Haan; secretary, Mrs. H. Geerlings; treasurer, Mrs. F. Overkamp. The society numbers over sixty members. All the open cars have been taken off the tracks, and the Grand Rapids cars will run through to the park, giving hourly service to Macatawa. The auto boat, Noisy Dutchmen, went amiss last Sunday night in Lake Michigan about two miles north of Grand Haven. The Grand Haven life saving crew was called out to bring the disabled craft and her ship-wrecked crew to port. Things did not go as pleasantly as they might while the ship-wrecked mariners were waiting for the life savers. There was no sea on the lake but there are some things worse than sea. At one time there was a fire in the bottom of the boat with danger of its getting into the gasoline and the crew had their life preservers ready for a swim.

Col. M. B. Adams is advertising for bids for the extension of Holland harbor, all bids to be in by October 5. The work to be done consists in extending the north pier by 750 linear feet of crib work, and the south pier by 800 linear feet of crib work, on converging lines, so that at the inner end the extensions will be about 740 feet apart, and that the distance between the outer ends of the new crib work will be 300 feet. The inner end of the new crib work in each pier will be connected with the corresponding old pier by a pile work filled with stone. This work is authorized by the following paragraph of the river and harbor act of March 3, 1905: "Improving harbor at Holland (Black Lake) Michigan; continuing improvement and for maintenance, sixty-five thousand dollars: Provided that the Secretary of War may enter into a contract for such materials and work as may be necessary for the prosecution of said project, to be paid for as appropriations may from time to time be made by law, not to exceed in the aggregate $110,000 exclusive of the amounts herein and heretofore appropriated: Provided further, that the United States Engineer in charge may, subject to the approval of the Chief of Engineers, modify the existing project by the widening of the harbor entrance."

Communion services will be held next Sunday morning in the Third Reformed church.

No cause of action was the verdict that the jury consisting of Wm. Brusse, E. P. Stephan, M. Witvliet, George Farnsworth, L. Fris and J. G. Brown brought in the case of John Kats of Zeeland, tried in Justice Vanduren's court last Friday afternoon. Charles Faber, the complaining witness, it will be remembered was forcibly ejected from the Kats premises.

Ground was last week broken for the new jail at Allegan and workmen have begun to tear down the residence portion of the old one. The sheriff and family are occupying new quarters in the old county-offices building where they will remain until the new building is completed. The cell block is to be erected and finished before the residence part of the building will be started.

James Sweeny of Conklin was sentenced to 60 days in jail just before the adjournment of circuit court by Judge Padgham. Sweeny is charged with violating the liquor law. He pleaded guilty to the charge. The DeVries Crofoot land case has been closed and the court now has the great mass of testimony offered in the case, under consideration. The matter was submitted without argument. Court has adjourned for the present session.

According to the new automobile law now in effect owners of the machines and chauffeur must take out a license. The rates of speed are not more than eight miles an hour in the business district; fifteen miles an hour in residence portions and twenty-five miles an hour on the country roads. Failure to observe this law lays a person liable to a fine of $25.

The defendant's answer in the case of Geo. A. Farr, et al trustees for the Board of Trade of Grand Haven, vs. the Grand Haven Glove Company, has been filed in circuit court. In the documents, the defendant claims that the Grand Haven Board of Trade did not furnish the Burnham Glove Co. with a factory with machinery and has not done so since to any factory. It claims that the lands described in the complaint was conveyed to the Burnham Glove Co. by John F. Corl and that the defendant now owns the land. It admits that the Burnham Glove Co. was re-organized but denies that the Grand Haven Glove Co. is under the same management of the Burnham Glove Co., or that it is the same company. The defendant admits that it has not paid out quite $20,000 in labor as per agreement, but claims that it was unable to do so because Charles Wiltshire, president of the company tried to get the business for a small amount of the debts of the concern. The answer denies that the company is now heavily in debt and believes that the complainants are not entitled to relief.

The authorities at Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D. C., will shortly investigate the wonderful blowing well on the farm of Leo Dietrich in Chester township. This well is 92 feet deep and its freaks are especially noticeable in the winter season. The wind blows in and out of the well with so great force that when the current is outward it will hurl back wood and small stones which the bystanders try to drop down the well. Moreover mouth organs and dinner horns have been suspended over the opening and the air has blown them long and continuously.

Port Sheldon

Port Sheldon may yet furnish water to Grand Rapids. It is claimed by experts who have taken the route taken by the company from the board of trade in their investigating trip here that a five foot pipe can be laid along the Bridge street highway in an almost direct route. The pipe would be laid three feet beneath the surface. The route taken was straight out Bridge street road, which with the exception of about two and a half miles through Robinson's marsh, extends straight to Lake Michigan at a point four miles north of Port Sheldon, the site of the former Lake Michigan water scheme. The cost is estimated at $1,500,000. The pipe, if laid as suggested, would extend a mile out into the lake, and there would be no more trouble in securing a large water supply. After looking over the route, the party returned by train from Agnew to Holland, thence to Grand Rapids over the Holland interurban. The report of the committee of the board of trade will probably not be made public for some time. When they talk, they expect to be able to present exact figures for the people to consider.

The peppermint distillery of Chris DeJonge, located on a farm occupied by his son, John, northeast of Zeeland is now in full operation. There are several acres of peppermint and the work of distilling the crop will last nearly three weeks. Mr. DeJonge, who has had experience in the culture of peppermint, is elated with the outlook, the prospects for price as well as yield having changed from moderate greatly to the better. The weather recently prevailing has caused a rapid growth of the plants and caused their enrichment in oil.

G. Moeke, Borculo's philanthropist, has decided to sell all his personal belongings at that place and leave the town which was built mainly thru his efforts and which has been his home for many years. Mr. Moeke is a lumberman and recently purchased a tract of timber land near Cadillac with the intention of cutting the timber and shipping the same to Zeeland by Pere Marquette, at which place he expected to build a large saw and planing mills. A site could not be suitably purchased at this place, however, and he has now purchased a ten-acre lot at Jenison, where he will soon commence the erection of his mills. His son, John H., who resides a short distance north of Borculo, will also go to Jenison and assist his father in managing the business.—Zeeland Record.

A ROBIN ON THE THORN.

The frost is on the meadow,
There is snow, and cold's the morn,
But from the window I have seen
A robin on the thorn.
Not yet a leaf on any tree,
Nor ever grass blade green,
But this dull day of winter,
A robin I have seen.

Perhaps his winter quarters
In yonder thicket are;
Perhaps he tarried here and thought
The sunny south too far;
When other birds went flying there
He lingered here, I ween;
On this chill day of winter
A robin I have seen.

So brave the little fellow,
His breast so bright and red,
He strutted past the pane and cocked
His small, defiant head.
First robin of the season, he
Just pioneered the scene,
As fearless as a brigadier;
Full dauntless was his mien.

Oh, robin, swift the coming
Shall be of lovely spring!
Ere long in forest and in wood
Will flit how many a wing!
But none of all the feathered host,
When all the trees are green,
Will be so beautiful as you,
First robin I have seen.

This wintry day when northerns
May yet come sweeping by,
When storm and tempest brood aloft
In sulken, leaden sky,
You've dared the chance of weather,
You, splendid and serene,
And I am less a craven, for
A robin I have seen.
—Margaret E. Sangster, in Everywhere.

Also Got the House

ON May 1 last a young professional man and his wife, who had then just come to Washington from a western state to settle, rented a furnished house uptown for the season. They expressly contracted for the whole plant and fixtures, from cellar to attic.

The owner of the furnished house—a club and guild woman of degree—held out for a good, round rental. Her terms were accepted, the contract was signed, a sizeable bunch of the season's rental was paid in advance, and the young couple from the west, breathing sighs of relief, naturally figured that they had an outfit all their own till the cold weather began.

But they were wrong in their hand-capping figures.

Three days after they were installed their landlady, all amiability and smiles, as befitted the manner of a lady who frequently presides over woman's meetings of one sort or another, called in the afternoon, in the absence of the head of the house.

