H. J. Heinz Co. Buys Vac-A-Tap For Storage

THE LOCAL COMPANY START-ED WITH SALTING HOUSE
IN 1897

Growth Has Been Gradual But Substantial Gain Is Boon To Farmers

It is rather good industrial news to relate that the H. J. Heinz Co. completed negotiations whereby the old Vac-A-Tap building on the north side of Lake Macatawa has been purchased by the company and it will be used largely for storage and as a distribution point for this area. The old gelatine factory has been known for many years as a strong building, substantially constructed, with 54,000 square feet of floor space. For some time after the German Gelatine Co. had discontinued business, the building was used by the Hokland-Maid washing machine, a local product, which was later renamed the Vac-A-Tap. The H. J. Heinz Co. plant in this city is the second largest of all its plants employing 200 employees the year "round—the one in Pittsburgh being the great central plant.

Soil in Ottawa and Allegan Counties many years ago was found well adapted to pickle raising and today the H. J. Heinz Co. has nearly fifteen hundred acres of pickles contracted for in this vicinity. Mr. J. A. Hoover, local manager, states that there are at least 4,000 acres more in Ottawa County adaptable to pickle raising. Nowhere is there better soil for that purpose and also the growing of tomatoes than in our own and northern Allegan County. Farmers can make more from pickles than from most other crops and seldom is there a crop failure. Despite the drought, the pickle crop has been an abundant one this year and many farmers have made $100 and more from a single acre. It would seem that a campaign of education might be held here inducing farmers to put a few acres to pickles as an auxiliary crop. At least 4,000 acres more of cash crop would mean a tremendous pay envelope extra in this vicinity, and remember too it would be added money coming into Holland from the outside.

It seems that it would be well for our civic organizations and our businessmen to put in a good word for pickles whenever this is possible for the H. J. Heinz Co. brings a diversified market to the tillers of the soil and this is of mutual benefit to this entire neighborhood. The main H. J. Heinz Co. plant in Holland has been rearranged to take care of a larger number of employees. Seven hundred fifty now are employed in this fall campaign which is an all-time peak.

The local Heinz plant is a clearing house for pickles from Michigan, Indiana and Illinois. James A. Hoover, manager of the plant, said that one producer with eight acres of pickles will net about $1,500 from his crop.

A campaign will be waged here next winter and in early spring to increase pickle acreage. A survey by the Holland Chamber of Commerce and pickle company representatives disclosed that many acres of untilled land near the city are suitable for growing pickles.

The sale of the Vac-A-Tap building to the Heinz Co. will result in the removal of the present occupants of the building, namely, the Carl E. Swift corporation, the Sanitary Poultry Equipment company, and the Holland Aniline Dye company. The latter has already begun the construction of an addition to the present plant for warehouse purposes and it is said that it will be a very substantial structure.

"There is still land that can be used, suitable for pickle growing in the Holland area," Mr. Connelly, of the Chamber of Commerce, pointed out in speaking of the recent survey. "Some of the more efficient growers are realizing from $100 to $150 an acre on their crops, and one grower had a cash return of more than $1,400 dollars on eight acres."

The Chamber of Commerce is urging the local business men and farmers to give more thought and encouragement to this growing enterprise as it means a huge amount of money expended in this community each year, Mr. Connelly contends.

The H. J. Heinz Co. had its inception late in 1896 and it was actually decided on February 13, 1897 that a large salting house would be built here. The Holland City News files of that date gives the following:

A PLOW THAT WILL THROW A SIX-FOOT FURROW

A fire-fighting plow that will turn a furrow six-feet wide in sandy soil is being developed at the state forest fire experiment station near Roscommon by Gilbert S. Stewart, forest fire technician of the department of conservation, who is in charge of the station.

The plow will be of extraordinarily heavy type and mounted on rubber-tired wheels for speedy transport on the highway and mobility in the woods.

It is expected to be more effective than the plows now generally in use by cutting through heavier roots and other similar obstructions. When drawn by a tractor the plow can be used to turn wide fire lines along the sides and around the "head" of forest fires.

ZEELAND ALDERMEN DO PLENTY OF BUSINESS AT MEETING

Members of the city council Tuesday evening decided to attend the Michigan Municipal league convention in Muskegon Sept. 16, 17 and 18.

The milk report submitted by the health officer brought out the fact, the local dairymen, with the exception of one, had to purchase milk from the local baby food manufacturing company in order to supply customers during the drought of August, because of the drought. The city will furnish the labor and sand, with the state highway department furnishing 40 barrels of cement and the necessary gravel, to construct an intersection on M21 at Church St.

The city purchased the railroad site of the Dutch Woodcraft Furniture factory for $15,000 in settlement for delinquent taxes.

Preliminary work on the PWA street lighting project is virtually finished. It is expected the work will be completed in 30 days.

AMERICAN LEGION

NEWS

The Post is off to a flying start on its fall program. First—the installation of the new officers will take place next Wednesday evening, Sept. 16th, at the Holland Country Club. Vice Commander Emil Ganser of Grand Rapids will act as installing officer and a program is being arranged by the Posts of Holland and Zeeland. Refreshments will be served by the Country Club at popular prices.

Here is something for you to mark down—Commander-elect Van Tongeren is offering a prize for memberships turned in by next Wednesday. The ten men who bring in the most members will be given a fishing trip on Lake Michigan, expense-free. This trip will be in Rear Admiral Vander Schel's boat with the lunch and bait ready for you.

The next regular meeting of the Post will probably be held in the new quarters, second floor of the Holland City State Bank Building. At the meeting last night, September 9th, the boys were seated on chairs, saw horses, and were draped over sewing machines etc. The W. P. A. sewing group had taken possession of our room and it looked worse than house-cleaning week. All this not being comfortable and conducive to a decorous meeting, the action to get out was taken.

The members who helped at the Canteen at Dunningville during the Army Maneuvers turned in a neat profit for their work. Those boys are entitled to a lot of thanks and praise, that work in the heat and dust of the Oak Grubs was monotonous.

The regulation shirts are becoming quite the dress at the meetings now. When you turn in your dues this next week, turn in the price of a shirt with them. Give your size and show up at the next meeting looking like a million dollars.

And don't let the family make any appointments for you, next Wednesday, the 16th, that's your night, and let's make it our night and morning too. We are growing older, but not that old.

Also, let's get our dues in early this year.

Primaries Next Tuesday Very Important

REPUBLICANS HAVE 27
COUNTY CANDIDATES CON-
TENDING FOR OFFICE

Change In Supervisors and Sunday
Closing Question Will Be on Separate Ballots

The statewide primary election will be a very important one next week Tuesday and the polls in Holland will be open from 7 A. M. until 6 P. M. The Republicans will vote from Governor, United States Senator, congressman, legislature and county ticket down.

In Ottawa County the Republicans have been most active in behalf of their county ticket, since there are seven candidates for sheriff, namely, Frank Van Etta, William M. Boeve, Marvin F. Den Herder, Peter A. Lievens, Benjamin H. Rosema, Edward Rycenga and Jack Spangler.

Judge of Probate:—Cora Vande Water, Ed Soule.

Prosecuting Attorney:—John R. Dethmers, Raymond L. Smith.

County Treasurer:—John H. Meyer, Joseph Swartz, John H. Den Herder, Karl Feenstra.

Register of Deeds:—Frank Bottie, Rufus R. Cramer, Benjamin C. Van Loo.

Circuit Court Commissioner:—J. Thomas Mahan, Jarrett N. Clark, Daniel F. Pagelsen.

For State Senate on the Republican ticket there are three candidates, namely, Ed Brouwer from Holland, present legislator and Edward J. Lorenz of Muskegon Heights and H. Bruce March of Muskegon.

Of these different county candidates, eleven live in Holland and the rest are scattered throughout the county. Zeeland, Hudsonville, Grand Haven and Olive and Park Townships. These Republican county candidates are having a friendly battle among themselves to see who among this large number of candidates will be in the lead, winning a place on the Republican ticket for the November election.

The Democratic county candidates are more fortunate, at least in the primaries. There is no Democratic county ticket on the Democratic ballot, since there was only one candidate for each office and in that case there was no one else to vote for, and under the law where there is only one candidate for an office, the name of that candidate does not appear on the ballot. However, these twenty-seven Republican names will appear on the Republican ballot and they will have to be voted for.

There is a misconception among some voters that they can vote more than one ballot. The fact is that if they wish to vote the Republican ticket, they must ask for a Republican ballot and will be given that ballot and no other, by the same token, if they ask for a Democratic ballot, they will be given that and no other. The voter cannot vote two ballots but only one which he asks for, whether that be Republican, Democratic, or any other tickets for which there are nominations. The twenty-seven candidates on the Republican ticket will have to depend on the Republicans who ask for that ballot for their votes. Voting otherwise eliminates them. For the same reason, this holds true of the Democrats. The Democratic ballot has two Holland candidates altogether, one for congress and one for the State Senate. Earnest C. Brooks is the Democratic candidate for the State Senate and Garrett Hevne for Congress.

Holland is the only city in the county where there is also a special election in connection with the regular primaries. It has been felt by some that the city would be better represented if the Mayor and City Attorney should also be represented on our Board of Supervisors. If the majority of the voters vote "yes" on this change of the charter, then Mayor Geerlings and City Attorney Elbert Parsons would represent Holland at Grand Haven on the Board of Supervisors, together with the City Assessor and the remaining supervisors. It is contended by many that the Mayor and City Attorney, who are in close touch with city affairs will have better knowledge of the city's needs than would otherwise be the case. Many city matters come up before the Board of Supervisors and it is considered that the Mayor and City Attorney, whoever they may be now or later, would be more conversant in such matters. Many feel that a Mayor or a City Attorney as a rule is a strong spokesman on the floor of the Board of Supervisors, anyway, just what is involved and what you are to vote for is fully explained in the official notice, together with a ballot found on page 3, section 2 of this (Continued on Page 4)

TWO HOLLAND BOYS IN CHINA RETURNING

Ray Boot and Charles "Chuck" Bertsch, the first a son of missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boot and Mr. Bertsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bertsch of US31, Park road, are here seen riding in rickshaws in China. The boys are now on their way home after visiting in the Philippines for a short stay. It is expected they will be in Holland within a fortnight. The Holland boys on land, hitch hiked most of the way and on water, worked their way across.

Stanley Lievens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lievens, 64 West 17th St. arrived here Monday evening to spend a 12-day furlough here. Stanley is training at the Naval Training station at Newport, R.I. After his return from his furlough he expects to go on a cruise to Europe.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Thomas Edison, the father of the young inventor, lives at Huronia Beach and is remarkably well preserved for a man of 82 years. He has six children, three by his first and three by his second wife, and the youngest child of this aged man is three years. Note: The writer remembers when the Edison talking machine first was exhibited to an audience at Lyceum opera house on Main St. (East 8th St.). Holland folks could scarcely believe their ears when they heard a machine talk. This was a large and rather crude device.

Squirrel shooting at Macatawa Park is now all the rage. Local sportsmen came home with many long-tailed tree climbers. Note: This may seem rather strange today, but 50 years ago there were very few cottages at the harbor, more camp tents, and the hills and ravines were practically uninhabited, with the exception, of course, of wild life—there was plenty of that.

Mr. "Jap" Van Putten, the private banker, was 66 years old and his children presented him with a fine gold headed cane.

The census of our public schools, taken by Jeremiah Kruidenier, show the following result: 1st ward, 326; 2nd ward, 181; 3rd ward, 485; 4th ward, 211; total, 1,203—a gain of 89 students. Note: Mr. Kruidenier later became a missionary in Egypt and died some years ago in Cairo. Today the school census are approximately 4,000, according to Supt., Mr. E. E. Fell.

According to all reports a duel between two young men of this city has been arranged for tonight at midnight, near the graveyard. The weapons are to be revolvers and they are to shoot until the "dark angel" overtakes one of them. A young female of Holland township, said to be a beauty, is the supposed cause. It will be well for the town marshal to be near. Note: The duel must have been a "duel" for no further mention is made in the files of anyone being shot in the cemetery, much less in his anatomy. Your writer believes that he remembers who this black-eyed beauty was.

A mad dog, foaming at the mouth, undoubtedly afflicted with rabies, was shot by employees of the Butter Tub factory of J. Van Pulen and Co. on 1st St.

James Purdy, custodian of the grounds at Ottawa Beach, found a well corked bottle on the beach containing a postal card addressed to the Department of Public Works, Chicago. There were many such bottles placed in Lake Michigan from Chicago in order to ascertain the movement of the water and in what direction mainly. Several of these bottles were picked up near Saugatuck. Whether this would demonstrate that there is a current in "Big Lake" flowing toward the eastern shore, or that the prevailing winds are southwest, is what Chicago wants to find out. They are giving one dollar for every postcard returned.

The marriage of Miss Alice Edith Raap, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Albert Raap, 307 College Ave., and Dr. Matthew Jay Filipe of Cincinnati, Ohio, took place. Rev. John Van Pusem of Kalamazoo, officiating. Miss Angie Luidens and Miss Esther Mulder were bridesmaids. Judging from the article it was an elaborate social function.

Four Holland men all bought the most expensive automobiles yet purchased here. They are John Telling, August Houwer and John Whelan, all of the Holland Shale Co., and A. H. Landwehr of the Holland Furnace Co. Each of these men purchased a Lincoln car, said to cost $7,000 each.

Two Holland men pulled down cash gold prizes at the Barn Dance at the Saugatuck Pavilion given out by Manager Weed after the judges had selected the person dressed in the most unusual costume. G. F. Wood received $10.00 in gold and Harry F. Morris received $7.00—$5.00 of it was in gold. There were eleven other prize winners.

By the terms of her will filed by Mrs. Mary Hemkes, formerly of Holland, now of Grand Rapids, she bequeaths $15,000 to the Holland churches in Grand Rapids and elsewhere (where the language is still spoken in services). After giving $1,000 each of the church schools, she gives $5,000 to the Jewish Mission of Cleveland, which her nephew, Rev. J. R. Brinks, conducts. The 30 heirs will receive but $100 each. Mrs. Hemkes was the wife of the late Dr. Wm. Van Putten of this city. Note: Dr. Van Putten conducted a doctor's office and a drug store in the building now owned by the Banner Bakery on River Ave. He was a Civil War veteran and a physician of the old school. He was a lover of horses and had his racing stables and training lot on West Eighth St. where the Holland Printing Co. and the Sentinel Building is now located. He reared a large string of horses including the celebrated Montigue Boy and Turk. He was

China "Hitch- Hikers" Write To Local Folks

ONE WANTS TO SEE A MILITARY EXECUTION OF WHICH THERE ARE MANY IN CHINA

"Chuck" Bertsch son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bertsch, US-31, Park road and Ray Boot son of missionary Harry Boot, China, two students at Hope college left Holland the end of April to "Hitch Hike" to the Pacific coast and to work their way aboard ship to China, the destination being the home of Mr. Boots' parents. Well, the young men reached the Orient sometime ago and in fact are about to return the same way as they came. An interesting letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. Bertsch from their son dated July 29. The missive states in part as follows:

Changchow, Fukien, China
July 29, 1936

Dear Folks,
It looks as if I am going to be up here inland for about a week, so I think I better get my weekly letter off now, lest it miss the only mail from down at Amoy.

Monday Rev. Veenschoten came down to Kulangsang to get some dental work done, and while he was there he proposed that Ray and I should accompany him on an expedition to Toa Bo next Thursday to Saturday. Toa Bo (Big Hat) is a mountain to which the foreigners used to go in the summer to escape the heat. For the last six years, however, no one has dared go up there because of the bandits.

Almost every missionary family has a cottage there on this mountain and they are all very eager to know how badly their property has been damaged. Mr. Veenschoten was up there, just over night, three years ago, and got back safely to report the houses pretty badly run down. So the proposed expedition to reconnoiter the mountain sounded like a good adventure to us. However, Ray Boot has had a sore throat that has hung on for several weeks, and the sweaty hike up the mountain, followed by the very cold night, would probably make him worse. It was decided that Ray couldn't go, but that it would be all right if I came up here with Mr. Veenschoten and went on the scouting trip. All the arrangements for the Toa Bo trip depended on the answer to a letter that Mr. Veenschoten had written to a Chinese elder, asking him if we would be safe if we stayed only two nights.

It is taken for granted that no one could stay out there for any length of time—the bandits would gather and attack. But we were very much disappointed to receive word last night, after we had arrived here, that the bandits are actually right here all the time, and that they kill people right along. So it seems that little Charlie is not going forth unto the land of the bandits on the morrow.

