Popular Young Lady Wed To Western Man

MISS ALICE DONNELLY, WHO IS THE DAUGHTER OF MR.
AND MRS. B. P. DON-NELLY, IS WED TO MR. LOUIS J.
HOHMANN

One of the outstanding social events of the season took place on Wednesday morning when Miss Alice Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard P. Donnelly of this city, was wed to Mr. Louis J.
Hohmann, son of Mrs. Carrie Hohmann, of Mankato, Minn.

The ceremonies took place at St. Francis de Sales church with Very Rev. Father John F. Fenlon, S. S. D. of St. Mary's seminary, Rolland Park, Baltimore, uncle of the bride officiating.

It was a beautiful morning, ideal for a ceremony of this character.
The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Bernard P.
Donnelly, and was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Donnelly.

Mr. John Fenlon Donnelly, a brother of the bride, acted as best man and Bruce Van Leuven and Bernard P. Donnelly, Jr., who served as ushers, completed the wedding party.

The ceremonies, which were unusually impressive, were made even more so because of the musical feature which included numbers rendered by an instrumental trio and vocal soloists. Gerard Hanchett, Montie Emmons and William Kay played the "Bridal Chorus" from "The Rose Maiden," for the wedding procession. During the ceremony Mrs. M. Basso sang Gounod's "Ave Maria," and Mrs.
Helen Whelan rendered "O Salu-taris," by H. Panofka. Mendel-sohn's wedding march was played for the recessional.

The bride party formed a beautiful picture before an altar tastily decorated with white asters, pink gladioli, white hydrangeas and small daisies. Miss Donnelly looked beautiful in a gown of white silk crepe fashioned in simple lines. On the bodice and train were inserted white net outlined a fleur de lis pattern, the gown's only trimming.

A shallow cap of tulle circled with orange blossoms secured her veil.
She carried a bouquet of white roses and swansons. Miss Margaret Donnelly was charming in an aubergine velvet gown made with a high cowl neck and slightly puffed three-quarter length sleeves. A small crepe hat and suede slippers to match completed her costume. She carried white daisies and purple scabiosa. The men were properly dressed in dark suits, white shirts with black ties and a carnation bouton-niere.

Mrs. B. P. Donnelly, the bride's mother, was gowned in aquamarine silk crepe with hat and shoes in a harmonious shade of violet, and carried a corsage of pink roses and violet asters. The groom's mother, Mrs. Carrie Hohmann of Mankato, Minn., was gowned in Burgundy-colored lace.
Her hat was a deeper shade of the same color. Her corsage was fashioned of pale pink roses and purple asters. Miss Lambertine Hohmann, sister of the groom, wore yellow chiffon with a pale green turban and carried Talisman roses.

Mrs. Michael Leonard, the bride's sister, was dressed in brown and carried a spray of souvenir roses.
Immediately after the ceremony a buffet breakfast was served at the beautiful home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Donnelly, 284 Maple avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Vance Maize acted as master and mistress of ceremonies. Mrs.
Brenner of Chicago catered for the wedding party.

The newlyweds left Wednesday afternoon for an extended motor trip. They will be at home to their relatives after Oct. 15 at 303 West Twelfth street.

Among the guests at the wedding and breakfast were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Leonard of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Schroeder of Mankato, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Byrne and Miss Helen Byrne, Mrs. David J. Cullen, William C. Fenlon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Mc Gann, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Donnelly and Mr. and Mrs. William B. Pavey of Chicago. Father George De Quey, formerly at St. Francis de Sales church, now at Bay City, also attended the wedding.

Doe Leaps 65 Feet
Nearly Hits Boy

Visitors at Miner's Falls one Sunday recently, were startled when a young doe leaped to her death over the 65 foot embankment.
The tragedy came near to being a double one as the doe narrowly escaped hitting Leonard Methot, a Trenary boy, when it fell on a pile of timbers at the foot of the cascade.

It is believed that the animal's action was caused by sudden fright at something in the dense brush near the brink of the falls.

day.

