FILLMORE'S NEW SCHOOL TO BE DEDICATED

The new Fillmore district school just completed at a cost of $7,500 is to be dedicated Friday evening when Holland speakers have been called upon to give addresses.

Superintendent of Holland's public schools, Mr. E. E. Fell and Henry Gierling, secretary of the Board of Education are on the program, and Henry Boeve of Fillmore, president of the parents-teachers club will preside on Friday.

Fine Youths $8 for Desecrating Cemetery

Four youths charged with driving recklessly in Oakland cemetery, Allegan, Sunday were fined $8 and costs each. They were Charles Fuller, Simon Dostie, Allegan; Irving Finley and Edward Stumowski, Kalamazoo.

Archie Brainerd was held for trial in Allegan county circuit under bond of $500 on a drunken driving count when he appeared before Justice P. E. Plah today. Frank McKee pleaded guilty of stripping a car near Fullman and was given a 60-day jail sentence and fined $9.30 and costs.

GRAND HAVEN WILL ALSO HAVE WINTER SPORTS

CITY PLANS ICE SKATING IN THE OVAL AT HIGHLAND PARK

Desiring to further the idea of winter sports in Michigan as an attraction to people living in metropolitan centers, the state conservation department has authorized P. J. Hoffmeister, state park board executive, to co-operate with Grand Haven City Manager Paul R. Taylor in establishing an ice skating rink at the oval this coming winter.

This is an initiatory step in the winter sports program promoted all over the section.

Added to the rink idea is a plan to prepare the newly paved streets on long hills to serve for toboggan slides and skiing. No end of winter activities can be promoted there if the city will act in conjunction with the state.

Dar Vriesman, secretary of the chamber of commerce, will endeavor to push the idea and make this the center of winter sports for the Great Lake country as Lake Placid is considered in the east.

B. P. Sherwood of Grand Haven and his daughter, Miss Lucinda Sherwood, will attend the National Bankers convention in Houston, Texas, next month.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Our highway commissioner is doing some long-needed jobs on Eighth St., that of clearing the gutters, and he does his work well.

Mr. L. Kraker sr., has sold his share in the old meat market on River St. to Mr. Wilson Harrington for fifty acres of land some of which is cleared.

One of our business men took the trouble to count the teams and vehicles visible on Eighth street, on Saturday last and counted over ninety. How many more there may have been on River street at the same time may be imagined, but we cannot say, at any rate, times are getting livelier.

On Tuesday night last some thieves broke into Butkan & Van Zoeren's slaughter house and took from twenty to thirty pounds of beef. The parties are hereby warned that a warm reception is sin waiting for their next operation.

The great iron mills at Pittsburgh, that have been idle since the railroad strike are now starting up, the men consenting to go to work at their old wages. In the cold regions, also, there is constantly increasing resumption of work. In most cases now the manager of the mines granting a small increase of wages.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

STATE MAY TAKE A HAND IN ARSON CASE IN OCTOBER

Alleged County criminal calendar for October term of court, convening Oct. 3, lists 17 cases ranging from arson to a variety of liquor law violations. With the prospect also of the trial of George Broadhurst for murder being entered.

The trial of George Everett, Grand Rapids, charged with arson in connection with the firing of his cottage in Macatawa Park and the subsequent destruction of 35 additional cottages, doing near a half million dollars damages, is scheduled second on the calendar and will probably be heard Oct. 11, as the jury reports Oct. 10.

William Goucher and Burdette Maynard are slated for trial on jury-duty counts, Lena Millies and Tim Leach for assault, John Ensing with breaking and entering, George and Elsie Hudpath for issuing checks without funds, and Lawrence Cowles, A. L. Travis and Clinton VanHinder are to be tried on serious statutory offenses.

Liquor law violation cases to be disposed of are Gerrit Walters, Don Kaylor, Emory Kula, John Peltz, Joe Nilo, Edwin Purnell Thomas Store. The jury will also decide on 26 law cases with the last suit brought by the township of Salem against William Fisser and bondsmen for recovery of funds placed in the defendant First National bank leading in public interest. Sixteen divorce actions, several contested, are listed for anniversary court.

Judge Oren S. Cross will preside and Prosecutor Harry Pelt will represent the people in all the criminal actions. It is probable the attorney general's office will assist in the prosecution of Everett in connection with the Macatawa fire last spring.

A sheriff's deed for property sold on an execution to satisfy a judgment came up at the Ottawa county court house. The judgment describes property in the village of Robinson on Whitney street thence to the Chicago, Michigan Lake Shore R. R. Co. This was many years ago and all traces of a village has long since disappeared. The railway is now the Pete Marquette.

MANY FACTORIES ARE WORKING OVERTIME

Holland is not industrially flat, in fact everywhere business is looking up.

The Ottawa Furniture Company employees have been working over 12 hours a day and employees at the Holland Furniture Company have also been working overtime; some of the other factories are also working full time and often on Saturday afternoons.

Manager De Pree of the De Pree company states that the San Tox concern have had the best run of business in history.

TWO CONFERENCES TO TAKE PLACE IN HERE NEXT WEEK

Holland will stage five conventions during the next month.

These conventions will be attended by thousands of persons and provisions have been made in two cases to obtain the use of Carnegie hall, one of the largest auditoriums in Holland, to accommodate the crowds.

On Oct. 13 the Women's Missionary conference of the Reformed churches in western Michigan will hold its twenty-ninth annual session in Third Reformed church. The fifth convention will be held by the tri-county C. E. association Oct. 22 and 23.

The inspirational conference of the churches connected with the particular synod of Chicago, Reformed Church in America, will meet in Holland Oct. 11 and 12.

The Michigan Tourist and Resort association will open a three-day conference in Holland Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week where 400 will attend.

The Ottawa county Sunday school association will also open in convention scheduled for Oct. 4, next week.

Arthur Visser manager of the Ottawa Furniture company is on a trip to New York.

The Labor Department at Washington gives Grand Rapids a population of 158,700.

Members of the Zealand American Legion auxiliary will hold its first meeting of the season Monday night in the Legion rooms.

LOCAL CHURCH IS TO BUILD A NEW $15,000 ADDITION

At a congregational meeting held at Trinity Church it was decided to remodel the church building, enlarging it and increasing the seating capacity 260.

The church still holds property 25 feet wide to the north and the new addition will take up 16 feet of this room, leaving plenty of lawn space so that it will not detract from the surroundings.

It was felt for some time that the church was over crowded. Trinity has 275 families that have joined and the Sunday school attendance Sundays is approximately 600.

All church functions and societies are largely attended and there always seems a lack of room.

Architect Wennhoff of Grand Rapids has prepared a sketch of the remodeled edifice and this sketch it is more than likely will be approved and bids will be called for.

The cost of remodeling will be approximately $15,000.00.

Trinity church has grown rapidly. It has had two pastors. The first was Rev. John Van Persum now of Zealand and for the past nine years Rev. Clarence P. Dame has served this church in a wonderful way and the growth of the congregation has been phenomenal.

The total collection last year in Trinity was nearly $25,000.00.

The committee on building and grounds are D. Steketee, G. Vander Brink and M. Vork.

The consistory of the church are D. Steketee, George D. Albers, John Oonk, David Damstra, A. Hoeksema, S. Pas, P. Van Donzeelaar and John K. Van Lente.

Other officers of the church are Harry Kramer and John Post, Gerrit Vander Brink, Milo Vork, M. Van Ark, S. Buron and J. Jipping.

Trinity church was organized 16 years ago last May. It is expected that the church will be completed by January first.

Bert Vander Veen of Santa Monica California, is in Holland for a short stay, having been called here by the death of his brother, Jacob Vander Veen of Grand Rapids.

Nancy Ann Hale has enrolled in Holland high school after spending a year in Miami, Florida—Maroon and Orange.

Supposed Liquor Was An Auto Tube Woman Declares

The examination of William Bryant of Robinson on a liquor charge was held Monday morning before D. F. Pagelsen, Grand Haven. It resulted in the dismissal of Bryant for lack of sufficient testimony when the chief witness Mrs. Joe Appel found in the searching of her memory that the package which she thought at first was liquor turned out to be an inner tube of an automobile tire.

