Hendrik Bouwman Killed by Engine on Electric Road

Hendrick Bouwman living west of the Zeeland brick yard in Holland Township was run over by Engine No. 3 of the Detroit construction company on the electric road near the brick yard at 6:50 o'clock last evening. Engine No. 3 in charge of Engineer Gray was coming west from the brick yard with two flat cars when those on the engine saw a man running towards the track. He was barefooted and acted peculiarly. The bell was rung and signals given but the man paid no attention. Then the engineer shouted to him to keep away, but he ran straight for the track and threw himself against the engine. John Busby, assistant superintendent of construction, who was on the left side of the engine, shouted to the engineer, "stop you've struck a man." The air brakes were put on and the engine brought to a stop. When the men went back they found Mr. Bouwman lying near the track unconscious. They took him to the office of Dr. Barth in Zeeland where it was found that several ribs were broken and his body was badly bruised. The injuries were fatal and Mr. Bouwman died three hours after the accident.

Mr. Bouwman was about 65 years of age and lived alone. He was rather eccentric and people in the vicinity say that he was insane. It is thought that he ran into the engine while laboring under an attack of temporary insanity.

A coroner's jury was impanelled today and viewed the remains. The inquest will be held in Zeeland this evening at 7:30.

Representatives of the G. R. H. & L. M. electric railway company were present who asked for a franchise to establish an electric light plant in town. The matter was referred to a special committee. The company also demanded the $1,000 which was deposited in the Zeeland State Bank as security that the entire line would be finished on the date specified in the franchise, on the ground that a single track had been laid to Grand Rapids and thus they had not fulfilled their contract.—Zeeland Record.

Lake and Marine

The jar contained a gold watch and chain and a letter addressed to W. D. Ragan, care barge Jupiter, Alpena, Mich. In the watch case was found a small piece of paper containing the address of Mrs. W. D. Ragan at Port Huron and a short note from her husband, the captain of the Jupiter, the lost ship, dated Sept. 15, which states: "You will never see me again. We signaled the steamer Buell and she came so close that I could talk to them, but she went and left us. Now I can only say I wish you all goodbye. Be good to the boys, and get my insurance policy from—"

Corn cutting is done and the busking has begun. Indian summer is approaching but the Indians are not so brave. Frank Barry was in Holland on business Thursday. "Doc" Norton returned Thursday from a flying trip to Cheboygan Co. The German Medicine Co., ended their circus Saturday night with a large attendance. They have drawn about $100 out of the pockets of those who love to see a darkey dance. Abe Boyer, Jr., had the misfortune of having his eye injured by a piece of glass last Sunday. Dr. Bruinsma extracted the pieces but we are of the opinion that the sight is destroyed. The Church of God from Bangor erected four tents here last week and are holding meetings in the large tent every evening. They are in some respect like the Adventists but believe in using tea, coffee, pork etc. L. J. Branch is the pastor. Cal. McKinley made Grand Haven a business call Friday. Our Methodist church will have a new pastor next Sunday. His name is Rev. Mr. Holcomb. We have a different minister every year but it does not cost any more to make a change. Elijah Brown of Gobleville visited here this week. M. A. Taylor erected a small barn on his farm during last week. He is now the owner of a horse and buggy and that is just what our school in spectator needs. Mrs. John Leland won the silver tea set by receiving the largest number of votes at the German Medicine show Saturday night. The set was offered to any lady and in consequence a large amount of medicine was sold. Each bottle commanded a different number of votes according to the price.

The correspondent thinks if Leon Czolgosz ever gets into history the scholars will show symptoms of lock-jaw in trying to pronounce his name. Richard Yankey said he heard Emma Goldman speak in Chicago a few years ago. The next day he left for Grand Rapids where he will try to find work. Mr. and Mrs. F. Grebenski are also gone. But where?

From last week's correspondence. Corn cutting looks like the beginning of the end this week. Now that our beloved president is dead, what will be the result? Miss May Sansley, of Ludington, was here last week taking orders for a book containing the life of Dwight L. Moody, the noted evangelist. Book agents like her generally meet with good luck among us, because they are pretty. The German Medicine Co. of Cincinnati, Ohio, are conducting a show here every night during this week, in order to sell German medicine. F. P. Horne is manager and their services are held in the old Gokey store building. We had an Indian show once before but they could not change the color of our pale faces. Mr. and Mrs. David Sansley, of Agnew, were in Holland Friday and they intend to remove there soon. Abe Boyer, sr., is busy building a German residence one half of a mile south from Agnew.

H. Verboeks and wife, Perry Hazelton and Miss Pearl Verboeks, of Grand Haven attended the dance in Chas. Ebel's barn Friday night. Miss Henrietta Van Dyke seems to be well liked by her twenty seven scholars of whom she is teacher. This means that she does not spank them. Wedding bells are ringing again but they don't belong to us. Hot love sometimes gets cold. Miss Ada Peck, of Grand Rapids, visited her relatives here this week. In life remember death, because it is up to us whether we believe the Bible. Therefore spend a christian life while here and the reward will be great. Our Adventists began their camp meeting Thursday back of the Davidson block. There are two factions of Adventists living here, one kind being known as the "split offs," but we hope they will be enough for a block. Rev. O. F. Butcher arrived from Jackson Wednesday. We had a ball storm here Tuesday night. The German Comedy Co. is creating considerable amusement here this week. Miss Minnie Shears and Leslie Shears are visiting their grandmother in Chicago.

Their Secret is Out.

As a Food For the Skin.

To Make It Smooth, Healthy and Beautiful, Dr. Chase's Ointment is Hailed by Thousands of Fair Women.