Praises Letter Carrier's Services With Poetry

(By Ralph Schepers, R.R. 8) Patrons on Rural Route three (now R. 6) who have enjoyed the services of Letter Carrier Simon De Boer for so many years would like to express through the Holland City News their appreciation of his duty and his zeal for the new road south of Holland.

Traveling the highway daily through all weathers and conditions, he knows the need for such improvements and he was first to tell us of the plans of the State Highway Department which was pleasing news indeed.

This verse is dedicated to the faithful postman:
TO CARRIER DE BOER
How many years have come and gone Since first you started "carrying on"
The old South Route, and folks, now grown, Received first letters of their own:
While many in the days now past Received from you their very last And to yourself, upon the route Great happiness oft came about.
Through all of which has grown a tie We feel as now we wave "Good Bye."

Ralph Schepers

HOLLAND HAS OTHER FLOWERS BESIDES TULIPS

Grand Rapids Press—Grand Rapids and vicinity are colorful with petunias, this pretty little flower seeming to be in blossom almost everywhere. There are beds of them in many of the front yards of Grand Rapids and numerous residents with an eye to beauty have used them as borders for walks. Business firms have planted them freely to hide building foundations. In Holland they have been used very tastefully to border curbs and the result is well worth while. In the vicinity of Macatawa Park they add much beauty to the grounds of magnificent lakeside estates. And one of the best things about the petunia is that it is easy to grow and the blossoms are in evidence all summer. Next year there should be more petunias.

TWO Doves PETE ON NOISY DREDGE

Doves long have been regarded as symbols of peace and quiet, but two on the Keweenaw, government dredge at work deepening the turning basin at Black Lake, Holland, daily show their unconcern for noise and activity.

The birds have been with the keweenaw for eight years, and have become as much a part of the boat as the large dredging scoop. They spend much of their time in a cage perched near the center of activity, and even when released the pets show no desire to leave the craft except for short visits.

In the early spring and at odd moments the birds hover about the engine room. When the boat docks for the winter at Keweenaw, Wis., the pets are entrusted to someone for safe keeping until spring.

Primary Brings Out Tremendous Vote In City

THIS PAPER PRINTS COM-PLETE TABULATION OF
VOTE IN OTTAWA
COUNTY

Congressman Carl Mapes Has Largest Majority In the County.

Early Tuesday morning it looked like "Democratic" weather, in fact there was a downpour of rain, for a half hour, laying the dust and then turning the day into sunshine which was apparently Republican weather, according to prognosticators who have used this saying for many years.

Holland's vote was tremendous, the total being 4,866 of which 980 were Democratic votes and 3,886 Republican. Taking it all in all it was rather a clean campaign with the exception of one last-minute yellow rooster back in the congressional contest, which was promptly answered, and undoubtedly added many additional votes to the total of Carl Mapes because of the eleven-hour circular relating to Holland harbor, which all intelligent citizens immediately knew was untrue, because of the extensive harbor activities going on right now under their very eyes. Anyway Carl Mapes received the largest majority of any candidate in Ottawa county, the majority being 4,447 in the county, Holland contributing a majority of 1,618 votes.

Despite the tremendous interest the election in Holland and Ottawa county was carried on without any undue excitement on the sidelines.
The Holland City News today prints more than a page of tabulated detailed information on primary results, giving all the figures as these relate to Republican and Democratic candidates. These tabulations cover every ward of every city and every township in the entire county.

The candidates nominated on the Republican ticket were Wilbur M.
Brucker for governor; Luren D.
Dickinson for lieutenant governor; Carl E. Mapes for congress; Gordon F. Van Eenennaam for state senator, twenty-third district; Edward Brouwer for state representative; Cora Vande Water for judge of probate; John R. Dethmers for prosecuting attorney; Benjamin H. Rosema for sheriff; William Wilds for county clerk; John H.
Den Herder for county treasurer; Frank Bottje for register of deeds; Gilbert Vande Water and Govert Van Zantwijk for coroners.

