Mr. Glerum was secretary of the board.

The city of Holland is not exempt from the laws which the board of health sees fit to make. It must keep the public property in as good a condition as the individual citizens are supposed to do theirs. Such places as Eighth street between Land and Van Realte avenue, where the water from the street flows upon the premises of the property owners must be properly drained. The board of health has begun to inaugurate some effective measures for the preservation of the public health, and it is determined to make the work thorough.

Had Her Guessing.

GRAVES NOW MADE LEVEL.

Radical Change in Cemetery Arrangements Meets With Approval.

Modern cemetery ideas that run contrary to deep-seated sentiment usually create dissatisfaction when they are first introduced. Just now, says Park and Cemetery, the lot holders in Cedar Grove cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y., are agitated over the rule providing for the leveling of all grave mounds. Many of the lot holders who are now paying for annual care of their lots object to a notice to the effect that mounds on lots for which annual care is not paid would be leveled. Some resent it as "a mean outrage."

Other cemeteries have had similar experiences. In Lakewood cemetery, Minneapolis, when a new law went into effect regarding the lowering of grave mounds there were many protests, but in less than a year when the changed appearance of the sections made apparent the marked improvement in the landscape by lowering the mounds to an almost imperceptible rise over the graves lot holders began requesting this treatment of their lots and within a short period of time several thousand grave mounds had been lowered, the cost of annual care materially reduced and the general appearance of the grounds greatly improved.

FOR HAPPY MARRIED LIFE.

Good Manners Go Far to Preserve Peace and Concord.

A great many people seem to think that the marriage ceremony absolves them from all further courtesies and attentions to the person whom they have wed. After that they are always in negligence, both as to manners and clothes, when they are at home. This is a fatal mistake. Because a woman is married is no excuse for her going untidily about the house, and telling her husband home truths that hurt his vanity. Because a woman is his wife gives a man no right to say things to her he would not dare say to any other lady who possessed a big, able-bodied brother. Good manners are the preservation of peace and concord, and are warranted to keep happiness in any climate. The problem of how to be happy though married is really no problem at all. No mystery should ever have been made of it. It is merely fair dealing in fair partnership—giving the other party the privileges and perquisites you assume for yourself, and allowing the person you love as much consideration and civility as you would show a stranger.—New York Weekly.

Mixed the Infants Up.

At Southport, England, some years ago, births took place in two families living in the same house. In one case twins arrived, and a single in the other. The three children were being washed and dressed, and the father of the twins coming in, the three were placed in one bed with the idea of leading him to believe that his wife had given birth to triplets. The joke, for that was all which was intended, succeeded to the full—for the time at least—and then came the question of separating the infants and restoring them to their respective mothers. Here a difficulty presented itself, and the women in attendance were shocked to find themselves unable to say which was which. A Liverpool paper says the identification has not yet been satisfactorily established, and it is a case in which even a Solomon might be puzzled.

Keep Bills.

It is well to keep every bill, paid or not, for an indefinite period. One never knows when mistakes may occur or when dishonesty may be attempted. The steel bill files are all very well, though they are not remarkable for their neatness or order, but a better way is to use a large scrap book and paste the bills in alphabetical order, according to the names of those by whom they are preferred, therein. If possible, it would be well to prepare the leaves like those of an address book, so that it would be easy to find any bill at any time. Of course, this is only a cheaper home-made substitute for a regular letter file, which is the very best thing for the purpose.

"All In" Judicially Defined.

In the case of state vs. Hennessey, 90 Pac. Rep. 221, the Nevada supreme court gives a definition of the slang phrase "all in." The question came up in connection with the admission in evidence of a dying declaration, the declarant's statement that he was "all in" being relied on to show that he was under a sense of impending death. The court said: "The expression, 'I am all in' is one frequently made use of in this western country, and when used under the circumstances in question may, we think, be taken to have meant that the speaker considered his life was practically at an end."

How the Professor Was Affected.

"There's not a particle of ventilation in this room," said the professor, suddenly stopping in his talk and looking about him. "Can you boys tell me what it does to a man to be in a room when there is no ventilation?" "I should say it filled him with hot air, professor," replied one of the daring ones.

Womanly Enough for Him.

Miss Graduate—"What is your definition of the term 'womanly woman,' father, dear?" Her Father—"A womanly woman is one who is capable of manufacturing a pie like those your grandmother used to turn out."

The Old Melodrama.

Above the howling of the wolves the heroine's shrill voice rang over the pastboard mountains. "Give me those papers," she screamed, "or I shall tear out my hair! Do you hear, Roycroft Rollington?" The heavy villain displayed his white teeth and rolled another cigarette. "Yes, Julia Livingstone, I hear very distinctly," he replied, in measured tones; "but do be careful, little girl. You know the last time you bought your hair they said they were afraid they couldn't match it any more." Crushed to earth the poor heroine threw herself to the mercy of the mechanical wolves.

A Stolen Trade Secret.

The manufacture of tinware in England originated in a stolen secret. Few readers need to be informed that tinware is simply thin sheet iron plated with tin by being dipped into the molten metal. It was discovered in Holland and guarded from publicity with the utmost vigilance for nearly half a century. England tried to discover the secret in vain until James Sherman, a Cornish miner, crossed the channel, insinuated himself surreptitiously into the tinplate manufactory, made himself master of the secret and brought it home.

The Lazies' Man.

One of the contractors in Panama was much annoyed by the exceeding laziness of the 60 native workmen under him. He resolved to try to make them ashamed of their indolence, so one day he lined them up and said:

"Now, I've got a nice, easy job for the laziest man in this company. Will the laziest man step forward?"

"Fifty-nine of them stepped forward. The contractor turned to the other, who stood still, looking almost too indolent to stand, and said:

"Why didn't you come forward with the others?"

And the answer came in a weary voice:

"I'm too lazy."—Judge's Library.

A Happy Family.

A boy and a girl in Alabama whose parents are named Ashmead have gathered together a happy family consisting of a cat, a rat, a dog, a mouse and a canary bird. The dog will brace his feet and let the cat jump on his back. Then the rat will climb on her back. Then the mouse and the canary will complete the pyramid. Then all will grab each other by the tail, the canary coming last, and march around the room. They have been taught to perform many other tricks, and the young people are quite proud of their circus.

Dread of Assassination or Robbery Always with Him.

Probably the most complete burglar alarm system in the world is installed in John D. Rockefeller's house at Cleveland. Both the burglar alarm and an intricate signaling system are tested nightly when the master is in the house, and if a defect is found an expert is immediately summoned to repair it.

It is reported, but not confirmed, that Mr. Rockefeller sleeps in a room on the top floor, the only entrance to which is through several other rooms in which trusted lieutenants are stationed. At night brilliant arc lamps illuminate the grounds around the Rockefeller house, and at least three men are always on duty patrolling the premises.

