Okay Study On Electric Facilities

On recommendation of the Board of Public Works, City Council Wednesday night approved a contract with Black and Veatch, consulting engineers, for engineering services in an improvement program for electric facilities.

The detailed contract provides for an engineering study on the best way to proceed in providing the necessary services. Expansion programs of this type involve a great deal of time since delivery dates on certain equipment can run as high as two years. Should the Board of Public Works proceed with a given program, it would take a minimum of four years before a new plant could be put into operation.

The local Board of Public Works has used the services of Black and Veatch in installing its new $3,000,000 water system involving a pipeline to Lake Michigan.

After Black and Veatch complete the initial study, the Board of Public Works will report back to City Council before any decisions are made on expanding services in Holland. The initial survey also will investigate obtaining services from other sources.

Council approved laying water mains in three areas in the city, following public hearings on the subjects. Two mains, one in Third St. running 153 feet between River and Pine, and the other in 120th Ave. from 13th to 16th St., were passed almost automatically with no objections expressed.

But the third main, listed for Thomas St. between Crest Dr. and South Shore Dr., brought several objections. Two parties requesting the main account for 240 feet and four parties objecting account for 300 feet. Paul Van Volkenburgh spoke for persons favoring the main and Maurice Collins spoke for those objecting. Homes in this area at present have private wells and septic tanks.

In general, Council felt that when health is in any associated with such a request that it should be granted in spite of the fact that Council usually follows the will of the majority. The Thomas St. installation will provide one more fire hydrant in the area. The Board of Public Works was instructed to proceed with construction of the mains.

On another health subject, this time on trees, Councilman Raymond Holwerda suggested that an investigation be made into the subject of Dutch Elm Disease in Holland with a view to having the city-at-large take the responsibility of removing condemned diseased trees.

Council approved his motion to refer such matters of policy to the city manager and the park superintendent. There are perhaps not more than 10 trees on city parkways and public property which have been condemned by the State Health Department, but there are others on private property which have been ticketed.

Holwerda pointed out that the situation in Holland is not nearly so desperate as in some nearby cities and townships, but Holland is proud of its fine trees and proper precautions should be taken to protect them.

Requests for water service for Apple Ave. school and 20th St. from Plasman Ave. to Graafschap Rd. were referred to the city manager for report.

An application for a permit to build a gasoline station at the southeast corner of Eighth St. and Columbia Ave. was tabled until next meeting. Plot plans had been received Wednesday morning and there was not sufficient time for proper study.

Mayor Robert Visscher was appointed official delegate to cast the vote of this municipality at the annual business meeting of the Michigan Municipal League which will be held in Detroit Sept. 24, 25 and 26. The mayor will appoint his own alternate.

City Auditor John Fonger was appointed to represent the city as an officer delegate at the annual meeting of the Michigan Municipal League which will be held in Detroit Sept. 24, 25 and 26. The mayor will appoint his own alternate.

A letter from Vern J. Schipper, director of adult education in the public schools, expressed appreciation for the use of Civic Center parking lot for use in driver training.

Mayor Visscher appointed Councilmen Holwerda, John Beltman and John Van Eerden to study amendments to the city charter which may come up for vote at the spring election next April.

Council approved low bid of 13.9 cents per gallon for approximately 12,000 gallons of No. 2 fuel oil entered by Cook Oil Co. The bid lists discount of 1 per cent.

Peter Kalkman was awarded the contract for laying approximately 18,761 square feet of sidewalk. His bid listed 23 cents per square foot.

A condition of the action was that the house remain a one-family dwelling.

Royal Canadian Mounties continued the search today for the body of the Rev. Wilbert Lemmen, 31, former local resident who was drowned Tuesday afternoon in Vanderkerckhove Lake about 30 miles from his home at Lynn Lake in Manitoba, Canada. Rev. Lemmen and his wife, the former Mary Van Wynen of Holland, have been working as missionaries in that area for the past four years.

Rev. Lemmen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lemmen of 616 Lawn Ave., Holland. Mrs. Lemmen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gil Van Wynen of 87 East 23rd St.

Word of the tragedy was received in Holland Wednesday night during the midweek prayer of Immanuel Church, and the Rev. W. Herbert Scott changed the order of the service for the missionary who was formerly associated with the church. The work of the Lemmens in Canada has been supported by a local businessman.

According to information received, Rev. Lemmen and two youths, Bill Roberts, 17, and his brother, Paul, 15, who live at Lynn Lake, were returning from an overnight camping trip when their boat capsized in rough waters. The boys swam ashore but Rev. Lemmen was hampered by heavy clothing which included a parka and boots. When the party did not return Tuesday night, the families became concerned and started a search. The boys were located Wednesday noon. The outing had been planned as a final vacation before school started.

Holland High School Students Are Given Achievement Tests

About 6,000 individual tests are being administered this week to students of Holland High School.

The students are taking the Iowa Tests of Educational Development and the California Achievement Tests to show the scope of each student's background knowledge and the extent to which his scholastic abilities have been developed.

The Civic Center auditorium and exhibition hall and the high school auditorium are being used to house all the students for the testing program. Miss Gladys Wiskamp and Eugene Scholten are administering the tests, assisted by other members of the high school faculty.

The Iowa testing program covers four major areas: the ability to understand and use the English language, the ability to do practical arithmetic reasoning, knowledge of natural and social sciences, and the ability to think straight about common problems in these fields.

The results of these tests will help the teachers to meet personal student needs and will give guidance directors information to help them counsel students more effectively. A self-interpreting profile, furnished to each pupil to plot his own scores and those of his class average, will serve as a report to the parents.

Brief class sessions were held for sophomores on Wednesday and for juniors today. The seniors will hold abbreviated classes Friday. The regular schedule of classes for Holland High School will begin Monday, Sept. 8.

US-31, 8th St. Signal Lights Now Installed

A crew of men from the traffic signal division of the State Highway Department, Lansing, arrived in Holland Wednesday afternoon to set up traffic lights at two rerouting points while the M-21, US-31 intersection bridge is being built.

The men this morning set up a battery of four lights at Eighth St. and US-31 bypass, and this afternoon will begin setting up traffic lights on M-21 at the detour road.

Meanwhile, work is going ahead rapidly on the detour road which the bridge is being built.

The roadway has been graded, and Friday the workmen will begin putting the first primer coats of blacktopping on the detour, according to Ernest Malkewitz, bridge project engineer. Work has also begun on the ramp on the northwest corner.

Malkewitz explained that the bridge is being built as a semi-cloverleaf design rather than as a full cloverleaf because surveys have shown there is little traffic going north and turning west into Holland at the intersection and also few motorists heading south and turning east at the corner.

Northbound traffic wishing to turn west to Holland usually goes by way of Eighth St., Malkewitz said, while traffic heading south and wishing to go east to Grand Rapids usually turns off at M-50.

