They have purchased 25,000 acres of land upon which derricks have been built and oil is being bored for. The drilling has so far advanced that oil is expected most any day. This part of West Virginia is noted for its coal, gas, and oil and the new Company with which Mr. Stanton is connected are in high hopes that they will soon strike a strata that will put them all on the easy street. Ed. Stanton is a graduate of Hope College and also of the U. of M. He is a dentist by profession and is doing well.

GLENN AUSTIN FARMERS PICNIC BALLOONIST LANDS ON ROOF IN ALLEGAN UNHURT

Glenn Austin the boy who made an ascension here on Farmers Picnic Day made a balloon ascension from the ball ground at Allegan last Saturday afternoon and the wind carried him up over the business portion of the city. He cut loose his parachute while over Locust Street and expected to land in the street. Instead he descended on the roof of the Burgess store on Trowbridge street. When assistance was hurriedly sent to the roof, he had his parachute rolled up and was ready to come down. The parachute had settled so gently and laid itself out on the roof ready to be rolled up. Two minutes after he landed Austin was down in the street with his big "umbrella" under his arm.

FOUR ALLEGAN COUNTY FARMERS WHO CAME TO THE FAIR HERE HAD AUTO SMASHED BY FREIGHT TRAIN

Tried To Fool Their Wives But Failed

A correspondent to the Allegan Gazette in his item from Chicora has the following about four men from that locality who came to Holland by auto leaving their wives at home:

"A party of four or our enterprising farmers went to the Holland fair last Friday. They decided not to inform their wives (except one) whence they were bound. Two of the wives left home after learning of their husbands' destination and decided also to be present at the Holland fair and started posthaste to catch a fast train to Holland, but they were too slow for the train was gone when they got to the depot. The men started home on the following Saturday morning when about three and one half miles out of Holland while crossing a railroad track they saw a freight train fast bearing down upon them. The driver had to put down all brakes and run his car into a ditch. Each man jumped not a minute too soon as the train crashed into the automobile. They boarded a train for Pullman and walked into Chicora."

KAISER MAY COME TO AMERICA Will Have Finest Farm In This Country

London, Oct. 1.—In the event of Germany's defeat in the big war, the Kaiser probably would take refuge in America. Ever since Germany began to make preparations for attack the Kaiser has been investing large sums of money on the other side of the Atlantic. He is one of the largest land owners in the western states but not in his own name of course. These investments indicate that the Kaiser, when he was preparing to stake the fortunes of his dynasty upon the attempted conquest of western Europe, also was preparing for the possibility of failure by consolidating his huge financial resources in the United States in case he has to escape to that part of the world. If he cannot conquer Europe the Kaiser means to have the finest farm in America.

There will be a reception held in honor of Rev. J. W. Esveld and family, in the M. E. church parlors Friday evening October 2nd at 8 o'clock. Under the auspices of the Men's Bible Class. All the members and friends of the church are cordially invited.

GYPSIES PICK MINISTER

THOSE HOLLAND FAIR GYPSIES MAKE RAID ON ALLEGAN AND OTSEGO

steals Five Dollars From A Domine

The band of gypsies who gave Holland a call during last week, making a raid on our business places, telling fortunes and blessing cash boxes and doing other stunts, known only among the vagaries of these moving tribes, also gave Allegan and Otsego a call. The Allegan Gazette last week gave the following item:

The band of gypsies that visited Allegan were possessed in unusual degree with that quality often found in them, boldness. As soon as they arrived, the women started through the business section after money. One of them was apparently an old hand at the business. She walked as fast as she could from store to store and tackled several men. In the Vahue news stand she reached into the inside pocket of Rev. S. E. Kelley and pulled out his wallet. She opened it and took out a five dollar bill for which she said she would tell the gentleman's fortune. Some men standing by surrounded her and made her give back the bill. In Bucher's jewelry store she labored hard to get Joseph Ely to yield to her entreaties. In Otsego where the dirty ones went from here they employed the same tactics and succeeded in gathering in something like $50 from various persons. The sheriff was called there but the gypsies had left the county when he arrived. They got out just in time to save trouble, for the officer had determined to arrest one of the women and keep her in jail a while. That treatment is just the thing for gypsies and Sheriff Ferris knows it. A few years ago a thriving band came through Allegan and one of the women was put in jail. The whole band were greatly disturbed when they found one of their women locked up and they came forward with rolls of money in effort to get her out. Finally, after putting up $50 in cash for a bail bond, the woman was liberated and the whole gang left as fast as their poor horses could take them. They have never been seen since and forfeited the bail money. In the country surrounding Allegan, this last band did some unequalled begging and stealing. In Watson, near Abnora, they helped themselves in most brazen manner to things in both houses and barns and were driven off one farm at the point of a revolver. They were the boldest crew that has roamed about Allegan county in a long time.

MAIL ORDER HOUSES BEATING THE PARCEL POST

Information comes from Lincoln, Neb., to the effect that the Chicago mail order houses, who have been commonly credited with being the chief beneficiaries of the parcel post plan and its chief sponsors, have discovered a way to beat it.

One of the greatest benefits they were expected to derive from it was in the cheaper rates for distributing catalogues, but the Lincoln story has it that they have worked the zone system to save expense even over that. To ship from Chicago would involve carrying the catalogues thru core than one parcel post zone, wherefore, it is said, they evolved the plan of shipping two car loads of catalogues, by freight to Lincoln, to be distributed by parcel post from that city instead of from Chicago.

It is estimated there were about 22,000 catalogues in the two cars, and that it saved them on an average of about 5 cents each on postage or a total of about $1,100.

HANGS SELF BY CORD AT SPRING LAKE HOME

Man's Feet Touched the Ground But Is Found Dead

A few hours after reading a chapter from the family Bible and offering prayer at the breakfast table on Wednesday morning, Peter Spoelma, aged 61 years, was found hanging by a fish cord from the joist of a rear shed of his home in Spring Lake near the business section.

Mrs. Spoelma found her husband dangling but a few inches above the floor of the shed and hastened to cut the cord but the husband died in a few minutes and could not be revived.

Coroner Boer of Grand Haven was called and pronounced death due to strangulation. The appearances were that the man had climbed up a few feet on some boxes while he adjusted the noose and after brushing the boxes away his feet touched the floor. It is the opinion of Coroner Boer that the noose was sufficiently tight to cause strangulation.

The wife noticed her husband's absence after breakfast and wondered where he could be. She noticed that the shed door was closed which was rarely the case. Then she went to the shed and looked inside to find her husband dangling with feet touching the ground. In her decrepit and crippled condition she could make but little haste toward calling for help or cutting the rope. Physicians say death was too near to save the man's life after he was found.

There was great surprise in Spring Lake when it became known that Peter Spoelma had committed suicide. Among those who knew him he was the last person who should be considered in such an occasion. To a few of his friends he had complained recently about ill health but appeared in no way desperate. After he was found and life was gone, Mrs. Spoelma told to the little group of listeners how her husband had seemed unusually cheerful at the breakfast table. He had read a long passage from the Bible and made a longer prayer than usual.

LOWER EXPRESS RATES FOR SMALL SHIPMENTS

Shippers of Larger Packages Have to Pay Larger Rate; After Oct. 1 Rates Will Be Lower Than Parcel Post

Grand Haven Tribune—On and after October 1, the several express companies of the United States will use the rates compiled by the recent railroad commission, which will materially reduce the charges heretofore prevailing on the small shipments. While those making larger shipments will have to pay a slightly larger rate the smaller shippers will benefit by the latest ruling of the commission.

For instance the present rate to Grand Rapids is 50 cents per hundred pounds and after October 1 will be 60 cents.

One pound now to Grand Rapids will cost 25 cents; after October 1 will cost 21 cents. To send 13 pounds to Grand Rapids after October 1, will cost 21 cents. With the present rates 83 per cent of the tariffs are lower than parcel post and when the new ones are in effect the rates will be decidedly lower, according to the figures.

RESORT CO. SQUABLE

MACATAWA RESORT COMPANY IS MADE DEFENDANT IN SUIT STARTED BY E. C. WESTERVELT SAYS

SOUTH BEND NEWS-TIMES

Object is to Determine Right of Company to Control Macatawa Park

The News was sent the following marked items published in the South Bend News-Times.

During the last week action has been brought in the circuit court at Grand Haven, Mich., entitled State ex rel prosecuting attorney vs. Macatawa Resort company. Attorney Stuart MacKibbin of South Bend appears for the plaintiff. The object of the action is to determine the right of the park company to control Macatawa Park, and the streets and various platted grounds thereof. This suit is of more than ordinary interest to South Bend people because of the fact that a large number of them are property owners in said park, and are virtually interested in knowing what the rights of the park company are.

The suit is of more than local interest because of the fact that there are a large number of these summer resorts companies operating in Michigan, and it is claimed that outside of one or two of them none of the companies are observing the law under which they are incorporated. This is not the first attempt that has been made in Macatawa Park to resist the pretensions of the company in controlling the grounds of the park.