She was received by the young man's wife. They talked weather, ailments, cut-on-the-bias and polo hat for a few moments, and then the landlady's eye suddenly—that is with apparent suddenness—fell upon a couple of small busts—Beethoven and Mozart—that rested upon ebony pedestals in the parlor.

"Oh, those dear busts!" she exclaimed, in a tone of passionate longing. "You cannot conceive how I miss them

HE HAD THE COUCH AND PILLOWS.

—I do so dote on Baytown particularly! Would it grieve you too much, my dear, if I were to ask you to let me have them for my rooms?"

The young mistress of the household was a bit taken back, but young matrons are easily hypnotized by elders of their sex, especially those who are so distinguished that they occasionally preside over women's meetings.

"Er—certainly; I can understand how one becomes attached to little articles of that sort—take them, by all means," she replied, wondering what her husband would say when he discovered the absence of the busts.

"Thank you so much, my dear—I'll send a man for them this very afternoon," said the landlady, rising and taking an effusive departure.

An hour later a man with a pushcart hove to alongside the curb in front of the house, and when he got under way again he had the busts of Beethoven and Mozart, with their pedestals, in the hold of his craft.

"Huh!" was all that the young matron's husband said when, upon his return that evening, she told him about the absentee busts.

Five days later the landlady called again, bubbling over with good spirits and cheerfulness. After a few moments of breezy conversation, she got an eye-focus on a leather couch in the sitting room, with four or five couch pillows banked upon the same.

"It is silly of me, my dear, I know," she ejaculated, "but do you know that I miss that couch dreadfully? I used to always lie down on it for an hour after luncheon, and I found it so restful! Would you think it—er—covetous of me, my dear, if I should ask you to let me have it for my rooms?"

"Why—er—ah—er—" the young mistress of the household began weakly, when she was impaled by the landlady's eagle eye.

"I am sure I should not object myself," she went on, "but my husband, you see, has become quite attached to the couch, and when he comes in, all tired out, he likes to—but I'll tell him—"

"So kind of you, my dear—your husband will not object, I know—he is so agreeable," interrupted the landlady, effusively. It makes an old woman like me feel quite envious to see how happy you two are together, indeed it does! Very well, I shall send for the couch this afternoon, and please do not let the man who comes forget the pillows, there's a dear."

Whereupon she rose, pressed the young matron's hand fervently, and was off. Half an hour later, the push-cart man came up, four bells, under a full head of steam and forced draught, and when he pointed down street again he had the couch and pillows properly stowed amidships.

"Why, what's become of the lounge?" inquired the head of the house when, after dinner that evening, he was ready to stretch himself out for a bit of a smoke. His wife told him. He looked at her quite fixedly.

"My dear," said he, "you're developing into more different kinds of a come-on, a mark, and a good thing than you ever were before. Get contiguous to yourself, my dear. Practice the frozen countenance a little more, even if you do have to abandon some of the details. I was very fond of that couch, I assure you."

About a week later the landlady showed up again.

"I do hope she won't be wanting anything this time!" fervently said the young matron to herself when the servant brought her the card.

The landlady was as girlishly, giddily amiable and affectionate as upon her previous visits. After expatiating at considerable length upon sundry and divers topics of the day, she had a sudden think.

"Oh my dear, I knew there was something I wanted to ask you," she exclaimed, her crafty countenance wrinkling with benign smiles. That piano lamp—Isn't it a lovely one?—presented to me for being the most popular lady of my guild. I do miss it so much! It sheds such a soft, mellow glow, don't you think? And I'm going to have a small midsummer musicale in my teeny, teeny rooms the first cool night, and I'd be so much obliged to you if you could let me have it for a couple of weeks!"

"But I fear that my husband—he plays, you know—might—er—he is so particular about the little things around the house, you know—and he might—er—" was the weak reply of the young matron of the household.

"Oh, I am perfectly sure he would not mind," interrupted the landlady, off-hand, in her confident way. "Why, he is the most delightfully agreeable man—I declare, I have quite fallen in love with him! Very well, then, my dear, I shall send the man for it this afternoon."

Then the landlady, giving the young matron's hand the most fetching, fascinating little squeeze imaginable, took her leave.

"Well, she's been here again," said the young wife to her husband when he came in.

"Who's that?" he inquired.

"Why, the landlady," said his wife.

"And what did she swipe this time?" he asked her.

"The piano lamp," was the reply.

The young professional man is a self-contained individual, but this time he was too hot for utterance. So he put on his hat and coat and went out into the air for the purpose of permitting sundry and divers thoughts to percolate the better through his skull in the open.

The next morning at 11 o'clock a big moving van pulled up in front of the house. The young professional man was waiting for it. His wife was not. He had the piano and the piano stool loaded into the van and ordered the man in charge of the wagon to take them to the landlady's address. He gave the man a note to deliver to the landlady. The note ran thus:

"Respected Madam: I am naturally of a warm, generous disposition, and I cannot bear to think of your having your piano lamp without the piano and stool that go with same. So I am sending them to you. Please do not embarrass or confuse me with words of thanks. The pleasure is mine. I assure you.

"P. S.—By the way, your house is at your disposal. I am going to change my address to-day if I can find an 'unfurnished' house that suits. With great respect, etc., etc."

The young professional man and his wife are now occupying a flat that they rented unfurnished, and are buying their furniture on the excitement plan.—Washington Star.

Dignity of the Bench.

The federal bench holds some of the greatest lawyers in the country, and not a member of that bench draws a salary which is equal to the individual earnings of thousands of lawyers whose names are unknown beyond their own halliwicks. This is a condition, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, which has existed from the foundation of the government and it is to be hoped that it will always exist. There is no manner by which the judiciary and other branches of public service could be more cheapened and degraded than by making the emoluments of office so attractive that the offices would be sought merely for the pay which goes with them.

Inflammation of the Udder.

In treating for inflammation of the udder we should give some laxative constitutional treatment as well as local application, says Farm and Live Stock Journal. For the former give one and one-half pounds of epsom salts and one tablespoonful of salt-peter three times a day. For the local treatment give hot fomentations to the udder, hot cloths or sponges and hot water. Use several thicknesses of an old blanket wrung out in hot water, apply to the inflamed parts and cover with a dry one. Change the blankets often. Rub the udder with camphorated alcohol, witch hazel and laudanum if the inflammation persists, and afterward with camphorated oil, one part camphor to eight parts crude olive oil. A vigorous treatment along these lines will reduce the inflammation in a short time.

ENVOYS OF PEACE SIGN THE TREATY

AN IMPORTANT CEREMONY AT PORTSMOUTH IS CONDUCTED WITH SIMPLICITY.

Action Marks the End of the War Between Russia and Japan—Armistice Is Agreed To—Full Synopsis of Treaty.

Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 6.—The treaty of peace between Russia and Japan was signed by the representatives of the two empires at 3:47 p. m. Tuesday. On the instant of the consummation of the great historical act a salute was fired at the United States navy yard on Kittery Point. The ceremony was simple in the extreme. In addition to the plenipotentiaries of both countries and their secretaries, the only persons present were Assistant Secretary of State Peirce, Gov. McLane, of New Hampshire, Admiral Mead and the mayor of Portsmouth.

Summary of the Treaty.

The peace treaty opens with a preamble, reciting that his majesty, the emperor and autocrat of all the Russias and his majesty, the emperor of Japan, desiring to close the war now subsisting between them, and having appointed their respective plenipotentiaries, and furnished them with full powers, which were found to be in form, have come to an agreement on a treaty of peace and arranged as follows:

Article 1. Stipulates for the reestablishment of peace and friendship between the sovereigns of the two empires and between the subjects of Russia and Japan respectively.