Lower Fines Sought

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Downtown merchants and labor leaders have asked City Council to reduce the $1 parking fine system which is in operation in Grand Haven. In June petitions bearing more than 700 signatures, asking a reduction, were filed with Council. A survey showed that only one city the size of Grand Haven had lower fines. Arrangements were made for a meeting of merchants and Council to discuss the situation.

City Land Leased

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — The Webb Coal Co. of Kalamazoo has signed an 18-month lease with the city of Grand Haven for three acres of land on the city island for use in coal shipments. The city will be paid a minimum rate for the use of the land or a rate on tonnage of coal taken out of the city, whichever is greater. George Van Hall who owns a strip of water frontage over which the coal would have to be transported, also figures in the lease.

City Delays Any Action On Islands

The question of making the traffic islands permanent on Central Ave. at 26th and 30th Sts. was tabled until the next meeting by City Council at its regular meeting Wednesday night.

Motion to table passed 5 to 3 with John Beltman, Ernest Phillips and Mayor Robert Visscher dissenting.

City Manager Herb Holt had explained plans for landscaped areas in the islands, calling for curbs eight inches high with rounded corners reducing said corners about a foot. Estimated cost of each island listed $300 for construction and $100 for landscaping.

During Council discussion at the close of the meeting, Councilman Robert Kouw brought up the subject again and although he had voted to table the matter for two weeks asked other Councilmen their opinions. Councilman William Heeringa who made the motion to table said he had talked to many persons who were not in favor of the dividers and he felt a vote of the people might more adequately express the people's wishes. Mayor Robert Visscher said a public vote might make the issue an emotional thing.

City Clerk Clarence Greengood said he had received a call just before Council meeting from a woman in the neighborhood who said traffic had slowed down definitely and she favored permanent installations.

Kouw felt that improved design might do away with the pigsty look and Mayor Visscher said most people he had talked with appeared quite happy with the islands. Raymond Holwerda said he expects he will favor permanent installations but believes it well to put people on notice. A two-week delay would give people, opposed to this traffic design, plenty of time to register their opinions with the Councilmen. He said the original divider at 29th St. had called for a 90-day experiment but public pressure did away with it long before the period was over.

In other business, Council passed a resolution vacating Harrison Ave. between 12th and 18th Sts. to permit expansion of Crampton Co. manufacturing facilities, and scheduled a public hearing Oct. 15 at 7:30 p.m.

This action was taken on recommendation of the Planning Commission which has had the subject under study for some time. Willard C. Wichers, commission chairman, explained that the company was faced with the decision whether to expand operations in Holland or to do so in Grand Rapids. The study revealed that it was extremely important industrially to encourage expansion in Holland, particularly in view of a normal employment of 635 persons, an annual payroll of $2,400,000, $62,000 for light, $13,000 for water, $65,000 for gas, $19,000 for city taxes and $4,000 for county taxes.

Wichers said the company plans to double its manufacturing capacity in five years, expanding to the west up to Lake Ave. This would probably double the employment base too, he said. The company has options on property west of Harrison Ave. for the expansion move. Wichers also reported that the Planning Commission has negotiated for an exchange of land owned by Crampton Co. between 11th and 12th Sts. to permit the extension of the truck route.

In other Planning Commission business, Council voted 7 to 1 to approve a previous contract with Bagby and Boatman of Grand Rapids for consulting services on planning for the newly annexed areas as well as adjusting the major street plan and some other items in the current street plan. The subject had been referred back to the Planning Commission at the last meeting of Council with the suggestion that other planning consultants also be contacted. Wichers explained that some advice was sought on this recommendation but the answer was definitely to retain the consultants already familiar with the work.

The new work which will take eight to 10 months involves an expenditure of $10,000 of which $3,000 is provided by the Board of Education, $3,000 by the Board of Public Works, $3,000 by the City Council and $1,000 by the Chamber of Commerce. Wichers explained that it was the unanimous vote of the Planning Commission to retain Bagby and Boatman.

Kouw had moved that the subject be tabled, but his motion received no second and Holwerda moved that the original agreement be approved. It passed 7 to 1, with Kouw passing the dissenting vote. Mayor Visscher presided at the meeting which adjourned at 10:05 p.m., one of the longest meetings in recent months. All Councilmen were present with the exception of Henry Steffens. Councilman Kouw gave the invocation.

Involved in Accident

Cars driven by Watson R. Malott, 68, of 101 Manley Ave., and Gregorio Morales, 171 Manley Ave., were involved in an accident Tuesday at 8:25 p.m. in front of 171 Manley Ave. Deputies estimated the damage to Malott's 1956 model car at $250 and the damage to Morales' 1954 model car at $100.

Mrs. Robert Joy Groen

The marriage of Miss Margaret Meed Hoffman of Sarasota, Fla., and Robert Joy Groen of Bradenton, Fla., former Holland resident, was solemnized last Saturday in a 3 p.m. ceremony performed by Dr. Ronald C. Garney in the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Turton, of White Plains, N.Y.

WINNERS OF RACING HOMER EVENTS — This group of Holland pigeon racers have had fine success with their young birds racing this summer and are hoping to continue with their victories. Herman Bekker (far right), long-time pigeon raiser, is in charge of the local club and following races all times are reported to him. Pictured (left to right) kneeling are: Bill Bruinsma, Craig Nykamp, Jack Anties, Howard Sterenberg and Bekker. Standing are La Vern Barkel, Cal Nykamp and Wayne Overbeek. (Sentinel photo)

Holland Group Has Success With Homers

Herm Bekker's pigeon house is a busy place each Monday night when the members of the Holland Racing Homer pigeon club flock around to study results of the previous Saturday's race.

There's a group of 25 or 30 congregated in Bekker's building located behind his home at 170 East 18th St., and they are anxious to see how their homers fared against others.

Most of them are youngsters who have become interested in this and so far they have made quite a showing.

During a distance race, the time each bird arrives back in Holland is recorded. As soon as the homer hits his "bob" or coop, the owner takes off the band and reports the time by telephone to Bekker.

Most of the homer owners have an electrical unit set up so that as the bird hits the "bob", a bell rings in the home notifying the owner that the bird has landed.

Each coop has four wires in front of the loft that snap closed when the pigeon enters. Then the owner enters the coop and removes the band.

The phone call to Bekker is made and he records the elapsed time beside the band number. All of the times are recorded as reported and winners are determined at the Monday meeting.

Often times the birds get lost and may not be reported. Some of the boys reported having birds one, two and three weeks late in getting back to their home base.

During the past two weeks the birds have been flying from Fort Wayne, Ind., and the winning birds have made the distance in a little more than three hours. This week's race Saturday is from Marion, Ohio.