The cottage owners association brought suit some years ago with Michigan attorneys and were defeated, but Edmund C. Westervelt of this city in two actions in the United States court, in both of which he was represented by Atty. Stuart MacKibbin of South Bend, was successful in his contentions against the park company.

The present case hits at the very existence of the park company and its right to do business, and is of interest in Michigan not alone in regard to Macatawa, but because of the large number of corporations doing business in that state in a similar manner.—S. B. News-Times.

There are no doubt two sides to this Resort Company matter and there is also no doubt but that the company in recent years has converted this popular resort into a veritable garden spot at a great expense not alone for construction but also for the maintenance. There must have been a considerable outlay of money and it seems as if the Resort company is entitled to some right in a place that they have themselves created into a livable spot. However, what the rights between cottage owners and the association are will without doubt come up in the trial of this case.

Wm. B. Kellogg, former manager of the Bell Telephone Co., but at present Division Superintendent of Traffic of the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Co., of Houston, Texas, is visiting relatives and friends in this city.

A SUSPICION VERIFIED

For many long, pale moons the voter has had his doubts concerning the campaign cigar. This feeling has become so prevalent that recently the government decided to make the manufacturers label the boxes, telling just what the campaign cigars contain.

It has remained to the city chemist of Cleveland, White by name, to expose the campaign cigar in all its ghastly wickedness. He made a chemical analysis of a cigar, and then he stopped smoking.

Following is what White says he found to be contained in a campaign cigar:

Feathers, 10 per cent.
Sawdust, 30 per cent.
String 12 per cent.
Ground out straw, 8 per cent.
Old rubber combs, 15 per cent.
Manila rope, 15 per cent.
Clover hay, 10 per cent.
Tobacco, 1 per cent.

It is a matter for congratulation that Chemist White lived to tell the tale, in all of its horror, to the public. He has confirmed a suspicion of long standing, and any man who accepts a cigar for his vote in the future will do so at his own risk. The warning has gone the length and breadth of the land, and it is hoped that the dream of decades may come true—the dream of a cigarless campaign.

Mr. Koolster claims the boys used indecent language and made considerable noise while down town. Att. C. C. Coburn represented the boys while Att. J. N. Clark represented the city.

The jury was composed of A. De Krulff, Tom Vander Pels, Peter Vandenberg, Dr. Neinhuis, Herman Derks and Tom Van Eenanaam and they disagreed, after debating for more than an hour and a half. They said there was no chance of agreeing, so they were dismissed by Justice Meyerling. A new trial will be held in the near future.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock from the home and at 1 o'clock from the Kolderoord church.

Saugatuck, Sept. 30.—A good deal of fruit is still being shipped by the Interurban to Grand Rapids and other points in the interior of the state. A special car was loaded by G. W. Reeks last week for points east of Grand Rapids. Buyers are here from Milwaukee and Grand Haven buying fruit for those places and the United States still continues to take large loads to Chicago. The crop is so large this year that without this boat it would have been a question whether or not it could have been handled. A large steam barge will carry the fruit after Sept. 27.

Saugatuck, Sept. 30.—Work on a mile of stone road in Saugatuck township has been begun and the first stone will be hauled in a day or two.

Derk Vanderkamp who has general supervision over the road in the eight Western Townships was here this week and grading has been done for three quarters of a mile south from the Douglas Village limits on the Hooter road. This was a good piece of road to grade and to get the required grade of not more than six feet to every 100 feet was comparatively easy.

The bargo Hennepin arrived last Wednesday afternoon with 3 grades of stone and unloaded on the Douglas dock till the dock caved in then brought the balance of the load to Saugatuck and unloaded on the Hamilton dock.

Last week one day a valuable canoe was taken from the beach in front of C. O. Smedley's cottage at Highland Park, Grand Haven. The boat was the property of Mr. Smedley's son and was one of the best craft of its class in local waters.

Sheriff Dijkhuis and other officers were notified of the theft. Deputy Sheriff Willard Stickney soon caught up a clew which resulted in tuck, from which place it was shipped back to Grand Haven.

the recovery of the canoe at Saugatuck.

It appears that a Grand Rapids young man, who often visited Highland Park took the canoe with the intention of making a cruise to Chicago from which place he intended going down the drainage canal to the Illinois river and down the Illinois and the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico. From the delta of the Mississippi it was his plan to paddle down the American and Mexican coast to Panama.

The trip was barely started when Saugatuck was reached a violent gale came up. The young man's plans were sadly changed and about this time also came the discovery by Officer Stickney that the canoe belonged to Mr. Smedley.

It is quite likely that there will be no prosecution in the matter. The young man claims to have made a mistake, thinking that he had taken a canoe, which a friend had told him he could take.

Helene Johanna, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jansen died Friday at their home two miles north of Holland on the Alptna road. The funeral services were held Monday at 11 o'clock from the home. Interment took place in the Graafschap cemetery.

The members of the Men's Adult Bible Class of Trinity Reformed church were royally entertained Friday at the Strabbling homestead, a few miles south of the city. The trip was made in auto. A huge bonfire was burning on the lawn and the men were seated around the cheerful blaze, were feasted on watermelons and grapes to their heart's content. When finally they had stowed away as much of the fruit as could be safely stored, they retired to the house to enjoy a short program.

Prof. Raap gave a short talk congratulating the men on what had been accomplished in the past and urged them on to still better efforts in the future. Gerrit Neerken gave two short selections. George Albers gave a reading and Roland Beens came across with an original poem entitled "Your Limitations" in which every member of the class received his share. After a rising vote of thanks to their genial hosts for their bountiful hospitality the class once more turned their faces homeward.

Jay Nichols, a Holland township fruit grower, will realize big returns from his seven acre apple orchard this year. The orchard comprises between 300 and 400 trees and the yield is so heavy that the branches are breaking under the strain. The average yield will be from 25 to 30 bushels per tree. The apple crop in this vicinity will break all records.

A peculiar coincidence in connection with the death of Mrs. Harm Ten Have of Holland township, whose funeral was held Wednesday noon, is the fact that her brother, Klaas Brouwer, of Los Angeles, arrived at her home for a visit last Saturday afternoon, to find her very ill from a sudden stroke of apoplexy. The aged woman died the following morning.

Mr. Brouwer arrived in Holland Saturday after his long journey from the Pacific coast. He called up the Ten Have's by phone and his two nieces told him they would at once start out after him by auto to bring him to their home. At that time Mr. Brouwer's aged sister, Mrs. Ten

Have, was in the best of spirits and was overjoyed because of the expected visit of the brother, whom she had not seen for a number of years.

The girls started and found Mr. Brouwer in Holland. After a few hours here they started on their journey home. Arriving there they found Mrs. Ten Have lying on the bed and in a stupor. A physician was called and he declared that the woman had suffered a stroke. She rallied toward evening Saturday and recognized and spoke a few words with her brother.

WAUKAZOO

Arthur Witteveen, a caretaker at Waukazoo, escaped what might have been a fatal injury when he was mysteriously hurt Friday while putting lubricating on a gas engine. There was a pit some eight feet deep under the engine and in some way Witteveen was struck and dashed into the pit. He managed to crawl out drag himself home altho he was bleeding so violently that he soon became unconscious. His nose was broken and he received a wound on his forehead. While the injury is very painful it is not dangerous.

ONE HUNDRED FARMERS ASKED TO TAKE PART IN PARCELS POST EXPERIMENT.

In An Attempt to Bring Producer and Consumer Closer Together.

At the solicitation of the postoffice department at Washington Postmaster Van Schelven and the local postoffice force are working out a plan here similar to that which is being tried out all over the United States. It is an attempt on the part of the postoffice department to reduce the high cost of living by bringing the producer and the consumer closer together. The theory of the department is that if a sufficient number of farmers in the country could get into direct touch with a sufficient number of consumers and could send the consumers their farm produce directly by parcels post, the cost to the consumer would be much less, while the farmer would get just as high prices and even better than he is getting now.

Postmaster Van Schelven, on request of the department, has sent to the department one hundred names of farmers on the Holland rural routes who would be best in position to take part in the big national plan. On its part the department has sent to these one hundred farmers blanks telling them how to proceed to take advantage of the plan.

So far as the hundred producers here are concerned, the plan will be worked out through the Detroit post office. The farmer can send his produce C. O. D. and no charge will be made by the postoffice department for the collection. Postmaster Van Schelven has given the following parcel post prices form here to Detroit merely to give the farmers an idea of what the prices are all along in the line: Five pounds, 9 cents; ten pounds, 14 cents; 20 pounds, 24c; 30 pounds, 34 cents; 40 pounds, 44c; 50 pounds, 54c.