CLASS SPIRIT RUNS VERY HIGH AT HOPE COLLEGE

Class spirit is running high at Hope College with the Frosh taking the initiative in many rushes. Thursday night the 1931 class met and after electing officers, the new-comers paraded the city streets presumably looking for game in the form of some members of the sophomore aggregation.

However, after much marching with no results and having their spirits dampened by a steady rain, the wearers of the green dispersed and waited until Friday morning when the Sophs were encountered in battle on the campus. Chief of Police Van Ry states that quarrels on the main streets, which would hinder traffic will not be allowed and kindly asks the classes to do their scuffling on the campus.

The big pull is scheduled for next Friday and both classes have their men ready for practice. A limited number pull and the usual prizes again been selected for the tussle. Athletic director Schouten will meet the captains and a decision as to which tank will be occupied by the yearlings will be made.

Hope has a new oriental student on its roll this year. His name is Abraham S. Antas, an Arab from Iraq, Mesopotamia, who received his preliminary education at the American School at Basrah, founded by Rev. John Van Es, D. D., of the American Mission. He served in the British government as interpreter, and was recently the chief clerk of the police department of Basrah, which position he held for over five years.

Mr. Antas's ambition to obtain a higher education gave him up his government position, his present aim being to take a course in law after his graduation from Hope.

Dr. John Van Es is a graduate of Hope, class of 1868, is one of the world's greatest missionaries, and a loyal alumnus.

FINE PROGRAM IS ARRANGED FOR S. S. CONVENTION

Plans are well underway to make the Sunday School convention scheduled to be held in Holland, Tuesday, Oct. 4th, one of the finest ever staged in the state.

The speakers and leaders in the various departments are very capable, and all indications point to large crowds and great spiritual success.

The main speaker is none other than Rev. M. S. Rice, D. D., one of the leading Detroit pastors for the last fourteen years and a man who preaches and lectures to capacity audiences everywhere. His subject for the evening address at Carnegie Hall is "Divinely Out-Matched" and no doubt seats will be at a premium as fifteen hundred people are expected to attend this meeting.

Other attractions for the evening at Carnegie Hall are the greatest chorus Holland has ever heard, and a pageant, entitled "The Striking of America's Hour."

The chorus will be made up entirely of singers from Holland and John Vander Sluis will act as director. The pageant calls for many beautiful scenes with eighty characters taking part.

Not only at the evening sessions will the attraction be great but also in the morning and afternoon meetings. The committee has surely taken pains to get splendid speakers as the program shows.

Rev. Clarence Bouma, D. D., at present professor at Calvin College, Grand Rapids, will speak at the morning session on the subject "Building Christian Character." Dr. Bouma is an eloquent speaker and has studied and travelled much abroad.

Dr. John Kulzenga of Western Theological Seminary, always welcome to any platform will have charge of the devotional Bible hours. His subject will be "Teachers Help" and each of the three hours, will find a different subject discussed, the first being "Bible," second "Prayer" third "Consecration."

Dr. J. C. Willets, another speaker of note will have as his subject for an afternoon session "Building a Christian Citizenship."

Rev. Jack Prins, pastor of Forest Grove and well known as an evangelist, will be the first speaker in the morning session, discussing the subject "Plans and Specifications for Building."

Added to this fine array of speakers is Rev. E. W. Holpenny of Lansing, state secretary and department specialist. He will have charge of the adult division. Prof. E. Winter of Hope College will lecture on administration. Mrs. Eva Washburn of Benton Harbor, who will direct the Young Peoples Conference Work.

Mrs. E. W. Holpenny and E. Walvoord are listed to care for the children's work.

The theme of the Conference is "Building Together" and no doubt great success will be experienced.

Rev. Peter Hoekenga, 62 years old, formerly of Muskegon, died suddenly Monday in Alameda, Calif., according to a message received by relatives at Muskegon.

Rev. Mr. Hoekenga, who was pastor of the Christian Reformed church in Alameda, expired in the consistory of the church edifice as he was about to enter the auditorium of the church to conduct the evening service. He had been in Alameda about five years.

Rev. Mr. Hoekenga was born in Muskegon and attended the schools there. He was a graduate of Calvin college and seminary at Grand Rapids.

He is survived by the widow and eight children, and one half brother, Rev. S. G. Brondsema, of Muskegon Heights.

RED CROSS SENDS CHRISTMAS BAGS TO THE SOLDIERS

Ottawa county has many soldiers serving in different countries on the globe, China, Japan, Central America, Porto Rico, the Islands of the Pacific have young men in service from these parts, and although Christmas is still three months away mother Van Duren, head of the Red Cross, and her associates have been busy preparing these bags which were sent Saturday.

The Insular boys can expect within the next month to receive one of these bags from Holland as a Christmas present.

The collection in these bags is rather unique, containing useful articles altogether. There are wash cloths, towels, soap, a pocket knife, paper and envelopes, and a house wife, not a maiden to be sure, but a collection of articles that have been given that name. The articles the housewife contains are needles and pins, darning needles, 2 sizes of safety pins, buttons, white and kahal, white and black linen thread and in out of the way places, but add considerable to the comforts of a soldier.

There is also a harmonica for the musical inclined and two gospels, one of St. John and the other of St. Luke.

Part of the bags and strings were donated and the work of making them was done by Mrs. E. J. Blech and associate Mrs. Bernardus Manning.

The ladies aid of the Third Reformed church also gave a helping hand.

Mrs. Van Duren states that the sending of the bags cost the organization $32.60 complete.

COUNTY NURSE LAMMER TO PUT ON A PROGRAM

Mrs. Marjorie House Meyers from the branch office of the American Red Cross will come to Ottawa county for four months to work with county nurse, Nell R. Lammer, to put on an extensive health program throughout the county.

Mrs. Meyers is a graduate from the Battle Creek Sanitarium having received her public health training at Simmons College, Boston. Mrs. Meyers will live at Holland and her office will be in the Red Cross rooms in the city hall where space has been given her by Mrs. Van Duren.

Miss Bertha Cooper from the State Department of Health will work with Mrs. Nell R. Lammer, the county nurse, in putting on ten classes in Infant Hygiene and Child care for girls in grades 8-9-10 throughout the rural schools. It is to be regretted that Miss Cooper could not give the work to more schools but her time is limited. Following is the list of schools who will receive the instruction.

Ferrysburg, Peach Plains, Borculo, Marne (2 classes), Conklin, Parachial school, Zealand (2 classes), Hudsonville, Jamestown, New Holland, Beebe, Cedar, Lakewood, Spring Lake, Nunica, and Allendale.

The purpose of these classes, which are called Little Mothers' League, is to help little children. The pledge "I pledge myself to the service of babyhood; to do what I can at any time to help little children grow up strong and well and fitted for good citizenship." The members are girls who want to learn how to take care of babies, feed, bathe and dress them. How to prepare their food, make clothes and many things to do to keep them well. When a member has attended four classes she receives the badge of the club. When she attends eight classes and puts her lessons and literature together properly she receives a diploma.

News was received in Holland telling of the death at Rochester, N. Y., of Rev. P. G. M. Bahler, 83, a minister in the Reformed church in America since 1871.

He was a graduate of the Holland academy, now Hope college, of the class of 1863 and served the Reformed church at Beaverdam, Ottawa county, 1865 to 1889. Mr. Bahler was born in Belgium in 1844 where his father was engaged as missionary.

John J. Staffer, 54 years old, died at his home in Fruitport Saturday, Sept. 24, after a short illness. He is survived by his widow and the following children: Mrs. Myrtle Carrick, Muskegon Heights; Mrs. C. Crouch, Mona Lake; Miss Nona Staffer and Hurley Staffer of South Bend; Loren Staffer, and two sisters, Mrs. Louise Cunningham, Muskegon Heights and Mrs. Mary Morehouse, Stockton, California.

Mr. Staffer had been a trusted employee of the G. R. C. H. & M. R. company for a number of years and well known to the residents of this village.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 p. m., and burial was in Spring Lake cemetery.

