such as never before was brought to Holland. We have taken particular pains to buy only such as were LARGE and WARM and DURABLE.

In Comforters we are showing some that are 72 inches wide, and 90 inches long, same as mother use to make, all nicely knotted and filled with pure, clean, long cotton, which will not gather in lumps.

The Muskegon officials secured the men Monday.

The Poultry show to be given this fall at the Lyceum opera house will eclipse all of the previous efforts of the Holland Poultry and Pet stock association. Reports from the leading cities of Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin, and Illinois indicate that outside competition for the prizes will be very brisk and that the display will be large and varied. L. S. ### National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic Opens in Washington.

THOUSANDS OF VETERANS ARE PRESENT

Given a Warm Welcome and Camp Roosevelt is Dedicated—Secretary Hay Greets the Visitors—Commander in Chief Torrance Keeps Open House.

Washington, Oct. 7.—The ceremonies incident to the beginning of the thirty-sixth encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which commenced here Monday, were varied in character and mostly only semi-official. The only formal proceeding of the day was the dedication of Camp Roosevelt, the tent city on the white house grounds, which will be the headquarters of the several corps organizations during the week. The ceremonies there consisted of a number of addresses by men of national reputation. The chief speech being delivered by Secretary Hay. For the

GRAND ARMY ENCAMPMENT AT WASHINGTON.

The citizens of the national capital have done everything in their power to make the stay of the veterans in their city pleasant and profitable. One of the notable features in the way of decoration is the representation of the various corps badges in plants of various colors. Green, white, red, purple, yellow and pink foliage plants are used to bring out the colors in the corps designs, of which those shown in the cut are the most prominent.

rest the old soldiers busied themselves largely in renewing the acquaintances of 40 years ago and in manifesting their appreciation of the welcome extended to them by the capital city. Of this welcome, they found generous evidence on every hand.

Events of the Day.

The events of the day outside of the dedication ceremonies at Camp Roosevelt, included a fine regatta on the Potomac, an attractive automobile parade, an interesting procession by the red men of this city and neighboring cities and camps in the evening. Commander-in-Chief Torrance and his staff kept open house all day at the Ebbitt house and received many hundreds of callers. Many trainloads of people have arrived during the day, and it is now quite certain that the anticipations of an exceptionally large attendance will be realized.

Exhibition of Fireworks.

At night the veterans and their friends were entertained by an exhibition of fireworks on the Washington monument grounds. The principal scene represented was the rescue of the diplomatic legations at Peking in which 300 persons were engaged. The attendance numbered thousands, and the different features of the spectacle were enthusiastically received.

Naval Parade.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic and their friends were entertained Tuesday by a parade given in honor of the naval veterans and by a number of reunions held in the big assembly tents at Camp Roosevelt. The parade was reviewed from the stand in front of the white house by Admiral Dewey and Commander in Chief Torrance.

Reception.

Pension Commissioner Ware tendered a reception to the members of the grand army in the pension office building. The entire staff of 1,400 employees constituted the reception committee. During the day there were a number of reunions of regiments, divisions, corps and armies.

It is believed that he is stowed away on the steamship Alameda, which left here last Wednesday at noon. Secretary of the Territory Henry E. Cooper has been appointed treasurer temporarily by Gov. ## CALLS OUT ALL MILITIA.

Gov. Stone Sends the Entire Pennsylvania National Guard to the Strike Region.

SAYS THAT MOB LAW PREVAILS THERE.

Action by the Executive Follows a Council of War with Officers of the Troops—Orders Are to Protect Men Who Desire to Work and to Quell All Disturbances.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 7.—Gov. Stone late Monday night ordered out the entire division of the national guard of Pennsylvania to duty in the anthracite coal region. Gov. Stone called a conference of the general officers of the guard, at which it was decided to place these troops in the field.

The Order.

The order calling out the guard is as follows: "Headquarters National Guard, Adjutant General's Office, Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 6.—In certain portions of the counties of Luzerne, Schuylkill, Carbon, Lackawanna, Susquehanna, Northumberland and Columbia, tumults and riots frequently occur, and mob law reigns; men who desire to work have been beaten and driven away, and their families threatened. Railroad trains have been delayed, stoned and tracks torn up. The civil authorities are unable to maintain order and have called upon the governor and commander in chief of the national guard for troops. The situation grows more serious each day. The territory involved is so extensive that the troops now on duty are insufficient to prevent all disorder. The presence of the entire division of the national guard of Pennsylvania is necessary in these counties to maintain the public peace. The major general commanding will place the entire division on duty, distributing them in such localities as will render them most effective for preserving the public peace.

Ample Military Protection.

"As tumults, riots, mobs and disorders usually occur when men attempt to work in and about the coal mines, he will see that all men who desire to work and their families have ample military protection. He will protect all trains and other property from unlawful interference and will arrest all persons engaging in acts of violence and intimidation and hold them under guard until their release will not endanger the public peace; will see that threats, intimidations, assaults and all acts of violence cease at once. The public peace and good order will be preserved upon all occasions and throughout the several counties, and no interference whatever will be permitted with officers and men in the discharge of their duties under this order. The dignity and authority of the state must be maintained, and her power to suppress all lawlessness within her borders be asserted."

Not Inspired by Roosevelt.

Beyond the order issued by him, Gov. Stone refused to make any statement regarding the strike situation. It can be said positively, however, that the action of the governor was not inspired or recommended by President Roosevelt. It was entirely of his own volition, and only after a careful and conscientious survey of every detail of the situation.

Now Up to the Operators.

The statement by the local coal operators to the president that if they had a sufficient force to protect those desiring to work, there would be a relief of the situation and a flow of coal into the markets, may have had something to do with this action. So far as the governor is concerned, however, he will not discuss the matter. One of the coal operators said that "anarchy and lawlessness" prevailed in Pennsylvania, and that if they had a sufficient military force they could furnish all the coal that was needed. As one prominent official here put it: "It's now up to the operators. They have the entire military force of the state at their disposal under orders from the commanding officers. Now let them mine the coal."

Close of the Maneuvers.

Fort Riley, Kan., Oct. 8.—With the close of the maneuvers Tuesday there seems to be but one opinion among the regulars and national guard officers concerning them. All believe that excellent results have been obtained during the present series, and that much greater good could be accomplished by maneuvers conducted upon a scale more extensive.

Continues to Improve.

Washington, Oct. 7.—The president is reported to be doing very well. He had a comfortable day, receiving few visitors. It is confidently expected that he will be able to carry out his hope of riding along a portion of the parade route next Wednesday to review at least a part of the grand army.

In Bed Twenty-Nine Years.

REPUBLICAN RALLY!

Lyceum Opera House,
Monday Eve. Oct. 13

Congressman E. L.
Hamilton

Will Deliver An Address
On the Political Issues
Of the DAY.