The local postoffice is making every possible effort to co-operate with the Washington department in making the venture a success. Following is the notice that has been sent to the one hundred farmers along the local routes:

United States Postoffice
Detroit, Mich.
To the Producer:—
If you have farm produce to ship by parcel post to city consumers, fill out the blank below and mail it promptly to Postmaster, Detroit, Mich. Your name will then be included in the next list of Producers published by the Detroit Post Office on October 1. These lists are to be published on the 1st and 15th of each month; are distributed to the public in Detroit and will doubtless bring you steady customers. You can send 50 pounds from your farm to Detroit at a nominal rate by Parcel Post. Ask your Postmaster or Rural Carrier to explain it to you and to tell you how you can ship produce by Parcel Post, C. O. D. Write plainly in ink, giving your full address and mail me this blank without delay. A copy of the list containing your name will be sent to you.

WILLIAM J. NAGEL,
Postmaster.

All Tired Out

Hundreds More in Holland in the Same Plight

Tired all the time;
Weary and worn out night and day;
Back aches; headaches,
Your kidneys are probably weakened.
You should help them at their work.

Let one who knows tell you how: "The first symptom of kidney trouble that I noticed was backache," says Mrs. E. A. Milner of 185 E. 5th street, Holland. "I had sharp twinges through my hips and loins, when I stooped over and tried to get up I got so dizzy that I could hardly stand. I had pains in the back of my head and I felt tired all the time. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and caused much annoyance. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I used them, and they did me so much good that I took about four boxes altogether. They relieved me of the trouble. It is a pleasure to confirm the endorsement I gave Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago. I think that if a person would only take this remedy as directed, it would cure one of kidney diseases."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Milner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

WILL SPEND SEVERAL DAYS IN HOLLAND LOOKING UP CONDITIONS.

Henry W. McCabe, state inspector of factories, workshops, hotels and stores began his usual annual inspection of Holland yesterday.

Mr. McCabe is from Paw Paw, Michigan, and he comes through Holland once a year looking over conditions here and gathering statistics in regard to number of employees and conditions in the various factories and places of business. He will be in Holland all of this week and part of next week before the job has been completed. The statistics gathered in this way are published annually by the state.

ZEELAND COUNCIL MAY MAKE PROVISION AT JAIL FOR EMERGENCY CASES

Because of the tragic death of Eugene Gill, a hobo who was killed near Zeeland in a Pere Marquette accident Saturday night, it is possible that the Zeeland common council may take steps to provide better equipment at the city jail for emergency cases of this kind. The question was discussed in an informal way by the Zeeland aldermen and it is likely that definite steps will be taken.

Gill was taken to the city jail when he was injured Saturday night and it was not until later that it was discovered that he was seriously injured. When it was determined that he was fatally injured he was taken to a Zeeland restaurant for want of better accommodations anywhere.

Sensational stories have been circulating in Zeeland and Holland the past few days that Gill though fatally hurt, had been thrown into jail and neglected there. Upon investigation these stories were found to be without basis in fact. The Zeeland authorities are still waiting for the man's relatives to claim his body.

JOHN ARENDHORST WILL ENGAGE IN CANDY BUSINESS SOON.

John Arendshorst is making arrangements to open a new candy store in Holland. He has leased the Vandersluis building, formerly occupied by a coffee and tea company, and in a few days he expects to have the place in readiness for business. The name of the store will be "The Quality Candy Shop." Mr. Arendshorst is now busy putting in the fixtures, which will be of exceptional beauty. They will all be in cherry finish and the owner of the firm expects to make it the most beautiful and up to date in the city.

BURTON HARRINGTON CHARGES SHERIFF FERRIS AND MAX SHORT OF ALLEGAN WITH FALSE IMPRISONMENT

Case Is An Aftermath of Zeeland Jewelry Store Robbery of Two Years Ago; Suit Filed Last Week

Through his attorneys, Vlasscher & Robinson, who are being assisted by Att. S. O. Smedley of Grand Rapids, Burton Harrington, living in Allegan county, south of this city, has filed suit against the Allegan county sheriff Velney Ferris and his deputy Max Short, for $5,000 damages charging false imprisonment.

The case is an aftermath of a jewelry store robbery in Zeeland about two years ago. At that time Harrington was taken into custody without a warrant according to the complainant in the suit, and was detained in the Allegan jail for several days. He was finally arraigned before Justice Cook in Allegan on a charge of receiving stolen goods. He was released now with both the robbers of the Zeeland stores behind the bars, Mr. Harrington has commenced his suit for damages.

The robbery in Zeeland at the time caused considerable of a sensation and the robbers were finally caught after a prolonged search for them, ending in their capture in Chicago. After they had been caught with the goods on them, they made very little of a fight and were sent to prison soon after their return here. They have served two years of their time now.

Sears McLean's Car Badly Damaged In Smashup

Sears McLean's automobile was badly damaged Tuesday afternoon in a collision with an automobile driven by Miss Marion Tilt on West Twelfth street. The automobiles came together head-on. The occupants escaped without injury. Tilt's car, much larger than the other car was but slightly damaged.

TEN COWS OF TWO OVERISEL FARMERS WERE ORDERED KILLED.

Meat Is Sold To Grand Rapids Parties Under Supervision of Inspectors.

Holland people just escaped having ten cows unloaded on them after the cattle had been condemned for tuberculosis. The owners after having had the animals condemned, decided to sell the meat to Holland string buyers, but because of the proximity to this city, they feared that the local people would learn of the reason for the killing of the cattle and would refuse to eat the meat.

All this sounds as though the owners of the cattle have done something reprehensible in selling the meat of the diseased cattle which is not the case. The meat was sold to string butchers with the permission of a Grand Rapids inspector and with the permission of State Inspector Harper. Perhaps no person would be willing to eat meat which he knew came from a cow condemned for tuberculosis, but the state law is such that under certain restrictions animals so condemned can be sold.

The cattle belonged to a Mr. Woltering and a Mr. Vander Kolk, living near Overisel. Seven cows of the former were condemned and three of the latter. They sold the herd to a string butcher in Jamestown and he in turn disposed of the meat to Grand Rapids dealers, under the supervision of State Inspector Harper and Grand Rapids Inspector Smith.

HOLLAND HIGH TO MEET OLD GRAND HAVEN RIVALS OCTOBER 31 AND NOVEMBER 14.

Two games have been scheduled between the Holland High school foot ball team and the team of the Grand Haven High. The first game will be played in Grand Haven on October 31 and the second game here on November 14. Holland and Grand Haven are old rivals, and there was a good deal of disappointment when at first it was thought that they would not be able to meet one another on the gridiron this fall. Strenuous efforts were made to arrange dates and this finally proved successful. While Holland has a strong schedule this year there is perhaps more interest in the two games with Grand Haven than in any others.

NOTED SPEAKERS WILL BE HERE TO TAKE CHARGE OF OF THE SERVICES

Jones, Montana, chaplain of the National Order, of Gldeons. He will be assisted by W. F. Clement's Male quartet of Benton Harbor. Services will be held at 10:30 a. m., and at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

HIGHSCHOOL FOOT BALL TEAM TO GET SWEATERS OF MAROON AND ORANGE.

This year the Holland High school football team will be in uniform and the spectator can easily pick out a maroon and orange sweater from under a pile of players. 12 sweaters were ordered Saturday by the athletic association. The sweaters will only be worn in a game and are to be the property of the high school. The sweaters are maroon color with a four inch orange band around the chest.

LOOKS FOR COLTS, FINDS THEM DEAD OF POISONING

M. R. Hannish who lives in the western part of Blendon township, went Friday night to a distant pasture to see how his three colts were. The colts had been running there all summer and Mr. Hannish had seen them at least once a week when he carried salt to them. When he reached the gate of the field he failed to see the colts as usual, so he started hunting for them. He finally found them in a secluded spot in the field, near the woods, and all three of them were dead. There were no marks of violence upon their bodies, but they were greatly bloated. He opened their stomachs and in each found enough paris green to kill all the horses in the township. As no paris green had been used near that field Mr. Hannish is at a loss to know how the colts got it. There seems to be but one conclusion and that is that some evil-minded person gave the colts the poison on purpose. That it should be his colts that were poisoned astonishes Mr. Hannish as he does not know that he has an enemy in the world. The three colts were worth $500.

Representative of Local Company Is Injured Near Grand Rapids

Frank De Bruyn a traveling representative of the Holland Furnace company, suffered severe injuries near Grand Rapids Tuesday when his automobile turned over. With him was Miss Nora McKerral, who also was badly injured. They were found by Kent County Motorcycle Officer Cook.

"Cook righted their machine, ran it onto road, and then loading the injured into the car, drove it to St. Mary's hospital, where Dr. W. D. Lyman was called to attend them. He found both badly hurt, Miss McKerral seriously. She suffered internal injuries to her spine, the nature of which can not be determined until the X ray machine is used. She was paralyzed from the waist down Tuesday.