Every woman, no matter how beautiful her skin, finds need at times of some preparation to overcome the redness and roughness, and to cure the pimples, blackheads and skin irritations. Powders may cover up the disfiguring eruptions, but can never cure them, and are positively injurious because they clog up the pores of the skin. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a food for the skin. It is readily absorbed, and thoroughly cures each and every skin disease, making the skin smooth, soft and clear. No woman's toilet is complete without Dr. Chase's Ointment, for besides being the most perfect skin beautifier obtainable it can be used in a score of different ways. It absolutely cures eczema, salt rheum and the itching to which women are especially subject. When the feet are sore and chafed with walking an application of Dr. Chase's Ointment takes out the smarting and allays the inflammation in a surprisingly short time. Then for burns, scalds and every sort of chafing, irritation or eruption of the skin Dr. Chase's Ointment affords a safe and certain cure. It has come to be indispensable in scores of thousands of homes in the United States; so sent a box, at all dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Isn't it Worth 25c. To Be Cured of Constipation

People who suffer from habitual constipation with all its attendant ills, clogged stomach and bowels, sluggish liver, heartburn, indigestion, and thin and impure blood, are too apt to believe that the only remedy is violent purgatives. The contrary is the case. Such cathartics, even if they do move the bowels, are irritating and gripping, leave the stomach inflamed and enfeebled and the constipated condition recurs with greater difficulty of cure and the sufferer constantly growing worse. There is a laxative that moves the bowels without pain or gripping, cleanses the stomach, sharpens the appetite, stimulates the liver, strengthens the nerves, and purifies the blood, while its marvellous tonic properties tone up the entire system and keep it healthy.

Laxakola Does It

Its remarkable tonic properties reach every organ—the liver, kidneys and stomach, nerve, heart and brain—and removes the cause of your debilitated condition. This is the only way to secure an absolute and permanent cure.

Laxakola is the only medicine for babies, is purely vegetable and its action is gentle, speedy and effective. For coated tongue, simple fevers, colds, chills and languid feeling it is the ideal medicine.

It tastes good. Children like it and ask for it.

Laxakola, the great tonic laxative, is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical, because it combines two medicines, viz: laxative and tonic, and at one price. No other remedy gives so much for the money. At druggists, 25c. and 50c., or send for free sample to LAXAKOLA CO., 122 Nassau Street, N. Y., or 316 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

A Visit From The State Tax Commissioners

Holland entertained three distinguished gentlemen the first part of the week. They were all good fellows as the term goes but their business in Holland was of such a nature that they were not as heartily welcomed as they would have been under other circumstances. The visitors were Messrs. McLaughlin, Dost and Twiss, of the state tax commission and they came here by virtue of the power given them by the great state of Michigan to find out all they could about the business of other people in respect to taxation. They made the visit because they thought that the property of Ottawa county was not placed on the assessment rolls at its true value.

The gentlemen started to do business Monday morning by calling on the supervisors of Grand Haven and supervisors Rutgers, Dykema and Souther of Holland, to attend the sessions of the commission held in the rooms back of the council chambers. They were assisted by clerks and stenographers and a very sombre and businesslike air pervaded the vicinity of the room. Most of the sessions were held behind closed doors but it is not amiss to state that all of the acts of the commission and witnesses were not strictly secret. It was the duty of the commissioners to get at the rock bottom facts and they spared no pains. Influential citizens from Grand Haven were summoned before them and had to submit to a rigid inquiry into their personal affairs. The Grand Haven citizens were represented by Attorney Geo. A. Farr and Judge Soule. Prominent citizens, representing the manufacturing institutions of Holland, were

If the courts sustain the position taken by the commission the total valuation of the city of Holland will be $4,226,553 or $1,150,281 more than the valuation fixed by the board of review. The following table shows the changes made by the tax commission in the factory assessments of Holland.

List of advertised letters at the Holland postoffice for the week ending Sept. 27, 1901: Tom Cantelou, Mrs. Maria Carrick, J. S. Cluff M. D., Harry Fentell, Samuel Owen, Michael T. Paxton, W. K. Rose, W. B. Shuck, Mrs. S. D. Smalley.

A dispatch from Washington states that the lighthouse board has decided that the new metal tower for the Holland pier headlight station shall be located at the extreme end of the pier and that the post lantern light, forming the pier head range, be discontinued.

The death of Fred Shaw, the 16 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Shaw, occurred last Wednesday morning at the home of his parents, 354 River street. Death was caused by typhoid fever from which he suffered two weeks. Fred was a student of the Holland High school and his death was a great shock to his schoolmates and friends who all sympathize deeply with the bereaved parents. The funeral services will be held this afternoon Rev. Adam Clarke officiating.

The officers of the Eastern Star for the coming year were installed last Tuesday night with appropriate ceremonies. Mrs. C. D. Smith conducted the installation ceremonies. Following are the officers: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Butterfield; Worthy Patron, Mrs. A. Huntley; Associate Matron, Mrs. Allen; Secretary, Miss Maud Elferdink; Treasurer, Mrs. Bradford; Conductress, Mrs. B. Hopkins; Associate Conductress, Miss Martha Blom; Adad, Mrs. Van Drezler; Ruth, Mrs. Stratton; Esther, Mrs. Conkey; Martha, Mrs. Benjamin; Electa, Mrs. Kineb; Warder, Mrs. Ebb Brown; Organist, Mrs. Stella Clark.

summoned and questioned closely regarding their most confidential business affairs.

The upshot of the investigation which was completed Wednesday was disastrous to Holland. The commissioners decided that the board of review had no right to make a horizontal cut of 20 per cent on the valuations as submitted to the board at its regular meeting and announced their determination to restore the 20 per cent to the assessment rolls.

They also concluded that many of the manufacturing plants were assessed below the true value and decided to add to the valuation in those cases.

The Holland manufacturers are not disposed to accept the decision as final and deny the right of the commission to make changes at this stage. They have retained Attorneys G. J. Diekema and Geo. E. Kollen to protect their interests and the matter will be settled in court. Attorneys Diekema and Kollen contend that the commission has no jurisdiction to amend, raise or lower the assessments of the institutions they represent or of the rolls of ward and wards sought to be changed or reviewed, for the reason that.

"First. That the notice published under the statute of said meeting was not a legal notice, because the same was dated upon the 8th day of September 1901, and said date was Sunday, and a day upon which no legal business could be done.

"Second. That under the statute a meeting of the board of supervisors to equalize the assessments of Ottawa County, Michigan, was held in June 1901, and said assessments were equalized, and all of the rolls of said county including rolls of the ward and wards under which the undersigned was assessed and which are now sought to be reviewed were equalized and that is now too late for the said Board of Tax Commissioners to review said rolls or part thereof, or to change in any manner said assessments or the assessments of this objector."

W. A. Thomas' noted dog Teddy R. has been entered in the field contests to be held at Portland November 5.

The Womans' Literary club will begin its years' work next Tuesday, Oct. 1. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. D. Post, West Eleventh street. The subject for the year, will be "Italy."

The Ladies Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church will hold its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon, October 1 at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. E. McClain, 133 Central avenue. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all ladies interested in missionary work.