We took a river boat right after lunch yesterday, and then got a crowded bus, which broke down when we were right in the middle of nowhere. The country looks perfectly innocent—nothing but small rice fields, raised on different levels so that the water flows from one to another, on both sides—but no one considers the road safe after six at night, and the bandits blow up so many bridges to pass buses right in the day time that you always have to pass through several en route. So we were a little apprehensive while we waited for the news to filter back that we needed help. Nothing came along, though, except three other buses, from which panicky passengers leaped. Each bus carries a soldier with a rifle or automatic. As the buses passed us, each guard was very much on the quiver, expecting that our bus, which nearly blocked the narrow road, was some kind of trap. After an hour and ten minutes an empty bus pulled up, and we left the broken-down one standing there.

Last Monday was just four weeks from the day we expect to leave Amoy, and the previous Saturday was four weeks from the day we arrived, so our stay in this vicinity is just over half gone.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Brinkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Brinkman of Holland, to Alfred L. Hatch took place. Rev. James Morten of Third Reformed Church officiating. Mrs. Jeanette Knooihuizen, sister, was maid of honor, and Mr. Raymond Knooihuizen was best man.

Miss Evelyn Grace, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. J. De Vries, East 12th St., was wed to Rev. Henry Overkamp Hoppers, Dr. Henry Hoppers, the father, officiating. The news devotes at least a half column to the features of this marriage.

The marriage of Miss Alice Edith Raap, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Albert Raap, 307 College Ave., and Dr. Matthew Jay Filipe of Cincinnati, Ohio, took place. Rev. John Van Pusem of Kalamazoo, officiating. Miss Angie Luidens and Miss Esther Mulder were bridesmaids. Judging from the article it was an elaborate social function.

The engagement of Miss Nellie M. Pelgrim to Mr. Marvin Charles Lindemann was announced at a social gathering at the Pelgrim home on West 12th St. The announcement was tucked away in favors which the mother of Miss Pelgrim brought in a decorated basket rather unexpectedly while the guests were at the card tables playing 500. The announcements were indeed unique, with vanity bags attached to dainty cupid cards.

PICKING FRUITS EARLY SAVES CROPS

Picking the so-called soft fruit such as the tomato, peach, grape, or strawberry while they are still rather green may be necessary in areas of Michigan affected by the Alabama moth, says Ray Hutson, Michigan State College entomologist. This moth is the only one in this section capable of piercing the skin of soft, ripe fruits. This is done by means of spines on its mouthparts. The insect then feeds upon the juices which exude and upon the soft tissue just beneath the skin. The result is water-soaked areas, which serve as entrees for fungi. Picking the fruit before it ripens fully is the only means of preventing injury.

HOLDING SCHOOLS OF INSTRUCTION FOR VOTERS HAS BEEN VERY COMMENDABLE

Tonight, Thursday, a school of instruction is being held for prospective citizens who expect to be naturalized. A meeting was called by representative, Ed Brouwer who for the past year has been conducting these schools of instruction practically every month with the assistance of County Clerk, William Wilds. This school this evening is preparatory to the examination to be held on Monday, September 14, in the court house at Grand Haven. The group from Holland is the largest ever to appear for naturalization and this has been directly the result of the citizenship schools which Mr. Brouwer started in this vicinity last January. Thus far, there have been two schools of instruction each month and it has taken considerable time in devotion to duty on the part of Mr. Brouwer to make the road easier for those who wish to become naturalized citizens, thus far, more than eighty of these first prospective citizens received their instructions through these school sessions.

County Clerk, William Wilds, is also at this meeting tonight. These sessions were held to save those people the expense of a trip to Grand Haven on Friday evening where the same sort of education and instruction will be given. Naturally, anyone interested in citizenship is always welcome to attend these meetings in the evening in the court room in the new Police Headquarters building on W. 8th Street.

Proper instruction in real citizenship is very essential; loyalty to country and flag and to the constitution are the fundamentals of good citizenship and these are the lessons inculcated by Mr. Brouwer and Mr. Wilds.

The musical Veenschoten family, who sing and play on a baby grand, who sing prayers each day at meals, have a dog—Chow—who makes a musical, kettle drum sound when you slap his side.

This family, and many another, date all matter pertaining to worldly goods, as "Before the Red," and "After," referring to the Communist invasion of about three years ago, even as we say "Before the Fire." They lost bikes, screens, coolies—everything except a little loose change that they grabbed on the way through the front door. They had an excellent library, including a wealth of music and music books, which same old folks the good neighbors used for firewood.

Two weeks ago, when soldiers roughly entered this house, Mrs. Veenschoten, who is just so many pounds of the best musician and disposition I've known, rushed into the room, waved her arms, screamed, scolded boldly in three languages and two dialects. They fled.

Chin-Tek (Progressing in Knowledge) is the world's ugliest servant, whom the Veenschotens have fired every week since time immemorial. Fired, he repents, screams, promises to shoot off firecrackers before the house, if forgiven. Night before last he decided to have the evening off, locked the cook and washwoman in their room to keep them from stealing his things. Girard found out his escape, released the prisoners, locked Chin-Tek's door and that of the compound. Result: "Beautiful" had to scale the wall; he talked half the night explaining it all.

One of the Chinese government's methods of dealing with bandits is to give them uniforms and regiment numbers, whereupon they are soldiers. Soldiers here have a craving for power.

Left Accident Scene, Verdict of Twelve Men

HOLLAND MAN'S CASE
TRIED FOLLOWING DIS-
AGREEMENT IN 1ST TRIAL

Dan Sassalos, Holland was found guilty of leaving the scene of an accident by the jury in circuit court Tuesday afternoon. The case was retried following a disagreement of the jury at the first trial held in the May term of circuit court.

Judge Fred T. Miles sentenced the respondent immediately following the jury's verdict with a fine of $100 and costs of $50. The amount was paid and Sassalos was discharged from further obligation to the court.

Sassalos was charged with colliding with a car driven by William Prelesnik of Agnew on US-31 early in the year. In the Prelesnik car was Erhardt Groth of Agnew who was seriously injured. Sassalos failed to stop and give assistance, claiming to the court that he did not believe he had hit the oncoming car. He claimed not to have known of the accident until he notified the police officers. The officers in the meantime had found his car damaged slightly in a garage at Holland. Dan Sassalos bears a fine reputation in Holland. He is a law abiding citizen and a rather serious minded man.

Other cases to come up in circuit court were those of Jacob Zeeman, 21, of Grand Haven, arraigned in court, charged with felonious assault on George Southfield also of Grand Haven, pleaded guilty. The assault took place several days ago on the Pere Marquette tracks near Fifth street. Zeeman was held by the local police a short time following the complaint of Southfield.

Bennie Wierks, Grand Rapids, pleaded not guilty to a charge of larceny of some clothes from the Grand Rapids Beer Tavern located in Tallmadge township. His case was set for Thursday, Sept. 17.

Richard Dekker, 17, of Grand Haven, pleaded guilty to entering without breaking and securing $17 from a tent belonging to John Hazewinkel at Grand Haven State Park.

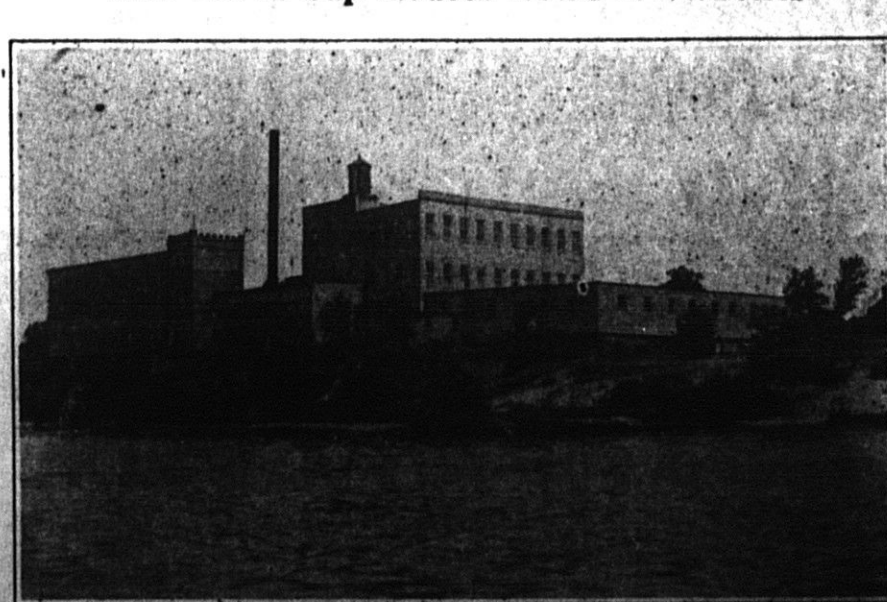

Holland hasn't had a State Senator for some time. Holland has two candidates for Senator. One is Representative Brouwer, who seeks promotion as a Senator from Ottawa and Muskegon Counties. Mr. Brouwer is running on the Republican ticket. The second candidate is Earnest C. Brooks, former Mayor, who will try conclusions with other Democratic candidates on his party ticket. It is some time since Holland can boast of a Senator. The last one was Joe B. Hodden, who won as a Bull Mooseer when Teddy Roosevelt broke away from the party for a short time and thereby defeated a very fine man, namely William Howard Taft, who later became Judge of the Supreme Court. Another Senator who could be called as coming from Holland was the late Luke Lugers, who later lived in Park Township. It will be remembered that since that time Holland Township was divided and the west half was called Park Township.

Miss Sarah Lacey, who graduated from the Ann Arbor School of Music two years ago and has taken a post graduate course at the summer school in Michigan for the past eight weeks, has just returned to open her studios in the Knoll building. In her summer course her examinations were all class A, so marked by the eminent artists under whom she was studying during the summer season.

Mrs. W. Curtis Snow and Mrs. D. B. K. Van Raalte of Holland were guest artists at the Woman's club at Saugatuck. The program was given to augment the piano fund. Miss Gertrude Kramer, who has been doing concert work in New York, also contributed several piano numbers. Miss Kramer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kramer of West 12th St. Holland. Mrs. Viola Partridge of Saugatuck was the reader and Mrs. Greason of the Greason Art school of Detroit was also on the program.

A Basis for Judgment

At this stage of the campaign almost anything said or done by a Presidential nominee is bound to have a political significance. It cannot be otherwise. The public weighs everything as evidence of general fitness or unfitness for office and examines the party candidates from almost every conceivable viewpoint.

However, there is nothing political in the intent or tone of the plea sent by Gov. Alf M. Landon to the Western railroads asking them to arrange for joint emergency freight rates in Kansas drought areas so that "confusion and gross discrimination" among farmers may be ended.

The statement Gov. Landon has sent to the roads is a clear, practical statement of a situation and of a way to remedy it.

It contains a straightforward appeal to humanity, reason, good sense and enlightened self-interest.

The message shows that the Governor knows his subject and has an understanding of the way in which it can be handled. And if the roads are as wise as we think they are, they will listen to him with attention.

Gov. Landon's telegram naturally interests most immediately the farmers of Kansas and other Western drought areas, but it will be read with attention by the people of the United States generally.

HOFFMAN MAKES RECORD AS CONGRESSMAN

Congressman Clare E. Hoffman of Allegan County will ask for a second term as Congressman from the fourth district on the Republican ticket.

Mr. Hoffman's petitions before these were filed were very liberally signed everywhere and while Ottawa County is not included in his district, his influence in behalf of this county was strongly felt, especially when it asked for help at Washington for an equitable acreage for its sugar beet farmers and the farmers in this vicinity.

For a first term, Mr. Hoffman made remarkable strides in Washington. Few Congressmen are heard from during their initial term, however, Clare has already become a nationally known figure at the national capital and Allegan City and county have just reason to feel proud. Surely good publicity for this locality.

Mr. Hoffman is not a "fadist" and is not quickly carried away with every new theory that seems popular but more often is filled with "dynamite." Congressman Hoffman is a safe and sensible executive who uses as his guide the rule of workable common sense.

Mr. Hoffman recently stated, "My campaign has been made this year, as two years ago, as a Republican. The Republican party today is the only party which can make effective government of, by and for the people. Patriotic Americans alike, have no choice but to oppose new deal candidates who are neither true Democrats or Republicans."

HAMILTON

The Labor Day celebration Monday was attended by the largest crowd ever gathered in this village. Every available space for parking was used and in the evening later some were compelled to park near M40. The grove proved too small for the crowd estimated at more than 5,000. The weather proved to be ideal and the 300,000 tickets for prizes brought visitors from far and near.

The celebration started auspiciously in the morning when the local Independents defeated the Burnips team in a well-played 4 to 2 game. The Burnips team was the hardest team to beat this season, and again they fought and were dangerous until the last man was out. Both teams were strong on defense, neither side scoring until the fifth when the locals went into the lead with three runs. In the seventh Burnips put on a rally to score twice and the locals prevented a tie by cutting off a run at the plate. Hamilton, however, pushed another run home to ease the tension to end the scoring for the day. Lugten, local hurler, held the visitors to two hits until the seventh and six hits for the game, while his teammates hammered Boorman of Burnips for thirteen, five of which were bunched in the fifth frame.

The afternoon program was opened with a prayer hymn led by Rev. Isaac Scherpenisse and instrumental music by the Accordion Queens. Several vocal selections were rendered by a male quartet, the Sage Riders, Radio broadcasters from station WOOD of Grand Rapids. Hon. James F. Thompson, state commissioner of Agriculture, was the main speaker and was introduced by Senator Clare Hoffman of Washington. His address emphasized the problems and the plans of the department. All the candidates present were introduced to the crowd by chairman George Schutmaat. Among them was Hamilton's representative, Bert Voss, who is making a strong bid for sheriff and who received hearty applause from the large crowd. A program of contests and sports closed the afternoon program.

The evening program consisted of musical numbers by the Accordion Queens and by the Sage Riders male quartet and a show of magical and sleight-of-hand tricks by King El Dorado.

The stands were kept very busy throughout the day so that several rush orders were sent to Holland and Grand Rapids for the evening supplies.

What Two Editors Think of Hoffman

(Allegan News)

The following editorial was written by Dick Cook of The Hastings Banner last June while Clare E. Hoffman was picking the bugs out of the Townsend plan. It shows what a capable editor of a neighboring county seat weekly thinks of the Congressman from Allegan: "If Representative Clare E. Hoffman were an ordinary 'party hack' politician, he would not be conducting an investigation of Townsend club activities. The average congressman believes—in private, if not in public—that the plan can never work. Yet to say so means risking the loss of thousands of votes from the Townsend converts; on the other hand to champion the cause means the risk of alienating the conservative and liberal vote. So most congressmen are content to do nothing, to sit quietly astraddle the fence hoping that something will develop to show them which way to jump."

"But Representative Hoffman can never be a successful straddler. He is an outspoken, independent-minded fighter whom you can always count on locating up near the front line where the action is heaviest. If the people of the Fourth District want a representative to be a friendly 'hale fellow well met,' to tell them things they like to hear, to promise all manner of beautiful things, then Mr. Hoffman is not their man. If, however, they want a representative to carry on a fight for economy and against the boondoggling type of legislation we have been getting at Washington these past few years, then one would probably have to scour the district well to find a better man."

"Mr. Hoffman says that his lack of sympathy for the Townsend movement is 'due not only to the fact that I honestly believe that it can not be made to work, but also to the fact that it is being used as a scheme to gather in votes, as well as money, by making false promises to the aged, the needy and the deserving. I am in favor of pensions. I have endeavored all my life to be charitable, but I will not be a party to a plan which is unsound and of the ultimate success of which there is no hope. The Townsend plan might well be called a plan to tax the food, clothing and everything that the working man uses, for the benefit of a few and to enrich its promoters and those who are organizing the various clubs."

"Mr. Hoffman is familiar with the taste of poverty and hardship. As a youth he earned his meals by waiting tables and washing dishes in a boarding house. He has put in six full working days a week in a furniture factory for $3.00 per week. When his total income amounted to six dollars a week he was married and by careful management he and his wife lived within this income.

"I'll vote for a proper old age pension," Mr. Hoffman says, "but I will not vote to take a part of the wages of any fourth district worker to give away to some other person, regardless of need at the rate of $300 per month."

ALLEGAN YOUTH ROBBED ON HIGHWAY

Allegan county authorities searched today for two men and a woman who beat Harry Sisson, 23, of Allegan and robbed him of $38 and left him lying on M-59 between this city and Otsego after he had stopped to assist them in starting their apparently stalled automobile.

Sisson said the car, a sedan, was standing along the road half way between Allegan and Otsego and that one of the occupants hailed him and asked to borrow his jack. As Sisson approached the car with the jack he was struck on the head and knocked down.