On the Democratic ticket the nominations were as follows: William A. Comstock for governor; Winfield H. Caslow for congress; Ray E. Nies for state senator; Frederick H. Kamferbeek for sheriff; Louis J. Vandenburg for county clerk; Hower Fisher for county treasurer; Anton Seif, Jr., for register of deeds.

Scott Inquest To Be Held Saturday

OFFICERS NOT SATISFIED FULLY WITH DETAILS OF
DEATH OF DR. SCOTT

Much Talk, Much of It Without Foundation, Makes Inquest Necessary.

Saturday morning at 9 o'clock the inquest relating to the death of Dr. W. Preston Scott will be held at the city hall with Coroner Gilbert Vande Water and Prosecuting Attorney John Dethmers in charge.

Since the death of Dr. Scott there has been so much street talk and some interesting details have developed that county officials consider that an inquest is highly important to throw new light upon the situation that may give to the public the real facts relative to the untimely death.

It will be remembered that Dr.
Scott, for years a dentist in Holland, now retired, was found at the steering wheel of his car in the garage at his home near Jenison Park. When discovered the car was running and the doors were found closed and the place was filled with carbon dioxide gas from the exhaust of the running engine.

It appeared on the surface that the doctor might have had suicidal intentions since instructions were left for the undertaker and an obituary was penned out by the doctor and handed to Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Pifer, who have always been intimate friends and neighbors of the Scott family covering a period of years.

There were also other instructions which would indicate that death was either expected or premeditated.

Some fear that the doctor, subject to heart spells, had made these preparations and that a spell did occur as he was putting up his car.

Anyway Dr. Scott was found unconscious by Robert Neuhaver of the Jenison Park and Dick Golds of Waukegon, who went by the place at midnight, saw the Scott home all lighted and also saw the light in the garage and heard the car running. They thought this strange with a closed door and they immediately investigated and the smell of gas showed conclusively that something was wrong inside.
They found Dr. Scott as stated and immediately took the inert form in the open air, but neither the help of Dr. W. C. Koois, who was called, or resuscitating methods were of any avail. The doctor died shortly afterwards without regaining consciousness.

Dr. Otto Vande Velde was ordered to inspect the body and made an autopsy, and while abstractions were found on the head, the doctor stated that while these injuries might have rendered him unconscious they were not serious enough to cause death. Others believe that these scars might have been caused on the gravel pavement when the rescuers hastened to take the body from the fume-filled garage.

Prosecutor Dethmers and Coroner Vande Water have summoned several witnesses and the officials may be able to get at the truth of the many different stories at the inquest when these are examined.

The coroner's jury is composed of former Mayor E. P. Stephan, former Alderman William Vissers, former Alderman Alex Van Zanten, Nick Hofstee and Gil Haan.

Funeral services over the remains of Dr. Scott were held at Dykstra funeral home Sunday afternoon and were in charge of Masonic order of Holland and the order of Eastern Star No. 429.

Burial took place in the family plot in Pilgrim Home cemetery, and members of both orders were present in a body, besides many friends who gathered to pay their last respects to a friend and neighbor.

The obituary mentioned was placed in a sealed envelope, with instructions not to be opened only in case of death.

Among other things the obituary told that Dr. Scott was born in Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 15, 1869, and came to Holland in 1861.

Graduating from local schools in 1894, he started to work in an Allegan store. After returning to Holland he spent two years in Chicago and later married Miss Marie Hummel, who died about 18 months ago.

He was graduated from Northwestern Dental school in 1897, the note read, and then spent four years as a member of the dental school faculty. He opened offices here and retired in 1918.

He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Scott, deceased, of Holland. He had three sisters, Mrs. Lela of Barryville, Ill. and three cousins, Grand Scott of Grand Rapids, Mrs. B. F. Southerland of Owosso and Probate Judge Fred Pratt of Traverse City, survive.