Mr. Rockefeller's fear of assassination is such that even in his own house he will not sit with his back to a window. When forced to travel he will never, if it can be avoided, enter the public waiting room of a railroad station, preferring to sit in the baggage room or some other secluded place. It was not vanity, it is said, which prompted him to buy his now famous wig, but the fact that his baldness made him too easily recognized. The oil magnate has two trusted bodyguards, one an Irishman and the other a Swiss. A century or more ago Irish and Swiss bodyguards were the favorites of royalty.

HOW NOT TO EAT EGGS.

Frenchman's Caustic Criticism on the American Methods.

He was a Frenchman and on his way to make his first visit to the land of Uncle Sam. At breakfast the first morning after the steamer had left Cherbourg his right-hand neighbor noticed that he was watching some Americans who sat opposite. The meal finished, inquiry was made as to the reason for the Frenchman's interest in what was going on in front of him.

"Did you see them?" he spattered—the remarks may be freely translated—"did you see them eat the eggs?"

"Why, of course I saw them; what about it?"

"They broke"—this in horror—"they broke the eggs into cups and then messed the mixture with a spoon and ate it."

"Yes. You see, that's the way we Americans eat eggs. We don't crack the top and eat out of the shell, as you do."

"Oh, we do, too—that is, some of us. We fix eggs that way for children who haven't learned table manners."

Cat In a Mine.

After spending two years in the depths of a coal mine a cat owned by James Warke of Ashley, has returned to him. The cat was such an inveterate thief that Mrs. Warke insisted two years ago that it should be killed or lost. Several attempts to lose it failed, and Warke, who is a miner, then put him in a bag and took him to one of the lowest levels of the No. 20 colliery. There he flourished and grew fat. There was fine hunting, the big mine rats being numerous and daring. Recently the mine was shut down, and as there was no more grain in the stables the rats left. Now there is no more hunting, and the cat made its appearance at Warke's home. How it got out of the mine is a mystery.

The Schlafschen.

In Germany they have an institution called the schlafschen. This is a little nap in the afternoon, between the ponderous early dinner and the coffee, which is served at four o'clock. Nothing is allowed to interfere with the Teutonic rite. "In a German country house, says an observer, 'I have seen with these eyes dashing cavalry officers in tight tunics and rattling swords, disappear about 2:30 o'clock, to emerge in an hour's time looking a trifle sleepy, but armed in every sense for the conquest of the fair. Students and professors, matrons and business men, tinkers and tailors, all take their 40 winks in the afternoon and get up strenuous and efficient.'"

Poetic Belief of Finns.

The ancient Finns believed that a mystic bird laid an egg on the lap of Vaimanou, who hatched it in his bosom. He let it fall into the water, and it broke, the lower portion of the shell forming the earth, the upper the sky; the liquid white became the sun, and the yolk the moon, while the little fragments of broken shell were transformed into stars.

VANCOUVER RIOTS
MAY BEGIN AGAIN

ORIENTALS ARM THEMSELVES TO DEFEND THEIR LIVES AND PROPERTY.

Militia May Be Called Out—Japanese Fought the Mob Bravely But Chinese Fled—Foreign Quarter Is Badly Wrecked.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 10.—There is renewed apprehension of further anti-Asiatic rioting here, and all Monday Japanese and Chinese crowded the local gunshops to buy firearms and ammunition. They declare they will defend their lives and property.

In case the oriental quarter is again attacked, it is feared that there will be bloodshed, for the Japanese and Chinese are thoroughly aroused and are convinced that the police are powerless to protect them. Shortly before noon the police notified the gun stores to cease selling firearms to anyone until such time as all possibility of further outbreaks had passed. Before the order was issued several hundreds of Chinese and Japanese had armed themselves.

All Chinese and Japanese in domestic service, of whom hundreds are employed in Vancouver, have stopped work and have been forced by the threats of their countrymen to act as part of the defensive guard. Orientals employed in the mills have also stopped work and have taken refuge in the quarter occupied by their countrymen, where they are preparing to assist in opposing any further attacks that may be made.

Militia May Be Called Out.

Two hundred special policemen were sworn in Monday and there is talk of calling out the militia. There is little doubt that this will be done in case the rioting is renewed. Feeling all over the city runs high and an attack is likely to occur at any time.

So far there have been no fatalities, although several of those injured in Saturday night's riots are in a serious condition. Twenty-six rioters were arraigned in the police court Monday and were held for further examination.

Oriental Quarter Badly Wrecked.

The oriental quarter shows the effect of the riots of Saturday night. Not a window in the 50 or more stores and other places of business conducted by Japanese and Chinese remains, and costly stocks of goods are badly damaged. It is said that arrangements are being made to demand heavy indemnities from the city, but it is reported that Mayor Bethune has said that not one cent of indemnity will be paid. The matter will finally be taken to the dominion government.

The Japanese consul here and Baron Ishii, director of commerce and trade of the Japanese foreign office, who is in the city, have communicated the facts to the Japanese government in Tokio. Baron Ishii also is reported to have cabled a report of the riot to Ambassador Komura in London with a request that he take the matter up with the British government. In his dispatches Baron Ishii states that the police force has done its best to preserve order, but that it is unable to cope with the mobs.

Telegrams also have been sent to Japanese Consul General Nosse at Montreal, who will lay the matter before Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the premier.

Japanese Fought the Mob.

Four attacks were made upon the oriental quarters Saturday night and much damage was done. The Chinese merchants and others promptly fled, but the Japanese opposed the mob and fought valiantly to protect their property. Anti-oriental orators on the street corners aroused the people and hundreds joined the rioters. A dozen Japanese, who had just arrived, were attacked on the Canadian Pacific railway wharves and thrown into the water, but all were rescued. During the disturbance a number of Japanese were seriously injured and several white men were stabbed.

The police and the authorities are doing everything in their power to prevent any further outbreak, but the situation is considered critical and a further outbreak may occur at any moment.

WILL MAKE MOROCCO PAY.

French Cabinet Decides to Demand Indemnity.

Paris, Sept. 10.—A special meeting of the cabinet was held Monday to consider the Moroccan situation. The following conclusions were reached:

1. The Moroccan government should be held responsible for the massacre of July 30 at Casablanca, as well as for the loss suffered as a result of the pillage and in the repression of disorders.

2. Indemnities should be fixed by an international commission.

Rock Island Train Is Wrecked.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 10.—Rock Island train No. 4, bound for Chicago, which left here at six p. m. Sunday, was wrecked at Escondido, N. M., 61 miles north of here, two hours later. Of the eight cars composing the train six were thrown off the track and turned over. Not a single person was killed or seriously hurt; nearly all passengers, however, were slightly injured.