Charles Frost of Allegan, who drove by a few minutes later, found Sisson lying in the road. The youth was not seriously injured but was unable to give officers a detailed description of his assailant.

WORLD WAR VETERAN
FAVORS CONGRESSMAN
HOFFMAN'S RELECTION

Three Rivers, Michigan
September 3, 1936

Editor,
Three Rivers Commercial
City
Dear Sir:

I hope that every voter in this district will support Congressman Clare E. Hoffman for reelection, as he is competent, humane and considerate.

He introduced a bill in Congress to repay me for surgical and hospital bills which I paid personally in order to obtain relief from a direct war-connected injury which I received in France.

This bill was passed unanimously by both the House and the Senate. It was sent to the President and he vetoed it, although he had billions of dollars given to him to spend and he has spent billions of dollars in promoting the various New Deal alphabetical branches and experiments and all sorts of boondoggling projects.

It is just too bad that a Veteran's just claim should be denied in order that some politician might be given the taxpayers' money.

I hope that the Congressman will be reelected and that he will continue to serve the people in the future as he has in the past. Certainly every Veteran should support him.

Lorraine Knoll of Holland spent a few days at the home of her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. James Knoll.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Banks from Croton spent the week-end at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Banks.

Bert Van Der Zwaag who has been seriously ill for some time, passed away Sunday afternoon at his home here. Mr. Van Der Zwaag was 52 years. He is survived by the widow, a son, Harold, and a daughter, Harriet, all at home. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, at the home at 1:30 and at 2:00 o'clock at the South Olive church. Rev. P. D. Van Vleet officiating. Burial will be at North Holland cemetery.

Relatives here received word of the sudden death of Mrs. Robert Galven at her home in Alpine township near Grand Rapids. Mrs. Galven before her marriage was Miss Lena Veldheer who was born and spent her girlhood days here.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, two sisters and one brother.

The news has a correction to make in this item. Last week was printed that the Knoll reunion was held Sunday. It should have read that it was held Saturday.

Those starting school at North Holland for the 9th grade Tuesday morning were, Jessie Poll, the 10th grade, Jack Nieboer, Jr., and Lawrence Bakker. Justin Poll started the 11th grade at Holland High.

Friends from Chicago spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Zimonic.

Jack Nieboer is busy these days painting his house.

Jack Nieboer, Jr., who has been working in Vriesland during the summer months, returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nieboer, Saturday evening.

James Bartels from Muskegon who has spent a couple months by his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bartels, returned to his home recently.

School Bells will again ring in this vicinity next Monday, September 14. Mrs. Gary De Witt will be substitute teacher, as Mr. John Maat is still confined to his home with illness but is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert De Jongh and family from Lansing called on their father, Jacob De Jongh Saturday.

Mrs. Harm Looman who was on the sick list is nicely improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nieboer and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Knoll at Holland Sunday evening.

RUTH BRYAN OWEN RHODE SPEAKS TO LARGE AUDIENCE

Rather an unusual political convocation was held in Holland when Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen Rhode, daughter of the late William Jennings Bryan, spoke at the Holland Armory to an audience that nearly filled this large auditorium. The affair was semi-political, semi-social and in part non-partisan, she being a fine woman of culture and a celebrity, since she has been Senator and has just resigned as Minister to Denmark, where she also found a new husband. Mrs. Rhode, as well as her husband, are interesting people to meet and besides, the daughter of the great commoner has inherited the talent of her illustrious father on the speaking platform.

William Jennings Bryan won his nomination for the presidency on the Democratic ticket, when he swayed an entire convention with his "Cross of Gold and Crown of Thorns" speech. The writer was privileged to hear that speech through the kind courtesy of the late George E. Hummer, a nationally known Democrat, who kindly allowed a member of the other party to enter the hall, the otherwise closely guarded Democratic doors at the Chicago auditorium.

The social feature was when Mrs. Arthur Vanden Berg, wife of the Republican Senator had Mr. and Mrs. Rhode of Denmark for dinner at her summer home at Lakewood Farm. This was a non-partisan affair, the Vanden Bergs and the Bryan Owens being intimate friends socially at the National Capitol. Not a few women on the reception committee who were Republicans, co-operated with the Democratic women of the city to honor this illustrious couple as guests of the City of Holland.

Her party came in a trailer in which they traveled all over Europe and have traveled twice across the United States since their arrival. Both are pleasing conversationalists and they spoke a great deal of their travels and they expect to return to Denmark after the November election.

The audience in the Armory was rather mixed politically, men and women of all parties being present. The eminent speaker was introduced by Mrs. Thomas McAllister, President of the Women's Democratic Club of Grand Rapids. Mrs. Rhode graciously acknowledged the introduction and stated that Holland is a beautiful city and it gave her a great deal of pleasure to meet the people who live in such an enterprising and well-cared for community. In launching her discourse, all non-partisanship was dispensed, when she gave a Democratic discourse which could not be mistaken. It was in part as follows: "There has been considerable attack from the opposition relative to extravagance, expenditure and the piling up of national debts. While the expenditures have been great, these debts have been made to feed the hungry and to temporarily put to work idle men and women. If we found ourselves willing to assume a tremendous debt of $25,000,000,000 to fight a man-made war, it is not too much to spend $10,000,000,000 now to care for the needy. History relates that in other nations little notice was given to the condition of the starving. In contrast, President Roosevelt proclaimed in his inaugural address that America as a nation cannot and will not allow its people to starve. The P. W. A., the C.C.C. and other agencies of relief have been proclaimed by the opposition as avenues of waste and I challenge that by so doing we have poured sums of money through these avenues as a measure of relief and by the same token we have restored the nation to a state of prosperity; furthermore, beside providing for present needs the administration has also given thought to the future in its Social Security program of unemployment insurance, old age insurance and widows' pension. The C.C.C. program has been a very worthy undertaking; at least three million have been

Why Experiment?

Two years ago, after a vigorous campaign during which I wrote and spoke repeatedly throughout the district for economy in government and in opposition to the New Deal policies, you elected me by a majority of 13,000 and naturally I assumed that you desired that the promises made during the campaign be kept, and this was done.

So far, no particular fault has been found nor criticism offered except by that group which was displeased because I could not disregard my promise to you, accept the orders of Dr. Townsend, and agree to vote for a two per cent transaction tax which in effect, meant a sales tax of from ten to thirty per cent imposed upon all the necessities of life, thus increasing your cost in living.

Advantage is being taken of this dissatisfaction. Although Governor Brucker, Senator Couzens, and the Democratic candidates for United States Senator are opposed to this plan, no organized criticism is made of any, but I am now being opposed by a candidate who promises a $200 per month pension, a promise which he should know can never be fulfilled. He is using this organization for his own political advancement. Do you want a rubber stamp Congressman and a rubber stamp in the control of a man who does not even live in the state?

Another candidate, who is the present head of the House of David, a pleasant gentleman, a former California county judge, and a man of business experience, has entered the field, and the thought which I wish to convey to you is this:

You have a representative who has kept the faith. I am sure that you will concede that I have been conscientious, that I have been industrious, and no one doubts my sincerity or frankness. So, if you believe in economy in government, in a return to Congress on election day, but from now until the primary on September 15 and then on to November 3.

The New Deal has given you experiments. Result — an overwhelming debt and a disregard of your rights. You need not experiment. You know what I represent and what I will do. The present is no time for you to experiment when selecting a representative. Let me at the primary have a vote which will encourage our party workers and make the November task easier. From now until primary day take the message to your friends and acquaintances, for upon you depends the result.

Sincerely,
CLARE E. HOFFMAN,

Republican Candidate for Congress

gathered to the C.C.C. camps and have been working on conservation projects and to safeguard the resources of the nation for which they are paid and for which a part is sent to the needy families at home. The administration has been endeavoring to do something for the farmers and I wish to reiterate my belief, as did my late father, that a prosperous agriculture is the soundest basis upon which a nation can be grounded."

The speaker then launched into quotations of farm products and prices paralleling these to prices when the depression first began. She spoke on the tariff and the Democratic platform generally. It was a very interesting discourse and lacked the usual darts generally thrown at the opposition and that sarcasm and caustic remarks that spellbinders generally dish out.

The daughter of the great commoner was indeed eloquent and her discourse was clothed with dignity and was pleasing to hear by the audience regardless of political affiliations. The committee in charge was chairman, Mrs. Joseph C. Rhea, and co-chairman Mrs. J. Good, Mrs. Adrian L. Van Putten, Mrs. J. Frank Duffy and Mrs. Mayo Hadden as members. The meeting was sponsored by the Democratic women of Holland.

The reception committee was composed of Mrs. Joseph C. Rhea, Mrs. John J. Good, Mrs. Adrian Van Putten, Mrs. J. Frank Duffy, Mrs. Mayo Hadden, Mrs. Louis Vanderberg, Mrs. Maxine McBride Horgan, Mrs. Sears R. McLean, Mrs. John E. Telling, Mrs. Willis Dickema, Mrs. James De Pree, Mrs. Nathaniel Robbins, Mrs. Earnest Brooks, Mrs. Bertal Slagh, Mrs. Garrett Heyns, Mrs. Thomas McAllister and Mrs. Lionel Heap.

Attention Voters!

Petitions for Benj. H. Rosema for Sheriff were circulated and filed by a representative group of supervisors, business men, professional men, farmers and individuals who believe that Benj. H. Rosema should be retained as Sheriff of Ottawa County.

The petitions were circulated by the above named group after repeatedly urging Mr. Rosema to run for a third term. Mr. Rosema's only comment was that he had asked for and obtained from the voters of this county two terms, for which he was indeed grateful, but that he did not wish to ask for a third term. The petitions express the sentiments of a large number of voters that Benj. H. Rosema should be retained as Sheriff of Ottawa Co. for at least another term for the following reasons:

Mr. Rosema has been the most economical and efficient Sheriff Ottawa County has ever had.

Mr. Rosema has saved the taxpayers of this county a very large amount of money by his efficient manner of conducting the affairs of his office, the fearless method he uses to apprehend criminals, who by illegal means have tried to make their living from residents of this county and by his strict enforcement of all laws.

Mr. Rosema is held in very high esteem by all law enforcement officers for his efficient cooperation and for his fearlessness in upholding the law.

Sheriff Rosema through his diligent and untiring efforts has solved practically all of the crimes in his jurisdiction since he has been sheriff.

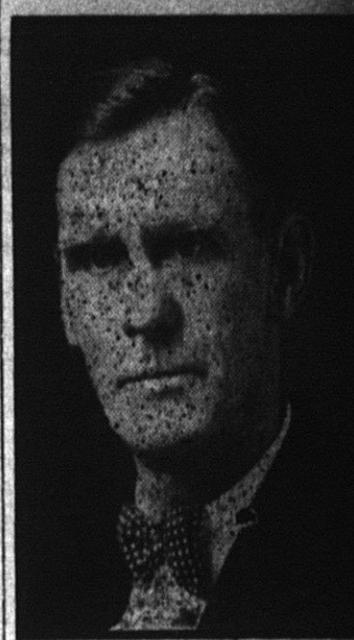

The law that gave a Sheriff only two terms of two years each is no longer in existence. In the west, Sheriffs hold office for as long as ten terms, and even in Michigan, since the law was changed, some Sheriffs have had their 3rd, 4th, and 5th terms and some even longer.

Prosecutors, County Clerks, County Treasurers, etc., are elected for more than two terms. If this makes for efficiency, why would not this hold true of the office of Sheriff also, especially if you have a Sheriff who has conducted his office in the past 4 years as economically and so successfully as Mr. Benj. H. Rosema has done?

Everyone of the above statements can be proven from record, and are given the voters of Ottawa County for their consideration.

Altho Mr. Rosema positively refuses to do any campaigning in his own behalf for the office of Sheriff, he is willing to continue to serve as Sheriff if that is the desire of the people of this county.

If Mr. Rosema is re-elected, (which he should be by a large majority) Ottawa County will be assured of another two years of efficient and economical law enforcement, attested to by a large number of people who say:

BENJ. H. ROSEMA
Republican Candidate
FOR SHERIFF

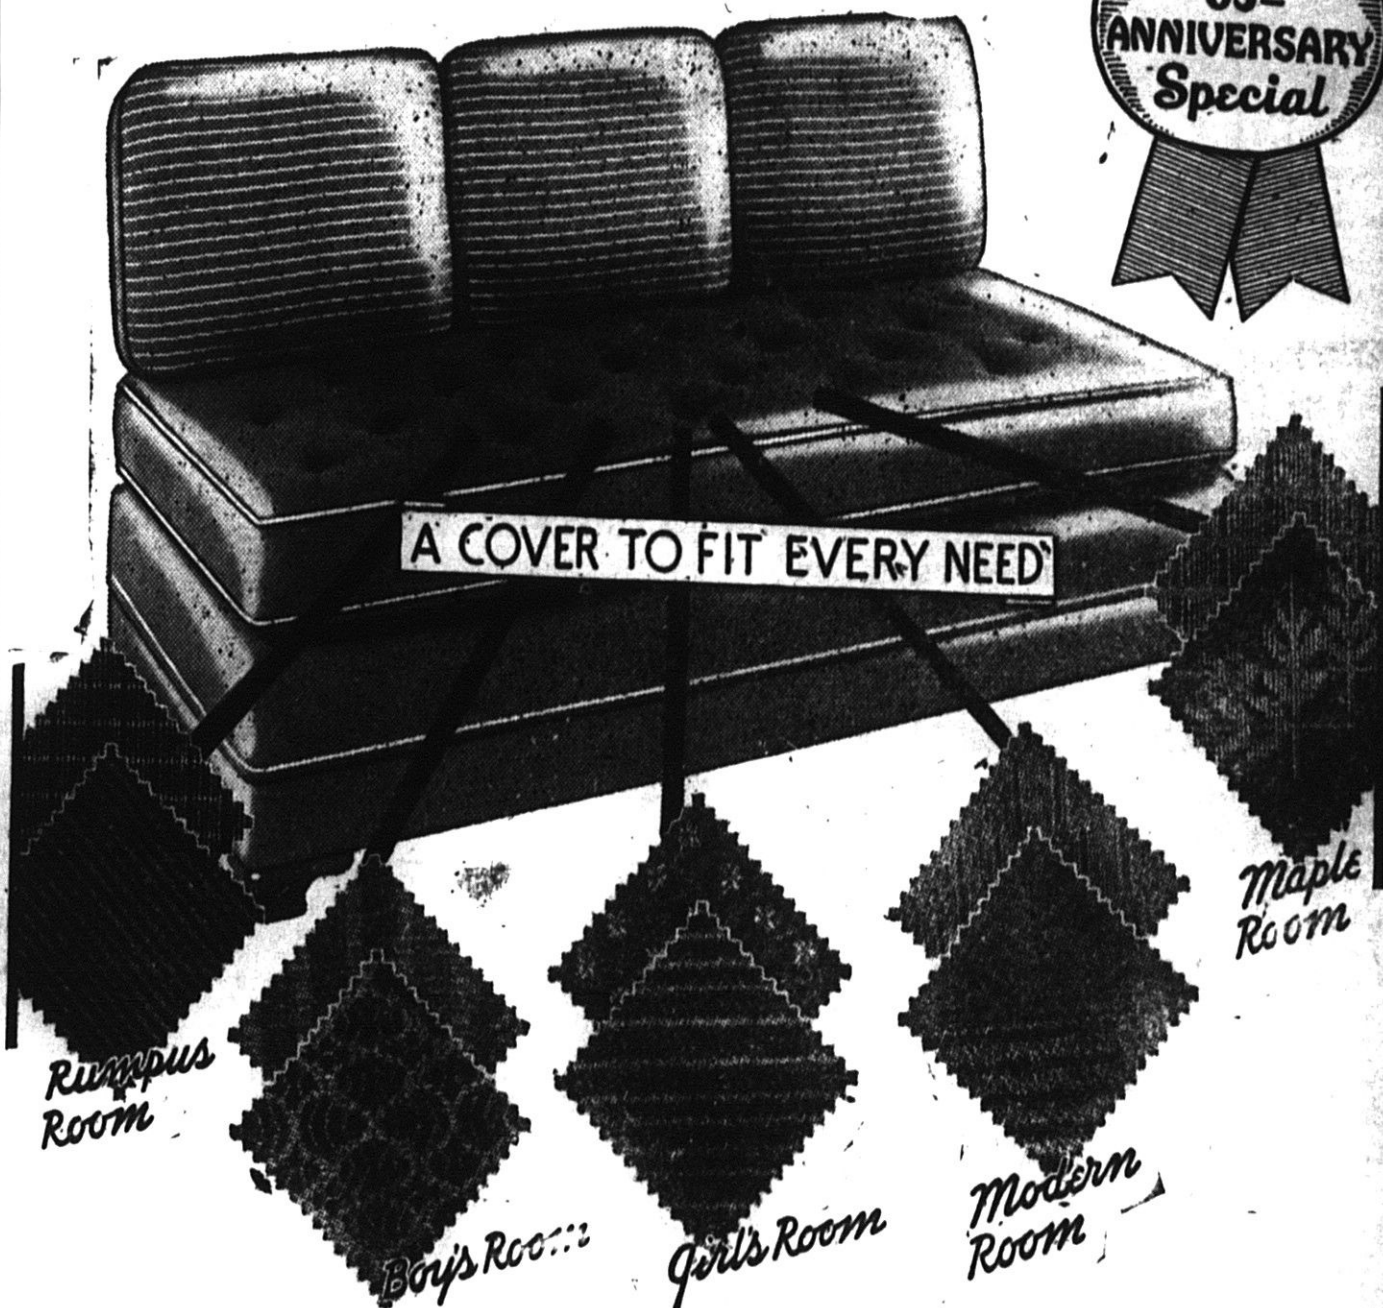

"ROSEMA IS THE BEST SHERIFF OTTAWA COUNTY EVER HAD."