JAMESTOWN MAN LANDS FISH OF 40 POUNDS

Finally Land Monster Muskalonge Out of Brandt Lake After Long Siege; Will Have Fish Embalmed

William Hayden, living near Caledonia, made a record catch in the Brandt lake near Jamestown. He and his son Henry, arrived at the lake before daylight in their automobile and began trolling. They had rowed less than half way round the lake when the big fellow made the strike that nearly upset the boat. Mr. Hayden slowly towed him toward the boat, when fish was not towing the boat, and finally succeeded in gaffing the big muskellonge and hauling him into the boat. The fish was 41 inches long and weighed 39 1/4 pounds.

This is the first muskellonge that has been taken at Brandt lake in several years and is thought to have come up from the river last spring.

Mr. Hayden will send his fish to a taxidermist in Grand Rapids to be embalmed.

ALLEGAN FAIR NOW ON

Allegan, Sept. 30—The 63rd annual exhibition of the Allegan county agricultural society, the Allegan fair is open. Without any doubt the event will eclipse any and all previous ones. Last year the horse and cattle barns were inadequate and all over the grounds there was a cry for more space. The same is true this year and this, too, in spite of the fact that additions were built to several buildings. Allegan county people certainly have a fair fever. The display of Holstein cattle is fine. There are some 60 animals of that breed. The display of apples is the finest ever shown.

There is a double row of midway on the fairgrounds with every other means of entertaining folks and getting their money. Among the race features will be a steeplechase.

"WHAT'S YOUR HURRY KIDDO"

Listen daughter. Don't cry and don't make your mother think that her little lamb has been abused. Yes I know that the stranger spoke to you. Disrespectfully, you say? Called you "Kiddo!" Well daughter, perhaps the man thought you answered to the name of "Kiddo." You see, he only arrived here this morning. He happened to notice you at the depot when he got off the train. Yes, I know you only went to the depot to see if any of the girls had gotten back from the city. And then you say he happened to be standing on the hotel porch this afternoon when you went to the post office. I know, of course, you could hardly help glancing in his direction when you went by and when you and Flossy Fay passed that way later, it wasn't your fault that Floss asked you, loudly enough for him to hear, if you weren't sick and tired of living in this poky old town? So when you took a walk this evening he saw you, sauntered after you and at the corner near the drug store he overtook you and raising his hat asked "What's your hurry, Kiddo?" And you ran home in tears. To tell your mother how you had been insulted. Thank God for that. You're Dad's girl yet. But don't blame the man. He knows that there are kids in every town. He meets them at the depots. He notices them passing and repassing the hotels and going to and from the postoffices and he always sees them with Flossies. But those men will never speak to the small town girls who mind their own business and keep off the streets. Now tomorrow if you help Mother with the preserving, not a soul will harm you. So dry your eyes—no not the powderrag—use cold water and a soft towel. That's right, smile.

WORDS OF GUY DE MAUPASSANT

"When I but consider the word war I feel a shudder, as if one spoke to me of witchcraft, incantation, some mad and distant thing, abominable, monstrous, unhuman."
 "When we hear of cannibals, we smile with pride and proclaim our superiority over those savages."
 "What are savages, real savages—those who fight to kill, merely to kill?"
 "These youthful soldiers of the lime speeding along yonder are destined to death, just as flocks of sheep driven along the roads by a butcher. They are destined to fall on a plain, their heads cleft by a stroke from a sword on their breast pierced by a bullet. And these are young men who could work, produce be useful. Their fathers are old and poor; their mothers, who during 20 years have loved and worshipped them, as mothers can worship, will learn in six months or perhaps a year that the son, the child, the big child, brought up with so much trouble, with so much money, with so much love, was thrown into a hole, like a dead dog, after his body riddled by a bullet, had been trampled and crushed into pulp by the charge of cavalry. Why have they killed her boy, her noble boy, her only hope, her pride, her life? 'She cannot tell. Yes, why?'"

HOBBO STEALING A RIDE IS FATALLY INJURED

Flat Car of P. M. Freight Train Breaks With Man Asleep In Blowpipe of A Separator

Eugene Gill aged 37 years, of New York State was fatally injured near Zeeland Saturday night when a flat car broke under the weight of two large grain separators that were being slipped on it. He died from internal injuries in Zeeland Sunday night at 8 o'clock. The flat car was derailed when it broke at Fairview crossing and Gill was hurled some distance. He was cared for at the Vegter restaurant by Dr. Rigterink. It is thought his relatives have been located in New York.

FRED ROZEBOOM HOPES TO RECOVER EYESIGHT

Fred Rozeboom formerly employed as night man in Pino's restaurant was given hope of recovering his eyesight when he seen a specialist in Niles, Mich., last week. Mr. Rozeboom's eyesight gradually failed him for the past three months until now he cannot recognize a person on the street, and has some trouble in getting around. His case was a puzzler for local physicians and he had planned to go to the State School for the blind.

REV. ESVELD TO STAY

This item was copied by this paper, but afterwards we were informed that Mr. Esveld would remain with us indefinitely and that there was no truth in the item. We therefore are glad to make the correction.

MAY GET PRISON SENTENCE

Simon Yonkman was arraigned in Justice court Wednesday morning for the third time on a charge of being an habitual drunkard. He waived examination and was bound over to circuit court for trial. Three offences under this act is a circuit court offense and punishable with a prison sentence.

MAYOR BOSCH WILL RECOMMEND CHANGE IN JUSTICE ORDINANCE

Is Direct Result Of Case Against Alderman Slag; Outcome Of This Case Was Shrouded In Mystery When It Settled Last Friday

The case against Alderman Bert Slag, who pleaded guilty to a charge of conducting a stand without a license during the Farmer's Picnic in Holland before Justice Sooy last Friday morning and paid the costs of $3.50, according to the official report of the Justice, has perhaps aroused more interest and general discussion than any case brought up in the local courts for some time and lastly it may be the cause of a change in the local Justice ordinance.

Slag was arrested about a month ago by Chief of Police Van Ry after he had refused to take down his stand and quit selling things. He then pleaded not guilty and the date of his trial was set. But the trial was postponed from week to week without any action. People generally thought the case was dropped. However the last announcement stated that the case would positively be tried last Thursday afternoon.

At the recorded time Justice Sooy was in his place in the court room and City Attorney A. Van Duren was on hand to handle the case for the people. But Slag did not appear. Inquiries soon brought to light the fact that the alderman was enjoying a fishing excursion. On complaint of City Attorney Van Duren, Justice Sooy then issued a bench warrant for Mr. Slag to bring the alderman into court by force if necessary. Mr. Slag was not to be found that day and the case was postponed until the morning. Friday morning, Ald. Slag appeared in the court room with Herman Van Tongeren ready to go bail for him in case of an emergency. Justice Sooy appeared to be ready to hear the trial but before it was commenced without any explanation other than that the case has been settled he left the court room followed by Mr. Slag.

Several persons including Chief of Police Van Ry, City Attorney Van Duren, Police Commissioner De Keyser made inquiries from the Justice of the Peace as to how the case was settled but the only answer given any of them was that the case was settled. When Mr. Slag was approached on the subject all he would say was "Just forget it."

Put the true facts came to light later in the day when Justice Sooy sent in his official report to Chief of Police Van Ry.

As a direct result of the Slag case Mayor Bosch has stated that he will deliver a message to the next meeting of the common council to have the city Justice ordinance changed somewhat so such case as the Slag case cannot happen. Under the present ordinance the Justice of the Peace makes out his report of fines and costs collected and sends them in to the city clerk. But now the Justice deducts his own fee before turning over the money to the Treasurer. Mayor Bosch directly charges the justice in the Slag case with showing favoritism to Mr. Slag by deduction his own fees. The Mayor states that he has learned that Slag actually paid but seventy cents. It is to do away with such favoritism that Mayor Bosch will recommend to the council that the ordinance be changed in such manner that the Justices will have to first turn over all the money collected in fines and costs to the city and then put in a bill to the city for his own fees.

AGED MAN FALLS INTO CISTERN MAY NOT SURVIVE

Hudsonville, Mich., Oct. 1.—By falling into an unused cistern, Abraham S. De Vries, aged 82, was so badly injured that it is feared he will not survive the shock. Yesterday afternoon while calling on his daughter, he walked down by the barn, and as he walked over the old poorly covered cistern, the rotten boarding broke, and he fell into the cistern into nearly three feet of water. His cries brought his daughter to the scene and she quickly brought help and the old man was taken out in an unconscious condition. The doctor summoned found that the old gentleman's left hip bone was broken near the hip joint and that he had sustained other severe bruises. The fracture was reduced, but it is thought that the age of Mr. De Vries will militate much against his recovery.

VAN TIL CASE IS FINALLY SETTLED

Three Of The Gang Are Convicted While Three Prove Themselves Innocent

After being postponed several times in the past two months the case against six local men among them Rykel Van Til, charged with creating and assisting a disturbance at the home of Rykel Van Til, was brought up for trial before Justice Robinson in the court room of the City Hall Friday.