TUCKER WINS IN ALLEGAN JUDGE FIGHT

One of those things that happen in politics every so often occurred in Allegan county this year in the race for the Republican nomination for probate judge.

The youngest of the group of seven seeking the nomination was Irving J. Tucker, of East Saugatuck, age 25, living in the township of which part of Fennville is in.
Tucker at one time suffered from infantile paralysis which left him with a deformity which, however, impairs his activity very little. He campaigns hard and won. He was opposed by one candidate who had held the position eight years and another who had been judge for about seven.

One township in the northwestern part of the county had a record breaking vote out of more than 500 and Tucker received better than 400. This township lies near to the home where Tucker was born and has lived all his life.

MERCURY DROPS TO 45 DEGREES HERE

Frosty weather has prevailed for several days and Thursday night near Holland the thermometer dropped to 45 degrees, which is the lowest for this season. The temperature is by no means a record and little, if any, frost has been reported through the country.

FOOTBALL TAKES THE STAGE—EXIT BASEBALL

Football is gradually taking the stage in the local sport show.
Coach Gerald Breen at Holland High school was greeted by 130 candidates last week after he issued a call. Hope college has also a large number of prospective gridders working under Coach Bud Hinga.

Both teams play opening games one week from Saturday. Holland High opens at home with Sparta High school in a game at Riverview park. The grid fans will find a fine grandstand for their use as the city structure at the park has been completed.

Hope has a stiff foe in Western State Teachers college, the game being played at Kalamazoo. The Hingamen will be fast but light again this year, and two weeks of practice will be hardly enough to go against the strong Hilltoppers of the college city.

The complete Holland High schedule:
Sept. 24—Sparta at Holland.
Oct. 1—Holland at Muskegon.
Oct. 8—Kalamazoo Central at Holland.

Oct. 15—G. R. Creston at Holland.

Oct. 22—Holland at Benton Harbor.

Oct. 29—Open date.

Nov. 5—South at Holland.

Nov. 12—Grand Haven at Holland.

Nov. 19—Holland at Muskegon Heights.

Next week, Wednesday, Hamilton will be host to a large delegation of visitors from Michigan State college and state farm organizations on their fifth annual poultry tour of the state. They are scheduled to arrive here at 5 p. m. and to remain until 8 o'clock. Their main purpose will be to visit the local farm bureau plant, which has been advertised as one of the most successful farmers' cooperatives handling all supplies for the farmers in this section and marketing many of their products. New storage and refrigeration facilities enable the storage of four or five carloads of eggs, with candling and grading equipment. This cooperative association is spending considerable time in an attempt to secure better quality eggs. Andrew Lohman, the efficient manager, is making arrangements to keep the visitors busy while here. Supper will be served in the new community hall.

Rev. C. Vander Schoor of Yakima, Wash., had charge of the services at the First Reformed church, while the pastor, Rev. J. A. Roggen, preached at Kalamazoo.

Gladys Lubbers and Aileen Dugmond returned last week, Friday, from the state fair at Detroit. END OF BASEBALL SEASON

Baseball came to a close in Holland for the 1932 season this week. In a game played under flood lights the Kansas City Monarchs, a fast colored team, trimmed the Mosser Leathers 14 to 4. The Mosseres topped the city championship for the second consecutive year by defeating the Holland Boosters last Saturday, 3 to 2. Larry Hyma, ace of the Leather pitching staff, bested Ed Walters in a tight mound duel to give the tanners the margin.

WILDS GIVES THANKS

William Wilds, through the columns of The News, wishes to express his sincere appreciation to the voters of Ottawa county in voting his re-nomination at Tuesday's primaries. He says: "I will continue to conduct this important office on the high plane it has been conducted and in everything I ask for your fullest co-operation and advice."

"Thank you!"

WILLIAM WILDS.

IS APPRECIATIVE

I wish, through the columns of this paper, to express to the voters of Ottawa county my appreciation because of their loyal support in my behalf at the polls on primary day.

