letter for her, containing a $10 bill that she was sending. The boy volunteered to do so but instead tore open the missive, extracted the ten and destroyed the rest of the contents.

The money and other things stolen have been recovered by the police and restored to the owner. The boy will be taken before Judge of Probate Jas. Danhof as he is under age and the juvenile court is the only place that has jurisdiction over young boys. What disposition will be made of the lad's case will be determined later.

PASTOR RETURNS FROM VACATION

The Rev. and Mrs. John Van Peursem and family returned last Thursday night from Maurice, Iowa, where they have been spending a three weeks' vacation with relatives. Mr. Van Peursem will occupy his own pulpit at the Trinity church again Sunday.

While in Iowa the Van Peursems bade farewell to the Rev. and Mrs. Gerrit Van Peursem who have returned as missionaries to the foreign field. They sailed from Seattle and are now on the Pacific.

PRICE OF MILK IS RAISED IN ZEELAND

The Zealand milk dealers have raised the price of milk to eight cents a quart.

The change was made when one of the dealers stated that on Sept. 4 he was going to charge eight cents a quart, and this was sufficient to make the others come to definite conclusions. Those that have declared in favor of this move and who will advance the price of milk to eight cents the quart on September 4 are Edward Barense, William Nykamp, Albert Schut, C. G. Schaap and John Westveld.

Mrs. L. Tuttle who has been visiting relatives and friends in this city left for Detroit Friday.

ZEELAND GIRL WEDS OHIO MAN MISS MAY CHRISTINE LA HUIS BECOMES BRIDE OF HERBERT SPENCER COITH

Perhaps the most beautiful wedding in Zeeland in many years was solemnized Friday evening when Mr. Herbert Spencer Coith of Columbus, Ohio, and Miss Mary Christine La Huis of Zeeland plighted their troth at the home of the bride's parents, Hon. and Mrs. Albert La Huis of Central Ave.

Gowned in white satin trimmed with real lace and pearls, the bride was given away by her father, Hon. Albert La Huis. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Anna Kolyn of Holland, who wore a dainty frock of orchid tulle and silver lace. The bridal bouquet was of roses and swansonia and the maid of honor carried Aaron Ward roses.

The groom was attended by Prof. John C. Hoekje of Kalamazoo. Little Julia Den Herder acted as flower girl. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Grace Mills of Wheaton, Ill., sang "Annie Laurie," and "Beloved It Is Morn." The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Margaret Den Herder. Dr. Matthew Kolyn of Holland, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony. Miss Gerada Broek of Muskegon acted as mistress of ceremonies and Chester La Huis as master of ceremonies.

Similar and garden flowers were used very effectively in decorating the rooms. The bridal party stood before an altar of palms, back of which was a trellis intertwined with vines.

The bride and groom were the recipients of numerous tasty gifts. After a brief wedding trip the newly married couple will be at home at 20 University Place, Columbus, O.

HELD FAREWELL SERVICE

Inasmuch as a number of the young men connected with the church and Sunday school of the First Reformed church have been drafted and will leave for the cantonment at Battle Creek in the near future, the pastor of the church decided to hold a patriotic farewell service in honor of these young men and their relatives and friends last Sunday evening. A cordial invitation was also extended to the other young men of the city who have been drafted.

The Rev. Benjamin Bush, pastor of the Presbyterian church North, of Lexington, Ky., conducted the services at Hope church both morning and evening Sunday. Mr. Bush is a graduate of Hope College of the class of 1906. He has been stationed at New Paltz, New York, Jersey City, and Lexington, Ky. Recently his church in Lexington, burned down and Mr. Bush has been conducting services in a down town theater.

AUTO TAGS AT HALF PRICE FROM SATURDAY ON REDUCTION IN LICENSE FEE IS TO GO INTO OPERATION THEN.

Saturday the day held its big "Bargain day" in automobile licenses. From and after midnight Friday all licenses for the balance of the year 1917 will be at half price. Ordinarily there are a lot of people who have purchased cars during the month of August who wait until September to get their licenses.

There isn't any indication that this year's bargain will be less popular than in years gone by. As a result preparations for the handling of a lot of applications over the counter and by mail Saturday have already been made. This is the only bargain day which the state capitol knows and it is followed each year with a lot of interest by those in the big building.

Jappinga was the man squeezed to death between two freight cars near the G. & M. boat dock, some six months ago.

TEN DOLLAR BILL STOLEN FROM BERT SLAGH STORE

Probably impatient to have the mud turtles line up and spell "paints" for him, a thief entered the store of Bert Slagh, the wall paper dealer and stole the $10 bill he had tacked up to be given to the person who found the turtles so arranged that the word paint would be spelled.

The thief entered thru a rear window and apparently went directly to the place where the ten dollars bill was located. Nothing else was stolen, not even a mud turtle out of revenge.

CHANGE MADE IN ZEELAND SCHOOL

A few changes have been made in the teaching force of the Zeeland School for Christian Instruction. Miss J. Verduin will teach the kindergarten and first grade in one room. Miss D. Van Wesep second and third in the room formerly occupied by Miss Luijckens. Miss Jennie Vis will teach the fourth and fifth grades and Miss E. Driessens, who takes the place of Miss A. Breen, will have the sixth and seventh, while Miss T. Luijckens will teach only the eighth grade this year.

To that end a fifth room has been added. As principal, she will be better able to look after the interest of the school.

No Heat--No Tools--Just TIRE-DOH and Your Fingers

Tire-Doh-izing is economizing. And it's a simple, easy process. Requires no tools but the fingers--and no heat whatever. There is no danger of ruining, burning or overcuring the rubber. Neither is there anything messy or disagreeable about it. Both Tire-Doh and Tire-Doh cement come off the fingers easily and leave them clean.

Whether used for tires or for other articles made of rubber, Tire-Doh is the most reliable, most effective and most convenient repair outfit on the market -- a proved success after seven years' use.

Not a Tire Filler. Tire-Doh is not a composition that goes inside a tube to replace air. It is a secret process preparation that goes into the hole or tear only. It makes a perfect repair by becoming an actual part of the rubber on the same principle as two pieces of steel become one when properly welded together, except that no heat is required with Tire-Doh. Everybody needs Tire-Doh, 750,000 "kneaded" it last year. And the recommendations of satisfied users all over the world are helping Tire-Doh sales grow by leaps and bounds. Complete outfits sell at 50c and $1.00.

Letters From the Front

Letter from Aronautic School

Princeton, N. J.,
Military School of Aronautics.
Dear ones at home—Your good letter came this P. M., so glad to get it; and so glad to hear that father has taken a vacation. Reached here Saturday evening—wonderful place, is Princeton. The buildings are just like sections of Windsor Castle in England. Work will be very hard and discipline just like West Point. What you can do isn't worth doing, and what you can't do would fill volumes. There is not much doing here today except the issuing of our supplies. Eats are the best ever served in one of the high vaulted dining rooms of the University and makes you think you are in a church. Have a fine room—mate—in fact the aviation corps is as high as any in the army.
Now don't worry about me; it is bad I know, but could be so much worse. As far as danger is concerned, we are all constantly in danger and it's all just a part of things.
Please write as often as you can. Would like to have you send me the home papers and "Leslie's Weekly."
Lovingly,
NED LACEY.