A small but charming wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter DeBoe of Grand Haven when Elizabeth Lenheart of Mook, Neb. and LeDade DeBoe of Lansing, a son of Mrs. DeBoe, were united in marriage by the Rev. Henry Candire at 8:00 p. m. Mr. DeBoe was a former Holland resident.

Five Tots Take a Long Walk

Five little tots all about four years of age caused quite a bit of excitement Thursday morning when they decided to take a tour around the city. Leaving the neighborhood in the vicinity of 18th street and Pine Ave., the youngsters went to River street and passed thru Centennial Park. Anxious parents called the police and Officer Spruit aided in the search. Soon the wanderers were found near the college campus. How they all, with their cars, managed to get thru the traffic without an accident is a marvel.

Ottawa Rural Carriers Elect, Push Legislation

The Ottawa County Rural Letter Carriers association at its annual meeting this week voted to bond its efforts in fostering passage of legislation favoring more liberal retirement and sick leave benefits. Speeches were made by Richard J. Van Kollen and A. A. Nienhuis of Holland.

Bicycle riders whose wheels are not fitted out with the proper lights are warned that they are liable to get arrested and fined unless they adhere to the law. The dark nights are making riding bicycles a great danger and for the safety of all Chief Van Ry has ordered his men to send in all violators who have not proper lights on the vehicles. On account of the majority of riders being working men and boys the police have been lenient and allowed plenty of time so the law could be made known and obeyed. Complaints have also been registered that bicycle riders are not obeying the stop and go lights and a close watch will also be set for these violators.

This year the educational exhibit at the Community Fair was handled in a way different from that of former years. The plans were again under the direction of Miss Rogers of the high school. The idea was to leave each school exhibit its best work in penmanship, handwork, kindergarten sand tables, art and crafts, and for each school to exhibit a prize was granted. No individual prizes were offered, but the plan seems to have aroused a great deal of interest. This suggestion has been made that a school exhibit be staged in some down town building in November for those who were not privileged to see the work at the Fair—Maroon and Orange.

BATH SCHOOL GETS HOLLAND SCHOOL'S GIFT

One of the rooms of the new school to be erected at Bath by Senator James Couzens is to be a memorial to the 40 children who lost their lives when the old building was dynamited by the insane farmer, Daniel Kehoe. The memorial room is made possible by contributions of Michigan school children.

Shortly after the explosion L. L. Tyler, superintendent of the Muskegon Heights schools, started a fund among the school children of Michigan. Mr. Tyler received his first experience as a teacher as principal of the Bath school, and many parents of the explosion victims were his pupils.

The plan received the official approval of the relief committee named by Gov. Fred W. Green, and Mr. Tyler sent out notices to the schools of Michigan. Today, that fund contains about $1,500 and it is expected that $2,500, the amount sought will be obtained within the next two or three weeks.

Many schools were closing when the memorial was started, and only a little more than $500 was collected then. With the reopening of the schools contributions started to arrive, and during the last few days the fund has been increasing rapidly.

The bulk of this money is being raised by contributions of one cent. Lansing architect, who designed the new school, has written Mr. Tyler that he would like to work the memorial in the form of equipment of a room especially designed for that purpose.

In the long list is found Holland's public school children to the innocent victims of the insane farmer," Mr. Tyler says.

The contract for the new school was awarded recently and Senator Couzens has supplied the $70,000 necessary to erect it. Warren Holmes, Lansing architect, who designed the new school, has written Mr. Tyler that he would like to work the memorial in the form of equipment of a room especially designed for that purpose.

Shortly after the explosion L. L. Tyler, superintendent of the Muskegon Heights schools, started a fund among the school children of Michigan. Mr. Tyler received his first experience as a teacher as principal of the Bath school, and many parents of the explosion victims were his pupils.

The plan received the official approval of the relief committee named by Gov. Fred W. Green, and Mr. Tyler sent out notices to the schools of Michigan. Today, that fund contains about $1,500 and it is expected that $2,500, the amount sought will be obtained within the next two or three weeks.

Many schools were closing when the memorial was started, and only a little more than $500 was collected then. With the reopening of the schools contributions started to arrive, and during the last few days the fund has been increasing rapidly.

The bulk of this money is being raised by contributions of one cent. Lansing architect, who designed the new school, has written Mr. Tyler that he would like to work the memorial in the form of equipment of a room especially designed for that purpose.

In the long list is found Holland's public school children to the innocent victims of the insane farmer," Mr. Tyler says.

The contract for the new school was awarded recently and Senator Couzens has supplied the $70,000 necessary to erect it. Warren Holmes, Lansing architect, who designed the new school, has written Mr. Tyler that he would like to work the memorial in the form of equipment of a room especially designed for that purpose.

Virginia Park Residents Organize Sunday Schools

Albert Berkompas has been elected superintendent and Mrs. Peter Van der Meer secretary-treasurer of a new Sunday school at Virginia Park. Sessions will be held Sundays from 2:30 to 3:30 in the community hall. The school will be interdenominational. Five classes have been organized. Forty-two persons attended the first session.

Virginia Park residents are listed in the booster class. Since two large plays have been laid out in lots many homes have been built. Streets are being laid out and it is expected that $25,000 school is under construction.

Property is being developed and beautified with walks, trees and shrubs.

FEW VETERANS PAY BACK THE GOVERNMENT LOANS

Mrs. G. J. Van Duren asks this paper to print the following clipping from the Red Cross Courier:

"As anticipated, few veterans who obtained loans under their adjusted compensation certificates on Jan. 1 are repaying the banks when the loans become due. This failure on the part of veterans to assume this responsibility has necessitated an increase in the personnel of the Veterans Bureau in order to care for the thousands of notes being turned over to the Bureau by the banks for repayment.

"With as little delay as is possible the Bureau is reimbursing the banks the amount of the loan plus the interest, usually at the rate of 6 per cent and is charging the principal and interest to the veteran. In this connection it is interesting to note that if the veterans allowed the loan to remain unpaid for eight years or over the interest will equal approximately half of the certificate value."

Junior and Sophomore Classes at Hope College Elect

The following officers were elected by the Hope college Junior class for the coming year: President, Nick Praxken; vice president, Alvin Vanter Bush; secretary, Ruth Kennel; treasurer, Charles Rozema, Martha Van Buren; student council members, Marjory Du Mez, Everett Bekken.

The Sophomores named the following officers: president, Maurice Marus; vice president, Wm. Jansen; secretary, Doris Brouwer; treasurer, Alice Brunson; student council members, Myra Ten Cate, Warren De Pree; hall captain, Henry "Chief" Van Wesel; pull coaches, Leon Kleis and Clinton Cole.

Mrs. P. Wierda has returned from a three weeks trip to Durham, North Carolina.

Stephan Again Heads Furniture Alliance

Former mayor E. P. Stephan was re-elected President of the National Furniture Alliance at a meeting held in Chicago Tuesday and G. J. Dickema was named attorney by the Bond of Directors composed of 14 men from different parts of the country. The Alliance take in all "case good" furniture manufacturers in the United States.

Mrs. Ada Badger was very pleasantly surprised at her home, 243 West Ninth, Street, City, Tuesday Evening by several of her friends, the occasion being her birthday. A delightful four course dinner was served by the hostess, Mrs. Lucille Badger. After the dinner games were played and prizes were won by the following:

The Misses Gertrude Homfield, Gladys Essenburg, Lillian Boss, Genevieve Kardux, Bernice Underwood and Albertha Homfield. Many pretty little gifts were received by Miss Badger.

YOUTHS HUNG UP ON DRUG STORE PROPRIETORS

The holdup gang of youths who make drug stores a specialty, may be amateurs according to the police, but if so, they are fast workers and are rapidly becoming professionals.

Three more drug stores at Grand Rapids were cleaned out Monday night and the description given of the hold up men correspond with the two who held up Russell Haight at the East End Drug Store in Holland last week.

In Grand Rapids Monday night two youthful bandits escaped with loot estimated at $355, all in cash, bringing the total number of drug store robberies in Grand Rapids, reported since Sunday to 11.

Monday night's activities left a trail extending from the southeastern section of the city through Wyoming park to Grandville, where, according to deputy sheriffs, the pair headed back to Grand Rapids.