The majority indicates a splendid endorsement for which I am duly thankful. If elected in November I will give the office of coroner my very best attention, which has been my earnest endeavor during the past few years. Thank you!

GILBERT VANDE WATER.

With the aid of an improvised diving helmet made from a large oil container, a glass front and a garden hose with sash weights attached to a tire pump on shore, Marine Bosha of Macatawa, Park, with the assistance of Robert Bonitake and others, succeeded in raising a 28-foot launch from the bottom of Black lake. In testing his new device Bosha located a boat at the bottom of the lake near Hotel Macatawa. The work of raising the craft was comparatively easy after large quantities of mud had been removed. When the craft was raised to the surface it was found the motor was plugged with oil for winter storage and the hull was in excellent condition. The boat was sunk in the icy waters several years ago when loosed from storage. — Grand Rapids Press.

Purdue in Canada, Raymond of Grand Rapids and Mrs. T. Sinclair, Mrs. Ernest Frank, Nicholas and Jacob Verhey of Holland.

WRESTLING MATCH TO BE STAGED AT HOLLAND ARMORY: LOCAL WRESTLERS WILL ALSO PARTICIPATE

A wrestling match is to be staged at Holland Armory on Thursday evening, Sept. 22, when local folks will be privileged to see as good a card as has ever been put on in Holland for some time.

The card will feature George Mock, known as Chicago's tough boy, vs. Steve Soccey of Denver, Col., in a best two-out-of-three falls in a two hour time limit.

George Mock has previously wrestled the leading heavyweights in the game today, among them being Sonnenberg, former heavyweight champion of the world, whom he wrestled to a draw at a two-hour time limit bout in Boston, Mass.

Soccey also comes well recommended by promoters who see him as a near champion.

Frank Fabiano, Holland's own, will meet Art Rothboller in a best two-out-of-three falls in a one hour time limit. Frank is a contender for state heavyweight championship and is a veteran in the game, and should give the crowd plenty of thrills when he meets Rothboller next Thursday evening.

The warm-up boys will be Fred Hall, formerly lightweight champion, and who is claimed by those who know as one of the best in the game. He will meet Clem Savoldi, young brother of the famous "Jumping" Joe Savoldi. Clem has acquired many tricks from Joe and should be a strong number for Hall. They will wrestle thirty minutes time limit to win.

Chris Korose, the promoter,

I SINCERELY THANK YOU

Words are poor expressions in conveying to the voters of Ottawa county my sincere appreciation of the wonderful way in which they expressed themselves in my behalf at the polls Tuesday, relative to my candidacy for judge of probate. There may have been some antipathy expressed in placing a woman in the position of probate judge. In my campaign matter I have endeavored to point out where in the several Michigan counties women have filled these positions repeatedly and well, and are continuously being renominated and elected.

I wish to assure the citizens of Ottawa county that I will bend my every energy, coupled with my experience in that office, to make this a county institution that its citizenry can feel justly proud of. If elected in November all I ask is your kind co-operation and a chance to make good. At this time I wish to extend to the voters of Ottawa county my heart-felt thanks for their thoughtful consideration of me as a candidate. Your confidence in me, I am sure, will not be misplaced. Gratefully,
CORA VANDE WATER.

ATTENTION, VOTERS!

I hereby wish to express my sincere gratitude for the wonderful support I received at the polls primary day from the voters of Holland and surrounding territory. Hoping I may continue to receive your valued support at the general election Nov. 8th, I am Yours sincerely,
BEN H. ROSEMA.

CHARGES ARE BROUGHT AGAINST EAST END HOTEL PROPRIETOR

Prosecutor John R. Dethmers, together with Chief of Police Peter Lievens of Holland, after a long period of investigation have brought charges against Julius Tannenbaum, proprietor of the Asselton hotel at 254 East Eighth street, complaining that the hotel was not conducted in the proper manner morally.

The case was brought up before Circuit Court Commissioner Jarrett N. Clark of Zeeland and a request for padlocking the place was made.

