EGYPTIAN CHARIOT ON THE STREETS OF HOLLAND

TWO WHEELED VEHICLE OF "KING TUTT'S" DAYS DRAWN BY SPIRITED TEAM

Sometime Friday Holland folks will see on the public streets a beautiful Egyptian chariot in style when "King Tut" was still on earth.

No, "Ben Hur" is not coming to town, but this chariot is one of the many used in producing the wonderful religious film "The Ten Commandments", considered by those who have seen this production as the greatest picture yet made.

The chariot will be on display in front of the Colonial Theatre, out from time to time it is too be drawn through the streets of Holland by a spanking team of black horses.

The chariotier in the two wheeled vehicle will also drive to Zeeland and Saugatuck to show the citizens there.

Of course it is all part of the film advertising scheme telling of the coming of this picture to the Colonial for five days, beginning Monday of next week, but it is interesting nevertheless.

The chariot is done in silver and black with gold trimmings, and the harnesses for the horses were made in Egypt in order to have the original.

It is stated that the leather work is remarkable and altogether different than American made leather.

JAMES DAVIS IS BOUND OVER FOR CIRCUIT TRIAL

James Davis of Frankfort, marine cook, who was arrested Monday following an alleged attempt to take a pair of shoes from the Enterprise Clothing company at Grand Haven, was bound over to circuit court Wednesday upon arraignment in Justice Lillie's court. His bail was fixed at $300 which was not furnished and Davis will have to remain in jail. The case will come up in the September term of court.

FRIDAY IS SENTENCING DAY IN THE COURT

JUDGE CROSS WILL MEET OUT 34 SENTENCES TO THOSE WHO STAND CONVICTED

Petty Convicted of Assaulting a Young Woman, Has Appealed His Case To The Supreme Court

Tomorrow, Friday commonly called "hangmans day" will also be sentencing day in Circuit court at Grand Haven. Sometime during the day Judge Cross will sentence 34 persons who stand convicted on different charges.

Frank Petty, who was convicted of assaulting a young woman in Jamestown township, has appealed his case to the Supreme court. The prosecuting attorney objected to his exceptions before sentence being signed by the court, but the court felt that it was a very serious crime and that Petty should have every opportunity of having his case fully heard before the Supreme court before sentence was passed.

Andrew Bulas, of Robinson township, who was convicted by the jury of keeping a place where whiskey was sold, also has appealed his case to the Supreme court.

Frank Van Ry, Jr., who was convicted at this term for violation of the prohibitory liquor law is ill and will not be able to appear for sentence.

Two other young men will be sentenced Friday, who some time ago were put on probation by the court. They violated the conditions exacted by the court, and now Dennis Sullivan and Milton Parker will be given full sentence on the original charge, and no doubt the judge will be severe on them, considering that he was willing to give them a chance.

Emory East who was convicted in Circuit court nearly a year ago on a liquor charge, carried his case to the Supreme court, but the court affirmed the conviction in the lower court, and East will be sentenced tomorrow with the others.

Some of the convicts have already been sentenced by Judge Cross. One was Patrick Toney convicted of assault and Roy Scott and John Murray who stole a car at Holland. These men were given one year at Ionia.

Ed Holman and Harvey Cunningham, who stole a car in Holland belonging to Andy Vos were sentenced by Judge Cross Monday, from two to five years in the Ionia Reformatory. They had previously been sentenced to Ionia from Muskegon county for breaking and entering a building and were on parole at the time they stole Vos's car.

Harvey Gilbert and Orville Hoag were recently sentenced, having been arrested in Holland for violation of the prohibitory liquor law, to pay in costs and serve six months each in the reformatory. They had two gallons of moonshine whiskey in their car.

Jacob Alger, a young man from Grand Rapids who together with others, broke and entered Potter's garage at Spring Lake some time ago, was also sentenced Monday to serve six months in the Reformatory at Ionia and to pay the costs and a fine of $50.00.

Other persons who will be sentenced tomorrow are:

Frank Peck, Dave Lyons, Mary Spevak, Frank Godhardt, F. W. Theberath, Frank Van Ry, Jr., William Sietema, Gerrit Branderhorst, Emory East, John Kuipers, John Fritzen, Edward Each, Peter Van Dorpie Casper Ruch, Carl E. ## HOLLAND PEN IS SPEEDING UP AT CONTEST

ZEELAND BIRDS STILL LEAD IN EGG RACE AT M. S. C.

The Royal Hatchery at Zeeland continues to lead the egg laying contest at Michigan State College, and are slowly increasing their lead over the other pens. High bird honors among Ottawa County pens are still a tie between Royal Hatchery, White Leghorn, and John Park, Rhode Island Red each with a production of 255 eggs to date. Hopes for a 300 egg hen from this county are very slim, although a number of birds will be among the high ten in the entire contest which ends November first.

Simon Harkema's pen has shown outstanding speed during the fall cycle. On May 8th his pen stood forty-fourth in the contest. At present his pen stands 25th and has averaged more than 50 eggs a week for June, July and August.

Following are comparative figures on Ottawa County Pens:

WALL OF WATER AMAZES MOVIE FILM PATRONS

PILLAR OF FIRE, AND THE OPENING OF THE SEA IS MYSTERIOUS AND AWE INSPIRING

"The Ten Commandments" Is a Sermon Preached Through Pictures

Without an exception the Holland people who saw the great religious film, "The Ten Commandments," at Powers opera house at Grand Rapids about six months ago, pronounced it the most wonderful production ever put on the silver screen. It is a sermon in pictures and portrays the children of Israel in slavery while still in Egypt and how God thru Moses delivered them from bondage, chastizing Pharaoh and his people with the seven plagues.

The visitations by God upon these Egyptians, are all shown and the well known story of how Moses led the Israelites out of Egypt, is clearly depicted.

One of the most awe inspiring sights in the picture is the column of fire, that stands between the Egyptian army and the fleeing Israelites.

Still more wonderful is that part of the picture shown, where Moses strikes the Red Sea and the waters are immediately walled up, leaving a pathway on the sea bottom, in order that the Israelites may find an avenue of escape by going through this lane, to the shores beyond.

It is difficult for movie patrons to understand how the producer filmed that part of the picture showing the coming together of these two walls of water, just as the persistent Pharaoh and his soldiers were in the middle of the sea, and after the Children of Israel had made the trip safely through.

Such turbulent waters and the sight of sinking chariots, horses and armored soldiers, has never been pictured before.

The struggling in this maelstrom of the sea, is hard to realize, and naturally is a trick in photography, since no participants in the production of "The Ten Commandments" numbering thousands are known to have perished.

The walling of the water in the sea, naturally is also a trick in the movie art known only to the producer, but are mighty realistic nevertheless.

Of course these features are spectacular parts of the production, however, the creation of the tablets of stone by God and given to Moses on Mt. Sinai, accompanied with crashes of thunder and lightning are also wonderful exhibitions, showing the advancement made in this cinema masterpiece.

Naturally the making of and worshipping of the Golden Calf during Moses prolonged absence, calls for considerable barbaric display, and the picture shows where the children of Israel had forgotten God, and as the Biblical story unfolds Moses in his anger cast down the tablets of stone, and then the penitents of God's chosen people, is pitiful to behold.

Jeanie Macpherson, the author or parallels the story with present day life. The scene changes from Egypt to the United States, and from the days of idols to the modern days of Jazz. But it also pictures how the modern people of today are breaking the Ten Commandments one by one, and finally pictures the awful ending of those who constantly break God's fundamental laws, and on the other hand the reward that comes to those "who believe in him and keep his commandments."

FRENCH CLOAK STORE MOVES TO NEW LOCATION

Manager John Van Tatenhove of the French Cloak store, announces that the entire stock has been moved from the old quarters to the newly remodeled building, formerly owned and occupied by John Vandersluis, the retired dry goods merchant.

The fall stocks are now in and besides a new building, the contents are also new.

MUCH MONEY COLLECTED FOR THE NEAR EAST

The most successful Near East Relief campaign that has ever been held here will officially come to a close this evening although it is expected that donations will continue to come in the rest of the week. No detailed report has yet been made by the churches where collections were held on Sunday, but unofficial reports show that the campaign has been extremely successful. When the finance committee casts up its accounts it is expected that Holland will be credited with several thousand dollars in small amounts in addition to a few large amounts that will make the total a very substantial sum.

Collections were held Sunday in most of the churches of Holland and it is expected that those who did not do this work Sunday will hold collections next Sunday. Moreover, the accounts will remain open at the three banks all this week so that those who have not had an opportunity to make a donation or subscription can do so at any one of the banks this week.

Mr. John M. Yonan, who has been in charge of the educational campaign in Holland for the past two weeks, will put on a similar campaign in Zeeland this week. He spoke in the First Reformed church of Zeeland Sunday night and he will speak in other Zeeland churches next Sunday. On Friday of this week he will speak at the Zeeland schools and he expects to make a number of addresses in Zeeland during the week. Plans are shaping for collections in the Zeeland churches next Sunday or the Sunday after.

Mr. Yonan will continue to make his headquarters in Holland this week while working in Zeeland, with a view of "mopping up" on the campaign here. At the end of the week he will go to Grand Haven where he will put on a similar campaign.

"Holland has been a great experience for me," he said today. "Holland's heart is certainly in the right place."

William H. Vande Water, who in his newspaper articles signs his name as "Vandie," was married Saturday evening at seven o'clock to Miss Katherine Annette Van Ry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Van Ry, 201 West 15th-st. The marriage was performed by Rev. C. P. Dame, pastor of Trinity church. The ceremony was very impressive, the ring service being used.

The bride entered on the arm of her father while Lohengrin's wedding march was being played by Miss Julia Krapp, of the Conservatory of Music at Grand Rapids. At the beautifully decorated altar, made up of seasonal flowers, the groom, in conventional black, awaited the bride, who was beautifully gowned in white georgette, trimmed in silver, her silver veil trimmed with white flowers and a bouquet of white roses and white lilies. The bridesmaid, Miss Mable Vande Water, sister of the groom, was gowned in green georgette, with grey fur trim. She also carried a bouquet of roses and asters.