The republican campaign in this city will be opened Monday evening, October 13, when Congressman E. L. Hamilton will deliver an address at the Lyceum Opera house.

The mention of the name of Hamilton is sufficient to attract a crowd and undoubtedly there will not be standing room at the opera house when he begins to speak.

The Congressman from the fourth has appeared in Holland twice—once with President Roosevelt when he was touring the west two years ago, and once with Congressman William Alden Smith and R. P. Bishop at a republican meeting. Both times he made a very favorable impression and it is doubtful if there is a man in the country that stands higher than he in the estimation of the people of Holland. He has won additional laurels as an orator since he was last here and his magnificent speech at the recent republican state convention is still fresh in the minds of the people of this state.

He created a sensation by a remarkably brilliant address in the national house of representatives last session, and it is a common saying among Washington statesmen that everyone of his speeches contain enough epigrammatic sentences to supply the sentiments for transparencies for a parade a mile long.

Come and hear Hamilton. Music by the West Michigan band.

Helme Turns Thunder Against His Democratic Friends.

Senator James W. Helme, of Adrian, one of the foremost democrats of the state, the man who came nearly defeating Judge Durand for the gubernatorial nomination at the democratic state convention, has caused consternation in the democratic camp by taking the campaign thunder meant for destruction of republicanism and turning it against his former democratic friends. He points out that he so called "corporation influence" cry which has been flung undeservedly at the republicans applies with great force to the men who dictated the nomination of the men who at present constitute the democratic ticket.

Senator Helme bolted the head of the democratic ticket because the state committee appointed E. L. Durand to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Judge Geo. H. Durand, his brother. One of his reasons for the bolt was that the "Durand nominations, both great and lesser, were manipulated by the corporate interests of the state and were pushed by former Cleveland officeholders for the purpose of securing the state delegation to the Cleveland democracy in 1904."

This week Helme comes out with a lengthy letter explaining his reasons for forsaking the head of the ticket. He closes his letter with the following summing up of his charges:

"That his (Geo. H. Durand's) chief manager in the convention was Mark W. Stevens, attorney for the Grand Trunk railway; that a second speech in the convention should be made by N. H. Stewart, attorney for the Michigan Central R. R. That every other railroad attorney in the convention was enthusiastically for him? In the face of these facts I determined to support Geo. H. Durand, and I did; but after his sickness, when the same crowd of Stevens and company, insisted that no one should go on the ticket except some one they should dictate, when W. R. Shelby, vice president of the C. & P. & I. R. A., in an interview, stated that the nominee must be a man similar to Mr. Durand, when it was announced in an evening paper that W. R. Burt, president of the Ann Arbor R. R., was expected to give $1,000 to L. T. Durand's campaign fund, matters got too thick for me."

Senator Helme in his first manifesto giving his reasons for bolting makes the following statement:

"I propose to appeal to the great Democrat masses, the farmer and laborer who received no money to attend conferences in Detroit and Grand Rapids, but whose hearts are true to the Democrat principle, to go to the polls and rebuke these manipulators by scratching the head of the ticket."

What Protection Has Done.

What has protection done for America? An observant Englishman has told a part of the story in his complaint that America has invaded Europe. He complains that the Englishman who a few years ago supplied the world, today sits down to his breakfast made of cereals manufactured in Michigan, beefsteak from Chicago, a slice of bacon from New York, and bread made from Minneapolis flour. On the way to his office he rides in a car built in New York, propelled by electrical machinery made in Schenectady, over a railway constructed by American engineers, largely of American material and projected American capitalists. When he enters his office, if he is up-to-date, he sits in a revolving chair made in Chicago, before a roll top desk made in Muskegon or Buffalo; his letters are written on a typewriter made at Ilion, N. Y., he signs them with an American fountain pen, dries the ink with a New England blotter and files his letter copies in files manufactured at Grand Rapids. If he goes to the races for pleasure he sees the highest stakes won by an American horse ridden by an American jockey. And when he reads his evening paper he finds that European nations are having battleships built in American ship yards, learns that an American artist is to paint the coronation of King Edward and that 40,000 gold, silver and bronze medals ordered by the King to commemorate that coronation were made in Massachusetts; that the Emperor of Germany had his royal yacht built in New York and sent Prince Henry across the Atlantic to attend the launching when the daughter of the American President should christen it.

These are some of the changes of which the Englishman complained and they are largely due to the policy of protection to American labor which developed American industry and enterprise until it invaded the old world and made the Britons fear that some American would come along and annex the British Isles as a museum of antiquity when free trade ruled the world. The Democrats would, however, stop the wheels of progress and again change the current of business from England to the United States instead of allowing it to continue from the United States to England, Continental Europe and all the world.—Muskegon Chronicle.

Gen. Alger Disproves Accusations of Critics of Gov. Bliss.

Gov. Bliss' enemies, unable successfully to disparage the honorable conduct of his office, have sought to create a prejudice against him by asserting that he is "weak."

A terse, sharp, vigorous reply comes from Gen. Alger, who, from long acquaintance, is peculiarly qualified to pass judgement on the governor's characteristics.

A letter just received from the new senator to the Detroit Journal says:

"The constant talk of the weakness of Gov. Bliss, our candidate for governor, has led me to make a statement that should, I think, be carefully considered by every voter in the state."

The governor was born in New York, reared on a farm, and at a very early age was thrown upon his own resources, having no aid from others. He enlisted as a private in Co. D, Tenth New York Cavalry; was promoted to be first lieutenant, and later to be captain for bravery on the field of battle. He served three years and five months. He came to Michigan in 1866 and went into the lumber business and that without means. He has amassed a handsome fortune, has always been most generous with his money, his pocketbook and front door always open to those who need help.

Officially he served as alderman, on the board of supervisors in this city and county, a term in the state senate, one term in congress, has served one term as governor of the state of Michigan, and the records will show that his administration has been one of constant hard work by the executive, economical and well conducted. Why should a man with such a record be called weak?

R. A. ALGER.

Detroit, Oct. 6, 1902.

The Banner Fruit County.

Berrien county claims the banner as the greatest fruit producing county in the middle west. This year's crop aggregates a value closely bordering $1,000,000. Although the peach crop was not up to standard there this year Berrien county had heavy shipments from the beginning of the season. The acreage in strawberries was 2,600 and there were 275,000 cases shipped from that section, from which the grower realized $275,000. The raspberry acreage was 2,750 and the yield was 115,000 cases. The blackberry acreage was 2,900 acres, yielding a crop of 160,000 cases. Raspberries and blackberries commanded an average price for the season of $1 per case. The sum realized from berries alone was $550,000. The berry raising business proved very profitable.

Transfers recorded in the office of the register of deeds show that farm property has sold as high as $1,000 per acre on Lake Shore drive, just south of the city.