A call has been issued by President Gelmer Kuiper of the Grand Rapids Knickerbocker society for a special meeting of the members to be held Oct. 4 in the home of G. H. Albers, 93 Clinton street at 8 o'clock in the evening. The gathering will be in the nature of a McKinley memorial meeting and addresses will be given by G. J. Diekema and Prof. J. T. Bergen of Holland.

The death of John Homkes occurred last Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. A. Eskes, East Eighth street. His age was 28 years and he had been a sufferer from consumption for some time. Mr. Homkes was a member of the First Reformed church and taught a Sunday school class. He is survived by one sister Reka Homkes, and two brothers, Dick and Bert. The funeral will be held from the First Reformed church this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. H. Van Houte of Grand Rapids, officiating.

Hope church was crowded to the doors last Sunday night by an audience that came to hear Rev. John Van der Meulen preach his farewell sermon before leaving for the missionary field in Oklahoma. In his introduction Rev. J. T. Bergen predicted a bright future. And the prediction will undoubtedly prove true for Rev. Van der Meulen is one of the most brilliant young men of the Reformed church, and that means he is one of the most brilliant young men in the country. He is a fine orator and a deep thinker and added to these he brings to the work zeal, steadfastness and spirit. He left for Oklahoma Monday.

Dr. Donald M. McDonald will be at Hotel Holland, Friday, October 4.

A special meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of Hope church will be held Monday afternoon Sept. 30, at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. C. Wheeler, Columbia avenue.

The Grand Haven Tribune says that the announcement has been made by a number of friends of Probate Judge J. V. B. Goodrich that the latter will resign from office at the close of the year. His health has not lately been of the best and he thinks that it would be better to get away from the severe winters of this climate. Consequently he and his wife will leave in a few months for the sun set coast of California. Upon Gov. Bliss will fall the duty of appointing a successor to Judge Goodrich. Undoubtedly there will be a number of candidates. The term of the person so appointed will continue until the general election next fall.

Prof. Israel Davis will be here next week with his moving pictures. The show will open Monday night on Eighth street and Central avenue near the First State bank. The views will be the best ever shown and many novel effects will be introduced. Some of the moving pictures will be shown in colors. There will be a change of program every night. Wednesday night will be the banner show. The battle of Spion Kop will be shown. The moving pictures for this battle are the finest ever exhibited in the state and will doubtless attract a great crowd.

The new Grand Rapids, Holland and Lake Michigan interurban railway power house at Jenison is completed and in running order and all the currents on the trolley wires of the system comes from that source. The line to Jenison has been operating a single car on a current obtained from Grand Rapids but with its own current it will be able to run any number of cars and it is expected the service will at once be improved. Besides the power house at Jenison, the company expects to erect others at Holland and Zeeland, where converters will be used to reduce the tension of the transmitted current. Until this is done the current will be used direct from the Jenison power house.

Capt. Frank Beao of the celebrated schooner Indian Bill, was arrested by Marshal Luikens today, charged with violating the city ordinance, in that he was using the city slip and dock as a depositing place for his cargo of wood and refusing to pay the required fee of $1 a day. Justice Pagelson imposed a fine of $10 in default of which he should go to jail for ten days. The Indian Bill's doughty captain refused to pay and this afternoon he is anchoring his boat in the slip, preparatory to a ten days visit with the sheriff. He announces that after the boat is anchored she is in government waters and he warns no one to try and move the vessel out of the slip. The marshal will tend to that however. Great crowds gathered while the Indian Bill's captain made preparations for departure. He says he is being discriminated against in that the fish tugs and other boats are not required to pay a fee for using the dock.—G. H. Tribune.

Mr. Banninga has been prominent in athletic circles for some years and the past season has been a member of the Holland base ball club and the boys wanted to have one more social evening with him before he left for South India. To those who are numbered in the large circle of Fred Koning's friends surprising and unwelcome news was brought Tuesday. First a telegram came to his father, James Koning, 93 West Thirteenth street announcing that he was very ill with peritonitis. Then came a telegram saying that his death occurred in Loveland, Colorado. The news was a shock to his parents and friends as the young man had always enjoyed the best of health.

Fred Koning was one of Holland's best known young men. His age was 25 years and he lived here the greater part of his life. Until about two years ago he was employed in Will Van Dykes's grocery store. He resigned his position there to work for the Holland Sugar company. When work was begun on the sugar factory at Loveland, Col., he was offered a good position and left for that place last fall with a number of others from Holland.

When the news of his sickness was received here his mother and his brother Albert started for Colorado. They are expected here with the remains Saturday night. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of his parents and at 3 o'clock in the Third Reformed church, Revs. G. H. Dubbink and J. T. Bergen officiating.

Besides his parents Mr. Koning is survived by one sister, Mrs. John Dryden, of Allegan, and five brothers, Gerrit, John, Peter, James and Albert.

James A. Brouwer intends to outdo all previous efforts in sales next week. He knows that many of his customers from all parts of the county will be here to attend the fair and he will have special sales in every department for their benefit. In the wall paper department he will have a very lavish display as it is his desire to excel the wall paper sale held Farmers Picnic Day when he sold 1500 rolls. He has put prices at such a low figure that it will not be strange if 5000 rolls are sold during fair week. In the carpet and drapery departments he will display his entire fall stock. The same will be done with rugs and lace curtains and he has offered special prices in order that the sale may be an unprecedented success. See his advertisements for prices.

FINDS ASSASSIN GUILTY.

Czolgosz Convicted of Murder in the First Degree for the Killing of President McKinley.

THE JURY WAS OUT ONLY A SHORT TIME

Counsel for the Defense Gives a Masterly Speech Against Mob Law—District Attorney Summons the Case—Prisoner Appears in No Degree Affected by the Result.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Leon F. Czolgosz, the anarchist assassin of President McKinley, was found guilty yesterday afternoon of murder in the first degree after one of the most rapid yet dignified trials in the history of jurisprudence. The jury was out only 36 minutes. Despite the eminence of the prisoner's counsel it was apparent when the alienists decided that Czolgosz was sane that no defense was possible, and consequently that any delay in the trial would be vain. In a period of eight hours and twenty-six minutes the assassin of President McKinley had been found guilty, the verdict of the jury being unanimous.