Mr. Franklin F. Van Ry of Chicago, brother of the bride, was best man, while Miss Althea Raffenaud was ring bearer and Miss Jane Raffenaud acted as flower girl.

The Van Ry home was beautifully decked with autumn flowers and ferns, gladioli, asters, cosmos predominating. At least 50 guests were present and after the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

The bride is a popular young lady, a graduate of Holland high school and she later finished a business course. She became identified with the offices of the Thompson Mfg. Co.

Mr. Vande Water, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Vande Water, is also a graduate of the local high school and after serving some time as mail carrier in the Holland post office, he resigned to study journalism at the Western State Normal at Kalamazoo. Mr. Vande Water has written for the Sentinel under the nom-de-plume of "Vandie" and has also been sport writer for the Kalamazoo Gazette and the Holland correspondent for the Grand Rapids Herald.

The happy couple left for Fremont, where the groom has accepted a position as instructor in the public schools.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Van Oort, Grandville, Mich.; Miss Julia Krapp, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Franklin Van Ry, Chicago; Thomas Ten Ten Hyene, Passaic, New Jersey.

The P.T. club of the district No. 2 school held its first meeting of the year on Friday evening. The keen interest in the club was evident in the large attendance present. Mr. Van Der Ven, president of the club, gave the address of welcome, which was followed with prayer by Mr. Schipper. Van Dyk's orchestra rendered several selections.

Messrs. Stanley, Eugene and Immanuel Huyser, as the "Dixie Triplets," entertained with oldtime melodies and songs. Their ukelele trios and Hawaiian selections were so pleasing the musicians responded to several encores.

The address of the evening was given by Mr. Evans of the Zeeland high school, whose subject was "Modern Education." A delicious lunch served by the committee was enjoyed by all present.

The Holland Canning company expects to wind up its season's pack about Nov. 1. Although the season opened last spring with a discouraging outlook when the strawberry crop was less than one-tenth of its annual pack, as a whole it has proved one of the best in years.

The bean pack has been completed and 236 tons of yellow and green beans were packed. The tomato season has produced the largest crop in 11 years and the pack will continue until a heavy frost kills the harvest. The company expects to pack about 8,000 bushels of pears, the yield of four acres of carrots, and probably some late varieties of peaches.

The rhubarb season is by far the largest on record. About 100 tons were packed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rutgers, who went to Chicago with their son Gerrit, who is employed for the Bell Telephone Co. there, have returned to their home in Holland. Gerrit Rutgers visited his parents in Holland, coming here in his car, and Mr. and Mrs. Rutgers went to Chicago with him on the return trip.

Mrs. Eliza Griffiths, aged 71, was struck by an auto Saturday night while crossing Eighth street at Columbia Ave. The accident happened about 10 o'clock during the rain storm which visited Holland.

Mr. De Gloppe, driver of the car, declared he never saw Mrs. Griffiths until she was directly in the path of the car. Dykstra's ambulance removed the aged woman to Holland hospital where she was examined by Dr. Tappan and although no bones were broken the shock made Mrs. Griffiths' condition serious. Monday morning her condition was reported as favorable. She is now at her home at 234 East Ninth-st.

Rev. J. J. Hiemenga, who last spring resigned the presidency of Calvin college on account of ill health and a desire to re-enter the ministry, has received a call from the Christian Reformed church at Lafayette, Ind. Rev. J. Zeeuw of Noordeloos has received a call from the Christian Reformed church at Har-dewyk on the Alpena road. Second Christian Reformed congregation of Orange City, Ia., has extended a call to Rev. George Hylkema of Roseland, Ill.

Fred Jonkman left Monday morning for New Haven, Conn., where he will study medicine at Yale University. Jonkman graduated in the class of 1925 and obtained a scholarship in biology which he will take with his medical course at Yale. The Miami Herald, of Miami, Fla., contains a picture of Henry Vander Lei, formerly of Holland, now owner of a 10-unit bungalow apartment in Miami, and also a picture of the apartment. The following story accompanies the cuts:

"Ten Miami families were made happy yesterday by the announcement of Henry Vander Lei, owner of a 10-unit bungalow apartment in N. W. 5th-st., that rents will not be raised during the winter season.

"When asked his reason for the novel announcement Mr. Vander Lei, with a twinkle in his eye, said that he believes in the principle of 'live and let live' and that he even goes so far as to try to apply the Golden Rule in business.

"Though not a wealthy man, he is a typical representative of the successful Hollander, jovial, kindly and quick witted.

"Mr. Vander Lei and family returned Tuesday from Grand Rapids, where they formerly resided and where they spent the summer. They are now at home at 2131 E. D. 10th-st., Shenandoah."

The housekeepers of Holland are asked to preserve an extra can of peaches and pears for the Roosevelt hospital in Battle Creek where the ex-service men who lost their health in the world war are cared for. The Women's Auxiliary of Willard G. Leenhouts post of the American Legion hope to send a large amount of canned peaches and pears. Jellies and jams and pickles are also appreciated by the boys. Further details as to the collecting and sending of the fruit will be published later. Now we ask you to can an extra can.

Mayor Kammeraad and City Attorney Charles McBride will be called to Lansing again on Oct. 20 when the telephone rates hearing will be resumed, and from all appearances the battle will be a long drawn out affair.

TWO PASTORS FOLLOW IN CLOSE ORDER

The people of the congregation of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church gathered Monday evening to say farewell to Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Vande Kieft who have been stationed here for about five years. The Vande Kiefts moved out of the parsonage today and tomorrow the new pastor of the church, Dr. Wm. Masselink, will move in. It has not happened in many years in any church in Holland that the connections between pastors of a church have been so close. The 14th street church will not be vacant a single Sunday.

At the farewell social Monday night a purse of $200 was presented by the congregation to the departing pastor. The following gave addresses: Wm. Beekman, chairman, for the consistory; Mayor N. Kammeraad for the congregation, presented a purse; Mrs. J. Van Putten for the Ladies Aid society; Mrs. B. Timmer for the Willing Workers Society; Supt. Gerrit Wanrooy for the Sunday school; T. D. Warner for the Men's Bible class; Mrs. Gertrude Boer for the Ladies' Bible class; Mrs. C. Dornbos for the Girls' Mission society; P. Unema for the Young Men's society. Appropriate response was made by the pastor, and music was furnished by a chorus and a male quartet.

Mr. Vande Kieft preached his farewell sermon on Sunday night. The new pastor, Dr. Wm. Masselink, will be installed Thursday evening when Rev. J. C. Schaap will preside and conduct the preliminary services. Rev. L. Veltkamp will preach the sermon. Rev. J. Masselink of Muskegon, brother of the new pastor, will read the form and conduct the services after installation. Rev. H. Keegstra will give the charge to the pastor and Rev. J. De Haan to the congregation. The new pastor will preach his inaugural sermon next Sunday forenoon.

The quarterly teachers' meeting of the Trinity church Sunday school was held Thursday night at the home of the superintendent, Mr. David Damstra. The meeting was somewhat different from the usual quarterly meetings. It was a conference. Discussion followed the presentation of the subjects. Several problems of the Sunday school were considered. A number of teachers introduced the following subjects: "A Sunday School Building," Rev. C. P. Dame; "Attention in the Class," Mr. P. Houseman; "Class Spirit," Miss Bertha Mich-mershuizen; "The Clannish Spirit," Mr. P. Schoon; "Checking Up the Absentees," Mr. John Post; "The Six Hundred Attendance Mark," Mrs. J. H. Oosting; "Goals We Should Have Before Us," Mr. P. Huyser.

Carl T. Bowen, of the Ottawa county road commission, has issued a warning to all motorists who use the ferry and jack knife bridges near Ferrysburg, to stop in line and be careful about their parking when the bridges are closed to allow the opening necessary to give vessels passage.

In many instances motorists have been in such a hurry that they cannot stay in line, hence must rush up as near as they can to the bridge gate. It does not seem to matter whether they are on the right side of the road or not. Traffic congestion and possibility of accident is greatly heightened by this maneuver and drivers are warned to cease this policy and stay in line where they belong.

Two arrests were recently made but the drivers were allowed to go with a warning. From this time on however there will be no more warnings given to those impatient car drivers who cannot stay in line when the bridge gates are closed.

Sand on the concrete paving of the Grand Haven State Park oval is beginning to bother motorists early this year. The high winds of the last few days have swept the lake shore and carried a ton or two of sand along with them. A large quantity of the shifting sand has been deposited on the concrete oval to the dismay of motorists who like to drive along the lake shore at this time of the year. If the condition continues a shovel brigade may be necessary.

Mrs. Joseph C. Rhea, new president of the Woman's Literary club, gave a luncheon Friday noon for the officers and members of the board of directors of the club. It was a very delightful luncheon prepared in Southern style. Mrs. Rhea being a native of the South.

The Woman's Literary club will begin the year's work next Tuesday when the first meeting will be held and the luncheon was for the purpose of making necessary preliminary arrangements for the year's activities.

The cashiers of three local banks, namely Otto P. Kramer, Henry Winter and Wynand Wichers, have returned from a meeting held at Ionia, held by the Michigan Bankers association, group four, comprising banks in counties in the middle western section of Michigan.

Among other things discussed at this meeting was the offering of a reward for the capture of bandits dead or alive, and the amount decided upon was $2,500 per bandit, to any person who would arrest and convict anyone robber, or any person caught attempting to rob a member bank, or branch bank, or a bank messenger belonging to this group of banks.

Among the officers elected the name of C. J. Den Heuder of Zeeland appears on the executive committee.

The invitation from Greenville to hold the 1926 meeting at that city was accepted. Belding and Greenville bank officials will do the entertaining.

Plans have been completed for the installation of the Rev. William Masselink as pastor of Fourteenth-st. Christian Reformed church, scheduled for Oct. 1. The Rev. J. Masselink of Muskegon will ordain his brother and will be assisted by the five other pastors. The Rev. J. M. Van De Kieft, who has accepted a call to Oakdale Park church, Grand Rapids, will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday, and Mr. Masselink will deliver his inaugural message the following Sunday.

