Prayer Week An Event At Hope College

ARABIAN MISSIONARY TO BE HEARD FIRST WEEK IN NOVEMBER

Prayer week at Hope College is an event in the year's program of this institution. This year Dr. Paul Harrison, medical missionary to Arabia, will be the lecturer. The first address will be given Sunday evening in Hope Memorial Chapel and other lectures will follow daily from 11 until noon every day to and including November 7, to which the public is invited.

The meetings are sponsored by the Hope College Religious Conference of which Prof. Paul E. Hinkamp is the president. The association of the college, comprising the Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A., are also giving their support.

On November 5 Dr. Harrison will be the guest speaker at the Exchange Club luncheon and altogether it will be a real active week at Hope College and in the city as well. Besides these public addresses there will be group meetings of the students of a devotional nature under the leadership of men in the city prominent for their religious work with young people.

Hope is especially fortunate in procuring the service of so able a leader as Dr. Harrison. He is a world famous doctor and traveler, and he has withal a mighty faith in the claims of the religion of Jesus Christ as the only force that can bring enduring happiness to man seeking for a solution of the eternal mysteries of life. It is sincerely hoped that this may be a period of great religious and spiritual growth at our school. Dr. Harrison expects to base his addresses on the Gospel of John. His themes follow: General Theme:

John 8:31, 32. "If ye abide in me, ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

First meeting: Introduction: "The obvious inadequacy of a conventional Christian life and the demand for something better," John 4:12. "The surrender that admits us to Eternal Life."

Second meeting: John 10: "The Divine Leadership and help we may have if we lead such a life, Christ our Shepherd."

Third meeting: John 9: "The repudiation of all human Group Leadership as a condition of entering this life."

Fourth meeting: John 8: "Meeting Temptation."

Fifth meeting: John 15 and 16: "Love for the brotherhood, the measure of Christ's love for us."

TWO-HEADED TROUT LIVES 16 MONTHS

A two-headed Loch Leven trout, now 16 months old, is one of the most interesting freaks at the world's largest fish hatchery here. The freak feeds by both heads, but its actions are guided by the right head. For many months both heads grew about the same, but lately the right head is increasing in size. Attendants believe that the fish will die when the weak head no longer is able to serve the body.

The two-headed trout are not uncommon, as are other freaks among the millions of fish spawned here, but Capt. H. G. Lambson, superintendent of the hatchery, says that this is the first time in his experience that such a freak has lived more than 45 days.

96, HE WHIPS UNRULY SON, 57

John Bousard, Jr., of Portland, Oregon, used a word at home that his father, J. Bousard, 96, had never permitted to be used in his house since he established that home seventy-odd years ago.

The father proceeded to chastise his son. When police arrived they found the elder Bousard had subdued his son and was still master of his house.

THESE BIRDS FELT THEIR ONIONS

Charged with varying their hard work in onion fields in Gun marsh district, Allegan county, by drinking too much liquor, five men were sentenced Friday by Justice Ward, after a complaint had been made that some of them were carrying a load of noisy joy riders had driven into a scales at Shelbyville, causing considerable damage.

Sheriff Guy Teed and Deputy Edward Clegg visited the home of Edward Carlson, 39, and took into custody Carlson, driver of the car which hit the car of Harry and Charles Ians, father and son, James Howard, 55, and Enos LaCourse, 21. Carlson was given the alternative of paying a $100 fine or spending 90 days in jail. The others charged with being drunk and disorderly, were assessed $29.35 each.

THE HUMAN NOSE GOOD ELECTRIC CONDUCTOR

The other day, in the physics laboratory at the high school Melvin Schenborn received the shock of his life, when he nosed too near the spark gap of Mr. Leddick's electric machine. The sparks made a one-stop flight from one spark ball to Schenborn's nose and thence to the other spark ball. Mr. Leddick estimated the current that passed through the young man's proboscis to be about 50,000 volts. Because of the high voltage, however, no harm was done. It might prove a valuable remedy for a bad cold, Mr. Leddick might experiment.

Miss Jean Frens, 110 West 20th St., and Miss Elizabeth Waggoner, R.F.D. No. 7, have become students at the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, where they will take training in Christian work methods, and follow intensive Bible study. The present enrollment of more than 1800 in the Day and Evening Schools is reported to be one of the largest in the forty year history of the famous school.

NEW BIRTHDAY PADDLING METHOD APPLIED AT SAU- GATUCK PARTY

Saugatuck youngsters have invented a new method to celebrate birthdays especially where paddling the honored guest is part of the program. It appears that Harriet Whipple invited sixteen juvenile boys and girls to her fifth annual birthday party. The young lady surely would be subjected to a thorough spanking should sixteen guests each apply five pats with measure, figuratively speaking ninety-six pats in all, and not always "love" pats. The wise little Miss forestalled these caresses by dressing up a large dummy doll, turnings its face to the wall in order that the sixteen guests might exert their energy on this effigy of little Harriet, letting the charming hostess out of this part of the program.

Anyway this was only one of the features of the party for there were many games and contests in which Jack Harris won first prize and Junior Palmer the consolation.

The table was decorated in pink with dolls dressed in pink as favors for the girls and mouth organs tied with pink bows as favors for the boys.

As usual when little Miss Harriet is the hostess at a party a very delightful time is enjoyed.

WORTHLESS LAND IN ALLE- GAN COUNTY YIELDS 3,000 BUSHEL ONIONS

Justice Fides E. Fish, who is administrator of the estate of George Oliver, reports a bumper onion crop on the Oliver farm near Bravo. On seven acres of muck land 3,000 bushels have been harvested this fall. This crop was grown on land formerly considered worthless.

ZEELAND STATE BANK RENEWES ITS CHARTER ON 30TH ANNIVERSARY

The Zeeland State Bank this fall will commemorate its thirtieth anniversary of its incorporation as a state bank. Accordingly the stockholders met at the bank offices on Monday, October 6, to authorize the renewal of its charter which under the state law is limited to a period of thirty years. This was naturally done, but the gathering occasioned many reminiscences by the only two survivors of the original incorporators, C. J. Den Herder, the present president of the bank, and Dick Van Bree, Zeeland's veteran druggist, who has held forth at the old stand all these years.

The first bank in Zeeland was organized as a private bank, by the late Jacob Den Herder, first president of the present organization, and father of C. J. Den Herder, in 1878, and conducted by him for a period of twenty-two years until in 1900 the Zeeland State Bank was organized with a capital stock of $25,000. Jacob Den Herder was president; Frank Boonstra, vice president; C. J. Den Herder, cashier; Albert La Huis, Thomas G. Huizinga, John Venecklas and Henry De Kruij, directors. At the time of its organization the total deposits were $198,000, a very modest sum compared with its present deposits of $1,122,138.04, an increase of 567% in these thirty years.

Society Honors Local Woman At Grand Rapids

Grand Rapids Herald—All over Grand Rapids and in its environs women who are interested in keeping the wheels going round in the club world, will center their interest in the immediate future upon at least one major event, namely, the luncheon to be given today at 1 o'clock by members of the Women's City club in honor of Mrs. Gerrit J. Extensive plans are being completed for the luncheon to be given in honor of Mrs. Diekema, which will be one of the loveliest ever accorded an honor guest at the clubhouse. Mrs. Diekema will receive in the drawing room of the clubhouse and will be assisted by the president, Mrs. Earle A. Clements, and also by Mrs. Fred W. Green of Ionia, Mrs. Arthur H. A feature of the luncheon will be Mrs. Diekema's talk on "The Official Side of Life at the Hague," and should prove of great interest to the public and to those of her friends who have had the pleasure of being entertained last summer at her beautiful home in the Hague, which stands in a park of its own near the summer palace of the queen.

Reservations must be made at the clubhouse not later than 1 o'clock on Thursday. Decorations for the occasion are in charge of Mrs. R. Wallace Hook.

Wichers Named President Of Hope College

LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS
SHOW HOLLAND BANKER
IS POPULAR CHOICE

Mr. Wichers Will Assume His New Duties Some Time in February

Just before noon today Mr. Wynand Wichers, acting vice-president and cashier of the First State Bank, was elected president of Hope College by a large majority. When a vote was taken by Hope College Council at a meeting at Warm Friend Tavern, Mr. Wichers received all but four votes, these going to Rev. James Sterenberg, Ph.D., of Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., also a graduate of Hope college some years ago.

Judging from the many telegrams, resolutions and letters of endorsement as well as a unanimous vote from the student body and the faculty and the deluge of endorsements from Hope's alumni, Mr. Wichers surely was the popular candidate. He takes the place of Dr. E. D. Dimment, who for a decade or more has ably conducted the affairs of the local institution, his crowning success being the building of Hope's new Memorial chapel.

