Brenlin
the long-wearing window shade material

Be sure the window shades you buy won't crack and break!

Ordinary window shade material is made of coarse muslin which is filled with chalk and clay. The wear of daily usage causes this filling to loosen and fall out, leaving the shade full of cracks and pinholes.

But Brenlin wears and wears

Brenlin is made of fine, closely woven cloth which contains not a particle of chalk, or clay, or other filling.

It wears and wears. Hangs smooth and straight. No cracks, no pinholes deface it!

Tinted with the finest, fast colors Brenlin Window Shades will not spot in the rain nor fade in the sun. They wear three times as long as ordinary shades.

Come in and see the many rich colorings we have in this long-wearing shade material. Let us show you how little it will cost to shade your windows with Brenlin, and help you select just the tone that will harmonize with the color scheme of your room. Come today.

FORMER HOLLAND STUDENT MAY GO TO GR. HAVEN CHARGE

PRESBYTERIANS EXTEND A CALL TO CITY PASTOR

The congregation of the 1st Presbyterian church of Grand Haven, has extended an unanimous call to Rev. J. De Kraker, of West Hoboken, N. J. Rev. De Kraker has occupied the pulpit of the Grand Haven church for two Sundays and he has made a good impression on the church people and practically all the voting members were in favor of extending him a call. The pulpit has been vacant since the resignation of Rev. James T. Veneklassen, who accepted a call to a church in Baltimore.

Mr. De Kraker is a graduate from Hope college and also graduated from New Brunswick seminary.

CORRIE C. COBURN, SPEEDS, THEN PAYS $13.35

ATTORNEY AND TAXI COMPANY MANAGER CONVICTED IN POLICE COURT

"It's an outrage," remarked Attorney Corrie C. Coburn as he handed the police court clerk $13.35. He was arrested by Officer Burleson and pleaded guilty to speeding in Monroe avenue between Ann street and Knapp avenue.

The attorney and general manager of the Black and White Taxi Co. told Judge Hess that his speedometer when tested with the one of the officer's motorcycle varied three miles when going at a 15-mile rate. The judge reminded him that regardless of the discrepancy between the speedometers, he was going more than 25 miles an hour.

DAY LIGHT FIREWORKS MADE IN OTTAWA COUNTY

SPRING LAKE MAN HOLDS PATENT OF A NEW VARIETY OF FIREWORKS

Maurice S. Wetzel, who owns the patent ideas in connection with the manufacturing product of the Zenith Products Co. of Spring Lake, has purchased a controlling interest in that growing concern, and when the plant opens shortly after the first of the new year, expects to be in charge of the management and conduct of the plant. The Zenith Co. is engaged in the manufacture of daylight fireworks and is the only factory of its kind in the United States. Before the Spring Lake plant was opened by Mr. Wetzel and Spring Lake stockholders, all the daylight fireworks used in America came from Japan. Mr. Wetzel sees a great future in the business, once it gets started and believes that the coming year will be an unusually big one with the plant. The factory has been well advertised about the country and its product is spoken of as greatly superior to the imported Oriental daylight fireworks.

MAN TEACHES SUNDAY SCHOOL FOR FORTY-SEVEN YEARS

When the Ottawa county Sunday School association holds its annual convention in Holland next week that city will have a representative in Bastain Steketee, who is the veteran Sunday School teacher in Michigan.

Mr. Steketee has not only been a teacher for 47 years but during that period of time has taught classes in the same church. Some of his former pupils are ministers and missionaries, business and professional men, both in this country and in the orient. He hopes to round out his semi-centennial before he retires.

An item from Saugatuck in a file copy of 1871 shows that beer at that time was part of a band-man's pay. Says the item: "The Saugatuck band gives thanks for the following donations: M. B. ALLEGAN MUST NOW VOTE ON THE GAS QUESTION

A NEW WRINKLE TO GET PROPOSITION BEFORE THE COMMISSION

Takes Three-Fifths Favorable Vote Before Matter Can Be Brought Up

A new wrinkle has developed in the Allegan, Otsego, and Plainwell Gas fight.

Formerly the company's rate was $1.25. This has been boosted to $1.60, which brought a storm of protest from the three towns.

The gas company asked the three councils of the three towns to grant them the advance in rates. Simultaneously the councils respectively refused to grant the rate.

The company cut the wages of the men half in two, the men quit, and the cities were without gas.

The councils of the three cities immediately asked the new State Public Utilities Commission to establish a rate which they deemed fair and now a new turn of events has taken place which apparently did not hit Holland in its difficulties with the Holland Gas company.

In order to get the matter before the commission Allegan and the other cities must first show their willingness by a three-fifths vote that they are willing to have the commission take it up.

The Allegan News has the following on the subject:

The gas matter is not yet settled in Allegan nor is it any nearer than it was several weeks ago. This may seem strange to some but in view of a letter which City Attorney Ira C. Montague received last Friday from Attorney General Groesbeck it will mean the action taken by the city council will have to be done all over again. It will be remembered Mr. Montague was opposed to surrendering the charter, stating it must be done by a referendum vote of the people of the city. The letter from the attorney general bears out his statement. To get the matter before the public utilities commission must be done by a referendum vote and then only by a three-fifths majority, the same as when the franchise was granted by the people of Allegan. That being the case the only thing to do is to have a special election and let the people vote on whether they want to submit the raising adjusting rates of gas to the public utilities commission.

The gas company is changing the meters over to the $1.60 rate and will probably continue the work unless stopped. We hope there will be no conflict and that the people will be supplied with gas until the matter is adjusted properly.

WARDEN WARNS VIOLATORS TO ABIDE BY THE LAWS

Deputy State Game Warden Frank B. Salisbury says that a number of Grand Haven duck hunters are violating the law by shooting in the marshes before sunrise and after sun set. This is contrary to the state law and extremely dangerous to hunters. The warden has as yet made no arrests of these offenders but the arrests will commence unless his warning is heeded.

DON'T SHOOT WOOD DUCK

The American Game Protective association has received several complaints from sportsmen that they fear they may innocently violate the game laws by shooting wood duck thru a mistake. They advance the argument that should a wood duck decoy with a flock of mallards, it would be impossible to keep from killing him if he happened to be the easiest bird, after the first shot.