Andrew Langhuis was assessed the costs of $11.34 and Martin Frenzenburgen the cost of $4.54. Omke Van Til, Harry Wellman and Orrie Arnold were acquitted of the charge. Bench warrants were issued for Rykel and Omke Van Til and Harry Wellman.

Rykel Van Til was not re-arrested until Monday. He then pleaded guilty to the charge against him and

LOCAL BAKERS WILL NOT RAISE PRICE OF BREAD

According to a statement of one of our leading bakers the Holland Bakers have enough flour on hand to carry them through the month of February at least and Vander Schel Bros. have purchased enough flour to carry them through the month of May. They will not raise on the price of loaves nor will they make the loaves any smaller than they are now as bakeries in many cities have done.

That it now costs the baker more per loaf to make the bread is shown by the fact that the last car load of flour purchased by Vander Schel's cost $300 more than formerly. This was purchased shortly after the war was declared in Europe.

RUNAWAY BOY AGED 12 YEARS GIVES POLICE MERRY CHASE

Louis Jost, aged 12 years of 119 Broadway, Benton Harbor, was picked up by the local police Saturday morning. He sneaked away shortly after being caught on a pretext of going for a drink when left in the care of assistant city clerk, Miss Florence Krulsenga. At the city hall Saturday night, Officer Meeuwse learned that the lad had stolen a rowboat and headed across the lake. After searching the shores of the north side of the lake the officer returned to the Graham and Morton boat dock and with the aid of the big searchlight on the City of Grand Rapids he located the boy rowing around on the lake near the boat. Jost was returned to his home.

SECRETARY OF THE FAIR WILL RECTIFY ALL MISTAKES

Several complaints have come to the notice of Secretary of the Holland Fair association, E. P. Stephan that all premiums given at the fair were not being paid in full by the Superintendents. The secretary stated that if this is so it was through some mistake, which is very libel to be made when there are so many premiums to be paid, and that the mistakes will be rectified if the secretary's office is notified.

"FORWARD THE LIGHT BRIGADE"

John Mc Guire Says The Brigade Fight—Write In Song And Story

John Mc Guire, a pioneer of Allegheny county now living at 201 East Sixteenth Street, is indeed a "fighting man." He fought with the British in the Crimean war against Russia, took part in the Civil War and later fought the Indians. He is now 77 years of age, but with a merry chuckle he declares that if he was ten years younger he would again go to war, as he likes it much better than sitting around the house smoking his much used corn cob pipe, and much better than doing manual labor. Mr. Mc Guire is a slight man and only a little over five feet tall. In spite of his unwarlike appearance he has a life history that very few men can boast of.

Mr. Mc Guire was born in Dublin 1837. His parents died when he was very young and he was left partly on his own resources, with one brother and a sister to help out. He was just seventeen years old when the Crimean war broke out but he was accepted in a volunteer Irish troop that sailed to Crimea from Queenstown, Ireland. Mc Guire's troop was one of the first to be landed and during the entire campaign it was at the head of the invading army. He fought at Alma, Inkerman, Balaklava, and was at the foremost of the charge in storming Sebastopol, the Russian stronghold. At Balaklava Mc Guire was an eye witness of the famous charge of the light brigade. In the storming of Sebastopol Mc Guire was among the first to go over the wall with the aid of scaling ladders. When the reporter marveled at his good fortune in escaping unharmed he remarked, "Well they could not kill all of us."

At the end of the Crimean war Mc Guire was stationed at a garrison at Halifax, Nova Scotia. He was there six years and then served at Montreal and at New London, in the northern part of Canada. When his time expired his officers made an effort to have him return to England with a hope that he would re-enlist but his eyes were already turned to the country where there was a real war going on. With his honorable discharge from ten years' service in the British army Mc Guire came to Detroit in 1863 and almost immediately he enlisted in the United States regular army for a period of three years, or to the end of the war. He had one sharpshooter's rank in the British Army and with his past experience he was ready for war as fast as he could be pushed to the front. In Detroit he received an offer of $2000 to join the American Army as a substitute, but some people told him that men who join the army in this way were kicked around and life made unbearable for them at the front. He turned down the offer, but as he has chosen soldiering for his profession, much in the same way as the school boys now choose law, medicene or other equally exciting practice, he joined on his own accord.

In the Civil war he fought under General Hancock and his regiment was supported by Gen. Custer's cavalry. He fought in the battle of Gettysburg, Winchester, and was with Grant on his Richmond campaign in the battle of Cold Harbor, in the Wilderness and other important engagements.

At the close of the civil war Mc Guire's regiment was broken up, little detachments being sent out to frontier Indian posts. Mc Guire was sent to Fort Sumner, New Mexico on a Navajo reservation where he served out his time of enlistment. He said he never had the good fortune of getting mixed up in a real Indian fight. Once while the troop was away from the fort the Indians planned an uprising, but by forced marches the troop reached the post in time to prevent the outbreak. His troop had just received their new Sharp's short bronze barrel rifles which the government had exchanged for the bright barrel Springfield. The Indians, Mc Guire said, were more awed at the black barrels of the gun, being accustomed to the shining barrel, than as the troop itself. These guns were breach loaders. To load, a lever lift barrel clear of the stock so as shell can be easily slipped in. Mc Guire said he let an Indian look through the barrel of his gun while the breach was open then closed it and shot. The Indian was dumfounded as he could not understand how the guns would shoot when they were open at both ends.

When his time expired Mc Guire returned to Detroit. For several years he led a carefree, wandering life and visited nearly every city of importance in the United States.

Thirty-five years ago he settled in Allegan county near what is now Fennville. Five years later he married a Fennville girl and then he settled down to domestic life on a farm. He moved to this city about five years ago.

During all the battles Mc Guire took part in he was never wounded. He tells of his experiences with a rare good humor and laughs at his narrow escapes. In every war he entered he said he never expected to come out alive and he fought in that spirit. He liked to fight and his greatest ambition was to be a good soldier. He still has his discharge from the British army, altho it is so worn that the words are scarcely legible. He received a gold medal from Queen Victoria and another from the Turkish army, as did other of the men in his regiment, for services in the Crimean war.

When he joined the army in 1854 his brother embarked on a merchant ship for adventures in the West India islands. He never heard from his brother since then. His sister had remained at home but Mr. McGuire says he never thought he would get out of that war alive so he did not write to her. When he got back he could not locate her.

Mr. McGuire, although never hit by a bullet, has had many narrow escapes from death and he can tell stories of the bullets whizzing past his ears so close that they seemed to burn his ears, comrades dropping dead beside him as he talked to them, bullets knocking the dust from under his feet and men falling on all sides of him in a charge, sometimes so close that they clutched at his clothing for support as they went down.

HOPE COLLEGE

While the Freshmen of Hope College were celebrating their victory Friday night the Sophomores, or at least some of them, got away with their ice cream so that the victors missed that part of their spread.

Holland people are being canvassed by members of the Upsilon club of Hope college who are collecting the funds to redecorate their place of meeting on the college campus. This club each spring gives a public program free of charge to the public and this program is one of the most popular features of commencement paid a fine of ten dollars and costs of $6.80. week. The public is now being asked by the members of the club to contributed a little toward putting their hall into shape for regular meeting. Several substantial donations have already been made. Subscriptions can be sent to K. Prinsen, Van Vleck Hall, Room 17.

The "D" class of Hope college held a class meeting Thursday afternoon. The following officers were elected: president—Jacob Boone; vice president—Theodore Yntema; secretary and treasurer—Miss Hoffman.

The class is smaller than usual, numbering twenty-five.

At a mass meeting of the Hope College students Friday noon it was decided by a unanimous vote to accept the proposition of the faculty and Council that the college join the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic association in all sports except foot ball. If the M. I. A. A. agrees to accept Hope on these terms, namely without football, the local organization will be governed by a council composed of two faculty members two students and one alumnus.

A student Sunday school class was organized in the Trinity Reform church. Prof. J. W. Beardslee, Jr., appointed the teacher of the class which will meet every Sunday morning from 9 to 10 o'clock, before the regular morning services. The first meeting of the class was held Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock. This meeting was for the purpose of organizing. All college students, including the ladies, are invited to attend.

In the greatest and hardest fought tug-of-war that was ever pulled off by college students here the Freshman class of Hope college Friday afternoon pulled the Sophomore class through the waters of Black River. The pull started promptly at 4 o'clock with 26 men lined up on each bank of the river. The pulling was very even at first, neither side gaining an advantage. Then, slowly but surely, the Freshmen began to take in the rope. In spite of all that the opposition could do, the Freshmen held what they had. The Sophomores had the advantage of experience and a high ridge on their bank. The Freshmen had the advantage in weight.

In all, the pull lasted 34 minutes, the longest in the history of the college. The record up to the present time was seventeen minutes, made two years ago. Last year's pull took only eleven minutes. The Freshmen owe much of their success to coaches Drew and Gilbert of the High school. The Sophomores were coached by Jack Moore. During the pull, one of the Sophomore men fainted and had to be taken out.