Let us show our appreciation by voting for him—and returning him (by a large majority) to the office of Sheriff of this county which he has conducted for us so economically and efficiently in the past.

WE, CITIZENS of Allegan County, are pleased to endorse for your serious consideration the candidacy of

of Allegan for the office
Prosecuting
Attorney

On the Republican Ticket
September 15th.

Mr. Andrews has lived in Allegan for the past 11 years and was graduated from Allegan High School after which he attended the University of Michigan, receiving degrees from both the Engineering and the Law Departments. He now conducts his own law office in the city of Allegan.

His parents have always been ardent supporters of all civic and community affairs and this is the first time that any member of the family has asked for a county office. His father, William Andrews, is a member of the firm of Phillips Brothers, having been associated with the store since the family made Allegan their home eleven years ago.

We are pleased to endorse the candidacy of Mr. Andrews and in so doing assure you that if nominated and elected he will serve in this office without fear or favor to any person or group.

Another ballot that will be given to you is a straw vote on the Sunday sale of liquor. This ballot too will be found on page 3, section 2 of today's issue.

This issue of the News is replete with candidates' announcements and pictures of candidates. Each is a message to the public, advancing their respective qualifications.

Other candidates on the Republican ticket are for United States Senator, Wilbur M. Brucker and James Couzens, both of Detroit. For Governor—Frank D. Fitzgerald of Grand Leage, who is finishing his first term, and Roscoe Conklyn Fitch from near Detroit. Lieutenant Governor—Thomas Reed, who is now serving his first term, and Lauren E. Dickinson. For Representative in Congress—Carl E. Mapes, the present Congressman, Howard N. Jacobsen and George Veltman. All are from Grand Rapids.

On the Republican ticket will also be found a place where county delegates will be chosen to the convention to be held, September 22. This county convention will in turn elect delegates to the State convention to be held at Grand Rapids September 29, where this county will be represented by twenty-two delegates. A meeting has been called for this purpose on the sixth floor of the Warm Friend Tavern for tonight, Friday at 7:30 o'clock. As we said before the Democrats have no county ballot since there was only one nomination for each office from Sheriff down.

For State Senator the Democrats have candidates as follows: Louis B. Ward, Prentiss M. Brown, Ralph W. Liddy and John H. Myskens. Governor—George W. Welsh of Grand Rapids and Frank Murphy of Detroit. Lieutenant Governor—Leo J. Nowicki, Leon D. Case, Henry C. Glasner, and Charles F. Hemans.

Representative in Congress—Lionel Heap of Grand Haven, Thomas F. McAllister of Grand Rapids, and Garrett Heyns of Holland.

State Senator—George Caball of Zeeland, and Earnest C. Brooks of Holland.

In the townships next Tuesday the polls will be open at 7 A. M. and will remain open until 6 P. M. the same as in the City of Holland.

A lecture on Christian Science, entitled, "The Law of Love Revealed and Demonstrated" was presented Sunday afternoon, in the Holland Theatre by Richard J. Davis, C. S. of Chicago a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston. Mr. Davis said that in Christian Science the law of love transforms our thinking and brings joy into our lives. Christian Science teaches us that the very nature of God, divine Mind, is ceaseless activity. He explained the distinction between labor, work and service. Service, he said, is work for others, work transformed by love, thus labor plus intelligence equals work and work plus love equals service.

Prof. and Mrs. F. George Damsen and daughter, Mary Kathryn, of Gunnison, Colo., who have been visiting relatives in Holland for the past two weeks, left for Chicago today where they will spend a few days before returning to their home. to locate a salting house here. The building will be erected on the ground of Wiepke Diekema just West of Holland, known as the site of the old Indian burying grounds. The plant will be connected by a Chicago and West Michigan side track. Building is to start in the spring. In the course of time a vinegar plant will also be conducted in connection with this modest beginning. The News predicts that this small industry, which creates a new market for the farmer aside from grains, will gradually develop into one of Holland's leading industries."

Shortly after, meetings were held in De Grootdwel hall on River Avenue, when father Mulder donated this hall for farm pickle meetings. Here representatives of the H. J. Heinz Co. lectured on how to raise pickles, cauliflower, tomatoes and so on. The signing of new pickle contracts also took place there. The files of the News also gave a great deal of pickle information and stated from time to time how work on the buildings was progressing.

On September 4, 1897 the first enlargement was spoken of when the salting house was augmented by a vinegar plant, warehouse and docks. It however was first necessary to donate the land. John Zwemer's name appears often in making negotiations in different ways with the H. J. Heinz Co. and he was delegated to secure public subscriptions. John was a grand old veteran of the Civil War and was at one time Commander of the A. C. Van Raalte Post here. He was the grandfather of "Don" Zwemer of the Holland City Depositors Corp. and was the father of Henry Zwemer.

An item of Sept. 12, 1897, states that the H. J. Heinz Co. even proposes to erect buildings for those branches which are most profitable to the farmers and best adapted to the soil. Their bottling business has assumed such proportions and the shipping facilities afforded by Holland are so much superior to other localities that the company expects eventually to make this city one of its principal stations and be prepared to use the acreage that could be devoted to pickles, tomatoes, cauliflower, apples, berries and the like. The advantages of such a market are a benefit not to be underestimated and the few hundred dollars at stake in the way of donating the land should not

Re-elect

Cora Vande Water

for

JUDGE of PROBATE

for a Second Term

Primaries—September 15

Judge Cora Vande Water, candidate on the Republican ticket, originally came from Holland and during the greater part of the regime of Mr. Danhof, Miss Vande Water was chief clerk and during that period gained a thorough knowledge of the duties in the Probate office. She was so thorough at that time that a great many of the matters were left to her.

Before entering the Probate office as clerk she was associated in the office of Prosecuting Attorney Fred T. Miles, now Judge of the Circuit Court. Here as well as in the Probate office, she gained a broad knowledge of the law as this relates to probate matters.

It is doubtful if there is a judge in western Michigan who is better acquainted with Probate Court procedure and more capable as a Probate Judge than is Cora Vande Water. The "Probate Manual", dealing with the jurisdiction, law, and practice of the Probate Courts of Michigan is an intricate volume. A review of this book gives some idea of the many ways and laws that are necessary to follow in the Probate office. There are 191 pages in the book, dealing with mother's pensions and with wayward children in Juvenile Court, the making of certificates for insane people, adoption and change of children's names, descent and distribution of property, the distributor of the property where there is no will and accounting and closing an estate and so there are hundreds and hundreds of subjects relative to the Probate Court which a Judge must know besides being versed in the law.

Judge Cora Vande Water has all this at her finger tips—dozens of years of Probate Court training have schooled her in this knowledge. Miss Vande Water is particularly fitted where widow's and mother's pensions are concerned for she knows the needs, the problems and the sacrifices that mother always makes and applies her knowledge in a fair and equitable way to both the widow and the taxpayer. She makes a special study of children who have gone temporarily bad and takes a deep interest in those cases.

In a lecture before a women's club in Ottawa County not so long ago, she said, "My conviction is that if a child, and I get many in probate court, is brought in a first or second time after committing a serious offense, that child should be placed in a good home, given the best environment and by all means be given a chance. The so called delinquent or problem child can be transformed from a potential criminal into a good citizen. I do not believe there are any real 'bad boys' as the name is frequently applied. Badness is evident and the crust is often thick but with patience and understanding, training and supervision, any boy can and will be made a desirable citizen.

"I believe in giving a youngster a chance when they make their first misstep. They often 'find themselves' and what is more, giving them a new start saves many a mother and father heartaches."

ZEELAND NEWSPAPER SPEAKS HIGHLY OF HOLLAND WOMAN (Zeeland Record)

Hon. Cora Vande Water, Ottawa county's present judge of probate, this week announced her candidacy for renomination to the office she now holds which, we believe, meets with the hearty approval of everyone.

Miss Vande Water has filled the office of judge of probate very efficiently and is entitled to re-election next November as well as the nomination in the September primaries. It had generally been accepted that she would make an efficient judge, and her performance has in no way disappointed those who had faith in her qualifications. Besides being honest, energetic and faithful to her trust, she was backed up by several years of experience as register in the probate office, through which she became conversant with every detail of the requirements of her present office. She has made good and the voters will express their appreciation at the polls when the elections arrive.

She is a native of this country and is so well known that she needs no introduction. We just want to remind you that she is soliciting your support and if her friends will come out to vote there will be no question about her election when the time comes to vote.

even be considered. The annual revenue from such a plant, we predict, would make it one of our principal industries and would be a direct benefit to both the merchant and the agriculturist. The company has never been compelled to buy a foot of ground and if other cities are willing to offer a bonus, Holland should certainly donate the site which is required and which can be had for a meagre outlay.

In September 19, 1897: John Zwemer is busy among the merchants getting cash donations. By October 1st he had raised $400 cash, had pledges for $200 more and needed $40 to make the land deal. In the middle of October the files of the News indicate that all the money had been secured through private subscription and that the purchase of the land had been made. On November 20, 1897 the Holland City News stated that the H. J. Heinz Co., during the first year of its opening made two payments for pickles and on January 1st the last of three installments would be paid and approximately $9,000 would be disbursed. That year 280 acres of pickles was the number contracted for the first year in business. This was augmented by 200 acres of tomatoes. The company expects that the acreage next year would be 400 acres for pickles only. We might add at this time that in 1936 nearly 1500 acres are devoted to pickles in Ottawa County. The H. J. Heinz Co. points out that there are still thousands of acres of the best pickle land not devoted to that profitable crop as yet.

July 1, 1898 work had actually started on the vinegar plant. On Aug. 19, 1898 an item states that the whole Heinz Co. force is working late into the night taking in cucumber pickles as the farmers brought them in. Long lines of horses and wagons extend down the street waiting to be unloaded at the salting house and on one day 1950 bushels were unloaded. The company is engaged just now in erecting a vinegar plant, a building similar to the present salting house, 100 x 100 feet. The building is built by Holland labor and the contract for two additional buildings has been left to A. J. Ward, local contractor. One is a boiler and engine house, 45 x 42 feet, located North of the salting house, the other is intended for a cider press, 40 x 44 feet, frame, with stone foundation. All this, as quoted from the files of the Holland City News, took place when the H. J. Heinz Co. started its plant here nearly 39 years ago and locally at least it was an infant industry.

All through the News files, covering a period of nearly two score years, this quiet development is chronicled as taking place. The achievements were never much heralded but as time went on, building after building was erected, monuments of steel and concrete, until today the H. J. Heinz Co., overlooking Macatawa Bay, covers the greater part of a city block. With seasonally employment numbering to nearly the thousand mark, it has been a real asset to Holland. Besides it has brought a diversified market to the entire countryside, and collectively it has been of untold value to this city and its environs. That the raising of Heinz products has lifted many a mortgage from the farm and that it is meant to be a substantial cash crop to the tillers of the soil has long ago been demonstrated. We are indeed pleased to hear that the H. J. Heinz Co. has added a substantial building to its other holdings. It being headquarters for distribution of many of the "57 Varieties" makes this city a pivotal point for the activities of this company and makes Holland a distributing center of food stuffs in this area.

Republican Candidate for JUDGE OF PROBATE Practiced Law 30 Years. Married 25 Years. Has Wife and 3 Children

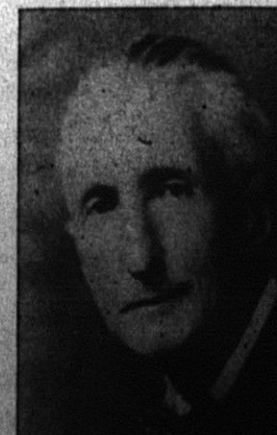

Administration of the Probate Court involves many intricate points of law.

It also involves many family problems—some of them very delicate, and of vital importance to young children.

The Probate Judge should be an experienced lawyer.

The Probate Judge should possess the sympathy and understanding that nature develops only through parenthood.

An Experienced Lawyer for a Lawyer's Job! A Family Man for a Family Job!

THEFTS FROM AUTOS
BRING THREE ARRESTS

A series of small thefts was solved by the city police Friday when three Holland youths were arrested. Eugene Denny, 17, was arraigned before Justice John Galien on the charge of entering an automobile and stealing some food-stuffs. He was given a 30-day jail sentence, which was suspended. The youth was placed on six-month probation and must return to school.

The names of the two other boys were withheld by the police as they are under 16. One was referred to juvenile court, the other was placed on probation to Chief of Police F. Van Ry.

Birds Are Now
On "Trek" From
State of Michigan

OUR FEATHERED FRIENDS ARE SOUTHWARD BOUND. FLY AT NIGHT, REST AT DAY, FLYING LOW KILLS MANY.

By Frank L. DuMond
Summer is on the wane and much of the bird population of Michigan is beginning to feel a strange, restless urge. Families have been raised, wings are strong and already the vanguard of feathered legions that were content to remain in Michigan during the summer is taking to the airways for points south. The fall migration is underway!

A month ago the purple martins were concentrating on telephone wires about town and redwings were assembling in the marshes. Now they occur in great flocks that are organized for the journey, if indeed they have not already started on their way.

Not only are many local species prepared to depart before the coming of winter, but additional species which nest to the north are taking up a temporary residence in Michigan as they journey to milder climes. From out of the north they come—shore birds, warblers, ducks, geese, swans, hawks. Down invisible migration lanes they beat their way, concentrating in great numbers along the Great Lakes shores as they move southward.

Short-eared owls will be seen on the ground pouncing on mice in the grassy fields; warblers and shore birds in subdued traveling outfits will present difficult problem in identification; rough-legged hawks will stop in Michigan to rest and feed rodents and then drift southward. Many birds are not so easy to name in the fall because of the lack of conspicuous breeding plumage.

Where Do Birds Go?
Where do migrating birds go? It depends upon the bird. Strange isn't it, that the robin and blue bird stop in our Southern states while their cousin, the wood thrush, winter in Central America and the Veery in northern South America. Why should one killdeer winter in Indiana while another goes to Peru? The purple martin winters from British Guiana to Brazil; the bobolink in Southern Brazil, Bolivia and Argentina. Some blue herons go as far south as Venezuela; the whippoorwill in Central America.

Different species of birds have their own characteristics of travel. Some keep to themselves, such as night hawks, swifts, crossbills, waxwings, crows, bobolinks and kingbirds; others congregate with other species in close formation, as shorebirds, blackbirds, waxwings, longspurs and snow buntings. Others travel loosely, as turkey vultures, bluejays, warblers and bluebirds. Still others go alone, as the great-horned owl, winter wren, shrike and kingfisher, flocking only for abundant food.

When do birds migrate? Most birds migrate at night, some by day or night, others only by day. The reason for the majority of birds can feed and rest during the day and then fly at night when they are well fed and strong. When the clouds hang low the migrating birds fly close to the earth to avoid them. Step out in your backyard some night at this season when a storm is brewing and listen to the strange calls of countless birds that are hurrying southward in the inky blackness with no guide save that called "instinct." It is when migrating birds are flying low on cloudy nights that they often strike high towers, smokestacks or perhaps become fascinated by some dazzling lighthouse beacon and dash themselves to death against it.

Northern Birds Started New
The following species usually migrate by day: Loons, cranes, pelicans, shore birds, gulls, hawks, swifts, night hawks, ruby-throated hummingbirds, bluebirds, jays, blackbirds, kingbirds, waxwings and swallows.

Some common night migrants are: Warblers, flycatchers, sparrows, rails, cuckoos, vireos and wrens.