Mr. Dimment resigned with the close of the school year in June and no persuasion at that time could make him recede from his decision.

The Board of Trustees of Hope college has been casting about for some time in order to secure the proper person for this most important office and it goes without saying that their choice will meet with the fullest approval at home and abroad.

Mr. Wichers will not take hold immediately but will assume his duties some time in February, giving ample time to make all necessary arrangements and business changes that will naturally follow.

Mr. Wichers is a graduate of the class of 1909 and for more than 18 years was instructor and professor of the institution. As registrar in the latter half of his professorship he built up the study courses of the college that gave it its high standard of scholarship. In addition to his work at Hope he has studied at the University of Michigan and Columbia university.

Five years ago he was asked by the board of directors of the First State Bank of Holland to become cashier and at present is acting vice-president of that institution. Several educational institutions have sought Mr. Wichers' services in recent years. Western State Teachers' college has made attempts to add him to the faculty and he has been offered the chairs of church history in two seminaries of the Reformed church.

Mr. Wichers, who was born in Zeeland 44 years ago, was wed to Miss Alyda De Pree of Zeeland and have been blessed with two children, a son William, age 14, and a daughter, Miss Dorothy, age 8.

Mr. Wichers has been very active in civic affairs, having been president of the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations, is a member of the library board and of the zoning commission.

He taught English in Michigan, receiving his Master of Art's degree in 1918. He also taught several summers in Western State college. He has also been president of the Board of Trustees of Hope and has been a member of Holland's Board of Education for five years.

Besides being very active in business and educational lines, he has done much in a religious way, being a Sunday School superintendent, teacher, and an active member of Third Reformed church.

In his speech of acceptance, which is short but unusual, Mr. Wichers reflects the calibre of man he really is when he says: "The Board of Trustees has just conferred upon me an honor which I deem to be the highest and most responsible within the gift of the Reformed church of America. Merely to be considered in the matter is high honor indeed and to be elected President of Hope College is to be chosen for the largest office of responsibility and influence in the church. I am hereby accepting your generous office. I do not do this for personal reasons at all.

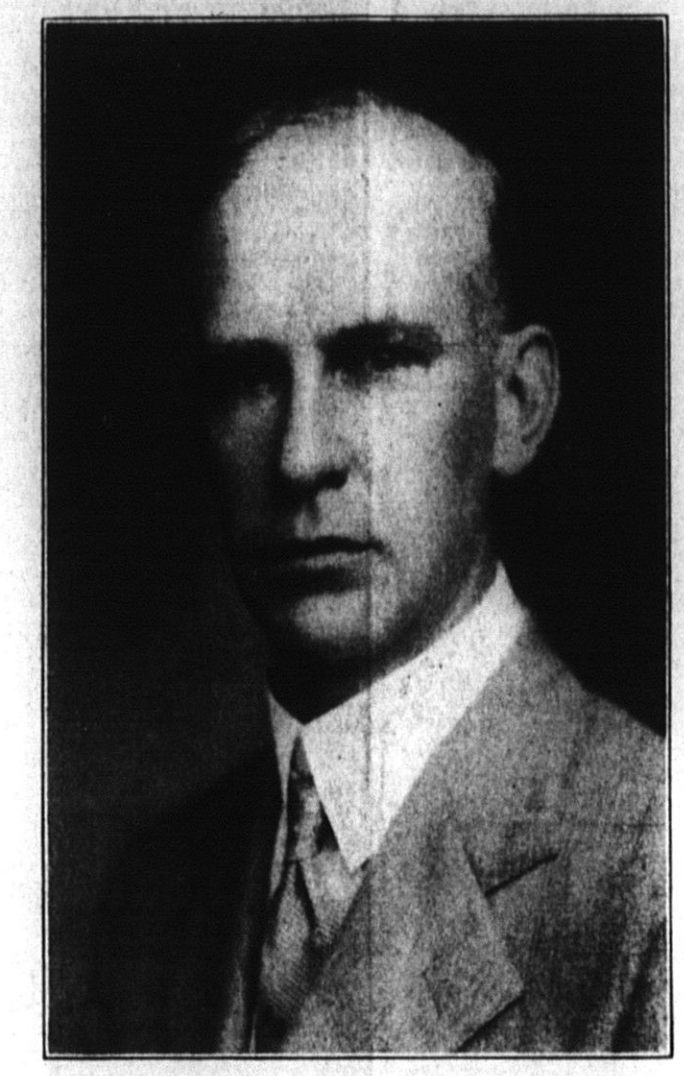

"From the standpoint of every personal consideration I should resign, but I am laying aside all present considerations in obedient answer to a call which I believe is a call of God to service.

"My Alma Mater has permitted me seventeen years of very pleasant teaching and is very generous indeed to allow me to come back after five years of absence. However, I am again persuaded that this absence of five years was providential to the end that I might get that business experience and contact which must be valuable to any one elected to this office. I am glad that I can go back to my friends on the faculty, all of them friends I believe.

"Together we shall attempt by the Grace of God to carry on the work so well done in the past for the intellectual and spiritual increase of our Reformed church. I am glad to acknowledge my debt to all my predecessors, especially to Dr. Dimment whom I learned to respect and honor first as a teacher and then as President. I have no thought that I can ever equal his magnificent work or sacrificial service here. I can only hope to strive to reach his high ideals and service. I trust that Dr. Dimment, the Board of Trustees, and the Faculty will always sustain me with their advice and counsel and inspiration, and I ask that you together with the whole church be much in prayer for me and our beloved Hope college."

Miss Jennie C. Steketee, 133 W. 14th St., Holland, was a recent guest at the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, where she was formerly a student.

SUMMER MOTORING TRIPS DISCUSSED—MRS. CARL BOWEN GIVES ONE

At a meeting of the members of the Grand Haven Woman's Club it appears that many women were called upon to give their experience during their respective motoring trips during the past summer. A half dozen responded, including Mrs. Carl Bowen, a former Holland woman, who believes that Friday, the 13th, is a jinx if you start out then. This is what the Grand Haven Tribune says:

"Mrs. Carl Bowen, who gave a review of her western trip, starting out on Friday, June 13, to California, believes in a jinx, for 14 punctures, one in the only mud, in the only rainstorm of this dry season, she believed, followed them on the entire trip of 9,000 miles. The trip out was made in seven days and the return from Spokane, Washington, in five days, a feat attested by Mrs. Bowen's skill as a driver. She spoke particularly of the comforts of the western tourist camps."

The lower grades of the Saugatuck school have such an unusually large enrollment this fall that another teacher, Mrs. V. Partridge, has been engaged to care for the beginners. She was an instructor at Camp Orchard, near Holland, a girls' summer camp, the past summer.

The Grand Haven city council authorized the purchase of 1,000 feet of snow fence to be used in places where drifting snow makes it difficult to clear roads. A second hand truck will be rigged up to clear the sidewalks and entrances to Harbor ave. and on to the oval, which will be cleared except in extreme weather.

The platform was used so merchandise could be more easily unloaded from wagon or loaded as the case might be. As the time states these stores were leveled with the street.

Ottawa County In Line For Better Health

$1000 WILL BRING COUNTY
$6000 IN HEALTH DIVI-
DENDS

Board of Supervisors in Position
to Make This Possible

The Ottawa County Health Department with the co-operation of many of the prominent women from different communities in the county are backing up a proposal that will mean considerable more money to carry on health work in the different communities of Ottawa.

This is not a new measure but has been brought to the attention of the public before. A few months ago Dr. William H. Pickett of the State Board of Health was in Holland and spoke at Warm Friend Tavern on health measures and the matter of enlarging the scope of public health work was gone into in detail. Dr. Guy Keefer, before his death some time ago, also made this plain to the health authorities of this county and Dr. Keefer, as we all know, was considered one of the nation's greatest health exponents.

The plan of which Ottawa County can avail itself is this: It now has a budget of $5,000 for health work in this county which pays for a county nurse and a great many necessities in health work. According to the state department, if the Board of Supervisors will add to this appropriation an extra $1,000, making it $6,000, then Ottawa County is entitled through this expenditure, first $500 from the United States Public Health Service, $2500 from the Rockefeller Foundation and $3000 from the State Board of Health. It is shy just $1000 at the present time to get $6000 more which is available at any time. Surely a wonderful public investment and it would enable the Ottawa County nurse to see it in this light and make the added appropriation of $1000 at the October session of the board possible.

The Ottawa County Health Department, although a very efficient organization, could be made still more efficient at an added cost of $1000 for under this new arrangement the county would benefit the same as if a more expensive service were in vogue.