Article 2. His majesty, the emperor of Russia, recognizes the preponderant interest from political, military and economical points of view of Japan in the empire of Korea and stipulates that Russia will not oppose any measures for its government, protection or control that Japan will deem necessary to take in Korea in conjunction with the Korean government, but Russian subjects and Russian enterprises are to enjoy the same status as the subjects and enterprises of other countries.

Evacuation of Manchuria.

Article 3. It is mutually agreed that the territory of Manchuria be simultaneously evacuated by both Russian and Japanese troops. Both countries being concerned in this evacuation, their situations being absolutely identical. All rights acquired by private persons and companies shall remain intact.

Article 4. The rights possessed by Russia in conformity with the lease by Russia of Port Arthur and Daini, together with the lands and waters adjacent, shall pass over in their entirety to Japan, but the properties and rights of Russian subjects are to be safeguarded and respected.

Article 5. The governments of Russia and Japan engage themselves reciprocally not to put any obstacles to the general measures (which shall be alike for all nations) that China may take for the development of the commerce and industry of Manchuria.

Article 6. The Manchurian railway shall be operated jointly between Russia and Japan at Kouangtchengtse. The two branch lines shall be employed only for commercial and industrial purposes. In view of Russia keeping her branch line with all rights acquired by her convention with China for the construction of that railway, Japan acquires the mines in connection with such branch line which falls to her. However, the rights of private parties or private enterprises are to be respected. Both parties to this treaty remain absolutely free to undertake what they deem fit on expropriated ground.

Article 7. Russia and Japan engage themselves to make a conjunction of the two branch lines which they own at Kouangtchengtse.

Article 8. It is agreed that the branch line of the Manchurian railway shall be worked with a view to assure commercial traffic between them without obstruction.

Russia Cedes Half of Sakhalin. Article 9. Russia cedes to Japan the southern part of Sakhalin Island, as far north as the fiftieth degree of north latitude, together with the islands depending thereon. The right of free navigation is assured in the bays of La Perouse and Tartare.

Article 10. This article recites the situation of Russian subjects on the southern half of Sakhalin Island and stipulates that Russian colonists there shall be free and shall have the right to remain without changing their nationality. Per contra, the Japanese government shall have the right to force Russian convicts to leave the territory which is ceded to her.

Article 11. Russia engages herself to make an agreement with Japan giving to Japanese subjects the right to fish in Russian territorial waters of the sea of Japan, the sea of Okhotsk and Behring sea.

Article 12. The two high contracting parties engage themselves to renew the commercial treaty existing between the two governments prior to the war in all its vigor, with slight modifications in details and with a most favored nation clause.

Article 13. Russia and Japan reciprocally engage to reconstitute their prisoners of war on paying the real cost of keeping the same, such claim for cost to be supported by documents.

Article 14. This peace treaty shall be drawn up in two languages, French and English, the French text being evidence for the Russians, and the English text for the Japanese. In case of difficulty of interpretation, the French document to be final evidence.

Article 15. The ratification of this treaty shall be countersigned by the sovereigns of the two states within 50 days after its signature. The French and American embassies shall be intermediaries between the Japanese and Russian governments to announce by telegraph the ratification of the treaty. Eighteen Months to Leave.

Two additional articles are agreed to, as follows:

Article 1. The evacuation of Manchuria by both armies shall be complete within 18 months from the signing of the treaty, beginning with the retirement of troops of the first line. At the expiration of the 18 months the two parties will only be able to leave as guards for the railway 15 soldiers per kilometer.

Article 2. The boundary which limits the part owned respectively by Russia and Japan in the Sakhalin Island shall be definitely marked off on the spot by a special limitographic commission.

TARTARS AND TROOPS.

Engage in Fierce Fighting in Caucasus—Thousands Slain—Property Loss of $90,000,000.

London, Sept. 11.—Fierce fighting still continues at Baku, the very southernmost point of Russian land in Europe. Tartar and Armenian and soldiers of the czar are in hourly conflict. More than 5,000 lives have been lost in the battles. The loss in property and business is estimated at $90,000,000. Incendiary fires have desolated a region miles in extent, and crowded with costly industrial plants. The working people are starving. Neither bread or water is obtainable. The governor of the Baku province has issued orders to shoot down mercilessly all incendiaries, whether Tartars or others. Spirit distilleries and silk weaving works have been destroyed in cities of the Caspian shore. Tiflis and other cities are filled with refugees from Baku and the Shusha district, and terror prevails wherever Tartar or Armenian appears. Hundreds of English residents have taken ship and sailed for northern ports, while many families of wealth have followed them. The worst news comes from the Zangezur district, where it is reported that many Armenian villages were wiped out and hundreds of persons killed. Help is slow in reaching there, owing to the distance from the military centers. The whole of the Tartar population has risen and has been joined by 4,000 armed Kurds from the Persian bank of the Alas river.

RUSSIA CUTS DUTY.

Czar Orders Discontinuance of Discrimination on American Products.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 12.—As a mark of appreciation of the efforts made by President Roosevelt in bringing about a peace treaty between Russia and Japan the czar has ordered a discontinuance of discriminating duties on American products in Russia. The emperor's order means millions of dollars to American manufacturers and will prove an immense stimulus to the expansion of American commerce throughout the czar's dominions.

The czar's action was made known to the president Saturday by M. Witte in a communication which was delivered upon the visit of the Russian peace envoys to Sagamore Hill. This imperial concession will be of immediate and enormous advantage to American exporters, particularly to the manufacturers of machinery, against whom the retaliatory duties in Russia have been so high that English and German manufacturers have for several years enjoyed practically a monopoly in the field. The action of the czar is taken as one of the greatest compliments ever paid to a president of the United States.

QUIT THE ARMY.

Japanese Gens. Nogi and Nodzu Resign on Learning Terms of Peace.

Tokio, Sept. 12.—The reports that Gens. Nogi and Nodzu have resigned are persistent, and no denial of them could be obtained at the war office Monday. The element which caused the rioting here is rejoicing at the reported action of the commanders, and declare other leaders in the army will resign to show their indignation at the terms of peace. The generals, according to reports, resigned the moment the full peace terms, withheld from both army and people for days, reached the front in an official bulletin.

Maj. Gen. Ovanovsky, quartermaster general of Gen. Linevitch's staff, has been appointed plenipotentiary to meet the Japanese representative and arrange the terms of an armistice.

TONS OF POWDER ARE EXPLODED

BIG PLANT OF THE RAND COMPANY AT FAIRCHANCE, PA., RUINED.

Ten Buildings Are Torn to Atoms—Nineteen Persons Known to Be Dead—Six Others Are Missing—Scores Injured.

Fairchance, Pa., Sept. 11.—All ten buildings of the Rand powder plant were torn to atoms, and probably 25 men were killed, scores were injured, many seriously, thousands of lives were imperiled, and dozens of houses were overturned by a series of terrific explosions Saturday morning, which shook the country for 30 miles around. Nineteen bodies have been recovered, 12 of which have been identified. Six persons are still missing. The dismembered parts of the dead in many instances were burned. Identification of many was made by clothing alone. Many who were near the works at the time were badly hurt, and scores of persons in the village within a radius of half a mile were fearfully wounded.

Flesh Strawn Everywhere. Small pieces of bodies were picked up all over the place. Almost a half mile mountainward from the plant an office oversleeve, wet with blood, was picked up. One little boy carried to his mother a single part of a man's hand. All day at short intervals searchers would bring in bits of bodies or clothing. Some of these finds were carried in dishpans or damaged powder cans with which the ground is strewn for acres. The hole where the magazine exploded is about 15 feet deep, and 50 yards square. The earth, black and soggy, is thrown up in huge chunks, some of them weighing 100 pounds.

Seven Explosions. There were seven explosions in all. Every one of the ten buildings was totally demolished. Not a vestige of them remains. The first three were not as serious as the last four. Then the packing house, pressing room and magazine blew up, followed by two cars of dynamite standing on a nearby railroad siding, which were set off by the concussion from the powder mill explosions. Two other cars remained intact, and it was with difficulty that they were moved to a place of safety. Fearing that they would blow up, the work of rescue was abandoned temporarily. The lives of more than a thousand men were imperiled. The debris that was strewn over the ten acres of ground where the plant was located took fire soon after the explosion and added its terrors to the disaster.