This migrating urge is not confined to our summer resident birds and those that nest a few hundred miles north of us. Even now high on the top of the world, birds are in motion. From those bleak, rocky islands in the Arctic Ocean; from the tundra where the muskox and the caribou are at home from the dark coniferous forests of Upper Canada they come drifting down, many to sojourn during the winter with us, and when the mercury retreats in the thermometer and winter winds howl and stark branches nod and toss in the snow-blanketed woods, snowy owls hunt in Michigan, and old squaws and golden-eyes ride the waters of our open streams and lakes. It is then that the bird lover shares his crust and grain and feels the warm glow of friendly hospitality steal over him as such unexpected wayfarers as the purple finch, evening grosbeak, snow bunting, tree sparrow and state-colored bunting come to dine at his feeding table.

Yes, it is indeed true—regardless of place or season the observer of birds can never exhaust the possibilities for a lifetime of pleasure and inspiration with the birds of Michigan.

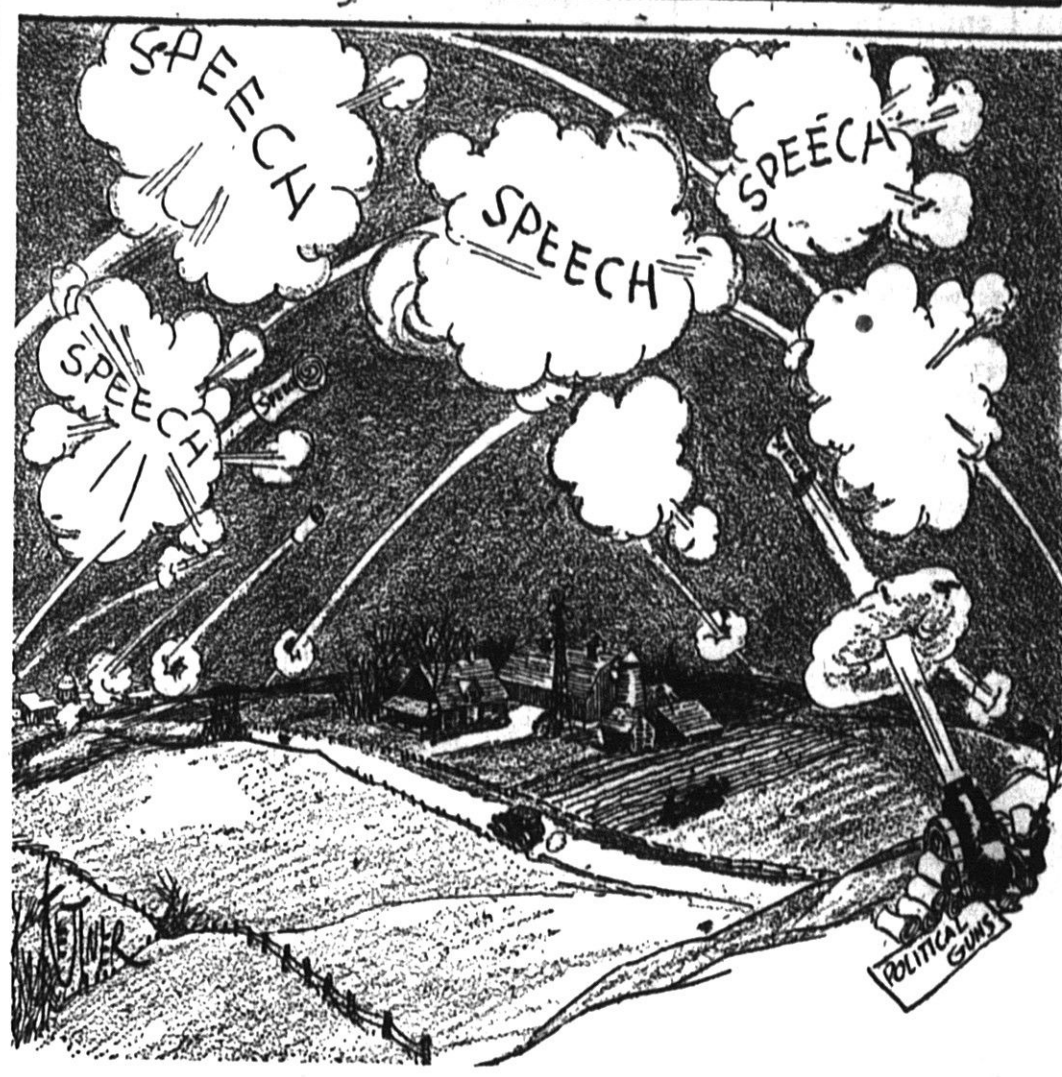

Mrs. C. Switzer and Miss Elizabeth Switzer of Ann Arbor were week end guests of Miss Sarah Lacey at Lacey Lodge.

Plans are being formed for a joint installation of officers of the four American Legion posts of Ottawa county at the Holland Country club, Sept. 16. The Holland and Zeeland posts will be in charge.

The council is endeavoring to have State Vice Commander Emil Ganser of East Grand Rapids as the principal speaker.

The posts represented will be Holland, Zeeland, Grand Haven and Coopersville.

The Battle Is On

Zeeland Schools
Are Open for Coming Year

MANY CHANGES FOUND IN TEACHING STAFF

Tuesday morning the Zeeland public schools opened the sessions for the coming school year with full complement of teachers.

The school year began nearly a week later this year than is the custom because of the fact that Labor Day fell as late as it is possible, namely the 7th of the month, and it has become the accepted custom to begin school on the day following Labor Day, in this case September 8.

It has been estimated that the enrollment would reach that of last year, when the pupils numbered 245, but this year to date there have already enrolled 267 pupils, which will tax the capacity of the high school assembly room with its 250 seats. However, provisions can be made for all comers by placing extra seats.

The complement of teachers this year number twenty-six. Of these twelve are in the elementary department, four in junior high, and ten in senior high school. This includes the superintendent and principal, both of whom are included in the high school faculty. There are four other school employees, Mrs. Minnie Fairbanks, librarian; Henry Arens, Bert Van Loo and John Northhouse, janitors.

The teachers and the subjects and grades they will teach are as follows: Malcolm B. Rogers, superintendent and substitute teacher in high school; Thomas A. Demsey, principal, algebra I, geometry, Verna Rogers, typing and shorthand; Louis Roberts, history and speech; Alma Plakke, Latin I, Latin II, English II, and Bible; Otto Pino, biology and agriculture, Curtis Merritt, science and plane geometry; Leon Kleis, book-keeping, civics, athletic coach; Hilmer Dickman, business training and manual training; and Lois De Pree, American literature, and English literature, French I, and French II.

In junior high, Anthony Mulder, principal, arithmetic 7 and 8; Mildred Nelson, social science 7, home economics junior and high; Mina Becker, social science 8, English I senior high, girls physical education; Harriet Baron, English and literature.

In the grades, Russel Troutman, music; Josephine De Groot, special; Marjorie Van Koeveing, 6th; Mildred Essenburgh, 6th; Mildred Early, 6th; Agnes Van Oostenbrugge, 4th; Myrtle Ten Have, 3rd; Gladys Maatman, 3rd; Estella Karsten, 2nd; Janice Van Koeveing, 1st; Louise Wierenga, 1st; and Mary Ellen Gaw, kindergarten.

Of the twenty-six teachers that will teach in the Zeeland public schools this year eleven are new recruits.

Bert Vanderzwaag, 52, retired Olive Center merchant died at his home there Sunday and was buried in the Olive cemetery on Wednesday. Funeral services were held at the home and at Crisp Christian Reformed church. He had operated a general store in Olive Center for 15 years before retiring. Surviving are the widow; a son, Harold, and a daughter, Harriet, all at home; two brothers, John of Crisp and Charles of Grand Rapids; and a sister, Mrs. Jacob Hop of Crisp.

Rev. A. Carnell of Grand Ledge, Mich. and formerly of the Grand Rapids City Mission will speak at the Immanuel Church in the armory on Sunday.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Dorothy Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Van Dort, 525 College Ave., to Glenn Worth Morrison of Greensboro, N. C., which took place last Friday. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Meredith at the parsonage of the Wesleyan Methodist church, in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

The couple was attended by Mrs. Trenton Groetel and Stanley Siedman. Following the service a luncheon was served to 18 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison will make their home in Greensboro.

GRAND RAPIDS MAN WRECKS
TRUCK TO AVOID OTHER
CARS AT ZEELAND

Vincent Alighire, Grand Rapids, on his way to Holland accompanied by his wife and son, wrecked his almost new two-ton truck on M-21 at Vreelandt sinkhole, three miles east of Zeeland, Sunday afternoon.

Traffic was heavy and in order to avoid striking a passing car going east, Mr. Alighire swerved to the left in the gravel then brought his truck back on the pavement quickly to miss other cars. He lost control and headed east on M-21. The truck rolled over into the ditch. Mr. Alighire suffered lacerations on both arms and left leg. His son, 14, suffered body bruises and internal injuries. He was rushed to Huizenga Memorial hospital at Zeeland. Mrs. Alighire received serious head lacerations, according to hospital attendants, but she was removed to her home in Grand Rapids.

TWO FIRES IN BORCULO

There was considerable excitement for Borculo residents in one day when two fire alarms were sounded. One was the garage on the property of John Van Der Woude was destroyed by fire. His car and the winter's supply of coal and wood which were stored there were also burned. Besides his auto a washing machine and what goes with it was also destroyed. The family used one half of the garage as a laundry. Then another call was sent in by Tony Luurtsema when an oil heater which was used to heat their kitchen, exploded. Although no serious damage was done by the flames, the interior of the kitchen was badly damaged by smoke and heat. The Borculo fire department responded to both calls.

OTTAWA G. O. P. WILL HAVE
'VICTORY' DRIVE

(Grand Rapids Press)

Plans were laid Friday evening for the "On to Victory" movement by the Republican clubs of South Ottawa county.

Election of sectional chairman for the southern part of Ottawa county to take charge of the "victory" march are: Albert Johnson of Zeeland township, Louis Roberts of Zeeland city, Don Zwemer of Holland city, John Van Dam of Holland township and Jacob Tigelaar of Jamestown township.

A house to house canvass will be made.

SALES OF BUSINESS PROPERTY

James R. Van Hartesveldt of Fennville has purchased the building occupied by the Van Hartesveldt Grocery in that village and the adjoining building occupied by Menold's restaurant. He has not yet made known his future plans.

"MEL" TROTTER RESORTING LATE

Mel Trotter noted Evangelist of Grand Rapids, brother of George Trotter of the city Mission here who has returned from a trip through the east will be at his cottage at Macatawa this month. He has been entertaining guests this week-end, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Overmeyer of Bluefield, W. Va., and Homer Hammon of Chicago, Ill. Last Sunday his guests were Miss Louise Kraft, Miss Barbara Weissert, Miss Freda Held and Miss Lynn Hartmann Knowles, all of Grand Rapids, and last week he was host to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brehm of Clinton, Miss. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stowe and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hartman.

Miss Josephine Kempker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kempker of Hamilton and Bud Ten Brink, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ten Brink of Hamilton were united in marriage, Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock in the parsonage of the First Reformed church of Hamilton. The Rev. J. Roggen conducted the service using the double ring ceremony. The bride was gown in royal blue lace and carried a bouquet of roses and baby breath. The ceremony was witnessed by Wallace and Julia Kempker, brothers of the bride. The couple is living with the bridegroom's parents for the present.

INSTALLED IN MUSKOGON
TONIGHT

Rev. Bert Brower, a graduate from Hope College and Seminary here, former pastor of the American Reformed church of Orange City, Ia., will be installed pastor of the Unity Reformed church, Muskegon, this Thursday night, with Rev. G. B. Roseboom, pastor of the Fellowship and Moorland Reformed churches, acting as officier in charge. Rev. Clarence P. Dame will also participate in the installation.

Rev. Brower, who succeeds Rev. C. P. Dame, now pastor of the Bethany Reformed church, Grand Rapids, is widely known for his Sunday school and young people's work, and is a columnist in two of the weekly publications of the Reformed Church of America. He had been pastor of the American Reformed church for two and one-half years and prior to that time, he was in Grand Rapids for seven and one-half years at the Home Acres church, which he and his wife, the former Miss Susanna Hamelink, pipe organist in Trinity Church, Holland, built from a mission station to an established congregation, as their first charge. Both Rev. and Mrs. Brower are graduates of Hope College.

THERE ARE 966 BIRTHS AND 568 DEATHS IN THIS COUNTY DURING YEAR

A statistical report for the year 1935, as this relates to Ottawa county, has just been received from the State Department of Health. There has been an unusual amount of scarlet fever during the year. There was an epidemic of measles, but it was not very extensive. It is evident that tuberculosis continues to be a major problem. A more intensive program on tuberculosis control is necessary. People who should avail themselves of services which are offered still need to be urged to come in for checkups. All contacts to cases of tuberculosis should be under continuous observation.

Heart disease and cancer continue to lead all other important causes of death. The only effective means of combating these causes of death is through physical examination by your physician and the prompt attention to those ailments which when they are discovered, is very informative.

Below is a tabulated report that is very informative.

HOLLAND GIRL HURT IN BALCONY PLUNGE

Josephine Slighter, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Slighter of Holland, was in Holland hospital Friday with a fractured wrist, dislocated shoulder and possible internal injuries, the result of a fall from a second-story balcony at the home of Mrs. M. O'Leary of Holland. Miss Slighter, a high school pupil who was doing housework for Mrs. O'Leary, lost her balance and fell against the railing; it gave and she tumbled head-first to the ground.

Welborne S. Luna

[Republican Candidate]

I have conducted a clean campaign, and will continue to do so.

I should have enjoyed seeing each of you in person, but lack of time and the duties of my office have not permitted it.

Despite the advertising of one of my young opponents, who apparently has not properly examined the circuit and justice court records, most of you know that as your prosecutor I have made a good record, of which I am justly proud.

Malice toward none, charity for all.

I am prepared to prove from the official records that in Circuit Court the juries have brought in verdicts of (not guilty) only fourteen times during the entire time I have been prosecutor. Yes, I am a self-made man.

I worked every penny of my own way through law school, after which I engaged in the practice of law for five years at South Bend, Indiana, during which time I had civil as well as criminal law experience. I am proud of the fact that I was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court and all other courts of law and equity in Michigan because of my high scholastic standing and my years of active practice. I have practiced law in Allegan County for nine and one-half years.

If you have been pleased with my services, I shall greatly appreciate your continued support.

Many thanks.

Prosecuting Attorney
Allegan County

JACK SPANGLER

CANDIDATE FOR REPUBLICAN

NOMINATION FOR

SHERIFF

OF OTTAWA COUNTY

As it is impossible to meet all the voters of this county personally, I am using this method to briefly outline my qualifications for the office of Sheriff.

I have lived in Ottawa County practically all my life, am 48 years of age, married, have two children, and am a tax payer. I have had 14 years of actual experience as a law enforcement officer in this county. I have served under three sheriffs as turn-key, deputy sheriff, and under sheriff. I have also served as a police officer in Grand Haven for three and one half years under two chiefs of police. While in the Sheriff's department, I served seven years as Court Officer. This gave me a wide knowledge of the laws of this state. With this experience, I am sure I could save the tax payers a considerable amount of money, as they would not have to pay to educate me for several years while trying to fill this most important office.

In 1932 I was appointed by the Governor as probation officer of this county. While this position carries no salary, it has given me a wonderful experience in dealing with first offenders. Since 1932 our CIRCUIT JUDGE has placed 131 first offenders under my supervision. Of this number only 15 have had to be resentenced. With the able assistance of our CIRCUIT JUDGE we have established one of the finest probation systems in the state. The probation systems in Ottawa County has been very highly commended by the State Welfare Department. I have had experience from every possible angle of law enforcement.

At the present time, I am investigator for the Old Age Assistance Bureau, and being employed part time on a per diem basis.

I believe in cooperation with all other law enforcement bodies. Should the citizens of this County feel that I am qualified to hold this important office, I promise to appoint only CLEAN, EXPERIENCED, and FEARLESS men as deputies. I still believe there is no substitute for experience. It has always been my ambition to become Sheriff of this county, and I have therefore tried to train myself for this office.

I was a candidate for this office once before, and received a splendid vote. Should I be successful in the coming election, I am sure I will be able to serve the public as they have a right to be served.

GRAND HAVEN AND HOLLAND GRIDDERS

WILL PLAY NOV. 21

Coach Jerry Breen has issued a call for the Holland High School football team candidates on Sept. 8. The team this year has a schedule similar to that of last season. It will include one class C game and one class B contest, with the remainder of the opposition in class A.