In this connection the question was put to an old, experienced gunner and his reply may be of interest: "The beginner or the gunner in a section where the wood duck is a rare bird may be excused, but the old-timer, never. I can tell a wood duck just about as far as I can see him. He has a rolling flight, entirely unlike the flight of any other duck. He has a long square tail that gives him a different outline and appearance, and in all my experience I never have seen one with the other ducks, except hooded mergansers and teal, and this only on rare occasions."

LOCALS

Attorney Arthur Van Duren and Frank Oosting were in Grand Haven on business yesterday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Althuis of Lafayette, Ind., came to Holland and will spend a month with relatives here. They made the trip by auto.

Mrs. Nathaniel Robbins, jr., of Holland attended a party at Grand Haven given by Mrs. Martin Bos and Mrs. Lloyd Buckley. Fifty guests were present.

The Owen-Ames-Kimball warehouse in Grand Rapids has been leased by the Michigan Railway company to accommodate overflow of freight, which frequently piles up to such an extent that embargoes become necessary.

GRAND RAPIDS PASTOR TAKES BOYS TO MACATAWA

GOES THE BICYCLE ROUTE; COOKS "FLAPJACKS" ON THE WAY

Rev. G. R. Parker of Grand Rapids is a good mixer with the boys. A few days ago he took five of them to Macatawa by the bicycle route. The dominie, by the way, is an ardent devotee of the wheel and advocates wheel riding to his parishioners.

The preacher and the lads made the trip against a heavy wind in five hours and returned in four hours.

They each took with them a blanket "flapjack" dough and bacon and the necessary cooking utensils and a camera. At night the boys together with the minister rolled up in their blankets like the cowboys of the west and they say "slept like a log."

Rev. Parker believes in wheel riding as a healthful exercise, in fact he prefers it to an automobile ride.

Just before taking the Grand Rapids boys to Macatawa, he rode with his "bike" to the state capitol at Lansing and returned carrying his 4-year-old son "on behind."

CATHEDRAL BELLS CALL TO MASS FOR REPOSE OF SOULS OF VICTIMS OF LADY ELGIN

Monday, Sept. 8, was the 59th anniversary of one of the worst disasters in the history of Milwaukee, the sinking of the excursion steamer, Lady Elgin with more than 300 persons on board off Waukegan.

The steamer had been chartered for a round trip to Chicago by the Union Guards and the Black and Green Jaegers, two military organizations. Practically all those on board were young men and women of Milwaukee. The weather was so threatening when the time came to leave Chicago, Capt. Wilson warned the crowd it would be best to wait until morning. But the excursionists prevailed upon him to return that evening.

It was a black night, the wind lashing the waves and blew spray over the deck. Inside the young people were making merry. Suddenly there was a terrific crash. The Lady Elgin had been rammed by a lumber barge. Water rushed through the great hole in the excursion craft. Only one hundred Milwaukeeans were saved.

Each year the survivors have met on the anniversary of the disaster to pray. In accordance with a custom established in 1860, a solemn high mass was chanted in St. John's Cathedral last week for the repose of the souls of those who perished.

Adalbert Doeberl one of the survivors, resides at the same place where as a young man he was a member of the Milwaukee City Band which had been chartered for the day. Charles Beerung, 85, is another survivor of the Lady Elgin. He was also a member of the Milwaukee City Band.

FORMER HOPE MAN BRINGING PROFITEERS TO BOOK IN MUSKEGON

SAYS "ASK RETAILERS THE WHOLESALE PRICE AND IF FOUND HIGH, DON'T BUY"

Ernest Brooks of Muskegon was formerly a Hope College student, and a graduate. He is now prosecutor of Muskegon county and has brought many profiteers to book.

Mr. Brooks has a unique way of getting justice and the right prices for patrons from meat dealers and grocers in the city of Muskegon.

Says a dispatch from the "Sawdust City":

"The advice of Prosecutor Brooks that consumers ask retailers the wholesale price of articles, has caused many answers from grocers and others. The prosecutor has issued a statement advising the consumer to ask the first price of articles in making purchases and refuse to buy if they think the margin is to great. He believes that this will aid in the H. C. L. drive.

"The prosecutor contends the retailer should not charge a profit, but should only act as a commission man and charge for his services. Many consumers are following the prosecutor's advice and it is apparently causing more or less embarrassment to the retailers.

"D. Van Dyke, commission man, in attacking the prosecutor's plan and saying the retailer is not making as much profit as during the days of lower prices wants to know if the lawyers are not profiteering. He asks the prosecutor if the lawyers do not charge $60 to $70 for a few hours' work in court, and if this is not profiteering?"

COURT ROOM WAS FILLED TO HEAR DAMAGE SUIT

ATTORNEY WESSELIUS AROUSES TEMPER OF COURT IN PROTEST AGAINST JURORS

Lieutenant Den Uyl, Mr. Lokker, and Mr. Bigge Placed On the Stand

The so-called $5000 damage suit instituted by Reiner Dyk, against Jacob Lokker, C. A. Bigge and Simon Den Uyl has fairly begun after the attorneys had been sparring the greater part of the day to get a jury.

The affair has been given rather wide publicity in the newspapers, and it was not easy to find a jury to try the case in court. The regular jury was soon exhausted and the court directed that talsmen be drawn from among the spectators in the court room. Sybrant Wesselius, attorney for Dyk stirred things up in bit by protesting against the means of drawing talsmen, and in that protest hit at Court Officer DeWitt and the men called to fill the jury box.

Judge Cross took occasion to rebuke the attorney declaring that there was no occasion for directing remarks of the kind against citizens of the city of Grand Haven. The remarks made also hit Capt. Olsen recently from overseas who also showed resentment. The attorney stated that he did not intend to be insulting, and before the court adjourned, he asked the pardon of the court, the officer and men called to serve, stating that he might have been a bit hasty.

The first witness to be placed on the stand after the jury had been drawn was Lieut. Simon Den Uyl.

Attorney Wesselius found Den Uyl a mighty hard man to corner while cross examining him.

The evidence in the case and the questions asked cover the ground repeatedly published in this paper, and in fact in all the state and county papers.