Tombstones to Be Taxed.

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 10.—The revenues of Delaware will be increased by taxing the manufacturers of tombstones.

CANADA WILL MAKE
APOLOGY TO JAPAN

DISPATCH SAYS GOVERNMENT WILL EXPRESS REGRETS BECAUSE OF VANCOUVER RIOTS.

JAPANESE SCHOOL BURNED TO GROUND

Asiatics Are Armed to the Teeth—Militia to Be Called Out if Trouble Continues—Belief That Disturbance Was Deliberately Planned.

Tokio, Sept. 11.—The foreign office has received a dispatch from the Japanese consul general at Ottawa saying that the Canadian government will express its regret for the occurrence at Vancouver and take steps to prevent further trouble. An official of the foreign office said: "We have the utmost confidence in the Canadian government, as we also have in that of America. Commissioner Ishii's dispatch says that the disturbance will soon be quelled, and that there is no reason to expect its repetition."

Blame the Korean League.

"Our information is that this outbreak, like that at Bellingham and others, is the result of the Korean league's anti-Japanese agitation, created by false and exaggerated reports of conditions in Korea and the attitude and sentiment in Japan."

Burn Japanese School.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 11.—Japanese Consul General Nosse has received the following telegram from Consul Morikawa at Vancouver:

"About 10:30 last night (Monday) the rioters set the Japanese primary school on fire, but the building was saved from destruction by the Japanese. I at once interviewed the mayor at the police station, and made demand for him to call out the militia whenever necessary."

Consul General Nosse presented the telegram to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. "All that I am doing," said Mr. Nosse, "is to present to the premier the information of the disturbances as it reaches me. The rest I leave to the good sense of the British and Canadian governments, who have always treated us fairly. I am satisfied that they will do so in the future and that our people will have the protection of the Canadian law."

Orientals Are Now Armed.

Vancouver, Sept. 11.—The Chinese and Japanese quarters of Vancouver are practically in a state of siege. Hundreds of revolvers and guns were sold to orientals until the police prohibited the sale of firearms. Every Chinese merchant goes about with an armed body guard and beside the entrance of every Chinese store stands a Mongolian with a rifle. All the Chinese cooks, millmen, laborers and all the Japanese working in the city and in the country within a radius of 15 miles from Vancouver have been summoned to the oriental quarters and are filling all the houses. Besides all the firearms, knives, stones, bottles and bricks are in stock ready to repel the attack of a mob at any future occasion.

Glass in every oriental shop and house in the city was broken by the mob on Saturday night, except in the Japanese church, which escaped.

May Call Out Military.

The chief of police has sworn in 100 special constables. The military will be called out if there is sign of further disturbances.

Think Riot Was Planned.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 11.—Every indication is that the Vancouver (B. C.) riots were carefully planned to impress K. Ishii, chief of the bureau of foreign commerce. It is significant that the leaders of the Seattle organization against Japanese immigration were in Vancouver heading the demonstration. Frank W. Cotterill, president of the Washington State Federation of Labor; A. E. Fowler, secretary of the Anti-Japanese and Korean Immigration league; George P. Listman, a prominent Seattle labor leader, all were present with a big delegation of American anti-Japanese sympathizers.

The significance of the Japanese riots dates back to a programme evolved when it was announced that Ishii was coming to Seattle. Then the big demonstration was planned.

Will Aid American Treaty.

Washington, Sept. 11.—That a stringent exclusion treaty between America and Japan is measurably nearer realization than the most optimistic administration official could have believed 48 hours ago is the judgment of the members of the diplomatic corps here. This long-sought object is expected to be attained perhaps as an indirect result of the mobbing of the Japanese at Vancouver.

No Curves in Winter Styles.

New York, Sept. 11.—Curves will be unfashionable and hips impossible in winter styles for women, according to Miss Elizabeth A. C. White, president of the Dressmakers' Protective association of America, who is demonstrating new gowns at the annual meeting in Masonic temple. "The stylish figure," Miss White declared, "will be one without hips, a straight-line figure. It is all in the corset."

Naturalize 1,100 in Gotham.

New York, Sept. 11.—More than 1,100 persons applied for first citizenship papers in the naturalization bureau of the United States court, a record number. All nationalities were represented.

STIRRING RESCUES IN SINKING OF VESSEL

TWO DROWN WHEN LAKE BOAT GOES DOWN IN KENOSHA HARBOR.

CAPTAIN CHOPPED FROM HIS ROOM

Men Locked in Their Quarters—Fireman Saved by the Sagacity of a Pet Dog Which Leads Him to Easy Point of Exit.

Kenosha, Wis., Sept. 11.—Two men were drowned and several others had a narrow escape from death here just before four o'clock Tuesday morning when the sand sucker H. A. Root, owned by the Guckneck & Zube company of Milwaukee, turned turtle in Kenosha harbor and sank in 26 feet of water. The boat went down just east of the O'Donnell docks and was a complete wreck. That any of the members of the crew escaped seemed a miracle. The dead are:

August Miller, 35 years old, Milwaukee, derrick man, single.

John Kody, 22 years old, Milwaukee, derrick man, single.

Mooney in Serious Condition.

Capt. John Mooney is in a serious condition and being cared for at the life-saving station, but it is thought that he will be able to return to his home in Milwaukee to-day. The sinking of the H. A. Root was marked by bravery on the part of the life saving crew of the city, which saved the seven men from death under the most trying circumstances.

Capt. Mooney was awakened at midnight by the lurching of the boat and he made a trip about the vessel to see if anything was wrong. Reassured, he returned to his berth and heard nothing more until the boat rolled over on the side and he found his apartment rapidly filling with water. He was sleeping with August Miller, one of the men lost in the disaster, and realizing his danger, he called to Miller, who was struggling in the water near him.

In other parts of the boat the men were caught like rats in a trap, being locked in their rooms, which were rapidly filling with water. Harry Hall and Charles Olson of the Kenosha life saving crew, were on the look-out when they heard the crash of the boat turning and they hurriedly rushed to the station and notified Capt. Cameron and his men. In five minutes the members of the crew were at the scene of the accident, and Capt. Cameron directed the search for the men in person.

Cut the Captain Out of Boat.

The first thing they discovered was the head of Capt. Mooney sticking through a port hole of the sunken ship and they at once cut him out with an ax. Mooney was still clinging to the body of Miller, whom he had made an effort to save, but he was forced to release his hold in order to get free from the craft. As soon as the captain had been rescued the life savers went after Engineer Hunter, who had broken open a port hole on the same side of the boat and who was struggling to free himself. Hunter was taken out exhausted and the two men were hurried to the life saving station.