The opening game of the season will be with Grand Rapids Creston on Sept. 26 at Holland. Following dates are: Oct. 3, Ottawa Hills at Holland; Oct. 10, Kalamazoo Central at Holland; Oct. 17, open; Oct. 24, Kalamazoo, St. Augustine at Kalamazoo; Oct. 31, Benton Harbor at Holland; Nov. 7, Muskegon Heights at Muskegon; Nov. 14, Muskegon at Muskegon; Nov. 21, Grand Haven at Holland.

Zeeland Poultry Farm Has Leading Score in State Laying Contest

The pen of White Leghorn hens put into the egg-laying contest at the Michigan State College poultry department by the Royal Poultry Farm of Zeeland are making a strong bid for first place, contending with the pen belonging to Mr. E. C. Foreman of Lowell, formerly of this place. There are also individuals of these pens that are crowding up to the lead in both number of eggs laid and of points on which the contest is scored.

The quality, shape, color and weight of the egg all enter into determining the number of points with which each egg is to be credited. Each hen is trap-nested in the contest to determine the hen that is to be credited.

Among the ten highest individual scores in the contest the Royal Poultry Farm has fourth place 274 eggs and 281.35 points. The next highest number of eggs for the contest which closes next October is 269 eggs, showing the Royal Poultry Farm hen having laid the largest number; but scoring is done by points, and there we find three hens leading it. The highest score is 286.77, the next 282.15, and 282.05, leaving the Royal hen only 5.4 points behind the leading hen.

In the production for the pen of ten hens the Royal Poultry Farm leads the contest with 2226 eggs and 2347.00 points. The next closest competitor is the Foreman pen with 2192 eggs and 2300.55 points. This is in the White Leghorn division. There is one pen that has laid more eggs, Barred Rocks entered by Dryden Poultry Farm which has a record of 2233 eggs and 2231.75 points.

Other local poultry men placing entries in the contest are Caball's Superior Poultry Farm, Karsten's Poultry Farm, Grandview Poultry Farm, Rural Poultry Farm, and Village View Poultry Farm.

5-ACRE PICKLE PATCH YIELDS 27,000 POUNDS IN FIRST THREE WEEKS

(Coopersville Observer)

A month ago the Hafenbrack Bros., living a few miles northeast of Nunica, were reaping the day they had been persuaded to put in five acres of pickles. Because of the extreme heat and drought condition it had begun to look as though the pickle crop would be a complete failure this year. Then came the rains, and the pickle vines and the hopes of the growers brightened at the same time. Today the pickle crop is threatening to be the most profitable on the farm, not only for the Hafenbrack brothers but to many others as well.

Pickle picking has been going on now for about four weeks, and it is estimated that the crop will last another four weeks, unless frost steps in to blast the hopes that the late rains have somewhat raised. The Hafenbrack brothers state that during the first three weeks of the current pickle season they sent 27,000 pounds of pickles to the Heinz station at Nunica. This total represents the amount they had hoped for when they put in the crop. Now with five weeks of picking left to be added, total prospects for a successful pickle season seem bright.

The Heinz company, with whom the brothers have contracted all their pickings, has allotted them six Mexican pickers, who work every day, while the patch, during the exceedingly warm spell, has had as high as seventeen Mexican pickers pursuing the ubiquitous pickle.

This is the first year in many that the Hafenbrack brothers have contracted for pickles to any great extent, and they state that it will be the most profitable they have ever had.

ZEELAND

Andrew Palmos of Hudsonville, R. F. D. No. 2, arrested Thursday on a charge of drunken driving, was sentenced to pay a fine and costs of $61.55 or serve 65 days in jail when arraigned before Justice Henry Huxtable of Zeeland. He chose the jail term.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Elenbaas and children, Preston and Gerald Elenbaas, of Benheim, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Streur of Holland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huizenga recently.

The choir members of Second Reformed Church enjoyed a hamburger fry at the cottage of Corey Poest at Idlewood Beach last week Thursday evening. Games were played and the following officers elected: Mr. Corey Poest, president; Al Janssen, vice-president; Miss Geneva Janssen, secretary; Miss Dorothy Ploeg, treasurer. New members were received. Miss Helen Van Eenennaam is director of the choir and Miss Antoinette Van Koevering is organist.

Andrew Vander Ploeg, who this week sold his market business to Peter Nykamp, and who has been ill at the local hospital for the past month, is improving slowly.

Miss Mary Leenhouts left Zeeland on Tuesday for Cleveland, Ohio, where she has accepted a position as supervisor in Western University Hospital. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. George M. Meigs, who will spend a few days with her and they together will visit the Great Lakes Exposition.

Mrs. Jeurink was Miss Fanny Vander Hulst before her marriage.

Travelogue on Interesting European Trip

By Mrs. Mae Van Drezer Bush

July 15, Geneva

Dear Ones:

A perfect morning in Geneva. But before I tell you of Mont Blanc, I must tell you a few more things about Paris.

The most thrilling experience for Ben was meeting the new Premier, Blum. He received ten of the group at the Palace de Maitenon. As they awaited the Premier, they looked through great French windows down upon the palace gardens. The Premier did not keep them waiting long, but himself opened the door into the ante chamber and personally greeted each member of the group. He welcomed them most cordially and gave them an hour. He smiled as he saw them and said, "This looks like the White House."

Blum is described by Ben as tall and slender. He is a Jew and an aristocrat and a socialist. (Socialists here are often the intellectuals, often the aristocrats, and sometimes the rich, as well as a great mass of underprivileged people.) He and his new government believe in democracy and are antifascist. They are trying to abolish corruption. We have heard appalling tales of graft here. The new government, known as the United Front, has saved Democracy for France and they have done so without violence and revolution. This new government, Edgar Mowrer described as "New Dealist"—they, too, intend to experiment as America has done.

Premier Blum said the government was not Marxist but they will try to bring about a more proper distribution of national wealth in France. When asked about the contemporary existence of Capitalism and Socialism in many countries, he smiled and said, "theoretically they cannot exist side by side, but actually, they do." When asked what America could do toward safeguarding Peace, he said, "You had better put that question to the White House." The interview ended with the hope that America would not follow a course of isolation—that she would realize her responsibility in the life of the world.

We all had a stirring moment when Andre Philip, member of the Chamber of Deputies and chairman of the new committee of

DEN HERDER

Candidate for

SHERIFF

on the Republican Ticket

I am a former deputy, chief deputy and undersheriff, having served eleven consecutive years in the office at Grand Haven, being appointed in turn by sheriffs Fortney, Kamferbeck and Steketee. As I am working in the Grand Haven Brass Foundry, I will not be able to see all my friends personally.

At the Primary election four years ago, in a field of five candidates, I was next to present sheriff Rosema in total number of votes received. I did not run against Mr. Rosema two years ago, but at that time publicly helped him in his campaign for election to a second term.

In the event I am elected this fall, I will appoint as the chief deputy at Holland any suitable man the city council or police commission may be willing to recommend. I make this promise to assure the people of Holland and vicinity that I will have a deputy competent and of good character. I feel that Holland should have some voice in the selection of the man to serve them.

From the eleven years actual service in the office at Grand Haven and experience gained, I feel I have earned the right to run for the office and that I am qualified to properly conduct it.

Your support will be sincerely appreciated.

French Finance, quietly outlined for us France's new economic plans three hours before he and his committee presented these new plans to France. We are already anxious to return to France, as we will again meet this interesting man at dinner. We expect to have dinner, too, with the great Russian philosopher, Berdyeff, an emigre in Paris. He is said to have one of the greatest minds in the world, but because of his Christian outlook on life, he became an exile and is now in actual want at times. How tragic that one of the three great philosophers in the world today, should be obliged to waste his life on petty tasks in order to eke out a bare existence!

Well, I'll say goodbye to Paris for the present. We came to Geneva on one of the fastest trains in Europe. I was glad to have a quiet day on the train after our strenuous days in London and Paris. We arrived about nine and stepped out of the hotel at once to walk along the shores of Lake Geneva. The peace and quiet of Geneva after Paris was like "a spiritual bath" as one member of our group described it. The Swiss are a great people and have been entertaining the world and his wife for generations. They are perfect hosts. I believe they make you more comfortable than any other peoples in Europe. Their hotels are immaculately clean, their food is delicious and their service is perfect. Entertaining paying guests is more than a business with the Swiss—it is an art.

Lake Geneva is lovelier than ever. We awakened our first morning to find glorious sunshine. It seemed especially wonderful after several rainy days in Paris and many rainy days in London. I must be honest though about London. We had many rainy days with "bright intervals," as the Londoners say.

As I say, we awakened to find Mont Blanc dazzlingly revealed in all her beauty our first morning. Weren't we fortunate? Some people stay days and days, sometimes, and never catch a glimpse of that marvelous mountain. For two days now we have watched her—at dawn like a great pink pearl; at noon, veiled in a soft haze; and at sunset, competing with the lacy clouds that half conceal and half reveal her beauty.

Geneva is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. She lies at the very edge of the western end of Lake Geneva. Lovely parks and gardens and promenades line her shores. Fine buildings form an interesting crescent around the lake. In the near distance jagged mountains frown upon the city and in the far distance snow-capped Mont Blanc smiles her benediction upon this city of refuge. As I look out upon these massive hills, I am thinking of all the men and women who have fled to her for sanctuary—Calvin, Voltaire, Lenin and others. I think they must have learned the meaning of strength from her hills.

We have had a fine Seminar here. Manley Hudson addressed us on "The League." Mary Dingman of the Women's Peace and Disarmament Committee, spoke on the question of "Mobilization of Public Opinion." Clarence Streit, who has a column in the New York Times, described the tragic "Last Assembly of the League." Malcolm Davis, head of the Carnegie Foundation for Peace in Europe, speaks tonight. Thus the days pass, meeting these world figures and listening to challenging addresses.

This morning we had a delightful surprise when we met Dr. P. T. Chang at the League. You remember we travelled with Dr. and Mrs. Chang in Europe five years ago. Dr. Chang was professor of Comparative Philosophy at Tientsin and five years ago was exchange professor in Comparative Literature at Chicago University.

The Council at Jerusalem—Acts 15:22-29; Galatians 2:1, 2, 9, 10.

Henry Geerlings

We have a great deal of respect for the man who has a deep and stirring enthusiasm for the extension of the kingdom of God. We must admire his moving desire to make converts to the gospel and his activity in doing this, but we have no charity for nor patience with the man who insists upon making everybody else think as he thinks and who devotes himself to the task of converting others to his way of religion and life.

The man who has the only how and way of religion is more of an enemy of religion than a friend. The man who thinks he has discovered and laid hold upon the ultimate of religion has not yet learned the real beginnings of religion. He should be studying the primer of religion when he adjudges himself worthy of teaching his fellows the philosophy of religion. But in all generations there are those who have the only way of life and nobody can get into the better life save by their way. If it were not so serious it would be the strangest thing imaginable that just a few people should have the only right view of God, or the only right conception of religion or the only right conditions upon which one can be admitted into the temple of religion.

We have to do with this kind of people in our lesson today. Certain gentlemen who were very sure of themselves and their own view of Christianity found their way up or down to Antioch and with the usual noise that such people make insisted that except they be circumcised after the custom of Moses they could not be saved. Strange is it not, that they should think it necessary to go to Antioch at all to upset things.

The church at Antioch was doing exceedingly well. Paul and Barnabas had just returned from a great mission and brought a great and heartening report of their work. The kingdom was expanding. Souls were being born anew. The church was getting a hold in the faraway places. The world was faring to hear Jesus. He was being preached successfully. Then what was the wrong? Why the necessity of the visiting brethren from Jerusalem? Well, there was nothing wrong and there was no necessity save in the minds of the gentlemen who took it upon themselves to make the visit. The necessity was entirely in their minds. What was going on in Antioch and other places in the world where the missionaries had had success was not according to the views of the Jerusalem leaders who knew just what is safe religion and how it should be practiced.

Your views are not my views. That is where a lot of trouble in the world lies. That little "my" is a very serious and troublesome word in our relationships. We are touchy about it. My faith ought to be your faith and if it is not then there is something wrong about you. And it becomes my duty to make my faith your faith. And if this conviction is deep in me then I am not going to give you any peace until I have made every possible effort to make my faith your faith, that is, make you think as I think and believe as I believe. And I will be zealous about this task in proportion to the quirks and useless appendages I have to my religion. The sectarian is usually the man who is emphasizing something that is dead or should be dead.

Now Moses was a great man and still lives, but not all that Moses said and not all that Moses appointed was of everlasting value. What Moses aimed at was fulfilled and realized in Christ. Moses was none the less because Jesus was greater. Why cling to Moses when the gentle had all the value of Moses and infinitely more in Jesus? Moses had his day. It was Jesus' day now. Moses gave the steps. Jesus was the temple to which the steps led. We do not want to repudiate Moses even in our day, but even the ten commandments have their highest expression in and through Jesus Christ.

Is it not strange how some people can make much ado about nothing. The visiting men from Jerusalem made real trouble in the Antioch church. But the brethren there came to a wise decision. They

Of Special Interest to All Who Suffer from HAY FEVER

Those who are susceptible to Hay Fever and its after effect of Asthma will be glad to learn that after three years of laboratory study and clinical research a method of Inhalation Therapy has been perfected which can be reliably depended upon for immediate relief. The base of this treatment is volatile iodine, combined with other soothing and antiseptic agents, which serves to nourish the mucous glands and to relieve the irritation of the sensitive membranes in the upper respiratory tract. Besides giving the relief so much desired, its continued use strengthens the entire mucosa and builds up a normal condition which resists the poisonous pollen attacks.

An attractive, safe, and convenient inhalator makes application of the treatment easy and pleasant, with absolutely no harmful reactions. The treatment is known as VOL-Iodine Inhalant, and can be procured from Model Drug Store under a money-back guarantee.

Holland firemen Thursday night tested a new pipeline which has been installed at the Mossier Leather Co. on the north side to provide more adequate means of fire protection, according to Chief Cornelius Blom, Jr. The new pipe is said to be about five inches in size and has been laid for a distance of 30 feet from the lake to a point where fire hose can be hooked on. The test proved satisfactory, the chief said. The leather company recently petitioned the Common Council for the same fire protection as is given within the city. However, no action was taken by the council after the matter has been considered by the ways and means committee. Now water is drawn from the lake by the pumps.

The officers and enlisted men of Company D, National Guard, were commended by Maj. Gen. C. E. Kilbourne for "their spirit, efficiency and soldierly conduct during maneuvers." The letter cited 13 reasons for special commendation. Col. Morris M. Keck praised the local unit for hospitality, co-operation and willingness.

MR. CABALL FILES FOR STATE SENATOR
(Zeeland Record)

Mr. George Caball, one of our esteemed citizens, this week filed his petitions with the county clerk declaring himself to be a candidate for the office of State Senator for Ottawa and Muskegon counties on the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Caball is one of our prominent poultrymen and has not only the united backing of the poultrymen, but he has the respect of the entire community, where he has made his home for several years.

We can speak for Mr. Caball that he is well qualified for the position to which he aspires, and no one will make a mistake in supporting him at the coming primary election.

He is also deserving of the office, having been a consistent Democrat, so that everyone voting the Democratic ticket should not only refrain from voting for his opponent, but they should make it a point to come out and vote for Mr. Caball. Here we have an opportunity to support a Zeeland man who is deserving of our support.

Proposed Charter Amendment

Notice is hereby given that a Special Election will be held at the regular polling places in the several Wards in the City of Holland, Mich., on Tuesday Sept. 15, 1936, in conjunction with the General Primary Election for the purpose of voting on the following proposition:

FORM OF BALLOT

(Instructions)

If you desire to vote in favor of amending the City Charter so as to provide:

FIRST: That the mayor and city attorney together with the city assessor and two supervisors to be elected at large shall represent the City of Holland on the Board of Supervisors of Ottawa County, Mich., and

SECOND: That the Board of Review of the City of Holland shall consist of the mayor, city attorney, city assessor, city engineer, two supervisors and the chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means of the Common Council, and

THIRD: That the term of office of the city treasurer, city attorney, health officer and the several constables be for two years instead of for one year—

You will place a mark (X) in the square opposite the word "Yes".

If you desire to vote against this proposed amendment, you will place a mark (X) in the square opposite the word "No".

The following amendment to the City Charter has been duly proposed:

Charter Amendment

Shall Sections 1, 3 and 5 of Title IV, and Section 23 of Title V, and Section 5 of Title XXIX of the Charter of the City of Holland be amended so as to provide as follows?:

TITLE IV.