The grape yield this year is in the neighborhood of 1,250,000 baskets, and they brought the banner price this year, an average of 11 cents per basket. The estimated amount paid by buyers and commission men for Berrien county grapes is $137,500.

The apple acreage this year is 8,585. A conservative estimate of the yield is 450,000 bushels, with an average price of 95 cents a bushel. Half of the pears raised in Michigan this year came from Berrien county soil, there being a total acreage of 1,750. The crop has been 33,000 bushels, the average price being 75 cents a bushel. There are 305 acres of plums with a shipment of 5,000 bushels, the receipts from which have been $4,000. There were 195 acres of cherries with a yield of 3,000 bushels bringing $3,200. The estimated shipment of peaches from the county is 100,000 bushels, the receipts being $75,000.

Big M. C. Earnings.

Much has been made of the fact that the Michigan Central railroad company may bring suit against the state of Michigan to recover damages resulting from the repeal of its special charter by the legislature, and the necessity of having incorruptible state officials to represent the state in that litigation.

Without evidence on which to base the amount it has been declared that the state would be sued for $27,000,000. These worn statements of the company officials as to the earnings of the road, however, raise the question of whether a jury can be convinced that the Michigan Central has sustained a loss by reason of the charter repeal for it is shown that during the first eight months of this year, after the two-cent rate went into effect, the Michigan earnings on the road were $130,000 in excess of those of the first eight months of 1901.

Commissioner Osborne's statement for August shows that earnings in Michigan of all railroads were $4,250,301.17, an increase of $302,963.97 over August, 1901, or almost 8 per cent.

Seminary Lecture.

The Rev. G. H. Dubbink will deliver the first of the series of lectures before the Western Theological seminary, in Semelink Hall on Monday evening next, Oct. 13th at 7:30 o'clock. Subject "The Minister's use of the Bible." A cordial invitation is extended to all.

General Items.

A McBain merchant recently sent a statement of his account to one of his lady customers, and she replied that she could not possibly pay it as she had to educate her daughter. This considerably riled the aforesaid merchant, and he wrote her that he must have the money as he had two daughters to educate. He got the money.

A good old deacon in central Eaton county is entitled to boast that he told them so. For years he has protested against robbing the interior of the earth of its oil. He said the Lord put it there to lubricate the axis of the earth, and predicted dire calamities from hot boxes, otherwise known as volcanoes.

The United States imports a million lobsters a year. We do not know about this, but we are sure there are ten million native lobsters which might be exported with profit.

Mrs. Sarah A. Baldwin of Garfield, avenue, Bay City, has in her possession the ballot box used in the Republican convention held in Chicago, May 16, 1860, when Abraham Lincoln was first nominated for the presidency, writes a Bay City Correspondent. Mrs. Baldwin's husband was on the Chicago police force at the time and was stationed at the door of the convention hall. After the convention closed Mr. Baldwin took charge of the box which is strongly made of half inch black walnut, 18x12 inches and 10 inches high. At the time it had a strong iron lock, but this has been lost. Mr. Baldwin used it to store personal papers in until the time of his death, and Mrs. Baldwin therefore considers it doubly precious.

A Kalamazoo negro with a pipe in his mouth and a basket of bottles in his hand walked into a 15-foot hole and landed right side up, uninjured, with the bale of the basket in his mouth and the pipe in his hand. He doesn't know how he did it.—Exchange.

Without doubt it is a man's privilege to blow up his wife if he so wishes. A Grand Ledge man went about it, however, in such a way that he landed in jail. He put a couple of sticks of dynamite under her house and tried to explode the stuff, but was detected and arrested before he was successful.

Passersby on a street at Houghton saw a young man gazing into a photographer's revolving show case and acting as though he was crazy. What attracted him was a picture of a girl in a bridal dress. The young man explained that he was from Rides Junction and that the picture he saw was one of a girl who had promised to marry him and then ran away with another fellow.

Samuels of New York, has written to President Roosevelt offering him a tract of mining land in Kentucky to be mined by the government without compensation to the donor, during the continuance of the strike. Mrs. Samuels says she makes the offer simply because the property is idle. She will leave the details of working the property entirely to the President.

Curtis M. Waffle, the well known newspaper writer who moved from Ottawa station to this city a short time ago, met with an accident yesterday morning that will lay him up for some time. While working at the Pare Marquette freight depot a heavy piece of iron fell on his left foot bruising it severely. Dr. J. A. Mabbs attended him.

Mrs. A. C. Keppel delightfully entertained a company of ladies yesterday afternoon at her home. A musical contest afforded much amusement for the ladies. Mrs. W. Wing captured the first prize. The vocal solos provided by Mrs. G. J. Diekema and Mrs. Wing were pleasing features. The rooms were prettily decorated with palms, carnations and nasturtiums. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Moerdyke assisted in receiving the guests.

WHAT THE NEW YORK WORLD OF SUNDAY, SEPT. 7, SAYS ABOUT "MALTA-PURA."

MALTA-PURA.

The recent output of the Battle Creek Health Beverage company is expected to attract general attention throughout this country. The medical department has prepared from the formula furnished by the celebrated German chemist, Prof. Kurtz, a tonic with malt as the basic stimulant. It is in liquid form, is sold for medicinal as well as family purposes and besides being exceedingly agreeable to the taste, affords an invigorating tonic to the system. As a medical tonic equally as a pleasant drink it is sure to become very popular. It has been found to be successful in all pulmonary troubles, as an aid to digestion and in cases of consumption, la grippe and pneumonia. A great point in favor of this tonic is that it possesses none of the deleterious effects usually found in stimulants. Malta-Pura has only been on the market a few months, but it has entered at once into wide popularity, making an enlarging of the plant necessary. As it is absolutely unique as a tonic, it is sure to occupy a place all its own and has already found great favor upon the social buffet as well as the sick room. The city of health foods is a fitting place for the manufacture of this unusual health drink. The company is now prepared to fill orders throughout the entire country. It is unusual for any tonic to receive such unanimous indorsement from medical as well as social circles as has Malta-Pura. For sale by druggists. 37-6f.

PRESIDENT SEES PARADE

Reviews the Veterans of the G. A. R. as They March Through Washington's Streets.

GIVEN WARM RECEPTION BY SOLDIERS.

Remnants of the Magnificent Armies of Grant, Sherman, Thomas, Slocum and Sheridan, which Shared in Grand Review at Close of War, Again Pass Up Pennsylvania Ave.