With the $6000 appropriated and the $6000 added through these different sources, making $12,000 in all, it would put Ottawa County's health unit in a class by itself, comprising one trained medical health officer, two public health nurses and one clerk.

It must be remembered that this extra appropriation is only available if the county comes fifty-fifty with the national and state boards of health and the Rockefeller foundation. The fifty-fifty plan cannot be given a $5000 appropriation but only on a $6000 appropriation and that is true in Ottawa County is true in every county in the state. It virtually means that by paying $1000 more Ottawa County will have $7000 more to spend for health and that surely isn't wasteful money for it makes stronger men and women, relieves suffering, brings happiness in many homes and what is more, the money is spent and circulated in Ottawa County, and while this is the least of the virtues, it isn't lost or wasted but an added financial asset.

Health work is especially needed in the rural districts. Medical authorities stress this fact more and more. Cities such as Grand Haven and Holland have their city nurses and health staff but the country districts are not so fortunate and these folks should be placed in a position to receive the information, the guidance, and the help, if need be, of public health officers and nurses.

While Holland may not be so directly affected, it surely would indirectly, since the Ottawa County health force would be better able to cope with contagious diseases and we all know these are not confined to boundary lines. Holland or Grand Haven would also be free to draw on the experience and help of these county health forces in case of emergency and naturally the co-operation of the city health board and the county forces would be a commendable thing benefiting all.

The special training of the health officer and nurses is provided for jointly by the Rockefeller Foundation and the State Department of Health in Lansing. These courses last for 12 weeks and if the applicants for a course are accepted by the training school and they are not receiving a salary or any other compensation while taking the course, their expenses will be defrayed, allowing $5 a day for health officers, and $3 a day for nurses for seven days of each week.

Mrs. G. J. Diekema, wife of the minister to the Netherlands, has been an energetic worker, sponsoring better health measures and especially this added avenue for funds. Others back of this movement are Mrs. James McLean of Holland; Mrs. George Van Duren, former head of the Red Cross; Mrs. Mabel Vandenberg, present secretary of the Red Cross of Holland; Mrs. McNet, chairman of the Ottawa County Red Cross; Judge of Probate James Danhof; John F. Van Anrooy, chairman of the Ottawa County Board of Supervisors; Attorney Charles Misner of Grand Haven, also city attorney; Mrs. H. Den Herder of Zeeland; Mrs. Lee Lillie of Coopersville; Dr. William Weststrate, city physician of Holland; Mr. Henry Bosch, health inspector of this city; Dr. Addison, Grand Haven; Dr. Stickley of Coopersville; Mrs. Myrtle De Groot of Hudsonville; Mrs. David Warren of Grand Haven; Mrs. Geo. Alberts county school commissioner Gerrit Groenwoud of Holland and many others in the different communities about the county.

Folks in this county have just begun to realize what a wonderful investment $1000 will bring and if

TODAY 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF HOLLAND FIRE

Today, Thursday, is the 50th anniversary of the Holland fire when practically one half of the city was destroyed and one life was lost, namely that of Mrs. Tolk who perished in her little home on West 9th street. The fire was blown into the city from forest fires raging to the south and west of Holland. The anniversary of the Chicago fire also falls on the same date.

On October 9, 1871, a fire broke out in the city of Chicago, which proved very disastrous. The origin of the fire was believed to be through the kicking over of a kerosene lantern by a cow owned by Mrs. O'Leary. The results of this great conflagration was the snuffing out of 200 lives. Also 100,000 were rendered homeless. Over 2,000 buildings were burned while there was a loss of $200,000,000, only one-half were covered by insurance.

Case of Zeeland Firm Upheld By Supreme Court

HAS TO DO WITH LOT LINES AND OLD TIME FENCE

After a long-drawn-out legal battle another Zeeland man has come out victorious in the supreme court of Michigan, namely, John Wichers.

The case in question involved the old Ralph Wagenaar property on East Main street at the South Maple Street intersection. This property was sold for taxes and was bought in on a tax title by one W. C. Foster of Chicago.

After receiving his title about three years ago, Foster found upon measuring the ground that the deed called for more ground than he could measure, so he promptly set out to legally push over Mr. Wichers' "line fence" and take in a few buildings in the bargain.

The case was won by Mr. Wichers in circuit court at Grand Haven when it held that the Wichers Lumber Co. had title to that property by adverse possession, and the supreme court has now affirmed the decision of circuit court.

The actual measurement between the Wichers lumber shed and the west line of Maple street is only 119 feet, 30.7 feet short of the deed given Foster by the Auditor General.

The supreme court states in its decision, "There is no difficulty in locating lot 11 or the east 28 feet of lot 12. There is no doubt that the boundary line between the two descriptions is not where it ought to be but the Wichers Lumber Co. insists that its present location was established thirty or forty years ago and has been lived up to continuously since that time, that it was marked by a board fence which was torn down 22 years ago and a lumber shed built by the Wichers Company has stood where the fence stood since that time and no questions asked nor was there a dispute as to the property during all these years."

According to the Supreme court: "The evidence supports this contention. The line as evidenced by the fence and later by the lumber shed has been treated as the correct boundary line by adjacent property owners for more than the statutory period. It cannot now be disturbed though the surveys show it is at variance with the true line. As title to the disputed portion of land bounded by the present line was acquired by the Wichers Company by prescription before the plaintiff received his deed from the Auditor General, possession cannot now be disturbed. The decree of the trial court is affirmed."

ZEELAND EXCHANGE CLUB WILL HAVE HON. G. J. DIEKEMA OCTOBER 20

Zeeland Record—On October 20, the Hon. G. J. Diekema, United States Minister to the Netherlands, will be the guest speaker of the Exchange Club. It surely is a great privilege to have a man of his standing as a guest and all the members are eagerly awaiting the meeting date.

The club, realizing that many would like to hear Mr. Diekema, has decided to permit any wishing to attend this meeting.

Monday evening the Club had the privilege of listening to Mr. George Cabell, who recently returned from Ireland, and told the Club of the conditions abroad and things he had seen on his trip which was of much interest.

HOPE SQUAD GOES TO ALBION FRIDAY

Coach Jack Schouten of Hope college is drilling his squad for the first M.I.A. clash at Albion next Friday night. The squad is improving in both offensive and defensive work in the scrimmages with the frosh.

Schouten's first string lineup includes: Center, Capt. Brunson; guards, Painter and Leenhouts; tackles, Norlin, Zwerner and Wynagaarden; ends, G. Wiegink and Beaver; quarterback, Dalman; halfback, Slighter, Poling and Van Hattama; fullback, Tyse and Oosting.

Rev. Herman Maassen of Shelbyville will preach in the North Holland church all day Sunday. Mr. Maassen has been extended a call from this church.

Look for the cooking school announcement to be held in the Armory next week. Full details are given on page 4 of this section. These cooking schools have proven very popular when held before.

health is better than riches and such a bargain is available, then it would seem that the Board of Supervisors will give this matter their earnest consideration and see their way clear to act favorably on this seemingly extra small appropriation considering the great benefits that can be derived,

Holland Fair Situation Far From Settled

AT LEAST 75 MEN WRESTLED AND WRANGLLED AS HOW BEST TO HANDLE IT

At least 75 citizens including officers and directors of the Holland Fair, members and citizens who had been active in that enterprise, gathered in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Wednesday evening in order to find out just what condition, financially and otherwise, the fair is in.

As stated in the Holland City News a few weeks ago, the fair is in debt approximately $35,000. To offset that there is 28 acres of land practically in the city limits and buildings which if duplicated would cost $75,000 to build. There is a $3,000 wire fence around it and other accessories besides buildings and grounds.

The fair went "in the hole" better than $5,000 this year and the officers and directors who have signed notes and bonds at the banks and are responsible for the bills outstanding want to get from under such a situation. They want the affairs of the Holland fair straightened out; they want the indebtedness liquidated by disposing of the fair property

CONSIDER, NOW, THE TREE

A surprising feature of this year of agricultural dearth, especially in the vicinity of Holland, is the fruit crop. In fact, this is true everywhere in Michigan and even in the districts where drouth was most prolonged and devastating, there is fruit. There are orchards loaded with big, rosy apples where the lawns and meadows and the very orchard grasses are parched and brown. There are peaches and grapes and pears in fine display at every roadside market and at the gates to farmyards and orchards, tempting the passing tourists.

What wonderful resources has the tree. It is a poet with a smattering of scientific knowledge who said the visible, above-ground tree is but the tail of the huge organism that reaches out far and wide beneath the soil. How vast are the resources of these giants as compared with that of the smaller vegetable fry that open mouths for daily fill of rain and dew, and, failing this continual refreshing, go dormant or die outright.