Mrs. B. A. Mulder and daughter Miss Lucie were Grand Rapids visitors Friday.

RESORT BODY TO MEET ON OCTOBER 6

The entire future of the resort business of West Michigan, now credited with being the largest industry of the state, will be decided at the annual meeting of the Michigan Tourist and Resort Association at Muskegon, which has just been announced for October 6. Election of officers, decisions as to continuance of association activities, West Michigan publicity in the newspapers and magazines of the country, discussion of motor road and transportation projects, and many other subjects are to be brought before the meeting.

President Carroll F. Sweet proposed to initiate a vigorous discussion of the future work for West Michigan relative to the continuance of association activities and their support by citizens of the state. Another big subject which will be brought before the convention is as to whether the real estate boom is to be pushed by the Michigan Tourist and Resorts Association or whether that work is to be stimulated by outside real estate operators. Prices of real estate have commenced to go forward by leaps and bounds and outside operators have been working hard all spring and summer to secure options on lake frontage in all sections of West Michigan, in the belief that a few years hence a land boom comparable to that going on in Florida at the present time will result. A review will be made of the publicity work of the organization for 1925 which will also go into the matter as to what is to be done in the future on this subject.

Mrs. Peter J. Danhof, Grand Rapids, is visiting in Englewood, N. J., and New York city for two weeks, having motored there with Prof. and Mrs. Hessel E. Yntema and family. On Oct. 4 Mrs. Danhof will go to New Orleans as a delegate to the triennial convention of the women's auxiliary to be held there Oct. 6 to 22. Mrs. Danhof is the diocesan president of the Women's auxiliary. Other delegates going to New Orleans are: Mrs. Charles E. Jackson, Mrs. G. P. T. Sargent, of Grand Rapids; Mrs. D. L. Scofield, Niles, united thank offering treasurer, and Mrs. W. White, also of Niles. All the parties are well known in Holland.

Mr. Dow F. Van Dyk, father of Rev. F. J. Van Dyk, pastor of the Reformed church of Central Park, died Sunday morning at three o'clock at his home in Grand Rapids as a result of a stroke that he suffered in Holland Saturday night. Mr. Van Dyk was motoring to Holland with his wife and daughter and a stop was made near the Vanden Berg Oil station on East Eighth-st. to change a tire. That had just been completed when Mr. Van Dyk suffered a stroke.

He was rushed back to Grand Rapids but did not regain consciousness, death coming at three o'clock Sunday morning. The deceased is survived by his wife, three sons and three daughters. He was 67 years old. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home in Grand Rapids.

Physical Director Hartman of Holland high school has started an innovation by listing the weight of pupils. These have been divided into three groups—the normal students into a so-called white group, the students more than 10 per cent under or 15 per cent overweight in the blue group and those who exceed these two abnormality figures in the red group.

Hartman has prepared a well planned course in physical education and will give lectures in personal and community hygiene. He also will teach students the fundamentals in major sports.

When Christian A. Broek, former prosecuting attorney at Muskegon and his brother went to the old Broek farm on the Zeeland road and ordered Ira Wyrick, present tenant on the land, to move, a fight ensued in which the attorney received a blackened eye.

Wyrick, who has held the farm for the past two years, was told by the Muskegon men that he would have to leave the premises Saturday as another man was to move on the land. This enraged Wyrick who started a little encounter with the two men. Broek came immediately to Holland and swore out a warrant which was served by Deputy Sheriff Egbert Beekman.

Wyrick was taken before Justice Brusse and pleaded not guilty. He was released on $100.00 bond and his trial set for Wednesday.

The body of Miss Bernice McKean of Grand Rapids was found on the beach at Highland Park early Sunday morning by a member of the Grand Haven coast guard.

The body was found a mile from the spot where the Sunday before she had been swept into Lake Michigan and disappeared while her mother was watching faintly.

All week coast guards have been dragging, and searching parties have been looking for the young lady, but in vain, and the task had all but been given up when early Sunday morning a coast patrol ran onto the body lying face downward in the sand. Miss McKean was 14 years old and was the daughter of Mrs. P. Mooney, 929 McReynolds Ave., Grand Rapids. The remains were taken to Grand Rapids Monday.

Former sheriff C. J. Dornbos grew a sunflower in his backyard this summer that is believed to be the largest ever grown anywhere. He has just harvested it and is showing it to his friends.

The head of the sunflower is 23 inches in diameter and 60 inches in circumference. It weighed 15 pounds with all the seeds in. The sunflower was 16 feet tall and the stalk at the base was four inches in diameter and 12 inches in circumference. There was only one flower on the stalk and it came up of itself from seed in the field thrown to the chickens.

All who have inspected the sunflower declare it is by far the largest they have ever seen.

Congressman Carl Mapes spoke before a meeting of the Willard G. Leenhouts Post, American Legion on Wednesday evening.

Attorneys Robinson and Parsons of Holland were in St. Joseph Thursday on legal business.

Here's a Suggestion!

Sometimes, for all you know, you may want to sell your house. When that time comes, how would you like to take a tip from experienced real estate dealers?

Well, anyway here's what they are doing in many cities: They advertise the location of the property, number of rooms, and whenever possible: "Heated by a Holland Furnace."

We often receive lists of these ads from our Branch Managers, and of course, we enjoy the evidence of personal pride on the part of our men.

The convincing thing about it is all simply that no mention of other furnaces is to be found in these real estate lists.

Congressman Carl E. Mapes was given a royal welcome by the members of the Willard G. Leenhouts Post at a regular meeting, when a committee called upon Mr. Mapes at the Warm Friend Tavern and escorted him to the Legion hall. Commander Ben Lievese introduced Mr. Mapes to the gathering, and in an address he told the young men about the compensation work that is now being carried on between the government and the service men.

He stated that some of these vexing delays and mistakes are sometimes unavoidable but that the government's heart is right and that officials are improving conditions all the time and are trying their best to do the right thing by the soldiers, although often it seemingly appears otherwise.

Mr. Lievese then stated that the Willard G. Leenhouts post members thought a great deal of Mr. Mapes and that the latch string to the post was always out and the members had for him a perpetual welcome.

At the meeting a report was made of the Legion convention at Bay City and a final report relative to the flag display along the business streets was also brought in; the system was pronounced a huge success. Two large flags were donated to the new armory by the Willard G. Leenhouts Post, and these will be on display constantly.

Mr. Lievese also gave a report as to the outcome of the radio show, put on during the fair, and states that the Post wishes to thank the citizens of Holland, as well as the local papers, for their liberal support both financially and morally. He stated that the American Legion would have suffered a considerable loss had not all public spirited citizens backed up this project in the nick of time.

The report also stated that the 400 trees that have been planted along the highway on M-11 and M-51 have been thriving well, that the dead ones are being replaced, and that some of the live ones infested with disease are being treated and cared for out of Legion funds.

At first it was thought to have the Legion band go to the Omaha convention in October, but these plans have fallen thru for the reason that the members of the Post prefer to go to Philadelphia next year.

The $5,000,000 endowment fund that is now being secured by the Michigan Legion for disabled veterans and orphan children of soldiers was discussed and plans were formulated for a campaign which will be announced shortly.

At a meeting held by the Willard G. Leenhouts Post, American Legion, at the armory a very important matter came up, namely the nomination of officers for 1926. It is one of the rules of the order to place in nomination several candidates, so that there will be plenty of available timber to select from.

Below is a list of the candidates named for the different offices: Van Lente, Commander—A. E. Van Lente, John Bremer, Jack Knoll, Mike Schoon, Clarence Lokker, Chester Van Tongeren.

Adjutant—Art Smith, Peter Tuinman, Martin Japinga, Gus De Vries, Ed. Oonk.

BOY SCOUTS OF OTTAWA TO BE REORGANIZED

A proposal sponsored by the National headquarters of the Boy Scouts calls for the organization of the Ottawa county boy scouts into two districts, co-ordinating in their work, and operating for the best interest of the Scouts. In this way, it is believed that much benefit would result.

Under the project, the northern headquarters would be located at Grand Haven, while Holland would be the center of activities in the southern section of the county. An extensive enrollment program could be carried on in both districts. With the result, that instead of an organization of fifty to one hundred scouts in each city, many times that number of boys might have benefit of Boy Scout membership.

W. J. Adams, deputy regional scout executive of Chicago, came to Ottawa county during the summer and outlined the plan to the local councils in both Holland and Grand Haven. He met with encouraging responses in both places, and both councils will take action.

The Grand Haven Scouts had a good camp this summer, but not enough of the boys took advantage of the opportunity. Camp Pat McCarthy is owned by the Boy Scout council of Grand Haven. The Holland council does not own a camp plat, but under the new organization plan it is very likely that Camp Pat McCarthy would be placed at the disposal of the Holland Scouts for a camp period each summer.

All the employees of the Peoples State bank went to Fennville Friday evening to attend the flower and fruit exhibit being put on in the Fennville school. The Peoples bank has for a number of years specialized in fruit exhibits and the employees wanted to see what other communities are doing in that line. They went in two automobiles and there were ten in the party. It was a beautiful exhibit and there was also a program of speakers. The Peoples bank is getting ready for its own fruit exhibit about the first week in November.

In 1925 the Michigan State Legislature passed a law authorizing the State Banking commissioner to grant to certain state banks approved by the commissioner power to do a limited trust business.

The commissioner has just granted to the First State Bank of Holland these powers, and the bank from this time on can act as administrator or executor of estates and as guardian for minors and incompetents.

Hereafter, all persons desiring to make the First State bank the executor of their wills, can do so and the bank can act in that capacity the same as any trust company.

Hope students have adopted the office point system, whereby no student will be permitted to hold more positions at any one time than those that total the number of points specified for members of his particular class. The purpose is to establish a fair proportion of offices among the students and to develop competent leadership by centering energy upon the phase of work undertaken. The schedule follows: seniors, 15 points; juniors, 13 points; sophomores, 11 points; freshmen, 10 points. The rank of offices range from seven points to one. The most important are listed under the seven-point offices and the others are grouped in those of lesser importance. The system is in charge of the student council.