The first place visited was the McLaughlin drug store, 1001 Kalamazoo ave., SE, where the two youthful bandits, fitting the descriptions of the perpetrators of the other two jobs Monday night, as well as those of Sunday evening, obtained $180.

At the time of the robbery, shortly after 9:30 p. m., only the two clerks, Jerome Hazenberg, 22, of 646 Thomas st., SE, pharmacist, and Kenneth Rexford, 17, of 1030 Eastern ave., were in the store. They were in a room in the rear of the place.

When Hazenberg heard footsteps in the store he started for the front to wait on him he believed to be a customer. Instead, however, he was confronted by the bandits, the foremost of whom was masked with a handkerchief and carried a nickel plated revolver. Rexford followed his partner in and both of them were halted immediately.

The clerks obeyed, but not fast enough to suit the "customers," the leader of whom gave them both a kick.

One bandit stayed in the doorway leading to the rear room, so as to be able to watch the front entrance, while his partner proceeded to the two clerks. He missed the money both had in their trousers' pockets and then turned his attention to a cash till used for postal substitution funds and the company's safe. The bandit obtained $60 of government money and $91 from the safe.

A call by the lookout to "hurry up" cut short the robber's attentions to the strong box but he waited long enough to again search Hazenberg, this time finding a wallet containing $20 in bills. He withdrew the money, threw the pocketbook on the floor and they departed.

Several young men, who were standing in front of the store, noticed the pair go in and later come out, but, unaware of the robbery being perpetrated, failed to get the license number of the car they left with the motor running.

Hazenberg gave Detectives McDonald and Stegenga a description of the two as being about 21 and 23 years of age, respectively, weighing 145 and 155 pounds. They were about five feet, six inches, and five feet, ten inches, tall and had light brown and dark curly hair. The latter one was wearing a green slicker and they escaped in a Buick car.

Half an hour later, a call was received at the sheriff's office, informing authorities of the holdup of the Roy Drug store at Wyoming Park, where the same two men, apparently, operated on the same plan and obtained $75.

While deputies still were checking up on this robbery, word was sent in from Grandville that the same two men held up the Grandville Pharmacy and escaped with about $100 in cash, according to a hasty checkup by L. C. Baker, Grandville, the clerk, was alone in the fountain when the bandits entered. They were unmasked and approached Swensen, one of them saying, "Well, it's pretty late for you to be open, isn't it?"

Swensen replied that it wasn't quite the closing hour and the taller of the two pulled the same nickel-plated revolver.

"Let's go in to the back room," he said, "we want to pull off a little job."

Swensen complied with their request and while one held him at bay in the back, the other rifled the cash drawer and the safe, which it was resting on and which was unlocked. After having all the money in sight, the pair left and according to Swensen, turned around and headed back for Grand Rapids.

Officials have no doubt but what Monday night's robberies as well as those of last week were committed by the same two youths who they believe are working in a stolen car.

At Grand Rapids, the stores, as well as several pedestrians in Grand Rapids, have been held up within four days.

The first parents-teachers club meeting of the season of the Washington school was held last evening at the new large auditorium which was well filled.

Miss Kutschanski the music teacher led the community singing. Geo. Mool led in prayer, and two violin selections were rendered by Roy Mool, accompanied by Miss Thersa Mool.

Dr. Davidson gave an interesting talk on his trip to Bermuda Island, which Supp. E. E. Fell introduced the new teachers.

Dr. D. G. Cook the health officer gave a talk on inoculation for scarlet fever and asked for co-operation of the parents.

A short business session was held after which the 6th grade parents served refreshments.

Curfew at 10:30 For Hope Frosh

Rules governing freshmen at Hope college will be confined to the same restrictions which have been in vogue for years. The men must wear their green pots and ties and the girls the uniform green ribbons, so tied that the entire bow is visible.

Dates with upper classmen and women are prohibited, all frosh are forbidden to be on the streets after 10:30 and the frosh fellows must tip their pots to upper classmen. Infractions of the rules will mean penalties upon conviction by a court.

The rules will be enforced until Thanksgiving day, when the green pots, ties and bows will be turned in a bonfire on the campus.

Nominate Milestone Organize and Elect In Class

The Hope college Freshman class was organized and officers were duly elected. The meeting was called to order by Eugene Damstra, Pres., of Student Council with Ray De Young, then Pres. of the Junior class, and George Cliquenno, also present.

The elections resulted as follows: president, Nathaniel Brower; vice president, Fred Winegard; secretary, Gerald Huennink; treasurer, Margaret Boter, Allen Brunson; members of student council, Margaret Westervelt, Harold Boone, Stiekas was the Freshman choice as a yellmaster.

Grand Rapids Herald—The engagement of Miss Marjorie Hoppe to Christian Stiekas of this city has been announced by Miss Hoppe's father, Alexander William Hoppe.

The wedding will take place Saturday evening, Oct. 15, followed by a 7 o'clock dinner for the families and close friends of the bridal couple. The dinner will be followed by a large reception at 9 o'clock in Kent Country club.

Through the efforts of Scott W. Eddy, Civil war veteran, the Kirby-Pond fortress, Daughters of the G. A. R., has been organized here with the following officers:

Commander, Florence Monique; senior vice commander, Nellie Rode; junior vice commander, Hannah Dempster; quartermaster, Faith Nevens; chaplain, Grace Eaton; patriotic instructor, Alice Baker; officer of the day, Blanche Ellis; adjutant, Minnie Thomas.

Frank H. Alfred, president and general manager of the Pere Marquette Railroad, speaking some time ago at the dedication of the Park Marquette Park at Muskegon, said, "Some day Muskegon will have a direct railroad line to Detroit which will connect this growing community with the eastern markets and distributing centers." The W. G. Leenhouts Post has again arranged to stage a minstrel show this fall. The contract has been made with the John B. Rogers Producing Company of Ohio, the same people who assisted the American Legion with their minstrel show.

This year the play goes under the name of "Minstrel Flashes," and according to reports from other cities this production is a knock-out and the committee in charge are most enthusiastic over its possibilities.

It is a play calling for elaborate costumes and scenic equipment. The Legion have available already the best of our local talent, so the committee in charge are looking forward to staging another successful production.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Harris celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a dinner party at their home, 125 East 15th street, last evening. Covers were laid for 28 guests and a three course dinner was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated in lavender, yellow and cut flowers. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Zwemer and Mrs. Nell Naughton of Saugatuck, Miss Cora VanderWater of Grand Haven. Mr. and Mrs. Harris received many beautiful gifts in silver and congratulations of their many friends.

Holland high school opened this year with many new attractions and additions. The battleship lineoleum that was laid on the second and third floors in the corridors was a great improvement in the school building. Light fixtures are being installed on the second floor over all the large paintings, which will make it easier to see the pictures. The first floor was greatly improved by a fine coat of paint on the floor.

Miss Zwemer received a large black-board to use in her library classes which will eliminate bringing the black-board from the assembly. Miss Geiger received a new file which will make her work easier. The new varnished desk tops in Miss Anthony's and Wicket's rooms were an attractive addition also.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Vredevelde celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a family reunion Tuesday at their home at 154 W. 17th St., where they have lived about seven years.

Twenty-five children and grandchildren were present and after supper was served, a program of readings and songs was enjoyed.

One interesting number of the program was a poem giving the history of their 50 years of married life read by Geo. W. Deur.

Vredevelde was born in Ottawa county in 1877 he purchased a 40-acre tract of woods in Fremont, and built a shanty, cleared the timber and later developed it into a modern farm, with a new home and barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Vredevelde are respectively 70 and 68 years of age. Three of their seven children are living.

Those present were, Geo. W. Deur, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Fokkema, Mr. and Mrs. Joe VanderVelde, Mr. and Mrs. John Hassink and families with Anna H. Vredevelde, whose father and mother died in Muskegon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Vredevelde were born and raised near Oakland on a farm. When married they bought 40 acres of forest, 2 1/2 miles north of Fremont, W. on the old Ramshorn road. They built their little home with the lumber cut out of their own trees. Later, after the land was cleared, the new home and barn were built and children were grown. They moved to their present home on 17th St. 7 years ago, having lived on the same farm for 43 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Vredevelde received many useful and beautiful gifts.