Washington, Oct. 8.—President Roosevelt Wednesday reviewed the Grand Army parade in his carriage. He was carried downstairs from his room on the second floor of the temporary white house in an invalid's chair at 11:10 o'clock, and, amidst the cheers of a large crowd, was placed in the carriage, in which there was a board to support his injured leg. He was accompanied by Secretary Cortelyou and Col. Bingham, his military aid. His carriage was guarded by a platoon of mounted police, under command of Maj. Sylvester, superintendent of police. As the carriage appeared on the avenue, the president was greeted with loud cheers. The president stopped at the reviewing stand for a moment until the marshals of the parade and Rawlins post of Minneapolis, the right of the line, had passed, and then drove down the avenue to the Peace monument at the foot of the capitol. The veterans faced the carriage as the president drove by and saluted him. There was continuous cheering from the crowds as the president drove along.

company by Secretary Cortelyou and Col. Bingham, his military aid. His carriage was guarded by a platoon of mounted police, under command of Maj. Sylvester, superintendent of police. As the carriage appeared on the avenue, the president was greeted with loud cheers. The president stopped at the reviewing stand for a moment until the marshals of the parade and Rawlins post of Minneapolis, the right of the line, had passed, and then drove down the avenue to the Peace monument at the foot of the capitol. The veterans faced the carriage as the president drove by and saluted him. There was continuous cheering from the crowds as the president drove along.

Mrs. Roosevelt Takes Drive.
Less than 35 minutes were consumed in the journey. During its progress the president found that the board used to rest his limb was uncomfortable and it was discarded. When the white house was reached the president did not alight. Instead Secretary Cortelyou and Col. Bingham got out and, much to the surprise and delight of the waiting crowds, Mrs. Roosevelt emerged, entered the carriage and was driven rapidly away with the president. The drive had been arranged beforehand, but had not been announced. It took the President and Mrs. Roosevelt through the northwest section of the city.

The Parade.
The remnants of the magnificent armies of Grant, Sherman, Thomas, Slocum and Sheridan, which participated in the grand review at the close of the civil war, again Wednesday passed up the historic Pennsylvania avenue. The survivors of the bronzed, black-haired legions who marched 24 abreast for two days before President Johnson with flowers in the muzzles of their guns, and with victory and the hope of the future shining in their faces had become old white-haired men with their active service behind them. The ten years that have elapsed since the former review of the Grand Army here in 1893 have sadly decimated the ranks of the old heroes. Most of the prominent figures in the parade on that memorable occasion, including Gen. Benjamin F. Butler, who rode in a carriage, being even then too feeble to walk; ex-President Hayes, who marched on foot with his old comrades; Gen. Rosecrans, ex-Gov. Powell, the loyal governor of the Mountain State, and "Uncle Jerry" Rusk, who strided along at the head of the Iron brigade of Wisconsin, have gone to their last bivouac. But those who still remained trudged valiantly Wednesday to the sound of drum and fife. Proudly aloft they held their tattered battle flags and the vast multitude through which they passed, seeing in the thinned ranks visions of the battlefields of Vicksburg, Shiloh, Gettysburg, Chattanooga and Atlanta and camp fires stretching from the Potomac to the everglades of Florida, greeted them with cheers that fairly drowned the blare of the bands.

Accident During Parade.
While on his way to take his position in the line of March Wednesday morning Gen. W. W. Blackmer, of Boston, department commander of Massachusetts, was thrown from his horse. He was at once conveyed to his hotel, and although he was confined to his bed and has a physician attending him, it was announced that his injuries were not serious.

Carnegie Honored.
Edinburgh, Oct. 8.—Andrew Carnegie was presented with the freedom of Perth Wednesday in recognition of his benefactions to Scotland.

Labor Troubles in Switzerland.
Geneva, Switzerland, Oct. 8.—In view of the threatened general strike the government has ordered out additional troops.

CONFER WITH MITCHELL.

Leading Manufacturers Discuss the Coal Situation at Buffalo—Nothing Agreed On.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 8.—The conference between the committee appointed by the National Manufacturers and President Mitchell and his lieutenants held at the Iroquois hotel Tuesday afternoon did not result in any definite plan being agreed upon for the partial resumption of work in the anthracite coal fields, but members of the manufacturers' committee stated that they were greatly pleased with the progress made.

The following gentlemen represented the manufacturers at the meeting:

David M. Parry, president of the Manufacturers association, Indianapolis; George H. Barbour, of Detroit; Richard Young, of New York; Frank Leake, of Philadelphia, and John Maxwell, of Indianapolis. The miners were represented by President Mitchell, Secretary-Treasurer Wilson and District Presidents T. D. Nicholls, Thomas Duffy and John Fahy. The conference was held behind closed doors.

It is known that Mr. Mitchell was appealed to on the ground of humanity to concede every possible point so that the country might be saved from the hardships and sufferings incident to a coal famine, which seemed inevitable. In reply, Mr. Mitchell pointed out in substance that offers for conciliation already brought forth by those high in authority had been spurned by the operators. He would not place the miners in the position of supplicants for peace. They were willing to abide by the decision of fair arbitrators. As the matter now stood, a proposal from the operators was the thing to be expected.

ARE GOOD BONDS.

State and Municipal Securities Recommended as Basis for Public Deposits.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The committee appointed by Secretary Shaw, to pass upon the character and sufficiency of the state and municipal bonds as a basis for public deposits have received about $4,000,000 of these bonds, among them the issue of the following cities: New York, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Des Moines, Lowell and Trenton. The bonds of several states also have been favorably passed upon. The secretary allows in deposits 75 per cent. of the face value of these bonds when their market value is not below par.

PERISH IN A MINE.

Explosion of Fire Damp in a Washington Colliery Causes a Loss of Twelve Lives.

Black Diamond, Wash., Oct. 3.—An explosion of fire damp occurred Wednesday night between 9 and 9:30 o'clock in the south end of the fourth level of the Lawson mine, badly wrecking the mine and killing 12 miners. Fortunately no fire was started. Three bodies have been taken out. There are supposed to be nine more bodies in the mine. Three men were injured, one badly.

Fireman Killed.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 8.—Fast mail No. 8 on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, ran into a coal gate two blocks east of the depot at Galva early this morning, and is now in the ditch. Fireman Sands, living at Galesburg, was killed, and Engineer C. B. Johnson probably fatally injured. The entire train rolled down an embankment a dozen feet and the cars were badly splintered.

Ultimatum Is Sent.

Manila, Oct. 7.—Gen. Sumner, who is in command of the American forces on Mindanao island, has sent an ultimatum to the sultan of Bacolod, warning him to cease his opposition to the Americans, calling his attention to the results of the Maciu campaign, and promising him the same punishment if he continues his opposition. Whatever the sultan's reply may be immediate action against him is not probable.

Forest Fires Raging.

Oconto Falls, Wis., Oct. 8.—Forest fires are raging in the vicinity of the town of Armstrong, this county, and large amounts of logs on skids are in danger. Unless rain sets in the loss will be heavy. Men sent up to fight the fire report that they are unable to make any headway. A high wind prevails and dense smoke envelops the town.