But the trees go down to the perennial sources, to the general level of waters which conserves the rainfall of the summers and the snow meltings of the winters and changes but little from year to year. And out of this great abundance the trees bring the tons of moisture for their sap, their life blood, and for the juices with which they enrich their fruits.

MERCHANTS HAVE SHORT BUT IMPORTANT MEETING

The first Holland Merchants Association meeting after a vacation of four months took place Tuesday evening and because of the steady downpour, the first real rain in six months, the attendance was very small. The merchants put their foot down on advertising schemes such as cook books, blotters, hotel registers and many programs. They find that the prices on this manner is tremendous and the benefits are questionable.

In the future all solicitors for scheme advertising must submit their proposition to the secretary of the Holland Merchants' Association and he in turn will submit it to a committee of three for approval. If not approved there will be nothing doing as far as the merchants are concerned.

Manager "Gene" Ripley was given praise as was his company for the excellent phone service that Holland now enjoys, at least one member said that it seemed like a benediction after years of inferior service because of old equipment.

HOLLAND MAN SAVES CHILD FROM HARBOR

Jack Bos, secretary of the Holland Lumber & Supply Co., proved himself a real hero when he dived into 20 feet of water in the channel at Holland harbor and rescued Stewart Lee Baker, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker.

The child fell into the water while playing on the pier and his plight was noticed first by Mrs. Peter Smith, whose screams attracted Baker and Bos, while the men were talking together on Baker's houseboat.

ANIMAL DOCTOR COMING TO OTTAWA COUNTY

Dr. Killham, animal disease specialist from the State College, is visiting eight Ottawa county herds Thursday and Friday in company with agricultural agent Milham. His work in the county is to demonstrate that contagious abortion in dairy herds may be eradicated and prevented. Blood samples are to be taken at regular intervals and sanitary measures taken by co-operators in eradication of the disease. Herds cooperating in this program are located in Crocker, Polkton, Wright, Tallmadge, Georgetown, Jamestown, Zealand and Blendon.

HOLLAND FOUNDER OF MIS- SION UNION IS AGAIN HONORARY PRESIDENT

Mrs. John A. Dykstra of Grand Rapids was re-elected president of the Woman's Missionary Union, comprising the Grand Rapids, Holland and Muskegon churches in the Reformed Church in America. Other officers elected are: Vice-presidents, Mrs. Richard J. Vandenberg of Zealand, Mrs. B. De Young of Muskegon, Mrs. Philip Meegs of Holland; secretary, Mrs. C. H. Spaan of Grand Rapids; treasurer, Mrs. John N. Trompen of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. C. V. R. Gilmore of Holland, organizer of the union and its president for 30 years, is honorary president.

The next conference will be held in First Reformed church at Zealand.

Offerings for missions totalled $525 and a special hospital fund $200.

The annual conference was held in the Reformed church at Coopersville. The three sessions were attended by unusually large audiences.

Edna Boyd is taking a post-graduate course in shorthand and type in the afternoon. She attends Hope college in the morning—Marion and Orange.

The President's Speech
$27 a Day for All
Better Than Gold
Germany Does Something

The President's optimistic view of the near future, backed by sound facts and figures, should comfort many doubting Americans who thought the world had come to an end when violent stock gambling produced its usual result.

Particularly important in the fact, usually forgotten, that this nation consumes 90 per cent of all it produces. If tomorrow the people of the United States, consumers and distributors, should resume their normal purchasing, instead of holding back in a vague, foolish fear, our prosperity conditions would immediately become 97 per cent of normal.

Americans now hoarding, they know not why, should remember that the 1930 dollar will do almost twice the buying-work of a 1929 dollar. By now, the dollar's 1930 value will not endure.

If Henry Ford's latest prediction becomes reality, this country will consume all it can produce, and more, barring, perhaps, superfluous food products. And if they can be produced as cheaply in proportion as our automobiles are produced, our farms could undersell the world, as our automobile and moving picture factories do.

Mr. Ford predicts a minimum pay for workers of $27 a day by 1950, the five-day week to be universal, giving the $27 a day man leisure to enjoy his earnings, automobile, radio, etc.

To many that seems preposterous—almost criminal. But not long ago there was only one man in the United States that could earn a dollar a day the year round. The increase from one dollar a day for one man only, to six dollars a day, and more, for millions of men, would have seemed as "impossible" as the increase that Mr. Ford suggests from six dollars to twenty-seven.

Discovery of a gold mine containing two or three billions of dollars in gold would be welcome news, financing the world more strongly on a gold basis.

Discovery of a mine containing millions of tons of pure copper would be of great value to industry, although it might upset stock prices.

But no mineral discovery could be as welcome, or as important as the discovery just announced, of huge radium deposits at Wilberforce, Ontario.

These deposits are said to be greater than those owned by Belgium in the Congo, hitherto greatest in the world.

Germany proposes to meet the crisis of extreme radicalism on one hand and threat of Fascist leadership on the other by action.

Rigid economy will reduce national expenditures by a billion mark.

It is even suggested that General Von Hindenburg's pay be reduced.

We have no money worries here, with money to loan a drug in the market. We seem to lack the energy that does something, or anything. We are like a poor old lady, dispossessed from her property lodgings, weeping on the sidewalk, not knowing what to do.

The very Hitler reminds you of the saying that if a man doesn't go too far, he never goes far enough. He has gone far enough.

He not only threatens to impeach Hindenburg but proposes to conquer Russia, "because Germany needs more territory for expansion."

A large, Bolshevik bear in Moscow will have something to say about that.

George M. Reynolds, head of the big Continental Illinois Bank and Trust company of Chicago, ended his fiftieth year in banking with this sensible and comforting statement:

"Depressions don't kill people. We are recovering from the depression faster than we appreciate. There is nothing fundamentally the trouble with this country. In a few months the volume of business will startle the nation by its size."

One thing write down and remember for future reference. This is the time to buy good stocks, if you have money to buy and will not be frightened away from them. But no time is good for gambling.

Simple-minded red men sold Manhattan Island for $24, not suspecting how that island and land adjoining across the East river would develop. New York city, with more than 7,000,000 population, has real estate assessed at $19,700,000,000 which means that it is worth at least $30,000,000,000. That is impressive, and interesting.

Impressive and worth remembering is the fact that if the Indians had put their $24 out at 6 per cent, with compound interest they would have enough money now to buy Manhattan Island several times over.

The difficulty is that you can't make that sort of compound interest investment, whereas you can buy a good piece of real estate, take care of it, and later have it take care of you.

HOLLAND FOLKS ABROAD

Mr. and Mrs. John Fryer have returned from a two-week Canadian trip—Robert Klaasen has left for Florida where he plans to stay for an indefinite period of time.

TRINITY CHURCH STILL WITH- OUT A PASTOR

Trinity Reformed church, Holland received with disappointment Sunday the decision of Rev. Henry D. TerKeurst that he felt impelled to continue the pastorate of Bethany Reformed church at Grand Rapids, which he has served three and one-half years.

HOLLAND WOMAN SUFFERS BROKEN HIP IN ACCIDENT

Mrs. Nicholas Hofstee of Holland received a broken leg and hip in an automobile accident near Bridgeman and is now languishing in a St. Joseph hospital while her husband, Nicholas Hofstee, was injured in the back and in his neck.

Mr. and Mrs. Hofstee were returning from Chicago where they had taken their son, Lester, who is a student in dentistry at Loyola College. Upon reaching a point near Bridgeman their car skidded and left the road and turned over in the ditch, on last Thursday evening at about seven o'clock.

HOLLAND TEACHERS TO BE GUESTS AT W.C.T.U. MEET

Mrs. Elizabeth Perkins, nationally known child welfare worker, will be the principal speaker at a meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to be held in the Woman's Literary Club rooms this week Friday evening.

The meeting will begin at 4:30 and a pot-luck supper will be served. The Holland teachers will be special guests. An exhibition and sale of Japanese art will be in charge of Mrs. Stephen Karsten before and after the supper.

PROBEL PARENT-TEACHERS MEETING HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

The Parent-Teachers' meeting of Froebel school was held Tuesday evening. The meeting was called to order by William Brower, president, and Prof. C. Kleis of Hope College opened with prayer. The community singing was led by Leon Moody. Dr. Leenhouts, the principal speaker of the evening, described scenes of the World War fields and his reaction to them.

William Arendshorst, Henry Geerlings, George Mooi and Fred Beeuwkes, members of the Board of Education, also spoke. Refreshments were served by the mothers of the sixth grade pupils.