An important assemblage of artists, lithographers, advertising men, manufacturers, and distribution experts will mark the 35th annual convention of the Poster Advertising association to be held at Kansas City in the near future. According to Mr. Vaude Vandenberg, of the Wolverine Advertising company of this city, who will attend the convention as a delegate, plans are under way for the organized outdoor advertising, that will be acted upon at the convention. One of the features of the exhibit which is being planned in connection with the convention is a huge exhibit showing poster advertising done by newspaper all over the country, together with facts concerning co-operative campaigns conducted by newspapers and poster companies for civic and welfare development. It is expected that some plan will be fashioned which will enable these two important factors in community education to co-operate more closely and effectively for civic advancement.

In the suit of M. Simpson vs. the village of Douglas, which is aimed to narrow part of the Lake Michigan shore road near the village of Douglas, after the township and village of Saugatuck intervened because of their interest in the resort business, the county of Allegan now enters, claiming the road, with its scenic beauty, is a strong factor in the resort business, valuable to the whole county.

Many cottage owners have built on part of the road, hoping thereby to force narrowing of the highway. The supervisors have determined the road will not be closed and the rights of the county will be protected.

The supervisors have instructed the prosecuting attorney of Allegan county to take necessary steps to keep all highways in the county open and action has been begun on the chancery side of circuit court so if the case is not heard at the October term it can be heard by the court at any time the parties are ready.

The City Ed. just flashed the news to us that the Zeeland chickens are still in the lead in that egg-laying contest. For days we read bulletins regarding the Zeeland hens. We became quite excited about it. What if one of the Zeeland hens should forget to lay for a day? It certainly would be a serious blow to the civic pride of Zeeland. But although it was several months ago that the Zeeland hens entered this contest we are pleased to know that they are still sticking to the nest and working instead of cackling.—C. D. M. in Muskegon Chronicle.

Henry Hulsenga, 18 W. 12th-st., left for an extended visit to the west. Miss Clara Dill, 209 W. 14th-st., is spending the winter with her brother, Fred Schroeder and daughter Miss Maxine Schroeder at Detroit.

LOCAL MAN IS HONORED BY CHORUS

When John Vandersluis retired from business he announced that he would devote himself to music and he has discovered that if he accepted all the offers that are made to train choruses he would have to work about ten days a week. His schedule for the immediate future is so full that he has only one evening at home and that has to be devoted to his choir in the Sixth Reformed church.

The people of Grand Haven informed Mr. Vandersluis Wednesday that he has been re-elected unanimously to lead the new community chorus in that city the coming winter. There are 125 voices in that chorus and every member voted for the Holland man as the leader for the coming year. Last year Vandersluis also led a community chorus there and a program was put on that was a great success. Not only did the chorus grow from eighty to 125 during the year but the program put on in the spring netted $300 for the Salvation Army.

In addition to conducting this community chorus Mr. Vandersluis will conduct a chorus of 50 voices of the Christian Reformed churches of Grand Haven which is planning to give a Christmas cantata. To each of these organizations he will give one evening a week.

He is also engaged in training the large chorus of 85 voices in Zeeland for the state Sunday school convention which is to be held in that city in October, giving one evening a week to the work. This chorus is made up of voices from all churches of all denominations in Zeeland.

In addition to the usual work for the choir of the Sixth Reformed church Mr. Vandersluis is training a chorus of fifty voices of that church for a Christmas cantata, and besides he is also training 25 little girls to sing the responses.

A birthday party was given at the home of Mrs. A. C. Hillebrands, Van Poote Avenue, in honor of three birthdays that occurred on the same day. The guests of honor were Mrs. Peter Paulus, Mrs. W. B. Haight, and Mrs. Herbert Van Oort of Macatawa. Pedro was played and an elaborate luncheon was served. Mrs. Haight and Mrs. Van Oort were presented with an electric boudoir lamp and Mrs. Paulus with two pyrex cake plates. About 15 were present.

William Wasenaar, farmer in Polkton township about one mile from the Coopersville church, was raided Friday morning by sheriff's officers who claimed to have found liquor and a copper coil on the premises. Wasenaar disclaims ownership of both.

Wasenaar was arrested and arraigned before Justice Hugh E. Lillie, Grand Haven, who bound him over to circuit court upon waiving of examination. He furnished the five hundred dollars bail required. The case may be brought up Monday in circuit court.

Rev. J. C. Schaap, pastor of the Prospect Park Christian Reformed church, announced to his congregation Sunday that he has accepted the call extended to him by the Christian Reformed church at Lucas, Mich. Mr. Schaap has been in Holland for very nearly five years, coming here from Allendale, where he served a Christian Reformed congregation for several years. During his stay in Holland a fine new church edifice has been erected, taking the place of the small frame building used up to that time, and the congregation has grown from 70 to 110 families.

The church at Lucas is the largest Christian Reformed church in Michigan north of Fremont. Mr. Schaap and family will leave in the near future to make their home in Lucas.

The new Eding garage at Hamilton will be nearly or entirely completed by the end of this week. It will be the newest and most up-to-date place of business in the village and all agree that it is a fine addition to the town. The display room, which occupies the front of the building, is commodious and has large plate-glass windows. The office is conveniently located and will be modernly equipped. A restroom with suitable furnishings is provided. The work-room is large and well lighted and there is ample space for the storage of cars. The whole building will be electrically lighted and steam heated.

The speaker for the meeting of the W. C. T. U. on Friday afternoon was Prof. J. B. Nykerk on the subject of the Federal Church Council reports on the results of the eighteenth amendment. He regarded the report as not quite just, being based on city conditions and not taking the rural section into account. Also, that the liquor men have been encouraged and is a tremendous challenge to all, to churches, Christian colleges, temperance societies and individuals, to educate along the old lines of the evils of liquor and to encourage the strict observance of the eighteenth amendment.

C. V. R. Gilmore rendered two selections, "Wandering" and "Whither" by Schubert.

Arrangements were made for the county convention to be held in Grand Haven, Oct. 9. The local union is entitled to five voting delegates but a large number, it is hoped, will attend. The state and national conventions will be held in Detroit in November. To meet the expenses of entertaining the national, each member is requested to pay twenty-five cents. As the national will not meet in Michigan for some forty years each local member is asked cheerfully and gladly to give the treasurer, Mrs. Albers, a quarter.

A deal has been made by the Miller & Lievese Realty Co. who purchased 20 acres of land from Mrs. Jenks, of Kalamazoo, and will plat it into 28 one hundred foot lots.

The land was formerly part of the Visscher estate, and is located directly west of the Mrs. A. Visscher's home on State street.

The property is filled with choice fruit trees, well kept up and that location has become a center for beautiful homes, it being part of the hill district, where the homes of Walter Lane, Mrs. A. Visscher, J. P. O. de Mauriac, Ben Van Raalte, Nat Robbins, Dick Boter and others are located.

Quite a stir was created Friday on the Hope campus when the Frosh banner was stolen by the Sophs. Dr. Dimment however proved successful in breaking up the quarrel which was renewed in the afternoon. Kuiper, a former Holland high athlete tried to capture the Soph banner all alone during the progress of the pull. The result was that Kuiper found the water in the river rather wet after several men of the 1928 class dumped him in. The two classes are showing plenty of spirit and pep which can now be directed to their studies as no more parties will be held until Thanksgiving.

FAIR DATES DECIDED ON FOR NEXT YEAR

The directors of the Holland fair met in the offices of Secretary John Arendshorst on Eighth-st., and were agreeably surprised when the secretary rendered a tentative report which will be enlarged upon at the November meeting. The report shows that the fair of 1925 has proven a banner year by nearly $300, when the total receipts are considered.

The Holland fair was 41 years old this year, and during all these years the community fair has never been in more prosperous condition. The three last years have been the largest fair in the history of the institution, and a comparative statement shows that in 1923 the total net receipts were $17,094.00, in 1924 $22,273.00, in 1925, $22,605.64. These are the receipts taken in over three years from every source, namely gate, grandstand, concessions, and such other sources as are generally revenue giving at all fairs.

At the directors' meeting the dates for the 1926 fair were also set. The exhibit will be held on Aug. 23, 24, 25 and 26; these dates are a week after the big Iowa fair, which has been a customary thing with the directors for some years back. The managements of the two fairs have always been co-operating along these lines in order that there may be no conflicting dates.

The annual meeting this year is to be held on Wednesday evening, November 4, at 7:30 o'clock at the city hall. Heretofore the meetings were held in the afternoon but the directors felt that a night meeting would bring a better attendance and for that reason the change was made.

At the annual meeting the election of officers takes place when a president, a secretary, a treasurer and the outgoing directors are elected or re-elected as the case may be.

At that time some new plans may be brought up that cannot help but be of interest to the public. As Secretary Arendshorst says, "The Community fair is a fair of Holland, Zeeland, and the rural districts surrounding, and it is up to the citizens to take part in these deliberations and to co-operate and confer with the officials of the fair."

Hope College students are very much excited over the fact that the institution may have a band of its own. An organization of this kind would be a new thing in the life of the institution.

A very good orchestra has always been the pride of the school, but the need of a good band has presented itself. The plan is to have the band ready for appearance at the football games and other college functions at which it would be more practicable to have a band than an orchestra. Working to develop an orchestra of about 25 or 30 pieces is the intention of the managers. After organizing, the leaders expect to develop young players who will be able to help make it a permanent thing in the college life. Students have already shown pronounced interest in the cause and a large number have already applied to try out for positions.

The desire of President Coolidge that a stamp bearing the likeness of Woodrow Wilson be issued as soon as possible has been communicated to the postoffice department.

Announcement to this effect was made today at the White House with the added statement that the department would issue such a stamp. Complaints have been received from some quarters that the proper recognition was not being accorded the war-time president.