The Holland birds are picked up by the Muskegon Racing Homer Club each Friday night and taken to the Saturday destination where they are set off.

Since July 26, the group has been racing the birds, who are a year old, while the older pigeons were raced from April until last month.

The boys have been training the young birds for quite a while on how to return to their homes. But that is not an easy job. Bekker says the secret of training the birds is to have the birds fly outside the coop for a half or three-quarters of an hour each morning and each evening.

During the training period, the birds are taken out a short distance and then released to fly back to their home. The racing homers are a Belgium breed and especially bred with the instinct of returning to the home base. They were used extensively during World War II.

The birds are first given a 50-mile test, possibly from Kalamazoo, and they next go to Sturgis for a 100-mile flight. This is followed by the Fort Wayne and Marion jaunts plus a Louisville, Ky. race later.

Since the birds like to fly straight north or northwest these release points were chosen.

Bekker is especially happy over all of the youngsters who have taken up the sport. And the boys really enjoy it as is evidenced by the way they huddle around Bekker and other statisticians each Monday night.

PROJECT COMPLETED — Lee Kleis examines the new football scoreboard at Riverview Park which was recently installed by the city for use this fall. Largely through Kleis' efforts and donations by Holland service clubs, the Holland High and Hope College athletic departments and private industries, the scoreboard became a reality. It replaces the old scoreboard used for the past 11 years. (Sentinel photo)

New Football Scoreboard Ready for Use

Last year Lee Kleis had an idea and this year Riverview Park has a new scoreboard.

Kleis, the official timer for the Holland High and Hope College home football games for the past several years, suggested the new scoreboard during the 1957 season while having difficulty getting the old board to operate smoothly.

The old scoreboard had weathered every storm since its installation 11 years ago and frequently during the season the electric signals failed to work.

Following the season Kleis inquired and found a new scoreboard, that would supply the needs, could be purchased for slightly more than $2,000. So he proceeded to talk to Holland service clubs, Hope College, Holland High and some private industries and businesses about contributing.

Receiving the approval for the board, Kleis made plans for the purchase and the city has installed it. A cable must still be installed before the board will be in working order.

The scoreboard is a day-night type since Holland High plays its games at night and Hope plays some of its games in the afternoon. It has an automatic horn denoting the end of a quarter.

The visitors and home score is lighted and their is a place for the yards to go and the down. A sideline telephone system to the scoreboard will be set up and information concerning the yardage and down will then be flashed on the board.

A special panel in the right corner of the new board will denote the number of minutes and seconds remaining. This clock is similar to the scoreboard clocks in the Civic Center.

The scoreboard is painted green with white letters while the panel denoting the time to play is painted red. The old scoreboard has been sold to Cedar Springs for use this fall.

Contributions of $200 each have already been received from the Rotary, Lions, Exchange and Kiwanis. Other clubs are expected to take action in the near future.

The Hope and Holland High athletic departments each have contributed $200 and some private industries and business are expected to contribute.

Plans call for Holland High and Hope College each to stage intrasquad scrimmages at Riverview Park about a week prior to their opening games. Football fans attending the scrimmages may donate toward the new scoreboard.

Zeeland Opens Grid Drills With Only Four Lettermen

ZEELAND (Special) — Coach Jarold Groeters faces a rebuilding job with the Zeeland High football team as only four lettermen are returning.

Of the quarter, which began practice Monday, only one, tackle Marv Feenstra played regularly last season.

Feenstra, 6'2" 195-pound senior, was the team's most valuable player last season and is expected to anchor the line. Other lettermen include Ed Bill De Witt, a 145-pound senior who played only offense last year, and two seniors, 5'8", 145-pound Jim Van Dam and 165-pound Junior De Jonge, who each played only defense in 1957.

Groeters, who is starting his sixth year as head coach, said "This is the leanest year in a long time and we certainly are limited on talent. Some of the boys are questionable as to ability and don't look too promising."

"We don't have any numbers (28 will report) and we don't have depth to platoon (seven on defense last season) and if we are to win it will be on desire. The boys will have to produce by themselves and make up for lack of ability by playing hard football," Groeters said.

Stan Wagner, 170-pound senior who failed to letter last season and Pete Ver Plank, 150-pound junior up from the reserves and Wayne Schout, 6'3" 195-pound senior who is a fine basketball and track performer are the ends. It is Schout's first crack at football.

Three juniors, all more than 200 pounds will fight to team with Feenstra at tackle. Curt De Jonge is a 220-pounder who was on the varsity last year had the edge while Ron Zylstra, 200 pounds and Dave Schaap, 210, lack speed but will be challenging.

Eight guard candidates are out with two of them, Bob Hendricks, 165 pounds and Dave Vander Kooi, 180 pounds, seniors on the club last season. Up from the reserves are John De Jonge, 150, Dick Zwijghuizen, 150, Jim Vander Warf, 135, Don Zeerip, 145, Bob Wissink, 160, and Ron Mulder, 170. All are juniors.

Gary Goorman, 140-pound senior who played on the varsity last season leads the centers along with 148-pound junior Bob Komejan.

Van Dam is expected to be the Chix quarterback while Ed Hall, a 140-pound junior, is the other prospect.

Six boys are vying for the half-back posts. Ron Plasman, 155 and Glenn Nykamp, 145, are two seniors back from last year but didn't see much action. Shifty Cliff Ter Haar, the leading scorer on the reserve team last season, is a top prospect and a 150-pound junior. Other junior backs are 120-pound Gary Hietje, 155-pound Don Diselkoen and 145-pound Del South.

De Jonge, although he lettered at fullback, may be switched to halfback because of his speed. Jack Nagelkirk, 160-pound junior, is the other fullback candidate.

The Zeeland coach expects Fremont to be the team to beat again this year in the Kenewa League. The Packers won the title last season and have most of the team back.

Zeeland opens at Grandville Sept. 19 at 7:30 p.m. and opens at home against Otsego, Sept. 26 at Zeeland Athletic Field.

Volleyballs

When the McLain club held its biennial reunion in Holland early in August, it became evident that never before have the city's ramp-like walks at crossings been so appreciated. The McLainites were all once patients at the McLain Orthopedic sanitarium in St. Louis, Mo., before the institution closed in the early 1930's. The patients formed the club and now every other year they have a reunion somewhere in the United States.

Since a good number are wheel chair patients, the ability to cross a street on a ramp curb was thoroughly appreciated, and The Sentinel has received a number of letters expressing appreciation.

Mabel Lohmann of Zumbrota, Minn., expressed thanks for the many kindnesses the people of Holland had shown. She said on the day the group met at Kollen park for a picnic, she wheeled herself down from the hotel. At one point the level was a bit steep. A truck driver noting her dilemma stopped his truck and gave her the necessary push. In the park where another steep ramp spelled trouble, a mother who was in the park with her two girls came to the rescue. "My special thanks to both of them," Miss Lohmann wrote.