At this time young Fred Zube, a fireman, who was sleeping with Kody, another of the men who was drowned, had a most remarkable escape from death.

Saved by a Pet Dog.

Zube had awakened to find a little yellow dog which he always carried with him barking furiously and as he jumped from his berth in the fireman's quarters he found that the apartment was filling with water. He made an effort to awaken Kody and was partially successful. The little dog remained with his master and Zube began groping about in the darkness in hopes of finding the door to the apartment which had been left open, but he was unsuccessful. With the animal instinct the dog found the way out and led his master through an open window. The other man failed to follow the lead of the dog and fell back in his berth overcome by the flood of water. He was found there an hour later by members of the life-saving crew.

Tax Schedules Lacking.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 11.—The state board of equalization reconvened Tuesday to find that, although the time expired Saturday for boards of review to adjourn and forward final reports, only 17 out of the 102 counties in the state have sent in their annual returns, most of them being small counties in the southern part of the state. Until the reports of all counties are in the committees on personal property, lands and town and city lots can do nothing in the way of equalizing the assessments of these items.

Stakes His Life on Dice.

Bellevue, Pa., Sept. 11.—Frank Jeffries, a well-known young man of this place, was placed under bond to prevent him from taking his own life to pay a debt which he lost in shaking dice.

Jeffries staked his life on a single throw. If he won Johnston was to pay him $10, and cancel a debt, which amounted to several hundred dollars. If he lost, he was to kill himself. Jeffries lost. Friends caught Jeffries just as he was about to jump into the river.

The Citizen's Duty.

It is the duty of every citizen of this state to come out and vote at the special election to be held Sept. 17 to select delegates to the Constitutional Convention. The necessity of voting cannot be impressed upon the voters too strongly. This is only the third time since 1837, when Michigan's constitution was first ratified, that a convention has been held to make this important state organ conform to changed conditions of life and society. An election like this is one of the important events in Michigan's history, and consequently every voter should consider it his duty to choose the best men as delegates. Since it is a special election, there is danger that interest may flag. But the importance of the election is such, that nobody who calls himself an American should stay at home.

What you Saw in this Paper 35 Years ago To-day.

The enterprising firm of Cappon & Bertsch will soon commence erecting a large addition to their tannery, 18x66 ft.; their rapidly increasing business demands more room and they are going to have it.

Mr. Chrouch, the superintendent of our schools, informs us that they now have about 300 pupils in attendance, together with a corps of teachers, which latter was completed by the engagement of Miss Lottie Andrus, formerly of the grammar school department of the school at Watervliet. She has the grammar school department of our school here.

During the week engineer Brayton has been surveying different routes for a track to the site of the Holland Iron Works. One through 14th street, 16th street and 7th street with but little difference in distance. It would seem that if the future interests of this city were consulted but one route would be entertained by our citizens; and that the one running along the Lake, and we presume that if proper efforts are made this route can be secured as cheaply as any of the others, at all events we should make strong efforts to secure the lake route.

The annual meeting of school district No. 1, township of Holland, was, according to previous notice, to be held in the Union school house on Monday, the 1st, inst. The school house, however, was locked by the board of education, hence the meeting adjourned from there to the 1st church. The meeting was then called to order by Prof. C. Doesburg, director. The Moderator, Dr. B. Ledeboer, not being able to be present, I Cappon was elected moderator for the evening. After the opening by prayer the moderator stated the reason why the meeting was held in the church. The director read the annual report in the English and Holland languages, which was adopted without any remarks. From the report it appeared that the receipts for the school year just closed amounted to $5,894.00 and the expenditures $5,895.20. The different recommendations for raising money were adopted. The two trustees whose terms of office expired, viz: Dr. B. Ledeboer and T. Keppel, were re-elected for three years, after which the meeting adjourned sine die.

The City Hotel is now receiving a brick exterior.

A consistory room is being built for the First Reformed church in this city.

In accordance with a call from the committee a meeting was held at the First Reformed church on Friday evening to make the necessary arrangements for a proper celebration. On motion Rev. R. Peiters was called to the chair and G. J. Kollen appointed secretary. A committee of 25 was appointed to act as a general committee of arrangements, also a committee of 6 to represent Holland at the Zeeland celebration. The grounds of the estate of VanDuren, 1 mile east of the city, were selected as the most suitable grounds. It was also decided that a basket picnic should be the best method for the supply of refreshments. Tuesday, Sept. 17, was fixed upon as the day of celebration. The following program has been announced:

- President of the day—K. Schadelee.
Vice president—John Roost.
Marshal—G. VanSchelven.

WHAT YOU SAW 30 YEARS AGO

Prof. Shields has arrived home from the East.

Wm. Ten Hage has painted up the front of his place of business, and laid in a new stock of refreshments.

It is intended to give a musical entertainment in a few days in Fenyon's Hall by a select party of ladies and gentlemen of this city. More particular announcements will be made later. It will be vocal and instrumental, and perhaps some burlesques and tableaux will be produced for a variation in the program. We hope they will carry it out.

The schooner Four Brothers sailed for Whitehall harbor with a cargo of brush, intended to be used for harbor repairs and pier filling the same as has been done at Black Lake harbor this season. The instructions from Col. Mansfield to R. Kanter & Son are for a limited length on the south pier this fall, opposite the shore line. The season having advanced quite far and the required brush and materials not being close at hand at Whitehall, he had them prepared here.

A railroad ballasted with silver! That is partly true of one in Nevada, over which ore trains run. Silver dust has been sprinkled along the road bed until the earth sells at $30 a ton. The gathering of this metal would cost more than it would be worth at present, but in time the accumulation will repay the trouble.

R. J. Gatling writes to the New York Evening Post that recent improvements in his gun have brought it to such a stage of perfection that it can fire 1,000 shots per minute, and one man can feed and fire 600 shots per minute. In an official trial 64,000 rounds were fired from a single gun in rapid succession, and without stopping to clean the barrels.

Capt. Wm. Swift is again in trouble with his vessel. The steamer Guide, bound from Port Sheldon, on the east shore, with a cargo of railroad ties for this port, sprang a leak when about 15 miles off Chicago Saturday about 6 o'clock, and in a short time she began to fill rapidly. Movable articles were taken from the cabin and placed on deck and a signal of distress hoisted. The captain of the tug Butler discovered the signal and steamed out and brought the waterlogged craft into port. She will be unloaded and taken to drydock for repairs.

The excursion steamer Macatawa was sold under a mortgage yesterday to W. A. Williams of this place for about $1,600, the face of the mortgage which he held.

A. De Kruij, of Zeeland, has sold his celebrated and promising race horse "Roy" last Thursday to parties in Minneapolis for the round sum of $2,000 in hard cash.