It was pointed out on President Coolidge's behalf that it was not until his administration that a stamp in honor of former President Cleveland was issued.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. Nettinga on West 11th-st. was the scene of a merry gathering. Theological lore and intellectual pursuits were forgotten as local seminary students, faculty and friends gathered for the annual reception of the faculty to the students. The spacious Nettinga home amply accommodated the embryo preachers, their teachers and guests.

Rev. C. Spaan, of Grace Reformed Church of Grand Rapids, addressed the group on the subject, "The Man Behind the Gun." Said he, "Personality is the big thing in life. A church depends for its effective operation to a great extent upon the preacher in the pulpit, in this case the man behind the gun. Three important elements of the preacher's personality should be conviction, consecrated tact, and a reverence for sacred things."

Miss Arden VanArendonk of the college favored the audience with two beautiful piano solos; some of the young ladies who helped to make Hope famous in musical circles last year sang several inimitable songs, and Miss Henrietta Beyer, also of the college, forced many a laugh from beneath the clerical garb as she dramatized popular kitchen scenes and the photographer's troubles.

A most delightful social hour followed, during which guests and all met around delightful delicacies. The guests included Miss Pieters who has just returned from mission work in Japan, Mrs. Durfee, Dean of Women at the College, Prof. and Mrs. A. E. Lampen, Prof. and Mrs. T. E. Wellmers, and Dr. and Mrs. Pieters of the college. Dr. Pieters is also teaching a course in missions at the seminary.

Mrs. E. J. Blekkink, secretary of the missionary conference, is sending out notices and programs, telling of the coming conference which meets in the Bethany Ref. church, Grand Rapids, on Oct. 8. The committee in charge has secured Rev. John Van Ess as the speaker of the morning session; Mrs. De Witt Knox, Miss Tena Holkeboer and Rev. Olori of the afternoon, and Mrs. Walter C. Roe for the evening. The members of the young women's society will have a luncheon at 5:30 with program.

Bethany church has a new location as well as a new building. To reach it from Holland Interurban, take the Cherry street car on the corner of Monroe streets, get off at Faridom Ave., and walk one block north. Those coming from Muskegon and Grand Haven, take the Cherry streetcar right at the station.

DECISION IS VICTORY FOR RESORT CO.

The decision of Judge O. S. Cross in the case of Fred Van Wieren, highway commissioner of Park township and the township board against the Macatawa Resort company, handed down Wednesday, was a clear-cut victory for the Resort company. Judge Cross orders in his decision "that the bill of complaint be dismissed."

This case was fought out in circuit court last week, Robinson & Farson of Holland and Stuart & Knappen of Grand Rapids appearing for the plaintiffs, and Diekema, Kollen & Ten Cate for the defendant. The road in question is the meandering highway that circles at the foot of the hills into Macatawa Park and stops at the loop of the old interurban station. The bill of complaint filed by the plaintiffs is that this road be decreed a public highway and that the Macatawa Resort company be restrained from obstructing or regulating the use of the highway.

The plaintiffs made the claim that the road in question has become a public highway by user, and that the Resort company has assumed the right to control and regulate the use of the road. The Resort company, on the other hand, claimed that the road is not a public highway but is a road subject to the jurisdiction and control of the board of directors of the Macatawa Resort company.

Judge Cross, in his decision handed down Wednesday, says: "From the testimony it appears that the defendant owns and operates a summer resort, known as Macatawa Park; that the road in question is within the plat of Macatawa Park and that for more than 30 years the board of directors of the defendant company has exercised jurisdiction and control of the road within its plat; that the defendant has constructed a cement roadway over a portion of the road and has maintained the entire road within the plat."

"Whenever the public officials have attempted to exercise control over the road, objection has been raised to the same by the defendant."

"The road or a similar road has been used by the public for a great many years, but this use has been permissive and subject to the regulations prescribed by the defendant."

"The law provides that the board of directors of the summer resort associations shall have jurisdiction and control over the streets and roads within its plat not dedicated to the public, and the public can only use the road under such conditions and restrictions as the board of directors may prescribe."

"The road in question has never been dedicated to the public, and the proofs fail to show that it has become a public highway by use. It therefore follows that the road in question is under the jurisdiction and control of the board of directors of the defendant company, and that the public can only use the road under such conditions and restrictions as the board of directors of the defendant company may prescribe."

"It is therefore ordered that the bill of complaint be dismissed."

Up to this point the decision deals exclusively with that portion of the road that is entirely within the limits of Ottawa County. A short stretch of the road is half in Allegan county and half in Ottawa. It was conceded during the trial that the Ottawa circuit court has no jurisdiction over that portion of the road and this is so stated in the judge's decision. This is about 500 feet of road running east and west over the Ottawa-Allegan line immediately after the turn is made from the concrete road south of Jensen Park.

Manager Frank Duhrkopf of the J. C. Penney company at corner 8th and College ave., left today for Cleveland where on Friday and Saturday of this week he will attend a two-day convention at the Hotel Cleveland of the managers of the institution from the states of Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Michigan, Connecticut, New York, New Hampshire, Maryland and Maine.

The speakers will be: E. C. Sams, president of the company; J. M. McDonald, merchandise manager; R. L. Whitman, advertising manager; W. M. Bushnell, employment manager; and George T. Mitchell of the personnel department.

For eight days following the convention, the managers will remain in Cleveland buying holiday and Spring merchandise from members of the company's staff of forty New York buyers.

The W. C. T. U. will meet one week ahead of its schedule this week because of the fact that the county convention in Grand Haven next week would come on the regular meeting date and there will be two other conventions the week following.

The meeting is to be held Friday afternoon at the W. L. C. hall.

The devotions will be conducted by Mrs. A. E. McClellan. Mrs. E. E. Fell will read a paper on "Harmless Fruit Juices vs. Home Brew." Miss Johanna Vander Ven will give a talk on "The Benefits of Prohibition," consisting of extracts from a symposium on that subject in which many prominent American business men took part. Tea will be served by Mrs. O. J. Dykstra and committee.

Elmer E. Strong, aged 56 years, died at 8:30 Tuesday evening at his home at 248 Lincoln avenue after an illness that had extended over several months. Mr. Strong, who has for years been a pattern maker at the Holland Furnace company, was very well known throughout the city and had an unusually large number of friends.

He is survived by his wife and nine children: Leroy L. Mrs. O. Palmer, Chester J. William, Mrs. N. Eastman, Josephine, Elmer Jr., Calvin, and Orlo.

Mr. Strong was born in Fillmore township and he has been a resident of Holland and vicinity all his life. Friends will be given an opportunity to view the remains Thursday afternoon and evening at the home. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 at the home and at 2:00 at the Sixth Reformed church, Rev. J. H. Bruggers officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson are spending a short vacation motoring through northern and eastern Michigan.

USES TEN COM- MANDMENTS AS SUB- JECT OF EDITORIAL

WANTS TO KNOW WHY THE MOVIES CANNOT BE ELEVATED
BY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS

The Grand Rapids Herald in a recent editorial bemoans the fact that moving picture promoters are losing an opportunity in producing real worth-while pictures, and as an example is pointing to the "Ten Commandments," and the tremendous patronage that this film enjoys, as evidence that real elevating and instructive pictures are in reality popular, lasting and paying.

Since the Colonial Theater is to present "The Ten Commandments" with in the next week editorial in the Herald, under the caption "The Screen's Opportunity," is rather timely. The Herald says:

"The Ten Commandments," done on the motion picture screen, is an indictment of the film industry and its artists. It reveals the greatness to which the screen can attain and by comparison condemns the mediocrity of average cinema productions."

"No sermon preached in this modern day by word of mouth has carried so forceful a moral lesson with such potency of power as 'Ten Commandments.' The drama grips and enthralls all watchers, and all of the time from reel to reel it is driving home the great teachings handed down to Moses. We cannot but feel that Grand Rapids is a better city for the showing of 'The Ten Commandments' at Powers Theater. We can not but feel that the whole world will be better for this picture having been produced. It reaches an audience which the church cannot reach, and it reaches them with a profound strength of appeal which is irresistible."

"But as with earlier great film productions, 'The Ten Commandments' leaves the public at a loss to understand why it is that the screen so seldom finds its true high level. Why are there no more pictures of the worth of 'The Ten Commandments'?"

"They need not necessarily be preachments. But they can leave something with the man or woman who watches thru six to twelve reels. What does the average picture leave to the watcher? Nought but memory of an hour or two of entertainment. We know, thru such pictures as 'The Birth of a Nation,' 'Down to the Sea in Ships,' 'The Covered Wagon,' and 'The Ten Commandments' that the screen can entertain and instruct at one and the same time. We know that it can teach history, religion, patriotism and ethics with no loss of dramatic power and no curtailment of box-office receipts. Yet the majority of producers and directors appear to be contented to go along from day to day, month to month and year to year, turning out only trash and buncombe."

Tourists, traversing Michigan highways, whose admiration for the product of the apple orchards they behold lining the road moves them to daily for a few moments to gather a basket of the fruit, will hereafter do so at considerable risk.

Complaints of such depredations have become so numerous that strenuous action is contemplated to stop the practice. A warrant was issued yesterday in Grand Rapids for a man who is alleged to have gathered several bushels of apples from a roadside orchard, without leaving so much as a card of thanks.

The management of the Colonial theatre has always given its patrons an excellent class of music and was generally able to secure a high class lot of artists.

However, the orchestra has been reorganized with Motta Emmons of Chicago as the leader.

This winter there will be five constantly playing, but all next week, while the great film "Ten Commandments" will appear at that theatre, there will be ten in the orchestra. The music score for this film has arrived, and director Emmons and his company are already practicing faithfully, in order to make the production as realistic as possible.

Besides the regular instruments required in an orchestra large trumpets will have to be blown, a tremendous gong, sounded for the purpose of gathering the Egyptian soldiers, has been secured, and other instruments making weird oriental noises, also playing an important part in this picture.

The members of the orchestra feel the importance of this task, and they are for that reason putting in extra time in studying the "Ten Commandments" music score thoroughly.

Mr. Raven promises the best orchestra ever heard in any theatre in Holland, especially when the great religious play, the "Ten Commandments," starts next Monday noon and plays until Friday night.