For a mile around Fairchance buildings have been blown over and at Uniontown, Pa., seven miles from the explosion, hundreds of windows have been broken. Damage was done at Connellsville, Mount Pleasant and Scottdale, and in hundreds of homes the dishes fell from the cupboards and pictures were thrown from the walls.

It is hard to determine the cause of the explosion, and its origin may never be known. Nor is the point at which the first explosion occurred known certainly. It is supposed to have taken place, however, in the mixing mill, resulting from a spark caused by a workman striking a tool against a piece of metal.

Seek Refuge.

Tangiers, Sept. 11.—Samuel R. Gummere, the American minister, and a number of European inhabitants, have abandoned their residences in the suburbs and removed to the center of the town at the request of the Moroccan authorities, who said they were unable to guarantee their security owing to the disturbed condition of the surrounding districts.

Cholera in Germany.

Berlin, Sept. 12.—An official bulletin issued Monday says that 16 cholera cases and six deaths were reported from noon September 9 to noon September 10, and 15 cases and six deaths from noon September 10 to Monday, making the total 170 cases and 53 deaths.

COLOR LINE IS DRAWN.

Negro Pupils Denied Admission to High Schools in Kansas.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 12.—Negro pupils were refused admission to the white high school at Kansas City, Kan., and the ward school at Bonner Springs, Kan., ten miles distant, Monday. In both cases the negroes withdrew quietly and there was no show of a clash. In Kansas City, Kan., it is said the negroes will test the case in the courts. The Kansas legislature last winter passed an act separating the races in the Kansas City school, a direct result of agitation following the murder of a white boy by a negro pupil. Bonds were voted to build a school for the negroes, and pending the erection of the structure, the board of education planned to have two sessions daily at the white school, in the morning for the white children and the session in the afternoon for the negroes. The negroes objected, preferring to sit with the whites. At Bonner Springs the school board arranged separate rooms for the whites and negroes, but to this the negroes objected, protesting that they should occupy rooms simultaneously with the white children.

CAR FAMINE FEARED.

Indications That Railroads Will Not Be Able to Handle Fall and Winter Trade.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Commercial interests fear a car famine worse than any in the history of the country. In the east it is already felt, and signs show that conditions are growing acute in Illinois and Iowa. This is the direct result of immense business prosperity. Since railroads have experienced only the first movement of grain, trade interests are wondering what will result when fall and winter trade is at its height. Interior houses complain to grain dealers that the roads are not furnishing enough cars to move their cereals. There has been no labor trouble to hinder free action in shipments and the weather has been propitious. This makes the situation all the more remarkable. Close of lake navigation will throw much business upon the railroads. Conditions promise to become much worse with the appearance of cold weather.

TO END HOSTILITIES.

Oyama and Linevitch Make Preparations to Arrange an Armistice.

Godzyadani, Manchuria, Sept. 11.—At one o'clock Saturday afternoon a Japanese commissioner, bearing a white flag and escorted by 50 soldiers, arrived at a post near the railway and handed to the Russian officers who went to meet him a letter from Field Marshal Oyama to Gen. Linevitch, congratulating him on the conclusion of peace and begging him to appoint Russian plenipotentiaries to arrange an armistice. Field Marshal Oyama appointed Gen. Tukushima as plenipotentiary for his side, the letter announced, and he suggested Chakhedza as the meeting place.

Nelson Defeats Britt.

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—In a fight that will long stand in a class of its own in the history of ring contests, Battling Nelson, the sturdy little Dane from Illinois, knocked out James Edward Britt, of San Francisco, at Colma Saturday afternoon. The end came in the eighteenth round and was a clean-cut, fairly won victory.

Negotiations at an End.

Christiania, Sept. 12.—The tone of the Norwegian newspapers indicates that the negotiations between the commissioners of Norway and Sweden regarding the dissolution of the union have reached an impasse, Norway being unable to accept the conditions laid down by Sweden.

Burned at the Stake.

Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 8.—Steve Davis, a negro, 20 years old, was burned at the stake at eight o'clock Thursday night for assaulting Mrs. S. H. Norris, 12 miles from Waxahatchie. He was identified and confessed.

Courage Inherent Greatest Of All

The act of Engineer Peter Meeuwsen in pausing to shut off the air-brakes before he jumped for his life in order that he might save his fellow employees was a manifestation of the highest type of courage. It was not courage born of circumstances that exhilarate, such as the noise of conflict and the strains of martial music in battle; nor courage that was called into play by outside encouragement. It was courage that was the result of habit. Courage inherent. So schooled was his mind in bravery that it could follow no other bent.

Therefore, when the time came in which he had to act courageously without being nerved to it by praise, or without having time to think whether the deed of bravery was worth the cost—namely his life—he did not hesitate, but did the deed.

Had he jumped immediately instead of trying to save others his life would have been spared. But there was something in his makeup that would not allow him to play the craven—even instinctively. Courage inherent was there and manifested itself without an instant's reckoning of the cost. How nerved with courage must have been Peter Meeuwsen's heart when instinct even would not allow him to be otherwise than brave.

The world needs men like him and sorrow prevails when men like him meet death.

Opening Of Peoples State Bank

Encouraging and pleasing conditions surrounded the opening of the new Peoples State bank last Saturday.

John G. Rutgers, the cashier, and Henry Winter, the assistant cashier, were kept busy for awhile receiving the deposits as there was quite a rush in the opening hours. It did not take long for the first $5,000 in deposits to come in and the prospects for the new bank are flattering indeed.

The bank has bought a common breech screw door bank safe with a triple movement Yale & Towne time lock, which will be placed in a heavy steel lined burglar proof vault, furnishing the very best of protection for the funds of the bank.

The present officers of the bank are: President, Arend Visscher; vice president, B. D. Keppel; Geo. P. Hummer, D. B. Yntema, John H. Kleinhekel, C. J. Lokker, W. C. Walsh, L. Van Putten and D. Te Roller, directors.

Death Of Heber Walsh

The death of Heber Walsh, the well known druggist, occurred at midnight Thursday. An operation was performed the day previous from which he rallied but symptoms of uraemic poisoning developed later, causing death.

Mr. Walsh was born in Lansingburg, New York, October 19, 1830, and came to Holland in 1858 to look after the business of his father who owned considerable land purchased from the state. He saw opportunities here and was not long in arriving at the conclusion that he would cast his future lot with the growing colony. For a time he shipped staves and bark from the property in Filmore and Laketown townships and then started a general store and carried a small drug stock. Later he disposed of everything but the drug stock, which he enlarged, and from that time until a short time ago when he turned the active management over to his son, Walter C. Walsh, he ran the drug store.

Though never very active politically Mr. Walsh held the office of alderman of the third ward from 1868 to 1869. He was one of the firm of the Walsh-DeRoo Milling company and was president of the company since the death of Isaac Cappon.

In the early days when Macatawa Park was in its infancy Mr. Walsh realized its possibilities as a summer resort and was one of the first to take an active part in its development. He had several cottages constructed there and never failed to manifest a lively interest in the place.

Besides his wife, Mr. Walsh is survived by two sons, Walter C., living in this city and Francis I., living on the north side. One brother and three sisters also survive.

In Mr. Walsh the city loses one of its foremost citizens. He was a progressive, capable business man of the type that contributed largely in time and energy to the development of Holland.

The funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home, 42 East Ninth street. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. DeMoulin, rector of Grace Episcopal church, of which Mr. Walsh was a communicant. The pall bearers were D. B. K. VanRaalte, P. H. McBride, A. Stekates, E. B. Standart, G. W. Mokma and J. W. Bosman.

Resolutions Passed by Walsh-DeRoo Milling & Cereal Co.