Today is the Centennial Anniversary of the adoption of the constitution of the United States and the event is being appropriately celebrated in Philadelphia, Pa.

It is almost a settled fact that next year a line of boats running from this place to Chicago will be established and there is no reason why the line should not pay well.

The fruit train leaving this city every afternoon with Rollen Astra as express messenger carried 99,467 packages of fruit into Chicago during the past week.

Wm. DeKruij, of the firm of De Kruij, Boone & Co., was married last Thursday evening at Zeeland to Miss Mary Howe, by Rev. H. Kremer.

The wedding was a quiet one, only a few intimate friends being present. The newly married pair left for Chicago on the midnight train where they will spend a few days.

Mum was the word, but it leaked out. A few of our duck hunters while out on the bay this week enjoying their favorite sport, succeeded in getting a good sized duck—ing. An old man who was fishing on Plasman's dock secured a big haul that day. For further particulars inquire of Messrs. Austin Harrington and Arthur Husted.

Dr. P. W. Schmid, familiarly known here as Doctor Pete, met with an accident at White Cloud last Tuesday. In attempting to get off the cars at that station by way of the rear door, and being somewhat slow in his movements owing to rheumatism, he fell just as the train started to pull out and broke his arm just above the wrist and bruised his hip so that he is helpless. He was picked up and taken into the station where, he says, he remained all night on the floor without medical attention. Wednesday noon he was brought to this city and is at present at the home of R. A. Hunt. Dr. J. A. Mabbs dressed his wounds and reduced the fracture and he is now as comfortable as could be expected. Dr. Pete attaches no blame to the railway company, but says that it was his own fault that he got hurt, he should have got out of the coach at the other end where passengers are helped off at each station.

A most novel and cheap way of heating a room has been adopted in the Post block, corner of Eighth and River streets, in the office of Dr. O. E. Yates. It is the first device of the kind introduced into this city and is the work of John Kerkhof, who is gaining an enviable reputation as a plumber and gas fitter. The manner of heating is by hot water. There is a coil of pipe located in the furnace in the basement of the building and another in the doctor's office. Cold water is let into the coil which is heated by the furnace and is then forced into the coil on the first floor. The pipes are filled with water from a small hydrant connected with the water works, which is in the store and which is on a level with the coil of pipe that it to heat the office. The water is let on from the hydrant and as it passes through the coil in the furnace it is heated and forced on to the upper coil and then heats the pipes which throw out the warmth which is desired. It is a very cheap and neat way of heating and we presume it will now become in general use here.

The monotony of life at Graafschap was varied last Tuesday night by a first class burglary and safe blowing at the store of Rutgers & Tien. During the night one of the firm was awakened by a loud explosion and on hastening to see what was the cause of the noise, saw three men standing guard on the outside of the building, apparently waiting to see if the explosion had awakened anyone. The men on seeing him started off as fast as their legs would carry them and left just $200 in the safe which was within their reach if they had but ventured in to see the result of their work. The store had been broken into and holes drilled into the safe, filled with powder and exploded. The safe doors were thrown off and the money which they were after was in a small drawer inside and could have been taken had the burglars known that they would not have been pursued at once. Marshal Vaupel was notified and went immediately to the scene, but could not find any trace of the would-be robbers. The safe blowers are evidently members of a gang who are working this section just at present. On Monday night the store of M. VandenBosch & Co., of Zeeland was entered and a quantity of goods stolen and on Saturday night the store of DenHerder & Tanis of Vriesland was burglarized and $13 in money taken. Mr. Den Herder, who lives in the building, knew nothing of the burglary until morning. Marshal Vaupel arrested three tramps on suspicion of being implicated in the safe blowing but allowed them to go as there was not sufficient evidence against them to convict.

Arrangements are being made to have the "Th: Great DeBoe" here during the Fair and he will entertain the public by an exhibition of athletic skill in walking a slack wire, introducing several "new acts."

There was an arrangement talked of having a matched race between Turk, now owned by Dr. Wm. Van Putten and Roy, owned by A. De Kruij, of Zeeland, at the fair this week, but owing to the fact that Roy was sold this week, we will be deprived of the pleasure of witnessing what would have been a most interesting race.

As the steamer A. B. Taylor left Kalamazoo harbor, Tuesday evening she struck the bar and was beached north of the pier, where she remained until Thursday afternoon, when with the aid of two tugs she was pulled off and towed to Grand Haven to unload her cargo of peaches and undergo repairs. Capt. Morton and his crew of the Holland life saving station went down on Wednesday and rendered all the assistance possible.

M. Van Putten has brought out the news stand of M. G. Manting, and for the present will continue the business at the old stand, the Times' office. He will devote all his energy to the business and secure his patrons a prompt and speedy delivery of the dailies, upon the arrival of each train. Marinus is of too active disposition to be idle, and this business will just suit him. In due course of time he expects to branch out, and upon the vacating of the present frame building occupied by the Holland City State bank he will likely occupy that stand. We refer to his adv. in another column.

Celebrated Wedding Anniversary.

Ex Mayor and Mrs. Edward J. Harrington celebrated their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary with a family reunion at the home of their eldest daughter, Mrs. A. J. Warl in Grand Haven last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrington were married in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1853 and have since been identified with the growth of Holland. Mr. Harrington came to this colony as early as 1847 from Marcellus, Onondaga county, N. Y., the home of his birth, and engaged in farming and mercantile business. He built the first substantial dock connected with the railway and erected the first three-story brick block on East Eighth street.

Thrice mayor of Holland, Mr. Harrington was a supporter of civic improvements and materially assisted in securing the right of way for the Grand Rapids, Holland & Chicago interurban to Macatawa Park. Besides the office of mayor, Mr. Harrington has served the city as alderman, justice school inspector and member of the harbor board.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrington are active. During the summer they occupy their cottage at Harrington's Landing, one of the prettiest spots on the south shore of Macatawa bay.

Premiums and Purses Offered

In 1907.....$25,000 In 1906.....$18,000

The larger premiums offered by the West Michigan State Fair have brought an amazing increase in the number of entries from exhibitors.

Cattle Classes Duplicated

All cattle classes are duplicated, one "open to all," the other open to "Michigan only." In all classes are many entries. The Ayreshires are a valuable breed of dairy cattle but new to Michigan. Three different herds are entered this year—none were exhibited last year.

Great Horse Show

Entries of both pure bred and grade draft horses are 100% better than last year. The number of Shetland ponies entered is also doubled. See the big parade of draft teams in harness Wednesday afternoon.

New Carriage and Dairy Building

A new building has just been erected, 130 x 220 feet in size, and covering nearly three-quarters of an acre. In this building will be found the finest exhibits of carriages ever seen at this fair. Dairy products and dairy machinery will also be given a prominence the importance of the industry in this State demands.