Mr. Wesselius in opening the case mentioned the fact of how Andrew Steketee and Jacob Lokker as a committee of two had climbed over the fence on the farm of Dyk where he was working with a team and that Mr. Steketee roughly asked Dyk to buy bond and the attorney claimed that Jake Lokker had taken up the case with the Lord, who had directed him to go and take the matter up with Dyk in the way he did. Of course this was all denied by Jacob Lokker who claims never to have heard of such a thing.

The remarks from Attorney Wesselius brought a smile from the audience however, but Att. Visserer who ably cross examined the witnesses took exceptions, and the judge did not allow it in the evidence.

The Grand Rapids attorney followed this up with the remark saying "Blessed be the peace-maker."

That Mr. Dyke had guns on the place is not denied by Dyk's attorney and was self-evident when he stated that altho the guns were there, he could not afford to go hunting, because he did not have the money to buy ammunition. The attorney also stated that the soldiers who were in uniform were not soldiers, in fact because they had been discharged. He claimed that the committee took food from the place and that Dyk was practically locked up as a prisoner, and all these humiliations he had to endure.

He briefly stated how Dyk was loaded in his own automobile and taken to Holland, where he was forced to buy Liberty Bonds.

In the cross examination Mr. Den Uyl stated that since he left the service he had done odd jobs and that he was now a road salesman for the Had-Leen Vaporizer Co., had no personal acquaintance with Dyk, was asked by Mr. Lokker to go out into the country to help round up the slow fellows, inducing them to buy Liberty Bonds.

Dyk had been pointed out to them as a man to see. He stated that he went in uniform in which he also carried a gun which is part of the uniform. He stated however, that the chambers were empty of shells, although the magazine contained them.

It was decided that the Lieutenant go for the reason that he having been a soldier might have a moral influence upon Dyk if he told Dyk what the boys had been doing over in France. He stated however, that when they reached the house, Dyk saw them coming, while he was harnessing the horses. That he dropped the harness and ran into the home. At this point Mr. Wesselius accused those present of taking food from the place, and taking eggs, upon which the said committee feasted, knowing that this food and property did not belong to them.

Den Uyl, however, denied that food was taken by him, but that an automobile was sent to Holland that brought the boys a supply of food.

Mr. Den Uyl stated that they went to the door and repeatedly called for Mr. Dyk, asking him to come down from the upstairs so they could talk the matter over with him, and that no harm would befall him.

Mr. Wesselius then brought a titter from the court room when he

TO BUILD NEW CONCRETE ROAD TO GRAND RAPIDS

A party of surveyors began work Thursday to mark out the new right of way for a short cut concrete road between the city of Zeeland and the village of Jenison. The road is to be built under the supervision of the Ottawa County Road Commission. When it is finished it will furnish a concrete road all the way from Zeeland to Grand Rapids, as it will connect with the present Kent county concrete road at Jenison at the county line between Ottawa and Kent.

The new road will be through new territory and is to be built across country where there was no road before. It will run along the Pere Marquette railway all the way from Zeeland to Jenison, running just south of the railroad but never crossing it in all that distance.

The road will open one of the richest farming communities in Ottawa county. It will become the natural thoroughfare for the rich celery farms in the Hudsonville and Vriesland basis, where the land is worth from $500 to $1,000 an acre. Many of the farmers in this section had to depend until now on rather poor side roads to get them to the market. The new concrete highway will give them a direct link with the cities.

By the new route a large number of railroad crossings will be cut out. There will be one crossing at Zeeland, and after that not another until the autoist arrives at Grandville. The cutting out of the crossings is one of the strong arguments that induced the commission to determine on the new route.

The new road will be more direct. According to the preliminary survey it will cut out three and a half miles between Zeeland and Jenison. The old roadway between Zeeland city and the village of Jenison, will according to the county commission will remain open in order that some part of the work on the new road may be started some time next year.

Eleanor June, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Klaas Prins, was run over by an automobile driven by Mr. A. Weller Tuesday. The accident happened on the corner of 15th street and Central avenue, and it was probably due to the fact that the driver was going very slowly that the child's life was saved. The accident was entirely unavoidable on the part of the driver, according to the family of the child. The little tot ran in front of the car and the driver couldn't have stopped his machine in time to avoid hitting her.

The little girl was considerably bruised but no bones were broken. Dr. R. H. Nichols attended her. Wednesday she was getting along fairly well and it is expected she will recover.

STEEL STRIKE NOT TO AFFECT LOCAL PLANTS

Unless the big steel strike that went into effect Monday hangs on for a month or more, Holland will not be directly affected by it, the machine shop managers of this city declare. The local plants get most of their supplies from warehouses in Chicago and these will be able to supply them from the stocks now on hand for some time, it is believed so that the shops will be able to get the material that they need to keep the plants running as usual.

The Buss Machine Works managers said Tuesday that they had some orders in at the mills in Pittsburgh and that it was likely these may be held up for the time being while the strike was in progress, but most of their material would come along from the warehouses and the holding up of the mill orders would not materially affect the plant.

The manager of the Western Machine Tool Works declared that unless the strike continued for four or five weeks, which he did not anticipate at this time, the plant here would probably not feel the effects of the strike at all. The Western Machine Tool Works has a large stock on hand and, as in the other case, most of the orders are filled from Chicago warehouses.

The local firms have of course seen the strike coming for a long time and they have been preparing for it so that when it did come it would not tie them up. Hence their employees will be guarded from the effects of it for the present at least.

However, plants like these all over the country are doing all they can to keep running and hence are ordering heavily from the warehouses. For that reason, if the strike continues for a long time, the supplies will give out, and eventually the effects of it will be held here as elsewhere.

LAKETOWN CLUB GETS FIRST PRIZE

At the Holland fair recently the North Laketown Farmers' Club won the first prize on farmers' club exhibition.

As part of the work of the Martin Poultry Club a demonstration in various ways of canning chicken was given. This is just a splendid way of taking care of the hens that refuse to pay for their keep.

As a sequel to the work of one of the home nursing classes the members of two women's clubs have organized a class for the study of home dietetics. The home demonstration agent of Allegan county will act as instructor to this class and will be glad to assist others along this line. For further information write to Miss Woodworth, court house, Allegan.