LOCAL RESIDENTS ARE IN- STRUCTED TO DO AWAY WITH DANGEROUS MAIL BOXES

Orders have come from the U. S. Postal Department at Washington, D. C., that all those using cheap tin letter boxes are instructed to substitute in their stead a more substantial letter box or mail slots in their door. The department prefers the mail slot in the door but galvanized iron boxes or boxes with protected edges are satisfactory.

The tin boxes now in use in many homes are dangerous because of their sharp edges and many cases of carriers cutting their hands have been reported.

Many New Faces In High School Band Organization

The Holland High School Band has the largest enrollment in its history; and although nothing definite has been decided about the uniforms, a good showing is expected at all public appearances. The boys not only lack good uniforms, but also instrumentation. They hope, however, that in the near future there will be provided the instruments needed to form a good symphonic band.

Thirty-four clarinets are enrolled; eleven boys play saxophones; two girls and eleven boys make cornets speak; nine handle the slide trombones; altos, baritone, piccolos and basses are two or three a piece; and seven is the perfect number of drums and traps.

MRS. G. J. DIEKEMA HONORED GUEST AT WOMAN'S LIT- ERARY CLUB PROGRAM

Warm Friend Tavern's Dining Hall was filled to capacity Tuesday when the members of the Women's Literary club staged a banquet honoring Mrs. G. J. Diekema, wife of the Minister to The Hague.

The decorations were pleasing and there was an atmosphere of good will pervading the entire gathering.

Mrs. Diekema was at her best and impressed her audience when she gave a resume of life as she saw it in The Netherlands.

Mrs. Diekema pointed out that the feminist movement is just beginning over there; that very few women do anything out of their own homes. A woman's club is now organized at The Hague which she has attended, and although it was a pleasant occasion, she noticed that the Dutch women who are very gracious in their homes, do not conduct themselves easily in public meetings. Patriotic women have few home duties except to attend to their best china and dishes, and take care of the linen closet. Servants do all the other duties, ex-ride carrying two children, one fore and one aft. Men deliver all sorts of produce, even bureaus and couches, on their handle-bars. Milk carts carry shining brass and copper urns with spigots to fill dishes brought out by the maids. The immaculate window curtains are framed by bright colored shutters on every house, and the doors have peep-holes through which notes are passed. Mirrors are arranged on the inside of windows for the convenience of those within and maids in gay colors are out daily washing the windows and doorsteps. The little shops display all their wares in the window, making it really worth while to do window shopping. Shabbily dressed people are seen gazing at a beautiful painting in a window, showing the old world love of culture.

The Diekemas were invited to a society wedding when the daughter of the Grand Mistress of Court was married. Mrs. Diekema described the lovely decorations in the church and the clothes worn by the wedding party, as well as the regular church service including psalm-singing, prayers, and even two collections, instead of the usual four. After the ceremony 250 guests adjourned for a wedding breakfast of an overwhelming array of food, served at little tables by many waiters. In The Netherlands the wedding reception is held two weeks before the wedding. Reception guests send flowers and those invited to the wedding-breakfast send gifts. Flowers from 2000 people made a most gorgeous display; those sent by the queen were white roses in the form of a fountain. Free weddings are performed every Wednesday at The Hague and this custom brings out a great many people around the official offices on that day. Cars and horse drawn coaches are seen covered with flowers awaiting the bridal parties, who are gay in their lace capes and shawls.

While Mrs. Diekema stated that she loved living in Europe, that she loved America more. She stated that folks in Europe are not keyed to a high pitch like in America but took their time to work, took their time to live and took their time to be happy. The competition, too, is less keen than in the United States.

"The European children enjoy singing clubs and kite-flying and the young people go off for picnics on their bicycles. They are content with their old possessions; they have time to enjoy a leisurely life, making a little go farther than do Americans, and always saving a nest-egg for a holiday. They have time to think which will help some day to bring the world together in a spirit of friendliness, bent on International Peace," she said.

Personal impressions upon arriving in the old world were entertaining to Mrs. Diekema's audience; the old moss-covered stone wharves, unsanitary conditions in the railroad dining-cars, ancient houses and shops, extremely narrow streets without walks and the absence of frame buildings, she vividly described. The motor-cars keep up a continuous honking of horns until it sounds like huge flocks of geese in the air. Innumerable push-carts are everywhere and bicycles by the score, being ridden by everyone, even nuns, priests and nurses. Old ladies go cycling, as well as young lovers riding side by side holding hands, and mothers cept occasional ordering by telephone. The lady of the house is almost never seen in the shops. She spends her time reading, walking, riding horse-back, playing tennis or golf and studying various languages of which she is usually familiar with at least four. She is well educated in art and music and various other cultures. A very few women are found in the professions and a small number are beginning business careers. There are no Sunday Schools and the church work is all done by the government.

The European women are not as good conversationalists as American women—they have a narrower range of knowledge; but they are more specialized upon a small number of interests. The women of The Hague have organized a Rotary Club and the American women of that city have an American Woman's Club of which Mrs. Diekema is president for the coming year.

ing what these men found at Hartford. In the first place, the directors get no salary. In Holland the special attractions of Hartford $1500. Holland paid considerable more. The admission to the grounds was 35 cents, to the grandstand 35 cents. Three hundred seats were reserved at 50 cents. The entire second floor in the art hall was devoted to school exhibits and one day during the fair all schools in the several counties were closed and it was found that children came from far and near, interested in this tremendous exhibit. High school bands from different schools on different days furnished the music. The present of the fair state that the large cities in the counties each had a day, and each vied with the other as to which could put on the best entertainment. When the Holland committee was there it was Benton Harbor day and the business men of that city gave away $1000 in prizes and folks from Benton Harbor and St. Joe were there in large numbers.

Thursday there were 8000 people on the grounds, Friday there were 12,000 and Saturday there were 8,000. According to the secretary the treasurer was given a salary of $50 a year and the secretary $1200 a year. They had a "nest egg" in the bank of $2000 for emergency and they expected to make at least $2000 more this year.

There were many home concessions in fact, most of them were. They had little patience with concessionists who gambled on the side or did not give customers value received. These were closed up quickly and no amount of pleading for another chance was listened to. They were done for that year at least. Four of them were closed up during the visit there.

There were only a few things brought out by Mr. Vandenberg as observed by the Holland men. A race card was never scripped on but remained of a high standard.

Other men who spoke at Wednesday's meeting were Jack Knoll, "Bill" Easton, Mayor Earnest Brooks, who was seeking information rather than giving advice, B. A. Mulder, Ben Bouwer, Carl Swift, Dewey Jaarsma, and many others.

Austin Harrington presided over the meeting and it was apparent from the first that the directors had their minds made up to unload. They protested against postponing the matter until it could be found out whether other men would shoulder the burdens. After considerable talk they reluctantly consented to give these men no inclined one more week to put this over and if satisfactory arrangements to assume the indebtedness and management was not made by that time it is understood that then the board of directors will present the proposition to the city of Holland as the next step in the proceedings.

The committee appointed to take up this matter are John Arendshorst, chairman, William C. Vandenberg, and Mayor Earnest C. Brooks.

The young man also intends to write a book soon he says, and hopes to receive considerable encouragement from the publishers. It is a narrative that has to do with war and that subject is broad in scope, leaving plenty of room for adventure and romance.

Van Andel states that he has sent several contributions to book critics and publishers but up to this time has not heard from them. He invites a visit from other writers in the same field so they can exchange confidences and swap experiences.

HOLLAND DIVINE SPEAKS AT CHURCH CORNERSTONE LAYING

Ganges Folks Build Church on Ruins of the Old

Motorists going over US31 beyond Saugatuck Sunday might have seen a large gathering at the roadside devotedly participating in religious exercises on the foundation of a partially built church.

Sunday afternoon was the time set aside for the laying of the cornerstone of the new Methodist Episcopal church at Ganges, taking the place of the one destroyed by fire some two years ago. This M. E. church was established at Ganges in 1865 and this date was inscribed upon the cornerstone together with 1930, the year in which the new edifice was erected.

Dr. J. C. Willits, pastor of the M. E. Church of Holland, was the principal speaker of the afternoon and he in this discourse pictured the great divide that a church pays to those who invest in them. He paralleled this thought with the experience of an intimate friend of his in a western community. Promoters had come to him asking him to invest in a new civic enterprise. The man in question dismissed them by saying he had just invested $12,000 in a new church in the community. He was told that by investing in this enterprise he could continue his church benefactions from the dividends derived. A compromise was made whereby the $12,000 remained in the church and $1,000 was put into the enterprise. In one year Dr. Willits states the enterprise went on the financial rocks, but the $12,000 has been paying dividends these many years in soul saving, in community uplift, in education and in betterment of a community and will continue to pay dividends many more years to the glory of God.