Costs of Free Shows

In 1907.....$6,000 In 1906.....$2,200

A. Roy Knabenshue and his airship—the ship that flies, the ship which many have tried to imitate but none successfully—will operate from the Fair Grounds at least once each day for five days. Hardy, the "American Blondin," high wire artist, the sensational aerial casting act of the three flying Valentines, together with numerous high class vaudeville and comedy acts, make up the best free show program ever offered by more than two to one.

The grand stand has been enlarged so there will be room for all.

Those who visit the "West Michigan" this year will say on their return home: "It was NOT THE SAME OLD FAIR this time. All of the old Fair attractions were there, of course, but there was so much that was new, the new carriage building, the new grand stand, the new breeds of cattle and many fine horses, together with the new airship and the many novel features of the free show, that I am very glad I went."

Why Farmer Should Give His Support to the Local Merchant.

PRESERVES HIS OWN MARKET

Depreciation of Village Property Must Inevitably Mean Depreciation of Agricultural Property and Encouragement of Monopoly.

(Copyright, 1906, by Alfred C. Clark.)

The most serious problem that confronts the rural towns and villages of this country is the competition offered local enterprises by the catalogue houses of the large cities. It is a problem for which a solution must be found if the prosperity and stability of the nation is to stand.

And the solution of this great problem lies in the hands of the people of the towns and villages and the farms, especially the farms.

The people of the rural communities have everything to lose and nothing to gain by sending their money to the catalogue houses, by passing by their local merchants and sending their dollars to the concerns who have absolutely no interest in their communities.

These catalogue houses do not pay taxes in your town; the local merchant does. They do not build sidewalks in your town; the local merchant does. They do not contribute to the building of roads over which the crops of the farms are hauled to market; the local merchant does.

Your interests are identical with those of the merchants of your town. By sending your dollars to the city you may cause the merchants to close their establishments, but when they are forced to this they can pack their in disposing of that he is absolutely dependent upon his local merchant, and by his patronage of the catalogue houses he has killed competition, and must now take whatever is offered for what he has to sell.

Mr. Farmer, are you helping to kill the goose that is laying your golden egg?

Are you sending your dollars to the catalogue houses and by so doing killing the local industries of your town?

Are you putting your merchants out of business, and creating a monopoly that will pay you what it pleases for the products of your farm?

If you are doing these things it is time for you to stop and consider the future. You will have to look but a little way ahead to see the result, and it will not be an attractive picture that greets you. The prosperous community of which you are now a part will fade like the summer flowers before the winter winds, and almost as quickly.

It is the fact that there is a market within close proximity to your farm that makes your acres valuable. The men who maintain this local market for you are the men who cause the railroad trains to stop at your town. Take them away and soon the town will be wiped off the map. The churches will close for lack of support. The schools will cease to be a pride, and your sons and daughters will lack the opportunity that is theirs by right of birth, and your acres, that are now valuable because they lie in close proximity to a market, will show a depreciation that will astonish you.

Your interests are identical with those of the merchants of your town. By sending your dollars to the city you may cause the merchants to close their establishments, but when they are forced to this they can pack their

Give your town a chance by patronizing your local merchants and you may confidently expect its growth in business and population and a raise in real estate valuation. Send your money to the catalogue houses and you may look for the reverse. The picture tells the story of the possibilities.

They do not help to build school houses for your children; the local merchant does. They do not assist in the support of your churches; the local merchant does.

But there are some things the catalogue houses do for you and the first and greatest of these is to assist materially in bankrupting your community. The dollars they take away never come back to you. They will never help to make a city of your village. They will never increase the value of your real-estate holdings by making local improvements.

Let us look at the subject from the standpoint of the farmer, for it is the farmer who is the greatest patron of the catalogue houses.

The town or village one, two or three miles from his home is his market for the butter and eggs and other produce of his farm. The half dozen or more merchants of the town, each anxious to obtain his full share of the business of the community, maintain a competition that affords to the farmer at all times top prices for the products of his farm. It is these half dozen merchants that make farm profits possible; the profits are in no way due to the catalogue houses of the cities.

But the farmer persists in sending his dollars to the city. He wants a buggy, or a set of harness, or a pair of stockings, or any of the necessities or luxuries of life, and to get them he takes out his mail order catalogue and looks at the finely printed cuts, reads the well written description, and, passing the local merchant by, the merchant who has purchased his produce at the best market prices, the merchant who has helped to build the community, he sends his dollars to the catalogue house in the city and takes what they choose to send him.

What is the result?

One after another the doors of the local stores are closed, and where at one time there were half a dozen merchants, each bidding for his share of patronage by offering fair prices for that which the farmer had to sell, there is now but one merchant who has a monopoly, not only of the selling, but of the buying as well, and he pays what he pleases for the farmer's produce.

The farmer can continue to send his money to the catalogue house in the city for his supplies, but he cannot send his produce to the same place.

stock of goods and go elsewhere, but you cannot pack up your farm and move it; your acres must lie in the bed you have builded for them whether it be fair or foul, and it is "up to you," Mr. Farmer, to spend your money at home, and in this way you can solve the greatest problem that now confronts this country.

YANKEE IN DIAMOND FIELDS.

Commissions to Study a Country Which Produces Such Men.

Mr. Alfred Mosely is an Englishman who admires American ways so much that he sends commissions here to study us.

Mr. Mosely does not admire us without a reason. It is not a very specific reason. Its name is Mr. Gardner F. Williams, and it is by way of being an American mining engineer. Mr. Williams directs the diamond output of the world.

Mr. Mosely made his fortune in South Africa. He watched Cecil Rhodes' dream of empire develop and knew the men who made it real. The one who took his imagination was Gardner Williams.

Here was a man who had left Michigan at the age of 15 to go with a pioneering father to California in the flush days of the early mining camps, had had a taste of California mining, had gone when still a young man to explore in South Africa and had become a general manager of the great monopoly of the diamond mines.

A fighter of financial battles and a manager of men, a writer, a scientist and one of the world's greatest engineers, he so stamped his personality on the people among whom he lived that he was feted and cheered by all South Africa when he retired last spring and came back to the United States to build a home for his leisure years in the land of his birth.

Keep Your Money at Home.

Don send money to mail order houses to deposit. Your home bank is the only safe place to keep it and will pay you as good interest as can be had, and then you run no risk as in such cases as the "Cash Buyer's Union" failure. The home bank will grant you favors and mail order houses never do.

Gambling in Rain.