Tannenbaum, who is 60 years old, was arraigned in circuit court last Saturday forenoon before Circuit Court Commissioner J. N. Clark in Zeeland on the criminal charge, when he retained Attorney Jay Den Herder and demanded an examination which is set for Friday morning at 9 o'clock after he had placed cash bonds in the sum of $1,750. Tannenbaum's wife has not been in Holland for some time, but is believed to be visiting relatives in California.

Prosecutor J. R. Dethmers also petitioned the court for an order for the sale of all furniture and fixtures in the building, proceeds from which is awarded, as provided by statute, to the state treasury. Incidentally Tannenbaum was restrained from removing any of the furniture and fixtures until the hearing on the permanent injunction has been held. The court orders were signed by Circuit Judge Fred T. Miles.

It is said that Chief Lievens has obtained several affidavits which no doubt will play an important part at the hearing.

Holland Will Be Stopover for Hen Tourists

POULTRY PARTY WILL START THIS WAY FROM LANSING
SEPTEMBER 21

The fifth annual Michigan poultry party will start from Michigan State College September 21; travel west through Grand Rapids; turn southwest into Holland, Zeeland and Hamilton; and on September 22 will go through Bangor and Flowing, and conclude with an inspection of the projects at the W. K. Kellogg experimental farm near Augusta.

All types of modern housing and hatching equipment are located on the farms and at the hatcheries around Holland and Zeeland which will be stopping points on the trip. Some of the hatcheries have capacities which run into the hundreds of thousands and this is especially true in lower Ottawa county.

At Hamilton, the travelers will see a co-operative association which specializes in selling graded eggs on the New York market. The company has recently built a storage plant and has facilities for processing eggs to meet the demands of an exacting market. The Hamilton Farm-Bureau ships to the eastern market three cars of eggs weekly and recently dedicated a $10,000 "Egg Exchange."

Farms which specialize in producing high class breeding stock and those which place their emphasis on quantity egg production are on the route. One farm to be visited raises turkeys with the incubator and brooder method.

The Kellogg farm has a great deal of interesting experimental work with poultry; and, in addition, on the same property, there is a wild life sanctuary where all types of wild fowl attract thousands of visitors each year.

Visitors are invited to start with the group from East Lansing or join the tour at any point along the route. The overnight stop will be at Holland with Warm Spring Tavern headquarters.

YOUNG CANOEIST BACK FROM CANADIAN WILDS

Detroit Free Press—Nevin Van Amroy, 14 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Van Amroy, of this city, has returned from a two-week canoe trip in Canada.

Accompanied by his brother, Floyd, of Chicago, he cruised at Ely, Minn., and from there paddled through the Superior National Forest to Ironwood Lake, crossing the border into the famous lake country known as Hunter's Island. This is virgin wilderness.

After leaving the border the two men went on until reaching through Crooked Lake, where they met a fishing party. From Ely they drove through the Upper Peninsula, and thence to Holland.

FENVILLE PEPPERMINT OIL CROP LOOKS FAIR

Peppermint oil is a fair crop in Allegan county, especially around Fennville, the center of the peppermint district. It is stated that prices are higher than in recent years. Buyers are paying around $1.50 a pound. Many growers already have sold their output. In 1931 growers received $24 a pound, the highest price ever paid.

Peppermint oil is quoted at less than $1 a pound. Allegan county has a large acreage but the crop is about 50 per cent of normal.

The Consuming of More or Less Watermelon

Zeeland Record:—From our experience we find that the California is a great eater of fruits and vegetables. This probably accounts for his lack of body heat, which he displays on the very slightest provocation by wearing an overcoat or other wrap, while going without and even shivering a coat was to us more comfortable. It, however, stands him in good stead in these warmer regions because you seldom find him sweating, and immediately he ceases the exertion that produces perspiration the acid atmosphere eliminates the discomfort. Whether the California realizes this we do not know, but he loves his hot climate, and a year of it is said to cure any flesh eater and make him a confirmed habitue.