He spoke of another incident in another community where in the school only mediocre teachers were hired. This phase of economy was also reflected in the church. The community heads felt they could pay no more for education or salvation and these three men, although hard pressed for funds, took from their own to pay the difference for the very best. This was a great many years ago and this ground work started by these three God-fearing men has been reflected in later years as coming from that community.

Dr. Willits pointed out that because of these better educational and religious environments, better men and women have gone out from that community, many of them now in the halls of Congress, not a few of them preaching the gospel of God's kingdom, and a score of editors who are educating the people in different parts of the nation through their respective journals. The seed for this far-reaching influence was sown by these three men.

He brought this message to the people of Ganges, telling them that they too had made great sacrifices, that collectively they had joined hands and had invested in a new church edifice that was bound to bring them similar dividends. They had rebuilt a church that had left its mark for good on the entire community and that its influence was felt far beyond its immediate confines.

In conclusion he said: "It is a splendid sacrifice on the part of the citizens of Ganges and vicinity, and may be blessing of the Lord come unto you, one and all, and on the splendid work that you are doing here."

The program was interspersed with music and singing. Rev. J. H. Rayle, pastor, being in charge of the exercises. After the program the congregation and others participating in the meeting gathered around the cornerstone where Rev. Clark S. Wheeler, D.D., of Grand Rapids, Mich., district superintendent, and Dr. J. C. Willits jointly read the church form as this relates to cornerstone laying of churches of that denomination.

Rev. Rayle placed the copper box in the stone containing the church rules, program of Saugatuck Centennial, history of the Ganges church, of the Ladies' Aid Society, and the Sunday School enrollment, the program of the day and copies of the Fennville Herald and Saugatuck Commercial Record. The mason work at the laying of the cornerstone was done by Walter Wightman, an official of the church, assisted by his brother, Chester Wightman.

The old Ganges church was burned some two years ago and the members of the congregation have been working diligently and sacrificing much to build even a better church building on the ruins of the old church which was built in 1865. Their efforts have been crowned with success. The foundation has already been laid, the cornerstone has been placed and the spire of a new temple of God will soon pierce the heavens, a gathering place for Ganges and the entire countryside and a reminder to thousands and thousands who pass that way that "God still lives."

The program incident to the cornerstone laying follows: Music by the orchestra. Hymn 275 by congregation. Responsive reading, Psalm 84. Prayer by Dr. Willits. Hymn 276 by congregation. Offertory and announcements. Music by orchestra. Hymn, The Church in the Wildwood, by double quartette. Address by Rev. J. C. Willits, D.D., Pastor M.E. Church, Holland, Mich.

Music by Double Quartette. Cornerstone Laying Ceremony by District Superintendent, Rev. Clark S. Wheeler, D.D., of Grand Rapids, Mich.

ACCEPTS THE BID FOR NEW BUILDING WITH PROVISION ASSURING HOME WORKERS

To protect Grand Haven labor, the Board of Public Works at their regular meeting Friday night ignored the lowest bidder for the construction of the extension to the Municipal Light Plant and gave the contract to R. S. Hauman of Benton Harbor for $22,983, with the provision that Grand Haven labor be employed at a minimum of 40 cents an hour and union masons hired to insure the union scale of wage.

Another provision of the contract was that materials, so far as was possible, would be purchased from Grand Haven dealers. The board preferred to take a slightly higher bid rather than sacrifice any chance of giving local labor employment and for that reason did not consider the bid of $22,000 which was offered by Herrman & Son of Kalamazoo, after they stated it would be impossible for the firm to confine itself to any labor conditions.

The contract price covers the entire building with the exception of the foundation and basement which will be built by the city. A moving crane will be purchased from the Shaw Crane Co. of Muskegon for $1666, which, together with the Diesel equipment, completes the expenditures for the new plant.

The original estimate of about $48,000 for the building may be slightly increased on account of the use of glazed brick for the first 12 feet of the first floor of the interior.

The Grand Haven city council room was filled with overflowing representatives from nine contracting companies from Grand Rapids, Holland, Muskegon and Kalamazoo and two from this city who were eager to get the job.

CASHES WIFE'S CHECKS; HUBBY GETS IN WRONG

Arraigned in the office of the county jail before Justice Fred McEachron of Hudsonville, George Bell of Jamestown was charged with larceny for cashing his wife's check for $32.69. Bell paid back the amount of the check and the matter was settled with costs or 15 days in jail.

The defendant spent the day in jail and the family secured the fine which released him. The check was one given to Mrs. Bell from a creamery in that section and Bell endorsed the check and got the cash.

THE DUTCH FAMILY OF HOPPE GETS PUBLICITY IN BIG NEWSPAPER

The Chicago and Detroit papers are picturing Jan Hoppe and his wife and two children who were in Holland the greater part of three weeks and also visited the Holland Fair. The Chicago American calls him the "Wooden Shoe" driver. The Detroit Times prints a picture of the family in Dutch togs and says: "Jan Hoppe, with his wife and children stop off in Detroit on a world tour in four-year-old American car. Despite his wooden shoes, Hoppe is able to manipulate the pedals of his car with the skill of a veteran driver—as a trial spin proved."

FORMER OTTAWA SHERIFF DEL FORTNEY, INJURED IN AUTO CRASH NEAR CLARE

Del Fortney, formerly of this city, for four years sheriff of Ottawa county, still is in a serious condition at Clare following an automobile accident a week ago three miles west of Mt. Pleasant. Mr.

Fortney suffered cuts and bruises about the head and chest and may yet lose the sight of his left eye.

The accident occurred when, it is believed, John Cox, tool dresser, who was driving the car, fell asleep. Mr. Cox also was seriously hurt and is being cared for at Clare. The men at the time of the mishap were taking tools to a well at Leaton, six miles from Mt. Pleasant.

THOUSAND BIG MOUTH BLACK BASS IN ALLEGAN

Last spring the Rog and Gun club built a dam across the North Side brook near Allegan where it comes down through the hills and planted it with large-mouth black bass fry. These have grown finely until this week when they were placed in neighboring lakes. They had grown to about three inches in length. In a year or two they will be large enough to be taken under the state law limiting length. The club has also this week planted many thousands of such fish from state hatcheries, sixty cans of them.

The state's enterprise in hatching and planting fish has proved to be highly successful, in the great lakes as well as in interior lakes and streams.

MR. HOFFMAN GOT INTO LIME LIGHT

Allegan Gazette—In its account of the Republican state convention the Grand Rapids Herald told thus of a passage in which Allegan's aggressive attorney and Republican had a share in the convention proceedings: "Clare Hoffman of Allegan, in supporting Pulver, declared that while we all appreciated the ability and qualifications of Voorhies, we can't forget the 'crime, bootlegging and racketeering in Wayne.' Immediately Wayne made its presence known. The jeers and the boos broke forth for a few minutes which tickled Clare more than cheers might have. He winked at the press table and waited until it quieted down. Then he went forward with a statement that he was supporting a man who had long been a warhorse of the Republican party, who had many times been promised something and what had been promised. This didn't sit so well in some places, but it gave others a chance to laugh."

Mayor Earnest C. Brooks addressed the Men's Luncheon club at Muskegon Heights Tuesday noon.

Tell How to Kill the Enemies of the Peach

Alabama Moth and Lesser Peach Borer Are Present in Michigan Fruit Belt

Two insect enemies of Michigan peaches are causing considerable damage in State orchards and growers are advised to use control measures suggested by the entomology department of Michigan State College to reduce the losses caused by the Alabama moth and the lesser peach borer. The Alabama moth is a small, clay-colored moth which scrap holes in the skins of peaches to enable it to feed on the fruit pulp. Rot organisms enter the openings made by the moth and the peach decays. The peaches should be picked while they are a trifle green, before they are attractive to the moth, and the picked fruit must be carefully covered to prevent attacks after it is taken from the tree.

The lesser peach borer injures the larger branches and the upper portions of the trunk of peach trees. This borer cannot be controlled by ordinary treatments with paradichlorobenzene but a paint made by mixing one pound of this chemical with five quarts of crude cottonseed oil kills the borers when the mixture is painted upon the infested wood in late fall or early spring. The removal of loose bark and gum from the areas to be treated aids in the destruction. The Alabama moth is a migrant from Mexico and Central America which reaches Michigan in years when spring is early in the tropics and fall is late in Michigan. The insect attacks cotton in the south and the larvae is known as the cotton worm.