Officers

SECTION 1. There shall be elected in said City, a mayor, city clerk, city treasurer, four justices of the peace, one of which justices shall be elected at each annual election, one assessor, two supervisors, one of which shall be elected at each annual election after 1938, one city attorney, one health officer, five members of the Board of Public Works, one of which shall be elected annually, and five members of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, one of which shall be elected annually.

SECTION 3. The following officers shall be appointed by the Council, viz: a city engineer, city inspector and the members of the several appointive boards herein provided for, or such as may be provided for by ordinance.

SECTION 5. The mayor, city clerk, assessor, city treasurer, city attorney, health officer, constables and supervisors shall hold office for the term of two years from the first Monday in April of the year when elected, provided, however, that the city treasurer elected in 1937 shall hold office for a one-year term, and thereafter the city treasurer's office shall be for a two-year term. Provided further, that there shall be no supervisor elected in 1937, and provided further that in 1938, one supervisor shall be elected for a term of one year and one supervisor for a term of two years, and each year after 1938 one supervisor shall be elected for a term of two years. The members of the Board of Public Works and the members of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners shall hold office for a term of five years from the first Monday in April of the year when elected. The city treasurer shall be ineligible to hold his office longer than four years in any period of six years. All officers, whether elected or appointed, shall continue to serve until their respective successors have qualified and entered upon the duties of their office except as in this Charter otherwise provided.

TITLE V.

SECTION 23. The assessor is authorized to perform the same duties in relation to the assessment of property and levying taxes for all purposes as are imposed by law upon supervisors elected in townships; and he shall have like powers and perform like duties in all other respects as supervisors so elected, except as herein otherwise provided so far as such powers and duties are required to be exercised and performed. He shall, together with the mayor, city attorney and two supervisors, represent the City in the Board of Supervisors of Ottawa County, provided, however, that the four supervisors now holding office, together with the city assessor, shall continue to represent the City on said Board of Supervisors until April 1, 1937, and such assessor, together with the mayor, city attorney and supervisors, shall have the rights, privileges and powers of the several members for such Board of Supervisors.

TITLE XXIX.

SECTION 5. The assessor, two supervisors, mayor, city attorney, city engineer and Chairman of the Committee on Ways & Means of the Common Council shall constitute a Board of Equalization and Review of the general assessment rolls of the several Wards of the City, four of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from day to day. They shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to examine the assessment rolls, and they shall have authority to and shall correct any errors or deficiencies found therein, either as to names, valuations or descriptions; and of their own motion, or on cause shown, may reduce or increase the valuation of any property found on said rolls, and to add thereto any taxable property in said City that may have been omitted, and to value the same; and to strike from said rolls in any property wrongfully therein, and generally to perfect said rolls in any respect by said Board deemed necessary and proper, for which services each member of said Board shall receive Three Dollars per day. Provided, that in equalizing the assessed valuation of all the Real and Personal Estate of the County, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Ottawa shall equalize the City of Holland as a unit, the same as the several Townships of the County are equalized.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

SPECIAL preserves and relishes for gifts and party occasions may well be made at this season when many fruits and vegetables are available at reasonable cost.

With schools opening and fall business schedules going into effect, even greater care must be exercised by the housewife in feeding her family. Dairy products, fruits and vegetables help to make up for decreased exposure to fresh air and sunshine.

Beef and lamb chops are still the best meat values though they, together with fresh pork and veal, are higher. The seasonal upward trend of egg prices continues although they are cheaper than they were a year ago, particularly the pullet size.

Here are three menus planned for different budget levels.

Low Cost Dinner	Beef and Vegetable Pot Pie with Biscuit Crust	Sliced Tomatoes	Bread and Butter	Jellied Fruits	Milk
Medium Cost Dinner	Roast Pork	Mashed Potatoes	Baked Stuffed Tomatoes	Bread and Butter	Apple Pie
Very Special Dinner	Baked Ham	Sweet Potatoes	Cauliflower au Gratin	Stuffed Tomato Salad	Bread and Butter
New Apple Pie	Coffee	Cheese

EDWARD BROUWER for STATE SENATOR

Now serving his fourth year as Representative in the Legislature from Ottawa County.

He was elected and re-elected by big majorities, indicating the confidence Ottawa County has in him.

He is the only candidate for the Senate in the 23rd District (Ottawa and Muskegon Counties) having legislative experience.

He has served the people more than 20 years — as an official of the city of Holland; in civic organizations and church societies; as secretary and manager of agricultural societies.

He is a true Humanitarian. No public servant has ever devoted more time and attention to the needs of others. In 1936 he aided more than 80 people to become naturalized; aided old folks with old age pension; assisted afflicted persons with hospitalization and aid from rehabilitation to prepare themselves for future self-support. Space does not permit further details.

LABOR

He supported and introduced legislation for the benefit of labor. The creation of greater benefits under Workmen's Compensation; the paying of expenses of illness and funeral of an employee under certain conditions; the creation of a commission to investigate and recommend to the 1937 legislature the best method of handling Occupational Diseases. Brouwer introduced legislation permitting laborers to "pool" and pay their debts to a Justice Court as conditions and circumstances would permit, and to be distributed by the Justice to the creditors, thereby stopping embarrassing garnishments. This Bill passed the House but died in the Senate.

He is a constant advocate of high wages and condemns the paying of any amount which is not sufficient to adequately support the family comfortably, with at least a few "extras."

He fully recognizes the right and duty of labor to organize, solely for the protection of their rights, and to cooperate with employers to secure better working conditions; to eliminate sweat shops; to secure adequate wages which will permit laborers to live in accordance with American standards.

CONSERVATION

SHOOTING PRESERVES—Brouwer introduced and secured legislation which outlawed the "Special Privileges" on Shooting Preserves. Every hunter now has the same privilege. In the past, others tried to get this law repealed, but failed.

TRAP NET FISHING DEVICES were permitted to operate for several years, to take whitefish from the Great Lakes. This species in some lakes is now practically depleted. Through the untiring efforts of Brouwer, legislation was secured to completely outlaw the use of this net in Lake Michigan and Lake Superior.

Brouwer fought for and supported all other beneficial Conservation legislation. Letters received from all parts of the state commended him for his militant activity. When Mr. Hogarth was State Conservation Director he said: "I wish every legislator was as conscientious and fearless as Representative Brouwer. I hope the people will send him back to Lansing as long as he will serve."

SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION

He has been a staunch supporter for state aid for schools, to assure the children of the education they are entitled to. Parent-teachers associations have commended him highly for his splendid support. He has been fair with all the educational institutions of Michigan.

AGRICULTURE

Brouwer has enjoyed the endorsement or recognition of all the Agricultural organizations in Michigan. He knows the farmers' problems, and therefore has been able to help defeat legislation which was detrimental to them and fight for legislation which would react to their benefit. His record entitles him to the support of agriculture.

SOCIAL SECURITY

No public official has been a greater proponent of Old Age Pensions than Mr. Brouwer. He has personally aided more than 80 old folks to become naturalized so they may be citizens and enjoy old age assistance, and has aided several to secure old age assistance. He pledges himself to do all within his power to increase the state's appropriation to five million dollars in 1937 — this can be done without increasing taxes. He favors the lowering of the age limit from 70 years to 65 years in 1937, and by 1940 to have the age limit down to 60 years. He says "sufficient funds can be made available, without any great hardship on anyone, to allow each old person eligible to old age assistance an amount of $40.00 to $50.00 per month. He pledges himself to work to this end, and also to support legislation for unemployment insurance, and other social security measures.

OTHER MATTERS

He is an enemy of monopoly and class legislation.

He has always been an ardent supporter of Local Government and is convinced that the most honest and economical form of government is conducted by the smaller units. He is bitterly opposed to the destruction of the smaller units and the creation of any form of government which can build a "political machine" to dominate the people.

He has always supported every measure which would bring about economy and honesty in government.

Already in 1932 Mr. Brouwer was active and advocated a Merit System or Civil Service in State Government. He has always opposed the application of so-called "politics" to anything which would not be for the benefit of the people. He is a Republican, but has never voted for or against any legislation because it was sponsored by any party.

Ottawa County has not been favored with a Senator from Ottawa County for 12 years. Mr. Brouwer is now experienced and qualified — the record speaks for itself. We believe the people of Muskegon County will this year support the people from Ottawa County to elect Brouwer to the Senate.

He is married; has one child; is 43 years old; has resided in Holland, Michigan, the past 30 years. He has been a printer for nearly 28 years and has conducted his own printing business a little over 15 years. He is a member of the Maple Avenue Christian Reformed Church of Holland.

Brouwer has MADE GOOD. He has been true to his slogan, "Ability, Plus Christian Principles are necessary for Conscientious, Efficient Government." In recognition of his splendid, honest, conscientious service, let's

AGREEABLY SURPRISED IN CAMPAIGN

(Zeeland Record)

Friends of Benj. C. Van Loo, who is making a race for the nomination to the office of register of deeds, are making a strenuous effort toward success, it was reported here this week.

According to these reports, they are leaving no stones unturned to acquaint the voters with the fact that he is running and that they are in earnest to win. As a result they have placed six large signs on bill boards throughout the county to remain up for the campaign, and now they are placing sizeable banners on convenient places.

This came as an agreeable surprise to Mr. Van Loo when he was first apprized of the fact, and naturally he is elated over it.

Kill That Hen

(Chicago American)

Up in Maine there is a hen which, knowing nothing of the repeal of the laws of nature, the economy of scarcity or the treason of a full day's work, breaks the egg-laying record by producing 214 eggs in as many days. Wait until the Brain Trust hears about THAT hen. A special crew will be sent up to plough her under. Any record for "laying an egg" must be kept in Washington at all costs.

A MISCONCEPTION AS TO HOW TO VOTE

There seems to be a misconception among some people in Ottawa County as to how to vote correctly at the coming Primary election, Tuesday, September 15. The misconception is that voters can pick candidates from different party tickets. This is all wrong and it seems strange that after all these years of primaries such a misunderstanding should have arisen. How this thought could have gained credence is difficult to conjecture unless some prospective voters are getting their dates mixed and have in mind the General election in November instead of the Primaries in September.

On the November election the voter can pick his or her choice of nominees from the different ballots, whether that candidate be on the Republican, Democratic, Social Labor, Farm Labor or any of the eight or more tickets to be found on the blanket November ballot.

However, at the Primary election week after next this is all different, for instance, when the voter enters the polling place he or she can only vote for one of the candidates for each office, no matter whether that be for Sheriff, Judge of Probate, State Senator, Congressman, Governor or any of the other offices mentioned on the ticket, with the exception of Coroner or Circuit Court Commissioner, where in Ottawa County two for each of these offices are named and voted for.

But remember, before you are admitted to the booth, the election inspector will ask the voter which party ticket he desires, whether he or she wants a Republican ballot, a Democratic ballot, or any other ballot for which there are candidates to be nominated. If the voter wants a Republican ballot, he or she will ask for it and will be handed such a ballot, no other. If he or she wants a Democratic ballot that ballot will be handed to them and no other, and so with other ballots for which there are nominations. When the ballot is given the voter, the clerk of election will enter on the poll books the kind of ballot the voter asks for, in short, if you declare a Republican ballot, you vote for the candidates on that ballot only and by the same token if you ask for a Democratic ballot you can only vote for the candidates on that ballot. It isn't like in the November election where you can cross over from one ballot to the other and are privileged to vote for candidates of your choice on any ticket. At the Primaries you can only receive one ballot and that is the ballot you ask for. Remember this applies to September Primaries only and not to the General election.

Free Fishing Is All Off

The slogan, "No Fish—No Money," adopted by those operating boats for lake trout fishing in Lake Michigan out of Northport, Mich., is no more. Today, those who troll for the trout must pay whether they return with fish or not.

Boat owners say that the "no fish—no money" plan proved expensive. They contend that too many parties came to have a good time rather than fish and that as a result the boat owners were out for the day's work.

"Too many parties came here to celebrate and not to fish and so we were forced to change our policy," one boat owner said.

There probably is another reason for the change in policy. That is the growing popularity of the trout fishing. When the sport was started, customers were not so plentiful and the "No Fish—No Money" plan proved good advertising. The sport has become so popular this season that on some days all the boats are rented. In fact, it is necessary to make arrangements in advance to insure a boat on certain days. With the increased business naturally the boat owners were in a position to change their policy.

SPEARING IN MICHIGAN WATERS SHOULD BE ABOLISHED

If Michigan is to continue to attract hook and line fishermen to its lakes during the summer vacation period the winter spearing of fish will have to be curtailed. Right today a number of what were once our most attractive waters for hook and line fishermen are almost fishless. The drain has been altogether too great and the spear is largely responsible. If we feel that the local resident should be given permission to fish for food during the period the lakes are frozen over he should be limited to a hand line and not be allowed to use a spear; the greatest destroyer of game and food fish life we now have. Unless this is done the list of barren and near-barren lakes is certain to increase and all will lose their appeal for the tourist and fishing vacationist.

Concerning Muskmelons

We shall soon have Michigan muskmelons on the market if they are not here already. They are better than any we get from anywhere else—like all other Michigan products. They are mostly of two kinds, Honey Rocks and Gold Hearts. People are divided in their preference between the two but you will not be regretful in choice of either. Gold Hearts have been the longer on the market. Honey Rocks are crosses between Gold Hearts and some Arizona gold. The old Osage is still a first-class melon. It was originated at Benton Harbor by the late Roland Morrill who told the writer he sold the first lot of seed he marketed for $1,500. People generally have come to call muskmelons cantaloupes, which is well enough but the term was first applied to a new, large, rough skinned, orangefleshed melon. Cantaloupe name comes from a castle, cantalupa, in Italy, where these melons were first grown from seed brought from Armenia.

This Summer

This Summer, valiant and brief, knows its completion in a leaf, and by the spending of an hour builds emerald sheath and ivory flower. The warm investment of this air breeds purple grape and shapes the pear. The light cascade of August rain implores the day to remain, and with devotion breaks asunder clover heads for bees to plunder; till men with eyes alive must see the season's prodigality; and how with Winter at its root Summer lets fall the burnished fruit.

JOHN RITCHIE

SUGGESTS PLAN TO SAVE HEN PHEASANTS

A reader of The News wild life page who signs himself "Save the Birds Ray" suggests that one way of protecting hen pheasants from unnecessary slaughter would be to hold up the opening of the pheasant season for about a month after the season on rabbits and other small game has started. At the time the small game season opens in the fall, he points out, pheasants are inclined to stay in flocks, and the average hunter who has the impulse to aim at the first cock he sees is quite likely to hit a nearby hen without intending to. If the bird season could be held up until the rabbit hunters with their dogs and guns had free rein in the woods for a while, this writer reasons, the pheasants would be on the alert and go about singly—and as a result the hens would be less likely to be killed by shot intended for male birds.—Detroit News.

A FLOCK OF PHEASANTS

Vaudie Vanden Berg states that he met up with a whole flock of pheasants Sunday not far from Waukegon. They were leisurely walking on the concrete. He stopped his car to let them pass into the undergrowth. They were beauties and too tame for sporty shooting.

Miss Kay Plasman, a bride-to-be was the honored guest at a surprise miscellaneous shower given, Thursday evening, by Mrs. E. Plasman, Misses Margaret and Gertrude Plasman, at their home. Games provided entertainment and prizes were awarded. Refreshments were served. Those present were, Mrs. H. Aldering, Mrs. G. Meiste, Mrs. G. Aldering, Mrs. E. Arens, Mrs. J. Atman, Mrs. H. SEE PLANT HELP IN TRANSPLANTING Transplanting young evergreens does not do them any harm if it is properly done. In fact, some authorities state that evergreens that have been transplanted several times are most likely to thrive because the successive plantings stimulate the growth of small roots.

HARD WORK

Nobody ever will make this country a present of good times. There is but one way to get prosperity and that is to work for it. Congress can't make any law that ever will take the place of good crops and good prices. As a rule, interference of any kind by the government in the people's business affairs costs the people something and hurts them more than it helps.—Yakima, Wash., Republic.

H. J. HEINZ PUTS ON FINE NEW RADIO PROGRAM

A princess and a duchess are in the large group of celebrities that will be introduced to a coast-to-coast radio audience through the unique medium of Heinz Magazine of the Air, which will make its first appearance Wednesday, September 2, as one of the biggest day programs on the air. The program will carry into millions of radio homes a complete magazine, with an enhanced interest because the authors of the articles and editorials will read what they have written, and a serial that will be dramatized. The "magazine" will be given a musical setting, permitting the introduction of leading vocalists and instrumentalists.