Whereas: It has been the will of Divine Providence to call to his rest Heber Walsh, the President of this Company, and

Whereas: The cordial relations existing between him and the members of this Board, make it fitting that we express our respect for his memory and appreciation of his value, therefore be it

Resolved: That in his death we realize the passing from our midst of an upright and noble citizen, who has for many years been associated with the business interests of our city and of this Company, one who has always labored for the furtherance of the interests of our city, and has thus left us an example worthy of emulation.

Resolved: that we tender to his family our heartfelt sympathy and that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of our late President and fellow laborer in this Company.

No Trace of Lense and Shriver of Saugatuck

No trace of Chas. Shriver nor his companion, Julius Lense of Saugatuck, has been found although every rumor has been investigated. A report was circulated the next day after the disappearance of the men, that Mr. Shriver's dog had been found but it was afterwards discredited but this week Will Shriver in his search near South Haven where he had gone with his yacht, the Hope, found where a boy had buried a dog which had been washed ashore and on digging him up it was found to be his uncle's dog, Spot. In his efforts to haul an old wreck ashore which he thought to be the "Bird" and was found near South Haven, Hunter Blair slipped and went under the water and only saved himself from drowning by great efforts as the waves were dashing high and the wreck hindered him from getting ashore. Wednesday evening the steamer Glenn, which carries fruit from Glenn Kiers to Chicago, on her way from South Haven to the pier sighted something in the water about half a mile from shore and two miles south of her destination that looked like a body in oil-skins. The mate, N. Napier, wanted to investigate the matter but the captain would not stop. The yacht Gladys went along the shore as far as South Haven Thursday in search of the body but nothing could be found. It is a strange coincidence that Capt. Shriver, Chas. Shriver's brother, came near drowning at Buffalo the next day after Chas. Shriver disappeared here.—Saugatuck Commercial.

Heroism In Head On Collision Costs P. Meeuwsen his Life

A head on collision on the Pere Marquette at Zeeland, one of the most disastrous occurring in this vicinity for some time, cost a former Holland young man, Peter Meeuwsen, his life at 2 o'clock Friday morning, while Brakeman Thomas Hans and Ray Laraway, of Grand Rapids, were seriously, if not fatally injured. Conductor J. B. Kraut was slightly injured. Fireman Gillette escaped unhurt.

The colliding trains were No. 8, southbound, consisting of an engine and a caboose, in charge of Conductor J. B. Kraut, Engineer Peter Meeuwsen, Fireman Edward Gillette and Brakeman Joseph Hans, and a north bound fruit express in charge of Conductor John Hacklander, Engineer William Kennedy, Fireman D. Hart and Brakemen Henry VanEyck and J. B. Kettle.

The crew of the northbound train escaped uninjured. The engineer, fireman and brakeman leaped from the cab a second before the collision.

The crew on the south bound train were less fortunate. Engineer Meeuwsen saw the approaching train as he rounded the sharp curve at the east end of the Zeeland yard, and commanded the fireman and brakeman riding with him to jump. They did as told. Hans received a severe head injury.

Meeuwsen stayed to shut off the air in the hope that his train might slacken speed somewhat before the inevitable crash came and thus perhaps save the lives of some of his train mates.

It was too late to save his own life then. The two engines came together with terrific force and Meeuwsen was caught in the gangway just as he was about to jump from his engine. His body was crushed between the tender and the locomotive and he died instantly.

There is a difference of opinion as to what caused the accident. In a statement issued before his return to Detroit yesterday Superintendent Trump says Meeuwsen's train had orders to wait at Wyoming until the fruit train was in. Brakemen Laraway and Hans of Meeuwsen's train say they had orders to go ahead and were given a clear track to Waverly.

Great sorrow was expressed in this city on account of the death of Mr. Meeuwsen, for he passed many years of his life here and had many friends. He was married last December to Miss VanTubergen of this city and in order to be nearer to his work the young people moved to Grand Rapids and lived at 298 South Division street. His death is a great shock to his young wife and the sympathy for her is great. Mr. Meeuwsen's parents and one sister, Mrs. Con DePree live here; another sister Mrs. Percy Osborne lives in Muskegon.

The funeral services were held from the home of the parents, 146 Central Avenue, Monday afternoon Rev. J. T. Bergen and Rev. A. Keizer officiating.

Albert Lahuis, James Cook, Christian Schelleman, Isaac Van Dyk, Frank Boonstra and Will Leappe, members of the coroners jury called at the inquest in Zeeland, brought in a verdict Tuesday afternoon that completely vindicates Engineer Meeuwsen.

The verdict says that Engineer Meeuwsen acted in strict accordance with orders in his possession; that the collision is attributable to an oversight on the part of Conductor Kraut in reading the register of trains at Wyoming station and ordering out his train under the impression that he had the right of way to Waverly; and that the railway company was negligent in not more safely guarding the entries and safe keeping of the registers so that they may not be tampered with as alleged in this case.

Tanner Has Leased Boat Livery At Park

Albert Tanner, custodian of Ottawa Beach resort, has leased from the Macatawa Park association the two boat liveries at Macatawa Park and will have full control for a long period. The lease includes the boats and fishing tackle etc, near the Macatawa Park dock and also the outfit at Tanners livery, so called, near the government wing pier. Mr. Tanner is given the exclusive privilege of the boat livery, fishing supplies and everything connected therewith and will run it in the manner that brought success to him when he ran the celebrated Tanners livery and ferry. When the fishermen hear that Tanner is in control they will swarm to the park in large numbers for they know they will get minnows and accommodations of every description. Many improvements are contemplated and the boats will be fixed in A 1 style.

The deal was made yesterday. Fred K. Colby represented the Park association and the papers were drawn by Diekema & Kollen.

Mr. Tanner will resign his position as custodian.

Bastian D. Keppel was in the city this morning on his way home to Holland from a short visit in Milwaukee. He put in a few hours shaking hands with old friends here. "Bas" Keppel came to Grand Haven as sheriff of the county, a young man in World's Fair year. It didn't take him long to get on to the ropes and he made one of the best and brainiest officials that ever filled the shrievelty position. He went back to Holland at the expiration of his term in the old jail and in the eight years that have intervened, has made himself one of the solid business men of Holland. His executive ability and good common sense which he displayed during his sheriff days have stood him in good stead since. Another county official of that same period, Arend Visscher, is also one of the leading men of Holland today. Visscher was not a brilliant prosecuting attorney; he did not get the courtroom fire in his jury addresses, but his honest, rugged personality carried faith in what he said to the average juror and he made a record in the office during the six years he was there, which will be difficult to surpass. Mr. Visscher is now president of the new bank in Holland, in which Mr. Keppel is also an official, and is considered wealthy. These two men secured their start in Ottawa county official life and they are both worthy of their later success in the business world.—G. H. Tribune.

Plans for the $30,000 girls' dormitory are already progressing, and this building will also be under way during the school year. The additions to the faculty are: Prof. H. R. Brush, a very scholarly man in the modern languages, who will take charge of the French and German departments, and Miss Carrie Krell, who will conduct the English branches in the preparatory department.

In some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion is very rapid. For this reason we put up a fifty-cent size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children. In other conditions the gain is slower—health cannot be built up in a day. In such cases Scott's Emulsion must be taken as nourishment; a food rather than a medicine. It's a food for tired and weak digestions.

A DOZEN DEAD IN AWFUL DISASTER

ELEVATED RAILWAY TRAIN IN NEW YORK CITY JUMPS THE TRACK.

Car Loaded with Passengers Falls to the Street—Twelve Persons Killed—Many Injured—Trainmen Under Arrest.

New York, Sept. 12.—Twelve persons were killed and more than 20 injured when the second car of a Ninth avenue elevated train jumped the track and fell from the structure to the street at the junction of the Sixth and Ninth avenue lines at Fifty-third street and Ninth avenue Monday. The accident, the worst in the history of the overhead railroads in New York, came when a south-bound train on the North avenue line was switched off to the Sixth avenue line at the Fifty-third street junction. The motorman, expecting a clear track on the direct line of Ninth avenue, or disregarding the warning signal that the switch was open, rushed his train along at a high rate of speed. The first car swung around to right angle curve, holding to the rails because of the weight of the train behind. Then the strain became too great. The couplings broke, the second car was whirled about almost end for end.