Like the Chinese, the natives of India are greatly addicted to gambling. They have, indeed, one form of wager which is peculiar to the country, and which consists in betting on the weather. This is called "sutta," and has one advantage over most forms of gambling in that there is no possibility of cheating, since there is no chance of controlling the results. The sportsmen make wagers whether it will rain or not, and also how much rain will fall, the latter question being settled by rain gauges. There is great excitement on cloudy days. The gamblers rush to the offices or "dens" and record their bets with the book-makers. Then, if the expected down-pour comes, anxious groups assemble round the rain gauges. Even horse-racing, it is said, has not more fascination for some of the gamblers.

Use of Lion's Mane.

The lion's mane, like the human hand, serves a distinct use. The lion, without it, would soon die out. The jungle is the lion's hunting ground. Here he stalks the buffalo and other such creatures, leaping on their backs to slay them. They tear madly away, and in their flight strive to scrape off the lion against tree trunks and boughs. But his mane protects him. Without it the bumps and knocks he receives in that wild ride would infallibly make him fall unconscious to the ground. In fighting his mane also protects the lion, safeguarding his throat against the longest, sharpest claws.

Where Snow Falls.

If you are not a lover of snow go to Malta, where you are certain of complete immunity. If you are fond of it the suburbs of St. Petersburg will furnish all you need to ask, for there you may be sure of it for 170 days in the year. The happy medium is supplied by Copenhagen with 30 days, while Palermo, Rome and Venice, with one, two and five days respectively, may be recommended to those who merely care for snow as a casual and fleeting guest.

CLIFF HOUSE IS DESTROYED

FAMOUS LANDMARK IN SAN FRANCISCO BURNED DOWN.

Was a Favorite Shrine of Pilgrimage to the Golden Gate City—Loss is $50,000.

San Francisco, Sept. 9.—The Cliff house, San Francisco's first attraction for tourists, was burned to the ground. The fire started about five o'clock and an hour later a blackened heap of ruins was all that remained of the famous structure.

The house was built of wood, and, fanned by a lively ocean breeze, the flames made such headway before the nearest fire company arrived that it was realized that the place was doomed, and more attention was paid to saving adjoining property than to the burning building. The Cliff house had been closed for some time, as the new lessee, John Tait, was remodeling the interior. Workmen were about the place until noon and then departed for the day. How the fire started is a mystery.

This was the second Cliff house to be destroyed by fire. The building which was destroyed by fire was built about 20 years ago by Adolph Sutro of Sutro tunnel fame. It was owned by the Sutro estate and was valued at $50,000.

The Cliff house was ranked as one of the best known resorts of America. Located on a rocky promontory outside the city, directly above the surf of the Pacific and overlooking the famous Seal rocks, it was a strong attraction for visitors, and from its broad porches hundreds of thousands of people obtained their first view of the Pacific.

PICKPOCKETS FIGHT CONDUCTOR

Lively Encounter with Thieves on a Rock Island Train.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 7.—Three armed crooks, who had picked the pockets of a number of Rock Island passengers at the station in Lincoln, and attempted to continue their game on the train, engaged in a desperate encounter with Conductor Henry Duval on the Rocky Mountain limited, near Alvo station, about one o'clock Friday morning.

After standing off Conductor Duval with a knife, the men leaped from the moving train, about eight miles west of Alvo, and escaped in the darkness. The Rock Island special agents have been sent to the vicinity of their escape with good descriptions of the men.

Passengers had reported being robbed at Lincoln and later Conductor Duval discovered the crooks attempting to rob men who were asleep in the chair car. He tried to capture them, but in vain. The first reports were to the effect that the train had been held up.

LEOPOLD FOILS BELGIUM.

Turns Over to a Stock Company Domain of Crown in Congo.

Brussels, Sept. 9.—King Leopold made another momentous move on the Congo Question Sunday by turning over the "domain of the crown," in the Congo independent state to a joint stock company in which he is alleged to be interested. This is the most important section of the Congo, ten times larger than Belgium, and was to have reverted to Belgium with annexation. Its transfer deprives Belgium of the most profitable part of the independent state.

The decree announcing the transfer, which appears in the official bulletin, caused a sensation, it being generally accepted as endangering the success of the committee appointed recently by King Leopold to negotiate a treaty annexing the Congo independent state to Belgium.

BULLETS ROUT SOLDIERS' MOB.

Fifty Who Seek to Release Jailed Comrade Are Dispersed.

Junction City, Kan., Sept. 9.—A mob of nearly 50 soldiers of the farmers' school at Fort Riley came here about one o'clock Sunday morning for the purpose of releasing a comrade who was confined in the county jail. The sheriff and city police force were notified of their coming and from positions in windows above the jail opened a fire that quickly dispersed the mob as it sought to force an entrance.

WILHELMINA BACHE FREE.

Served 16 Years for Murder She Probably Didn't Commit.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 7.—With every possible indication that she was not guilty of the crime of murder, for which she has already served 16 years of a life sentence in the state prison, Wilhelmina Bache was released from Waupun prison Friday. Her life sentence for the murder of Michael Sell, of Shawano county, was commuted by Gov. Davidson. She went to the penitentiary when she was 17 years old.

Mikkelsen Party Is Safe.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Cable dispatches from London stated that the Leflingwell-Mikkelsen expedition to the frozen north was safe. The members of the party, which set out from Chicago last winter, including Ernest De Koven Leflingwell, a member of the University of Chicago faculty; Capt. Einar Mikkelsen, of Norway, and their crew, it is stated, had crossed the ice to a place of safety after their ship, the Duchess of Bedford, had sunk.

MAN KILLED IN AUTO RACE

FATALITY ON BRUNOS ISLAND TRACK NEAR PITTSBURG.

Rex Rainerstein the Victim—Walter Christy, Noted Driver, a Mechanic and Policeman Injured.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 10.—One man is dead and three others more or less seriously injured as a result of two accidents at a series of automobile races that were held at the Brunos Island track near this city Monday.

The dead man is Rex Rainerstein, 35 years old, president of the Automobile Repair company of this city, who died of a fractured skull while being taken to the hospital.

Walter Christy, 26 years old, of 518 West Eleventh street, New York city, who was one of the drivers in the Vanderbilt cup races at Mineola, Long Island, fractured his right arm and sustained scalp wounds and bruises of the body. It is also feared he has been internally injured.

Clarence Dastion, who was mechanic for Rainerstein and was riding with him at the time, received injuries to the spine that are serious, beside bruises and cuts. Bastion lives in Allegheny.

Policeman Frank Farnol, of Allegheny, was struck by one of the flying cars and hurled about 50 feet. He was badly cut and bruised. All the injured are in St. John's hospital, Allegheny.

Rainerstein was driving in a race called the 50-mile derby and was on the thirteenth mile, when at a turn one of the front tires came off and the machine turned over. Rainerstein and Dastion were caught beneath the car, while a score of other contestants shot by. Women screamed and fainted. Crowds swarmed over the track and the race had to be stopped.