MRS. VAN DUREN HAS NEW DUTY AS RED CROSS HEAD

Mrs. G. J. Van Duren, head of the Holland Red Cross has been given some other duties to perform which is added to Red Cross work.

She is to aid young travelers, children who are being helped thru the Red Cross. There is not much of that class of work but a few days ago she was called upon to aid a young girl to her destination in Muskegon from Salt Lake City. The girl wanted to go to her relatives, understood they lived near Holland, the Red Cross in Salt Lake City took a hand tagged the young lady for Holland and wired Mrs. Van Duren to look after her when she arrived.

When the girl did arrive she did not know the address of her relatives but thought they lived in Muskegon. It was up to Mrs. Van Duren to get in touch with Red Cross headquarters at Muskegon and she sent the girl on to that city and as soon as she arrived there, Red Cross officials took charge of her and located her father who was working in a shop, and later a brother was found also working in Muskegon, employed in a coal yard.

The work of the Red Cross is thorough, their charge does not get out of sight until they are personally placed in charge of their relatives.

Conductors on all trains have instructions to guard a girl or child while in transit. Their comforts are looked after, they ask no questions but simply ship the child to the address on the tag fastened to the garment.

Frosh As Hope Business Manager

Nominations for the position of business manager of the Hope college Milestone for 1928, were made at a recent meeting of the Junior class. The nominees are as follows: Otto Yntema, Walter De Velder, G. Killey, Frank Brokaw, Jacob Gulick and Jack Pelon. Elections will follow at a later date.

This action was necessary because of a vacancy in that office due to the fact that Paul Van Es, who was elected last year, has discontinued his studies at Hope.

Stanley Deacon, the engaging young baritone, who is to sing Dec. 1 at Carnegie Hall, has built up a reputation for versatility and "commensurate with his musical attainment."

Mr. Deacon's experience has covered every field open to an artist of amount of success in each. He has been leading baritone of both the Boston opera and the Century opera in New York; has had numerous appearances as soloist with orchestra, and frequent oratorio engagements through the eastern and midwestern parts of the country.

Moreover, Mr. Deacon has achieved a wide reputation as a producer, having staged a large number of grand operas and other musical productions of equal scope. Among the well known operas he has staged are "La Boheme," "Faust," "Trovatore," "Martha," "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Pagliacci" and "Hansel and Gretel."

Mr. Deacon is at present in charge of a new production of the last named opera for the Kansas City, Mo. school board and the Kansas City Symphony-Orchestra Association, using children in the title roles, and the remainder of the cast well known professionals, including himself.

This gifted young man has been dividing his time the last nine years between concert work, production and teaching. For five years he was a member of the faculty of the Chicago Musical College, as well as the faculty of Hope College, and the last four years he has spent with Horner Institute—Kansas City Conservatory in Kansas City, Mo., a school with a student enrollment of more than 4000. Besides directing the school's extensive opera department, Mr. Deacon takes time from his concert work to teach a limited number of advanced students.

Some may recall pleasantly, Mr. Deacon's fine personality and beautiful voice, a voice that has improved immeasurably in the last years.

With this eminent baritone other fine musicians will appear on the program December first. These include Mr. Deacon's charming wife, who is of Dutch descent, Mrs. Edna Swanson Ver Haar Deacon, the most beautiful contralto in America, also possesses a wonderful voice with a haunting quality and perfect diction.

Another to appear on that evening is the fine Harpist, Miss O'Connor. It goes without saying that a first-class pianist will play the accompaniments.

Watch the papers for further announcements with regard to this and the dramatic presentations, "Abraham Lincoln," by Drinkwater, and "The Message from Drinkwater." The orator will be announced later.

Officers for the various classes of the Allegan high school are: Seniors—President, Kenneth Andrew; vice president, Helen Wilcox; treasurer, Stanley Mason; secretary, Ethelyn Wynne; Miss Dorothy Manahan, lat year's junior class advisor, will advise the seniors this year.

Allegan Co. Post- master A Suicide

While his wife was preparing breakfast, Alfred Leidy, Allegan postmaster, committed suicide by running into a moving Pere Marquette freight train from Holland Tuesday morning.

According to his wife's story, he slipped out of the house and when she went to call him, she saw his body lying on the tracks in the rear of his home. Coroner C. Clay Benson, who investigated, decided no inquiry was necessary. He is survived only by the widow.

SUPERVISORS ROOM IN COURT HOUSE DECORATED

The supervisor's room in the Ottawa county Court House will be spick and span to receive the solons of the county when they meet for their October session and be greatly impressed by necessary changes.

The platform has been moved from the end of the room to the side formerly occupied by a fire place which never in the history of the building was known to be used.

The walls are being painted and the wood work refinished. New desks, chairs and tables of the most approved type will be installed which will make the work of the coming session much more convenient for the supervisors.

The room has always been inadequate for sessions of the supervisors and plans have been under way for sometime to make it more convenient and comfortable. The selection of the furniture has been hard to make but after much looking around the committee finally decided and the new quarters will be ready for inspection by October.

LOCAL PASTOR HAD THRILLING EXPERIENCES

Rev. R. G. Klingbell of the local Seventh Day Advent Church who is delivering a series of public lectures on "God's Phosphores in the Bible" has had some thrilling experiences in his thirty-three years of work as missionary in foreign countries.

Mr. Klingbell first studied at Battle Creek, Michigan and later at a school in England. In 1893 he was sent to Europe and learning the Dutch language he was assigned to the Netherlands. Here he worked until 1902, when he was sent to Belgium. Remaining there until 1912 he went to France and as the war closed he returned to his home.

Being heartily on the guard of their food rations and endeavoring to help the poor stricken people, the missionary and his family passed through trying times.

Five children had been born to him and Mr. Klingbell and his wife, a girl, then 17 years of age, died in Belgium, being underfed. The year 1917 was the hardest of the entire time spent during the struggle and Rev. Klingbell stated, had the conflict lasted one more year, millions would have perished because of starvation. At one time he stated, his little family had planned a big celebration as a small bag of white sugar was to be sent to them. The day arrived and the package came as promised but when it was opened the contents showed no sugar but only white sand. Someone had discovered the sugar and stolen it, filling the bag with the substitute.

After the Armistice had been signed and the great host loads of provisions and clothing sent from the United States, Rev. Klingbell was called to headquarters, where he met Ex-President Wilson, Mr. Kellogg and Mr. Hoover of the relief committee. These men provided aid for his mission home which was able to do splendid work.

The year 1919 found Rev. Klingbell and his family again in the Netherlands and in 1923 he was assigned to the United States so that his children could have a normal education. Recently, one of the daughters left as a missionary to the Dutch East Indies. She was married in Holland during the month of July.

Two boys are now in the school at Burton Springs, taking their work in the pre-medical course.

Another daughter is a nurse at a hospital in Hinsdale, Ill.

Rev. Klingbell states that after his children have completed their course he will again apply for work in the foreign country. He has been pastor of the local church for two years.

Archie Brainerd of Valley township Allegan county, charged with driving his car while intoxicated, waived examination in Justice F. E. Fish's court Tuesday and was bound over to the grand jury. He did not give the $500 bond demanded.

Some thirty friends of Ed Heerenga surprised him at his home Tuesday evening, the occasion being his 52nd birthday. The surprise was held at the cottage of Dick Boter, at Buchanan Beach. Mr. Heerenga was kidnapped at home, bundled in an automobile by four friends and when released found himself at Big Lake surrounded by a host of friends.

A token to Mr. Heerenga fitting the occasion was one of the features as was a four course dinner. There also was an entertaining program.

Mrs. Jane Ballard, 82, one of the oldest residents of Coopersville, died at the home of her daughter in Lansing. She leaves two children, Mrs. William J. Ridge of Lansing and Charles Ballard of Minneapolis. Funeral at the Methodist Episcopal church at Coopersville at 2 P. M.

Railway and bus companies are beginning to make arrangements to move a part of the crowds who will trek to the Michigan stadium at Ann Arbor this year. Additional side tracks are being built here by the railroad companies, while the auto passenger lines are making arrangements for parking space near the stadium.

One company, with a line to Flint, has opened negotiations for parking space for 25 buses.