Bodies Fall to Street.

Suddenly the outer guard rail of the railroad structure gave way, a score of bodies were hurled through space, and with a deafening crash the car fell to the street. For an instant it stood fairly on end. Then the sides gave way as if they were made of pasteboard belching out a mass of humanity. Those passengers who had not jumped from platforms and windows before the plunge came, were thrown into a mass at the forward end of the car. As the injured men and women were struggling to free themselves, the heavy front trucks of the third car on the train fell almost in their midst as the car itself jumped partly off the elevated structure and was wedged against a building at the southeast corner of Ninth avenue and Fifty-third street.

Trainmen Arrested.

Coroner Scholer ordered the arrest of all those immediately concerned. Search was at once made for the motorman, Paul Kelly, but he could not be found. The switchman in the tower at Ninth avenue and Fifty-third street, the conductor and four guards were later taken into custody. At a preliminary hearing all the men waived examination. The switchman is charged with manslaughter and the trainmen are held as witnesses.

Two versions of the cause of the wreck were told to the coroner. One of these was that the switchman had set the tracks for a Sixth avenue train and, when he saw his mistake, had attempted to rectify it while the train was on the curve, the change throwing the second, third and fourth cars off the track. The switchman, however, declares the wrecked train had sixth avenue signals set, and he expected it to slow down to take the curve. Instead, it maintained the speed usual with Ninth avenue trains on the direct line.

HORROR IN ITALY.

Earthquake Devastates Province of Calabria—Over 1,000 Killed—Many Villages Destroyed.

Rome, Sept. 9.—All Italy is suffering from terrible depression because of the news from the south, where one of the worst earthquakes ever experienced occurred Friday. Although the earthquake was felt all over Calabria and to a certain extent in Sicily, the worst news comes from Pizzo and Monteleone and from 18 villages which are said to have been completely destroyed. According to the latest news over 1,000 persons have been killed and a great number injured. It is as yet impossible to even estimate the property losses. The shock was felt at 2:55 o'clock in the morning. It lasted for 18 seconds at Catanzaro, and soon thereafter was felt at Messina, Reggio, Monteleone, Martirano, St. Eufemia, Pisciotta, Tripoli, Zammoro, Cossaniti, Nalida, Olivadi and other points.

Matraro is entirely in ruins and it is estimated that out of a population of 2,800 there are 2,000 killed or injured. At Torzano there are 60 victims; at Cossenza the principal church fell and even the cemetery was damaged. All the houses that are still standing at Castello, Sala, Castiglione, Morano, San Lucido, Marco Argentaro and San Martino are in danger of falling, and many persons have been killed in each place.

At Parghella alone 300 persons were killed. Official figures for the province of Catanzaro show 450 deaths. At Jappolo there are 200 dead, at Borgio four and at San Floro ten. In Pizzo there are 50 dead and half the houses have been destroyed.

Czar Decorates an American.

New York, Sept. 12.—Charles J. Murphy, formerly a foreign agent of the United States department of agriculture, has received from Emperor Nicholas of Russia the decoration of the order of St. Stanislaus. The honor was a recognition of his services in behalf of Russia's peasants during the famine of 1891, when as foreign agent at Berlin of the department of agriculture he started the movement for sending shiploads of corn to Russia.

Decide Yourself

The Opportunity is Here, Backed by Holland Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement. Read Holland endorsement. Read the statements of Holland citizens, and decide for yourself. Here is one case of it:

John Klottman, two miles southeast of Zeeland says: "For ten or twelve years I looked in vain for some medicine to free me from distressing kidney complaints. I suffered at intervals during that period with aching pains through the loins, twinges up and down the muscles of my back, irregular and unnatural condition of the kidney secretions and frequent attacks of dizziness. My son, John Kloosterman, a tailor, 133 East Eighth street, Holland, noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in the Holland papers and highly recommended by people who had used them. Thinking they might help me he secured a supply at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and sent them out to me. I noticed shortly after I commenced the treatment that it was doing me good and as I continued, my condition improved. In my estimation Doan's Kidney Pills are by far the best remedy on the market."

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quibbles can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years, my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." W. C. Walsh druggist, sells and guarantees them, at 50c a bottle.

Drugged, Robbed, Injured for Life

Nothing more truthful can be said of one afflicted with Piles who is induced to buy and use any pile medicine, (irritant of dark areas containing opium or other narcotic poisons, ergot, lead, mercury or cocaine.—Dr. L. Griffin, Chicago, Ill.)

Dr. L. Griffin: I know you are right in all you assert in your pamphlet relative to the prevailing treatment of piles with ergot, lead, cocaine, mercury or any narcotic poison. Yours, etc. A. W. Wilson, M. D., 138 West Madison St. Chicago. Prof. Wilson is one of the faculty and a trustee of the leading medical college of Chicago.

"Any well informed druggist who deals honestly with the public will say that ALL of the old pile medicines contain narcotic poisons, ergot, lead or mercury.—E. W. Lloyd, Ph. G. and druggist, Denver, Colo.

Every Heart-Ache

Every pain in the breast, difficult breathing, palpitation, fluttering or dizzy spell means that your heart is straining itself in its effort to keep in motion. This is dangerous. Some sudden strain from over-exertion or excitement will completely exhaust the nerves, or rupture the walls or arteries of the heart, and it will stop. Relieve this terrible strain at once with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It invigorates and strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, stimulates the heart action, and relieves the pain and misery. Take no chances; make your heart strong and vigorous with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. "I suffered terribly with heart disease. I have been treated by different physicians for my trouble without results. I went to a physician in Memphis, who claimed that I had dropsy of the heart. He put the X-ray on me, and in connection with his medicine he came near making a finish of me. Some time before this a Mr. Young, of St. Louis, was in our town. He saw my condition, and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to me. I gave it little attention until my return from Memphis, when I concluded to try it, and am pleased to say three bottles cured me." CHARLES GOODRICH, Caruthersville, Mo. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit it. If it fails he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

ABSENCE OF DEATH HAS GOOD EFFECT

HOPED THAT NEW ORLEANS' POPULACE WILL CONTINUE WAR ON MOSQUITO.

ONLY ONE FATALITY REPORTED TUESDAY

Neighboring Towns Still in Need of Help—The President Coming as Planned—Genuine Case of Yellow Fever Found in Michigan.

New Orleans, Sept. 12.—The clean score in the matter of deaths in the preceding 24 hours has had a most excellent effect upon the people of New Orleans, and, with such evidence that the fever is under control, it is expected that they will respond to the appeal of Dr. White to exert themselves to the utmost in the war against the mosquito. It is felt by the authorities not to be a matter of great difficulty to stamp out the fever if the people will faithfully follow instructions, now that the malignant character of the disease has disappeared. Appeals continue to come to the governor and state board of health from the country for assistance.

The yellow fever record at noon Tuesday, since six p. m., Monday, is as follows: New cases, 11; total cases to date, 2,328; deaths Tuesday, 1; total deaths, 317.

Towns Still Need Help.

Leeville has been in need of help, and Gov. Blanchard is to send money there, while the wholesale merchants here have contributed a carload of provisions. Tallulah is in the throes of despondency, but Dr. Chassaignac and a staff of nurses were scheduled to reach there Tuesday. People continue to leave Lake Providence, and the authorities are making no effort to deter them, because the fewer the number of people who remain in the town the sooner will the disease be checked. Four new cases of fever have appeared at Lafourche Crossing. The Patterson situation is still serious, and the community is completely out of funds.

President Sanders, of the Progressive union, announced Tuesday that while he was in New York he communicated with Secretary Loeb, and learned that President Roosevelt had not canceled his engagement to visit New Orleans in October.