RATES RAISED BY PHYSICIANS OF HOLLAND

After this it will cost more to be sick in Holland than it did. The physicians of the city have finally yielded to the exigencies of the high cost of living and have raised their rates. The new schedule of rates went into effect Monday, and on and after that day the patrons of the Holland physicians will have to dig down deeper than they have been accustomed to do.

The Holland physicians have been very slow to raise their fees for professional services it is pointed out by them. In Grand Haven and in Allegan the fee schedule that went into effect in Holland Monday has been in force for more than a year, and during all that time it cost more to be sick in those neighboring towns than it did to be under treatment of the doctors in Holland. Altho this fact was well known to the physicians here they were reluctant to raise the rates, preferring to stretch a point during the general readjustment of things and hoping that conditions would so arrange themselves that the new prices adopted elsewhere a year ago would not have to be charged here.

However conditions have not changed for the better on the average but prices have continued to soar. It is pointed out by the physicians that expenses incident to the carrying on a practice have more than doubled during the past few years, and hence the local physicians have come to the conclusion that in order to be able to give good service they will have to charge at least the same rates that are being charged in neighboring cities smaller than Holland.

CONTRACT LET FOR THE LARGE GARAGE HERE

The contract was let Tuesday for the large new garage to be erected on the corner of Ninth-st. and River avenue by Dulyea & Vander Bie. The contract was awarded to Frank Dyke by a narrow margin. A number of Grand Rapids firms had made bids on the job and the bidding was so close that other firms might legitimately have been chosen. One factor that won the contract for the Holland men was that the proprietors wished to give the preference to Holland labor. The plumbing and heating has been awarded to Henry Kraker.

The new garage is going to be 83 by 133 feet and will be two stories. The original plans called for one story for part of the building but it has been decided to make it two throughout. The architects are Williamson, Crow & Proctor of Grand Rapids.

The building will be of brick and stone. The first floor will have a capacity for the storage of 24 cars, and the second floor will have room enough so that the storage room will have a capacity of about 100 cars in all. The first and second floors will be connected with an electric elevator. Small repair jobs will be done on the first floor, while the bigger jobs will be on the second. The display rooms will also be on the first floor, as well as the office.

The building, according to plans, will be finished by January 1, and the garage will be in full running order by March first. It is quite certain, it is announced, that the big steel strike will not delay the erection of the building in any way.

Both members of the firm have spent about eight months in Detroit to learn the automobile business and they will be in active charge of the work. They plan to make it the finest repair shop in this part of the state.

Dulyea & Vander Bie have signed up to handle the new Cleveland Little Six and the Chandler car, both built by the Chandler company.

BIG LIVERY BARN GUTTED BY FLAMES

Lightning took its toll in Holland during the night between Saturday and Sunday when a bolt struck the livery barn of Boone Bros., corner Central avenue and Seventh-st., and did damage estimated at between $1500 and $2000. The bolt entered the barn by way of the cupola on the rear of the building, and set fire to the straw and hay. It was several hours before the fire had been completely extinguished.

Most of the second floor of the big barn was pretty well gutted by the flames when the fire departments finally left the scene. There was stored on this floor eight and a half tons of straw and five tons of hay, besides some grain, all of which was destroyed by the fire.

Henry Mulder, an employee of Boone Bros., occupied the rooms upstairs to the front of the building and his furniture was taken out. Because of the heavy rain the furniture was considerably damaged by water, but it was untouched by the fire.

There were fifteen horses in the barn, but fortunately the fire did not spread to the lower floor. However when the fire was discovered the animals were hastily taken out, and since there was no place to take them to on the spur of the moment, they were turned loose and wandered about the city. On Sunday morning they were gathered together again from various places and put back into their stalls.

Both fire trucks responded to the call and did valiant work in preventing the flames from spreading. The fact also that the rain had soaked everything helped to prevent a general conflagration.

Mrs. I. Harris left Tuesday for a visit with relatives in Coloma.

STRAY CAT BECOMES PROTECTOR OF FLOCK OF SPRING CHICKENS

About two months ago a little black and white kitten sought refuge and food at hen park of Rev. W. A. Sheppard at Hudsonville and has since then been satisfied to make his permanent home with his feathered friends. The chickens seem to have elected him their protector and companion.

A few days ago a strange chicken from across the street appeared at the feeding grounds on a foraging tour, but the kitten objected to this trespassing and immediately put in a strong protest in such a vigorous manner as to cause the chick to take hasty flight. The minister and his wife will not interfere with the arrangements that have been made between the kitten and the chicks.

DROPPED DEAD WHILE UNLOADING FRUIT

Gerrit Bottema, an old resident of Spring Lake, this county, died suddenly Saturday morning at the G. T. station at Spring Lake. Mr. Bottema, although of advanced age, appeared at the station in apparently good health. While unloading some grapes from a wagon to a car, he suddenly dropped and apparently died instantly. The body was taken to the family home. Medical attention was called but the aged resident was beyond assistance. Mr. Bottema was one of the best known residents in that community.

TO TAKE SIX FEET OUT OF THE VRIESLAND HILL

After waiting all summer for material, the contractors who have the job of cutting down the well known "Vriesland hill" east of Zeeland, have begun their work and before snow flies it is expected that the steep grade will have been reduced so that instead of a hill it will be hardly more than a declivity in the road.

The hill furthermore will be paved with concrete, but that part of the job cannot be finished this fall. The road will be graded this year and will be temporarily graveled so that it will be in good passable condition during the winter months. Then early next spring the plan is to do the concrete work on it so that it will be in shape for the traffic between Holland and Grand Rapids the greater part of the summer.

For the present however and probably until late fall the main road between Zeeland and Grand Rapids will be closed at that point. The Ottawa county road commission is advising the following detours for people going to Grand Rapids:

(1) Go to Zeeland as usual but instead of passing through that city turn north on State street to Borulo. At that village turn east and keep on that road until it strikes the main road north of Hudsonville.

(2) Go east on Sixteenth street to Drenthe, then north to the main road near Vriesland.

Many people in the past have been following one of these two routes for some time because the main road was rather rough, so that no difficulty is expected because of the closing of the main road. Two bridges are also under construction on the main road.

A six foot cut will be made in the Vriesland hill, a big steam shovel being on the job to bite out that amount of earth from the center of the road.