The program will be broadcast over the Columbia network each Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Guest stars will include Grand Duchess Marie, of Russia; Princess Kropotkin, of Russia; Angelo Patri, Fannie Hurst, Christopher Morley, Dr. William Moulton Marston, Dorothea Brande, Walter B. Pitkin, Cornelia Bryce Pinchot, Colonel Ralph Isham, Theodore Dreiser, Alice Foot MacDougal, Sheila Hibben, Sherwood Anderson, Leonard Barron, Wendy Marshall, Prunella Wood, Marjorie Wilson, Helen Worden and Harrison Forman. Many other notables will contribute during the series.

Those who will take part regularly include Leith Stevens and his orchestra, with a mixed chorus; Reed Kennedy, Pittsburgh baritone; Delmar Edmondson, well-known commentator from the West Coast, who will act as editor, and Bill Adams, famous for his impersonations on the "March of Time" series, who will do the announcing.

The orchestra will be sponsored by the Gersford sisters and a male quartet consisting of Gordon Graham, John Rogers, Roger Kinne and Floyd Sherman.

When the pages of the "magazine" turn to fiction, sketches of the "Trouble House" serial by Elaine Sterne Carrington will be enacted. The cast includes Ann Elster, Elsie Mae Gordon, Ray Collins, Rita Allen, Dorothy Lowell, Gretchen Davidson, Carleton Young, Ted Reade and Jerry Macy.

Late Fishing Statistics

Workers connected with the Institute of Fisheries Research, at the University of Michigan, have gathered information on fishing conditions in Michigan this year that cause them to report as follows:

Fishing in trout waters was decidedly better in the upper peninsula than in the lower peninsula.

Non-resident stream fishermen caught more fish per hour for the entire state than resident stream fishermen.

Non-resident lake fishermen caught fewer fish per hour for the entire state than resident lake fishermen.

For all fishing the catch per hour was slightly higher for residents than for non-residents.

Female stream fishermen caught only about half the fish per hour caught by male fishermen.

Female lake fishermen were almost as successful as male lake fishermen in catching fish.

Female fishermen, for all fishing combined, were almost as successful as male fishermen.

Of all stream fishermen, 4 1/2 per cent were women. Of all lake fishermen, 7 per cent were women; of all fishermen, 6 per cent were women.

Six members of the local I.O.O.F. campment, James Crewie, George Vanderhill, James Buttle, Raymond Ambuster, George Ogden and W. S. Shaffer have returned from the Western Michigan Encampment Circuit I.O.O.F. held in Ludington, last Saturday. Members of the local lodge met, Tuesday evening, in the I.O.O.F. hall to make final arrangements for a picnic to be held, Saturday, at Port Sheldon.

Mistress Dies; Her Dogs Are Put to Death

GERTRUDE LUBBERS OF FREMONT WILLED DEATH OF TWO PETS

The death Saturday of Miss Gertrude Lubbers, 46 years old, an employee of the Fremont Canning Co., at Fremont, the past 33 years, also brought about the death of her two faithful dogs which threatened for a time to prevent a doctor from treating their mistress who became seriously ill at her home about a week ago.

It was Miss Lubbers' last wish that her dogs also die should she fail to recover from her illness, and she requested hospital attendants to tell Police Chief Al Luchies to dispose of the dogs. Miss Lubbers died with her wish fulfilled.

Recently Miss Lubbers called Dr. Willis Geerlings to her home but before he could reach her she had become unconscious in her chair. When the doctor entered the home one of the dogs was lying on its mistress' lap and the other beside her chair. The animals would not let the doctor come near Miss Lubbers and he was able to treat her only after Chief Luchies had been called and captured the dogs. Miss Lubbers was later removed to the hospital where she died.

Miss Lubbers was born in the vicinity of Fremont and had always lived there. Her long record of employment with the canning company started when she was but 13 years old. She had worked until shortly before her illness.

Surviving are two brothers, Albert of Muskegon and Henry of Fremont. Funeral services were held from the Reformed church of which she was a member, with Rev. H. C. Jacobs, the pastor, in charge. Burial was made in Maple Grove at Fremont.

A dinner party was given, Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Bosch, on the Park road in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Heimburger, who will leave for Sweden, Sept. 6. Prizes for the games played were awarded to Mrs. Peter Van Domelen, Jr. and Prof. E. P. McLean. The Heimburgers were presented with a guest prize.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. Paul McLean, Prof. and Mrs. E. Paul McLean, Prof. and Mrs. Bruce Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Van Domelen, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. O. Vander Velde, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Van Raalte, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Yeomans, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Den Herder, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Rees, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hinga, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bosch, Mr. and Mrs. John Vander Broek, Mr. and Mrs. James Klomprens, Mrs. J. D. French, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Esten and Mr. and Mrs. Harold McLean, all of Holland, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Den Heider of Zeeland.

Miss Alice Bulman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Bulman, of Marion, Mich., and Roger A. Leestman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Leestman, 87 East 12th St., were united in marriage Saturday evening in Hope Reformed church. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jacob Just of Kalamazoo. Attending the couple were Miss Della Helder of Holland and George Van Eenennaam of Zeeland. Miss Antoinette Van Koevelling of Zeeland played appropriate organ music during the service.

The bride was a teacher in Longfellow school here for the past five years. Mr. Leestman graduated from Hope College in June and has accepted a position as teacher of history and geography and assistant coach of athletics in Fenton, Michigan. Mrs. Leestman was a teacher at a beach party at Eagle Crest Park. Mr. and Mrs. Leestman have left for their future home in Fenton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Problem entertained at their home in Gibson with a lawn party in honor of Mr. Problem's mother who celebrated her 74th birthday anniversary. Guests from Chicago were Mrs. John Seabury and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lund, Bernard Problem and Miss Ann Sather. Those attending from this vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. Ebbsen, Mr. and Mrs. Lindholm, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Wilner and Mrs. Sather and daughter, Esther. Mrs. Problem's grandson, Bernard, entertained with several selections on his accordion.

The new cold storage plant of the canning factory at Fennville is in readiness for the harvest of Bartlett pears. Several new pieces of bean machinery have been placed to care for the volume of string beans now being brought in since the recent rains.

Jack Fraser, 38, of Lansing, waived examination Saturday at his arraignment on a charge of negligent homicide in connection with a fatal traffic accident near Jackson. Fraser said he was attempting to pass another automobile on the West Avenue bridge when his automobile struck the motorcar of Meredith Russell, Lansing. Mrs. Bert Russell, 65, of Fennville, riding in that automobile, suffered fatal injuries. Four other persons were hurt in the crash, but none was in a serious condition. The injured were Mrs. Russell's husband, also 65, who suffered a leg injury and a deep cut on his head; their son, Meredith, 33, of Lansing, probable rib fracture; Mrs. Gertrude Fraser, 28, of Lansing, whose husband, Jack, 38, was the driver of the car which sideswiped the Russell machine, a possible fractured ankle, and Forrest Cameron, 33, also of Lansing, a passenger in the Fraser car, scalp wounds. Meredith Russell's sister, Mary, of Fennville; his wife, Sophie, 26, and their 5-year-old daughter, Virginia, were unhurt as was Miss Virginia Davis, 19, riding with the Frasers.

A terrific gale and rain storm passed through this section recently, uprooting and blowing down many shade and fruit trees. Thousands of bushes of pears, plums, peaches and apples were blown to the ground, telephone lines put out of commission, automobile crashes, two barns and a chicken coop were struck by lightning near Saugatuck and burned. A horse owned by Charles Kellar was killed by lightning in the pasture.

Deputy Sheriff Ben Stenberg of Allegan County with the aid of Officers Ben Kalkman and Dick Homkes of Holland recovered a man's body in a sink hole along the Pere Marquette right of way three-quarters of a mile south of East Saugatuck in response to a call believed to have come from a railroad engineer after he noticed the body as he was passing in a train. The body was found face down in a sinkhole almost 75 feet from the tracks and on the far side of a five-foot fence marking the railroad right-of-way. There is a prominent grade from the track level down to the sinkhole. The body was partially decomposed and was believed to have been there about 10 days. Evidence of injury was found about the man's chin and chest, it was said. He was described as 35 years old, five feet six inches tall, weighing 135 pounds and having dark brown hair. Officials here believed the man was hit by a train. Sheriff Fred Miller expressed the opinion that the unidentified man was a "hobo" and had stumbled into the sinkhole and drowned.

Ottawa County News

Funeral services were held, Wed. at the Hudsonville Reformed church for Gerrit J. Peuscher, 86, pioneer resident who died, Sunday. Burial was in the Georgetown cemetery. He was a Pere Marquette railroad section boss. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. J. Kormoje of Zeeland and Mrs. N. Doornbos of Grand Rapids, and a son, John, of Saginaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles De Jongh, of Zeeland, entertained at their home in honor of Miss Grace De Jongh, of West Olive, at a birthday party, Saturday afternoon and evening. Lunch was served in the afternoon, and supper at 6:30 o'clock. Miss De Jongh was presented with several gifts. Those honoring Miss De Jongh were Mr. and Mrs. Abe De Jongh, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garvelink and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Charles De Jongh and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed De Jongh and son, Ben Overway and Miss De Jongh.

ZUTPHEN

A kitchen shower was given in honor of Miss Cora Dell Morrill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Morrill Wednesday evening. Morrill and Miss Cora Dell Morrill and many useful gifts.

Student C. Van Der Heuvel conducted the morning and afternoon services here Sunday. Rev. C. Vroom had charge of the services at the North Blendon Chr. Ref. church.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ritman of Grand Rapids were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Koopman and Alvin on Saturday.

Orman Gerald, Lenora Mae, and Geneva Ann Van Hartsmas of Zeeland spent the past week with their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Van Ess.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meinema and son of Grandville were recent visitors at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elders.

GRAAFSCHAP

Mr. Henry Nyboer, son of John Nyboer of Holland, who was severely injured in an accident at June in the steel mill at Granite City, Ill., has just been released from the hospital and is convalescing at his home there. Mr. Nyboer is well known and is a graduate of Hope College.

A large crowd was present at both the afternoon and evening programs of the Maplewood school of Graafschap. The afternoon program was opened with prayer by Rev. Albert H. Strabbing, a former teacher, followed by the singing of Dutch psalms under the leadership of the Rev. Vander Werp. Various speakers for the afternoon were Mrs. Ver Meulen, Rev. Strabbing, Rev. Vander Werp and J. Van Anrooy. Music was furnished by the Stoltz Sisters and a reading as given by Mrs. Gary Baker. The song, "Blessed Be the Tie that Binds" closed the afternoon program. A basket picnic was served with free lemonade furnished. The evening program, which started at 8 o'clock was opened with prayer and community singing led by Harold Oetman, accompanied by Miss Ruth Van Anrooy. String music was furnished by a quartet composed of Marvin Beckvoort, John Beckvoort, James Jongkrig and Hans Tubergen. Musical selections were given by the Stoltz sisters and a play entitled "Don't Shoot," was enacted by three members of the Weighmink family. After a recess, more musical numbers were given and the program was concluded with "Blessed Be the Tie that Binds." The canteen committee was composed of Gerrit Schipper, John Tubergen, Gary Baker, Gerrit Schurman, Jerry Schrotenboer and Herman Garvelink. The program committee was composed of Gary Baker, Herman Garvelink, Harold Oetman, Gerrit Schipper, Gerrit Schurman and John Tubergen.

Mrs. Ted Wyma and Miss Winnifred Wyma were hostesses at a surprise miscellaneous shower at the Ted Wyma home in honor of Mrs. John Elferdink, a recent bride. Bunco and other games were played and a two course lunch was served. The honored guest was presented with many useful gifts. Those present included Mrs. Jack Van Hoff, Mrs. Fred Galien, Misses Thelma Homkes, Viola Stinfort, Henrietta Bosch, Gertrude McLain Ida Wyngarden, Henrietta Huizenga, Christine Bos, and Henrietta Johnson, Mrs. Zietlow, Mrs. C. Elferdink, Mrs. John Wyma, Mrs. R. Wyma and the hostesses and the guest of honor.

Mr. Henry Kruiskamp from East Saugatuck visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walters in Graafschap last week.

Foster Bowman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bowman from East Saugatuck was taken to the Holland hospital last week for an operation. He is doing nicely.

NOORDELOOS

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stengenga were notified of the sad death of their son in law, Mr. Rhine Roon, aged 32 years, who was instantly killed by lightning at his home in Rush. Mrs. R. Roon, it will be remembered, is the former Miss Augusta Stengenga, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stengenga.

Mrs. Horace Maatma returned home from Spring Lake where she has been caring for her niece, Mrs. Julius Garbrecht.

The Regular Consistory meeting was held in the local church, Monday evening.

The school bells are again ringing after a lull of three months. The North Holland pupils were greeted by some great improvements in the school that have just been completed. Mr. J. Dyksterhouse and Miss Gertrude Beltman are again teaching here for the coming year. Mr. G. J. Fynerwever has left. Another teacher will take his position in the high school.

The line men have been busy putting up the electric light poles and several farm homes and barns have been wired and are ready for the main power line to be put up. Electricity will soon be a reality for the rural residents.

Student Lambertus Ostendorp had charge of the services in the local church Sunday in the absence of the pastor who was filling a classical appointment.

OVERISEL

Rev. Edward Tanis of Immanuel Reformed church conducted the services in the Reformed church, Sunday.

Rev. Harold Arink and family

A NEW DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Fight for Your Liberty. Your Freedom from Official Tyranny

Hysteria? By no means. Read again the Declaration of Independence and compare the wrongs there complained of, the conditions then existing, with the situation of today.

Of King George, it said: "He has obstructed the administration of justice."

"He has erected a multitude of new offices and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance."

"He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our Constitution—

"For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world;

"For imposing taxes on us without our consent;

"For depriving us in many cases of trial by jury."

"He has excited domestic insurrections among us."

Such was the tyranny under King George in 1776. Read now of the tyranny attempted by the New Dealers.

The administration, by NRA, "obstructed the administration of justice." It sent citizens to jail for the violation of rules and regulations promulgated, not by the authority of Congress, the law-making power, but by executive officers doing the will of the administration. The baker who sold bread, the tailor who pressed pants, the battery man who performed work for his neighbors, at prices less than those fixed by an executive officer, were convicted, all without authority of law.

You were taxed without representation. Money was taken from the consumer; it was taken from the producer, to pay "a multitude of new offices"—Federal appointees—"swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance."

Literally millions of dollars in taxes decreed by the Supreme Court to be unlawful, were collected from us, not by tax-imposing body, Congress, but by members of the present brain trusters, acting through his administrative officers.

Men were deprived of trial by jury, forced to appear before an executive officer, sentenced and punishment imposed, all in violation of law.

By executive order more than three million acres of land were taken out of cultivation. The Government's own report states that, because of it, in one industry, more than a million men were deprived of employment.

By illegal executive order more than six million pigs, 443,627,348 pounds, were killed. Only 97,064,159 pounds were saved for food. The rest went into grease or fertilizer. The doctrine of scarcity of food was inaugurated. American farmers were prevented from producing food. Their market was invaded by foreign products. The American consumer was forced to buy millions of dollars worth of food from farmers of foreign lands.

The Supreme Court has saved us temporarily from a continuation of this tyranny, from the operation of these unjust laws. Nine of the President's laws enacted, so it was said, because "an emergency existed," to create a "more abundant life."

But you know, and the purpose although concealed is evident, that, if the New Deal can win the coming election, the membership of that Court, because of death and the power of appointment, will be changed to further and declare valid New Deal policies. The last safeguard of liberty, the Supreme Court, will be gone, and once again a rubber-stamp Congress will be set upon to pass "must" legislation which, in its operation, will destroy the freedom of the press, the freedom of speech, the liberty of the citizen, the right to transact business, to own and hold property free from excessive taxation, and the much talked of "common man" will find that he has placed himself, his children, and his grandchildren in the hands of the tax collector.

As the President said, "Remember well that attitude and method—the way we do things, not just the way we say things, is nearly always the measure of our sincerity."

Every act, notwithstanding the fair words, indicates a studied purpose here in America to place in the hands of the President and his advisers unlimited, arbitrary power.

As you love your country, as you hope for opportunity for your children, study the issues and give us in the White House, not a "superman," a "master mind," but one of the "common people," Alf M. London.

Conditions indicate that our President and some of his advisers believe in a dictatorship. The dictators of Europe today are filling the world with rumors of war. Arbitrary power in the hands of a President may bring us war. Never by my vote will war be declared, except in defense of our own land when it is invaded. In this time of unrest we need a man of the common people and, to support him in the presidency, Congressmen upon whom you can rely.

The Primary is September 15. Election is November 3.

Respectfully,
CLARE E. HOFFMAN,
Republican Candidate for Congress