Although a wheel chair victim, Miss Lohmann is far from being idle. She helps with household tasks in her home on a diversified dairy farm. She is an adult leader of a 4-H club with 67 members. She also teaches Sunday School and does mimeograph work for her church and other organizations.

Marie Neaman of Delevan, N.Y., expressed appreciation to the Chamber of Commerce for its many courtesies during the reunion and to the many friendly people here. She also mentioned the ramp walks which are a convenience not only to people in wheel chairs, but to other handicapped or elderly persons to say nothing of short-legged toddlers. "I'm sure our group as well as your own Sen. Potter would say, never change the ramps to curbs," she said.

Irene Bodine of Covington, Ind., expressed similar appreciation and said it was a real privilege to visit a town like Holland. "Your town made us all so welcome that we certainly want to say a big thank-you for all the hospitality shown," she wrote.

Stephen J. Novotny of Youngstown, Ohio, wrote that the McLainites were greatly impressed by the neatness and cleanliness of Holland, by the beautiful parks and beaches and the facilities available to the public.

"But most of all we were impressed by and want to congratulate you on the system of ramped sidewalks throughout the town. Not only is it a boon to the handicapped and to the aged but we feel the psychological effect it creates results in less jay walking than we have observed in other cities."

"We could criticize, however, the unsightly 'pig-pen' on Central Ave. We understand that it had been placed there because of a serious accident. If it is a dangerous corner, a blinking caution light or even a traffic signal would be more appropriate to the neighborhood."

"We had a grand time. We want to thank the Chamber of Commerce, the Holland Sentinel, the various merchants and the public in general for the help we received in our program and for privileges and courtesies extended us to make our visit a most enjoyable one."

Lorayne Dore of Holland, local chairman for the reunion, and Mrs. Annie Fields of Little Rock, Ark., also sent notes to The Sentinel thanking it for the courtesies and the many people of Holland who had shown kindnesses.

On other fronts, we've been admiring the well kept midstrips of Lilac Lane on M-21 between Holland and Grandville. Even without sprinkling, some areas look better than many a yard. Those rustic signs are attractive too, but beyond the words "Lilac Lane" one can't read the fine print short of stopping and walking to close range. Can't something be done?

Bud Raphael says his company has received a contract for providing the front curtain for the world's largest stage. This is for the Elliott Hall of Music in Lafayette, Ind., whose stage is 200 feet larger than Radio City Music Hall. The front curtain and valences take 2,100 yards of material alone. This does not take in the 50 drops on the stage. Many companies had entered bids, but Raphael's was low bid," he said.

Local theater enthusiasts who remember the performances of Dale Engle and his wife, Margaret Sheehan, last summer at the Red Barn Theater may see one or the other most any day on a TV strip commercial promoting programs that will be introduced this fall. Engle is an announcer sitting high on a beam over a convention hall. Miss Sheehan can be seen in profile during a sequence where a beautiful blonde is being interviewed. Engle can also be seen in a series "From These Roots" which appears Sept. 3.

Since their stay here during the summer of 1957, the Engles have had an addition to the family, one Terrance, who Dale insists already shows histrionic ability.

He was a member of Second Reformed Church, Grand Haven F and AM 139 of which he was a past master; Corinthian Chapter No. 84 of which he was a Past High Priest; Muskegon Commandery Knights Templar No. 22; De Witt Clinton Consistory of Grand Rapids; the Grand Haven Shrine Club; the Saladin Shrine of Grand Rapids; a past patron of the Grand Haven OES No. 925 of which he also served as trustee and was a former member of Company F.

Besides the wife and parents he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Dwight Naas of Fullerton, Calif.; four sisters, Mrs. Leonard Brown Mastenbrook of Grand Haven, Mrs. Gerald Dyksterhouse of Charlotteville, Va., and Mrs. Stanley Thorogham of Norfolk, Va.; five brothers, Maurice of Fenton, Al of Detroit, Howard of Clarkston, Chester and Ronald of Grand Haven; also three grandchildren.

The body is at the Kammeraad Funeral Home where friends may meet the family. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Man Drowns At Saugatuck

SAUGATUCK (Special) — A Chicago man, Vincent Fortunato, 46, drowned Saturday afternoon north of the oval in Lake Michigan while attempting to rescue his eight-year-old niece from the high waves.

Saugatuck police said the girl, swimming in an inner tube at an unguarded section of the beach, was rescued by unidentified persons, but Fortunato was carried underneath the water by the heavy undertow.

Fortunato went under about 200 yards south of the north pier, Saugatuck police said, and the body was recovered about 40 minutes later when it washed against the pilings at the old harbor entrance.

Saugatuck lifeguard John Fox applied artificial respiration in an unsuccessful attempt to revive the victim. Dr. Donald DeWitt of Douglas listed death due to accidental drowning.

Fortunato was taken to the Dykstra Funeral Home and transferred to a funeral home in Chicago.

Top Red Barn Stars Appear In Final Play

The Red Barn Theater near Saugatuck is winding up its final week of the season with the sparkling comedy, "The Champagne Complex," which brings the three top stars of the season before the audiences for their last appearances.

With the cast limited to three persons, "The Champagne Complex" gives Dorothy Lee Tompkins, Jack Doner and Bill Cain their final fling in this gay sophisticated comedy which oozes psychiatric twists, clever lines and a brittle hilarity which leaves Red Barn audiences exiting laughing.

This light comedy is one of the lighter plays of the Red Barn's 11th season, the second under Producer-Director James Dyas who has brought a company of New York equity players for a second year in succession. The season this year had two highly successful musicals, "The Boy Friend" and "The Drunkard," both of them held over an additional week; two dramas, "Hatful of Rain" and "Tea and Sympathy," a science-fiction play, "Visit to a Small Planet," and such popular comedies as "The Happy Time," "Born Yesterday," "The Rainmaker," and "The Reluctant Debutante."

"The Champagne Complex" is reminiscent of "The Voice of the Turtle" in that all action takes place in Miss Tompkins' apartment and Miss Tompkins is on stage nearly all the time for the three acts. Her complex involves strange happenings when she drinks champagne... impulses which must be studied by her fiancée's uncle, a psychiatrist in her dangerous 40's played by Jack Doner.

Bill Cain adds more laurels to his career as the stuffy young executive with two left feet who has a penchant for sitting on his black homburg. Jack Doner has a more interesting assignment as the psychiatrist. Miss Tompkins does equally well in light comedy as in the heavier dramatic roles although it is quite possible that she will be better remembered for her performances in "Hatful of Rain" and "Tea and Sympathy."

Single-sheet programs this week contain a plug for the faithful audiences and a promise to return next year with a full roster of good plays and musicals. The abbreviated programs were used because the supply of regular programs was exhausted... due to a good season. "The Champagne Complex" will run through Saturday night. Curtain time is at 8:30 p.m.