GR. FISHMEN SHIPS MORE CARP TO EASTERN MARKET

Grand Haven fishermen are making big money, fattening Genuan carp for the Eastern market. A few weeks ago a large shipment left to make glad the hearts of the New York Jews and again this week more are on the way.

Fish fattened for market much like the barnyard porker are a new departure for the industry and few people in Ottawa County realize that this business is being conducted in this vicinity by a Grand Haven firm.

Corn fed carp are a much sought dainty in the eastern fish markets and are daily being shipped from Michigan in large quantities to supply the demand. Especially is this demand strong in New York's east side and it is probable that most of the carp sent from Ottawa County is consumed there.

A pen just inside of the old wooden swing bridge on the river between Grand Haven and Spring Lake is where these big fish are confined. They are brought down from the river in big flat bottomed boats and are fed regularly on corn and other grains much like poultry. They are easily picked up with nets and as they are a menace to other river fish a permit is easily gained from the state conservation commission to take the big fish.

The method of handling carp is a comparatively new one, brought about by the present day scarcity of the more valuable species of food fishes. It has been found that by keeping carp alive and feeding them corn and barley their flesh becomes much firmer and palatable. In some places it is sold as white salmon and is not far removed from the pink fish of the eastern coast.

The carp fishermen must have as his equipment several thousand feet of rope, trap nets, seines and punt. These are set in the feeding grounds and then lifted by means of winches up into flat bottomed boats with a reservoir. They are then hauled to the pond and dumped. They vary in weight from 14 to 35 pounds and the biggest babies are handled much like young animals.

They are caught in the spring of the year when the weeds give the fish little protection. There is also some activity in the fall but little is done during the summer.

The carp are bottom feeders and a large school of them rolls the waters in which they are working. This roll tells the fishermen of their presence and the nets are dropped.

Dornbos Bros., Grand Haven fishing firm, have repeatedly been shipping tank cars loaded with carp to New York. A "hurry up" order called for a tank shipped in time for the Jewish holidays. They arrive there alive and healthy, firm and good to eat and are right now commanding good prices. About 10,000 pounds is being shipped this year which is declared to be a record.

Due to the cold spring the fish were not active and day after day the catches were poor.

Excellent school spirit was shown this past week during the organization of the various classes at Holland High. The Sophomores made the Tuesday election.

The Juniors nominated their candidates Tuesday morning and elected officers Thursday afternoon. The Seniors made nominations on Wednesday and voted Thursday after announcements. The result of the different classes is as follows:

Senior Class
President, Willard Meengs; Vice-President, Clarence Tyse; Secretary, Marie Kleis; Treasurer, Kenneth Sandhu; Athletic Sisters, Elinor Westervelt, Margaret Van Leeuwen, Dorothy Hoffman, Minona Peterson, Velda Blair; Yellmaster, Jerry Houting.

Junior Class
President, James Tyse; Vice-President, Helen Johnson; Secretary, Alice Boter; Treasurer, Margaret Stiekas; Athletic Sisters, Helen Johnson, Marion Paulus, Alyda Spyker, Alice Boer, Yellmaster, Adrian Braamse.

Sophomore Class

COOPERSVILLE IS DROPPED BY THE HOLLANDERS, 28-0

Romping around the ends and smashing the line like a veteran aggregation, Holland's grid team took a 28-0 win over Coopersville, Saturday afternoon. Hinga's team was never in danger but was held at times by the stiff defense which the visitors presented. In all it was a good game with a lighter touch than the usual outsmarting a heavier and slower eleven.

Muskegon Chronicle—Muskegon Seconds defeated Holland Seconds in a close and well played game Saturday as a prelude to the Manistee-Muskegon encounter, 12 to 0. The Muskegon squad scored a touchdown in the first quarter, and added one in the third quarter.

Muskegon high school's third team Saturday outplayed the Holland high third team at Holland, scoring 12 first downs to five for their opponents, but failed to make over a touchdown, being held to a scoreless tie. The punch, when the ball neared the rival goal line, was lacking.

On account of financial reasons and conflicts in schedules, Hope's grid aggregation will appear but once on the home lot this season. It seems a shame that the big orange and blue squad cannot show its wares here more than once, but lack of support will force Coach Schouten to play most of his games away.

On October 15th the Holland high team is also scheduled to meet Muskegon Heights here to 0. The game is switched to the neighboring city, Hope and Hinga's men will appear in a double-header.

The Freshmen team at Hope has fine prospects and one game has already been arranged for the yearlings, Muskegon Junior College coming here in October. Hope's variety is working hard for Albion and some stiff practice sessions are listed for next week. Hope made a great showing in its initial try at the court game in the M. I. A. A. and the baseball team also has a great credit to the school.

College Y. M. C. A. Reception Is Held In Winants Chapel

The annual Y. M. C. A. reception was held in Winants Chapel Tuesday evening. A large number of men were present and an enjoyed what may well be termed the best Y. M. C. A. "Knockdown Social" ever put on.

The meeting was opened by singing several songs in which all took part. Robert Ritchie, the president of the organization called on two men to lead in prayer. He then read the scripture lesson and made a few remarks, urging all to attend the "Y" meetings every week. Prof. H. Hager, the College Pastor then made a few fitting remarks.

The meeting then turned to a somewhat different rein and all present were divided into four groups. Each group was to whistle the song "Onward Christian Soldiers." The group which performed the best was to be first in line for the apple pie a la mode. When each group had performed, Prof. Hager, the judge, said he thought the first group had performed the most capably. But as there was plenty of pie and ice cream for all, it made no difference. After all had been satisfied the meeting adjourned.

The Junior class held a meeting Monday afternoon for the purpose of electing a new business manager for the "Milestone." Paul Van Es was the man elected last year but as he has not returned to school it was necessary to elect a new man. Several were nominated but when the votes were cast George Kelley was elected to the office.

Committees were also appointed to take a charge of the class party to be held on Friday night.

PEOPLES STATE BANK IS NEAR COMPLETION

The future home of the Peoples State Bank is fast developing into one of Holland's most beautiful banking institutions. The elevation of the front is nearly completed with the exception of the domes which are to grace the peak of the building and the glass that will be put in as soon as the roof is completed.

Contract for the roof is now being let and as soon as that is done, the interior work of the bank will be started.

The vault at the rear of the building is a bulwark of crossed steel and cement and the building of a cold drawn steel jacket on the inside will be ample security against any attack of burglary.

The boiler is already installed in the basement and will be the latest word in heating.

The plan of the mezzanine floor can even now be comprehended by the appearance of the riveted steel on the inside.

The labor is all being done by home people and the material is all being through our local business houses.

The bank officials are now looking forward to a completed bank, possibly by the first part of 1928. The present building is inadequate for the amount of business transacted.

The erection of the building is in charge of the Bolhuis Lumber and Manufacturing Co.

Red Cross Women In Ottawa Finish Work

Grand Haven Tribune—There were 142 certificates issued by the American Red Cross office in St. Louis to women of Ottawa County who successfully completed the Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick classes conducted under Miss Nell Lemmer, county nurse, during the summer.

This project was a series of 12 lessons which included a comprehensive course in home nursing calculated to give every mother individual enough instruction to take care of sick people in a scientific manner. The certificate in no way entitles them to a license to care for the sick other than that they are prepared possibly to assist in cases where there is no other means at hand.

Classes were conducted in the following centers all summer: Two in Conklin with others in Lamont, Marne and Allendale.

Frank McKee of Eau Claire has been turned over to Allegan by Kalamazoo officers on the charge of stripping a car at Pullman three months ago. The car was owned by a Three Rivers person.

At a congregational meeting recently held, members of the Fourteenth street Christian Ref. church presented a first aid, swimming, life saving, personal health, public health, cooking, camping, civics, bird study, pathfinding, pioneering, athletics or physical development and any nine others. In each of these subjects the scout must have an intelligent knowledge and must be able to teach the same.

The scout advancement recorded are: Eagle Scouts: Claude Ver Duin, Ship 13 and Robert McCracken, Troop 1.

THE HEART of the HOME

If home is to have that gripping influence that holds us secure in life's most treacherous storms, it must be cozy. Some folks live in homes—others in houses. And it is not difficult to tell to which class a person does belong, is it?