Tulane university and Newcomb college, which were to have been opened on the 2nd of October, have announced a postponement until November 2. Public improvements in different parts of the state are being delayed owing to the fever. Contracts for street railways, prisons, court-houses and other improvements have been let to northern and western firms, but the contractors are not willing to come south until frost appears.

Two theaters will open in New Orleans next Saturday, providing one of the companies can be brought in from Texas.

Fever Case in Michigan.
Menominee, Mich., Sept. 12.—A case of genuine yellow fever that showed itself first in Chicago has been discovered in this city. The people are panic-stricken, but the victim will recover. The patient is John Howe. He came north from Ludington, La. Howe was taken ill while in Chicago. He immediately came to this city, where he was forced to take to bed. The physicians say there is no doubt of the nature of his disease.

One Death at Pensacola.
Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 12.—One new case and one death from yellow fever were reported Tuesday. The death is that of a Russian Jew who was found in the woods in a dying condition.

German Cholera Situation.
Berlin, Sept. 12.—The official bulletin issued Tuesday announced that eight new cases of cholera and three deaths had been reported during the 24 hours ending at noon, making a total of 166 cases and 61 deaths. Kills Wife and Self.
Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 12.—John Reeves, of this city, murdered his wife at their home here Tuesday, and then committed suicide. Reeves was 30 years of age, and his wife is about 45. From the appearance of the bodies the police believe that Reeves first attacked his wife with a razor, as the body was almost decapitated. After killing the woman, Reeves shot himself through the temple. Reeves had not been living with his wife for some time.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 12.—Pat Crowe, wanted for several years for kidnapping the son of Edward Cudahy in Omaha several years ago, was in Lincoln Monday and talked for half an hour with Richard Metcalf, associate editor of William J. Bryan's Commoner. Then, as is his custom, he disappeared. There is now no reward for him, and the police could file only a charge of vagrancy.

Tumors Conquered Without Operations

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Cases of Mrs. Fox and Miss Adams.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive menstruation accompanied by unusual pain extending from the ovaries down the groin and thighs.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use and write Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Read these strong letters from grateful women who have been cured:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (First Letter.) "In looking over your book I see that your medicine cures Tumor of the Uterus. I have been to a doctor and he tells me I have a tumor. I will be more than grateful if you can help me, as I do so dread an operation."—Fannie D. Fox, 7 Chestnut St., Bradford, Pa.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (Second Letter.) "I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. "Eighteen months ago my months stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician, and was told that I had a tumor on the uterus and would have to undergo an operation. "I soon after read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After taking five bottles as directed, the tumor is entirely gone. I have again been examined by the physician and he says I have no sign of a tumor now. It has also brought my months around once more, and I am entirely well. I shall never be without a bottle of Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the house."—Fannie D. Fox, Bradford, Pa.

Another Case of Tumor Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "About three years ago I had intense pain in my stomach, with cramps and raging headaches. The doctor prescribed for me, but finding that I did not get any better he examined me and, to my surprise, declared I had a tumor in the uterus. "I felt sure that it meant my death warrant, and was very disheartened. I spent hundreds of dollars in doctoring, but the tumor kept growing, till the doctor said that nothing but an operation would save me. Fortunately I corresponded with my aunt in the New England States, who advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before submitting to an operation, and I at once started taking a regular treatment, finding to my great relief that my general health began to improve, and after three months I noticed that the tumor had reduced in size. I kept on taking the Compound, and in ten months it had entirely disappeared without an operation, and using no medicine but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and words fail to express how grateful I am for the good it has done me."—Miss Luella Adams, Colorado Hotel, Seattle, Wash.

Such unquestionable testimony proves the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and should give confidence and hope to every sick woman.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all ailing women to write to her at Lynn, Mass., for advice.

LED FLEET TO VICTORY OVER ROJESTVENSKY

Fire Causes Magazine to Explode Completely Destroying Craft—Sad Fate of Sailors Who Went to Aid Comrades—Career of Vessel.

Tokio, Sept. 12.—The navy department Tuesday made the announcement that the battleship Mikasa had been destroyed by fire and the explosion of her magazine, causing the loss of 599 lives, including men of other ships who went to the rescue.

The fire started from an unknown cause at midnight on Sunday night, September 10. Before the officers could be rescued, the fire reached the aft magazine, which exploded, blowing a hole in the port side of the vessel below the water line and causing the ship to sink.

An investigation was immediately begun to determine the cause of the fire.

It is not known whether or not Admiral Togo was aboard the Mikasa.

Was Flagship of Navy.

The Mikasa was the flagship of the Japanese navy, flying the flag of Vice Admiral Togo, the commander-in-chief. She was present at all the principal engagements during the war, and was on several occasions reported seriously damaged in action. At the battle of the Sea of Japan she led the fleet into action, and she was mentioned in connection with some of the most stirring events of this famous sea fight.

Charles K. Hoyt, state deputy game warden, was in the city Monday on business connected with the department. Wherever Charles goes the game law violators shiver for he has a way of rounding them up that is not pleasing to them. Not only does he get the big law breakers but he gets the small ones as well, and has been known to round up fishermen for using set lines fastened on the end of bottles or fishing with two poles instead of the law permitting only one pole. He has fully recovered from his recent illness and will soon be busy scouring the state.

In the official crop report Secretary of State Prescott says that the weather during August was very favorable for growing crops. Corn, beans, potatoes and sugar beets made rapid growth and regained much that was lost earlier in the season. It was too wet to secure oats in the best condition, but other than this no serious damage was done. In some localities wheat is not yielding as well as expected. White wheat especially is poor in quality being light in weight while the condition of red wheat is fair. The average estimated yield per acre is, in the state, southern and central counties 19, and in the northern counties 17 bushels.

At a special meeting of the common council Friday evening the grade was established of Columbia avenue and all the cross streets from 18th to 22nd streets. It was originally proposed to make a cut of 15 feet, but a solution of the difficulty was reached by making a fill, beginning at Eighteenth street with a fill of 12 inches and rising gradually to a fill of two feet at Nineteenth street, which makes a cut of only seven feet necessary at Twentieth street, a fill of four feet at Twenty-first and a cut of 12 inches at Twenty-second street. The committee on streets and crosswalks will have charge of the work with authority not to expend more than $200 for the work this fall. The street will be put in shape so that the piano factory people can use it this fall but no graveling will be done until spring.

Pere Marquette officials continue to assure shippers that they have their affairs well in hand and that the rush of fruit will be properly handled, but if the past week's experience is a sample of future service, the fruit business of this section is as good as ruined, unless some other plan of shipping can be secured. The Chicago fruit train from Fennville has been from four to ten hours late every morning the past week and the fruit has not reached the commission houses until the market was all over. Peddlers have been getting much of the fruit and prices have been very low, the loss to shippers being immense. The road seems to be totally incapable of moving their trains on time and are swamped with business. One train dispatcher is expected to control the movement of all trains, where there is work for two or three.—Fennville Herald.

How many bushels an acre does your potato field yield? There are acres in the United States from which four hundred bushels have been taken in a single season, and other acres produce only twenty bushels. What makes the difference? Part of it is due to soil and weather, but the rest is fertilization and cultivation. In Maine, where the average yield was two hundred and fifteen bushels an acre last year, the farmers put about a ton of phosphate on each acre. It costs them about thirty five dollars, but they more than get it back in the increased yield. Colorado comes next to Maine in the yield, with a hundred and fifty two bushels and there are a number of states and territories which yield less than a hundred bushels an acre.—Coopersville Observer.