Headon Crash Injures Five

JENISON (Special) — Five persons were treated at St. Mary's Hospital in Grand Rapids for injuries received in a headon collision at 8:15 p.m. Sunday near Jenison on Eighth Ave., just north of Jackson St.

Mrs. Donna Hearn, 26, of 370 Jackson St., Grandville, was listed in fair condition with chest injuries. Her husband, Lloyd, 27, driver of one of the cars, was listed in good condition with chest injuries.

Hubert B. Eisen, 16, of Jenison, the driver of the other car, was listed in good condition with head lacerations. Danny Hearn, 5, and Sharon Hearn, 4, were both listed in good condition with head injuries.

Ottawa County deputies said Eisen was going south on Eighth Ave. and Hearn was headed north when the two cars met in the center of the road as they came over a hill.

Deputies said both Eisen's 1950 model car and Hearn's 1958 model car were damaged in excess of their value and are continuing their investigation.

Hail, But No Rain Hits Holland Area

An electrical storm threatened, but skipped over Holland Saturday.

Residents were hopeful that rain would come to cool off the city, but in spite of rather high winds, lightning and thunder, the rain didn't come, and the mercury went no lower than 75 degrees during the night, according to Charles Steketee, official weather observer. He said the highest temperature recorded Friday was 83 degrees.

Reports from south of the city indicate that hail struck at about 4 a.m. today but no damage was reported.

Large Boats Find Channel Hard to Go Through

For many years fishermen on the channel wall have found the subject of Holland's harbor a popular conversation piece when a boat passed through the channel.

And just watching one of the large boats jockey for position always gave the fishermen plenty to talk about.

The Harbor and Lakes committee of the Chamber of Commerce took a jaunt on the 528-foot J. A. Kling this summer and had a first hand picture of just what troubles are incurred.

Since the Kling had to deliver a load of limestone to the Brewer City Coal Dock, and made a stop at Grand Haven, the members of the committee boarded the ship and made the trip. Malcolm Johns is the Kling's captain.

They saw how the boat entered the harbor and then almost struck the north channel wall as it turned. It noted that in a space of 5,000 feet, four changes of course had to be made. Members of the Chamber committee are Frank Lievens, chairman; Verne Hohl, Cornel Brewer, Lester Klaasen, Andrew Naber, Don Jesiek and Ernest Phillips.

But steps to alleviate the problem appear to be getting nearer. The Senate Sub-committee on Rivers and Harbors of the Public Works Committee has approved an allotment of $12,000 for the Holland harbor project.

Congressman Gerald R. Ford submitted the resolution to the sub-committee after the city of Holland requested Nov. 20, 1957 that a survey be made by the Army Corps of Engineers.

The battle for the re-survey started almost a decade ago when the first survey report was presented. The Army Engineers reported in 1949 that if the channel was to be widened, it would be done on the south side.

Band to Play At GOP Rally

A band of teenage players will provide music at the old-fashioned Republican rally which will be staged in Civic Center the evening of Sept. 19. The band will start playing downtown about 7 p.m. as sort of a kickoff for the rally in Civic Center.

Oldtime campaign activity will take over in Civic Center where persons interested in government may talk informally to the various candidates who will be present. To date, Paul Bagwell, Republican candidate for governor, and U.S. Sen. Charles E. Potter will be present in addition to State Sen. Clyde H. Geerlings, State Rep. George Van Pusem and all the county delegates.

Organizing a band is in charge of Mrs. Arthur C. Yost. Decorations for Civic Center are in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Riemer Van Til, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gemmen, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dyke and Mr. and Mrs. Don Voss. Taking charge of refreshments will be Mrs. Willis Diekmans, Mrs. Herman Harms, Mrs. Henry Maents and Mrs. Carl Andersen. Al Stoner and Willis Welling will arrange for prizes and Mrs. Gerald Van Wyke heads the invitations committee. Handling publicity are Mrs. Henry Rottschaefer, Mrs. Clyde Geerlings, Corcy Van Koevoering and Mrs. W.F. Young.

There will be cracker barrels and pot bellied stoves for atmosphere, balloons for the children and other activities reminiscent of the old days.

Police Investigate Two-Car Collision

Cars driven by Harris DeWitt, 44, of 83 South River Ave., and John W. Fonger, 33, of 301 East 12th St., were involved in an accident Saturday at 8:08 a.m. on River Ave. just south of Eighth St.

Holland police said Fonger, headed south on River Ave., had stopped his car and was about to back into a parking space when the car driven by DeWitt struck Fonger's car in the rear. Officers estimated the damage to DeWitt's 1951 model car at $85 and the damage to Fonger's 1953 model car at $200.

Passenger Injured In Fall From Car

Charles Davis, 32, of 121 Manley Ave., was treated at Holland Hospital for facial lacerations and bruising after he apparently fell from a moving car Saturday at 4:30 p.m. on US-31 in Douglas just south of Center St.

Douglas Police Chief Ralph Cartwright said the car was driven by Davis' wife, Bertha, who

Son of Local Couple to Work On First Reactor in Norway

James A. DeShong, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. DeShong of 239 South 120th Ave., was one of the scientists who helped develop the reactor in the atomic sub "Nautilus" which recently traveled under the North Pole.

The 40-year-old atomic expert, who received his master's degree in electrical engineering from Purdue University, will soon be leaving for Halden, Norway to work on the world's first boiling water reactor using "heavy water." Heavy water is a substance which reduces the cost of operating a reactor.

DeShong has written a detailed article on "Upping Experimental Boiling Water Reactor's Power." The Halden project is being operated on an international basis with the technical staff coming from all over the world.

DeShong, a native of City Point, Va., was recently head of the Argonne National Laboratory engineering control section at Lemont, Ill. Although he ever lived in Holland, he has often spent vacations here with his wife and three children. His parents moved here 20 years ago.

He was also a pioneer in the field of television, installing the first government TV station while he was studying at Purdue. Other schools he attended include Washington University at St. Louis, Mo., Illinois Institute of Technology at Chicago, the University of Chicago and the General Motors Institute at Flint.

Ford Urges Use of New Business Act

U. S. Rep. Gerald R. Ford, Jr., who has been vacationing at Ottawa Beach, informed The Sentinel today that he is contacting all Chambers of Commerce in Kent and Ottawa counties to organize programs whereby local communities may take full advantage of new legislation which provides loans for small, locally owned commercial and industrial organizations.

The Small Business Investment Act, approved at the last session of Congress, is aimed at expanding business opportunities for small businesses. Under this act, a group of at least 10 local incorporators must put up $150,000 and then may borrow an equal amount from the Federal Small Business Administration. When this is completed, the local organization is ready to aid and assist small business on the local level in the need for equity capital.