NEW PASTOR IDEAL MAN FOR THE PLACE

Rev. Guy B. Fleming of the Burton Heights Methodist Church of Grand Rapids, appointed at the recent Michigan Conference held at Lansing as the new pastor of the Holland M. E. church was here last Sunday to assume his work in the local congregation. He was in charge of all the services Sunday as the regular pastor, and will probably move to this city this week.

Rev. J. F. Bowerman, who is to leave Holland some time this week, had a warm word of recommendation for the new pastor in introducing him to the community.

"I have known Rev. Fleming for many years," he said. "He is one of the really strong men in the Michigan Conference. For years he served as conference treasurer. He is a splendid organizer and is strongly evangelistic in spirit. Rev. Mr. Fleming is one of the sweetest tempered men that I have known and one of the most brotherly."

"His experience in Grand Rapids in building up the Burton Heights church shows that he is pre-eminent fitted to assume the work in Holland. For some time past I have thought of him as the ideal man for the local congregation."

"One of Mr. Fleming's greatest assets is that he is one of the finest singers in the Michigan Conference. His nature is marked by a spirit of toleration and he is strongly evangelistic in spirit. His wife is equally capable and lovable and is a strong leader in church work."

The new pastor has four children, three boys and one girl.

NEW TEACHERS ARE WELCOMED FRIDAY EVENING

The new teachers of the local schools were made thrice welcome to Holland and the old teachers were welcomed back Friday evening at a congregational social given at Hope church in their honor. The function was a most enjoyable one and the teachers were made to feel that they will have a real home here and that everything possible will be done to make them welcome.

The affair was for the teachers of the schools and for the members of the faculty of Hope college and the Western Theological Seminary. Nearly all the school teachers were present, and the college and seminary were also represented. The reception was delightfully informal and a real opportunity was given to all to get acquainted.

The gathering was presided over by C. M. McLean on behalf of the congregation of Hope church and of the Board of Education. A brief program was given, opening with a vocal solo by Miss Evelyn Keppel. Mr. G. J. Diekema gave a short address of welcome to the teachers, to which Miss Anna Kolyn responded on behalf of the teachers. Miss Ruth Keppel gave a violin solo, after which Rev. P. P. Cheff gave a brief talk. Miss Frances Bosch gave a reading and Miss Tedrow sang a solo. Mr. McLean as chairman, also gave a few remarks.

Refreshments were served by the members of the Girls' Sunday School Class of Mrs. G. E. Kollen. The greater part of the evening was given over to informal visiting and to various kinds of entertainment.

In buying for a permanent home the association has secured sufficient property to accommodate any extensions of its business the future may develop, though there is no immediate intention of going beyond their present field of activity.

Rev. Dr. P. Moerdyke and wife will leave for California, Oct. 4, after a visit with their daughter in South Bend, Ind. They will leave Holland Oct. 2 and intend to reside again at 1299 Denver St., Pasadena, Ca if., until next May.

NEW TELEPHONE RATES ARE GIVEN LOCAL USERS

The Citizens Telephone Company transmitted to the public Wednesday the new schedule of rates that has been fixed for them by the Michigan Public Utilities Commission. The new schedule will go into effect October 1, and under its provisions Holland patrons of the Citizens Telephone Company will pay more for service. The business phone rental has been changed from $24 to $36 per year, and that of the residence phone from $18 to $24.

Another change that has been made is that bills will be presented monthly after this instead of quarterly as has been the custom. Patrons will still have the privilege of paying them quarterly, if they so desire, but the bills will come 12 times a year instead of four times.

A new class of telephone users has been defined by the Michigan Utilities commission. These are to be known as "Extra Users," and those "Extra Users" are to be charged 75c per month. They are the people who do not rent a telephone of their own but who use habitually the phone of a neighbor. This practice has become quite extensive, not in Holland only, but everywhere. The "Extra Users" classification is made for the whole state of course.

The new schedule of rates is the result of hearings, conferences, and discussions between the Michigan Public Utilities Commission, and representatives of 182 cities and villages in the state represented by attorneys, mayors or the attorney general of the state, and representatives of the telephone companies. In the letter of the commission to Manager W. H. Orr the commission states that the rates are established temporarily. The new rates were to have gone into effect on August 1st, according to the original plans but later the date was fixed at October 1st.

The rates established by the commission for the Bell Telephone Co. in Holland are: one party residence service $1.75 per month; one party business service $2.50 per month. In both the Citizens and the Bell schedules there are several other items enumerated, but these are the ones in which the local public is most immediately interested.

CITY TO HAVE A COMMUNITY CENTER SOON

"The Community Club of Grace Church" has been tentatively chosen as the name of a new organization that will begin operations in Holland about October first. The third floor of the Sentinel building has been rented and it will be put into shape for the new movement. A meeting is to be held in the Guild room of Grace church Sunday evening when a constitution will be adopted and a permanent organization formed.

The Community Club was organized in answer to what those in charge believe to be a demand from the men and boys and girls of Holland for a community center. Grace church does not wish to make it a Grace church affair. That church is merely initiating it because they believe somebody should do it. The club will be open to any person from any church or from no church at all. Grace church wishes to show in a concrete way that there is a big demand for something of the kind, and if later a community organization wants to go into the movement on a larger scale the "Grace Church Community Club" will be ready to come in with it and lose its identity in it.

There will be opportunity for indoor athletics of all kinds, a reading room, smoking room, place to play billiards, checkers and other games of that nature. It will be a place where men and boys and girls can go and indulge in clean and wholesome recreating under proper supervision.

The men will meet five evenings a week; the boys four afternoons and Saturday forenoons; the girls Tuesday and Saturday afternoons and on Wednesday evenings.

The membership fee for men will be five dollars a year, which entitles them to a monthly dinner. The fee for boys will be $2.50 a year and for girls $2.50 a year. There will also be a sustaining membership, the fee of which is $10 a year, to be used for the equipment.

Football has been revived at Hope College, and each afternoon thirty or more men are seen practicing under the supervision of Coach Ernest Brooks.

Blue Ribbon Bread A Great Success

We are very pleased with the sale created since our announcement in this paper last week, of our latest product BLUE RIBBON BREAD,—each day sees a marked improvement—in fact the sales have doubled and trebled.