Judge Lewis Talks.
When at 2:44 p. m. Tuesday District Attorney Penney announced that the case of the prosecution in the trial of Czolgosz was ended Judge Lewis, one of the assassin's counsel, arose and said the defense had no witness and asked the court that he be allowed to address the jury at once. The court assented and the venerable jurist began an address that will long be remembered by those who heard it. Judge Lewis said in part:

Dangerous Doctrine.
"It is charged here that our client is an anarchist, a man who does not believe in any law or in any form of government. And there are, so we are told, other individuals who entertain that opinion. We all feel that such doctrines are dangerous, are criminal, are doctrines that will subvert our government in time if they are allowed to prevail. Gentlemen of the jury, while I believe firmly in that, I do not believe it creates a danger to this court equal to the belief, becoming so common, that men who are charged with crime shall not be permitted to go through the form of a trial in a court of justice, but that lynch law shall take the place of the calm and dignified administration of the law by our courts of justice. When that doctrine becomes sufficiently prevalent in this country, if it ever does, our institutions will be set aside and overthrown, and if we are not misinformed as to the state of mind of some people in some parts of the country, the time is fast approaching when men charged with crime will not be permitted to come into court and submit to a calm and dignified trial, but will be strung up to a tree on the bare suspicion that some one may hold the belief that they have committed some crime.

A Great Object Lesson.
"This trial here is a great object lesson to the world. Here is a case where a man has stricken down the beloved president of this country, in broad daylight, in the presence of hundreds of thousands of spectators. If there was ever a case that would excite the anger, the wrath of those who saw it, this was one, and yet, under the advice of the president: 'Let no man hurt him,' he was taken, confined in our prison, indicted, put upon trial here, and the case is soon to be submitted to you, as to whether he is guilty of the crime charged against him. That, gentlemen, speaks volumes in favor of the orderly conduct of the people of the city of Buffalo.

"Here was a man occupying an exalted position, a man of irreproachable character; he was a man who had come here to assist us in promoting the prosperity of our great exposition. And he was shot down while holding a reception.

"His death has touched every heart in this community and in the whole world, and yet we sit here and quietly consider whether this man was responsible for the crime he committed. That question is one you are called to decide.

Was He Insane?

"The law presumes the defendant innocent until he is proven guilty, and we start with the assumption that the defendant was not mentally responsible for the crime he committed. We have not been able to present any evidence upon our part. The defendant has even refused on almost every occasion to talk with his counsel. He has not sided us, so we have come here unaided to consider this important question. But I know there is in every human being a strong desire to live. Death is a specter that we all dislike to meet, and here this defendant, without having any animosity against our president, without any personal motive, so far as we can see, committed the act, which, if he was sane, must cause his death. How can a man with a sane mind perform such an act? The rabble in the street will say no matter whether he is insane or not, he deserves to be killed. The law, however, says that you must consider the circumstances and see if he was in his right mind or not when he committed the deed. If you find he was not responsible, you would aid in lifting a great cloud from the minds of the people of this country. If the beloved president had met with a railroad accident and been killed our grief could not compare with what it is now. If you find that he met his fate through the act of an insane man, it is the same as though he met it by accident. I had the profoundest respect for President McKinley. I watched him in congress during his long public career, and he was one of the noblest men God ever made. His policy we care nothing about, but it always met with my profoundest respect. His death was the saddest blow to me that has occurred in many years."

Judge Lewis was crying when he finished and the eyes of many of those in the courtroom were filled with tears.

Judge Titus then arose and said that Judge Lewis had so completely covered the ground that it seemed entirely unnecessary for him to reiterate it, and he would therefore rest.

Mr. Penney's Address.

At 3:10 District Attorney Penney began summing up. He spoke in a clear, well-modulated voice, and every word could be heard in any part of the room. He said:

"The counsel for the defense says if the defendant was sane, he was responsible, and that if he was insane, he must be presumed to be innocent. He tells you that is a presumption of law. It is also a presumption of law that every man is sane until proven insane. Evidence tending to show that the prisoner was insane has not been forthcoming. It has been proven that he was the agent of the crime, and there should be no question in your minds as to the responsibility of the defendant.

"This terrible thing has happened, because there are people in this country who, don't respect our laws and unless they feel the irresistible force of prompt and proper action in this case, will cause something awful to happen to our beloved country. Think, gentlemen, of that grand man who stood but a few days ago in the Temple of Music and how he came from the lowly walks of life, how he was first a school-teacher, then a lawyer, then a judge, a governor, a congressman, and then a president of the United States, and above all, a loving husband, and that on the last day when he said: 'It is God's way, good-by, all, good-by,' a man so great that he could raise his hand and save his own assassin, a man who could shake the hand of even the very worst man you could imagine. It is a great lesson that so great a man can stoop so low, that he was so great that he could forgive his own assassin. He was the noblest man, I believe, God ever created. A man who stood near him in the Temple of Music said to me: 'I have traveled in all parts of the world, and have seen people assembled to greet their rulers, but when I saw the people stand in the railroad stations and along the country through which the funeral train passed that they might get a look at the casket of this great man, I was convinced as never before that there is such a thing as a national heart."

National Heart Broken.

"That national heart was broken, and it will take God's way and time to heal it. It was broken by a class of people who are coming to our country in increasing numbers, and while harbored by our laws, are propagating their malicious views, a class of people that must be taught that we have no place for them on our shores, a class of people that must be taught that they cannot take the life of anyone, irrespective of consequences.

"Think again, gentlemen, here is a man who does not want a lawyer, who does not believe in God nor in law, a man who does not believe in the married relation, yet our laws are such that he is defended by two of the ablest jurists in our city, as if he was the most respected defendant, and even though he comes into court and says he is guilty, yet, gentlemen, you are required under the constitution to listen to the formal presentation of the evidence notwithstanding that this man does not want it.

"The duty of counsel on both sides is ended. The court will charge you briefly, then it will be your duty to take up the case. No doubt the same thought, the same object, is in all your minds—that, although our beloved country has lost her greatest man, it still should maintain the respect of the whole world, and it should be made known to the whole world that no man can come here and commit such a dastardly act and not receive the full penalty of the law."

Sentence Postponed.

Justice White, after his charge to the jury, announced that he would pronounce sentence upon the defendant on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. The prisoner was taken at once through the tunnel under Delaware avenue back to the jail. To all appearances he was in no way affected by the result of the trial.

Blames Gompers.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 24.—President Shaffer, of the Amalgamated association, in a statement giving the reasons compelling the settlement of the steel strike and the terms secured, blames deserters and leaders of other labor unions. He declares Gompers neglected the interests of the Amalgamated association men.