Rep. Ford has already contacted the office of the Small Business Administration in Washington requesting all cooperation and assistance and will forward this information to Chambers of Commerce as soon as printed materials are received, perhaps in a month. In the meantime, Ford urges individuals and groups in each area to get together for the purpose of taking full advantage of this beneficial legislation approved by Congress and the President.

Tea at Hope Church Begins Fall Activity

About 60 members and guests of the Hope Church Missionary Society began their new season with a tea Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Marion de Velder. Following the tea which was served from a beautifully appointed table, at which Mrs. Gerald Rocks and Mrs. Roy Heasley poured, an inspiring program was given.

Mrs. Martin De Wolfe used as her theme for devotion, "Opening Windows," following which Rev. Marion de Velder distributed copies of the 1958 "Our Father's Business" pointing out what the reformed church in American is doing and hopes to accomplish in the next five years.

Receiving the members and guests were Mrs. Kenneth Pierce and Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald. The Social committee was in charge of Mrs. A. Bondy Gronberg.

15 Days, $100 Fine

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — John Olman, 63, route 1, West Olive, pleaded guilty to a charge of drunk driving in Grand Haven Municipal Court Tuesday and was sentenced to pay $100 fine, $4.90 costs and serve 15 days in jail. If the fine and costs are not paid he will be required to serve an additional 30 days. The charge resulted from a two-car accident in Robinson township Aug. 31.

Engaged

Miss Marilyn Jean Poest

The engagement of Miss Marilyn Jean Poest to David Winthrop Toll has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dulyea of 215 West Ninth St. Her fiancé is the son of Carroll C. Toll of Las Vegas, Nev., and Mrs. Jessie G. Toll of Santa Barbara, Calif.

Miss Poest is a graduate of Michigan State University and is now doing graduate work at the University of California in Berkeley. Mr. Toll, also a student at the University of California, served three years in the Navy aboard the U.S.S. Frank Knox.

Hamilton

All the schools, fifteen, of the Hamilton Consolidated District, were scheduled to open on Tuesday morning of this week. The local school is staffed by Jack Riegle, principal, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Wolbert, Mrs. Virginia Ferris, Mrs. Retha Haan, Mrs. Donna Northrup, Mrs. Carol Kom and Mrs. Janet Albers. All of these were instructors in the Hamilton School during the past year.

John Brower returned home from the Holland Hospital last Friday after spending a week there to receive treatments for a diabetic ailment.

Rev. Norman Van Heukelom of the Hamilton Reformed Church conducted both services the past Sunday. The morning message was centered around the "Cross of Jesus Christ" and the evening sermon topic was, "How Suffering Teaches." Providing the special music were a double quartet from the Haven Reformed Church, Necla Veldhof, Patricia Lugten, Mary Ann Lugten and Phyllis Joostberns, in the morning and an instrumental duet by Lloyd Lohman and Bob Riegerink at the evening service. The Christian Endeavor groups of both Reformed churches are sponsoring an evening of fun and fellowship for all young people of the community on Thursday evening of this week at the Hamilton Auditorium. All are invited from 7th graders and upward. Committee in charge is Sally Kaper, Larry Kempfers, Mary Drenten and Yvonne Douma. The film "Silent Witness" will be shown for the program after opening devotions by Rev. Van Heukelom.

Henry D. Strabbing was honored at a birthday dinner last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Corrow and son, Malcolm, of Saugatuck. Others present to enjoy the event were Mrs. Strabbing, the Alvin Strabbing family of Holland and Mr. and Mrs. James Clough and daughter, Cindi Diane, of Saugatuck.

The Howard Johnson family was notified last week of the death of their brother-in-law, Frank Rozboom, of Holland. His wife, the former Grace Ilg, was a Hamilton resident for many years, and a teacher in a rural area school here.

The Board of Education of the Hamilton Consolidated School District, composed of 15 rural area schools, has secured the services of Raymond J. Lokers of Zeeland for superintendent of this organization. He will assume his duties about mid October, after his release from the Zeeland schools where he has served as high school principal for the past four years. A native of Zeeland, he received his higher education at Hope College and the Universities of Michigan and Maryland, and has had several years of teaching experience. Mr. and Mrs. Lokers have three children. The Board of Education also reports that James K. Haveman, architect of Grand Rapids, has been secured to work on plans for the proposed new high school for the Hamilton area districts which is expected to have a 600 student capacity.

Dr. D. Ivan Dykstra, professor of Philosophy at Hope College, was guest minister at the Haven Reformed Church the past Sunday and used as sermon themes, "The Christian and His World," and "Justified by Faith." Guest singers were a girls' quartet from the Overisel Reformed Church at the morning service and a ladies quartet from the North Holland Church in the evening. On Wednesday evening of the past week the women and girls of the church held a monthly missionary meeting with Mrs. Floyd Kaper, Mrs. Lawrence Bakker and Mrs. Larry Sal in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Kaper presided and opened with prayer and Mrs. Sal read Scripture. Guest speaker was Rev. John Keuning of North Holland, a former missionary among the Indians at Dulce, New Mexico. He spoke interestingly and informatively of the work and showed many beautiful specimens of Indian handicraft. The Misses Marlene Joostberns and Lois Lugten favored the group with an organ and piano duet. Social hostesses were Mrs. Bernard Voorhorst, Mrs. Marvin Klokert, Mrs. Charles Veldhuis and Miss Phyllis Joostberns.

The infant son born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pieper has been named Curtis. On Friday evening of the past week the two Reformed churches held a reception for the Drs. Blaise and Marian Leval, missionaries to India, now in the United States on furlough, at the Hamilton Reformed Church. Rev. N. Van Heukelom was in charge. A cash gift was presented for personal use by John Elzinga, representing the group. Dr. Leval responded and later gave much interesting information about his work, illustrated by color slides. Mrs. Leval answered several questions from the group. Special music was a vocal duet by Miss Lois Lugten and Mrs. Don Koops, accompanied by Miss Fannie Bultman. An hour of fellowship followed the program.

Mrs. Kenneth Heuvelman of Allendale presented an all musical program at the September meeting of the Women's Church League of the Hamilton Reformed Church. She was a former member of the group. Miss Fannie Bultman assumed her new duties as principal of the Van Raalte School in Holland this week, after serving for several years as one of the elementary teachers in the Lincoln School. She was at Western Michigan University for a study course during the summer, spending weeks with her mother and sister at their home in Hamilton.

GOODBYE AND BE GOOD — Mrs. Miller cautions her frisky six-year-old twins not to devise any schemes to confuse people with their identity. Fortunately, from the teacher's viewpoint, they will be in separate rooms this year. Another set of twins in the first grade at Thomas Jefferson School, Lee and Lyn Neve, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Neve of 279 West 29th St., will also be separated to avoid possible confusion. Patty (at right in above photo) and Lyn will have Miss Helen Stenson as their teacher, and Peggy and Lee will be in Miss Florence Kossen's room.