Five Men Killed.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 3.—Five men were killed and three injured in a head-end collision between two freight trains in a tunnel near Cornwallis, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. The train carried several cars of cattle, which were all killed or injured.

All Are Pardon.

Havana, Oct. 8.—An order has been published in the Official Gazette pardoning all persons now under sentence for election frauds committed prior to May 20, when the Cuban republic was established, and suspending their prosecution in the courts.

Mexican War Veteran Dead.

Ottumwa, Ia., Oct. 3.—Daniel Carl, a veteran of the Mexican war, and for 35 years a justice of the peace, is dead at his home at Blakesburg. He is believed to have been the oldest white citizen of Iowa.

Accused Wife Acquitted.

Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 6.—Mrs. Ella Gallagher, charged jointly with Charles Haladay with the murder of her husband, James Gallagher, was acquitted after a trial lasting a week.

MITCHELL'S REPLY SENT.

Leader of the Miners Mails Answer to President Roosevelt's Proposition.

WILL NOT DIVULGE ITS CONTENTS.

Local Unions, as Far as Heard From All Vote for Continuance of Strike—Situation Throughout Anthracite Region Comparatively Quiet—Troops Being Rapidly Distributed.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 8.—President Mitchell has written his answer to President Roosevelt, but he declines to state what its nature is. The letter was dictated before noon and is now in the mails on its way to Washington. Mr. Mitchell will not give out the text of the letter because it would be discourteous to the president and whatever information the communication contained must come from Washington. In view of the statement issued by President Mitchell at one o'clock Wednesday it is hardly likely that the proposition of President Roosevelt for the men to go to work and have the condition in the coal regions investigated afterward was accepted.

Vote to Continue Strike.

The following official statement was issued from strike headquarters at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon: "At 12:30 noon 50 telegrams had been received from as many mass meetings in various sections of the anthracite coal regions, conveying the information that, by unanimous vote of the men on strike, all of whom attended such meetings, it was resolved that the presence of the entire United States army in the anthracite coal regions would not induce the men to return to work until the demands of the Shamokin convention had been conceded, the strike declared off by a delegate convention of mine workers or by the district and national officers."

Thus far the returns emphasize and substantiate the declarations of the officials of the miners' union made at the Washington conference, that the strikers are not deterred from going to work through fear of bodily harm.

Mitchell Goes to New York.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 8.—President Mitchell and the three district presidents left for New York at 3:05 p. m. on the Lehigh Valley railroad. Mr. Mitchell and his associates refuse to say what their mission was, who they will meet, or where they will stop in New York, and also decline to say when they will return.

Proceedings Against Railroads.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—Frank H. Thompson, of this city, began proceedings Wednesday in the United States circuit court to have the Philadelphia & Reading railway; the Central railway, of New Jersey; Lehigh Valley, the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, the Delaware & Hudson railroad and the New York, Ontario & Western railroad companies declared an illegal combination, because they are engaged in an unlawful restraint of the anthracite coal supply. Mr. Thompson also requests that the representatives of the companies "be restrained and prohibited from meeting together for the purpose of fixing the rate of coal or market price thereof."

Disorder at Williamstown.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 8.—The first outbreak of disorder since the marches and arrests of two weeks ago occurred at Williamstown Tuesday night, when an attempt was made to move 32 cars of coal from the siding of the Lykens Valley Coal company. The coal had been mined during last week and had been run through the breaker on Friday by men who refused to join the strike.

When the Summit Branch Railroad company attempted to move the loaded cars, the coupling pins were drawn and the engine had to back to the cars again. This occurred five times and there were some stones thrown at the cars. Finally the train men got the cars coupled and started off with the train amid the hoots and jeers of men and boys.

When the cars were taken through Wiconisco there was a demonstration and the train crew was jeered. Soon after the train passed a mob marched about the town and threw stones at the houses of men who had been working. No damage was done and the men ran away before they could be detected by the sheriff's deputies.

Effect of More Soldiers Uncertain.

Tamaqua, Pa., Oct. 8.—The Second regiment, of Philadelphia, state militia, arrived here Wednesday morning and encamped, and the Sixth regiment, from Chester and vicinity, will arrive during the afternoon. There is difference of opinion as to the effect that the presence of an increased number of soldiers will have on the strike situation, but if the mine workers voice their real sentiments the effect will be to strengthen the ranks of the strikers. Throughout the Panther Creek region the operators take an opposite view. The interest centers not in the fact that more troops are at hand, but that there is to be a determined and decisive test of strength between the mine owners and their men.

No threats are made against the guardsmen, and little trouble is anticipated. The general feeling is one of apathy. Business is at a standstill, and while a majority of the citizens would like to see the miners win their long drawn out fight, they want the struggle ended.

Reports from this region indicate that the operators made a slight gain in their working force Wednesday.

Answer It Honestly

ARE THE STATEMENTS OF HOLLAND CITIZENS NOT MORE RELIABLE THAN THOSE OF UTTER STRANGERS.

This is a vital question. It is fraught with interest to Holland. It permits of only one answer. It cannot be evaded or ignored. A Holland citizen speaks here. Speaks for the welfare of Holland. A citizen's statement is reliable. An utter stranger's doubtful. Home proof is the best proof.

Mrs. John Kloosterman, two miles of Zeeland, says: "For ten or twelve years I looked in vain for some medicine to free me from distressing kidney complaint. I suffered at intervals during that period with aching pains through the loins, twinges up and down the muscles of my back, irregular and unnatural condition of the kidney secretions and frequent attacks of dizziness. My son, John Kloosterman, a tailor, 133 East Eighth St., Holland, noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in the Holland papers and highly recommended by people who had used them. Thinking they might help me he procured a supply at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and sent them out to me. I noticed shortly after I commenced the treatment that it was doing me good and as I continued my condition improved. In my estimation Doan's Kidney Pills are by far the best remedy on the market."

WRECK AT GALVA, ILL.

Obstruction on Track Throws Train from Track—One Killed, Several Injured.

Galva, Ill., Oct. 8.—Fast mail train No. 8, pulled by engine 1,590, was badly wrecked near here at 11:40 p. m. Tuesday night. Fireman Mahlon Sands, of Burlington, was instantly killed and Engineer C. B. Johnson was thrown through the window of his cab, but not seriously injured. No others were injured except a few slight bruises were sustained by one of the mail clerks. The engine was completely wrecked and the train of four cars derailed. The engine ran into the embankment and fell upon its side at right angles to the track, pinning the unfortunate fireman beneath the tender. A coal gate had been dropped from the tender of a west-bound train and lay upon the south track. This caused the derailling of engine 1,590, of the fast mail.