SENTENCES PASSED OUT IN CIRCUIT

Five young men, all but one below their majority, were sentenced to Ionia prison for varying periods Monday by Judge Oren S. Cross in circuit court. Offenses ranged from the transportation and possession of liquor to breaking and entering and theft of automobiles.

Jacob Alger, 19, of Grand Rapids, was sentenced to spend from six months to fifteen years in Ionia for breaking and entering the Potter Garage at Spring Lake last summer. He was also assessed a fine of $50 and costs of $11.35 which will have to be paid before he is released. The recommendation of the court was for a six months' term for the youth who comes from a good family but who stated that intoxicants, used on the night of the attempt, caused his downfall.

Harvey Gilbert, 19, and Orville Hoag, 20, apparently wanderers without any special home port, were sentenced to six months to a year in Ionia and required to pay costs of $4.20 each. Their crime was the possession and transportation of liquor.

Ed. Holman, 21, and Henry Cunningham, 20, of Muskegon, were sentenced to spend from two to five years in Ionia with the minimum recommended following conviction of automobile theft. Costs of $14.35 were placed against them also.

Grand Haven's downtown district was the scene of a great combat Monday morning about nine thirty when Phes Kieft of the Enterprise Clothing Co. grappled with an intruder who sought to make away with a pair of overalls that were conveniently located on a display case.

The man, James Davis who gave his occupation as a cook and his residence as Frankfort, entered the store in the early morning and made a 25c purchase according to Mr. Kieft. He tendered a dollar bill 1/2 trade and Mr. Kieft went back to make change, meanwhile keeping an eye on the front of the store.

According to the story, Mr. Kieft noticed the man pick up the overalls and immediately made a rush to tackle him before he escaped. The two joined in combat and both battled hard, shoe boxes and plaster flying in all directions. The struggle continued for about twenty minutes and finally someone called the police.

Chief Pippel appeared on the scene with a pair of steel bracelets and parted the contestants. Davis said he would pay for the shoes and wanted to make amends but he was hied away to the county jail to await the placing of a charge of shoplifting. Davis is about 28 years of age and is a husky specimen but was checked by the onslaught of Mr. Kieft who evidently brought some latent gridiron ability into play. There were several interested spectators as the battle progressed.

Mr. Kieft was aided in his subjugation of the intruder by Jake Van Zanten who rushed over from the post office and by Bud Kieft, partner of his brother in the Enterprise Clothing Co. Davis is a real husky and gave no little trouble after the initial rush of Kieft bowled him on his legs.

The affair caused quite a furor up and down the business section and after all was said and done was the medium of quite a bit of merriment when it was known that there were no casualties or markings on the faces of the "battlers."

The Grand Haven high football eleven opened its season Saturday afternoon at that city with a colorless 14 to 0 victory over Zeeland high. The Havenites showed a stonewall defense through which Zeeland gained but one first down on a trick play.

The Havenites' offense was poor, however, and despite several scoring chances they could not lug the leather across for more than two touchdowns.

Sluka went across for the first counter on a line plunge in the second quarter. After his 20-yard dash around left end had put the ball in scoring position, he scored again in the fourth quarter by dodging 20 yds. through a broken field.

The interference afforded Grand Haven ball carriers was practically non-existent. Pippel played a good defensive game, intercepting four passes. A general shakeup in the starting lineup is predicted for the game at Flint next week. Fasse and Dirks, regular tackles, will again be eligible for this contest.

Judging from the reports of the game, Holland high eleven will have little trouble defeating its old time rival.

On Wednesday afternoon of this week two champions will cross bats and many local fans will see the game. One of the teams is champion of the city league in Holland and the other of the city league in Grand Haven. The teams are the Federals of Holland and the Challenge Machinery company of Grand Haven.

The game is to be played at 3:15 Wednesday afternoon on the tannery grounds in Grand Haven. Not only will the Holland team be accompanied by a large number of fans but they will take their band of sixteen pieces along under the leadership of Dugan.

Next week Wednesday, October 7, will be a big day in Allegan and baseball fans from all over southwestern Michigan will be there. The Cleveland American League team will be in Allegan to play on that day and you may depend upon it that there will be a battle worth seeing. Last year Allegan took on the Detroit Tigers and could have had them this year but Cleveland looked to be the better attraction with Freddie Spurgeon, a former Allegan player, in the lineup along with such stars as Gob Buckeye, the biggest man in the league as well as one of the greatest young pitchers. It will be a notable day in Allegan and thousands of fans will be there just as they were last year.

The third annual fruit and flower show closed at Fennville Saturday night. Many of the displays were sold by the Woman's club, which had sponsored the show. The Grange store at Allegan bought the largest display, which had been made by Chas. E. Bassett. Many of the smaller displays were sold to individuals, one bushel of apples selling for $10. This was the largest show of its kind ever conducted in Fennville. Not a few Holland citizens motored over to see the show.

Egbert Fredericks the east end barber has returned from a business trip to Chicago.

BUSY MEN FORM CLUB MONDAY NIGHT

The Holland Busy Men's Athletic club is the new name chosen for the men's outing club that is to meet during the coming winter. A group of 25 men gathered at the city hall last night to arrange for the winter activities for Holland's busy men.

Wm. Vanden Ven was chosen as chairman of the meeting and Arend Sierma as acting secretary. The price decided on for the winter's sport was $5.00 for the year, and the membership cards will be out on Tuesday. The night was not definitely decided on, same wanting Monday and others Tuesday.

The place for the meeting was left to the committee who will either secure the armory or the high school. The time for these meetings will be from 5 o'clock to 10 o'clock, at which time everyone will have to leave.

A committee has been appointed to arrange a set of rules and regulations or by-laws to make a constitution for this organization.

Each of the members present has been made a committee of one to get 10 members this week and the cards can be secured at the First State bank Tuesday afternoon or any other time this week.

This sort of exercise should appeal to all the men in town as it is practically the only sort of exercise available for most of them.

The meetings will no doubt start in October and carry on thru March or April which will give every one at least 6 months of real, clean exercise and is just what everyone needs thru the winter months.

This committee will call on everyone possible this week and the only way to make an organization of this kind successful is for all to put their shoulders to the wheel and boost for it.

There will be plenty of room for all who come and no one will have to stand around and wait his turn. Another meeting will no doubt be called for Monday night when final arrangements will be made and committee reports given.

A short time ago a live wire broke on one of the back streets. A citizen passing by and thinking that the wire might be dangerous to the wayward picked it up and twisted it around a tree. He argued that since the wire was insulated it was safe to handle it.

It so happened that it was discovered at the station soon after the accident that a wire was down somewhere and the switch was pulled. That is probably the reason why no accident resulted from the citizen's well-intentioned act. But when he reported it to city employees they were unanimous in the remark that they would not have touched that wire for five hundred dollars even though it was insulated. They point out that a live wire breaks as a rule because the insulation has worn off in spots and that it is not at all safe to pick up a live wire that is insulated.

The incident has caused R. B. Champion, superintendent of public works, to issue a general warning to the public that the only safe course is to regard all wires trailing down to the ground and at loose ends as live wires until they have been shown to be dead wires. The burden of the proof, so to speak, is on the wires and no wire hanging loose from a pole should be touched under any consideration. In all such cases an immediate report should be made to the city. If citizens wish to safeguard the public in such cases the thing to do is to stand guard over a wire until a city employee arrives to take charge.

The warning is issued not because there is any more danger of live wires falling here than anywhere but there is always some danger and a timely warning may prevent a fatality at some time or other.

Merlin Green, 20, of Grand Haven, was shot in the back, tearing away some of the muscle structure, Monday morning while returning from a duck hunting trip with Leo Bishop of Manitowoc.

The two had been duck hunting and were returning from a trip. While in the duck boat opposite the Construction Materials Co. plant at Ferryburg Bishop was unloading his pump gun by pumping the shells out. The gun was accidentally discharged in some way, striking Green in the back.

Bishop immediately brought the boat to shore and Green was rushed to the Hutton Hospital by William Bronsma who was at the Materials plant. His injuries were thought serious at first but later examination by medical men showed that he would be out within a short time.

Officers held the affair entirely accidental and Bishop did everything he could for his hunting companion. Mr. Green is a Yellow Cab driver and is well known in Grand Haven as is Bishop although the latter has been at Grand Haven but six weeks.

There were two cases in Justice Fish's court in Allegan, Thursday which illustrated the "I didn't think" excuse of young offenders. Russell Rice, 20 years old, and Wenzel Van Keuren, 18, thought it fun to throw stones at the glass insulators on the telegraph poles at the N. Y. C. depot. Their parents did not appear with them before the justice, and the case was adjourned until Oct. 3. Railroad officials say there seems to be an epidemic of this form of destructive sport. Some young friends were visiting Alton Boyson of Gunplain township. When four of them drove away in a car, Alton and another friend were left, both having shotguns. Alton fired at the departing car, having no idea it was near enough to be hit. It was, and the owner objected to bird shot in his car. Alton pleaded guilty to pointing a gun without malicious intent. He is twenty years old and will have to pay $5 for his experience.

Secretary Franz Lelsie states the Allegan county agricultural society is considering the rebuilding of the half-mile track at the fair grounds in Allegan. If plans are carried out the track will be made one of the best in western Michigan. Next year it is proposed to build a larger cattle barn. A new hog house is also contemplated to be erected near the present horse show barn.

R. Bredeweg has on display in the window of De Kraker & DeKoeter two pumpkins, one weighing 105 pounds and one 76 pounds.

LOCAL MAN BOOSTER FOR THE STATE MEET

Dr. Daniel Webster Kurtz, President of McPherson college, McPherson, Kansas, is to be one of the chief lecturers at the state Sunday school gathering to be held in Detroit, Nov. 3-5, under the auspices of the Michigan Sunday School Council of Religious Education. Four thousand Sunday schools from all parts of Michigan will be interested in this event, and in this important announcement.