Ottawa County Farm News

By Richard Machiele
County Extension Director

The Ottawa DHIA No. 1 will sponsor the second annual Dairy Sale on Sept. 65. This sale is to be held on the Hudsonville Fair Grounds as it was last year. Most of the cattle consigned will be either fresh or springing. All of them have good records or are from dams and sires with outstanding production records. We believe this association is doing an excellent job in selection of good producing cows and we would encourage any Ottawa County farmer who is in need of good dairy cows either grade or purebred to attend this sale.

At one time we published an all-purpose spray formula recommended for ornamental plantings around the home especially for the trees and shrubs. We are still getting requests for this. We would like to repeat that for one gallon of spray use 3 tablespoons of Malathion, 2 tablespoons of 50 per cent DDT, and 2 tablespoons of 50 per cent Captan; all of the above to be wettable powder. This all-purpose spray listed above will control most chewing insects, sucking insects and fungus diseases.

In cooperation with the Co-ops in the county a soil testing schedule has been set up as follows: Sept. 9 at the Holland Co-op; Sept. 10 at the Coopersville Co-op; Sept. 11 at the Hudsonville Co-op; Sept. 12 at the Zeeland Co-op. This year there will be a change in the procedure in that soil samples will be collected previous to the time of the soil testing day to be taken into the county laboratory for testing and results will be on hand on the dates given at each location at which time one of the extension people will sit down with the farmer and discuss their fertilizer and soil problems.

We would like to urge all Ottawa County farmers who would like soils tested by this method to submit their samples immediately to the Co-op. We find there are very few samples brought in to date and that if no more samples are brought than we have at the present time, the dates will have to be cancelled. I know there will be many who would like to spend fifteen to twenty minutes to discuss your problems and this is your opportunity. We are especially concerned about the first date Sept. 9 at Holland. We would urge all Holland people to be sure to get their samples in by the last week in August. We feel this is very beneficial from our own standpoint in that we have an opportunity to sit down and discuss your problem. Again we urge everyone to get their samples to the Co-ops at once.

from our country laboratory showing the percentage of soil nutrients in the various samples tested this past year. Slightly more than 1 per cent of the samples tested have a pH below 5.1 and the majority of samples range from 5.8 to 6.3. In fact more than 38 per cent samples are in this class. We also find there are very few samples above 7.5. In fact less than 1/4 of 1 per cent are in this category. In Phosphorus we find the greatest share of soils are low with almost 65 per cent in that class. 24 per cent are medium and 11 per cent are high. In potash 22 per cent are low, 44 per cent are medium and 22 per cent are high. This indicates that there has been a change in the last years in the nutrient content of the soil. Previously we found most of our samples low in potash where today most of the samples are found low in phosphorus. This indicates that we should be using a fertilizer with a higher phosphorus content especially on our heavier soils.

Red Lights Important In Bus Law

New City Ordinance Keys School Bus Law To Red Flashers

City Council Wednesday night passed an emergency safety ordinance complying with the new state traffic law for school buses which becomes effective Sept. 13. Holland's ordinance also becomes effective Sept. 13.

The new ordinance provides for the same enforcement of the new law inside the city as well as in the rural areas.

It also clarifies the state law in that the city ordinance is keyed to stopped buses exhibiting flashing red lights. This clarification was made with consent of Ralph Shoemaker, district engineer of the Michigan State Highway Department. Shoemaker and his superior were present at Wednesday night's meeting.

The law provides that traffic must stop in both directions when a bus stops and displays flashing red lights. The law also provides that all school buses must be equipped with red flashers front and rear to be operated by a special control. Shoemaker said a special control was specified rather than the brakes. For instance, if brakes are applied for a car in the road, red flashers could really confuse traffic.

The red flashers will replace the present yellow flashers on school buses and do away with the "stop arm" which has been used to some degree in this area. Shoemaker said the department in Lansing has been careful to send out minute instructions for all bus drivers, impressing them with their responsibility in operating the special flasher controls.

Both City Attorney James E. Townsend who drafted the new city ordinance and Shoemaker said there has been considerable confusion over interpreting the state law, but they felt that the "flashing red lights" emphasis would clear up much of the confusion.

If a bus stops for purposes other than loading or unloading and does not have red lights flashing, a motorist behind may pass the bus "with caution." The law also aims at having buses stop at specified places in areas of visibility of at least 500 feet, rather than stopping at every driveway on the route.

Holland's ordinance makes a special point that motorists need not stop when school buses are loading or unloading children at school buildings. Parking facilities are usually ample and on the proper side of the street for these operations. And the red lights should not be flashing.

The bus ordinance was one of three brought up by Council Wednesday night and the only one that elicited any discussion in a meeting of the whole. Another ordinance providing for establishing a traffic and safety commission for Holland was adopted. A third ordinance on regulating sanitary facilities was tabled until next meeting.

A total of $519 was collected at the contest and has been turned over to the American Legion Field Expansion Fund. The Dutchmen Boosters and the Legion are making plans for 1959.

The fans came to cheer their favorites of the late 30's and 40's and had plenty to cheer about plus getting in several good laughs as the old-timers cavorted before them.

Familiar sounds of encouragement came from the grandstand as the players took their places at bat or turned in a defensive play. Catcher Loren Wenzel made his traditional walk between the umpire and catcher when going up to bat.

Lou Borgman, Harry De Neff, Driscoll, Nels Van Lente and Arnie Teusink all singled in the sixth and Van Wieren tripled to help push the six runs home. The Dutchmen batted around in the first and sixth innings.

The All-Stars scored three runs in the third on singles by Jeff Alena and Jim Hulst, an error to Ron Maat and walk to Bob Brower. Larry Dykstra singled in the sixth and scored on Don Bos' long fly.

Alena's double drove home three runs in the eighth while Maat's single scored Steve Groeters who was hit by a pitched ball.

Al Bronkhurst pitched the first three innings for the Dutchmen and was relieved by Clare (Lefty) Van Wieren in the fourth. Bronkhurst allowed three hits and three runs. Van Wieren one run and one hit, and Ernie Victor, who pitched the final three innings, gave up four runs and two hits.

Harry De Neff had two hits and Borgman, Ron Appledorn, Nels Van Lente, Harold Van Wieren and Arnie Teusink each had one hit for the winners. Alena, Hulst and Dennis Bluekamp each had two hits for the All-Stars and Maat and Dykstra, one each.

Line score:

Alert Justice Helps Nab Bad Check Artist

Alert action by a Justice of the Peace in Holland has led to the arrest in Benton Harbor of a man accused by Holland police and State Police of passing bad checks. J. C. Sanders, 29, of route 3, Benton Harbor, is being held by South Haven State Police after being nabbed Thursday on a tip from Holland police.