Has Surrendered.

Manila, Sept. 23.—Aguinaldo's bodyguard, Maj. Alhambra, two captains, two lieutenants and 29 men with 28 rifles, surrendered about 40 miles north of Baler, island of Luzon, to Capt. George A. Detchmندی, of the Twenty-second United States Infantry Saturday, took the oath of allegiance and were released.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY RESTS

Mortal Remains of the Dead President Placed in Westlawn Cemetery at Canton.

THE CROWNING DAY OF LOVING TRIBUTE

Impressive Services Held in His Old Church and His Former Pastor Delivers an Eloquent Eulogy—Obsequies at the Tomb Were of a Mournful Grandeur.

Canton, O., Sept. 20.—The mortal remains of President McKinley are at rest.

For six days and through hundreds of miles a sorrowing nation has followed his bier. Now the last looks have been taken, the last farewells have been said. The last salute to a dead president has echoed above his head.

The stricken president went to his grave attended by all the tributes that love and honor could bestow. At Buffalo and Washington, and through the hundreds of miles of mountains and valleys between, the people of his country had been given their opportunity to participate in his last march. Thursday in Canton was reserved for his family and friends. But it could not be so. The people of this whole city and state, and of the nation, too, were his friends, and they would not be denied.

Casket Taken to the Church.

From the south parlor of the frame house which had so long been the family home the casket was borne to the First Methodist church, where statesmen, diplomats, great men of nation, representatives of the world, gathered with the sorrowing members of the family. Mrs. McKinley did not see the marching columns that twined through the city's streets from noon until darkness settled down. While the last rites were being said she remained in a room of the family home, dazed, not realizing that death had come to her husband, almost paralyzed mentally.

The Services.

The services in the church were simple. They began with the rendition of an organ prelude, Beethoven's funeral march. As the last notes of the prelude were stilled, the Euterpean Ladies' quartette, of Canton, sang "The Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Rev. O. B. Milligan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Canton, delivered the invocation.

Scripture Reading.

The Ninetieth Psalm was read by Dr. John A. Hall, of the Trinity Lutheran church, of Canton, and that portion of the fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians included between the forty-first and fifty-eighth verses was read by Rev. E. P. Herbroeck, of the Trinity Reformed church, of Canton. The favorite hymn of President McKinley, "Lead, Kindly Light," was then rendered by a quartette of two male and two female voices. When this hymn had been finished Dr. C. E. Manchester, pastor of the First Methodist church, delivered his address, which was in part as follows:

"Our president is dead. The silver cord is loosed, the golden bowl is broken, the pitcher is broken at the fountain, the wheel broken at the cistern, the mourners go about the streets. "One voice is heard—a wail of sorrow from all the land, for the beauty of Israel is slain upon the high places. How are the mighty fallen.

"I am distressed for thee, my brother. Very pleasant hast thou been unto me. Our president is dead. "We can hardly believe it. We had hoped and prayed and it seemed that our hopes were to be realized and our prayers answered, when the emotion of joy was changed to one of grave apprehension. Still we waited, for we said: 'It may be that God will be gracious and merciful unto us.' It seemed to us that it must be His will to spare the life of one so well beloved and so much needed. Thus, alternating between hope and fear, the weary hours passed on. Then came the tidings of defeated sciences, of the failure of love and prayer, to hold its object to the earth. We seemed to hear the faintly muttered words: 'Good-by, all, good-by. It's God's way. His will be done.' And then: 'Nearer, My God, to Thee.' So, nestling nearer to his God he passed out into unconsciousness, skirted the dark shores of the sea of death for a time and then passed on to be at rest. His great heart had ceased to beat.

"Our hearts are heavy with sorrow.

His Noble Character.

"It is a glorious thing to be able to say in this presence, with our illustrious dead before us, that he never betrayed the confidence of his countrymen. Not for personal gain or preeminence would he mar the beauty of his soul. He kept it clean and white before God and man, and his hands were unswayed by bribes.

"His eyes looked right on, and his eyelids looked straight before him. He was sincere, plain and honest, just, benevolent and kind. He never disappointed those who believed in him, but measured up to every duty, and met every responsibility in life grandly and unflinchingly.

A Christian.

"Another beauty in the character of our president, that was a chapter of grace about his neck, was that he was a Christian. In the broadest, noblest sense of the word, that was true. His confidence in God was strong and unwavering. It held him steady in many a storm where others were driven before the wind and tossed.

"William McKinley believed in prayer, in the beauty of it, in the potency of it. His language was not unfamiliar to him, and his public addresses not infrequently evinced the fact. It was perfectly consistent with his life-long convictions and his personal experiences that he should say as the first critical moment after the assassination approached: 'Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done,' and that he should declare at the last: 'It is God's way; His will be done.' He lived grandly; it was fitting that he should die grandly. And now that the majesty of death has touched and calmed him, we find that in his supreme moment he was still a conqueror.

Returns a Conqueror.

"We hoped with him, that when his work was done, freed from the burdens of his great office, crowned with the affections of a happy people, he might be permitted to close his earthly life in the home he had loved.

"He has, indeed, returned to us, but how? Borne to the strains of 'Nearer, My God, to Thee,' and placed, where he first began life's struggle, that the people might look and weep over to a home-coming. "But it was a triumphal march. How vast the procession. The nation rose, stood with uncovered head. The people of the land are chief mourners. The nations of the earth weep with them. But, oh, what a victory. I do not ask you in the heat of public address, but in the calm moments of mature reflection, what other man ever had such high honors bestowed upon him, and by so many people? What peasant has equaled this that we look upon tonight? We gave him to the nation but a little more than four years ago. He went out with the light of the morning upon his brow, but with his task set, and the purpose to complete it. We take him back a mighty conqueror.

At the conclusion of Dr. Manchester's discourse Bishop I. W. Joyce, of Minneapolis, delivered a short prayer.

Congregation Sings Hymn.

The hymn "Nearer, My God, to Thee," was sung by the entire congregation. The people remained standing after the close of the hymn while the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Father Vattman, of Chicago, chaplain of the Twenty-ninth United States infantry.

RESTS IN THE TOMB.

President McKinley's Body Borne to the Vault by Friends.