Dr. Kurtz won 2500 friends in Michigan at the time of the Kalamazoo State Sunday school convention in 1921, at which time he gave a series of lectures on Christian doctrine, concluding with his most popular message "The Symphony of Life."

He is one of those remarkable individuals growing up through poverty stricken surroundings and forcing his way through universities and schools of theology. He plows his way through all controversial issues and brings his audience to a happy, and unanimous conclusion, sacrificing nothing, but satisfying all.

Included in his Detroit lectures will be "The Problem of Peace" and "The Symphony of Life."

Dr. Kurtz will not be alone. He is paralleled in the realm of spiritual messages by Dr. Charles R. Erdman, national head of the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A.—a man of unusual spirit and a spokesman of the great church he represents.

Plans are now well laid by the Detroit committee for a creditable entertainment of the big meeting. It is expected that at least 1500 will attend from outside of Detroit. Seventeen Protestant Evangelical denominations are co-operating in the council and its activities.

Each county has a convention booster and a quota of delegates to secure. Ottawa county's booster is A. A. Nienhuis, of Holland. All registrations, requests for lodging and reduced railroad rates must pass through his hands. Mr. Nienhuis says that this convention will provide an abundance of help for all Sunday school leaders in the county, and that it is his purpose to have a full quota present so that the benefits may be obtained for local use.

A four-mile chase out Grand Haven road after a speeder Monday night terminated in a stolen car being wrecked and the driver, Moses J. Smith, 29, Indian, being arrested by Muskegon Heights police on a charge of stealing an automobile belonging to Thomas Cramer, 64 ataba-st., Muskegon.

Patrolman White, on seeing a car speed through the Heights, gave chase in an automobile driven by Harold Terbeek. As the car ahead neared Wayside Inn, it swerved from the road and turned over. Smith, who says his home is at Freesoil, was injured about the shoulder. He said he thought he was driving his cousin's car and admitted he planned to leave the city, police said.

Mrs. Harriet Braam, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. B. Steketee, submitted to an operation for gall bladder trouble and for the removal of her appendix at Kingston, New York.

Mrs. John Bekken entertained a few guests Thursday at her home at 315 West 13th Street to celebrate the birthdays of Mrs. Katherine Hale and Mrs. Mary Knapp of Allegan.

Chief Van Ry has given a great deal of information to the public from time to time relative to traffic on our public streets and no doubt his warnings have been heeded by a great many and his hints repeatedly given have safeguarded the public to some extent at least.

New difficulties arise and more dangers present themselves with the ever increasing number of automobiles that must find place on our public highways.

Chief Van Ry has prepared another set of hints, whereby accidents can be avoided, and he asked the local papers to give space to them.

There are 13 of them and here they are:

Keep your position on hill; if you want to pass a car, do it on the level.

Give a car from the right, the right of way.

For courtesy and safety, slow down for the car that wants to pass you.

Look out for pedestrians from behind street cars.

Keep your place on a curve and do your passing on the straight-of-way.

Wait for the signal to "go" don't jump the lights. "Lose a minute, save a life."

Let approaching car go by before passing car ahead.

Follow line of traffic, move straight ahead, not in and out.

Stop upon reaching intersection at "change" signal.

When you have to stop, pull off the highway.

Stop, Look and Listen at railroad crossings.

Be ready for children to do the unexpected thing.

Watch out for children at play, slow down, sound warning signal.

Word was received by the relatives here that Mrs. C. Van Zee died Monday evening at her home at Kalamazoo. Mrs. Van Zee was formerly Miss Jennie De Boer and lived on the corner of River and Twelfth-st. for many years.

She had attained the age of 63 years and is survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Robert Barnett of Rushville, Indiana, and Marguerite at home; also by two sisters, Mrs. D. J. Werkman of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Mrs. Ida Burton of Holland; also two brothers, John and Simon De Boer, both of this city.

FACULTY RECITAL IS WELL ATTENDED MONDAY EVENING

Judging from the many comments the offerings of the different members of the faculty were well received. One of the features of the program was the use of one of the fine concert grand pianos, kindly loaned by the Bush & Lane Piano Co.

R. Tromp, of the City Sign Co., is engaging in a new kind of advertising. He has introduced a machine in Holland for pictorial advertising that is attracting attention. The machine has been placed in the window of the Corner Hardware. It contains six advertising panels of local business houses and six photographs of local scenes.

Mr. Tromp keeps his camera loaded all the time so that he can take pictures of local and timely interest. He plans to change the pictures once a week so that there will always be something new to look at. This week he is showing pictures of the wrecking of the old P. M. depot, scenes in Centennial Park and other views.

An aged woman is dead and a man was near death Sunday night as a result of being knocked down by automobiles during a rainstorm Sunday night.

Miss Mary Stanton, Muskegon, died at Mercy hospital of internal injuries and a fractured pelvic bone, incurred when struck by a car driven by Police Sergt. Clarence Jacobson, as she stepped in its path at Peck-st. and Arthur-ave.

George Brown, 45, of Honor, Mich., is still unconscious as a result of skull injuries received when he staggered in front of a car driven by Ernest M. Crane, R. F. D. No. 2, at the end of Ottawa-st.

Every customer's shoe money should buy solid leather shoes; he is entitled to honest, reliable shoes and can get them without paying more than for shoes which contain leather substitutes; he can easily secure them by demanding shoes bearing the "All Leather" trade-mark shown above.

The Friedman-Shelby policy of making ALL LEATHER shoes is carried out through every one of our specialty factories, in which are produced shoes of every style and every description for men, women and children.

IT TAKES LEATHER TO STAND WEATHER

Wet or damp weather will quickly tell whether or not shoes contain substitutes for leather. If they contain paper, dampness will cause them to lose their shape and good appearance, and often makes them fall apart. ## ANNUAL HOPE PULL DRAWS A LARGE CROWD

The large 1929 class at Hope College received its initial introduction into college circles Friday when 19 representatives of that group were pulled through the muddy waters of Black river by the Sophomore team. To say the least, it was some tussle; the yearlings simply refused to quit until the Sophs pulled them to the south bank. Friday noon the Frosh captain Tom Van Zanten won the toss and choosing the north side his team seemed to have the advantage. Weight advantage also went in favor of the first year men who averaged 166 pounds, while the best Sophs could show was 160. With all things in their favor it looked like a victory for the wearers of the green but the experience and determination of the class of 1928 was too great to overcome and victory came after eight minutes of hard pulling, this coming after the final whistle had sounded. During the thirty minutes of pulling while the men were allowed to lie down in their places, neither team gained much. Each team claimed some but it was mostly slack which came out of the new rope.

The Sophs jumped the gun and before the Frosh realized what was being done they were being forced by a steady heaving pull across the river. Generally the team that gets the rope in motion towards its side wins as it is very hard to break into the steady pull of the opponents. This break went to the Sophs and although the Frosh continued to pull in mid stream they were forced down in defeat.

The present Soph class took its trip through the lake last year and it seemed to delight the crowd very much when the yearlings came thru on Friday. The pull was staged under the direction of Mr. Jack Schouten, Hope's athletic director, with Matt Peelen and Ted Essenbergers acting as judges.

Schipper captained the winning team which took the rope and marched the downtown streets in glorious array. All the classes held parties Friday night at the various resorts, many going to Macatawa.

George Damson, Heine Albers and Jim Ver Meulen coached the winners while Egbert Fell, Kik and Cap. Buys came through the shallow water with their proteges.

While Deputy Sheriff Egbert Beckman was arraigning Ira Wyrick before Justice Brusse Saturday night some thief stole a motor-meter from his car. The deputy's machine was parked in the rear of the Warm Friend Tavern and it was there only a short time. Nevertheless the officer is $18.00 out and the local department is aiding him in seeking to recover his property.

At the September meeting of the board of foreign missions of the Reformed church of America the resignations of Dr. and Mrs. A. Pieters as missionaries were received and accepted with regret, according to a notice in the church papers written by Dr. W. J. VanKersen, secretary of the board.

Dr. and Mrs. Pieters were recalled to America a few years ago on account of serious illness of two of their children and although there has been much improvement, the prospect was that they would not be able to return to the mission field in Japan for some years. Hence they considered it advisable to hand in their resignations.

Dr. and Mrs. Pieters served for 34 years as missionaries of the Reformed church in Japan. Dr. Pieters is now a member of the faculty of Hope College.

Mr. Pieters is a son of the late Rev. Roelof Pieters, second pastor of the First Reformed church, now the Ninth St. Chr. Reformed. The father was called this church shortly after the death of Dr. Van Raalte, the founder of Holland.

Vincent Jacobowski of Grand Rapids was arrested by the Ottawa county sheriff's department Monday on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He has not yet been arraigned.

Jacobowski was driving the Hupp touring car that crashed into a car driven by John Grinnell of Scottville. Five in Grinnell's party were in the hospital at Grand Rapids Thursday as a result of the crash and Jacobowski was in his home. The Hupp touring car was a complete wreck, frame and body being bent and twisted almost beyond repair.

A surprise party was held at the home of Miss Hermina Spyker, 83 E. 17th-st., in honor of Miss Henrietta Doorn who is to leave for the Netherlands for a trip in the near future.

The evening was spent in games and music. Dainty refreshments were served. At the close of the party the guest of honor was presented with a beautiful gift. Those present were the Misses Frances Heyboer, Jennie Kooyers, Henrietta Desenga, Bertha Olgers, Helen Olgers, Nettie De Groot, Sarah Dies, Sadie Kulte, Jennie Koles, Henrietta Doorn, Henrietta Spyker and Hermina Spyker.

Adrian Klaassen, formerly with City Sign Co. left Thursday for Chicago where he will attend the University of Chicago. H. F. Tuuring has taken his place with the City Sign Co.

HOPE TEAM SHOULD BE A WINNER

With college activities in full swing, Hope's football men are getting down to real training and are beginning to round into shape. Every night after a stiff workout in limbering up exercises, Coaches Schouten and Raymond drill the men in fundamentals and the new men are taking eagerly to this instruction. From the looks of things the team should be a winner; however, they will be light and play a stiff schedule.