Holland detectives said that on Tuesday, Aug. 19, Sanders attempted to pass a check for $42 at the hardware store of Wilbur E. Kouw, 128 North River Ave. Justice Kouw said he thought the check looked phony and refused to cash it, but took the man's license number as he drove away.

Holland detectives said Sanders apparently then took the same check to the Banner Bakery, 200 River Ave., where he succeeded in having it cashed.

When Kouw told detectives of his experience and gave them the license number, Holland police radioed an alarm to other departments in this part of the state.

Detectives said Sanders passed another bad check in Benton Harbor before being picked up, and State Police will attempt to prosecute him on that charge.

Kouw and Mrs. Lester Kramer of the Banner Bakery went to South Haven Friday with detectives and identified Sanders as the man they had dealt with, although Sanders denied everything, detectives said.

Holland, Hope Grid Units Set Scrimmages Thursday

RECEIVE INSTRUCTIONS — Holland High grid coach Bill Hinga (center) gives his Holland High football team some instructions prior to practice. Hinga has 43 players out for football this year and has been concentrating on condi-

Holland High and Hope College football teams will hold their first scrimmages Thursday afternoon coaches decided today after watching the workouts Tuesday.

At the 22nd St. practice field, Coach Bill Hinga continued work on conditioning and familiarity with the offense. The Dutch worked on the basic fundamentals of blocking, tackling and starts.

Practice today was to be at 3:30 p.m. and a similar schedule will be in effect Thursday and Friday.

Although the Thursday practice will not be a full-fledged scrimmage, the extensive contact drill give the coaches an opportunity to see how the entire pattern looks following three days of drills.

Rich Woltman, regular right half, pulled a groin muscle in Tuesday's workout and coaches are hopeful that the injury will respond quickly. He was bothered by a similar injury last year.

End Bob Morrison, a varsity reserve letterman last season, was forced to drop football today because of the recurrence of a knee injury.

Hope College's football team will run through a scrimmage Thursday at the Van Raalte Field practice site on Fairbanks Ave.

Coach Russ De Vette reported that one of the groups, his first string, is ready to scrimmage now but because of the other boys having to learn the offense he has decided to hold off with the heavy drills until Thursday.

Some contact work was planned today in the morning and afternoon practice. Coaches were continuing to emphasize the fundamentals used on offense.

Hope is breaking in new quarterbacks and centers on the second, third and fourth strings. All of these boys have played football but lack experience.

End coach Ken Weller said, "behind the first string the team is green and lacks experience and has no depth." "And the success of the our season could rest in how soon our freshmen are ready," De Vette added.

Hope has 18 freshmen working out this season and the coaching staff is pleased with the entire group.

Howard Jansen, Caledonia freshman tackle, injured his knee Tuesday and was to have x-rays taken to check the extent of injury. Ron Sisson, St. Joseph freshman center, lost his contact lenses in a dormitory lavatory and has returned home. He is expected back.

106th Annual Allegan Fair Opens Monday

ALLEGAN — Farm families and fun-seekers from throughout Western Michigan will converge on 100-acre Riverside Park here next week for the 106th consecutive Allegan County Fair.

Fair officials are confident that — weather permitting — the Sept. 8-13 fair's spruced up formula for family fun will give them a brand new attendance record, topping the 1952 mark of 105,302.

They're counting on the addition of such "big name" attractions as The Mariners quartet; recording star Johnny Maddox; Betty Johnson, singing star of the Jack Paar TV show, and the precision dancing of Hal Sands' "Manhattan Rockets" — all features of the under-the-stars musical "Show of Shows" in front of the grandstand — to push attendance to a new high.

Even without "big names," Allegan's fair has grown in the past 25 years from a near-bankrupt, purely local exposition to a regional "harvest festival" attracting visitors and entries from fifteen Western Michigan counties.

Total attendance for the six days and nights of the fair in recent years has averaged more than double the population of the entire county. The fair's regional aspect is also emphasized by the fact that nearly half of all agricultural "open class" entries are from out of the county.

Although the fair officially opens its gates Monday morning, Sept. 8, the grounds probably will be crowded Sunday — as entries are made, exhibits get a final touch and the two-mile "Happyland" midway rises in the grassy walnut grove between the main gate and the grandstand.

Some three thousand people are expected for Sunday's religious services which will be held at 3:30 in front of the grandstand. Speaker this year will be the Rev. Thomas L. Spitzer, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Cincinnati, Ohio. His talk will follow a half-hour concert of sacred music, featuring William Hunt, radio Gospel singer.

More than an acre of canvas is being erected to provide space for an anticipated overflow from the fair's fifteen permanent display buildings. With a five-day harness racing program — instead of the usual four — starting Tuesday at 1 p.m. the fair's speed barns already are filled and stalls in the three special tents spoken for. With space for only 200 race horses on the grounds, late arrivals will be stabled at the Kalamazoo fairgrounds. Purses total $26,000 for the five-day meet, according to Speed Secretary William McClelland.

For the first time in many years, an opening day feature on Monday will be a 23-class Western Horse Show, directed by Clifton Schelhas. The show, attracting entries from throughout Michigan, will get started at 8 a.m.

The three horse judging rings will be cleared away in time for the first of two "auto thrill shows" — at 7 and 9 p.m. — featuring the Aut Swenson Thrillcade. The troop will be making its only appearance in Michigan, coming here directly from a ten-day engagement at the Canadian National Exposition at Toronto. Although special Children's Day events have been moved up to 10 a.m. Tuesday — to allow for the extra day of harness racing — free admission, half-price rides and the many prizes are expected to draw more than 25,000 school-age youngsters to the grounds.

Another Tuesday feature will be the suspense-filled Harvest Queen contest in which girls chosen from nine county communities will compete for the honor of reigning over many special fair events. The contest will precede the first showing of the musical "Show of Shows," featuring the Mariners quartet at 7 p.m. Tuesday.

Youth division judging starts Tuesday while open class entries move into the spotlight on Wednesday, "Farmer's Day." Another Wednesday feature is the tractor pulling contest for more than $500 in prizes which starts at 9 a.m.

Thursday features two mile-long parades of floats, high school bands, various queens and their courts and marchers representing various county organizations, plus the Grand Rapids Silver Stars, nationally known baton twirling troop. The first parade will form in the business district at noon and pass in review in front of the grandstand at about 1 p.m. The parade will re-form at 7 p.m. on the racetrack and, as units from each community pass in review, the mayor or village president will speak briefly on the features of his home town.

West Michigan Shriners will parade in front of the grandstand in a feature of Friday afternoon's program. A caravan of five busnesses will follow the parade to the racetrack and, as units from each community pass in review, the mayor or village president will speak briefly on the features of his home town.