Rear-End Collision Near Menlo Park Results in Death to One Person and Injury to Twelve Others.

The western express, known as No. 6, eastbound, a heavy train made up of four Pullman, three coaches and a postal and baggage car, was run into by a local passenger train from Philadelphia. It is understood that the dead man was either a baggage man or postal clerk, as both the baggage and postal cars were badly wrecked. Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 8.—An explosion in a one-story warehouse of the Moore & Handley Hardware company, adjoining the other buildings of the company on Powell avenue, near Twenty-first street, at 9:30 o'clock in the morning caused a fire which destroyed property valued at $200,000 before it was checked.

Anti-Ritualistic Crusader Dead.

Liverpool, Oct. 8.—John Kensis, the anti-ritualistic crusader, who was seriously injured September 25 at Birkenhead, near Liverpool, by being struck with a chisel thrown at him after he had addressed a meeting, died Wednesday of pneumonia, supervening from the wound.

Sage's Condition Favorable.

New York, Oct. 8.—The condition of Russell Sage, who has been suffering from a bad cold and was threatened with pneumonia, was reported Wednesday morning as favorable. He is at his country house at Cedarhurst, L. I., and it was said there that he had passed a comfortable night.

Lake Steamer Sunk.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 8.—A News special from Kincardine, Ont., says: The schooner Anna Marie, of Alpena, Mich., loaded with coal for the Kincardine waterworks, was wrecked here. Capt. Gordon and three of the crew, with Mr. Ferguson, of a rescue party, were drowned.

Serious Freight Wreck.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 8.—A serious wreck occurred at Manito Wednesday morning at 3:47 o'clock. Two freight trains crashed—a regular and a special, on the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis line. One man was killed and several injured.

IS A FROG FISH OR GAME?

Problem with Which Canadian Government Officials and Experts Are Wrestling.

The dominion of Canada has another and peculiar grievance against this country. Canada is a land in which frogs multiply and grow fat because of the immense stretches of waste places, yet because of the enormous demand for their legs in the United States the Canucks are fearful that unless restrictions are placed upon the killing of their native croakers there will be none left in the country.

The dominion department of marine and fisheries can do nothing practical, it appears, to stop this destructive export of frogs' legs until they determine whether the frog is fish or game. If a frog is a fish the department at Ottawa has the power to institute a close season for it. If, however, it should be decided that the frog comes under the category of game the question of a close season must be settled by the provincial authorities.

If the law officers of the different governments interested fail to come to an agreement on the subject the matter will probably be submitted to a committee of experts. Everybody agrees that something must be done to prevent the total destruction of a valuable article of both food and commerce. If it should be decided that the frog is neither fish nor game, it may be necessary, in order to secure a law for its protection, to obtain from the imperial parliament the passage of an amendment to the act of British North America.

FOUND IN A LETTUCE HEAD.

Fine Collection of Microbes Gathered from Its Leaves by a Scientist.

There is really such a thing as getting too much for one's money, as, for instance, when one buys lettuce at five cents a bunch and has a menagerie and a flower garden thrown in.

Even the casual consumer of salads occasionally has a temporary loss of appetite from the discovery of a large white scale or a small green worm among the crisp crinkles of his lettuce.

But these discoveries are only a faint suggestion of the glories of animal life which lurk undetected in those same inviting leaves. A man by the name of Ceresole, having found more than the usual number of insects, pasturing upon his plate of salad, went out into the market place and bought samples of lettuce, endive, radishes, celery and the like.

The wily Ceresole washed his marketing in sterilized water and examined the sediment. A simple microscopical survey revealed a luxuriant, if not pleasing, fauna of 52 species, comprising amoebae and anguillulae, along with the eggs of the Toenia, Oxyuris ascarides and Ankylostoma.

Not content with these pleasing revelations, the curious Ceresole undertook a bacteriological investigation and added to his previous discoveries a rich menagerie of microbes, including micrococci, staphylococci, streptococci, sarcinae.

There were others. But why enlarge upon the matter. Enough is enough. And the moral of this is you can't be too careful about washing your salads.

PROPHECY OF GLADSTONE.

One That the Grand Old Man Made Many Years Ago Which Has Come True.

Prophecies, even when the prophets are politicians, sometimes come true, says the St. James Gazette. Here is a notable Gladstone utterance which we can now look back upon as quite prophetic. Speaking or writing 25 years ago of the "menace which, in the prospective development of her resources, America offers to the commercial pre-eminence of England," the grand old man predicted that America, and America alone, "can, and probably will, wrest from us that commercial primacy. We have no title, I have no inclination, to murmur at the prospect. If she acquires it, she will make the acquisition by the right of the strongest; but, in this instance, the strongest means the best. She will probably become what we are now, the head servant in the great household of the world, the employer of all employed; because her service will be the most and ablest. We have no more title against her than Venice, Genoa or Holland has had against us."

Draw for Partners.

Parisian hostesses have invented a new method of dealing with one of the principal difficulties incident to dinner parties—that of pairing off the guests. On arriving in the drawing-room the guests find two baskets of flowers. Hidden in the blossoms are numbered tickets. The men are requested to shut their eyes, put a hand into one basket, adorned with forget-me-nots or some other blue flower, and pull out a card. The ladies perform a like ceremony, drawing their tickets from a bower of pink blossoms, generally roses. The corresponding numbers then look for each other, and, having sorted themselves out, pair off and go in to dinner.

Great Britain is Small.

Great Britain is only half as big as Sumatra, and double the size of Newfoundland. It stands fifth in point of size in the list of the world's islands. England, without Wales, is almost identical in point of size with Roumania. It is less than one-quarter as big as France or Germany. The whole British isles occupy only one-sixteenth part of the surface of the globe.

KENNEDY'S SNEAK.

BY JOHN R. SPEARS.

When one of the woodmen at work on the West Canada creek was asked to tell about the most amusing incident in his experience as a log driver, he said:

"It was when we were driving Mill creek, above Noblesborough, the first time. The worst gorge on the west side of the Adirondacks is on that brook. It's more than a quarter of a mile long, and the walls are so steep it would make a fly dizzy to climb them, save at a point on the west side, where a split in the rock makes down to the water. Of course, the logs jammed into the gorge, and we had to work between the walls, with no chance to get ashore when the jam started unless we could reach that split.

"And that wasn't the worst of it, and it isn't the worst now. At the mouth of the gorge, where the alders grow down to the water's edge, where a man that got carried down from the jam might think he'd have a chance to get ashore, the stream takes a pitch down, as steep as a shed roof, for two rods, and then it jumps over a 20-foot fall into a pot that is perhaps 80 feet deep.