HIGH SCHOOL WANTS LARGER LIBRARY

"More room!" is the cry from many of the faculty members in Holland High, especially the librarian, Miss Hazel De Meyer. Two rooms seem imperative—a work-room and a larger reading room for the pupils. The library is open from 7:30 o'clock in the morning until 12:00 o'clock noon, and again from 12:30 o'clock until 4:30 o'clock and often later in the afternoon. From 200 to 250 students every day patronize the library, and the books taken out daily average forty-five. Since the library is a place to work, no talking is tolerated. Classes to teach sophomores the use of the Dewey decimal system employed for cataloguing books will start within two weeks.

GRAND HAVEN IS BADLY TRIMMED

Carrying the Red and Blue colors of South High school to their third straight decisive victory of the current season, Clifford Gettings' well-balanced, smooth-working football machine ran up a 39 to 0 score in trouncing Grand Haven High's eleven at Grand Haven Saturday on Perry school athletic field.

Sept. Hottest Month on Record In Local Bureau

AVERAGE TEMPERATURE IN OTTAWA COUNTY IS 1.9 DEGREES ABOVE NORMAL; HIGH NEAR RECORD

According to tabulations made by W. J. Rice of the Ottawa County weather bureau, September was one of the warmest, sunniest and most summer-like months on record with an average of 1.9 degrees above normal. A high temperature of 82 degrees was within four degrees of the record and only the last four days of the month showed temperatures below summer registrations.

It was the second driest September since 1891 and the precipitation for the past six months ending Sept. 30 was 8.22 inches, making it the driest crop season on record. The normal for this period is 17.94 inches. Measurable amounts of rain fell on eight days of the month. The greatest rainfall in 24 hours was 0.64 inches on the 24th-25th. Thunder was heard on five days of the month and there was an unusually brilliant electrical display on the night of the 25th.

Sunshine averaged 71 per cent compared to the normal of 61. There was no day during the month on which the sun did not shine at least part of the day. There were 11 clear, 12 partly cloudy and seven cloudy days during the month.

Wind movement for the month totaled 7,420 miles or an average of 10.3 miles per hour. This is somewhat above normal. The maximum velocity was 42 miles per hour from the southwest on the 26th. The highest velocity on record for September is 49 miles per hour in 1878. During the thunderstorm on the night of the 25th, a local wind squall hit the east end of the Challenge Refrigerator plant and tore the roof off and portions of the upper walls were demolished. Strong winds prevailed most of the 26th and a tremendous sea developed on Lake Michigan. The barge Salvor, loaded with stone, broke loose from its tug near Muskegon and sank in rather shallow water quite close to the shore. The steel derrick protruded above water. Five lives were lost out of the 14 aboard.

NATIONAL ALL-STARS TRIM ZEELAND, 15 TO 1

The National League All-Stars, led by Freddie Lindstrom, walloped the Zeeland Independents, 15 to 1, at Zeeland Friday. Gladio of the Cleveland Indians pitched the first six innings for the leaguers, with Styles of the Cincinnati Reds behind the bat. Leo Durocher of the Reds hurled the last three frames and held Zeeland hitless and runless.

Durocher, Dreesen and Neis hit home runs for the All-Stars, while Hager clouted a homer for Zeeland's only run. Larry Hyma twirled for Zeeland and "Spriggs" Te-Roller was backstop. The first five men to face Hyma hit safely. There was a large attendance.

Lambert Beuwkes quietly observed his 83rd birthday anniversary Monday at the home of his son, Fred Beuwkes, 112 East Ninth street.

WESTERN MICHIGAN FRUIT GROWERS ESTIMATE FRUIT LOSS AT $1,000,000 AS RESULT OF GALE

Western Michigan orchardists estimate that last week's gale cost them more than $1,000,000.

Thousands of bushels of apples, pears and peaches and plums were either blown from trees or were so badly limb-bruised that they are of little commercial value. Apples on the Grand Rapids and other markets this week were sold at almost any price growers could obtain.

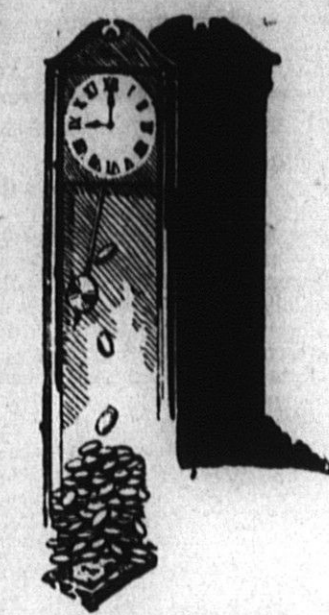

Reports from the country indicated that virtually every apple was blown from McIntosh trees. This variety drops easily. Growers are leaving the McIntosh apples on the ground to color and hope to realize half of the market value of the fruit later in the season. Such winter varieties as Rhode Island Greenings, Baldwins and Northern Spys also fell heavily.

Peaches and plums fell in heavy volume, as those fruits were more matured and were ready to be picked. The drop was heaviest in Gold Drop and Banner peaches, and in Grand Duke plums. The loss in pear orchards was not as heavy as the pears were better able to cling to the trees.

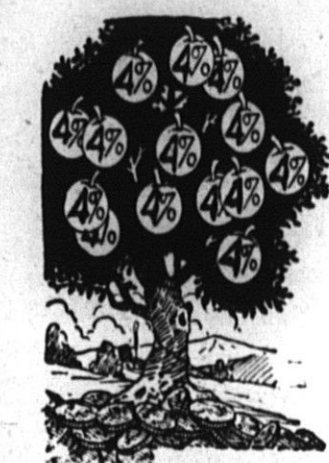

Seasonal conditions were partly responsible for the heavy losses in apple orchards. Winter and fall varieties have ripened two weeks earlier than normal as a result of the warm, dry fall. Many orchardists had just started to pick their Northern Spy, Baldwin and Greening crop when the storm struck. Packing plants were beginning to pack late varieties and indications were the harvest would be completed by Oct. 20.

Since the storm has wind-picked part of the crop, growers expect to complete the harvest by Oct. 15. They are speeding up picking oper-

LESSON TEXT—Luke 2:15-19; GOLDEN TEXT—But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Mary, the Mother of Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Mary, the Mother of Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What Was the Character of Mary?

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—A Mother's Influence.

I. Who Mary Was (Luke 1:26, 27).

She was a Jewish maid of Nazareth. The first information we have of her is that she was engaged to be married to Joseph, a carpenter of the same village. The custom among the Jews was for betrothal to take place a year before marriage. During this interval the woman remained with her parents.

II. Mary Accepted Motherhood at God's Command (Luke 1:26-56).

1. God sent Gabriel to Mary (vv. 26-35).

It was during this interval of betrothal before Joseph and Mary were married that God sent the angel Gabriel to announce to Mary that she was to be the mother of Jesus. More than seven hundred years before, Isaiah prophesied that a virgin should give birth to a son whose name should be called Immanuel—God With Us (Isaiah 7:14). Though at first perplexed, she accepted the announcement with remarkable courage and devotion. To be a mother was the normal desire of every married Jewish woman. Mary accepted motherhood at a tremendous cost. She was conscious of her virgin purity. She knew that to become a mother under such circumstances would expose her to suspicion and shame. This was the view that certain Jews took of the matter, for they cast into the face of Jesus that he was born of a fornication (John 8:41). Her faith was such that she responded with noble courage.

2. Mary visits Elizabeth (Luke 1:39-45).

In her embarrassment she set out on a visit to an elderly kinswoman named "Elizabeth," where she could have the help of a woman of spiritual discernment.

3. Mary's song (46-56).

Having sought the sympathy and encouragement of her friend, her triumphant faith carried her beyond the misunderstanding and shame which awaited her, and caused her soul to burst out in a wonderful song of praise. As pointed out by another, three out of every four character stand out in this song:

(1) Her heart purity.

Only a pure heart rejoices at the nearness of God.

(2) Her humility.

She forgot herself and gave her heart in praise to God.

(3) Her unselfishness.

She did not primarily think of the undying honor which would be attached to her, but the blessing which would come upon future generations through her.

4. The birth of Christ at Bethlehem (Luke 2:1-19).

What Gabriel announced to Mary was now being fulfilled. Caesar's decree concerning taxation brought Joseph and Mary to Bethlehem for the fulfillment of Micah 5:2. Because of the crowded inn, the birth of the world's Savior took place in a cave stable.

III. Mary's Faith in Her Son (John 2:1-5).

1. Her anxiety (v. 3).

The arrival of Jesus and his disciples put a drain upon the resources of the host, for their invitation seemingly came after their arrival at Cana.