The person whose life is strengthened by a happy, cozy home is one that we all admire.

He is one that can smile in the face of any struggle. He is a person who fills the rest of us with confidence. That is the kind of character that we all want to have. So let's strengthen our home influence all we can. Let's start with the HEART OF THE HOME.

BOARD OF HEALTH TO INOCULATE FOR SCARLET FEVER

Tomorrow city physician Dr. Daniel G. Cook will start his campaign against the dreaded Scarlet Fever. Inoculation will begin in Horace Mann school and Dr. Keefe of the State Board of Health has sent a prominent state man to Holland, who with Dr. Cook and several other local doctors will begin the work of making this city immune to Scarlet Fever.

Dr. Cook can call on any local physician when he needs him, and plans have been so arranged that every physician will be glad to serve part of the time while inoculation is taking place.

The most gratifying feature of this whole campaign is that 3000 cards have been returned signed by parents requesting that their children be inoculated.

Inoculation for Scarlet Fever is not compulsory, but, the number of returned cards is conclusive evidence that parents believe in safety first. Four years ago the children were vaccinated against small pox and toxin anti-toxine was used as a diphtheria preventative and during that time there was only one family quarantined for small pox and one for diphtheria, and with but one patient in each case down with the disease.

No better testimonial can be given than that inoculation has taken place in Holland when it comes to these terrible scourges. But Holland does not take Scarlet Fever lightly. Folks know that the fever has a terrible aftermath. Even after a light case. Symptoms of deafness, rheumatism, bad eyes, kidney disease, are often noticeable shortly afterward, and there are many complications following that are not noticeable on the surface immediately.

Dr. Cook states that to inoculate the children in all schools it will require at least a week or ten days. Skillful physicians can easily take care of several children in a minute and a thorough system will be followed so there will be no confusion.

City Nurse Miss Koertge and Mrs. Nella VanderMeulen will assist in this work and added help will be called in if this is found necessary.

Smash Up On The Grand Haven Bridge

A serious accident occurred at 11 o'clock Thursday night when two cars came together head on. The auto driven by Rev. J. H. Munson of Hammond, Ind., collided with the Ford sedan driven by Samuel Dykstra living on route 2 Holland and employed at the Christmans Feed store.

Rev. Munson was passing a delivery truck on the bridge when he was pocketed and the crash with the on coming Ford resulted. Dykstra was thrown from his car and was badly injured about the body. The Ford was a wreck, however, the Chrysler driven by Rev. Munson was in better shape with bent fender. Mrs. Munson was also a passenger in the Chrysler car but she was not injured.

$5000 DAMAGE SUIT IS STARTED IN KENT COUNTY

Clifford P. Worden, salesman for the National Specialty Sales Co., of Holland, has just been made the defendant in a $5,000.00 suit started in the Kent County circuit court. Mr. E. C. Hays of Chicago who was driving a Packard is the plaintiff.

It is alleged that Worden's Hudson car caused an accident at Ninth and Columbia avenue, last May 10th. The peculiar part of the accident is that Mr. Worden's car did not hit the other car at all but the driver of the Packard became excited and ran up into Coach Jack Schouten's yard wrecking his Packard, injuring the large maple trees there, and slightly injuring himself.

In connection with this accident Chief of Police Van Ry calls the public's special attention to Section 383 of City Ordinance No. 367 which compels automobile drivers to report all automobile accidents to the local police department within twenty-four hours. This enables the department to check up such accidents accurately and thus to properly protect the public. Not only is this a city ordinance but Mr. Brooks of the Wineser-Brooks company that sells most companies require that accidents be immediately reported to them by any policyholder. This is true regardless of how trivial the accident, for in so doing, it enables us Insurance Companies to immediately investigate and to determine for themselves just what steps may be necessary to protect the policyholders interest.

ELIJAH ON MOUNT CARMEL

LESSON TEXT—I Kings 18. GOLDEN TEXT—Choose you this day whom ye will serve. PRIMARY TOPIC—God Hears Elijah's Prayer. JUNIOR TOPIC—Standing Alone for God. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Standing for God Against the Crowd. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Courage of Conviction.

1. Elijah's Message to Ahab (vv. 17, 18). When Jezebel became the wife of King Ahab, she waged a savage warfare against God's prophets, killing all she could find, and thus seeking to abolish the true religion and set up idolatry instead. Elijah suddenly appeared, announcing the suspension of moisture (I Kings 17:1) as a judgment upon the people for their idolatry. He sounded three striking notes in his message:

"As the Lord God of Israel liveth," He knew that he represented the living God, therefore did not fear to come into the presence of the king in God's name.

2. "Before whom I stand." His standing before God indicated his constant readiness to go on his errands. Because Elijah stood before God, he could stand before Ahab.

3. "There shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word." This suspension of moisture continued for three and a half years, and rain came in answer to Elijah's prayer (Jas. 5:17). Drought was the punishment for idolatry. (Deut. 11:17-46).

II. A Challenge to Baal Worship (I Kings 18:17-46). As soon as Elijah had delivered his message concerning the drought, he retired from the king's sight, while the penalty of the king's sins should be visited upon the land.

1. Elijah shows himself to Ahab (vv. 17, 18). (1) Ahab's question (v. 17). His aim in this question was no doubt to intimidate Elijah, to awe him into submission.

(2) Elijah's answer (v. 18). He denied the charge and boldly declared that the calamity which had befallen the nation was caused by the idolatry of Ahab and his family.

2. The bold challenge (vv. 19-24). (1) The people assembled (vv. 19, 20).

Nathaniel Brouwer, Holland young man, was elected Thursday evening to the presidency of the Hope class of 1931. Brouwer will serve with J. Wynegarden, of Zeeland as vice president and Allan Brunson as treasurer. Members of the student council, who were chosen are, Margaret Westveer and Harold Boone. The class number one hundred and sixty members.

Western Seminary Opens Record Year

Western Theological seminary opened Thursday morning with an enrollment of 58 students, an increase of 10 over last year. This is by far the largest enrollment on record.

Twenty-six new students, all college graduates with degrees, have been enrolled. Two of these entered the senior class, two the middle class and two-two are juniors.

Rev. John E. Kulenga, president of the institution, welcomed the students and Rev. Albertus Pieterse delivered a address on "The Priest, the Prophet and the Minister."

Work on the new dormitory is progressing nicely and the home will be ready for occupancy within a few weeks.

The memorial chapel, now being erected on Hope College campus was designed by Architect W. E. Johnson of Chicago. It will be Gothic in architecture, and will be equipped with a tower 100 feet high, in which will be placed the Deacon chimes, comprising 22 tubes, the gift of Charles M. McLean and sons as a memorial to Mrs. McLean. Mr. Johnson is the man who drew the plans for the Ottawa County Court House 35 years ago. That was his first job but since then he has designed many buildings including Graves Hall and Winants Chapel. The cornerstone of the chapel will be laid Oct. 12 with impressive ceremonies.

Adam Rasmus of Allegan county had been held to circuit court in $500 bail on a charge of stealing 35 turkeys from his neighbor, Fred Miller, of Monterey township.

Mr. Tansey Becomes Associated With Carl Swift

Carl E. Swift who has been in the brokerage business handling iron, steel and coke in carload lots, has taken in partnership Mr. E. A. Tansey the well known and popular golf player and champion of the Holland Country Club.

Mr. Swift says that the business has grown so rapidly in a very short time that he felt it expedient to take in a partner.

Mr. Tansey before coming to Holland was assistant superintendent of the Gun Plant of the Illinois Steel Company, and later became the metallurgist at the Holland Furnace Company.

Mr. Swift has also been directly and indirectly connected with the iron and steel industry, coming from the Pittsburgh steel district.

The C. E. Swift company with offices on River Ave. is the only concern of its kind jobbing pig iron and steel between Chicago and Detroit. For the first they intend to confine their efforts to Western Michigan only.

It is the intention of the firm to give assistance to foundries and others using iron and steel. Mr. Tansey will have charge of this end of the business. With his vast experience and knowledge having taken a course in metallurgy and foundry practice equips him to give such help as may be requested in assisting foundries to solve their difficulties. They have also arranged with several eminent engineers and testing laboratories to give expert aid to their customers for the asking.