After the contest the Freshmen strung out along the length of the rope, marched down Eighth street. A very large crowd was present on both banks of the river. An unusually large number from Zeeland were present. The pull was in charge of a committee composed of Senio. Class members. Friday night, the conquered and conquerers celebrated the event by class parties.

Monday night at 7:30 the Sorosis society of Hope College gave a reception in honor of the new girls that joined the society. The reception was in charge of Miss Betty Van Burke.

The Young Men's Christian association gave a reception to the new members this evening after devotional exercises in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. Dr. Vennema had charge of the meeting. All the boys of the college were asked to be present. Miss Martin, instructor in German, has returned to resume her duties here.

The Freshmen class has accepted the challenge of the Sophomores to play them in foot ball Oct. 10. The Freshmen have elected Fred Vos as Captain.

Preparations are being made for a faculty recital to be given by the members of the faculty of the Hope College School of Music about the middle of October. They will be assisted by members of the department of expression.

The new instructor in this department is Miss Ethelyn Metz, who meets her pupils on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. Miss Metz is a graduate of the Cum pock school of Oratory of Northwestern University. As most Holland people know, she is an excellent reader, and she is moreover a very successful teacher.

A meeting of the cabinet of the Hope College Y. M. C. A. was held last evening in Voorhees hall.

The Y. M. C. A. of Hope College gave a reception Tuesday evening in honor of the new members. A fine extemporaneous program was carried out and light refreshments were served.

LYCEUM ATTRACTIONS.

For the Season of 1914-15 Are Announced.

MUSIC AND LECTURES.

Array of Talent Which is Scheduled to Appear Here at Intervals Throughout the Winter.

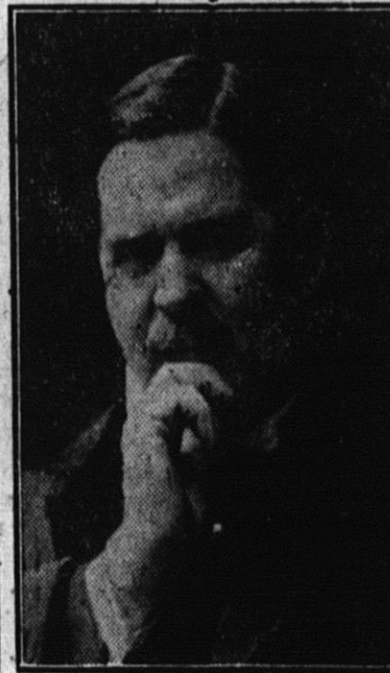

An annual Lyceum entertainment course is now regarded as practically indispensable in nearly 15,000 American communities, and the number is increasing with each year.

Some one has truly said that a Lyceum attraction, even though it failed to raise a higher standard in the community, at least never lowered an existing standard or in any way leaves a deleterious effect. This cannot be said of many other kinds of amusement and entertainment.

What the winter's entertainments and lectures are to be in each community is usually looked for at this time of the year. The course here this year will be made up of the following attractions:

DR. S. PARKES CADMAN.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman is the pastor of the Central Congregational Church Brooklyn, in many ways one of the strongest churches of its order in America today. He was born among the Shropshire hills of England in 1864 and is a descendant from a race of preachers. His collegiate course was completed at Richmond College, London University, and he came to America immediately thereafter. Four years after coming to the United States he was made pastor of the Metropolitan Temple. The building was later enlarged, but still proved too small to hold the crowds that went to hear him. During his pastoral career he has received more than 4,000 members into the churches of which he has been pastor. Into the membership of his present church he has received 2,000 members. The present membership of the church is 2,750.

Dr. Cadman is special lecturer at Yale, Harvard, Amherst and other colleges and universities, and he has refused the presidency of several colleges. His lectures are more than most lectures. They are vital messages, and once heard they can never be forgotten.

HELEN WARE TELLS INTERESTING TALE

Many interesting experiences from artists en route have been published yet few of them will compare with the one related by Miss Helen Ware, the American Violinist who is to give one of the early numbers of the Hope College Lecture Course.

"I was on my way to fill one of my most important engagements in Hungary and the journey being one of eight hours, I retired to my private compartment and commenced to work on my program. In practicing concertos, I usually hum the Tuttle to my self so as to be absolutely sure about my cues. On this occasion I was to play the Glazow Concerto with orchestra. When I reached the beginning of the first Tuttle, I heard a faint sound of a violin above the rattle of the train, playing the Tuttle note for note, but one note higher than the original score is written. I could hardly believe my ears, and suddenly stopped. That same moment the strange echo stopped also. But as soon as I resumed my work, the echo followed me note for note, causing an almost unbearable accompaniment in unflinching seconds, so much so that after awhile I was in doubt whether it was my mysterious neighbor in the wrong key, or myself. It was evident that echo was no novice in the game, for it never missed a note of that Concerto.

"When I finally struggled to the end, I could stand the strain of curiosity no longer, and went forth to search for the phenomenon. It was not long before the mystery was cleared up, for in the compartment next to mine I saw a gentleman hurriedly packing away a violin. I caught the culprit redhanded. Apologizing for his mischievous disturbance, he introduced himself as Herr Keszegi, a violinist famous at the Academy of Budapest, not only as a pedagogue, but also a born humorist, whose musical tricks and follies upon his colleagues have made him a conspicuous character in European musical circles."

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER

THIRTY FIVE YEARS AGO

Capt. C. Dok has sold his share in the schooner A. Plugger to his partner, Capt. B. Van Ry.

On Wednesday last there were nineteen persons on trial before Justices Post & Van Schelven, on three warrants. Our sheriff, prosecuting attorney, and several Grand Haven lawyers have made their faces familiar of late. Everything is booming, even the law business. The latest news is that Hutton is still cross examining. We have to go to press now, and can't give the results.

Just as we go to press we learn of a dreadful disaster which occurred at the Fair Grounds at Adrain, Mich. on Thursday last. The grand stand upon which were seated hundreds of people, fell with a crash, killing and maiming hundreds of spectators. The superintendent was in the right place—under the stand. The builders ought to have been in the same spot. Our Holland schoolhouse disaster is now wiped out; or, at least, "badly beaten."

In the absence of authentic news from our own correspondent at Saugatuck, we publish an interesting item clipped from the Lake Shore Commercial of last week:

"Two prominent men of our village had a set to last Monday on the Masonic question, now raging in Holland. One of them is engaged in the service of Him who counseled peace and good will to all, and the other is a doughty disciple of Esculapius. A wordy war had been raging for some minutes between them when some sarcasm, more than usually stinging, aroused the old Adam in the worthy elder, and the way in which he sailed into the man of pills would soon have resulted in a subject for a coroner's inquest, had not that law abiding citizens, Richard Roche, interfered and separated the enraged combatants. Richard lugged the M. D. off the battle field on his back and the elder retreated, uttering anathemas against all secret societies in general, and the sacrilegious member in particular, who had raised his hand against an anointed servant of God. The Dr. was only obliged to keep his bed for a day, and how if fared with the elder we have been unable to learn." We can imagine who that "anointed servant of God" is.

Church. After considerable discussion a vote was taken and resulted as follows: In favor, 51; against 20; blanks 13. The majority not satisfied with the result, the meeting was adjourned for one month to again consider the subject. The expressed desire of those voting against uniting with the Christian Ref. Church was in favor of joining the United Presbyterian denomination.

The wedding was a quiet affair, only the relatives and a few friends of the couple, being present. We congratulate the happy pair upon their union, and trust that they will live to enjoy many years of happy married life.

The guessing contest on the contents of the jar of beans shown by The Walsh De Roo Milling Co., at our county fair, resulted the prizes being awarded to Mary Meengs of Noordeloos, whose guess was 1984, Josie Kerhoof of Holland, whose guess was 1990, and E. Stevens of Ottawa Station whose guess was also 1990. The actual number of beans in the jar was 1987, and as all three of the guessers are within three of the right number, they are requested to call at the office of the Mill company this week Saturday at 2 P. M. and draw lots to decide the tie that exists now, or agree to divide the prizes equally. The total guesses was 766; the lowest was 215 and the highest over 7,000.

LOCAL CHAPTER OF D. A. R. SENT DELEGATES TO STATE MEETING

The annual state conference of the D. A. R. was held in Kalamazoo the 28, 29, 30th of September.

Besides the election of state officers, the event was of more than ordinary interest to members of the D. A. R. and to club women, as the event was to celebrate the Centennial of Mrs. Lucretia Huisdale Stone for whom the Kalamazoo chapter was named. Mrs. Stone was the "Mother of Woman's clubs" and the Kalamazoo clubs united with the D. A. R. to do Mrs. Stone's memory honor. A tablet to Mrs. Stone's memory was unveiled in Bronson Park, and a tea given by the two literary clubs to all her former friends and pupils. Besides these events, Mrs. William Cummings Story, president-general of the National Society D. A. R. of New York, was the guest of honor. A reception and luncheon was given to all state officers, delegates and visitors.