The wrecked car was left standing at the edge of the track and a short time afterward Christy, making too wide a turn, struck it with tremendous force.

EAGLES' AERIE BURNED.

Handsome Home of Order in Philadelphia Destroyed by Flames.

Philadelphia, Sept. 9.—Eagle Temple, the home of Philadelphia Aerie 12, fraternal order of Eagles, on Spring Garden street near Broad, was destroyed by fire Sunday. Nothing but the walls of the building remain standing and the loss is given at $100,000, covered by insurance.

The building was purchased by the Eagles six years ago for $55,000, and since last April $45,000 had been spent on it. Every floor had been rebuilt and handsomely furnished and masons were at work putting on an ornamental stone front.

MOUNTAINEERS MOB TRAIN.

Beaten Off by the Crew in a Pistol Battle.

Bristol, Va., Sept. 10.—Because one of their number had been forcibly ejected, a band of mountaineers stopped a passenger train on the Virginia & Southwestern, in Carter county, Tennessee, and attacked the conductor and train crew. A battle followed in which pistols were used freely. Capt. Robert Carnahan, the conductor, and Brakeman R. B. Taylor and A. D. Cross had a narrow escape, the latter being badly beaten. LUSITANIA PASSES

LUCANIA IN RACE

MONSTER CUNARD STEAMSHIP TAKES THE LEAD SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Largest Atlantic Liner—Departure from Liverpool on Maiden Trip Attracts Much Attention—Notable People Among Her Passengers...

Queenstown, Sept. 9.—The departure of the Cunard line steamship Lusitania from Dunt Rick lightship Sunday was timed at 12:10 p. m. The Lucania had preceded her at 11:35 a. m.

Wireless reports received Sunday night say that the Lusitania caught up with and passed the Lucania during the afternoon.

Two hundred passengers were left over here in spite of the fact that the steamship agents had been instructed to discontinue bookings a week ago.

Departure of the Giant.

Liverpool, Sept. 9.—The people of this city have concentrated their attention on what is considered to be an epoch-making event—the departure of the giant Cunard line steamer Lusitania, the largest of the Atlantic liners, on her maiden voyage to New York.

The Lucania left port Saturday about two and a half hours earlier than the Lusitania, making possible a trial of speed across the Atlantic between the swiftest ocean steamer with reciprocating engines flying the British flag and the largest turbine steamer.

Deny Race Is Planned.

Of course the officials of the Cunard line say that no race is contemplated, but the engine room crews of the vessels have been busy for a week past, getting everything in readiness with the expectation that the engines will be called upon to do their best on this occasion.

All the accommodations on both vessels have been taken. For the Lucania 370 first-class and 350 second-class passengers have been booked, and for the Lusitania 450 first-class and 450 second-class.

Many Notables on Lists.

The list includes many notable people. Among the passengers on the Lusitania will be Robert Balfour, M. P.; C. E. Barber, C. G. Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hay, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goslet, Countess Dunmore, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus H. McCormick, of Chicago, Lady Victoria Murray and S. C. Perkins.

The Lucania takes the team of the Marlborough Cricket club, which will play a series of games in America, and Bishop F. J. O'Reilly.

Great Interest in New York.

New York, Sept. 9.—The advent of no ship was ever watched with keener interest than that displayed in the maiden voyage of the huge Cunard steamer Lusitania.

The two great ships are commanded by two of the finest captains in the service, Capt. Watt, of the Lusitania, and Capt. Barr, of the Lucania. Each will know how to get every ounce out of his vessel. They are quiet mannered, self-reliant men and are expected to make the great race notable.

Shipping men expect that the Lusitania will not only win, but that she will break the transatlantic record now held by the Germans.

Victims in Smoker.

The injured were brought to Waterloo and placed in the Presbyterian hospital.

Nearly all of the dead and injured were in the smoking car, which was immediately behind the baggage and mail cars. The smoking car was completely demolished, there not being left one piece of wood large enough to make a top for an ordinary kitchen table.

The northbound express was ten minutes late at Norris siding, which is a small station three miles north of Cedar Falls, Ia., and there a southbound freight train was awaiting the express, which came thundering along at a terrific speed in an effort to make up time.

Crashed Into Freight Train.

Just as the engine of the express was about to pass the freight engine the trucks of the express jumped the track and the engine crashed with terrible force into the engine of the freight, wrecking both engines and telescoping the baggage and mail cars and demolishing the smoking car. The passengers in the two day coaches following the smoker escaped with only a violent shaking up.

Rescuers were immediately at hand to care for the injured and to take the dead from among the wreckage.

No Changes in the Franchise of the Gas Co.

The request of the Gas company to have some changes made in their franchise was turned down Monday night at the meeting of the council. The following report was unanimously adopted:

"Your committee, to whom was referred the petition of the Holland Gas Company, asking for some changes in and amendments to their present franchise of the City of Holland, beg leave to report that they have had several interviews with parties representing the Holland Gas company and have carefully considered the requests of said company, and find that, in the judgment of your committee, there are some requirements and conditions in the present franchise which are possibly unnecessarily restrictive, and which might be modified, yet these all refer to matters which are of minor importance, and which by themselves do not justify amending the franchise.

"Your committee would further report that it cannot recommend changing the schedule of prices to be paid for gas and substitute therefore a franchise fee, to be paid annually, as suggested by the petition. In the opinion of your committee, it should be the policy of the city to furnish gas, both for fuel and heating, to the ordinary consumer at as low a rate as possible, as this is now considered to be one of the necessities of life. A reduction in the price of gas is of direct benefit to every consumer, whereas a franchise fee would benefit the city at large, and would be relatively of less benefit to the small tax payer than it would to large payer. At the time the original franchise was granted public sentiment was decidedly in favor of a graded scale, and we do not think this should be disturbed at the present time, even though the franchise fee proposed to be paid would be equal to or in excess of the reduction under the sliding scale.

"For these and other reasons your committee reports unfavorably upon granting the petition for the amending of the franchise."

One of the City's Best Investments.

One of the best investments that Zealand has lies outside of the city, namely good roads. They are not all good, far from it, but they are better than those leading out of many Michigan cities.

Tom Robinson, on his trip to Detroit, as an advertisement for the state fair, has walked over all kinds of roads and says of all the good ones he found the best were out of Owosso. He also said that on this splendidly kept road he met more travellers than on any other during his wanderings. While that was partly due to the fact that it was circus day in Owosso, he said the contrast was rounding them are the ones that the towns having good roads surrounding are the ones that get the business. That is easy enough to believe. Farmers will not wear out horse flesh and wagons on bad roads when they can travel on good ones and the town they can reach over smooth roads naturally gets their trade.—Grand Haven Advocate.