2. Mary presents the need to Jesus (v. 3).

The clear implication is that she requested him to embrace this opportunity to present his Messianic claims by working a miracle to supply the lack of wine.

3. Jesus asserts his authority (v. 4).

He respectfully reminded his mother that he had now passed from her authority and that his Father's will was supreme.

4. Mary's confidence (v. 5).

Perhaps as he asserted his authority he gave her a sign by which she understood that he would not fail her in her hour of embarrassment. Accordingly she directed the servants to carry out whatever instructions he should give.

IV. A Dying Son's Thought for His Mother (John 19:25-27).

It is beautiful to note the tender care which Jesus in his dying hour manifested for his mother. He committed her to the care of John. John accepted the responsibility of a son and took her to his own home.

HOLLAND HIGH LOSSES "GRID" GAME TO BENTON HARBOR

A budding Holland 7 to 6 football victory was turned into a Benton Harbor 12 to 7 triumph at Benton Harbor Saturday at Filstrup field, when Capt. Bob Frakes broke loose for 35 yards to score the winning touchdown with less than two minutes to play.

During the last three years the Tigers and Dutch have battled even terms on the gridiron. Benton Harbor having scored its last victory over the Hollanders in 1926 by the narrow margin of 2 to 0. Today's game was the fifteenth gridiron contest between the two schools.

Coach Bud Hinga's club scored its only tally in the first five minutes of play. Capt. Beekman carrying the oval over the 1-yard line after Van Zanden had broke loose with a 38-yard run from midfield to place the ball in scoring position. Van Zanden carried the ball over for the extra point.

Benton Harbor also collected its first touchdown in the opening period with Frakes, Johnson and Armstrong carrying the ball from midfield to the Holland six-yard line on 11 plays. Johnson, 123-pound fullback for the locals, plunged through center for the touchdown. Frakes' attempted place kick was blocked, giving Holland a 7 to 6 lead, which they held until the Tiger captain broke loose in the closing minutes of play.

Only two arrests were made last week for speeding. They were Ed Poest, who was fined $10, and Marvin Schaap drew a fine of $5.

HUNDREDS OF VISITORS ARE ATTRACTED TO HOLLAND BY NATIONWIDE WARD WEEK

Local people are commenting on the interest being displayed by folks from the surrounding country and neighboring towns in the Ward Week Sale now in progress. It is estimated that 6,000 visitors including many from a distance came from outlying communities so far this week.

The big sale at Ward's is, of course, the Mecca of all these visitors, but it is by no means getting all their attention. Local restaurants, theatres, soda fountains, and other stores have been directly and indirectly benefited by the buyers from abroad.

While the Ward Week Sale held last Spring attracted many hundreds of out-of-town visitors, local observers are unanimous in agreeing that Ward's Fall Event is bringing in perceptibly larger number, including many from a distance. Manager Mr. Pierce, of the local store, stated today that he expects the current Ward Week Sale to surpass all the store's previous sales and attendance records.

SPORTING JOIS

HOLLAND HIGH GRIDMEN LOOK FOR CLOSE GAME WITH CRESTON ELEVEN

Coach Bud Hinga is trying to brighten the pessimistic outlook that the fans have taken to the high school team. Holland returns to the home grid this week as host to Grand Rapids Creston. Despite the fact the Maroons have failed to register a victory in three starts, Hinga has a lot of faith in his men. Last Saturday the Hingamen were robbed of a victory by a long run in the closing minutes of play at Benton Harbor.

Stock went up last evening at practice with the return of Pete Boker, veteran guard. He is expected to bolster up the center of the line. Several changes in the lineup were hinted by the mentor this afternoon. Norlin, the other guard, may be shifted to tackle, displacing one of the veterans in that position. Huesing, a sophomore end, is making a game bid for one of the flanks.

Holland respects the ability of the Creston team and looks for a close battle. Creston is the first Grand Rapids team that Holland meets. South, Cadillac and Davids Tech being played before the close of the season. After a game at Muskegon Heights next week, the Hingamen remain home for three weeks with Grand Haven, Davis Tech and South in order.

Mrs. Joe Brower has moved from 54 W. 7th street to Alpena Road. W. K. Watt has changed his residence from Virginia Park to 18 E. 12th street. Richard Berkopas now lives at 155 E. 4th street instead of Montello Park.

The Holland schools have a new English teacher in the person of Mrs. Deckard Ritter who was wed recently to Mr. Ritter of the Hope College faculty. Mrs. Ritter is highly educated, receiving degrees from Newcomb college and Tulane university. She also studied in Paris, France and taught school in the south at New Orleans and Alexandria, La. She is now teaching 10-2 English in the chemistry study room.

Holland is establishing an enviable record as a convention city. The calendar for 1930 listed 13 "annuals," which together brought about 4,500 delegates to this city. Eight of these bodies were materially assisted by the Holland Chamber of Commerce. The conventions assembling here were: Michigan Student Volunteer Union, State Christian Endeavor officers, Holland Furnace Goat, Fifth District American Legion, State Christian Endeavor Union, Michigan Rural Letter Carriers Association, Michigan League of Home Dailies, Guaranty Life Insurance Co., Spanish-American War Society, the National Union of Christian Schools, Christian Reformed Sunday School Association, Cook County Bankers, and the summer conferences at Pine Lodge. The proposed farmers institute will mark the fourteenth for the year. Holland's excellent hotel facilities have proved a strong factor in bringing conferences here.—G. R. Press.

Frosh Victors In Hard Battle At Black River

STUBBORN ENDURANCE NETS FIRST FROSH WIN IN SIX YEARS

Last Friday afternoon, in the annual pull held at Black River, one of the largest crowds ever to attend; saw the freshmen pull the sophomores through the river. The banks were crowded, not only with Hopelites, but with many residents of Holland and vicinity whose interest had been aroused.

At four-fifteen the signal was given to start digging. Each man dug vigorously, some going so far as to take off their shoes and dig with them. After a minute of rest, the gun was fired as a signal to start pulling. For nineteen minutes the men lay holding the rope firmly until with the second shot of the gun they started pulling vigorously. For eight minutes the frosh gained inch by inch. Then for a minute the sophos gained, but the freshmen retaliated and from that time until the sophomores scrambled up the southern bank, the freshmen resisted stubbornly, still pulling after the first man was in the water.

The sophos, although having the advantage of last year's experience, were handicapped in weight, the average weight being one hundred seventy pounds against one hundred sixty. The teams, coaches and judges were as follows:

Freshmen N. Wiggers (C) P. Cuperly (C)
 H. Scholten L. Sereer
 R. Leetsma C. Bauhahn
 J. Bauman D. Koeppe
 F. Vischer D. Gryzen

 D. Vanden Belt A. Norman
 G. Nykerk A. Aradi
 L. Janssen
 G. Van Peurson L. Decker
 I. Waltman E. Waite
 G. Moordyke M. DeJonge
 R. Homkes G. Veldman
 H. DeJonge G. Rottschaeffer
 J. Oldenburg J. Homkes
 J. Nettinga D. Boone

Coaches Freshmen—C. Vander Naald, W. Spoolstra.

 Freshman—C. Walvoord, G. Painter.

Beside those who pulled, credit must be given to the coaches who trained and guided the teams so efficiently, and the girls who, when the men were on the verge of exhaustion, bathed their heads with cold water and fed them pieces of lemon.

Immediately after the pull, the frosh, with the rope, marched down Eighth St., Pine Ave., and Ninth St., gathering in a large circle on each corner and giving yells.

Above the work of the teams, the coaches and the girls, the feature that marked the event was the real Hope Spirit, each man ready to give his last drop of energy for the class. The sophos, fighting to the last minute, took their defeat without one word of alibi.

SNOW DIRECTS CHAPEL CHORUS OF SEVENTY

At the meeting of the chapel choir Tuesday, September thirtieth, work for the year was put under way. There was little business for the president, Anna Buth, to bring up. However, rules and regulations in regard to rehearsals were given and explained by Professor Snow. He promised that the secretary-treasurer, Roger Voskuil, and the four librarians, Anne Jackson, Joan Walvoord, Christian Walvoord, and

Everett Potts would soon have plenty of work on their hands; and he suggested what some of the selections will be a number by Christiansen who directs the famous St. Olaf's Choir. This suggests that a lot of the work this year will be a Cappella and therefore difficult. The choir now numbers over seventy and the complete list consists of Neil Meyer, Lois De Pree, Ruth Weidner, Polly Hondelink, Lois Marsilje, Margaret Steketee, Mildred Klow, Catherine Nettinga, Olga Bender, Laurene Hollebrands,