The local chapter D. A. R. was represented by its Regent, Mrs. F. C. Hall and Mrs. Florence Cotton, Mrs. F. W. Hadden, and Mrs. Florence M' Boot, delegates.

NEW HEALTH RULE TO MEET WITH OPPOSITION IN THE COUNCIL.

A big fight is expected to develop next week Wednesday at the regular meeting of the common council on the clause in the new health rules that regulates the sale of milk. The new rule calls for a certificate showing that the milk sold in this city has been secured from cows that have been tested for tuberculosis before the city clerk shall grant a license allowing the holder to sell milk. Under the old system such certificate has been required from all retail milk dealers, but under the proposed new rule the certificate will be required of all milk dealers, whether they sell the milk and cream by delivering it to the houses, or whether they handle it in a larger way. It is expected that a big fight will develop on this.

This is the first time that the board of health has submitted the health rules to the council for ratification. The rules under which the board now operates were passed by the board and merely ratified by the mayor and city clerk. It is a question as to whether ratification by the council is required and it is possible that if the aldermen refuse to adopt the rules there may be interesting developments.

RIEKEL VAN TIL CHANGED HIS PLEA OF GUILTY AND PAID $16.80

Riekkel Van Til appeared before Justice Robinson Tuesday and pleaded guilty to the charge of assisting and creating a disturbance at his home some time ago and he paid a fine of $10 and costs amounting to $6.80.

Van Til was a member of a party of six men who were arrested on charges of disturbing the peace at Van Til's home. The others in the party were tried last week and two were convicted while three were released after proving that they had no part in the disturbance. Van Til did not show up for his trial then. He was arrested on a bench warrant and his trial was set for Tuesday afternoon.

BELL RINGING CLAUSE IN THE HEALTH LAWS LIKELY TO BE PUSHED.

That the attempt to get the local churches to comply voluntarily with the limiting of the ringing of their bells to fifty strokes is doomed to failure seems clear from the experience of last Sunday. One citizen took the trouble to count the strokes of the bell of one of the churches and he found that the janitor did not let up until his bell had given 219 strokes. Several of the churches are complying with the request of the health department, but some of the others seem to consider it necessary to the cause of religion to ring their bells as long as they have been in the habit of ringing them from time immemorial.

As a result of this failure to co-operate with the health department on the part of the churches, it is likely that the bell ringing clause in the new health rules will be pushed. There will be strenuous opposition in the council, but it is fairly sure now that the clause will not be dropped, as had been planned.

INTERESTING DISCUSSION AT W. C. T. U. MEETING RESULTS IN VICTORY FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

At a meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. N. De Merrell, a spirited debate on woman suffrage resulted in a victory for the side that favored votes for women. The debate was an extremely interesting one, the subject being, "Is the ballot a wise and safe gift to women?" Mrs. F. T. Miles took the affirmative side and Miss Maud Zwemer the negative. Mrs. Gowdy was in charge of the debate. Mrs. C. H. McBride also spoke on the affirmative side of the question, in an informal way after the debate, and Mrs. Benj. DuMez spoke on the negative side. Mrs. L. Eldson read an article from an English magazine bearing on this question. Mrs. P. E. Whitman summed up the points made by the speakers.

The home of Mrs. DeMerrell was appropriately decorated with white and yellow flowers, white being the color of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and yellow the color that stands for the cause of suffrage. The refreshments also carried out the white and yellow color scheme.

SIXTEENTH STREET CHURCH CONGREGATION GAVE RECEPTION LAST NIGHT

The Rev. Mr. Walkotten to Be Installed as Pastor Next Sunday.

After being without a pastor for the past year, during which time nine calls were issued, the Sixteenth Street Christian Reformed church will again have a leader today, when the Rev. Mr. Walkotten, formerly of Roseland, Ill., will be formally inaugurated as pastor. The inauguration services will be in charge of the pastor's brother, the Rev. John Walkotten of Hudsonville. The Rev. Mr. Walkotten preached his farewell address at Roseland last Sunday.

Last evening the Sixteenth St. church congregation held a reception in honor of the new pastor at the church. A good program was prepared and consisted of addresses of welcome and music by the young people. Addresses of welcome were given by M. J. Ten Hoor, for the congregation, by Miss Jennie Bouwman as president of the young ladies' sewing circle, by G. Vander Beek, vice president of the Young Men's society and by A. Vander Gehuchte, as superintendent of the Sunday school. The musical program consisted of a prelude by Miss Laura Ten Hoor, singing by the young people's chorus and a selection "Kerk Klock", by a quartet.

The Rev. Mr. Walkotten closed the program with an address after which all were given an opportunity of welcoming the new pastor and getting acquainted.

JUSTICE COURT CASE IS DECIDED AGAINST MARINUS ZOETEWEG.

He Tried To Recover Money On A Contract

After deliberating for about five minutes a jury in Justice T. Roller's court Friday afternoon returned a verdict of no cause for action in the case brought by Marinus Zoeteweg against Tienus Markus. Zoeteweg sued for the return of $25 which he had paid on a house and lot bought from Markus on contract. Zoeteweg was to have made the next payment, some months after the first installment and Markus, on the strength of Zoeteweg's promise that he would pay, claims that he built another house which he would not have done if he had not depended on Zoeteweg making good on his promise. The jury agreed with Markus' side of the case. The jury was composed of John Bosman, Fred Beuwkes, Benj. Du Mez, Fred Roseboom and Albert Keppel. Zoeteweg was represented by Att. F. T. Miles and Markus by Att. D. Ten Cate.

LOUIS JOIT, TWELVE YEAR OLD RUNAWAY BOY DID NOT WANT TO GO BACK HOME.

Louis Jost, aged 12 years, of 1119 Broadway, Benton Harbor, was picked up by the police Saturday at Montello Park, where he had spent the night. The lad appeared innocent enough, so Chief Van Ry brought him into the City Clerk's office and left him in charge of Miss Florence Kruisenga, assistant clerk. After about 15 minutes the boy innocently asked where he could get a drink of water. Miss Kruisenga directed him to the fountain in the hall. Instead the boy tip toed down the stairs and has not been seen since.

Henry Jacobs of this city, will be one of the five speakers who will take a part in the big national contest. He first won the contest in Holland, then the state contest at Albion and then the District Contest at Columbus, Ohio.

Each of the other four candidates went through the same process, winning the local, state and district contests. They represent the pick of the best speakers in their respective districts.

SALE OF TICKETS BEGINS FOR HOPE COLLEGE SERIES OF ENTERTAINMENTS.

First Number to Be Given October 16; Fine Speakers and Singers Engaged

A ticket selling campaign is now on in the city for the Hope College lecture course, the first number of the course being scheduled for October 16. A large number of tickets have already been sold and the prospects are that a large house will greet the first speaker. Prof. J. B. Nykerk will again be general manager of the course, while Z. Luidens has been appointed as assistant manager.

The management believes that this year's course will be one of the best ever offered in Holland. No expense has been spared to make the talent the choicest that could be obtained, and the people of Holland will have an opportunity to hear some of the best readers, speakers, today.

The course will open with a lecture by Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, and singers on the Lyceum platform. Mr. Hughes has the reputation of being one of the greatest pulpits orators in the Methodist church and he has a message of democracy for his audiences that makes him a much sought after lecturer.

On November 11, Mrs. Ware, one of the finest interpreters of Hungarian music, will be here. Mrs. Ware is a companion figure among the famous violinists. Koce, the noted gypsy violinist, is most enthusiastic in his praise of her.

The third number on the course will be a concert to be given by the Weatherwax Brothers. Male quartets are always popular in Holland, and the Weatherwax Brothers is one of the strongest quartets in the country.

Margaret Stahl will interpret one of the well known plays of the past decade for local people. She gives such plays as "The Servant in the House," "Strongheart," "Madam Butterfly," "Everywoman" and the "Man from Home."

The second lecture of the course will be delivered by Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, acknowledged as one of the world's greatest preachers. He is pastor of the Central Congregational church of Brooklyn and he is often compared to Henry Ward Beecher. He is descended from a race of preachers and is a personality of great power in the East.

There is to be one return engagement this year. That is Madam Evelyn Scotney of the Boston Opera Company. Madam Scotney opened the course last year and she was considered one of the finest and most talented singers ever heard here.

MANAGER H. LONG ANNOUNCED SATURDAY NIGHT THAT THEATER WOULD BE CLOSED.

The Knickerbocker Theater company has once more proved to be a failure and this week the theater is again dark. H. Long, manager of the new company during its brief career here, announced to a small audience Saturday night that there would be no more shows at the Knickerbocker. Saturday night the play, "Oh, Robert," was given. Although the people of Holland who saw the Hus-ed players, the company that completed its engagement with the closure of the theater, have been almost unanimously pleased with the actors and actresses the crowds were small during all but a few nights.