"There wasn't anything funny about the gorge, nor the falls. But old Bill MacGavock was alive, then, and he came to Noblesborough for the sake of the booze when we gathered there. Old Bill was the worst nuisance you ever saw. He'd fawn on a man, or abuse him like a dog, according to whether the fellow would stand treat or not, but he'd been a good man in his day, and the boys were sorry for him, generally.

"This time, however, he wore us all out, for we were at the hotel two days, and so when he went to Weldon Kennedy, the foreman, for the price of a drink, Weldon called him down for fair, and then said:

"I ain't forgettin' that you used to be a good man, Bill, and we, all of us, take a drop too much, now and then. So I don't mean to be too hard on you, and if you'll just keep away from us until we've cleaned the gorge, to-morrow, I'll give you the price of a quart. But you're to let us all alone, and you're to come to me for the money, while I'm on the trail. I won't have you abusing us around the hotel here any more."

"Old Bill blinked hard at that but he saw Weldon was hot under the collar, and there was no other way but to let the boys alone.

"We forgot all about the matter next day, you may be sure, for working the logs through that gorge was a job to turn your hair gray. Along about two o'clock in the afternoon they were piled 20 feet high from wall to wall, beginning a rod below that split I mentioned, and five of us, Weldon in the lead, went down on the face of the jam to see what we could do, and after rolling off 30 or 40 sticks thrown up loose, the serious work began.

"We could feel that the logs had dammed the water back and that the jam might yield to the pressure at any minute, and spread us out through the white water that was dancing between us and the falls, but there was no waiting for what might happen. We just clamped on to the pieces next to a big boulder in midstream, and for ten minutes we heaved and pried at them without doing more than to turn a dozen or so loose. Then Weldon put his peavy on a ten-inch standing end up. With one pry he started it rolling around the boulder, and with that everything seemed to melt from under us, and the jam was broken.

"It was all so unexpected that I lost my balance and fell sprawling, but Weldon with a lift got me on my feet, and the way I climbed for the shore wasn't slow. And I made it, too, but Weldon, though his fingers reached the edge of the openings, had lost his chance by stopping to help me, and the next minute he was adrift in the tumble of water, riding logs as we never saw a man ride before, but heading for the falls, in spite of all he could do.

"Over to the alders, boy! Over to the alders!" yelled one of the men, as we all went tearing along the top of the precipice, but he was already doing that the best he could. From log to log he went, jumping breast high, more than once, to make it, but the strain was wearing him down, and when at last he reached the head of the rapids and made a leap for the alders, he fell a foot short of them, and disappeared.

"He's done for," said I, but the words were no more than out of my mouth, when we saw a tremendous commotion in the brush on the bank above the rapids and then down came old Bill MacGavock with a flying leap and plunged into the rapids. It looked like suicide to do it, but he caught a good grip on an alder with one hand and with the other he clutched Weldon by the hair.

By the time we reached them they were both on the bank, and then Old Bill turned on Weldon and said:

"You blankety blank sneak! You thought you could dodge me, did you? I was to meet you in the trail or go dry, was I? Well, we're in the trail now, and I'll take ten shillings for a quart of the best! Thought I wasn't watchin' ye? But I know what a miserly sneakin' cuss you be; yes, sir, I do."

"If you want to make any of the old-time loggers chuckle just ask them to tell you how Weldon Kennedy tried to sneak past old Bill MacGavock to save the price of a quart."—N. Y. Times.

Dainty Princess of Burma.

Your smile may break into wrinkles and make the perpetual joke that you have no teeth left; all the same, if you are a Burmese princess, you are privileged to laugh more than anybody, which really makes it worth while. Very dainty, very much the lady, were the princesses in a row, and in the black hair of every one of them sat a flower, a spray of white lilac or a rose, out of a box, and the more coquettish for that, says Anslee's Magazine. Powdered they were to assure detection; nay, to claim it; and round their slender throats hung strings of diamonds, white sapphires and topazes. Then the short white jacket, the gay silk square slipping off the shoulders, the tight-twisted petticoat of rose or yellow broche, and the ingenious bare instep over a velvet sandal. And in each little begemmed right hand a large pink cheroot, unlighted, cherished till the ceremonial moment should be past. Pretty pensioned princesses, waiting to acclaim a king in a frock coat, arriving by "special" and likely to be punctual.

How Napoleon Studied Law.

Among the Napoleon stories recently circulated is one which may be apocryphal, but is surely instructive. It is said that some one asked the emperor how he acquired his remarkable knowledge of the civil law. He replied that when a lieutenant he had been unjustly placed under arrest for ten days, and in the room where he was confined he found a digest of the Roman law. He spent his time absorbing the contents, and when he regained his liberty his head was stored with useful knowledge in that line.

TWO DEAD SHOTS.

Returned Soldiers from the Philippines Play Havoc with a Shooting Gallery's Targets.

A wiry-looking bronzed youth in a khaki uniform walked into a Philadelphia shooting gallery the other day and, picking up a rifle, began to make things hum, says the Philadelphia Press. There were four stationary balls-eye targets, representing men and animals, at the rear of the gallery, and on these the marksman rapped out a series of clanks that resembled realistic rendition of the anvil chorus. Then he took a fresh rifle and beat a tattoo on a pair of swinging targets. A row of several scores of clay pipes next received his attention, and the proprietor of the place spent a bad five minutes figuring out the time and money it would require to replace the shudders that were snapped off. Several glass targets in motion were pie for the youth behind the gun. The only thing breakable remaining was a glass ball supported by a dancing water jet. This the marksman failed to smash, though he spent half an hour and considerable ready money in an endeavor before leaving. "Darn those fellows from the Philippines!" exclaimed the shooting gallery man. "That's the second one to clean me out to-day. If it hadn't been for that glass ball on the water I'd have come out to the bad both times."

NATIONALITY IN FEET.

Peculiarities of the Feet of the Old World.

National characteristics are many and varied and scientists are always discovering new things in which we differ from our neighbors on the continent. The latest of these is feet, says London Answers. The French foot is narrow and long. The Spanish foot is small and elegant—curved—thanks to its Moorish blood—corresponding to the Castilian's pride of being "high in the instep." The Arab's foot is proverbial for its high arch. The Koran says that a stream of water can run under the true Arab's foot without touching it. The foot of the Scotch is high and thick; that of the Irish, flat and square; the English, short and fleshy. When Athens was in her zenith, the Grecian foot was the most perfectly formed and exactly proportioned of that of any of the human race. Swedes, Norwegians, and Germans have the largest feet, Americans the smallest. Russian toes are "webbed" to the first joint. Tartarian toes are all the same length.

BAR BIG BANANAS.

The Large Fruit Is Nearly Always Selected by Purchasers, But It Is the Poorest.

It comes natural to everyone to get "as much as he can for his money," but in endeavoring to do so he is often led astray. The biggest is not always the best, and this applies even to such a common thing as the fruit sold in shops and streets, says London Answers.