The public is beginning to see that the baker, who is putting his life's study and energy into baking bread can turn out better work than haphazard methods used in the home.

He carefully selects his flour; he understands fermentation; uses only the best shortening and pure yeast. Nothing goes by guess, doughs are properly timed, sealed, moulded, panned, proofed, and baked in ovens specially built and heated to the right temperature, thus insuring a well baked and healthful loaf of bread.

Dr. Wiley said that a pound of bread gives more nourishment than a pound of meat,—compare the price, eat more bread, and lower the H. C. L.

You will find our Harvest Bread and Blue Ribbon Bread wrapped in paper, for sale at all grocers.

said, "apparently your moral influence was being used when you pointed your gun at him." This brought a protest from Attorney Visscher, when he stated this had nothing to do with the evidence.

Lieutenant Den Uyl made a quick retort when he said "not until he pointed his loaded gun at me did I point my gun at him, and the chambers were not loaded either."

This part was brought in the evidence after it was found out that the committee had apparently waited seven hours for Mr. Dyk when he finally did come downstairs with a loaded rifle.

It was brought out in the trial and stated by Lieut. Den Uyl, that Rudolph Habermann, who was one of the party, had taken the gun away from Dyk and that he had shot off the gun after the party had gone outside. It was also brought out by Den Uyl, when questioned by Mr. Wesselius, that there were other persons in the party beside the three defendants, namely Teunis, Peter and Herman Prins, Peter Cooper and Peter Baker, Mr. Roggen and Mr. Habermann.

In the cross-examination Attorney Wesselius made repeated objections and while a few of the objections were sustained by the court Judge Cross allowed most of them to stand.

Attorney Visscher then took the witness asking him about his war record, in which he showed how he had been promoted from a private to a 1st lieutenant, how he had been in all the important battles, and how he had seen men fall on every side, and it is these things that he wished to bring home to Mr. Dyk in trying to make a true American of him.

In the first part of the proceedings Attorney Wesselius had made a slighting remark in a general way about tissue paper soldiers. He however objected to having the soldier record of Mr. Den Uyl brought into the case, stating that it had nothing to do with the assault in question. The judge however thought otherwise, and stated that in view of the "tissue paper soldier" remark, Den Uyl's record as a soldier could be given to the jury.

Dyk's general reputation as an American citizen was entered into to which Dyk's attorney objected, in fact there were several objections made at about this time, most of which were over-ruled by Judge Cross.

The matter of socialistic literature found on the place was next brought out to which Attorney Wesselius also objected and this part was laid aside to be taken up later.

The witness then stated that Dyk said that he believed in a revolution. Dyk's attorney objected strenuously to this, but the judge sustained the witness.

The witness then stated how he really did shoot Dyk with a camera after the little episode in the house had been smoothed over and the attorneys for the defendants presented a picture of Dyk holding a gun and smiling, and also a snapshot of several of the committee together with Dyk.

Attorney Visscher here stated that judging from this picture, the man had not been very much abused, as the plaintiff's attorney had tried to make out.

Mr. Den Uyl then stated that Mr. Dyk then suggested to go to Holland where his father had already gone, to take up the matter of liberty bonds. That Dyk had stated he had just bought an automobile, but that he was still a green driver, and he wanted one of the Holland boys to do the driving, but that he suggested taking his own automobile in order that he might come back with his father at night.

After Lieutenant Den Uyl had finished on the witness stand Messrs. Bigge and Lokker were then called in turn and they practically reiterated the testimony given by the Lieutenant.

These men stated that Dyk came willingly and that he and his father signed a note jointly for $500 worth of liberty bonds, and that R. Dyke and some of the committee went to the Holland City State bank where the documents were made out properly, and that Reiner Dyk then shook hands with the committee and asked Mr. Lokker whether he still had credit in Mr. Lokker's store, and could get a suit of clothes.

Mr. Lokker stated that his credit was good, and that at any time when the store was open he could get the clothes.

The committee stated that the best of feeling existed when the Dyks left for their home after the liberty bond papers had been signed. This in substance is the gist of the proceedings thus far.

Mr. Wesselius however, is going to contend that the man was unable to buy bonds, that he was working the farm for his father, that he did not own the farm he was working, and that by threats and under duress Reiner Dyk was taken to Holland and was forced to buy liberty bonds which because of his financial condition he was unable to buy.

The court adjourned until 9:30 this morning and the next witness will be Reiner Dyk himself who will state his side of the case.

Half of the court room was filled with Holland citizens yesterday and as the case progresses no doubt more will be present.

Judging from the number of witnesses still to be brought in, the case no doubt will take up the balance of the week.

This is the last case on the docket this term, and is proving to be the most interesting.

The jury in the Reiner Dyke case was not secured until 11:30 Wednesday morning after two panels had been exhausted. The case started Wednesday afternoon with the testimony of Lieut. Simon Den Uyl. The following jury was chosen: Fred Beukema, Nicholas Swartz, George Robertson, Fred Ehrman, Gus Christmas, Bert Parker, Chauncey Westover, John E. Ackley, Richard Cook, Fred King, Jacob A. Elenbaas, errit Clouw. All are of Grand Haven except Westover, who is of Nunica, Elenbaas of Zeeland City, King of Olive township, and Clouw of Spring Lake.

SIDE LIGHTS

Wesselius—"What is your business?"

Bigge—"Selling life insurance."

Wess—"Do you go after them with a gun?"

Bigge—"We don't have to get them with a gun."

John Van Anrooy being examined as a juror:

Wess—"Do you know anything about the case?"

John—"I do not."

Wess—"Do you know any of the defendants?"

John—"I do."

Wess—"Who for instance?"

John—"Jake Lokker."

Wess—"Any relation?"

He's my brother-in-law."

Zing! John will not serve.

Den Uyl—"When I took Dyk's picture, I told him to hold his gun, and smile—he smiled, and I shot him—with the camera, of course."

Mr. Haggerman, being examined as a juror:

Wess—"What is your occupation?"

Haggerman—"Farm Agent."

Wess—"Why are you here?"

Haggerman—"I was called."

Wess—"Who hires you?"

Haggerman—"The Federal government, the state, and the county."

Wess—"You are being paid today?"

Haggerman—"I'm supposed to be."