EDISON MUSICAL DEMONSTRATION GIVEN THURSDAY NIGHT IN WOMAN'S LITERARY CLUB HALL

About a hundred and fifty people gathered in the Woman's Literary Club hall Thursday to listen to a private phonograph demonstration of the Edison Diamond Disc phonographs. Mr. O'Grady of New Jersey was here to represent the Edison people and to conduct the demonstration. The audience was given a splendid entertainment for an hour, and a half. They were given a fine concert from the wonderful machines and the mechanism was explained to them. As long ago as 1877, Edison invented the phonograph. A year later he invented and patented the first disc phonograph, but not until quite recently this has been given to the public, all the intervening years having been given to the gradual development of the new feature of perfect sound reproduction.

The agency for the new phonograph has been awarded to Cook Brothers.

WINS SEVENTEEN OUT OF TWENTY-TWO GAMES PLAYED

Zeeland fans showed considerable interest in the game that was pulled off there Saturday at 2:30 between the Zeeland and Allegan team. Manager Winslow of Allegan brought his regular lineup. Rex Sirrine of Holland pitched for Zeeland, and Spriggs, who has been catching for Zeeland since the Grand Haven Athletics, disbanded worked behind the bat.

Zeeland has made a brilliant record this season, having won seventeen out of twenty-two games played. The team closes the season this week when it will play a series of games with Holland during the Home Coming and Farmer's Festival. The teams will play for a purse of fifty dollars, the team copping two out of three games winning the lion's share of the purse.

OTTAWA COUNTY ASKED TO PAY $43,990.66 LESS TAXES THAN IN 1913

When it was announced in the Sentinel some months ago that the tax rate in Holland this year would be in the neighborhood of $4 less per thousand dollars valuation, the figure was based on accurate information in regard to the city, school and county taxes and a safe guess as to what the state tax rate would be. It was shown Friday that the guess that the state taxes would be less was well founded. The report from Lansing is to the effect that Ottawa county will be required to raise the sum of only $85,152.49, while last year this county had to pay in state taxes the sum of $129,143.15, or a difference of $43,990.66. This figure is fully as low as was estimated early in the summer when the statement was made in regard to lower taxes, and the rate will be considerably lower this year for Holland tax payers than last year. The rate last year was $24.98 and the rate this year will be considerably lower.

Throughout the state taxpayers this year will pay $2,460,292.67 less in state taxes than they did in 1913, when the taxes reached $8,589,520.78. This year's taxes to be paid by the several counties, will amount to $6,129,228.11. However, the tax this year will be $676,919.96 higher than in 1912.

The decrease this year is due of course, to some extent, to the fact that there was no session of the legislature. With large appropriation measures, the state tax is always higher the year of a session of the legislature.

Auditor-General Fuller is notifying the counties of the amount of tax they will have to raise.

JOHN DAMSTRA LANDS THE OFFICE OF DEPUTY OIL INSPECTOR.

Succeeds L. Reus of Zeeland Who Held the Position for Two Years

John Damstra of this city received his appointment Saturday to the office of deputy oil inspector for this district of Michigan including the counties of Oceana, Muskegon, Allegan and Ottawa. Mr. Damstra received his commission from State Oil Inspector, C. E. Barron, who received his appointment from Gov. Ferris some time ago. Mr. Damstra has been very active in democratic circles in Ottawa county for many years and the appointment is in the way of a recognition of the work he has done for the party.

This is the second time that Holland has had the office. Some years ago Ben Mulder held the office for a number of years, being appointed during the administration of Governor Warner, by State Inspector Frank Neal. Near two years ago L. Reus of Zeeland succeeded Mr. Mulder and he had held the office since then. His term of office will continue until October 1, when Mr. Damstra takes charge.

Building For Kindergarten Classes In Zeeland Now Almost Completed

Every seat in the Zeeland High school room is taken this year, making an enrollment of 122. All the grade rooms are filled to the capacity also, several having 48 and 49. There are two third grade rooms, one and a half fourth grade rooms, one and a half fifth grade rooms and seventh grade rooms.

The new kindergarten building is rapidly nearing completion and lacks only the installation of the steam heating system to be ready for occupancy by the little folks. The kindergarten room is large and well lighted and the entire building is attractive and well built.

PRESTON MANTING GETS DOUBLE DUCKING AND FURNISHES AMUSEMENT FOR FRIENDS

Preston Manting had what might have been a truly laughable experience Thursday—if the water had not been so cold. Returning from a launch ride with a party of friends, Manting slipped into the water when trying to jump to the Scott-Lugers dock to fasten the rope. He said he went way down to the bottom. His friends grabbed him when he appeared above the surface but the affair appealed so to their sense of humor that they commenced to laugh and dropped him down for a second time.

LIVE WIRE BIBLE CLASS ARRANGES SOCIAL FOR FRIDAY EVENING.

The members of the congregation of the M. E. Church are highly pleased because their pastor, the Rev. J. W. Esveld was returned to them another year. They will show their appreciation tomorrow night when the Men's Live Wire Bible class will give a reception in the church parlors for the pastor and his family. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited to attend.

The M. E. church is in a flourishing condition. Every department of the church made a fine showing during the past year, mainly due to the splendid work done by the pastor who was again assigned to Holland for another year.

DENTIST INVENTS NEW KIND OF FUEL

Dr. Frederick Osius Makes Hard Coal From Peat

CAN SELL IT FOR $4 A TON

Powdery Ash Good Fertilizer—Grand Rapids to Enjoy Benefit—Letters of Patent Issued

On April 22, 1911, Dr. Frederick Osius, the dentist, filed an application for a patent. The patent was granted Tuesday, and opens a new possibility of natural resource and manufacture for Grand Rapids—that of manufacturing hard coal from peat.

The process is one of carbonizing and pressing peat into a combustible cake. Mr. Osius found some peat in a west side lot, put it through his chemical formula, compressed it, and found it had a combustibility of 76 per cent.

Cheaper Than Mining Coal

"The process is far cheaper than mining hard coal," said Mr. Osius today. "It can be put on the market at $4 a ton, with from 100 to 150 per cent profit. It is like hard coal, equally good for burning and heating purposes, and it possesses this advantage; it does not absorb water. I took a piece which had stood in water for six weeks, and after drying the surface it burned readily.

"The peat coal has, a fine ash, most invaluable as a fertilizer, on account of its powdery consistency and chemical composition.

"The chemical process I would rather not describe further than to say that it is one of carbonization.

"The pressing can be done by a hydraulic press, such as is used for compressing peat, and the coal may be put out in furnace, chestnut or brick shape. It has no dust, and is clean enough to store in a kitchen in brick form.

"I haven't decided whether to sell the patent or to finance the manufacture myself. There is a lot of peat near Grand Rapids and enough to warrant its use here, and there are immense fields in this country. I shall leave the patent in Grand Rapids if possible, so that the city may profit by it if anyone does."

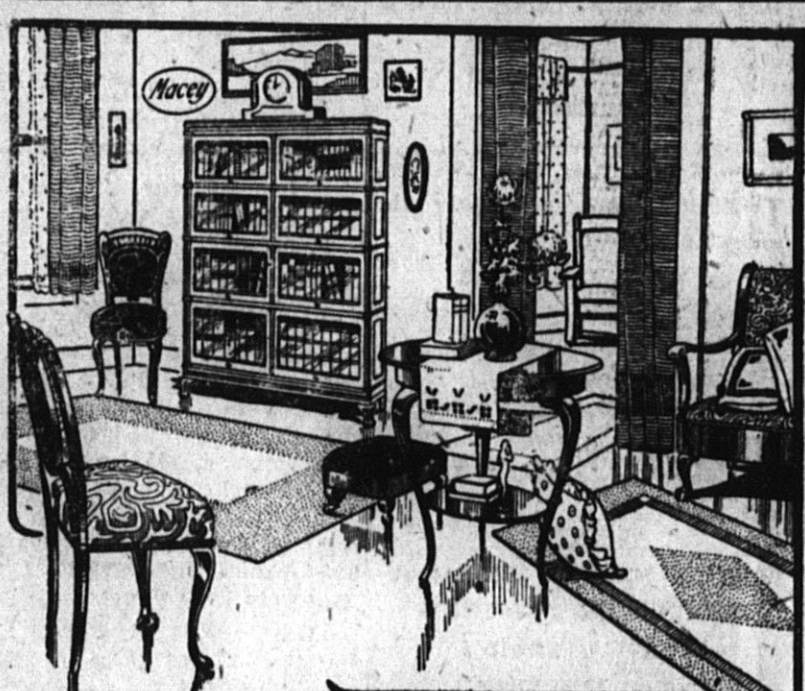

FARMERS ATTENTION!

Farmers are everywhere cautioned to promptly cut the Canadian thistle. The seed will soon be ripe and scattered far and wide by the winds, unless prompt measures are taken to destroy them. There is a state law imposing a fine on any person allowing the seed to ripen. For their own protection however, the farmers should be careful to destroy all injurious weeds.