A London dealer who has handled tons of fruit said recently: "It is often amusing to see men, women and children picking out, as they believe, the choicest fruit at the shops and off barrows. If there are half a dozen big oranges within sight, they will have them, even if it is necessary to overturn all other varieties that are sold by the piece of dozen."

"They invariably get the poorest specimens of the whole lot, and yet are not aware of it. It is only rarely you find a person who is a good judge, and he will at once size up the heaviest oranges, lemons or bananas, regardless of size, and gets the choicest fruit."

A FLORIDA DISENCHANTMENT.

Eighty-Horse Electric Power to Do the Work Formerly Done by Six Mules.

Down in Florida a few years ago one of the famous summer resorts was a small street railroad—a little affair that did not amount to much, but was supposed by its proprietors to be sufficient for all ordinary purposes, relates the Electrical Age. One day in the course of a discussion the owners were accused of being old fogies and behind the times. "Why don't you get together and be up to date?" they were asked. "You really ought to have a modern equipment for a place of this character, instead of an old road of mule-drawn cars that date back to the fifties." After considerable deep meditation and with many misgivings the road was ordered changed to an electric line, and an 80 horse-power equipment was ordered. The outfit arrived and was installed, but for some reason failed to operate properly. An outside expert was then called in to examine the plant and locate the trouble. At a special directors' meeting he reported that the rated efficiency of the plant was 80 horse-power, and that 80 horse-power were being used for the actual operation of the road. At this one of the directors jumped up and exclaimed excitedly: "Eighty horse-power for what we used to do with six mules? I guess we had better go back to the mules."

A Despondent Train.

"The young lady rushed in front of the train, which was dashing along with suicidal intent."—Philadelphia Press.

Additional Local.

A special meeting of the congregation of Hope church will be held next Tuesday, Oct. 14, at 7:30 P. M. The object of the meeting is to consider a plan for remodeling the old church and to discuss other matters of importance.

The seven-year-old son of John Groote of Allendale was bitten on the big toe by a rattle snake Tuesday while running through a corn field. The leg swelled to twice its natural size and the boy became delirious. He was brought to the office of Dr. J. W. Vandenberg of New Holland Wednesday morning at about 1 o'clock and everything possible was done to check the effects of the poison. He is in terrible pain and no hope is held out for his recovery.

E. P. Stephan was in Chicago this week in the interests of James A. Brouwer's furniture store and his trip was fruitful of good results. He secured the best in the different lines carried by the big River street furniture store and as a result tempting bargains are now offered prospective purchasers. If you want good warm comforters that are capable of banishing the chill effects of the coldest nights, go to Brouwers. If you want linoleum, carpets, matting, rugs—in short if you want anything in the line of house furnishings go to Brouwers. You will not be disappointed.

The stage of the Lyceum opera house is undergoing a great transformation in the hands of Merrill Bros. Jack Merrill of Muskegon, formerly of this city is here helping his brother, Geo. E., and is paying particular attention to the fine work on the scenery. He is one of the best scene painters in the state and his work here is up to right standard. He has nearly completed the "street scene" and it is a fine piece of work. If it is a criterion for the remainder, the patrons of the opera house will not recognize the stage when the job is finished. Charles Doesburg, manager of the opera house, expects that every thing will be in readiness for shows in about two weeks.

Isaac Naaye who formerly lived on Kruizenga's island, is in the toils of the law. He was arrested by Marsha Kamferbeek yesterday on a charge of incendiarism. There was a fire in John Baker's barn near Waverly about 1 o'clock Thursday morning and the circumstances surrounding the blaze were such that Naaye is suspected of setting the fire. When daylight came neighbors discovered tracks leading from Naaye's house, about twelve rods from the barn, to a straw stack, then from the straw stack to the barn and from the barn back to Naaye's house. These tracks coupled with the fact that when the fire was put out some partly burned straw was found in the corner of the barn led to the arrest of Naaye. He was arraigned before Justice Van Duren last night and the date of hearing was set for next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Naaye furnished bail to the amount of $1,000.

Indian town was in an uproar on Wednesday evening. It appears that an Indian, Jacob Jackson and his brother, had been drinking heavily of older and became somewhat boisterous. Jacob Jackson made an assault upon Mrs. Kate Shagonaby, because she refused to accompany him to Athens, in Calhoun county. After pleading with the woman for some time, he became enraged and commenced beating her over the head with a club, cutting her over the left eye and otherwise injuring her. The woman managed to get away from the brute and ran to the home of John Boulder in company with her brother. Jackson also tore her hat to pieces and had it not been for the timely arrival of the injured woman's brother, she might have been a corpse before morning. After the woman arrived at the home of Mr. Boulder, that gentleman came to Hamilton and notified the sheriff but Jackson had flown.—Hamilton Echo.

After The Hazers.

Hazing has been the fashion in the high school for the past month but the authorities have commenced vigorous measures to put a stop to it. Deputy Marshal Bos placed 12 of the high school boys under arrest this afternoon and they are now undergoing a rigorous examination before Justice Van Duren. The officers are prepared to resort to extreme punishment to stop the practice.

Art Exhibit A Success. Public Schools Greatly Benefited.

The art exhibit in the high school building held through the courtesy of A. W. Elson & Co. of Boston is proving an unqualified success and the receipts have far exceeded the amount expected by those having the affair in charge.

When F. D. Haddock, superintendent of the public schools, made arrangements with the Boston firm to send the pictures for exhibition, he estimated that about $80 would be made for the school. Instead of $80 it is expected that $100 will be nearer the mark, as the public has patronized the exhibit far beyond expectation.

The pictures are fine samples of artistic skill and are of great educational value. In the collection are reproductions from the old and modern masters including some of the great masterpieces. Then there are reproductions of the great paintings showing Egyptian subjects; Greek and Roman architecture; Greek and Roman sculpture; and miscellaneous subjects such as St. Peter's and Vatican at Rome, the Amelins Cathedral, the Canterbury cathedral, Stratford-on-Avon, the house where Shakespeare was born, the room in which he was born and Ann Hathaway's cottage.

The pictures that attract the most attention are those relating to American history, and the portraits of distinguished Americans. Among the pictures are reproductions showing the Boston massacre, the signing of the Declaration of Independence, Washington crossing the Delaware, the capitol at Washington, Mount Vernon, the return of the Mayflower, and the first Sunday in New England.

Wednesday night additional interest was given the exhibition by the appearance of Will Breyman, Miss Mayze Markham, John Van Vyven, Ross Cooper and Will A. Thomas of Breyman's orchestra, who rendered several musical selections. Thursday evening music was furnished by an orchestra consisting of Louis McKay, Harvey Webb, Leon Rutgers and George Dok. Tonight the exhibition closes and a large crowd is expected.