Woman Pioneer of Ottawa Co. Succumbs

Mrs. S. W. Hastings, one of the oldest residents of Ottawa county, is dead at Coopersville at the age of 88. She was well known throughout the country, having come to Michigan 71 years ago, driving from Ohio in nine days in a prairie schooner. After her marriage she settled on a farm near Conkling, where she resided 64 years.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 p. m. from the Adventist church of Titusville.

Railroad Wants to Rid Waverly of All Tramps

During the summer railroad detectives have driven out scores of hoboes, from Waverly. Scores of them were told to "get." They inhabit the woods, sleep under the trees and in stormy weather make use of empty box cars.

It is often that old pals meet at Waverly. Some are well along in years but have become so accustomed to the roamer's life that nothing suits them better. Time was when the county jail was filled with hoboes and Waverly was considered its best feeder.

DRIVER BLAMED FOR THE FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT

A coroner's jury sitting in the court house at Grand Haven, on the case of W. E. Niva, who was fatally injured Sept. 16, near Coopersville, rendered the following decision.

"That Wilbur E. Niva, came to his death on Sept. 16, 1927, as a result of an auto collision with Mr. A. A. Mudge about one half mile east of Coopersville on U. S. 16."

"We further find that Mr. Mudge was driving his auto on the north or wrong side of the paved highway which in our opinion caused the accident."

The jury were out two hours and ten minutes as the case was a difficult one to decide. The jurors were: John Justema, John VanDyke, Wm. J. Baker, John Klaver, John W. Ver Rock, John A. Van Benkerling. Much interest was manifested by the large crowd in attendance as many witnesses were called by Coroner Vander Water and Assistant prosecutor Jay Den Herker.

Some relatives of Mr. Niva came from Detroit where Niva's home was and interviewed. Prosecutor Lokke last evening in regard to further action on the case.

Senator James Couzens will address Muskegon Rotarians today.

"A Godly Home," is the subject of the sermon Rev. C. P. Dunn plans to preach next Sunday evening in Trinity church. The nation is in need of more godly homes.

Miss Cora VanKoeveing of Zeeland left for Cosby, Tennessee, where she has accepted a position as nurse at the Glenwood Mission school. This mission is supported by the Presbyterian church at Knoxville, Tenn.

Harry Solomonson of Holland and William Winkler of Muskegon recently came to Grand Haven to be employed on the staff of the Grand Haven Baking Co.

played on the staff of the Grand Haven Baking Co.

Rev. James J. DeKraaker of Grand Haven went to Detroit to attend the synod of Michigan of the Presbyterian church. Rev. DeKraaker has been endorsed by the Presbytery of Grand Rapids as moderator.

The Hope church mens Bible class will resume work on Sunday Oct. 2 at 12 o'clock sharp. The class will again be in charge of G. J. Diekema. Members are urged to attend next Sunday.

The annual tug-of-war between the Hope college frosh and sophomores is scheduled for Friday afternoon across Black river on the Boons property east of the city.

The Gilbert D. Karsten Post of the American Legion of Zeeland will hold their annual meeting at the Legion room on next Monday evening, beginning at eight o'clock. At this time the election of officers will take place.

Miss Lois Baker of Grand Haven has resigned a position recently taken in Detroit, as a teacher of music in one of the schools there. She will remain there during the year however and establish a studio for piano pupils.

A new pipe organ has been purchased for the Lutheran church of Allegan by the Ladies Aid society and dedicatory services will be held soon. Rev. J. J. Roelke announced this week. Mrs. Fred Mackey, Sr., is president of the society.

The sacrament of holy communion will be observed in the Third Christian Ref. church at Zeeland Sunday Rev. Wm. Hendriksen will have for his subject for next Sunday morning the words from 1 Peter 2:29. In the evening he will speak on 1 Peter 2:29.

Added rooms in both the Spring Lake and local schools have been made necessary this year to care for the increase in the school enrollment. Both additions were in the primary grades.

During the past week a deal was closed by which two more Zeeland young men enter the circle of Zeeland's business men. Lester De Pree and John VanderWeide have become the owners of the Central Market by purchase from A. H. Van Harten. They have already taken possession.

Rev. D. Dykstra of Abria will speak in Trinity Reformed church at the Prayer meeting Thursday evening of this week. Rev. Mr. Dykstra has been in charge of a successful mission station among the Mohammedans and will tell of a number of remarkable conversions to the Christian religion. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Grand Haven was greatly interested in the rumor voiced but also denied in morning papers that the Goodrich line was not to be merged with three others. N. Robbins, local agent was attending a directors' meeting in Chicago today. If the four lines did combine they would practically control marine freight business on Lake Michigan.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Mrs. William Hatton and Miss Kathleen Hatton left today for Deere where they will attend the wedding of Miss Blanche Mulkey, a school friend of Mrs. Hatton. Mrs. Hatton will go on to St. Clair to visit her sister, Mrs. H. A. Hopkins, for a few days. Miss Hatton will remain in Detroit a week.—Grand Haven Tribune.

The Detroit Free Press devotes a column first page story and also prints a picture of Rev. J. J. DeKraaker who was elected moderator of the Presbyterian gathering at Detroit Tuesday for 1927-28. This is the highest office to be given in the Michigan Presbyterian synod. Mr. DeKraaker is serving a church in Grand Haven and is a graduate from Hope college.

The Dorcas Ladies Aid society of the first Christian Reformed church of Zeeland held their first meeting of the season at the chapel Wednesday afternoon, which was a business meeting. As officers were elected: Rev. Wm. Kok, president; Mrs. J. Timmer, secretary; Mrs. S. Boonstra, vice secretary; Mrs. G. Lubbers, treasurer; and Mrs. C. Van De Velde, assistant treasurer.

Mrs. Walter I. Lillie, of Grand Haven, who was taken suddenly ill in Milwaukee, is at the Flankington hotel in that city being cared for by a trained nurse and her condition is such that her sons, Hugh and Leo, felt they could leave her with safety. They returned to their homes here Tuesday night. The rest of the motor party, which included Mrs. Leo Lillie, Mr. Vander Veen and Lawrence Erhmann also have returned.

Mrs. H. J. Sonnen of Grand Rapids died at Blodgett hospital Tuesday morning at 8:30 at the age of 58. She is survived by her husband, H. J. Sonnen, and two daughters, Gertrude and Harriet, and two brothers, A. Baker, of Holland, Richard of Boyce, Louisiana, and a sister, Mrs. F. J. Leroy of Holland. Funeral was held this afternoon. Interment was in Pilgrim Home cemetery. Mrs. Sonnen has many friends in Holland being a former clerk in the Holland postoffice. Before her marriage she was Miss Gertrude Baker.

Farms Raise

Their Own Gas

Farms may be made to produce their own gas for use in cooking, heating and lighting, according to the inventor of a generator that makes gas from the waste products of the farm. Cotton cornstalks, straw, and sawdust, says Popular Mechanics Magazine, a ton of the material producing about 1,200 cubic feet of gas.

State Nurse Inspects
Drenthe School

The Drenthe school was visited on Tuesday by Miss Marjorie H. Meyer, the Red Cross nurse, who is doing public health work in the southern part of the county. She inspected 51 pupils and the results showed 6 in apparently good condition; 30 with decayed teeth; 12 with enlarged and inflamed tonsils; 5 have nasal obstruction; 8 with defective vision; 9 with signs of eye strain; 11 have enlarged neck glands; 23 are 10% or more underweight.

The school has two well lighted rooms, and though it is an old building, the rooms are pleasantly decorated and have good indirect lighting fixtures. The teachers, Miss Jean Nynehus and Miss Henrietta Schreier are doing good work.

Mrs. Meyer gave the children a health talk and stressed the need of dental care. "Decayed teeth," she said, "whether they are the baby teeth or permanent ones, are letting poison into the blood, and are frequently the cause of diseased tonsils, defective vision and stomach trouble and often cause malnutrition and many other ills that could be easily avoided."

Several of the children have no tooth brushes but will get them soon.