Mrs. Emeline Wheeler, a helpless invalid at the Soldiers' home annex, has just returned from an outing at Holland, where she was the guest of Mrs. Agnes D. Floyd. As an instance of practical philanthropy this visit of Mrs. Wheeler is a shining example of what other kind hearted generous women can do to brighten the lives of their unfortunate sisters. Mrs. Wheeler has been at the home for three years, and this is her first outing. She is unable to move hand or foot of her own volition, and must be carried like a little child. Mrs. Floyd brought her to the city in an ambulance and her son, General Passenger Agent Charles A. Floyd of the Holland Interurban, sent a special car to Holland with instructions to make the trip as easy as possible for the sufferer. For ten days her every want received careful attention, and kind hearted neighbors helped to make her trip a pleasant one. She was brought back on a special and is resting comfortably in her old quarters at the annex. She has a wonderful story to tell to her associates about her trip.—G. R. Herald.

Saugatuck will have a pavilion planned after the North Shore pavilion of South Haven. F. Limouze, manager of the North Side pavilion, and H. H. Engel of South Haven have bought of Roger E. Reed and Alfred B. Taylor the dock property at which the steamer Aliber lands in Saugatuck and will build the pavilion there at a cost of $25,000. The property is now occupied by Mr. Reed with a coal yard and also the waiting room of the Holland electric road. The company will try and secure the offices of the electric lines so that the passengers may be landed at the pavilion. They expect to fit out handsome waiting rooms for the railway company. The pavilion will be 250 feet long and 130 feet wide. If it is anything like the one in South Haven it will be a stunner, as the one there covers nearly a block and has the largest dancing hall in the west, while surrounding the dance hall are all sorts of amusements such as striking machines, picture machines, etc. Messrs. Limouze and Engel were in Grand Rapids Monday conferring with General Freight and Passenger Agent Charles A. Floyd of the Holland Interurban regarding the building of a pavilion.

Fire originating from a gasoline stove broke out Saturday forenoon in the residence belonging to Simon Lieverse on Columbia avenue between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, but the firemen extinguished it with little trouble before serious damage was done. The house is occupied by two families.

Four wrecks in 24 hours was the record of casualties on the Pere Marquette road last Friday and Saturday. Besides the wreck that caused the death of Peter Meeuwse there was another at Millers station, the other side of Benton Harbor, in which two Holland men, Engineer Edward VandenTak and Fireman Charles Holcomb figured. Both had to jump to save their lives and both were painfully bruised, although neither was seriously injured. Conductor Ryan was badly injured.

For the week of the West Michigan State Fair at Grand Rapids, Sept. 18-23, the Majestic theatre has secured two strong attractions. "Shadows on the Hearth" will run through the first half of the week, with a matinee on Wednesday, and "Across the Pacific" will run through the last half with a matinee on Saturday. "Shadows on the Hearth" is a drama of home life and concerns the story of a girl who sacrifices herself to save a sister from shame. Its scenes are laid during the Civil war period. "Across the Pacific" is a stirring military melodrama with its plot based on the love story of a young lieutenant of volunteers who leads his men to the Philippines and is followed by his sweetheart, disguised as a soldier. It has its own rough rider band. A feature is a battle scene in which a genuine rapid fire gun is used.

Those to whom the Grand Junction stop is a nightmare when going to South Haven will be pleased to learn that there is new hope of the early construction of an interurban railway from South Haven to Saugatuck to connect with the Holland Interurban. Of the new project the South Haven Tribune says: "G. A. Applegate returned this morning from Coloma and Watervliet, where he has been to see about the franchises for the Lake Shore Traction company. He will return to Coloma tomorrow, as the franchises there will be acted on in the evening, while the ones at Watervliet will come up Monday night. Mr. Applegate says there is little doubt of the passage of both franchises, which are duplicates of the one granted by the village of Douglas. About ten days ago the Saugatuck township board granted his franchise to cross the highways in that township. The right of way lies between the Chase road and the lake, and the track in Douglas village must be completed within two months to hold the franchise. Mr. Applegate says there is no doubt that this condition will be complied with, and he adds that he expects to see the track completed from Coloma to Saugatuck before winter sets in. No cars except the construction cars will be run before spring. Mr. Applegate says that the 3,000 horse power engines are ready for shipment from Jersey City and that the machinery men are expected daily."

Rev. J. R. Brink, who for three years was pastor of the Christian Reformed church at Reeman, preached his farewell sermon there last Sunday and was last night installed as missionary for Grand Rapids and vicinity. Among those who attended from here are H. R. Brink and R. Vorst.

Johnnie Boone was in the city yesterday, just for a little rest preliminary to the grueling work that the Boone Bros. stables will have to stand at the West Michigan Fair at Grand Rapids next week. All of the horses in the string are entered and Johnnie says there will be something doing.

Cook Bros., the music store people, have found a good attraction for the Holland fair. They have arranged for a bareback horse race participated in by the Misses Anna and Jennie VandenBelt of Fillmore, who are expert horseback riders, and who are not afraid to compete with others who may wish to enter. The two girls will race their horses for a special prize and special prizes will be given to any others who may overcome their timidity sufficiently to get in the race. This special feature will attract great attention. It will take place Thursday or Friday.

The civil service examination for the purpose of filling the post of Deputy Collector of Customs in the Custom House at Grand Haven was held Saturday and twelve applicants were on hand to write. Wesley Bradfield, of the forestry department of the United States department of Agriculture, who has been here recently inspecting the sand dunes of the shores of Lake Michigan near Holland and Saugatuck says that trees must be grown on this waste of sand in order to protect the orchards and farms farther removed from the shores. "Wherever a bare space appears," said Mr. Bradfield, "there will sooner or later result a sand blow. When this occurs the orchards and farms will be peppered with fine sand, cutting the leaves and eventually destroying everything in its path. To protect the interior from this danger Mr. Bradfield says beach grass must be planted over the dunes to hold the sand in place. After this trees must be planted to break the force of the wind and permit of the growing of crops and trees behind the barrier. If this is done, says Mr. Bradfield, there is no reason in the world why peaches and the best of crops may not be grown on what is now worthless land and a menace to the farmers of the vicinity." It remains to be seen whether the farmers will take Mr. Bradfield seriously. Fred Wade, the postmaster of Saugatuck, did not.

Huizenga, who died at Fishkill and whose funeral takes place today. Rev. Huizenga was 46 years of age. He was a graduate of Hope college, of Rutgers college at New Brunswick, and of John Hopkins University at Baltimore. For a time he was an instructor in the McCormick seminary in Chicago and for about seven years he filled the pastorate at Fishkill. Sheriff Woodbury received a telephone message Tuesday night saying that there was trouble in the polish quarter in Talmadge township near Grand Rapids. Deputy Sheriff Salsbury went up to investigate and found that a woman had been beaten by an irate husband, and that the community was nonplussed, as the word had gone forth that the wife-beater was a bad man and that woe would follow in the wake of the man who tackled him. Salsbury, nothing daunted, said "come with me"—and the man came. Now the courts will determine whether it is within the pale of the law to beat the better half of the matrimonial alliance with impunity. The names of the people involved is Zowacki.

In the language of one of the Chicago dramatic critics, where the play had a long run at McVicker's Theatre last spring, "Home Folks" is a splendid show. The story is clean, pretty and appealing and the pictures of the life in southern Illinois forty years ago which are presented, the "apple peelin'", the country dance, the picnic on a Mississippi river island and the old swimming hole in the moonlight, are faithful and interesting. In "Home Folks" Mr. C. Dazey, the author, has told an exquisite love story, its pathos, its delicacy and its quiet fervor making it an idyllic tale of the life, manners and customs in southern Illinois in 1867, where the scenes of the new play are laid and the action takes place. The play is presented with a company of seventy five people under the management of Joseph Brooks, and the big cast is headed by Edwin Arden in the leading male role and Archie Boyd in the principal comedy part. The production is reported to be exceptionally elaborate. "Home Folks" will come to Powers, Grand Rapids for Fair week.

Hope College Will Open Sept. 20

Those who wish to be admitted as students for the first time, will meet the faculty on Tuesday morning, Sept. 19, at 9 o'clock in Graves Hall. Applicants will then present their diplomas or certificates. At this time they can also be examined for entrance into any one of the classes, in case they have no papers from other schools.