Canton, O., Sept. 20.—With majestic solemnity, surrounded by his countrymen and his townspeople, in the presence of the president of the United States, the cabinet, justices of the United States supreme court, senators and representatives in congress, the heads of the military and naval establishments, the governors of states, and a great concourse of people who had known and loved him, all that is mortal of the third president to fall by the assassin's bullet, was committed to the grave. It was a spectacle of mournful grandeur. Canton ceased to be a town and swelled to the proportion of a great city. From every city and hamlet in Ohio, from the remote corners of the south, and from the east and west, the human tide flowed into the town until 100,000 people were within its gates, here to pay their last tribute to the fallen chief.

At the Cemetery.

It was exactly four minutes after four when the funeral car bore the remains of the dead president through the gateway of his last resting place. Twenty minutes after that time the brief services at the vault were over, the members of the family and distinguished men of the nation who had come so far to do him honor had passed through the gates on their homeward way.

The Last Resting Place.

Nature has been kind in selecting the last resting place for President McKinley. Westlawn cemetery is on a high knoll, overlooking the peaceful valley, with the busy little city of Canton laid out below. If it were not for an intervening church spire, one might get from this elevation a glimpse of the McKinley home. Here, looking out on his native city and his native state, the body of William McKinley is laid to rest. Just inside the stately entrance stands the gray stone vault, where for a time the casket will repose. Its dreary exterior was relieved Thursday by great masses of flowers, banked all about until the gray walls were shut out from view. But in due time it will be taken from the vault and committed to the little plot of ground lying further on. This is the McKinley lot and here lie his father, whose name he bore, the mother he guarded so tenderly in life, his brother James, his sister Anna, and his two children. And when that time comes a stately shaft of granite will arise above the grave, telling of the civic virtues, the pure life and the martyred death of William McKinley.

End of the Tragedy.

The end of this third tragedy of assassination has come. The pomp and ceremony attending the burial of a president of the United States is now of the past. The administration of the new chief magistrate has begun. At seven o'clock Thursday night President Roosevelt and the members of the cabinet started back to Washington.

SAMPSON RELIEVED.

Admiral Asks to Be Given a Rest on Account of Ill Health and It Is Granted.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Rear Admiral Sampson has requested the navy department to relieve him of his present duty as commandant of the Boston navy yard on October 1 on account of the bad condition of his health. Secretary Long has granted the request. Rear Admiral Mortimer L. Johnson, commandant of the Port Royal naval station, will assume command of the Boston yard on October 1.

Fears Assassination.

Manila, Sept. 23.—Since Aguinaldo left Gen. MacArthur's house for his place of confinement he has never left the premises, although he is at liberty to do so if accompanied by an officer. The reason assigned is that he fears assassination at the hands of the partisans of the late Gen. Luna.

Adopt United States Date.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 23.—The Canadian government, which a few years ago abandoned the practice of observing the national Thanksgiving on the same day as the United States, has just appointed the last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving day throughout Canada.

Died Suddenly.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Judge Jeremiah Wilson, aged 73, senior counsel for Admiral Schley in the naval inquiry, died suddenly yesterday morning. Judge Wilson represented an Indiana district in the Forty-second and Forty-third congresses, afterwards removing to this city.

Heavy Losses.

London, Sept. 23.—Gen. Kitchener reports heavy losses in a party of Lovatt's scouts, who were surprised by the Boer Gen. Kritzinger, near Herschell. Dutch citizens of Cape Colony are said to be on the verge of revolt.

Something About Bread.

Bread is the food of civilization, wherever learning and intelligence spread bread goes, hand-in-hand with them. Where you find one you find the other. While a few quacks have arisen occasionally to decry bread, the brains and learning of the medical world have ridiculed their claims. America, it is true, is a land of dyspeptics; but that is not caused by the use of bread. It is due to the fact that we take our food and drinks extremely hot or extremely cold, and bolt our meals without properly chewing and masticating them. Germany and some of the other European countries where it is claimed, dyspepsia is unknown, are bread eating nations. They are careful, however, not to take their food or drinks too hot or too cold, and to properly masticate their food. The London Lancet, which stands at the head of medical journals of the world, claims that bread and biscuits no matter if hot are thoroughly digestible and healthy if properly chewed and masticated; but declares that the trouble with the hot food is that it is so easily swallowed that people do not usually so thoroughly masticate it as they do cold, dry bread. In this connection it is not amiss to state that the "Walsh-DeRoo" brand of flour "Sunlight" "Daisy," and "Hyperion" make the best bread, biscuits and pastry.

CONGRESSMEN GRATIFIED

Call Upon President Roosevelt and Are Pleased with Their Reception.

WILL WARMLY SUPPORT ADMINISTRATION

Southern Senators Specially Well Pleased—Cubans Visit the White House—William B. Ridgely Appointed Comptroller of the Currency—Other Appointments.

Washington, Sept. 23.—President Roosevelt walked early to the white house Saturday from the residence of his brother-in-law, Commander Cowles, of the navy, arriving shortly before 9:30. Secretary Hay, Secretary Long and Secretary Gage came almost upon his heels and saw the president for a few minutes in the cabinet room. The doors of the white house were closed to the public, but admission, of course, was accorded to those who desired to see the president personally, and within an hour a score of men prominent in public life had called to pay their respects and to extend their good wishes for a successful administration. Among them were Senators Scott and Elkins, of West Virginia; Senator Pritchard, of North Carolina; Millard, of Nebraska, and Burton, of Kansas, and Representatives Heatwole, McCleary and Stephens, of Minnesota; Gibson, of Tennessee; Livingstone, of Georgia, and Dayton, of West Virginia.

President Has Tact. All were delighted with the reception accorded them. Senators Elkins and Scott congratulated the president upon the declaration he had made when he took the oath of office. "That simple declaration," said Senator Scott, "immediately restored confidence in the business world."

Southern Representative Pleased. Representative Livingstone, of Georgia, was especially pleased with his reception. The Georgia representative had congratulated the president, had expressed the hope that his administration would be a success and had informed him that as a southern man and a Georgian he would contribute everything in his power to that end. The president replied that it would be his aim to be the president of the whole people without regard to geographical lines or class distinctions, that it was the welfare of all which he should seek to promote.

SEVERAL APPOINTMENTS.

William B. Ridgely, of Illinois, Made Comptroller of the Currency.