Wess—"What business have you here then?"

Wess—Turning and addressing the court:

"The court please, I object to the bringing in of state and county officers as jurors in this case."

Judge Cross—"It is every man's duty to serve when called."

Haggerman was discharged, however, having a fixed opinion of the case.

Reiner Dyk clapped his hands applauding a point made by his attorney.

Judge Cross—"Mr. Dyk, you will desist in the future from making any such outbursts during this trial."

Socialists Norlin and Van Doesburg are both at the trial, subpoenaed by the attorneys for the defendants.

Everyone in the court room is wondering how Attorney Wesselius can make his glass do such gymnastics on the end of his fingers.

First row, court room, one, two and three, Peter, Herman and Teunis Prins.

Wesselius—"That will do, Mr. Lokker, you're thru."

Lokker—"I ain't tired yet, you can give me some more."

Laughter.

Orrie Sluiter, clerk of the Court—Perpetual smile.

A. e. Feyter of this city left for a three months' visit to the home of his daughter, Mrs. B. Van Heuvelen at Jakama, Wash., whose husband has a charge in one of the Reformed churches there. He will also visit another daughter, Mrs. A. Wubben at Bristo, Iowa. Rev. Wubben is the pastor of a church at that place.

W. H. Bingham died suddenly last evening at his home in Manitowoc, Wisconsin, of plural pneumonia. His remains will be brought to Holland for burial.

This kind of weather makes one think of a new pair of warm blankets. John Vandersluis will have a three day's sale this week Friday, Saturday and next Monday. These are all nice warm Blankets, extra size and will actually be sold during these two days at less than manufacturer's prices today. These blankets were bought over a year ago—if you want to save money get in on this sale.

A Penny for Your Thoughts

But not in this instance.

A penny does enter into the sale of nearly everything in the drug store of Haan Bros., on East 8th.

A penny even buys a hot water bottle, or a pound of coffee, or a box of stationery.

COLLEGE HAS NEW STUDENT FROM CHINA

Hope College this year may have two Chinese students. The newest subject from the Celestial Republic to be added to the roll of Hope's students is Mr. F. C. Wu of Amoy, China.

Mr. Wu was encouraged to go to Hope College for his education by Rev. Harry P. Boot, formerly of this city, now principal of Talmadge College at Amoy. Mr. Wu was a student in that college and was an active missionary worker. In order that he might have an opportunity to equip himself thoroughly educationally, he decided to travel away from the Orient to seek the necessary training in the local institution.

The new Chinese student is a member of a prominent family in China. His father is president of the Chamber of Commerce of his native city and one of the prominent citizens of that section.

Mr. Wu himself is vouched for by Rev. Boot as an exceptionally high grade student. He was a member of the student preaching band at Talmadge College and a leader of the College Y. M. C. A. In the athletics of the college also he took a prominent part.

Last year a young Chinaman named Mr. Chin, enrolled as a student at Hope College and he made a good record here. His brother is coming to this country in the near future and it is possible that he also may be enrolled here.

In the past Hope College has from time to time had Chinamen and Japanese among its students. Some of these men are now back in the Orient where they are making good use of the education that they received in the local institution.

WOMAN'S BODY FOUND ON HER BACK PORCH

Alone at home sometime Wednesday night or early Thursday morning, Mrs. John C. Behm died suddenly at her home on Griffin street, south of Grand Haven. Her body was discovered at shortly after noon on Thursday lying on the rear porch at her home. To all appearances Mrs. Behm had suddenly dropped over before she was able to reach the door landing into her home. In her hands were some grapes, and the indications were that she had been dead some hours before her body was found. Apoplexy or heart trouble was probably the cause.

At shortly after noon, John Meeuwse and one of the men driving the cement mixer used on the pike road went to the house to ask for water for the horses. It was then that the body was found, and Mr. Meeuwse summoned neighbors. The remains were removed to the John J. Boer & Sons Undertaking rooms in Grand Haven.

According to the information available her husband, John C. Behm is in Hart on business, and is believed to have left early Wednesday morning when a light was seen in the house at an early hour. Mrs. Behm had told the man who supplied her milk that she was going away and would not need any milk for the present. As far as could be learned no one had seen her during the day.

At the house, the beds were all made and the house was in order, indicating either that she had died last Wednesday night before going to bed, or had completed her house work Thursday morning. As to the facts in the case no one seems able to shed any light.

These men own FORDSON Tractors in our territory. It will interest you to know there are more than 150 makes of Tractors. In our territory we have sold more FORDSONs than the combined sales of other makes.

This volume of sales is in itself a convincing testimony for the FORDSON tractor. These tractor owners are demonstrating daily the merits of the FORDSON. We can establish no better proof.

It will please us to have you write these FORDSON owners. Better still, we will gladly take you to any or all of these FORDSON owners. Sooner or later you will own a tractor. We will let the testimony and recommendation of owners you know help you to decide whether or not your tractor shall be a FORDSON.

Arrange now for a demonstration or let us take you for a visit to our FORDSON owners.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER
THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

S. Wessellus, well known in this city as a student of Hope college, was admitted to the Kent County bar last Tuesday with a ringing compliment.

Last Wednesday morning at 1:30 our citizens were startled by the tabbing of the fire bell. It was a difficult matter apparently for our people to realize that our city was again visited by fire but it was soon apparent that it would take the united efforts of all to suppress a terrible conflagration. The fire, according to the statement of those earliest at the scene, originated in the agricultural depot of I. Fairbanks, and was fanned by a right brisk breeze so that the lurid light extended high into the air. The flames extended to the adjoining building of J. Den Herder, occupied as a boot and shoe store, and to the building of A. Baert, occupied by families as residences.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Johannes Riddering and Miss Jane Lambers of Drenthe, were united in the bonds of matrimony Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. Broene of Drenthe performing the ceremony.

The first snow of the season fell Tuesday night, Sept. 17. Jacobus Eleveld, one of the old settlers, died at his home at Graafschap Thursday night after a lingering illness.

The marriage of Dr. F. M. Gillespie and Miss Fannie Boyd, both of this city was solemnized at the Grace Episcopal church Tuesday at 12:30 P. M. Rev. E. P. Law of Allegan performed the ceremony.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

John Hieftje is building a new residence on 11th street.