He probably is a confirmed eater of fruits and vegetables for at least two reasons. The climate discourages the eating of much meat and the fruits and vegetables are very plentiful and very cheap. So cheap, in fact, that it is hard to understand how they can be grown at the price. Seven dozen large oranges for a quarter; large cucumbers 10 cents; the dozen green corn, 2 dozen for 15 cents; apricots 15 cents per bushel; three large watermelons for 25 cents; cantaloupes three for 10 cents, and so we might continue. The thought comes to us: Why shouldn't we eat more of this and why should we still pay 35 cents for a watermelon that can be grown for a nickel? All of us would eat more of them if we could afford to buy more. We are firmly convinced that watermelons, for instance, can be grown in quantities to make a profit at a nickel apiece, and the purchasing public would spend more money on watermelon at three for 10 cents than on one for the same price. The News might state that editor Van Kesterling has not returned from California and no doubt did full justice to the fruit raised there when it came to sampling.

Miss Kamps and Miss Schult are now conducting the school at Westland and "reading, written and rhythmic" are the order of the day for the pupils and teachers as well.

WAYLAND MAIL CARRIER VETERAN OF 40 YEARS

David A. Stuchdale, veteran mail messenger of Wayland, this week completes his 40th year in the service of Uncle Sam. He has been a life long resident of this vicinity, coming to Wayland from a farm just east of the village in 1902.

The mother missed the children when he was in the water. Mrs. Vickers rushed to the river bank and brought up the body. He was moving in the water, she said, and cried out when she got him in her arms. A rescuer was rushed by the Grand Haven police and the attention of a doctor received, but both failed to bring the little fellow to life. It is thought that he died from fright rather than from the actual contact with the water.

Donald Wayne Vickers, 11-month old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Vickers, Grand Haven, was drowned in the Grand river in about three feet of water. The child strayed away from the home nearby with a sister, Joyce, three years old.

Four Lion Babies Mothered By Dog

Detroit Free Press—Happy comes at Lakeside Farm, near here, are expected to be broken up soon with the weaning of four lion cubs, seven puppies and six kittens which were redistributed for nourishment when the mother of the cubs considered her maternal duties at an end after bringing the quartet into the world July 17.

The mother cat has held up well under the burden of providing nourishment not only for her own kittens, but the puppies which were placed in her care in order that the dog might be free to mother the new arrivals, according to A. M. Peterson, manager at the zoo of George F. Gutz. In order to ease the cat's load somewhat, one of the puppies was returned to its mother, leaving kittens and puppies to be nourished by the mother cat.

All of the new entrants into the world are flourishing, and after spending their early days in seclusion have been wheeled into the open so visitors may see just how a dog goes about rearing the cubs. And as for the mother cat, the time may come when these same puppies to which she is devoted will find great sport in chasing her.

As it is now, however, all is tranquility in the life of the animals. The cubs are convinced the dog makes a pretty good mother and the puppies have accepted the cat's "milk" as the last word in comfort, even though it is feline rather than canine.

A juvenile division, which has arisen as a result of the recent births, proves to be one of the pre-dominant attractions at the Lakeside Farm. Augmenting the exhibit are two young cubs and the famous R-R, a cub from the same litter which produced the quartet which was born in March.

Visitors to the Allegan County Park seldom miss an opportunity to stroll with the two small Indian boys, adopted by the caretakers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred O. Webb.

About two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Webb adopted two Indian boys, born March 6, 1929, in a Kalamazoo hospital. Their mother, Anna Pigeon, the daughter of well educated Pettawatimons living near of Bradley, and herself a high school graduate, died after their birth. Their father deserted the babies.

When the babies were 15 months old they were adopted by the Webbs, the grandparents of five small children. First named Al and Herbert, after two presidential candidates, the twins later were christened Ned and Noel, the former name interpreted to mean "big chief" in an Indian dialect, and the latter the word for Christmas.