Washington, Sept. 23.—The following appointments were made Saturday by the president:

State—To be consuls of the United States: George O. Cornelius, Pennsylvania, at St. Johns, N. P.; Alonso B. Garrett, West Virginia, at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico; Jesse H. Johnson, Texas, at Santos, Brazil. Treasury—William B. Ridgely, to be comptroller of the currency.

Navy—Edward T. Hoopes, to be assistant paymaster in the navy with the rank of ensign.

Spends Quiet Sunday.

Washington, Sept. 23.—President Roosevelt's first Sunday in Washington as chief executive was comparatively uneventful. He went out twice during the day, in the morning attending religious service with his brother-in-law, Mr. Douglas Robinson, of New York, and in the afternoon taking a long stroll through Rock Creek park with Gen. Leonard Wood, military governor of Cuba. The president did not visit the white house during the day.

In the White House. Washington, Sept. 24.—President Roosevelt took up his residence in the white house yesterday and his wife will join him on Wednesday. The last of the personal effects of his predecessor were packed and shipped to Canton.

PEACE OF EUROPE.

Czar and Kaiser Said to Have Agreed to Wage No War for Ten Years.

London, Sept. 23.—It is asserted here that the czar and kaiser have each pledged themselves to peace for a period of ten years, during which time neither Russia nor Germany will engage in war with any other power. This, it is declared, is the net result of the czar's recent visit to Germany and France. The meetings between the czar and the kaiser and between the czar and the French president have been watched closely by every chancellery in Europe. It has been generally conceded that the czar has close to his heart a desire to secure the peace of Europe.

Plan McKinley Memorial.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 24.—Senator Hanna, Judge Day and Col. Myron T. Herrick have started a movement to build a national monument to President McKinley in the cemetery at Canton, costing not less than $500,000.

Internal Revenue.

Washington, Sept. 25.—The monthly statement of the collections of internal revenue shows that in August the receipts were $22,167,191, a decrease as compared with August, 1900, of $3,428,525.

Lincoln's Remains.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 25.—The casket containing the remains of Abraham Lincoln is to be incased in a solid block of concrete and buried beneath the present vault at Springfield, never to be disturbed again.

Discharged.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Judge Chetlain ordered the discharge of nine men accused of conspiring to kill the president, because there was no evidence to connect them with the crime.

Headache

kills, not necessarily suddenly, but SURELY. It preys upon the intellectual powers more than we realize. It consumes the vitality faster than nature can replenish it, and we cannot tell just what moment a temporary or complete aberration of the mind will result. Headache and pain should be promptly removed—but properly. Many pain cures are more harmful than the pain. Beware. If you would be safe, take

Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

"As a result of neuralgia I lost the sight of my right eye, and the pain I have suffered is incomprehensible, being obliged to take opiates almost continually. A friend gave me one of Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and it promptly relieved me. I then purchased a box and they cured my ailment. They have also cured my daughter of nervous headache, and I heartily recommend them to others."—W. J. Coleman, Chicago, Ill.

THE PERIOD OF MOURNING

No Official Functions to Occur at White House Until New Year's.

TO BE RESUMED AFTER THAT DATE.

Formal Calls of Organizations and Officials in a Body to Be Deferred Until After 30 Days of Mourning—Mrs. Roosevelt Shops in New York Before Going to Washington.

After that date they will take place as formerly. Formal calls of organizations and officials in a body will be deferred until after 30 days from the date of the late president's death. The flag on the executive mansion will fly at half mast and mourning paper will be used by the heads of departments for a period of 30 days.

Mrs. Roosevelt Goes Shopping.

New York, Sept. 25.—Mrs. Roosevelt, wife of President Roosevelt, Miss Young, the governess and William Loeb, Jr., the president's assistant secretary, left Oyster Bay Wednesday for Washington. Kermit and Quinton Roosevelt will leave later in the day, accompanied by a maid. Mrs. Roosevelt and her party occupied a special car, which was attached to a regular train of the Long Island railroad. A number of ladies of the village bade her good-by at the station. Mrs. Roosevelt will spend some time in this city and will then proceed to Washington with her children on the four o'clock train over the Pennsylvania railroad.

saying: "As soon as I receive official notice of their choice, I shall gladly accept."

"What are your plans for the future?" he was asked.

"I can't speak of them now," said Mr. Low. "The future will take care of itself."

Mr. Low added that he had appointed John J. Clark as his campaign secretary. Mr. Clark was secretary of the Citizens' union four years ago.

New York, Sept. 25.—A movement for a third city ticket, with Col. Edward M. Knox as the nominee for mayor, has been launched by the executive committee of the city democracy. The committee of 15 is charged with having broken faith with the independent democrats in naming Seth Low for mayor.

Sporting News

The Twin City club defeated the Fennville club at Fennville Saturday by a score of 8 to 1. It was Fennville's game until the eighth inning when Nelson went to pieces and the visiting team touched him up for eight runs. McNutt pitched a good game for the Twin City team and was backed by fine fielding.

The Grand Haven High school foot ball team will play the Muskegon High school team Saturday.

There is joy in Grand Rapids. Wil-mot's club won the championship pennant.

The Big Rapids club will play the Grand Rapids Independent club, composed of the best players in Grand Rapids, Sunday. Bailey, the ex-league pitcher will do box honors for Grand Rapids.

C. M. Winslow, manager of the Twin City Club of Douglas, was in the city Tuesday and made arrangements for a game between the Twin City and Holland clubs. It will be played next Monday afternoon at the Holland grounds and will be a fast contest. The Twin City boys have been adding to their laurels right along and capped the climax last Saturday by defeating the strong Fennville club for the third time by a score of 7 to 1. McNutt, who will pitch for the Twin City Club, has a fine record. He is a strike out pitcher and it takes a man with a good eye to get a hit off his delivery. The rooting will be a feature of the game as special excursion cars will run from Douglas and Saugatuck and the visitors will try to outyell the Holland fans.

Holland Wins. Score 13 to 12.

Holland defeated Grand Haven Tuesday in a spectacular game by a score of 13 to 12. Two balloon ascensions took place during the game, one from the Holland club's infield when Rob De Pree, Jim De Pree, John Schouten and Bennie Vanden Berg made an ascension and the other from the pitchers' box when O'Connell of Grand Haven made an aerial voyage with Van der Veen hanging to the trapeze.