Vander Brink, a four year veteran, is again available for the pilot job. Ted is a steady performer and a great asset to any team. Captain Damson and Buys, veteran ends of last year, are working for their old jobs and these two men look to be in pink condition. Schouten's backfield material is plentiful. Japanga who made a fine impression in several games last season at full-back is out for the team, as is Kelzer, a veteran full-back of the 1923 squad. Kleis should have a great year. This speedy back showed his heels to many tacklers last season and he bids fair to star again this year.

Damstra is another veteran who is a capable performer. Mook, Hill, and Bovenkirk are other men who have a knowledge of the game and should be fast enough for the varsity. The line shows the weakness of the large squad. In Vander Hart and Ver Meulen, Schouten surely has a sweet pair of tacklers. The former is a very dependable player and if a recent operation does not slow up Ver Meulen he should surely win back his old Ted Essenbergers should fill a guard position as he worked splendidly there last season in several games, center, will be a problem. Kole, former Holland high player, is trying for the job. Harry is capable enough and if he can play the position in the right style may win the place. However the local mentor has much new material which perhaps will uncover a star.

Fell and Gowans have each had some experience as linemen on high school teams. Fell was also a member of the 1924 Hope team.

Dean Martin, and also Tom Van Zanten who captained Hinga's team last year are working out for flank positions, as is Prakken, another former high school player. Peelen, Schipper, Burggraaf, C. Damson and Van Oostenberg tried for the varsity eleven last year but failed to make the grade. These men are out again this year and are seem to be valuable additions to the squad. Besides these men coach Schouten has Samson, Elzinga, Wright, Kasteln, Howard, Klein and Vanden Bosch as candidates.

The schedule calls for six games starting with Ferris Institute here Oct. 14th. Findley college, Defiance, Kazoo college and Grand Rapids Junior will also show their wares here.

The college team will very likely be a bit lighter than the local high school team. This will be a big handicap and speed will have to be depended upon. With the proper time for practice the team should be in good shape for the opener. There is a vast difference between college and high school football so that much of the material this year is classed as green.

The Welcome Corner Class of M. E. Sunday School held their regular monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. Ruth Bocks, Tuesday evening. Rev. J. C. De Vinney, pastor, gave a talk on the various needs of the church and his talk made such an impression that the class voted to purchase an up-to-date bulletin board, which will be put up in the very near future.

Other matters of interest were discussed at length, this being the first business meeting since May, as the summer months are given over to picnics. After the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Turl was in charge of entertainment and Mrs. Rench chairman of refreshments.

Ottawa county has authorized the charging of a toll fee at the temporary bridge across Grand River at Bridge-rd., State Sen. Wm. M. Connelly of Spring Lake said last night when motorists who had been stopped at the bridge and asked to pay a fee before crossing raised the question whether official sanction had been given the taking of tolls at the bridge as in the days when the ferry operated.

A collector is stationed at the east end of the bridge where the old ferry formerly met motorists and a fee is asked before cars may be driven across.

"Ottawa county is under no obligation to the public to furnish means for traffic to cross the river until the new bridge is completed," Sen. Connelly stated. The contractor engaged in building the new bridge proposed to build the temporary structure and the county decided to charge toll to pay for it, he stated.

It was said that if anyone objected and started proceedings to end the collection of toll, Ottawa county would wreck the bridge and thereby cut off passage on the bridge road to Grand Haven and Allendale completely.

The old ferry will not be dismantled until spring, the plans of the construction crews being to use it to transport material and employees until the new bridge is completed.

Many people speak of the wonderful vegetables which grow out west. We need not go to California to see good fruit and vegetables, as Michigan surpasses them all. A pumpkin was shown at one of the stands along M-11 near Saugatuck which weighed 80 lbs. A large squash of the Golden Hubbard variety is on display at Reidsma's market. The squash measures 68 inches in circumference and weighs 43½ lbs. It was grown by Lucas Knoll a few miles southwest of Holland near M-11.

The Federals, winners of the city league in baseball in Holland, have scheduled a game with the challengers, winners of the Grand Haven city league. The game will be played on Thursday of this week in Grand Haven. Plans are being formulated for a banquet to be given in honor of the officers, directors, presidents, managers and players who comprise the city league. The Federal players will be given a watch fob, containing a gold plate, engraved with the word "champions."

HOLLAND DROPS THE FINAL GAME TO THE GIANTS

The final game on Holland's schedule went to the wrong side of the ledger Saturday afternoon as the Illinois Colored Giants cracked out a 7-3 victory. Brown, a newcomer to the Giants, kept Holland well in tow until the final frame when 4 hits tallied 3 runs. Until the ninth Brown had a 2-hit game and every thing in his favor. Errors proved the undoing of Holland although Vande Bunte was touched up rather freely at times. R. Radcliffe scored the first run in the fourth, getting on by virtue of a nice double. The visiting hurler, who by the way hit safely three times, brought him home with a single into right. Smith knocked the ball over the left field fence in the sixth and added a score for the Giants. Five hits in the eighth and ninth innings turned into 4 runs. Smith, Hicks and Zeigh crashing out singles in rapid order.

Holland came to life in their last chance at bat, Ashley singled and Hoover also smacked out a hit to center.

Albers batting for Vande Bunte doubled into left and Ashley and Hoover romped home. Batema brought Albers home but then was thrown out trying to stretch his hit into a double.

The local lineup was somewhat shifted, Olsee and Mate being here from the Kelley team. Carl Shaw at shortstop played a nice fielding game but failed to break into the hitting column. From now on football will be the main attraction at Riverview Park, the high school team meeting Lowell here Saturday.

A double birthday party in honor of the Misses LaVerne and Mildred Essenberg was given at their home at 369 Maple Ave. Friday evening. They received many beautiful gifts from their friends. Games were played and Mrs. S. Houting entertained at the piano. A three course luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. K. Essenberg. The following guests were present: Miss Coral Bremer, Miss Harriet and Sylvia Schurmann, Miss Jean Baker, Miss Mary Meppelink, Miss Esther De Weerd, Miss Tilly Masselink, Miss Mary Nykerk, Grand Rapids, Mrs. H. J. Held and daughter, Esther, Grand Rapids, Miss Vera Correll, Grand Haven.

Maurine Westrate former proprietor of the Oakland garage, had a rather thrilling experience in Pine Creek Bay the other day, which nearly cost him his life.

Jack Haan of the Haan Drug store, and the automobile man had tried their luck at fall fishing, however, bites were few and far between, and impatiently Westrate stood up in the cranky boat, hoping that this would make a better impression on the fish.

He did not hold his equilibrium long however, for the first pull on the rod the boat shifted too one side, precipitating the poorly Mr. Westrate in the waters of Pine Creek Bay.

With presence of mind he grasped the rear end of the boat, but was admonished by Mr. Haan not to climb in, for this would have meant a sure tip over.

Even an attempt to raise the anchor was dangerous work, and could not be done, however, George Bender, who always seems to be on hand when there is danger on Black Lake, cut the anchor rope, fastened his craft to Mr. Haan's boat and made for the shore with Westrate still in the water, trailing on behind.

The "Coffee Kietzers" are having quiet a laugh at Mr. Westrates expense, but the former automobile salesman is congratulating himself on a narrow escape.

Prof. A. Raap, formerly a member of the faculty of Hope college, now a resident of Miami, Fla., has been honored by being asked to take charge of the services of the Bryan Memorial Community church for a few months. Rev. Mr. Taylor, pastor of the church, is busily engaged in raising a Bryan memorial fund. His church is being built on the corner of Bryan's estate. Mr. Bryan having donated the lots for it. He intended to attend the services of this church with his wife in his old age and he often preached for the congregation.

Mr. Taylor called on Mr. Raap last week and asked him to assist him while he was busy with other work, and to take charge of the services for at least two or three months. Mr. Raap accepted the invitation and so it will be his privilege to begin next Sunday to preach in the Bryan Memorial church.

Mr. Raap is taking a prominent part in the religious life of Miami. He has during the past month or two preached in the First Church of Christ, a large downtown church which is now vacant. On concluding his work there Mr. Raap was honored with a public vote of thanks by the congregation. He is also teaching a men's Bible class with an attendance of about 60 in summer and 100 in winter.

Struck by a truck in Louisville, Ky., on Sept. 18, Russell Wilson, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Wilson, of Grand Rapids, formerly of Holland, died in a Louisville hospital Friday. The Wilson family left Grand Rapids by automobile Sept. 17 for Florida, where they expected to spend the winter. The accident occurred when they stopped at Louisville the following day. The boy was unconscious from the time of the accident until his death a week later.

There are three other children in the Wilson family, Donald, 5; Bobby, 2, and Kenneth, aged 5 months. The body was taken to Holland for burial. The Wilsons lived in Holland until about six years ago when they went to Grand Rapids. The funeral was held Monday P. M. at 3 o'clock from the Dykstra Funeral Home, Rev. J. C. De Vinney officiating. Interment was in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

A farewell party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Catherine Burgh, 174 East 11th-st. Mrs. Burgh has lived in the same place for 35 years and on the occasion of her leaving the neighborhood the neighbors staged a farewell party for her. Games were played and a social time was enjoyed. Those present were: Mrs. C. Burmsa, Mrs. J. Dorie, Mrs. Eva Tripp, Mrs. J. Mulder, Mrs. S. Sass, Mrs. Sundin, Mrs. J. Koning, Mrs. Nyboer, and Mrs. H. Kleis.

For Young Women and Women Who Want to Stay Young

The Fall Mode is Slightly Molded and Elaborately Flared

The triumph of the Flare over Straightline is undoubtedly an important one in the struggle for style supremacy.

Frocks and Coats are cut on circular lines in an infinite variety of ways. Hemlines are widened with godets and plaits and a slightly modeled bodice achieves a place of prominence in many of the newest and ultra-chic creations.

For the most part the flare starts at the hip line or even higher but many frocks cling to the low-knee flare which is extremely youthful.

Fur banding at the hem enhances the charm of many models and colorful embroideries on puffed sleeves and scarf collars add picturesqueness to the mode.