J. Lanning of Drenthe has bought out the stock of G. Smeenge, in the first ward, and will continue the business at the old stand.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon from the 3rd Reformed church, Rev. H. E. Dosker and Rev. H. J. Birchby officiating.

The Clerk presented the following communication from Congressman Carl E. Mapes:

"Your letter of recent date, enclosing check for $100 payable to President Wilson, to be used towards establishing a fund for the erection of a memorial to the soldiers who died in France, is duly received.

I have taken up this matter with several of the departments here and also the Committees on Military Affairs and they all give me the same information as that given in President Wilson's letter, viz.—that they would not have the authority to accept such a donation and that they know of no fund having been established for such a memorial.

Government memorials are usually paid out of legislative appropriations, although it probably would be possible to pass a law authorizing some commission or corporation to accept donations for the purpose of erecting a memorial to the soldiers who died in France. Different plans have been suggested in this connection and undoubtedly the War department and the Committee on Military Affairs of the two Houses will eventually work out a plan for erecting a suitable memorial for our soldiers.

I will be very glad to support any legislation along the line suggested. In the meantime, I am returning herewith the check.

With best wishes, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,

CARL E. MAPES.

On motion of Ald. Prins

The communication and check were referred to the Mayor.

EVER FALL? or Wrench Your Back?

A slip, wrench, fall or jolt, received weeks, months or years ago may be responsible for the ailments of today. Why?

Every fall, twist or sprain is recorded in the backbone; the movable bones are forced out of normal position. Nature then cannot carry a normal flow of nerve cables (which come from the backbone) when displaced vertebrae are injuring them. The result is dis-ease of the organs these injured nerves should supply. Since there is a mechanical interference, it must be adjusted mechanically. The only science that DOES correct the cause of dis-ease is

LOCAL POST NAMES DELEGATES TO CONVENTION

The Willard G. Leenhouts Post, American Legion, held an enthusiastic meeting Wednesday night in the City Hall and elected delegates to the state convention that is to be held in Grand Rapids, October 13, 14 and 15. The three delegates named are Dr. A. Leenhouts, Henry Geerds and Clarence Lokker. As alternates the following were named, J. J. Riemersma, Alfred Joldersma and Henry Top.

It is likely that many more of the members of the local post besides the official delegates will attend the state convention in Grand Rapids. It will be the first convention of its kind and the future policy of the Legion in Michigan will probably be determined at the meetings.

The local Post Wednesday night ratified the constitution of the state organization. When a sufficient number of Posts have taken this action the constitution will become operative.

The Willard G. Leenhouts Post will go in heavy for athletics, it was decided Wednesday evening. The athletics committee, headed by Clarence Lokker, made its report to the Post, and steps were taken for the formation of championship teams in basketball and indoor base ball. An athletic council was appointed consisting of the following: Hoyt Post, chairman and treasurer, Pat Nordoff, Ernest Brooks and Kris Karose.

This council will look after the formation of the teams. It is planned to secure the high school and college gymnasiums for practice work, and it is expected that teams will be formed that will be a match for the best teams in the state. There is plenty of good material for championship teams in the local Post.

Miss Gertrude Kramer was a Grand Rapids visitor Monday.

TWO FARM HOMES BURNED TO GROUND

The farm home of Will Kole residing a mile west of the village of Forest Grove burned to the ground. The home is known as the Vander Wall homestead. The building was totally destroyed, save some of the furniture. Through the hard efforts of friends and neighbors the fire was kept under control and the two barns that stand near by were saved. It was very fortunate that the fire engine from the village came to the rescue, arriving there to save the other buildings. It is reported that the loss is partially covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

On this same day the house owned by W. Cook near Hudsonville was also burned to the ground. The blaze had already taken such heavy headway that nothing could be done to save either the house or its contents. The family was gone for the day and nothing of the furniture was gotten out. The loss is estimated to be about $3,500 and partially covered by insurance. When the fire was first seen by neighbors the building was in full blaze and all that could be done was to save the other buildings.

HIGH SCHOOL BOY HIT BY INTERURBAN

Albert Lamb of Ganges, a student at the local high school was seriously injured when his Ford car collided with a Holland interurban car on Eighth-st. and Columbia avenue. The 11:50 interurban Saturday night was pulling out for Grand Rapids, Lamb was going north on Col umbia avenue and apparently did not see the on-coming interurban until the two collided at the 8th-st. intersection.

Lamb's car was dragged some 50 feet and the young man was thrown to the pavement and was picked up by Officer John Wagner.

It was found that his head was cut above the eye and his lip was badly bruised.

He was immediately taken to Holland hospital and he is again at the high school, "somewhat battered but still in the ring."

The "Tin Lizzie" is about due for the scarp-heap.

A $4,000 FIRE SUNDAY SOUTH OF HOLLAND

The heavens were all lighted up Sunday night, south of the city.

Investigation proved that the big barn of Peter Jongkrijt, two miles south on Michigan Avenue was in flames.

The family had finished doing the chores at the barn at 6 o'clock in the evening, and then took an auto ride with their neighbor, Corniel Dykema, to New Holland.

At 7:15 neighbors saw smoke issuing from the barn and upon investigation they found that the interior was a seething furnace of flames.

It was impossible to release any of the stock, or to take out any of the farm tools. The only living thing that escaped was one cow and its hide had been badly scorched.

The barn is said to be worth at least $2,000 and contained 140 bushels of wheat, 200 bushels of oats, ten loads of hay, a large consignment of farm implements, two horses, three cows, seven pigs, 200 chickens and two calves.

But for the heavy rain that had been falling, the buildings on the farm of Corniel Dykema would also have been destroyed.

The large barn and dwelling house repeatedly caught fire and a bucket brigade was necessary to save the buildings.

How the fire started nobody seems to know, as no lanterns, had been used in doing the chores. The theory advanced seems to be that a bolt of lightning must have struck the barn during Saturday night, the results of which started a smudge amongst the beams, which did not break out until many hours afterwards.

The family was reached by telephone at New Holland but when they arrived home nothing but the ruins of the large barn containing all the summer's crops could be seen.

It is said Mr. Jonkrijt carries about $2,500 insurance, while the total loss will mount up to at least $4,000.