The Holland ascension was made in the first inning. Jimmy Ver Stay was touched up for a few, the rope broke and away went the balloon. When it reached terra firma it was found that Grand Haven had scored 3 runs. It looked like a walk away for the visitors; but Holland scored 2 in the first showing they were not dismayed. In the second Jimmy Ver Stay knocked the ball over the fence for a home run and when the inning closed the score was 8 to 4. In the third both sides drew a blank. In the fourth without any preliminary sparring the Holland boys started to knock the cover off the ball. Then they began to circle the bases and kept going until seven runs were brought in. In the fifth Grand Haven was blanked and Holland scored one. In the sixth Grand Haven scored two and Holland none. In the seventh Holland made one and Grand Haven did the same in the eighth.

When Grand Haven went to bat in the ninth the score was 13 to 11 in favor of Holland. The first two men up were put out. Kruger got to first on a hit. He was advanced to second by Fairchild's single and scored on Van der Veen's double. Then with Fairchild on third and Van der Veen on second Murphy came to bat. Two strikes were called on him. Jimmy put a third one over the plate and Knooihuizen said "strike three." Schouten muffed it. The batter instead of running stood near the home plate protesting against the decision and Knooihuizen repeated his decision and said "striker out." Then the batter ran towards first but the game was ended according to the umpire's decision and his running was of no use. Schouten not knowing that the umpire had declared the striker out threw wild to first and Fairchild ran home. But all the running did no good as the umpire had declared that the side was retired. However an argument was precipitated and the crowd swarmed on the field and things looked ugly for a while but the clouds rolled away and Knooihuizen declared that Holland won by a score of 13 to 12.

The Holland boys deserve great credit for winning this game. They were pitted against a team composed of players from Allegan, Muskegon, Grand Rapids and the western league. In the opposing line up were such men as Pete Tibald, of Wil-mot's championship team, Dad Kruger and Harvey White of the Muskegon Reds, Fairchild, of Allegan, Emerson Dickerson of Grand Rapids and Nobletts, of Big Rapids. Grand Haven was represented by Scott in the field and Van der Veen and O'Connell who alternated as pitcher and umpire.

A promising lot of candidates are out every night working out for a position on the Holland Foot Ball team. Nearly all of last year's eleven will be back and as there are a number of promising new players the team will show up strong. Jim DePree has been elected manager and Will Damson captain.

Here's to Jimmy the Pitcher

Oh Jimmy is our pitcher
And he simply is "all right."
And every team that comes here
He soon puts out of sight.
He's not a first rate batter
And frequently fans out;
But when he does hit something
You ought to hear them shout.
He drops his bat and trots along,
Not as the others do,
For from a little one base hit
He makes an easy two.
He glances at the umpire
Whose back is just then turned,
And takes second base as coolly
As though it had been earned.
The visitors fume and scold him
And say that isn't fair—but
The umpire wasn't looking
When Jimmy made his cut.
He smiles at them serenely
And "Knoot" heaves a sigh,
While the rooters do some dancing
And Van Patten yells "Oh Joy!"

Marshal Kamferbeek Explains

EDITOR HOLLAND CITY NEWS: So many false rumors are afloat in regard to the so called case of Benjamin vs. Kamferbeek, that I feel, that, in justice to myself and to the people who place their confidence in me, it is but right that I make a clear and concise statement of facts.

About three weeks ago I was called from my beat of collecting light rentals, to come and see Mr. Benjamin. He handed me an order of $5.00 written by himself and signed by the colored waiter at Ottawa Beach hotel and himself. The order was payment for a pair of shoes purchased of Benjamin. Upon presenting it to the hotel management the order was refused, because the waiter had no money coming. Benjamin requested me to find the man and get him to pay the money. He was found in Van Zee's saloon. Not being able to make a settlement with him, I arrested him as directed by Benjamin and brought him to the lock up.

At noon of that day Mr. Benjamin and a man by the name of Walker called on me and we proceeded to the jail. The man had just awakened from a drunken stupor and was not himself. Benjamin pulled off his shoes and demanded payment. In his drunken fashion he was about to hand over the money to Benjamin when I interferred, stating that the money would be taken care of by me as he was my prisoner and that the justice court would settle the matter. The case was set for the evening at 7 o'clock, before Justice Mc Bride. Upon asking Benjamin what charge I should prefer against the prisoner, I expected he would say "obtaining goods under false pretenses," but instead he said "drunk and disorderly." The man plead guilty and was fined 6 cents and costs amounting to two dollars. I handed the justice the four dollars given me by the prisoner in jail. The justice took two dollars of it and handed back the other two dollars to the prisoner who was now free. Seeing that he did not get the money, Benjamin swore vengeance and commenced civil suit for recovery of the money. He already had the shoes, he had forfeited the money by causing the arrest of the man and arranging him for being drunk and disorderly and now he wanted to lay the blame on me and recover the money.

A prisoner in my hands is under my protection, and according to police rules, I am responsible for all his valuables and everything belonging to him. Whether negro, Indians or white men, all get the same protection at my hands.

When the civil suit was called in Justice Van Duren's court, Benjamin was not there and only his attorney, Mr. Kollen, upon whose request, and not at the request of my attorney, Mr. Post, the case was adjourned to November 1. I sincerely hope that Mr. Benjamin will be ready to appear at that time.

Trusting that I have made my case clear against these false insinuations of a defeated man and that the public will now be able to see through the whole affair, I am, as always, Faithfully,

FRED H. KAMFERBEEK, Marshal.

Western Theological Seminary

The Western Theological Seminary has started this year's work under better conditions than ever before. The classes enrolled are unusually large and are composed of students holding certificates from the higher grade of educational institutions. This testifies strongly to the standing of the seminary and the excellence of the course.

The old students with one exception have returned and will undoubtedly stay until graduation. The new junior class numbers six: Messrs. Jno. Steunenberg, James Wayer and J. Van der Heide of class 1901 in Hope; Geo. Dowstra and D. Dowstra of Central college, Pella, Iowa; and P. DeYoung of the University of Chicago. John Steketee, of this city who was formerly at Princeton but was forced to discontinue his studies there on account of ill health has entered the middle class. The whole number of students enrolled is 24.

Hope College Lecture Course

The College Lecture course this year will be far and away the best ever given in Holland. In fact, it will be as good as the very best in the state.

The course will open on Monday, the 14th of October, with the world-famed Leonora Jackson Concert company. This will be the highest class concert ever given in Holland. Miss Jackson is the peer among violinists. The tenor in this company gets his $100 a night, and every member of the organization is highly excellent.
